Senator Eyes Future of Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said today that if the Senate doesn't pass a civil rights bill this year, it can next year. He also discounted talk that Congress, with a heavy load of legislation still to be acted on before adjournment, might recess over the elections from Oct. 15 to Nov. 15.

The Montanan told newsmen he "knew nothing about it, and said today that if the Senate

New Home Extension Agent Feels Job Covers More Than "Needles and Pans"

A young graduate cum laude of the University of Idaho who feels that the "needles and pans" aspect of home economics has been exceedingly over-emphasized has been named as the new county home extension agent.

Mrs. Richard R. Reed, 22, will assume her new duties Aug. 22. Mrs. Reed's duties will include planning and presenting the program of the Twin Falls 4-H and home demonstration clubs.

Mrs. Reed received a Bachelor of Science degree in home economics from the University of Idaho in 1965. She was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and the Vandaleers choir group at the university. She also was a member of the Home Economics Scholastic Honorary.

Her husband, who also was graduated from the University of Idaho, is now a member of the Twin Falls law firm of Cunningham, Schwartz and Doerr.

Mrs. Reed, who originally is from Meridian, was active in 4-H throughout her school years. She was, in fact, encouraged to go into the home economics through her 4-H work.

"I am looking forward to working with the 4-H groups in Twin Falls County," she said, "primarily because I enjoyed my own 4-H work so much."

One of the duties of the Twin Falls County Home Extension Agent involves the preparation and presentation of home demonstration lessons to the officers of the Twin Falls Home Demonstration clubs. Mrs. Reed will be presenting most of these lessons herself, unless she feels that someone more qualified than herself is available, she noted.

The lessons are selected on the basis of their appeal to the club members. Mrs. Reed intends to add lessons of a more general home economics nature to her program schedule for next year. Included will be lessons on family finance, weight problems and home decoration.

"I have always felt that too many people consider the field of home economics to be restricted to cooking and sewing," she commented. "It's really much more extensive than that."

Mrs. Reed taught home economics in Lewiston High School during the school year of 1965-66.

"I realize that I have neither the age or the experience that the former home extension agent had, but I will do my best and hope that I can please the people I work with," she concluded.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—It is proper to castigate the Senate Establishment for killing any chance this year of reforming the nation's arcane and corrupt campaign machinery, but the significant little-known fact is that President Johnson set the stage for this sort of political murder by sabotaging his own reform bill from the very outset.
Johnson did this because he knew the bill was unpopular with the Senate Establishment and he wanted to provide a back door through which the boys could retreat. So he broke one of the basic laws of legislative relations by getting his bill introduced by Sen. Joseph Clark, D-Pa., the Senate's foremost anti-Establishment man, instead of sending it through channels via Sen. Howard Cannon, D-Nev., chairman of the elections subcommittee.

MUM ON OUTSIDE INCOME—Gleefully, the Establishment reacted as expected. Without even holding hearings, the Senate Elections Committee reports out a motionless bill Cannon had been proposing for several years which concerns itself mostly with giving members of Congress high ceilings on campaign expenditures. It is a bill which reflects the Capitol Hill politician's neurotic fear of divulging the sources of his outside income.

Moreover, Johnson gave his bill none of the arm-twisting support for which he is famous. He sent up the bill-period. There was no urgent appeals to Congress to do something about it, no reminders of patronage rewards for the politicians who voted against it. Indeed, the testimony of Deputy Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, who testified for the bill, was replete with equivocation and apologetic pleading.

TOO STRONG MEDICINE—Quite simply, the Administration's bill was too strong a dose of medicine for the Congressional stomach. It not only requires financial disclosures in both primary elections and by state political committees, but also would force members of Congress to submit annual reports on outside income and gifts received with a value of more than $100. Under its provisions, there would be no need for Senate to investigate and act on alleged campaign fund irregularities as it is now doing in the case of Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn.

In this connection, it is fascinating—in a horrible way—to consider the attitude of a couple of "reform-minded" members of the Senate Rules Committee. Sen. Calborne Pell, D-R.I., is one of the Senate's professional liberals, an expert at high-minded prattle about elegance and the Augustan Age. Sen. Carl Curtis, R-Utah, put thunder and lightning in his voice during the Bobby Baker case last year in demanding that Congress close the loopholes in what passes for ethics of Congress.

PRINCIPLES VS. POCKET BOOK—But both Pell and Curtis voted with the majority in rejecting out Cannon's ridiculous bill, although they had expected Pell to vote against it, deciding ballot for the Administration's bill. Pell's explanation was that he feared the Administration's bill couldn't pass the Senate, and Curtis said he had a leaf. Curtis' explanation seemed no longer interested in long-range reform. Principles are the first casualties, when a politician's pocketbook is involved.

There will be more speeches, ad nauseam, on the necessity to consider the bill, but the latest bit of humbuggery should convince the voter that neither Congress nor the White House is sufficiently interested in the subject to take any meaningful action. The loopholes, as Rep. Jim Wright, D-Texas, said, make the bill "a mockery of our ancient and inadequate campaign laws," but without those loopholes candidates might have to turn honest about their political expenses.

And so during the past two decades Congress has refused to act on no less than 17 different proposals designed to bring integrity to the useless and graft-ridden setup by which men run for public office. Clark may have been understating it when he called the Senate Rules Committee's action "outrageous."

Views of Others

NOT JAPAN'S SAY-DO
While it is true that some nations have entered into conventions to extend their fishing zones beyond their territorial three-mile limits, many others have done so unilaterally.

Japan's Fishery Agency has announced Japanese would not cease fishing within 12 miles of the American shore. If Congress adopts the 12-mile fishing zone bill, the agency made the statement that "the three-mile territorial limit is the established international practice among many nations and that any country which wants to extend the limit must obtain agreement from the countries concerned."

A compilation obtained from State Department statistics printed recently in "The Fisheries of the United States" makes it clear that nations now prohibit foreign fishing, unless by special agreement or exemption, within 12 miles or farther—ranging up to 200 miles—from their shores. Only 10 nations, including Japan and the United States, claim to the three-mile fishing zone identical with their territorial zones. Most of the 10 are small nations without important fish resources.

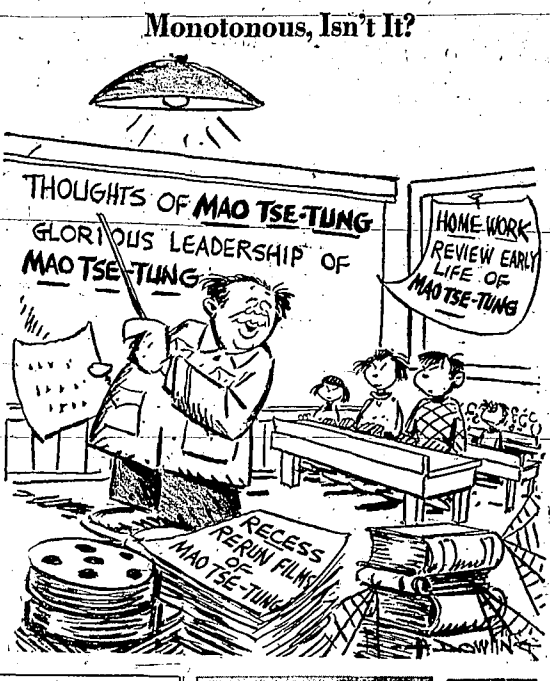

The contention that a nation must obtain a "compact with the countries concerned" to extend its fishing zone, thereby to protect its adjacent fishery resource, should not have weight with Congress, inasmuch as the legislation provides for conservation of "national" fishing by other countries in the zone waters. This might allow Japanese to continue fishing in Alaska near-shore waters, if the United States agrees. But it would not be Japan's prerogative.

