Riots May Delay Bill Execution

WASHINGTON (AP)—A congressional supporter of civil rights legislation said today that Negro riots and disturbances are threatening to delay enactment of a new civil rights bill.

Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, said the violence currently rocking many cities is alarming "law-abiding citizens of every race and color."

"In the long run," he told the House during debate on the administration's civil rights bill, "behavior of this type will lead to a total undermining of society where equality and civil rights mean nothing."

McCulloch rejected the argument advanced by Southern opponents that the more civil rights laws Congress passes, the more Negroes agitate for additional legislation.

"The cause of the riots," he said, "is found in 300 years of second-rate citizenship planned not by men of good will but by those who would preserve the status quo forever."

McCulloch pledged his support of the present bill, including its controversial provision aimed at easing racial restrictions on housing.

He said much of the opposition to the housing section stemmed from the fact "that people have not been fully informed in an unbiased manner" of the way it would operate.

The compromise worked out in the House Judiciary Committee, whereby individual homeowners would be exempt from any ban on discrimination, is a "measured and moderate" approach to the problem, McCulloch said.

He promised to support an amendment that would make it "debatable" whether a real estate agent acting on behalf of an exempt owner would also be exempt. That was the intent of the supporters of the compromise, he said.

Amendments cannot be offered or voted on until general debate on the bill is concluded. It is expected to be passed in several days with Southern Democrats voting to do all they can to delay a final vote.

Ohio Guard Will Be Taken From Areas

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio National Guard will gradually be pulled out of the city's East Side riot areas, with the first 450 troops leaving today, city officials said.

Another 750 men will leave Thursday and the rest of the nearly 2,000 guardsmen will leave by Sunday night, troop commander Col. Robert Canterbury said after a conference with city officials.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher said the Hough Avenue area, scene of riots and fire bombing that caused widespread damage and left four persons dead in the Negro slum last week, was quiet Monday night, "possibly the quietest night since the riot started."

The guard arrived last Tuesday, one day after the riot started.

Locher said police will temporarily stop on 12-hour shifts. Ohio National Guard commander Maj. Gen. Erwin Hostetter left Cleveland Monday night.

Meanwhile, a grand jury called to investigate the rioting toured the Hough area and adjacent districts today.

FOUR KILLED
LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Four persons were killed and 21 injured when a truck carrying an excursion party through a residential area overturned Sunday, island officials reported today.

Amelia Earhart Reportedly Died as U.S. Spy on Japanese-Held Island

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—Amelia Earhart, theatrix whose mysterious disappearance in the South Pacific gained her a place in American folk history, died as a U.S. spy on a Japanese-held island, according to a copy-right newspaper story.

The Napa Register said Monday that the pioneer aviator was captured by Japanese forces on Salpian in 1937 while she completed an intelligence mission to inspect and photograph Japanese military installations on the island.

Her body and that of navigator Fredrick Noonan were secretly returned to the United States in 1944, according to the newspaper.

"The newspaper said Miss Earhart died of dysentery and Noonan was beheaded."

Warning

The Twin Falls County Commission warned Tuesday that the water in the Fairgrounds well at Filer is unfit for human consumption.

Morris Carlson, commission chairman, said the State Health Board was testing the water and found it unfit for humans to drink, but said it may be used for any other purpose, including for watering livestock. Carlson said the reason it took them this long to announce the well's contamination was because it took 10 days to get the center, threatened the Leeward and British Virgin Islands with high seas and thunderstorms today.

Small craft were warned to stay in port as Ella passed 150 miles north of the Leeward Islands.

Early today, Ella was about 150 miles east-northeast of San Juan and 150 miles north-northeast of Anguilla, Leeward Islands.

The San Juan Weather Bureau said Ella was moving toward the west-northwest at 12 miles an hour and was expected to continue in the same direction for the next 12 hours.

Dorothy turned from a hurricane into a tropical storm as she weakened about 500 miles west-southwest of the extreme western tip of Cuba. She said she posed no threat to any land area for the next 24 hours.

Ella Defies Islands With High Seas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Tropical storm Ella, with winds up to 50 miles an hour in squalls, near the center, threatened the Leeward and British Virgin Islands with high seas and thunderstorms today.

Small craft were warned to stay in port as Ella passed 150 miles north of the Leeward Islands.

Early today, Ella was about 150 miles east-northeast of San Juan and 150 miles north-northeast of Anguilla, Leeward Islands.

The San Juan Weather Bureau said Ella was moving toward the west-northwest at 12 miles an hour and was expected to continue in the same direction for the next 12 hours.

Investigation in 1960 and was joined by the Register three years ago.

One woman was quoted as saying: "The woman the Japanese called the filer died of dysentery. She could not be helped. The man who came to the island with her was executed several days after her death. The Japanese beheaded him with a Samurai sword."

According to the Register, two former U.S. Marines, Everett Benson Jr., of Sacramento, Calif., and Billy Burns, now living in Texas, found the remains of two bodies on the island in 1944.

When they asked a supervising officer "what was he looking for," the newspaper said, he replied, "Have you ever heard of Amelia Earhart?"

Viet Cong Unleash Attack on U.S. Post

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The Viet Cong unleashed a 90-minute attack with mortars and recoilless rifles tonight on the command-post of the U.S. 25th Infantry Tropical Lightning Division at Chu Lai, 18 miles northwest of Saigon. The enemy weapons finally fell silent under the counterfire of American artillery and fiery napalm loosed by four U.S. Air Force F100 Super Sabres on the suspected gun sites. A U.S. spokesman said American casualties were very light. He had no immediate word on Viet Cong losses.

Elsewhere in the South, fighting slackened during the day, but U.S. airmen flew over typhoon winds and through monsoon rains to pound Communist targets north and south of the border.

The mortar shells started falling on the 25th Division base at Chu Lai shortly after sunset. There was no report of any casualties. First reports indicated that it was not a major attack but followed the pattern of other Viet Cong harassments on the districts of Saigon in the past few days.

A division spokesman at Chu Lai, reached by telephone, said the shelling lasted about 10 minutes.

"We are in counteroffensive phase now," he said, indicating the 25th Division gunners were shelling Viet Cong mortar positions which had been located by electronic devices.

The spokesman said he had no report of casualties.

Heavy U.S. and allied artillery firing close to Saigon rattled windows in the capital.

The "harassing and interdicting" barrages against Viet Cong positions "have been stepped up in the past few nights as guerrillas have become more active."

