

Cooperation In Valley Stressed At Rupert Meet

By MRS. HARLOW CHENEY Times-News Correspondent
RUPERT—The real potential of the various communities in Magic Valley, and of the Valley itself, will not be realized until residents pull together and cooperate under "one positive idea, one positive program," O. A. (Gus) Kelker, executive editor of the Times-News, said here Monday night.

MOST OF THE dollars involved in President Johnson's projected budget for the fiscal year 1968, starting July 1, this year, go to defense and the Vietnam war—50 cents in total amount. All other items, including interest and veterans, take 41 cents. Johnson proposed a $135 billion spending blueprint for fiscal 1968. (AP wirephoto)

Measure Of Sacrifice Requested

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson called on the nation today for a "measure of sacrifice" higher taxes, higher postal rates, higher paycheck deductions to help finance history's "biggest" budget. Along with a $135-billion spending blueprint for fiscal 1968, the year starting next July, the President sent a hands-off warning to Congress members who are grumbling loudly at rising deficits. Deep budget cuts could cause a recession instead of the expected seventh-successive year of record prosperity, Johnson's annual budget message said.

Tentative T.F. Budget Is OK'd; Lower Taxes Likely

Good news for Twin Falls City taxpayers in the form of a tax reduction in 1967 was indicated Monday afternoon in an adjourned session by city commissioners to approve the proposed 1967 budget. A total tentative budget of $2,286,661 and a levy of 42.74 mills, the lowest since before 1952, was approved by the city commission. In the resolution adopting a tentative budget, the city also set Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. as the time for a public hearing on the budget.

More Postage

WASHINGTON (AP)—It will cost you an extra penny to mail a first class letter if Congress approves postal rate hikes asked today by President Johnson. The $700 million raise is proposed in his 1968 budget and would include all classes of mail except parcel post. Postal officials say increases for second and third class mail, not yet in final form, probably will be between 20 and 30 per cent.

$33.9 Million Proposed To Combat Crime

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson proposed today $33.9 million to finance new programs in the nation's war against crime during fiscal 1968. The request was included in his proposed $444.8 million budget for the Department of Justice, which includes the FBI, Bureau of Prisons and Immigration and Naturalization Service. This is an $18.5 million increase over estimated spending for the year ending June 30.

Senate Votes Free Fishing For Scouts

By EARLE L. JESTER
BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Senate voted free fishing rights to Boy Scouts today but sidetracked other bill proposing changes in the state's hunting and fishing regulations. At the same time a bill introduced in the senate proposed 50 to 100 per cent increases in the cost of hunting and fishing licenses for non-residents. The scout bill—which now goes to the house—grants participants at the scout world jamboree next August at Faragut State Park the right to fish in Lake Pend Oreille without a license.

Area Doctors Oppose Plan For School

Opposition to a proposal for an Idaho medical school at Boise has been expressed by Magic Valley physicians. In a telephone survey conducted by the Legislative Committee they expressed nearly unanimous opposition. "Except for two or three, they have all been against a medical school," said Dr. Harold L. Stowe, Twin Falls, Legislative Committee chairman. He said between 50 and 60 doctors from throughout Magic Valley were contacted.

Revolt Ends After 21 Die

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—A 20-hour uprising in which at least 21 Nicaraguans were reported killed and more than 100 wounded ended Monday night with the freeing of 117 foreign hostages, including 85 North Americans. The beleaguered rebels were released after they surrendered their arms. The rebels against the Somoza family, which has ruled Nicaragua for more than 30 years, had holed up with their hostages in the Gran Hotel. They agreed to surrender their arms if allowed to go free.

Rental Rates Of School By CSI Discussed

Representatives of the College of Southern Idaho Board of trustees met with members of the Twin Falls school board to discuss rental rates for the college's use of Twin Falls High School. The college board expects to be moved into its own buildings within two years. Purpose of the meeting was to fix definite rental rates during the three-year period that college classes will have been held in the high school. Tentative rates were approved by the school board, but the figures have not been released pending approval by the college board.

War Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson formally asked Congress today for $12.3 billion of new spending authority for the Vietnam war, saying "You will want to continue your firm support of American fighting men." In a letter to House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., Johnson said $2.1 billion of the total will be spent in the current fiscal year that ends June 30. The balance will be available for future commitments.

150 Bodies Found After Brazil Floods

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—About 150 bodies have been recovered following disastrous floods around Rio de Janeiro, and one police estimate said as many as 550 may have died. With hundreds reported missing, rescue workers combed through mud and debris. No exact casualty figures were available. Torrential rains Sunday night fed the raging waters and set off landslides which swept one crowded bus off a highway into the swollen Paraíba River.

