Midwestern Area Remains Center Of Racial Unrest

By The Associated Press
Bands of Negro youths roamed Benton Harbor, Mich., Monday night, stoning storefronts and automobiles as the northern Midwest stayed in the center of the racial scene. Police Lt. Meredith Rynearson said some persons were arrested during the second straight night of unrest in the southwest Michigan city of 20,000, including some white persons for shotguns and bats in the car. At Waukegan, Ill., police enforced a 7:30 p.m. curfew and prevented a recurrence of three days of rioting. They arrested more than 50 curfew violators in a Negro neighborhood and charged them all with mob action.

Police said one-third of the arrests were from outside of Waukegan. They said they confiscated automatic pistols, revolvers, ax handles, rubber hoses, knives, hammers and lengths of pipe.

Fifty miles up the western shore of Lake Michigan, quiet returned to the Milwaukee Wis. suburb of Waukegan, the home of some 60,000 whites and a dozen Negro families, as demonstrators paraded for an eleventh night.

Escorted by National Guardsmen, about 200 demonstrators walked unthreatened through the pleasant residential area where on previous nights hostile whites had surged toward them screaming curses.

Four blocks away, about 300 whites, heavily outnumbered by guardsmen and police, were halted behind barricades.

The march was held after Circuit Judge Robert Cannon refused to confer in the presence of newsmen with demonstration leaders, who want him to resign either as a judge or as a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, which they say bars Negroes from membership.

Detailed Plan For Improved System Given

A detailed outline of the Morrison and Maile planning and engineering firm's plans for the Twin Falls water system improvements was presented to the City Commissioners Monday night at a special meeting.

The plans, according to a consensus of the group, are "coming along nicely," and the final recommendations of the firm are expected within a few months.

The actual construction of the system, partially financed by $1.3 million in federal funds, is tentatively set for next spring. The new water system is expected to be in operation by the spring of 1968, coinciding with the opening of several College of Southern Idaho buildings.

A call for bids on the construction of the water system is scheduled for November or December.

The Morrison and Maile firm's plans for the water system, presented to the commissioners by Ronald Praetere, feature construction of a five-million-gallon reservoir and a six-pump pump house near Frontier Field.

"T'WAS A LONG, hot walk for Jean Caulfield, Rosnoke, Va., who marched along Washington's Pennsylvania and Constitution avenues in the American Legion parade Monday. Then she sat down on someone else's drum, pulled off her boots and just rested in the 90-degree heat. (AP Wirephoto)

Negro Leaders Set 'Black Unity' Theme

NEW YORK (AP)—The Negro left's most militant leaders hammered at the themes of black unity and white oppression Monday night from a speaker's platform guarded by uniformed members of Harlem's Black Panther party. About 250 Negroes, attending what was billed as a fund-raising benefit for the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, enthusiastically applauded William Epton, head of Harlem's Peking-oriented Progressive Labor party and Max Stanford, a member of the Black Panthers, an offshoot of Alabama's all-Negro political party.

College Bonds Are Subject Of Discussion

A 1967 levy of 3.7 mills for interest and principal on College of Southern Idaho general obligation bonds was presented at a meeting by the college board Monday night by the college board.

A tentative maintenance and operation levy has also been set, but Dr. James L. Taylor, college president, said this levy would be subject to change because of high enrollment figures. The district has until Sept. 12 to certify the levy for the 1967 school year.

Fiscal agents George Denton and Richard Buman were present at the meeting and advised sale of $1 million of the $3 million bond issue as soon as arrangements can be made. The trustees voted to take this action two weeks ago and Denton said, in view of the condition of the bond market, he felt it was "the prudent thing to do."

He noted the market should go down to a lower interest rate level in about six months and advised sale of the other $2 million he continued until the market was in a better condition.

The sale of $1 million at this time will take care of immediate obligations of the district such as bond acquisition, planning and development.

Dr. Taylor reported all applications for federal grants must be made by Sept. 2, to insure the college a chance for those monies.

A report on heating for the campus facilities will be made Sept. 12 by Edward Jones, campus planner.

More than 600 students have enrolled at CSI since enrollment began Thursday, according to Dr. Taylor.

Johnson Sees Compassion as Curb for Wars and Violence

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson said today the United States may find itself "facing a series of explosive crises, in which our military involvement is urgently at issue," unless it works with other countries to root out the poverty, spiritual blight and curbs on liberty that breed violence. In an address prepared for the annual convention here of the American Legion, Johnson said "the years that lie ahead call for our imagination and compassion, as well as our courage."

"Unless we have the imagination to understand what is happening in the world, we may well find ourselves—along with our friends among the highly developed nations—facing a series of explosive crises—in which our military involvement is urgently at issue," he said.

Saying that "the tempo of violence is increasing," and that the very concept of war—the poverty of man's body, the privation of his spirit, the imprisonment of his liberties—will have to be a final, surmounting of violence itself.

"That is our aim in Asia," he said. The President said that in Viet Nam and other parts of Asia, "our assistance to these nations, our involvement in their affairs, will be no greater than they choose to have it."

Johnson made no reference in his speech to a request by the American Veterans Committee (that he cancel the address on the ground that the Legion "still overwhelmingly is a segregated organization."

Definite percentages have been recommended for the eight participating counties, if the proposal for a new airport to serve the entire valley in carried out. The percentages are based on population, distance from the airport and the expected use each county would make of the facility.

County's share would be 14 per cent; Blaine, 8; Lincoln, 13; Jerome, 10; Blaine, 8; Lincoln, 2; and Camas, 1.

Woods pointed out Magic Valley is geographically located to gather and "the only thing we can do is have one major airport. Twin Falls cannot afford to build a new major airport."

Barry explained about the engineering study which has been made and then introduced Woods, who stressed the important thing now is for committees to be formed in each of the valley counties to publish the data about the proposal.

Participation in the joint county airport would have to be approved, he said.

Crews Mopping up After Holding Blaze

Reseeding and replanting activities involved in the second stage of range fire mop-up operations are next on the agenda for Sawtooth National Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management (BLM) employees serving on the South Hills range fire. The fire itself is expected to be dead out by 5 p.m. Tuesday, according to Darrell Smith, Forest Service dispatcher in Twin Falls. Approximately 75 Blackfoot and Santo Domingo Indian crewmen have been released from the fire lines. In addition to 50 BLM men, five Forest Service overhead teams, consisting of line, sector and division fire bosses also have been released.

De Gaulle Has Statement on Viet Nam War

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia, President Charles de Gaulle declared on his arrival in Cambodia today that "the war in Viet Nam could lead the world to its misfortune."

The French leader wanted no time in commenting on the conflict being waged on the border of this Southeast Asian kingdom after his plane touched down on a flight from Djibouti, French Somaliland.

Shortly before his arrival, Prince Norodom Sihanouk charged that 250 men had been trained in neighboring Thailand to cause disorder during the French leader's visit.

At one of the fires, less than one acre in size, is located west of Oakley and is being controlled by a five-man team from the BLM.

The other fire is on the Raft River Division below the Utah border on Johnsons Creek. Mop-up operations on this fire were being conducted by five Forest Service men late Monday. Twin Falls farmers and three Forest Service men originally were on the fire.

Dirksen to Vote Against Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has repeated his intention to vote against the 1966 Civil Rights Act if the bill still includes the open housing provision when it comes up for final passage.

