British quarters have expressed doubt that the proposed pact would be a useful Soviet-Soviet differences would be assigned late next year. They believe it is possible agreement would be reached by the time the conference convenes again next September.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union declared at the outset of the U.N. arms debate that they would not enter into agreement on a treaty were it improved. Both warned, however, that differences remained.

Main stumbling block has been the Soviet demand that any treaty would play in the nuclear defense of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The U.S. delegation contended that West Germany should get its hands on nuclear hardware as part of a multilateral nuclear force—MLF—proposed by the U.S. and other NATO officials at the U.N. The Soviet officials pressed the belief that the MLF idea is about to be quietly abandoned.

Certain has been working on a new treaty proposal which would say only what countries could not do and eliminate any complicated provisions about what they could do, such as the MLF and the U.S. plan for limiting an MLF.

Object of the current U.N. debate is adoption of a stopgap resolution which appeals to all nations to refrain from proliferation pact and "refrain from

Lady Bird Visits Manila Excavation

MANILA (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson visited an archaeological excavation in Manila today and found it so interesting she made an unscheduled trip to another digging 60 miles away.

The American First Lady flew to Calatagan to look at sites of 14th century Ming discoveries after joining wives of the Manila conference leaders earlier on a tour of the Philippine capital that included a visit to an excavation at an old Spanish churchyard.

At the Church of Santa Ana Mrs. Johnson tried her hand at brushing and working with a small digging tool around the spot where a jar was found.

The first ladies went down into the dirt of a 10-foot archaeological excavation amid the bones of men who lived here 12 centuries ago.

A cheering crowd of about 800 jammed the church area and as the first ladies left after a half-hour visit pushed in so tightly the visitors could hardly get through to their air-conditioned bus.

Philippine presidential guards with carbines in their hands walked beside Mrs. Johnson to help Secret Service agents and police get through. She reached out to shake a few hands as she went.

The tour included a look at the walled city built in 1590 by the Spaniards.

The Philippine first lady, Mrs. Ferdinand Marcos, is also a beautification proponent and the restoration of the old walls is one of her projects.

2 Australians Charged in Court

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Two men were charged in City Court today with offensive behavior and resisting arrest while demonstrating during President Johnson's visit last week.

Desmond John Files, 23, of suburban Northcote, was fined $11 on each count.

Magistrate C.E. Elvish postponed the charge of offensive behavior against the second man, Robert Allen Hopkins, 25, until next May and put him under a $25 good-behavior bond.

Christmas Season Is Starting To Sparkle in U.S. Stores

NEW YORK (AP) — Santa won't hitch up his reindeer for another two months, but the Christmas season already is starting to sparkle in the nation's stores.

An Associated Press survey shows that Christmas will be a little early, partly because of the Viet Nam war.

"It makes them think about Christmas shopping early," he said. "It makes them think about Christmas shopping early," he said. "It makes them think about Christmas shopping early," he said.

Running Hard

Some weeks ago, the Times-News pointed out that the Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor, William E. Drevlow, was going to be a candidate in name only. That was the word being circulated by some Democrats. It was claimed Mr. Drevlow would make only a token effort to retain the office. It made sense, too, when it was pointed out he wasn't in the best-of-health because of a circulatory ailment that resulted in amputation of one leg a few years ago and was 76 years old. But the lieutenant-governor hasn't been paying any attention to that sort of talk.

Mr. Drevlow was in Twin Falls Monday. He and Mrs. Drevlow are still covering the coverage of the state. He reports they have driven some 7,000 miles so far and covered the entire northern portions of Idaho. It seems like a pretty good outing for a man who was supposed to be in poor health.

The Republican candidate, Jack M. Murphy of Shoshone, apparently has known for the last few weeks that there's another candidate seeking the office. He and Mr. Drevlow have been exchanging statements—the latest involving the matter of pay for the lieutenant-governor.

Regardless of which candidate wins on Nov. 8, there's a good chance Idaho will continue to have a lieutenant-governor who belongs to a party other than that claimed by the governor. It's not a prediction, just the mention of a possibility. And it's a possibility Idaho should eliminate by a change in laws. The governor and lieutenant-governor should be members of the same party. They should be a team, working together for the best interest of the state.

Whether Idahoans like it or not, the day is gone when they will elect a governor who will stay in the state all the time. There's too much demand on the time and talents—and perhaps prestige—of governors. Perhaps the next governor won't be traveling as much as Gov. Smylie, but it's a cinch he won't be staying in the state all the time either.

In this respect, Idaho has been fortunate that Mr. Drevlow hasn't taken undue advantage of the opportunities he had when he presided as chief executive during the absence of Gov. Smylie. If the present arrangement of electing the officials separately instead of as a team continues, Idaho might not always be so lucky.

MORE RELIEF POSSIBLE

Idahoans may have a few bright spots ahead in their tax future, depending, of course on what they do in the sales tax referendum come election day. Probably everyone noted the report that September collections of the sales tax totaled $2,977,488. During the first year of operation, the tax brought in an average of about $2.3 million per month. But in recent months, collections have been climbing upward until the average isn't far from $3 million monthly. The explanations may range all the way from an increase in the tourist business to an increase in population, but it's inescapable that the sales tax is producing more revenue than any tax ever anticipated.

Other taxes, added to be producing more money than the last session of the Legislature had expected. The windfall of tax money that will result should be regarded as an indication the sales tax isn't necessary. To the contrary, it should prime all members of the Legislature to grant whatever additional tax relief they feel is justified. It's possible measures of tax relief have been mentioned already, namely, repeal of the old tax on liquor and drugs from the sales tax. If public officials are serious in their expressions of concern about low income citizens, the next tax relief should be directed at the lower brackets of those who pay income tax. More generous exemptions would benefit all taxpayers, but the Legislature should look first at the lower brackets with the least ability to pay. If sales tax revenue continues to increase at the same pace in the future, legislators should continue to look for other possible sources of tax relief. It may not be possible because it's virtually certain that expenses for the next biennial budget will be higher than for the present period. Continuing inflation will drive the budget over budget, just as it has driven individual expenses up and up. It's rather than look for more places to spend the unexpected money, the Legislature must resist the natural bureaucratic trend to spend.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—Anybody around here mind if I stick my head in a dog's kennel blowing around the United States Information Agency's criteria for distribution of books to its overseas libraries? I am somewhat involved in the one, but so is every taxpayer whose dollars help to finance USA's operations and so the situation qualifies as one bearing on the public interest.