Funds Set For Idaho's Water Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson recommended today his budget message to Congress today that it approve those funds to finance construction of major engineering and Reclamation Bureau water projects for the year starting July 1.

Johnson Will Try For New Budget Idea

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson used three kinds of budget bookkeeping in his message to Congress today, but he said he will try to develop a better budget concept. The regular "administrative budget"—the one on which Congress spends—was $135 billion, but looks much better from the red-ink standpoint. Its deficit is only $2.1 billion.

T.F. Junior Achievement

In 2nd Year

Junior Achievement of Twin Falls celebrates its second year during International Junior Achievement Week, Don Bizzell, program chairman, Twin Falls, announced Tuesday.

Junior Achievement provides an opportunity for high school students to form their own corporations, sell stock, manufacture and sell products, and if possible at the end of the school year, pay a dividend from the stock sold and profit. The company is liquidated at the end of each year.

Two corporations are now existent at Twin Falls High School. The two companies have produced tie tacks, lighters for barbecues, bottle openers, and sold mistletoe at Christmas.

The companies, totaling 29 young people, are T. Tyco, sponsored by the Idaho Power Co., and Telco, sponsored by Mountain States Telephone Co.

Advising the Tyco Corporation are J. E. Little, W. D. Arndt and R. N. Anderson, all of Idaho Power. Telco advisers are Mrs. Lennie Baum, Mountain States Telephone Co.; Don Egbert, Intermountain Gas Co.; and Harold Grigg, Cosgriff Advertising.

The products produced by the corporations are sold on a door-to-door basis.

Junior Achievement, Inc., is a guardian group of 10 local businessmen who oversee the project.

Some of the students in Junior Achievement will attend the regional conference Feb. 4 and 5 at Missoula, Mont.

Headquarters are located at the Boy Scout Center.

Paul Church Sets Crusade For Christ

PAUL—A team of young people and an evangelist will be featured in a Crusade for Christ being conducted by the Paul First Baptist Church, Rev. Fred M. Penner announced Monday.

The crusade is being held during this week.

The team has exceptional musical talent and they are currently on an eight month tour of churches covering much of the U.S., Rev. Penner said.

Team members, which include Arlene Paschke, Chuck Klein, Norma Lemke, evangelist, Rev. Connie Salter, Lynn Durig, Howard Goltz and Judy Michelson, have interrupted their college studies or jobs to go on the tour for eight months without pay, he added.

Purpose of the tour is to enable local churches to conduct evangelistic services, Crusades for Christ or Deeper Christian Life meetings. Team members come from churches in the same denomination as the First Baptist Church in Paul.

Each night of the crusade a different program will be highlighted. The public is invited Sunday mornings and evenings and to special Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday services at 7:30 p.m., Rev. Penner said. The church is located at Lincoln and Third East in Paul.

Ousting Of N.Y. Loyalty Plan Seen As Declaration Of Academic Freedom

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—In academic circles—the Supreme Court's junking of New York State's teacher loyalty program will be considered a ringing declaration of academic freedom.

Monday's decision undoubtedly will ring bells in liberal circles across the land.

But so complete was the high court's dismantling of the program known as the Feinberg law it is questionable if any loyalty program of similar proportions anywhere in the country can now pass high court muster.

New York State, said Justice William J. Brennan Jr. in the majority opinion, undoubtedly has a legitimate interest in protecting its education system from subversion.

But, he said, New York—and by implication all states—cannot carry out that purpose at the expense of fundamental personal liberties "when the end can be more narrowly achieved."

Nowhere did Brennan suggest how states could do this and not violate First Amendment rights of freedom of association and freedom of belief.

This states may find it wholly impossible to balance the Constitution with their interests in erecting a loyalty program for state employees. They may nevertheless be able, as Justice Tom C. Clark said in dissent, to "put the pieces together again."

Maryland's loyalty oath is still in the high court hopper and some clue may be forthcoming when the justices act later this term.

In Maryland applicants for state government jobs and candidates for public office must swear they are not attempting to overthrow the state government "by force or violence."

Prospects for continuance on the Maryland program are now questionable.

Monday's 5-4 decision carries forward the Supreme Court trend of recent years of slipping down state loyalty oaths and state subversive investigations.

North and south winners were Mrs. R. R. Williams and Mrs. L. M. Hall, first; Mrs. Roy Hill and Mrs. L. R. Dunken, second; and Mrs. T. M. Detwiler and Mrs. J. A. McIlrany, third.

