

DETERIORATION OF AIRPORT loading ramp has caused pavement in that area to buckle. Monday a grader from Clawson Construction Co. cut a 35-by-70-foot section from the pavement, readying it for a new coat of asphalt. Examining the buckled places in the ramp are Bill Speck, left, airport maintenance director, and Ed Woods, airport manager. Mr. Woods said most asphalt at the airport would need replacing before long and it was just a question of whether "we're going to continue maintenance on this facility or build another."

Rail Union Spokesman Pledges Cooperation With New Board

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A union spokesman said today that railroad shopcraft workers are paid "outrageous" wages, but he pledged cooperation with a White House board as it begins efforts to resolve the tough dispute between the workers and the carriers.

"This is the only chance left for our members to get a decent wage increase," said Thomas Ramsey, spokesman for six unions which Congress ordered back to work last week after a two-day nationwide strike.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., chairman of the five-man board appointed by President Johnson, convened the first board session to outline ground rules before beginning negotiations with union and railroad representatives later today.

"Skilled railroad shopmen are paid 50 cents to $1.50 per hour less than men performing comparable work in other industries," Ramsey said.

The 17,000 members of the six unions average $2.00 an hour. Skilled men average $3.85.

Ramsey, vice president of the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, was named chairman of the six-member negotiating committee today. He replaces his brother, Vice President Joseph Ramsey of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists, who retired this week.

The machinists led the 48-hour strike which resulted in emergency legislation from Congress July 17 ordering an end to the strike and banning any further walkout before Jan. 1, 1969.

"If our members had retained their right to strike, like other workers, we are confident the railroads would have quickly negotiated a satisfactory settlement of this dispute," Ramsey said in a statement.

"Despite the gross unfairness of this distributive legislation, we believe the President's special board will make every effort to settle this dispute as quickly as possible and we intend to cooperate with the special board to achieve this goal."

Morse, head of the White House panel, is an experienced labor mediator.

Pope Arrives In Turkey On Mission

ISTANBUL (AP)—Pope Paul VI arrived in Moslem Turkey today on a two-day mission to discuss peace in the Middle East, the holy places of Jerusalem and ways to end 500 years of division between Roman Catholic and Orthodox Christians.

Within two hours of his arrival, the Pope conferred privately with President Cevdet Sunay and other top officials. Informants said Pope Paul appealed to them to mend the dispute between Israel and the Arab world.

The 69-year-old Pope was the first pontiff in 12 centuries to visit the former citadel of Eastern Christianity. The last was Pope Constantine I in 711.

Traveling on a four-engine commercial jetliner, Pope Paul arrived three days after a disastrous earthquake spread wide-spread destruction in Anatolia, southeast of Istanbul, killing at least 86 persons.

Ahead of the Pope was a crowded schedule, including a major meeting with Patriarch Athenagoras, the water tower of the world's 150 million Orthodox Catholics, to discuss ways of healing a nine-century rift between Orthodox and Roman Catholics. The patriarch shares the Pope's dream of one day rejoining the two faiths.

The tall, slender, 81-year-old patriarch was the special object of Pope Paul's fifth trip out of Italy since he was elected pontiff in 1963.

Government leaders set up two meetings with the Pope, at palaces near the waterway dividing Europe and Asia, before stepping out of the picture for the religious and "private" part of the visit.

Who will head the patriarch is the spiritual leader of 150 million Christians in the Arab world, but his direct authority here extends over 80,000 Turkish orthodox of Greek descent. The Pope has both official and jurisdictional authority over 500 million Catholics.

Glenns Ferry Mishap Kills Woman, 36

GLENN'S FERRY (AP) — A 36-year-old Caldwell woman was killed Monday afternoon when the motorcycle she was riding hit a tire and went out of control.

Dead is Mrs. Debra J. Clements, 36, Caldwell, Idaho State Police said her husband Vernon.

Oakley Plans Marathon Race

OAKLEY — Lovers of horse flesh will be able to watch a 25-mile marathon race at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Oakley Vigilante Riding club arena with at least five teams scheduled to compete for the $1,000 purse.

This annual event, which has been in existence since at least 1948, and considered commonplace by local residents, is believed to be the only such non-professional horse racing event in the entire area.

For years the horses ran on the highway between Oakley and Oakley, but about three years ago, the location of the race was changed to the arena where the track is connected to a dirt road to make the 25 miles.

Each horse will run five miles, and then the rider will change mounts. Each team consists of five horses. Teams have been led by Forest Hunt, Arthur Yost, Utah; Bill Weaver, Harp, Ore.; W. B. Whitely, Oakley, and a string jointly owned by Gal Washburn and Orde

Paratroopers Clamp Lid On Detroit After 24 Die

DETROIT (AP) — Orders into action by President Johnson. Army paratroopers clamped an armored lid on Detroit today and calm returned to the city for the moment — after 48 hours of killing, pillaging and burning.

Some new fires broke out. Sporadic sniper fire splattered against walls and sidewalks.

But the presence of the paratroopers — 40 per cent of them combat tested in Vietnam — appeared to have brought a lull in the rioting that laid waste to huge sections of the city and claimed 24 lives.

The most recent death was that of a policeman wounded when another policeman and a looker struggled for control of a gun.

At the same time, state officials said that some state police units in the Defense Department were shifted from Detroit to other Michigan cities where minor rioting flared early today.

Officials did not say how many men would be withdrawn from Detroit.

Civrus Vance, special assistant in the Defense Department and Johnson's deputy at the scene, urged businesses and industries to reopen.

