Record

BOISE (AP)—Secretary of State Peter T. Conrad said today that he has been advised by the attorney general's office to refuse the copy of a bill signed by legislative leaders and the governor as a copy to be used in preparing the official record of the 1967 Idaho Legislature.

Conrad said he was concerned because he prepares a record of his actions under the laws. He said he believed the original copy should be used.

However the Idaho Code Commission, which prepares the record, has agreed to use the copy to the Idaho code, contending the signed copy of the laws should be used.

Conrad said it is likely a court decision will be required if a firm decision is to be made.

Teamsters Approve New Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters union members have voted today to approve a new national contract in which the acting head of the 1.8-million member union called an affirmation of the democratic operation.

The ratification of the pact, which will replace a 76-cent an hour wage and fringe benefit increase over three years, was announced Monday by James R. Hoffa, president.

Fitzsimmons, who headed union negotiations in the absence of Hoffa, said the union has a "say-so" in contract talks.

The Labor Department supervised counting of ballots in what the Teamsters said was the biggest union vote ever.

The pact earlier had been accepted by a national committee representing some 12,000 trucking firms.

Local War Dead Honored At Services

Cloudy skies and the threat of rain from the southwest marred the traditional Memorial Day services Tuesday at Sunset Memorial Park. The ceremony, marking the 50th annual Memorial Day, began 11 a.m. Featured speaker was Maj. L. James Koutnik, a member of the Air Force Reserve. Raising of the flag, a presentation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, a gun salute and placing of wreaths rounded out the service.

Samuelson Honors War Heroes

BOISE (AP)—Idaho Gov. Don Samuelson today paid tribute to Idaho war veterans at a ceremony in Boise. Scheduled to begin at 12:45 p.m. was the dedication of Idaho's first Vietnam War Memorial at the Twin Falls City Park. The memorial is reported to be one of the first in the nation to be raised solely in honor of war heroes.

Memorial Day is designed not only to honor Americans who have given their lives for their country but also as a time reserved for remembrance of all deceased family members and friends.

Specifically, however, the war dead are honored Memorial Day. Consequently veterans organizations play a large part in the traditional memorial services.

Participating in Twin Falls observance were the Idaho Veterans of the Republic, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, World War I Veterans and the Kimberly and Twin Falls American Legion Auxiliaries. Also participating through placing of wreaths on the memorial monument were the Daughters of the American Revolution and the American War Mothers.

The DAV, VFW, World War I Veterans and the Kimberly and Twin Falls American Legion Auxiliaries placed additional wreaths on the monument after Diana Hoppe, president of the DAV, placed the first wreath.

Participating at the Memorial Day ceremony was Twin Falls' Municipal Band, under the direction of John L. Jordan, who presented four selections during the service. It was the band's first formal appearance for the year.

The band also was to play during the dedication of the Twin Falls Vietnam War Memorial. A host of military dignitaries, including Sen. Frank Church, executive secretary of Veterans Affairs, Boise, was on hand for the dedication.

The memorial stands in memory of all Twin Falls County residents who have died in Vietnam. At the dedication ceremony Tuesday, four names will be inscribed on the monument: James H. Alfred, 1963; Pfc. David L. Bailey, 1966; Sgt. Brent J. Bauman, 1966; and Pfc. Elmo Lee DeFord.

Some groups planned to mark the day with parades. Citizens are urged to observe the day by observing the solemnity of the occasion.

The ceremony of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam expected to draw about 1,000 persons to attend its second annual Memorial Day service for peace in Vietnam.

In Washington, a group called the Ad Hoc Vietnam Committee for Memorial Day Peace Action planned a procession with music, drama and black-draped flag to protest the war.

Another group, however, the observance were billed as Loyalty Day parades and accused the war protesters of being unpatriotic.

By AL LAMIER

The argument between Col. David H. Browne, the defense attorney, and Judge Robert H. Taylor, the military judge, was over the definition of the words "disloyalty" and "disaffection."

