

Hungry, Homeless Riot Victims Only Wonder Why It Had To Happen

By DON MCKEE
(AP) — The old Negro man carried a burlap bag over his bent shoulders. He worked his way to the front of the line at the church on 12th Street. The food he received on "I want some milk," he said, his hand clenching the bag as though it might escape. The door and into the lawn. A woman in a yellow blouse and khaki men's trousers held a large, black shopping bag. Boy about 7, pulled a red wagon with an empty basket and cardboard box in it. Others in the line clutched cardboard boxes or brown paper bags. "We got the idea last night," said the Rev. Robert L. Potts, chairman of the Virginia Park Rehabilitation Project which had collected food to dispense to residents of Detroit's West Side. The area hit hardest by rioting that had killed more than a score and injured hundreds. These were the other victims of the violence and blunder that had turned block after block of the West Side into smoking ruins and wrecked stores, gaping empty, windows shattered and smashed, shelves cleaned off or cluttered amid litter and debris. They lived in the tenements, apartments and houses off 12th Street. "We didn't burn anything," a woman said. But now there were no nearby grocery stores left to provide food. Many families feared to travel far or had little gasoline left because of travel restrictions, and shut-down service stations.

Long stretches of Grand River, 12th and 14th streets lay raw, stretches of incredible destruction, fingers of litter and rubble, smoldering fires, shattered glass. "They're going to really suffer after this," said a Negro woman, Mrs. Milton Jones, neatly dressed in shorts and blouse. She stood outside the church. "Stealing, breaking into stores," she went on, surveying the littered street. "Did she, know why it all happened?"

Mrs. Jones shook her head. "I have no idea." A social worker who had been busy on the West Side said only a few grocery stores were open around 12th Street. "But they were out of the staples, milk and bread. We drove to the suburbs but the panic buying cleaned them out," she said. "The food problem is critical." About 400 food stores were destroyed in the burning and looting, said Edward Deeb, executive director of the Food Dealers of Greater Detroit.

Food industry spokesmen said, however, that there was ample food available and no shortage would develop unless panic buying became general. Some stores were out of bread, milk and some kinds of meat. Churches and other relief agencies were giving rice, food and clothing from such distant cities as Monroe, on the Michigan-Ohio border nearly 60 miles away, and from Maricopa City, about 50 miles to the northeast.

Homes for the refugees were provided by white families in northwest Detroit. "The refugees are a problem," he said. "We know they are here. But the people are scared. They're afraid of the snipers and of the police. They are hiding somewhere, but we haven't been able to get them to come here." The other victims were there, the hungry, homeless, the frightened people and the innocent who could only wonder why.

Police said they had been busy on the West Side and another three in Grand Rapids, in the South-west Phoenix, Ariz., police confided. Near the rioting amid other disturbances were put down. The presence of federal troops failed to prevent new rioting in Detroit. As the killing, burning and looting continued in the nation's fifth-largest city, the death toll jumped to 17 and property damage was more than $150 million. Gunfire rattled through the night. Through the streets of New York's Spanish Harlem, priests and nuns led a candlelight procession singing the "Ave Maria" and for the first time in three nights the neighborhood was nearly calm.

Bombers Raid Gun Locations

SAIGON (AP) — Waves of high-altitude B52 bombers made one of their rare forays over North Vietnam today for a saturation raid on gun emplacements and dug-in bunkers of the North Vietnamese 31st Division just above the 17th Parallel frontier. The U.S. Command said the bombers carried in waves two hours apart and saturated an area almost two miles long and two miles wide with a lethal rain of bombs. The number of bombers was not disclosed but the size of the target area indicated a far greater than normal effort. The big bombers probably unloaded hundreds of thousands of pounds of bombs on the North Vietnamese emplacements. The target area was just north of the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam and about 14 miles inland from the coast. The 31st Division is posted and from which heavy Communist guns have for weeks fired deadly barrages on U.S. Marines dug in about seven miles to the south. Although ground action was scattered and inconclusive, the heavy bombing was expected to have disrupted other developments in the war: 1. The U.S. Command announced that the Forrestal carrier, the largest American carrier, has joined the 7th Fleet operating against North Vietnam from the Gulf of Tonkin. 2. Two American jets were downed Tuesday. They brought announced U.S. combat plans loss over North Vietnam to 617. 3. A two-engine Air Force F4C Phantom, the three flares are missing in action. 4. South Vietnamese headquarters said two more Communist mines ripped up the road and blew up a small concrete bridge on Highway 16, six miles from Saigon into the Mekong Delta and long regarded as one of the nation's safest routes. Guerrillas have set more than nine miles in the road in the past week and more have been discovered unexploded.

North Idaho Has Big Forest Fires
SPOKANE (AP) — The most serious forest fires of the season were reported Wednesday in the Coeur d'Alene and St. Joe national forests of North Idaho. The U.S. Forest Service said 22 men and 12 smokejumpers were sent to the Owl Creek area of the St. Joe for a 15-acre, lightning-caused fire was reported. Some 3,000 gallons of fire retardant were dropped on the blaze.

Delayed
ROISE (Special) — Appointment of a new District Court judge for the Boise-Fairfield area will be delayed until the end of the first week of the first term, a source in the office of Gov. Don Samuelson said today. Two men, John Daly and James Cunningham, both of Twin Falls, are being considered for the post. Also said the governor wanted to give further study to the nominations by the Idaho Judicial Nominating Council before making the appointments. A judge also will be named for the Fourth District, with headquarters in Boise. The appointments will increase the number of Idaho district judges to 24.

De Gaulle Will Go Home Without Meeting Rebuker

By STEPHENS BROENING
MONTREAL (AP) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle is returning to France, skipping a confrontation meeting with his rebuker, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson. A government source reported it today, and it was in effect confirmed by a member of the French president's party. This development came about eight hours before De Gaulle was scheduled to arrive in Ottawa for a ceremonial greeting from top Canadian officials. It was just 14 hours after Pearson issued a statement rebuking the general for his cry, "Long live free Quebec!" at Montreal. Pearson said statements by De Gaulle are unacceptable to the Canadian people and its government. "Today a spokesman for the French Foreign Office, who accompanied De Gaulle to Montreal, said: 'The word "unacceptable" itself is unacceptable.' The De Gaulle trip got off on the wrong foot from the start. The Canadian government wanted him to come to Ottawa first, as a token of respect for the national government, and then go to Montreal and Quebec. Instead, De Gaulle insisted on landing from a French cruiser at Quebec and then going on to Montreal — the largest French-speaking city in the world — to Paris. The schedule he approved then called for him to go to Ottawa by train, arriving late today for a state dinner and other ceremonial functions. Under the revised plans, the 76-year-old French leader is returning home directly from Montreal without a visit to the national capital. Montreal police disclosed today that a bullet had been fired at about the time De Gaulle was speaking outside the City Hall here Monday night. They found a bullet hole in the wall of a City Hall office, but said they found no evidence that the shot was fired during the general's speech. It was at City Hall that De Gaulle started the furor that led to the diplomatic crisis culminating in Pearson's rebuke. De Gaulle's decision to go home, his "Long live free Quebec" was too close to home for many Canadians, since it has been a rallying cry for those French-speaking Canadians — every year a small minority — who want an independent Quebec, separate from the nine other provinces, which are largely English-speaking.

Bombs Are Detonated On Utah Desert
HILL AIR FORCE BASE, Utah (AP) — A towering white mushroom cloud sprang from the western Utah desert today as the U.S. Air Force detonated 250 tons of conventional bombs. A rumbling thunder-like noise was heard 100 miles in the Salt Lake Valley at points more than 50 miles distant, an Air Force spokesman reported. "It was one of the largest conventional explosions by the Air Force. The huge explosion was a test to see if a new earth barrier would protect another 500 tons of bombs near the blast. They did not go off, and the Air Force called the test successful. A spokesman said the Air Force hopes to employ the new-type barricade so that munitions storage areas can be spaced closer together.

Utah Team Is First In Oakley's Marathon Race
OAKLEY — The Richens team from Yost, Utah, won first place in a race of 41,000 with the winning time of 13 minutes, 33 seconds during the 25-mile, marathon race at the Oakley Vigilante Running Club on Tuesday night. The annual event, held at 6 p.m., which has been in existence for at least since 1948, and having a large attendance of local residents, is believed to be the only such non-professional horse racing event in the entire area. Following the second and winning a $100 purse was the Bill Weavers' string from Harper, Ore., with a time of 1:12. Third was W. B. Wiley, Oakley; Damon Y. Gonsky, string, Idaho Falls; Forrest Hunt, American Falls, fifth, and the Washburn team, Oakley, sixth.

FBI Arrests H. Rap Brown At Airport
WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI agents arrested H. Rap Brown today on Maryland charges of inciting a Negro riot at Cambridge. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said Brown was taken into custody at Washington National Airport about 4 a.m. Brown, national chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, had been charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution, based on a local Maryland warrant which charged Brown with inciting a riot at Cambridge. The FBI said Brown would be arraigned by a U.S. commissioner in Alexandria, Va., tomorrow. Brown spoke to a crowd of 400 in Cambridge for 45 minutes Monday night. About an hour later 1,000 Negroes rioted for two hours and a fire spread along two blocks of Pine Street, destroying about a dozen buildings. Brown was named Tuesday in state warrants charging him with inciting a riot and disturbing the peace. The warrants of the Pine Street Rioting School.

Sub-Contract Bids On CSI Work Opened

Electric Co., Pocatello. Sealed bids on the mechanical and electrical work were received from 14 firms by the college board Tuesday night. James L. Taylor, college president, formed the bidding pool with other estimates for this phase and we are highly satisfied that they are."

Leaders Haggle Over Blame For Race Riots
By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders are haggling over who will take the strictest blame for the bloody destruction in Detroit and other urban areas. Controversy broke up Tuesday over whether President Johnson acted quickly enough in sending federal troops into Detroit to try to control the rioting. The Senate Judiciary Committee today is expected to hold hearings and act on anti-riot and inquiry measures. Democrats and Republicans accused each other of trying to gain political advantage out of the bloody destruction in Detroit and other urban areas. "Playing politics in the streets," Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma accused Republican leaders of "playing politics in the streets." Johnson's Attorney General Ramsey Clark said the rioting was a "national emergency" and that the government had a duty to act. ## Violence Kindled In New Outbreaks

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer
The nation's midnight nightmarish street violence continued today with fresh outbreaks of rioting amid other disturbances were put down. The presence of federal troops failed to prevent new rioting in Detroit. As the killing, burning and looting continued in the nation's fifth-largest city, the death toll jumped to 17 and property damage was more than $150 million. Gunfire rattled through the night. Through the streets of New York's Spanish Harlem, priests and nuns led a candlelight procession singing the "Ave Maria" and for the first time in three nights the neighborhood was nearly calm.

