SYNOPSIS AND AGRICULTURAL SUMMARY

The weather was cool and dry, with a few rain showers in the Great Lakes area. This was followed by a series of cold fronts from the north, bringing with them light amounts of moisture from the Plains States on into the Great Lakes Region. Boose recorded 10 inches and Caldwell 81 inch yesterday morning. No precipitation was reported from valley stations in southeastern or southeaster Idaho.

The frontal passage yesterday did not cause any significant changes in temperatures yesterday, but an increase in wind speeds and gusts did have a warming effect in Magic and Southern Idaho.

High pressure aloft is forecast to remain in areas valleys for the next few days. High pressure aloft is located along the West Coast and during the next two or three days this high pressure will move eastward into this area. Fair weather is forecast for today and Tuesday in Southern Idaho. The outlook for Wednesday calls for fair weather to continue.

The front will move eastward across the state, bringing with it more rain and snow. Low pressure will be mostly in most valleys. Lows in the 20s to low 30s are expected.

Maximum temperatures yesterday ranged from 69 degrees at Burley and Malad to 60 degrees at Rexburg. An overnight low of 43 degrees was reported from Burley at 5 a.m. while Kimberly and Gooding both reported lows of 40 degrees at 8 a.m.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

High pressure aloft will continue to influence the weather over the Western States during the next five days. Therefore, the trend towards warm, dry weather will continue in area valleys through Saturday.

Temperatures in Magic Valley and Southeastern Idaho, Tuesday through Saturday will average from 2 to 8 degrees above normal. In the Southwestern Idaho, temperatures will be about normal. Average more than 10 degrees above normal during the first half of the week with further warming indicated for mid-week.

Little or no precipitation is forecast for the valleys of Southern Idaho. The pronounced high-pressure aloft over the Western States and extending northward through Western Canada forecast to be quite an effective barrier to Pacific storms. Storms will pass to the east of the West Coast and are expected to push even a trailing front into the state.

Sunshine will average 75 per cent or more of the new five days, being interrupted only by a few high clouds at times. Wind speeds will be mostly light during the week. Soil temperatures at the three and four-inch depths should continue near present readings without any heat loss.

Ideal weather for crop harvesting will continue uninterrupted around the state. Insect pests, in sugar beet digging can be controlled. Conditions will be favorable for fall sowing. Beets should be harvested after midweek. Finishing work on the 1966 potato crop will be favored weatherwise this week.

Guinea Holds Ambassador Under Arrest

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ghana Saturday of a 19-member American Airways delegation from Guinea—which included the foreign minister—had no hint of hostility. The United States was responsible for the arrests in Ghana. But the Undersecretary of State, John McNaughton, said only last month and pointedly rejected the claim that he had been given evidence that the U.S. government had accepted Nkrumah as a nominal leader of Guinea.

Guinea ousted the dictator President Kwame Nkrumah in February, and he was given refuge in the U.S. until he accepted

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — Treasury Secretary Henry Fowler's recent statement assuring the country that it need not fear a recession when the Vietnam war ends has been widely accepted. There is some substance to the flurry of peace rumors which have been circulating in Washington during the last few weeks.

There are people of not inconsiderable influence in the government who predict the war will be over by June 1. Such people, and others of similar optimism, are now suggesting that Fowler's speech distributed by members of the Andrew Tully Business Council in Hot Springs, Ark., supports his contention.

This is not the sort of thing the public would be wise to swallow whole. In the first place, any such talk on the eve of an election is probably suspect. And secondly, Fowler didn't even speculate on when peace might end. He merely said that the war was "presently" being won, with the eventualities and the like left hanging until it increased spending on government programs to raise the nation's living standard.

PLANS SHAPING UP — Once this caveat has been recorded, however, it is only fair to report something else that has been learned from sources: Fowler is unprepared. This is a serious omission. Johnson has taken him in. Anti-Poverty Boss Sargent Shriver and those White House aides concerned to have a post-war blueprint on his desk by the first day of spring, 1967. If the temptation is overpowering to conclude that Johnson knows something the public doesn't, have at it.

In any event, it is no secret that plans for new spending and tax-cut programs are being put on the administration's drawing boards for some time. The spending part is for sure; taxes will be cut, as Fowler told the Business Council. Only if this is found to be necessary "to keep demand growing in line with our productive capacity."

BILLIONS FOR THE BROKE — Moreover, Shriver already has wrapped up the generalities of his post-war campaign against poverty. It is a five year plan which by 1972 would call for the expenditure of $40 billion dollars on all social welfare programs — public assistance, and the mixed bag which is now the anti-poverty program.