Twelve civil rights, education, and religious bills from Chicago are scheduled Monday to open Dirksen's mind about the open housing provision.

Treasury Views Tax Increase for Inflation Check

WASHINGTON (AP)—There may still have to be a tax increase to check inflation, the Treasury told Congress today at a hearing highlighted by the Democratic party split over spiraling interest rates. "We can't rely on monetary policy much more. It may not be enough," Undersecretary of the Treasury Joseph W. Barr told the House Rules Committee. "If we have to do more, we will have to do it by taxing or spending."

There is no other way," Barr argued, however, for one more monetary measure, the administration's bill to increase Federal Reserve Board discretion in setting interest rates on certain deposits held in banks for fixed times.

Chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex., of the House Banking Committee fought for his rival bill that would cut a 4 1/2 per cent limit on some of these deposits.

Patman said he is willing for the Rules Committee to provide for the House to vote its choice between the two bills—provided he was assured the right of a roll call that would put every member on record.

The Rules Committee indicated it would provide for a roll call vote.

The hearing came just after the interest rate issue triggered a public disagreement between President Johnson and former President Harry S. Truman.

Johnson said he, like Truman, is concerned over high interest rates but cannot agree with the former president that the economy is in danger of recession or depression.

One part of Johnson's statement, however, could be read to suggest possible action beyond the limited interest control bill. He said: "We need to find by other ways to restrain inflationary pressures than by resort merely to the high interest rates we have been witnessing."

Johnson has said repeatedly he would ask for a general tax increase if inflation threatened to get out of hand. But until Barr spoke up today, administration officials had been telling less in recent weeks about any early prospect of tax legislation.

With Barr sitting near him, Patman told the Rules Committee he had reached an understanding with the administration through Barr that it would not fight his 4 1/2 per cent interest rate bill to restrict inflation. It is to certificates of deposit and other time deposits up to $100,000 only.

"But the Fed got hold of them and changed their minds," Patman said. "A few days later the administration decided to hold me to the $100,000, but release themselves from the 4 1/2 per cent."

Vote

RUPERT—Residents of Maladok County are voting today on a $100,000 bond issue to finance a joint city-county law enforcement building.

Polls will be open until 8 p.m. In regular voting precincts, polling places will be at the courthouse and the Civic building.

Officials said this election is unique in that it is a referendum on the law enforcement bond issue will be the first in the state for a combined city-county law enforcement building.

Public School Term Opens, Enrollment Is About Same

With shiny faces and new shoes, Twin Falls School District No. 411 school children left the parks, playgrounds and swimming pools behind for the first day of school Monday.

It appears that Maladok County School has the largest registration among the elementary schools, with a total registration of 894 reported. Some 1,000 children are expected to be in the Maladok County School District.

The high school and the junior high schools had not reported either.

"It's a little early to tell, but it appears that we have had no drastic increase in enrollment," Ragland said.

Memorial Lutheran School has an enrollment of 175, with a staff of eight teachers. Classes for these school children began Monday morning.

Ragland quoted a tentative figure of 250 to 260 professional teachers and assisting in the public school system.

Stock Market Posts Gain After Sliding

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market bounced up and down today and at the close posted a good gain that stemmed, at least temporarily, a long downward slide. It was the second advance in the last 12 sessions and brought some encouragement to a dismayed Wall Street. Some big gains were posted near the close. Sperry Rand was more than $2 higher, Polaroid up $13, Raytheon more than $4 and IBM about $12. The rally brought some hope to brokers and investors that the market had experienced a selling climax Monday which cleared the path for an advance.

Unit to Study Issues in Strike Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—An emergency board named by President Johnson to study issues underlying a threatened strike north against American Airlines declined today to recommend settlement terms but urged against "an exaggerated settlement."

The dispute is between the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union and the coast-to-coast air carrier, which was not among the five airlines struck this summer by the machinists union.

If an agreement is not reached beforehand, the union would be free to strike against American at midnight Sept. 27.

The three-man emergency board appointed by Johnson on July 27 said there was a prospect that collective bargaining could resolve the issues in advance of any strike.

The board made some suggestions on such issues as work rules and grievance procedures but declined to make any recommendations involving wages and other money items.

Parking to Be Halted Along T. F. Street

Parking on Addison Avenue West will be eliminated Friday in an effort to cut down the number of rear end collisions along the street, according to Ron Scheffle, city engineer.

The action was decided upon several months ago following a study of the situation by the State Department of Highways. The department recommended that parking on Addison Avenue West be eliminated and that the roadway be restriped for a 14-foot median, two lanes of 13 feet wide and 2 lanes of 14 feet wide.

The street will be sealed to the cover of old striping on the new roadway striping does not confuse unfamiliar motorists.

The median will allow left lane turns without subsequent left lane traffic backup, Scheffle said.

Covered "no parking" signs will be placed on the roadway before Thursday morning. The signs will be uncovered Thursday.

CSI Term Is Due to Open Wednesday

Classes for an estimated 1,000 College of Southern Idaho students will begin at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Enrollment and late registration will continue until Sept. 12, and an accurate count of academic and vocational students is impossible at this time, according to Dr. Donald Keith, dean of the college.

Students may still register for academic classes without paying a late enrollment fee Wednesday after 4 p.m. at the high school main office.

Vocational students register officially Wednesday. An orientation period for the students will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Vocational School. Classes for the vocational students also will begin Wednesday.

Dr. Keith estimates the CSI faculty consists of approximately 45 professional teachers, in order to keep most of the school's curriculum open for late enrollees, he plans to hire additional teachers.

Utah Church Leader Talks At Conclave

MALTA — Elder Robert L. Simpson, first counselor in the presiding bishopric, Salt Lake City, was one of the principal speakers at the Raft River LDS Stake Quarterly Conference held over the weekend in the Malta Stake house.

Bishop Simpson, former president of the New Zealand mission, was chief supervisor of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. accounting office in Southern California until called to the presiding bishopric in 1961. He holds important administrative positions in the church and in business.

"President David O. McKay is a tremendous example of love in the church," Bishop Simpson said in the Sunday morning session. "We must qualify our young people to fill missions for the church," he continued.

Parents have the responsibility to teach their children faith and prayer in the home. They should live the principles of the gospel and try to develop spirituality in the lives of their children.

The speaker urged members to observe the monthly fast and pay their tithing, which benefits the poor and needy.

Elder Myles W. Romney, Po-cattello, member of the Priesthood Missionary Committee, and former missionary in Great Britain and the Southern States, also addressed the morning session.

"Our responsibility in this church is to share the beauties of the gospel with our friends and neighbors who do not believe as we do," Elder Romney said.

Other speakers during the morning session were Edwin H. Paskett, president of the stake; Jay Neilson, Edward Hall, Leonard Hall and Elmo Elison. Congregational singing was directed by Mrs. Oleen Warr with Mrs. Brent Udy as accompanist.

Robert Thompson and Rosetta Ward were soloists, accompanied by Wendy Hutchison and Linda Udy.

Prayers were given by Francis Gunnell and Curtis Nelson. Mrs. Lucy A. Dutton of the Primary Association, spoke during the afternoon session. She explained the value of Primary in the lives of children and noted the services of the Primary Hospital in Salt Lake City.

"Teach the children to use the message of a song to improve their lives," she advised. "What precious memories can music bring to us."