There were at least eight persons shot to death in a motel room, police said. National Guardsmen opened up with machineguns on some suspected sniper nests. The president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce predicted the cost of the rioting in the three-county metropolitan area could eventually reach $1 billion. The president of the Detroit Police Association said in Toronto Tuesday that the arrival of troops was delayed by jockeying for political advantage between Mayor Jerome Cavanagh and Gov. George Romney. There were 705 National Guardsmen to enforce an uneasy calm at that city Tuesday night. Relative peace also prevailed after nights of disturbances in Englewood, N.J., Pontiac, Mich., and Rochester, N.Y.

Rehoboth, N.J. Chief William M. Lombard credited stepped-up anti-riot training for his men as a key factor in putting down the violence that took two lives there. In Saginaw, Mich., police said at least eight persons were shot and wounded during a siege of sniper firing. Hundreds of Negroes marched through the city, 100 miles northwest of Detroit, after an abortive sit-in. Three Negroes were shot and wounded in Grand Rapids while trying to reason with an angry crowd. Police said they were hit by sniper fire. They were members of a religious group trying to convince troublemakers to stay home.

Withdrawals
SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Cosmetics manufacturer William Penn Patrick Tuesday announced the withdrawal of his campaign from the campaign to recall Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho. Patrick said a series of talks in St. George, Murphree, R-Calif., who is GOP senatorial campaign chairman, had convinced him that the recall movement could develop "an undesired support" for Church and this could hurt Republican chances in Idaho in 1968. Patrick said that "while sympathizing with the people in Idaho" on the "overriding goal of all Republicans must be to win, everywhere, in 1968."

4 Negroes Ask End Of Rioting
NEW YORK (AP) — Four top Negro leaders called today for an end of rioting, and said that nothing can justify "the present destruction of the Negro community and its people."

"No one benefits under mob law. Let's end it now!" said the statement signed by Martin Luther King Jr., A. Philip Randolph, Roy Wilkins and Whitney M. Young Jr. The statement was released by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, headed by Wilkins. But a spokesman said it was agreed to a conference telephone call and the wording was worked out. It was read "back and forth" to the press. The statement must be read in its entirety and dealt with as such, and are "ineffective, disruptive and highly damaging to the Negro population, and to the entire nation."

Powell Calls Riots 'Necessary Phase'
By FRANK MURRAY
BIRMINGHAM (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell said today the riots in Detroit and other American cities "are a necessary phase of the black revolution — necessary." Powell, at a news conference on this city British Island where he lives in self-imposed exile, said new Negro rioting was "explosive" if American areas unless Negroes are nominated to Congress by Sept. 1. Powell did not elaborate on how Negro congressmen could be nominated by Sept. 1. The congressmen-elect said Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich., "must be replaced. No wonder people burned his office. No wonder he was hit by a rock." Powell said, "In Detroit, black people were destroyed by a mayor whom they helped to elect." The mayor, John Cavanagh, was not mentioned by name in Powell's remarks. Powell said he worked out an agreement last week to return to New York, but said "I am not sure if I can do that."

By FENTON WHEELER
HAVANA (AP) — Stokely Carmichael vows Negroes in American cities are going to wage a guerrilla "fight to the death" against a police force reported Tuesday as the U.S. Black Power leader arrived in Havana for a revolutionary conference. The Prensa Latina agency quoted the fiery 26-year-old Negro as saying: "In Newark we applied the same tactics. This is our platform."

America's Top Cat Will Be Crowned

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) - The alley cats, fat cats and run-around cats of America's top tabby cat show are being crowned...

But before he, or she, gets the crown as the All-American glamour kitty of 1967, there will be such strong points of competition as mouse chasing, paper-bag investigation, climb up an alley...

Four finalists, chosen from national entries, are in the running for the title now held by a white male tabby kitten owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Primoff of Mt. Rainier, Md.

The four are George, Pepper, Ruspain and Omar Khayyari. George is a one-year-old male owned by Mary Jane Richardson of Statesville, N.C.

A year-and-a-half-old Siamese, Ruspain, is called a "party boy" by his owner, Dorothy Miam Beach of Mass. She says he likes to dress up whenever she throws a little soiree.

Standing is Omar Khayyari's feature most likely to impress the judges. His owner, Mrs. Harold Geary of North East, Pa., says he once caught a rabbit as big as himself.

The lucky cat will receive a jeweled-studded tiara and a mink visiting cape. The finalists have already received a color portrait of themselves, the service of a personal butler while visiting Miami Beach...

Man Stabbed In Abdomen, Suspect Held

A 24-year-old Twin Falls man was in fair condition in Magic Valley Memorial hospital after being stabbed in the abdomen and a suspect is held.

City police arrested Ronald R. Rytting, 24, 146 Addison Ave. W., suffered stab wounds in the abdomen at 11:25 p.m. Tuesday after an altercation with a woman in the apartment building at 302 Second Ave. W.

In custody and charged with assault with a deadly weapon is Elmer A. Stoen, 51, Apartment 9, Oess Apartments. City police said they were called to the apartment building by the manager and when they arrived found Mr. McCallin lying on the floor bleeding from the mouth and eye. Mr. Rytting was in the apartment building and attempted to leave the building by a rear entrance. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Police quoted witnesses as saying the two men argued and Mr. McCallin took a large butcher knife from a cabinet. Mr. McCallin was treated by a physician for minor injuries and returned to city custody. The deep gash in the wrist, incurred in the apartment building, is being treated.

CSI Bids

(Continued From Page One) Skyline Construction Co., Salt Lake City, one of the 11 general contractors which has indicated interest in the bid, is the project. According to Dr. Taylor, the mechanical sub-contract will be awarded to the Detweiler Bros. Inc., firm of Twin Falls in the event the Skyline company is named as the general contractor.

The second-low bid of the Detweiler company was addressed to all of the general contractors through the college board, as were the bids by each of the other sub-contractors.

The total mechanical bid of the Hono P. U. in a bid and the project estimated to total $2.7 million, includes the Fine Arts Center, Academic Building, the maintenance center and other related site development.

Bids of the two companies on the Fine Arts Center alone were, respectively, $32,800 and $37,847. Amount of the Detweiler bid was not available by press time.

General contracting bids will be opened at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the holiday inn. Awarding of the bids will not be announced until they have been reviewed by the federal government and CSI architects, Jones-Petberg Associates.

Ground-breaking ceremonies have been scheduled for Aug. 5, beginning at 10 a.m. A traditional ceremony featuring brief addresses by area dignitaries will take place on the site of the Fine Arts Center.

Tax Levy Held Down By Highway District

County commissioners and Clerk Harold Lancaster Wednesday voted appreciation to directors of the Twin Falls Highway District for holding their 1967 levy to within the limits of the past year.

Commissioner Morris W. Carlson said the district is the first of the highway units in the county to certify a 1967 levy and held it to 9.1 mills. Two years ago the district levied the maximum of 10 mills of $1.00 assessed valuation. Because of the tax law limitations, the levy was cut back to 9.1 mills and this year with limited property growth, the district is voluntarily holding to 9.1 mills.

Mr. Lancaster said that with about $1,000,000 increase in assessed valuation through natural growth, the county taxing units will be receiving just as much money as before but by holding the line are helping the county in the past year with limited increasing burden each year in the overall tax bill.

Because of increasing tax costs, the county is attempting to hold county levies at the same level and has appealed to all taxing units who certify levies through the county to attempt to live within the levies of the previous year. Several school districts have also certified their levies at the same or lower levels than the previous year, Mr. Lancaster said.

California Woman, 61, Dies At Buhl

BUIH - Mildred Ruth Kingery, 61, Palm Springs, Calif., died at a heart attack in Buhl Tuesday of a heart attack. She and her sister, Mrs. Edith Everson, both former Buhl residents, were first nursing relatives.

Miss Kingery was born March 27, 1906, at Little Rock, Iowa, and came to Idaho as a young girl, graduating from the Buhl High School. She attended nursing training at Los Angeles General Hospital and served two years in the Herling army hospital in Hawaii working as a nurse. She was a member of the Presbyterian church.

For two years Miss Kingery worked at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, Twin Falls, and for the past 30 years had nursed in Palm Springs. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Everson, and Mrs. Vera Farrell, both Palm Springs, and one nephew, Dale Everson, Moscow.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Albertson-Dickard Chapel by Rev. H. B. Thomas. Friends may call at the chapel Thursday from 1 until 8 p.m. and Friday until time of services.

Richfield Man Is Injured In Boat Mishap

RICHFIELD - Howard DeWitt, 38, manager of the Richfield Telephone Co. here, was injured in fairly good condition Tuesday at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital after being cut by the propeller of the boat in which he was riding at Magic Reservoir Saturday evening.

The boat spun around after Mr. DeWitt fell out and started traveling in a circle. Mr. Marshall said he was not conscious when he regained consciousness after being cut by the propeller and turned the boat with his right hand which was severely cut. Family members said he would be several days before he could be determined if his hand could be saved.

Mr. DeWitt was met by a Shoshone physician who administered first aid and then was taken by ambulance to Twin Falls.

Mr. Martindale, who was operating the boat, said he was thrown across the boat and was unconscious for a short time, so he was unable to shut off the propeller.

7 Area Scouts Depart For World Jamboree

After hectic moments in searching for missing medical reports, mulling and final instructions from scouting leaders and parting words with relatives, seven scouts from the Snake River Area Council departed Twin Falls on route to the international jamboree at Farragut State Park.

The scouts, Bob Ploss, Norman Jones, Michael Partin, Steve Shirts, Jim Fillmore, Stan Hanks and Robert Bopp, began their trip by bus to Everett, Wash., and Camp Sevenitch where they will undergo three days of preparatory training for the international event at Farragut.

The jamboree, which is expected to draw three times as many foreign scouts as American, 15,000 to 5,000 Americans, begins Aug. 1 and ends Aug. 15. Theme of the jamboree is friendship, according to Bobby Bopp, council official, who saw the scouts off.

Kneeling, from left, are Jim Fillmore, Stan Hanks and Robert Bopp. The seven scouts boarded the bus for Camp Sevenitch at Everett, Wash., where they will participate in a three-day training session prior to the jamboree at Farragut.

New Talent

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — One academic critic finds Herman Haskins a "new young talent."

His water colors are "filled with the verve of your own youth," the critic says. Haskins, a red-headed ment cutter from North Adams, is 80. He began painting two years ago in a primitive style similar to that of the late Grandma Moses.

He has completed 50 paintings thus far, all scenes he remembers from his life in western Massachusetts. He is berry picking, a country fair, snowing and maple sugar trees.

Tito Planning To Pay Visit On Nasser

By The Associated Press

President Tito of Yugoslavia, head of Egypt's radical, anti-Communist supporters in the war with Israel, will visit Cairo "within the next few days" to discuss the Middle East situation with President Gamal Abdel Nasser, the semi-official newspaper Al Ahran said today.

Yugoslavia spearheaded the unsuccessful attempt by non-aligned nations at the United Nations to win General Assembly approval of a resolution demanding unconditional Israeli withdrawal from the territory won from the Arab states in the lightning war.

Egypt sought to bolster its nearly bankrupt economy Tuesday with a new austerity budget including tax increases, higher prices and drastic reductions in government spending. Such commodities as sugar, tea, cooking oil, cigarettes and new oranges will cost 10 to 20 per cent more. Sales taxes on cars and spare parts to up 50 per cent, and a new national security tax raises defense taxes the same amount. Government subsidies on rationed food and other essential items were reduced.

