CSI Faculty Prepares For Fall Session

An outline of junior college philosophy was presented to some 51 College of Southern Idaho faculty members Tuesday morning during an inservice workshop designed to orientate the teachers with their school and its administration.

The workshop, which will run through Friday at the Holiday Inn, is one of several activities currently being undertaken in preparation for the new school term, which will begin Aug. 30. Heavy student registration, counseling and final class scheduling are also being held.

Tuesday morning's workshop sessions included faculty-school orientation and general get-acquainted discussions. Afternoon activities were scheduled to emphasize orientation of the staff to the facilities currently available to faculty and students at the Twin Falls Senior High School and the Vocational Building.

Continued discussions on the objectives and philosophy of the junior college institution and explanation of the programs offered through such institutions are scheduled for Wednesday morning. Availability of professional organizations, insurance and other business will be discussed that afternoon.

On schedule for Thursday morning is an explanation of student personnel services. Areas of the teacher responsibility for secondary accreditation will be examined Thursday afternoon. Also to be discussed is Institutional Inspection.

A second accreditation study of CSI will be undertaken in September, 1968, Dr. Don Keith, college dean, pointed out.

Final examinations of classroom procedures and teacher responsibilities in this area will be held Friday.

The current CSI staff numbers 51 full-time professional teachers and administrators, including eight academic instructors who are new to the school this year, three new vocational teachers, a new vocational director and a new director of student personnel services.

Many of the teachers new to CSI this year are recent college graduates, several of whom will be teaching their first classes in the local college. Most are from out of state, including several from California and others from North Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada and Colorado.

Skiers, Fishermen Square Off Over Right Of Way On Lakes

Two boat operators are scheduled for trial in Twin Falls County Probate Court trial at 1 p.m. Thursday on charges of careless operation of water craft.

Charges were brought against Relis Murphy, Hazelton, and Bryce Biggerstaff, Murtaugh, in a criminal complaint signed by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leedom, Twin Falls. The two are charged with driving their boats on July 13 on Murtaugh Lake in a careless manner and tearing the fishing lines and equipment used by Mr. and Mrs. Leedom who were fishing in the northwest corner of the lake.

Prosecuting Attorney Mike Felton said Tuesday he has made a formal request to the Department of Law Enforcement to take a look at the lake situation and establish regulations as provided under the state law for the operation of boats.

Several other fishermen as well as swimmers have voiced complaints over the conflict of boating and water skiing with fishing and swimming.

Members of the Twin Falls County Waterways Commission discussed the problem at length in a recent public meeting and favored some legal control on Murtaugh Lake.

Officials said the trial, while involving one specific incident, could bring public attention to the problem on Murtaugh Lake and other small bodies of water where recreation interests include water skiing, swimming and fishing.

Fishing enthusiasts, according to county officers, have expressed displeasure over water skiing on the lake as fishing has been under way there since the lake was created and the fast moving boats are forcing the fishermen out of the area, with swimmers more or less caught in the crossfire.

Water Skiing Club members say fishing is scattered throughout the lake, making it difficult for skiers to avoid them.

Mr. Felton pointed out the state law gives the Department of Law Enforcement the right to regulate boat operations on any body of water so long as local regulations do not overstep or duplicate state regulations already in effect.

Pesky Pigeon Flock Has City Board All Aflutter

What to do about an overpopulation of pigeons is a big city problem that appears to be plaguing parts of Twin Falls.

Mrs. Alice Murray, 320 Van Buren St., posed the question of what to do about pigeon nuisances to the Twin Falls City Commission Monday night. Mrs. Murray said she is unable to harvest any of her fruit from her several trees because the fruit is either devoured or knocked to the ground by the large birds as rapidly as it ripens. For several seasons, she said, she has had the expense of pruning and spraying the trees, but the pigeons have gleaned the benefits.

In addition to many pigeons kept by local residents, there are thousands living in the walls of Snake River Canyon, Commission Chairman Egon Kroll pointed out. These are outside the city limits and thus outside of city jurisdiction—not that the city would know what to do about them if they did have authority.

"How could you spray all of Snake River Canyon?" asked one commissioner.

Then there is the possibility of poison, but Mrs. Murray said she had thought of that but she didn't want to kill the song birds.

City Clerk Constance Lelser may have come up with the answer to the problem in residential neighborhoods and pigeons which are somewhat domestic. These, said the clerk, may well come under the city ordinance which regulates fowl and animals and, if so, the owners would be required to keep them home or give them up.

Mayor Kroll explained there is also a problem of pigeons on downtown business buildings—probably visiting pigeons from the canyon—so back to the same problem of how to control the nuisance.

City Attorney William Langley was asked to check the city ordinance to see what could be done to control the domestic birds and the city officials will give the non-domestic side of the problem some more thought.

Defense Bill Looks Ready For Passage

By WALTER R. MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The largest appropriation in U.S. history, a $70.2 billion defense spending bill swollen by the war in Vietnam, appears headed for passage without significant alteration.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he was confident the measure would pass unchanged, despite threats by critics of the Vietnam war to seek appropriation cuts in an effort to influence the policy of the administration.

Only a handful of senators have been on hand during two days of debate on the measure, and no such effort has been posted.

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said he hoped the measure he is managing would pass the Senate by tonight.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., had talked of a budget-trimming move aimed at President Johnson's Vietnam policy. But Clark said he will not propose one.

The bill, $1.4 billion below the level the President proposed, includes more than $20 billion linked to the Vietnam war.

The debate centered Monday on missile defense and on accounting systems.

Brown Indicted On Gun Charge

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal grand jury here indicted H. Rap Brown today on a charge of carrying a .30-caliber carbine across state lines while under indictment.

The two-count indictment stated that Brown flew from New York to New Orleans with the carbine on Aug. 16 and returned to New York with the weapon two days later.

The indictment was returned to U.S. Dist. Judge Herbert W. Christenberry, who fixed bond at $25,000.

Brown was arrested in New York last Saturday on a complaint filed by the U.S. attorney here. He has been in jail since then, unable to make $25,000 bond.

Brown, Negro chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, had been scheduled to address a Negro rally in Baton Rouge Sunday, Louisiana Gov. John McKeithen said he had planned to arrest Brown in Baton Rouge on a treason charge. McKeithen said the Justice Department learned of the state's plan and arrested Brown first.

Brown's troubles began last month when he was arrested in Alexandria, Va., on a charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. He had been charged in Maryland with inciting to riot and arson in connection with a racial disturbance in Cambridge, Md.

He faces a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $2,000 fine on each count of the gun charge indictment.

Six Planes Lost In Hot U.S. Attack

SAIGON (AP) — One of the heaviest attacks of the Vietnam war on the Hanoi-Haiphong area cost the United States six warplanes Monday, including two jets lost in Red China trying to escape Communist MIGs and surface-to-air missiles, the U.S. Command announced today.

The raids were among the war's costliest for U.S. Air Force and Navy pilots, but the rewards may have been large. Pilots reported plastering two rail yards choked with 170 boxcars and engulfing the Hanoi power plant, 1.1 miles from the center of the North Vietnamese capital, with flames, steam and billowing smoke.

Communist broadcast claimed eight American planes were shot down, five of them in attacks on Hanoi. The ground war in South Vietnam flamed up with a battle just below the demilitarized zone in which 109 Communists were reported killed and with other sharp actions which the U.S. Command said cost the enemy 153 dead. The command reported seven Americans killed and 51 wounded.

U.S. headquarters also reported the downing of two U.S. jets in South Vietnam in the past 24 hours due to "unknow causes." The loss of the six planes in the North raised to 653 the number of U.S. combat planes reported downed in the war against North Vietnam.

While a U.S. spokesman declined to say that the raids Monday were heavier than any previously, he said they probably included "more aircraft on major targets."

The big majority of targets were around the Hanoi-Haiphong area and the northeast rail line leading to Red China which is believed to carry much of the small arms and ammunition for the Communist forces in South Vietnam.

Navy pilots from three carriers in the Tonkin Gulf for the first time hit the Red naval base of Port Walt 61 miles northeast of Haiphong. One Phantom jet was downed in that strike but the two crewmen were picked up by the only successful helicopter rescue mission of the day.

The other five planes lost in the North included three A6 Navy Intruder jets, two of which the U.S. Command said probably went down in Red China, and two Air Force Thunderchiefs. All eight fliers aboard them were listed as missing.

The two intruders lost in China had come off a bomb run just north of Hanoi and at least one was known to have been hit at that time, the command said.

Reformation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Federation of Teachers called today for a reformation in U.S. education, and President Charles Cogen said teachers must be willing to strike to achieve it.

"If teachers do not fight for good schools, who will?" asked Cogen; opening the 51st annual convention of the 145,000-member AFL-CIO Teachers' Union.

Cogen's report to the convention showed the federation, representing about seven per cent of the nation's two million teachers, is increasing rapidly in numbers and willingness to strike for better salaries and teaching conditions.

Fire Fighters Make Some Progress In Northwest

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — Fire fighters reported some progress today in their battle against hundreds of fires raging through the Mountain and Northwest states, particularly in Idaho.

