

Cannibalism Of White Settlers By Congolese Reported By Minister

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
KIGALI, Rwanda (AP) — A Congolese Cabinet minister today reported cannibalism of white settlers in the southern Congo as a refugee pilot told of a stalemate between mutineers and loyal troops in Kisangani to the north.

Minister Etienne Tshisekedi told newsmen at Bukumbura, capital of Burundi, that Congolese had eaten several white settlers in Lubumbashi. He said he feared similar cannibalism might occur in Bukavu because of the mutiny there by white mercenaries and Katanga troops loyal to ex-Premier Moise Tshombe. Tshisekedi said he ordered a stop to "such barbarism and reprisals" in Lubumbashi, which he said was the capital of Katanga province and Tshombe's former stronghold.

He said the situation was fairly quiet in Lubumbashi, but the Congolese population feared mercenary attacks. Lubumbashi escaped the mutiny uprisings that raged last week in Bukavu, 650 miles to the north, and in Kisangani, the former Belgian Congo capital.

A Cuban-American pilot who escaped from Kisangani said a stalemate seemed to prevail there with mutineers and loyal troops holding opposite banks of the Congo River. The pilot for the Congo government's airline, Francisco Alvarez, landed his bullet-scarred DC3 at Kigali airstrip Monday night. He told Rwanda authorities he had escaped under heavy fire after being held for five days by white mercenaries and troops from Katanga province who attacked after ex-Premier Moise Tshombe was kidnapped in the Spanish Bataisc Islands and taken to Algeria.

Alvarez, his 17-year-old son, Georges Lagarrigue, and three passengers, a Belgian, a Spaniard and a Congolese, were jailed on demand of the Congolese Embassy on charges of stealing the plane. Alvarez told U.S. Embassy officials that about 150 Congolese, including 22 visiting newsmen trapped in Kisangani by the mutiny, were in a hotel under the protection of the mercenaries. He said the mercenaries and mutineers held that part of Kisangani on the right bank of the Congo River, including the airport and radio station. He said the Congolese nation-

Plant Food Group Hears Of Area Bean Seed Value

Bean seed production, including dry and garden type beans, is a $17 million industry in Southern Idaho, a University of Idaho Agriculture specialist told delegates to the Pacific Northwest Plant Food Association Conference Tuesday at the Holiday Inn.

Marshall Le Baron, superintendent of the U of I Twin Falls Experiment Station, also noted that zinc is being used more and more as a fertilizer for beans and other crops. He said the Magic Valley area around Twin Falls used zinc on 25,000 acres last year, compared with 9,500 acres in 1953.

The three-day conference which began Tuesday is attended by more than 400 fertilizer industry dealers, manufacturers and those from allied trades from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Utah.

This 18th Annual Regional Fertilizer Conference is held to examine and explore new techniques and developments in the use of fertilizer.

University of Idaho College of Agriculture Dean James E. Kraus told delegates that use of fertilizer alone is not sufficient in producing farm crops. "We have reached the point," he said, "where we need to re-evaluate our objectives and values as related to soil fertility research." He said farmers look beyond volume of crop production to emphasis of quality.

Juveniles Accused Of Robbery, Burglary

Five juveniles are scheduled for appearances in Twin Falls County Probate Court in connection with the alleged threatening and robbing of another 16-year-old youth, and four other juveniles and one adult are being charged with burglarizing a Twin Falls business establishment. City police said Wednesday five youths will appear in court for allegedly taking $3 from Gary Arrington, 16, 830 Ash St., on July 7.

The youth told police he was stopped by five young boys at Sixth Avenue and Third Street East on July 7.

Two of the boys carried folded over bicycle chains, he said, and asked for his watch or rings. Then one of the youths saw his wallet and took three dollars from it and returned the wallet. He said he was told to walk away and when he looked back a few minutes later the five had disappeared.

Four juveniles and one adult were named in a complaint signed Wednesday by city police in connection with the July 6 break-in at Dick's Donut Shop. Officers said the loss amounted to about $20 from the cash register, $25 from a cigarette machine and two packages of potato chips.

First degree burglary charges were filed against Paul John Bjornson, Twin Falls, who is currently in custody on charges of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

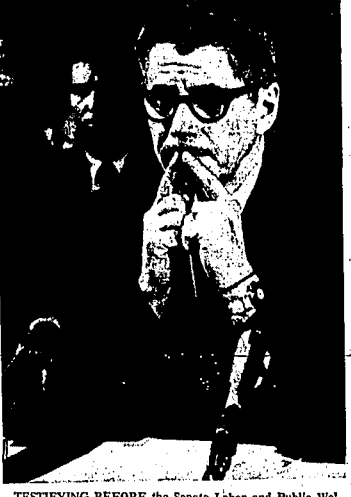

T.F. Teacher Injured In Fall At Pit

HEYBURN — A Twin Falls school teacher was undergoing X-rays at Cassia Memorial Hospital, Burley, Wednesday noon after falling about 22 feet to a concrete floor at Western Seed Co., Inc., this morning.

Robert Lang, about 45, who has taught mathematics at Robert Stearns Junior High School in Twin Falls for several years, was welding on a new grain storage pit being constructed for the seed company by Ken Brown and Associates, Twin Falls, when he apparently lost his footing.

Officials at the seed company said a stretcher had to be lowered into the storage pit on ropes and men went down on ladders to get the injured man onto the stretcher. He was rushed to the Burley hospital by ambulance.

It was reported Mr. Lang has a broken chest and possibly broken ribs. He has worked for the Twin Falls firm the past several summers. He was one of a crew of five men. No one else was injured.

New Battles Keep Middle East Aboil

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — New fighting between Israel and Egypt broke out Tuesday in the Sinai desert and at sea reported today as angry Moslem diplomats at the United Nations bank of the Congo River, including the airport and radio station. He said the Congolese nation-up the Old City of Jerusalem. Israel announced that Israeli naval units sank two Egyptian boats Tuesday in the first naval clash between the two nations since the Middle East war last month.

The spokesman said eight Israeli seamen were, slightly wounded.

No Disclosure Made On More U.S. Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara kept secret today his recommendations on boosting U.S. troop strength in Vietnam, but before midnight Tuesday, the defense chief told newsmen who met him at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., he refused flatly to give any idea about the course of the air war, saying "I never comment on the defense." The effectiveness of the bombing in North Vietnam was a prime topic during McNamara's visit to the U.S. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, and other key American military leaders

McNamara re-stated what he said is a two-year-old policy this way: "What the military commanders feel necessary to carry out the military operations that are required to meet our limited political objectives in South Vietnam will be sent."

An Egyptian communique claimed that Israeli machine guns opened fire on Egyptian forces in the west bank of the Suez Canal south of Ismailia; the communique said Egyptian tanks fired back and knocked out two Israeli armored cars. It said there were no Egyptian casualties.

Westmoreland is reported to have asked for up to 140,000 more fighting men. Present U.S. strength in Vietnam stands at about 485,000.

Current Pentagon speculation centers on the possibility Johnson will approve possibly two more division forces, totaling possibly 70,000 men, spread over a period of months.

The measure touched off the ensure move Tuesday by informing Secretary-General U Thant that it was going ahead with measures to unify the Israeli and Jordanian sectors of Jerusalem despite the assembly resolution July 4 calling on Israel to rescind all measures which would alter the status of Jerusalem.