Other speakers during the afternoon were Charles Warr, Mrs. Ivan Darrington, Mrs. Clarence Barrett, Jerry Udy, Leslie Bench, Elmer Adams and Blaine Wright.

Special music was furnished by Primary children of the stake with Mrs. Robert Thompson directing—and—Marlene Nye—and Wendy Hutchison accompanying. Prayers were given by Harvey Wight and Edward Holman.

President Paskett conducted both sessions of the missionary and Priesthood conference. Judy Udy and Elmer Adams were ordained to the office of high priest and LaVell Darrington to the office of elder in the priesthood.

Orville Sears and Jack Erickson were released from posts as high councilmen with Wallace Briggs, Jerry Udy and Elmer Adams sustained as councilmen.

How You May

Never Take a Laxative Again!

New Miracle Regulator Keeps Waste Soft—So Bowels Move Naturally

New York, N.Y. (Special)—After 12 years' research, scientists have discovered a wonder-working substance that corrects constipation entirely without laxatives!

Doctors say most constipation occurs when waste loses moisture in the colon—becomes dry, hard, difficult to move. To give relief, laxatives have to force action by flushing, irritating or distending the intestine.

The new miracle substance—known medically as dicyclanil sulfonate—works in a completely different way. It is not a laxative! It simply makes natural moisture in the colon moisten and soften dry, hard waste more effectively. Then normal elimination follows naturally. Thus by working only on waste, not on you, the substance corrects constipation and restores regularity as no laxative can.

This new discovery has now been made available at drugstores under the name Relaxitol. It is safe—not habit-forming. No warning on the label—no prescription needed. Try Relaxitol—discover for yourself that you may never need to take a laxative again!

Necessary Limit

Telephone subscribers on party lines and parents of teen-aged youngsters would be interested in the "local service conversation timing" program of the Owyhee Telephone Co. Briefly, it puts a time limit on local phone calls. The limit varies from five to seven minutes, depending on telephone traffic use. Commencing using the program are Jordan Valley, Marsing, Homedale and Wilder. The official word is that subscribers like the time limit.

The program is simple. Two minutes before the time expires for a call, a warning tone comes over the line automatically. Another tone starts one minute later, warning talkers only one minute remains. When the time is up, the line is cleared automatically. Anyone who needs more time can re-dial the number, but in the meantime, other phone subscribers have a chance to use the line. Persons served by party lines which are tied up for as long as an hour at a time might stand up and cheer over such a prospect.

Realistically, too many telephone subscribers use the phone for inconsequential conversations for far too long at a stretch. The telephone is a means of communication, not a toy to be used to permit two persons to engage in an hour or more of idle chatter. Any make no mistake, teen-aged youngsters are the sole offenders. Adults—both men and women—get involved in long, rambling telephone conversations that serve little purpose other than to pass the time of day or night.

It's significant that the Owyhee Telephone Co. hasn't found it necessary to put timing devices on long distance calls. As soon as the length of a telephone conversation becomes the basis for charges, no other control is needed.

If present mis-use of telephone service continues to grow, it might not be too long before the Owyhee Telephone Co. in limiting the length of local calls will spread to other phone exchanges. It would give old patrons a chance to use their phones occasionally.

WAIT FOR ELECTIONS

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, Ohio Democrat, predicted the other day that Congress will raise taxes to combat inflation. But he added that nothing would be done until after elections in November. He predicted the delay will add fuel "to the fire that is already beyond a smolder in the field of rising costs." Nevertheless, politicians don't forget it's not popular with voters to raise taxes or otherwise irritate citizens during an election year. The unwritten law is to wait until results of the election have been tallied.

The wait this year could result in some restrictions that might be avoided otherwise, as indicated by Sen. Lausche. In fact, some citizens already are predicting that the federal government will find it necessary to impose light and far-reaching wage and price controls some time after the election on Jan. 1.

The Johnson administration won't admit it, but the Viet Nam war has resulted in a far greater strain than anticipated. All along, Americans have been told the nation can fight the Viet Nam war while still maintaining near-normal conditions at home. But here and there Americans will find indications the economy won't stand the strain of both guns and butter. To top it all off, the lengthy and continuing foreign aid program has finally cut so deep into agriculture surplus that the bulk of the barrel is showing here and there.

Undoubtedly Sen. Lausche is right in predicting higher taxes. The alternative could be runaway inflation. But he also should warn that the nation faces more than just higher taxes.

CURE FOR STEALING

The Russians think they have found a cure for stealing. They plan to shoot one M. Rubniovich, 43, an engineer—annual $400,000 worth of textiles. If the Russians go through with their plans, they undoubtedly will cure Mr. Rubniovich of the practice. Others will be somewhat deterred, but the drive of the individual to accumulate possessions won't be eliminated.

It's a strong testimonial for human initiative to read that Mr. Rubniovich accumulated assets of more than $1 million in Communist Russia before he was caught. Two associates drew prison terms of 12 and 8 years, respectively. They might own the prison before their terms expire.

One can't help comparing the Rubniovich case and that of Billie Sol Estes in the free United States. Mr. Estes wasn't shot. In fact, even though convicted he hasn't landed behind bars and it might be possible that Mr. Estes' worst punishment will be public exposure.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — I claim the Democrats and independent voters are dealing Lyndon Johnson in the latest Gallup Poll which shows Johnson trailing Bobby Kennedy as the choice for the Presidential nomination in 1968, in their frustration over the Viet Nam war, those voters apparently are alighting the man who is trying to do something for the man who has not yet offered an effective solution for the mess. Tell me Lyndon Johnson is lousy at quoting Shelley or disdaining the brushwork of Picasso and I will go along. Compared to Bobby Kennedy, Johnson has merely the charisma of an old-line politician, which he unashamedly is. But to quote Vice President Humphrey's remark to me in a recent interview, "I'm interested in Johnson's substance, not his style."

NO KENNEDY FORMULA—His substance is solid. He is trying to fight an unpopular, brush-fire war without turning it into a world-wide holocaust and so far he is succeeding. On the other hand, all Bobby has said is that he's in favor of peace. Who the hell isn't? Although Bobby gets his name in the headlines almost every day, he has suggested no remedy for ending the fighting that Johnson hasn't already submitted—unless it's getting out of Viet Nam altogether. Bobby takes the role of a peace pleader for negotiations, he must also name that Johnson has reiterated time and time again that he'll talk to anybody, any time, anywhere. I am not quite ready to compare Lyndon Johnson's purgatory with that of Abraham Lincoln, as some of his palace guards do, because it is too wise to leave such verdicts to history. But Johnson's ordeal is familiar to anyone who ever scanned a sixth-grade account of the Lincoln years.

There was a dash of knight with "style" in Lincoln's life, too—Gen. George B. McClellan, who was a flop as a practical fighting man but yet earned the adulation of an elector distracted by his grace. The unhandy rustic Lincoln was assailed as coarse and vulgar, an "ape" whose little finger was ill at ease with a tea cup. His critics attacked him in the same breath for not winning the war and refusing to lose it.