Large groups may arrange tours to the area and lecture slide programs will be provided on request to the Forest Supervisor of the Sawtooth National Forest in Twin Falls.

Flour Measure Not Accurate In Instants

SHOSHONE — When is a cup of flour more than a cup? "When it's instant flour," says the county home economics agent, Mrs. Mary Lou Ruby.

She recommends that when homemakers bake with instant flour they take two level tablespoons out of each cup filled, as called for by the recipe.

The suggestion is backed by research of food specialists in the Department of Agriculture Service. The difference comes about like this:

Instant flour is processed with steam or hot water after regular milling to make tiny granules stick together as larger particles, thus taking less space in the measuring cup. Because of this characteristic, instant flour mixes more readily with water without getting lumpy and is therefore handy for making gravy as well as other things.

For baking, the characteristic causes problems. Instant flour weighs more per cup and takes up liquid at a faster rate than regular flour. The net result is too much flour for the dough in relation to the liquid.

For example, in popovers the batter does not have enough water to make adequate steam for the product to pop effectively.

Taste panels rated the adjusted recipe for instant flour as good as the recipe with the normal amount of flour in most cases. For pastry, the expert said, taste and appearance can be improved further by adding more fat to the dough.

They warn that adding more water to the dough is no solution. That destroys the balance among ingredients and tends to spoil the baked product.

Senatorial Views Clash On Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Memorial Day drought, conflicting senatorial views on the homefront reaction to U.S. casualties, and costs of the Vietnam war.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the conflict's posture is so illusive and its purposes so obscure it acts with a powerful effect on the administration to the detriment of public policy. He said there is a lack of acceptance of the great costs.

"The sensitivities of our society have changed," he said. "Figures totaling billions of dollars tend to be regarded now with unconcerning indifference in a sport in which we are not interested."

On the other hand, Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-Id., complained dissenters to President Johnson's war policies claim they alone are really concerned with Vietnam casualties.

"All Americans regret and sorrow over the sacrifice of our men to a distant struggle in an unfamiliar land for a cause that is not always clearly defined," he said.

"But some who have taken the cry of dissent have also taken it upon themselves to belittle that they—and only they—who militantly criticize the military involvement at every turn of the war—are really concerned over the life and death struggle involved in our service men."

"Let us not diminish the cause to which our soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines have dedicated themselves," said Mundt. "With the vulgar, non-motive-challenge of 'no one but those who dissent are concerned with the loss of American life.'"

Mundt's position was stated in a weekly report to constituents in Idaho.

Parents Wait For Word On Soldier Son

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Mr. J. R. Jennings, father of Marine Cpl. Stephen R. Jennings, 22, who was killed in Vietnam May 22, said he was waiting for a word from the military.

The couple said they were informed Sunday by military officials that their son, Marine Cpl. Stephen R. Jennings, 22, was killed in Vietnam May 22.

An official government telegram to that effect was received Sunday morning.

But the Jennings said it was impossible for their son to have been killed May 22. He visited Albuquerque on leave May 4.

During World War II, Mrs. Jennings said, her son was informed that her husband had been killed during naval operations.

"This is the second time my son's mother has gone through this," Jennings said. He said their son was shipped to Hawaii May 18 and returned to Vietnam May 22.

Cascades Park May Be Reality Soon

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP)—A proposed North Cascades National Park, subject of controversy at three Senate hearings in the last five days, may be a reality in three or four years, Sen. Henry Jackson said Monday.

Jackson is the chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on a subcommittee of which heard approximately 20 witnesses Tuesday.

Think we'll get a bill through this year, he said. Jackson said, "My guess is the House will probably not act on it at this session of Congress."

The senator said he would not speculate on the exact size of the park and other provisions of the bill after amendments.

The park size plan was called too small by conservationists and too large by opponents.

