

It's Not Just Growing Pains, Twin Falls Really Needs Major Surgery

By O. J. SMITH
Times-News Managing Editor
Twin Falls, a city that has developed in 63 years from a "tent town" on the desert to an economic center of Southeastern Idaho, is in need of major surgery.

It isn't exactly growing pains that bother this city of approximately 21,000 people, it's more like a deterioration and degeneration of its vital organs. It's a condition which, unless corrected, can only result in an eventual illness that may bring about its demise.

What troubles this city, so many others in this age, is the result of haphazard growth combined with changing habits brought about by modern advancements in the American way of life.

The symptoms of the ailment affecting Twin Falls are traffic circulation problems, parking cramps, the blank eyes of empty streets and a middle age bulge of off-center residential areas and the filtering of the heartbeat of commerce in the city center.

The city, as represented by its elected officials, its business and civic leaders, has been aware of the advancing seriousness of its condition and the implications for several years. Convinced by careful self-examination of its seriousness they sought professional help to correct the condition.

The "doctors" they sought have diagnosed the ailment, prescribed treatment and prescribed continuing care that will lead to a long and healthy-life.

Records of the case are included in two books that have been under intensive study by these officials, businessmen and leaders for several years. They are "Preliminary General Plan, City of Twin Falls, Idaho," and the "City Center Plan, City of Twin Falls, Idaho," both prepared by Cornell, Howland, Hayes and Merryfield, Engineers and Planners, in consultation with Larry Smith and Co. Economic Consultants.

Some tentative, preliminary steps already have been taken in accordance with suggestion. In these plans, and the time has arrived for the major decision of whether to go ahead with the "major surgery" that will revitalize the city center.

The plans, carefully thought out and advised by these men who make such activity their career, present an attractive picture of what the future can be. They are not just unrealistic dreams, but are based on, and closely resemble, programs that have successfully rejuvenated other cities that experienced the same problems.

The general plan is aimed at providing a sound pattern of growth and for the provision of adequate municipal services for those who live in Twin Falls.

It proposes to do this by developing residential areas into neighborhoods, each neighborhood being served by public schools and park facilities, surrounded by a major road system on a one-mile grid.

It proposes to revitalize the city center as the main commercial, business and recreational center for the city with the commercial (shopping) centers as supplementary and complementary rather than directly competitive.

It proposes that standards of development should be established for industrial areas of the city that would assure potential developers that their investments will be protected.

It proposes that orderly transition from rural to urban uses should be made by providing a cohesive pattern of growth extending out from the center of the community, rather than the present checkerboard pattern that is proving detrimental and economically costly both to agriculture production and to the city for extending services to scattered developments.

It proposes that the city be prepared to secure needed public utilities as soon as possible and to develop the land as population growth demands. This would include a long-range program of acquisition and development of a proposed system of parkways, Rock Creek Park and other public parks.

It proposes that policies with respect to the dedication and improvement of streets should be adopted, noting that the efficiency of future traffic circulation will depend on the capacity of the street system which is developed over the years.

One of the broad aims, the planners suggest, is that something should be done to try and attract development and expansion of the city to the south, rather than permit the trend of northward growth to continue to accelerate, crowding the community more out of balance.

What the plan suggests to accomplish these proposals will be more fully covered in succeeding articles of this series.

Editor's note: This is the first of a series of articles attempting to explain the comprehensive plan developed to guide future growth of Twin Falls.

Succeeding articles will go into specifics of problems that face the city as it heads into the third century of the century, and the plans proposed as a solution to the main troubles.

Strike Disrupting Production Of Helicopter Engines Halted

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—A federal judge today issued a restraining order today to halt a strike disrupting production of helicopter engines needed in Vietnam.

U.S. District Court Judge William H. Timbers granted the government request for an order today, but there was a dispute over wages, a cost of living clause, supplemental unemployment benefits and pensions.

Timbers set April 25 for a hearing on a preliminary injunction for involving the Fair Labor Act, bringing about an 80-day cooling off period in the dispute.

The 11-day restraining order was to be effective immediately, and a company spokesman said operations at the plant would resume with the second shift starting at 3 p.m. today.