Much more money also will be spent on education, both for new school construction and for the training of teachers and increased salaries for lifeguards and policemen and for sum clearance under the Demonstrations Cities plan. There will be more money for hospitals and for training doctors and nurses.

The question before the house is whether the supermarket boycott is a spontaneous uprising of housewives or whether it's a maneuver from Democratic sources to take the heat off the administration and put in on the supermarkets. If the boycott drops off shortly after the elections Nov. 8, it might be a pretty good indication it was politically motivated. However, it could be a political maneuver and still continue for long after the elections.

If the drive meets with real success — and it has in many cases — the boycott could snowball into major proportions.

If housewives generally across the nation get the idea they can reduce food prices by picketing a supermarket, the phenomenon might continue for a long time. There are other ways, perhaps more realistic, that housewives can cut their food expenses and other costs, too. For instance, they could save considerable if they insisted on simple, plain packaging. And if they would purchase more unprocessed foods and fewer of some of the more fancy items, they could save money.

There's another big savings awaiting housewives if they would give up trading stamps. In most cases where trading stamps are given, the cost is simply added to the item being sold. It adds from 2.5 to 3 per cent to the cost. But most women look on the stamps as some sort of bonus. Idahoans will recall that women were up in arms a few years ago when it appeared the Legislature might abolish trading stamps.

Then there's the matter of merchandise prizes and all sorts of drawings and awards. The shopper who thinks these attractions are some sort of free, added inducement is fooling himself.

It would be interesting to know what percentage could be pared from all prices if the American housewife would give up all the frills, fancy items, stamps and other attractions. But it's also useless to even discuss it because these things have been added to merchandising because the women, bless 'em, really want them but insist on them.

LET'S DIG DEEP

It was disappointing, to say the least, to read that the United Fund drive has achieved only two-thirds of its goal so far. In the weeks remaining before the collection effort is closed, Twin Falls residents should be determined to donate that last third of the necessary money. United Fund cannot go on indefinitely, year after year, falling short of its quota. The participating agencies need funds to operate and, if they don't get money through United Fund, they'll get it another way. It goes without saying UF failure will mean a series of drives to raise supplemental money and that's just a short step away from complete collapse of the United Fund campaign.

In the final phases of the UF drive, everyone should remember the alternative to the joint campaign for funds. Actually, unless UF achieves its goal this year, it may be relegated to some sort of supplemental status, so far as the participating agencies are concerned. They'll go back to their former separate drives.

As the UF campaign goes into its final phases, citizens should cooperate in any way possible. By now, everyone is familiar with UF and what it does, so there's no need of asking a collector to go through some sort of sales talk. Those who haven't been contacted can mail checks to United Fund, 104 Main Ave. N. Let's resolve to reach the goal for the first time this year and then maintain that pace in all future campaigns.

FACTS OF LIFE EXPLORED — The only two who can live as cheaply as one are the flea and the dog. We have thought about this a great deal and conclude that the only way they can do it is with a lot of scratch. — Griffin (Ga.) Daily News.

Economic Outlook

It Might Snowball.

The housewife boycott of supermarkets has spread across the nation and is a rather peculiar phenomenon. Because of the timing, one automatically wonders if the price protest is spontaneous. Prices have been going up in supermarkets for months, so why wasn't there a protest earlier? Increases in the prices of foods became so noticeable last summer that grocery prices edged into the political scene. Republicans started citing the higher prices of food as part and parcel of the inflation being blamed on Democrats.

Idaho's own Sen. Mary Brooks, who has been serving also as vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, received national publicity for calling attention to spiraling food prices. With all the attention, it's a cliché the Johnson administration was getting a little touchy about-inflation-in-general-and-food-prices in particular. That's why Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman addressed candidates "slip, slide and duck" questions of the inflation being blamed on Democrats.

The question before the house is whether the supermarket boycott is a spontaneous uprising of housewives or whether it's a maneuver from Democratic sources to take the heat off the administration and put in on the supermarkets. If the boycott drops off shortly after the elections Nov. 8, it might be a pretty good indication it was politically motivated. However, it could be a political maneuver and still continue for long after the elections.

If the drive meets with real success — and it has in many cases — the boycott could snowball into major proportions.

If housewives generally across the nation get the idea they can reduce food prices by picketing a supermarket, the phenomenon might continue for a long time. There are other ways, perhaps more realistic, that housewives can cut their food expenses and other costs, too. For instance, they could save considerable if they insisted on simple, plain packaging. And if they would purchase more unprocessed foods and fewer of some of the more fancy items, they could save money.

There's another big savings awaiting housewives if they would give up trading stamps. In most cases where trading stamps are given, the cost is simply added to the item being sold. It adds from 2.5 to 3 per cent to the cost. But most women look on the stamps as some sort of bonus. Idahoans will recall that women were up in arms a few years ago when it appeared the Legislature might abolish trading stamps.