Six candidates contend that the Faubus issue because he swung behind Frank Holt, a 53-year-old former prosecutor, attorney general and Supreme Court justice who has denied that he has any Faubus ties.

U Thant Has Talks With Soviet Leader

MOSCOW (AP)—U.N. Secretary-General U Thant opened talks with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in the Kremlin today. The talks were expected to center on the war in Viet Nam.

A Soviet announcement said the talks were held in a warm and friendly atmosphere. The announcement said questions of United Nations activity and some problems of the international situation were discussed. It did not elaborate.

Thant, who arrived Monday, also was expected to sound out Soviet leaders on whether they think he should serve a second term as secretary-general.

Thant's first five-year term expires Nov. 3. He has promised to decide by September whether he will seek a second term. If he decides to continue in office, he will need the support of all five permanent members of the Security Council, including the Soviet Union.

BLM Crew Helps With Idaho Fire

No range fires were reported Tuesday in Magic Valley but one unit from the Bureau of Land Management was fighting a blaze seven miles west of Pocatello.

The fire, located in timber and brush land, was reported about 11 a.m.

Other BLM crews were returning Tuesday from Nevada where they have assisted Elko crews.

Two range fires were put out Monday by Shoshone district BLM crews. About 1,000 acres were blackened at the Klumma railroad crossing near Pocatello.

The second fire charred about 200 acres along the road north of Hot Springs Landing at Magic Valley. The blaze started about 4 p.m. and was reported by a hiker on Monday.

The fire was brought under control by 5 p.m., but the flames were not out until midnight.

8 Indictments Charge Speck With Killings

CHICAGO (AP)—Eight indictments charging murder were returned by the Cook County (Chicago) grand jury today against Richard Speck, 24, held in the mass killing of eight nurses.

The indictments, voted after hearing police and medical witnesses Monday, were presented to Judge Edward P. Healy who is acting chief judge of the criminal division of Circuit Court.

John Simas, assistant state's attorney who accompanied the grand jury on the 25-day walk from the jury room to the courtroom, told newsmen there were eight indictments and each charged murder.

Codfish, Beans Are On Striker's Menu

NEW YORK (AP)—Codfish and beans are back on the menu in one striker's household and a furloughed stewardess has taken a job in a charm school. But the economic squeeze on 65,000 out-of-work airline employees seems to be tolerable so far.

Most workers, however, get down to the final dollars in their last pay envelope this week. There is unemployment insurance for furloughed employees, but the striking machinists must make do on $25 weekly union benefit checks or look for outside work.

Harry Rudolph, a union spokesman at New York's John E. Kennedy International Airport, said his members rode out the first two weeks of the strike, now in its 19th day, with money from their last regular pay period which ended July 15.

Evidence that the squeeze was beginning came from a wife of a Trans World Airlines machinist who joined other wives in a demonstration at the line's futuristic terminal at Kennedy Monday.

She said her family was eating "beans and codfish cakes" and that she was contemplating borrowing money to tide them over.

A United Air Lines spokesman in Chicago said a stewardess who teaches in their training program had gone back to work in a charm school, where she had been employed previously.

In Miami, some machinists were reported to have taken temporary jobs, including tending luggage for the nonstriking lines, while a number of the women were doing housework in between their turns on the picket line.

The lines say they have lost about $126 million in revenues since the strike began July 8 and that their employees have lost about $32 million in wages.

There were indications, however, that a number of the machinists were prepared financially for the strike.

Paul Coker, lead mechanic at TWA's Kansas City overhaul base, said he saw this thing coming months ago. He started digging in right then. Got their bills paid up. Got themselves in financial shape."

Anthony DeLillo, an Eastern employee in Miami, who said he just finished paying his debts from an earlier strike, commented, "I'm willing to stay out until hell freezes over."

Share Pools

WASHINGTON (AP)—Newly youngsters soon will be splashing in 70 swimming pools at military bases across the nation.

The Pentagon has agreed to share the pools under a crash effort by the federal government to help cool off major metropolitan areas.

The Defense Department was enlisted in the new program by the Office of Economic Opportunity, which handles the government's anti-poverty program.

The OEO said several cities were seeking additional "recreational facilities" on an emergency basis immediately.

A second fire, on the north side of the canyon, was noticed, and firefighters could be seen leaving the scene.

A group of motorcycles, which they observed a car stop and "do something down the canyon," the object was apparently some type of flame ball.

Scilly Landslide Hasn't Stopped

AGRIGENTO, Sicily (AP)—City engineers said today the landslide that left nearly one-sixth of Agrigento's population homeless July 18 has not completely stopped.

About 6,000 persons who fled 50 collapsed or dangerously damaged buildings have found shelter in large tents and with relatives or friends.

Idaho's Attorney General Is Heard at GOP Women's Meet

Idaho's Attorney General, Alvin C. Shepard, and Jann Smith, the latest decisions of the Supreme Court, but that is an oversimplification with the causes more complex.

Shepard blasted the "all-time low in respect for law enforcement," Smith warned, "will stop this degeneration of law."

Smith noted that the "next four years are likely to be the most crucial ones in Idaho's history."

"We need an official," she said, "who will measure up to our fast-moving economy" and a state treasurer who will give Idaho's citizens a realistic appraisal of the state's financial condition and who will take more interest and enthusiasm in the growth of Idaho.

Stock Prices Weak After Monday Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices weakened again late today after a mild rally had nudged averages above the 1966 lows reached Monday. Trading was active. Gains that had ranged up to more than $1 a share evaporated in midafternoon, and at 3 p.m. the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was off 3.61 points at 849.22.

Aircraft, electronics and airline stocks again lost ground after showing strength early in the day. The market

Police Seek Persons Who Set 2 Fires

Officers were still searching Tuesday afternoon for the person or persons responsible for setting two brush fires near Shoshone Falls Monday night.

Charles Duke, special officer assigned to patrol the Falls area, notified Twin Falls Police about 10:30 p.m. of a fire on the south side of the canyon near the lookout point.

A fire truck was called, but tourists camping at the falls were able to bring the fire under control before the truck arrived.

A second fire, on the north side of the canyon, was noticed, and firefighters could be seen leaving the scene.

A group of motorcycles, which they observed a car stop and "do something down the canyon," the object was apparently some type of flame ball.

The extent of burned area has not yet been determined.

Freeman Predicts '66 Farm Income

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman estimated today that the nation's farmers will receive $16.7 billion, up $500 million from his forecast of three months ago and $1.8 billion over last year.

