

Firing Is Heavy As Troops Storm Defiant Da Nang

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) Heavy firing broke out in this tense city Sunday as Vietnamese marines moved in to seize the local radio station. Machineguns rattled and several mortar shells burst as the marines moved toward the radio station building. The marines were airlifted during the night from Saigon and they swooped down at dawn, seizing the headquarters of the Vietnamese 1st Corps headquarters. Casualties could not be immediately determined.

2 American Servicemen Are Kidnaped

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Reports received here Sunday said an American serviceman kidnaped near Bong Son had been shot and killed by his guerrilla captors. A second U.S. serviceman reported to have been kidnaped was listed as missing.

A U.S. military spokesman identified the first as Pvt. Theodore R. Vance of Eureka, Calif., and said the military had listed him as missing in action. The spokesman had no comment on reports that Vance had been shot.

According to peasants in the Bong Son area, Vance was taken from a vehicle he was riding away, and then shot. Sources investigating the incident said the peasants' reports were considered reliable.

Vance, a member of C Company, 1st Battalion, 17th Regiment of the 1st Cavalry, Alamo, was reported missing.

400,000 Collegians Take Tests Amid Some Picketing, Protests

Amid scattered picketing and protests, nearly 400,000 college students took examinations Saturday that may determine whether they will be called to military service or be allowed to remain in school. It had been feared that demonstrations would be staged at many of the 1,200 colleges and universities where the draft-deferment tests were given. But pickets showed up at only about a dozen test sites.

Expansion Seen for National Economy

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, said Saturday the "immediate prospect for the U. S. economy is for a continuation of the present expansion," but the long-range outlook is up to President Johnson and Congress.

Reuther, in a report to his union's constitutional convention which opens Sunday, said the stimulus to consumer spending provided by the 1964-65 tax cuts has "now largely worn off."

"Whether the economy will slow down, or even to the point of recession, will depend primarily on decisions made in the offices of bankers and industrialists," he said.

"The crucial decisions will be made in the White House and on Capitol Hill."

McNamara's Plan Rejected By Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's renewed effort to revise and cut back the Army Reserve forces got an anticipated rejection Saturday night from the Senate's defense subcommittee.

Charging the Pentagon civilian head with resisting and defying the clear intent of Congress, the Senate panel said McNamara has caused a "serious and dangerous situation" in the economy by his "hard" manpower and created confusion and disorder among the Army's Reserves and National Guard.

Reuther's proposed price-wage review board would be given notice of any price increase planned by a corporation holding a dominant position in any industry. It also would be notified if such an industry felt it had to raise prices because of union wage demands.

Reuther also repeated his call for a guaranteed income for every citizen and for a progressive income tax that would tax those who spend large portions of their incomes for luxuries.

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Dutch geologists have announced discovery of a natural gas deposit "with an important rate of flow" in the British zone of the North Sea.

Area Scout Council Center Is Dedicated

The dedication of the new Scout Service Center for the Snake River Area Council Saturday, a milestone for area Scouting, was itself highlighted by the presentation of Scouting's highest honor, to one of the council's scouts.

Dwight Anderson, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin L. Anderson, Rupert, was presented the Honor Medal for saving the life of a friend who had fallen through lake ice near Rupert in January 1965. The Honor Medal was presented to only 10 scouts in the United States this year, and to only one in the Northwest. The honor was conferred on First Class Scout Anderson by T. E. Roach, president of the Idaho Power Co.

Warsaw Pact Lists Romania As Dissident

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP)—The Warsaw Pact communist's counterpart to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, was reported Saturday to have Romania as a dissident member—just as NATO has France.

Unlike the French, however, the independent communist Romanians have not actually told the Soviet Union and other members they will leave the pact, but they were understood to have told Soviet Communist Party Chief Leonid I. Brezhnev they will resist plans for integration of their armed forces in the Warsaw Pact alliance.

France has informed NATO it is pulling its forces out of NATO's military command.

Informed sources said Romania Party Chief Nicolae Ceausescu said he would Brezhnev in secret talks which ended Friday that Romania considers such integration schemes an infringement of its sovereignty and national independence.

Ceausescu was supposed to have said Brezhnev that Romania has no intention of withdrawing from the pact that it would continue to meet its obligation as an alliance member.

Gemini 9 Astronauts Get Okay for Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Officials, all aspects of the mission were discussed—the rocket, the spacecraft, tracking stations, weather, the techniques of rendezvous and docking, and the "green light" was flashed across the board, a space agency spokesman reported.

It will be the first truly operational flight in the Gemini program, exploring the techniques of rendezvous, docking, and space walking pioneered on earlier flights.

Astronaut Eugene A. Cernan, who is to take a record space walk of 2 hours, 25 minutes during the flight, said in an interview "everything we do, we'll be evaluating new techniques for men in space, both for future Gemini flights and for Apollo flights to the moon."

Stafford, 35, an Air Force lieutenant colonel, and Cernan, 32, a Navy lieutenant commander, spent most of the morning with a team of medical specialists. They were pronounced in excellent condition by Dr. A. Duane Catterton, Gemini flight surgeon.

Both were reported rested and eager for the flight.

In the afternoon the astronauts huddled with a mission review board, a group of key Gemini officials who discussed all aspects of the flight.

The ambitious mission will start at 11 a.m. EDT with the blast of an Atlas rocket to hoist an Agena target satellite into orbit. Gemini 9 will take off at 11:00 a.m. EDT.

2 Countries Ask World Conference

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China and Albania issued a call Saturday night for a world summit conference to outlaw nuclear weapons. They also urged revolutionaries to continue fighting the United States and the Soviet Union, forming the "Russians," agents of imperialism. "The whole world is in the process of great upheaval, great division and great reorganization," said a joint Red Chinese-Albanian communique broadcast by the New China News Agency from Peking. The communique was signed in Peking by Premier Chou Enlai and visiting Premier Mehmet Shehu of Albania. Wednesday, the day Shehu departed and two days after the Red Chinese had exploded their third nuclear device, Albania is Communist China's ally in Eastern Europe in the dispute between Moscow and Peking on how to spread communism around the world.

Senators Ask Revocation of Guidelines

WASHINGTON (AP)—Eighteen Southern senators, appealing to President Johnson "As friends and former colleagues," have urged him to revoke school desegregation guidelines which districts must meet to qualify for federal aid.

The requirement is illegal and certain to hurt "children of all races in the schools who stand in the greatest need of adequate financing," the senators said.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., spearheaded the direct approach to the President, who formerly was the Senate's Democratic leader.

The White House declined comment on the letter.

The guidelines were issued by the U.S. Commissioner of Education to measure compliance with provisions required for federal aid. The law permits cutting off aid funds to those school districts which practice racial segregation.

There was no elaboration on that point.

In the week, Chou announced the United States for rejecting Peking proposal for an exchange declaration that neither power would be the first to use nuclear weapons.

In response, State Department press officer Robert J. McNamara said the U.S. government had turned down the Red Chinese proposal because Washington did not feel the Chinese have a "credible" nuclear power.

Blast Site Excavation Is Completed

MOUNTAIN HOME — Post shot at the site of the Pre-Schooner II crater experiment in the Brumley Desert is now completed. It was reported Saturday by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The detonation of 85 tons of liquid high explosive beneath the surface of the Brumley Desert last September left a crater about 150 feet wide, which has been the subject of extensive study.

The Nuclear Cratering Group of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is now evaluating the site of the post — site trench excavation and continuing to gather additional information.

The chemical explosion was a forerunner of a hydrogen device to be detonated in the same area as a part of the "Project Plowshare," which seeks to find ways to use nuclear explosives for peaceful purposes, such as excavation of a sea-level Panama Canal.

The smaller chemical explosion was set off to determine the cratering characteristics of the rock in the area and to test various tests of nuclear devices have been made in loose sand in Nevada, but have not yet been tested in granite-type rock formations.

The 100-ton hydrogen device — about five times the size of the Hiroshima A-bomb — will be along with one set off in Nevada, the largest nuclear device ever detonated in the United States.

Driver Class To Begin at Rupert School

RUPERT — The summer driver education program will begin June 1, according to Elmer Eddington, director of driver education in the county.

Classes will run from 8 to 10 a.m. daily. Classroom work will be completed by about June 24, with actual driving education to continue for the rest of the summer. Eddington said there probably will not be any July classes this year as in the past, due to anticipated heavy load in June.

Most of the junior high students in the county have been notified of the program through their schools, but Eddington commented that students outside of school, especially workers 18 years or older, may take the course. Anyone interested is asked to contact Eddington at Minto high school.

Instructors for the course include Raymond Anderson, Leonard Hurst, Elmer Eddington, Harold Hurst, Mark Johnson, Glen Maughan and Grover Newman.

Beginning next fall, driver education will be taught in the classroom for a full semester during regular school hours, with a half day of credit to be given for successful completion of the course. Actual driving practice will be held outside of school hours.

German Aide Says Weapons Necessary

WASHINGTON (AP) — West German Defense Minister Karl von Hassel said Saturday if French forces stay in West Germany they must continue to have nuclear weapons to retain their "deterrent value."

The United States has told France it will withdraw the nuclear armaments assigned to the two French divisions and two air squadrons stationed in Germany when these units cease to be integrated under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization next month.

The combat effectiveness, and thus the deterrent value of all NATO units, including the French, depends largely on their nuclear weaponry. Obviously, we are not interested in seeing these factors diminished, said the German defense minister.

Von Hassel also said his country does not want to play a bigger role in the Atlantic alliance because of France's withdrawal from NATO's nuclear structure. Accordingly, he said, his government did not ask that any of the NATO headquarters be moved to Germany, but it would study the issue if requested.

Make Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most members of the House of Representatives think that $300,000-a-year salaries plus allowances are enough and manage to run their offices without dipping into outside income.

Although Congress has taken no steps toward requiring disclosure of members' sources of income, a majority of the representatives say they favor such a law.

These sentiments were reflected in a poll by The Associated Press of a representative cross section of Democratic and Republican members from almost every state. About a third of the 435 members responded, including 100 from the House. Most were wealthy and not-so-wealthy members and those from urban and rural areas.

HAGERMAN — A bond election for additions and improvements on the existing school facilities will be held from 12 to 8 p.m. May 24 with polling places to be the Sportsman Lodge and Prince Memorial Gymnasium.

Two proposals totaling $100,000 will be voted. Included is a $55,000 bond proposal for use in the high school building, which will encompass an addition to the present music room, an addition to the old science laboratory, and a new English department, which will be built on the ground level over the new building.

The science addition will be added to the present high school building, and be between it and the gymnasium, with the English department over it. The old science lab will be used for storage.

Voters can vote separately on the two proposals.

The second proposal, also for $55,000, is for remodeling the grade school, adding a multi-purpose room and hot lunch cafeteria, two new classrooms and two lavatories.

The multi-purpose room will be used for play area. A small classroom will be enlarged in the existing building to make more library space. Some remodeling will be done to the existing gymnasium.

If one of these proposals is approved it will be an increase of 1.45 mill levy to each taxpayer, which would be $1.45 increase in taxation on each $1,000 assessed valuation of property. If both are approved, the total increase would be $2.90 increase per $1,000 assessed valuation. This will be for a period of 20 years.

A public meeting will be held at 8 p.m. May 23 in the gymnasium to explain the proposed bond election to the public.

Hagerman Vote May 24 On Proposals

There is much disagreement among serious students of Cuban politics as to what would happen if Castro were to be assassinated. There does appear to be virtual unanimity among them that there is no organized, meaningful, militant resistance against the bearded Communist leader.

"It cannot be overly emphasized that actual Cuban events do not support optimistic reports on the outside that the government is teetering on the verge of disaster," a Western diplomat says.

Castro did in fact survive an assassination plot, and had five persons sentenced to long prison terms to recruit and train guerrillas.

But the key man—the one who was to pull the trigger—turned out to be such a neurotic, unbalanced individual that it is difficult to believe he would ever have pulled off the job. He put it off for months.

The Cuban economy is in trouble and has been for a number of years. Consumer goods, food, clothing and other necessities items continue to be scarce and Cubans seem to complain more about the situation each day.

But this dissatisfaction cannot be translated to mean a general resistance movement. In the main, most Cubans seem to realize the futility of organized protest.

Castro maintains control with his 150,000-man army and his 150,000-plus police, militia and reserve force.

Despite the claims of Castro critics, most political experts here agree they appear to be little dissension within the Cuban armed forces.

Critics Seek Solons Action In Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Senate critics of President Johnson's Viet Nam course proposed Saturday that Congress take a hand in trying to orient U. S. policies toward peaceful existence with the communists.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., speaking primarily about the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's role in discussion of the Vietnam situation, proposed a "comparing review" of the main strands of world affairs against which the validity of America's objectives and the rationality of her actions must be assessed.

Twin Falls News in Brief

Howard Larsen, minister of the Christian Church in Kimberly, will speak at the East District Christian Men's Fellowship at a dinner meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Twin Falls First Christian Church. About 150 men are expected from Bliss to Idaho Valley.

Reservations may be made by calling the host church or any Christian church in Magic Valley.

The Country Woman's Club will meet at noon Wednesday at Kim's Cafe for a luncheon meeting.

Britain Is Braced for Sea Strike

LONDON (AP) — British seamen began leaving their ships Saturday as the nation braced for a national maritime strike set for midnight Sunday. A prolonged strike would have a disastrous effect on this island nation's economy.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson's labor government will handle off proclaiming a national emergency until after the first few days of the strike, certainly not before the middle of next week, officials said.

William Hogarth, chief of the National Union of Seamen, made off proclaiming that the seamen realized they were in direct conflict with the government and their support.

The strike is regarded by the prime minister and the union as a test case of the government's willingness to control prices and wages.

Castro Has No Worry of Takeover

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro appears to be steadily consolidating his power, giving internal subversion little room to maneuver.

Threat to communist regime. This is the view of experienced political observers in Havana. They discount reports, mainly from outside the country, picturing the Castro regime as in danger.

A number of top-ranking personalities have been removed from official positions, but the number and caliber of those people do not seem sufficient to weaken the regime nor to indicate a trend of internal subversion.

There is much disagreement among serious students of Cuban politics as to what would happen if Castro were to be assassinated. There does appear to be virtual unanimity among them that there is no organized, meaningful, militant resistance against the bearded Communist leader.

Makes Charge

MOSCOW (AP) — Ivestia charged Saturday the U. S. Central Intelligence Agency is using Americans who visit this country for spying.

Ivestia, the government newspaper, said some of these alleged American spies are sent here under the U. S.-Soviet exchange program. It maintained that the CIA emphasizes its put-on scientists because "the CIA is convinced that the United States lags behind the Soviet Union in rocket construction and space research."

Associate instructors were Mrs. Bartie Walker, Mrs. Eldon Stokes, and Mrs. Richard Cameron.

Lyle Riekenberg, student body president announced an all-school picnic to be held Wednesday.

Former Area Teacher Dies In Hospital

JEROME — Irahel O. Davis, 64, died Friday morning at the Veterans Hospital in Portland, Ore.

He was born March 26, 1902, in Iola, Kan., and graduated from Baker University, Baldwin, Kan., in 1924 and did post graduate work at the University of Montana, Missoula. He came to Jerome in 1946 where he taught band and chorus. Mr. Davis also taught at Aberdeen, Multnomah and Plover.

In World War II he was warrant officer with the U. S. Army. He was a member of the Nazarene Church. He was also an antique auto enthusiast and a charter member of the Gooding Regional Horseless Carriage Club, 1964 he retired from teaching.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Jennie K. Davis, Union Town, Kan., and two brothers, Ivor Davis, Jerome, and John Davis, Winter Garden, Fla.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday at the Nazarene Church, Jerome, by Rev. Paul W. Wolstenholme. Final rites will be held in Fort Scott, Kan.

Driver Is Held After Car Crash

John H. Richardson, 21, 830 4th Ave. W., was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his 1956 Ford Ranchero hit a power pole at about 6:40 Saturday evening one mile south of South Park.

Richardson, after leaving the accident, forced a car off the road near the Maverick Service Station on Washington Street. Twin Falls police were called at 6:45 p.m., and they later apprehended Richardson in South Park.

Richardson, who also was charged with reckless driving and resisting arrest, is being held in City Jail.

DEAF-MAN PERFECTS TINY HEARING-AID

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. — A remarkably tiny hearing aid has been perfected by a man who has been hard of hearing for nearly 70 years.

This small device has no dangling cords or separate transmitting units and represents a new and unusual design idea in a product to restore natural hearing.

It was developed especially for those persons who can hear, but can't understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-to-ear" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sound, television and radio at his ear.

Due to the use of miniaturization, the user cost is extremely low. The instrument weighs only 1/16 oz. — it is about the size of a sewing needle — hardly noticeable at all.

Send your name and address on a postcard to TYLEX, Dept. E-23, 3054 Excelsior Blvd., Minneapolis, Minn. You will be sent full information without any obligation whatever.

Sgt. Baumert Is Honored at Rites

Funeral services for Sgt. Brent John Baumert were conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday in the LDS Church Ward by Bishop Claude Brown Jr.

Soloists were Harold Luker and Richard L. Brown. Glenn C. Felder, Special Forces, and Glen Sheen were speakers.

Pallbearers were Byrd Galay, Donald Ficker, William Metcalf, Terry Randolph, William Babcock and Eugene Federico.

Military rites were conducted by the 372nd Quartermaster Battalion, under the supervision of Maj. Harlan M. Meyer. Flag presentation was made by S. Sgt. Billie Burgess. Sgt. Baumert's escort, Layton Severson, was bugler.

Final rites were held in Twin Falls Cemetery.