Then there's the matter of merchandise prizes and all sorts of drawings and awards. The shopper who thinks these attractions are some sort of free, added inducement is fooling himself.

It would be interesting to know what percentage could be pared from all prices if the American housewife would give up all the frills, fancy items, stamps and other attractions. But it's also useless to even discuss it because these things have been added to merchandising because the women, bless 'em, really want them but insist on them.

Views of Others

STRANGE SALES TAX ARGUMENT — Antisale tax forces continue to try to give the impression that the sales tax is not really aiding inflation.

It is, of course, the biggest shot of advantage that education has received. The "anti-sales tax forces like to point out that the sales taxes money goes into the state general fund and one can really trace the contribution it makes.

Even schools in this state is substantially endowed with new money by reason of the sales tax. It is a matter of record. The Idaho Falls School district has $470,000 more (mistakenly listed as only $150,000 in an earlier editoral) in the state general fund than one can really trace the contribution it makes.

Turn to ALBANIA? Fidel Castro has built and demolished a straw man — no unusual trick for him — in depicting any chance of reconciliation with the United States. In view of the extremely remote possibility of any such development at this time, the question is, what the Cuban premier has been doing. The obvious conclusion is that he has suffered under some exhaustion from the Soviet Union — through an effort to persuade Castro to more conciliatory toward the United States would hardly square with the Soviet policy of disengaging competition with Washington because of the Cuban revolution.

What does appear possible is that the Soviet Union has been feeling the economic pinch of supporting a corybantic regime in Cuba and has perhaps been looking for ways in which to diminish the obvious conclusion is that he has suffered under some exhaustion from the Soviet Union — through an effort to persuade Castro to more conciliatory toward the United States would hardly square with the Soviet policy of disengaging competition with Washington because of the Cuban revolution.

As the UF campaign goes into its final phases, citizens should cooperate in any way possible. By now, everyone is familiar with UF and what it does, so there's no need of asking a collector to go through some sort of sales talk. Those who haven't been contacted can mail checks to United Fund, 104 Main Ave. N. Let's resolve to reach the goal for the first time this year and then maintain that pace in all future campaigns.

FACTS OF LIFE EXPLORED — The only two who can live as cheaply as one are the flea and the dog. We have thought about this a great deal and conclude that the only way they can do it is with a lot of scratch. — Griffin (Ga.) Daily News.

The Doctor Says

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

A mother asks how children contract pinworms and after the disease is cured how to prevent recurrences.

This disease is so common that almost everyone has it at one time or another. Headaches become common, particularly in children, who complain of the worms, which measure only 1/8th of an inch in their greatest length. They are easily picked up on the finger or under the nails when scratching.

Furthermore, they are so weak to kill any new group of body, light that they may be spread by direct contact with the hands, dusting, changing the linens, or hanging up pajamas. From the fingers they may be transferred to food. Once awakened they scratch and grow to adulthood in the digestive tract.

The prevention of a recurrence is not easy. The worms are so small that all members of the household take the treatment simultaneously and then repeat the treatment in three or four times a week.

In addition, each member of the family must keep his or her nails cut short and wash them before every meal and after every visit to the toilet. Separate towels must be used for drying the face and the rest of the body.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

CAM RANH BAY, Viet Nam — The commander-in-chief came to this outpost 10,000 miles from America's shores to salute contingents of the 400,000 or more soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen who are embarked here.

It was a moment of history in the setting of a great installation but the chief did not get out of his scrub jungle and reddish sand — a symbol of America's March of Commitment in Asia.

As he reviewed the troops present on the beach, he saluted a team alongside Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the President looked somber, grim even. He stood very straight, his mouth compressed with a stern line. After he had presented decorations to the officers, Johnson went in to shake hands with the men.

Franklin Roosevelt, riding in a jeep with Gen. Eisenhower after the Casablanca Conference in February 1943, had a jaunty, confident look. It was the FDR of the last triumph, the turning point of the war when victory was at last in sight and there was no sign of the President's own tragedy so soon to come.

Johnson so obviously wanted to make this mission the greatest mockery of the peace that was hardly a pause before the onset of the cold war. Mathew Brady would have been astonished at what has happened to photography. A small sergeant took off his helmet and saluted the President, who responded with a smile. All you ever saw was a wall of photographers. In the two hours and 18 minutes Johnson spent at Cam Ranh Bay, hundreds of still photographs, and miles of film recorded the scene.

So completely and thoroughly American was the whole scene that the presence of the Vietnamese chiefs of government was of strangely incongruous. Small, compact, cool-looking in comparison, they were up from the men in battle dress drawn up on three sides of a square facing their chief. They understood the big man swaying in the omnipresent heat.