LINCOLN DECIDED TO FIGHT—Lincoln, too, popular course. He dispatched Gen. Grant to the swamps and wilderness of Virginia to find and destroy Lee's army. McClellan's goal had always been to take Richmond; Lincoln told Grant to get on with it and go on to the next. Meanwhile sending Sheridan and Sherman to desolate the Southern countryside. If that sounds like Lyndon Johnson's policy of seeking out and destroying the Viet Cong in the south while smothering the war potential by bombings in the north, the authority is history's, not mine. In assessing Bobby Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, it is only fair to keep in mind their times. Bobby is a politician who can't do anything he wants, with the smug knowledge that as a mere senator, he lacks the awful, final responsibility. But as Harry Truman once remarked, the buck stops at the President's door. Thus, Johnson must continue to wage war with as much force as the nation's limited assets permit even as he seeks peace. I suggest that the gap between him, the Democrats and independent voters will be ear-splitting if Johnson suddenly ordered his troops to retreat.

MUST STAND FIRM—Similarly, as the Republic's Chief Executive, Johnson must stand the civil rights movement that "the Molotov cocktail destroys the basis for civil peace and social progress," and that "men have the right to be free, but they also have the responsibility to obey the law." He must do this with Bobby Kennedy—with the utmost sincerity—seems to encourage the rioters by his vote-getting demands for more rights for the Negro. Perhaps Johnson can explain his position on Viet Nam. But it does not seem irreverent to suggest his thinking in a paraphrase of Lincoln's remark on slavery's relationship to the preservation of the Union. Lyndon Johnson would free the Viet Nam if that would achieve the same end, or he would free none of the Viet Nam if that would achieve the same end. A politician who pursues no impractical ideological fancies.

Views of Others

HARVARD EXPERTS FLOCKING BACK The start of the Kennedy Administration was a great exodus from Harvard University to the government. The new president, not only an alumnus of that institution, but a member of its board of trustees, drew heavily on its talent in forming his team.

Most of the Harvard crew has drifted away from the White House regime of President Johnson. Although Arthur Schlesinger Jr. and McGeorge Bundy, two of the most distinguished of the Harvard ex-pats, many others have returned to Cambridge, Mass., many others have left the Harvard fold. One of the most notable, Edwin Redkey, ambassador to Japan, resigned recently to return to his Harvard classes. Adam Smith, a Harvard graduate, once again joined Robert McNamara, quit his job last week to rejoin the Harvard faculty.

The Texan from Southwest State Teachers College doesn't command the unwavering devotion of the Ivy League professors that his predecessors did. These men return to their academic life with rich experience to pass along to their students. They have tested their theories in the fires of practical politics, and in many cases, found them sound.

This interchange between Harvard (along with other universities) and the government is not new. The school sheltered many veterans of the Vietnam War, once again, the government found strength and renewed inspiration from these interchanges.—The (Salem) Oregon Statesman.

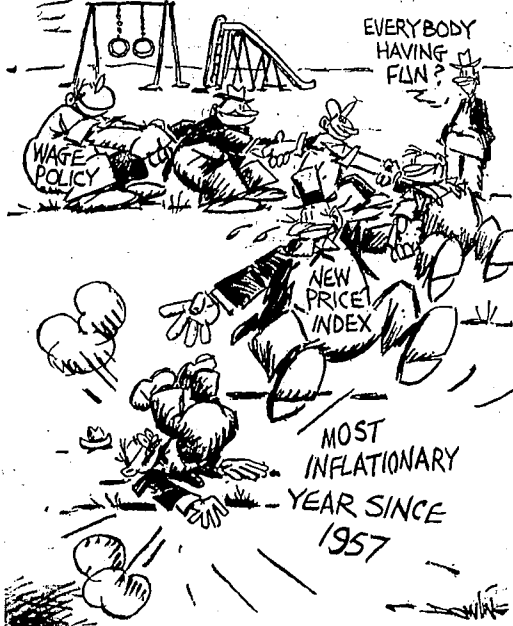

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

When a political coup in Nigeria or Tanzania raised calls for British aid to keep order, the British government refused to do so. The reason: The 30 sub-Saharan states where black minorities are running their own affairs. How are they getting on? In particular, are they discovering how to arrange peaceful coexistence of black and white?

It is just as expected that the Africans are finding it hard to operate political democracy, a system that took centuries to mature. No one can be surprised when the economic fruits of autonomy don't match the politicians' promises.

What may disappoint some is that black nations are proving no more successful than white nations with ruling the white world. In Kenya, where the climate suits Europeans, the number of white farmers has fallen from 3,200 to 800 since independence and the white population has fallen from 100,000 to 10,000. People with different colors have still to learn how to live together harmoniously.—Financial Post

Pot Shots is vacationing (Editor's note: From what?) for a few days of well-deserved rest (Editor's note: Rest? What did the guy ever do to get tired? THE LIGHTER SIDE

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—"Some rats seem to have an innate or inherited fear of the smell of cats. Other rats lack this fear but have the fearful desire to be in the sight of cats. Biologists speculate that similar innate fears may exist in human beings."

The above paragraph recently was distributed by a service that supplies newspapers with "filler" items. Filler rarely leave a person breathless but this one made me gasp with astonishment.

What startled me was the use of the word "speculate." I thought the existence of innate fears in human beings was an established fact. It certainly is in my family.

My mother had a bundle of fears, most of which I inherited. In lieu of cash.

Not just cat and snake fears. They have fears that no rat could match. Take, for example, the fear of the word "cat."

It was this fear that many years ago drove my paternal grandfather from the woods to settle on the treeless plains of Texas.

The defoliation phobia was mitigated somewhat in later generations but it still shows up in those of us who have ventured back into timbered areas.

Every autumn when I creep in my yard start shuddering to leaves, a feeling akin to panic creeps over me. It lasts until my wife, unable to lodge me from the house, finally goes out and rakes them herself.

You can understand, then, why my hands began trembling as I read a press release put out this week by the Agriculture Department.

It reported that department chemists had discovered a substance that "appears to lead frog" through the process called "abscission."

Known as "Abscisin II," the chemical was said to have "many practical applications." For one thing, "synthetic abscisin might be used to keep plants at all stages of growth and in any weather."

If that means what I think it means, it means that we might be facing the possibility of having leaves drop all year around.

I fail to see how that could be construed as a "practical application." It sounds more like an unpalatable disaster. I am having enough trouble getting my wife to rake leaves as it is. Already she is trying to retaliate by pretending that she has an innate fear of washing dishes.

Poor Man's Plato

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a holding more than one job, as a New York might never know if he didn't open his house to a million. It is a married man, more popular as house pets, although they have up to 80,000 teeth, they rarely bite. They require little space, you don't have to take them for a walk every evening, and they never keep neighbors awake by barking.

You can fly to place your bet on the daily double at the Waterford Park track in Chester, W.Va. It has a landing strip for small planes in its infield. The future will be even more huddled. It's estimated that by the year 2,000 some 240 million Americans will live in 8.7 percent of the nation's land space, only a scattered 80 million on the remaining 91.3 percent.

Here's a sure way to make your wife angry: "When summing her up, the phone, tell her: 'Dear, somebody wants to listen to you.'"

Quotable notables: "I find it hard to believe that the world will follow one moral leadership if our principles go higher and higher the farther they are from home"—Walter Lippmann.

About 60 percent of American families now own their own homes—or will, when the mortgage is paid. "Moonlighting," the custom of no do."

"Early to bed, early to rise—until you make enough money to live otherwise."

It was Will Rogers who observed, "I never expected to see the day when girls would get sunburned in the places they live in."

