CSI Board OK's Budget, Levy To Pay Bonds Is Up

College of Southern Idaho trustees adopted a $1,258,345.51 budget Monday night, higher than last year's, but also reflecting a decrease in the maintenance and operation levy. The increase is largely because of a 5-mill levy for bonded indebtedness compared to the 2.2 mills levied last year for that purpose. Dr. James L. Taylor, college president, said he was hopeful that 3 mills would be the most the district would ever have to levy for bonded

City Gets Gift Of 19 Lots For Park Site

Deeded to 19 city lots, a gift appraised at $40,000, was presented to Twin Falls City officials Tuesday morning by the Boise Cascade Co. The land, located between Stadium Boulevard and Granada Drive, will be developed into a park and recreation facility to serve students of Twin Falls. Plans for presenting the gift to the city have been under way since housing development projects by Boise Cascade nearly two years ago. Accepting the gift from the officials of Boise-Cascade Co. were Egon Kroil, mayor, and Howard Allen, chairman of the city parks and recreation committee.

Youth Drowns While Swimming At Falls

Hunt Goes On For Missing Burley Child

BURLEY — The search for a small Burley child, missing since Sunday on the farm at his uncle and aunt along the Snake River, went into the third day Tuesday. Sheriff Ray Mitchell said officers and Burley city crews, assisted by friends and neighbors, are conducting search operations along the land and river for Jimmy Peacock, 3 1/2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Peacock, who are in Alaska. The boy was staying with Mr. and Mrs. Gale Burton, who live four miles west and one mile north of Burley along the river. The child was reported missing about 11 a.m. Sunday and the sheriff's office was notified at 12:30 p.m. Friends and neighbors have searched the hay and grain fields, as well as ditch banks but no trace of the missing child has been found. The boy has been found about a foot since the search operations began because of water released at American Falls.

City Commission Members Cooperate In Plans For Convention

City Commission members of Twin Falls would like to think they have a lot of influence. Plans were announced approximately a month ago for a barbecue on Thursday night at Shoshone Falls Park for delegates to the Association of Idaho Cities convention here. Monday night, City Commission Chairman Egon Kroil announced there will be more than 10,000 second feet of water going over the falls for the Thursday night event. Under questioning he admitted there was a certain amount of luck and influence by recent weather conditions involved in the plans. Approximately 400 delegates from city councils, commissions and department heads from throughout the state are expected to attend the convention, and Mr. Kroil, Sessions open in the Holiday Inn for the convention proper on Monday, with registration, a barbecue and special entertainment on Thursday. City clerks of Idaho will hold a separate one-day meeting at

Governor May Add More Emergency Measures During Special Session

By MARK BROWN BOISE (AP) — Possible enlargement of his official call to include further emergency measures was indicated today by Idaho Gov. Don W. Samuelson as the special session of the Idaho Legislature went into its second day. Samuelson said he would include at least one more item—correction of a typographical error which nullified one bill passed by the regular session. The chief executive told newsmen he also would hear from legislative leaders later today regarding other topics of "an emergency nature."

U.S. Rejects Demands For Punishing Israel

By WILLIAM L. RYAN UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States today rejected Soviet demands for punishment of Israel for the Middle East war and proposed a five-point program for peace based on Arab-Israeli negotiations with "appropriate" third party assistance. A measured response to Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin's attack on all U.S. foreign policies, Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg adopted an overall moderate tone in laying down the U.S. position on President Johnson's policy speech in Washington Monday. Kosygin arrived at the assembly hall late for resumption of the special-session debate on the Middle East crisis. He took his seat after Goldberg finished speaking. Goldberg rejected the Soviet proposal that Israel be condemned as an aggressor and

Registration Heavy At Nurse Workshop

Nurses from throughout the state continued to register Tuesday morning during the final day of a workshop being conducted at the Holiday Inn. Mrs. Fern Honderich, Twin Falls, one of the conference directors, said that registration for the two-day affair was exceeding all expectations. A registration of 80-100 had been predicted, but by early Tuesday morning about 120 had registered.

Resolutions Passed At City Session

A resolution authorizing the city of Twin Falls to file an objection to the application of West Coast Airlines for a change in service pattern was approved Monday night by the board of City Commissioners. The resolution, the city called for objection to the proposed change in that it includes a fly-over of Twin Falls with DC-9 equipment which the city feared could be permanent. If the application should be granted, the city asks it be on a temporary basis only and that it be able to provide adequate airport facilities for jet service. The resolution of objection, Ed Woods, airport manager explained, will give the city a voice in the matter and if it is considered favorably, will probably mean CATS hearings on the airline's request. In a second resolution, the city called on the Idaho Department of Highways to make necessary changes in U.S. Highway 20 routing through Twin Falls in order to put the city's comprehensive downtown plan into operation. City officials also set July 28 as the date for opening Lids for

"Safe And Sane" Fireworks Should Be Plentiful Here

Fireworks should be as plentiful as the Twin Falls city ordinance was adopted last week requiring permits be issued for such sales. The ordinance will be enforced, officials said. "Among organizations planning fireworks sales are the Twin Falls Jaycees with a mobile stand which will operate from 8 to 8 p.m. each day at Perrine Memorial bridge. Other permits have been requested from the city by local Boy Scouts groups, LDS church organizations, the E-X-A-N-G-O Club and several stores.

STILL REGISTERING for the nurses' workshop being conducted at the Holiday Inn are nurses from throughout the state. By early Tuesday morning about 120 people had registered for the two-day affair. Serving at the registration table are, from left, Mrs. Fern Honderich and Mrs. Elizabeth Pritz, as Naomi Lewis, Burley, signs in.

JUST A SHADE TOO LONG and a shade too light, according to Idaho State Patrolman Ron Grove who recently stopped a motorcycle displaying a phony 1967 license plate. The valid plate, top, is compared to the altered plate by Officer Grove.

"Do-It-Yourself" Tag Is Costly

The men at Idaho State Police District No. 4 headquarters at Twin Falls are keeping a phony 1967 motorcycle plate as a reminder of the "do-it-yourself" tag which was recently stopped for a normal traffic citation.

State Patrolman Ron Grove, who stopped the 25-year-old Twin Falls man, said he originally pulled the cyclist over because he was using no muffler on his motorcycle.

However, the cyclist wound up with a double citation—one for no muffler and one for fictitious display of a license plate.

The plate displayed properly on the rear of the cycle, was not, however, a proper 1967 plate. In fact, the 1966 plate painted over to resemble this year's tag.