The one improbable note in the President's speech was his assurance that at the earliest moment Cam Ranh Bay would be turned over to the Vietnamese. It is a pledge that has given the high-town name that goes with it a certain ring.

But this is irrelevant to the great set piece with Johnson at the center of a large slice of the record of America in a new kind of war. Call it empire, call it high-town, name that goes with it a certain ring.

Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu, the Vietnamese chief of state, spoke words of wary appreciation. Yet he had a timid and a touch of uncertainty in his voice.

Flight Plan Of Satellite Undetermined

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists tried today to determine the new flight pattern of the Intelsat 2 communications satellite after an unsuccessful attempt Sunday to propel it into its permanent orbit.

The Intelsat 2, built by the Communications Satellite Corp. did not indicate when they would try again to put the drum-shaped satellite into a synchronous orbit which would cause it to hover over the equator at the international space station 22,300 miles above the Gulf of Islands.

The 192-pound spacecraft, designed to relay television pictures and other communications over the Pacific, had been in an orbit ranging from 200 miles above earth to about 23,800 miles.

Fluorides Beneficial To Health

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Harvard University researchers have found that water with fluorides may help prevent or even hardening of the arteries.

Five doctors from Harvard's nutrition department conducted the study, with two groups of people in North Dakota. Results were published in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Severe calcium deposits in the aorta—the major artery carrying blood from the heart to branch arteries in the body—were less in high fluoride areas, the researchers found.

In the same issue, the AMA Journal commented editorially on the study, saying fluoride may help keep calcium deposited in the teeth and bones and out of the arteries.

Fluoride has a proven role of cutting tooth decay 60 to 70 per cent, the editorial said.

Police Fire on Protesters, Killing Two

MADRAS, India (AP) — Police opened fire on demonstrating students, killing two and wounding 20 others Saturday morning.

Two students died Saturday, leaving two dead and 11 injured.

The students were demanding that India's fifth-steel plant be built at the east coast port town of Vizagapatam, 400 miles north of here.

According to reports from Guntur, 100 and 240 miles south of Vizagapatam, police used tear gas to meet crowds demonstrating in support of location of the steel mill at Vizagapatam.

In Kakinada, a port town south of Vizagapatam, a student crowd estimated at some 10,000 marched on the residence of Minister Indira Gandhi and Congress President K. Karanar.

It was the third straight day of student agitation on the issue, and shops of Vijayavada, Vizagapatam, Kakinada and several other towns remained closed.

'Waiting Wives' Club Organized As Military Experiment in Kansas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The women have formed a "waiting wives" club while the men are away. They take turns babysitting one another. Town and hairdressers are nearby. Elementary school is just around the corner.

A cozy suburb? Almost. Actually, it's a military housing experiment that could lead to the conversion of some deactivated bases into bustling communities of wives and children.

The name is Schilling Manor. It's home to 100, including 2,500 children. It's on a portion of Schilling Air Force Base, Kan., shut down last December as a part of Pentagon economy moves.

Now, use of the base's housing is getting a favorable once over. The project's success assured, the project will be continued, at least through 1968, a spokesman said.

Whether to open other housing at deactivated bases is being considered. Army studies are under way to determine what future housing needs will be.

More than 600 wives and children from all over the country have chosen Schilling Manor near Salina, Kan., over "going home to mama," the defense spokesman said.

Mrs. Bowers, 21, a second-year Bobcat pilot, went to four new mothers: Keven Coughlin, Craig King, Wesley Jensen, and Lars Peter Jensen. Michael Bowers received a gold arrow, David Brown, a silver arrow, Steven Bowers, den chief cord, and "Ricky" Brown, graduation cords. Other mothers were given Coven Crouther and Craig King.

Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. LaRae Brown, assistant den mother, served refreshments to the nine boys and parent guests.

Plan Bridge

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Warner Dunlap, Tennessee highway engineer, and Ward Goodman, chief high way engineer for Arkansas, worked together 20 years ago to plan the bridge across the Mississippi River. Not then were planning an Interstate 40 bridge across the Mississippi at Memphis and they say, the new bridge will cost more than twice as much, $35 million compared to $14 million.

Ex-Minister Is Ordained As Priest

ROTTERDAM, N.Y. (AP) — A former minister of the Episcopal Church was ordained a Roman Catholic priest at a quiet ceremony here Saturday attended by his wife and five of his seven children.

The ordination of the Rev. Harold R. Bronk, 36, a native of New Jersey, came under a special dispensation granted by Pope Paul VI.