He asked citizens to "come back to jobs, but the plea went largely unheeded. The center city was virtually a ghost town.

Gov. George Romney, appearing with Vance and Mayor Jeannette Cavanagh at a news conference, said a 9 p.m. curfew would remain in effect as would an order closing bars, liquor and good judgment," Vance said.

Despite the invitation, the nation's fifth-largest city remained on gasoline stations, saying they at a virtual ghost town, its main arteries all but sealed by diving snipers fire and destruction.

He later eased a restriction on gasoline stations, saying they at a virtual ghost town, its main arteries all but sealed by diving snipers fire and destruction.

He said private contractors would be limited to five gallons which must be pumped into tanks, not delivered into the city.

Commercial vehicles can have all they want.

He said it was too early to tell what would happen tonight.

"Due to an apparent improvement in the overall situation, most of them today. But although Gov. Romney, appearing with Vance and Mayor Cavanagh at a news conference, said a 9 p.m. curfew would remain in effect as would an order closing bars, liquor and good judgment," Vance said.

Expressways that criss-cross the city were nearly deserted. Those abroad in cars gawked at the vast destruction. Out-of-state licenses were numerous.

In heavily damaged areas Negroes and whites alike served coffee in weary towns. Small knots of people gathered on street corners.

Reports of injuries continued to mount toward 1,000, but apparently fewer as no way to get an accurate count.

Hundreds — possibly thousands — had become refugees huddled from homes or jobs.

A committee set up by Cavanagh to handle refugees said many were living in their cars.

Rodeo Fans

EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — Two rodeo enthusiasts were freed after being drunk on horseback on a public highway.

Jack Leroy Erwin, 69, Hydesville, Calif., pleaded guilty Monday and was fined $25. Gilbert Dean, 44, of Petrolia, Calif., posted $29 bail.

The California Highway Patrol said the two men appeared at a rodeo in Fortuna Sunday night and had started back for Hydesville, 100 miles away, on Erwin's horse and mule.

Puerto Ricans Continue Rioting In Harlem Slums

NEW YORK (AP) — Rioting in Harlem from the luxury apartments of the upper East Side and the squalor of central Harlem's Negro masses.

Gleaming paths of shattered glass showed the progress of the riot as it spread from 85th Street to 121st Street along Third Avenue, bulging in some spots as Second Avenue avenues on the east and Lexington Park and Madison avenue on the west.

Fire flashed from trash cans almost every corner, burst from flying gasoline-filled bombs and consumed an AEC television public unit. From a gas station, rioters took cans of oil and threw them away from bottles and turned them into flaming missiles.

Firemen answering calls throughout the area stretched out their hoses while skipping away from bottles and rocks thrown from roofs and windows.

A policeman was struck flush in the face by one of the bricks.

Pontiac Has Outburst Of Race Violence

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Racial violence broke loose in Pontiac with two Negroes shot and killed today — one by a white state legislator who declared "This is the price you have to pay for making a living."

A sniper's shotgun also wounded a policeman as firebrands and looting hit the city of 83,000 only 25 miles northwest of Detroit.

State Rep. Arthur J. Law, a Pontiac Democrat, said he fired his .12-gauge shotgun at a half dozen youths after they hurled a trash can through the plate glass window of a food market he has owned since 1948 in a heavily Negro area.

Pontiac has 15,000 Negro residents.

"I knew I hit one," said Law, 61, a veteran legislator who has campaigned for years against alleged violent crimes. Killed was 17-year-old Alfred Taylor of Pontiac. Two of the youth's companions were injured.

Law said he was protecting his market after it was damaged earlier in a firebombing. Shotgun in hand, he appeared at police headquarters to make a statement on the shooting.

He said the idea of looting spread from Detroit to Pontiac "like a prairie fire." He said Republican Gov. George Romney "should declare the whole state under martial law and give orders to shoot to kill."

Dragging Is Continued At Reservoir

CAREY — Dragging operations were intensified today for the body of a Boise man believed drowned in Little Wood River reservoir near Carey.

Sheriff Orville Drexler said that divers from the Mountain Home Air Base were forced to quit in their search for Edward W. Coombs, 50, an algae and sedimentation in the water made diving difficult.

More than 1,000 policemen in helmets and steel vests chased roving bands of 2,000 youths through a 125-square block area of Manhattan, taking cover to empty their revolvers at snipers hidden in tenement windows, then thrashing rioters with their nightsticks.

It was full-scale rioting and the worst of three straight nights of lesser disturbance in the Spanish — cramped, steamy home to a large segment of the city's 850,000 Puerto Ricans.

For the first time since they began early Sunday, the disorders jumped the Harlem River from Manhattan and spread to a largely Puerto Rican section of the Bronx. Looting broke out and a youth was shot in the arm.

LBJ Urges Citizens To End Lawlessness

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson pleaded today to law-abiding citizens across the nation to help put down rioting and lawlessness after he sent federal troops into riot-torn Detroit "with the greatest regret."

In a brief television broadcast ending after midnight, Johnson announced his decision to heed Michigan Gov. George Romney's request for federal forces. From Capitol Hill came political bickering and speculation in the wake of riot developments.

A 45-year-old Puerto Rican woman, hit by white officers, died shortly after a young Puerto Rican man was found fatally injured with a broken neck. Dozens were injured, including five policemen.

The rioting again stopped short of the unmarked portion that separate Spanish or East

Canadians Fume As De Gaulle Spouts Off

By STEPHEN BROFINGEN
MONTREAL (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle's cry for a "free Quebec" set off protests across Canada today and Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson called his Cabinet in session to discuss the implications.