The Russian fishing fleet operating off the Washington and Oregon coasts could not yet be said to have established any "traditional" right to fish in the zone waters, but it is not intended to do so. If the United States does not attempt to exclude the Soviet vessels, as Moscow has demanded, the Soviet fleet will be free to fish in the zone waters.

Moscow's agreement last weekend to begin fishing in the zone waters, in exchange for the conservation of the fishery resource in the U.S. continental shelf should not have any bearing, either, on the need for quick congressional approval of a 12-mile fishing zone. Discussions about protection of the fishery resource in the U.S. continental shelf should not have any bearing, either, on the need for quick congressional approval of a 12-mile fishing zone. POT SHOTS

FROST CASUALTY
A Pot Shots Field Agent deep in the South Hills reports there are no chockcherries in that locale this year. He didn't give an analysis, but Pot Shots presumes the cold spring with late frost accounted for the cherries.

For you good readers who might wonder "Who cares?" a word of explanation might be in order. Some persons, who are regarded in saner circles as somewhat zany, like to pick chockcherries for jelly or even syrup.

We're not sure where the Pot Shots Field Agent is hiding, or camping right at this moment, but if you were looking for him you might try on Deadline Ridge as a starter.

ALL OVER NOW

Reaching down in the wee hours of Friday morning to pull up the covers, I caught myself wondering if the new ice age had started.

Don't say you weren't warned. Summer is all over now! One of these first mornings in the next six weeks or so you'll look outside and find the flowers all dead and the lawn covered with frost.

THE DOCTOR SAYS
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

As the prevalence of emphysema has increased, so have the efforts of the medical profession to help those who have this disease. The treatment is not a simple procedure but rather a program that includes drugs, physical therapy, oxygen and breathing exercises.

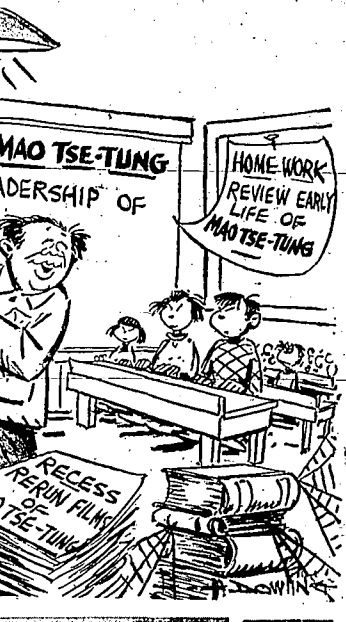

Although pure oxygen in moderation is necessary in the treatment of some persons with a severe form of the disease, it should not be used routinely. Persons with mild emphysema are usually prescribed to use oxygen to help them breathe more easily.

Monotonous, Isn't It?

Poor Man's Plato

NEW YORK (AP)—Are you looking for a profitable hobby or a way to earn a good postretirement income? Well, why not become a paid listener? It's a new and wide open field.

Hardly anybody in America listens any more. Employers don't listen to their employees. Children don't listen to their parents. Students don't listen to their teachers. Husbands don't listen to their wives.

There are even signs that Congress no longer listens to anything that Lyndon B. Johnson says.

The art of listening is about as dead as scotchwhisky, which is the art of carving in wood. People will do almost anything for each other except listen to each other. The guy who will gladly give you the shirt off his back balks at merely lending you his ear. Today it's even harder for a minister to recite the marriage ritual without eliciting the bride or the bridegroom interrupting him to ask, "How's that again? What did you say?"

They have made tremendous progress, led by men like Mao Tse-tung, who for years were fanatics in their zeal to do what they finally had a chance to do. Now they are old but still fanatic, for this was the only way of life they knew and it is too late for change. This has been the history of others, like Stalin.

Others in China realized rigidly is the condition of a corpse and change a condition of life: that in time through the evolutionary process of political parties change to adjust like bananas, crocodiles and people.

They have seen Communist parties around the world change—as in Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union—surrendering dogma to necessities and change to reality, but the critics of Mao's regime were purged.

Early this month the Chinese Communist party's Central Committee met for 13 days and they were told to change the party's line, which had been in effect since 1958.

The party line was in the euphoria about economic, agricultural and industrial success. No doubt Red China was moving forward. But you would never guess it had any setbacks and many mistakes. It had to have and, with its vast problems, it simply did not admit them.

There was one thing you would guess: it is being careful about trying a second "great leap forward." It tried a "great leap forward" in 1958—under Mao's prodding, a radical collectivization of farm and factory—and it turned into a great disaster.

This weekend's communist line may have blazed it out.

The bitter break with the Soviet Union looks deeper than ever. The communist not only accused the Soviets of betraying communism and safeguarding

OPINIONS OF A CONSERVATIVE

By BARRY GOLDWATER
Last week I watched a conservative dream begin to come true. Meeting with me were representatives of four of the most active, responsible, and patriotic conservative organizations in the land. By the time we adjourned, each group had exchanged pledges to fully cooperate in the future.

Conservatives Barry Goldwater being highly individualistic, there always has been a lack of the proliferation and duplication of organized efforts. Particularly when it is apparent that the conservative philosophy—representative to the collectivism, socialism, spendthriftism and drift of the Johnson-Humphrey welfare state, it is vital that we speak with the force of unity.

The men who met with me and who wholeheartedly agreed to cooperate were Gen. Thomas Lane and Charles McManus of the Americans for Constitutional Action; David Jones of the Young Americans for Freedom; Congressman John Ashbrook of the American Conservative Union; and Lynn Mote of the Free Society Association, which, though not engaged in political philosophies that bind us together.

It does not mean a merger of these groups or any loss of identity for the memberships or charters. It does mean, however, that each will be able to attend to those areas in which it is most capable, with other assignments going to the ones best equipped and able. It will mean that things which are not being done, but which badly need doing, can be assigned in the most effective, least-wasteful manner and without fear of the duplication that has plagued and bothered so many supporters.

As we left each other last week, we were already scheduling meaningful actions in the days ahead.

Any American concerned that the alteration of the law, representation and voting in the current administration might not clearly emerge because of lack of unity or purpose can be absolutely reassured.

Although our meeting was just beginning, starting with just four of the major organizations, there is no question in my mind that one of the most potentially powerful forces has begun to roll and that the apparent lack of many conservatives since the last election is about to come to a confident and clear turning point.

Ahead of us lies the job of reclaiming the American dream from those who have lately turned it into a nightmare of frustration, violence and waste. I have never felt more confident that we are going to do it.

Childs' Views On Washington

By MARQUIS CHILDS
WASHINGTON—The word that Richard Nixon is starting together a national organization is soon to open a Washington office underscores a question asked here with increasing urgency: What is the alternative to the Johnson-Nixon campaign?