Father Bronk was ordained by Bishop Carl Joseph Gilpin of Rockport, Mass. He personally presented him to his new parish at the village of Dusseling near here Saturday night.

Sunday, Father Bronk said his first assignment will be in a dilapidated church, Mass. of Dusseling's 400.

Catholics turned out to meet their new pastor. Only the youngest of his seven children remained at home during the ceremonies.

Father Bronk is the second American to be ordained since later from the United States to be ordained under special papal permission. In 1954, Father Ernest Adam Beck, now 41, and a former pastor of the Holy Trinity Catholic church in North Bergen, N.J., became a Catholic priest, also in Germany.

Father Bronk was minister in Philadelphia; — Provincetown, Mass.; and Cambria Heights, N.Y., from 1954 until he and his wife converted to Catholicism in 1958. He then received into the Catholic Church by Bishop Fulon J. Sheen.

Under a special scholarship granted by Catholics in the United States, Father Bronk studied at the Pontifical Catholic University in 1960. Most of the time, they have been living at Tuebingen, Germany, at nearby Tuebingen University.

Vietnamese Woman Accepts Flight, Frustration of War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A young Vietnamese mother lay crying in a Saigon street one day last spring, clutching a wounded infant by the bullet of a U.S. military policeman.

Five months later, 23-year-old May Ngoc Pham appeared before a government payment panel, finally pocketed $58 and limped home.

She was "not happy" about the size of the payment, she said, "but I am not sad either. She regarded getting caught in the shooting as 'my fate' and her band agreed.

Ms. Pham, 23, was shot to the moon this month when the paymaster handed her the money, illustrates the plight and frustrations of innocents in a war that has so far claimed 100,000 lives.

Ms. Pham, mother of two children and pregnant with her third, was struck in the hair-trigger reaction of U.S. sentries and MPs to the explosion of a Viet Cong mine near the Brink U.S. officers' quarters.

"The U.S. soldiers believed they were under fire from terrorists. Seven Vietnamese were killed and more than a score of others wounded in the incident."

The U.S. Embassy expressed sympathy to the victim and her family. Compensation was pending.

Ex-Miss World' Is Divorced

LONDON (AP) — The husband of Rosemarie Franklin, 23, a former "Miss World" beauty queen, was granted a divorce today because of her adultery with a barman.

She filed for divorce in September, the month of her 23rd birthday.

A Welsh blonde, she won the Miss World title in 1961 and is now an actress. She and Jones were married in January 1963 and separated six months later, and divorced in September.

She was taken to a hospital in great pain, worrying about her unborn child. Doctors assured her it would be all right. But the injury caused so much pain that two extra doctors assisted when the baby, a chubby girl, was born.

Gem Department
Officers Feted
At Dinner Meet

Idaho Department officers of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States were guests of honor at a dinner held at the Holiday Inn.

Mrs. Neil Visser, Twin Falls Auxiliary president; introduced Mrs. Eleanor Krueger, Wallace district president; and Bobby Anderson, Headquarters, secretary, vice president.

Mrs. Kramer told of her recent trip to New York City where she attended the National Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Besides hearing guest speakers and observing presentation of awards she attended a workshop for all department presidents.

She outlined the 1966-67 program for auxiliary members putting emphasis on Americanism in promoting patriotism in the family, community, nation and the world. She defined a true American as one who wants to stand on his own two feet and make something of himself.

Mrs. Krueger briefly enumerated the great amount of money that the auxiliaries over the nation contributed to hospitals, cancer aid and research programs, rehabilitation centers and veterans' facilities. More than five million dollars was spent on the hospital program. Members devoted 389,000 hours of voluntary service to veterans in hospitals throughout the country. Last year members through their donation donated a record $389,000 for cancer and research of which $192,000 was returned as grants to 937 members.

Mrs. Anderson spoke to the group on membership. She said that the women's auxiliary now has 375,000 members in 6,444 local units in 50 states.

Auxiliary membership is open to wives, widows, sisters, half-sisters, mothers and daughters of campaign medal service veterans, and women who themselves earned campaign medals with overseas service in the armed forces.

Pheasant Hunting Drops Off Sunday, but Overall Success up From 1965

The hunter success for most of Magic Valley dropped below the Saturday figures as was anticipated by the Idaho Fish and Game Department. However, the figures for the opening weekend this year were slightly up from last year. This improvement is attributed to the hunter success in three areas, Hunt, Dietrich and Minidoka County, according to Charles Blake, department biologist.

Tarkenton, Vikings Rout 49ers by 28-3

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Frank Tarkenton passed for two touchdowns and ran for two more in one of his greatest days as a scrambler Sunday, leading the Minnesota Vikings to a 28-3 rout of the San Francisco 49ers in a National Football League game. Even 163 yards in penalties assessed against the Vikings couldn't suppress the bouncy Tarkenton as he completed 17 of 31 passes for 278 yards and carried the ball in one of the first 71 yards of scuffling.