Aid Assured

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union assured Cuba today that it would continue providing economic and military aid to Fidel Castro's Communist regime. Soviet aid to Cuba is believed to be running about $100 million a year.

Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Howard D. Burnett of Focattello was defeated in his bid for the presidency of the 22nd American Legion Boys' Nation Tuesday by Alton Keyes, 16, of San Antonio, Tex., the first Negro to win the honor. The vote was 59-49.

Keyes, whose father is a soldier in Vietnam, also was the first of his race to win the Legion's national contest at Lincoln, Neb., earlier this year.

The mock political campaign was part of a week-long program in federal government attended by 93 high school youths this year.

Homemakers Club Meets In Shoshone

SHOSHONE — The Handy Homemakers 4-H club met at the home of Mrs. James Beck where several members gave demonstrations.

The girls sang two numbers. Demonstrations were given by Diane Palmer on "how to clean a small wound"; Colleen Jones, "how to straighten a top towel edge"; Melanie Beck and Charlene Jones, "how to set a table properly."

Colleen Jones, Diane Palmer, Joyce Adams, Charlene Rice and Melanie Beck, who attended 4-H camp, reported.

A swimming party was held at the Shoshone Park. The girl took food for the event, with first year girls providing brownies, second year girls potato cakes and third year girls fried chicken.

The leaders, Mrs. Beck and Mrs. Waldo Jones, provided the remainder of the food.

Open House Held For New Dentist

HAZELTON — An open house was held at the newly constructed dental office on Main Street of Dr. A. J. Goodfitt.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodfitt were extended a welcome to the community by guests attending and offices were inspected.

WHAT DOES THE MONKEY SAY?

I'm always a barrel of laughs. I get something selfish to say. If there's one thing you don't want when you're shopping for a diamond ring that woman in your life, it's monkey business! At Sterling Jewelry Company you'll get the facts... on cut, color, carat weight, clarity. And if that doesn't make sense to you (it doesn't to most people) you can just relax and be confident that they will sell you the highest quality diamond on every count. So don't monkey around with bargain diamonds. Go to Sterling when you want quality!

Vocational School Enrollment Shows Rise

Fall enrollment in the various courses offered at the College of Southern Idaho Vocational School is "presently well ahead of previous years," according to counselor Gerald Meyerhoefer.

The automotive mechanics class is filled at this time, he added, and many of the other classes are near capacity.

Still open for student registration are courses in automobile body and fender repair, welding, agricultural business, electrical appliance repair, radio - television technology and mid-management.

Announcement of the selection of students for the licensed practical nurse course also was announced Wednesday.

Selected were Mrs. Vonita Larison, Mrs. Stella Povius, Mrs. Jean Robinson, Mrs. Barbara Snabala, Mrs. Lucille Striker, Mrs. Carol Whitten, Linda Combs, Betty Hockett and Jill Smith, all Twin Falls; Mrs. Phyllis Clapper, Mrs. V. L. Harmon and Mrs. Emma Hingsworth, all Duhl, and Mrs. Esther Moore, Gooding, and Mrs. Annie Secare, Jerome.

The course is offered in cooperation with the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital under the supervision of Mrs. Irene Oliver, hospital administrator, according to Orval Bradley, CSI Vocational director.

Mrs. Marilyn Blackburn, R.N., is the instructor. The class, which begins Sept. 11 and consists of 48 consecutive weeks' training, is designed to provide the students with both classroom and practical nursing experiences, Mr. Bradley noted.

Interested persons should contact the CSI vocational school as soon as possible for information on these and other courses offered by the school. The vocational building is located at 1300 Kimberly Road, phone 733-3554, extension 49.

Call It Progress

Some of the streets in Twin Falls may not be the roughest in the country but they will do until rougher ones are found.
Much of the roughness—and, as a result, unsightliness—of many local streets comes as a result of ditches being dug for placement of telephone cables, water lines, natural gas lines or the like.
We realize the necessity of getting the telephone lines, the water or the gas from one place to another and the best way to do that is to use underground pipes. Thus it is hidden from view and this is appreciated but therein lies a fault.
It has been our understanding that local laws require streets to be put back in their original condition following digging of ditches or other disturbances connected with them.
This is not being done. A drive around the city will disclose visual evidence of every ditch that has been dug in local streets over the past year or so.
In wet weather, though, it provides great fun. You can speed down the street with one set of car wheels in the indentation (the Impression) left by the sunken ditch) and spray water to your heart's content. Or, even in dry weather, the thrill still exists. Keeping one set of wheels in the depression gives the car a swaying motion that is difficult to duplicate elsewhere.
Now progress is returning to Addison Avenue East—just to pick out a street at random.
Equipment is digging a ditch which starts at the Washington School corner and which will apparently run out the Avenue just about as far as you can see.
We are not sure whether this new "improvement" is for a gas line, a water line or to bury some more telephone cable.
But it does have its compensation. It will now make Addison Avenue East look the same on both sides. A year or two ago they buried a new waterline on the south side. We are sure the line of the new ditch on the north side will match that on the south side.
In addition, it will set Addison Avenue East apart from scores of other streets that have only one asphalt covered ditch. Addison Avenue East will now have two.
This is a mark of progress.

"Mumps" Taxes

If the prospect of a possible 6 to 10 per cent surtax on top of your regular income tax has given rise to vague thoughts of emigrating from the land of Big Government to some little country—like Denmark, perhaps—that is not obliged to defend half the world, think again.
If the Danes were not melancholy before, they have reason to be now. They have just saddled themselves with something called a "merveeret domsteningsskatt" which, being translated, signifies "added value sales tax."
Nicknamed "Moms" (pronounced "mumps" and just about as delightful), it was part of the biggest tax reform in modern Danish history, says Scandinavian Times newsmagazine, and is the first major consequence of the socialist victory in last November's elections.
The added-value tax differs from a sales tax in that it will be levied every time a product changes hands throughout the manufacturing process. It will also be clumped on all kinds of services, from window cleaning to furniture moving.
At the retail level, the tax works out to exactly 10 per cent and is expected to extract $700 million annually from the 4.7 million Danes, or about $149 a head, exclusive of income and other taxes.
France invented the added-value tax and has had it for 13 years. Other Scandinavian countries are considering a shift to Moms and all the Common Market countries will have uniform Moms systems by 1970.
The tax is attractive to finance ministers because it works quickly, is flexible and can be used not only to pay government bills but to control consumption as well.
Like Dutch elm disease, which slipped into this country in a load of logs from Europe despite efforts to keep it out, it is probably only a matter of time until America is hit with the Danish "mumps."

MR. SPECTATOR

Will Mrs. Brooks Run?

Senator Church's opposition in the 1968 election might well be a member of the "weaker sex." And her name might just be Mrs. Arty Brooks.
The good looking Mrs. Brooks, who hails from Canyon and who is State Senator from District 21, is a politician from away land. She was born into the world of politics. Her father was the late Senator Thomas from Idaho. Her second husband was the late Senator Brooks from Illinois. Right now she is second in command of the National Republican Party.
Stories — or suggestions for possible stories, if you want to get more technical — start in peculiar ways. The other night Mr. Spectator was talking over the telephone with a friend in Palm Springs, Calif. It so happened that the person to whom he was talking was Mrs. Brooks, who called herself "Arty." Mrs. Brooks, who lives in California and the name of Mrs. Brooks was mentioned by this person at the California end of the connection. Then the casual remark "Arty" might just be a "homestead" was dropped.
Thinking that Mr. Spectator was not quite who was being discussed, the party in California said: "You know, Mrs. Brooks, the one that is going to run for the United States Senate." Well, Mr. Spectator didn't really know it. It was an interesting piece of information that indeed.
For quite a spell now the Republicans have been wondering who could stand a chance of defeating Senator Church. Very few names have come to the fore and this is the first time that Mrs. Brooks has been mentioned.
How she mentions is interesting. So now Mr. Spectator can sit back and

WASHINGTON — Two University of Georgia veterinarians have given me all the ammunition I need for those brisk fall evenings when I find myself surrounded by red-faced types who have spent the whole day galloping over the countryside yelling things like "jocks" and "tallyho."

The vets, Charles N. Dobbins, Jr., and William C. McMullan, mark well those names—have verified my own findings, taken over a two-year period. Say Dobbins and McMullan: the horse is a stupid animal, dumber even than the pig and barely smarter than the opossum and the turtle.

Dobbins and McMullan base their conclusion on a series of scientific tests, which I suppose is to be expected these days when every horse with a decent job has his own psychiatrist. But I could have saved them the trouble. I had they asked, "I would have told them" that horses are stupid because they don't get along with me.

Although any horse with the intelligence of, say, a mongoose, would realize I am no threat to him, horses are mean to me. With me on his back, a horse rears. He runs too fast, especially when approaching the overhanging branch of a tree. He tries to bite. He wiggles and squirms, trying to dump me on the ground two miles below.

ART BUCHWALD

It's A Victory For The Rats

WASHINGTON — Last week, the House of Representatives voted down an Urban Control Bill by a vote of 207-176. The bill, which would have provided $20 million a year for the eradication of rats in slums, was a victory for U.S. rodent lovers who have been militantly fighting any legislation to control rats in the United States.
Elated over the vote was Walter Forest, lobbyist for the National Rat Assn. who said "Congress' vote against rat control has spoken for the majority to the American people who are getting fed up with the government dictating to them whether they should have rats or not. The Constitution provides that everyone shall have the right to keep rats in his home, and the NRA has been leading the fight to protect this constitutional guarantee."
But don't you feel that rats are dangerous and can cause a great deal of trouble for you? "This is the propaganda put out by the ratrat people. Most rats are safe and give pleasure to people. The few rats who cause all the trouble cannot be controlled by legislation. I see no reason why the American people should be deprived of rats just because there is an occasional rat incident that makes the headlines."

every problem through federal law.
"This country has had rats since it was founded. There have been rats with the armed forces in every war; we have had rats in the Capitol and even in the basement of the White House. You kill all the rats in America and you'll leave this nation naked and defenseless. Congress in its wisdom has seen fit not to force with the rodent population of the United States and for this reason I can only say, 'God bless our rat-loving legislators.'
"That's a little strong, isn't it, Mr. Ferret?"
"It's not strong enough. We won this year but you can be sure we'll be under attack again next year. So I can't rest on my lazing victory."
"Do you have any message for the American people?"
"Just this. Whenever anyone starts talking to them about antiradent legislation, when they would keep the NRA slogan in mind: 'The rats you save may be your own.'"