Republicans who regard the prospect with nothing but dread nevertheless see the likelihood of a Johnson-Nixon campaign two years hence. Because there is no active, serious challenger determined to take over the party and win the nomination, it will go to Nixon as it were by default. Perhaps the saddest has one of the two great parties has no lucking in men of stature who were willing, eager and politically positioned to seek the highest office in the land.

The only other Republican contender is Gov. George Romney of Michigan. Romney, absorbed in his own campaign for reelection, has thus far not moved one inch toward an imminent French collapse and a takeover by the Communists. When word of this leaked out, President Eisenhower reacted with the idea, which Nixon had been quoted as saying: "It is impossible to lay down arms until victory is completely won."

This is just what he said in Saigon last week—more American troops must be sent to win the war. Within Nixon's party, leaders who have said that it is not enough merely to endorse Administration policy in Vietnam. In Illinois, Charles H. Percy, given a good chance to lead the nation in the Republican Party, has said that he will not support the administration's policy in Vietnam. In Illinois, Charles H. Quake Rattles Dishes in Utah Area

ST. GEORGE, Utah (AP)—A slight earthquake rattled dishes in this southwestern Utah community early this morning. The tremor was smaller than the one last Tuesday that shook parts of southern Utah and Nevada.

At the University of Utah's geophysics department in Salt Lake City, Dr. Robert Smith said tremors were recorded on his seismograph at 2:16 a.m.

There were also shocks recorded, he said, at 11:10 p.m. and 4:02 p.m. Wednesday.

But he said none of these were as large as Tuesday's tremor which was 5.3 on the Richter scale and would have done considerable damage had it occurred in or near a city.

The center of that shock was in the Nevada desert. An earthquake, that did more than $1 million worth of damage in Logan, Utah, several years ago had a Richter reading of 5.7, Smith said. He estimated Tuesday's tremor at about 4.0 on the Richter scale.

Sunday Plea

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) with Sunday no longer a legal, no-working holiday in this pre-dominantly Buddhist country, the Roman Catholic bishops have urged employers to give their workers time off to attend Mass.

They made the plea after the chamber of deputies approved legislation establishing "The Buddhist" "Poya" (Sabbath) day as the weekly day of rest. Under the law, schools and commerce will continue on Sundays.

Economic Barometer Steps Lower

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housing starts—a major economic barometer—dropped again during July to the lowest level since the depths of the 1930 recession, the Commerce Department reported today.

There were indications the level would go even lower. The department said housing starts dropped 16.4 per cent to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,064,000—the lowest since December 1930.

The department reported another drop during July in the issuance of building permits, a factor which indicates a further drop in housing starts for August.

"We don't like it," was the immediate reaction of the National Association of Home Builders, which has contended for months that it's been the sacrificial lamb for the administration's anti-inflation program.

The home builders have blamed the tight money market for their plight. They contend high interest rates and tight money have siphoned funds away from home mortgages and into other fields.

John Bircher Qualification Questioned

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—An investigation will be held to determine whether Idaho's John Bircher Society coordinator legally can run for office in Utah.

Utah Atty.-Gen. Phil L. Hansen said Wednesday his office will investigate some questions about Mark Anderson's residency qualifications.

Anderson, of Salt Lake City, is seeking election to the Utah State Board of Education. He recently was named Idaho coordinator for the Birch Society.

Hansen said another candidate for the board, Mrs. Peter Billings also of Salt Lake City, wrote him asking for such an investigation.

Utah Secretary of State Clyde L. Miller said Wednesday Anderson told his office he intends to remain in the board race.

INDUSTRY INCREASES

BOISE (AP)—Idaho's mobile home industry has increased by more than 50 per cent during the last three years, according to Louise Shaddock, head of Idaho's Department of Commerce and Development.

She spoke to a Wednesday banquet of members of the Idaho Trailer Coach Association.

She said the Southwest Idaho area has become one of the greatest distribution centers in the West for mobile homes.

SIGNS RENEWED

BOISE (AP)—Idaho's "Keep Idaho Green" highway signs have been renewed this summer by a four-man crew. Barney Wozniak, director of the program for the state forestry department, reported Wednesday.

Robert Jans, a history teacher at Boise's Capital High School, headed the painting crew. Other members were Roy Lindley, William Lawson and Stephen Jewell, all of Boise.

Wozniak said this is the 21st year that Idaho has used highway signs as part of its fire prevention program.

VISIT POCATELLO

POCATELLO (AP)—A recruiter for Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) will be in Pocatello all day Thursday to answer questions about the project and give out applications.

Five VISTA volunteers are assigned to the Fort Hite Indian Reservation 10 miles north of here, and two area women are serving one-year tours with the Office of Economic Opportunity project.

PROJECT APPROVED

BOISE (AP)—The State Board of Examiners approved Wednesday a project. State Aeronautics Director Chet Moulton said it is intended to aid travellers using Idaho's "intermediate" airports.

He said such airports as those at Preston, Soda Springs, Rexburg, Arco, Challis, Cascade and Emmett, among others, do not generate enough business to justify fulltime manning.

To provide some service he suggested acquiring mobile homes to be placed adjacent to such airports. They would be offered to couples who would exchange airport caretaker duties for use of the homes. Moulton estimated the cost at from $4,850 to $5,000 for each airport and was given permission for the state to pay one-half. The remainder would be provided by local airport owners.

FUND USE SET

POCATELLO (AP)—Funds from the sale of Hallford Park, Pocatello's former professional baseball stadium, will be dedicated to parks and recreation expenses, not credited to the city general fund, if recommendation of the city parks and recreation board is followed.

PAIR CAPTURED

POCATELLO (AP)—Two escapees from the Wyoming State Hospital in Evanston were captured here shortly after their escape was reported Tuesday.

The youths, 15 and 17, were taken at a service station after police received a report about "suspicious hitchhikers."

The two are being held in juvenile detention for Wyoming authorities.

STEAL RINGS

POCATELLO (AP)—Two men shoplifted two diamond rings from a Pocatello jewelry store Tuesday and later pawned one, valued at $400, for $75, police said. The other ring, worth $200, has not been located.

Police found the pawned ring about 30 minutes after the robbery, then arrested a man who admitted he pawned the ring for another man. He was released when the store owner said he was not one of the men in the store.

POTENTIAL VIEWED

BOISE (AP)—"Few people realize that 42 of Idaho's 44 counties have mining potential," said W. Carl Griner, Democratic candidate for state inspector of mines.

Griner—himself a miner—said in a statement Wednesday that the miners of Idaho deserve a man in this office who is familiar with the problems and conditions of this industry.

Griner also said he would support every candidate on the Democratic Party ticket in the November election.

BIDS TO OPEN

POCATELLO (AP)—Bids will be opened Sept. 13 for 4.6 miles of interchange highway to connect the Chubbuck and West Pocatello interchange along Interstate 84.

The project, located on the west side of Pocatello, will be three 96-foot bridges, two 292-foot overpasses and two 123-foot concrete overpasses.