Jackson also indicated he favored taking out of the block Revere Copper Corp.'s proposed open-pit mine in the area.

Peak Wilderness Area. He proposed a cabinet secretary be given the power to "give mining operation would be incompatible with a recreation area or wilderness."

"You ask yourself what kind the wilderness would you have if open pit mining were to be undertaken with all the mining properties that are up there," Jackson said.

Anita Bryant, "preacher's daughter," sang and talked to Southern Baptist pastors Monday, after saying, "Frankly, I'm scared to death."

The ministers loved it. It is not easy to live the life of a star and be a Christian, too, she said.

"The road is very difficult, and there are many temptations," she said. "Sometimes you get criticized from the outside."

From both the religious people and people in the industry. Miss Bryant said, "God looks on the inside. It's what's in the heart that counts."

Miss Bryant sang "A Little Love" and "The Love of God." The convention awarded gold stars to Miss Bryant and the Southern Baptist Pastors Conference, said the recipient of the gold star.

Miss Bryant said she looks for a in a follower of Jesus Christ.

Vatican Curia Shakeup Is Expected After Designations

BY BENNETT M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—A major shakeup in the Vatican Curia, the central administration of the Roman Catholic Church, is expected following Pope Paul's designation of 27 new cardinals.

Fourteen of the 27 men the pontiff chose Monday are members of the Curia or its diplomatic service. To move them into the Curia, Vatican sources expect major changes in the Curia.

Cardinal Ciriaco De Vito, 74, one of the church's leading conservatives who heads the Congregation for Doctrine of the Faith, the former Holy Office.

The abbot primate of the 12,000-man Benedictine Order, a largely conservative monastic order that is strong in the Latin Americas, also was named out of his job by being selected for a cardinal's hat.

The 15 new cardinals will mean at least 150 changes all over the line as the prelatic network changes.

Present jobs and other churchmen step up to fill vacancies at many levels.

Only the 12 residential archbishops—three Americans, two Frenchmen, two Italians, an Argentine, a Pole, a German, a Bolivian and an Indonesian—remain where they are as Cardinals.

One new cardinal who automatically moves out of his post is the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Brennan of Shenandoah, Pa., the 74-year-old dean of the Roman Rota tribunal. The next ranking judge, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Stanislaw Filipiak, a Pole, succeeds him.

Likely candidates for the post of secretary of state are the two Italian archbishops who have been in the Curia for years.

ODDS FAVOR RISK FOR MATCH POINT

A Winpleg reader asks, "I have played rubber bridge all my life and have just started duplicate. In rubber bridge I learned to play safe for my contract. Does it pay to risk your contract in a duplicate game in order to make an overtrick or two?"

trump or he could run diamonds and make an overtrick if diamonds broke 3-2.

He knew that a suit will break 3-2 some 68 per cent of the time. His problem was to determine if all or nearly all the other North-South pairs would be in the same three-trump contract he had reached.

It was a normal contract after the one not-trump opening but he was positive that several South players would have opened one club and rebid to one not-trump after their partner's one diamond response. His conclusion was that after this start the North players would bid either two or three not-trump anyway and that every South would continue to three not-trump after a raise to two. Hence the only pairs hitting game would be those North made the bid red of two diamonds.

His last decision was that not even one North would do that and that it behooved him to go after the overtrick.