Tarkenton matched his performance with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Preston Carpenter for the Vikings' final touch down. The Georgia improviser circled 30 yards behind the line of scrimmage in evading the line of scrimmage and Dietrich.

The Twin Falls station indicated that hunting was above that of Saturday as Blake attributed 16 more time and more work on the part of the hunters.

According to Blake—the Minnesota Vikings' 15 birds per hunter success is "without question" the best term hunter success for checking stations in Magic Valley. Results of the checking stations Sunday includes:

Minidoka County — 571 hunters, 872 birds and 1,5 birds per man.

North Gooling — 277 hunters, 205 birds and .74 birds per man.

Clear Lakes (south of Wendell and Jerome) — 130 hunters, 72 birds and .55 per man.

Dietrich — 214 hunters, 163 birds and .77 birds per man.

Twin Falls — 401 hunters, 284 birds and .76 birds per man.

Hunt Project — 223 hunters, 213 birds and .91 birds per man.

The Broncos turned a fumble by the Chargers' Gene Foster into a 10-yard touchdown in the last seconds of the first quarter.

Jacque MacKinnon got the score on a one-yard pass from Hall with 10 seconds left on the clock, giving San Diego a 21-7 lead.

The Chargers pulled the Bronco's race to the finish with a 29-yard drive.

North Gooling bounced right back with a 28-yard drive culminated by Keith Lincoln's five-yard run to knot the score 7-7.

Denver's Bob Scarpetta, faking a race to the end zone, prudently unhooked for the Bronx' second touchdown.

The Chargers pulled even with a 246-yard drive in the half on a one-yard pass from Hall to rookie split-end Gary Garrison.

Pistons Edge Lakers 124-121

MONTRÉAL (AP) — Player-coach DeBusschere scored seven points in the last two minutes Sunday night to lead the Detroit Pistons to a 124-121 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers in the NBA basketball Association.

The win was Detroit's fifth in eight games and put the Pistons in sole possession of first place in the Western Division.

Jim Shorter, Washington defensive end, started at tackle and returned 54 yards down the sidelines before being humped out of bounds on the Philadelphia seven.

After Joe Don Looney plucked up three, Jurgenson flipped to Mitchell for the TD and Charlene converted for a 20-13 Redskin lead.

Washington kicked off and Ben Hawkins, the Eagles' No. 3 draft pick from Arizona State, fumbled and Washington's Rook Pat Hodges fell on it in the Eagles' two.

Palmer Claims Aussie Golf Win

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Arnold Palmer shot a record-breaking 63 on his final round Sunday and won the Australian Open Golf Championship by five strokes.

The 37-year-old millionaire pro from Latrobe, Pa., beat par by 20 strokes with his total of 277, 70, 68, 63 and 73 for 278 over the 36-18-74, 6,850 yards Royal Queensland course.

Australia's Kel Nagle, with a final round 71 was second with 281. He had earlier rounds of 72, 61, and 71.

Pats Nip Oakland To Take Eastern Division Lead

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots rode the line of punts of Jim Nance into first place in the American Football League Eastern Division Sunday by snapping Oakland's three-game winning streak 24-21 before a chilled crowd of 26,341.

Three Lead Packers Past Detroit 31-7

Detroit (AP) — Green Bay's Bart Starr and his own passing and that of Elijah Pitts and Jim Taylor to hammer out a 31-7 victory over the Detroit Lions in a National Football League game Sunday.

Green Bay overcame its own mistakes and used Detroit bobbles to run its record to 7-1 in the Western Division.

The Packers' Jurgens threw three passes into the end zone — two touchdowns and a field goal and scored another touchdown after recovering a Detroit fumble.

Lion quarterback Karl Sweet hit a pair of Paul Studstill with one of their patented long passes — this time 63 yards — and unhooked a 10-yard touchdown. But the steely Packer defense kept the rush on Sweetan, and Lion fumbles and penalties handicapped their efforts.

Pitts scored three times, twice on runs of four and seven yards and once on a 24-yard pass from Jim Taylor. Taylor scored on a one-yard buck and Don Chandler kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Tom Nowatzke got Detroit's only touchdown on a two-yard burst in the second period that cut Green Bay's lead to 10-7.

But Green Bay came right back there on Starr's 24-yarder to Pitts.

Pitts' best run was 17 yards to the Detroit 17. The touchdown followed a pass interception by Tom Brown. Another pass-interception by Ray Nitschke set up a 40-yard field-goal by Don Chandler.

