Father, Tot Die In Plane Crash; Mother Survives

HAILEY — A young mother from California who somehow managed to climb between 300 and 400 yards up a snowy and muddy mountainside to summon help after a plane crash near Galena Summit Wednesday afternoon, had urged her husband not to leave the Hailey airport because of inclement weather. Both her husband and baby daughter were killed in the crash.

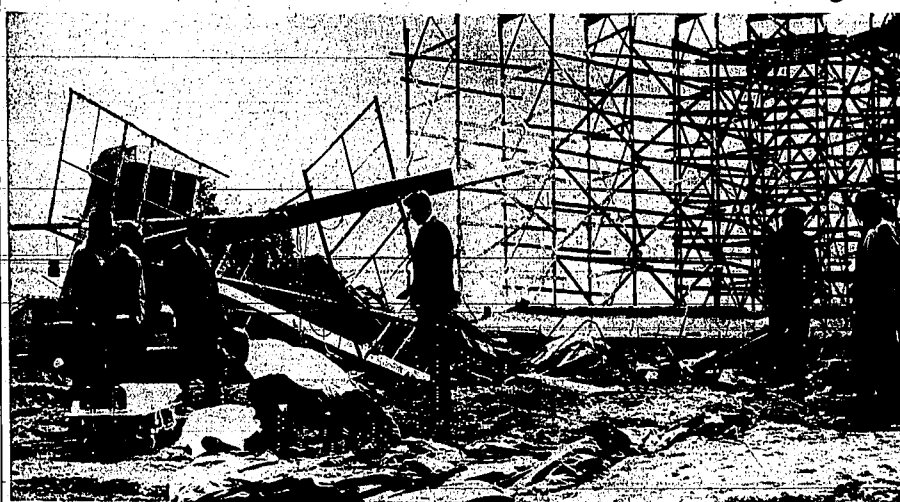

Mrs. Helen O'Rourke, who was 24 on Monday, is reported in fair condition at Sun Valley Hospital.

Details pieced together Thursday by Sheriff Omer Drexler and several Hailey residents indicate that Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patrick O'Rourke, South San Calif., and their 3-year-old daughter had come to the Hailey airport Wednesday morning, expecting to meet Mrs. O'Rourke's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ramsey, who were camped near Sunbeam Dam, fishing.

When no one was at the airport to meet them, according to Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, whose husband is airport manager, the couple got a ride into Hailey with Mrs. Mildred Fox who lives east of the airport. The California couple and their baby ate lunch at the Blue Spruce restaurant and then returned to the airport with Mrs. Fox.

Mrs. O'Rourke urged her husband, who was 26, to wait until Thursday to attempt to fly to Stanley Basin, Mrs. Johnson said, but when the weather cleared a little he took off in

Reservoir Wall Collapses; Worker Killed, 3 Injured

VICTIM OF A tragic accident Thursday morning at the Twin Falls City water project reservoir. In front of twisted scaffolding on which he was working when the 110-by-32-foot wall collapsed. Investigating officers looking over the grim remains of the wall are Sheriff James Benham, Dr. Thad Scholes, coroner, and City Detective William Dickson and Gary Corder, from left. Fall From Scaffold Is Fatal

By BONNIE BAIRD JONES

A Twin Falls carpenter was killed and three other workers miraculously escaped serious injury Tuesday afternoon when a 110-by-32-foot concrete wall collapsed at the ground level of the five-million-gallon water reservoir under construction at East Avenue and Harrison Street.

R. L. Sutton, project superintendent, said the section was completed and workers were removing the temporary wooden structure which was used to shape the concrete wall. It was moved and re-erected for construction of the second section.

In addition to Mr. Thomas, three other men were taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for examination and treatment of bruises and scratches. Mr. Sutton said the three, Ed Anderson, Twin Falls; Joe Peterson and Willie Kunzler, both Burley, rode the falling scaffolding to the ground.

"I heard a crack," said Mr. Kunzler, "and 10 seconds later, it was all over and the whole thing was on the ground."

Mr. Kunzler said he remembered looking down to see whether he was going to land, but said he had no choice.

Mr. Sutton said the first thing they did after reaching the ground was look for their fellow workers.

Mr. Thomas was thrown about 50 feet from the crumpled wall on which he had been working and was apparently killed from the falling concrete through thin skin of his wall.

Pope Says No

VATICAN CITY (AP)— Pope Paul VI will issue an encyclical Friday saying "no" to demands that priests be allowed to marry.

A papal pronouncement confirming the Church's rule of celibacy for the clergy has been expected for weeks. It will be the sixth encyclical of Pope Paul's four-year reign.

In the last 10 years, about 10,000 of the Roman Catholic Church's 420,000 priests have asked the Vatican for release from their vows, Vatican sources said. Such a release enables a man to leave the priesthood—marry and still remain a Catholic in good standing.

Idaho City Clerks Open Meeting Here

City finance officers and clerks from Idaho municipalities were administered Thursday morning in Twin Falls to adhere closely to prepared budgets and to use good judgment in controlling levies.

Harold Johnson, secretary of the Idaho Tax Commission, was the initial speaker for the Thursday meeting of Idaho Clerks and City Finance Officers, part of the 20th annual conference of the Association of Idaho Cities now being conducted in Twin Falls.

Clerks convened at 10 a.m. in the Twin Falls city hall with Roy Barnes, Idaho Falls city clerk, and acting president, conducting the meeting. A luncheon was held at noon in the Regency Hotel, with business sessions to continue Thursday afternoon.

A barbecue was scheduled for the Association of Idaho Cities delegates Thursday night and their conference opens formally Friday at 10 a.m. in the Holiday Inn. Registration began at 1 p.m. for an estimated 400 delegates expected to attend the three-day convention.

Mr. Johnson told the city officials he agrees that taxing agencies, such as municipalities, are just as responsible to the citizens and taxpayers for holding down levies as is the state legislature.

He said municipal officials feel they should not be restricted by legislative action as to their levies, but rather should be given the responsibility of Miss T. F.

The Miss Twin Falls crown will be bestowed on one of 11 contestants at the climax of the Miss Twin Falls pageant scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. today at the Twin Falls High School auditorium.

The contestants will compete in bathing suit, evening gown and talent events. To the winner of the crown go accolades, prizes, a trip to Hawaii, a year's supply of clothing, jewelry and the prospect of a wonderful year as Miss Twin Falls.

Preparation for the 19th annual Miss Twin Falls Pageant began in December. The winner will compete next spring in the Miss Idaho contest.

Gasoline Tax Increase Gets Approval Of Senate

By EARLE L. VESTER
Times Staff Writer

BOISE (AP)— The Senate endorsed the House-approved gasoline tax increase today and leaders said the special session of the Idaho Legislature should be concluded by nightfall.

The vote was 27 to 8. The House approved the measure Wednesday, 42-28.

There still were a number of bills remaining to be considered but leaders said that barring unexpected controversy the windup appeared only hours away.

The Senate passed the House-approved measure which restores to Idaho law authority to participate in the Title 19 program under the Social Security Act.

It was the discovery of the inadvertent repeal of that authority by the regular legislature last winter that persuaded Gov. Don W. Samuelson to call the special session, which began Monday.

The Title 19 program covers medical aid for indigent persons and provides the formula by which a state receives its federal public assistance funds.

James Ellsworth, R-Leadore, was floor sponsor of the bill boosting the state tax on motor fuels from six to seven cents a gallon, effective Jan. 1. It would remain effective until Dec. 31, 1969.

Ellsworth said the increase would give the state an additional $3.5 million in the next biennium for purposes of matching federal aid funds estimated at about $14 million.

"Idaho," he said, "cannot afford to bypass these federal funds. We are entitled to them and we are entitled to them."

He said Idahoans contribute about $2.2 million in federal highway user taxes annually but get back about $2.3 million in federal highway aid.

Sen. Walter Varbrugh, R-Ore., had been another story in the House, which stumped President Johnson's administration June 7 by defeating 210 to 107 a measure for next Monday.

Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Senate Finance Committee scheduled hearings on the measure for next Monday and Tuesday. Long said he hopes it can be brought to the floor debate Wednesday.

House OK's $22 Billion Boost Of Debt Ceiling

By EDMOND LABRETTON
Times Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)— House Democrats reversing a stalling administration setback of two weeks before, pushed through a $22-billion boost in the national debt ceiling.

Sen. Merle D. Parsley, D-Sandpoint, said he was in agreement with supporters of the tax that the highway department needs more money. But he said it could be obtained from the general fund surplus.

Parsley joined Sen. Arthur Murphey, D-Mullan, the minority leader, in introducing a bill which would transfer $225 million from the surplus to the highway fund.

However, after the gasoline tax increase measure won approval he offered no objections to sending that bill back to committee. It had received an order of business permitting final consideration.

Republicans voted solidly against the debt ceiling increase both times. Insisting Johnson provide more information on the fiscal outlook and scale down domestic spending.

The GOP's initial victory was possible through the help of Southern Democrats and a sprinkling of Northern Democrats. Some of whom claimed their opposition resulted from Johnson's Vietnam war policies.

But the House leadership rejected 14 of these votes Wednesday, splitting the dissent. Southerners about in half and picking up all but a handful of the antiwar faction.

The White House said later Johnson "congratulated the House leadership for this act of fiscal responsibility."

In addition to the $22-billion increase provided by the new measure, a $7-billion cushion goes into effect July 1, 1968, in addition to providing for fluctuations in income and outgo during the year, the cushion is to be renewed annually. It will expire on the day before the end of each fiscal year.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, argued this measure would provide a brake on spending.

The bill also would allow the Treasury to issue notes with maturities up to seven years, instead of five.

U. S. Forces Kill 143 Reds In Lowlands

SAIGON (AP)— U. S. forces reported killing 143 Communist troops in two battles in the central lowlands Wednesday while waves of U. S. jets rained over a wide area to support North Vietnam's rail network and its biggest iron and steel works.

American casualties in the lowlands battles 200 miles north of Saigon were four missing, 22 wounded and four slain, said a U. S. command unit. It said there was light scattered contact in 21 other U. S. and allied ground operations.

U. S. Air Force and Navy pilots flew 133 missions against the Communist North.

Hearing Set In Complaint On Cenarrusa

BOISE (AP)— A Third District Court hearing was set for June 30 on a complaint filed Wednesday asking a court order for Secretary of State Peter V. Cenarrusa to show cause why he should not be removed from office.

The complaint was filed by Gen. G. Millock, head of movement to recall Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, on behalf of the "Victory in Vietnam Committee."

Millock alleged in his complaint that Cenarrusa had "willfully and illegally failed to perform official duties" by refusing to furnish to plaintiff certain documents that are of public record.

Press Women Name Top Officials

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)— Mrs. Serge Troubetzkoy, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Louis C. Plathoff, of St. Clair, Mo., were named Wednesday as vice president of the National Federation of Press Women Wednesday at the closing session of the Idaho Presswomen's convention.

Mrs. Troubetzkoy succeeds Mrs. Margaret Magee of Salem, Ore., as leader of women in journalism in the United States.

The new president is an editorial page writer on the Richmond News-Leader and serves on the Virginia Cultural Development Commission. Mrs. Plathoff heads her own public relations and advertising firm.

Regional directors elected included Kay Kennedy Johnson of Roslyn, Wash.; Lois L. Taylor of Reno, Nev.; Dorothy Hendrix Jelm, Los Angeles, Calif.; Catherine Pemberton, Broadus, Mont.; Marjorie Schlenker, Albany, N. Y.; Dorothy Hager, Minot, N.D.; Vivian Williams, Waukegan, Ill., and Margaret Woolfolk, West Memphis, Ark. Mrs. Taylor reported she was in 1968 convention will be in Wichita, Kan.