Airliners Back On Schedule; Strikers Satisfied With Pact

Six West Coast Airlines F72s and two minliners were running out and out of Twin Falls Air port Monday as employees spent their second day back on the job, well satisfied with the new contract offered as the result of an eight-day strike.

Employees will receive three weeks paid vacation after six years of employment by the airline. The old vacation schedule was for two weeks.

Israel has contended that its measures simply provide for administrative unity and could not be correctly described as annexation of the Old City. Foreign Minister Abba Eban made clear to Thant that Israel had no intention of cancelling the compromise. See BATTLES, Page 2, Col. 4

Gooding LDS Church Destroyed By Fire

GOODING—Firemen Wednesday still were patrolling the smoldering remains of the Gooding LDS Church, valued at about $250,000, which was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

Most of the furnishings of the church, which was built in 1917 and dedicated in 1952, were saved, including organ, piano and chairs. Only the charred brick walls of the structure remain standing.

Church officials said the bishopric will meet today to decide where worship services will be held and future building plans. The church structure and grounds occupy a city block on South Main Street.

The blaze was discovered about 4 p.m. Tuesday by a city policeman. Gooding Volunteer firemen brought three trucks and the Wendell department sent another truck. Some of the firemen patrolled the blaze

Only the charred brick walls are left standing, but church officials said most of the contents of the building were saved. The building, which was constructed in 1917, was valued at about $250,000, but the loss was covered by insurance. The fire is believed to have begun in the attic. The debris was still smoldering Wednesday.

Kossygin of the Soviet Union have been meeting in Budapest with leaders of Communist and Communist nations for the past two days on the situation in the Middle East, the Czechoslovak news agency CTK, reported today from Budapest.

It said the meeting had come to a close with the report that the summit conference demonstrated their determination to make fuller use of the appropriate means according to the requirements of the struggle against aggression and restoration of peace in the Near East.

Educational Innovation Announced In Jerome

JEROME — An innovation in education that no schools in the district will be closed this year, Superintendent William Lipscomb announced Wednesday.

He notes the new program will place all students of the same grade in one school. A similar program is in operation in the Caldwell school district where it has been most successful, he said.

Among the advantages to this type of program are the economy and the fact that teachers can specialize in their particular field. Mr. Lipscomb emphasized that no schools in the district will be closed this year.

"Transporation" will be no problem, he said, as all children will go to their neighborhood school, then be transported by bus to the school where their grade is being taught.

Red Offensive Erupts, 35 U.S. Men Killed

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — Offensive pressure from North Vietnamese troops, which had seemed lately to be concentrated near Pleiku that the Infantrymen had completed a survey of an area of 1500 square miles, when they came under heavy mortar, automatic weapons and small-arms fire.

There was no immediate accounting of North Vietnamese casualties. Associated Press Correspondent Peter Aronoff reported from Pleiku that the Infantrymen had completed a survey of an area of 1500 square miles, when they came under heavy mortar, automatic weapons and small-arms fire.

Intelligence officers had reported that fresh North Vietnamese regiments were bunched close to the frontier of Cambodia, where they were neutralized during the present rainy season for another effort to wrest the highlands from allied control.

up the coast. Five Red MIGs were reported sighted. The U.S. Command said they refused battle.

Another Drang Valley, near the Cambodian border, was the site of the week-long battle between U.S. air cavalry and North Vietnamese regulars that cost 35 U.S. men and wounded 28 in vicious, close-quarters fighting.

Land Board Tours Site On Float Junket

OROFINO, Idaho (AP) — The questions of fire protection, bridge location and road relocation occupied the Idaho State Land Board Tuesday.

The board toured the Dwershak site, reservoir area and possible bridge and road sites on the north fork of the Clearwater River, a 42-mile float trip from Booth's Cabin to the dam site.

With the board were representatives of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the Clearwater-Polatch Timber Protective Association.

The question of fire protection involves timber in the reservoir area—some 50,000 acres of timber. The Engineers contend that the timber protection agency must share in the fire protection chores because state law calls for such a district to afford fire protection to federal lands.

A. B. Curtis, Orofino, secretary-manager of the Clearwater-Polatch Timber Protective Association, said the state attorney general's office and the association's legal staff were expected to confer on the problem.

Board members also viewed the proposed Dent Bridge site. A Corps spokesman said a legal matter must be cleared up on location of the span, however, as the bridge—as now proposed—would not connect any public roads.

Also pointed out to the board during the float trip were the 27 miles of road due for relocation behind the dam now under construction.

A board spokesman said a meeting is planned in about two weeks with representatives from the association and the Corps to discuss the problems brought out on the two-day trip ending Tuesday.

Auto Union Give Demands To Company

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther takes to Chrysler Corp. today new contract demands of his United Auto Workers union. They include profit sharing with the threat of a strike to get it.

Reuther repeatedly has failed to gain profit sharing from the Big Three in past negotiations. There have been no indications the companies are any more disposed to agree to it now.

He previously dropped on bargaining tables at General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. similar sets of what he describes as the union's "longest and most ambitious" list of demands.

The profit-sharing goal came as a surprise Monday at General Motors. Reuther emphasized this as "essential" to a peaceful settlement at Ford Tuesday.

A guaranteed annual income previously had been given top billing among union goals.

Under a guaranteed annual income plan, Reuther says a worker must keep at the beginning of a year what his income for the next 12 months will be, any layoffs not withstanding.

On top of that, the UAW president disclosed as new bargaining issues based on profits at the end of the fiscal year, just as company executives get bonuses and stockholders get extra dividends.

Reuther's Chrysler visit is his third in as many days to members of automotive's Big Three where current three-year contracts run out Sept. 6.

He is also expected to meet with the union's top executives at the UAW's headquarters in Detroit.

June checks to make sure the girls aren't giving nature a boost in the swimsuit competition.

"I fit all the girls personally and I can tell pretty quickly if one of them suddenly gets more busty," she said.

Miss France, 35-23-31, and Miss Scotland gave the biggest problems for Miss Willey as contest rules prohibit altering any part of the official swim suit.

"I need to have my suit taken in at the waist and hips," complained Lena McGarvie of Glasgow, a public relations officer.

Not so, proclaimed June, only buttons on the straps can be adjusted.

Former Premier Assesses U.S. Politicos

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev, ruminating on his years in power, assesses the late President John F. Kennedy as "a real statesman" but calls former Vice President Richard M. Nixon a "good for nothing—unprincipled puppet."

The former Soviet premier claims the Kremlin helped Kennedy to victory over Nixon in the 1960 presidential election by ignoring Nixon's request that pilot Francis Gary Powers be released from a Soviet prison. "I was to compare the two American presidents whom I met, the comparison would obviously not be in favor of Eisenhower," said Khrushchev, speaking from his dacha or country house near Moscow.

He recounted a conversation with Kennedy in Vienna in 1961 during which he said he told the late president, "The fact that you became president was due to us. We made you president."

Khrushchev said Nixon had been released upon Kennedy's entering the White House. Nixon declined comment on whether he had established contacts with the Soviet Union. "But we guessed his plans. We decided not to give him any inside the Soviet Union. The program Tuesday night when you moved into the White House. That is the way I voted for you and our votes."

Groups Apply Varied Ways For Harmony

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Tampa's merchants threw open their doors to Negro job applicants Tuesday while the city Council approved an emergency shipment of riot-control weapons and handed the mayor unlimited curfew powers.

In simultaneous meetings held within four blocks of each other, the two groups appeared to take separate roads toward restoring racial harmony to Tampa, victim of renewed vandalism early Sunday.