The 1966 plate originally had a white background and dark green letters. It had been painted with a green background and white letters to resemble a 1967 plate. However, whoever had painted it—the cyclist—claimed he hadn't, but had purchased the cycle with the plate on it—had forgotten several important items.

The cyclist admitted he was aware the phony plate was on his vehicle, but refused to take credit for the paint job. The green was not quite dark enough; the 1966 plate was longer than the 1967; no white border was painted around the edges; numbers on the 1967 plates are narrower and blockier, and that law enforcement officers are trained to notice license plates are a few of the overlooked items.

Patrolman Grove said that about the first thing an officer notices about a vehicle is the license plate and that nearly every plate he sees during his duty hours is observed. He said this "matter of course" and aids in recovery of stolen cars, etc.

Anybody displaying fictitious plates, whether stolen, borrowed or altered, runs the risk of being discovered. Each time a car is stopped, goes through a road block or becomes suspect, an officer radios to his home station for a registration check which will quickly determine if the plate is being displayed properly or on the right vehicle.

"The penalties for displaying fraudulent plates," Officer Grove noted, "will exceed the cost of a valid set of plates."

"The only time a vehicle need not be licensed is when it is operated on private property and is not driven on any public street or highway," he further noted.

The phony 1967 plate in this instance, cost the cyclist $53 plus $5 cost in Twin Falls Justice Court, plus $5 for a valid 1967 plate.

"Take good care of my $55 license plate," was his parting shot to Patrolman Grove as he left court.

County Office Busy With Court Changes

House Bill 68, passed in the regular session of the 1967 Idaho legislature will become effective July 1, bringing a number of changes in the Twin Falls County Clerk's office and court rooms.

The bill will create the Fifth Judicial District from the present Eleventh and Third Districts. Headquarters for the new district will be in Twin Falls, where the Seventh Judicial District is now headquartered.

As a result, Clerk Harold Lancaster said, his office has been busy most of the past few weeks changing official court stamps, seals, files and all official papers which now show Eleventh Judicial District to Fifth Judicial District.

The law provides for two judges in Twin Falls, one in the Burley-Rupert area and another in the Gooding-Camas and Blaine county region. Judge Scoggins now holds court in Gooding and Judge Bellwood in Burley.

The new Fifth Judicial District will cover the counties of Twin Falls, Cassia, Minidoka, Camas, Gooding, Lincoln, Blaine and Jerome.

Four official county seals have been made up and other preparations made in Twin Falls for the new district. Cleo Robinson, deputy clerk serving Judge Lancaster said, "but this is just one of several additional duties."

Vintage Auto Caravan Will Cross Canada

If touring Canada this summer, vacationers might watch for an unusual caravan of 15 vintage vehicles which will be making a 9,000-mile trip across that country.

The caravan will leave Victoria July 8 with Roger Bellfry, Toronto, in a 1963 Cadillac in the lead. Also included in the caravan will be Ron Wallis, of Watford, Ontario, in a 1916 McLaughlin, and Gordon E. Smith, Orillia, Ontario, in a 1914 Tudehope. The group will travel to the Atlantic Coast of Nova Scotia.

In addition to the 15 regular vehicles, approximately 200 other vintage cars will join the group for brief sections of the trip.

The tour is part of an effort to unite Canada's antique automobile clubs and commemorate Canada's centennial. The tour is sponsored by Valvoline Oil Co. of Canada and will be highlighted by special welcoming events throughout the route.

Wildflower Garden Created At Craters By Spring Rain

ARC—A vast, natural wildflower garden at Craters of the Moon National Monument has been created, due to recent spring rains. Supp. Paul Felts announced Monday.

Many plants are beginning to poke their flowery crowns through the cinders and lava, adding contrasting colors of the rainbow to the usual landscape of black and green, such as those of the cream-colored buckwheat, yellow bitterbrush and balsam root, red dwarf monkey flower, blue scorpion weed and pentstemon, and scarlet larkspur.

The visitor center is open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. Illustrated programs depicting the geology and animal and plant life of the area are shown nightly at the campfire circle.

"We hope we will be able to handle the change without any additional personnel," Mr. Lancaster said, "but this is just one of several additional duties."

them, and if payments are delinquent, the clerks must notify the prosecuting attorney so that proper action can be taken.

Still another project must be undertaken this year. Through phase out of inventory tax, clerks must review the entire tax lists, making abstracts on which to submit replacement requests from the sales tax revenue.

Mr. Lancaster said his office and that of Assessor Clifford Thompson, have been making reviews of the late rolls for some time in order to determine how much each taxing agency has been receiving from the specific tax and how it will be replaced.

WASHINGTON — As an un-reconstructed square, I'm afraid I can't accept the solution to racial unrest and riots in Boston proposed to a New York Times reporter by some of the youth who took part in the recent orgy of destruction and looting in a world of compromise, they would settle on their own terms.

"Give us the money" said one of the teen-agers, "and we'll get up our own poverty program. We don't want those jobs anyhow. You can't give us a job, you can't give us nothing. If they want to give us a job, they have to make us good jobs, where we can make some money."

As well as an arrogant quality, because although it is a crime for today's teen-agers to be old-fashioned, there is nothing new in it. As far back as Cain, youth has deposed that the world owed it a living. The difference is that in the bad old days he told them that when they'd finished talking adolescent twaddle to get on with stacking the wood behind the house, and if they went out into the street and started throwing bottles and rocks at the cops they first got tugged in the jug and then suffered a taste of his rope strap.

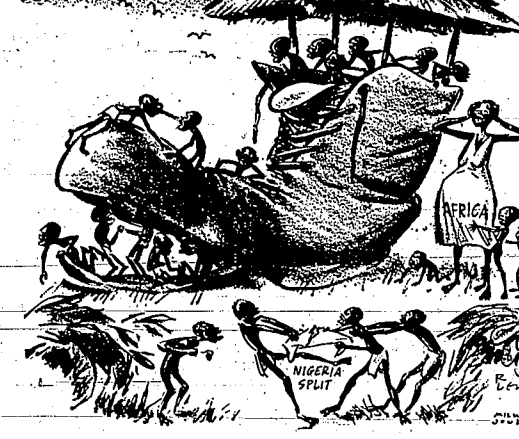

It was explained to these would-be bureaucrats that one is going to give them money to start their own poverty program. "Then," retorted one youth, "maybe we don't work." It seems the teen-agers regard the poverty program as a pacifier, and they are probably right, since we are embarked on a nation-wide policy of trying to get junior quiet.