Devastating Hail Storm Hits Camas Prairie

A devastating hail storm—the third in recent weeks—swept across Camas Prairie Wednesday evening, pounding hay and grain into the ground and shredding flowers and foliage.

Elsewhere across Magic Valley, lightning accompanied by heavy rain continued the pattern of intermittent storms which have occurred the past three days. At Gooding grain was lifted into the ground and farmers were pessimistic about hay which has already been cut.

The hail storm in the Palouse area was reported as the first storm of the season. It started about 8 p.m. during which funnel clouds were reported sighted, swept across the northern section of the prairie from west to east, extending over a two-mile strip.

The Gooding house looked like a "Joke" it was reported Thursday morning because of the damage. The William Sweet and James Kovan farm, near Johnson Hill, were the hardest hit during the latter storm.

Six inches of water were reported on the road at the Everett Coates ranch at the east end of Camas prairie and heavy damage also was reported by hay and grain at ranches of Charles, Gaskill, William Simon, Red Walton and Kenneth Peck.

Precipitation was reported at 05 of an inch Wednesday at Fairfield.

The Auto Remains

Like the report of Mark Twain's it sooner, but the important things they're doing it now, and will go on doing it as long as the pressure is kept up.
Does this mean there is no future for the battery-powered car?
Bolt thinks there is; especially when we consider the changing patterns of urban development and population growth and their effect on the transportation needs of tomorrow.

A Timely Warning

A timely warning has come from a prominent member of the business community concerning the acceptance of the philosophy that inflation budget deficits are a "fact of life."
M. A. Wright, board chairman of Humble Oil and Refining Co., addressed the annual convention of the Texas Bankers Association with the warning that deficit spending and inflation resulting from it have been present so long some persons have accepted both as a normal facet of the economy.

MR. SPECTATOR

Classy Bus Marked "3-Rs"

One of the confusions in our growing-up years was why the end of your school days was called a commencement. It was our understanding that a commencement was the beginning of a thing, not the ending.
Well, we have been out of school for quite a few years now and must admit that the language was absolutely correct.
A growing cannot turn around nowadays without commencing to be up in his ears in school day problems.

WASHINGTON-The Republic, it appears, leads a charmed life. Since it was inevitable in the context of the times that a Negro would be appointed to the Supreme Court, the citizenry should be grateful that there was a Thurgood Marshall available.
Just as when a Catholic or a Jew is appointed to the Court, Marshall's appointment is a heavy political overture. Everbody's gotta be represented, see? In Marshall's case in particular, Johnson was faced with what might mildly be called deepening unrest among the more excitable in the Negro population. Politically, this was the time to appoint the first Negro to the Supreme Court.

Parenthetically, although the appointment met a fact of political life, emphasizing this is somewhat unfair. In London, Johnson who has done more for the Negro than any President since Lincoln. He appointed the first Negro member of the Cabinet and he has two Negroes working closely with him at the sub-Cabinet level. He has named eight Negroes to ambassadorships, 11 to judgeships, scores of others to important jobs.

Johnson's position is that Negro participation in public life is simple justice.
Put another way, the Jews represent only 2.5 per cent of the population while the Negroes represent about 11 per cent. Yet in recent generations there has always been a Jew on the court. All that having been said, Marshall should have no difficulty measuring up to the standard of the present court. He should be a better justice than the emotional Bill Douglas or the uninspired Tom Clark, whose return to the bench was somewhat inclusive and logical concession, John Harlan.

Marshall's work as longtime general counsel of the NAACP was both brilliant and marked by high accomplishment. It was Marshall who most singlehandedly argued the case in the 1954 school segregation cases, whatever reservations some citizens may have about the constitutionality of the common law. He served with quiet distinction on the Second U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, to which he was appointed by President Kennedy. He also made up his mind to become an outstanding justice.

One Step Up; One Step Down

BRUCE BISSOT

Wayne Brandstadt, M.D. Fight The Heat

When it's hot you don't need quite as many calories as you need in winter. Your muscles, bones and nerve cells need just as much nourishment as ever. Many persons blame the heat for their feeling of tiredness in the summer when the real reason is their failure to get enough protein in their diet.
The temptation to fill up on iced drinks should be resisted. You need to drink more fluids to replace what you lose through perspiration. Since the temperature of the fluids is not so important as the quantity, too much ice water can upset your digestive tract. Since you lose salt in your perspiration, you should increase your salt intake slightly in summer but, if you are on a salt-poor diet, don't modify it until first checking with your doctor.
Exercise in moderation will be strenuous in many ways. Since often you will be engaged in a strenuous sport such as tennis, you will not notice the heat until you stop, you should quit before the heat exhausts you. The summer sport is swimming but, whatever activity you choose, you should take frequent short rests rather than a few longer ones.

JAMES MARLOW

A Rude Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP) - The first open note in the U.N. debate on the Arab withdrawal from the captured Arab land.
There was little new in hours of discussion, anyone who followed the war controversy closely probably wound up the debate with the impression that what was left unsaid was anything Eben and Kosygin did say.
For instance, Kosygin never mentioned the Gulf of Anaba although from the moment Nasser closed it to Israeli shipping, gunnery was closed for good, Israel and the Arabs were on a collision course.
Both Johnson and Eben singled out the Gulf blockade as the most critical move in the series of events which led to war. Johnson, putting the blame on Nasser, said: "If a single act of folly was more responsible for this explosion than any other, it was the arbitrary and announced decision" that closed the Gulf.
Eban called the blockade the turning point in the crisis.
Yet Eban, despite his impressive record in the United Nations, never mentioned the Gulf of Anaba, since the whole basis for the Soviets bringing the case before the Security Council was Eban's charge that Israel was the aggressor.
From the moment Kosygin declared the Arab withdrawal from the Gulf, the reason seemed clear enough: to mollify the Arabs who felt let down by Moscow. He did not mention the war after promising it would support them.
If the General Assembly resolution on the Arab-Israeli affair, Kosygin made his long trip and big pitch, asking the condemnation, the Soviets could always have said they had done it for them.
If this is at the root of Soviet thinking about the debate, it would be a very interesting revelation. It indicates that Eban's interferences with Israel's making his case for Israel, Kosygin, a mild-mannered, well-meaning, likeable technician or administrator than an innovator such as Nikita Khrushchev on his own would have been glad to take on Johnson.

BARRY GOLDWATER

Israel Should Keep Gains

Israel should not give up one inch of the territory she was forced to take from the Arab world.
I say forced to take because it seems crystal clear that the Arabs were the aggressors, that they forced the Soviet union they forced the region hurtling toward war.
The matter of Jerusalem is more emotional than strategic, and it is tragically obvious that it should be heeded in regard to it.
In making my other suggestions about the territory taken in self-defense, it should be obvious that the main purpose is peace.
It is tragically obvious by now that there were words cannot keep peace in the Middle East, that the United Nations is totally dead in such a role and that any assured and protected position for Israel can damp the flames in the Middle East.
This would not serve Israel alone. It would serve those Arabs who, if not led in feudal attitudes toward Israel, are only a collective, fanatical, probably could live in peace forever with their Israeli neighbors. Israel has no such fanatical hatred for Arabs and could be depended upon to remain at peace if it were not for the Soviet Union.

It is amusing to hear the Soviet Union joining in the chorus of those who want to both condemn and for stirring the war and to make her give up the territory taken in the fighting.
The Soviet Union, if there were any justice and no moral legalisms in the United Nations, would be soundly condemned as the power whose arms and influence started the war.
The Soviet Union should be hooted down for talking about someone keeping territory taken in self-defense, when she still holds captive millions of the people of Eastern Europe and Asia.
I am deeply mindful that keeping the territories taken in self-defense would I'm polemic upon Israel the most profound and just of all things. It would be to the Arabs living in those areas, I am convinced that the Israelis can be a just in peace with them. They have been terrible in war.

3 T. F. High School Youths Tell Of Civitan Seminar

Three Twin Falls High School seniors have returned from a four-day Citizenship Seminar, which was held last week at the U. S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo. The seminar was sponsored by Civitan International.

They are Andy Kevan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Kevan, Route 2; Roger Louder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Louder, Route 2; and Paul Alfred, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nicholson, 1012 Del Mar Drive.

Approximately 137 boys and 68 girls attended the seminar. A few filled out applications and sent them to Civitan International, but the majority of those who attended were interviewed and selected by the local Civitan clubs.

According to Andy, the first selection was made by members of the Twin Falls High School administration, who considered the qualities of scholarship, leadership ability and citizenship. Then those who were chosen were interviewed by two local Civitan members, Bob Myrand and Bill Arma, who presented the names to the Civitan club for voting.

The purpose of the seminar was to awaken young people to the realities of communism and religious problems which they will have to face in the near future.

Featured speakers for the seminar included Dr. Mehdin Nakosteen, professor of history and philosophy at the University of Colorado, Denver; Dr. Nicholas Myrand, Hungarian professor of finance at the largest bank in Budapest; Scott Werner, special agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Denver; and John Percy, representative of the State Department, Washington, D. C.

Topics of some of the addresses given include, "The Traditions of Religious Liberty in America," "Shall We Survive?," "Know Your Enemy," and "The Citizen's Responsibility for Tomorrow's Youth."

BURLEY — The Idaho State Championship High School Rodeo will begin at 4 p.m. Friday with a parade starting at the Overland Shopping Center, traveling north to Main Street and east on Main Street to East Park.

Evening events will be held at 8 p.m. at the rodeo arena in the Cassia County Fairgrounds arena. The event is sponsored by the Burley Kiwanis Club.

In the parade will be high school bands, and Stepparts, the Cassia County Sheriff-Posse, the Cavaliers Riding Club, floats and high school students competing in the rodeo.

The winners during the contest at Burley will go on to the National finals, Aug. 1-7 at Elko, Nev.

Events for boys are saddle bronc, bareback, calf roping, bulldogging, bull riding, and cow cutting.

Girls events include barrel racing, polo, bending break away calf roping, goat tying, cow cutting, and a queen contest. A breakfast for the queen contestants will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Bryan's Cafe. During the breakfast the queen contestants will be judged on personality and appearance.

The horsemanship for queens will be judged at 1 p.m. Saturday, followed by two go-arounds for cow cutting.

The reigning Idaho High School Rodeo queen is Kayla Ellsworth, Idaho Falls, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. Blair Ellsworth.

Entered in the queen contest are Trudy Wilcox, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smiley Wilcox, Shoshone. She is the fifth district entry, winning the honor at Filer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Blair Ellsworth, 16, is the queen entry from district one and is a junior attending Mackay High School. Kathy Shippen, 17, Sweet, is the queen entry from district two, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Shippen. She attends Emmet High School.

Sue Richardson, 17, Pocatello, attends Highland High School and is the entry from district four.

A church service in the arena, called "Church on Horseback" will be held Sunday morning and the final performance will be at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Buckle will be awarded the first three place winners in each event. The all around girl and all around boy will receive trophy saddles. The buckles and trophy saddles have been donated by merchants.

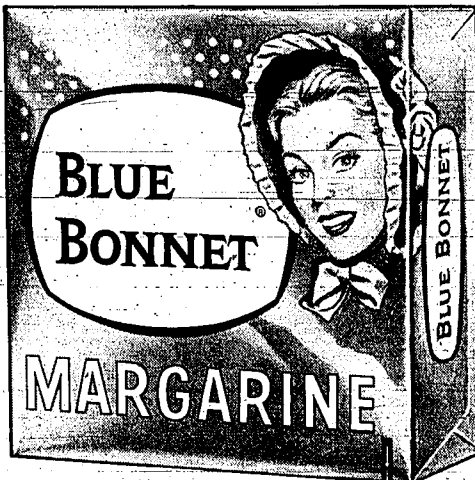

Stock will be provided by E. Watts, Hill City, and is R.C.A. approved.