The project, slated for completion within 250 working days, will complete the Interstate Highway bypass of Pocatello from all directions. Acquisition of right-of-way is also under way on two additional interstate projects west of Pocatello and near American Falls.

Siamese Twins Die in Hospital

BYRN MAWR, Pa. (AP)—Siamese twin girls born Sunday died today apparently from respiratory difficulties, Bryn Hospital announced.

The hospital said no attempt was made to separate the babies, joined at the chest and abdomen, since they died simultaneously.

The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kross, Brookline, Pa. They have two other children, aged 3 and 1.

Economy Has Problems, Despite Assurance

WASHINGTON (AP)—The economy still faces some nagging problems—high interest rates and the threat of further that the commercial banks must inflation—despite assurances held against certificates of deposit from the Johnson administration that it's strong and healthy.

Since the beginning of the year, the pattern for prices and interest rates has been steadily upward. And the wage-price guidelines, one of the administration's major tools against inflation, now have been left dead by their critics.

Even the administration, which still clings to the guidelines as official policy, is reassessing their value in the wake of this month's steel-price increases and an airline machinists' settlement which AFL-CIO president George Meany has described as wonderful.

The settlement was well above that prescribed by the guidelines.

Administration leaders expect a lessening of some of the economic pressures later in the year, but at the present time inflation and high interest rates are under intensive government study.

One top government economist only Wednesday described the containment of inflation as perhaps the greatest challenge facing the administration in the year ahead.

William H. Shaw, assistant secretary of commerce for economic affairs, urged not only restraint but also short-term sacrifices by both labor and management to keep inflation under control.

And anti-inflationary pressure was exerted Wednesday by the Federal Reserve Board as it tightened credit restrictions another notch, only one day after commercial banks had upped their interest rate for favored customers to 6 per cent.

The board raised from 5 to 6 per cent the legal minimum rate for the legal minimum banks by about $450 million.

The government noted Wednesday, however, one beneficial effect of high interest rates in reporting a balance of payments deficit of only $183 million for the second quarter of the year, the lowest quarterly figure in 12 months.

The Commerce Department credited the relatively good showing to an increase of foreign investment in high-interest deposit certificates.

But Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said this was a temporary factor and the government did not want to rely on high interest as its main tool to end the balance of payments difference between what Americans spend abroad and what foreigners spend in this country.

Asked if he considered Tuesday's increase in bank interest rates inflationary, Fowler replied: "An increase in the cost of money is an increase in costs just like wages. To that degree it can contribute to inflation."

Fowler had urged the banks to limit their credit by rejecting more loan applications rather than relying on higher interest rates.

Chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex., of the House Banking Committee, told the House Wednesday it would get a level in five years.

He urged Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said Wednesday in support of a bill that would limit interest paid on certificates of deposit of $100,000 and under to 4.5 per cent.

The stock market is feeling the effects of tight money. It hit a new low for the year Wednesday from savings and loan funds, and investors blamed it on associations and contributed to a shortage of mortgage money, mainly about the war in Viet Nam.

Highliners 4-H Club Holds Meet

Highliners 4-H club held its eighth meeting following a swimming party and potluck supper Tuesday at Nat-Soc-Pat, attended by 15 members and 25 parents and guests.

During the meeting, horse terms were discussed. Joe Gates passed out test papers and prizes were awarded to Nancy Brooks and Sandee Sommer for the most complete papers. Plans were made for decorating the fair booth Sept. 4.

Linda Crane reminded members to complete their record books as soon as possible and bring them to the next meeting, at 7 p.m. Aug. 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bean.

PLACING A SECTION of guard rail into place on the Shoshone Falls grade are, from left, Arnold Bryson, City Parks Department foreman, Clyde L. Biggers and Boyd Wilmoth, both city employees. Construction of the guard rail began several days ago and is expected to be completed early next week. Howard Johnson, city Parks and Recreation Department superintendent, said it is hoped the new guard rail will eliminate many accidents on the corner during the winter. Last year several cars missed the curve and went into the pond below. (Times-News photo)

John Day Dam Will Cause Numerous Changes Before Construction Ends

THE DALLES (AP)—Rivers between Bonneville Dam and Lewiston, Idaho, will become a string of lakes by 1968.

That's when water will be backed up behind the John Day Dam, the biggest dam in terms of electric power ever to be built by the Army Corps of Engineers. Some dams have never power but have been constructed by other agencies.

Before the dam is finished, two railroads will change their routes, four roads will be rebuilt and three towns will be relocated.

So far, the entire project is 69 per cent completed, according to Tom K. Brown, assistant chief of the Construction Division of the Army Corps of Engineers.

Water behind the structure will back up 80 miles, off the way to McNary Dam. Only the John Day Dam, 25 miles east of The Dalles, remains to be finished to form the chain of reservoirs that starts with Bonneville Dam and will extend through The Dalles Dam, John Day Dam and McNary on the Columbia River. The lakes will continue through Ice Harbor, Lower Monumental, Little Goose and Lower Granite Dams on the Snake River.

Foreign Writers' War Pay Defended

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leonard H. Marks, director of the U.S. Information Agency, has defended his agency's paying the fare for foreign newsmen to visit Viet Nam.

Marks, appearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, compared the practice with the Fulbright Student Exchange Program. Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., committee chairman and father of the exchange program, frowned on the comparison.

"I very much resent you using this analogy," he told Marks. "It is not an analogy at all."

Fulbright's committee summoned Marks after published reports that the USAID had paid the fare for 20 to 35 newsmen to visit Viet Nam. Marks said it was not an attempt to influence the newsmen's views of the war.

"We have found that in some instances reporting has been biased on lack of information or on misinformation," Marks said. "The best way to correct the situation is to enable reporters to go to the scene of the story, ask questions, and see for themselves what is happening."

Picnic Held by Elmore Grangers

KING HILL.—Annual King Hill Grange and Pomona picnic was held at the Timbers Park Tuesday evening with Mrs. Horace Lipe, Elma, home economics chairman, and Mrs. Timbers in charge.

Mrs. John Groesbeck, Mountain Home, and C. E. Spence were honored for their birthday anniversary. Mrs. Spence baked the birthday cake. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Macneek, King Hill, and Sharon Gruer, Phoenix, Ark., were guests.

The new dam is like many other such projects in its spillways, lock and wall. But one thing of the cost of the John Day project has gone just for relocation. The entire business section of Arlington, Ore., population 643, has been moved to higher ground. And a small village and Boardman in Oregon are being moved completely.

Eighty miles of Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Co. tracks are being moved in addition to 62 miles of track operated by Union Pacific. Eighty miles of highways, including U.S. 30 in Oregon, also are being moved.

A spokesman for the Army Corps of Engineers said higher standards for U.S. 30 are one reason for an increase in the estimated cost. When Congress approved the John Day Dam project in 1959, some $378 million was allocated. Now the Corps figures the cost at about $448 million.

Inflation and an increase in generating units from 10 to 18 also contributed to the higher cost, the Corps said. Room is being made for 20 units.

Even with 10 operating, John Day Dam will provide about one seventh of the electric power in the Pacific Northwest power pool. The figure includes all private and public power projects in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and western Montana.