Possibly that is one of the reasons why the District of Columbia can't collect the trash of its 100,000 paying citizens. At least the explanation is that they can't hire enough workers at $2.50 an hour. "Nobody would listen to us," explained one of the Boston rioters. "Nobody ever bothered to ask us what we wanted or how we felt. Well, we're speaking to ourselves now. Maybe this time they'll listen." And at a luncheon meeting called to discuss the problem, the consensus was that the teen-agers felt neglected.

Along so well with his kids. "I'm bigger than they are," replied Hart tersely. "And they're bigger than I am." While our Negro youth seems determined to make the fatal error of challenging adult authority by the clash between that apostle of unrest, Stokely Carmichael, and police officers in Prattville, Ala., Carmichael was arrested after he allegedly told the chief of police, "We came here to tear this town up and we're going to tear it up."

The Rights Have It

Once again the Supreme Court, by virtue of a 5-4 majority, has reversed all previous courts and rendered a decision which is nothing less than a fundamental reinterpretation of the Constitution. In the case of one Beys Afroyim, a naturalized American whose citizenship had been revoked because he voted in a foreign election, the court has in effect declared that citizenship is something that may not be taken away by any power for any reason that it may be lost only through the conscious renunciation of the person who holds it. At first sight, this would seem to be conferring official blessing on treason. A little reflection shows that it does nothing of the kind. The laws against treason still stand, and a man convicted and imprisoned for treason (or any other crime for that matter) still loses all the prerogatives of citizenship.

Old Woman In A Shoe

RAY CROMLEY

MARQUIS CHILDS Nit-Picking Head

WASHINGTON — In the nit-picking sweepstakes Rep. H. Johnson is in a class by himself. He proved again the other day that he has no real contenders in this important Congressional category. The distinguished representative from Iowa, as Congressional parlance has it, was coming over the list of "specialists" sent by the State Department to various countries as examples of America's culture and intellect. He came upon an item that sent him charging into action with his customary zeal. The Department had spent $386 plus $362 sending Chief Justice Earl Warren and his wife to tour South American countries. He added up $948, said the gentleman from Iowa, for a junket to South America for the Chief Justice and Mrs. Warren.

Another Secret

Ants, horseshoe crabs, bees and caterpillars are anthropods. In their compound eyes there is a reaction that makes it possible for them to guide themselves with polar light when the sun is not visible. The anthropod needs only a small patch of blue sky for his "light compass." It is a delicate device that human navigators do like to have, particularly for use in polar zones. There the magnetic compass is defective, and as winter comes on there is a long gap between the setting of the sun and the appearance of the first star. The anthropod sensitivity to polar light, if it could be reproduced in a man-made instrument, would be a boon to navigators of ships and aircraft. The animal kingdom has already supplied man with much of what he knows, about the functioning of his own body. Observation of non-human creatures has provided important clues in the study of disease and psychology. And didn't the birds teach man to fly?

Good Reserves Key In Victory

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The efficiency and quick-reaction ability of Israel's army raises doubts about some of Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's military cost-effectiveness methods. These doubts are especially pertinent at this time when McNamara is again attempting to remodel the Army Reserves. The Israeli army that performed so well against Egypt was largely an army of reservists. Israel's standing army was only 80,000 men. The 200,000-man army that swept into Egypt and Israel was almost two-thirds citizen reservists, 120,000 of whom were mobilized from their civilian jobs and in action in a few days. These reservists thus served immediately as integral parts of the Israeli combat forces and, in fact formed the bulk of the combat troops. In the Israeli army there is no differentiation of status between reserves and professional soldiers, reports one U.S. Army officer with extensive knowledge of the Israeli army. Professional officers are obtained from the ranks. Israel draftees are called in at age 18. Then, after 20 months of service, they go into the reserve where they have 31 days of active duty a year, plus an extra day of month for special training or security duty. This goes on until age 30. Then, from 40 until age 45, the reservists have 14 days of active duty a year. Reserve officers have even more training. Israel's reserve officers, non-commissioned officers and enlisted men have the training nor the equipment to keep up with their specialties. In fact, about half the Army reservists aren't even in units. They're in a pool or in the Standby Reserve. Under McNamara's newest Reserve revision plan, most combat veterans likely will go into this pool, where their military skills will gradually deteriorate. Most will not keep up their military specialties. Few will keep up with technical advances. It is common talk in the Pentagon that a heavy chunk of Reserve officers will not be called up in any except crisis if the Department of Defense can prevent it. "The Defense officials quote after case of officers so out of date in their knowledge that they would be of little use in war. This is not fair to the loyal Reserve officers, noncommissioned officers and enlisted men of the country. The case of Israel shows that this need not be so. Most reservists are sincere, conscientious men who want to do a job. But more than half of McNamara's Army Reserves are given neither the training nor the equipment to keep up with their specialties. MR. SPECTATOR Autumn: Can It Be Here Now?

For weeks now people have been complaining about the weather. Mostly it was just too cold and miserable. So what happens? Here is the first day of Summer and some people are past that by far. They are living in Autumn right now. At least one downtown merchant who had a wonderful window display all last week on Monday. It was a beautiful window, colorful, in good taste and all the rest. One only thing is wrong, in my way of thinking. This window is a display of clothing for Fall — for women, of course. Now here we are just barely starting summer, after everyone was up in the air because of no spring and this fellow is ready for Autumn. We'll never understand it. Or are we supposed to?

JAMES MARLOW Cynicism--Part Of The U. N.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Before the end of the Israel-Egyptian war debate in the U.N. General Assembly, the United States and the Soviet Union may get along better or worse. It's that unpredictable. But cynicism is part of the bloodstream of the United Nations. Which, at the time of its creation in 1945, looked like a holy of holies, or so the world hoped. The Soviets, who promised the Arabs their support if they got into war with Israel, did nothing except piously protest violence when the war came and the Israelis demolished the Egyptian desert. This cost the Soviets dearly in Arab confidence. So what they did when the quick war ended was obvious: They set out to recapture Arab goodwill by making the U.N. Security Council to condemn Israel as an aggressor and demand that it withdraw from the Arab lands it seized. The Soviets lost on this maneuver in the council when a majority of the 18 members, on the southern coast of India, refused to go along. So then Moscow asked the full Assembly to do what the council refused to do. This was a switch. In 1961, when India overran the Portuguese enclave of Goa-Daman-Diu on the southern coast of India, the Security Council held since the 18th century, the United States, Britain and France asked the Security Council to condemn India's aggression and demand it withdraw. The Soviets, who had praised the Indian action, vetoed this proposal. Egypt also opposed it. In 1956, when Moscow sent its army into Hungary to crush the anti-Communist revolt there, the United States asked the Security Council, with the support of the dominant forces, to demand the action and demand Soviet withdrawal. Moscow vetoed this. In the General Assembly, the Soviets may try to fry a lot of fish, posing as a friend of the Arabs, it can seek to undo the damage done by its pro-Israel and anti-Arab, which the Arabs think is its way. For the Soviets this is the result of the United States out of the Middle East, which doesn't seem likely and made itself the dominant force. But the unpredictability in all this are endless. Soviet-American relations have been improving, and the Soviets showed respect for the restraint when the Middle East war broke out. It's possible that, while trying to endear themselves to the Arabs all over again by castigating Israel, they will try to avoid anything that would anger the United States. It seems likely that an order that the General Assembly says about the Israeli-Arab war