Opinions on World News

By RAYMOND MOLEY

For a brief spell, from the moment of his election as U.S. senator in 1944, Robert F. Kennedy was hailed as the Democratic boss of the state of New York.

This eminence was accorded Sen. Kennedy because of his grasp of possible things. His election made him New York's only Democratic U.S. senator; the other seat and the governorship were held by Republicans.

Mayor Wagner's long service as mayor of New York City was nearing the end, and after he declined to run again the city was to be run by a Republican, Control of the Democratic Party machinery was not only scattered but embroiled in factional struggles.

In the past Democratic leadership had been maintained either by unopposed leaders in New York City such as Charles F. Murphy and Edward J. Hughes or by strong Democratic governors like Alfred E. Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

With Kennedy's base thus seemingly secure, the Kennedy family, brother Edward, the junior senator from Massachusetts, and close ties with other powerful figures in the state and nation, seemed to have a strong chance of winning the governorship.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON—China-watching as a spectator sport has decided disadvantages. The names of the players are difficult and unpronounceable and the plays are subject to a wide range of judgment that keeps score all but impossible. The current purge in Red China has an air of familiarity rather like that of a summer rerun on television. In the March 1953 news columns were filled with conjecture over what the center of power was. Malenkov was up, Khrushchev was down. Much of this as generated by the so-called experts, both within the Soviet Union and without, proved to be wildly wide of the mark.

The important fact was that while the faces changed the fundamental goals were not altered. At the highest level of the intelligence community there is the virtually unanimous view of what is happening in China today—whatever the outcome of the purge it will mean a difference in the degree of hostility of China's rulers to the United States and most of the rest of the world.

The conflict is over means, not ends. One faction, now apparent in process of being purged under the revived leadership of Mao Tse-tung, would proceed with greater caution. But so far as relations with the outside world, and particularly with America, are concerned the direction will be the same.

In short, despite the columns and columns of newsprint predicting that Mao is out and Lin Biao is on the way up, the Peng Chen is cashed, little change of any fundamental importance has taken place. To see it otherwise is to indulge in dangerous wishful thinking.

Although the long-range probability of food versus a spiraling population is probably insoluble, the best evidence is that Mao and Company have effective control over China's masses through a system of savored ping-pong and check-book playing. Even with large purchases of wheat from abroad food will be scarce, and yet European visitors report that rationing works down to the level of the smallest community. It is nearly as the leaders can make it, and they've gone a long way despite the romantics who preserve the dream of another China.

Working incessantly under constant propaganda exhortation for the state. To this austere view of the intelligence community of how little the purge really means certain qualifiers must be added. In its testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Prof. John Fairbank of Harvard University, perhaps the most distinguished of America's China scholars, urged that every effort be made to open contacts with China. His thesis was that China shows no hostility, only a sense of isolation and frustration. "Anything that can be done to break down this isolation may abate the hostility, although Fairbank added that he did not believe proposals such as inviting Peking into the United Nations on a "two Chinas" basis would meet in the near future with anything but scorn.

China's hard line, Fairbank said in a recent talk with the reporter, is a hard line in words but not necessarily in action. The hard line in words may well be a compensation for a decision not to act and instead to play a cautious waiting game. The burden of proof, in Fairbank's view, is on those who say the Chinese are going to move in a warlike direction in a long belated tradition.

He faults Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara for taking at face value the speech of Defense Minister Lin Biao. Lin in a lengthy declaration proclaimed the triumph of guerrilla warfare in Asia and Latin America—the victory of a rural society over the city civilization of the Soviet Union, the United States and Western Europe. In Fairbank's view this was compensation for China's failures in the developing world.

Those failures have been conspicuous and humiliating. In Indonesia the Chinese Embassy was sacked and Chinese personnel forced to leave the country as the pro-Chinese policy of Sukarno was reversed in a massive blood bath. In several African countries China's advances have been repudiated. The latest setback was in North Korea where the Communist regime rejected both Moscow and Peking in favor of an independent stance. Little Albania in Peking's remaining completely loyal ally.

How much this actually means in the context of the purge is questionable. Fairbank and other specialists insist that China historically is not an expansionist power. What they have tried to do and failed was to pick up bargains on the cheap. The real question is whether the fanaticism of Mao's party masses, in the light of China's needs for industrial development and a broader exchange with the outside world rather than isolation.

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Lonely, heart disease and mental illness, he called attention to a syndrome which he calls the "abuse of the child." He said that this is a life that is a series of minor frustrations, a child when he discovered that people whose surnames begin with the last letters of the alphabet (the Z's of society) have a life expectancy of only 65 years, in contrast to 70 years for the total population. They also have a higher susceptibility to peptic ulcers.

But recent primary results and the tests of public opinion show growing support for Mr. Johnson. This autumn will produce unhealthily weather for doves. And if Kennedy takes the reins to read history, he will learn that for a political figure to oppose a war already under way—especially when the incumbent President is of his own party—means almost certain political demise.

If President Johnson's efforts in Viet Nam prove successful, Robert Kennedy may well vanish as a threat to Mr. Johnson's campaign.

In New York O'Connor, running with no obligations to Kennedy, may expect that the Johnson administration will give him every kind of support.

The nature of a boss is always dependent upon the righteousness of his judgments. And Kennedy has already made two miscalculations of great importance. The first was his simplification in failing to retain the Kennedy name and the Kennedy money. But after this he may emerge as just another junior senator.

All this has gravely impaired confidence in Kennedy's judgment, always a fatal blow to his campaign.

At the same time, Kennedy's performance on the national scene has seriously threatened his reputation as a sophisticated politician. For he chose to join the Kennedy family in Viet Nam, where, perhaps his bitterness, R.W.

LISTS COSTS

BOISE (AP)—Charles Herndon of Salmon lists the cost of his successful campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination at $9,888.70 — the most spent by any candidate in Idaho's primary election campaigns.

State Sen. Cecil Andrus, Orofino, one of the men Herndon beat, listed campaign expenses at $9,535. State Sen. William Deane of Grangeville, the other unsuccessful candidate, listed expenses at $1,684.

State Sen. Don Samuelson of Sandpoint, who won the Republican gubernatorial nomination, said his campaign cost $5,095. He beat Gov. Robert E. Smylie who listed expenses at $1,701.

EARNINGS TOLD

BOISE (AP)—Morrison Knudsen Company, Inc., reported Monday net earnings for its first six months of 1966 were a record $2.3 million.

J. B. Bonny, president, said the parent corporation and consolidated domestic subsidiaries completed $2.5 million of construction during the 1966 period compared to $108 million during the first half of 1965.

POLICEMAN FIRED

BOISE (AP)—Idaho State Police Lt. A. E. Hagler, who publicly attacked the State Police Merit Board after it refused him a pay raise, was dismissed Monday by Sgt. A. E. Perkins.

Perkins told Hagler in a letter his criticism of the merit board on a radio program and in letters made available to the press was "conduct unbecoming an officer."

Hagler, 48, who has been with the state police 23 years, alleged he was refused a $32 a month in-grade pay increase because of his political views.

SCHOOLING ENCOURAGED

BOISE (AP) Gov. Robert E. Smylie said Monday a high school graduate's earning power is $76,000 higher than a drop-out's and called on Idahoans to encourage students to continue schooling this fall.