Washington Post Columnist Andrew Glass has raised anew the question of what qualifies a book for purchase by the agency for its overseas readers, and his report suggests that politics is the prime consideration.

Glass reports that USA bought and distributed 214,803 copies of "The Lyndon Johnson Story," an audacious profile of Mr. Big by Booth Mooney, who served six years on Johnson's Senate staff. But USA turned down two other books on Johnson that are somewhat critical, Phil Geyelin's "Lyndon B. Johnson and the World," and "Lyndon B. Johnson: The Exercise of Power," by Walter D. Dill.

According to Novak, his publisher was told that the book was "not suitable for a foreign audience."

HOOPER OUT—USA later told Glass the decision not to recommend the Evans-Novak work "did not come to the attention" of USA's Board of Books. Some folks remember that Mark, a lawyer identified with the Beautiful Book, was a consultant to the Johnson family's Texas broadcasting interests before landing the USA job.

Well, Mrs. Balderdash, I should like to welcome my friends Evans and Novak to the club. I got the same cavalier treatment from the USA earlier this year when I perpetrated a book labeled "The FBI's Masses" (William Morrow and Co., New York). Although the book carried an introduction and chapter-by-chapter comments by J. Edgar Hoover, USA told my publisher it was not the sort of literature we wished to offer to foreigners.

BUT FOREIGNERS BUY IT—This explanation has since caused me considerable puzzlement because the book has proved to have considerable appeal abroad. Publication rights have been sold in Great Britain, France, Germany, Spain, Japan and Portugal, and contracts shortly will be signed with publishers in several other foreign countries. And publishers everywhere, but particularly in foreign countries, are hard-boiled citizens who do not consign a manuscript to oblivion unless they are reasonably sure it's making a profit.

THAT BRINGS UP THE QUESTION of what is "suitable for a foreign audience." USA's "Statement of Policy" which allegedly guides its book selection committee, says the book should contain "information about the United States, its people, culture, institutions, policies, programs, achievements—suitable to counteract propaganda campaigns directed against the United States."

OLD-FASHIONED PATRIOT—Well, the FBI is certainly an American institution—and so, for that matter, is J. Edgar Hoover. And as the committee's opinion is subject to change, the FBI every day tells to combat anti-American propaganda. Possibly for this reason, Hoover is disliked by the way-out left and the half-spit-spoken right. He is a half-American, and he is against spying on the American flag, burning draft cards, sending blood to the Viet Cong, and killing spies, murderers, rapists and bank robbers.

Possibly, my book would have been given USA's imprimatur if it had been critical of Hoover and his FBI. At any rate, USA seems to have considerable fondness for such men as James Baldwin and Leroy Jones, the Negro militants who preach anti-white violence; and the literary effusions of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, who has received foreign expense money from a foundation financed by Las Vegas gambling houses. I am tempted to title my next effort "Lyndon Johnson is Wonderful but Everybody Else is a Bum."

Views of Others

TWICE UNNECESSARY
The House Un-American Activities Committee's hearings always seemed rather unnecessary to me. Developing information about well-known extremist tactics of some groups opposed to the war in Viet Nam. Now it appears, from Treasury Department criticism, that the committee's legislative purpose is almost equally unnecessary.

Fred B. Smith, Treasury's general counsel, told HUAAC that existing laws and regulations cover the situation adequately and that the bill the committee is considering might involve constitutional rights. The bill, introduced by Representative Phil D. Willis, chairman of the subcommittee, would make it a crime to give aid or comfort to the Viet Cong, and to forbid a citizen to urge others to obstruct movements of troops or supplies.

The Espionage Act already makes it a crime to impair the discipline of the armed forces or to interfere with the military or naval service. Selective Service Act prohibits interference with the draft law. To that considerable extent the bill is already on the statute books.

SHAMEFUL WHITTIES
Some White Americans tend to blame the Viet Cong for a similar situation to the latter. But the Viet Cong, that standard all-white persons should be condemned for the deplorable actions of a small group of slouching, stinking, and lying, jerking members of the Viet Cong in Chicago.

To hold the white race responsible for the acts of a few Negro extremists, in either case, most Negroes will only have to look to the white race for a similar situation. The racism implicit in the Viet Cong's actions cannot be questioned. To attack the marchers and the police assigned to protect them with sticks and stones is every bit as racist as the Negro outcry in the ghettos—The Oregonian.

FAMOUS LAST LINE
"... Whose birthday?"
GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

The Doctor Says

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What is vitamin P? Does it improve one's hearing?
A—Vitamin P is a synthetic vitamin P or, probably because of no proven deficiency of this vitamin has yet been observed. It is a synthetic vitamin P that it improves hearing. It appears to be closely related to Vitamin C, the vitamin that prevents scurvy.

Q—A recent newspaper article in Minnesota stated that if vitamin E is taken daily for three months it will cause chronic cystic mastitis (Q.10) disappear completely. Is this true? Elsewhere I have read that it is not essential in the human diet. Do you agree?
A—I know of no evidence that vitamin E will benefit cystic mastitis. It has been used with some success in the treatment of cystic fibrosis, a hereditary disease of children. There is no requirement of this vitamin in human beings.

Q—My eyes ache. Would vitamin A tablets help this condition?
A—Vitamin A is essential to all ages for good vision. It does not follow, however, that it would relieve pain in or near the eyes. Your eye doctor should determine the cause of the discomfort. Too much vitamin A can cause one form of vitamin deficiency.

Q—Is Vitamin C good for back trouble? Do you recommend vitamin C pills for everyone?
A—There are many kinds of back trouble, but vitamin C would not be likely to cure any of them. I don't recommend vitamin C pills to anyone. A person has a vitamin deficiency must be on a diet so restricted that he cannot get the vitamin he needs in his food.

Q—My doctor has prescribed nicotinic acid for my rheumatism. Should I feel flushed? Should I take a good source of this vitamin?
A—This vitamin dilates the blood vessels of the skin and may thus cause flushing. It is a B-vitamin. A good source is dried yeast and whole grain cereals.