Wayne Brandstadt, M.D. About Arthritis

Q. What would cause pain, stiffness and swelling of my fingers? Is there a vaccine for this? When I use the typewriter my fingers are stiff as a little. Is this good treatment? A. The cause is some form of arthritis — most likely osteoarthritis. Since this is not an infectious disease, a protective vaccine for it. Taping your fingers to reduce the mobility of the painful points while you type may help. You don't tape them so tight you cut down on the circulation. At other times you should move your joints to prevent over-constriction. Q. Is it possible to have arthritis of the stomach or the head? A. No. Arthritis is an inflammation of the joints. Most persons with this disease have no stomach for it. If they have it in the head it would more properly be called arthritis of the jaw. Q. Will drinking cranberry juice benefit arthritis? If not, is there any food or drink that will be helpful to eat citrus fruits? A. No to all three questions. Beneficial results from vinegar, honey, cranberry juice, or what

TIME OF YEAR Dear Spectator: This seems to be the time of year when everyone is doing their kind (?) deed of dumping dogs. We have assumed one, but the lady's Terrier type mother and four cats and small puppy. Also have another dog that has long hair and black hair (some white) and is medium sized — not a puppy. We need to much to find homes for these poor dogs. Will you have anyone who needs a good dog give us a call at 633-8803. Mr. & Mrs. Arnold Svanovra R. Three, Juhl. YOU'RE RIGHT! This raising the price of coffee from 10 cents to 15 cents will accomplish one thing. The local businesses — like the banks and the newspaper where they have their own coffee rooms — will see a bigger crowd walk down the street and pay 15 cents for a cup when you can stay in a nice place where you work and get it for nothing. Of course, if this doesn't excite you, there are a few places which charge only a dime and fill up your cup as many times as you wish. So there! ... Coffee Cup

Mrs. Moore Is Hostess For Crest-View Unit

RUPERT — The Crest-View 58er Club met recently at the home of Mrs. James Moore with Mrs. Ed Gentry as co-hostess.

Guests were Mrs. Virgil and her daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Howard, and Mrs. Hazel Burgess, Mrs. Newell Maxfield, Judy Moore and Joann Kalkse.

Mrs. Denn and Mrs. Howard demonstrated frosting and decorating cakes, and members tried their hands at the art of the cakes they had brought. Mrs. Howard furnished one of her decorated cakes as a special prize, and it was won by Mrs. Joe Tommings.

Most of the cakes were used in observance of birthday anniversaries for Barbara Schenk, daughter of a club member, Mrs. Robert Schenk, and Mrs. Olga Whaley. Miss Kalkse took pictures of the cakes for the club scrapbook.

Preliminary plans were made for a community picnic to be held in July at Neptune Park in Rupert, with date and details to be announced.

Joseph Schenk, community service chairman, reported on the club project for obtaining a dumping ground for the community. He said that Jerome County officials have not yet designated an area for the project.

Membership attendance teams for the year were announced, with the club president, Mrs. Merrill Maxfield, to head one team, and the other team headed by Mrs. Kalkse, vice president.

At the July 13 meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Webster, Mrs. Morris Murphy is co-hostess and the lesson will be "New Fabrics."

SOURDOUGH BISCUITS from an old Idaho pioneer recipe were tested by Mrs. Ralph Hull, Boise, left, for inclusion in the Idaho Historical Auxiliary cookbook to be published in the autumn. Mrs. Charles Mertel, center, tested a 100-year-old recipe for boiled salad dressing and Mrs. Bradford Shaw, chairman, made up the recipe for Indian Stew.

Late Fall Publication-Set For All-Idaho Cookbook

BY BETTY PENSON BOISE—An exhibit of an early day Idaho ranch kitchen (circa 1850) now being completed in the Idaho State Museum here has inspired the women of the Idaho Historical Auxiliary to compile an all-Idaho cookbook for publication late this fall.

In addition to recipes from women throughout the state, the book will be an almanac-type and will include home remedies of yesteryear, pioneer etiquette, and anecdotal material drawn from state historical societies and descendants of early day families in various areas.

"We cordially invite any and all relevant contributions," said Mrs. Bradford Shaw, Boise, chairman. "They will be studied by an editing and testing committee for inclusion in the book."

She requests "the name of the donor and any background material on the origin of the recipe or article."

Many of the recipes also will be from prominent living Idahoans (such as governor's wives, college presidents' wives, etc.).

There will be special sections on recipes brought to Idaho by settlers from other nations, such as the Chinese, Finnish, Irish and Basque.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Several months ago we learned that our baby was retarded. We were stunned and heartbroken, and all we could do was pray for the strength to do everything we could for him. According to our doctor, a retarded child has a better start in life if he lives at home, so we decided to keep him home.

"Abby, you wouldn't believe the remarks made to us by friends: 'Why don't you put him in an institution? He'll be better off with his own kind.' And 'Aren't your other children embarrassed by him?' Abby, our other children are not embarrassed. If anything, it has given them a better understanding of life and problems and how to accept the inevitable.

There are dark moments, of course, but what I really want to convey is that a retarded child needs love and affection as much—if not more—than a normal child. And more people should realize that it means more to parents of a retarded child to have their friends inquire about him. It is so much kinder than all the hypocritical evasions and pretenses that the child is normal.

Just putting this down on paper has made me feel so much better. Thank you.

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Thank you for your wonderful letter. Millions of people will see it, and you will never know how kind and how much your retarded child has inspired in otherwise well-meaning, but thoughtless people.

DEAR ABBY: I am buying a house from a friend of mine for $55,000. He asked me if I would do him a favor and state the price of the house as $35,000 in the agreement of the sale, and give him the balance in cash.

He said he didn't want his wife to know how much he was actually getting for the house because she's the kind who spends a thousand if she thinks they have a hundred.

Would there be anything wrong with my doing this for him as a favor?

3 Water System Contracts Move Ahead At Full Speed

All three contracts currently under way on the Twin Falls water improvement program are moving ahead at full speed. City officials in a progress report Monday night.