Driver Is Held After Car Crash

John H. Richardson, 21, 830 4th Ave. W., was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his 1956 Ford Ranchero hit a power pole at about 6:40 Saturday evening one mile south of South Park.

Upgrading Of Hospitals Is Favored

SUN VALLEY (AP) — Idaho can reap full benefits from the federal Medicare program, the State Board of Health was told Friday, but only if its state hospitals are upgraded.

Board member J. Grant Bickmore of Pocatello called for better staff, personnel and building improvements.

Such action would meet accreditation standards set up by the American Medical Association and the U. S. Public Health Service, he said.

If state hospitals are not accredited, Bickmore said, patients could not be covered by the Medicare program and payment to the state would continue to be required.

Idaho's only accredited hospital is the State Tuberculosis Hospital at Gooding.

Three mental hospitals at Blackfoot, Orofino and Nampa are not, although they qualify for hospital licenses under Idaho law.

Bickmore reported on potential effects of the Medicare program in closing sessions of the board's two-day meeting.

Death Takes Mrs. Harding

BUHL — Mrs. Edna W. Harding, 82, died 12:30 a.m. Saturday at the Harrell Nursing Home of a long illness.

She was born Nov. 8, 1874, at Sibley, Ia., and was married to George M. Harding in January, 1893, at Sibley. They moved to Buhl from South Dakota in 1912 and farmed southwest of Buhl until they moved to Oregon in 1932. He died in December, 1960. She moved to Buhl two and one-half years ago. She was a 50-year member of the Buhl Chapter No. 28, O.E.S.

Surviving are four sons, Roland O. Harding, Buhl; Clarence A. Harding, New Plymouth; Wilton Harding, Kamiah; and Lloyd Harding, Payette; two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Matthews, Loveland, Colo., and Mrs. Hazel Miracle, Pasco, Wash.; nine grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Two sons, Waldo Harding and Floyd Harding, also preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Albertson-Dickard Funeral Chapel by Rev. H. B. Thomas, Holliester, Presbyterian Church. Eastern Star ritualistic services will be by Buhl Chapter No. 28 under the direction of Mrs. William G. Baggs, worthy matron. Friends may call at the funeral home from 1 to 8 p.m. Monday and from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Tuesday. Final rites will be held at the Buhl Cemetery.

Beaver Will Head Farmer Committee

HEYBURN — Hylak Beaver was named chairman of the Farmer of the Year committee Thursday evening during the Emerson Grange meeting.

Committee members include Roy Marquess and Fred Hukill. The committee's first task is to nominate a candidate to be sponsored by this Grange during the county wide contest.

Martin Muecke, overseer, conducted the business meeting. It was decided that the Grange would provide $20 for a scholarship to the 4-H Club Congress to be held in June at Moscow.

Mrs. Beaver announced that the State Grange sewing contest will be held May 22 at the Masonic Hall, Burley.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dee Keicher, Mrs. James Horner and Frank Keicher.

Miss Baird Heads Carey 4-H Club

CAREY — Barbara Baird was elected president when the 4-H club with Mrs. Donald Baird as leader organized last week at the Carey School.

Other officers are Jean Stocking, vice president; Susan Cook, secretary; Ina Farnworth, reporter; and Detelene Day, recreation leader.

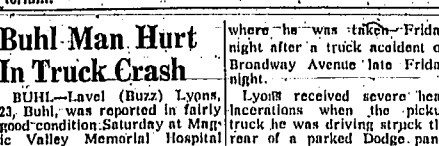

Projects were discussed and most of the members decided to take sewing. Information on 4-H Club Congress was presented by Mrs. Baird.

Becky Day, Mary Ann Hennefer and Diana Sweet were appointed to investigate the possibilities of organizing a local Builders Club for 4-H members ages 14 and over.

The next meeting will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Carey School.

Buhl Man Hurt In Truck Crash

BUHL — Lavel (Buzz) Lyons, 23, Buhl, was reported in fairly good condition Saturday at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital.

where he was taken Friday night after a truck accident on Broadway Avenue late Friday night.

Lyons received severe head lacerations when the pickup truck he was driving struck the rear of a parked Dodge panel truck owned by Woody Gafford, Buhl. Sheriff's officers said Lyons was traveling northwest on Broadway Avenue when the crash occurred about 11:30 p.m.

Eva King, Manone Pope Are Richfield Class Leaders

RICHFIELD — Eva King will give the valedictory address for Richfield High School and Manone Pope, the salutatory address.

Miss King is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell King. Her grade point average was 3.9. Miss Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pope, had a grade point average of 3.68. Dorothy Deeds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Deeds, was another senior with a high point average.

Miss King has been active in basketball and track, acted in the all school and class plays. She was a member of the school chorus, captain of the girls' basketball team, delegate to Tri-State Girls League her sophomore year, and student body officer. She was graduated from LDS Seminary and is a member of a girl's sextet choral group.

Miss Pope was student body vice president this year, class officer four years, acted in the school plays, and was a member of the school chorus, captain of the girls' basketball team, delegate to Tri-State Girls League her sophomore year, and student body officer. She was graduated from LDS Seminary and is a member of a girl's sextet choral group.

The plans were to work on repairing the canal until it was done. Monday evening, however, a light rain made the canal so slick that gravel trucks could not operate. Work had to be suspended until the next morning. Water was turned down the canal Tuesday noon.

Navigation on Primitive Area Given

CAREY — "Sawtooth Valley" was the title of a film narrated by Ralph Clapp, forest ranger at Hiley, when the Carey Valley Rod and Gun Club met last week for the final meeting of the season.

Clapp talked about Idaho's primitive area and forthcoming federal government decisions concerning the area. The meeting will be held June 13-14 at Sun Valley to discuss the primitive area.

A Big Fish contest will be sponsored by the club. It will be from June 16 to October. With a $1 entrance fee, "Prize" will be awarded each month and a grand prize will be presented at the end of the contest.

Leo Lunt, district conservation officer, reported on a meeting held here May 4 at which Fish and Game Department officials discussed improvements for Carey Lake.

Leo Peterson, Leo Peterson and Gale Roberts were appointed to the ticket committee for the Del Roby Show to be held Tuesday at the LDS Church. Wives of members were guests and a potluck supper was served. The next meeting of the Carey Valley Rod and Gun Club will be held in September. It was announced by Milton Bame, president.

WASHINGTON—As relayed by his loyal lieutenant, Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower once asked his secretary of the treasury, George M. Humphrey, "If it were not possible for American businessmen to make some sacrifices in the interest of world peace, in his first-hand report, an account of the Eisenhower Administration's Management Policy are acutely aware that wages have not kept pace with prices and, therefore, the 3.2 per cent guideline must be modified.

But how to modify it without opening the flood gates to new demands is the problem. Ackley referred to the fact that Japan's inflation—showing up clearly in the first three months of this year up 12 per cent, over the same period in 1965. This inflation was the red rag to the raging bull of the unions.

As the Journal's account indi-

Adams reports the following: Margaret Childs

"No," Humphrey replied candidly. "The American businessman believes in getting as much as he can while the getting is good."

"Maybe that's the trouble with businessmen," George, Littlejohnson, said seriously.

The Humphrey candor, reflecting his own capacity as a leading industrialist to get it straight, was not lost on the limited, if steel and autos were omitted—because of special circumstances there is a big upswing—the increase would be 18 instead of 12 per cent. Broken down by separate industries, the gains are even more remarkable. Railroads 20.3, electric and electronic equipment building supplies 42.4, public utility companies 55.7, clothing companies 55.7, airlines 26.3, aircraft makers 25.1, tooling and machinery 38.3.

The AFL-CIO Executive Coun-

The figures are only a bare bones reflection of the discontent within labor's ranks. Automation has worked, thanks in received jointly by the business and labor groups and supplied by big profit margins to replace more and more workers. The profits were being poured into union economies, but only about half the payroll of a few years ago.

The showdown may come in the only big union-industry contract to be resolved this year. General Electric and Westinghouse are in the midst of a five-year new contract demands from unions more united than in the recent past. A strike in August when the present contract expires would dramatize labor's claims to a bigger share in the booming economy. The Wall Street Journal's tabulation showed profits of electrical compa-

Johnson will think it necessary to do so to stop inflation only because the inflation question is full of uncertainty at this moment.

Johnson is known to believe that whether or not the government feels it must take action—like a tax increase to drain off expendable dollars—depends on these main factors:

- Will Congress wind up voting more money than the country can absorb?
- Will Johnson agree or think it good for the economy? Will labor content itself with limited negotiating power?

Taxes are another sore point with organized labor; and if the White House concludes that a tax increase is necessary, there will be a major battle in the Congress.

With the seven per cent investment credit and the change in the depreciation rate imposed under the Kennedy administration, plus the reduction in corporate taxes in the Johnson tax bill, business in the Johnson tax bill, business has had a cut of $7 billion, says labor economists say. A straight-

... demands? And will business be satisfied not to boost prices?

And at this point, despite the increasing buildup of American forces in South Viet Nam, there is some uncertainty about what may happen since there is uncertainty about what the Vietnamese people may do.

That applies particularly to guidelines for profits of divihe Buddhists who reportedly tends.

But what has been happening to GM; with production slowed and the resulting earthquake on the stock market, indicates the edge may be off the boom. Chairman Martin a year ago

Vietnamese over Ky and a new government could make hash of all the American efforts to fight a war against a Communist enemy in the north.

Awards Are Presented at Hospital Fete

RUPERT — Annual presentation of service awards highlighted the commemoration of National Hospital Week at Minidoka Memorial Hospital.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Herman Henschel, who received a pin for 1,000 hours of service in the hospital. Others receiving awards were Mrs. Carl Keely, Mrs. Lynn Manning, 700 hours; Mrs. J.B. Fullwyler, 600 hours; Mrs. Paul Courtwright and Mrs. Harry Workman, 500 hours; Mrs. Ralph Managhan, Mrs. Wilbert Moller and Mrs. Pflughoff, 300 hours; and Mrs. Roland Jones, 200 hours.

Others included Mrs. Torrance Guley, Mrs. Nela Moller, Mrs. Tom Markland and Mrs. Harold Peterson, 100 hours; Mrs. Guy Balles and Mrs. Keith Ebersole, 48 hours.

Thomas Harris, administrator for the Minidoka and Cassia Memorial hospitals, presented the service awards and spoke on the importance of the work being accomplished by the Pink Ladies and the need for help at the hospital.

The Pink Ladies sponsored a tea for members and their guests, as well as residents of the Geriatrics ward and hospital personnel prior to the awards presentation.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Courtwright and Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Carl Keely and Mrs. A. F. Dalley were in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Lynn Manning, newly installed president, presided during the business meeting and asked committee chairmen to set up budgets for the coming year to be presented at the next meeting.

Mrs. Melvin Hardman and Mrs. Richard Ellington were guests of Mrs. Neil Weir. Mrs. Jan Nelson and Mrs. Robert Balch were introduced as new members of the Pink Ladies.

Mrs. Manning announced no regular meetings of the Guild would be held during the months of June, July and August, but members were welcome to attend the executive board meetings which will be held the second Monday of each month.

Mrs. Melvin Pflughoff was named chairman of the puppet gift committee.

Price Raised For Lunches At Richfield

RICHFIELD — Richfield school trustees approved raising the price of school lunches at the May board meeting last week.

The raise will go into effect next fall. Lunches will be 25 cents each for all students with a new ruling that only one lunch can be charged and must be paid for before lunches are again available to the student.

Mrs. Myrtle Riley and Mrs. Sterling King were rehired as cooks.

Grant Havel and Butt Atkins were named to investigate possibility of a parking lot on the north side of the new elementary school, planting of grass, and some new black topping play area.

Purchase of a new bus this summer was discussed, but no action taken. Our new teacher, Charles Butteane, Rupert, has been hired and the district still needs a mathematics combination teacher for the high school and a seventh grade teacher.

SCOUTING'S HIGHEST HONOR, the Honor Medal, is conferred on Dwight Anderson, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin L. Anderson, Rupert. From left are Edson Deal, representing Gov. Robert E. Smylie; T. E. Roach, president of Idaho Power Co.; Scout Andersen, and Robert A. Erkins, Snake River Area Council president. Only 10 such awards for life saving were awarded in the United States this year. ## Carey Youth Earns Eagle Scout Rank

CAREY — Rick Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baird, became an Eagle Scout during a court of honor for Explorer Post 55 and Scout Troop 55 Wednesday night in the LDS Chapel.

"What Scouting Means in the Home" was the subject of a talk given by Ronda Hunt. Rusty Baird, Gary Parke, Dennis Hennefer, Edward Thatcher and Rick Baird presented the U. S. flag. Prayer was given by Dana O'Crowley. Patsy Payne and Vicki Barton played a piano duet.

Merit badges were presented by Robert Adamson, Explorer leader, to Scott Peck, Lee Cook, Alan Orchard, Curtis Rudd, Rand Stewart, John Howard, LaRell Patterson, Monte Stocking, Jerry Rudd and Martin Farnworth.

The bronze palm was awarded Jerry Rudd and Martin Farnworth. Patterson received his Star rank and Monte Stocking was pinned with a Life badge by his mother, Mrs. Boyd Stocking.

Sound Move

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Nora Poole told the police, then the city building department, but nobody would do anything about her problem.

Her house was falling to pieces, brick by brick. "The police said it wasn't in their line. Her insurance man wasn't in. The city building inspector told her to call a contractor, but wouldn't supply a name. Bricks kept falling.

Finally the Poole family just vacated the house, and none too soon. Friday there was a strong wind, and the walls fell down.

Poppy Day Is Set May 23 At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Poppy Day will be observed here on May 23, according to Mrs. Raymond Freeman, chairman of the poppy drive for Shoshone Legion Auxiliary.

Wreaths for Memorial day may be ordered by contacting either Mrs. Harry Stoner, or Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. Freeman reminds local citizens that 20 million Americans pay tribute to the Nation's war dead by wearing a memorial poppy.

Volunteer workers from the American Legion Auxiliary assisted by local camp fire and Blue Bird girls, Girls State delegates and other young women of the community, will be located at various points throughout the city that day to sell the poppies.

All funds go for the assistance of disabled veterans and the children and widows of war dead.

Officers for PTA Council Are Installed

RUPERT — New officers for the Minidoka County PTA council were installed at the regular meeting Friday at Memorial School with Mrs. Harlow Cheney, district four president, as installing officer.

Officers installed were Edward Topf, president; Mrs. Wanda Sillin, vice president; Mrs. Blaine Hodges, second vice president; Mrs. George Grant, secretary; Mrs. Elmore Ploch, treasurer, and Mrs. Hollis McClellan, historian.

Nine members were present for the meeting and discussion was held on the scholarship program. Proceeds from the "Sound of Music" program, presented recently by the council, will go toward a scholarship fund for a deserving student planning to enter the teaching profession. The scholarship will be presented at the annual awards assembly at Minidoka.

A report on the District PTA convention held at Carey was given by the president. He announced the convention next year will be at Twin Falls or Minico.

Doyle Lowder, assistant superintendent of schools, reported night classes are set by the college instructors and the nights they select cannot be changed.

Mrs. Cheney requested the council meetings be held in the evening to enable more PTA unit presidents and representatives to attend.

Voting on the plant facilities levy increase will be from noon until 8 p.m. May 24. It was reported the polling place for the east end of Jerome County will be the Alton Hunsman residence. It was announced a meeting will be scheduled for the council in August before school begins to plan the PTA workshop. School will close May 27 and will resume Aug. 23.

RANGE FEED HURT
BOISE (AP) — Idaho range feed was down 10 percent in April and new growth has been retarded by cool, dry weather for a severe setback, the U. S. Agriculture Department reported today.

LADY GEORGE DIES
CRICETH, Wales (AP) — Lady Megan Lloyd George, labor party member of Parliament and daughter of World War I Prime Minister David Lloyd George, died at her home here Saturday night. She was 84. Cause of death was not disclosed.

ATTEND CONFERENCE
BOISE (AP) — Four top-ranking Idaho National Guard officers planned to leave Sunday for Omaha, Neb., to attend the annual Adjutant General Association conference.

Major George B. Bennett, Idaho Adjutant General, said conference topics include defense policies relating to the Army and Air National Guard, combat readiness and training programs.

Planning to attend with Bennett are Brig. Gen. James M. Trail, Assistant Adjutant General; Col. James S. Brooks, Chief of Staff of the Idaho Army National Guard; and Lt. Col. L. Everett Morrison, U.S. Property and Fiscal Officer.

NOTES BUSINESS CLIMATE
BOISE (AP) — Improved Idaho business climate has increased interest in new capital investment in the state, Bank of Idaho President Joseph Blanco said Saturday.

Blanco said the demand and price for most products grown or manufactured in Idaho are strong and the outlook for the balance of 1966 is promising.

Bank of Idaho deposits total $79 million for all-time highs, Blanco said. He said earnings also are at an all-time high.

FALL KILLS GIRL
POCATELLO (AP) — Linda Hoopes, 14 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hoopes, Pocatello, was killed Saturday about 4:15 P.M. when she fell from a horse.

State Patrolman Loren Wardell said it appeared the saddle slipped and the girl fell from the galloping horse at the intersection of Whitaker and Syphon Roads. She was pronounced dead at the scene.

HARDING SPEAKS
IDAHO FALLS (AP) — America's concern in Viet Nam goes far beyond that small country and its 60 million people, U.S. Senate candidate Ralph Harding said here Saturday.

"The real war in the world," said Harding "is the entire of East Asia comprising a dozen nations, one billion people, tremendous raw material resources, and in the case of Japan, sophisticated modern technology."

Harding said a communist takeover in East Asia would require far greater American sacrifices than those being made in Viet Nam.

Harding, Democrat, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination to challenge incumbent Sen. Len Jordan, R-Idaho.