Three of the units are scheduled to be operating in June, 1968, one year behind the original schedule. The last one are to be working in 1971, the Bonneville Power Administration says. Brown says the completion date depends on how much money is provided by Congress.

By looking at the dam from a distance, it appears as if it is nearly finished. Actually, one third of the work is still to be done. The powerhouse is about half finished and the navigation lock is about 75 per cent completed. The lock is getting some use now but won't be working full time until the spillway is blocked and the river rises. The lock is 88 feet wide and 67 feet long. The same size as most others in the Columbia but larger than the one at Bonneville Dam. Water behind the dam will be 165 feet higher than the level on the other side.

John Day is intended to improve navigation by making the water depth constant. Brown said. Boats no longer will have to fight strong currents. The dam also will provide 600,000 acre-feet of water for irrigation and flood control and create a new recreation area.

The Army Corps of Engineers is continuing work on the navigation lock, the spillway, powerhouse and dam and fish-passing facilities. At the same time, work is stepping up on the railroads, towns and roads so they will be above water by the time the last link of the new lake system is ready.

The Pentagon has acknowledged that the per-unit cost of the TFX has risen beyond estimates — from $2.0 million to about $3 million — and that the Navy version will be far heavier and less mobile than originally thought.

Costs on producing a prototype of the F111B have soared from the original $54 million to over $210 million.

Youth Corps Project OK'd For Lewiston

BOISE (AP)—Approval of a Neighborhood Youth Corps project for the Lewiston Public School District was reported Thursday by Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

A federal grant of $35,410 under the Economic Opportunity Act will aid in financing the program. It is intended to provide part-time work for young people who otherwise would be unable to continue schooling.

The project was operated during the last school year with 46 students enrolled.

Swisher Notes Sales Tax in Campaign

BOISE (AP)—State Sen. Perry Swisher said it is plain to Idaho legislators that only one gubernatorial candidate defends the "hallmark legislative session" of 1965 that enacted the sales tax.

Swisher — elected as a Republican — is a recently announced independent candidate for governor, and actively supports the sales tax. He earlier announced he would be an independent candidate for Second District congressman.

"It is ironic," he said, "that the legislature would end up without an advocate in either party."

Republican Don Samuelson and Democrat Charles Herndon — gubernatorial candidates — both have said they are neutral on the tax issue.

Herndon said that, since the sales tax will be accepted or rejected by Idaho voters in November, the tax issue should not be a focal point of the gubernatorial campaign.

Civilization Rebel Blows Self to Bits

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Earl L. Francis rebelled at civilization for all his 33 years. His lonely fight seemed impossible to win.

A thin, balding man who held a variety of white-collar jobs, Francis fled Washington, D.C., to flee the turmoil of 20th-century life, he said.

"I'll never work another eight-hour, six-day week for any man," Francis said in 1954.

He picked a mile-high peak in the Catalina Mountains, overlooking Oracle, Ariz. For a year Francis, standing 5-foot-5 and weighing 125, worked night and day on a stone and glass cabin. Up the "mile climb" where there was no road Francis hauled his building materials and he built a cozy place with electricity supplied by a power generator, running water and other conveniences. Then, he settled back to read, paint and meditate.

It happened to be on land in Coronado National Forest. An eight-foot hole in his backyard was called a gold mine by Francis but the U. S. Forest Service said he trespassed on public lands. Francis replied he would never move.

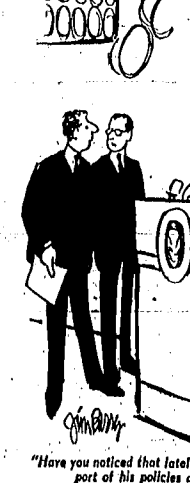

The law permits construction of a dwelling near a claim but states the claim must contain enough gold to warrant a patent or title to the land. This wasn't so with Francis' mine.

Discouraged and expecting eviction from his self-made castle, authorities said, Francis sat down on a case of dynamite Tuesday, lighted the fuse and blew himself to bits.

Gemini 11 Space Walk Is Doubled

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The length of Gemini 11 pilot Richard F. Gordon Jr.'s space walk likely will be nearly double that originally planned.

"I think there's a good chance it will be expanded," said flight director Clifford Charlesworth, who explained that the 55 minutes currently allotted the space walk might not give Gordon enough time to do all his tasks.

Flight planners are considering stretching the stroll to about 100 minutes, which would let him walk in space for a complete orbit of the globe.

Gordon, a Navy lieutenant commander, is to set out on the walk the morning of the second day — the three-day orbital journey — after he and Navy Cmdr. Charles A. Conrad Jr. catch and link with an Agena rocket the first day, Sept. 8.

McNamara Party Making Progress

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and his party were expected to reach the 10,000-foot level of Mt. Rainier today on the first leg of an ascent of the 14,410-foot mountain.

McNamara apparently is recovering from a bit of ankle trouble. The ankle was injured about three weeks ago while he was playing tennis, and was reported Tuesday to be bothering him.

Red China Indicates Defense Aide Lin Is Now Country's No. 2 Man

TOKYO (AP) — "Red China" indicated today that Defense Minister Marshal Lin Biao is now the country's No. 2 man. It gave signs he might even be on a par with Mao Tse-tung himself.

The New China News Agency said Lin, 53, standing "shoulder to shoulder" with Mao, 72, addressed a rally of people in Peking on behalf of Mao and the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist party.

It described Lin as Mao's "dearest comrade."

The official accounts, monitored here, did not say why Mao, appearing in a military uniform for the first time in years, did not speak for himself.

Evidence that the defense minister had pushed President Liu Shao-chi out of the No. 2 spot came when Lin was officially listed first after Mao.

Liu was listed eighth among those on the reviewing stand at the rally in Peking's Gate of Heavenly Peace Square. He was not called upon to speak, although he had been the spokesman for the Central Committee until the first of this month.

Neither Peking radio nor NCNA said outright that Lin had risen to his new eminence. But references to him as spokesman for Mao and the fact he was listed immediately after Mao by official organs which follow strict party protocol all but spelled it.

Premier Chou En-lai added weight to this supposition when he called on the assembled thousands to follow Lin's direction on the study of Mao's works.

It was further bolstered by Mao's appearance at the rally in military uniform, the first time in many years he has worn anything but the Sun Yat-sen jacket. This underlined the preponderant influence of the army, and of Lin Biao, in the party's affairs.

Lin himself referred several times to Mao as "the commander in chief" and "the great leader."

"We will vigorously destroy all the old ideas, old culture, old customs and old habits of the exploiting classes, and transform all those parts of our superstructure that do not correspond to the socialist economic base. We will sweep away all vermin and remove all obstacles."

The men standing beside Mao and Lin may have been members of the drastically revised political bureau of the party, a product of the plenary session.

If this assumption is correct, it means that besides purged Peking Mayor Peng Chen, Marshal Lu Piao-cheng, a Mao enemy, has been dropped. He was not among those present today.

The newcomers to the all-powerful group appear to be: Vice Premier Tao Chai, theoretician Chen Po-sha, chief of the new purge; Kang Sheng, hitherto an alternate member; Hsu Hsiang-chun, a vice chairman of the national defense council; Marshal Yeh Chien-ying; Vice Premier Po I-po; Vice Premier Hsieh Fu-chih; Li Hsiang-sheng, Peng Chen's successor as chairman of the Peking Party Committee; and Liu Ning-yi, just named a member of the Central Committee Secretariat.