Freeman told a news conference the indicated increase reflects a generally higher level of farm product prices than had been anticipated. He pointed out in actions taken by his department to bolster producer prices of some commodities, particularly milk and soybeans.

SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY
Cooler air moving into valley lowered temperatures yesterday from 5 to 14 degrees. The higher valleys in extreme Southeastern Idaho were only cooler by less than 5 degrees. In fact, Bear Lake's 86 degree reading was identical to their previous 24-hour high temperature. Following the daytime cooling minimum temperatures last night were also lower in most valleys. The most pronounced nighttime cooling was noted in Magic Valley and the Upper Snake River valleys.

Partly cloudy skies are being reported again this forenoon in southeastern Idaho. Clearer skies are being reported in the rule in the southwestern valleys. A few sprinkles of rain fell from some of the larger clouds in the Twin Falls, Kimberly area earlier this morning. But elsewhere no precipitation has been reported in these agricultural valleys.

The coldest of the night, low pressure aloft is moving into Canada. Still some cooler-air and lower-pressure remains to the west of here along the West Coast. Moisture in the air flow into the valley shows no significant increase so that dry weather is forecast to continue for the next few days. Some view 24-hour high temperatures today would be in the 70s to 80s. Little change in temperature expected elsewhere. Maximum temperatures both days will be in the mid 80s to mid 90s. Lows tonight will be in the mid 40s into the 50s. The outlook for Thursday is for fair and warmer weather with temperatures becoming cooler after noon.

Weather conditions will remain favorable for all field work and outside activities for the next few days. Cooler nights may slow crop growth to some extent. Harvesting of winter wheat should be on the increase with preparation for harvesting spring grains near at hand. Irrigation will not be kept on schedule with no rain in sight. Evaporation from open pans during the past 24 hours was 4.0 of an inch at Parma, 3.4 of an inch at Kimberly and 3.1 of an inch at Aberdeen.

Death Valley Area Combed For Soldier

BARTSTOWN, Calif. (AP) — Rocky, blistering hot desert country where searchers looked today for a lost soldier is being described, an Army spokesman said, by one word — impossible.

"The country is so rough," he said Monday, "that you can drive along and pass within five feet of a body and not spot it. The only way to search this area is with a long line of men on foot, not more than three yards apart."

But men, especially on foot in the 115-degree temperatures at the edge of Death Valley, don't hold up long.

They're releasing about 700 men from search from two battalions, because they're exhausted," the spokesman said.

The search is for Army Specialist William J. Miller, 24, of Buhl, Utah, who disappeared more than a week ago in a jeep with 2nd Lt. Arthur Rowland Jr., Royalton, and the jeep, seen four weeks ago about four miles apart. Rowland, 25, of Monrovia, Calif., was dead, a victim of exposure and dehydration.

There's not much hope now that Cullimore survived, but we're not going to give up the search until we find him," said a spokesman for the release of the men doesn't mean we've given up."

Officials said they believe Cullimore and Cullimore, and already registered and may have to go to the polls on election day. If a person has moved since he was registered, he must be re-registered. Lancaster said he is not a candidate for election.

Rainstorms Pound Across Midwest Area

By The Associated Press
A spate of locally heavy rainstorms accompanied by powerful winds thundered across the Midwest early today.

Winds of up to 80 m.p.h. were clocked at Grand-Forty, Minn., where a storm from the Minnesota-border city Monday night, nearly 1 1/2 inches of rain fell during the storm.

Hearing in Shooting Case Starts

A sanity hearing for Lewis Gentry, held in protective custody in connection with a Saturday night shooting incident at the home of Mrs. Sharon Celand, 491 Washington St., was scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. today in Probate Court, according to Police Chief Frank Barlow.

Gentry, 33, brother-in-law of Mrs. Celand, was taken into custody after officers investigated the shooting which took place at the Celand home late Saturday night. The shooting resulted after two days of threatening phone calls, and reported prowler sightings by Gentry, police said.

Saturday, Gentry told officers a man had reached through his bedroom window and fired a large caliber pistol at him. Officers said investigation showed the bullet had been fired from inside the basement room from a .44 magnum rifle, the same caliber weapon used by Gentry, police said.

The series of events which led to the shooting began Thursday when Mr. Celand received a phone call from a man who said his conscience was bothering him in connection with the deaths of two years ago of Mrs. Celand's brother, his wife, and another woman.

Government Overseeing Unit Planned

BOISE (AP) — Proposals for the creation of a housekeeping agency for Idaho's state government were listed today for consideration by a legislative group.

The Idaho Legislative Council's Committee on Government Organization, headed by Rep. Pete T. Centurion, R-Blaine, will meet in Boise Aug. 12 and 13.

Myron Schlichte, council director, said several agencies have been asked to appear before the Committee on Government Organization and express interest in the plan for an administrative services department.

"As proposed," Schlichte said, "the department would be responsible for the routine operations of the state government, including such things as building maintenance."

It is said the plan would put in the agency all duties now performed by the purchasing agent and the Bureau of the Budget, along with housekeeping work now carried on by a number of other departments.

The State Land Department, for example, maintains the Capitol grounds. This work is transferred to the proposed department.

Sheepherder Turns Self in To Police

DUBOIS, Idaho (AP) — A 54-year-old sheepherder sought by police in eastern Idaho turned himself in Monday.

The sheepherder, Vernon Jones of Dubois, was wanted in connection with a fatal traffic accident at Blue Dome last week.

Clark County Sheriff Earl Holden said Jones turned himself in to his employer, Floyd Whitaker of Dubois.

Whittaker drove Jones to the sheriff's office in Dubois.

Jones was taken before Probate Court Judge Mildred McCune on a charge of involuntary manslaughter. Bond was set at $5,000 cash or $10,000 property. Judge McCune set a hearing for 2 p.m. Wednesday. Jones asked for the court to appoint an attorney.

The traffic accident killed a 17-year-old Pocatello youth, Darrell Crowley. A warrant for the arrest of Jones was issued when glass found at the accident scene was matched with a broken headlight in Jones' truck. Jones had been sought in the mountains after his horse returned Sunday.

Midget Race Car Kills Two Spectators

OTTAWA, Ohio (AP) — The annual Putnam County Fair ended Monday night with screams and near-panic when a midget racing car crashed a fence, killing two teen-age spectators and injuring at least seven others.

Thousands were at the fairgrounds race-track when the accident occurred as the final night of the six-day fair drew toward a close.

The racer driven by Jan Heely of Battle Creek, Mich., attempting to avoid another car that had skidded, rammed the fence.