NAMED TO BOARD
BOISE (AP) — Eugene C. Dorsey, publisher of the Statesman newspaper in Boise, was named this week to the board of directors of Federated Publications, Inc.

The election was at federal ed's annual meeting in Battle Creek, Mich.

Federated owns the Statesman and four newspapers in the Midwest — at Lansing and Battle Creek, in Michigan, and at Lafayette and Marion, in Indiana.

HEAR REPORT
WALLACE, Idaho (AP) — More deep development projects would be the ultimate aim of possible negotiations being contemplated by directors of the Lincoln Mining Co., a report to stockholders indicated Friday.

The directors are reportedly studying the firm's mining agreements, with an eye toward possible renegotiations. This was revealed by C. J. Hamilton of Coeur d'Alene, the firm's president.

MOVE DATE BACK
POCATELLO (AP) — Army Engineers assigned to the Portneut River Flood Control Project said Friday the completion date for the project has been moved back to Sept. 1, 1968.

Completion was set for December, 1967.

Work is scheduled to begin in mid-July of this year. Three summers are probably needed to finish the project, engineers said.

The project calls for five miles of channel straightening through Pocatello.

Engineers say the job will cost about $5 million.

ENDS HEARINGS
POCATELLO (AP) — The Legislature's Senate Committee on Government Reorganization has concluded public hearings in Pocatello and accepted testimony on proposals to streamline Idaho's executive branch of government.

Controversy arose when the State Board of Education, also meeting in Pocatello, appeared to testify against a proposal to centralize most administrative functions involving purchasing, personnel and other operating functions.

The plan would consolidate all administrative functions into 18 departments answerable directly to the governor, and policy-making functions would rest with the legislature.

Salvation Army Week to Be Observed

Zoe Ann Shaub, Twin Falls Probate Judge and chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory board, announced at the monthly meeting that Salvation Army Week will be observed May 22-28.

Judge Shaub said that members of the board associated with other service clubs give presentations of the Salvation Army and its work at club meetings.

State Capt. George Driver, local corps officer, will present the complete program May 26 at the Kiwanis Club meeting.

Welfare chairman Doner Berlich reported 86 transient men assisted, 12 meals provided, 63 lodgings, 24 articles of clothing and 4 gratuities provided during April.

There were 106 applications from local families, with 76 grocery orders, 29 articles of clothing given, and 4 cash grants given.

The finance committee recommended a membership appeal letter be sent to Jerome and Twin Falls county residents.

Rites Honor Mrs. Dalley

RUPERT — Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Amussen Dalley, 70, will be held Friday at the Mindoka Stake LDS Tabernacle with Bishop Glen McBride of the Rupert Second Ward officiating.

R. O. Lofalo, stake patriarch, gave the family prayer at the mortuary and Judson Van Evren, pastor of the First Presbyterian, gave the prayer.

Mrs. Dalley was the widow of John Barlow, who died in 1958. She was a member of the Mindoka Stake LDS Tabernacle and served as organist.

Bishop McBride gave the obituary and speakers include Elder Ezra Taft Benson, Apostle of the LDS Church of the Twelve, and Clark Cameron, Howard Corless and Mrs. Cliff Ward were vocalists and Mrs. Glen McBride gave a musical reading. Accompanist for Mrs. Dalley was Gayle Ralph, Charles Campbell gave the closing prayer.

Flowers were cared for by members of the Relief Society and members of the Bon Poi Club and included Mrs. Henry Manning, Mrs. William Klopfer, Mrs. E. E. Olson, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles, Mrs. Joseph Hansen, Mrs. H. H. Judd, Mrs. Otto Adamson, Mrs. Frank Krievance, Mrs. Vern Murray, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Dave Garner and Mrs. Bert Seadell.

Final rites were conducted in the Aberdeen Cemetery Friday afternoon with Cliff Ward giving the dedicatory prayer.

Practice Starts
SHOSHONE — All boys interested in summer baseball should report to the ball park at 8:30 p.m. May 23. First practice will be held for Pee Wee, Little and Pony Leagues.

The leagues are badly in need of coaches this year and any interested parent is asked to contact Robert Haddock, Roy Burkett or Reid Newby.

Community Concert Drive For Memberships Starting

The Community Concert Association membership drive will get under way Monday, and Community Concert Week runs through Sunday.

The program runs from grand opera to hit-of-the-week. The producer-director and creator of the quartet is Kurt Alder, conductor of the Met.

Alder began his career in his native Czechoslovakia, then went to conducting posts in Berlin, Vienna, Prague and throughout the European continent.

The second group, which will appear first in October, is composed of two guitarists, called the "Duo Romeros." Time magazine has described them as "undoubtedly one of the best guitar groups around."

The duo play a combination of romantic and flamenco styles. The entire Romero family is in the music business and only came to America five years ago when they moved from Spain to California.

When they arrived in California they set up a guitar school and since have appeared in many major American cities.

Car Damaged
PAUL — A 1965 Chevrolet owned by David Johnson, Heyburn, was damaged by fire at 7 p.m. Thursday near the Paul Barber Shop on Highway 25.

Alvin Simpson, fire chief of the West End Fire department, said apparently gas around the automobile ignited and burned the wires around the engine.

GIVEN AWARD
MADRID, Spain (AP) — Arturo Alar, Air Force Gen. Arturo Monte-Touzet, who coordinated U. S. and Spanish efforts to locate and recover the "Black Box" lost after a collision Jan. 17 of a U. S. bomber and a retreating tank, has been awarded the Legion of Merit.

Each member has appeared in leading roles with opera companies in the United States and Europe, and each has been in concerts, on television and on radio as a soloist.

Two of the concerts have been picked and the other two will be selected when the concert week is over, according to Bond.

The "Golden Curtain Quartet" is one of the groups which has been selected for the coming year and will be heard in February.

Bond said the group took their name from the Metropolitan Opera House golden-curtain and the quartet is made up of young artists who have already passed the first milestone — along the way to top operatic and concert careers.

Contest to Name Theme Is Announced

RUPERT — Annual contest to select a theme for the July 4 parade has been announced by contest officials with $25 to be awarded the person submitting the best four-word theme which can be used to trim parade floats.

The parade this year is to feature a theme portraying some phase of irrigation on the Mindoka project, since it was 80 years ago that Mindoka Dam was completed and water turned into the canals.

Fred Fricka, parade chairman, said the parade committee felt nothing would be more appropriate than to publicize the long period of prosperity and to honor the pioneers who made it all possible.

Only one theme entry may be submitted per person. All entries must be signed, dated and have a telephone number and address. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight, May 23.

In case duplicate entries are submitted with the winning theme, the one with the earliest postmark will be selected.

Buhl Slates Driver Class For Summer

BUILT — Summer driver training classes at the Buhl High School will commence June 6 and be conducted for six weeks, according to Rex Engkeling, superintendent.

Students interested in taking the course are urged to register Monday with Melvin Wilson at the high school. Students participating in athletics or other extra-curricular activities are urged to complete the course during the summer.

Students must be 14 years of age on or before June 6 to be eligible to enroll in the class. Driver training permits must be obtained from the county sheriff's office. These can be secured week days in Twin Falls or on Thursdays at the Buhl city hall. Both parents must sign the application for the permit.

All class sessions will be held from 9 to 10 a.m. Driving practice sessions will be arranged with the county sheriff's office.

Warm Trend Developing In Midwest

By The Associated Press
A warming trend developed in the Midwest Saturday, breaking a long spell of record, mid-spring cold, but a new onslaught of wintry weather resulted in a warning to stockmen in the West.

A weather bureau warning to stockmen was issued for the southern portion of Montana where rain and wet snow fell at lower elevations with snow in the mountains.

Butte, Mont., had an inch of snow on the ground and a mid-day temperature of 37 degrees.

Provisional warnings to stockmen and poultry interests were issued for Sunday over Utah and eastern Nevada.

Southern Idaho was expected to receive overnight frost and freezing temperatures.

Cloudy and cool weather also covered the Pacific Northwest with occasional rain in Washington and northern Oregon. Meanwhile, in northeast Oregon, had an inch of snow on the ground.

Strong, gusty winds, whipped across Wyoming. A peak gust of 60 miles an hour was recorded at Lander, in central Wyoming.

Realtors Eye Billboard Advertising

SHOSHONE—Committees were appointed to investigate cost, location and effectiveness of billboard advertising at the North Side Realtors Meeting held Wednesday night at the Motor Inn, Wendell.

Committee members to look into location are Leon Stockton, chairman, Rodney Pauls and E. G. Pettit, all from Jerome.

Those to investigate the cost and details of information to be printed are Mark Cole, Wendell, chairman, James Muffley, Gooding; Harrell Thorne, Shoshone; and Clyde Petersen, Wendell.

Cole reported on the real estate clinic held at Burley, Edgar Dryden, Jerome, president, led a discussion on forced federal housing proposals.

Members went on record opposing bills proposing this and the secretary was instructed to write to the chairman of the judiciary committee in charge of this and also to each county legislator.

Realtors' week was announced for May 22-28.

The June meeting will be held in the Wood River Valley with the exact place to be announced later.

2 Scholarships Are Awarded

Two Scholarships, $100 each, were awarded Thursday night by the Twin Falls Central Labor Council.

The scholarships were awarded to Charles Correll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Correll, Jerome, and Judy Dosssett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dosssett, Twin Falls. The scholarships will be used at College of Southern Idaho.

Correll will study electrical engineering at CSI and Miss Dosssett will go into elementary education.

Sen. Brooks Says Policies Alienating American Women

Sen. Mary Brooks, R-Blaine, arrived in Twin Falls Saturday for a brief respite from her Washington post as assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, to charge that the conduct of national domestic and foreign policy is alienating American women.

Sen. Brooks, widow of the late Sen. C. Wayland Brooks, R-Id., noted the current political situation is particularly repugnant to women.

Such recent developments as rapid inflation of retail prices can be expected to arouse the ire of women not to mention the conduct of the Vietnamese War, which "takes away their sons."

"You get the women of this country mad and they'll turn this thing around," she maintained.

Sen. Brooks, who is head of all-Republican Party-Women's activities in the U. S., said that a recent survey indicates that, surprisingly, women are also linked by the lack of credibility of the Johnson administration.

She said the conduct of the war has been "kept from the public, and only recently begun to come to light as a result of military spokesmen taking issue with the national policy."

In order to limit the number of lives lost in Viet Nam, she urged a "hard-hitting" policy to end the struggle quickly, to include ending the harbor of Hanoi and pressuring allies to cease shipments to the enemy.

Sen. Brooks said in the Saturday interview that she has enjoyed her national post, but that it has kept her busier than she had expected.

Her main concern now, she said, is to assist the election of Republican legislators in disputed areas in an attempt to bring effective two-party government to the nation.

She confided that the Republican Party needs additional congressional strength to check the growing power of the administration. She cited the recently approved rent subsidy bill that she said was "strong-armed" through Congress.

The key area to restore an effective two-party system, she said, is the local and country level party organization. She said she has been conducting speaking tours throughout the country in order to bolster up the party at the local level.

She made public the text of a speech she will deliver next week in St. Louis as a part of this effort.

In her address she charges the Johnson administration is deliberately moving to depress farm prices. She charged that the administration has put pressure on domestic sugar prices by lifting restrictions on imports of foreign sugar.

Further, she insists, the government, by recommending a sharp cut in the national school milk program, ending armed forces purchases of butter and easing import restrictions on cheddar cheese, has put pressure on domestic dairymen from three directions.

Mothers Are Honored at Grange Meet

RICHFIELD—Mothers were honored by Richfield Grange men at the Wednesday night meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Jensen.

Potted plants were presented and additional awards given to Mrs. Retta Powell, as the oldest Grange mother, and Mrs. Glen Rose, the youngest. Grange Master Eugene Alexander was master of ceremonies.

Alexander and Glen Rose reported on a meeting in Twin Falls concerning the proposed new warehouse for Richfield.

Glen Rose was prize winner in a game for the men to name famous mothers.

Grange meeting time has been changed to 8:30 p.m. beginning at the May 25 meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ross.

REV. CARL MARX FOLK

Idaho State School at Gooding Plans Projects

GOODING—The State Department of Education recently notified Supt. Edward W. Reay of the Idaho State School for the Deaf and Blind, that applications submitted by the school for federal funds totaling $23,988 to finance two educational innovations at the school have been approved.

The two projects are entitled "Statewide Field Service to Promote the Education of Auditorially Handicapped and Visually Impaired Children" and "Reorganization and Expansion of the School Library as a Total Resource Center."

Both projects were approved under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, Title I, Public Law 89-10, as amended by Public Law 89-313.

A social worker who is trained and experienced educator of the deaf will conduct the field service project by spending the entire summer visiting the homes of children who require special methods of instruction to gain an education because of a loss of hearing or sight. The reorganization of the school library into a total resource center will be under the direction of an educator-librarian and a consultant librarian. Assistants will also be employed to assist in the reorganization of the library.

Equipment to be purchased to complete the projects will include: portable audiometers, variable hearing aids, library catalog cabinets and accessories, filing cabinets, filmstrip filing cabinets, library tables, chairs, overhead projectors, screens, and multiple hearing aids. Additional library books will be acquired under Title II of the education act and by direct purchase with school funds.

The reorganization of the library will be a significantly important innovation, according to Reay, because all individuals whose hearing is severely impaired, either at birth or before language patterns have been well established, are seriously disadvantaged in learning of communication skills and therefore in the attainment of general information.

Also formal education, both of which are acquired with relatively little effort by the person with normal hearing. The education of the deaf consists mainly of overcoming the poverty of language that deafness imposes.

Only a deaf child who is linguistically gifted or exceptionally well taught is able to overcome this handicap and teacher of the deaf should have every tool at their disposal to accomplish their tasks, Reay said.

The library as a total resource center will provide a wide variety of materials needed by teachers and students. It will combine all learning materials into a convenient logical center. It will bring together books, periodicals, filmstrips, motion pictures, picture story study prints and records.

Old books will be weeded out and plans will be formulated for future strengthening of some subject areas and the more efficient use of the growing supply of audio-visual material. The Dewey classification system will be installed.

The audio-visual department consisting of captioned films, filmstrips and transparencies will be more centrally located with the title and subject cards cataloged.

The department of Captioned Films for the Deaf in the U.S. Office of Education, department of Health, Education and Welfare, has for the past several years developed films, curriculum, and educational materials which offer new and effective visual aids for teaching deaf children.

Recent budget increases in the Captioned Films Program, and the prospects of continuous expansion of their program indicate an immediate need for an educational visual aids media center for the students to be guaranteed optimum benefits from available educational media.

The school at Gooding is a depository for captioned films and at the present time there are 159 16-mm educational films and over 300 different filmstrips located here for the use of the school without any cost to the school. The number of films and filmstrips is constantly increasing.

ing, Reay said.

Because of the size of the state, communication with parents of the auditorially handicapped and visually impaired children to inform them of the facilities and services provided by the school has always been inadequate.

Communication by mail or telephone is impersonal and unsatisfactory. Personal visits to the homes having handicapped children will provide opportunities for on-the-spot administering of audiometric tests for hearing, fitting and adjusting of hearing aids, counseling of parents, describing the complete operation of the school and miscellaneous other services.

Case-finding activities would allow contacts to be made through interested persons, relatives, public health officers, doctors, school administrators, Easter Seal Centers and teachers.

Reay states school administrators are happy to have the opportunity to expand the services of the school and to increase the effectiveness of the instructional program. The projects must be completed by Aug. 30, 1966.

Application for projects totaling an additional $23,988 or 85 per cent of that amount for the coming school year beginning Sept. 1, will be submitted to the Department of Education before July 1.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

SUNDAY, May 15 — Born to employ wisdom, not emotion, in making decisions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — Past efforts should put you in the spotlight today. The Scorpio who merits rewards should certainly be receiving them now.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — This should be a successful time for the Sagittarius whose work brings him in contact with the public.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) — An auspicious time for mixing business and pleasure.

The friendliest tactic should bring the greatest success.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Now is the time for effective action if your work is in any way connected with community activities.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — More demands than usual may be made upon your time today. Be helpful in both word and deed and you'll not regret it.

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — A good time for introducing new ideas to the public. Make sure, however, that your presentation is on an intellectually mature level.

In spite of the fact that the love of work is not a natural characteristic with you, you have tremendous personal force and are able on the strength of character alone to push through projects that might for others be relatively impossible — provided, however, that you stick to such projects long enough to accomplish your purpose. Cultivate tenacity of purpose and you should be able to achieve much both in the way of position and of money.

A gregarious soul by nature, you not only like but actively need to have people around you. Although affectionate and capable of deep and lasting love, companionship is really more vital to your happiness than any great passion. Your mate may be everything in the world, but if he or she is not at the same time a good companion, one with whom you can while away the hours in friendly harmony, the relationship will fall far short of satisfying you.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Monday, May 16

TAURUS (April 20-May 21) — A good day for housecleaning if you're in the market. Don't be fooled by paint and polish, however.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — If planning a social event for family and friends, you might be wise to carry out your plans outside your own home.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Combine social activities with business today. If in merchandising, this is a good day for making profits.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — Business and professional activities are especially active today. Make progress toward a single goal.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Follow your intuition when you would know what is best to do. Heed any warnings from the voice within.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — You may be called upon to help in a family crisis. See that you

Minister at Wendell Will Attend Meet

WENDELL — Rev. Jack A. Jennings, pastor of the United Presbyterian church and moderator of Kendall Presbyterian, will be the Presbyterian's clergy delegate to the 178th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church in Boston, Mass., Monday through May 25.