Adenauer's Condition Is Unchanged

BONN, Germany (AP)—Former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer spent a quiet night and his doctors said today his condition was unchanged.

A medical bulletin Sunday said the effects of his illness on his heart and circulation have stabilized. The 82-year-old statesman is seriously ill with influenza and bronchitis.

The bulletin said there was still no change in Adenauer's condition. His son, Hans, told newsmen his father remained in an oxygen tent.

4 Inmates Attend Governor's Open House To Tell Of Prison Conditions

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Among the throngs of well-dressed Georgians at Gov. Lester Maddox's open house Sunday were four shabbily dressed Negroes—escaped prisoners with a story to tell the governor.

The four said they "sawed through bars" at a Wilkinson County work camp at midnight Saturday and walked all night to complain personally to the governor about prison treatment.

They told Maddox of threats on their lives, of being put in "the hole" all night, of being planning, and of going out at eight days with only one meal.

Clad in faded sport shirts and dilapidated overalls, with prison garb underneath, the Negroes walked in a line of more than 4,000 Georgians, gathered to greet the governor at the mansion.

The prisoners' first pleas were unheeded, Maddox, busily shaking hands and chatting with visitors, missed "the rapidly multiplied pleas of Mrs. Albert Hill, mother of one of the prisoners."

"They're prisoners," Maddox said. "But the governor already had turned to greet other guests."

Mrs. Maddox, however, thought she had heard the word "prisoner" and asked a nearby state policeman to check. He did and called the governor.

After talking about 20 minutes with the men, Maddox said he has ordered the "most thorough investigation ever conducted" by the Department of Corrections.

"These men told me they had planned to escape because of cruel treatment, of going six to eight days with only one meal," the governor said at a news conference.

"They had planned two weeks ago to escape. They wanted to escape to New York," Maddox said. "They had been through bars and walked away. I'm convinced there's considerable truth to this."

"These men said they had tried everything else. They had even been put in a hole for one month. I'm glad they did come," Maddox said.

South Koreans Use Jets To Sink Ship

By K. C. HWANG

It said five others were taken to the port of Incheon after the sinking off the west coast. The full extent of North Korean casualties was not known. No South Korean casualties were reported. But the air force said one of the 14 planes which set the 50-ton ship ablaze in the sea, came back with a Communist machine-gun bullet hole in the fuselage.

Diversion Program Urged By Rupert Spud Growers

RUPERT—Rupert area potato growers have voted support of the potato diversion program in Minidoka and Casaca counties. At a meeting Sunday night at the Rupert courthouse, some 25 representatives of all segments of the potato industry in Burley, Rupert and Paul Valley urged the National Farmers Union to support the diversion program under which the federal government pays growers to feed their spuds to livestock.

Mr. Roth said the growers feel the landing slot and per acre program under which the federal government pays growers to feed their spuds to livestock is a better alternative than the current program.

Some Questions In Speck's Trial May Never Be Answered

Twin Falls Times-News
April 17-18, 1967

By F. RICHARD CICCONE
PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — The question of who murdered eight nurses in a Chicago town house last summer apparently was resolved when a jury convicted Richard Speck and recommended that he die in the electric chair.

But the questions of why the eight nurses were chosen as the knife-wielding stranger's victim and why eight young women quietly submitted to being tied, reposed, separated, and slain may never be answered.

The seven men and five women jurors retired at 2:41 p.m. Saturday and announced they had reached their verdict at 3:30 p.m.

Judge Herbert C. Paschen scheduled posttrial motions for today. Gerald Getty, Cook County public defender who represents Speck, will file a motion for an appeal. State law requires all death verdicts to be appealed.

According to notes taken by Dr. Marvin Ziporyn and released Saturday, Speck related he was "drunk" and had taken a drug injection. Speck was quoted as saying his memory of that night is blank.

In nine days of testimony, the prosecution produced fingerprints to prove three girls lifted from a door in the townhouse bedroom belonged to Speck. Miss Corazon Amurao, a Philippine nurse who hid under a bed as the killer worked, identified Speck as the black garbed intruder who herded the victims into a bedroom before he killed them one by one in the four other rooms.