Help Is Wanted

Collage-agers are calculating the cost of our national balance of payments, when they don't know how to compute their own bank interest rates.
We are schooling experts in higher economics who can't keep a household budget.
One United States referee in bankruptcy, Sylvester Killmer, says that he never starts dealing with people who spend more than they earn. He says the classic case goes like this: "Young couples prefer to ask, 'How much?' Instead, they ask, 'How much a week?'"
"Too young to remember acute depression, they live on pay day to pay day. Even when they get a degree in business, and a Louis Harris survey indicates, only 12 per cent will enter business.
Then, one may ask, who is going to pay the taxes to support all the 'liberal artists'?"
Some students who attend the others give themselves harder and harder to succeed in business—often to the neglect of their families—and they consider themselves responsible for dad's preoccupation.
I.N.M. Board Chairman Thomas says: "Many college students contend that careers in business are intellectually boring and morally sterile, falling far short of the goal of mankind."

PAUL HARVEY

Their alternative will — in a large way — neglect the children. For to reject the dynamism of business, to stop studying that liberates, is to rob the next generation of the goods and services and the food—and most of the fun—which this one has been having!

Presidential Bug Bites Deep

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's no telling where the presidential bug will bite but it isn't practically no cure.
Richard M. Nixon, the former vice president who once said himself out of politics, is thinking of trying for the presidency in 1968.
If he will, no surprise if New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller makes another stab at the Republican nomination, although his "big bug" has given up all thought of it.
And Esquire magazine indicates even Harold E. Stassen may be thinking of the same thing.
These three Republicans have been around so long, spying the White House or yearning to seem, that they're like an earlier generation of politicians. Yet, the oldest of them, Stassen, is only 66.
Two other Republicans most often mentioned as most likely prospects for their party's nomination—Gov. George Romney and Ronald Reagan—are in the same age bracket as the others but politically are the newcomers.
Romney, 60 and serving his second term as Michigan's governor, hasn't been mixed up in any presidential bids. He was a Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and then went to work in Pleasanton, an administration. Trumps really went sour for him after that.
In 1966 he tried to block Nixon's vice presidential nomination.

Mushrooms

Careless observation and inaccurate identification of mushrooms can prove as serious as the bite of a copperhead.
For that reason mushrooms are: Gather wild mushrooms at your own risk. Do not eat them unless you are an expert. Do not differentiate the poisonous from the edible varieties. For example, there is an old rule: "Never eat a mushroom unless you can silver upon it." This discrimination indicates the presence of sulfur but is of no importance otherwise.
Another rule: "If the mushrooms in salt water to remove the poison" has about a one per cent chance of success and that's not good enough. There are mushrooms with white gills that are poisonous but the silver ink that is also poisonous. Most but not all of these with white gills are poisonous but the silver ink that is also poisonous. Most but not all of these with white gills are poisonous but the silver ink that is also poisonous. Most but not all of these with white gills are poisonous but the silver ink that is also poisonous.

3 Charges Made Against Provo Man

OREM, Utah (AP) — A third charge of misuse of savings and loan funds has been filed against D. Spencer Grow of Provo. Deputy County Attorney Frank Butterfield signed the complaint Tuesday in Orem City Court. It charges Grow with misapplying $34,000 of Utah Savings and Loan Association funds in 1965. Grow denied the charge, saying he used the money in an orderly business way. He was released on his own recognizance. Grow is scheduled to appear in court on two other charges of misusing savings and loan association funds. He is to appear in an Idaho court July 31 for a continued arraignment on charges that he falsified records of the now-closed Idaho Savings and Loan Association. On Sept. 25, Grow is to face trial in Provo on charges he misused $22,500 of the Utah Savings and Loan Association.

FBI Is Not Investigating Detroit Riots

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI is not investigating the current riots in Detroit, and has not investigated any of the other recent civil disturbances, government sources said Tuesday. Although FBI officials would say only that they had no comment it was learned that the bureau feels it lacks the authority to look into the disturbances because no violations of federal law have been reported. Sources said the FBI has investigated none of the riots dating back even to disturbances before the explosion in the Watts section of Los Angeles in 1965.

Justice Department officials have maintained that the disturbances are primarily local matters to be settled by state and municipal authorities. However, moves sparked primarily by Republicans are under way in Congress to investigate whether there is some central, nationwide instigation.

Board Letting Disputants Negotiate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special White House mediation board is letting railroad and shopcraft negotiators try to hammer out agreement — at least for the moment. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., chairman of the special panel named by President Johnson last week after Congress rushed through a bill ending a two-day nationwide rail strike, said Tuesday the board will leave negotiations to the disputants until at least next Monday. Under the new law, the board is to attempt to win a voluntary settlement. But if it can't, both sides would have to accept the board's final recommendations as binding until Jan. 1, 1969. Some 137,000 members of six shopcraft unions, who average $2.90 an hour, have demanded a six per cent wage hike this year and five per cent next year. They also demand that a two-year agreement include 12.5 cent boosts each year for skilled workers, who now average $3.05 hourly. The railroads are offering an 18-month pact that calls for an over-all six per cent pay boost plus a single skills boost of five cents an hour.

Bishop's Wife Gets Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Esther Pike, wife of the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, retired bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, has been granted an interlocutory divorce decree. She appeared Tuesday before Superior Court Judge Byron Arnold at a hearing which lasted five minutes. Mrs. Pike, 48, charged mental cruelty.

VIOLENCE VIEWED "Detroit in Flames," Pravda devoted more than half a page today to reports on U.S. racial violence against Negroes and troubles. PICNIC HELD FAIRFIELD—The Elmer Miller Post of the American Legion held a picnic and fish fry at the Bounds campground on Big Smokey Sunday afternoon. Veterans and their families attended the event.

Williams Says Practices "Confusing"

BOISE (AP) — Joe Williams wasn't criticizing, but he did want to point out certain inconsistencies in the hiring practices of the Idaho Department of Lands. Williams, state auditor and one of two Democratic members of the five-member land board, said Tuesday the practices were "confusing" to Democrats. The Republican majority on the board, Williams contends, hired a land agent at Gooding without telling the Democrats. But to pick an assistant to the land commissioner, Williams added, they turned to the State Personnel Commission. Usually, Williams said, the higher up the job, the more political the appointment becomes. Possibly, he said, the GOP members had "too many Republicans applying for the job to pick one themselves."

Nigeria Says It Captured Oil Terminal

LAGOS (AP) — The Nigerian government announced today it had invaded rebellious Biafra by sea and captured the important oil terminal at Bonny. A combined navy and army force inflicted heavy casualties on rebel troops in the port in Nigeria's eastern sector, which declared its independence from the federal government in May, the government said.

Bonny is the first town in the southern part of Biafra to be captured by federal troops. The government gave no details of the invasion but vessels from the Nigerian navy, which includes a frigate and a number of patrol boats, left Lagos at the beginning of the week.

The government also had bought up a large number of outboard motors and all boats in the Lagos area over 18 feet long. Presumably these were used in a small boat invasion on Bonny Tuesday.

Bonny is on an island at the entrance to the Bonny River, which leads to Port Harcourt, the main Biafran port.

Capture of the oil refinery is vital to the federal government, which has plenty of crude oil in its territory but only limited refining facilities. There was no indication whether the invasion of Bonny is being extended to be the mainland or whether the forces of rebel leader Col. Odumegwu are mounting a counter attack.

WALK OFF JOB

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (AP) — Some 20 employees of the Idaho Water Co. here walked off the job Tuesday after contract talks broke down.

The company supplies domestic and commercial water for most of the city, including the fire department. Officials said, however, the dispute was not expected to seriously curtail the city's water service.

Striking employees are members of the Electrical Workers Local 77.

DEADLINE PASSED

BOISE (AP) — The first deadline for filing annual corporation statements and filing fees has passed and Sept. 1 is the delinquent date, Idaho Secretary of State Pete T. Conarussa said Tuesday.

The first deadline was July 1, for the year ending June 30, 1967, Conarussa said. Corporations now have until Sept. 1 to file without paying a delinquent fine, he added.

Non-profit corporations do not have to pay filing fees, but must file the statement, Conarussa said.

DAM SITE TOUR

BOISE (AP) — The three members of the Idaho Public Utilities Commission were back in their offices today after a helicopter and automobile tour of the Idaho Power Co. Hells Canyon Dam site.

Inspection of the $70 million project, including the transmission line which runs up the wall of the deepest gorge on the North American continent, was held by the commission before water begins backing up behind the dam sometime in October, commission president Ralph Wickburg said.

HOOPER HONORED

BOISE (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was recognized Tuesday by the state of Idaho as a "distinguished American." The title was listed on a certificate signed by Gov. Don W. Samuelson and Secretary of State Pete T. Conarussa.

The occasion was the 50th anniversary, Wednesday, of Hoover's appointment to a position with the Department of Justice. He became FBI director in May, 1934.

LOW BIDDERS TOLD

BOISE (AP) — Three Boise firms were listed Tuesday as apparent low bidders on separate projects, the Idaho Department of Public Works reported.

Drake Plumbing and Heating was reported the apparent low contractor for construction of a well at Ponderosa State Park, McCall, at a listed price of $3,613.

WITNESS ARRESTED

POCATELLO (AP) — The key witness for Edward G. Rolfe in his statutory rape trial was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a perjury charge.

Percy Joyner, 31, Pocatello, was picked up shortly after the complaint was filed by Assistant Blannock County Prosecutor P. A. McDermott.

The complaint alleges that Joyner falsely testified he was with the 15-year-old girl victim of the rape on the night of the rape and that Joyner knew the testimony to be false.

The sixth district court jury found Rolfe guilty July 7 and he was to be taken to the state penitentiary Wednesday to begin serving a life sentence.

YOUTH KILLED

KELOGG, Idaho (AP) — Larry L. Beare, 17, Cataldo, was fatally injured early Tuesday when the car in which he was riding ran off Interstate 90 and rolled over several times inside the Kellogg city limits.

The youth, who would have been a senior at Kellogg High School this fall, was thrown over the freeway fence to the bank of the South Fork of the Coeur d'Alene River, more than 150 feet from the wreckage.

Another passenger, Lawrence Newell, 18, Kingston, escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. Tipton Welcomed To TOPS Club

HANSEN — Mrs. Chester Tipton was welcomed as a new member at the Slim and Trim TOPS Club meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Steelsmith.

Mrs. Cecy Higgins and Mrs. Lanny Wooten were welcomed at the last meeting. There are now 12 members.

Mrs. Harold Armstrong, Twin Falls, a member of the Nix on Pix group, and the new county captain, was the guest speaker at last week's meeting. She gave several suggestions for rules and diet programs.

It was decided the officers would meet this week and draw up a constitution to be submitted to the group. Mrs. Armstrong will be asked to conduct the installation service for the officers and appointees at the first meeting in August.

It was also decided to start a contest. Mrs. Higgins was the best loser for this week. A total loss of 21 pounds was noted and a gain of two and one half pounds was registered. Mrs. Sandra Reinhardt was best loser the previous week, and a total loss of 27 pounds was registered with a one pound gain.

Mrs. Paul Bowman, Kimberly, and Mrs. Gene Walker were hostesses.

Fourteen Girls Will Do Their Best--Yo, Ho, Ho--To Be Rodeo Queen

Fourteen Idaho cowgirls will compete for the coveted crown of Frontier Days Rodeo Queen in competition during the rodeo on Sept. 6 to 9 at Frontier Field, Twin Falls.

Winner of the title will be crowned Sunday night by reigning Queen Vicki Webb, Hazelton.