Because of his election as the Presbyterian commissioner, he will be absent from his pulpit in Wendell Sunday and May 22. His replacement at church will be Dr. Ruth Grob, who will speak Sunday and Rev. Harold E. Kutz, missionary, for May 22.

Dr. Grob, who is an ordained United Presbyterian clergywoman, is now in her sixth year as a member of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at the College of Idaho, Caldwell.

Prior to that she taught for six years at the College of Emporia, Kansas. She has a Ph. D. degree from the University of Zurich and her B. D. degree from Princeton Theological seminary. She is a native of Switzerland.

Slides Shown to Club at Bliss

BLISS — The Rod and Gun Club were shown slides by their host, Frank Wright, last week of Whitman Air Force Base, Knott Nester, Mo., on minuteman missiles. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cutright. The club is sponsoring the fish derby again this year and dues must be paid before fishing season opens, to be eligible for the contest.

The next meeting will be June 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pagac.

Local Woman, Hurt in Auto Accident, Knows Full Value of Donating Blood

Modern science has never been able to find a replacement for blood. Mrs. LeRoy Kienzle, 546 3rd Ave. W., learned last fall how very important it is that people take a few minutes of their time to donate a pint of blood to the Red Cross Blood Bank.

On Aug. 14, when returning to Twin Falls from Salt Lake City, Mrs. Kienzle was involved in an automobile accident near Snowville, Utah. Her critical injuries were first treated at the Tremonton Hospital, Tremonton, Utah, where she received several transfusions of whole blood. After a one-week stay at Tremonton, Mrs. Kienzle was transferred to the Dee Memorial Hospital, Ogden, Utah. During her three-week stay at the Ogden hospital, Mrs. Kienzle's heart stopped twice. Both times her life was restored through the administration of whole blood. Mrs. Kienzle was transferred to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital in September, where she remained until the latter part of November, when she was released.

She re-entered the local hospital in February for lung surgery, the last major treatment necessary for wreck injuries.

Mrs. Kienzle received a total of 16 pints of blood, all of which has been replaced to the hospitals through the Red Cross Blood program.

This year, in addition to serving area residents, the Red Cross has set up a blood program to assist soldiers in Viet Nam.

Each city visited by the bloodmobile will be asked to give its quota plus 20 per cent more. Twin Falls has a quota of 150 pints. It will be asked to give an additional 30 pints.

The bloodmobile will be in Twin Falls from 2 to 6 p.m. Monday at the American Legion Hall. Dale Patterson, chairman, asks that all persons between 18 and 60 who are able to give blood to visit the bloodmobile. Persons between the ages of 18 and 21 will need a permission slip signed by a parent or guardian, and these will be available at the bloodmobile.

Replacements also will be accepted during the drawing, and replacement cards will be available.

The bloodmobile will be at the Kimberly Grandstand from 7 to 8 a.m. Tuesday for East End donors. The quota set for this area is 100 pints, plus 20 pints for Viet Nam.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morse, co-chairmen of the Kimberly drawing, report that donors may give blood in the name of a service man serving outside of the United States. The committee will in turn write a letter to the service man telling him that the blood has been donated in his name in appreciation of his serving the country.

Man Held on Morals Count

Arvel Vann, 53, Twin Falls, was arrested by Twin Falls police Friday and charged with two counts of lewd and lascivious conduct with a minor child, after investigation of a complaint by two mothers.

Police Chief Frank Barnett said the incidents involved two girls, one 10 and one 9. The girls told their mothers and the mothers told police. After questioning the girls, police arrested Vann in the vicinity of Lincoln School.

Police said the incidents occurred near the athletic field. Vann came here from Boise several years ago, police said. He was transferred to County Jail, with bond set at $10,000. Maximum penalty on conviction is life imprisonment.

Cassia Area Designated at Historic Site

OAKLEY—The City of Rocks State Park, near Almo, will officially become a registered National Historic Site at ceremonies scheduled for 2 p.m. May 21.

Representatives of the National Park Service, State Parks Department and other interested governmental agencies will participate. The public is invited. Harold T. (Pete) Brown, Filer, member of the Idaho's State Park Board, said he was pleased that the City of Rocks State Park has been included by the Secretary of the Interior in an official National Historic Site.

"I am sure that most of us in this area are aware of the historical significance of the City of Rocks and now that it is a National Site, people throughout the country will recognize its importance," he added.

The presentation ceremony will be held at the Twin Sisters. Persons unfamiliar with the location may assemble at the home of J. Newell Dayley, one block south of the Cassia LDS Stake Tabernacle at 1 p.m. May 21. A car caravan will proceed from the Dayley home to the Twin Sisters site.

ELECTION SET
FILER — Filer American Legion Post 47 will elect officers at 8 p.m. Monday in the Legion Hall.

MRS. LEROY KIENZLE, 546 3rd Ave. W., looks over a Red Cross Brochure about the Bloodmobile which will visit Twin Falls Monday and other area communities this week. For their annual Breakfast Ride, first of the season, which will be held May 20, riders will meet at 10 a.m. at the rodeo grounds here and ride to Democrat Gulch, a distance of four miles.

The club will again sponsor a "Queen" for the Days of the Old West celebration July 7. Mrs. Ted Uhrig is in charge of the event and Mrs. R. H. McCoy and Mrs. Carl Schoessler will select the club's candidate.

Bloodmobile To Visit Buhl On June 20

BUIH—The Red Cross Bloodmobile will pay its annual visit to the West End on June 20. It was announced when the Buhl Chapter, American Red Cross held its first meeting of the season last week at the city hall.

Ralph Assendrup pointed out the bloodmobile will be at the Buhl Moose Hall from 2 to 6 p.m. on that date. The Castleford Grange will serve the canteen.

Robert Bailey was appointed as campaign manager for the fund drive to be held in the fall. It was reported only $25 has been collected to date for the Viet Nam disaster fund. The quota for this area is $210.

Mrs. Jean Thompson announced two more new members have joined the Grey Ladies program. Mrs. Oran School and Mrs. Truman Prohaska. She pointed out five volunteers who have worked for over 30 hours and are eligible for the Grey Ladies uniform are Mrs. Burton Daughman, Mrs. Pat Stradley, Mrs. Floyd Kaufmann, Mrs. Carl Meier and Mrs. Victor Rohlfing.

It was reported Mrs. Richard Jennings has been appointed as the new American Red Cross certified water safety instructor for the local summer swim program at the municipal swimming pool. Vacancies still exist for a lifeguard and water safety aid with applications being accepted by the city council.

Robert Kyles reported he has completed instructing a Red Cross first-aid class for Green Giant Company employees. Buhl Chapter of the American Red Cross will resume regular meetings again in September.

Winners for Best Talks Are Reported

VEW at Buhl Sets Charter Night May 23

BUHL—Buhl Thurston Pence Post No. 3604, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will observe charter night at 8 p.m. May 23. All charter members will be honored at this social event which will also include a special program.

Highlighting the VFW meeting last week was the installation of new officers for 1966-67. Elective officers installed were Truman Probasco, commander; Frank K. Rippee, senior vice commander; Lawrence Johnson, junior vice commander; Joseph A. Haffl, quartermaster; Frank McBriggs, chaplain; William M. Hopple, judge advocate; James Wiegner, surgeon; and Edwin C. Black, three-year trustee.

Appointive officers installed: Lumir Zach, adjutant; Robert Dickard, patriotic instructor; Rusty Johnson, buddy poppy chairman; William B. Hopple, service officer; William Bonworth, legislative officer; and Primo Gabardi, public relations officer.

Floyd Mason, Rupert, past district commander and former Buhl resident, was the installing officer.

It was reported the VFW flag display program was in effect May 8 for VE day and will be displayed again May 21 for Armed Forces Day. It was announced the annual Buddy Poppy sales will be conducted May 28 in the Buhl business section with members of the VFW Auxiliary assisting.

Plans were discussed for the Memorial Day service to be sponsored jointly by the American Legion Post, World War I Barracks and the VFW. Further details are to be announced.

Robert Powers, commander of the Rupert VFW Post, was a visitor.

Applications for Jobs Are Taken

Applications are being taken for employment consultants and statistical analysts. Wage scales are $480 to $550 per month for consultants, $507 to $616 for consultant interns and $400 to $550 for statistical analysts.

Interested persons may contact their local Department of Employment office or to write to Thomas H. Cherry, Merit System Supervisor, P. O. Box 887, Boise.

Jobs Are Open In State Agency

Mother's Day Observed by K. H. Grange

KING HILL—Mother's Day was observed at the King-Hill Grange meeting last week with Mrs. Joel Young, lecturer, in charge of program.

Mother's Day songs were sung by Kenneth Jones and Frank Jones with Mrs. Karl Anderson as accompanist. Poems were read by Arthur Greer and H. O. Lipe.

Mrs. H. O. Lipe, home economics chairman, announced that $17.80 was raised at the Mother's Day cooked food sale, and announced that a sweater, cups and spoons have been purchased for the Grange dining hall.

Elmore County Pomona passed a resolution on bankruptcy, stating laws are too lenient and gambling debts should not be paid through bankruptcy. Letters are to be sent to the National and State Grange opposing bankruptcy laws.

Frank Jones reported on the Youth Ranch at Rupert. Mrs. Arthur Greer, chairman of the "Get Up and Go" program requested that all members try to get new members this year for the Grange Centennial program.

Mrs. Young announced that Delorma Mow, Indian Cove, has been selected for the Elmore County Fair queen because of the resignation of Laura Copper-

Information Is Sought by School

JEROME—The Jerome County Association for Retarded Children is attempting to discover who the children are in Jerome, Gooding and Lincoln Counties, who need special education services because they are mentally retarded. Mrs. Beverly Woolley, Jerome, reports.

Once the association discovers who these persons in need are it will work to see that they are furnished with an educational program if they want it.

The association asks that all parents and friends of mentally retarded persons between the ages of 6 and 21, who cannot attend regular schools or who would do better in special education classes, notify Helen Mahbutt, Shoshone; Clifford Boyd, Wendell, or Mrs. Woolley.

noli, who was selected by the Grange. Kenneth Jones suggested that preparations be made next year in January to pick more than one girl for queen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Lipe and Mrs. Cecil Bott were in charge of the Mother's Day dinner, assisted by Frank Jones, Joel Young, Rodney Ruberry and Melvin Helwich. Mrs. Lipe furnished the birthday cake.

Members who were honored at the birthday table were Mrs. E. Spencer, Mrs. Bott, Karl Anderson, Frank Jones and Melvin Helwich.

Wendell Will Not Have July 4 Event

WENDELL—Wendell will have no July 4 celebration this year, because of the long weekend holiday. Deputy Bill Bunn, chairman of the July 4 committee, reported at the Wendell Chamber of Commerce meeting Wednesday morning at Wendell. Mayor Ina Merald-Buhler, new owner of the Western Auto Store, a new member, suggested that store owners close Saturday evenings and remain open longer on Friday. Clyde Peterson, president, suggested all store owners meet to discuss the proposal.

Arnold Runyon, postmaster, thanked members for letters sent to the congressional delegation regarding mailing of packages. Installation of new street lights by the Idaho Power Co. was discussed. Edwin McNult was appointed to report on the project at the next meeting.

A letter will be written to the telephone company offices in Boise and Jerome concerning the poor service, Peterson said.

"Slipped Disc" Myth Explained

By HANS KRAUS, M.D.

When you go to your doctor for a thorough check-up, you may get an electrocardiogram, you will have your blood pressure and pulse taken. Your nervous system, your ears, eyes, blood, urine, heart and lungs will be examined.

All of these are good and necessary tests to determine the health of your body. Few doctors test you to see whether your muscles can manage the weight of your body.

Your muscles have a tremendous influence on your health. They even affect your metabolism and your emotional life. They help keep your entire heart and blood-vessel system in good shape.

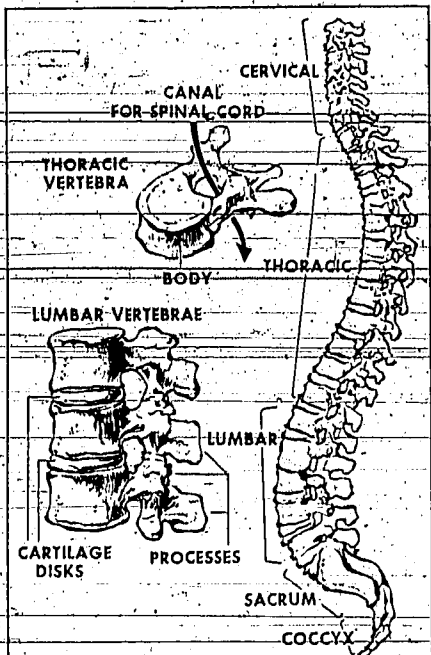

Your muscles are only as good as you make them. When you don't use them properly, they suffer and so do you. Neglect or abuse the muscles that keep your body erect, and you are bound to get back pain. When muscles are weak through lack of exercise and tense because of irritation, they cannot do their share of keeping the body erect; and too much strain falls on the bones and ligaments of your spine.

Look at it this way: Your spine runs from your head to your buttocks. It consists, in order of seven cervical or neck vertebrae, then 12 dorsal vertebrae in the middle back, then five lumbar vertebrae in the so-called small of the back and, finally, the sacrum, a roughly triangular bone that connects the spinal column with the pelvis.

Vertebrae are the bony parts of the spine—but they are not directly linked to one another. Between each is a sort of ring of ligament with a soft inner section. These rings are called discs—and how many people have told you they have a slipped disc, or disc trouble?

Slipped Discs Uncommon Fortunately, slipped discs are not quite as common as you might think. Many persons who think they are suffering from disc trouble are actually victims of muscle strain in the back; and this condition can be corrected through exercise instead of surgery.

Besides the discs, there are other strong ligaments joining the vertebral bodies with one another and with the sacrum. On the back part of each vertebra is a bony ring. This holds the spinal cord. The center of the spinal cord consists of nerve cells. And around the center are great cables of nerve fibers that ultimately join the lower and upper part of the brain.

They are a two-way communication system—taking the brain's orders to the muscles and other parts of the body, and returning to the brain the sensations the body encounters.

The spinal column is the shape of a gentle figure "S." It is an elastic structure of muscle and bone. But, if it is to function correctly, and absorb sudden blows or continuous strain, it needs help.

That help comes from the trunk muscles. All of them, not only the back muscles, the hip flexors and extensors, support the spinal column. They combine to keep it erect, and allow it to move. They protect by acting as an outer guard, and if they're in good condition, they can offset damage to the spinal column itself.

Working with the back muscles, strong stomach and hip muscles are also important to avoid back trouble. Some people—always—blame their back muscles but the trouble may lie in these other muscle groups. They are often the first to weaken in our inactive life.

Suppose you spend most of the day sitting down. Your back muscles are active to keep you from toppling over. But at the same time, you let your stomach muscles go slack, and your hip flexors are inactive as well.

If you get some exercise for them, the sitting inactivity wouldn't hurt. But, inevitably, you don't, and the muscles get weak, and they can't cooperate in keeping your back erect. That puts a greater strain on the low back muscles—and that leads to trouble.

Finally, adding tension, then stiffness, a simple act may produce the strain that will send those back muscles into spasms of rebellion. The result: pain. As a matter of fact, muscle weakness may not have to contribute to back trouble at all. Tension—the tension of working in one position too long—can cause it all by itself.

Organic disease causes only a small percentage of back pain. If you do suffer a sudden attack of back pain, lie down on a hard surface. A hard mattress over a board is best. The painful muscles should be covered with a hot pack—or towels dipped in boiling water—and then covered by a dry towel. To avoid sweating, the wet towels should be well wrung out.

And contrary to popular opinion, it is not how long the towel remains hot on the back,

BOISE IS REGIONAL CHAMP; T. F. THIRD

Three Tipton Wins Pace Braves; Cryder Shatters Record, Renn Cops Title

Slender Gary Tipton picked up his usual three first places Saturday and his Boise Braves teammates followed right down the line as they won the Class A Southcentral regional track and field championships for the third straight year. Tipton accounted for 18 points as Boise piled up 54 to defeat Cross-town rival Borah by nine points. Twin Falls, with a couple of surprises—some good, some bad—finished third with 32 points, two ahead of Nampa and three over Capital.

Koufax, Wills Spark L.A. Past Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Sandy Koufax scattered seven hits for his fifth victory, and Maury Wills triggered a three-run sixth inning uprising with his base-running, leading the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh Saturday.

Wills, the Dodgers' fleet shortstop, singled, stole second and third and came across on Willie Davis' double. Ron Fairly beat out a slow roller, sending Davis to third, and when Pittsburgh pitcher Steve Blass threw wildly on Lou Johnson's bunt, Davis crossed, fairly scored on John Roseboro's infield out.

Koufax, who has lost once, blanked the Pirates until Roberto Clemente homered into the upper right field stands leading off the ninth inning.

Prior to that inning, Koufax was in trouble only once—when Bill Mazeroski hit a two-out triple in the seventh. But he got out of the jam by getting Bob Bailey to pop up.

Koufax struck out nine. Los Angeles 001 003 000—4 8 0 Pittsburgh—000 000 001—1 7 1

Riley Tops His Two Mile Record

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Rick Riley lowered his own official national high school two-mile record here Friday with a time of 8 minutes, 57 seconds.

His mark, breaks the national record of 9:00.1 he set in Pasco, Wash., last month.

Riley, running for Ferris High School, was clocked in the record time at the All-City Prep Track Championships despite a 20-mile per hour wind. He was timed for the first mile in 4 minutes, 25 seconds.

"I'd wanted to run the mile in 4:22," said Riley after the race.

"It was tough with the wind, but all in all, I'm pleased."