Q—Several times a year my husband is awakened with spells that sound like retching but are caused by a momentary inability to swallow. What is the cause of this?
A—Difficulty in swallowing may be due to an obstruction in or a spasm of the esophagus. There are several causes of severe prolonged spasms of the esophagus, but the most common is the cause of momentary spasms is not known, largely because the condition is not serious and does not warrant an investigation grant. Another difficulty in studying such a case is that it would be hard for a doctor to observe the patient while eating.

Q—I have had several letters and am following the "eat on an animal research. Since I am a great lover of animals, I would like to make it clear that I heavily favor legislation to curb the theft of pet dogs engaged in by some unscrupulous persons. Such legislation should not, however, be used to hamper legitimate research. A reputable animal researcher get their animals from legally established sources and would not think of dealing with a dog-napper.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

WITH PRESIDENT JOHNSON IN THE PACIFIC—It has taken Lyndon B. Johnson 24 days to get to the Pacific. In the meantime, the trip has been a series of setbacks. The first was a brief World War II experience in the Pacific. The second was a brief visit to Australia. Those years have been one long pursuit of a definite goal. Only by his own bounding ambition.

Turning the capital of what Marquis Childs was not long ago Britain's fate, the trip has been a series of setbacks. The first was a brief World War II experience in the Pacific. The second was a brief visit to Australia. Those years have been one long pursuit of a definite goal. Only by his own bounding ambition.

He might be at the start of his career, campaigning for Congress. In this simple declaration, rather than at the climax as the chief executive of the rich nation in the world on an unprecedented tour of Asia. The impression is of a man who cannot stand still. He has filled his schedule so tightly that he has no time to rest.

For all this seemingly inexhaustible reserves of energy, the strain must be very great. To sustain the pace and keep the whole company in motion, he has his aides close to destruction.

The President, the theory is, thrives on the warm embrace of the crowd. Part of this is intense self-centeredness that is a reflex of his driving ambition. But that self-centeredness has been surprising that a lottery is a form of gambling now outlawed there. But that's the way it is. A national lottery has been technically before Congress for a long time.

Rep. Paul A. Fino, a Republican from New York's Bronx area, introduced a bill for one soon after he came to Congress in 1963.

Its reintroduction is an annual ritual that Fino has gone through in each Congress since 1963.

AS A REVENUE-raising measure, the bill routinely goes to the House Ways and Means Committee which just as routinely has filed and forgotten it. The bill has been in the committee for a long time. It is a bill to raise $10 billion a year.

ABOUT IT, ladies? Would you care to adjust to the living room for a cigar, while we fellows clear up the dishes?

It is within the realm of possibility. And, to no surprise, the very ones most against the trend are veteran cigar smokers.

"There is no doubt that women are buying more cigars," said one tobaccoist. But as for it becoming a national habit among them—well, I'm not sure.

But a mail order tobacco firm estimates that perhaps one out of a hundred cigars it sells are bought by women for their own use.

The number of public female cigar smokers is still small. But the number of women who are lighting up cigars is growing steadily. It is a sign of the times, the sign of a woman who enjoys a smoke in the privacy of her apartments is becoming a sign of a woman who is growing steadily.

Cigar smoking among women, of course, is nothing new. It is fairly common in several European countries, notably Denmark. Anna Magnani, the Italian actress, habitually carries a tin of small Swiss-made cigars.

The most famous American woman who smokes cigars is the actress, Ann Dvorak. She was the first American woman to smoke cigars. She was the first American woman to smoke cigars.

There is strong masculine resistance, particularly among long-time cigar lovers. In an informal poll, they gave these reasons: "Women who smoke cigars are equal rights nuts. They're like any. Anything men do they try to imitate."

"Cigars are too good for women. Women don't deserve them. They're like any. Anything men do they try to imitate."

Well, that's the situation, how

Opinions of a Conservative

By BARRY GOLDWATER

Virtually since it was born, the John Birch Society has been a pain or agony to Republicans and Democrats alike. It has stood up to it, whether or not it was a pain or agony to them.

It has posed a series of serious problems of party unity. It has frightened the party into a state of confusion. It has posed a series of serious problems of party unity.

I have not been and am not among those who agree with this or any other group of people without consideration of individual differences.

This seems an appropriate time—when once again there is factional exploitation of this single organization—to restate my reasons and expressions of regret for certain actions by certain members of this organization.

First and foremost, I want to say that I am not a member of the John Birch Society. I am not a member of the John Birch Society. I am not a member of the John Birch Society.

I urge that the Birch Society, along with all other groups, should be free to express their views in the public arena. I urge that the Birch Society, along with all other groups, should be free to express their views in the public arena.

Otherwise I am afraid that this most persistent of witch hunts will turn our politics into a perpetual Halloween of scares and frights.

Malaysians Prepare for Johnson Visit

KUALA-LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Prime Minister Abdul Rahman warned Malaysians today against staging anti-U.S. demonstrations when President Johnson arrives Sunday for a 21-hour visit.

Rahman, speaking during debate in Parliament on Johnson's visit, gave a flat "no" to a request by a leader of the opposition Labor party to stage a peaceful protest at the airport during the President's arrival.

The prime minister said such demonstrations, "even if they set out to be peaceful, may turn out to be violent."

Members of the Labor party have clashed with police half a dozen times this year during American policy in Viet Nam.

Rahman denied that the government was contemplating a secret deal with Johnson to send Malaysian troops to Viet Nam.

The prime minister said the President "knows of our commitments and our security problems and we have no troops to spare."

A Rahman's government in a white paper issued today warned that "militant and violent forms" of Communist activity have emerged on the Malay Peninsula and charged that this is "a vital part of the over-all pattern of Communist aggression and subversion in Southeast Asia, master-minded and directed by Peking."

The white paper said the Communist threat was manifested partly by "campaigns to support the Viet Cong and the violent propaganda attacks against American involvement in the Viet Nam war."

NORTH VERNON, Ind.

(AP) — A mock election by North Vernon High School pupils has been postponed because local politicians feared the results would influence adults.

In past years, the youngsters predicted upset victories by electing Sen. Vance Harke and Birch Bayh, and former Gov. Mitchel Welsh, all Democrats.

All were considered upsets. The youngsters this year would vote until Nov. 3, the same day as the general election.

Eruption of Mt. Kelud Is Reported

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Mt. Kelud, one of the most threatening volcanoes in popular East Java, has erupted again, driving an estimated 1,000 persons from their homes.