Boys Begin Moving Into Scout Camp

FARRAGUT PARK, Idaho (AP) — The World Boy Scout Jamboree is still nearly a week away but early arrivals are beginning to converge on this picturesque northern Idaho state park and former World War II naval training center.

A man on a bicycle, 150 scouts from West Germany and more from South America were among the first to trickle toward the jamboree site. The huge gathering — which eventually will bring 13,000 scouts from nearly 100 nations — opens next Tuesday and continues until Aug. 3.

Pioneer Day Is Observed At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — A dinner and program were held at the LDS Church lawn Monday evening, in commemoration of the arrival of the Mormon pioneers in the Salt Lake Valley in 1847.

The MIA, under direction of Kenneth Blackburn, provided races for children and horse show for older youths, and arranged part of the program.

Main part of the program featured a play written on the Mormon trek westward, by Mrs. Virginia Larsen. Mrs. Richard Sorenson was narrator and Mrs. May Hitt led the singing.

Women of the group were dressed in pioneer costume as were a number of the children who participated in the parade with appropriate covered wagons and tools.

Mr. and Mrs. Florin Rose directed dances for the group.

F. M. Stowell was caller for square dances and he and Perry Hudlock, M. J. Dille and Kenneth Hinebarn provided music for the dance.

Reuther Asks Lower Age Of Retirement

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Walter P. Reuther, United Auto Workers president, today urged congressional approval of a lowered retirement age with no loss in benefits.

Reuther made his recommendation in remarks prepared for a U.S. Senate subcommittee hearing in Ann Arbor on retirement.

The union president urged lowering retirement ages from 65 to 62 for men and to 60 for women.

He said the UAW's policy on early retirement has created many new job opportunities for younger men with growing skillers while allowing many older employees to retire with some measure of security.

ton. The girls will be judged on horsemanship, personality and appearance.

The winner will receive a hand-tooled saddle and other gifts of riding apparel and tack which have been donated by local merchants. She will reign next year over the Frontier Days Rodeo and will represent the Frontier Riding Club in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest held Sept. 6 to 9 at the Twin Falls County Fair, Elly Fairgrounds.

General chairman of the Frontier Queen contest are Mrs. Jack Sears and Mrs. Bob Harvey, both Twin Falls.

The 14 queen contestants, their parents, recent schooling and a brief profile of activities are listed below:

Dear Abby

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
 DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter signed "ASHAMED" from the mother who bothered at her little 10-year-old daughter, telling her to get out of the house, and she didn't care if she ever came back. And all because the child was a little slow getting dressed. After the child left, the mother sat down and cried and she wrote you a letter.

Abby, that mother could have been me a few hours ago. I was also an "ashamed mother" for a good many years, crying after the children left for school because I had behaved atrociously. Oftentimes I would use abusive language and scream at my children. Then I would hide and pray for forgiveness.

My children were doing poorly in school, which prompted my doctor to suggest that I attend the Child Guidance center in our area. I can't tell you how much good it did me. The counseling I got there was exactly what I needed. So please, Abby, tell other ashamed mothers not to be ashamed. To get help. And with it will come a happiness their whole family will share.

realize why they are forever complaining all over their kids. I felt me.

FORMERLY ASHAMED

DEAR ABBY: I am another ASHAMED MOTHER. Like the one who wrote to you. Let me tell you how I cured myself. I have the child. The oldest is 11. I used to blow my top when the kids would bicker and fight, which when you come to think of it is normal for all kids who are close in age. I would get real violent and yell like a mad woman at all of them for something one of them did. I knew this wasn't fair, but I couldn't help myself.

I finally got all the kids together and told them how they realized that Mom was only human, and she wasn't always in a good mood. That sometimes she got grouchy and they should remember that when she ranted and raved it didn't mean she loved them any less. Most parents don't give their children enough credit for understanding lots of things. Kids don't always mean what they say, and I explained that sometimes parents don't either.

God bless their little hearts. They listened and understood, and now we have a better relationship all the way round. Sign me, "A 28-year-old mother of five wonderful kids." Or...

UNASHAMED

GRATEFUL MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: ASHAMED shouldn't think I'm the only mother who loses her temper with her children and regrets it later. Sometimes I wonder how some children can control their mothers. Last week I screamed like a maniac at my 10-year-old son. I would do anything in the world to keep him from getting hurt, yet I am the one who seems to hurt him the most. I couldn't believe it was my voice saying all these horrible things to that boy.

Those temper fits left me with a churning stomach and raw nerves, so I finally went to my doctor, hoping he would give me something to calm my nerves. He gave me something all right. A good talking to. He explained that sometimes mothers take out all their anger and hurt on their children because they are always handy, and the poor little things can't fight back. I then realized that I was my problem. And now that I understand why I acted like I did, I am better able to control myself.

Carol Ann Kulm Is Married To Dennis R. Cole

JEROME — St. Paul's Lutheran Church was the setting for the candlelight ceremony which united in marriage Carol Ann Kulm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kulm, and Dennis Ray Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole, all Jerome.

The June 17 rites were performed by the Rev. John H. Sjoliste was Linda Mathis, accompanied by Cheryl Fries.

Tall, heavy baskets of orchid and pink gladiolus and pink peonies and white tapers in candleabra flanked the altar and provided the background setting for the double ring ceremony.

Escorted by the bride's father, the bride wore a Bridal Original empire-styled gown of Chantilly lace. The fitted styling featured Chantilly lace on the high empire bodice and handed the sheath skirt.

Sealions of clipped Chantilly lace outlined the oval neck. The gown featured long lily point sleeves and a detachable waist-length train of hand-clipped Chantilly lace.

A coronet of lace centered roses held her fingertip veil of English silk illusion. She carried a teardrop bouquet of shattered carnations and baby rosebuds centered on a white Bible accented with Lilies of the Valley and daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Layne Hall, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Glen E. Moore, Mrs. Mary Ann Moore, Mrs. Shane Bournand, Los Angeles, Calif., sister of the bride.

Candlelighters were Karen P. Kulm and Julie Kulm, Edmonds, Wash.; Flower girl was Kelly Hall, with Majk Robinson, Sacramento, Calif., nephew of the bride, as ringbearer.

Glen Somerset was best man and ushers were Kenneth Kulm, Hild, brother of the bride; Grant Dunca, Mike Atwood and Lyle Moore.

The reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Episcopal Parish Hall, with Mrs. Ed Robinson, Sacramento, sister of the bride, registering the guests. Background music was played by Linda Kulm and Miss Fries.

Gifts were arranged by Phyllis Moynihan, Sandra Priest, Mrs. Grant Duncan and Toretta Hagler.

The bride's table was covered with a face cloth and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated in orchid and pink. It was topped with two matching bells with doves and white decorated table beneath an archway of satin wedding bells and Lilies of the Valley.

The base of the cake was encircled with greenery and orchid tulle. The cake was baked and decorated by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lenora Wolcott, Buhl. Cake was served by Mrs. Maurice Klass, aunt of the bride; groom's father, Mrs. Drayton

Brenda Duff Is Married To T. J. Thornton

CORRAL — Brenda Joyce Duff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Duff, Nampa, and Theodore James Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thornton, Corral, were united in marriage June 30 in the First Methodist Church Nampa.

Rev. C. Keith Mills performed the double ring ceremony before a background of yellow and white gladiolus and candleabra.

The bride wore a white satin gown with applique and chapel train which she designed. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds, white shaggy chrysanthemums and stephanitis.

Pamela Storey, Nampa, was maid of honor and Janet Cameron and Elaine Cuba, both Nampa, were bridesmaids.

Best man was Bill Bartholomew, Hatley, and ushers were Paul Cook, Boise, and Gary Jenkins, Twin Falls.

Soloist was Mrs. Dorothy Palmer and Mrs. Grace Sewright was organist.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room. Cake was served by Mrs. Gary Jenkins, sister of the bridegroom, and punch and coffee were poured by Mrs. G. M. Miller, Boise, and Mrs. J. D. Duff, Bedford, Tex., aunts of the bride. Mrs. Charles Foster, Bedford, Tex., was in charge of the guest book and Kathleen Diefendorf, Boise, and Kathleen Murry, Nampa, arranged the bits.

Out-of-town guests attended from Binger, Okla.; Bedford, Tex.; Chino, Mont.; Laurel, Mont.; Connell, Wash.; Caldwell, Boise, Nampa; Corral, Hill City, Ore.; Vale, Ore., and Twin Falls.

The couple will reside in Boise where the bridegroom is employed by Paul Parks Auto Repair.

WENDELL — The Wendell Methodist Church was the setting for the June 30 wedding of Reggie Marlow and Gerald Luther. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Marlow, Wendell, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Lüher, Jerome.

The couple recited wedding vows before an altar banked with Baby's Breath and lighted with tapers. Bouquets of white gladioli and lighted candelabra completed the setting. Rev. Edward V. Hargraves officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length empire-styled gown of bridal satin fashioned with a fitted bodice of rayon chiffon. The front of the bodice was adorned with glittered crocheted medallions. Her gown was enhanced with a train that fell from the shoulders. Her shoulder-length bouffant veil, designed and fashioned by her mother, was held by sprays of Lilies of the Valley and tulle petals with pearl trim. The veil was edged with glittered medallions matching the bodice trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses entwined with tulle and red satin bows.

Youths Ready, Willing To Work, But Where Are Jobs?

YES PROGRAM MEMBERS, from left, Steve Roberts and Dave Church, both Twin Falls, load seed at Hancy Seed Co. The Youth Employment Service finds summer work for young people between the ages of 13 and 22. Many of the young people now employed earn money for clothing, school supplies and tuition for the coming year. Employers are urged to contact the Twin Falls office of the State Employment Service for YES members.

Do you plan to move that rug, clean that house, dig that ditch, harvest that crop, one that barge-lift that bale this summer?

More than 300 eager, strong, young and willing teenagers and college students are now ready to help you with your summer work projects, fill in for vacationing employees or do spot jobs through YES, the Youth Employment Service of the State of Idaho, Department of Employment.

The YES program each year attempts to find summer work for approximately 1,000 of the area youth between the ages of 13 and 22 years old. There always is a shortage of jobs for the young people, but the forecast for August is particularly grim, according to Jerry Kleinkopf, director of the YES program in the Twin Falls area.

"For many of the young people the YES program means funds for clothing and school supplies that can be earned through summer work."

More than one boy may have to drop out of college for a semester because he has not announced Wednesday.

More than enough to pay the tuition to keep himself in school. Other students work to supplement the family income.

These industrious young people have displayed a talent and enthusiasm for their jobs. Mr. Kleinkopf commented that he has received many calls from satisfied residents who have taken advantage of the YES program and had Twin Falls area youths working for them.

$6 Million Loaned To Small Area Businesses

BOISE — Nearly $6 million (fraction of borrowing was in the Boise Regional Office of the Small Business Administration, said, Twenty firms were assisted with loans under $15,000. Terms range from five to 10 years.

There is no minimum SBA loan size, Davis said, and SBA may loan directly or participate up to $50,000 to an individual firm. Loans may be made to individuals, business corporations or to local development companies through the federal agency.