Riley's effort still doesn't break the city record set by Jerry Lindgren, the U.S. Olympic and Washington State University distance ace who went to Rogers High here.

Lindgren holds the two-mile prep mark with a time of 8:56.5. It didn't qualify for national honors because it came in a dual meet and a meet must involve five teams to be able to certify for national honors.

Things weren't that pleasant in other parts of the fourth district day. Cryder was again great, scaling his 13-2 with no problems and keeping warm encased in a sleeping bag between jumps.

Minico ran into its share of problems. Sprinter Greg Schell, who won all the sprints in district a week ago, couldn't quite match the speed of the third district and bowed out in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. But he finished as strong third in the quartermile and will run at state in that event.

Teammate Mike Schell, favored in the high jump, failed to clear six feet for only the second time this season and paid for it by winding up third still good enough to get into the state finals.

Twin Falls' fortunes rose and fell from race to race. The big blow was that Doug Flint, steadily improving junior hurdler, ran into his first "off day" of the season and fell to fourth in his specialty.

The veteran left-hander, who has not won a game this season, said the elbow first started bothering him a week ago in California.

Ralph Houk, completing his first week as manager, said the condition appeared to be tendinitis, an inflammation of the tissues of the elbow.

Ford will be examined either Sunday or Monday by Dr. Sidney Gaylor, the team physician. Houk said he expected Ford to rejoin the club in Denver's examination does not reveal anything serious.

Ford, 37, underwent surgery in 1964 for a circulation problem in his left shoulder but his current ailment is not believed to be related to that operation.

ISU Divides Twin Bill With Montana

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—Idaho State University split a doubleheader with Montana Saturday, taking the first game 7-4, then dropping the twilighter 1-3.

Both games were Big Sky Conference baseball tilts.

Tom Lundy controlled the first game for the I-Staters for five innings until his arm knotted, and he had to be replaced by Gerald Kimura, who held the Grizzlies to two hits.

Jim Walker homered with none on in the third inning for ISU to take over the lead in the conference home run race with four.

Ford's Elbow Is Bothering Him Again

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Whitey Ford, dean of the New York Yankees pitching staff, flew back to New York Saturday for an examination of his ailing left elbow.

Ford started Friday night's game against Kansas City but had to leave after two innings. The veteran left-hander, who has not won a game this season, said the elbow first started bothering him a week ago in California.

Ralph Houk, completing his first week as manager, said the condition appeared to be tendinitis, an inflammation of the tissues of the elbow.

Pole Vaulter Breaks Record With 17-Foot, 5 1/2-Inch Effort

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Bob Seagrone of the Southern California Striders cleared 17 feet, 5 1/2 inches on his final try Saturday night at the West Coast Relays, breaking the world pole-vault record by 1 1/2 inches.

The 19-year-old vaulter broke the 17-4 record established by Fred Hansen of Rice in 1964.

He thus added the outdoor record to his indoor record of 17 feet, 2 1/2 inches, set last March 5 in Albuquerque.

Seagrone stands 6-foot 1-inch and weighs 165. He attends junior college at Glendale, Calif., and reportedly plans to enroll at the University of Southern California.

On his first two tries, he narrowly missed but on the third he sailed well over the crossbar to the cheers of those fans remaining in Ratcliffe Stadium for the final event.

Earlier, Art Walker, also of the Striders, had set a new American record for the triple jump with a leap of 54 feet, 4 inches.

Walker's effort bettered the 53-11 record by Ira Davis of Philadelphia in 1905 although still more than a foot short of the world mark of 55-10 1/2 by Josef Schmidt of Poland in an event previously known as hop, step and jump.

A crowd of 13,000 in Ratcliffe Stadium also saw veteran Ralph Boston erase the 14-year-old meet record in the long jump when he leaped 26-8 1/2.

The world record holder erased the relay mark of 26-3 1/2 established by George Brown of UCLA in 1952.

Meet records also fell early in the discus and shot put. Three-time Olympic champion Al Oerter of New York, making a comeback this year, spun the weighted plate 105 feet.

Randy Matson of Texas A&M put the shot 60 feet, 8 1/2 inches on one of his preliminary throws.

Oerter's effort bettered Jay

Boise in second while Borah, right, the pre-race favorite, finished third. Time was 44.3 despite a strong wind. (Times News photo)

Silvester's meet mark by one-half inch. The shot put mark had been 66-7 1/2 by Dallas Long, former Fresno State sprinter, Darol Newman, captured the 100 with a wind-aided time of 0.4 seconds. Newman now runs for the Southern California Striders as does Larry Dunn, who placed second, scant inches behind.

Al Rockwell of Brigham Young won the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.9 when the wind was 4.1, within the allowable limit of 4.7.

Arizona's John Tusaus, who threw the javelin an American record distance of 284 feet Friday night in Los Angeles, came back Saturday to win with a toss of 255-3/2.

Green-Led Kansas City Drops Yanks

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Home runs by Dick Green, who rapped out four hits, and Ken Reichenow led the Kansas City Athletics to a 4-2 victory over the New York Yankees Saturday night.

Mickey Mantle homered for the Yankees, who scored their other run in the ninth but dropped their season-high eighth game in the 10th.

Mantle, whose fourth inning homer was the 475th of his career, tying Stan Musial for eighth place on the all-time list, left the game in the sixth after pulling a muscle in his left leg.

Roger Repose, who replaced Mantle, touched off the ninth inning rally with a double and moved to third on Joe Pepitone's single. Paul Lindblad then replaced Kansas City starter Fred Talbot and Tom Treah knocked Repose in with a single. Lindblad retired Roger Maris and Jack Aker came on to get the final two outs.

Homers Help Angels Drop Boston 6-4

ANAHEIM (AP)—Ed Kirkpatrick broke a tie with a two-run single in the sixth inning Saturday night as the California Angels routed the Boston Red Sox into a 6-4 victory over Boston.

Rodgers, Knoop and Reich, all hit their homers off loser Gary Wilson, who was driven from the game in the sixth inning when the Angels scored three runs and moved ahead 6-4.

The Red Sox managed only four hits against Jim McGlothlin and Jack Sanford, but one of them was a two-run homer by George Scott. It was the rookie first baseman's 11th and extended his batting streak to 14 games.

Nicklaus, Lema Move Into Lead At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Tony Lema muscled back into the lead after 54 holes of the $100,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament Saturday, but Gardner Dickinson moved into contention with a blistering sub-par 66.

Casanova and Solons Beat Twins 5-4

ST. PAUL — MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Paul Casanova rapped three hits, including a sixth-inning home run, as the Washington Senators edged Minnesota 5-4 Saturday.

Pete Richert blanked the Twins on five hits until the seventh when they erupted for four runs, but Ron Kline came on and ended the rally. That made Casanova's homer into the left field pavilion the decisive run.

Casanova also singled in the second inning and singled Ken McMullen into scoring position in the fourth. McMullen, who had singled, raced to third on Casanova's hit and came home as Ed Brinkman forced Casanova at second.

Freese Bats Chicago Past Detroit 13-3

DETROIT (AP) — Gene Freese batted in four runs, two on a homer in the first inning, as the Chicago White Sox walloped Detroit 13-3 Saturday.

Freese doubled home one run in a four-run Chicago sixth inning and singled in another in the seventh when the White Sox scored three more runs.

Chicago's three runs in the first inning were unearned, coming after Norm Cash hit Don Buford on the back while trying for a double play. Buford went to third on the play and scored on a sacrifice fly by John Romano.

Bill Skovron tripled for two Chicago runs in the sixth, and pinch runner Tom McCraw scored on a sacrifice bunt by Danny Cater.

Gonzales-Led Indians Edge Orioles 2-1

CLEVELAND (AP) — Pedro Gonzalez whacked a double and triple, scoring both runs as the Cleveland Indians defeated Baltimore 2-1 Saturday and handed the Orioles their fourth straight loss.

Gonzalez doubled in the fifth and scored on a pop single to right field by pitcher Sonny Siebert. In the seventh, Gonzalez smacked a 408-foot triple to the center field fence and scored on Duke Sims' single.

Gonzalez' double was the first hit off Wally Hunter, who had given up only two walks in the first four innings.

The Orioles tied the score in the seventh when Brooks Robinson singled and eventually scored on a sacrifice fly by Jerry Adair. Robinson moved around on a wild pitch and an infield out. Then Gonzalez and Sims put Cleveland ahead in its half of the inning.

14th-Inning Double Lets Reds Nip Cubs

CHICAGO (AP) — Don Pavletich slugged Ferguson Jenkins' first pitch to him in the 14th inning for a double, driving in Pete Rose with the winning run in Cincinnati's 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

The Reds started the winning rally against Billy Hoft, who relieved Dick Ellsworth after the Cubs' starter had allowed only seven hits in 13 innings.

Rose led off with a single and moved to second on a sacrifice by Vada Pinson. With a count of one ball and no strikes on Pavletich, Cubs' Manager Leo Durocher switched pitchers, bringing in Ferguson. Pavletich stepped his first pitch to left.

The Reds, shut out on four hits through eight innings by Ellsworth, tied the score 1-1 in the ninth when they pushed across a run with the aid of an error by Billy Williams. Tony Perez singled the run across Cincinnati.

"Happy news is sent this way from Ducks Unlimited which in a news release, reports the North American continent's waterfowl are returning to 'excellent' water and habitat conditions on the Canadian prairie provinces. Ducks Unlimited's general manager Angus Gavin said only a small portion of southern Alberta and Saskatchewan had light run-offs, although even in these areas the nesting conditions are favorable. "Sloughs and potholes are at levels higher than they have been since the mid-50's" Gavin reports.

The day of the athlete lazing his way through high school has been brought up short by the NCAA's 1.6 academic requirement. Although a lot has been written about the 1.6 as it applies to the various colleges around the nation, the fact this same standard must be used in gauging whether or not athletes went by relatively unnoticed.

According to the NCAA plan it is no longer possible for a high school athlete to goof around his senior year, expecting the state to be wiped clean at the start of his collegiate career. Paul Ostyn, University of Idaho athletic director, notes that recruiters now have to "predict" the semester grades of high school prospects. "This is based on a formula incorporating high school grades, some college preparatory tests, standing in graduating class and other things."

"Right now," says Ostyn, "we know of four boys we'd offered aid to that don't predict to 1.6. That means we can't offer them any athletic aid. And if we can't, no other school in the country can unless they want an investigation."

He said the last part with a chuckle. Ostyn reports this thing is catching the boys with seniority completely unaware. He notes most figured they could breeze through their senior year, expecting mediocre grades and their athletic prowess to get them into college.

So it ends up the would-be athlete either has to top his own college bills until his grades are comparable or better to NCAA standards or switch to the old reliable junior college to accomplish the same end.

There should be a considerable difference in the physical appearance of Salmon Falls Reservoir shoreline within the next few months to two years. Jack Wilson, regional supervisor for the Bureau of Land Management, reports his agency has budgeted funds available for recreational improvement beginning July 1. Also, the Twin Falls County Waterway Commission is going to speed some of its money there, giving priority to boat launching at the dam.

The BLM can be expected to improve the existing roads and gouge out a larger road network around the impoundment. In addition, those connected with the reservoir are aware that more areas are needed along the shoreline for parking, picnicking, etc.

One that could stand a lot of work is Grey's Landing, but area sportsmen are urging that such work should be done on the cove immediately south of Grey's where the available area would be much larger.

Minico Wins In District Golf Meet

BURLEY — Minico scored a minor upset Saturday when the Spartans' golf team won the district title by one stroke over Burley, 333-332. Jerome took third with a 351. Twin Falls was fourth at 358 and Gooding brought up the rear at 363. The golfers teed off during a light snow and came in with only one in the 70s—Poole of Minico with a 77, good for medalist honors. Other Minico scores were Keeley 87, Olson 85 and Neibaur 88. Burley's scoring ran, Robertson 88, Dunbar 85 and Pine and Anner 84. Jerome was Spaeth 85, Seeloy 88, Scholtes 85 and Hancock 92 while Twin Falls went Davis 84, Dadds 88, Langdon 91 and Peterson 87. Gibbons was the only Gooding golfer under 90 with his 87. Samma had 90, Larson 93 and Oakley 93.

Greene Paces Nebraska to Big Eight Win

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Charlie Greene's double in the sprint, including a 9.3 in the 100, led Nebraska to the Big Eight track championship Saturday, while Oklahoma State's John Perry reeled off a 1:47.7 half-mile, fastest in the world this year.

Nebraska's first outdoor crown since 1950 and ended a three-year Kansas reign. Coach Frank Soule's team won five gold medals in scoring 113 points.

Oklahoma had 103, Oklahoma State 90, Kansas 77, Colorado 48 and Missouri 45 each, Kansas State 37 and Iowa State 21. Seven meet records were shattered and another equaled as the Big Eight record book underwent its biggest revision since 1959.

The NCAA 100-yard champion, smashed a 36-year-old meet record with his 9.3, the fastest in the nation this year. He equaled his own meet 220 record of 20.8. He received the Henry Schulte award as the most outstanding performer for the second straight year. The honor is voted by league track coaches.

Harvard Takes 23rd Rowing Win

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Harvard's unbeaten heavyweight crew led a Crimson sweep with its 23rd straight victory in collegiate competition Saturday in the Eastern Spring Rowing Championships.

The Harvard heavies beat Brown by one length in the blue ribbon event of the 21st annual regatta watched by a crowd of 20,000 over the 2,000-meter course about 1 1/4 mile on Lake Quinsigamond.

The Crimson covered the distance in 6:20.8, pulling away from an almost perfect start and gaining the lead at the halfway point.

The Met wrapped it up with five runs in the sixth off reliever Ron Herber and Joe Gibbons. San Francisco 201 000 020—0 2 New York 201 025 108—11 7 0 Bolla, Herber (4), Gibbons (6), Shaw (7) and Haller; Fisher, Salma (8) and Stephenson. W—Fisher 1-4, 1—Bolla 3-5.

Death, Wrecks Mar First Day Indianapolis 500 Qualifying

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Young Mario Andretti set a new speed standard for the 57-year-old Indianapolis Motor Speedway Saturday and veteran Chuck Rodde was killed in one of four wrecks that blighted the fastest qualification session for the Memorial Day 500-mile race. Andretti, native of Tlosto, Italy, who won the U. S. Auto Club's national championship last year, captured the No. 1 starting position for the 500 at an uncracked speed of 165.899 miles an hour for the 10-mile run and 166.328 for one lap around the 2 1/2-mile asphalt track.

A. J. Foyt of Houston, twice winner of the race, held the year-old records of 161.233 and 161.059. He was one of the four drivers who slid into the concrete retaining wall Saturday. Rodde, 38, whose home is only a short distance from the old track, became the 57th fatality there. His car swerved tail first against the wall coming out of the main stretch in view of a large part of a crowd of about 175,000.

Carl Williams of Kansas City, rated the hottest rookie at the track this year, also escaped injury in a crash, and Art Malone, Tampa, Fla., suffered only a minor burn when his car hit the wall and caught fire.

Eighteen drivers qualified, leaving 15 starting spots open for the qualifying sessions Sunday and the following weekend. They averaged 160.743 m.p.h. for the tests, compared with 158.052 for the 1965 field.

Andretti, who resides in Nazareth, Pa., will share the three-car front row with Jimmy Clark of Scotland, the 1965 Indianapolis winner and world road-racing champion, and George Snider, Fresno, Calif., who will be making his second 500 start.

As a rookie last year, Andretti finished third in the 500. Clark, one of the day's last runners, averaged 164.144 in a new Lotus-Ford, sponsored by the Chemical Division of Studbaker Corp., which quit making autos this year.

Snider, who ran before Andretti, briefly held the 10-mile record at 162.521 and the one-lap mark at 163.014. He drove the Lotus-Ford in which Bobby Jones of Miami, Fla., finished seventh in last year's 500.

Parnell Jones, the 1963 Indianapolis winner, salvaged the reputation of the new supercharged Offenhausers by using one for the day's fourth-best time, 162.484.

Another driver who bettered Foyt's record was Lloyd Ruby, Wichita, Pa., in one of the new Gurney-Fords, with a 162.484 mark. Gordon Johncock, Hastings, Mich., just missed breaking the mark in a new Gerhard-Ford, with 161.059.

Dan Gurney of Cost Mesa, Calif., who had been rated a pole contender in one of his All-American Eagles—developed clutch trouble and didn't make an official run. He was left in a bind, with a commitment to prepare one of his cars for the Monaco Grand Prix race May 22.

Baseball Suit Is Headed for State Supreme Court

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The antitrust battle over the Braves was pointed toward the Wisconsin Supreme Court today with the National League still faced with an expansion deadline it says it will ignore. Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller refused Friday to lift his dead-line of noon Monday for the league to submit blueprints for an expansion team for Milwaukee in 1967. Roller has ruled that the Braves must be returned from Atlanta Wednesday if the deadline is surmounted.

Warren Giles, National League president, and William Bartholomay, chairman of the Braves, said baseball attorneys would go ahead with plans to appeal the antitrust conviction to the state's highest court.

Atty. Gen. Bronson La Follette of Wisconsin said he expected baseball attorneys to ask the state Supreme Court to decide on the appeal by July. La Follette said the state, which filed the antitrust suit, favored an early ruling.

Roller found the National League and its 16 member clubs guilty one month ago of violating the state's antitrust laws by moving the Braves to Atlanta and leaving Milwaukee without a major league team.

He formally refused Friday to stay his order for the return of baseball while the verdict is being appealed. Roller said an appeal would not be heard normally until September, near the end of the season.

The judge, who said he would reconsider his refusal if the appeal could be speeded, met privately for 40 minutes with baseball and state attorneys Friday afternoon. He would not comment on the discussion but did say the legal situation had not changed as a result of the talks.