The council's action was termed "precautionary," while that of the Tampa Merchants' Association was described as a cure for the alleged underlying cause of Negro unrest — joblessness.

The merchants volunteered more than 300 job openings for qualified Negroes and formed a committee to set up a training program.

The council, which hired five

Negro community relations counselors after a four-day looting-and-burning-rampage broke out June 11, was also reported to make available some 60 interdepartmental jobs for young Negroes.

But it took steps Tuesday to snuff out quickly any return of the rampaging crowds to city streets.

Mayor Nick Nuccio was given authority by ordinance to impose a curfew in any section of the city by declaring an emergency and setting hours when it would be unlawful to be on the streets.

The council also voted to bypass normal bid procedures to buy 138 bayonet-equipped shotguns, 25 carbines, 300 gas masks and 25 portable two-way radios at a cost of $62,000.

U. S. People Are Heading For Trips In Foreign Lands

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans are heading for foreign lands in record numbers this summer. A vast exodus from the United States is under way despite pleas from Washington that Americans see their own country first and spend their dollars here.

More than 18 million Americans are expected to travel beyond the nation's borders this year and spend nearly $5 billion on their trips.

Many of these dollars will stay in foreign hands after the tourists come home, adding to the U.S. balance-of-payments problem. And as the dollars pile up overseas, foreign governments turn them in for U.S. office applying for passports, up another headache for the State Department in the first six months of this year, compared with $52,000 for the same period of 1956.

Riot Erupts At Striking Shipyard

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — Police stood by today to maintain order at the strike-bound Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co., where a two-hour riot erupted after midnight.

A crowd estimated by news men as at least 3,000 persons turned on about 30 policemen in front of the shipyard. Some rioters overturned one police car, set it afire, and looted stores in a two-block area across from the shipyard.

Police refused immediate comment on the cause of the riot, which broke out as striking members of the Peninsula Shipbuilders Association awaited the exit of nonstriking workers.

Assaults on nonstriking workers, tire slashings and wind shield shatterings outside plant gates began Monday night. Nearly 20 persons have been arrested.

SCHOOL BURNS

FRUITLAND, Idaho (AP) — Fire destroyed the elementary school building in Fruitland today, causing a loss estimated as high as $500,000.

The structure, built about 12 years ago, was burned to the ground despite efforts of fire departments from Fruitland, Payette, New Plymouth and neighboring Ontario, Ore.

Principal Russell Charit said all school records in the building were lost. However, furnished in three rooms was carried out.

Police Chief Tom Smith said he was the first to reach the scene after the alarm sounded at 3:30 a.m. He said it appeared the blaze started in the kitchen area.

Charit said a broken window was found in the opposite end of the building and suspected the fire was set by an arsonist. The fire was the second large blaze in Fruitland in four months. The Idaho-Oregon Fruit Growers Association plant burned last March.

GROUP FACES TASK

BOISE (AP) — Ten doctors and women meeting this week in Boise face the improbable task of making a $3.8 million foot fit a $1.2 million shoe.

The Idaho Advisory Council for hospital and medical care facilities, meeting Thursday and Friday, has received requests for federal funds totaling $3.8 million.

They only have $1.2 million. The funds, federal Hill-Burton hospital construction monies, are dispensed by the State Board of Health. The advisory council recommends to the board how the money should be spent.

Seven Idaho hospitals — two in Boise — have requested funds for projects ranging from construction of a new $8 million hospital to an $37,949 modernization job.

BOISE MAN DIES

SMITHS FERRY, Idaho (AP) — A Boise man was killed late Tuesday in a one-car accident on State 15 about a mile north of Smiths Ferry.

Smiths Ferry is about 60 miles north of Boise. Valley County Sheriff Merton Jogue said Martin Finley McKee, 50, of Boise, was alone in the car, which went out of control on a curve, left the highway and plunged into the North Fork of the Payette River.

The death increased Idaho's traffic toll for the year to 113. That was 11 fewer than were killed in the corresponding period of last year.

DECISION DELAYED

PAYETTE, Idaho (AP) — A decision on whether or not to proceed with a proposed downgrading of a portion of the Western Idaho city's main street was postponed until July 25 by the Payette city council.

The decision was expected Tuesday, but city fathers delayed a "cooling-off" period might ease the tensions which the proposal has raised, a council member voted to tell it.

One property owner in the proposed beautification zone, Bert Owens, has opposed the proposal. He has filed his request with the city council.

Owens said he objected to narrowing the roadway and placing crosswalks in the middle of the block.

The appeal to the Supreme Court of Idaho is in connection with the decision which favored the county commissioners, and was filed by the plaintiffs, 10 contractors, a number of contracting firms of the Twin Falls area.

With it was filed a praecipe which asks that copies of transcripts of the district court proceedings, minutes of the county commission meetings and other legal documents be prepared and submitted to the Supreme Court.

Twin Falls Prosecuting Attorney Michael Felton said the appeal could be filed with the supreme court, until the judgment in the district court case was signed July 10. A temporary injunction against the county to stop construction, pending the appeal action, was denied by the Supreme Court June 30.

Case Against Ballet Pair Is Dropped

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dame Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev, ballet's foremost partners who explored Hippiessville's fascinations, escaped to the embarrassment of court arraignment on charges of disturbing the peace.

The charges against Dame Margot, Nureyev and 16 others arrested at 3 a.m. Tuesday at a noisy party in a shabby Haight-Ashbury district flat, were ordered dropped.

Frederick J. Whisman, assistant district attorney, said Tuesday the decision to drop all charges "has nothing to do with the identity of any of the persons involved and I feel there was reasonable cause for the arrests."

But he said, the evidence was not enough to determine who among the 18 arrested had marijuana or disturbed the peace.

Valley Blue Birds Complete Four-Day Camping Session

Thirty-three Blue Birds completed a four-day session at the Kawautawau Campsite Sunday evening. They seemed unanimous about wishing they could stay longer at this camp owned and operated by the Valley Blue Bird Council of Camp Fire, Valley.

According to Mrs. Marge Winterstein, (Skipper) director, the new Unit System was a success, even with Blue Birds in charge of the two units were Judy Fleming and Kaye Winans (Beaver and Tinker), assisted by five counselors, Diane Bates, Kathleen Brown, Susan Hamer, Phyllis Braden and Virginia Evans. Del Tyler (Peter) was head counselor.

The campers planned their own activities. Although it had not been scheduled to have Blue Birds sleep out, they were so eager and the weather so cooperative that it was decided that two cabins would try it. Thirteen of their counselors made a circle in their sleeping bags, and the experience was so delightful that most of them wanted to try it again. However, the next night it began to rain, and the counselors carried the sleeping Blue Birds into their cabins, bedsrolls and all.

Cooking out was just as successful. The little campers prepared themselves as well as good they must try it again. They insisted on having exactly the same menu, since they liked it so well. The only change was a different flavor of gelatin. Of course, most meals were eaten in the dining hall, and were prepared by the two cooks, both named Mrs. Duffy (Mac and Duff).

The nature museum was popular. Campers were encouraged to bring any treasures they discovered to display in the museum. One could find anything there, such as the usual pine cones, bits of bark and rocks, several insects including a huge moth, unusual growing things, things and even a horny toad. (This was allowed its freedom eventually.)