But major blazes in other states continued to rage.

expressed hope improved weather would help control all fires burning in timbered areas of southwestern Idaho by nightfall. Sam Deffer, supervisor of the Payette National Forest, said only one of 80 fires set by lightning storms Sunday was still out of control. It was burning an 8 to 10-acre area in the Chamberlain Basin in central Idaho's Primitive Area.

In North Idaho, where larger fires have burned more than a week, crews were reported gaining control of all but one blaze. The Trapper Creek fire, which has blackened 5,500 acres, was battled by 875 men, 24 bulldozers, and a number of helicopters and tanker airplanes.

This fire is in the Kaniksu National Forest, north of Upper Priest Lake.

Officials said a 1,100-acre fire at Plume Creek northeast of Sandpoint, in North Idaho, was expected to be controlled by Wednesday.

The 480-acre Kaniksu Mountain fire which straddled the Idaho-Canadian border in rugged terrain was under control.

More than 400 fires were reported Monday in Idaho, Oregon, Montana and British Columbia, Washington state officials said the threat there was the worst in history.

Spokesmen for the U.S. Forest Service regional office in Ogden, Utah, said exact estimates on the number and size of the fires are impossible.

"We don't have enough men to cover all the fires," Richard Stauber, Forest Service information officer, said. "We've been trying to fight the big ones and then on to the others as we can."

He said the Forest Service, state and volunteer groups hoped to muster enough manpower today to control all but the most minor blazes. No fatalities have been reported.

About 70 other smaller fires were burning in north Idaho, while southern Idaho fire fighters attempted to choke off the largest of 80 blazes, Hardest hit were Payette and Salmon National forests. More than 250 new fires have hit Idaho since Sunday night. In Oregon, more than 1,000 men faced blazes racing over 25,000 acres. The largest was a 14,000-acre fire on Bureau of Land Management prop

New Haven Mayor, Police Hold Meeting

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — A weary Mayor Richard C. Lee met with high ranking police officials today in an effort to ward off a fourth straight night of racial violence.

The sporadic violence — fire-setting and looting — followed a ring-like course Monday night that encircled downtown New Haven.

The city remained in a state of emergency as arrests — mostly on charges of breach of the peace — mounted. Most of those arrested were Negroes.

More than 350 arrests have been reported since the disturbances broke out Saturday night, reportedly spurred by the shooting of a Puerto Rican man by the white proprietor of a snack bar on Congress Avenue.

City and state police were plagued Monday night by fires and looting which spread in a widening ring from the Hill section along Congress Avenue. Thirty-eight blazes were reported by authorities between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. The fires caused police to resort occasionally to tear gas to keep crowds clear of the firefighters.

Hearing In Murder Case Set Sept. 21

Preliminary hearing for Joaquin Lasa, Twin Falls, charged with first degree murder, has been set for Sept. 21 at 10 a.m. in Twin Falls County Probate Court.

Mr. Lasa was charged in a complaint Monday with the fatal shooting Sunday night in the Blue Front Bar of Marcos Jasso Jr. Mr. Lasa, owner of the bar, is being held in Twin Falls County custody without bond pending the Sept. 21 hearing.

Funeral services are pending at White Mortuary for Mr. Jasso, 27. Mr. Jasso lived at the Twin Falls Labor Camp.

Water Reservoir Now 45 Per Cent Complete

Contractors working on the Twin Falls water project are making good progress with the storage reservoir, now about 45 per cent complete, despite setbacks from two accidents. City Manager Herb Derrick told city commissioners Monday night.

Gunnite spray is being applied to the outside and inside walls, he said, and reports from a structural engineer who has studied shoring and design of the reservoir are expected within a few days. Work will go ahead on the reservoir dome, Mr. Derrick said, when the report is complete and has been reviewed by consulting engineers. Crom Prestressing, Inc., contractor, should normally be 73 per cent complete at this time.

Kloepfer and Sons, Logan, Utah, installing the 36-inch main pipe line is about 10 per cent ahead of schedule, Mr. Derrick said. The firm has completed 70 per cent of its work and by construction schedule should be about 60 per cent along at this time.

Last week alone, Mr. Derrick said, Kloepfer crews and equipment installed 486 feet of the giant pipe line, most of it in heavy rock in the Snake River Canyon near Blue Lakes Country Club golf course.

For the new J. Olsen and Sons, Logan, contractor for the two pumping stations, Mr. Derrick reported, the picture is not as bright. This firm is about 20 per cent complete and by the contract schedule should be 41 per cent along.

Delay in materials shipments caused some problems, the city manager explained. He said the contractor is being urged by the city engineer to do all work possible on the stations while waiting for the shipment of steel parts and pump equipment.

In other city commission business Monday night, Commissioner John Angerbaumer recommended parking restrictions on Addison Avenue East in front of the Washington School be extended back beyond the school's south door and that the lane of traffic on that side of the street be made a right turn lane only. Police Chief Frank Barnett said he would look into the matter but said this could cause problems as this is technically only a two-lane street.

Chief Barnett also asked the city to consider changing the name of the Twin Falls Municipal Court to the Twin Falls Municipal Court. He said the name is misleading as the public feels the police department is responsible for the court.

Most other cities have a Municipal Court, he said, and Twin Falls is the only one still using the term "police" court.

City Attorney Bill Langley pointed out the new state code for cities, however, lists Municipal Courts under the old term "Police Court."

Water requirements will continue rather high for beets, potatoes and other growing crops. Fire danger will also continue high for forests and rangelands.

CSI Okays Transfers Of 10 Students

Transfer applications from 10 Magic Valley students who will be attending junior colleges outside the College of Southern Idaho District and area were approved during a CSI board meeting Monday.

The passage of House Bill 121 during the last legislature provided for partial financing of college tuition and costs for area students attending other junior colleges in the state for valid reasons.

Counties in the area which have students attending other junior colleges must pay the colleges $500 tuition per student, and CSI must pay the $500 tuition for each district student attending another junior college.

The CSI district includes Jerome and Twin Falls counties, and the area includes Camas, Blaine, Cassia, Gooding, Lincoln, Minidoka and parts of Elmore and Owyhee counties.

The approval of 10 applications Monday night brought to 14 the transfer requests now approved by the CSI board. Deadline for application of transfer was Aug. 7 for the fall term, and Dec. 1 has been set as deadline for the second semester.

The students include three from Twin Falls County and three from Jerome County in the district and one each from Blaine and Gooding counties, two from Minidoka County and four from Lincoln County in the area.

In other business Monday night, the board members approved a 15-foot permanent sewer line easement to the city of Twin Falls on college property on the north property line.

Hired for the coming school year were Ralph Harmon and Douglas Hilton, both English; Nell Wheeler, R. N., nursing; John Harmon, biology and botany, and a business manager, name to be announced later.

Two resignations were accepted, bringing the total faculty to 51.

Service Stations Are Burglarized

Two Twin Falls service stations were burglarized Monday night, police reported.

Entry was gained at Al's Chevron Service, 542 Main Ave. N., officers said, when the front door was pried open. Three vending machines were broken into and an undetermined amount of change taken. A money sack from the cash box also was taken. Station attendants said it contained $60 in cash.

The second entry was made at Nick's Richfield Service, 302 Main Ave. S., where officers said a window was broken out and burglars reached inside to unlock the door. Two vending machines were opened here and an unknown amount of money taken. Both burglaries continued under investigation Tuesday.

Black Power Aide Arrested

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Black Power leader George Ware, a top aide to Stokely Carmichael, was arrested today on a Tennessee sedition charge and taken to the Metropolitan jail.

Ware, who appeared here as a surprise instructor Monday at the city's controversial Liberation School for Negro youngsters, was taken into custody at the home of the Rev. James Woodruff.

cost estimates presented by City Engineer Ron Scheuffele.

He said when the third phase contract is let shortly after Aug. 31, in the city improvement program, a permanent line will be installed in this area. As an immediate solution, since the homes are built and one is sold, the city decided to meet with the contractor to discuss sharing the cost of a two-inch temporary line to be laid at a shallow depth to serve until the new line is installed. If a permanent six-inch line were laid—it would cost $2,220, Mr. Scheuffele said, compared to $488 for the temporary line. The city also would lose matching funds on the permanent line, representing about $1,100.

City Commission Chairman Kroll presented a sewage works operator certificate to Albert F. Maslen, city sewer plant operator. He praised Mr. Maslen for completing schooling voluntarily to better himself and his ability on the job by obtaining the certificate.

Commissioners approved the reappointment of Voy Hudson to the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency board. He has served two years and on recommendation of Chairman Kroll will continue for another term. Members also expressed appreciation for his work during the past two years in planning and other services toward betterment of Twin Falls.

Tax Hike Gets Special Treatment

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dramatic demonstration of administration budget-cutting is needed to assure House passage of President Johnson's proposed income tax hike, say some reluctant backers.

But no one has come up yet with a formula for whittling the budget—not only effectively, but also in a manner guaranteed to soothe the voters at home—and so the measure faces deep trouble in the House, they add.

The tax increase proposal has been getting concentrated spotlight treatment ever since President Johnson suggested tacking a 10-per cent surcharge on existing income taxes. Public hearings by the House Ways and Means Committee, with top governmental and private figures as witnesses, have kept the wattle high.