Antara news agency reported today. It added that it was not determined if anyone was killed.

The agency did not give the exact date of the eruption but said streams of lava destroyed more than 200 houses and that several others were heavily damaged by rivers of mud from heavy rains Oct. 12-15.

It was Kelud's second major eruption this year. In April a volcanic explosion killed more than 100 persons and wiped out entire villages.

CONSTRUCTION PLANNED BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Construction will begin soon on an American-financed airfield for the Thai air force with a 9,000-foot runway at Nakorn-Pattom, 35 miles west of Bangkok, it was reported Tuesday.

Food Stores Face New Shopper Appeals

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

The nation's top food store executives, complaining of declining profits, faced new appeals from housewives today to cut their grocery bills.

"We'll boycott their stores," said Mrs. Charles Lundstrom of Miami, president of the Dade County Consumers' League. "If they don't do something about this, we'll picket their hotel."

As the supermarket executives gathered here for a convention to hear a report that their profits dipped last year, and released by the National Association of Food Chains

Monday showed that profits were 1.31 per cent of sales, down one-tenth of one per cent from last year's 1.41 level.

"Profiteers indeed!" Seymour D. Simpson, executive vice president of Daitch Shopwell supermarkets, New York, told some 1,000 executives. "We are working on a profit of less than 1.3 per cent. This is hot-proof of our virtue, but rather of our posture and plight."

"This report," he said in an interview later, "won't go into the head of the housewives. They are very emotional. The logic of our balance sheet does not interest them. They wouldn't even bother to study it."

He also discounted the effects of widespread boycott plans. "I don't see how anybody in his right mind can reduce prices because of boycotts."

Told of the Cornell study, Mrs. Lundstrom, a 65-year-old widow who said she fought and won her first war against an increase in the price of milk in 1937, said:

"That's not so. I don't believe it. They are building new buildings all over. They have so much money they don't know what to do. That is not so."

Food prices have increased 5.2 per cent since 1950, she said. She planned to send a delegation to carry the league's appeal to Gordon Bloom, president of the food chains association. She said the delegation would ask removal of trading stamps and prizes which she and other housewives say are responsible for the increase in food prices.

Housewives across the nation began forming clubs to protest what they called steadily rising food prices as well as demanding an end to trading stamps.

Also in Georgia, Decatur housewives started a telephone campaign asking friends to shop at smaller markets and bypass the chain stores.

An official of the Georgia Retail Association, Tom Gregory, said profits are at a minimum and high costs should be attributed to the increased cost of production, processing and delivery.

GETS LIBRARY FUNDS
BOISE (AP)—Idaho will get nearly $100,000 more under terms of a new federal library program than it did under the old law, Miss Helen Miller, state librarian, reported Monday.

She said the bill, on which Congress completed action Saturday, provides $439,292 for Idaho in the fiscal year which ends next June 30, she said, Idaho was allocated $347,000 in federal aid funds for libraries.

COMPLIMENTS NAVY
BOISE (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie described the U. S. Navy Monday as a "strong moral building force for men and women serving our country in war and peace" and proclaimed Thursday Navy Day in Idaho.

The observance will be nationwide.

TESTIMONY ADDED
POCATELLO (AP)—Defense witnesses added new testimony today for the contention that flooding in the southeast Idaho village of Bancroft is an act of God—not the Union Pacific Railroad.

The jury trial on a $300,000 damage suit by Bellevue residents against the railroad resumed in U. S. District Court Monday after a six-month recess that Judge Fred M. Taylor said may be one of the longest in court history.

Residents contended when the trial began last March that a track and dike the railroad completed in 1955 had caused the heavy damage in 1962 and 1963.

GET REACTOR
BOISE (AP)—Idaho State University's new nuclear physics program will get a full-scale nuclear reactor for experimental and instructional purposes, Gov. Robert E. Smylie announced Monday.

The ten and a half ton uranium-oxide fueled training reactor, which will be located at the National Reactor Testing Station, Smylie said.

The governor said the reactor would be developed to meet the clear oriented industry in Pocatello and Southeast Idaho.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25 — Barn today: you are not one to be surprised at how soon they're hatched; quite to the contrary, you are inclined to be more than a little pessimistic when you consider your future. It is not that you lack self-confidence, but, rather, that you fall easily into the habit of being so sure of your own worth, and that, therefore, there is no use showing that world what you can do.

Such an attitude is bound to have an adverse effect on your career, for it will keep you from really trying; it is not enough that you know you can do it, you must also be sure you can do it, for you are not such a philosophical person that such knowledge can make up for the appearance of failure.

Work, therefore, toward overcoming your feelings; you will be surprised at how soon you will be recognized if you try.

For a person such as you, an early marriage could well prove a poor risk; indeed, for you might well be inclined to lean on your mate, hoping that he or she will prove to be successful enough for both of you. Wait, therefore, and wait until you are able to offer your spouse something more than a promise; you will find the wait to have been well worth it.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Wednesday, October 26
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)—Synopses may be the best gift you can offer another at this time. Keep material offerings for some later, more auspicious date.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22)—Patience should see you halfway to your goal; determination should see you through the other half. A day for accomplishment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—A display of astuteness at this time can gain you nothing but the displeasure of one whom you are most trying to please.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—A minor disturbance in the home should not be allowed to have any children's school. Put domestic issues aside during working hours.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)—Eliminate confusion by sticking to one thing. Do not allow others to throw you off your course.

ARIES (March 22-April 20)—"Dutiful" and "beautiful" do not necessarily go together; you may have to forego the latter for the former at this time.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21)—Order is the watchword for the day. When disorder creeps in, productivity creeps out, so take care to have everything in its place.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—Shirking and going together are two different things. Take care not to inflict the latter on those who have not enough of the former.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)—Only by burying hostility under a pile of work will you be able to turn a potentially unsuccessful day into a productive one.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—If you would have confidence placed in you, show your willingness to give your ends to others. Turn about a fair play.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—A receptive mind and a diplomatic way will win you success in your ends today, particularly those of a business nature.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Harmonious surroundings are more important than actual accomplishment today. Let your personal feelings guide.

CONDUCTOR NAMED
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Andre Previn has been named as the Houston Symphony Society's new conductor in chief to replace Sir John Barbirolli next October. Sir John will remain with the orchestra as conductor emeritus.