One of the questions was how Pearson and other government officials could give the French president a hearty welcome in Ottawa Wednesday, as scheduled, in view of his expressions of support for the movement for Quebec's separation from Canada.

A federal spokesman at Ottawa called it "a pretty serious situation." An emergency session of the Cabinet was convened through a revision of Pearson's schedule for the day.

A member of Pearson's party, a Liberal in Parliament from Montreal, Max Baer, said he was asking that the government cancel the remainder of De Gaulle's visit "and have him and his party leave Canada immediately."

Angry telegrams and telephone calls flooded in on officials, newspapers and radio stations after De Gaulle's explanation before a crowd of wildly cheering separatists and others in Montreal Monday.

The climax came when De Gaulle shouted the separatist slogan "Vive le Quebec Libre!" — "Long live free Quebec!" — from the balcony of Montreal's City Hall to thousands in the square below. The slogan is a rallying cry to French Canadians who claim Quebec should secede from the English-speaking rest of Canada.

Pearson watched the 76-year-old French president on television in Ottawa and asked for a transcript of his speech.

A government spokesman said he knew of no changes in plans for De Gaulle's visit to the

Powell Schedules News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell now plans a news conference Wednesday at his Bimini Island retreat in the Bahamas. This time, an aide says, the conference will come only if he is invited.

There were reports last Friday that Powell would talk to newsmen on Bimini, but the meeting never materialized, but the congressman said he never had any intention of holding a press conference.

The marathon horse race will be followed by the final performance of the Jake Pope revue and concludes the Pioneer day celebration which included a breakfast, program and parade Monday.

Second prize in the race will be $400 and $200 is offered for third place. Entrants pay a $100 entry fee.

It is expected that several more horses may enter the event, officials said.

Cigarettes And Cancer Go Hand In Hand

WASHINGTON — As I get it, the tobacco lobby and its allies in Congress are suggesting that it is not quite correct at this time to warn the American people that they might get cancer from smoking cigarettes. It seems there's a law against saving lives in this fashion.

But the Health, Education and Welfare Department has now submitted to Congress a weighty report based on more than 2,000 research papers since 1951 which declares that the present cautionary message on cigarette packages ignores "overwhelming evidence" that smoking is clearly hazardous. It is HEW's premise that waiting to let the public this until 1969 carries inordinately little too far.

New Queen Crowned For This Year's Frontier Days Activity At T. F.

Frontier Days Committee members are having the pleasure this year of crowning two queens. When Frontier Days starts Friday, opening three days of entertainment, Vicki Webb, 18-year-old Hazelton blonde, will reign as queen, although she was a runner-up until a week ago.

Miss Webb became queen when she placed winner in last year's contest was married. The new queen received her royal gifts during two dinners held in her honor over the week-end. Among the special surprises was the regular queen's saddle, donated by Cactus Pete's at Jackpot, Nev., through special arrangements by Vlecker's Saddlery. This was one of two saddles to be given this year, as another awaits the winner of the 1968 Frontier Days contest. The saddle was presented Sunday night in a dinner at Kay's Supper Club, with other gifts including a silver buckle from Western Apparel, her crown from Jenst's Jewelry and a cooler given as a personal gift by Mayor Egon Kroff. Highlight of a Sunday night dinner in Miss Webb's honor at the Regerson Hotel was the presentation of a diamond ring, a gift of Sterling Jewelry Co. She also received a courtesy car from Wills Motor Co. to drive during her week-long reign as Frontier Days queen.

Miss Webb has a long line of honors to her credit from several years she was selected to participate in the Frontier Days parade Saturday, the Jerome County rodeo last year and has finished as runner-up in the Magic Valley Horse Show queen contest, Idaho-Oregon-Nevada Appaloosa Horse Club and in the previous Year's Frontier Days. Just one regret was voiced by the queen—that her father, who died several months ago, was not present to see her reign as Frontier Days queen. Her father had been her staunch supporter through many contests and had worked with her in horsemanship for a number of years. During the week, Miss Webb

Paratroopers Are Trained For Riots

By BOB HORTON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Army paratroopers sent into turmoil-torn Detroit have been versed in riot control tactics ranging from bayonet use to mob psychology to marching through crowds. Depending on the type of unit he is in, an American soldier gets as much as 24 hours of individual and unit training in riot control or related activities. Civil disobedience training is included in each year's training. Pentagon spokesmen say instruction stresses the use of adequate force—but no more—to put down a disturbance. Elements of the 82nd and 101st Airborne divisions—1,700 strong—were sent to Michigan by President Johnson upon request from Gov. George Romney. Some of the troops were ordered into Detroit late Monday night. "Having been with an airborne unit," one officer says, "it would be my judgment that they did the firm, he police and say it with a smile—but they will not say it twice." This may mean jabbing a rioter with a bayonet to move him on. It may mean smacking him with a rifle butt if the man grabs at the weapon. In extreme danger it may mean shooting snipers or other belligerents at the order of an officer in charge. "We don't shoot just because something moves or because somebody runs," an officer claimed. At the same time, he adds "we take no guff off anybody." Riot control training begins with learning how to wield the bayonet. The 82nd and 101st paratroopers, clad in steel helmets and green fatigues, have bayonets to attach to their new, replacing M16 rifles.