Of course there were many hikes. On one of them some girls found a patch of snow hidden in a valley and had great

"Keep Idaho Green" Book Wins Award For T.F. Council

"Keep Idaho Green" has been a "call to colors" for Magic Valley Camp Fire Girls for many years, for they have been rallying to this challenge since about 1950. Each year they have been carrying out a variety of projects by groups, all geared to keep our country beautiful, to prevent fires, and to campaign against litterbugging.

They distribute literature, put up posters, plant trees and flowers, clean up unsightly places, learn fire safety methods and ways to prevent forest and range fires, and participate in programs, parades and exhibits to further the cause. The council as a whole through its program committee encourages all members to have a part, and this project is connected with the national "Keep America Beautiful."

Each year since 1953 the council has submitted a scrapbook on this activity to the state Keep Idaho Green committee, and each year has been fortunate enough to win a cash prize for its entry. Last week a certificate and check were received for the 1968 scrapbook. The prizes are awarded on the basis of kinds of activities, numbers participating, area covered and publicity in connection with the work.

This year the committee consists of Mrs. Wesley Stewart, chairman, Mrs. Archie Turner, Mrs. Mildred Buss and Mrs. Duwayne Hankins, program chairmen for the council. Plans are being formulated for an intensive campaign, with the intent of having every girl in the Great View Sisters Club, will participate. The Ladies' Association has scheduled a meeting for Wednesday as a kickoff and each leader is to pick up the materials needed for her assignment.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: There is an older woman in our town who is a real weird character. She lives alone on some sort of pension. (They say her husband ran off and left her years ago.) She loves to get all dressed up and go where people are.

Well, she must think her church membership entitles her to attend all the social functions that take place in the social hall of her church, because she never misses one. The fact that she's not invited doesn't seem to bother her.

She goes to all the teas, receptions, and parties where refreshments are served, mingles with the guests, helps herself to everything, and has a very good time.

Isn't it the minister's place to tell her she should stay away? He sees her at all the gatherings and surely knows she hasn't been invited.

CHURCH MEMBER

Dear Member: If anyone is to discourage an uninvited guest, it should be the hostess. The poor woman is probably lonely. And if she causes no harm and enjoys herself, what's another glass of punch and a few cookies amid the socializing?

DEAR ABBY: I've always been a big fan of yours, but now I'm a bigger fan than ever, and here's why:

While out at Arlington race track the other day I came across a horse named Gabby Abby. So I had a hunch and bet a bunch. The horse came in and paid over $55.

I hope you won't take offense.

CHAS. FROM ELMHURST

DEAR CHAS: I've been told that I have "horse sense" (that's the kind one finds in a STABLE mind.) And horse sense is what keeps horses from betting on people.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to speak for grandmothers who feel as I do, but don't have the courage to complain:

Why do young mothers think that since we have raised our family and now have some leisure time that we have nothing to do—so they give us the grand children to raise while they go out and work to keep up with the Jones, or to get away from the children.

Please tell them that we did our job—now it's time for them to do theirs.

GRANDMA W.

DEAR GRANDMA: A general "statement" won't accomplish anything. If you know of such a "young mother," I suggest that you tell her.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell the man who had plastic surgery on his nose to be sure to tell his friends about it before he marries her. And for sure before they have a child.

The reason: When I came home from World War II and saw my baby for the first time, I nearly fainted. What a nose! Then Korea, another baby, and another nose like you wouldn't believe. (I had been home the proper length of time—both times.)

I loved the kids anyway, but because of these noses I really started to wonder who the father was. One night, as couples do, we had a few words and things got out of hand, and I asked her who the kid's father was because she has a little, tiny nose and mine is average. She felt just terrible. Then she showed me some pictures taken of her before we met. What a beak that girl had! Yes, she had it fixed. Can you imagine what I went thru before I knew the truth?

LDS Ceremony Unites Local Miss, Simmons

Donna Gillenwater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gillenwater, Twin Falls, and David T. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Simmons, Piler, were united in marriage in rites June 24 at the LDS Stakehouse, Twin Falls.

The ceremony was performed by Kenneth Higginbotham before altar bouquets of white peonies and pink roses.

The bride wore a Bridal Original controlled sheath gown of Chantilly lace enhanced with pearls. The gown featured a crescent waistline, a fitted bodice with a modified, scooped neckline and traditional long lace point sleeves bordered in lace with tiny self-covered buttons at the wrists. The wattleu chapel train was outlined in scalloped lace and fell from a bow at the waistline.

Her elbow-length veil of English silk illusion was held by a double row of pearls edged with lace and enhanced with a spray of flowers.

Maid of honor was Sandra Moore, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Carolyn Volkens, Nalme Beams and LaRue Simmons.

Merlin Fairbanks served as best man, with Larry Reynolds, Ronnie Alvey and Richard Gillenwater as ushers.

Patty Meigs was soloist, accompanied by Lloyd Hamilton.

After the ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception at the stakehouse.

Mrs. David Wilbourne and Wayne Christensen, brother of the bride, served punch. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Tom Koto, assisted by Mrs. Gloria Koto, sister of the bride.

Gifts were arranged by Carol Christensen, Reno, and Mrs. Coates, Twin Falls. Donna Jackson was in charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Reno, the couple will reside in Piler, where the bridegroom is employed by Union Pacific Railroad. The bride is employed at Koto's Cafe.

Cake Batter Can Still Be Good With Only Half Of Fat

SHOSHONE — Diet conscious women can leave half the fat out of cake batter and still have a tasty cake, according to a USDA research report the county home economist had this week.

A typical cake recipe calls for about one part of fat for every four parts of flour, the report said. But tests show cooks can safely make a batter with one part of fat for every eight parts of flour. In addition to reducing the amount of fat, the researchers varied the type of fat. They tried batters with all-vegetable shortening, blended vegetable and animal fat shortening, butter, corn oil margarine, and regular margarine.

Cakes with half the usual fat looked as appealing as regular cakes and tasted about the same to a panel of judges. Volume of low-fat cakes was similar to that of standard cakes, indicating that rising was no problem.

There was some reduction in volume of batter, however. The kind of fat did not affect appearance of the cakes. Taste and tenderness were highest with butter or margarine. The researchers also found

Miniskirts Revolving For Milady's Maxi-Figure

By JEAN SPRAY WILSON AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — For the mid-aged woman with a maxi-figure, the miniskirt is a revolting situation.

Such women would like to revolt against fashion houses that insist on stuffing them into beardless baby dresses that end alarmingly short of their expectations.

But designers who showed off their creations Wednesday, the first day of New York Couture Group's four-day program of previews, made the point that short skirts are right for the young.

And are there many women with the courage to admit that they are not among the young? Choosing longer hemlines amounts to tattooing birthdates on their foreheads.

Even so the mid-aged found a few friends among style houses on the early portion of the schedule. Though Townley's designer, Chuck Howard, was chintzy about chest room, his skirts were, most often, ample. Since no one can ignore the young altogether in today's youth-oriented society, his show, too, produced several long-stemmed beauties in tunics over tights. The stems in these instances were stockings in bright paisleys, broad stripes or bull's eyes to match what little was left of the costume.

that muffins can be made with less than standard amount of fat. They were satisfactory with as little as half. Biscuits can be made with two-thirds, and pastry with three-fourths as much fat. Taste panels noted a decline in tenderness and flavor, although the products were found quite acceptable.

house, a name composed to take in all ages, skirts are short but with enough fullness to keep the situation from being embarrassing. Most necklines here as well as at other houses are high and wide, also flattering to the woman with age and wrinkles to the side.