DECISION REVERSED
BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Supreme Court reversed a lower court water rights decision Monday and said its own investigation showed a Lemhi County couple to have priority.

A district court had ruled Arthur Wells could divert water from an unnamed spring saying it was not a tributary of Spring Creek on which Mr. and Mrs. Gilman-Martinez have priority right.

The Supreme Court said Monday a "collateral source" of the records shows the spring is a tributary of Spring Creek and Wells may not deprive the Martinezes of the flow necessary to meet their rights.

MINER KILLED
SALMON, Idaho (AP)—A miner was killed Monday in a cave-in at the Blackbird Mine at Cobalt, a small mining community about 40 miles north of Salmon.

Machinery Center of Salt Lake City, operator of the mine, said the man was Marion Casper, 43, of Arlie, a well-known miner in a drift and crushed Casper, a mine superintendent.

AWARD GIVEN
BOISE (AP)—The State Department of Health and the Boise City-Ada County Health Department were given a "award" Monday commending them for their work in an air pollution monitoring program.

The award was presented by Dr. Henry Kassell, of Denver, regional health director for the U. S. Public Health Service.

The award was presented in the office of Gov. Robert E. Smylie, who signed a proclamation designating this as "Clean Air Week" in Idaho.

SHELTER PROPOSED
BOISE (AP)—Conversion of the old Soldiers Home in Boise into a children's shelter, for Southwestern Idaho delinquents, wards of the court and other youngsters needing services was proposed Monday by Ada County Probate Judge W. E. Smith.

Smith asked the governor's Interdepartmental Committee on Children and Youth to appoint a subcommittee to study the proposal.

The Labor Commissioner W. L. Lusk said the request would be considered.

REWARD SET For Proof of Human Soul
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—About 18 days will be set aside next year in which to prove scientifically the existence of the human soul.

To the organization which can do this—and at least eight will try—the prize is more than $200,000.

The money was left by James Kidd, an Arizona miner who died in 1951. Kidd's will said his estate would go to any person or group furnishing "some scientific proof of a soul of the human body which leaves at death."

Attorneys believe the money also could be awarded anyone who is merely researching the existence of the soul.

Superior Court Judge Robert Myers said Monday a hearing expected to last 18 days would begin next March 6.

Kidd, a bachelor, said in his will he had no heirs.

Seeking to qualify for the money are: the Foundation, Parapsychology, Inc., the Arizona Board of Regents, Arizona Foundation for Neurology and Psychiatry, Parapsychology Foundation, Inc., the University of Life Sciences, Inc., Neurological Research Foundation, Inc., and the Aquarian Foundation.

The claim—that the government was negligent in failing to warn Parratt adequately that another grizzly bear, attack occurred nearby in the Montana national park 10 days before the attack on Parratt on July 16, 1966.

The bear attacked Parratt as he hiked with two rangers and two vacationing Swedish teachers. A lung was punctured and parts of his cheeks and nose were destroyed. One eye had to be removed and the other remained injured, in movement by scar tissue.

Q. My sweetheart is so disturbed that he leaves his temper over almost anything that he doesn't like. Sometimes he can't even answer a simple question without making a federal case out of it. We are both 17 and we are planned for the balance of our senior year. We have agreed that when we go to college, we shall both be free to select another mate if we want to.

I would be most unhappy with him, and I don't know if I can even endure the balance of our senior year planned to him. I don't want to hurt him because if I do there is no telling what stories he will spread about me, or us. But, I just don't believe I can stick it out for the school year. What do you girls think I should do? Margaret.

Colombia Will Try to Check Population

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Colombia's population has exploded from 12 million to 18.4 million in the last 10 years and the government has decided to take steps to control the growth.

President Carlos Lleras Restrepo, fulfilling an election promise, plans a nationwide program to provide birth control information, particularly to peasant families in the rural areas.

He has asked for economic aid from the United States and technical assistance from the Population Council and from the Ford Foundation to launch the program.

Reliable sources said the government has received approval for the program from the Roman Catholic Church. They said the Church, which has strongly opposed control of the birth rate in the past, has softened its position in light of the social and economic problems caused by the high birth rate.

Drinking Milk Helps Protect Some From Stomach Cancer

TOKYO (AP)—Drinking milk, along with chili and Iceland, Dr. Takashi Higginson, of the National Cancer Research Institute told of comparing the diets of stomach cancer patients with Japanese free of the disease.

One main difference was that cancer victims drank less milk, he said. Another was that they used much more salty food, especially salted pickles, a mainstay of the Japanese diet.

People agree it is very difficult to blame particular food items or to prove that others are protective.

The puzzle about food was reported today at sessions of the ninth International Cancer Congress.

Japan has one of the highest rates of stomach cancer in the world, particularly in increased milk consumption, said Dr. Higginson.

Dr. J.F. Higginson, director of the International Agency for Research on Cancer told of a study in the Kansas City area of the United States trying to pinpoint any particular dietary influence. As with other such studies, no single factor was implicated unequivocally.

The rate of stomach cancer in Japan has started to go down recently, and this may be associated with dramatic changes in diet, particularly in increased milk consumption, said Dr. Higginson.

General Tax Hike Seen for Coming Year

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—There will probably be a general tax increase next year, Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee, said today.

"It might have to be a tax increase," Mahon said in a speech prepared for the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

"Expenditures for the war in Viet Nam will continue to mount upward, and expenditures for domestic purposes are mounting."

"Government revenues are going up too, but the increase in revenues is probably not sufficient to approach a pay-as-you-go situation."

The appropriations committee this year set a peacetime record—about $145 billion, including such figures as interest on the national debt.

He said, however, that "we can pay as we go, and we cannot at this time defend a policy which does less."

The alternative to a tax increase, Mahon said, is wage and price controls, but they are not in the offing.

This would create more problems and far greater inequities than a tax increase. There is absolutely no support in Washington at this time for price and wage controls," he said.

Gene Barry Is Guest on Berle Show

Gene Barry's suave is tested when he comes face-to-face with the host of the "Berle Show" on the Milton Berle Show in color Oct. 28 (9-10 p.m. EDT).

Also appearing on the show are singer-comedian Dorothy LeMay, the dancing Nicholas Brothers, the Sandpipers with their smash hit, "Guantanamera," and comedian chief, Sidney Shorstein.