Rodriguez Homers Cubs To 5-2 Pioneer League Victory Over Cowboys

Fred Rodriguez slammed a three-run homer over the left field fence in the eighth inning Wednesday night to give Treasure Valley a 5-2 victory over the Los Angeles Cowboys. Jerry Anding, who pitched to only one batter, was credited with the loss when the batter he had walked came home on Rodriguez's homer. The teams were tied 2-2 going into the eighth. The two teams will meet in the second game of a three-game Pioneer League series at 8 p.m. Thursday at Jaycee Park. Archie Reynolds went the distance for the Cubs, striking out two Cowboy batters and giving up eight hits, one a one-run homer by first baseman Adam Sapien.

Koufax Hurt As Dodgers Dropped 5-1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Leo Cardenas hit a three-run homer in the fourth inning, spilling all the Dodgers' hopes of a 20th victory and sparking Cincinnati to a 5-1 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday night.

Billy McCool choked off a dodger rally in the eighth, giving Sammy Ellis, 10-14, the victory over Koufax, 10-14, who had pitched to only one batter in the fifth inning when he injured his left elbow.

Koufax was given a cortisone injection, and Dr. Robert K. Taylor, the Cy Young award winner, may be able to take his normal starting turn against St. Louis Sunday.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Leon Wagner slammed a three-run homer in the seventh inning, boosting the Cleveland Indians to a 5-3 victory over the Washington Senators Wednesday night.

Larry Brown singled in another run in the sixth as the Indians wiped out a 3-1 Washington lead.

Rocky Colavito also hit his 26th homer for the Indians—a solo shot in the sixth inning.

Washington starter Pete Richter contributed to his own cause with a home run—his first in the seventh.

The Senators picked up two unearned runs in the fifth.

Four-Hitter Helps Tigers Beat Yankees

DETROIT (AP) — Al Kaline cracked a two-run homer—his eighth in July 1966—on July 16, and Detroit beat New York on four hits, leading the Detroit Tigers to a 4-2 victory over the Yankees Wednesday night.

Neither team got a hit through the first three innings as Wilson and Jim Bouton battled on even terms.

Jake Gibbs singled with two away in the New York fourth, and Norm Cash got the first hit for the Tigers with two outs in their half of the inning. Kaline followed with his 22nd homer of the year.

The Yankees got an unearned run in the seventh with the help of Jim Northrup's error, and Tom Tresh homered in the ninth.

Youth Dies After School Ball Practice

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A 16-year-old high school junior, whose father had tried to talk him out of playing football, died at a hospital here Wednesday after collapsing during the second day of practice.

Robert Moughabgab, son of a prominent physician, was trying out for a lineman's position on the Benjamin Franklin squad.

Cause of death was not announced pending an autopsy.

He was the second high school player in two days to succumb in football practice.

Benjamin Star Jr., 17, died Tuesday after suffering an injury while practicing with the Bishop Noll High School team in Hammond, Ind. Officials said he was dead on arrival at St. Catherine's Hospital in East Chicago, Ind. An autopsy was scheduled to determine the cause of death.

Dodgers Rip Angels 15-4, Extend Skein

OGDEN (AP) — The Ogden Dodgers won their 12th straight game with a 15-4 pounding of the Idaho Falls Angels in a Pioneer League game played in Ogden Wednesday night.

Ogden got nine hits, but the Angels committed six errors.

The Dodgers took an early 8-0 lead after two innings when Bob Harvey hit a three-run homer in the second inning.

Three hits only put five hits, and two players collected all of them, Dennis James, the Ogden pitcher had a no-hitter going for 4 1/2 innings. Steve Schneider broke the spell with a double and later scored the third Angel run when Vic Torrevillas singled him home.

In the eighth, Schneider again

Nicklaus and Palmer Named to Represent U.S. in Canada Cup

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, the Masters and British Open titleholder, and Arnold Palmer, the season's second leading money winner, were named Wednesday to represent the United States in the International Canada Cup matches at Tokyo starting Nov. 10.

In picking the game's two muscle men, the special committee of the Japanese organizers passed over the year's No. 1 golfer, Bill Casper, winner of the U. S. Open and three other tournaments, money winning leader and pace-setter in scoring averages.

The selection is left entirely to the host country. A list of U.S. players is submitted by the Professional Golfers Association and from this list is picked the two American players the hosts would most prefer to see.

Again it's Nicklaus and Palmer, two of the world's most successful and most publicized performers.

This is the fourth appearance in the matches for the 26-year-old Nicklaus, who won the individual title at Paris in 1963 and Hawaii in 1964, and the fifth for Palmer, who has shared in four team prizes but never won the individual crown.

Palmer shared the Canada Cup team victory with Nicklaus in 1963 and 1964 and with Sam Snead in 1960 and 1961.

Nicklaus paired with the late Tony Lemm last year in Madrid.

Dickson's brilliant rounds of 67 and 70 was one of the lowest 36-hole scores reported Monday. Another was a 138 by Mark Hayes, an 18-year-old Stillwater, Okla., high school boy, also at Tulsa.

Richard Eller, Old Hickory, Tenn., had a 140 at Nashville, Tenn. Ed Hopkins of Dallas, Texas, was three-under-par at 139 at Dallas, and Bunky Henry, Valdosta, Ga., was 141 at New Rochelle, N.Y., among the other leading scorers.

Coach Tells Reason for Departure

NEW-YORK (AP) — Paul (Bear) Bryant, head football coach at Alabama, wrote today in Sports Illustrated that he originally left Kentucky because of a conflict with basketball coach Adolph Rupp.

Characterizing his leaving as "probably the most stupid thing I ever did," Bryant wrote in the latest of a series of articles appearing in the magazine that his departure had nothing to do with the rumors that he was leaving to take the job as athletic director.

Bryant wrote that the problem was simply a clash of objectives between himself and Rupp over whether basketball or football should be the university's No. 1 sport. Bryant said if Rupp had retired when Herman L. Donovan, the school's president, wanted him to Bryant would "probably still be there."

Although Bryant wrote that "Rupp and I are real close now and I honestly think a lot of him," he revealed that the basketball scandal of 1953, involving Kentucky players, settled the clash between the two coaches.

According to Bryant, Donovan promised that if he was the coach that it would be Rupp's last season. But Rupp wound up signing a new 10-year contract. "That did it," Bryant wrote.

New Team Has Top Prospect From Bears

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Chicago Bears had two of pro football's best rookies last year, but a youngster they kept on the bench is a top candidate for sophomore honors with the Atlanta Falcons.

Ron Smith was rarely employed in his rookie season by the Bears, who gave him away last winter by placing him in the player pool from which Atlanta's new National Football League team was stocked.

The oversight by the Bears has clattered the Falcons, because Smith has been the Atlanta standout in all three of his exhibition games.

A defensive back, Smith is the Falcons' leading scorer with two touchdowns, and one of his three pass interceptions set up Atlanta's only other touchdown.

Smith intercepted two passes and returned a punt 42 yards in Atlanta's 67 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles.