"Some of the estimated 6,000 young people under 22 years of age who have been employed on summer jobs," Smylie said, "may be reluctant to exchange a profitable job with a weekly paycheck for classroom work."

The Governor said some students need part-time work to finance further education and suggested "the spirit of the summer jobs for youth campaign be extended on a year-around basis."

PROJECT OKAYED

BOISE (AP)—Approval of a Neighborhood Youth Corps project to provide part-time work for 25 students in Lapwai School District 341 was reported Monday by Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

Smylie said federal funds of $12,000 will be contributed to the project under the Economic Opportunity Act.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, August 30 — Born today, you are a person of great personal pride. Honor, integrity, the family name — all these are dear to you. You are a person who demands that you be happy and well-being in any amount of riches; and were you to lose or fall in any one of them, you would be dissatisfied. You do not know no bounds. It is for this reason that others may at times find you difficult, for you are not one who can be maneuvered into any activity that could compromise your principles or self-esteem.

Your loyalty to friends is a well-known fact — so, however, is your dropping of them when they do not appoint you in their own behavior or who try openly or subtly to influence you in ways not in keeping with your high standards. Indeed, you may be a bit too adamant about others, demanding that they come up to standards easy for you but extremely difficult for them. Try tempering your demands with human understanding.

You instinctively know what you want out of life and, although you may have some setbacks on the way to achieving your goals, achieve them you will — eventually. You need only guard against trying to rush things. Let your success come when it is due, not when you think it should be due.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Wednesday, August 31 — A relatively expensive day if you allow yourself to be led around by the nose financially. Keep one eye on the budget!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Avoid exposing yourself to another's ill will. Where you know your opinion will be the basis for argument, resist expressing yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — You should experience the gratification of durable friendships today. Help come even without your asking it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — The effective use of hidden talents should see you taking a front seat on the employment scene today.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — If you schedule your time wisely you should end this day with a pleasant sense of balance. An excellent day for weathering storms.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) — Keep the overhead effects of your own personality on present problems. Much could be solved by a change of attitude on your part.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21) — Lighten your own shady side! Recall past pleasures and you should be able to bring your mood up to par.

ARIES (March 22-April 20) — Consider the potential damage to your own and others' careers before you get ahead with your present mode of thinking.

Taurus (April 21-May 21) — A day of change in the balance of a personal line of defenses. Don't allow others to put you off your guard regarding employment.

CANCER (June 22-July 23) — Self-protection should be enlarged to include the protection of family and friends. Rely on your own abilities if you would know real success.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23) — The wise Leo will accomplish immediately those things on today's agenda. To put off until tomorrow may be to put off permanently!

Cuban Vigilantes Active in Protecting Castro Regime

HAVANA (AP) — Cuba's once-feared neighborhood vigilante committees are active now in propaganda, public health, education and rent collection campaigns.

The Committees for the Defense of the Revolution, said to comprise about one-fourth of Cuba's more than 7 1/2 million people, has taken on many of the revolution's "housekeeping" jobs.

During the Fidel Castro regime's incubation period, they were responsible for sending many of their neighbors to death before firing squads by flourishing them.

With a committee in virtually every block in every community, they still keep track of every resident, do guard duty night and day, and keep an eye on any activity, unusual movement, or visitor.

But over the years they've increasingly assumed the more prosaic duties of distributing ration books, conducting evening classes for the illiterate, turning out people for inoculation campaigns, guiding citizens into paying their rent, and supervising "volunteer" farm work on Sundays and generally carrying the revolution's propaganda message.

The organization was founded by Prime Minister Castro as "a system of collective vigilance to keep the country safe from its enemies."

Now the committees are instrumental, by their very presence, in keeping down any type of organized resistance to the regime.

They direct citywide cleanup and beautifying campaigns and construction of children's playgrounds. They also coordinate blood donation drives, enroll children in school and drum up

BROTHER AND SISTER, Bill and JoAnn McEnaney, will be among featured performers during the Twin Falls County Fair and Rodeo Sept. 1-10. They will be performing tests of trick roping and riding during the event's 50th anniversary celebration.

Brother-Sister Team Will Do Trick Riding, Roping

A brother-sister trick riding and roping act will be one of the special attractions at the Twin Falls County Fair and Rodeo Sept. 1-10.

Bill and JoAnn McEnaney are the first of their family to travel the rodeo circuit, and both entered the business quite by accident.

Bill spent most of his childhood as an invalid as a result of drinking gasoline as a small child.

At the age of 12, and weighing a scant 60 pounds, he had a fighting desire to be physically strong — thus the beginning of a flourishing career. He had learned to rope while still in college, and during the summer months managed to master the horses his parents raised.

Apparently aware of his small size, he developed a personal fortitude which amazed everyone. He seemed immune to pain resulting from his daredevil stunts.

About this time he and JoAnn joined a riding club which rode horses his parents raised.

When he was 14 he joined the professional ranks of rodeo and has since become the best in his field.

Bill, called the "king," now stands a solid 5 feet, 11 inches and weighs 180 pounds.

JoAnn, first-born of the family and a quite a disappointment because she was not a boy, became adept at outdoor living while tagging her father around.

Despite her strong tomboyish tendencies, she was enrolled in dance school at the age of 4. From then on it was dancing lessons, singing lessons, and dramatics and so forth for the "first lady of rodeo."

At one time she ran a dance studio with 150 pupils. She has made several recordings and has been a professional dancer for several years. She has made many television appearances and co-hosted a show of her own.

At 26, JoAnn has 10 years of professional rodeo behind her and all of her abilities have been aimed toward the trick riding and roping act she and Bill will be performing nightly at Filer.

They reside at the Shamrock Ranch, Westboro, Mo., where Bill and his father train and raise horses, farm and raise livestock.

Chrysler Emphasizes Auto Safety

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Chrysler President Lynn A. Townsend laid heavy emphasis on the safety issue today as he became the first auto executive to unveil his 1967 line of cars.

Townsend, taking note of the pressure which automakers have been under to make cars safer, told 300 newsmen at Chrysler's national news preview that the firm has gone all-out in the safety field.

Townsend's pinpointing of safety items overshadowed his report that Chrysler spent a record-breaking $370 million in planning, tooling and other costs to bring the new car line to market. A year ago, the figure was $200 million.

He predicted new car sales in the United States this year would wind up about 200,000, below 1965 sales record of 9.3 million, including imports.

He said that while U.S. sales for the first seven months of this year ran four per cent below a year ago, Chrysler sales were two per cent ahead of a year ago.

Reflecting the spotlight which congressional committees and auto industry critics such as author Ralph Nader had turned on the industry's safety record, Townsend said Chrysler's new cars would continue to be "the safest we can build."

AP Writer Sam Dawson Will Retire

NEW YORK (AP) — Sam Dawson, business news analyst for The Associated Press for more than 15 years, will retire Wednesday.

He will be succeeded by John T. Cumliff as author of "Today's Business Mirror," a daily column for afternoon newspapers.

Dawson, 67, wrote his first column in 1948. It soon became one of the most widely published business columns in the country and was read by millions.

Dawson joined The AP in New York in 1925. He left two years later to work on newspapers in Arizona but returned to The AP staff in 1937 as correspondent at Tucson, Ariz.

After service with the Army Air Corps in World War II, he came to the business news department in New York.

Cumliff, 37, has served on the business news staff for more than five years. He has been editor in charge of the business news desk for the past three years.