Special guest-star Barry sings and dances in the production number, "I Get a Kick Out of You."

Milton keeps the hilarity at a high pitch with a barrage of Berleisms:

"He's a high school drop-out. Luckily it was only from the third floor."

Confidentially, ABC-TV's president, Tom Moore, calls him. You should have heard what he called me."

Politicians Meet on "F Troop"

Television has booted the baby-kissing, cigar-passing politician as the one with the curbside campaign — into the attic along with grandpa's junk.

"When you see him now, it's a comedy," says a comedy writer, Austin Kalish, who with his wife, Irma, wrote "The Ballad of Desperate Dan" airing in color on ABC-TV's "F Troop," Oct. 27.

"And that's here you might expect to find him," continues Kalish, "F Troop."

In the episode, two politicians running for the office of Mayor of Pampa, N. J., journey to Fort Courage to vie for the tie-breaking absentee vote of native son Agam.

"Before television — for that matter, before radio, if that's conceivable — the politician went out among the voters and did or said whatever he thought would win him a vote," says Kalish. "In a local election, the action got better."

"When Irma and I got the idea for the script, we remembered the torchlight anniversary ball parades in the Bronx, the campaign buttons, posters and stunts — everything that made a politician a politician."

Kalish and his wife grew up in the west Bronx. He attended New York University; she was graduated from the University of Syracuse, married a law graduate and Phi Beta Kappa. They became a writing team after they were married in Los Angeles in 1964.

Nick Barkley Falls in Love

Music Makers Prepare for Personal Trip

When the Champagne Music Makers (ABC-TV's "The Lawrence Welk Show") pack up to go on a personal appearance tour, spiked golf shoes are included in the baggage of several of the band members (golf clubs are too heavy).

"As musicians, we are very fortunate golfers," said the chief linkster, "because all the Maestro Welk. "Word that a number of us are golfers has gotten around, so now wherever we perform we are usually invited to play the golf course, too."

Serious golfers in addition to Welk are bandmates, Gene Allen, Dick Dale, Barney Liddell and Norman Bailey; vocalists Tim Roberts, Joe Fennedy and Bob Duncan; and Greg Dixon, the Blender, and dancers Bobby Burgess and Jack Imel.

The Music Makers got in three days of golf in Texas, California and Arizona, and recently while appearing at the Montana State Fair, and four days of play at Des Moines, Iowa, while booked at the fair there.

In recent years band members and their leader have played at Pebble Beach in California, W. Va., Portland, Ore., Dallas, Texas, Miami Beach and Springfield, Mass.

"When we get back to Southern California, there's a rush for the golf course as it is the only place in Southern California where you can play with a putter — the one he keeps in his dressing room at ABC Television Center in Hollywood."

Filming of Show Set in Church

Daniel Mann, producer-director of "Silent Night," an hour-long color special scheduled for ABC-TV next year, has made arrangements to film portions of the program in the church in Oldenburg (Astoria) where classic Christmas songs were first heard.

Scenings for this new television play written by Christopher Isherwood from an original story by Paul Gallico have been shot in authentic locations near San Francisco, with one major scene scheduled for filming in Vienna.

Led by Leonard, who has created some of the world's most famous Christmas shows during his many years at Radio City Music Hall, is executive producer for the program, with Halbert Robinson as Executive in Charge of Production.

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed today with prices rallying and trading more active than earlier.

The market wiped out an early decline, when losses of 2-1/2 to 1 had been reduced to about an even-steady basis or better in late dealings.

In late dealings Du Pont was up about half a dozen points giving the industrial average a mild uptick.

IBM gained a couple of points and Xerox around 5.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6 million shares compared with 5.7 million Monday.

The industrial average managed to cancel all of its initial decline and move into plus territory, but on an overall basis the market showed a slight loss based on other averages.

Two groups of blue chips, which provided early encouragement, spread somewhat as the session wore on. Although the Dow Jones Industrial Average, among them airlines, electronics, rails, motors and electrical equipment.

General Electric lost about 3/4, Superior Oil and Northwest Airlines about 2 each.

Texasco and Cities Service advanced fractionally after raising their dividends.

Eastern and KLM airlines dropped about 2 each, as did General Instrument.

SCM Corp., down nearly a point, looked like the volume leader. It traded on an early decline of 50,000 shares.

Prices declined on the American Stock Exchange.

Vote of Confidence Is Given to Mexico by IOC

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The International Olympic Committee gave the Mexicans a vote of confidence Monday on their preparations for the 1968 games. "We have a full report from the organizing committee on what it has done and have seen schedules and blueprints of their planned construction," Avery Brundage, IOC president, told a press conference. "We are pleased. We are confident that they will be ready and not put on a good show." Brundage, reporting on a series of IOC meetings over the weekend, said: "The IOC anticipated no political troubles in 1968, such as the East German withdrawal from the Little Olympics here earlier this month. 'It is a settled question,' he said.

1. The IOC anticipated no political troubles in 1968, such as the East German withdrawal from the Little Olympics here earlier this month. "It is a settled question," he said.
2. A special IOC delegation will be sent to South Africa to investigate whether the South African government policies (apartheid) have changed enough to readmit the South African delegation, barred from Tokyo in 1964.
3. There is growing concern over the growth of regional games such as the Commonwealth, Asian, Caribbean and Africa games but the IOC has no intention of trying to discourage them. "There are so many games that it is difficult to participate to compete in all of those he feels obligated to take.

Players Joke After Battle Is Completed

By The Associated Press
I thought sure we were playing the Green Bay Packers, said Harry Hartsman, a player for the Oklahoma Sooners. "Who in hell scheduled them?" joked Jim Mackenzie, Hartsman's teammate. The Sooners' coach had both been recorded for profanity after their previous victory over the team had the misfortune of playing Notre Dame. The Irish won 34-0, administered the worst beating the Sooners have taken since 1915. Over in the Notre Dame locker room all was happiness. "I guess this has to be one of our better games," deadpanned Terry Lamarity, Notre Dame's linebacker quarterback. "It was a good win," said Coach Ara Paraghiann, "and certainly we didn't expect this kind of score or margin."

Notre Dame may for the next three weeks when it takes on Navy, Pitt and Duke before playing Michigan State in a game that is looming after all the time.