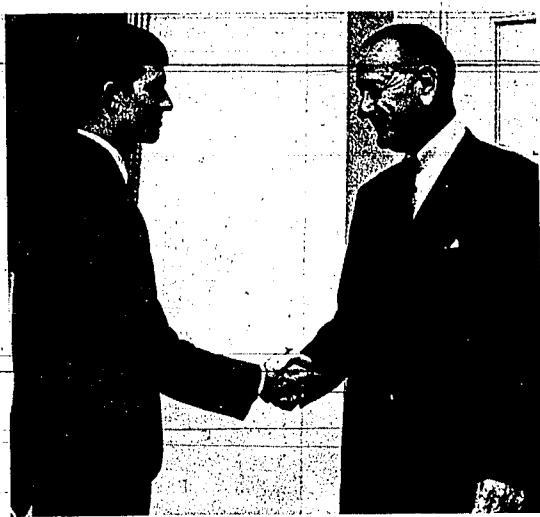

Charles Horstman, 19, was killed instantly. He suffered a skull fracture. Gary D. Burden, 18, was dead on arrival at a Lima hospital.

Another seven persons were taken to St. Rita's Hospital in Lima, 20 miles away. Five were admitted, one in serious condition.

Heely was among them, with head and facial injuries. Witnesses said one of the youths killed had been sitting atop concrete-enclosed men's rest room but jumped down into the car's path as it slammed into a section where spectators were standing about 250 feet south of the fenced grandstand.

The other victim was rolled up in the woven-wire fence as the runaway car tore down some 100 feet of it before going on through and hitting a power pole.

Heely's car, the only one that was wrecked, did not overturn.

Aide Views Ideas Toward Women

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The chairman of the U.S. Civil Service Commission has told the nation's largest meeting of career women that outmoded attitudes about women employees must be changed.

"There must be a realization that equal employment opportunity for women is not a favor to women but an economic necessity," John W. Macy Jr. said Monday at the annual Top Hat awards banquet of the National Business and Professional Women's Clubs convention.

Macy, noting that women make up one-third of the nation's labor force, said, "The fact is that high levels of economic activity—we now enjoy—cannot be maintained without the extensive employment of women, both in government and in industry."

Macy said the Johnson administration has set a goal of placing many more women in supervisory federal jobs. He said more than 3,500 women were promoted to federal jobs paying $18,600 or more in 1964 and 1965.

Full Information

The Times-News has been making every effort to provide full information for Magic Valley voters prior to next Tuesday's primary election. There has been an effort to print photographs, biographies and statements of every candidate facing opposition in the primary. The policy has been most liberal toward any candidate wishing to make a statement. In addition, the Times-News has planned to inform voters once again about the boundaries of the legislative districts and to use maps wherever indicated. It's all in keeping with the idea that a fully-informed electorate is an intelligent electorate.

It's to be hoped that Magic Valley voters will meet the challenge by turning out in record numbers next Tuesday. Although the primary campaign hasn't been impressive to date, a great deal is at stake in the election. One of the more important factors is the number of contests found on the primary ballot this year.

Twin Falls County has an election race that has never occurred before. There may be several reasons, including the fact the county is electing all three commissioners, reapportionment and a new interest in the county commission on the part of city residents. Of 12 candidates, only one is assured of the nomination, as three Republicans and two Democrats will be selected in voting next Tuesday as candidates for the November general election.

Legislative reapportionment, a brand new element in this year's primary, leaves voters to decide what it will mean for the next two years. Reapportionment is designed to require legislators to represent people instead of geographical units. Some observers have predicted it will permit the five largest cities in Idaho to control the Legislature. Others have contended it won't mean much at all because city residents will still elect county dwellers to serve in the Legislature. Part of the answer will be forthcoming when next Tuesday's ballots are tallied.

Above all, voters should remember that whatever happens in the primary election will have a bearing on their county or state business for the next two or four years, depending on the offices involved. Every voter should always keep in mind that if he doesn't bother to mark a ballot, in effect he forfeits his right to criticize other election results or official conduct of office. Voters also should keep in mind that if they don't exercise their right to vote, there's always a possibility they'll lose it.

MORE FRICTION

A landowner-hunter relationship study in the Rupert area emphasizes the continuing friction between the two groups. If the truth were known, the friction between farmers and hunters results because of the attitude of a small percentage in each group, especially hunters. If one hunter wrecks a fence or shoots a cow, all hunters are blamed. And if one farmer rejects a hunter's reasonable request to hunt on his farm, the hunter lumps all farmers together. There has to be mutual trust and mutual respect.

The hunter who fails to respect private property jeopardizes the relationship of everyone in both groups. But the farmer who reserves hunting on his farm to himself and his friends isn't above criticism either. Everyone should remember that pheasants belong to the public and hunting regulations apply equally on public or private land. Perhaps a farmer would be justified in shooting all pheasants to protect his crops, but precedents indicate he would be well advised to leave such birds where they fall.

The current study in the Rupert area shows one significant factor, namely, news stories indicate it involves only farmers. If the study were to be truly objective, it would seem apparent that it should include representatives from sportsmen's organizations and the Fish and Game Department. These two groups are equally concerned with the problem.

It is also significant that the Rupert study involves six alternatives that have been formulated. Not included on the list is the possibility of full cooperation between hunters, farmers and the Fish and Game Department to promote the best relationship possible and to crack down on roving hunters and those persons who invade privately-owned land without permission. Here's the first course that should be explored fully and given a fair trial before any move to curtail hunting in any way. Open, free hunting is an important aspect.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON—Only a little more than three months before the election, it has now become clear that the gut issue will be the high cost of filling the citizen's shopping basket. The reason is simple, to wit, that even now the Viet Nam war, which has effects only on some American families directly, whereas everybody has been hit by spiraling inflation.

The reason is easy to understand. While the national economy's real growth is declining, prices at the marketplace continue to rise.

It is in the economics of the supermarket and the shoe store that Johnson is in real trouble. Only 15 percent of those queried in the Harris Poll rate his performance as good-to-excellent in keeping down the cost of living. This is LBJ's lowest rating on any issue in the Harris Poll.