WHILE some large loans were approved, over half of all SBA Small Business Administration, said, Twenty firms were assisted with loans under $15,000. Terms range from five to 10 years.

"Specially noted in this report is the increased participation of local banks," Davis points out. "Many more banks are expanding their available loan funds by participating with SBA. Thus, they are able to assist many more firms than otherwise would be the case."

Magic Valley residents received nine loans. Heaviest concentration in Pendleton County, W.Va.

Lincoln Fair Judging Day Set Friday

SHOSHONE—Demonstrations and the home economics judging contest will be held Friday, one week in advance of the Lincoln County fair, Aug. 4-5.

The judging contest will start at 7 p.m. at the fairgrounds with Mrs. Mary Lou Ruby, extension home economics agent, in charge, and 4-H leaders assisting.

Varied Program To Be Presented At Band Concert

A varied program of mounds in music will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Thursday at the City Park Bandshell by the Twin Falls Municipal Band, conducted by Charles Ratcliffe, director.

Selections to be played include "His Honor March," Henry Hill; "More 'n' Guarnay Overture," Carlo Gomez; "The Last Pivvan," Enrique Granados; "Wedding of the Winds Waltz," John T. Ball, and "Michigan on Parade," K. L. King.

Following intermission, the band will play "American Legion Forever March," Morton Gould; "Zueingung" (Dedication), Richard Strauss; "Bugler's Holiday," a cornet solo by Leroy Anderson; "Swing With Music," Irving Berlin; "Joy to the World," a sacred selection arranged by C. L. Barnhouse; and "The Overture in Hear March," J. J. Richards.

will be presented at the hearing and public utilities commission will either approve one or disapprove all of them. He suggested that all groups be represented at the hearing to assemble available information and then there will be about a 60-day waiting period for study and determination of action.

If any plan is approved the rate for service will be higher. Shoshone rate is lower than Gooding now, by about 50 cents a month. Many questions were asked Mr. Chamberlain by chamber members.

President Kenneth Blackburn conducted and will appoint two men to attend the hearing and bring back all available information. Leo Arstee, Mountain States Telephone Co., was also a guest Monday.

Ivan Hopkins, county extension agent, reported on changes in the fair scheduled for Aug. 4-5 which should encourage better attendance.

Dietrich Grange sent $10 to help defray expenses for the July 4 celebration.

Requiem Mass Planned For Ex-Resident

GLENNIS FERRY—Requiem mass for Karl Leimgruber, 78, former ex-resident who died Sunday in the Treasure Valley Manor, Boise, will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Thursday by Rev. Donald Ruffe, at Our Lady of Limerick Church in Glens Ferry.

Mr. Leimgruber was born Sept. 13, 1888, in Germany and came to Galveston, Tex., in 1913. In 1916 he came to Glens Ferry and worked for some time as an offer for the Union Pacific Railroad.

For many years he raised fruit and there is an apple named for him. A member of the King Hill Grange, he had been president with recognition from the Idaho State Grange for being a flora expert. He was a grange member for 40 years.

Funeral will be recited at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Active pallbearers will be Wesley Fink, Martin Woodward, Frank Jones, T. M. Timbers, Karl Anderson and Arthur Greer, all members of the King Hill Grange.

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Britain today is like an old colonel back from east of Suez who had it very hard for many years, but who now finds he must knuckle down to work, no matter how dreadful the task nor how old the body.

The colonel is willing, but the task is formidable; the British economy must be rebuilt through hard work in order to be competitive in world markets. The weapons are spirit, pride, austerity and willingness to work.

But progress is slow, and several heavy blows have been dealt in recent weeks; things have been going wrong at the very time the nation had a right to expect some good news.

Unemployment in July rose to the highest in 27 years, a total of 406,000 jobs. Industrial production declined in May. And the trade gap, which has been easterly and work is meant to close, widened instead.

A 21-nation study, by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, came up with the finding that Britain still had years more of hard work before real results would show.

These were not the only blows. Earlier, as the world economy, Britain was denied entrance to a democratic trade market called the Common Market. And then the Suez Canal was closed, and Britain was denied needed oil supplies via that trade route.

Most of this bad news came in a tumble just as some British were beginning to relax a bit. After nearly three years of belt-tightening, some people were beginning to show. For the first time since the 1940s exports were exceeding imports. But it didn't last.

Under Prime Minister Harold Wilson the battle is not likely to be given up. Instead, austerity is likely to continue as the remedy. It means fixed wages, hard work, some joblessness, even poor housing. Broadly, it means more production but less consumption.

How can austerity be the solution? How can a lid on the economy — on wages, prices and dividends, for instance — be the solution? How can a planned recession bring about a stronger economy? Isn't this contradictory behavior?

In theory, no. Austerity means that Britain must work harder to produce more to sell more abroad. At the same time, it means that she must spend less on herself and deny herself the luxuries of imported goods. She must make do.

Such a policy, if maintained long enough will mean that not only will Britain make more goods, but she will use less. The surplus of her economy then can be sold abroad to earn money with which to pay her debts.

If Britain continues to pay off her debts—and they are enormous—then the rest of the world will have faith that the pound sterling is actually worth the $2.80 at which it is officially valued.

If her economy falls to produce enough to pay the bills, then the world will assume that the pound is not worth $2.80. The nation then could be forced to acknowledge this by devaluation, an admission of failure.

Bride, Rocket Are Helping Drain Gold From Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP)—The bride walking down the aisle and the rocket soaring into space are helping drain more gold from Treasury stocks this year than are foreign governments.

Use of gold is rising in everything from wedding rings to sophisticated and complex circuits used in the defense and space programs.

During the first half of the year, the United States would have accumulated gold, the traditional monetary metal, had it not been for more than $60 million in sales by the Treasury to private industry. Heavy industrial use of silver already has resulted in a minor crisis, but officials foresee none for gold.

Treasury policy is to sell gold at $35 an ounce to any foreign government wishing to cash in dollars. The Treasury earlier this month abandoned its policy of maintaining the price of silver at $1.29 an ounce.

The lack of French conversion of any dollars into gold since last September and the absence of any other large international gold transactions this year focused attention on domestic consumption.

Treasury officials say over-all domestic gold consumption last year hit a whopping $212 million compared with $97 million five years earlier.

This year the Treasury expects to sell more than $100 million in gold to domestic industry for the third straight year.

Officials give these reasons for the heavy demand:—The increased population with an ever-rising number of brides who demand wedding rings.

—Affluence of the population which is increasing the demand for jewelry.

—Rising industrial use, especially in the space and defense programs. "An official said few people realize gold is an even better conductor of electricity than silver. Many government contracts now specify gold for electrical and electronic work."

GI Spending In Vietnam Being Controlled

By HARRY KRAMER

SAIGON (AP)—The big spenders from the West are making a serious effort not to kill South Vietnam with kindness.

The 466,000 U.S. troops and the other Americans here are being pushed, prodded and even ordered to spend as few South Vietnamese piasters as possible to avoid a catastrophic inflation that could do almost as much harm to the country as the war.

The U.S. figures are just piasters that Americans spend inside South Vietnam. They do not include the multibillion-dollar cost of the war, most of which is spent outside Vietnam and does not affect its economy.

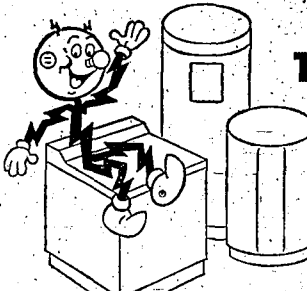

The American piaster spent on programs instituted by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, American GI pays for "Saigon tea" in a bar to the flood of piasters, a total amounting to about $20 million, that the U.S. government Agency for International Development (AID) spends as a small part of its aid program here.

A dollar can be exchanged for 117 piasters at the official rate. A friend in Chicago, as well as the U.S. government Agency for International Development (AID) spends as a small part of its aid program here. A dollar can be exchanged for 117 piasters at the official rate. He has just retired at 62.

Milwaukee Eyes Part Of American Loop Expansion

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Milwaukee and the American Loop are likely to be in a small order marriage, but their first face-to-face meeting Monday night: it was love at first sight and public opinion in the betrothal may come before the end of the year.

It may come, a reliable source said today as early as next month, but more likely after the league meetings in October, with Charles O. Finley being given permission to take over the Detroit and Milwaukee franchises to complete the junior circuit's long-run growth to a 12-team league made up of two six-team circuits, still might await the original timetable for a 1968 start-up of particularly full league participation until 1970.

A year ago the air still was thick with recriminations as Milwaukee sought to reclaim its decaying Braves.

But some of the best sources in baseball acknowledged that expansion was being planned very carefully, to take a number of things into consideration, including the way baseball has looked lately.

Said one source, "The owners are being very careful, and searching the prospective expansion cities very thoroughly, but the people who will be behind the new clubs, and their qualifications."

Monday night in Milwaukee's County Stadium 51,144 paid to see the Chicago White Sox-Milwaukee Twins exhibition. The sponsoring Milwaukee Brewers organization is the same group that already has applied for a franchise in American League franchise.

The Twins edged the White Sox 2-1.

The Brewers are made up of a group of Wisconsin industrialists and businessmen, a number of them millionaires.

Alou's Single Gives Giants 5-4 Victory

Cards Regain First Place, Drop Cubs 4-3

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lou Brock cracked two hits, scored two runs and Orlando Cepeda drove in two runs sending St. Louis into first place in the National League with a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday night.

The Cardinals knocked out loser Rob Gardner with a three-run homer, Brock and Julian Javier hit the left-hander's first two curves for singles and one out later Cepeda singled off a run. Mike Shannon singled off reliever Bob Shaw for a run and Jim McCarver doubled in the third run.

The Cubs nearly tied the game in the ninth when, with two out, Al Seitz won a pinch single that drove in Ernie Banks who had singled.

But when Ted Savino, on base when he was hit by a pitch, tried to score from first base, he cut down on a throw from Bob Tolan that was relayed to the plate by Julian Javier for the final out.

Brock led off the fourth with his second hit, moved up on a sacrifice and an infield out before Cepeda got the RBI. The rest of the game with a fly to deep center.

Ray Washburn picked up his seventh victory, spreading out six hits over eight innings. He worked out of trouble in the third when Don Kessinger and Glenn Beckert, singled with two out. The right-hander then got Billy Williams on a soft ground-er.

A's Sweep Twin Bill From Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ken Hurrellson homered in the first game and drove in the deciding runs in the nighttime Tuesday night leading Kansas City to a doubleheader sweep over Washington 5-1 and 6-5.

Mike Herberberger hit a three-run inside-the-park homer in the opener as the Athletics cooled off the rampaging Senators who had won 12 of their last 15 games.

Hurrellson's two-run single in the fifth inning of the second game drove in Campy Campaneris and Joe Mauer, who singled ahead of him. It was one of three hits for Nossek, who hit four for the night.

Frank Howard batted in a pair of runs for the Senators with his 25th homer, his first in 30 days, and a run-scoring single.