La Follette indicated the possibility of Supreme Court priority for an appeal had been discussed. He said it was his understanding that baseball attorneys would seek a meeting Monday with the chief justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. La Follette said he expected

Woodworth Says Fishing Doubtful

BOISE (AP)—John R. Woodworth, director of the Idaho Fish and Game Department, has doubts about commercial fishing for summer chinook because of low water levels in the Snake River.

Woodworth said Friday no meetings have been scheduled by the Oregon Fish Commission and the Washington Department of Fisheries, regulating fishery agencies on the Columbia River.

He also said sport fishing for summer chinook depends primarily on the run at Ice Harbor Dam on the Snake River.

Festival of Choirs to Be Presented at High School

The third annual festival of choirs will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Twin Falls High School gymnasium, featuring 400 singers. The theme is "Rhapsody in Blue."

The program will feature the combined choirs of O'Leary Junior High School, Robert Stuart Junior High School, Twin Falls High School, selections by individual choirs and solos by various students. The directors are R. Stan Owens and Mrs. Richard Rahn.

The program will begin with "It's a Grand Night for Singing," by Rodgers and Hammerstein, by combined choruses. This will be followed by the O'Leary Choir and Soloists who will sing "This Land Is Your Land," Guthrie, and "Lemon Tree," by Holt. They will be accompanied by Debra Seams and Bonita Lammers.

The Robert Stuart Girls' Chorus will sing "Alleluia, Alleluia," by Kopeloff, "Wells Fargo Wagon," Wilson, and "Bling Ploughman," Radcliffe. They will be accompanied by Jauna Stokes, Kym Sorenson, and Susan Johnson.

The Senior High Chorus will sing "County Fair," Davenport, and "Charlottown," Bryant, accompanied by Cheryl Krueger. The Senior High Madrigal Singers will present "Jamaica Farewell," House, and "If I Had a Hammer," Ray. They will be accompanied by Nancy Frazier.

The Senior High Girls' Chorus will sing "Kentucky Babe," Buck-Greber, and "Forest Hymn," Moore. Klemm, accompanied by Miss Frazier. Next, a group called "Just Us" will sing "Sweetheart Tree," Mercer-Mancini, and "Green Leaves of Summer," Webster-Timoklin.

The Senior High Concert Choir will take the program under the direction of student director, Carolyn Brodine with "These Are the Times," Bryan, and "Kyrie From African Mass," Luboff. They will be accompanied by Nancy Brackley and Charles Lassen.

Following intermission Carolyn Brodine will sing Tangore's "Do Not Go My Love," accompanied by Nancy Brackley. The song was written by Tangore when his mother died and depicts his love for her as her life slowly drains away.

In a second appearance, the "Odds and Ends" will sing "Lavender Blue," Morey-Daniel, and "Red Roses for a Blue Lady," Popper-Bennett, accompanied by Ruth Norris and Bonita Lammers.

The Robert Stuart Girls' Chorus will sing "Blue Tail Fly," Ryg, and "Blue Horizon," Robinson in Whiting, Harling, accompanied by Launa Stokes.

"Blue Velvet," Morris, and "Blue Bye Blues," Simpson, will be sung by the O'Leary Club Chorus, accompanied by Katherine Christensen and Cherie Krueger. Following this the Senior High Madrigal Singers will sing "Blue-It's a War," Robin, Rainer, and "Birth of the Blues," Silva, Brown, Henderson, Nancy Frazier will accompany the numbers.

"Blue Skies," Berlin, and "Blue on Blue," David-Bachara, will be sung by the O'Leary Club and the Senior High Concert Choir will sing "Blue Heaven," Whiting, Donaldson, and "Blue Tango," Parish, Anderson. Carolyn Brodine will direct the numbers, and Laynalaene. She will play the constants.

The finale will be "Father, Lead Me Day by Day," Hoppe, Stratton, sung by the combined choruses. The audience will be expected to participate.

Instrumentalists for the program will be William Felder, playing bass, and Paul Fink on the drums.

Buhl Rotary Club Holds Annual Fete

BUHL — The Buhl Rotary Club observed its annual father-daughter event with some 90 persons attending the banquet Thursday evening in the R and R Cafe banquet room.

Robert Peterson, club president, extended the welcome. Kenneth Curtis served as master of ceremonies and Warren Saunders was song leader. Background dinner music was played by Cory McMullin.

The program featured dance numbers by Patsy Anderson and Kathy Eastman, and a musical reading by Clyde Cox. Prizes went to Janet Hopworth, Melissa Erkins, Melinda Erkins, Maria Erkins and Melanie Erkins.

William Nungesser was general chairman, assisted by a k Matthews and Dave Erickson.

PLAYS AT RICHFIELD
RICHFIELD — The Mackay High School band of 37 members performed at Richfield high school Thursday morning. The band was directed by Kit McBride, a dynamic leader.

PREPARING for the annual Magic Valley Kiwanis peanut brittle sale are Armour Anderson, left, president of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club; Douglas Flint, center, president of the high school Key club, and Pierce Roan, president of the College of Southern Idaho's Circle K Club. The candy will be sold on a door to door basis throughout Magic Valley Thursday evening and the proceeds will go towards the Kiwanis youth program. Both the Circle K and the Key Club, which will assist with the sale, are student organizations sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. (Times-News photo)

School and Land Sold At Auction

KING HILL — The King Hill school and site was sold last week at a public auction to Harvey Iverson and Frank Lewis, Gooding, for $1,000. Land adjoining the school to the north was sold to W. W. Knox, for $1,600.

The sale of the building and land was authorized by the board of the Glenns Ferry school district 102.

The Hammett school building was sold to Skip Carson for $2,150 Tuesday. The King Hill school was built in 1910 and served the King Hill Community until 1953 when the school was consolidated with Glenns Ferry and Hammett districts.

A new school building was built in Glenns Ferry in 1964 and all children are transported to the new building in Glenns Ferry. For several years the grade school children were kept in the King Hill school while all high school students went to the Glenns Ferry school.

Land adjoining the JOC Park at Hammett was sold to the JOC Club members of Hammett.

Talks in I.F.
MAGIC VALLEY CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, Albion — Dr. Donald R. Neilson, president of Magic Valley Christian College, was principal speaker Wednesday at an Idaho Falls banquet honoring Junior-high students who have achieved scholastic standing.

Accompanying Dr. Neilson were his wife and members of the college quartet, Charles Miller and David Swearingen, both Boise; Raymond Rawley, Worcester, Mass., and G. Brooks Davis, Albion, assistant to the president. The event was sponsored by the Idaho Falls Kiwanis club.

CLOCK PRESENTED
RICHFIELD — An electric clock and dish towels were presented to the Richfield school cafeteria Thursday by the Richfield Outlaw Riding Club. Mrs. Udell Robinson made the presentation.

45 Pocatello Pupils Visit T.F. Museum

Forty-five fifth and sixth grade students from Pocatello visited the Herrett's Arts and Science Center Saturday as a result of an earlier visit by their science instructor.

The students, from the Lorraine Hendrix Campus School, a grade school affiliated with Idaho State University School of Education, made the one-day trip to Twin Falls via chartered bus.

Raymond Boyd, faculty member of the university and science instructor for the students visited the Herrett center earlier in the year, at which time he was favorably impressed, not only by the exhibitions but with Herrett's unusual methods of presentation.

Boyd said Saturday that he is in the process of developing an elementary science curriculum and is particularly interested in Herrett's methodology.

Boyd said he found Herrett's presentation of the development of Mathematics through various civilizations particularly interesting, along with the center's presentation of religious ideas of the civilizations discussed.

He noted that it is difficult to find a center in which a museum, planetarium and observatory are included.

"Even if we went to Salt Lake we would have to go to several different places to see all this," he said.

STANLEY BELSHER was elected student body president of the Bliss High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Belsher. Other officers include Steve Maxwell, vice president; Pamela Kemp, secretary; and Cecilia Kemp, treasurer.

BIRTH NOTED
WENDELL — Mr. and Mrs. Herschell Lamb have received news of the birth of a daughter to their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Stanton Lamb, Taipei, Taiwan, Nationalist China.

Dietrich Teacher Plans Movies to Upgrade Writing Habits of Citizens

Albert Fox, who has been teaching at Dietrich the past a "Teachers' Course in Modern, year, is heading back to Seattle Cursive Handwriting" with the soon where he plans to produce a motion picture which will ultimately and up helping Americans to write well again. Not that most of the citizens of the country can't write right now, but they do not write right. What we mean is that the writing habit has become a scrambling habit and Fox intends to do something about it. His motion picture series will get right to the point of the school trouble. It will be boomed as a "Teachers' Course in Modern, Cursive Handwriting" with the idea being that with the teachers being able to write right, then the youngsters will grow up doing the same thing. The picture series was scheduled to get under way a year ago, but prior commitments by camera crews forced postponement. Fox came to Idaho and Dietrich to mark time until the project could get off the ground. This time has now arrived and, with the close of the school year in this area, he heads back to Seattle where, at one time, he was business education teacher at the Seattle High School. He contends that most penmanship today is barely legible. While visiting in Twin Falls, he said that professional persons today do the worst job of writing, while secretaries do the best. Despite the popularity of the typewriter, handwriting will be necessary until someone invents a pocket typewriter, he contends.

He has some ideas about writing ability. For instance, he thinks children should be taught to write with a pen as soon as they are able to write, and that left-handers should be taught to write as a right-hander does, only with the paper at a different angle.

"The key to good handwriting is arm movement, and beyond that the writing style doesn't matter," Fox said. "Finger writers have no endurance." He contends that a good writing speed, with a pen, is 30 words a minute and that with proper movement, a person should be able to keep this up all day. Those who alternate between writing and printing are lucky, he says, to do 10 words a minute.

He believes that formal penmanship has a place at all grade levels in school and that actually the best time to learn is between the ages of 20 and 30. Because of his expert writing, Jaycee members are thinking about putting a handwritten copy of the American's Creed in every classroom. Twin Falls county members are currently interested in the contemplated project. He has enjoyed his year in Idaho. "The people are fine and my leisure time provided me with the opportunity to further explore the motion picture series which is now nearing a reality. Wouldn't it be a nice thing if everybody could read everybody's writing? It might be tough, but I'm going to try for this goal," he said.

ALBERT FOX thinks that people cannot write so you can read what they are writing about. The Dietrich teacher is planning a series of motion pictures on correct penmanship and leaves at the end of this school year to get the project under way in the Northwest. He is an former Seattle educator.

O'Leary Junior High School Laundry Project Proves Success

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER, Times-News Feature Editor. "I never got Mom a Christmas present before. I'll wrap this up and give it to her. She will surely like it."

The one who spoke these thoughts in the principal's office of the O'Leary Junior High School was a teen-age student. The present he was going to wrap up for his Mother's present was only a slip of paper.

But it was a special kind of paper. It was a receipt and it showed that he had worked enough hours in the towel laundry of the school to pay his registration, book and other fees.

It was a real Christmas present because his mother just didn't have the money to pay for those things herself. This one instance of a task well done, Principal John B. Campbell declares, proves that the self-supporting project at the school which ends its third year this month, is worth all the effort that has gone into it.

It was designed to teach students to appreciate honest labor, to work without trying to find ways to get out of it, to learn to pay their own way in a society which is being helped more and more all the time whether they like it or not.

It all started in the school year 1963-64 when Campbell along with Glen Sheen, the coach, Kenneth Drury, the head custodian, and Dee Hanson, shop instructor, got an idea. The students, it seems, were objecting to the use of paper towels which they paid for as a part of the school fees assessed against them. The objection was becoming so acute that the boys and girls were dreaming up all kinds of ideas which would enable them to get out of taking showers at school. Or, failing this, they were sneaking in cloth towels from home and many were left in lockers with the resultant rancid odor spreading throughout the school. The problem had to be licked.

There was no problem in purchasing the cloth towels, rather the problem was in keeping them clean. The objection to paper towels had cost $1,700 a year. The 50 dozen cloth towels purchased originally (and which are still in use) were given to the school at cost by Jack Shaw, then manager of the Sears, Roebuck Co. store in Twin Falls.

Adolph Becker, of the Canyon Villa Apartments, donated 10 automatic washers which the backers of the program tore down and reassembled into three good, workable ones. Driers came from Cain's, also in Twin Falls, and with a generous discount thrown in for good measure. The other equipment was put to use and the laundry was in operation.

But the task was too much for the equipment and so in the fall of 1965 all the original equipment was replaced with heavy-duty equipment costing about $2,500 and this will be paid for over a number of years. Regardless of this equipment cost, the program is self-supporting and it is possible to pay the 120 youngsters engaged a credit for hours worked which is, in turn, credited to their school fee accounts.

Even the original equipment was not wasted. A good domestic drier and washer were given to the home economics department. As the towels become worn or frayed they go to the home economics, art or agricultural departments. Money borrowed from the home economics department has been repaid.

DUST AND DIRT are no spectators of places as such with the result constant cleaning under the much used drier—including cleaning of the lint trap—is necessary. Down on hands and knees and utilizing a vacuum cleaner is Kenneth Riley. (Times-News photo)

The Money Box

BY FRANK SCHELL

Thanks to the readers who have sent in early day merchant's tokens. Pictured are two tokens from the vicinity. The first is a 10-cent chip inscribed "C. A. Love, General Merchandise, S. E. Separator, 1914, Piller, Idaho" and the second, inscribed "S. P. Worthington, Mor. Co., General Merchandise Store of Quality, 1913, Oakley, Idaho".

Reader cooperation is earnestly solicited above all things. If you have information as to the people who distributed them or knowledge of how many different denominations of tokens they might have issued, together with any other pertinent information, please write the column and give us your information. If you know of similar tokens we might acquire, we would appreciate your writing.

In succeeding columns we will publish more pictures and ask for more information.

First question this week comes from Mrs. A. E. Y., Twin Falls. Our apologies to this lady, as we think she might have telephoned this query some time ago. She has not received an answer before because we were waiting for a special reference book for information.

Her letter follows: "I would like to inquire about a $100 bill I have from the State of Louisiana. It is dated March 10, 1914, and has the number 2650 written on it. It is signed by a state auditor and by a tax collector. It states 'Will pay to Bearer'. 12 months after a definitive treaty of peace between the Confederate States and the United States. There is a picture of a man in the upper left corner and a figure seated in the lower right corner.

"Is it a collector's item and if so, is it valuable? It is in good condition."

Answer: The Confederacy printed a great amount of paper money to finance the Civil War. In addition, the States of the Confederacy also printed money, all stating that it would be redeemed after a treaty was signed with the United States. This was wishful thinking, and when the war ended in defeat, these notes were not worth the paper they had been printed on. Of late years, collectors have begun to look for these notes, and while most of them are readily found, some are very scarce.

Your particular note is listed in "Criswell's Confederate and Southern States Currency" as Number 11, under the State of Louisiana. The picture in the upper left corner is a bust of Gov. Thomas O. Moore, with Liberty in the lower right corner. Although you do not mention it, there should be a picture of the State Capitol Building in the center of the note.

Numbers on these notes (and indeed, most early paper money) are handwritten, as are the signatures—this being done to make it harder to counterfeit the notes. Your particular note was issued from the State through "K. Collector's" value on this bill, if in very fine condition, is about $20.00. Uncirculated it sells for close to $20.00.

Question from L. P. Burley, who asks: "Are the 50-cent pieces now in circulation the same as the ones we still get silver coins?"

Answer: I do not know which coins you might have. The new silver-copper coins were put into circulation some time ago. If you examine the edge of the coin (50-cent piece) the new coinage shows a definite copper color.

Incidentally, although not publicized, some of the new 50-cent pieces have split in two, from improper bonding—leaving two coins for one—if you care for that sort of thing.

These coins are put together with a welding process under tremendous pressure, and have been subjected to various tests before release to the public. Nevertheless, a number of them have split in two when dropped on a hard surface.

(Questions on coins and currency should be sent to The Money Box, c/o The Times, Twin Falls, Idaho.)

TWO TOKENS from this vicinity are pictured above. One is inscribed as being from the C. A. Love store at Piller and the other from the S. P. Worthington store at Oakley. Readers are asked to send Frank Schell any information they may have relative to these or like tokens from the Magic Valley area. (Times-News photos)

Traditional French Cafes Giving Way to Paris Pubs

PARIS (AP) — Foreign-inspired eating and drinking spots are luring Parisians away from their traditional cafes and bistros.

"The places have names like 'Drugstore' and 'Pub,' and a new generation of socialites consider them smart. They are sprouting up everywhere — on the Right Bank, the Left Bank, in the suburbs — other places, too."

They only slightly resemble their American and British namesakes. Foreign-inspired, yes, but the comparison ends there, say the operators. They Frenchify the new price range (a few dollars a week for fun and a few francs a day for a drink and a meal).

The growing middle class may lack money for a new home or a car, but it can afford a few dollars a week for fun and a few francs a day for a drink and a meal.

The average evening food and drink bill at most of them. The gifts and gadgets — largely American and Japanese — run generally from 10 to 20 francs.

There, the station master gave them a red-carpet tour of the premises, including a look at the mysteries of the subway machine. He also described the facilities they would find aboard the train, such as the dining car and the lavatory.

One ingenious little soul exclaimed, "Oh good! I've never been to a laboratory!"

After the tour of the station, the children enjoyed a picnic in the park until tea-time.

The railroad had thoughtfully provided a special car for the trip to GOODING, so every body had a window seat from which to view the flying landscape. There was a table for exploring the train, too, and becoming acquainted with the conductor and the porter, who quizzed them at some length upon such scholastic accomplishments as alphabet and counting.