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Q—I recently heard that as we grow older our eyes become smaller. Is there any way to prevent this?
A—The eyeball does not become smaller with age. In some persons the cushion of fat in back of the eye shrinks, giving the eye a sunken appearance. This can happen at any age with malnutrition or a debilitating disease. You should maintain a good diet of nutrition and have a periodic physical checkup to rule out serious organic disease.
Q—An eye doctor said I had chorioiditis caused by toxoplasmosis. I also had a strongly positive tuberculin skin test. Does this mean I have tuberculosis? What are chorioiditis and toxoplasmosis?
A—Chorioiditis is an inflammation of the choroid, the dark layer of the eye. It is caused by toxoplasmosis, a parasite that can be found in the retina and the hard white fibrous capsule of the eye. Your doctor made a tuberculin test because tuberculosis is one cause of chorioiditis but a positive test only means that you have had a touch of tuberculosis in the past. At the time of the test it may be active or completely cured. It is why other tests must be made to confirm a diagnosis of tuberculosis.
Q—Toxoplasmosis is a disease caused by a small parasite similar to the amoeba. It frequently affects the choroid but it can be found,

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

NEW YORK—Having changed his base of operations from the White House to the Ford Library, McGee Bundy still lives close to the curb, the edge of foreign policy.

His divorce from Washington four years ago has altered in no way the role of a room manager, a room manager that was one reason he was named child so effective as special assistant to two Presidents on national security affairs.

That title, as director of his own "Little Secretariat," he performed for Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. Not the least of these was to bring the widely differing views on complex issues and show an appropriate path through the tangle. No one in the White House today fills the same function.

As President of the largest of the foundations, dispensing 250 million dollars a year, he exercises a more restricted power. But this has not dented his faculty for shearing away the irrelevant to get at what he considers the heart of a problem. The scalpel is used as deftly as in the White House phase when a Bundy memorandum was an instrument to induce reason in the unreason.

In the mounting cost of the Viet Nam war an insurmountable block to abolishing the draft and quieting the Negro rebellion here at home? These proposed demands seem to put an impossible strain on American resources, giving rise to a more and more heated controversy over priorities. Not so at all, says Bundy.

"You can, of course, put it as a complicated problem in political calculus. But there is no reason why we cannot find $15 billion a year for the Viet Nam war and $15 billion for the poverty campaign. It involves taking resources through taxes at a mild sacrifice and distributing them."

Where the money is: A U.S. Census Bureau economist says that by age 65 the average doctor has earned $717,000; the average lawyer $621,000. Folklore: It's bad luck to use an umbrella or handkerchief. If your lip-itches, it's a sign someone is speaking ill of you. You'll get warts if you wash your hands with water in which eggs have been boiled. If the bubbles on your morning coffee float toward you, you'll get money. If they float away from you, you'll lose money.

It was George Bernard Shaw who observed, "My way of looking is to tell the truth. It's the funniest joke in the world."

By their own account, the Viet Cong food problems are suffering from food shortages produced by intensification of the war, and fear that this situation will become increasingly critical for them.

Apparently, the food supplies of the insurgents in Viet Nam and in Saigon's Gia Dinh Province. There is no urgency in their appeals to people under their control and in emergency measures they are taking.

Guerrillas and troops engaged in actual fighting are being ordered also to engage in the production of rice and other crops. Old people, women and children are being mobilized in Viet Cong-controlled areas to step up production. A campaign has been started to enforce thrift among the peasants and the troops in the use of food.

The Viet Cong food problems came to light in propaganda broadcasts of the National Liberation Front, their political arm. The broadcasts concede that the August 1965 U.S. military effort has created great difficulties for the guerrilla fighters.

Of course, under present severe war conditions, the problem of food production will be difficult. But it is not a question of overcoming all thoughts of fear and hunger. With the aid of the National Liberation Front, the Viet Cong has been able to produce food in the past. It is necessary to mobilize women to engage in the production of food. The guerrillas must be encouraged to produce food and to encourage the peasants to produce food. The guerrillas must be encouraged to produce food and to encourage the peasants to produce food.

3 Longtime T.F. County Residents Seek Nomination From District 23

Contestants for the Republican nomination for state senator from legislative district 23 in the Aug. 2 primary election are Richard S. High, John W. Noh, and John P. Bertie.

High, 49, has been a resident of Twin Falls for the past 17 years. He is now engaged in farming and land development and is a former Twin Falls businessman. He obtained a BS Degree in Mining Engineering at the University of Arizona and is a graduate of the U. S. Army Command and General Staff College. He was a paratrooper company commander in the "European Theatre" during World War II, and is presently a colonel in the active army reserve. He was recently called to two weeks active duty, but said he is still very much in the campaign, and will return to the one hand and points and places in Idaho on the other hand.

High is a former president of the Twin Falls High School PTSA, a member of the Citizens-School Facilities Committee, a former cabmaster, and present director of the Twin Falls Civil Defense program. He is married and has four children. This is High's first attempt at an elective office.

Bertie, 39, was born at Mont Rose, Colo., but moved to Twin Falls when he was a year old and has resided here since. He is the manager of Bertie's Poultry Farms, Inc. and Apple Valley Farms Inc. He said he took over the operation of these corporations at the age of 28. At that time he had two employees with an annual volume of $150,000. Currently, according to Bertie, he employs more than 120 people and does an annual gross business of more than $3 million in eight western states.

Bertie is the president of the Idaho Poultry Industry Federation, vice president of the Snake River Area Boy Scout Council, a member of the University of Idaho Agricultural Counseling Council, past president of the Twin Falls PTA, and a life member of the National PTA. Bertie is married and has four children.

Noh said he is a native of Twin Falls County, attended grade school at Buhl, and graduated from Twin Falls High School. He has a degree in Business and Economics from the University of Idaho, and is head of a family corporation, Noh Sheep Co. He is engaged in the production of sheep, cattle and farm crops.

Noh was on the Murtaugh and Artesian School Board for 11 years; was president of the Idaho Wool Growers Association, Director of the National Wool Growers Association; chairman of its Public Lands Committee, one of the founders of the American Sheep Producers Council Inc. He is a member of the Idaho Sheep Commission, director of the Idaho Livestock Production Credit Association, chairman of the Sawtooth Forest Advisory Board, and belongs to the Masonic Lodge and Elks Club. He is married and has two children.

High said he is running for office because he feels he can represent the district with his knowledge of, both farm and city problems. He said, "At a time when the state's major problem is related to water utilization, my engineering background and experience in irrigation development will be an asset in the legislature."

In reference to Idaho's water problem High said we must now accept responsibility for putting our water to beneficial use, High said if we continue to depend on federal projects, in which authorization must come from the U. S. Congress, we could lose our water to the politically powerful southwestern states.