The 6-foot, 170-pounder, who was not drafted by any pro club after an erratic career at Wisconsin, secured the Falcons' only touchdown when an 85-yard punt return in a 20-10 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals. He intercepted a pass and raced 68 yards for a touchdown in a 14-7 setback against the New York Giants.

doubled and was driven in by Torrevillas.

The Bears scored four runs in the seventh inning, and five runs in the eighth to put the game out of reach.

Mays Becomes No. 2 On Home Run Chart

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie Mays became the greatest right-handed homerun hitter in baseball history Wednesday and Jesus Alou drove in the winning run with a ninth-inning pinch-hit single as San Francisco beat St. Louis 4-3. Mays' 535 career homer, giving him one more than Jimmy Fenn and sole possession of second place on the all-time homer list, came in the fourth inning off Ray Washburn.

It was his 30th homer of the season and went over the right field fence on a line into a mob of children. The crowd of 32,035 harried a standing ovation, and Mays returned from the dugout after circling the bases and tipped his cap.

Only Babe Ruth, with 714 career homers, has hit more than the 35-year-old Giant outfielder.

Mays struck out twice and walked in his other times at bat. With the score tied 3-3 in the ninth, Tom Haller singled and moved to third on a single by Jim Davenport. Alou then batted for relief pitcher Frank Linzy and singled through the right side of the infield off St. Louis reliever Nelson Briles.

Lou Brock started the scoring with a homer in the first and the Cards took a 3-0 lead in the second on a single Dal Maxvill and a run-scoring double play by Washburn.

After Mays' homer in the fourth, the Giants tied the score in the eighth on run-scoring singles by Tito Fuentes and Willie McCovey.

Rally Leads Twins Past Angels 5-3

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL (AP) — Don Mincher, who single in the eighth inning sparked a three-run rally that lifted Minnesota to a 5-3 victory over California Wednesday night.

Mincher's hit came with the bases loaded and scored Cesar Tovar, who had been hit by a pitch, and Tony Oliva, who had reached base on a force play. Jimmie Hall then hit a sacrifice fly, scoring Harmon Killebrew, who had been intentionally walked.

The Angels had taken a 3-2 lead in the top of the eighth when Jay Johnstone tripled and scored on Zoila Versalles' wide throw to the plate on a grounder by Jim Fregosi.

White Sox Sweep Pair From A's

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Skowron hit a three-run homer in the first game, and John Romano and Tommie Agee belted solo homers in the nightcap as the Chicago White Sox won a doubleheader from Kansas City 4-2 and 5-1 Wednesday night.

Skowron's smash, his second in three games and sixth of the year, climaxed a four-run eighth inning for the Sox. It was hit off reliever Joe Akor but inflicted the loss upon starter Paul Lindblad as Bob Locker survived a one-run uprising in the ninth to post his ninth triumph in relief for Chicago.

Romano, who singled, scored twice, and drove in a run with an infield out, hit the first of three singles in the third inning of the second game. Don Buford, who had a double in each game, singled one run across in the inning, and Pete Ward's sacrifice fly gave the Sox a 7 to 0 lead over loser Vern Handrahan.

Romano's homer, his 14th, was off Handrahan in the fifth, and Agee's 16th opened a two-run sixth against Ken Sanders.

Drought Curb Forage Plants

BOISE (AP) — Growth of big game forage plants in Idaho has been retarded by the extreme drought conditions. John S. Woodworth, state fish and game director, said Wednesday.

"The lack of moisture," he said, "has affected not only the summer range, but also the forage on the critical wintering areas for deer and elk."

"A severe winter could cause serious losses of game."

Banks' shot, his 10th, came off Phillies' reliever Bob Buhl after Glenn Beckert doubled and Ron Santo was intentionally walked.

The Cubs grabbed a two-run lead in the third inning but couldn't hold it.

Rich Allen tied it at 2-2 for the Phils with a two-out, bases-empty homer in the eighth.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Aug. 18—Born today, you may give others the impression that you are extremely naive, for you appear to accept whatever is told you without batting an eye, and to take in the suggestions of others like a sponge takes in water. What others may not know, however, is that underneath that apparent lack of sophistication lies a person who is exceptionally worldly wise—one who weighs carefully everything he hears or sees, and who comes to his own decisions slowly, deliberately, and with unusual perceptivity.

Though you may at times be the butt of the joke because of your seeming childlike nature, you usually manage to turn the tables. The joke ultimately ends up being on the other fellow, for in your innocent way you manage to gain such information as to enable you to end up in a commanding position even before others realize such a position is open.

You must, however, take care that you are not at times too clever for your own good. It is unwise to play the innocent, for instance, when relations with those near and dear to you may be at stake. People in general don't like being fooled, and, most particularly, members of your own family would not welcome being treated like competitors. If you can bare your real nature nowhere else, at least do so at home.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, August 18
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Worldly prospects may appear dim at the moment, but you should have reserves of faith and energy to rise to the occasion and push on.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Find relief for the day's worries in the presence of those near and dear to you this evening. Answer questions unhesitatingly.
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Take care in the strictly financial budget today. There may be an opportunity and temptation to put you heavily out of pocket.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Avoid contesting another's viewpoint different from your own. You can best win the day by ignoring the opposition.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—An appeal to another's generosity may well be your best bet today. Sentiment may solve the problem when reason won't.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—The Capricorn who is determined to make special gains in the day had best take hard work along as his companion.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Great good fortune should reward the Aquarius whose recent deeds have been both generous and reasonable.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)—Clarity of purpose is half the battle at the present time. Have firmly in mind what you want to accomplish before you set out.

ARIES (March 22-April 20)—Don't allow a mood of cynicism to blind you to the opportunity present in what may seem like an adverse circumstance.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Re-create an experience of the past if you would find the solution to problems inherent in an experience of the present.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Let any decisions made today be provisional ones—and make sure that others know this is the case. Avoid signing documents just now.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Personal stress may put a damper on the gains made today. You should be able to measure the high degree of your success later on.

Assistant Pastor Named For Church

The new youth minister and assistant pastor of the Twin Falls First Christian Church is Rev. Scott Prier, Eugene, Ore.

The position will be the first for Rev. Prier, who received his degree from Northwest Christian College in 1966. Rev. Prier and his wife Karen both are natives of California.

The young couple will remain in Twin Falls for at least two years. Rev. Prier eventually intends to return to Northwest Christian College for work on a master's degree.

Rev. Prier's previous experience includes a one-year position as youth minister in Martinez, Calif., and part-time pastoral duties at three churches in Eugene, Ore. Mrs. Prier assisted her husband in each of those positions.

Rev. Prier joins Rev. Don Hoffman at the First Christian Church.

"My wife and I are looking forward to working with the people of Twin Falls," he concluded.

a play for six. You can draw trumps; lead a club from dummy and finesse your jack. Then if the finesse works you can play your ace and hope to drop the king.

This is the way that most players handled this dummy, at the Republic of Texas section in Fort Worth. They won the diamond lead, played three rounds of trumps and attacked the clubs in the above manner. When the king of clubs failed to drop they wound up losing a club and two spades to make their contract without any overtricks.