But the state did not indicate why the eight girls, all students at South Chicago Community Hospital, were killed. Miss Amurao said the intruder wanted money to go to New Orleans and the girls gave him money.

Other witnesses said Speck had talked of going to New Orleans. The survivor said the killer made the girls sit on the floor, then counted them, "one, two, three, four, five, six."

Did the killer know eight girls resided there? And when Mary Ann Jordan came to spend the night, did the killer miscut and therefore forget Miss Amurao's name?

The killer was quoted by Miss Amurao as saying to one victim, Patricia Matusek, "Are you the girl in the yellow dress?" Had he seen Miss Matusek before he awakened her July 13? Had any of the victims known the killer or seen him loitering in the neighborhood?

Why did Corazon Amurao escape? She was the first girl the killer encountered that night.

Miss Amurao answered four questions: "The light was on in the bedroom door. The killer led two girls downstairs to Miss Amurao—told—how—the alert a neighbor? Why didn't they attack the intruder?"

Miss Amurao—told—how—the alert a neighbor? Why didn't they attack the intruder?"

Station Gets More Power At Jerome

JEROME—Increased daytime wattage was announced last week for radio station KART in Jerome by the Federal Communications Commission. The agency has approved an increase from 250 to 1,000 watts daytime power. Al Lee, owner manager, points out this will give KART a much wider coverage, as well as clearing up interference problems existing on the outlying areas. He noted that application for the increase in wattage was filed April 1, 1966.

Mayor Earn Greenwald Saturday congratulated Mr. Lee upon the increase of the station's power.

Carson May Reconsider TV Return

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Carson, who left his "Tonight" show during the AFTRA strike, then decided not to come back, is reconsidering. "The main consideration," Carson said Sunday in an interview, "is whether the NBC people come up. There might be some changes in personnel on the program."

The comedian, who has a $15,000-a-week contract with NBC, said his attorneys would discuss several issues with network representatives today.

Carson said his return "depends on whether the NBC people work out our differences at the first of the week. If they do, there is a possibility that I will return to the show. They would like me to come back, and I would probably do so if everything is all right."

Carson had charged that the network-breached his contract when it used taped reruns of his shows during the 13-day strike of the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists this month.

Country singer Jimmy Dean replaced Carson after the strike ended.

POPULATION DOWN
BOISE (AP) — Idaho's jails are at their lowest level in the state population at the state penitentiary is declining. Warden Max Maxwell said Sunday.

He attributed the decline in prison population to U. S. Supreme Court decisions affecting the rights of persons suspected of having committed a crime.

The decisions, Maxwell said, "have made it difficult to obtain convictions."

Seven are charged with gambling. The eighth, tavern owner Kenneth Russell, is charged with permitting gambling on the premises.

Rupert Board To Approve School Funds

RUPERT — Minidoka School District trustees will hold a public hearing May 8 at the Central School office in Rupert.

A trustee election will be held May 23 in the county for District 4. Rupert City is presently held by Dr. Howard Toews, and for District 1, Heyburn. Leo Moore presently occupies District 2.

Members of the board have been informed that the school district has applied for grants for federal monies. The first application under title 3 of PL 89-10 is for a grant, with which officials hope to establish a driving training course at Minico as a part of the driving program presented at the school. If approved, the money will be used to black top an area 2,000 feet on the parking lot. On this surface a driving training course would be developed to accommodate eight cars.

The area would simulate most situations drivers might meet in traffic. The course would be used as a preliminary to the students going out on the road, and would keep beginning drivers off the public roads. It would also enable one instructor to handle more than one car.

Application for a second grant is under the migrant labor bill and the money would be used to start a summer school, to help operate a summer school, and to provide a school nurse to work in the schools as well as with migrant labor students.

County trustees who will attend the national meeting in Portland April 22-25 are Kenneth Shufeldt, Harold Peterson and Leonard Peterson. Members' wives will accompany them to the meet.

Astronaut Won't Fly In Space Again

By RONALD THOMPSON
AP Associated Writer
MANITOWOC, Wis. (AP) — Astronaut M. Scott Carpenter gambled on the operating table six months ago, but he neither won nor lost. So, he says, he'll never fly in space again.