Hall Sparks Angels Past Boston 6-4

BOSTON (AP) — Jimmy Hall sparked three early scoring bursts and the California infield turned in a succession of rally-killing defensive plays Tuesday night as the Angels won their seventh straight game, 6-4, and snapped Boston's 10-game winning streak.

Hall doubled in the midst of a three-run first inning, doubling again to key a two-run third, then singled home a run in the fourth as the Angels built a 4-0 lead.

The Red Sox kept pecking away, collecting 10 hits and eight walks off three pitchers, but the Angels' defense halted every big-attempting threat.

Second baseman Bobby Knepp made a diving stop of Carl Yastrzemski's splash off the middle of the first inning, hitting it into a forecourt, then came back in the next inning with a diving tag to nail Reggie Smith as he tried to stretch a leadoff single.

Shortstop Jim Fregosi turned Tony Compagno's bid for a hit into a forecourt in the fifth, and third baseman Woody Held made a sparkling one-handed play on Mike Andrews' bunt down the first base line.

Fillingman (8) and Newman (9-0, L — Wastlewski, 2-1.

Allen Rallies Phillies By Astros 12-7

HOUSTON (AP) — Rich Allen drove in four runs with a homer, a double, and two singles Tuesday night as Philadelphia crushed Houston 12-7.

Allen also scored three times and stole two bases.

Allen's homer in the fifth, his 11th of the season, broke a 1-1 tie and the Phils scored six times in the seventh with Allen driving in two with a double and pitcher Jim Bunning knocking in a pair with a single.

Cookie Rojas had a triple and two singles in the Phillies' 16th hit attack and Bobby Wine had two runs batted in with a double and two singles.

Idaho Begins Search For Bugged Salmon

BOISE—Some 600 summer-run chinook salmon were trapped at Bonneville Dam late this spring and made to gulp down tiny radio broadcasting stations with wires leading from stomach transmitters to nose antennas that look like colored buttons.

Some of these summer-run chinooks have had time to swim from Bonneville Dam up the Columbia Snake and main stem of the Salmon river to spawning gravel of the South Fork of the Salmon River drainage, where the sports fishing season has been canceled for the third year in a row because of a shortage of fish.

Dave Orinon, Boise, fisheries biologist, is going to find one of the "bugged" salmon in the South Fork if he can. He is equipped with a battery-powered, hand-held portable receiver set that can monitor the radio signals of "beeps" from fish.

A fish counting weir has been set up for the third year just below Krastel Ranger Station on the South Fork to learn how many fish come to the drainage to spawn without handling, or otherwise harassing them. The purpose is to see if the beeper fish tags still work after the long, troubled journey through hundreds of river miles and over hydroelectric power dams.

Some 25,500 summer-run chinook salmon have been counted so far this year over Ice Harbor, the first dam on the Snake River, as of July 18, and there are 500,000 per day still being counted. At least 32,000 are needed for fishing and seedling the spawning beds.

Nearly 30,000 spring-run salmon were counted at Ice Harbor earlier this year, enough for spawning "safely" in numbers, and sports fishing on the main stem of the Salmon River and some of its tributaries, including the Middle Fork.

Joe Namath, the New York Jets' quarterback, was sidelined for a "flu Tuesday" due to a strained tendon below his left knee-cap, but he resumed his workout after having the knee taped.

Namath underwent surgery on his right knee last December but had been troubled by bursts in the left knee.

Cuellar Fumes Over Brush With Mauch

HOUSTON (AP)—Mike Cuellar, the Houston Astros southpaw who beat Philadelphia 2-1 Monday night with an 11-inning two-hitter, still was seething after the game because of a ninth-inning run-in with Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch.

Namath Is Having Knee Troubles

Associated Press Sports Writer Joe Namath is having knee troubles again. This time it's his right knee, the one which he underwent surgery last December.

Coach Webb Fehank probably is keeping his fingers crossed if Namath is hobble, the Jets' hopes of winning the AFL championship will be jolted.

Double Slam LAMLAH, Scotland (AP)—Golfer Dan Crawford claimed a birdie and shot an eagle on the same hole Monday.

His tee shot at the par 4, 300-yard 11th went off like a rocket and killed a circling seagull. That was a wee birdie by Scottish standards.

OGDEN (AP)—Red Cananda and Bill Rainer each drove in two runs as Ogden widened its league lead to 24 games Monday with a 5-1 Pioneer League victory over second place Caldwell.

Valley Takes Pair From Shoshone

EDEN—Homeruns by Earl Taylor and Art Watkins joined the Valley Legion team to a 14-0 and 6-3 doubleheader sweep over Shoshone Tuesday night.

Valley will stay in action Wednesday, hosting Twin Falls "A" team at 8 p.m. The teams will play again Thursday evening but the site hasn't been decided.

Valley, after moving into a 4-0 lead, was tied by Shoshone's four-run third inning, highlighted by a two-run homer by Adams. Shoshone added another run in the fourth to take a 5-4 edge but Valley closed with 10 runs in the fifth and sixth and went going away.

Watkins' two-run homer drove Valley ahead in the first inning of the nightcap before Shoshone turned three consecutive throws errors into three runs in the third. With the bases loaded, Shoshone benefited from a throwing error from short to first.

The first baseman then overthrew home as a second run scored and the second baseman threw the ball into the outfield.

Brinkman, who has committed only four errors this year, has lost his job at least temporarily to Tim Cullen.

There was reason for apprehension when Brinkman took his summer tour with the major league team in July.

He still performs second base though it took him a moment before admitting it.

"I'm more used to the pivot at second," he said.

Salt Lake Stays On Winning Road

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Last place Salt Lake City pitched its winning streak to four as it defeated front-running Ogden, 6-3, on three unearned runs in the seventh inning of a Pioneer League baseball game Tuesday.

Ogden committed three errors in the seventh to allow the Giants to score the tie-breaking runs. An infield single by Dave Voss drove in the tie-breaker.

Ogden made five errors as it absorbed its 11th defeat. But the Dodgers did not lose ground in league standings.

Second place Caldwell also lost, leaving the Cubs 2½ games behind Ogden.

Mike Welker was the winning pitcher in relief of Greg Garrett.

U. S. WOMEN WIN WINNIEP (AP)—The United States held off a late Mexican rally Tuesday night to score a 48-45 victory in Women's basketball play in the Pan-American Games.

Judge Okays Billy Rose Tax Action

NEW YORK (AP) — A judge has upheld Billy Rose's avoidance of taxes on the bulk of his estate.

Surrogate S. Samuel D'Elia ruled Tuesday that the late showman was within his rights in leaving most of his estate, estimated at between $25 million and $50 million, to a foundation bearing his name.

A sister, Miriam Stern of Manhattan, had protested the will, contending that Rose's attempt to insure tax deductibility of his charitable gifts is against public policy.

Rose died at 66 in February. His will gave the income from a $100,000 trust to Mrs. Stern. A second sister, Polly Gattlieb of Beverly Hills, Calif., was left $50,000 and the income from a $1 million trust. The sisters made an attempt to attempt to break the will last year.

Impact Of U.S. Opinion Polls Is Studied

BY TOM TIEDE
 NEW YORK (NEA)—A Manhattan newsman recently conducted a street poll with a bit of a twist. He stopped 100 metropolitan residents and asked them a single question: "Have you ever been polled before?" The results were revealing. Two ladies told the newsman to beat it. Two men made no response at all. Four of the total said they had received telephone inquiries about their television habits. But 92 people said they had never been polled. Such a survey is, admittedly, scientifically invalid. But no one on the streets is hardy a refined, method of extracting educated response. Yet the results, if honest, serve to substantiate what is already widely suspected — that in a day when public opinion polls have reached positions of enormous influence, they are based on very few actual participants. On the national level, both Louis Harris and George Gallup admit their surveys include only about seven-tenths of one per cent of the U.S. population. Thus an obvious question: Is the pollsters' influence justified? Harris, for one, refuses to answer on the grounds that he modestly doesn't feel his poll is as powerful as some fringe-kneed politicians complain that it is. Says he: "I'm fundamentally a reporter and I have a legitimate beat to cover just like anybody else in the news business. My object has never been to influence the public's opinion but to simply report it. And I report the opinion without bias. Many times I report opinion that I personally do not agree with. If the President's national support is up, I report that it is. If it's down, I report that also. I report with equal coverage. I think the complaints that influence public opinion are nonsense. People aren't undecided sheep. I find the American people more and more sophisticated and I find they want to form their own individual opinions on matters. But if Harris shrugs off the worry of "snowballing" pollsters, legions of critics do not. Not just a few people feel that opinion polls are "throttling America. Television performers, for example, gag at the mention of the Nielsen Ratings, a surveying agency so powerful that its favorable blessing on a program can send millions of pliable viewers reaching for their channel changer. Even private citizens are finding it difficult to accept programming polls, and wonder if things haven't reached a zany zenith when a soft drink company conducts a national poll and not surprisingly determines "live to one" tasters prefer their brew.

LOOKING OVER a handicraft display are two youngsters in the children's section of the Twin Falls Public Library. The display will be up until Aug. 14. Margaret Hansen, organizer of the display, said a variety of books will be available for the children describing how to make the handicraft items shown.

Some Soldiers Prefer War To Washington

BY DAVE BURGIN
 WASHINGTON (NEA) — The worst assignment a United States serviceman can get outside of orders to a combat zone is a tour of duty here.

The wide-eyed young enlisted man sweating out an assignment to Vietnam may think Washington is a post-assignment but he'll soon think twice.

The Army colonel or Navy captain knows a Washington desk job of any sort reduces his hard-earned rank to roughly that of a first lieutenant. A colonel or a captain is nothing in a city brimming with generals and admirals.

And the multistarred and striped officers, when they reach that level, are suddenly politicians as much as they are military men. So they become fair game for a scrutinizing Congress and Washington's formidable press corps.

"This isn't war here but it's hell anyway," said an Army colonel, assigned to the Army's Military District of Washington command.

"I was in the Pentagon 10 years ago as a major. Duty here is now 10 times worse. Protocol is so thick you can feel it."

"Service life has changed and is changing drastically. It's no longer military run by military, but a military run by civilians affecting almost every congressional district. Its total is $243.2 million less than President Johnson requested but $114.4 million more than was appropriated last year."

The colonel asked that his name be withheld because he attributes his remarks to wreck his career, ruin his family life and in a larger sense further threaten the military structure.

"What if I said something some general or congressman or undersecretary didn't like?" the colonel went on. "I'd catch it, he made an example of, and an order would go out to put more restrictions on other men out there, men who are mature and are supposed to be able to make intelligent decisions."

Officers here are not all quick to decry civilian domination. A Marine Corps major said: "By its nature the military must have tight civilian control. Otherwise you have the frightening thought that our military has no limit on its power. Any officer ought to know that when he decides on the service as a body's got to be here to do the job."

But servicemen agree that Washington isn't the best place to be. Most will shrug it off, however, as if to say, "Some-

And veteran officers and enlisted men agree emphatically that the service has changed drastically.

Ike Warns Of Anarchy Across U.S.

By JACK BELL
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says a "shameful outcropping of lawlessness" in city rioting must be dealt with sternly lest it lead to anarchy and destroy the nation.