No suggested city commissioners and other interested persons visit the site of the new water storage reservoir on Harrison Street and Ellis Avenue.

Mr. Derrick explained the reservoir is being built in a unique manner. A steel tank which operates on a metal track is used by workmen in applying gunnite by spray. One-fifth of the tank is being built at a time and framework supports the gunnite material until it is sprayed and dried. Then frame structures are removed and another section is set up and sprayed.

Officials of Crom Prestressing Inc., contractors for the storage tank, said the walls will be 11 inches thick at the base and five inches at the top.

On the inside of the tank, a one-inch gunnite lining will be applied. The dome-shaped roof will be three inches thick at the center and will be applied in a similar manner.

Mr. Derrick said Kloepper Construction Co., Logan, Utah, building the pipeline, has now almost completed the large line on Washington Street and has completed the intake structure in the canyon. The line from the intake structure to the canyon, one in the next project, he said.

Olsen Construction Co., Logan, Utah, is now pouring floors and walls for the third and final phase of the water project, Mr. Derrick said. Plans and specifications for the water project, Mr. Derrick said, are now en route to San Francisco for approval by the Housing and Urban Development Agency. They have been approved by the state health department.

This should mean, Mr. Derrick added, that bids can be called for on the final phase within the near future.

In another report, city officials heard that the old wooden line from the present reservoir south of Twin Falls to the city is still in use under emergency measures. Officials hope to nurse the old line through the summer and then retire it in favor of the new system. Approximately 200 man hours of labor went into repairing continuous breaks in the line during the past month.

Miss T. F. 1967?

... a University of Utah junior studying in graphic design, will make her bid for the Miss Twin Falls title during the annual pageant Thursday at the site of the new water storage reservoir on Harrison Street. A 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Adamson, 320 Locust St., she lists her hobbies as stiling, swimming, photography and "getting nearby loved Jerry riders to the neighborhood gang." Miss Adamson is a member of an LDS singing party, the Birth Ahman Girls Choir. One of the taller Miss Twin Falls contestants at five feet, ten and one-half inches, she is carrying a minor in French at the U of U and plans to get a secondary teacher's certificate.

Mariner 5 Corrects Its Course

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Mariner 5 pitched, rolled and burned its on-board rocket for 17.58 seconds.

With the delicate maneuver Monday it corrected its path toward Venus and streaked at 6,680 miles-an-hour toward a target centered 1,250 miles off the planet's surface.

The maneuver was commanded by mission control at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory on earth, 30,000 miles away.

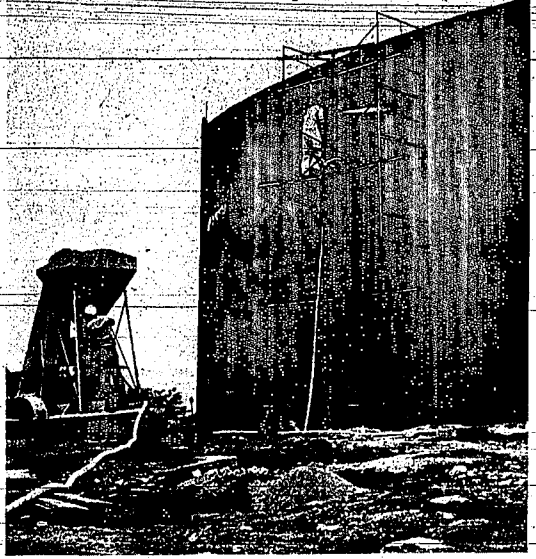

Officials said all signals from the 540-pound voyager to Venus indicated it had functioned precisely as ordered.

Launched from Cape Kennedy a week ago today, the probe was aimed initially at a point 43,200 miles from the cloud-shrouded planet. This was partly to prevent the craft from crashing onto Venus and contaminating it with earthly microorganisms.

The new target area is 2,500 miles long, 800 miles wide.

Officials said a second mid-course maneuver can be commanded if necessary in the 216-million-mile curving flight to intercept Venus half way around the sun.

The Soviet Union was silent on the status of its own Venus probe, launched two days before Mariner 5.

WORKMAN FOR THE Crom Prestressing Co. sprays gunnite to form the exterior wall of the new five-million-gallon water storage tank on Falls Avenue. The tank is being built in five sections—the first section above is nearing completion. The gunnite spray is worked over the framework until it builds up necessary width. When one section is completed, another is started.

Rusty Equipment Seen In Vietnam

By WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate investigator says broken-down equipment is being rusted and rotted in Vietnam because repairs paid for by the United States were left undone. The Senate subcommittee on foreign aid expenditures plans to open hearings July 27 on that and other allegedly unfulfilled repair contracts involving a $400-million Agency for International Development program in Asia and Europe.

"They are paying millions of dollars for repair of equipment that has not been properly repaired," said Joseph Lippman, the subcommittee's staff director.

The inquiry stems from an inspection trip in Europe by Lippman and the committee's chairman, Ernest Gruening, of Alaska, and a separate trip by Lippman to Asia.

Lippman told an interviewer there is evidence that repair work financed by the Agency for International Development in both areas is being done unsatisfactorily or not at all.

The program involves reclaiming and repairing for foreign use construction equipment, cranes, trucks and jeeps declared surplus by the armed services.

Lippman said this equipment is sent to AID depots or contractors in Yokohama, Japan; Inchon, Korea; Okinawa; Amsterdam, The Netherlands; and Rome, Spain.

More than $2.5 million in work on equipment destined for Vietnam has been unsatisfactory, Lippman said.

At one area in Saigon, Lippman said he saw some 500 pieces of construction equipment vehicles, all of them unusable.

"It had been repaired, supposedly put into good operating condition," he said. "It's all inoperative. None of the stuff works."

Lippman said the cranes are needed to unload supplies for AID programs in Vietnam, and the construction equipment is used on civil works projects, some linked with the pacification program.

The equipment was shipped out, into the countryside before it was found to be unusable, Lippman said. "The information regarding the condition of the pieces of the villages are virtually littered with broken-down pieces of equipment."

It was there, he said, that Lippman, because of the expense involved in shipping it out again for repair,

"I had been receiving similar reports from Thailand, including one from an AID contractor who said supposedly repaired equipment had been given nothing more than a coat of paint."

Another complaint came from

Frankfurt, Germany. An AID official there said out of 76 jeep engines repaired under contract, only four were in good working order.

"I've got a list after list of things from these countries of equipment that is in lousy shape," Lippman said.