Carpenter, one of the original seven Mercury spacemen, had hoped the operation would restore his ability to fully rotate his left arm, broken just below the elbow in a 1964 motorcycle accident in Bermuda.

Doctors had told him that if he was to get back on space flying status the arm must be mended. However, the operation would be a delicate one and he understood a chance of losing even more movement in the arm.

"I took that chance," Carpenter said.

"But it didn't really do too much good. It didn't change my flight status any. I saw it wasn't improved much as soon as I got the cast off. It might be a little bit, but I think it's probably at a standstill now."

Navy Cmdr. Carpenter, who will be 42 in two weeks, said in an interview that apparently nothing more can be done to correct the situation.

Asked if this meant that he had given up all hope of flying again he replied: "In a spacecraft, yes."

The problem is not serious enough to knock the former Navy test pilot off flight status.

Truck Firms Faced With Huge Task

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago area trucking firms are faced with the task of hauling millions of dollars worth of goods that piled up during last week's three-day trucking stoppage.

Ten per cent of the 50,000 commercial trucks in the area were on the road last week to help clear some of the backlog.

By Wednesday, officials said, most stores, factories and warehouses should have their accumulated goods delivered to their customers and distributors.

Truckers resumed operations at the request of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, who asked Friday that negotiators for 4,700 trucking firms and 65,000 drivers and workers on docks and in warehouses meet today in Washington to urge Wirtz to seek a solution to their contract dispute.

Union drivers in the Chicago area are demanding a 90-cent hourly wage increase, about 20 cents an hour more than drivers in other sections of the country would receive under terms of a tentative national agreement reached last Wednesday that involves 250,000 Teamsters-Union members. Chicago unionists refused to be bound by the national settlement.

W. Eugene McCarron, managing director of the Illinois Truck Operators Association, said last week the companies could not afford higher wage rates in Chicago.

A union vote on the national pact had been set for Sunday, but Teamsters were urged to vote while a higher wage settlement appeared possible in Chicago.

The vehicle was donated to Western Michigan by Chrysler Corp. It was taken by someone who broke into the building and took keys for the car from an office. The theft was discovered Sunday.

WHY DO GIRLS LOVE BANGLES?

By NORMAN HERRETT
If there's a young girl — or one not so young — in your home, you might ask her this question: "The change in size will grin broadly and tell you that it's the fashion."

And that's not exactly right. However, if you look in your young girl's jewelry box, you'll find that costume jewelry has been far back as man records. Cleopatra was famous for her beauty — which was enhanced most cleverly by fabulous strings of pearls and bracelets with "bangles" on them.

Today the Modern Miss of high school and college does not mention her older sisters and even her Mother — have a voguish jewelry, we call it "costume jewelry" for it dresses up a frock or suit or evening gown and lends glamour to the proud wearer.

We carry a very large selection of costume jewelry — necklaces, scarves, brooches, regular and pierced earrings, bracelets, clasps and bars. All of it has been carefully chosen by us from leading jewelry manufacturers. As a result, a piece — however small the cost — represents jewelry craftsmanship at its best. Come in and see it.

There's always someone to whom such a gift will be thrilling. Or you might come to yourself and buy something you will have been wanting. HERRETT'S JEWELRY, 1320 Kimberly Road, Twin Falls, Phone 733-0888.

Dear Abby

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I recently received an invitation which reads: "The OLD Mrs. John Doe requests the pleasure of your company at a dinner to support the NEW Mrs. John Doe, etc."
I floored me. I know our friends John and Mary Doe but I was interested in a lady from New York, but how about this? Do you think it is normal for an ex-wife to be such a good sport?
SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: No, it's not normal — but it's nice. The absence of bitterness could indicate that everybody's happy. (P.S. Don't be surprised if the NEW Mrs. Doe enters into the Old Mrs. Doe and a newly acquired John.)

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is in the fourth grade and she recently had a birthday party. She took the invitations to school and passed them out to the classmates she wanted. There were 40 invitations and she wanted only 38 of them at her party.
After the party her teacher called me and told me that my daughter should NOT have passed out her invitations at school unless she invited ALL the kids in her class.
Since when does a school teacher have the right to tell a pupil WHOM to invite to her birthday party? I would like your opinion in print.
HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: There cheer for the teacher! She is obviously much more understanding than you. The pain of having been left out will remain with those six uninvited children long after the fun has been forgotten by those who attended.