12-Year-Old Drowns In Salt Lake

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—An intensive, all-day rescue operation on the choppy waters of the Great Salt Lake and along its parched southwestern shore ended in tragedy late Monday night when the body of a 12-year-old boy was fished from the water. The boy, Brad Grisel of Salt Lake City, was one of six members of a boating party that spent Sunday night swimming on the lake after the motor in their airboat caught fire and the craft grounded in rough water. The dead boy's father, Willie D. Grisel, about 40, told law enforcement officers the party had started out on a lake excursion from a nearby marina at about 8 p.m. Sunday and in the middle of the lake the engine "blew up" and started a fire. Grisel said he hurried for about 10 minutes before they could get it out. "We started to row," the father said, "but the boys came up and the boat started taking water." Without power the craft soon floundered in the waves. With Grisel in the boat were his three sons, Brad, Chris, 14, and Joe, 8, and two friends, Doug Campbell, 15, and Robert Magleston, about 15, all of Salt Lake City.

Death Faster Than Knife

THORNDIKE, Me. (AP)—Death came faster than a Boy Scout to his scoutmaster. It took more than 52 years for the card to go from Boston, Mass., to Thorncliffe, Me. Both sender and intended receiver died years before the card arrived 11 days ago. Boy Scout Edgar Farwell mailed the card March 12, 1915, to Scoutmaster Lewis E. Hogan saying what a "nice time" he was having in Boston. Hogan's sister, Mrs. Oscar Tweedie, received the card. She said it was in perfect condition and the B o s t o n postmark date clearly legible. The card also bore a Portland, Me., postmark July 12, 1967. Postal officials at Portland had an explanation for the long delay.

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—U.S. and Canadian border officials today cautiously lifted a ban on traffic between Windsor and Detroit, but commuters and tourists crossing the Ambassador Bridge to the United States were being carefully screened. the Cabaret Internationale held Thursday at the Blue Lakes Country Club.

The sound of gently falling water, the whisper of a breeze and the fluttering of brightly colored gossamer chiffon created a pastel atmosphere for one of Twin Falls' largest social events.

Approximate 150 social and business leaders attended the cabaret, which featured Art Linkletter as guest speaker, his son, Jack Linkletter, master of ceremonies, Danny O'Neil as soloist with Johnny Lister as his accompanist.

The Cabaret II held each year to provide funds for the Boy Scouts—this year, for the mentally and physically handicapped and for those who might otherwise not be able to attend.

Arrival by "strains" of popular music provided by a string octet from Twin Falls High School. The banquet was served in the club's circular dining room as the string octet provided down to a pavilion set up on the club green. Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Lister presented several old-time favorites and two numbers from current Broadway musicals. A special favorite with the guests was a particularly fine rendition of "Danny Boy."

Jack Linkletter introduced his father, Art Linkletter, who talked informally on the subject of the American family, interspersed with humorous anecdotes on his television career.

After the program, guests returned to the club house for dancing, which completed the gracious evening.

DEAR ABBY: We are a retired couple with grown-up children. About a year ago we took a 3-year-lease on an expensive apartment. The main reason we took it was because they won't rent to anyone with small children, and we like it nice and quiet.

Across the hall lives another retired couple. They have a married daughter who has two little wildcats for kids, and every time this daughter has a fight with her husband, she picks up and runs home to Mama with her wildcats. She has been at her mother's more than with her husband lately. They just left yesterday after a six-day stay, which nearly drove my poor-husband crazy. Those kids started yelling and crying at 8 a.m. and didn't stop until 10 p.m. Now my neighbor tells me her daughter and her husband have smoked out of camp at 8 a.m. and had a second honeymoon for 3 weeks, so she (the grandmother) is keeping the wildcats.

I complained to my landlord, and he said the children are "guests," not tenants, so there's nothing he can do about it. Please give me some advice.

GOING CRAZY

DEAR GOING: Talk to a lawyer and let him look over your lease. If it has a loophole large enough for two wildcats to squeeze through for an indefinite period of time, you are out of luck. Otherwise you may have a case.

DEAR ABBY: I get sick to my stomach every time I look out of our window and see the little 6-year-old neighbor boy mowing their lawn with a power lawn mower. And with smokers on no less!

These people would not take kindly to any warning from well-meaning neighbors.

Perhaps if you were to point out the dangers, it might get their attention and save their child the loss of a foot. Or perhaps even his life. Thanks, Abby.

DEAR FAN: Small matter whether your neighbors would "take kindly" to your warnings. Warn them anyway. And warn the boy, too.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is on the train 3 or 4 days a week, but he is always home on the weekend. We have a year old

DEAR MIXED: I agree with your husband. I don't know what your "good friends" are trying to tell you, but if you have to go on the road with your husband in order to "save" your marriage, that road will be a blind alley.

L. M. Arrington Family Reunion Held In T.F.

The LeRoy Madison Arrington family descendants gathered for their annual reunion at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Arrington, Eighty family members were in attendance from Utah and Idaho.

After lunch the group gathered in the family room of the home for a program and awarding of prizes. F. M. Egbert Jr. was master of ceremonies. Prizes were awarded to the youngest grandmother, oldest grandparents, those having the most grandchildren, youngest family member, the child with most teeth missing and those who came the farthest and least distance to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arrington were in charge of the prizes.

The program was a tribute to Grover N. Arrington, one of the sons of LeRoy M. Arrington, who has served as president of the family organization for 50 years. He came to Idaho in 1911, one of the pioneers in this area. He has resided here continuously since that time, contributing to the building and growth of Magic Valley and the Twin Falls area. The story of his life, from birth at Marshall, N.C., to present day activities, was told in poetry, narrative and song by Carol Egbert, F. M. Egbert Jr., Mrs. Ver Cox, Lewis Arrington and Mrs. Harold Arrington.