In each instance, he said, the contractor has certified the work has been done and an AID Inspector has certified it is satisfactory. Lippman said the Agency for International Development now is conducting its own investigation of the situation.

Senate Debate On Sen. Dodd's Censure Is Snagged In Procedural Wrangle

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate debate on proposed censure of Sen. Dodd is snagged in a procedural wrangle that Senate Democrats leader Mike Mansfield says could last all week.

Chances for an early vote on the censure resolution dimmed Monday as Sen. Russell B. Long, self-appointed defender of Dodd, renewed his demand for a vote first on the charge that the Communist Democrat knowingly doubled the Senate and private groups for travel expenses.

The Senate ethics committee, which recommended Dodd's censure for what it called fiscal misconduct, remains undecided whether to indicate readiness to separate the charge that Dodd converted at least $116,803 in political funds to his personal use.

Long, D-La., said he has no intention of filibustering. But neither did he indicate readiness to yield the floor until his colleagues agree to vote first on the double-billing point.

Long said he expects the Senate to reject the double-billing charge and contended it was unfair to leave it hanging over Dodd while the other charge is debated.

Mansfield met Monday with Everett M. Dirksen, Republican, and John Stennis, D-Miss., of the ethics committee to try to break the impasse.

"We got together but we didn't get anywhere," Mansfield later told reporters. "But he said efforts would continue."

Long needs the Senate's unanimous consent to reverse the order of vote on the charges leveled by the committee. When he asked for it last week, members of the ethics panel objected.

Mansfield said he would be willing to vote on the double-billing charge first if an agreement could be obtained to follow this, after three or four hours of additional debate, with a vote on the other charge as it now stands.

Long maintained that if the double-billing charge were rejected, a couple of days should be allowed for additional debate on the charge Dodd used campaign contributions and the proceeds of political testimonies for personal expenses.

Long indicated he plans to offer softening amendments, and probably a substitute, in this court.

But he said if the vote went against Dodd on the double-billing court, this would indicate Senate sentiment and he would like to have little time in arguing further against the other charge.

Guardsmen, Reservists Ranks Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says it has sharply reduced the number of Army National Guard and Army Reserve units that have not received active duty training, a problem Congress had expressed concern about.

As of May 31 there were 10,400 units in the Guard and Reserves, but now there are 5,300 and most of them will begin training in July, the Pentagon said.

The problem was worse a year ago when 153,000 men were awaiting training.

The Defense Department said the backlog developed because Army training camps were filled with draftees and recruits undergoing training for Vietnam and for service elsewhere. This situation has eased enough to eliminate the backlog, the Pentagon explained.

De Gaulle Is Opposing Market Entry

PARIS (AP) — French sources say President Charles de Gaulle's basic opposition to British entry into the European Common Market was reiterated by his talks Monday and today with Prime Minister Harold Wilson.

De Gaulle was reported holding to the view that the British request must be thoroughly discussed by the six present Common Market members and that negotiations on the British application for membership would begin soon.

The two leaders also discussed the Arab-Israeli issues before the U.N. General Assembly, Rep. Charles Hart was quoted as saying.

Both Wilson and De Gaulle were believed to have decided against visiting each other in an attempt to meet with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and President Johnson for Five Four talks on the Middle East. The French reported De Gaulle is disinclined to lend his prestige to what appears to him to be a propaganda circus at which Wilson left for London today.

NBC Attacks Garrison's Case On Shaw

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Broadcasting Co. said it would fight an Oregon district judge's ruling that it may pay Garrison $100,000 to shut his case against Jack L. Shaw on testimony that did not pass muster in court and that Garrison knew this.

Shaw, a retired New Orleans businessman, is under indictment there on charges of conspiracy to kidnap Lee Harvey Oswald and that he was involved in Dallas in 1963.

Garrison disputes the Warren Commission finding that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in the assassination of John F. Kennedy's killer, contending that the assassination was the result of a conspiracy.

NBC said that the case of Garrison's four months of public investigation "have been to damage reputations, to spread fear and suspicion and to exploit the nation's sorrow and doubts about President Kennedy's death."

Garrison, who sought in vain to sue NBC for its coverage of his work program, entitled "The JFK Conspiracy: The Case of John Garrison," said in New Orleans Monday that he cannot say if this effort to derail the prosecution's case simply confirms the fact that my office has uncovered the plot which led to Dallas and that there are men in Washington, D.C., who know it."

At the conclusion of the hour-long program, NBC commentator Mike Sumner said: "We cannot say that the murder of John F. Kennedy did not happen the way Jim Garrison says it did. We cannot say it did not have the evidence to prove it."

"We can say this: the case he has brought to the courts has been based on testimony that did not pass a lie detector test. Garrison knew it and he admitted he was going to lie."

The driver and his two passengers, Carmen Giles, 52, and Roy E. Barker, 45, both Carlin, suffered minor injuries, but were not hospitalized.

Young Republicans Shy Away From Candidate Commitments

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Young Republican leaders kept away today from public commitments to potential GOP presidential candidates as they grapple with the problem of their relationship with senior party leaders.

"Although Reagan in his signs made their appearance in the convention headquarters hotel, there was demonstrated reluctance on the part of influential members of the Young Republican National Federation to step up and be counted for nomination."

Among the conservatives who have dominated this organization for four years, there was evidence of some developing support for Gov. Ronald Reagan of California as a possible 1968 choice. This represented something of a reversal from the former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The young moderates, or liberals, supporting the Michigan Romanus of Michigan as President Johnson's possible opponent, said privately that the younger group does not seem to be getting off the ground. Here and there they speculated about Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois.

There was general agreement that Romney and other applicants are going to have to demonstrate a winning stance in next year's primaries, including Nebraska's free-for-all, if they expect to bid strongly for the 1968 campaign is at stake in a proposed constitutional change which would give Ray Bliss, national chairman, a veto over the appointment of its executive secretary, representation on the federation's executive board and a national maximum of 35 on the age of members.

McDonald has some reservations about these changes but he is a supporter generally of most of them.

Peter Kohler of Wisconsin, candidate for treasurer, has said that there is a vacuum on the senior party leadership and we have to fill it."

Ben Sinclair of Pennsylvania, Kohler's opponent, said he supports Bliss' position that the federation should be a campaign adjunct to the national committee and not try to set Republican policy.

Queen Expected To Choose Convertible

RUPERT — The new Miss Idaho will have her choice of Oldsmobile models to drive during her coronation pageant throughout the state, and her father said, "Knowing Kris, my guess is that she'll choose a convertible, at least for the summer."

She trades in the car every time she has driven three or four thousand miles.