Five very expert South players at four hearts in a duplicate game gave themselves an extra card game. To start with your chance for the overtrick. They see that the contract is so normal that everyone else will be in way but after the jack of clubs the same spot. You also see that everyone is going to make at least four.

You also note that there is

When Brad Gibbs of Dallas who won the open pairs with Don Retz of Dallas sat West he almost was the victim of this excellent line of play. The play did not work against him because Brad saw no reason to hang on to his ten of clubs. He played it under South's jack on the first lead of the suit. After this play there was no way for South to throw him in the lead.

Q—The bidding has been:

What do you do?

A—Bid four no-trump. If your partner holds an ace, you plan to go to six. Obviously, the heart finesse will work for him.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Success of T.F. Fair Is Credited to Officials

FILER — Much of the success of the Twin Falls County Fair is because of the fair board members who donate their time and labor through the year in order to present a good county fair each fall.

The board is chosen from men from the Magic Valley area. Some have served on the board for several years and some for only one. Besides being present at the fair office during the four days and nights of the fair, they have attended many meetings during the year at which times new projects, improvements and additions for the next fair are discussed.

The directors elect a president, vice-president and secretary-manager. The late Tom Parks served as secretary-manager from 1935 to 1964. After his death, Tom Shouse accepted the position and this year will mark the second fair he has managed.

Beginning with 1916 and ending with this, the Golden Anniversary Year, a total of 66 men have served on the fair board.

Present members, besides Shouse, include Warren Barry, 1924-26.

The year 1927 saw a number of new faces at board meetings. They belonged to L. L. Breckenridge, C. D. Boring, H. W. Graves and Nephil Larson, who served until 1928; John Blass, T. D. Connor, and C. D. Feebels, 1930, and R. C. Wilson, 1939.

Jess Eastman was a member in 1928-29; Ivan Lincoln, 1929-32; A. J. Peavy, 1929-30; A. E. Kiles, 1930-32; Vance Maylor, 1931-39; Charles Rieckert and W. F. Alworth, 1935; J. R. Crawford and W. C. Musgrave, 1935-38; W. M. Olds, 1935-45; W. I. Sackett, 1935-39, and W. A. Van Engelen, 1935-40.

Also serving were C. H. Detweiler, 1936-45; R. K. Dillingham, 1939-44; T. V. Nail, 1940-42; Willard Mastor, 1940-47; Wilbur Quigley, 1940-48; Bert Sweet, 1941-45; L. H. Brown, 1945-46; Curtis Eaton, 1946-50; H. G. Lauterbach, 1946-47; Ferris Larson, 1948-54 and Guy Kinyon, 1949-53.

Later newcomers were Clyde Musgrave, 1947-51; Tom Speedy, 1948-56; W. W. Reed, 1951-53; C. D. Groves, 1952-61; Duane Perkins, 1954-60; Clyde Smith, 1955-60; Joffre Jensen, 1959-62; Cecil Brim, 1961-63 and John Savage, 1963-65.

Americans in Europe Pack Air Terminals

LONDON (AP)—About 1,000 American tourists, stranded by the U. S. air strike affecting Trans World Airlines, are jamming European airports looking for a way home.

A TWA spokesman estimated Wednesday night that the 41-day strike that has disrupted TWA international flights has left about 1,000 Americans stranded from Dublin to Athens and Cairo and waypoints. But, he added, the situation has improved in the last week or two.

Said Brian Johnson, TWA reservation manager in London: "This is the peak period for westbound traffic on the Atlantic air lines and in the last week or two it has got really hectic. But the situation is not quite as bad as it was a few weeks ago because we are now better equipped to handle it—we are learning from our experience."

A TWA spokesman at Shannon Airport in Ireland said some 3,250 passengers have been shuttled from Shannon to the United States on other airlines at a cost of more than $500,000.

Extra police were posted at Madrid International Airport after a clash Tuesday between stranded Americans and airline employees—over availability of seats on New York-bound planes.

Police guarded exits to all departing planes and passengers were double-checked before being allowed to board.

Epidemic of Encephalitis Is Reported

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Public health officials said Wednesday that an outbreak of encephalitis in Dallas has reached epidemic proportions. They revealed plans for the aerial spraying of the city to check the spread of the disease.

City Health Director Hal J. Dewlett spoke at a news conference of what "we now feel is an epidemic of St. Louis encephalitis."

The type of encephalitis here, physicians said, is so named because it is caused by the same virus which caused a major epidemic in St. Louis, Mo., in 1933. It is carried by the culex mosquito.

Officials said three U.S. Air Force C123 aircraft would be doing aerial spraying Friday morning. The plan is to cover an estimated 500 square miles in Dallas and Dallas County with malathion, a deadly insecticide, to kill mosquitoes believed to be the carrier of encephalitis.

Dewlett said 57 cases of probable encephalitis have been reported in Dallas since July. Two deaths are believed to have resulted from the disease, he said. Further tests are being conducted.

Dewlett said the epidemic was similar in nature to an outbreak in Houston in 1954, when 250 cases were reported, and which 243 were later proved to be compatible with the disease.

Dr. J. P. Sanford, chief of infectious diseases at Parkland Hospital, said the epidemic in Dallas may not reach its peak before the last week in August.

World War II Shells Found In Junkyard

MONTREAL (AP)—Montreal police said Wednesday they have discovered about 60 World War II mortar and artillery shells, many of them live, stacked in a scrapyard of the Alert Steel Co. here.

Police said the discovery was made two days ago when a child was reported to have cut his hand badly while playing there. "We were playing with bombs in the scrapyard," the child told police. The yard has been closed, and the shells will be taken to an army camp to be examined by demolition experts.

Police quoted the owners and former owners of the scrapyard as saying that as far as they can tell "the shells have been lying there for years."

U. S., Canadian Visit Will Keep Executive Chief Busy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson takes off this weekend on trips of national and international political import—including flying visits to New York State, New England and Canada.

Sparse details of his itinerary as given out by the White House showed:

On Friday, he will visit and speak in Buffalo, Syracuse and Ellenville, N.Y.

On Saturday, he will receive an honorary degree from the University of Rhode Island at Kingston and will make what may be a major speech.

On Sunday, he will be across the Canadian border, conferring with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada at the Roosevelt Campobello International Park in New Brunswick.

Although the White House called the trip "nonpolitical," it was expected that the domestic legs of it might have an impact on several hot political contests in the Northeast, to be decided in November.

Presidential press secretary Bill D. Moyers said he was not able to confirm Wednesday reports that the President would speak at several other New England—points besides those announced. Among other activities, Johnson will board a Coast Guard cutter near Buffalo and inspect efforts being made to clean up pollution in Lake Erie.

The subject of his talk there was not made known nor was such information available on his appearances in Syracuse or Ellenville—where he will dedicate a community hospital.

After staying overnight in Ellenville he will proceed to New England and the university speech at Kingston will follow on Saturday.

In connection with his Sunday conference with the Canadian prime minister, Moyers noted that Johnson and Pearson have met five times before: in November 1963 at Washington, following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy; in January 1964 at Vancouver, B.C.; in January 1965 at the Johnson ranch in Texas and in May 1965 at Camp David, Md., presidential retreat.