The High School Rodeo Association is a national organization with 22 states participating. Idaho is divided into five districts. Each district has held a rodeo and the winners of each district will be competing in the state rodeo this weekend at the Cassia County Fairgrounds.

Members of the Burley Kiwanis Club will have charge of the concession stand and the ticket sales.

Jess Yarrington and Ted Kelsey are co-chairmen of the event. They are being assisted by Dale Dammarell, finances; Frank Kearey, secretary; Jim Henderson, publicity; and all members of the Burley Kiwanis Club.

Golden Eagle 'Charge Program' Now In Effect On Sawtooth National Forest

The Sawtooth National Forest campground "charge program" now is in effect at 26 of the forest's improved camp and picnic areas, P.M. Rees, forest supervisor announced Thursday.

The campground and picnic area facilities designated as "charge areas" may be used after display of a plastic Golden Eagle Passport card or a single day permit. The passes admit the purchaser and all passengers in his car to any of the designated areas and to any other federally-operated recreation sites that are on a charge basis.

The Golden Eagle Passport is available until March 31, 1968, Mr. Rees noted.

Triangular signs displaying a large golden eagle will mark all forest charge areas this season. No charge is made for use of national forest lands except at these designated sites. Persons under 17 years of age are not required to show permits for admittance to the areas.

The permits are authorized by the Land and Water Conservation Act of 1966.

Investment in the Golden Eagle Passport or the daily permit provides a positive return—money from their sale is specifically used to help finance the expanding outdoor recreation needs of the nation's people," Mr. Rees commented.

Idaho received $491,408 from a fund supported by passport sales in 1966. More than two-thirds of the funds secured from sale of the Golden Eagle Pass-

Heavy Traffic Ahsahka, Idaho (AP) —

Traffic is getting so heavy at Ahsahka (population 150 according to the 1960 census) that traffic signal lights must be installed.

The lighted traffic control will handle a growing number of trucks and equipment making turns off State Highway 7 onto the road to the Dworthak Dam construction area, the Idaho Highway department explained.

Some 7-million cubic yards of concrete will be used to construct the dam 1.8 miles upstream from Ahsahka on the North Fork of the Clearwater River. Ahsahka is 40 miles east of Lewiston.

Shaw To Be Charged With Contempt

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A criminal court judge says there will be some contempt of court citations issued after Clay L. Shaw's trial in the Kennedy assassination probe.

Judge Edward A. Haggerty announced Wednesday that his previous contempt citations in the case have been violated and that the violators "acted at their peril."

The judge didn't name anyone.

Guidelines imposed by Haggerty in the case involving Shaw, a wealthy retired businessman charged with conspiracy to murder President John F. Kennedy, who was assassinated in Dallas in 1963, forbids persons connected with the case to make public statements about innocence, guilt or evidence.

In Nashville, Tenn., the Tennessee grand jury, led by Jim Garrison, in a copyright story, as saying Kennedy was assassinated by a 14-man team of Cuban guerrillas who trained secretly in St. Tammany Parish (County) near New Orleans during the summer of 1963.

The newspaper said Garrison believes the alleged assassins were anti-Castro refugees, brought to New Orleans from Miami to prepare for an assault on Cuba.

Garrison theorized that the Cubans "turned their wrath on President Kennedy when it became apparent that the United States would not support isolated assaults on Cuba," the Tennessee said.

Arraignment Is Held in New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Taking their cue from a previous court appearance which sparked an attack on a courthouse, police planned very cautious today for the arraignment of 20 members of the militant Spanish-American group.

Members of the group, who contend they are heirs to millions of acres in the Southwest, face 26 charges each stemming from the arrested raid June 15 on a rural northern New Mexico courthouse. Three of the charges are first-degree kidnapping and could result in the death penalty.

They were arrested during one of New Mexico's biggest manhunts which included units of the National Guard and about 100 state and local officers. Tanks, helicopters and jeeps were used in the search.

State Police Chief Joe Black declined to disclose how many prisoners would guard the prisoners in the court and during their trip from the state prison, where they have been held.

We'll have enough officers to guarantee adequate security in the court that they'll have due process of law for these arraignments," Black said.

The group's leader, Rufe Lopez Tijerina, 40, and three of his followers were taken to Albuquerque Monday on federal charges stemming from another incident, heavy reinforcements of federal, state, county and city officers were in the courtroom.

The raid on the Rio Arriba County Courthouse in Tierra Amarilla by more than a dozen gunmen came only minutes after a court appearance of seven of the group's members on unlawful assembly charges stemming from threats to take over 600,000 acres of northern New Mexico.

Two policemen were wounded by gunfire about 20 minutes before the courthouse, and two other men were taken hostage by the raiders but released unharmed as guardsmen and police moved in.

Besides first-degree kidnapping, other charges include 21 counts of second-degree kidnapping, one count of assault with intent to commit murder and one of unlawful assault on a jail.

Dist. Atty. Alfonso Sanchez has said he will seek the death penalty for the group, which also includes Tijerina's daughter, Rosa; a son, Raul Jr., and a brother, Ramon Tijerina.

Dist. Judge Joe Angel of Las Vegas was named to hear the case after the two Santa Fe district judges were disqualified.

Teachers Of Civics Have Special Class

SPECIAL OFF OF IDAHO II, Moscow—High school civics teachers from 16 states are attending a six-week summer institute in the problems of democracy at the university, according to Dr. Bernard C. Borning, institute director.

The institute, sponsored by the Department of Education and Welfare under the National Defense Education Act, is designed to give teachers a broader experience in handling the new developments in civics and social science.

The class will learn to relate current events to their teaching and will be given special attention to civics, government and business, politics and civics, and the role of the United States and the effect of the mass media on the fields of civics and social science.

Dodd Says Senators Will Reject Censure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., meets with newsmen before the final outcome of Senate action on a resolution to censure him for harassing a legislator. His colleagues will reject a resolution censuring him despite overwhelming defeat of a bid to strip out one set of charges against the Connecticut Democrat.

The Senate, in its first vote after seven days of debate, rejected $2 to 2 Wednesday a proposal for dropping charges of financial misconduct in connection with campaign and testis moneys funds, and substituting an admonishment not to do anything wrong in the future.

Dodd, accused from voting at his own request, said the legislator did not discourage him.

The white-haired, two-term senator told newsmen later he had "complete confidence" in the final outcome because "I have been guilty of no conscious wrongdoing."

Expected today are the show-down votes on the two counts in the censure resolution recommended by the Senate Ethics Committee following a 14-month probe of Dodd's financial affairs.

One count charges Dodd with converting $116,083 raised at political testimonials and similar events to his own use.

Stennis, of the bipartisan ethics committee, called the substitute resolution "a ridiculous thing."

Stennis told the Senate, "It is just a lot of words. It is doubletalk."

Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, the ethics panel vice chairman, warned acceptance of the watered-down version would make the Senate a laughing stock.

Long, D-La., Dodd's self-appointed defender, conceded his proposal was mild. But he said Dodd deserves nothing more severe.

Dodd said the real question was: "Have I done a thing that I don't have to do? I'd get out."

Dodd obtained permission to leave the Senate chamber while the roll was called, saying he didn't want his presence to embarrass his colleagues. His wife also withdrew from the gallery, where they have occupied front row seats throughout the first seven days of debate.

After the vote, Ribicoff issued a statement saying he was "filled with compassion for Tom Dodd and his family."

"I have searched my conscience and my heart and cannot find it there to do them special hurt by voting for the censure of my colleague," he said.

Ribicoff, who faces re-election next year, has been regarded as a spot politically with a vote that might be costly to him.

Dodd's current term expires in 1970.

Tom Dodd and his family have been out of the country during the past 18 months, Ribicoff said. "He has suffered, and suffered deeply. The family has become for me a flow much suffering must a man endure?"

Long's resolution must have the support of the ethics committee to draw up a code of conduct for Senate adoption and, pending this, admonish Dodd to avoid any conduct that might be construed "as being in derogation of the high standards of ethics" by which a senator should be judged.

It did not deal with the double-billing charge at all, but would have found Dodd used money for the purchase of a plane and campaign contributions to retire indebtedness he incurred in running for the Senate first in 1956 and again in 1958.

speculation he might resign if censured. Tuesday he said, "I'm censured for double-billing the state of Missouri, which is a face you tomorrow."

Asked his plans, whatever the outcome, Dodd told newsmen Wednesday, "I intend to continue working. That's what I'm down here for."

Flower Children Welcome Their "Summer Of Love"

By HAROLD V. STREETER
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Flower Children climbed a mountain, swarmed a polo field and crowded a beach to welcome the arrival of their "summer of love."

"A solstice happening," a bearded hippie termed the turnout for the first day of a season which the nonconformist disciples of love predict will bring 100,000 hippies to San Francisco.

At the chilly, pre-dawn Wednesday, scores gathered on Twin Peaks—900-foot mountains in the city's center—where they chanted and meditated until the sun rose.

"It was a sort of Buddhist yogi," explained bearded Bill Thomas, his arm crushing a red-haired girl in filmy gown against his suede jacket.

Wailing electric guitars and booming drums assaulted the ears of upwards of a thousand at the "happening" at Golden Gate Park's polo field.

Tribal groups clustered about small combo bands — the necklaces. And everywhere were the paper flowers.

One squatting couple shielded a flickering candle from the wind with a sack, while they sipped wine from a silver chalice.

Growings blew bubbles, while their children romped.

FAIRFIELD—Camas Prairie farmers have fallen victim this year to one of the worst cases of hail devastation in the county's history.

In the past, two large storms and several smaller ones have left very few farms untouched. The latest was a heavy storm Wednesday evening which cut its way from the extreme west end of the prairie to the east end.

General route of the dark hail cloud appeared to be the Base Line Road, which runs from one end of the valley to the other and is located about two miles north of Fairfield.

Residents said that the latest storm apparently "sought out" fields that had not been touched in last week's storm and proceeded to dump hail up to six inches deep on the crops.

Wednesday's storm was reported to more or less pour crops into the ground instead of stripping them as harshly as last week's. The latest storm also overtopped the hail which were the hardest hit in last Thursday's storm.

The Bill Simon farm and the Gaskill farm on the east end were hit again. The crops on those two places were nearly wiped out by last week's marble-and golf ball-sized hail, which stripped crops down to the bare stalks.

The Wednesday evening storm also overtopped the L. E. Koonce farm on the east end, causing further damage to this farm which was apparently hardest hit in last week's storm.

After the first storm, Hugh Koonce, who operates the farm, said he had only 100 acres left out of 500 acres of wheat. His new truck home had holes torn in the screens, holes broken in the windows—and hail stones piled up so deeply that he had to shovel to get his garage door open.

Water was running over roads after both storms. Residents said the runoff was so heavy and quick that it washed the top soil that culverts could not carry the load.

Residents of the village of Fairfield also felt the effects of the latest storm as flower and vegetable gardens were shredded.

Some hailstones for the latest storm were as large as marbles, but generally did not reach the proportion of those in last Thursday's storm.

Later in the evening, about 10 p.m., another cloud gathered and dumped its load of hail of farms nesting against the south hills of Camas Prairie. The Bill Sweet and Jim Kevan farms both were hit in this storm.

The Forest Service-Weather reporting station reported .55 inches of precipitation during Wednesday. It had rained heavily all day before it began hailing.