East and west winners were Mrs. E. R. Seabough and Mrs. C. H. Jackson, first; Mrs. M. G. Bloom and Mrs. E. J. Ater, second; and Mrs. A. V. Williams and Mrs. W. W. Miller, third.

T.F. County Tax Units Warned

Taxing authorities of Twin Falls County were advised Tuesday to take same precautionary measures in the event the Idaho Supreme Court should rule in favor of the public utilities in their present case.

Throughout Idaho public utilities paid their first-half 1956 property taxes under protest.

Michael Felton, county prosecuting attorney, earlier advised the county officials to apportion the taxes as all other taxes and as called for in the Idaho code.

In his later opinion issued Wednesday, Mr. Felton noted the Supreme Court could rule in favor of the utilities which are being given double assessments and therefore half of their tax payments would have to be returned.

Some of the utilities—Intermountain, Idaho Power for the full year and others for half of the year.

In Twin Falls County, Mr. Felton noted, public utilities pay 20 per cent of the entire county tax bill.

"Therefore," he said, "I would suggest you put 10 per cent of the tax collection in a separate trust fund account. We will write you as soon as the case is decided and inform you of just what the impact will probably be regarding the funds so impounded."

Mr. Felton added he has no authority to direct the county officials to take such action, but feels it is his duty to advise and the taxing authorities of what the Supreme Court action may be.

"It will be my duty to see these funds are returned in the event the court finds in favor of the utilities," the attorney explained.

County Treasurer Ruth Jones said the 1956 public utility taxes for the county amount to $55,870.03, all paid under protest. This is, she said only $50,158.37 more than was paid last year by the utilities.

Utilities paying under protest included Intermountain Gas Co., Salt Lake Pipeline Inc., El Paso Natural Gas Co., Western Union Telegraph, Mountain States Telephones and Idaho Power Co., and the Oregon Shortline Railroad.

Dominican Police Seize 33 Persons

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Police swept through Santo Domingo and other cities during the night, rounding up dozens of persons accused of taking part in a plot to overthrow President Joaquin Balaguer.

Gen. Luis Ney Tejada, head of the National Police, said about 33 persons have already been rounded up. Dispatches from Santiago, the nation's second city, reported the arrest of a number of men who took part in the April 1955 revolt to restore ex-President Juan Bosch to power.

Among those caught in the dragnet was Maximino Lopez Molina, president of the Orthodox Communist party and founder of the Dominican Popular Movement.

FAVOR SWITCH
LEWISTON, Ida. (AP)—The death of a 21-year-old Boise man Monday said they favored a switch from Pacific to Mountain time zones for north Idaho as the more desirable alternative to an apparently insoluble problem.

That way, they said, Lewisville in other will have the same time as its twin city, Clarkston, Wash., during the summer tourist and recreation months.

The cities are separated only by a state border which bisects Snake River.

TRAFFIC TOLL RISES
BOISE (AP)—The death of a 21-year-old Boise man Monday raised the state's traffic death toll to 14 — two more than on this date in 1966.

Police said Kenneth R. Towell died Monday afternoon from injuries received when two cars collided at a Boise intersection. The other driver, Leighton W. Cummings, 66, Boise, was not injured and recreation months.

The victim had been married less than one month.

SALES REPORTED
BOISE (AP) — Albertson's, Inc. of Boise, reported Monday sales during the first nine months of 1966 increased 19 per cent over last year.

Sales for the 40-week period ending Dec. 31, 1966, were $20,000,000, which is up from $16,800,000 for the same period during the first fiscal year, according to Albertson's president J. L. Scott.

The Boise-based food store chain had record sales in the quarter ending Dec. 31, with sales of $38,379,845 and net earnings of $1,414,644.

Reactions Given On Negro Cases

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "I think you will find that capital offense crimes are more numerous among Negroes than whites."

This was Mississippi—Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson's reaction to the Supreme Court ruling Monday which ordered a lower federal court to hear an Arkansas Negro's claim he was sentenced to death in the rape of a white woman because of his race.

"For instance," Patterson said, "it is a very rare thing for a white man to commit a brutal, forcible rape of a Negro woman."

In the South, where death sentences for rape are common, most state officials were non-committal about the ruling.

A South Carolina official explained why he is "mum." So many appeal cases now pending involve Negroes charged with raping white women — six facing death in his state alone — that any comment might jeopardize the state's case, he said.

The high court's decision is expected to bring a flood of new appeals. The retrial order for Arkansas William L. Maxwell could affect four other Negroes who are on death row because of rape convictions in that state.

The defense for Maxwell, now 26, said a study showed that 70 per cent of the rapes in South Carolina, nine of 19 Negroes convicted of raping white women have been sentenced to death. In cases where both the man and woman were either white or Negro, the defense argued, only five death sentences were imposed.