High said, "The continuation of our passive attitude risks losing our water by default. This year's serious water shortage on the Salmon River and the critical lowering of water levels on the Hansen-Murtaugh pump land point out the need for immediate action to prevent similar shortages in future years."

High said he believes the county water problem is so important that it should not be a political issue, and every candidate should actively work toward its solution. He said he urged the Idaho Water Resources Board, at a June meeting at Lewiston, to take immediate steps to implement the Salmon Falls Project.

Concerning taxes High said he favors the elimination of the inventory and livestock tax. He said this tax is unfair, difficult to collect, and penalizes certain groups unduly.

High said, as a measure to attract new business, he favors legislation permitting property tax relief to new industries for a period of up to 10 years. He noted this measure has been very effective in other states, and he added payroll has provided immediate economic stimulation, and will keep more of our youth in the state.

In discussing why he is running for office, Noh said, "As a result of Re-Appointment there will be many new people elected to the Idaho Legislature. Having made numerous trips to Washington, D. C. to initiate legislation and to testify at hearings, as well as my experience in working with leaders in the fields of public lands, livestock, farming, advertising, banking and education, I feel qualified to represent Twin Falls County in the State Legislature.

"I have the time to devote to the job and have no personal axes to grind, thus feeling I can fairly represent everyone," Noh said.

Noh said some legislative projects needing attention are the equalization of Idaho's tax structure, and the planned development of her natural resources such as land, water and recreation.

Discussing the tax issue, Noh said, "I support the sales tax as a fair and equitable system of taxation, but it goes some revising and amending." He said it was his understanding when the Sales Tax was passed, the excess money raised by the tax would be used to reduce and in some instances eliminate less fair taxes. He said this has not "come about" to the extent he thought it should have, and elected will work toward reducing real property taxes and eliminating personal or inventory taxes. He said counties and municipalities are primarily dependent on property taxes for their financing, so state money would have to be refunded to them to finance their respective businesses.

Noh also said he sees the necessity for proper planning for the future development of our land, water and recreation resources. In going along with High, Noh said, "Some politicians have been critical of the Idaho Resources Board, but politics have no place in the solution."

In general discussion Noh said, "The rapid trend toward a socialistic government needs to be reversed. The way to reverse it is to elect officials to office who recognize the danger and are willing to do something about it."

Bertie said he is making only one campaign promise and that is "If elected I will try to determine the will of the people in my district on all issues, and this will determine my vote in the legislature."

They charged Frank May-singer, 35, with stealing clock and transistor radios and a set of electric hair clippers from an apartment next to the one swept by fire.

Two Major Properties Scheduled

The strong possibility that two of the major properties scheduled for ABC-TV's "Sunday Night at the Theatre," new continuing series of contemporary dramatic classics announced in the 1967-68 season, may be included in the 1968-69 season is disclosed by Thomas W. Moore, president of the ABC Television Network.

The news developed during the press conference at ABC Television Center in Hollywood where Moore announced the new program.

With this new series scheduled for the Sunday, 9-11 p.m. time period, Moore said the major theatrical properties, which a contemporary classic, will reach and attract mass audiences with fine entertainment.

Joining Moore in the announcement of the series and at the press conference were Leonard Goldberg, ABC vice president in charge of TV network programming, who will directly supervise the project, David Susskind and Daniel Melnick of Talent Associates, who will produce the series; Gerald Leader, vice president and senior partner of Ashley-Famous Agency, Inc., and David Begelman, executive vice president of Creative Management Associates, Ltd.

According to Susskind, "Sunday Night at the Theatre" could bring back into television major creative movie people who up to now have been reluctant to work in the medium for fear of not being given enough creative freedom and financial scope.

"We will not be limited," said Goldberg, "in the writers, producers, directors and major stars available under this unprecedented collaboration of these two major talent agencies. Creative Management and Ashley-Famous are servicing this series, but Talent Associates and ABC-TV are free to draw talent from whatever area is available."

Moore stated that "Sunday Night at the Theatre" will not be a one-year project, but one which will have options for many years beyond the 12-month period.

Klemperer Said Character Actor

Werner Klemperer, co-star of CBS-TV's "Hogan's Heroes" is recognized by his peers as one of Hollywood's finest character actors.

He received an Emmy nomination for his role of the moon-faced Col. Whitcomb Keen, commandant of Stalag 13, home of the brave, but temporarily unfree, Allied POWs.

As an inspired regular, expecting a fairly dropped name or two as is customary at such favored moments, asked Werner who had been his inspiration to become an actor.

"No one," snapped the candid Klemperer. "It all started in high school when I signed up for a drama class because they told me it was an easy credit!"

Two Investigate On "Avengers"

When a sudden fault develops in the nation's early warning radar system, John Steed and Emma Peel investigate on "The Avengers" Thursday, Aug. 4 (ABC-TV, 10-11 p.m.).

In "The Greenlanders," Steed discovers that a famed scientist who was believed dead has sold special equipment to enemy agents.

Wife Appointed Chairman on TV

Fred's theatrical flair is put to the test when Wilma is appointed chairman of the show being put on by the PTA, on "The Flintstones" in color Friday, Aug. 12 (ABC-TV 7:30-8 p.m.).

In "Curtain Call at Bedrock," Wilma agrees to direct the PTA presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" on the 1968-69 season. Fred secretly yearns to play the lead, but fears stage fright and finally refuses the part. Barney is pressed into service.

New Color Series Makes Debut Soon

"The Time Tunnel," a project destined to become one of the most talked-about television series of the 1968-69 season, makes its debut in color Friday, Sept. 16 over the ABC-TV network.