LeRoy Packham, manager of the Camas Prairie Grain Growers elevator at Fairfield, said some farmers are cutting the stalks off the bare alfalfa plants, hoping a second crop will come through because of the amount of moisture that has fallen on the prairie this year.

Others feel that it is best to leave the crops alone—that driving equipment over the mulch on the ground will prevent crops from coming through.

His elevator was anticipating a 300,000 bushel grain crop this year from its members.

"Now, although it's hard to tell," Mr. Packham said, "we'll probably have much less."

He noted that very little winter wheat was growing on the prairie this year because of the dry summer and fall of 1966. If the winter wheat had been there, it already would have been in the boot and would undoubtedly have been ruined.

The spring grain, according to Mr. Packham, was still small enough that he and the farmers who bring their grain to the elevator feel it should come back and "make."

He said it probably would take about two weeks before hay and grain farmers would know if they were going to have any crop.

Many farmers have gone through this sort of thing here before. Because of the lack of irrigation Camas Prairie farmers are solely dependent on the rain that falls and the snow that melts from the winter's snow pack.

Drouths and freezes and an occasional hail storm are part of the game. But this year's disaster hit particularly hard, financially and otherwise. Last year's Camas Prairie was one of the driest oldtimers can remember.

"This was the year," one said, "that we saw all the snow melted off the back of Soldier Mountain—an almost unheard of occurrence. Naturally the dry season hurt financially and farmers were looking forward to and needing a good yield this year."

And they would have gotten it if it hadn't been for the hail which cut across what was considered to be one of the best crop prospects in years.

Chicagoans Like Park

Twin Falls got a pat on the back for its "pretty" Shoshone Park for the privilege of camping in the park recently.

Chamber of Commerce manager Ray Rostrom received a letter from the couple, Mr. and Mrs. L. Sparrey Sr., 11132 Kedzie Ave., thanking the community "for the privilege of camping in your pretty Shoshone Falls Park."

"We have spent some of our most delightful days here, and everyone, including ground-siders, policemen and concessionaires, have been very kind, accommodating and courteous," the letter read.

The couple suggested that the park be designated as a point of interest on national road maps and other periodicals "so that others, too, may come and share its beauty."

"They added that they had accidently 'but happily,' found the park."

Soroptimist Club Installs New Officers

BURLEY — New officers of the Burley Soroptimist Club were installed Tuesday during a dinner meeting at Bryan's Cafe.

Mrs. Palmer Saterstrom was mistress of ceremonies. Musical table decorations were presented by Pet Broadhead accompanied by the "High Five."

Installing officers were Mrs. Edith Kuntz and Mrs. Nedra Savvik, both members of the Twin Falls Soroptimist Club.

New officers installed were Vivian Odney, president; Mrs. Robert Savvik, vice president; Mrs. D. C. Fulmer, recording secretary; Mrs. William Taylor, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Helene Coffey, treasurer; Mrs. Shirley Hunter, holdover director. Mrs. Savvik presented the president's pin to Miss Odney.

A memorial tribute to Mrs. Terry Hill, deceased member, was given by Mrs. Retta Payne. Mrs. Lenaper Stephenson dedicated a yellow rose used as table decoration in the memory of Mrs. E. Corinne Terhune who grew them.

Out-going officers were Mrs. Lloyd Hollinger, president; Mrs. Savvik, vice president; Mrs. Mary Curl, recording secretary; Mrs. Esther Merritt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Wayne Konrad, director.

Mrs. Gerald Bryan was general chairman for the installation banquet. Other committee workers were Mrs. Jack Mason, Miss Odney, invitation and programs; Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Ralph Thornton, decorations; Mrs. Fred Sherrill, Mrs. Jeanette Chamberlain, arrangements; Mrs. Ferral Weeks, Mrs. Minnette Pullman and Mrs. Payne, hostesses.

Guests attended from Twin Falls, Pocatello and Burley.

Idaho Man is Acquitted Of Murder Count

RENO, Nev. (AP) — An Idaho man has been acquitted of murder and attempted murder in the slaying of a Reno man and the shooting of his girl friend on a mountain highway.

Milton James Thompson, 28, of Caldwell, heard a jury of six men and six women declare him innocent Wednesday. The jury deliberated three hours.

Thompson was accused of gunning down Joseph James Barrett and shooting Mrs. Sally Forlett in the head as the trio drove toward Lake Tahoe over the Mt. Rose Highway south of Reno.

Mrs. Forlett testified that Thompson shot Barrett — and then shot her, blaming the shootings on her "because you know too much."

Deputy Dist. Atty. Herbert Ahlswede claimed the fatal shooting was an "execution that was planned by the defendant because of a prior involvement" in Sparks.

He referred to a holdup slaying at a bar in the Reno suburb just 14 hours before the shootings on the Mt. Rose Highway. Thompson claimed self-defense. His lawyer, Harry Claiborne of Las Vegas, said it was the intention of Barrett and Mrs. Forlett to take Thompson up the highway and rob and kill him.

Patrolman Finds Wrecked Car At Site Is His Own

RUPERT — State Patrolman Ron Jolley got a shock when he was called to investigate a routine accident at the Heyburn bridge Monday evening.

When he arrived he discovered a 1965 Oldsmobile which looked familiar—and proved to be his own car which he had left at Ramsey's tire shop for wheel alignment.

"I was sort of shook up for a moment until I remembered my wife did not have the car and I had left it at the tire shop," the patrolman said.

The patrolman's car was being test driven by an employee at the tire shop, Roy E. Johnson, 18, Rupert, who told officers he "looked at the river one minute and the next minute discovered a car stopped in front of him."

Traffic was being stopped by flagmen at the bridge because of repair work under way there. The patrolman's car struck the rear of a 1953 Chevrolet driven by M. Will Llewellyn, 80, Rupert. The impact forced Mr. Llewellyn's car into a 1951 Chevrolet in front of him driven by Victoria L. White, 26, Burley.

Damage was estimated at $600 to the Jolley car, $400 to the Llewellyn Chevrolet and $51 to the White vehicle.

Patrolman called Deputy Sheriff Marned Wall to investigate the accident when he discovered it was his own car.

Veteran UI Clerk Plans To Retire

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow — After 24 years of service, during which time she processed over 15,000 applications for degrees from the university, Mrs. Ruth Schwartz Stough will retire on July 1.

Her duties included checking all applicants for degrees and certifying that graduation requirements in various degree programs have been satisfied; directing all preparations for commencement exercises; and assuming responsibility for the operation of the registrar's office during the absence of the registrar and assistant Registrar.

Mrs. Stough joined the University of Idaho staff in 1943 as credential clerk under registrar Alla Oleson. She has served as assistant registrar and chief clerk under registrar F. Lee O'Neill, and is recognized as an authority on the academic operation of the university. Her wide knowledge of the academic operations on Idaho and other institutions throughout the country has provided the direction of some 18,000 students through the commencement lines.

The patrolman's car was being test driven by an employee at the tire shop, Roy E. Johnson, 18, Rupert, who told officers he "looked at the river one minute and the next minute discovered a car stopped in front of him."

Traffic was being stopped by flagmen at the bridge because of repair work under way there. The patrolman's car struck the rear of a 1953 Chevrolet driven by M. Will Llewellyn, 80, Rupert. The impact forced Mr. Llewellyn's car into a 1951 Chevrolet in front of him driven by Victoria L. White, 26, Burley.

Damage was estimated at $600 to the Jolley car, $400 to the Llewellyn Chevrolet and $51 to the White vehicle.

Patrolman called Deputy Sheriff Marned Wall to investigate the accident when he discovered it was his own car.

Veteran UI Clerk Plans To Retire

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow — After 24 years of service, during which time she processed over 15,000 applications for degrees from the university, Mrs. Ruth Schwartz Stough will retire on July 1.

Her duties included checking all applicants for degrees and certifying that graduation requirements in various degree programs have been satisfied; directing all preparations for commencement exercises; and assuming responsibility for the operation of the registrar's office during the absence of the registrar and assistant Registrar.

Mrs. Stough joined the University of Idaho staff in 1943 as credential clerk under registrar Alla Oleson. She has served as assistant registrar and chief clerk under registrar F. Lee O'Neill, and is recognized as an authority on the academic operation of the university. Her wide knowledge of the academic operations on Idaho and other institutions throughout the country has provided the direction of some 18,000 students through the commencement lines.

Son Graduates

SHOSHONE—Pvt. DeWayne Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Larson, Dietrich, graduated from Basic Combat training at Fort Bliss, Tex., June 9.

He was promoted from E-1 to E-2 rating. Following graduation he was immediately sent to his new location at Fort Belvoir, where he will receive 10 weeks training in heavy equipment with the USAE Corps.

Patrolman Finds Wrecked Car At Site Is His Own

RUPERT — State Patrolman Ron Jolley got a shock when he was called to investigate a routine accident at the Heyburn bridge Monday evening.

When he arrived he discovered a 1965 Oldsmobile which looked familiar—and proved to be his own car which he had left at Ramsey's tire shop for wheel alignment.

"I was sort of shook up for a moment until I remembered my wife did not have the car and I had left it at the tire shop," the patrolman said.

The patrolman's car was being test driven by an employee at the tire shop, Roy E. Johnson, 18, Rupert, who told officers he "looked at the river one minute and the next minute discovered a car stopped in front of him."

Traffic was being stopped by flagmen at the bridge because of repair work under way there. The patrolman's car struck the rear of a 1953 Chevrolet driven by M. Will Llewellyn, 80, Rupert. Nasser Succeeds In Concealing Defeat

By DENNIS NEEDLE
ATHENS (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser has largely succeeded so far in hiding from the Egyptian people the magnitude of Egypt's military defeat in the Sinai Desert.

But slowly the word is spreading that the Egyptian military has been routed from the battlefield with tales of rout and "horror." More and more families are being notified that their sons will never come back.

Cairo Radio and the government press maintain a steady drumfire of propaganda telling Egyptians it is only a matter of time before the lost territories are recovered.

There have been calls for a "people's war" and suggestions for arming the civilian population against Israel.

"We have lost a battle," say the commentators, "but we have not lost the war."

Only American and British planes enabled the Israelis to push back the Egyptian army, maintains the government. And it claims the Israelis still had to resort to such weapons as napalm to secure a victory. Most Egyptians have swallowed the story.

If they needed a scapegoat nearer home, they had a group of Egyptians that Nasser fired in the wake.

Generals were stunned when told the country had agreed to a "cease-fire and Nasser's prestige was at its lowest ebb. But he fought back with skill.

His emotional speech of resignation followed by military demonstrations in his favor and his subsequent change of mind put Nasser back on top.

Thousands of screaming, banner-waving Egyptians stormed through the streets cheering and chanting as if they were the war. The demonstration was undoubtedly stage-managed but the waves of pro-Nasser emotion seemed largely genuine.

The loudspeakers which only days ago echoed round the sun-baked squares of Cairo with the music and prophesies of imminent victory are muted now. The "on to Tel Aviv" banners are gone.

commentators speak of preparations and sacrifices to be made before a "second round" can be fought. Few Egyptians believe a peaceful settlement with Israel is possible and few seem to want one. They believe that for Nasser to

Bare Feet Patter In White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The patter of bare feet echoed through the staid rooms of the White House as 11 hippies toured the mansion.

They had been turned away on Tuesday by guards who looked askance at their wild up toes. But they were admitted Wednesday, along with conventionally dressed tourists for the daily White House tour.

The young men were garbed in dungarees, turtle-neck sweaters, blanket-like vests and some had beards.

A White House police spokesman said the hippies were turned away at first because their clothes were dirty and their hair was matted and we felt the regular visitors were entitled to some atmosphere of dignity." But on Wednesday they had spruced up some.