It suddenly dawned on one little boy that there was one agent unseen and unaccounted for, and he inquired anxiously, "Who is driving this thing?"

"The Conductor," said the porter, who was waiting with the bus when the small travelers reached Gooding. She carried a weary but worldly-wise load of youngsters safely home from an adventure they'll not soon forget.

At the "Drugstore St. Germain," on the site of a garish cafe that sold out, Slavik's floor plan invites customers to climb stairs to the main floor. The stairs circulate around the diners and drinkers, some of whom sit at tables around an open air well watching the shoppers on the main floor.

The "Drugstore St. Germain" and several others have movies in adjoining quarters.

Life in Green Thumb

For a slope, melon-whisk-accumulates. Be sure the carrots are dry when you put them in. Cover the crock with a stone lid, and keep in a cool room.

GERANIUM TROUBLES: I'm getting letters asking what's wrong with geraniums. There are a few diseases with which you can check. BACTERIAL STEM ROT. Troubles the leaves. Look for large yellow to brown spots which caused death of leaf from the margins inward. Control: Grow plants in cool window. Sprays by water and cutting knife or fingers.

VERTICILLIUM WILT: Causes leaves to wilt, wither and die. Control: none. BOTRYTIS BLIGHT: Most common disease of geraniums. Attacks all parts of the plant. Spores spread mainly by splashing water and air currents. CONTROL: remove all dead leaves and burn. Keep all infected flower heads picked and burn. Give good ventilation, keep plants dry. Avoid sprinkling the foliage. Spray with Zineb or Captain, 1 teaspoon to a gallon of water, applied weekly.

PHYTHIUM (Blackleg) Disease: plants have shiny, coat-black slimy wet appearance. Rot develops fast and plants die within a week. CONTROL: Disease is spread by infected rooting and potting materials. Bake soil before rooting and potting geraniums.

RHIZOCTONIA: A soil-borne fungus that attacks plants at soil line, causing brown lesions or cankers on stems. Stems are completely girdled, rot and entire plant dies. Control: Sterilize soil by baking in oven at 180 degrees for one-half hour. Avoid overwatering. A number of viruses affect geraniums but to date no known cure has been found.

WHITENESS TREES: Does it really kill insects? Actually, no. Whitewashing the trunks of trees doesn't kill off insects, because time and water do not make an insecticide.

Whitewashing does have one beneficial effect: it prevents "southwest injury," due to the sun's rays being reflected rather than absorbed.

You'll notice that on the southwest side of trees the bark is often loose, and this is called "southwest injury." Whitewashing the trunk will help prevent this. But it won't have any effect on killing or preventing insect attacks.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: D. E. of Twin Falls: "I've been told that it is possible to root an evergreen tree merely by making a cross-cut in the base of it, then place an oat in the cut and plant the tree. This works for used Christmas trees and trees freshly cut for one reason or another. I heard that the oat would cause the base of the tree to form roots. Just how does this work in forming new roots?"

I've heard that oat inserted into wounds at the base of cut evergreens would cause the tree to root, but I doubt if there's anything to the idea. I just can't see how a single oat can cause enough stimulation of roots on a cut evergreen tree. If anyone has had experience doing this, would you mind making a letter in the manner described above. I'd be happy to hear from them.

S. C. of Burley: "Please tell us how we can get petunias to be fragrant. Like they were in the North of the peninsula today have fragrance and we wonder if it is due to the way we grow them."

While petunias are not a particularly fragrant flower, most of them do have some aroma. It is particularly noticeable in the evening when the air is

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

One of the oldest buildings in the Halley area was leveled this week when the erstwhile hotel and dining room at Clarendon Hot Springs was torn down. The building was erected around the turn of the century, but for many years before that the hot mineral waters which flow from the side of the mountain just behind the site had been used for bathing. A short distance down the road is a built-a-row-of-one-room-cabins-which-became-known-as-"String Town." Coming down the canyon each evening from their prospects farther up Deer Creek, they could stop and bathe in the hot water.

At first they dug small pools in the earth. Next they built log shelters over them.

The remains of two of "String Town's" cabins are passed by all who travel up Deer Creek road.

First owners of record of the Clarendon Hot Springs property were Mr. and Mrs. Edson Johnson, who purchased the place just after 1900 and sold to Ed Flannery and his wife, who built the hotel.

The hotel rooms were rented by sufferers of what was then referred to as rheumatism, who came to bathe several times a day in the hot mineral water.

Mrs. Flannery's Sunday afternoon dinners became famous over the area. A horse-and-buggy drive the seven miles from Halley to the resort—a first-class dinner with home-made ice cream for dessert.

After the tour of the station, the children enjoyed a picnic in the park until tea-time.

The railroad had thoughtfully provided a special car for the trip to GOODING, so every body had a window seat from which to view the flying landscape. There was a table for exploring the train, too, and becoming acquainted with the conductor and the porter, who quizzed them at some length upon such scholastic accomplishments as alphabet and counting.

It suddenly dawned on one little boy that there was one agent unseen and unaccounted for, and he inquired anxiously, "Who is driving this thing?"

"The Conductor," said the porter, who was waiting with the bus when the small travelers reached Gooding. She carried a weary but worldly-wise load of youngsters safely home from an adventure they'll not soon forget.

The lure of contests holds universal charm and success in contests brings joy to youth and adult alike. So it was for two WENDELL youths and their parents. When Nancy Bunn and Kurt Bunn were rewarded with prizes in second and third places for the National cereal drawing and coloring contest, in which they both participated.

Nancy, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bunn, received a Mattel walking doll as second place winner and Kurt, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bunn received a line-printer by Mattel, as third place winner.

Best of all was the votes of commendation from the cartoon judges stating that skill and original artistry was evident in the work of the chosen contestants.

Exercises Conducted At Murtaugh

MURTAUGH — Commencement exercises were held Tuesday night in the new gymnasium for the 1966 graduating class of Murtaugh High School.

Dr. Donald Keith, dean of the College of Southern Idaho, was the speaker.

Pride and poise were played by Mrs. Jack Allred and Mrs. Kenneth Sorensen. Invocation was given by Rev. Robert McNeil.

Joyce Vittles gave the class history and Carla Rees and Gary Lee gave the class prophecy.

The salutatorian address was given by Susan Rambo. The class of '66 sang, "Moments to Remember" and "Glimpse of Tomorrow" accompanied by Mrs. Allred.

Paul Morgan gave the valedictorian address. Steve Graff read the class will.

Supt. Florin H. Hulse presented the class and diplomas were presented by Truman Eli, chairman of the school board.

Bishop Tolman gave the Benediction.

Members of the graduating class are Louis Andersen, Mike

Carol Bailey, Judy Lemmon, Debbie Perkins, Sharon Peterson, Susan Rambo, Carla Rees, Donna Slinger, Joyce Vittles, Rita Watts and Cecile Webb.

Baccalaureate services for the class were held Sunday afternoon with Rev. McNeil as the speaker.

Like Principal Campbell says, this youngster is a good youngster. And aside from that well known and proven fact, there is another to be considered.

Learning to work leaves nothing to be ashamed of.

GETS DEGREE

PAUL—Virginia Thrall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Thrall, former Jerome residents, will receive an Associate of Science degree at graduation exercises to be held Sunday at Boise College. She plans to work at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, Twin Falls.

Wayne Kiou, arts and crafts shop teacher at the High School, introduced the Filler teachers and the Hollister students who are graduating there.

Corsages and boutonnières were presented to all the students by Mrs. Glenn Nelson and Lila Chadwick—Mrs. Nelson made the corsages.

Mrs. Allen MacMullen, grade school teacher, presented the 18 sixth grade students in a group of songs. Mrs. MacMullen is music teacher also at Hollister.

David Chadwick gave an original humorous and philosophic futuristic reading on the graduating class, ending his interesting number with the song, "Near My God to Thee."

"The Count" a junior student jazz band composed of Gary Allen, Mike Sheridan, Glenn Page and Dennis Aslett, played a group of popular songs.

Helen Fleener sang "Oh, Holy City," which she sang in the Magic Valley Music Week contest. Susan, Helen, and Kathy Fleener then presented a medley of songs, with Elleen Lanting at the piano.

Last number on the evening's program was a selection of songs by Penny Cullen, who accompanied herself on the guitar.

Refreshments were served by the grade home economics committee.

Graduating students of the grade school are Pamela Miller, Sandra Ulrich, Steven Woodland, Jay Sheen, Vivian Huddellson, Diane Laughmiller, Douglas Jones, Sally Fleener, Nicky Partin, Thomas Kay, Reuben Jones, Lester Anthesis, Sonya Skinner, Shane Whitney, Rhonda White, Rodney Sheen, Rebecca Shepherd and Douglas Cowham.

Senior graduating members are Linda Peters, Edward Pastoor, Norma Boss, Susan Wolfe, Melba Ulrich, Donna Flora, Raymond Joslin, Bob Sessadan and Berry Gines.

PAUSING for a few moments as he chips in to help with the task of doing the O'Leary Junior High School towel washing is John B. Campbell, principal. He firmly believes that the operation, which teaches participating students the "art" of working, is extremely important in today's world. (Times-News photo)

Brother, Sister See Each Other After 60 Years Apart

"I'm catching up pretty fast."

The reunion is one of those family gathering affairs which sometimes take place in the lives of men—and women—but not very often after a period of time such as 60 years.

It was in 1903 that Mrs. Harrison was married in Bristol, England. Her brother was at the wedding as were the other members of her family. She saw him again just two years later when she and her husband decided to make the long jump to America.

That was the last time they had seen each other. They even lost contact with each other and for practically all that time had not been corresponded.

In the meantime Mrs. Harrison and her husband came to Idaho in 1908 and settled first in Jerome. Then they came to Twin Falls where he was a pioneer banker of the community.

He died here in 1918. Brooke married, moved around to various places including Canada and New Zealand and followed his own life. He was a veteran of World War I where he suffered wounds which resulted in his being declared in the 70 per cent bracket of disability. Although he was not given much chance to live he falls to show any ravages of time at the present. He walks with a cane but that is the only concession he makes.

When his wife died, contact was made with a niece who now lives in England. In this manner the long separation from his sister in Twin Falls, Idaho, rushed rapidly to an end when he was told where she lived and he decided that the time to visit had arrived.

He made the 14-day boat trip from New Zealand to Victoria, British Columbia, and then came overland to Twin Falls. After the all-too-brief time of catching up on the years, he returned to Victoria from where he will probably return to New Zealand in several months, although the return date is not actually set.

He laughed when he said the highlight of the boat trip was that he played bridge during the entire voyage "and I only lost cents."

While in Twin Falls he was the guest of Mrs. Marguerite Conant, a daughter of Mrs. Harrison and a niece he had never known existed, and also with Mrs. Stan Cron, another daughter — and once again a niece he had never had.

All in all it was a satisfying visit. Mrs. Harrison enjoyed it. Brooks enjoyed it. Mrs. Conant enjoyed it. Mrs. Cron enjoyed it and so did the patients and personnel at the rest home. His English was spread up and down the halls and proved to be both appreciated and contagious.

The end of the long separation of the brother and sister also ended another record of some sort for Mrs. Conant who admitted that this was the first relative of her father or mother she had ever met.

"It was the first time I ever saw one of my parents' relatives," she laughed. "Between Mother and Uncle Bill making my first visit to my grandparents, and my sister and I trying to get in a word now and then, it was quite a visit."

"I think it did us all good. After all, relatives should get together once in awhile."

FORMER TWIN FALLS newspaper executive, John Harvey, breakfasts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Smith, 1261 Fourth Avenue East, during recent visit to the city. His wife looks on. Discussions about the "old times" were much in evidence as the two couples looked back over an eventful past.

Retired Newspaper Executive Recalls Events of Early Days in This Area

John Harvey is convinced he lived in this area — and in Twin Falls — during the best days available.

Now retired, and residing at Boise, he and his wife visited here recently as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Smith and during the conversations with them — and with other friends they saw and talked to during their time in town — the "old days" came back in vivid memory.

Harvey was a newspaperman all his working lifetime. He started as a printer and before he was through and retired in April, 1964, he had been on the ladder to the top in the position of publisher.

But it was the early times in this area which are best to recall and which brought back a flood of memories vivid and amusing.

He came to this area in 1908 and by 1911 was printer-for-man for the Yellow Star. The publication was run from the premises of the Twin Falls News in Twin Falls and was the voice of the Salmon Tract.

But when he arrived he was fresh out of school and received a salary of $2 a week as an apprentice.

"And you know," he laughed, "we did not complain."

He also saw service on the Northern News along about 1900 and was in Wendell for a spell but it was in Twin Falls where he put down his roots.

Newspapering then was big business. There were three dailies published in Twin Falls. There was the Twin Falls Daily Times, The Twin Falls News and the Twin Falls Chronicle.

The most impressive structure in Twin Falls what Harvey first saw the community was the Perrine Hotel. The sidewalks were of wood — that is, the areas in which there were no sidewalks at all — and the streets were deep in dust during the dry spells and deep in mud when it rained.

When the wind blew — and there was little to stop it in those early days — the Salmon Tract really moved into the Twin Falls area.

Harvey recalls that all papers then were either Democratic or Republican. They did not keep many secrets about it in those early days as they do now.

"Every election the candidates would come around and see if the paper had changed political views," Harvey said. "Sometimes they would, right in the middle of the campaign."

MAGIC VALLEY PORTRAIT . . . Local Seed Man, Early Railroader Finds Both Past, Future Interesting

J. A. (Art) Cederquist is a man who says what he means. Right now he has pushed past the promised three score and 10 years and claims—with tongue in cheek—that he has no future.

He is quick to add, "But what a past."

In another month he will have been in business in Twin Falls a total of 37 years and has no real desire to live anywhere else. His roots are down here now; his friends are here; and he is content to take things as they come.

He is still very much active, engaged in operation of the Globe Seed and Feed Co. here, has no plans to retire and no plans to get out of doing free work for benefit of the community.

His latest venture—in which he cooperated with scores of growers—was the successful bond issue benefitting the College of Southern Idaho. Next thing this area needs, he says, is an airport large enough to take any of the big jets and he's ready to help out in the backing of that project when the time comes.

Otherwise he keeps busy communitywise as an active member of the Kiwanis Club, the Chamber of Commerce, the Elks Club (where he is a life member) and is a past president of the Idaho Eastern Oregon Seed Association.

He also takes part in activities of the American Seed Trade Association and the Western Seedsmen Association. He is a member of the LDS church.

Cederquist was born Sept. 3, 1893, in Salt Lake City and received his early education in grammar schools of that community.

For a reason he cannot explain, he turned against the games and wishes of his parents and quit school before graduation in order to take an apprenticeship with the Dayton Drug Co.

"I just wanted to master the drug trade and then I also liked the smell of a drug store," he recalled.

That desire was short lived when he was offered a railroad job at the same salary of $25 a month. But the side benefits were most interesting.

After two years he was told he would receive paid vacations and a free pass which would enable him to travel over the railroads of the West. He decided to go with the railroads.

He kept at railroad for 33 years and town west on North Main Street, the horse show headquarters.

J. A. (ART) CEDERQUIST

turned to Salt Lake City and took a job as engine fireman. That, of course, was in the days before the automatic coal stokers and, now, the diesel engines. Result was that firemen really worked and shoveled tons and tons of coal into the firebox.

"And that was a tough routine, for a kid who tipped the scales at about 125 pounds," said Cederquist, who now is much closer to the 200-pound mark.

It was about that same time that he did a stretch as a track foreman at Wendover, Utah, which, in those days, was a much livelier town than it is now. It was the first division point west of Salt Lake City and the railroad for all points south along the Utah-Nevada line for a distance of 150 miles.

It was there that he met Hazel Spencer and they were married in Wendover. That was on May 20, 1914, and they were the first couple to have the ceremony solemnized in the town.

After a wedding trip to California they both decided that was the place to go and so he continued railroading with the Southern Pacific and Northwestern Pacific, mainly at Sausalito and Willits.

It was at Willits that their daughter, Dorothy—now Mrs. L. H. (Speck) Haslam—was born.

With World War I now in full swing, railroading was on the upswing and he accepted an offer of the Western Pacific to take over the job as station agent at Gold Hill, Utah, a boom mining town.

His wages jumped to $125 a month plus supplies—more than twice what he had been making before that time.

At Gold Hill he learned his first lessons as a "trader" and was wool buyer (on the side) for such firms as Elksman Bros. of Boston and the T. B. Ford Grain Co. of Central City, Neb.

This was before the days of the Taylor grazing act and hundreds of bands of sheep wintered on the deserts of Utah, Idaho and Nevada.

"But all good things come to an end and with the war over the Gold Hill job and even the railroad disappeared. Don't ask me why, but I moved back to Wendover and purchased a pool hall. In six short months I found

Meets Press

The office of Sen. Frank Church reported Friday he will be a guest on NBC's "Meet the Press" television program Sunday following his return from his European tour.

By special arrangement the program will be carried over KMYT in Twin Falls, the senator's office noted.

Church is on a two-week "look and listen" mission as a member of the senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Bankruptcy Is Filed by Blaine Firm

KETCHUM — Greckside Arts, Inc., has filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy of the U. S. Southern District of the U. S. District Court, it was reported in Boise.

The firm, which is owned and operated by Arthur Lawrence Pyle, listed total debts of $71,101 in the petition filed with Paul Boyd, referee in bankruptcy. The firm claims $31,369 of its debts were secured by property and $38,885 were not secured.

Assets, consisting mostly of stock in trade, total $4,260, of which $750 was declared exempt. The firm started in December, 1959, and manufactured soap products and picture frames and dealt in antiques and other articles.

I was not slicker enough to operate such a place and so sold out with railroading in mind.