Curt Arrington, a grandson, gave a tribute in poetry to his grandfather and Mr. Egbert presented a scrapbook containing his life story and pictures and photographs taken through the years. Many of these photographs were shown to the group by means of opaque projector. Four numbers were presented by vocal groups.

Named to serve as reunion committee for the coming year were Mr. Egbert, Kenneth Arrington and Howard Arrington. The family newsletter committee consists of Mrs. George Ward Lovell, Mrs. John Wilson, Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Lewis Arrington and Mrs. Howard Arrington, Twin Falls. Mrs. Ver Cox was elected as the new treasurer for the group.

A cousin's party for adult family members was held at the Egbert residence featuring an outdoor barbecue, games and visiting.

Hemlines Vary As Designers Show Fashions

BY LEONORA DOBSONWORTH AP Fashion Writer
ROME (AP) — Keep skirts short or drop them long? Italian designers in fashion showings last week concluded here stated the case for both sides.

London designers, in their shows, did not keep the hemline for the most part, just above the knee, but there were some as much as four inches above the ankle.

In Rome there were lots of drastic drops, with hemlines long enough to make the ankle the focal point of the dress.

But buyers were cautious about the drop and experienced fashion observers say this is bringing their own styles, a cover-up and table service. More information can be obtained by calling 733-2785.

In practice skirts probably will now take their first cautious downward step to the knee.

All of which seems to prove right that old saying: "What goes up must come down."

When it comes to what women will actually wear, vital attitudes to bear in mind are:

- Skirts must be snugly fitted (top and high high-waist collars or hussar neckbands).
- Waists stressed with belts.
- Shoulders small but resolutely squared.
- Skirts still easy but showing signs of less width.

The Italians recited a record book season. Skirts are definitely playing second fiddle.

As always from Italy, there's a big color and fabric story. The monochromes are marching against the brilliant hues that the Italians themselves don't claim any credit on.

Brown is the "fit" shade for autumn at its smartest when teamed with white or black.

Blue-gray made the point forcefully when he proclaimed in his program note: "Let's put an end to shrieking colors and fashion for boys' clothes."

For day, fabrics will be husky and heavy or fleecy with a dusky plaid.

Velvet will be much in vogue for formal evenings, romantically teamed with ruffles of white lace.

By night, clinging, crepe gowns will put the hard daytime look into collapse.

For big evenings, jewels can be left at home. Dresses will be headed with their own built-in heading in precious-looking stones.

The French will have the final fashion say when Paris collections start Monday.

The wedding enco, which was also designed by Mrs. Dettmer, will be baked and decorated by Mrs. Ula Allen, although Elaine Dettmer claims any credit on the outstanding dresses made by her mother, she does insist she had a little bit to do with the designing of the cake.

All-trial Elaine will look lovely as she walks down the aisle in her "homemade" wedding gown, which is truly a sight to behold. She will be married to John Carl Putzier in eight at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Lutheran Lutheran Church.

Marjorie Wilson, Russell Repeat Vows In T. F. Rites

Marjorie Ellen Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Wilson, became the bride of Richard L. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Russell, Portland, Ore., in rites June 17 at the First Christian Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. Donald Hoffman performed the double ring ceremony before a background of lighted candelabra and baskets of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums.

Organist was the traditional wedding march and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Ferris Freestone Sr., aunt of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown of off-white chiffon over ivory satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long full sleeves. The gown was enhanced with lace at the waistline and a large satin bow at the back waistline.

Her shoulder-length silk illusion veil was held by a crown of artificial flowers and lace. She carried a white lily and a white orchid accented with streamers of white ribbon and Stephanotis. Her only jewelry was an opal pendant, a gift from the bridegroom.

Head of honor was Sylvia Freestone, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Patricia Patton, Pocatello, and Susan Wilcox, sister of the bride. Flower girl, twin of the bride, was Patricia Freestone Jr., cousin of the bride.

Best man was Robert Drummond, Portland, Ore. Ushers were Don Rice, Blackfoot; Victor Allen, Idaho Falls; John Wilson, brother of the bride, and Paul Freestone Jr., cousin of the bride.

Candlelighters were Walter Freestone, cousin of the bride, and Jim Wilson, brother of the bride. Guests were registered by Jane Norris, Twin Falls, and Mary Fordyce, Pocatello.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with white net over green and centered with four tiered wedding cake decorated in pink and white.

The couple took a wedding trip to the coast and will reside at 112 Swisher Road, Pocatello. The bride will complete her senior year at Idaho State University, majoring in home economics education. The bridegroom is serving in the Navy, stationed at the Nuclear Power Training Unit near Arco.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Ellen Brose, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Edwin Freestone Sr. and Mrs. Edwin Lindgren, aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake. Punch was served by Leslie Herring, Twin Falls.

Sandra Brown, Kimberly, presided at the coffee service. Guests were seated at quarter tables centered with arrangements of pink and green. Women of the Christian Women's Fellowship were in charge of the reception.

The hours and hours of "free time" work that has gone into the wedding gown alone is fantastic, to say nothing of the patience this woman must have to individually sew on approximately 800 seed pearls and accents. (In afraid this writer would never have put passed the cutting-out stage.)

On the coat alone, there are 23 large lace appliques. This is not counting the complete lace row applied border on the coat that goes the full length from the neckline down the front and curving the back which flows into train. Each rose took Mrs. Dettmer approximately one hour to sew out.