In general, though, Howard was as jumpy as a yo-yo about his hemlines. Sometimes they dropped to mid-calf length, with which Christian Dior demolished wardrobe budgets two years ago. One reached nearly to the ankle bone. With its white satin blouse, wide cummerbund and a gathered yellow skirt, it resembled a costume for a school play.

Brownell ran true to the form of the fully endowed female, promising to cut some sizes to 20. Along with modest hemlines, the house was also benefactor of the scissors skirt — a single pleat beginning at the midriff and opening wide to the hemline which flatteringly conceals a widened diaphane.

Park Work Is Like College Sans Books

By GORDON G. MACNAB
CRATER LAKE, Ore. (AP)—Working at Crater Lake National Park is a little like college without the book-work.

The boys are where the girls are. I like it, especially after working hours, says Sharon Yates, Portland, a student at Portland Museum Art School.

There is sometimes the broken hearts bill, says Lee Neuman, Hillsboro, University of Oregon senior.

All of the commercial activities at the park—the lodge, dining room, cafeteria, gift shops, boat and bus trips—will be concession company by Ralph Peyton and James Gritlin.

They have 150 employees and 130 are college students.

Sen. Kennedy Claims Facts Are Distorted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., says opponents of the administration's firearms control bill have distorted facts in a massive publicity campaign to defeat it.

"And in recent weeks the campaign has taken a new and more virulent turn," he said. "Opponents of the legislation have suggested the need for people to arm themselves against civil disorder—an inflammatory invitation to help break down law and order."

But while Kennedy defended the bill at a hearing of the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield opposed it. He favors instead a bill sponsored by Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Meb., which is aimed at federal regulations of the sale of handguns alone.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., chairman of the subcommittee and sponsor of the administration bill, said guns don't make sense to him and he'd like to see all of them destroyed.

Trustees Lower Hazelton Budget

HAZELTON—The budget for the coming year was approved by members of the village board at a meeting Monday evening. It was reported that the budget has been lowered 2.4 mills.

Trustees issued a call for bids for painting the water tower. They should be submitted before the next meeting to be held Aug. 7. Anyone interested in submitting a bid may contact Joe Wagner, mayor.

The water tank will be cleaned in the near future.

PHILOSOPHER DIES
ROME (AP)—Prof. Angeli Monteverdi, 81, president of the Italian Academy of the Lincei and noted philologist, died Tuesday.

Tasty Food?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The secretary of the Mississippi Board of Health told a Senate subcommittee Tuesday it's difficult to get some people to eat healthful foods such as yellow cornmeal and oatmeal.

"Of course," said Dr. A. L. Gray after a pause, "I don't blame them for not liking oatmeal. I don't like it myself."

"I was raised on oatmeal, and I don't like it either," said the subcommittee chairman, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa.

PROJECT TOURED
FAIRFIELD—Office managers and other personnel from ASC offices in Magic Valley toured the Spruce Budworm control project in the Smokey section of the Sawtooth National Forest north of Fairfield on Monday. They also saw other projects of interest in this section.

Actress Is Stripped Of Citizenship

ATHENS (AP)—Actress Melina Mercouri will be stripped of her Greek citizenship for criticizing Greece's military dictatorship, a member of the ruling junta said today.

Brig. Stylianos Patakos interior minister, said he would sign the order soon.

Patakos said the order would apply not only to Miss Mercouri, who gained world fame in the film "Never on Sunday," but to "all those who act antinationalistically."

The order will also confiscate any property those affected have in Greece.

Miss Mercouri, 42, is currently appearing in New York in a musical version of the movie that made her famous. She has publicly criticized the coup.

She is married to director Jules Dassin, an American citizen.

Gloomy Picture Seen If War Is Intensified

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional critics paint a dark picture of increased taxes, price-wage controls and mobilization of reserves if President Johnson intensifies the Vietnam war.

The doves are telling Johnson through Senate and House speeches that he also will be risking World War III if he pours in a huge complement of ground forces and expands the bombing of North Vietnam.

The hawks, diverted at the moment by the alarms of possible African involvement in African conflicts, are otherwise relatively silent while awaiting Johnson's decision after he confers with Gen. William C. Westmoreland and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. Both just returned from Vietnam.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen seemed to voice the general view of hawks that if Westmoreland wants more troops, he ought to have what he needs.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, who wants a renewed effort to reduce the present level of U.S. involvement in the Asian war, cited the possible domestic effects of expanding the conflict.

Mansfield told the Senate Tuesday that a third world war may be "already incubating in the ever-deepening and expanding struggle in Southeast Asia."

He said every escalation thus far had failed to bring the conflict nearer an end.

"Before we take another significant step deeper into Vietnam," he said, "it is to be hoped that we will have asked ourselves at what point we intend to increase taxes, apply the wage and price controls, tighten the draft exemptions, call up the reserves and make the countless other adjustments in our national life which are implicit in further extensions of the American involvement."

Mansfield's estimate that Vietnam expenditures will rise to $25 billion yearly brought a prediction from Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., that an increase of 18 to 20 per cent in income taxes may be in the offing.

An effort by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to placate senators who vigorously protested Johnson's dispatch of three U.S. transport planes to help the Congo government appeared to have made "little headway," Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services Committee, who said it was immoral to send one American serviceman to the Congo, said after hearing Rusk in a closed session that he hadn't changed his opinions about anything.

Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., head of the Foreign Relations Africa subcommittee, said the President acted "without clear legal authority."

He said, however, he did not share the view of other critics that the action might trigger a Vietnam-type involvement in Africa.

Foreign Relations Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said later he and others told Rusk that Congress wants a much greater voice—not just post-decision consultation—in deciding whether U.S. military forces should be ordered to new world trouble spots.

Gator Shot

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) —Henry Brashears learned Tuesday that the "big frog" he thought he had shot with his rifle late Monday was a 3½-foot, 25-pound alligator.

Brashears, a retired St. Louis hardware dealer, was told by a neighbor he sure had a "big frog" in his farm pond. Brashears shot it Monday night.

Tuesday, he found the alligator floating in the pond — dead of a rifle bullet. He said he had no idea how the alligator got into his pond.

Congress Wants Bigger Voice On Military Forces Decisions

By ROBERT GRAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress wants a much greater voice in deciding whether U.S. military forces should be ordered into new world trouble spots, members of two key Senate committees told Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

He met with them Tuesday to defend the dispatch of three U.S. military transports and about 125 troops to the Congo, whose government is trying to overcome rebel mercenaries.

"We don't wish to continue intervening here, there and everywhere," Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Foreign Relations Committee, commented in telling newsmen of the congressional demand served on the administration.

He also charged the administration's Congo decision was based on greatly exaggerated reports of dangers to Americans there.

Fulbright said the experience of the initial involvement in Vietnam caused what he described as growing congressional apprehension over the authority of the President to order U.S. military forces into troubled areas. He said Rusk seems unaware of this apprehension.

In the future, Fulbright said, Congress wants to be in on the decision making. Consultation involves more than notifying congressional leaders of decisions already taken, the chairman asserted.

But Rusk, also commenting separately to newsmen after the two-hour, closed meeting with the committees, said, "Some people have the impression we go around the world looking for business of this kind. The opposite is true."

Rusk said earlier that congressional leaders were notified of the decision on sending aid to the Congo, but Fulbright said that was not the kind of consultation he had in mind.