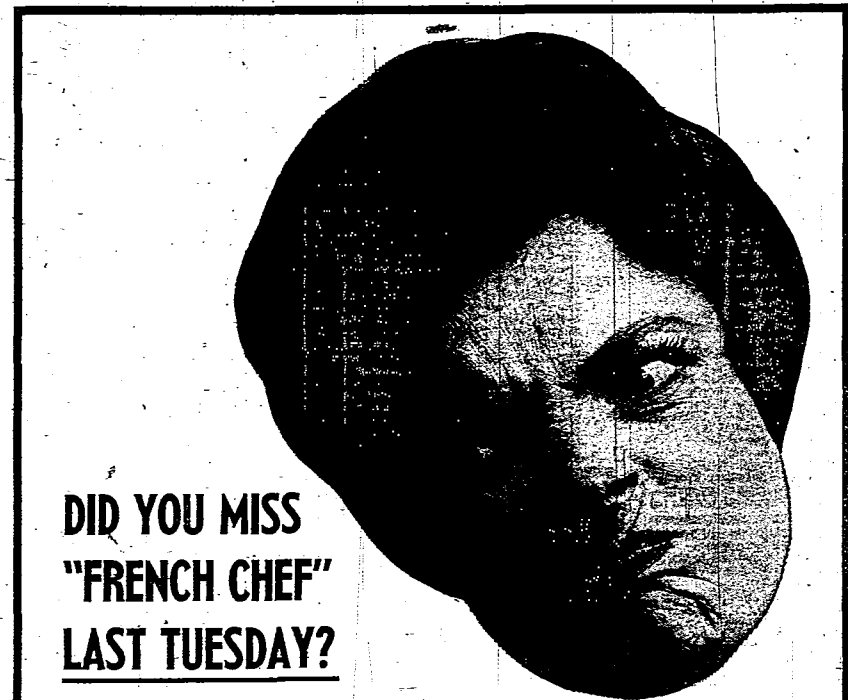

An exciting 60-minute excursion into the fourth dimension via drama, of spine-tingling suspense, the 20th Century-Fox Television production is the creation of Academy Award-winning producer Irwin Allen, possibly the most versatile filmmaker in the television and motion picture industry today.

As the leading exponent of the science-fiction-science-fact adventure entity, Allen's creativity over past years had given vent in two of television's most popular hits: "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," currently entering its third season, and "Lost in Space," last season's top-rated entry over CBS-TV.

Producer Allen has stocked his "Tunnel" with perceptive care. Sharing the leading roles in the series are James Darren, who essays the role of Dr. Anthony Newman, a young physicist who has dedicated his life to proving the feasibility of time travel; Robert Colbert as Dr. Douglas Phillips, the man who heads up the team of time travel technicians; and lovely Lee Meriwether as Dr. Ann MacGregor, possibly the most attractive distaff scientist in the annals of modern technology (she was "Miss America" in the 1955 pageant of the same name). Others in the cast include veteran character actors Whit Bissell as General Heywood Kirk; John Zaremba as Dr. Raymond Swain, and Wesley Lau as the tough Army sergeant, Jiggs.

Zsa Zsa Gabor Signs for Batman Role

Zsa Zsa Gabor, who reportedly is capable of turning strong men into defenseless boys, is set to test her talents against Batman on ABC-TV during the 1966-67 season.

Miss Gabor has been signed for the guest villainess role of The Queen of Diamonds, which is slated to get before the cameras in September.

The casting was a slight comedown for Miss Gabor. She played the Queen of Hearts on the ABC-TV animated special, "Alice in Wonderland or What's A Nice Kid Like You Doing in A Place Like This?" last March.

Singer Has Praise for Rock 'n' Roll

HOLLYWOOD — Country and Western singer Roy Clark has a good word for rock'n'roll.

Rock'n'roll has made the youngsters aware of music," he said. They listen to it. They dance to it. They don't feel it's sissy any more. When I went to school we only had ballroom dancing. There just wasn't a way I could put my arm around a girl in front of my buddies. Also, kids had to be forced to play the violin. Today they take up the guitar on their own. They get into music through rock'n'roll and eventually that leads to more challenging things.

The guitarist-singer-comedian, who is featured on the NBC television network's dance series, "Swingin' Country," is impressed with the number of youngsters who play the guitar. "When I was a kid you could go for days before you'd find a guitar player," he said. "Today just about everybody's playing guitar. The kids are so good it scares me to death."

Roy is pleased with the popularity achieved by country and Western music. "In the early picture days," he said, "Country music got a hillbilly image. This has changed in the last five years. People like NAK King Cole, Dean Martin and Al Martino recorded country music and by doing so got unashamedly like it. So the general public started to respect and country and Western music, too."

There's another reason why C and W music has gained in popularity, according to Roy. "Country music has gotten away from the hard core and lyrics," he said. "Some of those really drove people away from C and W music. Country music has been softened and made into a sweeter, smoother sound. It's also been given instrumental background support."

Ralph Bellamy Is Guest Star

Ralph Bellamy guests in "The FBI" episode "The Death Wind" as captain of a ship he sinks for insurance money to keep a hold on his very young wife, played by Elizabeth Allen, Broadway actress who starred in "Do I Hear a Waltz?"

In the same episode slated for telecast in the fall series stars Eileen Zimba, Jr. and Stephen Brooks, who was a high school medalist swimmer, don wet suits for a diving sequence at the Coast Guard station, Terminal Island, San Pedro.

Plans for ABC to Advance Premiere Shows Confirmed

Plans for the ABC Television Network to "advance premiere" a number of its 1966-67 season shows by one week were confirmed today by Thomas W. Moore, President of ABC-TV.

"We are not changing our premiere week," Mr. Moore said. "As originally scheduled, the week of Sept. 12 will be the first week of the new season in which the ABC-TV program schedule will be completely new and completely in color. What we are arranging with advertisers and producers is to 'sneak' a number of our new programs a week ahead of the common three-network premiere week to afford viewers the widest possible opportunity to see them."

Exact details of ABC-TV's "advance premiere" activities will be revealed as soon as all negotiations are completed, Mr. Moore said.

The network plans to begin "Top Talents Produce New Theme Song"

Two of the music world's top talents have combined forces to produce a swinging theme song for ABC-TV's new action series, "The Green Hornet," which premieres in September (Fridays, 7:30-8 p.m.).

Orchestrator Billy May has taken "The Flight of the Bumblebee," modernized it with a solid beat and turned it over to jazz trumpeter Al Hirt for recording.

William Dozier, executive producer of the series, said that when Hirt first looked at the score he jokingly protested that he'd need five fingers to play it. But he was equal to the task and the winning result is now being prepared for release this fall.

In addition to being the theme music for the ABC-TV series which stars Van Williams in the title role, the May-Hirt version of "The Flight of the Bumblebee" will also be available as a record.

The music has long been associated with "The Green Hornet" and was the theme for the program from its beginning in 1936 as a radio adventure show.

TALENT IMPORTANT
Is talent or sex appeal more important in show business? Werner Klemperer, co-star of CBS-TV's "Hogan's Heroes," says "talent, of course... sex appeal without talent does not even produce good sex appeal."