DEAR ABBY: My best girl friend has started to write to my boy friend who is away at college. She says she "likes" to write letters.
He feels that he must answer her letters as she is his best friend, yet he is very busy and really doesn't care to correspond with her.

Beard Birdies 18th Hole To Nip Charging Palmer In Tourney Of Champions

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Steel-nerved Frank Beard sank a pressure-packed seven-foot birdie putt on the final green Sunday to win the $100,000 Tournament of Champions, a stroke of brilliant reason making for a shattering round by Arnold Palmer. The 27-year-old Beard, from Louisville, Ky., who in 1954, had died from a form of sleeping sickness, made it a wire-to-wire triumph with a last-round par 71 and a 72-hole total of 272, six under par for the stroke, to defeat Palmer by one stroke.

A's Stop Tiger Rally, Win By 11-7

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Believers Tony Pierce and Dick Dula, checked an eighth inning Detroit rally, protecting Kansas City's 1-7 victory over the Tigers and earning the Athletics a doubleheader split Sunday.

Jim Northrup's bases-clearing double capped a four-run sixth inning but that paced the Tigers to a 6-3 victory in the opener.

In the second game, Detroit spotted the A's an early five-run lead before trimming the deficit to 6-7 in the eighth.

Pierce replaced Jack Aker with two runs in, the bases loaded and nobody out, and Dick McDowell pitched a double play.

Dula, then came on and got Don Wertz to bounce into a force.

The A's' sev'ed it up with three runs in the eighth, Ramon Webster doubling one across and Beard following with a two-run double.

Two-run homers by Danny Cater in the first inning, and Ken Staley in the second, and Ed Charles' run-scoring single in the third gave the A's a 5-0 lead before Detroit started its comeback.

Cards Trim Astros To Stay Unbeaten

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A pair of home runs by Lou Brock—his plus a tie-breaking blast by Orlando Cepeda kept the St. Louis Cardinals unbeaten in their season with an 11-4 victory over the Houston Astros Sunday.

Brock's second homer of the day was seventh consecutive hit. He had eight runs batted in during the streak, which finally ended when he tapped back to the mound against Carol Sembera, the Astros' third pitcher, in the fifth inning.

But Brock then singled for his fourth hit of the game when the Cardinals added three runs in the seventh inning, two on Curt Flood's double.

Brock led off with a homer on Mike Cuellar's first pitch, then singled to drive in two runs as Cardinals nicked the Astro lefty for four runs in the second.

Houston down 5-0 and then 7-3, got to Cardinal right-hander Bob Gibson for three runs in the third with Joe Morgan's double driving in a pair.

John Bateman's first home run of the season came with a runner on base and capped a four-run sixth inning that tied the score at 7-7.

Then Cepeda's first homer of the season, a shot to left, broke the tie in the same frame off Peter Sembera.

Home runs - Houston, Bateman (1), Cepeda (1); St. Louis, Brock, 2; (3), Cepeda (1).

Griffith Comparable To Clay—In Number Of Ring Appearances

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW-YORK (AP)—When it comes to keeping busy in the ring, middleweight champion Emile Griffith is almost in Cassius Clay's class.

The 28-year-old New Yorker enters in his fourth middleweight title fight within a year Monday night when he takes on classy Vince Benvenuti of Italy in a 15-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

This also will be the strong contender's first title fight in six years. He had a 142-pound middleweight title fight in 1957, and a 147-pound middleweight title fight with the Angels.

The Angels won the 10-fight opener 5-4.

Barber, a 28-year-old left-hander, making his first appearance in the sport since he was the Angels until Fregosi lashed a double to left, spalling his bid for the first no-hitter in the majors since last June 1956.

Barber, faced only 31 batters, walking three Angels and striking out three. His only notable moment until the ninth came in the sixth when center fielder Blair raked far into right-center to haul in Fregosi's liner.

The stocky fireballer complained of soreness in his left elbow this spring and was sent to the Orioles' minor league camp at Dayton, Tenn., for two weeks ago.