Administration witnesses have spoken of reducing spending by amounts comparable to the $7.5 billion the tax increase is estimated to yield, thus taking a double-bite-out of a deficit which, if left to grow, might reach $29 billion.

So far, the administration spokesmen, challenged for details, have been able only to promise reviews of all programs, cuts wherever possible and the like.

There has been some exploration of a possible bill that would combine a tax increase and a spending limitation—a package some advocates of economies might find it hard to vote against. But, given Congress' rigid organization, with each committee fiercely defending its jurisdiction, such a combination measure would be extremely hard to arrange.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the Ways and Means Committee suggested a new approach to the problem of limiting spending several months ago. He introduced a bill to set up a blue ribbon commission of private citizens to review government programs, new and old, and to report on which produced the most and which the least for the money spent, which may now be obsolete, which should have priority in case of retrenchment.

But there has been no action on the legislation. The White House, congressional sources say, declined to back it after some inquiries indicated it would run into the usual thicket of congressional jealousies, with well-entrenched chairmen and senior members insisting they could make better choices among programs than any outsiders.

Civilian Campaigns For Peace

By BARRY KRAMER

Associated Press Writer
TAY NINH, Vietnam (AP) — Tan Van Huong, considered the leading civilian candidate for president, declared today the only thing the people can expect to bring peace to Vietnam "is a civilian solution."

"We cannot say that if we have large amounts of ammunition or if we kill 300 of the enemy today or 500 tomorrow that we will have peace," Huong said. Huong and seven other civilians who want to become president spoke before a crowd of about 3,000 peasants and city dwellers in Tay Ninh, 60 miles northwest of Saigon, around which has eddied some of the most vicious fighting of the war.

On a neatly manicured soccer field, the gathering listened attentively as the candidates talked about war and peace, the cost of living, corruption and their opponents.

Tay Ninh was the sixth stop on a campaign tour of the countryside. As on the previous stops, the military ticket of Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky failed to appear, leaving the stage entirely to the civilians.

Huong told the crowd the people "do not believe in the government any more because they have not kept their promises to the people."

A former premier with wide support throughout the country and an aggressive campaign organization, he said the people had lost confidence in the government because of a great amount of corruption.

"From the top leaders down to the local civilian and military authorities they think that because they have a little authority they have the support of the people," he said.

Huong's remarks brought applause, an interesting fact since the Thieu-Ky ticket is thought to have heavy support in this area.

Tay Ninh is the center of South Vietnam's Cao Dai religion, a powerful sect whose support the government has been wooing.

But political analysts agree that the response of crowds to the speeches of candidates is no indication of how the election will turn out. In previous appearances, criticism of the government by the civilian candidates has brought applause, and in Ban Me Thuot Monday, a large group of soldiers applauded a criticism of the leaders of the armed forces.

In their trips so far, the civilian candidates have spoken to fewer than 20,000 persons. They will probably speak to 30,000 others before the Sept. 3 election. It is a minuscule proportion of the 5.85 million registered voters, about 80 per cent of whom are expected to vote.

Committee To Rehabilitate Sierra Life

BOISE (AP) — An attempt to put the Sierra Life Insurance Co. of Twin Falls back into a sound financial position is being carried out by a three-man committee, Idaho Insurance Commissioner John R. Blaine said Monday.

The company has been in the hands of the Idaho Department of Insurance since last May when a court order was obtained by the department.

The three-man committee consists of two members of the company's board of directors and a representative of the Department of Insurance.

Control of the company was deemed necessary, Blaine said, when the department learned Sierra Life "had acquired certain assets which were not admissible under the Idaho code."

The department also has found "excessive and unrealistic" expense items which could be reduced by about $250,000 a year, Blaine said.

"The committee has been actively and diligently working to exchange the non-admitted assets for assets that would satisfy the Idaho statutes," Blaine said.

"The people of the state of Idaho should benefit if this company can be placed back into a sound financial position..."

Farmers Cut Milk Price For Pet Food

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Farmers seeking higher profits opened a store Monday to sell milk—just plain, ordinary milk—but they called it pet food.

The farmers, selling milk at below state-regulated prices, are laughing. Customers, who are saving 29 cents a gallon, are smiling. But the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission is frowning. The commission has set prices at $1.08 per gallon for the consumer. The store, in its first day, did a brisk business. A couple of dozen customers were lined up before the doors opened.

Ernest Hayes, head of the United Dairy Farmers which is behind the operation, said with a grin: "We would like the commission to investigate to see that we're doing the right thing for the pets."

An early customer, Phyllis Kernick of suburban Penn Hills, said: "I have two cats, two dogs and six kids at home. You can guess who's going to get the milk."

Also in line to buy milk at 79 cents a gallon were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Stoehr, parents of five, who own a dog and puppies.

"I'll taste it," said Mrs. Stoehr. "If it tastes all right to me, I don't know why we shouldn't use it for the family to drink." A sign on the wall says: "This milk is sold for pets, and the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission does not allow it to be sold for human consumption."

Another says: "This is the same quality Pennsylvania farm fresh milk as you buy in your stores. The only difference is it is fresher and better. Treat your pets as you treat yourself."

The farmers say they get 50 to 55 cents a gallon for milk sold under the "pet food" plan while milk sold elsewhere, some of which goes into cheese and butter, returns only 40 cents a gallon.

So far, the milk commission hasn't said what, if anything, it's going to do.

Liability

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Pennsylvania House of Representatives has approved a bill that could hold rainmakers liable for damages caused by too much or too little rain.

The bill approved Monday requires that commercial cloud seeders be licensed and post at least $100,000 bond.

The bill has the support of farmers in south-central Pennsylvania, where cloud seeding operations have taken place in past years.

Meany Calls For Campaign By Labor

NEW YORK (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany has called for a campaign by labor to seek nationalization of any business or industry whose workers are not permitted to strike because of the public interest involved.

"No one should get a private profit out of the operation of a business that cannot be struck," he said Monday at the convention of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union. Meany also said that the future of collective bargaining will be threatened if workers are not given a right to strike.

"The bargaining table has no meaning unless you have the right to walk out," Meany said. "No labor leader likes a strike, but if you don't have that right and don't bring it to the table, then you have no bargaining power."

Meany referred specifically to the current railroad dispute involving 137,000 members of shop craft unions.

Meany proposed that labor should see to it that any business claiming it should not be struck because of the public interest must "become publicly owned and taken out of private hands."

Federal Food Stamp Plan Nearing Termination Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal food stamp program is approaching another termination date amid reports pressures are building to break a Senate-House deadlock blocking its extension.

Actually the program in which two million needy Americans participate is living on borrowed time now.

Authority to appropriate money for the program, started in 1964 to help the needy get more food, expired June 30 but Congress granted stop-gap approval for it to continue at present levels through this month.

But the dispute between the House and Senate over proposals to extend its life has not been settled.

The House version would provide a $195 million ceiling for the year which started July 1. The Senate set this at $200 million, then provided $225 million for the second year and $250 million for the third. These amounts would be subject to later appropriations.

Under the program, eligible families can exchange money they normally spend for food on an allotment of coupons, which can be used to purchase more food than their original cash would. The stamps do not permit purchase of exotic foods, tobacco or alcoholic beverages.

Thus far there have been only two meetings of the House-Senate conference committee named to iron out differences in the two versions of the extension measure.

Now, however, some members of Congress with food stamp plans operating in their districts have started writing to Chairman W. R. Poage, D-Tex., of the House Agriculture Committee, calling for action. The program is in effect in 42 states and the District of Columbia.

Poage said earlier he felt a compromise 18-month extension might settle the time limit dispute. But there are reports now a two-year extension is getting more backing.

In the two sessions between House-Senate conferees, the Senate members reportedly agreed to a down-the-middle split while House members held firm for one year.

If the authorization dispute is not settled by the end of this month, continuation of the program would be dependent upon Congress passing another temporary measure so it could keep going at the same spending rate set for the last fiscal year.

While the House-Senate dispute remained stalemated, the federal anti-poverty agency proposed a food stamp program of its own—using trading stamps offered by grocery stores.

Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, has asked trading stamp companies to allow shoppers throughout the United States to turn their stamps over to needy people.

Grocery Store Firebombing Try Fizzles

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A firebombing attempt at a white-owned grocery store in a Negro neighborhood fizzled early today. Otherwise, it was quiet in this racially tense capital city as police saturated a Negro section.

Police said five Negroes, armed with brass knuckles and switchblade knives, were arrested during the night.

A gallon jug of gasoline was hurled against the A&B Culmore grocery store in the Eden Park section, police said, but did not break and its burning wick caused only slight damage.

A dozen fires were started Sunday night, most of them by homemade gasoline bombs. All were discovered early and caused little damage.