FAA Probes Into Crash That Took Life of Golf Pro

LANSING, Ill. (AP) — The riddle of a golf course plane crash which killed internationally famous pro Tony Lema, his wife and two other persons, was probed Monday by Federal Aviation Agency inspectors. Lema, 32, the 1964 Open champion who was known throughout the golf world as Champagne Tony, died in the flaming wreckage of a small twin-engine chartered plane that crashed Sunday evening at the edge of a lagoon near the seventh hole of the Lansing Sportsman's golf course.

Rodriguez, Cubs Edge Ogden 10-8

OGDEN — Fred Rodriguez slugged a triple to left-center with two men on in the top of the ninth inning Monday afternoon as Treasure Valley edged the Ogden Dodgers 10-8 in the final game of a five-game Pioneer League series.

The Cubs came out on top of the series 4-1. Treasure Valley had an 8-1 lead built up by the seventh inning, scoring three in the first, one in the second, two in the fourth and two in the top of the seventh. The Cubs looked like sure winners.

But the Dodgers surprised them in the bottom of the seventh, scoring seven runs before Treasure Valley could end the rally.

Rodriguez' triple, along with the two-hit, no-run relief pitching of Dick Nye, gave the Cubs the win.

Mets Rally In Eighth to Down Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — A two-run single by pitcher Dennis Ribant capped a four-run rally in the eighth inning that carried the New York Mets past Houston 6-4 Monday night.

The victory was the Mets' fifth straight over the Astros, marking the first time in the history of the two expansion teams that New York has compiled that big a winning streak against Houston.

Despite the Mets' big inning, Ribant needed relief help from Jack Hamilton in the bottom of the eighth when Houston rallied for two runs.

New York 000 200 040-6 11 1 Houston 010 000 021-4 11 1 Ribant, Hamilton (8), and Greer, Farrell, Artich (8), Latman (8) and Satterfield, W-Ribant, 6-4, L-Farrell, 4-7.

SETS RECORD

BEZIERES, France (AP) — Karen Muir of South Africa bettered the world record for the women's 200-meter backstroke Monday with a time of 2:27.1. The listed record is 2:27.4.

Cepeda Is Giant Among Cardinals

NEW YORK (AP) — Orlando Cepeda has turned out to be a giant among Cardinals, leading St. Louis in average and homers while moving into contention for the National League batting championship.

The husky Puerto Rican first baseman hit at a .452 pace last week. He collected 14 hits in 31 tries, gained 16 points and advanced from sixth to fourth place among the NL hitters.

Cepeda is only six points behind runner-up Willie Stargell. Matty Alou of Pittsburgh leads with a .377 mark followed by teammate Stargell at .337, and Roberto Clemente, the defending champ, .332.

St. Louis obtained Cepeda from San Francisco for pitcher Ray Sadecki in May.

In the American League, Minnesota's Tony Oliva, the leader the past two years, challenged Russ Snyder of Baltimore for the lead.

Snyder slipped five points to 330 while Oliva gained six points and has a .329 average. Snyder had five hits in 18 times at bat. Oliva was 13-for-33, a .394 pace.

Frank Robinson, the Orioles' big slugger, zoomed 17 points into third place at .325.

Tony Lema Open Suggested for Tourney's Name

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Directors of the Greater Dallas Open will be asked to change the name of the 1967 golf tournament to the Tony Lema Open.

Charlie Edwards, tournament chairman of this year's tournament, said Monday he would make the recommendation at the Tuesday night board meeting.

Lema, 32, a resident of Dallas when not on the professional golf tour, his wife and two other persons were killed Sunday in a plane crash in Illinois.

Brow Tops Field In Atomic Cup

PASCO, Wash. (AP) — Miss Budweiser, driven by Bill Brow, won the first running of the Atomic Cup Unlimited Hydroplane race Sunday on the Columbia River Slough.

The Detroit boat, owned by Bernie Little, won all three heats to pile up 1,200 points.

Whitfield-Led Indians Trim Seniors 6-3

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fred Whitfield hammered two home runs Monday night, leading the Cleveland Indians to a 6-3 victory over the Washington Senators.

Whitfield and Joe Accuse hit consecutive pitches from Mike McCormick for seventh-inning homers that broke a 3-3 tie. Whitfield then hit his second leading off the ninth inning.

The Senators had tied it in the fifth inning on Bob Severino's homer, following a single by McCormick.

Koufax's Arm Hurts Worst Of Career

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sandy Koufax is suffering the worst pain of his career in his arthritic elbow, his physician says, but bolstered by pain-reducing medication the Los Angeles Dodgers' great left-hander keeps pitching.

With more victories this season than any other pitcher in the majors, Koufax will go after No. 18 against the Philadelphia Phillies Wednesday night, arm permitting.

The pain has become so intense that his medicine has been increased from two to three pills a day and he recently had his first elbow injection of the season, Dr. Robert Kerlan said Monday.

Medicine can reduce pain and swelling to some extent, Dr. Kerlan said, but Koufax still feels the pain "with every pitch" and the condition is apparently permanent.

"Arthritis doesn't come and go and there's no known cure," the doctor said.

Koufax's arthritis definitely was caused by pitching, the doctor said, but added that Koufax is determined to keep pitching.

Smith Comments on Mrs. Brook's Request

RUPERT — Odell Smith Jr., candidate for representative from Legislative District 21B, said, "I'm gratified that Mrs. Brooks has now reversed her demands that all South Idaho be declared a disaster area, and now joins with me in willingness to depend on the judgment of the farmer-elected ASC committee to determine when and if Minidoka County should apply to the Department of Agriculture for disaster relief."

"Further, I would like to point out that the disaster committee is composed of the ASC committeemen, the county agent, FHA supervisor, with Soil Conservation Service acting as consultant."

"There are several types of disaster programs for areas in distress. There is FHA emergency loans at three per cent money, there is utilization of diverted acres, there is emergency feed grain programs and there is the emergency ACP program, to help conserve soil and water. Once a county, or a portion of a county is declared in disaster status, they may ask for any or all programs."

"I am not quarreling with Mrs. Brooks on whether individual counties need disaster relief. I question her impetuous statement when she said, 'All South Idaho should be declared a disaster area, we are all in the same boat.' "As a comparison, our total wheat production for the 1965 crop was 49 million acres. Mrs. Brooks may be interested to know also that the big demand in cereal grain on the world market is wheat and as yet the demand for feed grains is still building."

"Since Mrs. Brooks is a leading figure in the State Republican organization, I think she owes her constituents a few explanations," Smith said.

"Why does Idaho buy nearly $3,000,000 worth of insurance each biennium without putting it to competitive bidding, an explanation of the current administration's fish food scandal and why the Republicans haven't