Colts Hit Early, Whip Rams by 17-3

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John Unitas' lightning struck the first time the brilliant Baltimore quarterback got his hands on the ball and the Colts steamrolled Sunday to whip the Los Angeles Rams 17-3.

Unitas, en route to a National Football League career passing record, lofted a pass in the first three minutes, 18 seconds that traveled to 85 yards in the air to John Mackey, and his favorite receiver converted it to an 85-yard touchdown play.

That was enough to win him, for $7,000 in Memorial Coliseum, but Unitas hit Mackey again in the second quarter on a 17-yard scoring strike, and the Falcons' 10-yard scoring strike by Paul Warfield in the third period and the Browns' 30-yard scoring toss by Kelly with a 30-yard field goal late in the first period, and the 10-3 margin held up through the scoreless second half.

A field goal from 12 yards out by Bruce Gossett in the second period was the lone Rams score.

Rams broke the NFL career passing yardage record of 28,335 held by Y. A. Tittle when he threw to Raymond Berry on the last play of the third quarter.

Browns' director of public relations said good for 31 raised Unitas' total to 28,353, and he wound up the afternoon with 28,375.

Kick Return Sparks Bills Over Jets

NEW YORK (AP) — Charley Warner raced 85 yards for a touchdown with the second half kickoff Sunday, triggering the Buffalo Bills' 30-13 American Football League victory over New York that dropped the Jets out of first place.

The Bills and the Jets, who now have lost their last three games, are the only teams with 4-3 records, and both are now behind the Boston Patriots.

The Bills led 30-3 after three quarters, but the Jets rallied behind Joe Namath, scored two touchdowns on Namath's passes and provided Namath's other field goals with runs of 30, 18 and 38 yards.

Ryan Riddles

Atlanta 49-17 For Browns

ATLANTA (AP) — Frank Ryan riddled Atlanta with four touch-down tosses Sunday, leading Cleveland to a 49-17 victory over the Falcons after Leroy Kelly pinned the Browns with a 70-yard scoring run.

The Falcons, who began the night with a 10-point deficit, put up one of the stiffest fights they've made since joining the NFL.

Ryan tossed a 35-yard scoring pass to Paul Warfield in the first quarter. Gary Collins had a 17-yard touchdown pass to Eddie "The Eagle" Lacy, and a 16-yard scoring strike in the third period and the Browns' quarterback hit Kelly with a 30-yard scoring toss in the fourth.

The Falcons got great running from back-up junior Coffey, who set up Atlanta's first touchdown on a 10-yard pass to Eddie "The Eagle" Lacy.

Errol "The Cat" Davis kicked a 23-yard field goal late in the first period, and the 10-3 margin held up through the scoreless second half.

A field goal from 12 yards out by Bruce Gossett in the second period was the lone Rams score.

Rams broke the NFL career passing yardage record of 28,335 held by Y. A. Tittle when he threw to Raymond Berry on the last play of the third quarter.

Dallas Rips Steelers to Tie for First

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Don Meredith passed for four touch-downs and the Dallas defense set up five touchdowns and a field goal Sunday as the Cowboys returned to their high scoring ways with a 52-21 victory over Pittsburgh.

Meredith, who also scored on a 40-yard pass reception, uncorked the longest run from scrimmage in the National Football League this season on the fifth play of the game, and the Browns never trailed as they boosted their record to 5-2.

The Falcons, who began the night with a 10-point deficit, put up one of the stiffest fights they've made since joining the NFL.

Ryan tossed a 35-yard scoring pass to Paul Warfield in the first quarter. Gary Collins had a 17-yard touchdown pass to Eddie "The Eagle" Lacy.

Long Runs with Intercepted Passes and Kickoffs had the crowd of 58,433 roaring apparently.

Mal Renfro, making his debut with the Dallas defense, carried a kickoff back 87 yards to a touchdown.

Meredith wound up his big day by tossing an 84-yard touch-down pass to Pete Gent.

Gent set up Atlanta's first touch-down on a 10-yard pass to Eddie "The Eagle" Lacy.

Errol "The Cat" Davis kicked a 23-yard field goal late in the first period, and the 10-3 margin held up through the scoreless second half.

Bighorn Sheep Being Trapped For Release in Owyhee County

BOISE — A new shipment of California bighorn sheep are being trapped in south-central Owyhee County in the same general sector where 39 others were liberated during the past three years, the Idaho Fish and Game Department disclosed Sunday. Bighorn sheep ranged in the Owyhee Mountains of southwestern Idaho during the trapping days. Part of the Department's Five Point Program for the future is the introduction of big-game animals, birds and fish that will fill undecimated niches in existing habitats.