Showers Wash Away Atlanta Violence

By JOE ZELLNER
ATLANTA (AP) — Rain showers dampened hot, muggy weather and helped wash away the heat of racial violence Wednesday night after four nights of disturbances erupted in gunfire leaving one dead and several injured.

As calm returned to the predominantly Negro Dixie Hills section, "black power" advocate Stokely Carmichael, facing a hearing today on charges stemming from a brief flareup over the weekend.

Carmichael, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was arrested on a charge of failing to heed an officer's command to move on. He was freed on bond.

Police officials canceled all leaves and vacations in anticipation of more violence, but no trouble was reported Wednesday night.

A relaxation of Mayor Ivan Allen's curfew order keyed off efforts to reduce tension.

At the urging of State Sen. Leroy Johnson and other Negro leaders, Allen reduced the curfew.

Johnson said about 1,000 persons who live in the area signed a petition aimed at showing the neighborhood did not support the violence.

"We want to let the Atlanta public know that 85 per cent of the people in that area are not supporting the rioting," said Johnson, whose district includes Dixie Hills.

A dispute continued over who fired the shots which killed Willie B. Ross, 46, and critically wounded a 19-year-old Negro, after a Negro threw a gasoline bomb at officers Tuesday night.

Jessie Hill, a Negro businesswoman who heads the Atlanta Summer Conference, said the sister of the dead man had assembled 12 eye-witnesses who indicated the shots came from the direction of police.

Police officers denied firing the shots. Lt. W. K. Perry said he had discussed the shooting with several witnesses and got "sharply conflicting accounts."

However, he said a slug removed from the body was the type of buckshot used by police in riot guns.

Young GOP Unit Hears Goldwater

By JACK BELL
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — If Republican conservatives are sliding away from former Vice President Richard M. Nixon toward California Gov. Ronald Reagan for the party's 1968 presidential nomination, Barry Goldwater is not doing anything to stop them.

Goldwater, at a news conference during the Young Republican National Convention, suggested Wednesday that Reagan and Nixon sit down together soon. He said they should chart their courses to avoid a political collision that might permit a moderate like Michigan Gov. George Romney to be nominated.

The 1964 GOP presidential nominee said that while he believed in a strong conservative movement, he would not support a candidate who would be eliminated as a result of a contest.

Goldwater indicated in an interview he fears Nixon may run trouble in presidential primaries, particularly those in which potential candidates can be entered without their consent.

"I wish he could stay out of all the primaries, but I guess he can't," Goldwater said.

Reagan, he predicted, he expects to be California's favorite son candidate and will not withdraw his name from free-for-all primaries where it is entered.

Goldwater's credentials as a spokesman for a large group of party conservatives were demonstrated when he got Rex L. D'Neil, former Fairchild Ranger District, was awarded a rousing chanting. "We want Barry," welcomed the speaker.

The district's timber sale Administration program and for initiating an up-to-date district trail maintenance plan.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: Why do people who write to you say "Mary is a good Christian woman" but I am not a Christian, I'm Jewish. To be a good person, do you have to be Christian?

DEAR JEWISH: No. "Christian" when used to describe the virtues of a person, does not necessarily refer to his religious beliefs, but rather to his way of life. One who lives according to the teachings of Christ, need not be Christian. No Jew should take offense. After all, wasn't Jesus a Jew?

DEAR ABBY: I doubt if there is a man that would assist you, but this might be a first. I've never written to an advice columnist before, but you are my last hope, and I have nothing to lose.

My husband was in the service overseas and I was with him. Nearly two years ago, he was killed in Vietnam, while performing his duty (AID) in Vietnam.

Social Events

The Golden Wedding Circle will hold its annual meeting promptly at 12:30 p.m. Monday at the Odd Fellows Hall. All persons who have been married 50 years or more are invited to attend whether or not their companions are still living. Rev. Harold Nye is featured speaker and a program of old-time music is planned. Members are asked to bring a covered dish and their own table service. Coffee, ice cream, butter, sugar and rolls will be furnished.

Susan Fuller Is Bride Of Roger Wilson

SPRINGDALE — Susan Diane Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Fuller, Spanish Fork, Utah, became the bride of Roger R. Wilson, Springdale, on June 2 at the Logan LDS Temple.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Elder Rex. Accompanying the couple to the temple were the bridegroom's parents, the bride's mother, Mrs. James Bronson, Lamont, Idaho, Burley, Mr. and Mrs. Garth Wilson, Scituate, Ariz., Mrs. Iona Broadhead and Mrs. T. W. Rasmussen.

The bridegroom's parents hosted a wedding breakfast at the ceremony in Brigham City. That evening the couple was honored at a reception in the LDS Cultural Hall, Spanish Fork. The next evening the couple greeted guests at an open house at the Springdale LDS Church which was decorated with baskets of mixed flowers.

The bride wore a floor-length empire-style nylon gown enhanced with a lace train, a sweetheart neckline and long tulle sleeves. She carried a cascade arrangement of pink roses surrounded by lilies of the Valley and ribbon streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. John Magley, Logan. Bridesmaids were Ruth Ann Fuller, Jeanne Fuller and Judy Fuller, sisters of the bride.

Lamont Lyons, Burley, was best man.

Guests were registered by Becky Day, Robert Day, who was master of ceremonies for the program. Gifts were displayed by Mrs. Garth Wilson and Mrs. Charles Wilson.

Guests were served at quartet tables covered with white and centered with snifters containing pink carnations encircled in pink net.

Those serving were LeAnn Bowen, Barbara Zollinger, Mauna Rae Kidá and Penny Burgess.

In charge of the kitchen were Mrs. Broadhead, Mrs. R. Thomas Church, Mrs. Billy Kidá and Mrs. Farval Rasmussen.

Prayers were given by Garth Wilson and Horace Coltrin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bronson and Mrs. Susan Fuller are grandparents of the bride.

The couple took a wedding trip to Arizona and Southern Utah. They will reside at 65 N. 1st W., Logan.

Monika Titze, Bronson Wed In Temple Rites

VIEW — Monika TITZE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Titze, Schifferstadt, Germany, became the bride of Larry R. Bronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bronson, View, in rites May 23 at the Idaho Falls Temple.

The double ring ceremony was performed by President Willard S. Wray. Accompanying the couple to the temple were the bridegroom's parents, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Sanderson, Afton, Wyo., and Bishop and Mrs. Delos Stoker and Mr. and Mrs. John Koyle, all View.

After the ceremony, the bridegroom's parents hosted a luncheon in the temple dining room.

A reception was held June 2 at the View LDS Cultural Hall. The reception line was flanked by white beauty baskets filled with white gladioli and turquoise chrysanthemums tied with satin ribbon bows.

The bride greeted guests in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with a softly pleated skirt, a fitted bodice, a rounded neckline and long tulle point sleeves. The gown was adorned with embroidered roses of white satin. Her shoulder-length veil of embroidered illusion, which was brought from Germany, was tied with a crown of satin flowers and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses surrounded by white carnations. The gown was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

Bridesmaids were Gerlinde Harris, friend of the bride, Salt Lake City, and Terry Lynn McClellan, niece of the bridegroom. Flower girls were Kerma McClellan and Lee Ann Jensen.

Richard Williams, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Richard Williams, sister of the bridegroom. Gifts were arranged by Mrs. Milton Payne, Mrs. Alfred Crane Jr. and Mrs. Orval Scarle. Those carrying gifts were Kent McClellan, Byron McClellan, Myron McClellan and Kim Jensen.

The bride's table was covered with lace and centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake topped with beaded hearts, satin wedding bells and lilies of the Valley. White satin bows and turquoise sugar bells completed the table decor.

The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Ellis Jensen, aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. Eward Gibby and Mrs. Leslie Dana cut and served the cake. Punch was poured by Mrs. Arvel Rasmussen, Mrs. David Moffett and Mrs. Reid Angus. Assisting with service were Cheryl Crandall, Irene Rasmussen, Louise Howard, Bernice Bryan, Mary-Eta Bowen, Donetta Gibby, Wendy French, Janan Stoker and Ronda Wright.

Guests were served at quartet tables covered with white lace and centered with turquoise napkins nestled in white satin ribbon bows.

Bishop Milton C. Payne was master of ceremonies for the program. Prayers were given by Arthur McClellan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and James Nowland.

Music for dancing was provided by the John Stone Orchestra.

After a honeymoon trip, the couple will reside at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

Double Ring Wedding Rites Unite Couple

The first Baptist Church was the setting for the June 1 wedding of Shirley Pendergraft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pendergraft, Twin Falls, and Peter Blumenthal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blumenthal, Queens, Long Island, New York.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Ernest Haschick before a backdrop of baskets of white gladioli, blue chrysanthemums and pink carnations, and candelabra adorned with sprays of blue carnations and pink and white points tied with pink bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory peau de soie with Chantilly lace over dress embroidered with tiny seed pearls and sequins. Her train was of silk illusion edged with lace. The gown had a fashioned especially for the bride by her mother.

Her elbow-length mantilla veil was made of silk illusion trimmed in lace. She carried a crescent bouquet of pink roses accented with rhinestone clusters.

Karen Pendergraft, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Vicky Earl, cousin of the bride, Janice Ellis and Penny Ward, all Twin Falls.

Dee Pendergraft, Twin Falls, was best man, and ushers were Ellis Pendergraft, 10 years old, and John Ireland, Santa Monica, Calif. The candles were lighted by Dee Pendergraft and John Ireland.

David Hayes, Roy Utah, was soloist, and Nancy Brackett, Twin Falls, was organist.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall, Nan Larsen, Twin Falls, registered the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a white floor-length decaron flounce over pale pink satin and caught at the edges with flower swags of blue carnations and green chrysanthemums. It was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink roses and white wedding bells edged in blue and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom in a heart-shaped lace archway.

The bridegroom's table was covered with a lace cloth over pink and centered with a bouquet of green pom poms and blue carnations.

Mrs. Dean Earl, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Charles Crockett, Hansen, Punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Ora Jones and Mrs. Oran Jones, aunts of the bride. Gifts were displayed by Linda Ulrich and Judy Ward.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip to New York City and will reside in Provo, Utah, this summer where the bridegroom will receive his master's degree from Brigham Young University in August.

Pre-nuptial showers honoring the bride were given by Janie Filzer and Janet Triplett in Filzer and by the women of the Hollister community. The bride's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner.

Mothers Club Reports June Business Meet

The June meeting of the Mothers Club of the Twin Falls First Christian Church was held recently at the home of Mrs. Denny Canfield. Mrs. Keith Jensen reported that the club made approximately $80 in a fund raising project.

Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Paul Moseley brought articles for the Victory Mission, and these will be packed and sent by July 1. Mrs. Alice Reed, home extension agent, was guest speaker.

Her speech was entitled, "Color Becomes You." Each member was given a color wheel and a self-analysis check sheet. Mrs. Jim Bolton and Mrs. Hansen were models who demonstrated colors one should wear.

Mrs. Ron Bohanan gave the evening devotional service, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Canfield. It was announced that no meetings will be held during July and August.

SQUARE DANCE

PAUL—Johnny Cowates, caller of the River Reelers Square Dance Club, will call for a free square dance to be held at 8:30 p.m. June 21 at the Paul Shopping Center in conjunction with the Paul Farm Festival. Anyone interested in an evening of square dancing is invited to attend and refreshments will be served following the dance.

Area CowBelles Plan Luncheon For July 15

RUPERT—The Mini-Cassia CowBelles made plans for the annual luncheon to be held at 12:30 p.m. July 15 at the Ponderosa Chaparral Room when members meet at the home of Mrs. James Horner.