Cumliff was born in Boston. He is a graduate of Boston University and also has a master's degree from the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism.

He joined The AP in Boston in 1959, and was assigned to the Memphis (Tenn.) bureau that year. He was transferred to New York in 1961.

In 1959 he won the George Polk Memorial Award for national reporting for stories on racial discrimination against Negro farmers in Fayette County, Tenn.

Sen. Church, Family Travel Salmon River

FLYING BRANCH, Idaho (AP) — Idaho Sen. Frank Church and his family were on a fishing and shooting trip today.

Church, his wife, Bethine, and sons, Forrest, 37, and Chase, 9, are running the last half of the Salmon River's middle fork — which has the roughest rapids and some of the most majestic scenery.

The Idaho Democrat and his family began the river run through one of America's deepest canyons Monday. They planned to complete it Thursday.

Their guide is L. L. (Andy) Anderson of Challis who took Barry Goldwater's party down the middle fork last week and guided a large party headed by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., early in July.

United Fund Campaign Is On Schedule

Plans for the forthcoming United Fund campaign were discussed Tuesday morning at a meeting of the executive committee and campaign chairman.

Personnel attending the meeting indicated the drive is on schedule and the section chairmen have been recruited and are now in the process of finding people to help with solicitations.

Ivan Skinner, president, indicated "it is very gratifying to see the organized progress of this year's campaign under the direction of Campaign Chairman Pat O'Connor."

O'Connor said the kickoff of the campaign is scheduled for Oct. 3, with the special gifts section slated to begin on Sept. 12 under the chairmanship of Gordon Gray.

Skinner said he was pleased to have many public spirited citizens helping in this year's drive.

Assisting O'Connor with the drive are: Artley, associate chairman; Michael L. Mazzone, executive director; Joseph McCollum, loaned executive position; John Roper, speakers bureau; Bud Wadsworth, agent participation; John Leineny, commercial; L. Z. Bartlett, government; George Stauffer, education; Robert Alexander, professional; and John Hutchison, publicity and promotion.

The next meeting is slated for 7:30 a.m. Thursday at the Rogerson Hotel.

Howl in Atlanta, Ga. (AP)

More than 100 members of a neo-Nazi group plan a "howl in" here Thursday to protest earlier hunting season dates.

If the State Game and Fish Commission fails to send a representative to discuss the hunting season dates, a spokesman for the protesters said, "We're going to Atlanta on a bus and we're taking our dogs with us."

Gets Accolade

Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong has had many titles bestowed on him down the years, among them "King of Jazz," "Unofficial Ambassador of Goodwill," and "greatest virtuoso of the Age." But Bing Crosby probably came up with the best accolade for Armstrong who has been entertaining the world for more than half a century. Said Bing: "Satchmo is the only musician I know who can't be replaced by somebody."

Dual Role Is Difficult for Julie Harris

"I'm difficult to cast, and I can't imagine why I was chosen to play an attractive sister and alternately an unattractive sister, as I'm neither attractive nor unattractive," said Julie Harris.

The noted actress, who has been described as completely capable of playing anything for which she is not physically unbelieveable, was referring to her dual role in a suspense drama, "Nightmare."

The program, co-starring the actress with Farley Granger, is the fourth season premiere presentation of "Bob Hope Presents The Chrysler Theatre," Wednesday, Sept. 14 (9-10 p.m. ET), in color on NBC-TV.

"But make-up can do wonderful things," Julie smiled, in a self-effacing explanation of her demanding two roles.

In "Nightmare," the actress alternates between a nerve-racked, invaded sister, whose face has become distorted by pain, and the other sister, an attractive resident in the home.

Actor Notes Coincidences In TV Series

Comedian Lew Parker is startled at the number of coincidences he has come across since being cast as Mario Thomas' father in "That Girl."

It debuts Sept. 8, 9:30-10 p.m., PDT.

"First of all," said Parker, "I learned the character I was to play was named Lou - Lou Marie."

"Then, when Bill Persky and Sam Denoff (the executive producers) told me about the series - that it concerned a girl, Ann Marie (Mario Thomas), who leaves home to try to make it on her own - in this case as an actress in New York City - I was really startled. The same thing was happening at the time in my own home with my 19-year-old stepdaughter, Deirdre."

Parker said he told the producers he understood the role because of Deirdre.

"I didn't have the part at this point. They wanted me to read with Mario, then tape to see how we matched up."

"Mario couldn't possibly have been sweeter. She took a good deal and said, 'We'll tape this until you feel comfortable in the part. I'll stay until midnight if necessary.'"

Parker related.

"I think she is a great talent and I've been in this business long enough to know talent when I see it. She is a fine comedienne and actress."

"Felony Squad" Is New Title

"The Felony Squad" is the new title of the half-hour detective drama series starring Howard Duff, Ben Alexander and Dennis Cole. It was previously announced as "The Heavy Squad."

The series will be co-located on ABC-TV Mondays, 9:30-10 p.m. PDT, starting Sept. 12.

"The Felony Squad" focuses on tough, dedicated Detective Sergeant Sam Stone (Howard Duff), his young partner, Jim Briggs (Dennis Cole) and Briggs' policeman-father, Dan (Ben Alexander).

PRODUCERS NAMED

Pierre and Peggy Streit, a husband and wife journalistic team, have been named producer and associate producer, respectively, on ABC's African project staff, it was announced by James Fleming, executive producer.

NOTES CLASSMATES

From 1963 to 1955 Gary Raymond, seen as Sgt. Jack Ray-ford on ABC-TV's "The Rat Patrol," now filming in Almeria, Spain, was a member of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts. Among his classmates were Peter O'Toole, Albert Finney and Alan Bates.

Maris Is Thinking of Retirement

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger Maris, who broke Babe Ruth's record by hitting 61 home runs in 1961, is contemplating retirement from baseball.

"I'm thinking about getting out," Maris said. "I'm a 35-year-old outfielder told Milton Gross, sports columnist for the New York Post. 'This season has been a misery.'"

Maris is hitting only 235 with 10 homers and 37 runs batted in. His salary with the Yankees is $75,000.

Gross wrote in his Monday column that Maris has been playing with an injured muscle to the back and the side of his left knee. Pain prevents the slugger from running and slipping properly.

Buffalo Bills Pegged as AFL's Standard-Bearer for Playoff

BY MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The site isn't set yet, and the date hasn't been fixed but when the National and American football leagues meet in a championship Super Bowl at the end of the year the AFL's standard-bearer will be the Buffalo Bills. That, at least, is what it says here, now. The Bills, with a strong offensive line, a veteran defense and enough offense to cause more than an occasional ripple, should make it to the AFL throne room for an unprecedented third straight time.

While the Bills seem to be the cream of the East, a three-way battle could develop in the Western Division with the San Diego Chargers right now getting the edge over the Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs.

However, a major shift in personnel — the much-discussed trade that would send footballer Cookie Gilchrist from Denver to Oakland — could shift the favorite's role.

Here's the way the entire race looks from this vantage point.
Eastern Division — 1, Buffalo, 2, New York, 3, Houston, 4, Boston, 5, Miami.

Western Division — 1, San Diego, 2, Oakland, 3, Kansas City, 4, Denver.