"The people must be taught, Eisenhower said, that "personal or social problems cannot be solved by violence and defiance of authority." Many have blamed the rioting on poverty conditions in the slums.

"I have the utmost sympathy for any person who has never had a decent chance in life," Eisenhower said. "But the fact that society has treated him badly does not give him the right to smash a store window and take what he wants, or to attack our police with animal ferocity."

This, he said, is heading toward "an era of lawlessness which in the end can only lead to anarchy. And anarchy is a destroyer of nations."

Eisenhower expressed these views in an article written for Reader's Digest and released Tuesday. It was prepared long in advance of a Republican Policy Coordinating Committee statement to which he subscribed Monday, accusing President Johnson of failing to recognize and deal with the problem of racial violence in the cities.

Idaho Potatoes . . . the world's finest . . . are now the most! Idaho grows more potatoes than anything else and more than any other state. Ten years ago only 12% of Idaho's potato crop was processed before leaving the state. Today, 60% is processed in 25 huge plants throughout southern Idaho with the efficient help of Natural Gas. This spectacular growth has provided jobs for thousands of Idaho people and added $20 million annually to Idaho's economy.

Idaho's growing food processing industry is an important category of the economy served by Intermountain's 3,000 miles of natural gas distribution pipeline. Today, Intermountain Gas is furnishing natural gas to 64,000 customers throughout the southern part of the state at a cost equal to or below that of any other natural gas utility in the northwest.

Capital Punishment Appears To Be Dying As Supreme Penalty Of Justice

By LARRY KNUTSON
 CHICAGO (AP) — Death appears to be dying as the supreme penalty of American justice, even though most states cling to capital punishment statutes.

A survey by The Associated Press showed that 13 states have abolished the death penalty or so severely restricted its use as to make it almost nonexistent. Some states have not executed a criminal in decades. Most death penalties are imposed for peddling narcotics to minors.

But death at the hands of the state is becoming a rarity and the voice of the abolitionists is louder and more frequent. Legal executions have been abolished in Alaska, Hawaii, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Oregon, West Virginia and Wisconsin. It has been abolished with qualifications in New York and Vermont and has been on the books in Rhode Island since 1861—but never used.

The death penalty was abolished by the New York Legislature in 1965. An exclusion involves persons who kill police men or kill while escaping from prison.

The Vermont Legislature repealed capital punishment laws in 1965 except in cases where a second murder is committed or a police officer is killed in the line of duty.

The Rhode Island law applies only to persons who are sentenced to life imprisonment for first-degree murder, and who later are convicted of another first-degree murder.

That specific situation has never arisen in the state.

Maryland, New Mexico and North Carolina currently are prime targets of abolitionists activity. Bills to eliminate the death penalty were defeated by narrow margins in recent legislative sessions. In California a major court test is being sought in the wake of legislative action.

Recurrent bills to eliminate the death penalty have been introduced in many states, but either were defeated or died in committee.

Other abolitionist attempts have been made without success in recent years in Montana, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, South Carolina, Texas, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Nevada, Arkansas, Tennessee, Utah, Idaho, Virginia, Washington, Mississippi, New

Budget Set

CAIRO (AP) — The Egyptian government introduced a new austerity budget Tuesday, including sweeping tax increases, higher prices and drastic reductions in government spending.

Egyptians will have to pay from 10 to 20 per cent more for such commodities as sugar, tea, cooking oil, cigarettes and beverages.

Sales taxes on cars and spare parts were raised 50 per cent. Defense taxes are increased by half through the introduction of a new national security tax.

Government subsidies of rationed food and other essential items were reduced. Zakaria Mohamedin, Egypt's economic overlord, told a news conference that as a result of the closing of the Suez Canal and the drying up of tourist revenue in the wake of the war against Israel, "We lost a vital portion of our income."

Three Women Use Arms To Halt Project

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Warning shots rang out over the growing noise of huge earth-moving machines Tuesday as three women took up arms to halt highway construction workers.

"I fired three times in the air to let them know I mean business," Mrs. Guy R. Metz said after workers began clearing land beside her property on the extreme southwest edge of Huntington.

Mrs. Metz and her 24-year-old daughter, Ellen, a school teacher from Seattle, Wash., were armed with chrome-plated .22 caliber revolvers.

Mrs. L.D. Smith, a neighbor, grabbed a 12-gauge shotgun and ultra-high velocity varmint rifle after workers headed toward her property. The workers retreated as soon as Mrs. Smith appeared.

The construction workers were attempting to clear the land of trees and shrubs. The land is to be used for an access road-interstate-64.

"I'm fighting for what is right on this little hunk of ground,"

BRIDGE

By Jacoby

THE PENALTIES OF A FAINT HEART
Today's hand created no excitement at all when played in a rubber bridge game in Dallas. South won the spade opening and went about the business of making his two-heart contract.

open a club and North duck. Either defense is possible, but not likely.

In any event, four spades down one isn't worse than letting your opponents make two hearts.

Now let's look at the West hand. We don't feel that he should enter the bidding right over the one-heart opening. On the other hand we wouldn't criticize a double or a one-spade contract. In fact we would recommend a one-spade overall, in spite of holding only a four-card suit.

However, his first pass wasn't too bad. Later on he had two chances to get into the act. He could have doubled or bid two spades over South's two-diamond call. Once more we aren't going to take strong issue with that second pass but when the bidding came back to him at two hearts he had what we consider an automatic two-spade call. Not only had North and South shown weakness but they were obviously short in spades and West could be sure that he would be safe if he bid two spades at that time.

Captain Easy

YOU NINNY, RUNNING OUTTA GAS IN A REGION NEVER BEFORE SEEN BY MAN OR BEAST! LEGS! HUNGRY, EVEN OUTTA MATCHES!

IF YOU'LL RUB TWO STICKS TOGETHER AND START A FIRE, I'LL—

WHAT WITZ WITH A STRICK IN A WILDEZ?

IT'S TIMES LIKE THIS THAT BRING OUT MAN'S INSTINCT AS A PROVERBIAL GOOSE.

HERE YOU GO, FLEPPY! LOOKING AT EVERYTHING FROM THE WORST SIDE!

Gasoline Alley

Did anyone call when I was out, Mom?

No, clovia, but I've been on the phone a lot!

You haven't heard from Slim since he got back?

What makes you think I'd expect a call from that stupid jerk?

He's probably too busy writing love notes to some dopey girl he met on his trip!

Winthrop

IF YOU CAN KEEP THAT UP FOR 3 MINUTES, I THINK I CAN GET YOU A SPOT ON THE GULLIVAN SHOW.

Alley Oop

Y'MEAN WERE NO LONGER GOING TO HAVE A SAY IN OUR COUNTRY'S POLICY?

Y'ED RIGHT.

I WANT ALONG WITH EASIER FOR SEVERE CRIMINALS IDEAS AN' ALL WE GOT WING TROUBLE!

SO NOW, I'M GONNA GO BACK TO HOND THINGS MY WAY.

AN' ANY THING THAT HANGS DOWN, I'LL DO!

NOW AIN'T THAT NICE?

Robin Malone

I SHOULD BITE MY BRAIN FOR THINKING WHAT I THOUGHT ABOUT MRG. MALONE'S SHE'S TERRIFIC!

SEE YOU TOMORROW, MRG. M!

CAN'T WAIT, THINKY! NITE!

THANKS, ROBIN! FOR CLINGING ME! TO DRIVE OUT WITH TWINKY.

YOU PICKED UP THE BALL LIKE A PRO! CLAY.

I'D NO IDEA HOW MUCH BIGGS COUNTED ON US! MACHINATIONS TOGETHER!

THAT'S BECAUSE YOU'D NO IDEA YOU'RE STILL HERE! KNIGHT IN SHINING ARMOR! SEE YOU TOMORROW.

Bugs Bunny

DON'T COME DOWN YET! I SPOT YOU, BUGSB!

OKAY, EAGLE EYEL! I THINK I CAN REACH IT FROM HERE!

URK!

SEE ANY OTHER PLACES THAT NEED TOUCHIN' UP, FUDDY?

Is It Cheating? Well, IS IT?

Let's spend today's spate on an exploration of your standards. All it takes is an honest pencil. Put a check (✓) for "yes" and a cross (X) for "no." Ready, set, let's see what you call "cheating!"

1. If you are given a discount card for your own use as a summer employee, and then buy things for your friends, is it cheating?
2. Is it cheating when Mr. Lawson goes on a business trip and takes a cheap double room in a hotel, and then has the receipt written as though he had an expensive single room—thereby allowing Mrs. L. to go along at unauthorized company expense?
3. Is it cheating to mark 8:30 on a time card when you actually started at 8:42 a.m.?
4. Is it cheating to gain admittance to a home while calling doors, by saying, "I'm not selling anything. I just want your answers for a survey?"
5. Is it cheating to fill out a clerk that she's given you change of $5 when you actually gave her only a dollar bill?
6. Is it cheating to charge a dress, wear it one night, and then return it to the store for the money for a refund, because Dad said I can't wear this extreme style?
7. Is it cheating to call in "sick" when you want to stay home from class to meet a term paper deadline?
8. Is it cheating to have the science fair—ribbons and lettering done for you by Uncle Fred?
9. Is it cheating to observe a friend using crib notes on an exam and to say nothing to the teacher?
10. Is it cheating to borrow your term paper or special project to copy for use at his own school, are you a cheat too?
11. Is it cheating when a faculty member discovers a cheat, but keeps quiet rather than furnish his supervisor with the name of the community's "Builder of Men"?
12. Is it cheating for a gal self-addressed envelope to Elv who types a teacher's exam at Teago, stencils to let her boyfriend, Date-Line, in care of this newspaper, specific questions on the exam, but rather what areas an exploration of your standards. All it takes is an honest pencil. Put a check (✓) for "yes" and a cross (X) for "no." Ready, set, let's see what you call "cheating!"
13. Is it cheating to find an error on an exam that was overlooked and say nothing to gain to teacher?
14. Is it cheating to pour on a phone flake to attract a teacher's good will?
15. Is it cheating to take a test for another student?
16. Is it cheating to learn a fancy psychological pitch that will wash away the resistance of simple people and push them into buying something they can't afford and don't really need? (Summer door-to-door salesmen, please answer this with special care)
17. Is it cheating for an advice column to say "Write for Paul's comments on your problems" and then have the words actually come from a secretary rather than the Great Man himself?
18. Is it cheating to tell your folks that a party will be over at midnight when it really ends at 11 p.m., so that your "half-home" party curfew will stretch to 90 minutes and permit a pizza with the gang on the way home?
19. Is it cheating to take hotel towels home with you from a conference?
20. Is it cheating to agree to dress, wear it one night, and then return it to the store for the money for a refund, because Dad said I can't wear this extreme style?
21. Is it cheating to call in "sick" when you want to stay home from class to meet a term paper deadline?
22. Is it cheating to have the science fair—ribbons and lettering done for you by Uncle Fred?
23. Is it cheating to observe a friend using crib notes on an exam and to say nothing to the teacher?