The Orioles gave Barber his winning margin in the second inning when Curt Bleaury singled to drive in Brooks Robinson, who had been hit by a pitched ball.

Loser Jorge Rublo got the 10th inning with a pitch that Larry Haney doubled in Bleaury, who had walked, and the Orioles added a final run in the ninth.

Fregosi won the opener for the Angels after Bob Rodgers pitched the 10th inning with a single off loser Stu Miller. Jim Piersall sacrificed and Paul Schatz was purposely walked before Fregosi singled.

Braves Hit In Sixth To Drop Dodgers

ATLANTA (AP)—The Atlanta Braves pinned the fourth straight loss on Los Angeles Sunday, beating the Dodgers 4-1 with a four-run sixth inning that drove Don Drysdale from the game.

Drysdale blanked the Braves on only two singles through five innings, but doubles by Felipe Alou and Joe Torre, singles by Gary Geiger and Clete Boyer, a walk and a sacrifice fly ruined his bid to pitch the Dodgers out of their slump.

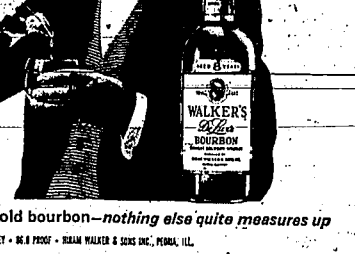

Lefly Donny Lemaster was the winner, giving up eight hits before he tired and was lifted in the eighth inning. The Dodgers' run off Lemaster came in the second inning when Don Fally doubled and scored on Gene Mitchell's single.

CARD GUESSING

Oswald: "English expert Victor Mollo has a new paperback book entitled 'Success at Bridge.' He has a particularly good chapter on bidding inferences."

Jim: "Here is a hand which is well worth studying. Victor sat West and his opponents reached six spades on the bidding shown in the box. He opened the six of hearts. The Jack was played from dummy and East's queen fell to South's ace. Declarer played three rounds of trumps on which East followed to the first and then discarded the ten and three of clubs. It was obvious to Victor that his partner was showing the club suit. South's next play was to knock-out-Victor's-ace-of-diamonds and it was up to Victor to decide whether he should try to make a trick with his king of hearts or his king of clubs. There is a club lead gives South his contract."

Oswald: "Victor points out that he did not have a real problem. South had jumped to six spades without bothering to use Blackwood to ask for aces. Therefore it was impossible for South to have first round losers in two suits. He first had to be void of clubs and Victor's hope was to play the king of hearts."