Egad! Hoople Comes up With Perfect Slate in Grid Contest

Ahal A Hoople aroused is a Hoople successful. Your Peerless Leader has dominated all corners and come up with perfection. It should come as little surprise to those of you who have followed my career closely that Major Amos B. Hoople presented a perfect 20 for 20 record to you Magic Valley readers last week. In all honesty I must admit that 10 others turned in perfect ballots but in all modesty I must admit there should be nothing to it once the perfect lineup has been placed before you for three consecutive days.

Taylor May Leave Work To Grabowski

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Fullback Jim Taylor of the Green Bay Packers may be leaving and his understudy Jim Grabowski may have arrived. Taylor told The Associated Press Sunday that he was playing "out this option" with the Packers. Grabowski, who was drafted by the Packers in the third round of the NFL draft, said he was "in good luck" and "feeling good" about his new team. Taylor, who has been with the Packers since 1964, said he was "in good luck" and "feeling good" about his new team. Miami Has Pro Feel Says Coach

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Miami Dolphins looked like the team to watch in the American Football League games. Now they have won two in a row, and Coach George Wilson says they're getting the pro feel. "The addition of Cookie Gilchrist, 200 pound fullback, is a big plus," Wilson said. "Although he had been with the squad only three days, Gilchrist, 200, out 33 yards on touchdown runs, and by collaring a 13-yard touchdown pass as Miami upset Houston 20-13 Sunday."

Mitchell May Start for Skins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington Coach Otto Graham said Monday that he expects Mitchell Mitchell to start against Philadelphia Sunday, but no final decision has been made yet. Mitchell, after playing a lackluster game against New York two Sundays ago, was benched against St. Louis Sunday. He didn't get into the game until the second quarter and didn't have a pass thrown to him until the third period. But on the first play of the fourth quarter, he caught a 15-yard touchdown pass. A little more than two minutes later, he caught a 44-yard touchdown pass. The two Mitchell scores enabled the Redskins to upset the Cardinals 20-13.

Two More Charged In Bribery Attempt

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Sports bribery charges were placed against two more men Monday as the FBI continued its year-long probe into alleged attempts to fix Louisiana State University football games. Joseph Lee Nolan, 26, and Samuel Freddie Comeaux, 25, both of Baton Rouge, were arrested on charges of trying to influence by bribery the outcome of six LSU games this season.

Garrett Is Bidding for Rookie Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Garrett of the Kansas City Chiefs, the Heisman Trophy winner last year, is making a strong bid for Rookie of the Year honors in the American Football League. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound running back, who was named by some to be too small for pro ball, carried 91 yards during Sunday games against Denver and pushed his total for the year to 303 yards in 4 carries. And, according to league statistics released Monday, Garrett has the best average among the leaders—42 yards a carry. His yardage total is good enough for seventh place and he also is among the leaders in punt and kickoff returns. Garrett is ranked sixth in both of those departments with 12 punt returns for 118 yards and nine kickoff returns for 206 yards. Jim Nance of Boston remained the No. 1 rusher, bringing his total to 545 yards after gaining 108 yards against San Diego. Buffalo's Wray Carlton and Bobby Burnett are in second and third places with 338 and 377 yards, respectively. Nolan and Comeaux did not mention the three players. LSU Athletic Director James J. Corbett and football coach Charles McClelland said the three players had cooperated with the FBI for more than a year in its investigation.

LEN JORDAN WORKS TO PROTECT IT!

Water Expert Backs Senator In Campaign

FILED (AP) — A Democrat with 35 years of work in reclamation attempted to persuade Sen. Len Jordan on Saturday, declaring, "It's absurd for anyone to infer Sen. Jordan is not protecting our water rights."

The statement came from N. Y. Sharp, who served as chairman of the powerful Snake River Committee of Miss for about 20 years. Sharp was a director of the Twin Falls Canal Co. for 25 years before he retired. He also was chairman of the Idaho delegation working on the Idaho-Wyoming compact.

Sharp pointed out Sen. Jordan has a long record of outstanding service to Idaho and is widely known as what water rights men in Idaho.

"I've had some real tough experience where water is concerned," Sharp said, pointing to Jordan's years as chairman of the joint committee with Canada.

Water Expert Backs Senator In Campaign

"Len Jordan is convinced that Idaho can utilize all of its water resources on Idaho land, and has been in the forefront of these efforts to protect Idaho water by putting it to use."

—Grant Salsbury, Resource Writer U.S. News and World Report

"In recollection, I recall the great and many contributions made by my distinguished colleague, Senator Len Jordan of Idaho. As a former Governor of that great state, as the Chairman of the American Section of the Joint Commission, and as a United States Senator he gave unstintingly of his talents, energies and time to bring this project to its present stage."

"He knew from first-hand knowledge what Libby should mean to Idaho along the Kootenai and he worked strenuously and unrelentingly for many years to bring about Libby Dam's approval."

"We owe Senator Len Jordan much for what he has done and we appreciate more than ever we can say his great and distinctive contribution to this project."

—Senator Mike Mansfield, Senate Majority Leader

World Lightweight Title Declared Vacant; Ortiz, Ramos to Meet Jan. 29

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The World Boxing Council declared Carlos Ortiz' world lightweight title vacant Monday night, and Ortiz tentatively agreed to meet Sugar Ramos in another fight for the title January 29. Bill Daly, manager of Ortiz, said he was willing to fight Ramos for the title on that date. The agreement was reached during a news conference at a sports park in Mexico City after Ramon Velazquez, executive secretary of the WBC, declared the title vacant.

Bobcats Have Title Virtually Sewed up

By The Associated Press
Montana State isn't officially crowned, but the Bobcats have the Big Sky Conference football title virtually sewed up, after a 45-36 victory over Weber State Saturday. The game wasn't easy, and it ended in a free-for-all fight featuring players of both teams and a group of fans.

But it assured the Bobcats at least a tie for the conference title, and it would take some astounding upset to keep them from taking undisputed possession. Montana State is hoping for a bid to the Camella Bowl.

The win over Weber left Montana State with a 3-0 record in the Big Sky. They lead the conference with only one conference game left, against last place Montana Nov. 5.

In their Saturday games, Washington State led Idaho 14-7 in the traditional "Battle of the Palouse," and Idaho State beat Montana 17-14.