577 LYNWOOD PHONE 733-7777

WASHINGTON — These days, as always, I am bemused by the cries of the professional libertarians from the Civil Liberties Union and their unwanted allies, the legal quacks of the New Left, demanding "fair play" for Negro agitators nabbed in the act of preaching armed insurrection. Let the record show, your honor, that if these creeps get much more "fair play," the law-abiding community, both white and black, will be forced to emigrate to Antarctica and raise penguins. We may all be equal, although I have reservations concerning a managing editor I once suffered, but to paraphrase George Orwell, some philosophies are more equal than others. That is to say, there are glaring differences in the treatment accorded apostles of two political gangs I find equally despi-cable — the Far Left and the Far Right. If you are of the Far Left, you can bank on sympathy, concern and bail money from the pseudo libertarians. If you are the Far Right, you are dismissed as a Fascist and sentence pronounced forthwith.

This would be merely unfortunate if judgment were the act only of a confused gaggle of bleeding hearts. But the case of Rap Brown, the hit-and-run revolutionist who plumps for a world dictatorship of the Negro, offers sordid evidence that this discrimination is a policy of our assorted rulers.

A warrant was issued for Brown's arrest after an inflammatory speech by that more-or-less worthy was followed by a riot in Cambridge, Md. Brown was arrested by the FBI on July 26 at National Airport on a Federal fugitive warrant. In Federal court in Alexandria, Va., the U. S. district attorney's office withdrew the federal charge and Alexandria police swore out another fugitive warrant. The judge set Brown's bail at $10,000 pending an extradition hearing Aug. 22. Brown was bailed out after a 10 hour stay in the calaboose.

That night Brown told an audience in an Episcopal church here to shoot their white enemies and added that he might "shoot Lady Bird." Not a policeman's hand was laid on him, although inciting to riot and threatening assassination are crimes even in the District of Columbia.

Now come with me back through the years to Oct. 1, 1962. Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, a full-time right winger, was arrested by federal troops on a charge of inciting to riot at 11 a.m. He was given into the custody of U. S. marshals and taken to the Federal Building at Oxford, where he waived a hearing and bond was set at $100,000. Yes sir, 100,000 clams.

Three hours later, Walker was removed to the Federal Hospital for the Criminal Insane in Springfield by order of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. No one told him where he was being taken and he was held incommunicado. (Brown was surrounded by lawyers upon his arrival at Alexandria court). On Oct. 2, Walker was committed for psychiatric observation on the basis of evaluation of newspaper and radio reports by a government psychiatrist named Charles E. Smith. Bail for Walker was available on Oct. 1, a few hours after his arrest, but it was not accepted until Oct. 6, after the general had been confined for six days in a maximum security cell.

Comment here would be superfluous. But perhaps Bobby Kennedy, who was Attorney General in 1962, and Lyndon Johnson, who was running the show from the White House last July 26, can explain this startling paradox which I trust is as confused — and suspicious — as I am.

"Living Conditions Don't Seem To Be Intolerable Here; There Haven't Been Any Riots Here Yet"

BARRY GOLDWATER The Thinking Turns Dangerous

Some of America's most respected and renowned commentators, not to mention an army of "off-the-record" government sources, are seriously and dangerously misinterpreting the Soviet attitude toward violence in this hemisphere. They are saying that the Soviet Union took a definite position against violence in North and South America at the recent Havana conference of revolutionaries — including our own "delegate," Stokely Carmichael. As evidence, they cite the publication in official Soviet journals of such positions as that of the Chilean Communist Party which, the interpreters say, is clearly against violence and in favor of traditional political means to power. Nothing could be farther from the facts. The position of the Chilean party, as a thorough reading of their document shows, is simply that each Communist Party in each nation of the hemisphere should decide when to replace traditional politics with the politics of violence, subversion, guerrilla warfare, terrorism or whatever other revolutionary weapon is indicated.

WAYNE BRANDSTADT, M.D. Caesarean Risk

Q — I am 47 years old and in good health. I am expecting my first baby. Is there any danger in pregnancy at my age? Where can I get a good book about pregnancy? A — In women who are expecting their first child after they are 35, labor is likely to be prolonged and difficult. For this reason, most obstetricians advise that they have a Caesarean operation. Several books have been written to answer the many questions a woman may want to ask her doctor. One of the best is "Expectant Motherhood," by N. J. Eastman (Little, Brown and Co.), now in its fourth edition. A valuable feature of this book is that it explains away many groundless fears and superstitions connected with childbirth. Q — Is it possible to become pregnant while breast feeding a baby? Is it possible for a pregnant woman to have an operation without it hurting the child? A — It is possible but very rare for a woman who has not menstruated since her last baby was born, to become pregnant. This is especially true if she has not had to give the baby supplemental bottle feedings. Although it is preferable to postpone an operation until after delivery if possible, there is no special risk in performing a necessary operation at any stage of pregnancy, thanks to modern pre-operative care, wide choice of anesthetics and improved surgical techniques. Q — I have heard that some couples have incompatible blood types that make it impossible for them to have a child. My blood type is O and my husband's is AB. Could this be the reason we have not had any children? A — No. Incompatible blood types are no bar of pregnancy but incompatibility of Rh types may cause blood destruction in the newborn unless certain precautions are taken. Q — When my husband had mumps it affected one of his testicles. Will this prevent our having a child? A — No. Nature's factor of safety — two testicles instead of one — would leave your husband with normal sperm production unless there is some other cause of sperm deficiency.

JAMES MARLOW The Long Reach

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's plenty at home to use up their energy since the civil rights movement is bogged down, but some of its leaders are reaching way beyond civil rights for something to attack or denounce. Latest example: The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee—whose past and present leaders are a couple of Negro agitators—Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown—is now accusing the Jews of atrocities against the Arabs. Before that Dr. Martin Luther King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was denouncing American involvement in the Vietnamese war and calling this country "the greatest purveyor of violence in the world."

Age Of Science

"Progress" is a word which means many things to different people, but almost always it carries the connotation of something good, advancement toward a desirable goal. Not all progress, however, is good. This is undeniably the age of science. Few would deny that the progress of science in recent decades has demonstrably improved the standard of living. But many will argue that technological advance is a two-edged sword. There are undesirable side effects. Keeping the disadvantages of the side effects from overcoming the good aspects of scientific progress can be a frustrating assignment. At the moment, for instance, the nation finds itself in a critical battle against air pollution—which is a direct result of technological progress in industry and transportation. The problem is that scientific advances in those fields — and many others—are geared to the consumption of a particular task. The potential consequences of successfully completing that assignment are of lesser importance. It is difficult to fathom the rapid growth of scientific influences until one realizes that 90 per cent of all the scientists who have existed through all the ages are still living! All factors active in the scientific explosion indicate the phenomenon is still in its infant stages. Which simply means the marvels of today will seem insignificant compared to those of tomorrow. Man is learning more and more about how to control his environment—in fact, life itself. What he does with that knowledge will determine whether the versatile tools of science become the benefactors or scourges of their human creators. Only then will mankind have a worthwhile definition of this thing called progress.

The Public Mood

The hawks have been firm in their attitude toward Vietnam from the beginning. The doves have been equally adamant and convinced of the rightness of their position. But the thinking of the great mass of Americans has gravitated somewhere in between, or, if anything, has leaned slightly toward the hawkish side in the belief that the President—and his generals—in the field know more about the situation than anybody else. Until recently, there has been a remarkable absence of hardening of attitude among the general public, or polarization at either extreme of the hawk-dove spectrum. Most people have remained flexible, trustfully accepting the decisions of the administration and the military, yet willing to listen to any reasonable alternatives argued by opponents of the war. However, as the war continues into its third year of heavy American involvement, as the cost of that involvement mounts, as it touches the sons and brothers and fathers of more and more families and begins to hit hard at the pocketbooks of all Americans, and especially as it continues to produce no visible results, there are signs that war weariness is setting in. When some congressmen who have heretofore supported the war openly suggest that we wash our hands of

Views Of Others Opinions Of Guest Editors

ISRAEL IN JERUSALEM The State Department is formally correct in refusing to recognize Israel's unilateral annexation of the formerly Jordanian part of Jerusalem. This and all other territorial questions are properly matters to be resolved as part of a general settlement between Israel and the Arab states. The fact cannot be ignored, however, that to date the Arab states adamantly refuse to negotiate such a settlement as they have refused for the past 19 years. Special emotional considerations, together with the enhanced influence of the hard-liners in Israel's government, induced the Israelis not to wait any longer, as they would have been wise to do. Unfortunately, annexation, however understandable, may complicate the problem of obtaining a settlement. The record that Israel makes in administering the city will weigh heavily in the outcome. Full freedom of access by all faiths to all the holy places has been pledged, and the manner in which these commitments are carried out will be closely watched. By conducting itself as a trustee rather than as a conqueror, Israel can perhaps mitigate the effects of its unilateral action. Certainly the spectacle of Arabs and Jews moving freely across the old demarcation line, and even fraternizing in the streets, is a startling contrast to the hatred and bigotry that marked Jordan's administration of the old city. When barriers of hostility come down, the fact that national fiat rather than international agreement accomplished it tends to be subordinated to rejoicing in the result. Unfortunately it is a fact of history that international initiative has failed to achieve the ideal status for Jerusalem, that of an international city.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