Psychiatrist Says 5 And 6-Year-Olds Watch TV At Least 4 Hours Per Day

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Ishore Hershovitz, a Los Angeles psychiatrist, in a recent article, critical of some television programming for children, wrote that children between the ages of 5 and 6 watch television on an average of more than four hours a day.

Nicholas Johnson, a member of the Federal Communications Commission in an interview taped for broadcast Monday night observed that "tens of millions of children in this country are spending more time with the television set than in school — and are getting very little for this expenditure of time."

Even a casual observer can see there is a marked shortage of regularly scheduled quality programs for the very young on the networks.

There is "Captain Kangaroo" on CBS, a highly lauded program, and that network's pilot to start a "Children's Film Festival" of 13 programs on a Sunday afternoon early in February.

NBC has its 'very occasional' "Children's Theatre" and on Sunday in early March will present "Rabbit Hill." Last year, the "Children's Theatre" showed an adaptation of White's "Stuart Little" at about the same time of year.

There are occasional special programs for the young — especially around the Christmas season.

But blushing practically unseen by any but small children and some vigilant parents, are the solid blocks of cartoon programs that, on all three networks, completely fill the Saturday morning hours from 9 a.m. until after noon.

There are, in all, 24 different cartoon shows during these crowded hours. They range alphabetically from "Atom Ant" to "Underdog."

NBC — to "Underdog" — CBS. In between are diversions like "King Kong," "Frankenstein Jr.," "Superman," "The Beatles," "Million Dollar Theater," "Magilla Gorilla" and "Hippety Hooper." A lot of them are old theatrical cartoon features. Most of them are harmless enough and are built around animals.

But what worries the experts is that the shows, while amusing the youngsters, and nothing to their lives and make for more

THE JUNIOR REALM

With MARTHA LEE

Q. Our son, just turned 17, has become a fanatic on the subject of birth control. He tells me that he will marry any girl, older—or not—he loves her, and she will promise to have children, and that he will not marry a girl for love if it means bringing children into the world. Is becoming a young boy or girl, and not when you are in his ideas, he calls us frustrated and stupid? What can we do with a son like that? Mr. and Mrs. H.H.R.

A. Parallels Betty Carder, high school, New Mexico; Allen Dodge, high school, North Dakota; Patricia Freeman, high school, Michigan; Michael J. Kamnaker, high school, Indiana.

You can either buy him a membership in the Destructive Society of Extremists, or you can be patient and give your son the love, understanding and knowledge of the human disciplines as he passes from one age to another. You described them, his ideas, the population explosion, they follow the line of some of the weary dreamers who would destroy the normal processes of life because of fear.

We believe that when your son reaches a more mature age and falls in love with a pretty girl, he will forget all about this social problem (it is a social problem) and start worrying about a new one, that of raising a lovely family.

Most of us teen-agers experience the urge to give extreme answers to any question that is popular fad. We are a peculiar people at our age, and all we go through seems rather crazy periods, such as reading a certain type of literature, talking in puzzling expressions to confuse the adults, wearing hideous looking clothes, and becoming enamored of wild interesting and odd personalities. But, we get over these periods, our son may be reading the social books, listening to the wrong people, or just trying to attract attention. In any event, if he gets over it, in the meantime, the interest will help you help him away from sex.

You mention that your son is frustrated and stupid if he fails to sympathize with his idea. We are not in favor of a child rebuking his parents,

Old Musk Ox Skull Found Near Burley

BURLEY — Old bones found where science teachers agreed by Jay Perry, Declo, employe of Klepper Concrete, Paul, in a gravel pit two miles west of the Minidoka Dam recently have been identified as parts of the skull of an Idaho musk ox or Symbos cavifrons by Dr. John White, Pocatello.

Dr. White, curator of vertebrate paleontology at Idaho State University, was so amazed, stated, "the musk ox fossil is the fourth ever known found and is extremely important to archaeologists."

Scientists at the museum carbon-dated the skull vertebrae and reported the fossilized bones were at least 43,000 years old.

A molar tooth was also identified as an American mammoth. Mammoth and Mastodon remains are frequently found in Idaho, the scientists noted.

It is believed by the scientists that the extinct musk ox must have arrived this far south during the ice age from the fossils recently found.