The five-foot, seven-inch, green-eyed blonde, Kristin Phillips, was expected to arrive home in Rupert Tuesday afternoon, returning with the Miss Idaho crown following her victory at the Boise pageant Saturday night.

The talented miss measures 36-22-34 and is 19 years of age. She is the daughter of Dr. R. C. Phillips, Rupert, and Mrs. Mildred Phillips, Ogden.

Her father said that when the television cameras shut off Saturday night such a swarm of people surrounded his daughter that he had to get her out of the house, and by that time she had calmed down quite a bit.

She was overwhelmed with autograph seekers, newspaper, radio and television interviewers, photographers, other contestants and a multitude of well-wishers.

She has since been involved in signing contracts and getting acquainted with some of the sponsors of the reigning queen. On Sunday she attended an awards luncheon for all contestants and among other things she won a $200 Peppy Golf scholarship, and a $300 scholarship from Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Schooner.

Mr. Schooner is a former chairman of the board of directors of the Idaho First National Bank.

Sunday afternoon the new Miss Idaho was crowned by the father who attended the wedding of the reigning queen, Cheryl Couch, Twin Falls.

In her short address to the local crowd she thanked her father and mother and expressed her enjoyment in associating with the girls and boys of her county and friends, and she said, "It will be a great challenge to represent you as Miss Idaho." She also thanked her father for the Boise pageant, Mrs. Doris Miller, Boise.

The Rupert girl took an early lead in the contest when she was named winner of Thursday night's swim suit competition, and the following night she was named winner of the formal gown in white crepe, the same gown she used for the local pageant. The gown was fashioned by Mrs. Phillip and the pageant crown and she wore a navy blue and short sleeves. A panel formed from the waist-in-back to a short train was lined in pink and she wore a narrow pink ribbon at her waist.

Kris appeared in a plain white bathing suit which tied with a bow at the rear.

During the talent portion of the show she played a medley of her own arrangements on organ including "Two Tons," "Star Dust" and "King of the Road." She has studied organ for eight years and piano for 12 years.

Although her father admitted to some "prejudice" he said he felt the success of the pageant was with Kris and they were pulling for her to win.

"We had no such plans as a trip to Atlantic City, but we went to Boise last week, but we are hoping to work them into our fall schedule," he said. In speaking of his daughter's talent, Dr. Phillips said he had absolutely no prejudice concerning her singing ability.

"She is an atrocious singer," he said.

Kris wore a pink knee-length tent dress with ruby colored pendant necklace by her talent portion.

She was valedictorian of her high school graduating class at Ben Lomond High School, Ogden. Phillips said he had absolutely no prejudice concerning her academic record and her participation in extracurricular activities. For the past year she has studied optometry at Utah State University in Logan, Utah, following in her father's footsteps.

Her new title she holds has changed some of her future plans. She had registered for summer school at USU and she will be required to use her scholarship in Idaho schools. The nearest optometric college is at Pacific University in Forest Grove, Ore.

Her duties as royally begin immediately, as she will be in Boise next week for installation of officers for the Lions Club, sponsors of the state pageant—in two weeks she will attend the state pageant in Boise meeting in Chicago, and she will be the first Miss Idaho to be included in this national meet.

Other appearances by the new beauty will be arranged by the Boise Lions Club.

Kris' sister, Kathy, Mrs. Parnell Green, Layton, Utah, who is six years her senior and the mother of two children, was followed following the pageant if she planned to follow in her sister's footsteps and enter the pageant in a year or two. She looks much younger than Kris, according to their father.

Miss Phillips will represent Idaho in the Miss America pageant Sept. 4-10 in Atlantic City, N.J. She will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Creek, Boise, in the flight to the pageant city, and there she will be met by her official Miss America hostess. Both of her parents plan to be in the east for the national show.

No Comment Offered On Fight Report

ATLANTA (AP) — Officials of the Atlanta Branch of the National Amateurs Athletic Association Monday on reports of a fight between Hank Aaron and Rico Carter aboard an airplane Sunday night.

Atlanta Journal reported the fight between the two outfielders took place in the rear of the Braves' charter jet as the two were bound together after leaving after losing a 20-no-hitter to Houston.

Sports writer Will Browning said the fight was the outbreak of a "glorious" fight that was building up for some time. He quoted Braves Manager Billy Hitchcock as saying, "We know his work here under contract now, and we hope we can keep it under control."

Neither was hurt, and Browning said Aaron was most of the remainder of the flight in the forward cabin and Carter remained near the aft section.

"I can't talk, except to say several other guys deserved it more than I," stammered the 39-year-old, sophomore from Anaheim, Calif.

The award was a tribute to Davy's 100th birthday and to his lifetime of service. He is always the first to get dirty. His teammates call him "piggy." He's so excited, Coach Bobby Henke said, that he writes "noisy" in big letters on the back of his catcher's mitt.

HURLER SCRATCHED
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Juan Marchal was scratched as a pitcher for the San Francisco Giants against Cincinnati Monday when he still complained of a pinched nerve in the back of his neck. He has been out of action for a week.

Palmer Honored For Retirement

Palmer has won four Masters, one Open and two British Opens, but never a PGA. Hogan captured four Opens, two Masters, two PGAs and the British Open in his only appearance. Hogan won five PGAs, two U.S. Opens and four British Opens.

Palmer has won four Masters, one Open and two British Opens, but never a PGA. Hogan captured four Opens, two Masters, two PGAs and the British Open in his only appearance. Hogan won five PGAs, two U.S. Opens and four British Opens.

Nicklaus' current cards include two U.S. Amateur titles, two Opens, three Masters and one British Open.

At 27, Nicklaus won his second Open with a phenomenal hole-in-one on the 11th hole of the 18-hole final round Sunday at Baltusrol for a 65 and a tournament scoring record of 275.

He is a member of the PGA, PGA of America and the PGA of the Americas. He is also a member of the British Open next month.

There is a question whether Nicklaus will play in the PGA Championship which is scheduled for July 20-24 because of the current player revolt against the Professional Golfers' Association.

The problem, however, is expected to be resolved within a few days.

Nicklaus' immediate plans are to play in the Cleveland Open this week and the $200,000 Canadian Open at Montreal next week.

With his powerful game again hampered after a shaky start this season, he still is in a position to battle Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper for the season's money winning honors.

Already Jack is threatening to overtake Arnold Palmer as the season's senior, as well as those of Hogan and the great Walter Hagen.

Palmer Adds To Winnings Lead
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Arnold Palmer, second-place finish in the U.S. Open Golf Championship Sunday, gave him a $24,714 prize lead in the money list.