ART BUCHWALD Money Can Buy Happiness—Oh?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: While Art Buchwald is taking a few days off, a blue ribbon panel has selected some of his articles from the past that it insists the public would want to read again—at least that's what Buchwald told us.) WASHINGTON—All my life I've been told you can't buy happiness and I must say I used to believe it. But lately I've changed my mind. Money can buy happiness and usually does. Take my friends, the Schmicks. They're poor, honest, hard-working people. All they have is each other and they're miserable. Then take my friends, the Smugs—he's a banker, she inherited money from her father. They live on Park Ave., in the winter and Westhampton in the summer, unless they go abroad. Everything they do costs money, and you won't find two happier people anywhere. The Schmicks live in a small apartment in Brooklyn in the winter, and they vacation in the same small apartment in Brooklyn in the summer. When they really get desperate, they go to Far Rockaway for a swim. Once Schmick said to me, "We may not have all the comforts and pleasures of the rich, but do you think that makes us unhappy? You bet your sweet life it does." The Smugs, on the other hand, wouldn't have it any other way. Smug told me one night when he had a few drinks too many, "You know, when I was young I was in love with a poor girl who worked as a secretary. I was poor, too, and we were going to get married. Then I met my wife, who was rich, so I decided to marry her. You know something? I bumped into that poor girl a few weeks ago and she had gone all to pieces. It takes money for a woman to keep looking young. I was sure glad I married the rich girl." The Smugs are not happy all the time. Sometimes they fight and then Mrs. Smug flies off to California to visit friends. But the Schmicks fight, too. Only when they get into a quarrel, Mrs. Schmick has no place to go, so they yell at each other until the police come. Last year the Schmicks were fined $30 for disturbing the peace. The Smugs entertain a lot of important and influential people who accept their invitations because the Smugs are rich. The Schmicks can only afford to entertain relatives they don't like, who complain afterward about the food and liquor. When it comes to children, the Smugs and Schmicks also differ. Smug told me, "We have two children. We've given them the best of everything. Private schools, riding lessons, tennis lessons, catered parties—we've bought everything for them that money will buy and they're smart, happy, contented children." Schmick, on the other hand, told me, "We haven't been able to give our children anything but love and devotion—and they hate us." Smug told me, "I've tried to impress on the children the importance of being rich and the great benefits that can be derived from having money. They know exactly what I'm talking about and they respect me for my wisdom." Schmick said, "I tell my kids money isn't everything. There are some values in life that are much more important, such as love, friendship and family. And you know what they do? They go around the neighborhood and tell everyone, 'Our pop is nuts.'"

He called for a coalition of the antiwar and civil rights forces. In a recent letter SNCC charged Zionists seized Palestine through terror, force and massacres. The publication carried two photographs purporting to show massacres in the Gaza strip in 1956. SNCC denies it's anti-Semitic. That's not the way Irwin Shulman, southeastern director of the Anti-Defamation League, sees it. He says the whole business smacks of anti-Semitism. He said the published photographs previously appeared in Arab propaganda publications. And, he said, the SNCC charges represent the total propaganda line taken by the Arabs—with some changes in which, he said, reflect Soviet views. Ralph Featherston, SNCC's program director, said his organization had received no financial help from the Arabs. But it does need financial help. The newsletter appealed for funds in an announcement saying: "Help, help, we're sinking fast." It would be interesting to know what kind of financial shape King's organization is in. About a month after his attack on the war his executive assistant, The Rev. Andrew J. Young, said, "I think we are in a rather difficult period now. But we are not worried. We are getting along." After King's attack on the war, Freedom House—an organization whose directors in-

DEAR ABBY: I was out at my father's car the other day when I saw a paperback book on the floor, face down. I picked it up without looking at the front, and started reading it. It was FILTHY!
 I was doing an errand for my father at the time. I went back into the house as if nothing happened.
 Abby, I can't look at my father without almost hating him. Should I tell my mother? I have tried to reason with myself, but it doesn't work. What should I do? You are the only one I can turn to. Please answer soon as I've worried myself nearly sick.

DEAR BUSY: I can't think of ANYTHING a family cannot do for themselves if they have to (witness, motherless homes.) All right, let me put it this way, "A wife—as a gift of love—should keep her husband's clothes in shape."

DEAR ABBY: A most heart-breaking incident has occurred in my life and I am puzzled as to the right thing for me to do—My son and his wife have separated. They have one child. And unlike most stories you hear about mothers-in-law, I was very fond of my daughter-in-law and she of me.

Inasmuch as her parents lived out of state, I always took care of my little grandson on those occasions when my daughter-in-law wanted a free afternoon. Naturally, I love this child deeply.

Would it be right for me to let her know that I shall continue to help her in this way whenever she needs me? Of course I would not speak of her troubles with my son, nor would I take sides. I have been advised to steer clear of her entirely. What do you say?

BOISE (AP) — Revision of Idaho public assistance laws to permit welfare clients to earn additional funds was proposed Tuesday by Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy.
 In a letter to the Idaho Legislative Council's fiscal and budget committee, Murphy said such procedure might stimulate persons on public assistance to seek available employment.
 "There are many recipients of public assistance," he said, "who would be willing to work if they could but become trained and obtain a job."

Case Says War Involvement Has Trapped Administration

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case suggested today the heavy U.S. military involvement in Vietnam has so trapped the Johnson administration that the Saigon government can ignore demands for basic civil reforms.
 Case, a New Jersey Republican and a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said plans to dispatch 45,000 additional U.S. troops emphasize that "American prestige is so deeply involved that we can't withdraw and the South Vietnamese, knowing this, feel free to ignore our requirements."
 "I am convinced that the American people will not accept such a position," he said. "Yet the President's decision to send more troops is hard to reconcile with any conclusion other than that the administration has allowed itself to be trapped into this intolerable dilemma."

 Case's views were in a prepared Senate speech.
 President Johnson said again Monday U.S. goals in the war are limited to stopping aggression "to assure a small and struggling nation the chance to chart its own future in freedom."
 His remarks came at a White House ceremony at which he presented a Medal of Honor to Marine Gunner Sgt. Jimmie E. Howard for valor in Vietnam.
 Johnson made no reference to the Navy's earlier announcement that two of its attack planes were missing and presumed downed in Red China.
 That announcement also brought little comment from senators who last week complained that bombings within 10 miles of the border were increasing the risk of Chinese intervention.
 But Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said the straying of the planes over Red Chinese soil "was most unfortunate and very ominous."
 "They're so sure China won't intervene," Fulbright said. "I don't know how they can be so sure when they shoot down warplanes of ours over their territory."
 Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said the encroachment on Communist China "illustrates to the risk of wider war, which we're continually assured we do not seek."
 Case said in his speech the administration has failed to bring about "those social and political changes in South Vietnam and those reforms in the South Vietnamese government and military establishment without which victory is impossible."
 Unless President Johnson produces some credible evidence of progress toward those goals, he said, "We shall be unable to avoid the conclusion that the task is beyond the capacity of his administration."
 Case said the administration has "oversold" South Vietnam's Sept. 3 elections, which he said have taken on "the appearance of travesty" instead of promising "a significant step toward nationhood."
 Despite contentions by some of Johnson's senatorial critics that the balloting may be rigged by the Saigon military regime, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he hopes there will be no American interference in the elections.

Rebels From Biafra Take Town Of Ore

By ARNOLD ZETTLIN
LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Biafran rebels from Eastern Nigeria have thrust 150 miles west of their border to capture the town of Ore only 100 miles from Lagos, reports from the area said today.
 Lt. Col. C. Odumegwu Ojukwu, the rebel leader, said he was ready to talk peace if the Nigerian federal government was ready to grant Biafra its independence, the Biafran Radio announced.
 Ojukwu declared the oil-rich Eastern region independent on May 30 after months of bitter feuding with the federal government led by Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon.
 Recently pro-Biafran rebels took control of Nigeria's Midwest region, the nation's other oil producer, threatening the dissolution of Africa's most populous state.
 At least 1,000 men were said to have fought at Ore, 20 miles inside Nigeria's Western region. The rebels advanced on the town last week but the Lagos government claimed then they were beaten back.

Negro Slumdwellers Shown As Alienated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Senate committees heard big-city Negro slumdwellers pictured as increasingly alienated from the overall community and growingly suspicious of whites.
 "We have developed a society where it is possible for a Negro child raised in the heart of a large city to reach adolescence without ever having known a white person of his own age," U.S. Civil Rights Commissioner Frankie Freeman told a Senate housing subcommittee Monday.
 "In short," Mrs. Freeman added, "we have developed a society that is rapidly being divided into opposite camps, hostile and mistrustful of each other."
 The Senate Judiciary Committee was told meanwhile that Negroes feel "they are being conned" or swindled by empty promises. They're no longer satisfied, said Dr. Nathan E. Cohen of the University of California at Los Angeles, by "yo-yo programs" aimed at cooling summer tensions.
 Cohen, who headed a two-year UCLA study of the causes of the 1965 Watts riots, testified as the Judiciary Committee resumed hearings on a House-passed bill that would make it a federal crime to cross a state line to incite rioting.
 Cohen said the conditions causing riots won't be solved by "preventing someone from going from one community to another. If all the emphasis is placed on policing, without getting at the causes, we are in trouble."
 Two Cabinet members and a civil rights leader joined Mrs. Freeman in urging support for

Astros Tromp First Place Cards 11-4

HOUSTON (AP) — Norm Miller's third double of the game keyed a five-run burst in the seventh inning as the Houston Astros trampled St. Louis' National League leaders 11-4 Monday night.