When Mr. Perry unearthed the fossilized bones he took the bones to the Burley High School

THIS SCENE is typical of those in many of China's communes where, some observers say, the roots of China's present day troubles originated. Many of those who oppose Mao Tse-tung and the Red Guards say cure-all ideas, such as the communes, for China's ills are reckless and desperate. This picture was made by a Japanese photographer. ### Red China's Current Upheaval With Power Struggle Dates Back Decade

By WILLIAM L. RYAN, AP Special Correspondent

China is a land of calamity. For at least 2,000 years, its people have been the victims of disasters, natural and man-made. Today it is undergoing a violent convulsion. Yet another man-made disaster may be just around the corner.

The current upheaval with its titanic power struggle dates back at least a decade.

Behind the political troubles lay the ancient economic ones, aggravated now by reckless totalitarian measures which desperately sought cures. An attempt was made a decade ago to turn China's nation of teeming millions into one which a French observer once described as a "nation of blue ants." It failed miserably, and the face of today's great political explosion began spouting even then.

It is difficult for a Westerner to understand the how and why of what is going on in China today in the wild confusion of a "great proletarian cultural revolution" launched last summer by Mao Tse-tung, chairman of the Chinese Communist party, and his chief ally, Defense Minister Lin Biao. But the "cultural revolution" was just one more step in the developing upheaval which now has reached a new and critical stage.

At the basis of China's troubles are backwardness and empty bellies — this despite the fact that Red China has achieved five atomic explosions and produced a nuclear-tipped missile.

China can produce for war. It has difficulty producing for peace.

For at least 2,000 years, feeding China's population has been a major problem. Even as long ago as that, the balance of nature was upset and China over of the Japanese-Chinese war since has been subject to floods, droughts and famines, torments by eroded soil and ferocious plagues of locusts, condemned to plagues of pests.

China is slightly larger in area than the United States, but much of its land is poorly suited to agriculture. Only a tenth of it can be cultivated, and less than half of that is good farmland. This must feed a population of 750 million, growing at a current annual rate of 15 million. To feed them, a half-billion peasants labor mostly in the ancient ways of their forebears. If there were a similarly large proportion of U.S. farmers, 133 million Americans would be in agriculture.

China may have had a chance with Sun Yat-sen's 1911 revolution against the Manchu dynasty, but the agent for destruction of that revolution was the Kuang Chang T'ang — Chinese Communist party — created by agents of Moscow's Communist International, including a man named Nguyen Thanh, later known as Ho Chi Minh of North Vietnam.

Mao was at the founding meeting in Shanghai in 1921. When he reached a position of authority, he purged Soviet elements from the party and it went over to insurrection which continued on into revolution.

With Chu Teh as the organizer of Mao's 4th army, today Chu at 80, is pillar of Mao's "great proletarian cultural revolution" as a traitor to communism.

Mao had many clashes with Joseph Stalin's Soviet party and nurtured his revolution out of Moscow's reach. He took advantage of the Japanese occupation of northern Manchuria and then the Japanese-Chinese war since has been subject to floods, droughts and famines, torments by eroded soil and ferocious plagues of locusts, condemned to plagues of pests.

The theory of "people's war" was born. Chu Teh, master of guerrilla warfare laid it down. "When the enemy advances, we retreat. When the enemy retreats, we attack. When the enemy attacks, we harass and encamp, we harass and encamp. When the enemy seeks to avoid battle, we attack. When the enemy retreats, we pursue." Today's war in Vietnam is a patterned on the Chinese Communist revolution, and a test case for the whole theory. Mao's revolution "almost lost" it by his famed "long march" to escape Chiang's troops — an arduous 3,000-mile march through mountains, swamps. Often Mao's men lacked food. Many thousands died. But the remnants of 10,000 men around Yenan in the bleak northwest and Mao established headquarters. The Japanese attack on China, and then World War II gave Mao's Communist forces a new lease on life.

Eight unbroken years of war left China prostrate and exhausted. The ultimate result was a Communist victory over the mainland by Oct. 1, 1949.

Mao and his party went through several hardships thereafter and China's people continued to suffer hardship. The current convulsion in China may trace directly to early 1958. It was then that Mao's Politburo held a meeting at Peking and adopted a "resolution on the establishment of people's communes in agricultural communities." This was Mao's "great leap forward."

Soft Whiskey chased the chaser away.

Soft Whiskey is soft going down, there's nothing to chase.

After that, drinking it is like drinking any other 86 proof whiskey.

So what you have is a whiskey that doesn't need water on the way down, and yet, isn't watered down itself.

Of course, all this doesn't mean it's against the law to follow up Soft Whiskey with a you-know-what.

And it's certainly not taboo to mix it with your favorite mixer. (These are two excellent ways to make it go down even softer.)

So if you ever do run out of water, it doesn't necessarily mean you have to stop serving drinks.