Idaho State, 1-1 in the conference, has Big Sky games against Idaho State this Saturday, and Idaho Nov. 19. Idaho State, 1-1 in the conference, has Big Sky games against Idaho State this Saturday, and Idaho Nov. 19.

In other games this week, all-conference, Idaho takes on Oregon at Boise, Idaho; Montana State plays at the University of North Dakota; and Montana goes to Northern Arizona State at Flagstaff.

Montana State's halfback Don Hass led his team to victory over Weber State, running for four touchdowns and setting a Big Sky rushing record. He added 109 yards to his total, which is now 1,009 for the season, well ahead of the 1,002 mark set last year by Ray McDonald of Idaho.

The game at Bozeman was marked by calls for unsportsmanlike conduct, most of them against Weber State. One Weber player, Skip Simmons, was thrown out of the game for persistently taunting the referee. Bobcat quarterback Dennis Erickson's pinpoint passing connected on 10 of 14 attempts for 300 yards.

Bozeman, Mont. (AP)—Jim Sweeney was still elated Sunday about his Bobcats' 45-36 Big Sky Conference football victory over Weber State Saturday. But the coach was still upset about the violent fight that broke out at the end of the game.

On learning that Weber State Coach Sark Arslanian blamed a Montana State double-shift for his players' anger, Sweeney said, "That fight is not made yet."

"In my opinion," Spota said in a letter to members of the WBC, "I believe the ideal solution would be to have the council declare vacant the world lightweight title, that I arrange a new fight between Ortiz and Ramos to take place in a city agreeable to both sides and judged by a referee and judges designated by the world council."

He suggested both parties get the same amount of money for the fight and that each put up a $5,000 guarantee.

Referee Billy Conn, the former world lightweight champion from Pittsburgh, stopped the fight in the fifth round because of a deep cut over Ramos' left eye and awarded the bout to Ortiz on a technical knockout.

Ortiz went to his dressing room. Velazquez, who ruled the referee, and ordered Ortiz to return and resume the fight. When Ortiz refused, Velazquez declared Ramos the winner and new champion.

Hunting Trip Turns Into All-Night Hike in Canyon for T.F. Dentist

By CATHERINE TATE
Dr. Eddie R. Allison went on an all-night hunting trip Saturday — he was hunting for a path back to civilization. He brought back one mule deer (two cold feet and some very persistent hunger pains).

Allison, a Twin Falls dentist, had gone hunting Saturday afternoon with his brother, Joseph Allison, and Dr. John McNeely, a Twin Falls optometrist. The trio left Twin Falls at 2:30 p.m. and headed for a spot on the Snake River between Twin Falls and Filer. They had planned to make a good afternoon of it, taking along two dogs and an outboard motor boat.

They took the Crystal Springs road to Crystal Springs, where they put the boat in and then headed for a spot approximately four miles above the spring. Allison dropped his companions off and proceeded alone in the boat upstream.

He didn't see them again until shortly after noon Sunday, nearly 20 hours later.

Allison's boat developed engine trouble and he was forced to abandon it at approximately 11:30 p.m. when he started walking out of the Snake River in a city agreeable to both sides and judged by a referee and judges designated by the world council.

He had only his gun, his dog and a Coleman heater that he had no use because he had no matches. He didn't have a watch, any food or a compass. He walked more than five miles in the dead of night over what he calls the "rockiest, muddiest and most wicked" terrain in Magic Valley.

He says that he was never really lost and remained content.

SOUTH'S PLAY
TWIN BARRELED
It would have been easy for West to ruin the point in today's article. All he would have had to do would be to open the ace of clubs and continue, but West made his normal opening lead.

ending lead of the jack of diamonds. South won in dummy and drew trumps with three leads ending in his own hand. He could count three sure losers and there was a potential fourth if clubs broke badly. It was up to him to try to develop an elimination play to force a ruff and discard situation in that event.

South worked this out so nicely that he wound up with a double-barreled play. He started by leading a club, then dummy's king held the trick.

Selected Reserve Force Will Stand Prepared

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans to maintain the nation's Selected Reserve Force in a high state of readiness at least until mid-1967 as a hedge against any required mobilization.

Gen. Winston P. Wilson, head of the National Guard-Bureau, disclosed this today in assessing the progress of the 150,000-man force, organized a year ago as a first-line backup for the regular Army.

"The results have been fantastic," Wilson said, pointing out that 86 per cent of 423 SRF units tested during the summer passed regular Army battalion-level examinations. Sixty which flunked are being retested.

"This is quite good for part-timers," he said.

The National Guard forms the bulk of the Selected Reserve Force with 121,000 men, compared with the Reserve's 19,000.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara set up the Selected Reserve Force a year ago during the Viet Nam build-up as an alternative to ordering to active duty Army Reserve or National Guard units.

At the time, some Regular Army divisions in the United States were being stripped of resources and converted to tanks, trucks and six large assault helicopters.

In this situation, McNamara established the SRF as a super-ready force which could be ordered to a crisis spot within nine weeks of alert while home-based Army divisions were rebuilding.

The objective of the select units in the past year has been attained — getting in, shape to be able to arrive at a mobilization station on seven days' notice, then undergo eight weeks of brigade and division level training — before deployment overseas.

The rapid transition of Guard and Reserve units in the SRF from lower to higher priority outfits has, however, exacted a price.

For one thing, expansion of the priority units' training schedule from 48 to 72 drills a year has resulted in a loss of experienced officers and non-commissioned officers.

Concerned that the point of diminishing returns in training rate is back at what officers call had been reached the Pentagon allowed units passing their summer tests to cut back from 72 to 48 drills a year. Those which failed, however, must remain on the accelerated schedule until they get passing marks.

Now, the NCO and officer loss rate is back at what officers call "normal" 8 to 10 per cent.

Ship Launched

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The Navy amphibious assault ship Shreveport has been launched at the Lockheed Shipbuilding Co. yard. The 570-foot craft is capable of carrying 1,000 troops and their equipment, including tanks, trucks and six large assault helicopters.

Defends Title

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Curtis Tate successfully defended his title of world champion chicken eater recently by downing 37 pieces of fried chicken—a total of 13½ pounds.

The contest climaxed poultry festival week at Gainesville, which claims to be the broiler capital of the world.

Tate, who weighs 255 pounds, won $100 and a bucket of fried chicken.