Miller, whose run-scoring double capped a three-run first inning sendoff, doubled and scored in the fourth before sending home the first run in the seventh with another two-base hit.

The Cards, who had an eight-game winning string snapped by the Astros Sunday, tied the score 3-3 in the second inning on Orlando Cepeda's double, two wild pitches by winner Wade Blasingame and a two-run homer by Ed Spiezio.

But Ron Brand's bunt single, after a double by Miller and a single by Bob Aspromonte in the fourth, sent Houston in front to stay.

The Astros added a run in the fifth on Joe Morgan's double and a single by Doug Rader, then wrapped it up in the seventh on three hits, two walks, a wild pitch, an error and an infield out.

Morton Leads Angels To 6-4 Triumph

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bubba Morton's pinch hit double sparked a three-run rally that lifted the California Angels to a 6-4 victory over the Cleveland Indians Monday night after both benches rushed out to stop a fight between Tony Horton and Angels' pitcher Jim Coates in the second inning.

Horton was thrown out of the game. He was hit on the helmet liner and started toward first base, then went after Coates and the two tangled near the pitchers' mound as both benches emptied.

The Indians had a 3-1 lead going into the fifth but California took a one-run edge when Morton, batting for Coates, doubled home Tom Satriano and Bobby Knoop. Jim Fregos's single scored Morton.

California added two more in the sixth off starter Steve Hargan on Knoop's single, scoring Bob Rodgers. Satriano, who singled, raced home when Chuck Hinton overran the ball in right field.

Ailment May Stop Palmer In Meet

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — A mysterious shoulder ailment cramped Arnold Palmer in the first round Monday of the 51st Pennsylvania Open Golf Championship as unknown Barry Masick took the lead with a par 71.

Palmer, making his first appearance in the tournament since he turned pro in 1954, staggered home with a 70- over par 75 on his home course, Laurel Valley Golf Club, and said he didn't know if he would be able to play in Tuesday's final round.

Palmer said he suffered a muscle spasm as he hit his drive on the 11th hole, one of seven he bogled.

Howard's Hit Gives Boston 6-5 Victory

BOSTON (AP) — Elston Howard's bases-loaded single in the ninth inning gave the streaking Boston Red Sox a 6-5 victory over the Washington Senators Monday night.

Howard's single to left center off reliever Darold Knowles after a pair of intentional walks had filled the bases, with one out — lifted the Red Sox to their fifth straight victory and the seventh in their last eight starts.

Jerry Adair opened the ninth with a double to left center and took third on Carl Yastrzemski's ground out. Knowles then walked George Scott and Reggie Smith intentionally, setting the stage for Howard's winning hit.

Mike Epstein's two-run homer in the eighth inning had lifted the Senators into a 5-5 deadlock after Boston came from behind with a three-run burst in the seventh.

Boston starter Jim Lonborg, seeking to become the major league's first 17-game winner, was lifted after surrendering a leadoff double by Frank Howard in the eighth.

Singles by Smith and Rico Petrocelli keyed a two-run second inning for the Red Sox and they moved in front in the seventh on Lonborg's single, an error by Washington starter Camillo Pascual, Yastrzemski's single, a sacrifice fly by Scott and a triple by Smith.

Fears Does Not Predict .500 Season For New Orleans Team

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — "Don't think we're going to have a .500 season or anything like that," cautions Tom Fears, whose New Orleans Saints have made National Football League history by winning two exhibition games.

"It's a tough league and tougher as you get closer to that opening game," said Fears. "The Saints upset the Pittsburgh Steelers—20-17 on rookie Charles Durkee's 37-yard field goal Saturday night. A week earlier, the new NFL team knocked off the St. Louis Cardinals."

No other NFL expansion team—Dallas, Minnesota or Atlanta—scored two exhibition victories in the initial season, let alone win two in a row.

"We started practice before everybody else," explains Fears. "I think we're in a little better shape than anybody else and we're a little further ahead at this time. But the rest of the teams will be overtaking us. I'm not being pessimistic, I'm just being a realist," added

Fears, the onetime Vince Lombardi assistant chosen to guide New Orleans in its formative years in the NFL.

However, Fears said his team is "just a step away from being a lot better ball club."

Gary Coozz had been under fire for poor performances in the first two Saints exhibition games but the Phi Beta Kappa quarterback from Virginia by way of the Baltimore Colts got the job done against the Steelers—a team Fears predicts will win its division title.

Cuozzo came off the bench to direct the Saints on three scoring drives against the Steelers, and Fears said his position "all along has been that he can do the job."

Fears also said he thought quarterback Gary Wood, who hurt his ankle just before the half, "handled it very well. He's a clever little fellow. His passing, I thought, was excellent and that 27-yard bootleg run he made for a touchdown was beautiful."

Tigers Feel This Is Good Time To Win

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers feel they couldn't find a better spot to start a winning streak than right now.

They face the league leading Minnesota Twins in five games in three days, starting with a doubleheader Tuesday. The Tigers are in fourth place in the jammed up American League race, only two games behind the twins.

"What this club needs," said

Tiger slugger Al Kaline, "is to win six or seven games in a row. We can't seem to get a good winning streak going. We win a couple, then lose one."

"If we could win about seven games straight, we'd be on our way. Nobody could catch us."

The Tigers have won two in a row, sweeping a Sunday doubleheader from Cleveland 4-2 and 4-0. Kaline hit two home runs but said he isn't feeling good at the plate.

"Maybe a day of rest will help," he said. "I can take some extra batting practice and get my thoughts back in order."

Detroit was off Monday. Six weeks back the Tigers won seven in a row but then lost the next seven.

"We've got a good chance," said shortstop Ray Oiler. "If we can just get a winning streak going. Beating Minnesota in this series would be great."

Manager May Smith said, "Sure, this is a big lift" after the twin victories Sunday. "But we'll be able to tell more about it by late Thursday afternoon."

The Twins were jolted by a 7-3 loss to the New York Yankees Sunday while Detroit, Boston and Chicago swept doubleheaders.

Earl Wilson and Mickey Lolich will pitch for the Tigers Tuesday against Dean Chance and Jim Kaat of the Twins. The Wednesday night line-up is Joe Sparna and Dave Wickersham against Jim Merritt and Mudcat Grant of Minnesota.

On Thursday, Denny McLain will pitch against Dave Boswell of the Twins.

Clemente Bats Pirates Past Chicago 5-1

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Roberto Clemente drove in four runs with a homer and singles as the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs 5-1 Monday night, extending their winning streak to five games.

Clemente's 18th homer came off loser Ferguson Jenkins, 15-10, in the third inning. Maury Wills and Matty Alou singled before Clemente's blast into the right field stands.

The 3-0 lead was all that Woody Fryman, 2-6, needed. After a scratch single in the first, Fryman held the Cubs hitless until the fifth. Roy Face finished up.

The Pirates added a single run in the sixth on Wills' ringle, moved to second when Alou was hit by a pitch and rambled home on Clemente's single. They tacked on another run in the sixth on Wills' run-scoring single.

Pirate second baseman Bill Mazeroski, who set a National League record by committing just eight errors in 957 chances last season, made three against the Cubs, two of them in one inning.

Third-seeded Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Jim Osborne, Honolulu, survived an early struggle for a straight set victory over Bill Cullen of West Point and Herb Fitzgibbon of Mohegan Lake, N.Y., 11-9, 6-4, 6-4.

Robinsons Rally Orioles Past A's 5-2

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Robinson boys, Frank and Brooks, each slammed a homer and knocked in two runs while leading the Baltimore Orioles to a 5-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics Monday night.

Frank, whose 24th homer scored the first Baltimore run in the fourth inning, doubled in the tie-breaker during a three-run eighth inning rally capped by Brooks' 17th homer.

The double was the third hit of the game for Frank, the American League's leading batter, and scored Paul Blair who had opened the inning with a triple off loser Chuck Dobson. Brooks homered off reliever Jack Aker.

Playing their first game under Luke Appling, who was named interim manager Sunday after Kansas City owner Charles O. Finley fired Alvin Dark, the A's broke a scoreless tie with two runs in the fourth off winner Gene Brabender, 3-3.

A's Vote Not To Retract Statement Accusing Boss Of Weakening Morale

By GORDON BEARD
BALTIMORE (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics held a clubhouse meeting Monday night and voted unanimously not to retract a statement which accused owner Charles O. Finley of undermining team morale.

The controversial club owner, who fired Kansas City Manager Alvin Dark early Sunday morning and handed first baseman Ken Harrelson his unconditional release Monday, told the players by telephone he was flying into Baltimore for a meeting Monday night.

The open feud between Finley and the Athletics came to a head after Finley suspended pitcher Lew Krausse last Friday for an alleged incident on a recent airline flight.

Dark was dismissed after the players met Saturday and released a statement which supported the manager and accused Finley of using an informant to spy on the team.