A night's mention here, that these lace roses came in yard-wide rolls and had to be hand-clipped, then the individual leaves hand clipped, pinned in place by the right piece, laid out for the right design, not banded. Now is when the one hour comes in, each rose sewed with very delicate stitching and added with loving care. There are an additional 17 appliques roses on the gown lace.

Elaine's chosen colors of apricot with a touch of green, will be greatly enhanced with the bridesmaids' empire-styled apricot-colored gowns accented with a border of white lace.

FROM ALL ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY
Times-News Sports Editor

One of the big surprises of the summer has been the interest, or lack of it, in the all-new Idaho turkey.

When the department announced it was necessary to open a 150-permit shoot — just to keep the birds from getting too tame — everyone in the state perked up.

Last week Hovey was the entry deadline and it proved there were a lot more turkey hunters than the 1,500 applications were received for the 150 permits.

Last week Governor Samuelson stated that Washington was killing more big game in a shorter season than Idaho was. It may be that Washington is killing more in a shorter space of time but it isn't killing more.

A check of the last available data from both states indicate Washington sold 20,000 turkey permits in 1955 and had 11,000 killed, and that converts to 13 percent.

Idaho sold 56,000 elk tags and had 14,000 harvested, a 25 percent success.

The deer stags are topped in Idaho's favor, too. Washington sold 122,000 deer tags. Only 1,500 were used on 53,000 animals. Idaho sold 132,000 tags with a total kill of 56,000.

Latest word from Ducks Unlimited holds out hope for a better fall population of Mallard and Magpie Valley. "Relatively warm dry weather has prevailed across the prairies during the past month providing excellent conditions for nesting and newly-hatched broods," the report says.

"The main hatch of mallard and magpie, some two weeks late due to the cold of late April and early May, has very good prospect of being successful."

But the big thing is the sentence "Alberta habitat conditions are excellent throughout the state." That's where most of Magpie Valley's migratory birds come from.

During the Twin Falls rough water swim Sunday at Dierks's Lake, the best trophy was for the "big" trout. All the trophies were selected by Dr. Jack McNeess, who was tournament chairman.

He also doubled as the division winner, taking up the desk-pen set that included a transistor radio.

Said one competitor in eyeing the prize: "I won't say anything until the prize for the men's division becomes a new TV or a new deodorant or something like that."

Replied Dr. McNeess, "The big prize in a couple of years will be for the father-son division winners. My boy and I will be shot at that one unless I fade in a hurry."

Most of the football, basketball and wrestling coaches in the state will congregate in Sun Valley next week for the annual Idaho Coaching Clinic.

Featured will be Pepper Rogers, new head football coach at the University of Kansas and immediate past offensive line coach under Tom Prothro at UCLA. Sharing the football podium with Rogers will be Tom Perry of Colorado.

Jack Hartman, who coached small college champion Southern Illinois into national prominence last spring, will head the basketball specialists. Long time basketball discussions will be Murry Satterfield, head coach at Idaho College.

A special award also will be offered with Vaughn Hitchcock, Cal Poly, the head man.

As usual the first two and one-half days (Monday, Tuesday for football with basketball talk taking over at Wednesday noon and running through Friday.

Machen Retires From Ring Wars

BERKLEY, Calif. (AP) — Eddie Machen, a top heavy-weight contender, announced Monday he has quit boxing.

Machen, 35, was scheduled to fight Dave Zigmund in Houston, Aug. 1, but said he has notified the promoters he has decided to retire.

Machen started his pro career in 1952.

But after that, all that was heard from Harris was a news story from Philadelphia in which the fighter was quoted as saying he refused to come to Dallas because he was over the weight limit and his manager said he couldn't make it.

At 2 p.m. Hayes issued a terse statement: "I am reporting to the World Boxing Association and to the Texas Boxing Commission the fact that Harris has failed to show up. Do not know at this time what action will be taken."

The cancellation climaxed a week of comment, controversial statements, charges and counter-charges.

Doug Lord, manager of Cokes, projected the controversy when he demanded that Dallas pay his fighter be paid $25,000 he said was due on the Cokes-Francois Pavilla title fight here May 19.

Hayes finally asked the state commission for a hearing and Wednesday Commissioner Charles King held that because Harris had failed to appear for a hearing and lack of payment the Greater Dallas Sports Association promoter's license would be suspended and the fight could not be held Monday as scheduled.

Then Thursday Hayes got an order from a district court in Austin, headed by Judge Tompkins, knocking out the action and allowing the fight to go on.

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Five Cleveland Browns' players who refused to report to training camp continued their holdout today under a $100-a-day fine.

All were due to report last Saturday at noon.

An attorney for the players told club owner Art Modell that all five players have stated that if one of them is traded to another club in the National Football League that the remaining four also must be traded.

The veteran players are running back Leroy Kelly, defensive halfback Mike Howell, linebacker Sid Williams, offensive guard John Wooten and offensive tackle John Brown.

Modell said he would not be influenced by any persons or group of individuals.

The players are represented by Carl B. Stokes, a state representative and Democratic mayoral candidate in Cleveland.

Modell said he hoped the players will report to Hiram, but continued absence from training camp could cause eventual suspension from our roster."

SNAGGING EQUIPMENT taken from anglers cited for various violations of fishing regulations are pointed out by Martel Morche, regional conservation educator for the Idaho Fish and Game Department. Harassment of the fish apparently has become much more frequent now that the Salmon have reached the headwaters of the smaller tributaries for spawning purposes.