CARD SENSE

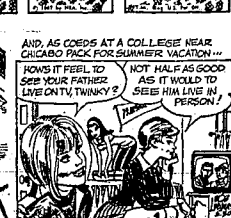

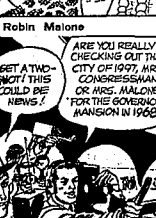

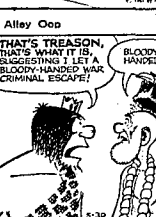

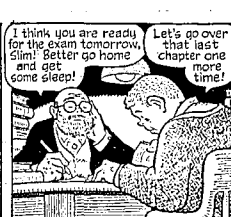

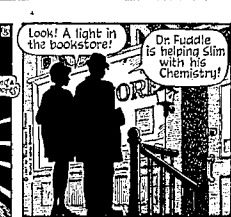

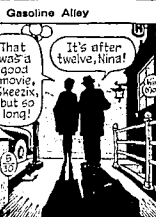

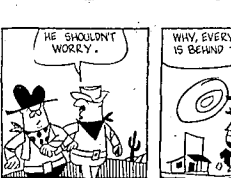

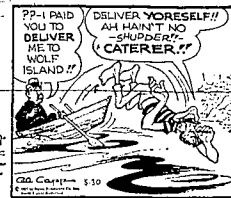

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South
Pass 2 Pass 2
Pass 2 Pass 2
Pass 2 Pass 2
You, South, hold:
AQ87 W43 A10 1054
What do you do now?
A—Bid four not-trump. You plan to bid six even if partner can show only one ace. At worst you will have a disease for this contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid four not-trump and your partner bids five hearts to show two aces. What do you do now?

Bright Spirit Helps Hurdle Handicap

Dear Ele and Walt: I'm a 16-year-old boy. I haven't started dancing yet, but I'm rapidly approaching the occasion. You see for the end of school we're going to have a computer dance. This doesn't sound too serious, except that I wear braces on both my legs and so my ability to dance is seriously hampered. In between the dances I hold my legs and so my ability to dance is seriously hampered. I would like some helpful suggestions on what I should do and some dances that don't take too much footwork. — "Tex"

Dear Tex: For your first date we'd recommend you bypass the computer dance, and wait to connect with an event where you can pick your own date instead of having one assigned to you. That way you'll be sure to choose a gal with enough maturity to give you an experience rather than be embarrassed by it.

It would be fun to double date with a good pal. Pick one of the girls you like. Give him carte blanche (full OK) to dance with your date, and he'll make sure both of you have a good time. If you start with a joke you'll reassure her that you're not sensitive about the braces. You can have a turn on the floor with me and the metal works? But anything over 35 minutes per hour and we retreat to the sidelines!

One more thought: look for something you can contribute to help make your date dance a success. You can be a cry-bag need for volunteers on the decoration committee, for ticket takers at the door, and for punch pourers at intermission. You'll get more at home if you find some way to give of yourself.

There are bound to be some awkward moments in your dancing years, but keep up the spirit. You have now. Best of fun date on does not necessarily equate with being the most awkward person on the floor! — Ele and Walt

LOVE HE'S COOKING
Dear Walt: What a diplomatic way to handle things when your girl friend thinks she's a real hotshot cook, but everything about tasting like dog food? I know she means well, that she does it to save me money, but really I'd be happy if I never had another bite of food at her house, at least as long as she's doing so. Can I tell her so in some way without hurting her feelings? — "Touched"

Dear Touched: If the girl's "special" is food in a jar of bicarbonate of soda and keep my mouth shut. When she invites you to dinner, cop out with schedule conflicts, but when she's offered, take at least a token service and S-M-I-L-E through. — Walt

Ashes Trenches Osuna To Give U.S. Win In North American Davis Cup Play

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., passed over last year in the crucial Davis Cup singles play against Brazil, trounced Rafael Osuna 8-6, 6-3, 6-2 Monday and lifted the United States past Mexico in the North American Zone final. Ashe's victory in the best-of-5 series gave the United States an unbeatable 3-1 lead and sent it into the American Zone final against Ecuador. The fifth game, matching Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., and Marcelo Lara, was postponed by a sudden rain shower.

Orioles Trade Mike Epstein To Senators

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles announced Monday night that pitcher Mike Epstein, who had refused to report to the minor leagues, and pitcher Frank Bertina had been traded to the Washington Senators for pitcher Pete Richter. Epstein, who was named the minor league player of the year after playing at Rochester of the International League in 1966, went home to California early this month rather than report back to Rochester.