"We players feel that if Mr. Finley would give his fine coaching staff and excellent manager the authority they deserve, these problems would not exist," the statement said.

Harrelson criticized Finley for firing Dark, and the 25-year-old first baseman was promptly released.

The Athletics held another meeting prior to Monday night's game against the Baltimore Orioles, and pitcher Jack Aker, the team's player representative, issued a statement:

"Upon having the meeting, requested by Mr. Finley to discuss the possibility of retracting our original statement of Aug. 18, we the players of the Kansas City Athletics have voted to leave the statement as stated."

Finley, who telephoned from Chicago, talked first with interim Manager Luke Appling and then with Aker.

After the conversation, Aker met again with the players to decide whether the vote against retraction should be withheld from newsmen until meeting with Finley after he arrived in Baltimore. The players voted, again unanimously, to announce their decision immediately.

Aker said he had talked with Marvin Miller, executive director of the major league

Baseball Players Association, about the current problem but had not requested action.

Aker said the Krause incident, which he refused to expand upon, was "not the start" of the team's trouble but rather had "brought it into the open."

After reading the players' statement Saturday night, Finley said "this compels me to withhold the announcement of a two-year Dark contract until further consideration."

3 Fire Sub Pars At Sun Valley Meet

STUN VALLEY — Amateur Arnold Beebe, Blackfoot and pros Myron Tucker and Arnold Haneke, both Boise, were the only members of the 120 man field that beat par Monday in the opening half of the Sun Valley Pro Am Tournament.

Beebe's one-under-par 70 gave him the lead in the 9-9 handicap gross division and a two shot edge over Jon Molitor, Boise, and Glen Blakeley, Burley.

Tucker, unattached, since leaving Plantation Country Club, Boise, and Haneke, head pro at Hillcrest Country Club, had only one shot over Bill Mast, Plantation Country Club and Chuck Chronister, Crane Creek Country Club, Boise. Vern Burks, Rupert, was another shot back at 72.

In the best ball division, Chronister and Blackfoot pro Arnold Peterson led their four man amateur team to a tie at 126, 16 strokes under par. George McHale and his Burley team lodged a score of 127 1/2 in the double best ball affair.

In other amateur sweepstakes, Hap Miller, Sun Valley, and Ken Hultzing, Burley, tied in the 9-9 net division at 67. In the ten and under category, John OneNote, Sun Valley, took a three shot lead with a gross score of 75. Tied behind him were Karl Ferrin, Blackfoot, and Fred Harris, Elko, both at 78. LaMar Schoules, Pocatello, was the top in the net division with a 67.

The tournament will conclude with 18 holes Tuesday over the resort course.

Chicago Nips Yanks To Tie With Twins

CHICAGO (AP) — The charging Chicago White Sox, scoring three runs in the fourth inning on Rocky Colavito's two-run homer and a sacrifice fly by Ron Hansen, downed the New York Yankees 4-3 Monday night and climbed into a first place tie with idle Minnesota.

The victory was the third straight for the Sox and their sixth in the last eight games.

Rookie Steve Jones, sailing along with a one-hit shutout and a four-run lead, became wild in the sixth and needed help from relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm to record his first victory against one loss.

Chicago jumped ahead in the third on a single by Wayne Causey and a run-scoring double by Walt Williams. Pete Ward walked to open the fourth and scored on Colavito's eighth homer of the season and third since coming to the Sox.

After Colavito homered, Tommie Agee walked and went to third on an attempted pickoff by pitcher Al Downing. Hansen then delivered his sacrifice fly, Sox last week from Indianapolis scoring Agee.

Jones, who reported to the is, had held the Yankees to check on John Kennedy's infield single in the fifth and retired the first two batters he faced in the sixth.

Jones then walked Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone and gave up a run-scoring bloop single to Bill Robinson. Wilhelm took over, and yielded a two-run double to Charlie Smith before retiring Bob Tillman to end the inning.

Attempt Is Continuing At Reservoir

BOISE (AP) — An attempt to eliminate trash fish from the Big Anderson Ranch Reservoir on the Boise River by treating shoreline water is continuing, the Idaho Fish and Game Department said Monday.

"Anderson Ranch Reservoir is too big and has too much water to make total chemical treatment feasible," James F. Keating, Fishery Research supervisor, said.

He said it holds 10 times more water than Island Park Reservoir in Eastern Idaho, the largest body of water treated so far.

But Keating said control work along the shoreline, begun two years ago, is continuing at Anderson Ranch.

Workers last week dumped 650 gallons of chemical along 35 miles of shoreline, Keating said. Almost no dead trout were seen as a result, but Keating estimated that a million Squawfish fry and a few good sized Squawfish, Suckers and Shiners were killed.

The shoreline technique can be used, Keating said, because Squawfish lay their eggs 10 to 25 feet from the water's edge. The newly hatched fry are the targets of the chemicals.

Magazine Says Cowboys Will Be Top Pro Team

NEW YORK — The Dallas Cowboys will replace the Green Bay Packers as the top team in pro football, but there will be no surprises among the divisional winners in either league, Look Magazine predicted Monday.

Barring injuries or a call-up of military reserves, the forecast is for Dallas and Green Bay to meet again to decide who will represent the National Football League in the second Super Bowl to be played in Miami. This time it will be the Cowboys who ride south, the magazine said.

The shoot-out in the American Football League will pit the Buffalo Bills against the Kansas City Chiefs. The Bills are tabbed to go on to Florida where they will be ambushed by the Cowboys.

Delegates May Walk Out Of WBA Meeting

By RICHARD E. MEYER
Associated Press Writer

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Latin American delegates threatened to walk out of the 1967 World Boxing Association convention as it opened here Monday if they weren't treated "democratically."

Secretary Rodrigo Sanchez of the Panamanian Boxing Commission made the threat in an interview as resentment grew over American control of the WBA.

The Latins cited as an example the dethroning of heavy-weight champion Cassius Clay, who figured prominently in the convention's opening remarks.

In his welcoming address, said his action banning a Clay match with former champion Floyd Patterson four months ago in Las Vegas got overwhelming support.

WBA President Robert Evans said dethroning Clay was "the most outstanding thing we've done" this past year. The group took the action because Clay refused the military draft.

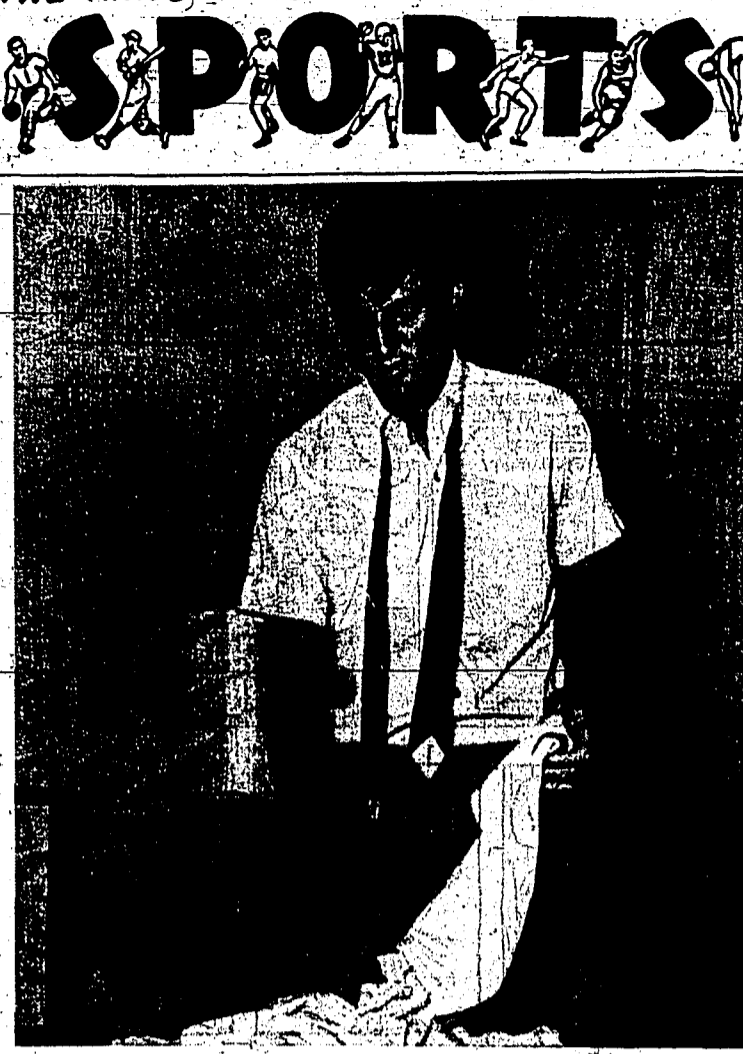

The Latin delegation said withdrawal of Clay's recognition as champion was railroaded through the WBA's executive committee.

"The same day Clay said 'No' in Houston, right then they revoked his title," said Dr. Alias Cordova, a general surgeon, snapping his fingers to emphasize. "They didn't ask anybody."

Cordova will oppose Evans for re-election. Sanchez said Cordova had complete support from the Latin American delegation, pledged support from the Oriental delegation and would pick up votes from American states, "at least those who think the WBA should not belong to the U.S. commissioners."