Salmon Season Extension Designed As Bonus, Not License For Harassment

By LARRY HOVEY
Times-News Sports Editor

Given a 16-day extension by the Idaho Fish and Game Department and blessed with a good run of spring Chinooks, anglers are looking forward to now reaching their peak populations in the upper reaches of the smaller streams, Idaho Salmon anglers are having it better this summer than they have for years.

The season will remain open through July 31, giving area anglers one last big weekend for a final try at the ocean-going spawners.

In the midst of this bonus fishing, it appears usually common-sense governed people are being mesmerized by the thought of bringing home a big one. This is leading many beyond the rigidly specified boundaries of the law and sportsmanship.

The department cited over 20 persons for taking fish illegally over the weekend and promises that through the remainder of the season, fishing may be enforced personnel will be kept as high as possible.

In the way of background, the department notes high waters and a surplus over the minimum 32,000 fish requirement would allow Idahoans to take some more fish, added 16 days to the season. Since then the waters have receded and the spawners have reached the headwaters of small streams, perfectly visible to passersby.

This is the signal that sends some off on a Salmon madness. "Once they see the fish they can't seem to resist the temptation to pursue them illegally," says Martel Morche, area conservation educator who joined the ranks of the enforcement arm for the weekend patrol.

"The folly in this, as Morche points out, is that humans can see the fish, then the fish can see the human. Once the fish has spotted a fisherman, there is practically no chance that he would be interested in striking at a lure."

When the fisherman spots a Chinook and then can't interest him in taking it the legally, sometimes he gives vent to his petulant nature. This is done in harassment, noting high waters and chasing him around, trying to snag him, tugging him with wire, and all the etc. etc. etc. illegal."

Others have less qualms about it. "In some cases people are actually prodding the backs of

High Trinity Lakes Offer Trout Action

High mountain lakes in the Trinity Mountain area offer a chance for area anglers who desire a little fishing, reports Martel Morche, regional conservation officer for the Idaho Fish and Game Department.

Morche, regional fish biologist, said that trout in the Trinity lakes are in good form. Trout populations were found in Heart Lake, Little Middle and Big Rainbow Lakes. Trout in Middle and Big Rainbow lakes ranged from 10 to 14 inches in length.

"This indicates the helicopter fishing has survived well," Morche said.

Looking at the Wood River drainage, Morche said there are good numbers of winter kill in the lakes above Ketchikan, namely Upper Norton, Big Lost Lake and Pitkin Lake.

"A lot of trout are being put in the lake but it will be extensive if the kill was extensive the lakes would be restocked this year if possible.

to go ahead—to stay—at the 189-yard take hole 10th. It seemed to set him off.

He rolled in a tricky 12-foot putt on top of Massengale's 20-foot birdie putt at the 55-yard 12th hole and matched his rival with another birdie putt at the 14th.

The back-breaker for the night's rain delay was Massengale, from Fort Worth, came at the 15th when January after a tremendous drive of around 300 yards, filled a wedge within three feet for his fifth birdie of the day.

The two parred the short 16th, shared bogey on the 17th and then scrambled for their pars on the final hole.

It was the first major golf victory for January, who was beaten in a playoff for the PGA title by Jerry Barber at Chicago in 1961 and who lost his only other two playoff chances—the Western Open to Mike Fetchick in 1956 and the Lucky International to Chi Chi Rodriguez in 1964.

A crowd of 7,500 semi-circularly for a record 74,500 for the four days of regular tournament play—watched the duel over the 7,456-yard par 72 Columbus Course which surprisingly baffled the nation's finest pros.

January earned the top prize of $25,000 for the victory with Massengale getting $15,000.

Culp Pitches Cubs Into Tie With Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Right-hander Ray Culp, unfrustrated by a 51-minute rain delay in the eleventh inning, hurled the torrid Chicago Cubs into a first-place tie with St. Louis in the National League Monday night by scattering five hits for a 3-1 victory over the Cardinals.

The Cubs' ninth victory in their last 11 games left the two teams deadlocked for the lead with 56-40 records. Culp blanked St. Louis through the first five innings and worked out of a series of jams in the sixth. The Cards scored their run before intermittent rain showers turned into a downpour and forced the delay.

When play resumed, Culp retired the last nine batters in order for his eighth victory in 10 decisions.

The Cubs knocked starter and fiery Jaster from the mound in a two-run second inning flurry. Ron Santo stretched his hitting streak to nine games with a leadoff single and Ernie Banks doubled to deep right center for one run.

A walk to Randy Hundley and infield hit by Clarence Jones filled the bases and, after Adolfo Phillips forced Banks at the plate, Jaster was replaced by Jack Lamabe. Lamabe struck out Hank Aaron while Don Drysdale, on a 3-2 count, forcing in the second run.

The Cubs added a run in the fifth when Glenn Beckley, speared to third on a single by Billy Williams and scored on Santo's ground out.

The Cardinals managed only scattered singles of little value until the sixth, when Lou Brock led off with his second hit and raced to second after center fielder Phillips took Don Tolson's fly.

Roger Maris drew a walk and Orlando Cepeda slammed a run-scoring double to tie. Culp then worked out further trouble by striking out Tim McCarver and retiring Mike Shannon on a fly to left.

Orioles Stop Redlegs In Exhibition

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Marcelino Lopez and Stu Miller combined to pitch a three-hitter while Paul Blair and Andy Etchebarren stroked some runs Monday, propelling the Baltimore Orioles to a 3-0 victory over Cincinnati in the annual Hall of Fame Game that was halted by rain after eight innings.