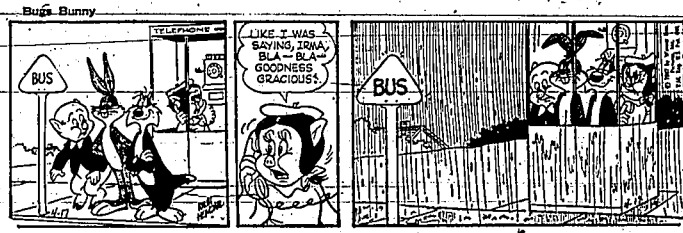

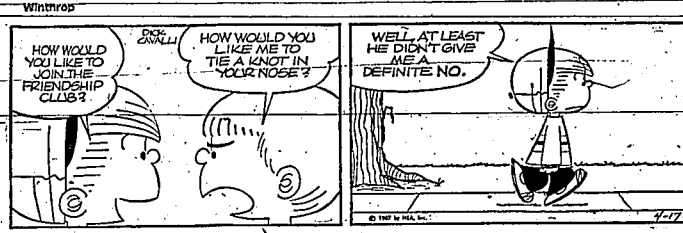

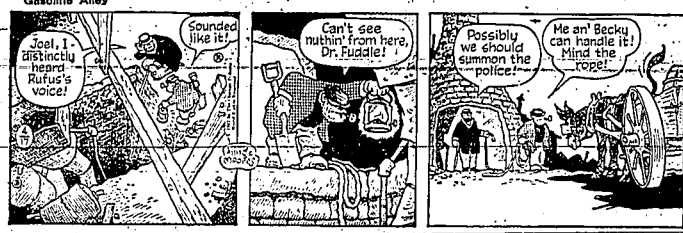

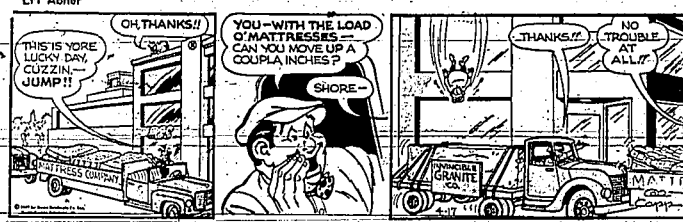

Jim: "This is, of course, correct reasoning but I wonder if many bridge players would reason that well."
Oswald: "Not many. The fact that Victor did cash the king of hearts shows why he has been a successful player for 30 years."
Jim: "Another point of interest in the hand is that South had to be an expert. Experts just don't use Blackwood when they are void of a suit. Ordinary players frequently do."

Are You Ready To Meet My Brothers?

Dear Walt: I am ashamed to you side by side. Pick up the bring my friends home because phone now—Walt.

both my older brothers are religious nuts! They go to this hot-and-holler church, and the minute someone comes in the house, they start asking him, "Where will you spend eternity?" Or "Are you ready to meet your Maker?" I've asked my parents a hundred times to make him leave my friends alone but all they say is, "Your brothers are right. You should be told of my miserable life. Be understanding!"—John

Dear John: You have my sympathy. But since your parents won't corral your brothers, you'd better warn all your guests to expect a sermon when they visit. Perhaps you'll even want to suggest a few polite prayers to expect a sermon when they visit. Perhaps you'll even want to suggest a few polite prayers to expect a sermon when they visit.

NOT HALITOUSIS
Dear Walt: I am a boy in my first year of high school and am really enjoying it except for one thing. Last year in eighth grade I met another boy and we became swell friends. We were in all the same classes and even went to summer school together.

But this year we seem to shy away from each other. I don't know why. I really like the boy and would like to be friends again. There is no feud or fighting between us, and I didn't change my mouthwash. What's wrong?—Friendless Freddy.

Dear Walt: I'm a kind of guessing "why and wherefore," why not just call your pal and suggest the two of you catch a show, bowl or go skating? If you do go out, don't launch an endless post-mortem on "what made us drift apart." Instead, just relax and enjoy the afternoon. In all likelihood it's just one of those self-inflicted stamps harder than your school schedule doesn't constantly put

BEWARE THE SNOOP
Dear Ele and Walt: Relative to the answer given to "Violette" about her snobby boyfriend whom she caught rifling her purse, I can't agree that he should be forgiven!
After all, the girl is 19 and has no money. The fellow, in fact, is six months, so he is no child. You should be told of my miserable life for 25 years with a snoop of a husband.

My husband always knows exactly how much I have left of my pittance of an allowance. He opens (and reveals) my incoming mail and has forged permanent to suggest a few polite prayers to expect a sermon when they visit.

He opens (and reveals) my incoming mail and has forged permanent to suggest a few polite prayers to expect a sermon when they visit.

This despicable habit has killed my love for him and robbed me of a great deal of sleep. I had been fortunate enough to catch him going through my purse BEFORE I married him!

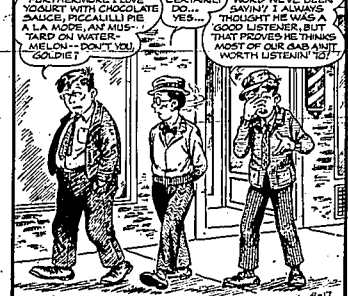

The lady has a solid point. If a curiously overwheeled steady and jealousy drives him to pry, there's scant hope he'll be any less possessive after the wedding. Beware!

From time will be here soon. Are you prepared? If you want to make sure you have every thing in order, write to Ele and Walt, Dulaneys' helpful booklet, "Date-Line From Newsletters." Send ten cents in coin, plus a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Dulaneys, in care of this newspaper.

Jimmy Martin just bought me a hamburger and a thick shake and asked me to go to the movies—I never know he was my type!