"A brief trip to Salt Lake City, however, changed the course of my life and I got into the seed business, being employed as an apprentice (after all these years) by the Occidental Seed Co., traveling over the West, bought and sold for the firm and stayed with them until the Globe Seed and Feed was opened in Twin Falls," Cederquist said.

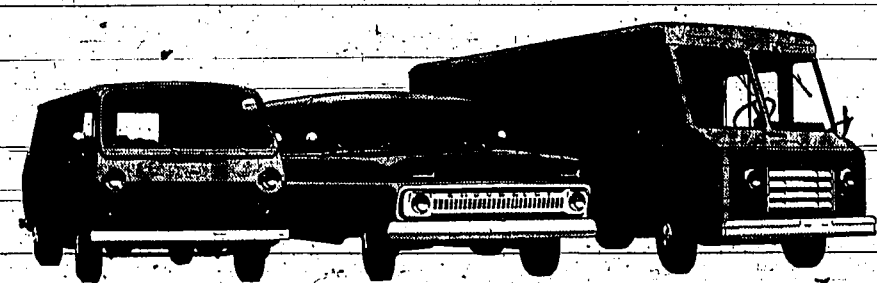

He went into partnership with Charles Barnes, who now resides in Burley, and this association lasted until 1940. The firm was then incorporated and Haslam, his son-in-law, joined the endeavor and is now manager.

"We have had a good life because of the people who associated with me," Cederquist said.

"When you have men like Larry McElliot, Garth Stevens, Paige Dyer, Arthur Greener and Jack Williams with you for a long time, just to name a few, the organization has to succeed."

Cederquist and his wife reside at 1428-Addison Avenue East. He points out he has no desire to see any more of the world. Just wants to work a little and enjoy life as it comes.

Unit Do-It-Yourself Hat Project Highlights Show

By NORMA HERZINGER

Do-it-yourself projects and women seem to go hand-in-hand, the same as women's ambitions to have a new hat when spring arrives.

When you put the two together, however, you could come up with a do-it-yourself hat project, which could be a most interesting situation.

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club Annual Hat Luncheon was such a situation, when all members were asked to try their imaginations and come up with an original hat constructed of articles found in the home.

"Imaginations Unlimited" could be a fitting theme for this hat parade, as items from every room in the house could be seen in the hats, as well as articles from outdoors. One woman used her daughter's leotards to form the basis of her creation while another used kitchen utensils. Toys from the children's toy boxes got into the act; along with Mr. Tooth Decay's most dreaded enemy.

The hat parade was held immediately after the luncheon, with Mrs. R. Beryl Lemmon receiving first prize for the prettiest hat and Mrs. Thomas Nelson scoring second. Mrs. Robert Latham was presented the prize for first place in the funniest hat division, with Mrs. Jack Smith placing second. Mrs. E. Goetz received first prize for having the most original hat, with Mrs. Ludell Waldron scoring second.

Officers of the Newcomers Club were installed during the annual May luncheon, which concluded most activities for the club for the summer month. Officers include Mrs. Donald L. Pfefferle, president; Mrs. Thomas Nelson, first vice president; Mrs. Jack Smith, second vice president; Mrs. Donald Jackson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Elbert Luhr, treasurer, and Mrs. John Holden, historian.

Knitting lessons, sponsored by the unit and conducted by Mrs. Suellen Jackson, will continue through the summer months. The annual tea is set for September and the regular luncheon meetings will begin again in October.

The purpose of the Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club is to welcome all new people to Twin Falls. This group enables many newcomers to get acquainted and make new friends.

Many programs are outlined by the club for newcomers to the community. The group sponsors a luncheon once each month, a bridge and pinocle party each month, a bowling party every two weeks and couples meet once each month with a varied program.

The local Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club is guided by Mrs. L. E. Hinton, hostess and honorary chairman. Immediately upon being notified of a new resident in Twin Falls, Mrs. Hinton makes arrangements for the newcomer to be welcomed to the community.

The Welcome Wagon Newcomers Club does a commendable job in its welcoming services in Twin Falls and is certainly an asset to the community.

ARTIFICIAL FLOWERS and greenery are the main items used by Mrs. G. (Lola) Averett in her homemade hat for the recent luncheon. Items from every room in the house could be seen in the hats at the luncheon as well as articles from outdoors. (Times-News photo)

MR. AND MRS. FRANK FISCUS

Linda Wright Is Bride of Frank Fiscus

MURTAUGH — A double ring ceremony April 18 at the First Methodist Church, Twin Falls, united in marriage Linda Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quilla Wright, Murtaugh, and Frank Fiscus, Twin Falls.

The wedding rites were performed by the Rev. Robert McNell, Kimberly, before a background of baskets of pink gladioli and white feathered chrysanthemums, and a candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of imported lace over satin. The square neckline was bordered by tiny pearls.

Her shoulder-length veil was held by a tina accented with pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink feathered chrysanthemums tied with a white ribbon.

Bonnie Wright, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Kaye Wright, cousin of the bride, and Charlene Gallely, Denver, Colo.

Flower girl was Lorrie Brasier, cousin of the bride. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Ralph Wright, Caldwell, aunt of the bride. She also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingston, Pocatello, vocalists.

Cleo Fiscus, brother of the bridegroom, Twin Falls, was best man. Ushers were Verlin Fiscus, Jerome, brother of the bridegroom, and Arthur Justus, Jerome, cousin of the bridegroom. Gene Fiscus, brother of the bridegroom, and Anita Wright, Caldwell, cousin of the bride, were candlelighters.

Mrs. Martha Wright, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book.

For the reception, the bride's table was covered with a decorated white net skirt over a white cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. DeWayne Anderson, centered the table.

Mrs. Joseph Brasier, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Kingston served the cake. Mrs. Earl Wright Jr. and Mrs. Ralph Wright, both aunts of the bride, served the punch and coffee.

Gifts were displayed by Patricia Madalena, Judy Justice and Velva Kellogg.

The women of the church were in charge of arrangements for the reception.

Receptional showers were given by Mrs. Martin Wright and Mrs. Brasier, and a personal shower by Charlene Gallely and Mrs. Taft Martin.

The next meeting is June 7 at the home of Mrs. George Blick, with Mrs. H. R. Senties as co-hostess.

Past Matrons Host Spring Luncheon Meet

BURL — Mrs. Hazel Loucks, Gooding, succeeded Mrs. Mary Peck, Buhl, as president of the Southcentral District Past Matrons Association when elections were observed at the district's Spring luncheon meeting in the Masonic Temple, Burley.

Mrs. Irene Lanker, Hagerman, was selected vice president; and Mrs. Pearl Fredericksen, Gooding, secretary-treasurer.

Entertainment was provided by the vocal group, "Sweet Adelines," memorial service for deceased members was presented by members of Evergreen Chapter No. 48, Burley.

Among the distinguished guests introduced were Mrs. Lillian Barton, Wendell; Mrs. Lillian Gregory, Rupert; and Mrs. Hope Clemons, Gooding. All past grand matrons—Grand-officers included—Mrs. Barton, grand treasurer of the Grand Chapter of Idaho OES; Mrs. Erma Morson, Farland, Paul, associate grand conductress, and Mrs. Mary Elmer, Ellor, grand marshal.

Mrs. Peck presided at the business sessions, with Mrs. Russell Thomas, Buhl, as acting secretary both members of Buhl Chapter No. 38, OES.

Approximately 110 persons representing Buhl, Burley, Rupert, Jerome, Wendell, Paul, Albion, Gooding, Hagerman, Twin Falls, Piler, Hollister and Pocatello attended the one day session, hosted by the Burley Past Matrons.

A luncheon preceded the business activities. Mrs. Edith King, Burley, gave the invocation. Mrs. Sara Harrison, president of the Burley Past Matrons Club, extended the welcome and made the introductions. Mrs. Gregory gave the response.

Tables were decorated with tulip centerpieces. Ribbon nut cups fashioned into May baskets and colorful potted pansies were at each place setting. Key rings and perfume were given as favors.

The October district meet will be hosted by the Piler Past Matrons.

Prom Royalty Crowned at Wendell Social

WENDELL — James Eckles and Janice Runyon were crowned king and queen of the Junior Prom held at the grade school auditorium.

"Pyramids on the Nile" was chosen as the theme of the prom. Dance music was furnished by the Monarchs of Boise.

Streamers of orchid, purple and silver leading to the central apex were highlighted with a revolving light, resembling a pyramid.

The grand march was led by Russell Morgan and his lady, Janice Runyon.

Prior to the prom, the Junior Senior Banquet was served. Mark Gunning gave the invocation. Edward Olson, Junior class adviser, was in charge of the introductions.

The address of welcome was given by the class president, and the response by Robert Brunetti, senior class president. Susan Harms read the history of the class of 1966, and Verna Wellard and Nicholas Freeman read the senior will to the Junior class. The prophecy for the senior class was read by Carolyn Black. Susan Cooper gave the benediction.

The waitresses and waiters, chosen from the sophomore class, included Connie Wilke, Marcia Melstad, Debbie Brown, Ynes Ydragga, Anna Schrenk.

Literary Art Guild Hosts Spring Social

Five members of the Utah State University Balladiers Group provided the program for the Literary Art Guild social at the Blue Lakes Country Club. The evening's events began with a banquet and then the group assembled in the Round Room for the program.

Members of the Balladiers participating in the program were Morris Angell, Douglas Branchley, Jon Bouwhuis, Kent Smith and Pamela Smith. They presented a varied program of ballads and folk songs, spiced with amusing anecdotes.

This group, which consists of 15 university students, is in its third year of existence. This year alone they have sung before 35,000 high school students plus numerous television appearances and special concerts.

The Balladiers have been invited to be guests May 22 on the Eugene Jelenik show which will be shown over KSL Channel No. 5. Their program consists of numbers by the full group, playing instruments from guitars to bagpipes and various sound effects and special numbers by several quartets and trios within the group.

Presiding at the social was Mrs. Vaughn M. Pond, club president. Mrs. Roy Babbal was program chairman and the program, enclosed in miniature guitars, were designed by Mrs. William M. Jones.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jacobs, Boise; Mrs. Ken Hansen, Bonifield, Utah; Mrs. Dale Hendry, Boise; Mrs. Clara Skinner, Idaho Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Cook, Mrs. Kent Smith and Mrs. Branchley, Logan, and husbands of guild members.

The Thursday meeting is at the home of Mrs. Thomas Steelman Jr. as program chairman.

Mrs. N. Finley Is Honored At Breakfast

Mrs. Naomi Finley was honored as the oldest member of the Naomi Circle of the United Presbyterian Women's Union during a May-Day Breakfast at the home of Mrs. Clifford Sutton. Mrs. Deann Wilcox was co-hostess.

Mrs. Finley, one of the first to join the Circle when it was organized, came with her husband, Charles Finley, to this area in 1911. They were both very instrumental in organizing the small community church over 50 years ago. This church later merged with the Burley Presbyterian Church.

The Ladies Aid retained their group and named their organization in honor of Mrs. Finley, the Naomi Circle, as she was the oldest living member. She is now 88 years old and resides at the Burley Nursing Home.

Mrs. J. B. Goettsche, chairman, gave the lesson. The devotional service was presented by Mrs. Wilma Blanchard. Members contributed to the Cancer Fund as a memorial to Mrs. Clive Lindsay.

A crystal basket filled with yellow flowers, centered the breakfast table which was covered with a white linen cloth. Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Edward Weide.

KATHY MILLER

Miss Miller Is Job's Daughters Honored Queen

HAGERMAN—Kathy Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Miller, was elected honored queen of Bethel No. 35, International Order of Job's Daughters at a meeting at the Masonic Temple.

Other officers are Sandra Winegar, senior princess; Vayrieta Cook, junior princess; Lynn Bennett, guide; and Marie Slane, marshal.

Carol Frith, honored queen; introduced Mrs. Arthur Daniels, newly elected worthy matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Nell Slane was presented a gift from the members for having made new robes for the Bethel. JoAnn Berry sang a solo honoring Mrs. Slane. Marie Slane gave the librarian's report, "Friendship."

The next regular meeting is May 25. Officers will be installed in June.

FROM HELD

DIETRICH—The Dietrich Junior Prom was held at the school gymnasium with the theme, "The Sweetheart Tree." Music was furnished by the Just-Us-Five from Gooding.

erved with a white linen cloth. Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Edward Weide.

WSCS Members Will Attend National Meet

KIMBERLY—Mrs. John Nelson, Wilma Campbell, Mrs. Harlan McMillan, Mrs. Eugene Krueger and Mrs. Robert McNeil are Kimberly-Hansen Women's Society of Christian Science members who will attend the National Woman's Society Assembly at Portland, Ore. The women are among a group from surrounding Magic Valley Methodist Churches who are chartering a bus to make the trip.

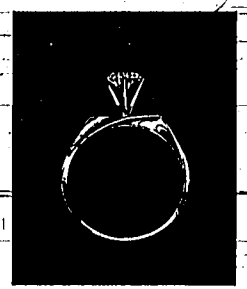

The Assembly has never met in the western area before. Because of the difficulty of obtaining funds to send members to others which have been held in the eastern part of the nation, it is seldom that even one can be sent. This time the combined WSCS is sending four.

PROGRAM GIVEN
CASTLEFORD—Mrs. John Barrow presented a program on new types of materials at the meeting of the TAS Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. Jack Kinyon.

Did you ever notice how dogs win friends and influence people without reading books about it?

An early hearing device was a fan held in the teeth. It did a fairly good job of conducting sound through the teeth, but it certainly was a handicap while eating.

With television, old movies, newer die, no matter how long ago they were shot.

Nothing that we can recall has given us so much satisfaction as the delighted customers we've fitted with the remarkable Maico "Selectronic" series aids during the past few months. These are the aids that use exclusive "Tone Selector Tuning" to adjust the aid precisely to the individual's hearing needs, amplifying those sound areas he does not hear while leaving those he does hear well at normal level.

With these versatile aids, we can fit more hearing losses, more easily than ever before. People wearing "Selectronic" aids (there are four models, including an eyeglass aid), say they "never heard it so good!"

Senior Girls Honor Mothers At Banquet

The Twin Falls High School senior girls honored their mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet at the Elks Ballroom. Sponsored by the senior unit of Girls' League, the banquet featured the theme, "My Fair Lady."

Mistress of ceremonies, Kathy Kreilkamp, opened the program with a tribute to mothers. Cathy Wylie gave the welcome and Mrs. C. G. Wylie gave the response. The invocation was given by Marta Gutierrez.

Special guests included Mrs. George Staudacher, Mrs. Sally Bright, Mrs. Marguerite Montague, and the new Girls' League president, Conna Martinson, and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Martinson.

Velma Guyer, accompanied by Nancy Brackett, sang selections from "My Fair Lady." The Just Us group, a senior folksinging group, sang several selections. Highlighting the evening was a mothers' skill written by Mrs. Charles Knoble, which portrayed the lives of the senior girls in a series of pantomimes.

Chairman in charge of the committees for the banquet include Irene Campbell, booklets; Cathie Hamlett, decorations; Rita Jankowski, tickets; Kaye Frith, publicity; Mary Anne Jackson, entertainment; Maurine Reiss, invitational; and Carolyn Brodine, group singing.

Arrangements for the banquet were made by Mrs. Henry Bowser, and Mrs. Edna Wilkening, sponsors; Miss Campbell, Girls' League president, and Miss Kreilkamp, senior unit president.

Mrs. Owsley announced that the Wednesday meeting will honor mothers and members of the Gooding DeMolay will present the mother's degree. A practice for officers will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Chaplin pouring. A decorated cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Vernon Mavencamp. Those on the committee were Mrs. Al Karloff, Mrs. Hazel Russell, Mrs. Harry LaMoine Sr. and Mrs. Newton Crawford.

SNAKE RIVER VALLEY ELECTRICAL ASSOCIATION

Chances are you have electric air conditioning where you work. Most employers know it pays for itself not only in employee comfort, but in the amount and quality of work done. You have even more reasons for needing air conditioning at home:

- It makes it easier for the home-maker to do her cooking, laundering and other chores in comfort.
- She and the whole family, will tire less easily.
- It lets people sleep better.
- It improves dispositions.
- It helps many health problems, allergies, respiratory problems, etc., and is especially helpful for babies and the elderly.
- It makes the home quieter, with doors and windows closed.
- It makes the home cleaner. Soot, dust and dirt are filtered from the air.

Give your family a better summer! Enjoy the same comfort at home as you do at work! Get electric air conditioning now!

THIS IS OUR BIGGEST ANNUAL FRIGIDAIRE SALES EVENT!!

TO THE PEOPLE OF MAGIC VALLEY

We are in our 20th year as Twin Falls' Frigidaire dealer. Today, because of our carload buying direct from the Frigidaire factory in Dayton, Ohio — because of our regular delivery and service schedule to every community in Magic Valley, because of our slogan "If we can't service it, We won't sell it"; and because of the values we have given on Frigidaire products through the years we have become one of the largest Frigidaire dealers in the Northwest (the largest in the Spokane district).

Because of this Frigidaire has set our FRIGIDAIRE WEEK quota higher than any year in the past. It is based on last year's sales during Frigidaire week. We must report our sales each night by telegram to the Portland regional office of Frigidaire. They in turn report to the Home Office at Dayton, Ohio. We have made our quota every year since Frigidaire week was started. Last year we were 2nd in the Portland region in our sales over quota.

If you plan on a new appliance for your home this year I urge you to come in during this important sales event. Select the Frigidaire model for you and be pleasantly surprised at the deal we will make you. Help yourself to big savings and help us make our Frigidaire week quota. We will be serving ICE COLD PUNCH and we will have a gift for you. Be our guest.

Sincerely,

Elvis Cain