Mrs. Martha Estes is in charge of arrangements for the luncheon, and Mrs. Hylak Beaver is program chairman.

Mrs. Martha Estes, chairman, reported on the "Best for Father's Day" project the club again sponsored this year. They awarded best roasts to the county resident fathers whose babies were born first on or following Father's Day at both the Cassia Memorial Hospital and Mindokka Memorial Hospital.

Tommy Wadsworth, Burley, won the award at the Cassia Memorial Hospital for the birth of his son on Sunday. No winner has yet appeared in Mindokka County.

The hand-tooled leather cover for the club scrapbook, which was designed by Peggy Clayville and made by two craft students at Minico High School, was on display.

Workshop Held By Gem Artists

ELBA—Mrs. Lovina Tuttle, Elba artist and member of the Desert Art Guild, has joined their artists from Southern Idaho at a workshop held from June 12 to 24 at Pershing School, Rupert.

The workshop is under the direction of Merlin Enabitt, a well-known artist from Chicago. Mr. Enabitt holds membership in the Royal Society of Arts of Great Britain, and his paintings of United Nations leaders and for Hollywood movie studios have won him world acclaim.

At the close of the course, a critique and a painting demonstration by Mr. Enabitt will be held.

RANAE STOKES

Ranae Stokes, Miner Disclose Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon P. Stokes announce the engagement of their daughter, Ranae, to Gerry Lance Miner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn A. Miner, Orem, Utah.

Miss Stokes was graduated from Twin Falls High School in 1962 and has been attending Brigham Young University, Provo. She is presently employed at Sears, Roebuck and Co. here.

Mr. Miner was graduated from Orem High School in 1961 and is also a student at Brigham Young University. He has filled an LDS mission to Canada.

The couple will be married July 20 in the Idaho Falls LDS Temple, with a reception to be held that evening at the Carillon Wedding Chapel, Twin Falls.

The following week they will be feted at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Orem.

Rebekah Degree Is Conferred By Area Unit

WENDELL—The Rebekah degree was conferred for two candidates by the degree team of Idaho Rebekah Lodge No. 95 recently at the IOOF Hall. Mrs. Ralph Baker was enrolled as a member of the Idaho Rebekah Lodge and Mrs. Nettie Watson was initiated by courtesy for the Rebekah Lodge No. 110, Jerome.

Mrs. Minnie Jewell, Jerome lodge deputy, was introduced by Mrs. Owen Bolan. She was welcomed and presented a corsage by Mrs. Belle Quay, noble grand.

Communications were read concerning a reception for Mrs. Ruth Cheney, Rebekah Assembly president, July 9 at Bellevue, with members of Mayflower Rebekah Lodge, No. 43 as hosts. A reception for R. E. Rollis, grand master of the IOOF Lodge, will be held Saturday at the Potlatch IOOF Temple.

Reports of the recent district meeting held at Fairfield were given by Mrs. J. C. Kendrick and Mrs. Orlando Jackson.

Kenneth R. Jones, grand secretary of the Washington IOOF Lodge, will be featured speaker for the 21st annual Dead Horse Cave Association meeting to be held at Gooding July 8. Guided tours will be conducted through the cave between the hours of 4 and 5 p.m. and dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. at the Gooding Grange Hall. The degree will be conferred at the cave.

The Cave Women will be in charge of the program for the women and the guests. At 10 p.m., the men will join his women for the address to be given by Kenneth Jones.

Plans were made to assist the activities of the annual Cave Day and members volunteered to assist and to furnish cookies.

Mrs. Glenn Bright, lodge musician, was honored by the noble grand for her faithful work. She was presented a gift from the lodge by Mrs. Quay.

The thought for the day was read by Mrs. Ray Tener. A joint summer picnic for Rebekahs and Odd Fellows was discussed. No definite date was set.

Mrs. Homer L. Goble, Mrs. Roy Bishop and Mrs. Ralph Black were in charge of the supper by Mrs. Ray Tener. A joint

Ritual Honors Three Members

BUIHL—"The Order of the Rose" ritual was given to honor three Beta Sigma Phi members of the XI Omicron Chapter when they met recently at the home of Mrs. Jay Shropshire.

Recipients of the honor were Mrs. Bob Jones, Mrs. Jack Joslin and Mrs. Max Smith. The "Order of the Rose" is an honor given only to Beta Sigma Phi members who have been in the sorority for 15 years or longer, and is designed to express the gratitude and esteem of the chapter toward the active members who have distinguished themselves in Beta Sigma Phi.

Special guests for the evening included Mrs. Everett Husted, the first Beta Sigma Phi sponsor; Mrs. R. B. Love, present sponsor; and Mrs. James H. Shields, International honoree member.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. McClain.

Plans were made for a family picnic to be held in July. Games were played, with high score going to Mrs. Holmgren, and low to Mrs. Vinnis Boardright.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. McClain.

2:30 P.M. SUMMARY

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued lower late this afternoon. Trading was active.

There was the picture near the close. Volume for the first four hours was 63.1 million shares compared with 72.6 million on Wednesday.

Losers outnumbered gainers by about 5 and the industrial average was down moderately.

Selected blue chips weakened but a number of speculative favorites were up.

Wall Street was cautious over Middle East tensions and the chance of a summit meeting between President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

There were more gains than losses at the start but this situation gradually reversed itself.

Chicago—6 North-Western rebounded 3 points, IBM, Du Pont were partly responsible for a gain of more than 20 percent for this low-priced stock.

Mack Trucks was active and rose 1 1/2 points.

Polaroid lost 2 1/2 while Eastern Air Lines, American Smelting International Telephone and Sears Roebuck fell about a point each.

Chicago—6 North-Western rebounded 3 points, IBM, Du Pont were partly responsible for a gain of more than 20 percent for this low-priced stock.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE

I am a widow, with a number of investments. My common stock has increased in value since I bought them. I wish I could say the same thing about my preferred stocks and bonds. I sold them now. I would lose about $2,000. I would lose about $500.

I check my investments with my broker every month. But I still don't seem to do well. Would it be better for me to turn this responsibility over to a trust department of an investment advisory service?

If you're looking for peace of mind and are willing to turn your investment decisions over to someone else, you could try a trust department. It's all there is to it.

Many people feel as you do. Their reasoning is that when you buy a security at one price and sell it at a different price, the difference should be reported as a capital gain or loss.

That is true for most securities. And, if you own a security for more than six months, the profit from the sale is a long-term capital gain—the tax on which is only half that of the tax on ordinary income and never more than 25 percent.

But, with most securities, there is no guarantee that you will get more dollars and cents than you paid. There's always the risk you will lose dollars and take a capital loss.

E bonds are different. They are "discount securities." There is never any doubt that you will take more dollars out than you put in. You can't lose dollars with U.S. Savings Bonds. There is no risk involved. You must report the guaranteed interest income on your tax return. You have no choice.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)

NL Outfielders Pose Problem For All-Star Voters

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—When the National League starts voting Thursday for their 1967 All-Star team they are going to have a tough time not filling the lineup with outfielders.

Of the top 10 hitters in the National League, seven are outfielders, starting with Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, whose .388 led both majors after Tuesday night's games.

Furthermore, outfielders man the lead position in six of the seven individual categories that the statisticians keep. Orlando Cepeda, the St. Louis first baseman who used to play the outfield at times when he was with the San Francisco Giants, leads in doubles. All the rest are outfielders.

Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves is tops in homers and runs scored. Red-hot Jim Wynn of the Houston Astros leads in runs batted in. Lou Brock of the St. Louis Cardinals has the most hits and also the most stolen bases. Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs has the most triples. Of course, Clemente is the percentage leader.

The one non-outfielder among the top 10 hitters in the National League, Tim Lincecum of St. Louis, and Richie Allen, Philadelphia third baseman.

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOVEY
Times Staff Editor

Somewhere in the world there's a man who can run the 100-yard dash in 8.8, the marathon in under two hours and the triathlon in two hours and 45 minutes. This follows the same theory that there is some guy somewhere in the world who would make the world boxing champion look like a fool in the ring.

Hovey

There is a ball player that would make you forget about Jim Thorpe, Ernie Nevers, etc.

These theories get continual support on the field of competition and University of Idaho's Steve Brown added some fuel last week when he let his NCAA high jump championship.

There is always a series of coincidences that lead up to make a story like the one Brown is writing. Here's a kid out of New York who never tried the high jump until he moved into Idaho as a mid-term fresh 14 months ago. It is a strange ball player and was talked into trying the high jump because of his ability to jump when rebounding.

So all you can say is the boy, going probably anywhere else in the nation, would never have become an NCAA champion with a shot at being in his country in the Olympics.

Consider all these things. If the boy were a little better, the basketball player probably would have been attracted to a larger school, which definitely would have let him improve anything but his hook shot. If Idaho had a track team of any consequence, or more realistically, a high jumper in the 6'5 to 6'8 range, Brown wouldn't have had the best put on him to try it. And if Brown himself wanted to be a champion, he would have declined the track invitation and stayed with basketball.

Put a whole sequence of circumstances together—like that that and you realize it's more than a minor miracle that Brown ever done what he did. Let alone become an NCAA champion. One instance like that and you also know that there is a great deal of talent and God-given ability totally undiscovered in this country. And then consider other places in the world where great talents have been discovered yet!

The NCAA affair in Provo was well attended by Magic Valley and Southern Idaho coaches and high school runners. Twin Falls' Scott Cryder spent Saturday evening studying the pole vaulters and saw one at 17 feet, 4 inches. Doug Flint, a Brulin double hurdler, a state champion, came away from the finals of the high school meet. Can't believe it. They're so smooth." All but a couple of the state's larger schools had their head track coaches there.

But the most frustrated must have been Cubby Holt, Idaho State track coach, who had three men qualify for the meet. Holt has been working hard trying to build a strong track program at ISU and has been doing well generally. He has Holt, his distance man, Roger Maxfield, was lapped twice by two men in the six mile. Tim Dunne, a double high, and now ISU runner, is the finest quarter-miler to ever come out of the state. In the preliminaries Dunne equalled the state record at 47.5 but came in seventh. There were three other preliminary races in that event.

It seems almost to recall Dunne to last place in a qualifying heat when you know he holds a handful of records for this area.

The out cutting blow of all, at least for one ISU fan, was that Idaho, with its basketball player—Stephen Brown—outscored the Bengals 10-0 and had a national champion.

"We beat (Idaho) 60 points in a dual meet," the ISU fan moaned.

Although Idaho has made its greatest athletic strides in the last 10 years in track and field, a quick look at something like the affair at Provo shows there's still room for a national improvement. But let it be noted that every track writer in the present at Provo, at least the ones who looked in, were fans of Allen Judd, Welser, the sophomore with a 1:58.8 half-mile time. Although someone got carried away earlier this spring and said Judd's time was still the best in the nation, he ranked probably 250th. But for a sophomore there appears to be one other in the nation and probably his best was the same as Judd's.

Detroit And Twins Battle To 5-5 Draw

DETROIT (AP)—Intermittent rain, which caused the game to start an hour late and then forced four delays, in play finally ended Wednesday night's Detroit-Twins battle in a 5-5 draw.

The Tigers took a 2-0 first-inning lead on Al Janda's hit home run following a single by Dick McAuliffe against Jim Merritt.

The Twins battled back to score five runs on Harmon Killebrew's 20th and 21st home runs of the season, which drove in three runs.

Starter Earl Wilson was the victim of Killebrew's first home run, a two-run shot in the third inning. Red Carraway, who had doubled on base.

Money OK'd For Fish Hatchery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has appropriated $375,000 for work on the federal fish hatchery near Kootenai in southeastern Idaho.