Palmer now has $114,225 in prize money. He has won two U.S. Opens, one British Open and the PGA Championship.

Slumping Orioles, Tigers Need Boost

By JACK HAMD
Now is the time for some cheering words of inspiration from Jim Bannier and Mayo Smith. The slumping Baltimore Orioles and Detroit Tigers need a boost.

The Orioles' pitching staff has been battered after a series of doubleheaders. When Joe Spivey was knocked out and beaten for the first time Sunday, it was the 10th time in 11 games that a Tiger starter had failed to go the distance. The last complete game was June 6.

"We've been pressing," said Smith in Detroit. "Our pitching has been knocked out and our defense has faltered."

"I'm not contemplating any changes right now," said Smith. "But I'm certain not going to continue with our starters if they continue to be as ineffective as they have been."

This was a sad situation for two teams that had been picked to slug it out for the pennant.

"I've been called lucky, a bore and a team that you can't believe in," said Manager Eddie Stanky in Chicago. "That's okay, I don't mind it. A couple of weeks ago, I sensed more and more that the players are beginning to believe we can win the pennant."

The results of the voting will be announced by the office of the American League league secretary, Tom Donohue.

The pitchers, picked by the managers, will be announced Monday (National) and July 2 (American). The rest of the 25 major squads will be announced the following week.

Alou Singles Pirates Over Chicago 4-3
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hot-hitting Matty Alou poked his first single in the seventh inning, delivered an unearned run that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Monday night.

The tie-breaking single gave Alou, the defending National League MVP, his 15th trip to the plate.

Third baseman Ron Santo scored Bill Mazeroski's grand slam in the seventh and Jerry May singled before Mazeroski scored on Alou's two-out bloop single to complete it.

Mazeroski's two-run single capped Pittsburgh's three-run first inning burst against loser pitcher Steve Carlton.

Alou and Mazy Willis, a walk and an infield out accounted for the first runner.

Jimmy Williams doubled home in the fourth. Singles by Ernie Banks and Randy Hundley, and the first baseman's sacrifice fly produced another in the fourth. Hundley's double and a triple by Adolfo Pillelli tied it in the sixth.

Chicago 100 100 00—10 1 Pittsburgh 200 000 10-0 1 0 Jenkins, Hartenstein (8) and Hundley; Yeager, McGee and May. W-Yeager, 6-2; L-Jenkins, 8-5.

COVERING HONOR

OPEN POSITION
There is an old rule that you should cover an honor with an honor. One of the commonest of defensive mistakes is to follow this rule blindly. Sometimes this is a really tough problem. On other occasions you should know each card as if it were the only one in his hand. South took a moment to look over dummy before winning the diamond lead. Then South played dummy's deuce of spades. Charley's file blindly. Sometimes this is a really tough problem. On other occasions you should know

That left one possibility. South might have started with five spades to the king-queen. In that case the ace play might cause South to take a wrong view of the trump situation. Charley clattered up with the ace of trumps and led a second diamond. South won in his hand, looked at the ceiling, both opponents and the walls, and finally led a low trump and inessed dummy's nine. Charley's ace play had produced a trick for his ten spot.

the correct play. Thus, when you hold just two cards in the suit your normal play is to cover. If you don't you may have to play your honor on a low card and gain no benefit from it at all. Sometimes it even pays to play your honor when a low card is led. We remember defensive play made some years ago by Charles Lochridge of New York.

Charley is one of our fast players. When he is on defense he sizes up the whole situation at a glance and is ready to play

Are You Feeling Great? Lookout For Charlie!

Dear Walt: I have a friend who seems to be very thoughtful and considerate (at least that's what my mother thinks). But somehow, he always asks, you something that makes you feel worse than you did before he came around. Yesterday I was feeling particularly good. Along came Charlie. He was coming down with the flu? He asks. "You really look tired. Better get some rest. That flu's really bad." By the time he left, I felt I ought to go to bed and pull the covers over my head. What makes a guy so negative? — Brad.

Dear Brad: I'd guess that Charlie's been reared by over-anxious people who every rain-bow he's learned to be "interesting" by foretelling gloom, sickness and fallen cakes. Don't let his questions get you down. Tell him straight out: "If you have anything negative to say keep it to yourself. I have parents and a doctor to look after my health. I expect pals to build me up." — Walt.

SCHOOL IS DULL
Dear Ele and Walt: I just barely got through this school year. The whole system gets me down. You do the work, you finish the projects, you take the grade, for what? I know I'm learning (let's laugh) stuff I'll never use in later life. And why? Because some P. D. in the main office decides it's necessary for the formation of my character, and that I am with chemistry or physics or worse! Next year—senior-year. Right now I don't see how I can stomach nine more months of this insane system. You two make some more alien than not, so I'll give you a chance here. Can you help me see a meaning in it? — Willie.

Dear Willie: We must admit there's much to be said for your way. Many of our high-school

Expo's Show Is Judged Far Short Of New York's

BY DICK KLEINER
Hollywood Correspondent
MONTREAL (NEA)—The tendency to root for the underdog has colored the critical reception of Expo '67. Many people, apparently, were hopeful that little Montreal could show big New York how a World Fair should look. They let their emotions lead their judgment.
In all fairness, Expo-67 is a good fair, blessed by a beautiful setting and outstanding architecture. But emotions aside, it isn't in the same league as the New York World's Fair as far as a show is concerned.
There is nothing here to compare with some of the industrial exhibits at New York—the Ford GM—General Electric, Pepsi-Cola exhibits, for example. There are some interesting exhibits in some of the national pavilions—Czechoslovakia, primarily—and the structures themselves are magnificent. But mostly the pavilions are a parade of national pride, of interest mostly to those who want to compare the layouts output of Brazil and Italy of the types of fertilizer used in Belgium and India.
On the right," the guide said, "is the U.S. pavilion, where you can see the world's largest escalator, ask the clerk if she were Russian. "No, I'm Canadian," said the clerk. And then she pointed to another clerk, "But that one is Russian. Bobby" the woman said to her son, "there's a real Russian."
Perhaps seeing real Russians is enough to make Expo '67 a success. It would seem so. The attendance is running far ahead of estimates—more than eight million at a time when the forecasts predicted five million. And there have been 10 times as many visitors from Europe as expected.
Montreal's new subway built to link Expo '67 with the city is a pleasure to ride—it is clean and quiet, running as it does on rubber tires. Like all of the province of Quebec, everything in the subway is bilingual, French and English.
I noted in one Montreal bus, however, that there was one exception to that bilinguality. All the ads and signs were in two languages, except for one sign, which read in English only: "Please Move to the Rear."