The first release of bighorn sheep from British Columbia was made in October, 1963, when 19 animals were liberated on the East Fork of the Owyhee River. They were live-trapped from the Riske Creek range above the Fraser and Chilcotin rivers.

Nine more bighorns from the same area were released last year. Their range in British Columbia was similar to their new home in the Owyhees.

Department Director John R. Woodward said the bighorn bighorn in the Owyhees became extinct many years ago because of a combination of factors, including seascapes, which was introduced by domestic sheep.

114 Liberals Oppose China Admission

NEW YORK (AP) — A group of 114 prominent Americans, who listed themselves as liberals, have urged continued opposition to admission of Communist China to the United Nations and to the United States "at this time."

They said in a statement Sunday that they oppose both nations "until such time as Communist China demonstrates its belief in and acceptance of the norms of international conduct."

The signers were AFL-CIO President George Meany, Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., and novelist James T. Farrell.

Opposition to seating Communist China in the United Nations was also by a majority of Congress in a full-page advertisement in today's New York Times.

The advertisement was sponsored by the Committee of One Million Against the Admission of Communist China, a national group that has been in the forefront of the fight for years.

Catholic Meat Rule May Be Abolished

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Roman Catholic hierarchy may decide next month whether to abolish the requirement for American Catholics to abstain from eating meat on Fridays. In France, France and Italy, exercising newly created power to lay down national rules for the Church already have abolished the Friday meat ban except for Lent. Catholics believe they've voted voluntary penance in its place.

The Friday abstinence is just one of the topics expected to be considered at the Nov. 14-18 conference at Catholic University. At the same time, the bishops of the U.S. and auxiliary bishops are to attend.

The purpose of the conference is to implement the sweeping changes in the Church decreed by the Vatican Council. The bishops are expected to discuss documents and hear reports on use of English in liturgy, on the ecumenical movement and on seminary training.

Red Defector Sees Rising Resistance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mao Chen-pai, a Chinese Communist defector now living in the United States, said yesterday he is mounting resistance within Red China to Mao Tsu-tung, but doubts whether it will mean the collapse of Mao's regime.

Instead, he said, "after a period of time how long, I really can't tell you," the Red Guard might bring about a trend toward something like revisionism and changes in China.

"But so far, I really see no basis for believing internal collapse is imminent," Mao said in an interview before flying to the U.S. News and World Report. Mao was assigned to the Chinese Embassy in Damascus where last July he asked political asylum in the United States.

Rebel Officer Is Killed in Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — One rebel officer was killed and another captured yesterday after they tried to start a revolt at a National Guard school outside Caracas Sunday, the defense ministry announced.

It was the first reported rebellion of command against the 24-year-old administration of President Raul Leon.

Military spokesman said the slain officer, Lt. Col. Clemente Pacheco Ochoa, had left the country in 1960 and a group of rebels, supported by members of the military, Unconfirmed reports said right-wing supporters of former Dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez instigated the uprising.

Leaders of the Civil National Guards, a small party that plans to run Perez Jimenez for president in 1968, were reportedly sought for questioning.

The government blames the crowds for several recent disturbances, but some analysts tempest general strike to protest Perez Jimenez' imprisonment on embezzlement charges.

Indeed, the first nationally elected leader to succeed another elected president since Venezuela became independent has formed a coalition with labor and peasant support and has carried out a land reform program.

THE JUNIOR REALM

With MARTHA LEE

Q. My girl and I completely agree with your policy on going steady. However, we like each other so much that we do not feel like the company of others. And so, if I ask nothing in particular of her and do not become possessive of her, is it alright to go steady? Tony, 16.

PARENTS: Susan Rothe, high school; Pamela, 16, high school; Texas; Anita Martinez, college; California; Evelyn Ludlow, college, Kansas.

If you have not found pleasantness in your social relations with other teen-agers, you are not alone.

Teen-agers are supposed to be very good things for you to have dates with other boys and girls and then come back together perhaps once a week. Therefore, going steady is a social handicap under all circumstances.

Going steady is a social handicap in another way. When you go steady you date only yourself and therefore do not have the opportunities of forming new friendships.

One person is truly representative of his or her sex. A person who thus handicaps himself will be less able to evaluate a prospective mate, and we will be less capable of making a wise choice.

PICTURE BIRTHDAY AND HOROSCOPE

It is nice when a boy and girl go steadily, have no intimacies and no feelings of jealousy. However, it does not justify going steady, because by doing what we are just cutting ourselves out of social stability.

Going steady for any reason is emotionally dangerous. Date only persons of your own variations of personalities, not because of their looks.

We cannot go through life associating with one person.

Even if one person was pure, it would be better to have many.

Teen-agers who have not found pleasantness in their social relations with other teen-agers, you are not alone.