Frank DeChloro, D-Idaho, Wednesday.

Although the appropriation is $30,000 less than the original congressional appropriation for the project, "the fish and wildlife service has assured me this reduction will not impair construction progress," Church said.

Construction of buildings, power lines, domestic water, sewage and other related work will be used during the coming fiscal year, with the project to cost an eventual $1.4 million.

FREE FOR ALL erupts in the second inning of the Boston-New York game at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night. Melrose started when Yankee pitcher Thad Tilton was moving toward first base after being hit by a pitch thrown by Boston's Jim Longborn. He exchanged words with Longborn and was rushed by Boston third baseman Joe Foy, who had been hit on the helmet by a Tilton pitch in the top half of the inning. Nobody was hurt but Boston won the game 8-1.

Brawl Marks Sox' Victory Over Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Conigliaro smashed a three-run homer and Carl Yastrzemski drove in three runs with three straight hits, leading the Boston Sox to an 8-1 victory over the New York Yankees in a brawl-filled game Wednesday night.

Conigliaro's three-run shot in the first inning gave Jim Lonborg a quick lead and the lanky right-hander went the route for his ninth victory.

Lonborg and Yankee starter Thad Tilton played the main roles in the brawl which started in the second inning. Tilton had hit Joe Foy in the helmet with a pitch in the top half of the inning and then Lonborg hit the Yankee pitcher in the shoulder.

As Tilton trotted toward first base, he exchanged words with Lonborg and suddenly Foy, Boston's third baseman, started towards the Yankee base.

Both dugouts emptied and it took 12 special policemen to separate the players. Joe Pepitone suffered a sprained wrist in Boston.

Concern Is Shown Over Salmon Run

SALMON.—Idaho fishery officials told members of the Oregon-Idaho Committee of Commerce that the solution of fish passage problems on the Columbia should be the greatest concern of everyone interested in the survival of the salmon and steelhead runs.

John Woodworth, director of the Idaho Fish and Game Department, said that if Idahoans carried out threats to go fishing if Oregon and Washington continue to fish, it would hurt the commercial fishery but only Idaho.

He said that of the spring chinook run in the Columbia only 34 per cent originates in Idaho, 41 per cent in the summer run and five per cent of the fall run. Of the summer steelhead run, 53 per cent originates in Idaho; winter steelhead, none; sockeye, one per cent; coho, 65 per cent, and chinook, none.

The department's director, who was invited here with Roy J. Holmes, Twin Falls, Fish and Game Commission member, said that Idaho contributed only 10 per cent of the 1,514,000 fish which entered the Columbia River last year.

"To suggest that a study now underway with federal funds to determine reasons for fish losses between Bonnaville Dam on the lower Columbia and Ice Harbor Dam on the Snake River is the biggest hope Idaho has for maintaining the runs.

Holmes cautioned the Chamber of Commerce that the study was being done to solve the salmon problem and thus creating the Impression salmon is the only thing the area has.

"If you hit too hard on salmon you are dragging down the other resources and your own fish and fishermen will stay away," he warned.

Reservoirs Continue To Hold Best Prospects For Fishermen

BOISE (AP)—Best fishing continues to be provided in reservoirs and lakes with most streams still high and roily, the Idaho Fish and Game Department said Wednesday in its weekly summary.

"Much snow is still on the ground in the high country in spite of some hot days and heavy rains," the report said. "Streams will hold a good flow of water for some time. Back country roads are closed for the most part.

"High roily waters also have affected salmon fishing. Very few are being caught even though they are in the upper Salmon River drainage. They are jumping over Dagger Falls, but fish caught there as yet.

"Reservoirs are fair fishing but is raising about one foot per day. Big Lost River, Parsons, Warm Springs and Antelope Creeks are fair to good fishing. Little Lost River should improve this week. Sand Creek Wildlife Management area reservoirs are fair fishing with heavy pressure.

"The Challis district reports that the water is still high and muddy on the East Fork. Mormon Reservoir clear. Upper South Fork of the Boise is high and roily as are Big and Little Smokies.

South of Snake River all roads are snow free in South Hills, except to Lake Cleveland, and all streams are clearing and dropping.

Perch fishing in Salmon Falls Reservoir improving. Flagstaff Valley waters clear except for Malad River.

Major lakes in Stanley Basin have catch rate of one fish per hour. Main Salmon is still high and roily. Salmon catch rate in upper Salmon is very slow. Road up Yankee Fork is open to travel now and summit into Loon Creek is open. Big Wood is high and muddy except for upper reaches above the mouth of the North Fork. Trail Creek summit is open.

Fish Creek Reservoir and Little Wood Reservoir are still turbid. Magic Reservoir is clearing slightly and Richfield canal is running fairly clear. Magic Reservoir is still spilling, the Big Wood below is high.

Ermer Won't Discuss Fines Of Players

DETROIT (AP)—Minnesota Twins Manager Cal Ermer declined to discuss what disciplinary measures he took Wednesday following a near fist fight between outfielder Tony Oliva and utility man "Doc" Hubbard.

"Measures will be taken, but I never discuss fines publicly," said Ermer, following a team meeting.

Oliva, two-time American League batting champion, whose average has sagged because of injuries this season, and Hubbard exchanged heated words on the team bus between the airport and a Detroit hotel earlier in the day.

The Oliva-Hubbard rift was the second such incident to hit a major league team within 48 hours. Sunday night, Atlanta Braves outfielder Hank Aaron and Rico Carty exchanged punches on a Los Angeles-bound plane.

Sells Groat

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies sold veteran shortstop Dick Groat to the San Francisco Giants for the waiver price Wednesday.

Groat, acquired from St. Louis in the fall of 1965, had been sidelined most of the season with inflammation of the right ankle. He returned June 9, but has seen limited action.

Bauer To Manage All-Star Squad

BOSTON (AP)—Hank Bauer, manager of the world champion Baltimore Orioles, will manage the American League team in the 39th All-Star Game to be played at Anaheim, July 11.

American League President Joe Cronin announced Wednesday that Bauer's coaches will be Eddie Stanky, Chicago White Sox manager, and Bill Rigney of the California Angels.

Clay Lets Lawyers Carry Fight, Contents Himself With World Boxing Crown

By B.F. KELLUM
HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay, as talkative as ever, formally accepted his five-year prison sentence Wednesday and said he is still the heavyweight champion of the world, and would accept anybody. "Shadowboxing and joking in the Federal Building corridors and elevators," Clay appeared to be kidding about his conviction Tuesday on a charge of refusing to be inducted into the armed services. In addition to the prison sentence, U.S. Dist. Judge Joe Ingraham fined Clay $10,000.

Reds Rally In Ninth To Edge Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — Vada Pinson opened the ninth inning with a double and came around on a fly and an infield out, breaking a tie and lifting the Cincinnati Reds to a 3-2 victory over Houston Wednesday night, breaking a four-game losing streak.

Pinson's hit came off Larry Dierker, 6-5. He took third on Tony Perez's fly and scored as Dierker threw out Ted May. Perez and May homered for Cincinnati's first two runs, Perez hitting his 15th into the left field seats leading off the second and May slanting his fifth into the centerfield seats opening the seventh.

Mets Blank Phillies 2-0 On Two Hits

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Right-hander Jack Fisher threw a two-hitter and the New York Mets took advantage of three hit batsmen and an error to defeat Philadelphia 2-0 Wednesday night.

Sutherland got both hits off Fisher, the first a double leading off the sixth inning and the second a single opening the eighth. Fisher leased both hits walks in the sixth, but got out of a bases-loaded jam by getting Bill White to ground out.

Biminians Begin To Ponder Question Of Powell's Stay

By AUSTIN SCOTT
BIMINI—Bahamas (AP)—There are no "Adam Go Home" signs in Bimini, and with the praise that flows every time representative-elect Adam Clayton Powell's name is mentioned, there aren't likely to be any. Nonetheless, some Biminians are beginning to ponder the same question being asked in Harlem circles: Why doesn't he go home, at least for a visit?

"Adam Powell is a nice man who works near the two bars which Powell most often frequents," But I don't think he's being fair to the people who elected him."

Several groups in Harlem have voiced the same opinion since Powell, a Democrat, won a landslide re-election April 11 to the House of Representatives seat from which the House excluded him March 1.

Powell has said he is afraid there will be civil disturbances if he returns to Harlem and is arrested. Two contempt-of-court, arrest warrants still threaten him if he sets foot in New York State.

Several Harlem groups have sent telegrams to Powell urging him to come home—Most point out that even if he is arrested, he would simply be joining the ranks of such Negro leaders as Dr. Martin Luther King and CORE's Floyd McKissick.

A telegram sent last month by a group of Harlem ministers to Powell urged him to "fight it on the streets of Harlem," not in Bimini. It was liberally quoted in an editorial in the New York Courier, one of Harlem's two weekly newspapers.

Two weeks ago J. Raymond Jones, formerly head of Tammany Hall, a Negro and once a strong Powell supporter, surprised everyone with a statement that Powell, veteran of 22 years in Congress, could never regain the power he once had.

It looked to some like the opening of a "get-Powell" campaign. The Rev. R. M. Kinloch, chairman of Harlem's Protestant Council and a signer of the ministers' telegram, said he knew of several persons who were considering running against the congressman-elect in the next election, a little more than a year away.

"We stood up and fought for him," Kinloch said. "Now the question is, will he stand up and fight for us?"

Jones blamed Powell's downfall on his alliance with "fascist" groups, particularly those supporting black power.

Some Bimini residents also question what they say is his constant discussion of black power and being black.

"He talks about it all the time," said one of a crew that transports tourists around the two small islands that make up Bimini. "Don't put my name down in no newspapers," he said, in a reaction common among islanders when asked about the visiting politician.

Even the Sunday sermons that Powell used to give regu-

What-Is-It?

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big What-Is-It? is riding in Chicago's Civic Center Plaza.

Steel workers have assembled from prefabricated sections—a sculpture—by Pablo that stands 50 feet tall.

What it represents depends on the individual looker's interpretation of what Picasso had in mind when he designed the work. Most "passerby" view it from all angles and ask one another, "What is it?"

Patrick Lyndon Making Progress

By FRANCES LEWINE
AUSTIN TEX (AP)—Lucy Johnson Nugent gave her baby his first bottle of sugar and water, and doctors reported everything was going well with the President's daughter and her first grandchild.

Patrick Lyndon Nugent was reported making perfect progress in the maternity wing of Seton Hospital, where he was born Wednesday morning.

"Everybody's happy," said father Patrick J. Nugent as he gave an interview Wednesday night, 12 hours after the birth of his first child.

The baby was wheeled in his bassinet into Lucy's hospital room for a first-feeding-of-water and glucose, Nugent said.

The 23-year-old Nugent smilingly confessed he found fatherhood an enjoyable experience.

He reported his 10-year-old wife "gay and cheerful." She had received a telegram from which Nugent said Lyndon B. Johnson sent word that "his prayers were with her."

There was a continuing flow of flowers for the President's daughter at the hospital, where she and her baby were occupying the fourth-floor maternity wing hospital rooms under Secret Service guard.

One of the floral displays moved into Lucy's room, came from New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a White House spokesman here said.

Nugent handed out cigars and candy as he announced with tears in his eyes and in a cracking voice early Wednesday that his wife had given birth to an 8-pound, 10-ounce baby boy, 21 inches long.

"It's an elephant, isn't it?" Nugent confided he "chose" the name for his first offspring. It was a combination of his own name and that of his paternal grandfather with a middle name if Lyndon after his father-in-law, the President.

He also confided he had expected his first child to be a girl. "I don't know why," he smiled.