Rusk told the senators he helped to the Congo was designed to show the people of that country that we were not going to let them down within two to four weeks.

At the outset of the uprising, there was concern for the safety of the 3,200 Americans in the Congo—the secretary said.

While no reported harm has come to Americans, there have been reports of murder of other foreigners.

Rusk told the senators he hoped conditions would settle down within two to four weeks.

Army Sergeant Says Military Controls U.S. Life

Twin Falls Times-News
July 12-13, 1967

By TOM TIEDE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Former Army master sergeant Donald Duncan, 37, San Francisco, is not very popular in the military circles these days. In fact, purple-faced soldiers everywhere are calling the old sergeant every name but nice.

The disliking of Don Duncan has nothing to do with the man's service record. On the contrary, he maintained 10 unblemished years with commendation, frosting the accomplishments with a couple of Bronze Stars won during jungle capers in Vietnam.

Rather, the sergeant's fault is a book he has written called "The New Legions." In it the one-time Special Forces recruiter, now military editor of Ramparts magazine, whatever that may mean, blames much of the world's woes on today's armed forces. Further, he claims the "crises-orientated" service (threatens the very foundation of the United States.

"Sniffs a Pentagon spokesman: "What rot!"

Duncan sees the military as a violence-prone nuclear octopus with tentacles reaching into every facet of society. He sees the eagle of liberty wearing combat boots. He sees a "single military community."

"The military has become wholly integrated with the civilian populace," he says.

"It's everywhere—in our colleges, in our corporations, in our corner grocery stores. Civilians don't control the military any more. They are controlled by it."

"It starts with the draftees. In two years service they become military puppets. They may not like the regulation, but to endure, they compromise with the official service standards... and to get along they learn now to think in martial terms.

"Then when they are discharged they return to a military-imbued society and take jobs dependent directly or indirectly on military spending (over $70 billion this year). From then on they're influenced by the control of reserve obligation programs."

Duncan's argument is weighted with numbers—since World War I the nation has had more than 30 million men under arms, most of whom stayed alive and returned to civilian life. These people, all militarily branded, from Duncan's alleged martial cycle.

Since all these men were trained as soldiers, Duncan maintains that all the men were trained as killers. And since killers they tolerate instances of killing. And, since tolerant, they readily accept situations such as war.

But ex-GIs are only part of the picture, says Duncan.

"Look at our business community. It will not hire young men who haven't discharged their military obligation, therefore forcing young men to join and serve for survival.

"Look at our colleges. Even while studying a person is often not free from the military grasp. Many students find themselves enrolled in mandatory ROTC programs."

"Look at our corporations. Many of them are dependent on military contracts and so woo talented soldiers into executive slots to do the necessary lobbying."

Duncan scoffs at the practice of giving civil service preference to ex-servicemen. He itemizes the service practice of using tax dollars to print and film pro-military propaganda. He especially decries the continuing armed forces interference in affairs of politics and uses the war in Vietnam as a ripe illustration.

All of these things, Duncan foes indicate that, in all, the Pentagon owns over 34 million acres of land.

"Too much," he says. "Too much of everything."

We must, he urges, cut way back. Duncan admits that his idea of a utopian movement would be the rapid and "complete elimination of the military."

Duncan says nothing about the accumulated wealth of the service establishment. But he does feel many people in the country are fed up with current martial bullying and are leaning toward reform. And he insists these people are not just hippies, beatniks and draft card burners.

Says he: "A lot of good, ordinary men are on my side."

REALIZING THE dream of all his service buddies was Larry Singer, USAF, who took from his California base in a surrounded by Miss Universe contestants. Here he snaps Jennifer Lewis, Miss England, and Lena McGarvey, Miss Scotland, to take proof back to his pals. (AP wirephoto)

Carmichael Key Target Of Riot Bill

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Negro leader Stokely Carmichael was called "a free-lance insurrectionist" Tuesday by the author of an anti-riot bill that was sped to the House floor for a vote later this week.

Carmichael was singled out by Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., as a key target of the legislation, which would make it a federal crime to organize, direct, incite, organize or encourage a riot.

The bill was cleared for House action by a unanimous vote in the Rules Committee despite some doubts expressed about its constitutionality and a noticeable lack of administration enthusiasm for it.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the Judiciary Committee, questioned whether the measure would be of any use in stopping the riots now flaring up in some cities.

He cites 50 states all have laws against riots," Celler said, "and not a single state or local official has asked for this law or for federal intervention in this area. Wherever riots have taken place, local police have quelled them."

The cure for riots, he said, lies in improving living conditions in the Negro sections.

Found

CHESTER, Conn. (AP)—Robert E. Willey thought he was being arrested for following a car too closely.

Police in his hometown of Bangor, Maine, decided Willey was "found" Tuesday after being "missing" for 29 years.

Willey ran away from his Bangor home at the age of 12. Police listed him as a missing person.

It was not until Tuesday, after Willey, 32, a truck driver residing in New Britain, Conn., was involved in a minor accident here that Bangor police learned what had become of him.

Connecticut state police, who notified Bangor of Willey's arrest, quoted the truck driver as saying he had been to Bangor 40 times since 1947, when he was reported missing — but he never had occasion to come in contact with the police.

Commissioner Resigns Post In Lincoln

SHOSHONE—The resignation of W. E. Bolton as county commissioner of district 3 was accepted by county commissioners Burrell Williams and C. F. Gustafson at their Monday meeting. Mr. Bolton had been in poor health for some time and is unable to continue in the office.

The Republican and Democratic precinct committees have been notified and are selecting a slate of names to submit to the governor, who will then make the appointment. Mr. Bolton, a Republican, would be up for election again next year.

The Commissioners District No. 3 comprises Shoshone Precinct one and Dietrich, Precinct 5. In Shoshone this takes in all the area south of the river.

Quarterly reports were received from Luella L. Kinsey, clerk, for $1,000.70; Sheriff Thomas W. Conner, $27.60; and Probate Judge C. M. Wilson, $179. The monthly report of Justice of Peace W. W. Givin was accepted in amount of $348. The second installment of 1967 in this plan.

"School's Out—Drive Carefully" Is Good Slogan To Heed

ONE MOMENT a motorist may be admiring the beauty of Harmon Park in the good old summertime...

In summer young children's fancies turn to thoughts of baseball, fishing, roller skating and all those other wonderful pastimes which make the season such a great time for the thousands of school children who are free for three months.

Unfortunately, many children have so many such thoughts that they pay very little mind to what else is going on—namely, the potential danger that lurks on every street.

And, too, many motorists have too much else on their minds to remember to watch for the youngsters who are thronging on bicycles fad by foot to the city's many play areas.

Too often the carefree summer is turned into a tragic one when a thoughtless child and an even more thoughtless motorist meet.

One of the newer safety slogans—"School's Out—Drive Carefully"—should be followed closely and serve as a reminder to motorists to be alert.

... and the next, be facing potential tragedy as a Little Leaguer darts from between two parked cars.

Brooke Says Riots Hurt Race Cause

By JAMES F. DONOHUE
BOSTON (AP) — The first Negro popularly elected to the U.S. Senate says this summer's racial violence is causing what appears to be a "punitive reaction" to the civil rights movement.

"Today," said Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., "alarmed by riots and cries of bloodthirsty which have often meant violence, the mood of the nation is resistant to progress in civil rights."

Brooke received the Spingarn Medal for outstanding achievement by a Negro Tuesday night from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People during the organization's 58th annual convention.