Paschal Plans To Continue Auto Racing

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Jim Paschal, a crew-cut, slightly greying bachelor, figures his racing machine may be better as a long-term investment than auto racing. But right now he continues doing both.

The 41-year-old veteran of 20 years in the Southern stock car races, picked up $20,000 in winning money in the richest and longest of all stock car races, the World 600 at Charlotte Motor Speedway.

It was the second time Jim had won the event, considered by drivers to be the biggest test of endurance of all the South's big specialty events. He won here in 1964 and invested his share of that purse in a chicken ranch near High Point.

Paschal said after Sunday's victory that his winnings would be used to buy more chickens. Paschal as trim physically as the day he began racing in 1947, he backed Plymouth with less than 100 miles to go after leading in most of the way.

He lost control in the fourth turn, scraped the concrete wall and spun three times, damaging his steering gear.

After that, he had to manhandle the car through the speedway's sharply banked turns, but managed to beat Ford's David Pearson across the finish line by more than 17 seconds. Paschal held a three-lap lead over the field when his brush with disaster occurred.

Pearson picked up $12,500 of the $100,000 purse for his second place finish. Bobby Allison was third in a Dodge winning $7,670. Richard Petty was fourth in a Plymouth, winning $4,875, and Tim Lott finished fifth with $1,000.

Paschal, whose car is owned by West Coast Airlines executive Tom Friedman, averaged 153.223 miles per hour, a record for the event.

Cale Yarborough, who started in the front row in a factory Ford, made his first tie change after only 58 laps. Two laps after the change, he blew another tire and bent the frame on his car.

Epstein To Senators

The Baltimore Orioles announced Monday night that pitcher Mike Epstein, who had refused to report to the minor leagues, and pitcher Frank Bertina had been traded to the Washington Senators for pitcher Pete Richter. Epstein, who was named the minor league player of the year after playing at Rochester of the International League in 1966, went home to California early this month rather than report back to Rochester.

The return of Epstein to report, said Harry Dalton, Baltimore's director of player personnel, "did not force us into a deal."

"We were drawn to the deal because Richter was available to us, and we have been interested in him for some time," Dalton said when he called Epstein to tell him the trade. "Mike seemed sort of surprised but he didn't say much."

Reached later at his wife's home in Stockton, Calif., Epstein said, "I feel happy about the trade. Who wouldn't?"

"All I want is to change my play — to prove or disprove myself," Epstein said.

Dalton said the Orioles "gave up two young players and a great deal of promise, but we got an established American league pitcher who is still young at 27. He is just the man we need to help our pitching staff."

So far this season, Richter has a 2-6 record, with only one complete game in 10 starts and 46 earned run average. Last season he was 14-14 for the Red Sox.

Bertina had a 1-1 record with a 3.37 ERA. He had started in two games.

Epstein had two hits in 13 times at bat, starting two games at first base while regular first baseman Doug Powell was out.

Robinson Eyes Second Triple Crown

By BEN GLAN
NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Robinson, Baltimore's most important factor in winning baseball's world championship last season, seems to have designs on accomplishing a double triple crown.

As the 1967 campaign nears the Memorial Day milestone, the hard-hitting outfielder paces the American League in home runs while occupying the runner-up position in batting and runs batted in. He took the triple crown in the AL in 1966 with a .343 batting mark, 49 homers and 122 RBI.

Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals and Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox have been the only players to capture two triple crowns. Hornsby in 1924 and 1925 and Williams in 1942 and 1947.

Robinson slammed four homers in last week's games and took over the lead with 13. He drove in nine runs, boosting his total to 34 and climbing in within one of Detroit's Al Kaline, the leader.

Kaline's batting lead was reduced considerably. He dropped 16 points to .345 by collecting only five hits in 20 times at bat. Robinson has a .326 mark.

Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente continues to hold the No. 1 spot in the National League batting race. He slipped three points to .355 with a 10-for-27 performance.

Orlando Cepeda of St. Louis dropped eight points to .335 but held onto second place.

T.F. Softball Play Begins Wednesday

Twelve teams got the Twin Falls Recreation Department low pitch softball league off and running Wednesday night on diamonds one and two at Harmon Park.

Klarly K.114 and Olympia B were tabbed pre-season favorites although the remainder of the Walker Cup nine days ago, defeated Bernard Gallagher of Scotland, 2 and 1.

Gray chucked up the day's best victory for the Americans by defeating England's Ted Jordan, 5 and 4.

Those victories came after two American Walker Cup players — Beaveroid Jack Lewis and Don Allen — suffered surprise defeats in the first day's play over Germany's 6.54-yard, par 72 links alongside the Irish Sea.

Campbell, from Huntington, W.Va., is the favorite to win the title in his 17th try. The British title is one of the greatest amateur crowns in golf — first played in 1855.

Campbell was three up at the sixth hole, but Gallagher came back with his fighting Scottish heart. He sank a 36-footer for a 2 and 1 at the eighth, and tied up Campbell so much that he threw the match.

Campbell, winner of six U.S. Walker Cup matches at Sandwich, was unfrustrated. He went on to sink an eagle-footer for a birdie 2 at the 16th — the putt that clinched the match.

Gray from Pensacola, Fla., won five straight holes from the ninth through the 13th to destroy Jordan.

Probably the most distinguished American in the field was Lewis, the youngest from Florence, S.C., who partnered Campbell in the Walker Cup foursomes and had been expected to do well in the British Amateur.

But, suffering from a heavy cold, Lewis was out by the time of the 10th hole, lost to Ray Ratcliffe of Britain.

Weatherman May Steal Thunder From Turbocar In Memorial Day Race

By JERRY LISKA
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—The weatherman may steal the thunder from Parrell Jones and Silent Sam, his touted turbocar, when the swiftest fight in history roars off in the $700,000 Indianapolis 500-mile auto race Tuesday. A 50-50 chance of showers, with temperatures in the 70s, is forecast for the Memorial Day speed contest which promises to unveil, before upward of 300,000 racing buffs, another mechanical revolution on the famed 2 1/2-mile Indy course. As a 133-hp, 133 m.p.h. qualifying speed, listens for Indianapolis Motor Speedway owner Tony Hulman's chant of "Gentlemen, start your engines" at 11 a.m. EST, all attention will focus on a glowing red low-slung roadster, No. 40—outside car on the second three-car line.

That's Jones' celebrated mount, the revolutionary STP turbine car which has caused as much turmoil as the now typical Indy starter—the rear-engined

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—If the forecast is correct, Tuesday's Memorial Day 500-mile auto race for the first time in over half a century, the event will be held Wednesday, weather permitting.

A 50-50 chance of showers was predicted for the 1st running of the motor classic. A Speedway spokesman said every effort will be made to run the 35-car race Tuesday, even if it starts as late as 3 p.m. EST. The spokesman also pointed out that any distance between 250 and 300 miles constitutes an official race.

Conditioning Of Rainbows Causes Study

Conditioning of catchable-sized trout planted by the Idaho Fish and Game Department will be studied in a season-long survey on Big Lost River this year. By making the fish exercise in raceways prior to planting time, the department hopes to increase their vigor and survival rate and return more of the fish to the angler's creel. Basically, the catchable-sized trout are conditioned by making the first swim harder than usual. This is accomplished by reducing the flow of water in the raceways, which also increases the flow velocity. This has been for about 20 minutes a day for a two-week period. The fish are forced to swim against the raceway current or be pushed into a ball at the end of the raceway. A comparison test was started on the Big Lost River last week when three separate test schools of 500 Rainbow trout each were specially marked and released. The first 500, conditioned over a two-week period, were marked with jaw tags and the second 500, exercised for one week, were marked by removing a fin on the stomach. The third group, not exercised, had a fin trimmed from the back. More fish will be similarly marked and released as water conditions in the river improve. A full time biologist will spend the entire summer compiling results of the survey through extensive creel checks. If, as the department hopes, the exercised fish show a greater survival and return rate, the conditioning could well become an integral part of the entire planting program statewide.