The President and First Lady expressed their happiness and believed as well that the birth went without a hitch.

Lucy was in labor at the hospital for six hours and her delivery team of five doctors said it was a perfectly normal labor and delivery.

Family and friends were notified and Nugent said he called his brother, Gerard P. Nugent Jr., in San Diego, Calif., whose wife, Phyllis, is expecting a baby any time now.

Meanwhile wives were settling into a routine at the hospital for Luci and her newborn son.

Visiting with her during the evening, Nugent decided what his wife should choose from the hospital menu. Instead of the dinner offerings, he picked hot cereal, to the surprise of the nurse on duty.

RECEIVING AN Eagle Scout rank at a court of honor in the Minidoka LDS stake center is Melvin Ray Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Smith, Rupert. Young Smith, a member of Explorer Post 131, sponsored by the Aequa second ward and led by Wendell Young, is shown with his mother. The new Eagle Scout also has earned the Duty to God award and will be a senior at Minico High School this fall.

State Legislatures Take Big Tax Bites

CHICAGO (AP)—State legislatures are taking bigger and bigger tax bites either through tapping new sources of funds or by increasing rates, a survey showed today.

The survey was made by Commerce Clearing House, a private agency that reports to its subscribers a tax and business law. It summarized major tax changes enacted so far in 1967 thus far.

Nebraska has levied both a corporate and personal income tax, effective for 1967.

Texas has authorized local sales and use taxes of 1 per cent which would apply to the same property and allow the same exemptions as the 2 per cent state tax. Nevada has also imposed a mandatory 1 per cent county sales and use tax similar to the 2 per cent tax.

Examinations For U.S. Jobs Listed

R. O. Finney, Twin Falls civil service examiner, announced Tuesday that five new positions are now open for examinations.

There are cook, $17.77 per month; janitor, $17.77 per month; and a clerk, $17.77 per month. Applications are accepted until 5 p.m. Friday at the First Baptist Church.

NIXON ARRIVES TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon arrived in Tel Aviv Wednesday night for a two-day visit. He said any Arab-Israeli settlement should be underwritten by the major powers, particularly the United States and the Soviet Union.

"Dirty Bomb"

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government said today it believed China's first hydrogen bomb detonated Saturday was a "dirty bomb."

A dirty bomb will generate several thousand times more radioactive dust than the so-called clean hydrogen bombs of the United States and the Soviet Union, an announcement by the government's Radioactive Countermeasures Headquarters said.

A Japanese scientist observed "Communist China apparently tested a dirty bomb, which is more easy to test explode technically."

Buhl VFW Holds Monthly Meeting

BUHL — Members of the Buhl VFW Post No. 3601 Veterans of Foreign Wars, have decided to hold only one meeting a month during the summer.

The meeting will be held on the second Monday of each month.

"Lite-a-bike" tape, for use on motor bikes, bicycles, and farm machinery, was ordered by the group.

It was decided to hold the annual VFW and auxiliary family picnic July 16 at Eastern Park. Bill Hopple and John Smithson were named to attend the VFW state convention held June 14-17 in Rupert.

Chinese Singers To Give Concert

A group of young musicians from free China, the Taiwan Television Singers, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church.

The public is invited to attend and there is no admission charge. This is the first United States tour for the young group. Local church officials said they were well received during their appearances in California.

The appearances here are sponsored by the Baptist Central Association of Youth Fellowship groups in Magic Valley.

VIENNA COUP IS SLAM KEY

One of the special tools in every expert's kit bag is the "Grand Slam Force." Invented by Ely Culbertson in 1934, this bid languished in limbo for a showed two of the three top honors. At least this is the way that particular pair play the convention. There is no standard agreement on it. East had started harassing with his four spade bid. He continued to sit and seven and south took the push to seven, no-trump.

South may well have been a genius at bidding. His play was from that. He won the spade lead with his ace and started after the hearts. The last heart lead reduced his hand to four clubs and the ace of diamonds. West simply held on to his four clubs and South fell one trick short of the grand slam. Do you see how South should have played his hand? He should have cashed his ace of diamonds before starting on the hearts. The play is known as the Vienna Coup and would have insured the contract against West's club diamond holding. West would come down to four clubs. West would have to chuck his king of diamonds or a low club and South would have made his grand slam.

long time simply because it was too advanced for those early days. It has been revived in the last 10 years. South was well up on all bidding conventions and his five no-trump call is perfect example of this bid at work. It asked North about the quality of his trumps. West's South might have assumed that North would not open a vulnerable three heart bid in second seat without both the king and queen, but there was no harm in finding out. North would have rebid clubs with either the king or queen, six diamonds with just the ace, and his six heart bid

Today's Question: You bid four hearts. West doubles. East goes to four spades. What do you do now? Answer: Next Issue

ELE AND WALT-DULANEY

Love's Out On A Limb

Dear Walt: I have an opinion on this obviously, but I like you professional advice. The question is: how sincere is a girl who says she "loves" a boy, but then backs his ring and says she won't go steady with him again until his cast comes off his leg. If you wouldn't guess) me. The reason she gave for breaking up is that we couldn't do anything but break my leg was in the cast; and therefore she'd get "restless."—Ex-Skier.

Dear Eli: I'd say the gal had a lot to learn about real life. If I were you, I'd have a serious debate with myself before I ever returned that ring to her finger. —Walt.

Dear Eli: I have a gracious way to refuse a date without hurting the boy's feelings but still leaving yourself in clear to accept another boy's invitation? Or, if you say "no" I made two new friends and we went places together. The schedules were changed, and the girls were in classes with the girl I used to be best friends with. I was not to know if they did it on purpose, but they excluded me to with her. I don't bear any grudge when the date of them together and I have an invitation, I make it to all three of them. But when my ex-friend has a party she invites them right in front of me and doesn't ask me. This hurts. I don't know what I did wrong to cause this.

Dear Lonely: Some people really have bad manners, don't they? Or are you too sensitive? Could it be that the invitation is general, but you have the feeling that she doesn't want you? What happens when you invite her? Does she come? And if so do you make her feel as if she's the other two girls? Did you omit her from all your parties last semester after making two new friends? The other two girls supply the answers. But I'll challenge you to a dare. How about calling her in early summer and suggesting just a picnic date? You might go shopping, catch a movie or have lunch, but still regard her as a person. It might thaw your frosty relationship. No one's so fitch that they can discard friends without pain!—Eli.

Sun Valley Music Camp Scholarships Winners Are Listed

SUN VALLEY.—In its four years Sun Valley Music Camp which begins here next month has quadrupled in enrollment and represents students from 23 states and several foreign countries.

Also, according to Mrs. Donald Youtz, Twin Falls, scholarship chairman, more students have qualified for scholarships this summer. The camp opens July 3 and ends Aug. 19.

The seven-week camp features a faculty of some of the best known performers in the country, headed by Jacques Bour-

Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker, Kimberly, and Carole Overby, Buhl.

Susan McKeever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKeever, Nampa, who won the $300 Ernest Hemingway Memorial Alternates are Nancy Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Greer, Twin Falls.

The Gorton-Hopper Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Mrs. Francis Corey, Jerome.

Accepting partial Sun Valley Music Camp scholarships are Nancy Wilson, Hazelton; Janis Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson, Twin Falls; Mildred Johnson, Blackfoot; Margaret Mead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mead, Twin Falls; Rebecca Porter, Rexburg; Lisa Cerveney, Caldwell; Susan Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kramer, Twin Falls; Kristen Hicken, Rexburg; Marguerite Lewis, daughter of Agnes Lewis, Twin Falls; Jeanette Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reese, Castleford; Jo Ann Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vincent, Filer; Gordon Graff, Murtaugh; Nancy Sampson and Sally Sampson, all Pocatello; Sherril Sullins, Fruit-

will be Dean of Women at the camp. Velma Guyer, Twin Falls, and Diane Warner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Warner, Twin Falls, have been offered counsellorships to attend the full seven weeks serving as Mrs. Hackney's assistants.

Five new musicians will be joining the camp staff this summer including Oscar Clausen, pianist; Linda Elliott, Aberdeen; Ralph Watlo, soloist; Aldo Mancinelli, virtuoso pianist and Norman Abelson, operatic baritone.

Adult classes for college credit will be given on Saturdays. Music History will be taught by Elmer Thomas; opera workshop by Norman Abelson; ballet by Gordon Paxson; choral by Mrs. Thomas; and private lessons. If instructors' time permits.

Anyone wishing information should call Mrs. Youtz, 733-7905.

T.F. Labor Unit Grants Scholarships

Two scholarships for students of the College of Southern Idaho, Twin Falls, have been awarded for the coming school year by the Twin Falls Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

Winners of the awards are Doug Bulcher, Route 1, Kimberly, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bulcher, and Judy Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dosselt, Route 2, Twin Falls.

Miss Dosselt will enter her sophomore year at CSI in the fall, and was also the winner

Bulcher Dosselt of the labor council scholarship this year. She was on the dean's list last year and maintained a high scholastic standing, college officials said. In addition she was vice president of the Spanish club. A major in sociology she hopes to become a social worker.

Mr. Bulcher is a graduate of the Twin Falls High School and will enter CSI in the fall as a freshman.

He served as president of his sophomore and senior classes, member of the student council for three years and as band vice president and president.

Mr. Bulcher was also pep band president and active in debate, wrestling, served as boys state representative and was king of the junior-senior prom.

He was also selected as recipient of the student award during the past year. Mr. Bulcher hopes to become a secondary school teacher and possibly guidance counselor when he is able to return to school for a Master's Degree.

Two Pocatello Music Club awards of $200 were given to Doris Salzman, Pocatello, and Gail Rein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rein, Idaho Falls, with Mildred Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson, Blackfoot, and Kristine Hicken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Hicken, Rexburg, as alternates.

Carla Blastock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blastock, Filer, and Shell Zundel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Zundel, Boise, won the $300 Sun Valley Music Camp scholarships. Miss Blastock's alternates are Lucy McMillin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James McMillin, Buhl, and Steven Kearsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kearsley, Buhl. Alternates to Miss Zundel were Lisa Kearsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cerveney, Caldwell, and Joan Rawlings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rawlings, Nampa.

Jack Matteson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Matteson, Home- dale, and Tenley Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Phyllis Taylor, Caldwell, were awarded two Union Pacific scholarships. Alternates are Velma Squires, Twin Falls, and David Hart, Boise.

Two Dietitians Group of Magic Valley scholarships were awarded to Lial Kofod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kofod, Jerome, and Gene Todd Memorial, Boise, and Laura Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vincent, Filer. The Dietitians seven-week award of $25. Alternates were Carla Blastock and Velma Guyer.

The Twin Falls Music Club's $500 went to Jan Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Olson, Twin Falls; Janet Kofod, Jerome; Steven Kearsley, Buhl; Janice Greer, Twin Falls; and Gordon Graff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Graff, Murtaugh.

Humphrey Plans Trip To Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will fly to Korea next Wednesday to witness the inauguration of President Chung Hee Park, the White House announced Wednesday.

Humphrey, who will be accompanied by his wife, will spend several days in South Korea.

For Modern Weight Control Follow The Profile Plan To Curb Appetite:

WORKS 3 WAYS TO HELP KEEP YOU FROM OVEREATING

Eating 2 slices of Profile Special Formula Bread 30 minutes before lunch or dinner helps control weight by curbing appetite 3 ways:

- First, like any good protein-carbohydrate food, Profile helps raise the blood sugar level to appease the appetite control center in the hypothalamic region of the brain.
- Second, Profile helps induce oral satiety quickly.
- Third, Profile helps keep the hunger-contraction complex subdued.

The Profile Plan takes the place of appetite-suppressant wafers, tablets and candies.