The Bills not only have proven lines but have found a replacement for kicking specialist Pete Gogolak in Booth Lustig, an orthodox kicker who seems to have more range. Quarterback Jack Kemp's life could be made easier this year by the return of receivers El Denson and Glenn Bass while Arkansas rookie Bob Burnett could add some running power.

The Jets likely will go as far as Joe Namath's legs. If the $400,000 quarterback makes any appreciable time, it could be a difficult year. Matt Snell should blossom as a fullback and Emerson Booser of Maryland State may be a break-away threat but depth could be a problem.

The Chargers have the most explosive attack in the league with flanker Lance Alworth, record-setting rusher Keith Lincoln and a bundle of talent all down the line. Somehow, however, there always is the threat that the contract problems that have preceded the regular season could hurt. But they never seem to.

The Raiders' entire season could rest with quarterback Cotton Davidson, trying to make a comeback after a shoulder operation. If Davidson can make it back big, Oakland could go all the way with such proven talent as halfback Clem Daniels, receiver Art Powell and some up-flight candidates.

Johnson led off the second inning with a homer and connected again in the fourth to bring his home-run total to 19.
St. Louis 000 000-0 3 0
Cincinnati 010 000-2 5 0
Jaster, Briles (8) and McCarver; Nuxhall and Coker, W—Nuxhall, 6-4. L-Jaster, 8-5.

States With Forests Get $42 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has announced that a record $42 million is being distributed to states in which national forests are located. This exceeds last year's total by $7 million.

These payments, earmarked for schools and roads, represent 25 per cent of receipts from sale of timber, grazing fees, and recreation and other lands use permits in national forests.

Oregon receives $14.6 million, California and Washington $8.1 million each and Idaho and Montana $1 million each.

Free-Fall Chutist Dies After Mishap

BRICK TOWN, N.J. (AP)—Nicholas Plantanida, who had hung to life for four months after an unsuccessful attempt to break the world's free-fall record, died Monday night. He was 33.

Plantanida died at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Philadelphia. He had been on critical lists at three hospitals since May 1, never regaining consciousness after his accident. His last words, "emergency, emergency!" were gasped through a radio, 57,000 feet above southern Minnesota. He was on his way to 120,000 feet from where he hoped to break the world's free-fall record and collect scientific data.

It was his third try at the jump. First his balloon ruptured, sending him plummeting toward downtown St. Paul. The second time, an air hose fitting jammed, forcing the chutist to ride his gondola back to earth. The third time was fatal. Plantanida's oxygen supply suddenly failed. He signaled his ground crew who electronically detached his gondola from the balloon.

It was three critical minutes before the stricken chutist could get air to breathe. Then his rescuers waited another 22 agonizing minutes as the gondola parachuted to earth. Plantanida leaves his widow, Janice, three children and his parents. Friends had already contributed $3,500 to the family before word of his death came.

Collections Bad; Could Be Worse

Collection problems for the independent businessman in Idaho aren't nearly as bad as they could be, according to a special analysis of the year-long survey being conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business on this aspect of operating a small business.

Businessmen in Illinois and Alabama appear to have the most severe collection problems, according to the analysis. Nationally, 35 per cent of the independent businessmen report difficulties in collections, up from 31 per cent at the end of the first half of the year.

In Idaho, collection problems are reported by 41 per cent of the businessmen, as compared to 40 per cent so reporting during the first half of the year. In some states, business has been apparently tightening up credit and has been more active in collecting overdue accounts. Maine, Vermont, Rhode Island, Kansas, Delaware, Montana and Wyoming show substantial reductions in the percentage of independent business firms with collection problems as compared to the year's first half.

Further computerized checks indicate that the big rise in collection problems started in June, coinciding with the time that the new income tax withholding schedules went into effect.

Marriage Squeeze Put on Country by War Baby Boom

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The country is caught in the middle of a marriage squeeze. It looks like a half million or more young girls are going to have to postpone their first marriage, or get hooked to somebody they would have passed up in normal times, or—worst of fates—not get married at all.

The cause is the baby boom that followed World War II. The babies are grown up now and the girls are looking for husbands.

The trouble is that girls get hitched younger than guys, ages 19 to 22 for females versus 20 to 24 for males. And most of the guys who were born during the baby boom aren't old enough, statistically speaking, to march to the altar.

It was all described today to the American Sociological Association convention by two men from the U.S. Census Bureau, Paul C. Glick and Robert Parke Jr.

Suit Against Ore-Ida Is Dismissed

BOISE (AP)—A Blackfoot couple's $123,456 suit against Ore-Ida Foods Inc. was dismissed from U.S. District Court Monday on grounds the food company was not liable in a 1953 accident.

U.S. District Judge Fred M. Taylor noted Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ciccone already had won a "substantial" settlement in state courts from Leon Jensen, a truckdriver, and his employer. Ciccone said injuries received when a truck driven by Jensen struck his car on Main Street in Eden in September, 1953, left him unable to continue his trade as a journeyman carpenter.

The Blackfoot man said he filed suit against Ore-Ida because the truck was hauling potatoes for the food firm at the time. But Judge Taylor ruled the firm was not liable.

Wrong Sex

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller couldn't be faulted in New York City when he got the sexes confused.

He was campaigning for reelection Monday night in Greenwich Village before a crowd sprinkled with beatniks. Some of the men wore shoulder-length hair.

When one of the male beatniks asked a question Rockefeller replied, "Yes, madam." The crowd roared with laughter.

Rerouting of Intersection Is Explained

Rerouting of the Highland Avenue East at Locust Street South intersection to permit a smoother traffic pattern to and from the center of Twin Falls will take place during the first part of next week, Ron Scheuffe, city engineer, announced Monday.

Currently, city center-bound traffic on Locust Street South crosses southbound traffic on the roadway, enters the curve connecting Highland Avenue East and Locust Street South, crosses eastbound traffic on Highland and continues to Blue Lakes Boulevard South.

The rerouting will make the southbound curve a one-way street, thereby forcing northbound Locust Street South traffic to continue north to either Highland Avenue East or Kimberly Road.

The traffic bar at Locust Street and Kimberly Road intersection will allow the traffic to move swiftly and the elimination of two high-speed, heavy traffic crossovers will allow southbound traffic on Locust Street to move "much more safely," Scheuffe said.

"Do not enter" and "no left turn" directive signs will be posted at the intersection early next week.

Laos Airport Flooded by Mekong River

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—All commercial flights in and out of Vientiane were canceled today as the swollen Mekong River flooded the airport.

The U.S. Embassy put up sandbag dikes for protection, but mud levees held the water back from most of the downtown area.

The river was 39 feet above flood level and still rising, but Public Works Minister Ngou Sanankone was optimistic.

"If there is no more rain up north at Luang Prabang, the flood will start to subside tomorrow," he said. Luang Prabang, the royal capital, is upriver from Vientiane.

Soft Whiskey. Is it just another slogan?

If that were true, we'd be in big trouble by now.

But it took more than some sharp talk on Madison Avenue to make Soft Whiskey soft.

It took time, money and thousands of experiments that failed miserably before we had it:

A whiskey that went down as easy as...well, Soft Whiskey. But take heed:

That softness we're talking about goes just so far. After that, Soft Whiskey is 86 proof. Doing what any other respectable 86 proof whiskey can do. (It's just that getting there is a whole lot easier.) Naming Soft Whiskey was almost as easy as swallowing it. One sip and you could have done it yourself.