TAGGED AND CONDITIONED Rainbow trout get the flinging touch from Jim Dayley, superintendent of the Mackay fish hatchery. The fish, tagged in the lower jaw, was conditioned for two weeks in the raceway prior to planting in Big Lost River and the Idaho Fish and Game Department will keep a close creel check to see if the exercising program increases the trout, and if so, by how much, return to the creel. Victory Is Very Nice, Says Barber

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Miller Barber smiled in the sun, his victory Monday after beating Gary Player in a playoff of the 1964 U.S. Open Golf Tournament title after a delayed play of the final round for one hour and 45 minutes.

"I didn't remember it felt so good," said Barber, who rolled in a two-foot birdie putt on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff. "This is nice, I'm very, very pleased."

Barber's only other victory in a nine-year professional career was the 1964 U.S. Open. He was the underdog challenger as he steadily climbed to a tie with Player on the back nine, and then birdied the final hole to cause the playoff.

Player, golfing in the three-stroke front of Barber, finished with a birdie and had taken a momentary lead.

"It's kind of hard sitting there on No. 18 and knowing you've got to make a birdie to have a chance to win," Barber said. "This has given me a brighter outlook. Everybody has been saying I'm a loser."

"When you're as bad a player as I am, you need all the help you can get," Barber said. "But bad golf wasn't in Barber's bag of tricks during the four rounds and three extra holes here. He played steady, determined golf, finishing 10 strokes under par with a 218 total."

Barber and Player both had 68 Sunday, being tied by young David Stockton after 36 holes. Stockton opened strongly in the final round, going four strokes under par, but a 5-over-41 on the back 13 holes in the 18th hole.

George Archer had a 280 total, good for third place, and Billy Casper and Kermit Zarley were tied for fourth at 281. Barber, who fired a 67 Sunday, was tied for sixth at 283. First prize money was $12,000, and Player took home $7,920 for second.

Rain interrupted play while the leaders were on the front nine, but though heavy skies threatened, the tournament continued. By the time Barber clinched his spot on the 35th hole, the sun was shining. Barber's third hole, a birdie, secured the Quail Creek Golf and Country Club course.

Hole-In-One

Emmett Harrison connected for his first hole-in-one Sunday on the 18th hole at Blue Lakes Country Club.

Harrison used a seven iron from the 150-yard par three hole. He was playing in a foursome with Dick Dey, Harold Hove and Erle Hove.

Redlegs Rally In Ninth To Nip Cards 7-6

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dick Simpson's bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the ninth inning gave the Cincinnati Reds a 7-6 victory over St. Louis and a split in the doubleheader Monday night.

The Cardinals won the first game 7-1 on the sixth pitching of Bob Gibson and 11th-inning doubles by Tim McCarver and Julian Javier.

Tony Perez' leadoff triple in the ninth inning of the nightcap set up Simpson's game-winning blow. Two intentional walks loaded the bases and reliever Joe Horner struck out pinch hitter Jim Collier before Simpson delivered a fly to center field, scoring pinch runner Charlie Kruk from third.

Curt Flood, who drove in five St. Louis runs, hit a two-run homer in the seventh, lifting the Cardinals into a 6-6 tie. Cincinnati had moved in front with a three-run burst in the fifth.

Gibson struck out 12 Reds in the opener on the way to his 13th victory in 10 decisions. The Cardinals broke the 1-1 tie in the sixth when McCarver tied off with a double off reliever Don Natchez and Javier doubled him home.