"I see this reaction reflected in the Congress of the United States," Brooke said. "The only so-called civil rights legislation which has made serious progress in Congress this year is a bill to make promoting a riot a federal crime."

"A congressman's willingness to face his responsibility to all of the American people is inhibited when he finds the majority of his constituents frightened and angered by riots or the threat of violence in his community," he said.

"Riots and violence are the mortal enemies, not the servants, of the civil rights movement."

Brooke warned, however, that "if Congress, out of fear or anger, continues to chase the path of inaction, racial violence in the United States will not only continue, it will recur with ever increasing intensity."

Funds Are Earmarked For Idaho

The first regular appropriation bill for fiscal 1968, was signed into law June 24 providing $1.3 billion for the Department of Interior with several items of special interest to Idahoans, according to Sen. Len B. Jordan (R-Idaho).

Appropriations included $100,000 for accelerated examination of desert land applications; $100,000 for increased predator control work, and funding of all cooperative fishery units at an annual level of $40,000 which raised support for the unit at Moscow by $10,000.

A total of $375,000 was earmarked for continued construction at the Kootenai National Fish Hatchery; $13,750,000 for state and private forestry operation; $110,000,000 for forest roads and trails, and $1,100,000 for the Boise Inter-agency Fire Center.

Reclamation and power marketing functions of Interior were not part of this appropriation but will be included later in the Public Works appropriation bill, Sen. Jordan said.

Lockers Are Built At Hailey Park

HAILEY—Work is progressing satisfactorily on the erection of new concession stands and lockers at the Little League grounds at Wertheimer Park.

Raymond Nelson is supervising and helping with the work, with O. D. Ellings and other volunteer workers assisting.

Arno Friestad of Friestad Red-Mix has donated concrete for setting the foundation for the stand and the Wood River Building Supply has offered a donation on the total bill figure. It is hoped some financial help will come from the city recreation fund.

Mr. Nelson says with much volunteer labor the project can be completed and paid for before the annual Little League Softball tournament, July 28-30 and Aug. 5.

Assessor Is Appointed To Camas Post

FAIRFIELD—Edward Reagan was appointed Camas County Assessor by the county commissioners at their regular meeting Monday.

Ted Heath, former assessor, who retired the first of the year, has been filling the office and asked to be relieved of his duties. Cecil Howland was elected to the office in the November election and resigned this spring to become high school custodian to take the place of Carl Handrow who retired. Heath had been filling the office until a successor could be found.

Reagan, an active Democrat, will take office Aug. 1. He is a grade school custodian and also operates a farm south of Fairfield. He is married and has four children. He is a member of a pioneer Camas Prairie family and has resided here his life.

Commissioners voted to help maintain any proposed improvements made by the Fish and Game Department around Moran Reservoir. Tentative plans call for the graveling of a camping space and the maintaining of roads in the area.

Forty acres were purchased over a year ago by the Fish and Game Department for public access at the reservoir as most of the shoreline is privately owned. The Prairie Power Co. has suggested placing electrical hookups for campers but so far no action has been taken.

Many more people are using the reservoir this year and on weekends the northwest shore resembles a small city from the number of trailers and campers.

Delayed

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Phillip Crosby and former Las Vegas showgirl Georgi Edwards were married Tuesday night after delaying their vows 45 minutes to watch on television the end of the major-league baseball All-Star game which went into extra innings.

Crosby, 32, son of singer Bing Crosby, and the bride, 28, were married by Dist. Judge Paul Tacklett at the home of friends in Albuquerque.

It was Crosby's third marriage. The family said it was the first for the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peed of Albuquerque.

T.F. Official Will Help Revise Code

Michael H. Felton, Twin Falls county prosecuting attorney, has been named by the Idaho Legislative Council to serve as an advisory member of the Criminal Code Revision Commission.

The commission, comprised of legislators, will be assisted by advisory members selected from attorneys and others who work with the state's criminal code in every day application.

These advisors will review the code and recommend possible action by the legislature in correcting deficiencies in the code during the coming session of the Idaho Legislature.

Appointment of advisory members was by Bill Ruten, Boise County state senator and senate majority leader.

Perez' 15th Inning Homer Carries National League To 2-1 All-Star Victory

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer ANAHEIM (AP) — Tony Perez, 290-foot home runer of the longest baseball All-Star game ever played gave the National League a record fifth straight victory over the American League Tuesday.

Perez Knew It Was Gone At Crack Of Bat

ANAHEIM (AP) — "When I hit it I knew it was out," said a grinning Tony Perez in the National League clubhouse after his 15th-inning home run provided a 2-1 victory Tuesday in baseball's marathon All-Star game.

"Asked if he figured he'd be phased-out as a pinch hitter since Philadelphia's Richie Allen was the third base starter, the 25-year-old Cincinnati infielder admitted, "Yes, but when the game went into extra innings, I thought I would play."

OK Tire Meets Picked Crew In First Slowpitch All-Star Tilt

A lineup of 19 of the best players in the Twin Falls slowpitch softball league will go against league-leading OK Tire Sports in the first annual all-star game at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Harmon Park field.

'How To Fish' Tips Offered Idaho Anglers

BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Fish and Game Department offered sportsmen Tuesday a free booklet entitled "How To Catch Fish In Fresh Water."

Manager Hank Bauer of Baltimore, the American League skipper, said, "They had some good pitching thrown at them. Perez just caught a break in the game, Conigliaro's catches were great and maybe saved the game at the time."

"When I hit it I knew it was out," said Perez, whose first and only 14-man-all-star victory, were in the stands.

"I thought it might have lifted off his glove," said Robinson. "But both Bill Riphey (third base coach from the California Angels) and the umpires

Back in the days before he was put in the three-hole spot, he worked six innings for the American League in 1955. Lefty, incidentally, has been named for most All-Star victories, three.

Members of the all-star team include Jim Eboke, Dean Krumm and Dale Crist, all Gem State Trophies; Jan Campbell and George Mahie, both The Cover; Noel Stayer, Blue Lakes; Mobil; Tom Rows, Log Tavern; John Root, Royal Lounge; Larry Hunter, K and T Steel; Charlie Bean, Cain's Furniture; Frank Baum, Rotary Club; Verlin Fisceu, Rogers Brothers Seed; Grant Van Houten, Key Realty; Terry Grove and John Reed, both Pieper's; Gaz and Oil; Dennis Birrell and Buss Ferris, both Duds Duds; Clyde O'Dell, Bowdromore, and Jerry Leaster, Kover Klub.

The public is invited to attend the special exhibition at no charge. The slowpitch league, sponsored by various Twin Falls businesses through cooperation of the city recreation department, is in its fifth year of operation and now boasts 18 teams.

BOY Oliva of the Minnesota Twins contributed to the excitement by letting his bat slide out of his hands when he made wide swings. One time the bat sailed into the National League dugout. A no-hitter tie it made Mike Cuellar's jump rope to get out of the way.

Coed Breaks Through To Hostile Prisoner

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON, STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) — The young Negro prisoner was so hostile his clenched jaws constantly quivered. No staffer at Preston School of Industry could penetrate Tommy's shell.

Julie is a senior at the University of the Pacific, pretty, intelligent, vivacious, white, member of a leading sorority, and very sensitive to feelings of other people.

Tommy's brother had been killed in an Alabama race riot. At 18 Tommy was a ward of California, and the most "burnt white, burnt inmate in the state school for delinquent boys," as Prof. William F. Byron described him.