Blair and Etchebarren both honored off losing pitcher Billy McGraw. Left-hander worked five innings, gave up two other hits besides the home runs, walked six and struck out six.

Lopez was credited with the victory at Doubleday Field, the spot where Gen. Abner Doubleday is credited with founding the game.

Lopez pitched a two-hit ball through the first four innings, walking four and striking out two. Miller came in the fifth and allowed only one hit the rest of the way.

LAST HOPES of Don Massengale died on the 16th green when the young Texan picked from the rough in a desperate effort to catch Don January in their 18-hole playoff in Denver Monday. U.S. Will Dominate Track Phase Of Pan-Am Games Without Stars

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn. — (NEA)

—Exclude the sprints and 1,500 meters and the Pan American Games will be a preview of United States track and field strength heading into an Olympic year.

World record holders Jim Ryan and Tommie Smith will not compete for the United States in Winnipeg, Canada. Neither will Charlie Greene, Jim Hines or Gerry Lindgren.

Ryan and Lindgren (10,000 meters) decided to concentrate on a series of European meets in London, Bussacker, Germany and Via Regio, Italy later this summer.

Smith and Green have military obligations and Hines missed the Pan American Games because he was job hunting.

Astros Edge Phils 2-1 In 11th Inning

HOUSTON (AP) — Left-hander Mike Cuellar stopped Philadelphia on two hits and scored the winning run on Jim Wynn's two-out single in the 11th inning, giving the Houston Astros a 2-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Monday night.

With one out in the 11th, Cuellar drew a walk from Dick Hall, the third Philadelphia pitcher. Julio Gotay sacrificed the pitcher to second and he took third as shortstop Bobby Vena bonied Joe Morgan's grounder. Wynn then broke the deadlock with a single to left center field.

The only hit of Cuellar, who struck out 12 and brought his season record to 16-5, was a bad-hop double by Cookie Johnson in the fifth inning and a single by Bill White in the 11th.

The Phillies tied the game in the ninth when Tony Taylor walked with one out, and eventually scored on a two-base error by third baseman Ed Matthews.

Matthews' sacrifice fly in the 10th had given the Astros a 1-0 lead after Morgan's infield hit, an error and an infield out set up the run.

U.S. May Win More Pan-Am Swim Medals

WINNIPEG, Canada (AP) — The formidable United States swimming team figures to win more gold medals — and maybe lose a few more — than in 1963 in the fifth Pan-American Championships starting Tuesday.

Now can that be? Swammer events have been added to the men's competition, making a total of 17 in swimming and diving, compared to 10 four years ago at Sao Paulo, Brazil. The Yanks swept all eight swim gold medals and captured one of the two diving golds.

The women will be gunning for 10 golds — 14 in swimming and two in diving — compared to 10 in 1963. The U.S. girls swept the boards four years ago.

Led by Don Schollander, winner of four gold medals in the Tokyo Olympics, and a horde of world record swimmers, the Yanks are favored to sweep most everything but the specialties of Canada's wonderful Eliaho Tanner and one or two other events. The 16-year-old "Mighty Mouse" from Vancouver, B. C., is favored to win the 100-meter butterfly and backstroke and the 200-meter backstroke.

Giants Hike Win Streak To Three

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — Salt Lake City won its third straight game from Idaho Falls Monday coming up with three unearned runs in the top of the ninth inning to clinch an 8-1 Pioneer League win.

Catcher Fred Ferguson singled in the solo run in the second after a walk and two wild pitches by losing pitcher Joe Mills.

Santos Maldonado singled one across in the third and Mike Reardon drove the second, offense. Rosendo Cedeno's double in Idaho Falls error and Ferguson's single brought two across in the fifth. The final three falls in the ninth came off Maldonado's single, followed by four Idaho Falls errors and Dave Idaho's double.

Chiefs Down Broncos In Exhibition

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Little Noland Smith raced 86 yards with a punt return and Frank Pitts grabbed the game-winning touchdown pass from Sandy Stoen as the Kansas City Chiefs downed the Denver Broncos, 21-14, in a rookie-dominated American Football League exhibition game Monday night.

Smith, only 5-foot-8 and 163 pounds, ignited the scoring the first time he touched the ball. The former Tennessee State Star grabbed a Denver punt of his own 14, dropped back to the five to set up his blockers, then sped down the sidelines for the Chiefs' first TD.

In the final period, Stephens connected on a 34-yard pass to Aaron Brown, former defensive player getting a trial at fullback, then followed with the winning aerial to Pitts.

While players were hitting each other on practice fields at pro camps throughout the country, three members of the San Diego Chargers of the AFL were hit in the pocketbook.

Fullback Gene Foster, safety Kenny Graham and defensive halfback Les Duncan walked out of camp Monday in a salary dispute and Coach Sid Gilman fired them $1,000 each.

Gilman called the walkout a "brazen show of irresponsibility" and said he would fine the players an additional $100 a day for each practice session they miss.

In other developments, Timmy Brown, the greatest all-around former back of the Philadelphia Eagles history, signed his contract, and three other veterans announced their retirement.

Retiring vet Pittsburgh tackle Dan James, a nine-year National Football League veteran, Chicago defensive end Ed O'Bradovich, who plays five seasons in the NFL, and seven-year NFL veteran Hugh McInnis, Atlanta tight end.

Another veteran, defensive end Earl Frazier, a four-time All-AFL selection, was placed on waivers by the Miami Dolphins.