Tommy was paroled recently, and he wrote to Julie. He addressed the letter "To Miss Wonderful."

"I'm glad to you I am sure I'll make it on the streets because I understand people better, and I now understand that other people are human too. Just the short time I've known you has made me a better guy."

Julie, with other girls and boys from the university, visited the California Youth Authority school at fence, 40 miles northwest of Stockton, once a week the past school year. They ate lunch with the wards, then spent an hour and a half with them, talking, taking part in various group projects, even in occasional dance sessions.

Byron, retired chairman of the division of social work at Northwestern University who came to Pacific in 1952 as visiting professor of sociology, initiated the unique program and directs it. A nationally recognized authority on juvenile delinquency, Byron is a man of energetic idealism liberally seasoned with pepper and salt.

Byron had helped obtain a parole for Nathan Leopold, survivor of the Leopold-Loeb "thrill killer" team. The professor decided to broaden his horizon parts of the United States after center facility 12 miles south of Stockton. But the east of Pacific, have become enthusiastic supporters of the program started at Preston as an experiment in 1964.

The volunteers—some 70 in all—were called to the school year just ended and Northern California youth merely curious or casual do-gooders. Through screening by a Byron committee bare those types. The students don't get paid. Only about one-third of them get any college credit for the work, although Byron insists that the cost of the program is academic credit and supervision.

The students simply want to help youngsters who have been committed by courts as juvenile delinquents, kids with demonstrated inability to handle freedom and responsibility. Most of the wards, Byron says, consider themselves outcasts and unwelcome in society.

"Some have 'born to lose' tattooed on their skin," he says. "We must keep it from being burned into their minds."

Marines Begin Summer Drive

By JOHN LENGEL-CON THIEH, Vietnam (AP) — Con Thien is a miserable rise of not more than 100 feet high that commands a good view of the amber dust and scrub of the western lowlands of the demilitarized zone.

The bunkers, command post and artillery battery here have become a focus for the heaviest fighting of the war. The U.S. Marines are in a summer campaign to keep North Vietnamese army units out of South Vietnam.

The fighting has been mostly within one to two miles in all directions from Con Thien. The Marines repulsed one strong attack of North Vietnamese but recently the attacks have been all artillery — more than 2,000 rounds of rockets and heavy gunfire.

Helicopters used to bring supplies come by road now. To evacuate the dead and wounded, choppers weave from side to side at bush-top level up the road from Cam Lo and settle quickly into a whirlwind of dust.

From bunkers and holes, Marines lode toward the helicopters with their dead and wounded, put them aboard, and run back.

There are no breaks. The North Vietnamese shell all day; sometimes heavily — 80 rounds one day — and sometimes lightly. This calls for care all the time.

The Marines at Con Thien are generally reluctant to talk, but two privates did so with the understanding that they not be identified. Both have spent several weeks at Con Thien.

"You know how you have your friends, and you get a little group together," Dan said. "We're the only friends left in our group. Joe and I were going to celebrate our birthdays together. He was killed. He would have been old enough to vote today."

A shell whipped in and dust trickled into the bunker. A second later, dust from the explosion darkened the ring silt like a sudden overcast. The dust went away and it brightened inside.

"It's terrible," said Jim. "Sometimes you can see the flashes right out in front of you. Flash, flash, flash. It takes 30 seconds and then they hit. We saw one rocket all the way. It came right out of the sky to ward us with a big yellow tail. It missed."

"You never know. Three guys were standing together the other day. Two guys were killed. The other wasn't scratched. There's nothing you can do. You get to the point where you can't worry about it, but I'm getting jumpy."

Tire Changed
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — When she had a flat tire on her way to the Miss Arkansas Pageant Monday, Sherron Ann Evans, 20, of North Little Rock, remembered her father's advice: Raise the hood of the car and someone will stop.

Miss Evans, representing Ouachita Baptist University in the pageant, ran into one hitch.

"I couldn't find the hood latch," she said.

"Miss Evans had to change the tire herself."

Volunteer Marine Who Did Not Have To Fight Is Killed As Tour Nears End

By GEORGE ESPER
SALT LAKE CITY — Lt. Colin Howell was slightly wounded in sharp fighting between U.S. Marines and North Vietnamese along the demilitarized zone on July 4 and relayed word to his wife. "All is well. I'll be home in 27 more days." Today Jerry Howell, 31, was dead. Enemy gunfire got him Friday.

"This was a war he didn't really have to fight, but he believed in it, and he volunteered for it because, as he said one day last week: 'The government paid my way through college. I never really did anything for them. Now my debt is paid in full.'"

Howell had said that at heart he was "really a dove" and would welcome peace but that he believed in the cause for which he was fighting in Vietnam. Looking around at the enlisted men with him, he had explained that all of them had volunteered for combat duty.

A week ago, the Marine lieutenant had looked forward to a reunion with his wife, Nancy, in Alameda, Calif., and their two children, Jay, 2½, and Mark, 4 months, who was born while Howell was in Vietnam.

An enlisted man knew Howell had only a short time left to serve and suggested it would be a wonderful feeling when the lieutenant got aboard the airplane taking him home.

"If I ever get the hell out of this place," Howell told the enlisted man.

Howell had served in the Marines as an enlisted man from 1953 until 1956, then was discharged—and his college studies were financed under the GI Bill. He had been teaching physical education and coaching track at Pelton Junior High School in the Hunter's Point section of San Francisco in recent years.

Less than two years ago he took a leave of absence and enlisted in the Marines again for a three-year tour with the intention of coming to Vietnam. He went to Marine Officer's Candidate School and was commissioned a lieutenant, then shipped to Vietnam for a 13-month tour.

He was wounded slightly while helping recover the bodies of fellow Marines killed in a bloody battle nine days ago just south of the DMZ. The Marines were from a company he had served as platoon leader until a month ago, when he was made intelligence officer for his battalion.

After the recovery operation, Howell went back to battalion headquarters at Con Thien, a Marine outpost just 1½ miles from the demilitarized zone that has come under a steady bombardment of North Vietnamese rockets and artillery.

Last Thursday North Vietnamese gunners poured more than 800 rounds of artillery, rockets and mortars on Con Thien. Howell survived the heavy shelling.

The next day, one shell from a Communist long-range (12mm) artillery piece hit directly on the battalion command post at Con Thien. Howell and eight other Marines were killed.

View Contracts

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Kennecott Copper Corp. and unions in its Western Mining Division met for the first time Tuesday with a federal mediator to discuss new contracts.

The present contract was to have expired June 30, but the unions voted to extend the deadline until July 14.

Lyle Johnson of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said Tuesday's session was just a routine meeting in which "we explored the positions of the parties for the first time under mediation sponsorship."

New Credit Bill
Passes Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed 52 to Tuesday a credit-reforming bill which is to put borrowers exactly the cost of loans on such things as autos, appliances, repairs and house modernization. The measure, supported by President Johnson, involves $100 billion in annual consumer borrowing. It now goes to the House. The Senate acted after 2 1/2 hours of debate, climaxing a seven-day fight. Retailers, banks and other lenders had bitterly opposed the proposal at first. But some of the objections were based on compromise and some of the fears became more reconciled to it during its lengthy consideration. The measure would require lenders to disclose two facts in most consumer debt transactions: except first mortgages on homes, the annual percentage interest rate and the total finance charge in dollars and cents. This legislation, however, would not regulate the amount of the interest, but would help the borrower know what it costs him.