"I am a member of the WBA executive committee," he said, "and nobody asked me what I thought about Clay."

NEWCOMBE WINS
GLEN COVE, N.Y. (AP) — Wimbledon champion John Newcombe defeated his Australian Davis Cup teammate, Tony Roche, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 12-10, in resumption of a postponed final to win the Nassau Bowl Tennis Tournament of Champions Monday.

GETTING READY to leave is A's first baseman Ken Harrelson, who was given his unconditional release Monday by the owner of the Kansas City team, Charles O. Finley. Harrelson, a 25-year-old native of Savannah, Ga., had been critical of Finley's firing of manager Alvin Dark. (AP wirephoto)

August finds the pennant races still heating up, but to pro football's coaches it might just as well be October. Their season has started.

This is the time, in practice and pre-season games, when the rookies get their chance, and every coach is hoping to find someone like the best rookie who ever broke in, Gale Sayers.

The great Paul Hornung has called Sayers "the greatest back to come into the league in my time." Shifting into high gear, he's the fastest back around.

What did Sayers do that rookie year of 1965? He led the Bears in kickoff returns, rushing, scoring and pass receiving. He set an all-time NFL scoring record of 22 touchdowns!

Possibly the greatest game a rookie ever played came late in the season against San Francisco. Sayers set another NFL record by scoring 6 touchdowns, including gains of 50, 80 and 85 yards! . . . So look close, you coaches. Is there another Sayers waiting in the wings? . . . You'll find luxury waiting in the wings for you when you see the new 1967 Dodge and Chrysler in our show room now! And now's the time to get record-breaking savings during our annual clearance sale. Come in to

TRICK REFUSAL SETS DECLARER

The knockout team of four at the Fort Worth Regionals was won by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Brachman, Sidney Lazard and Paul Leavitt. During the course of the final match Minda (Mrs. Brachman) and Sidney co-operated on a surprisingly brilliant defense to beat a no-trump game.

Minda discarded the nine of clubs. South had seven tricks in and saw that if he could get to his hand with the king of clubs he would be able to make the ninth trick with his ace of diamonds. He proceeded to play the ace and another spade.

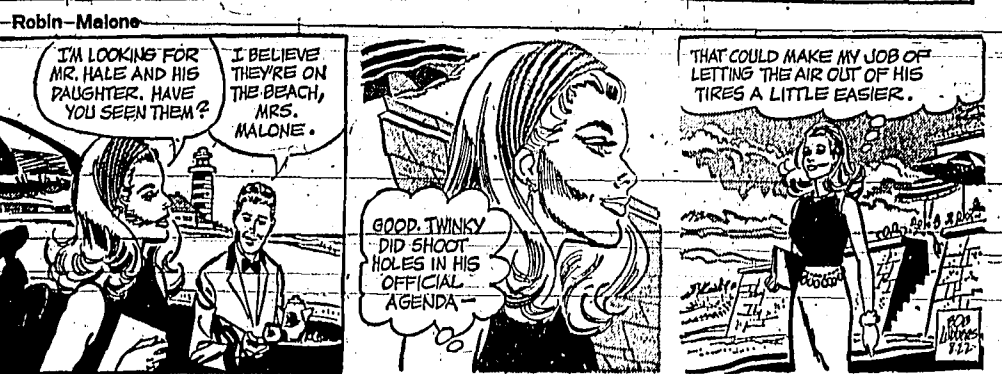

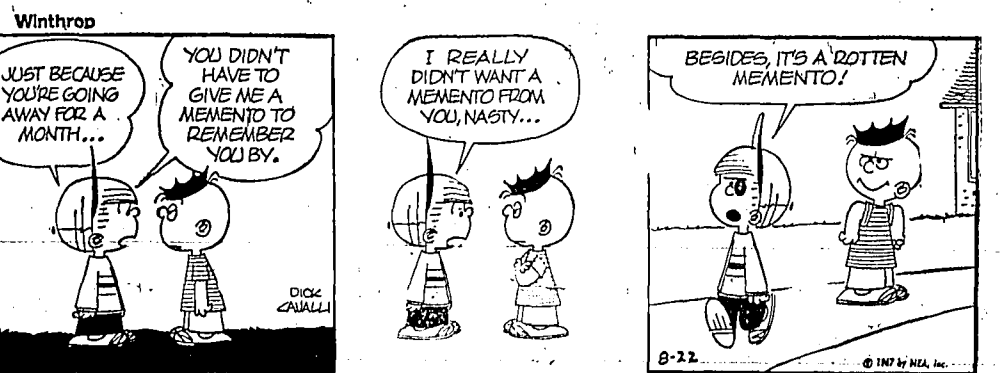

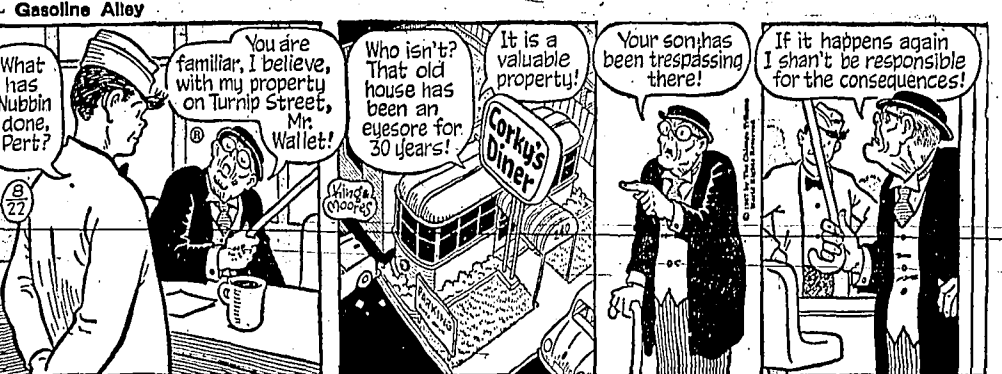

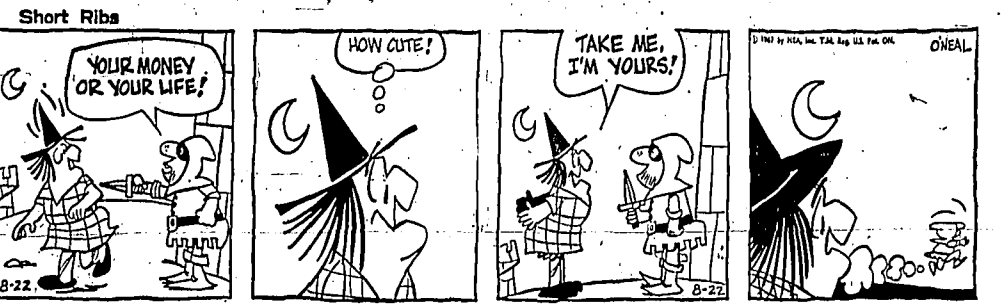

If Minda had been the least bit careless she would have cashed two spade tricks. Then she would have to lead a club and declarer would have his contract. Minda decided that this play was not going to come off. She dropped her eight of spades under the ace and her deuce of spades under the three spot. South was still in dummy.

He led the five of clubs, Sidney covered with the six and now the wisdom of the early discard of the nine became apparent. Declarer ducked in the hope that Minda would have to win the trick but she was able to lose this trick to her partner and they made the rest of the tricks.

Minda accepted congratulations for her spade play but said that her nine of clubs play had just been a signal and not the start of a whole plan of ducking.

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South

A Bit Of Polish, And He'll Shine!

Dear Ele: Bill's a real sweet guy, but every time he comes to pick me up at my house, he doesn't even help me on with my coat! It's very embarrassing for me, especially in front of my parents. My mother has taken me aside many times and discussed Bill's poor manners. For his own sake and mine I've tried to put manners on him, but nothing has worked. Any suggestions?—Beth.

Dear Beth: If you've tried to do the job with hints, forget it. When a boy's been reared in a mannerless home, you have to cram 15 years into a matter of months and that takes direct action. Tell him straight out: "I care enormously what people think of you. In my world a guy who doesn't open doors, help a girl with wraps, etc., is cut down as rude and lacking class. Since you're so kind naturally, I know it won't go against your principles if I point out a few things. Helping a girl on with her coat, for instance, really is appreciated, because it's hard to reach back, and..."—Ele.

HE HAS HIS PRIDE!
Dear Walt: I was going (sort of) with a girl from January through March. Then things started cooling off. I had lots of track practice, Easter break kept us apart, then I got the flu and when I got back to school there was lots to catch up on. In May I realized that I could have done more to keep in touch, so I phoned the girl and said so. She said "Oh, that's OK. I've been dating lots of other guys, but we'll still be friends!" and hung up!

I feel that a guy has to keep some kind of dignity about him, and after such a humble role on the phone, I feel that if I don't demand an apology from her before I display any more interest, well, I'll be just a doormat. Right? Wrong? (I miss her awfully!)—Sid.

Dear Sid: Pride is lousy company. You heard the cold ring of it once when the girl tossed that contrived "I'm not gathering dust while you neglect me" smile.

Dear C.C.: Yes! But we don't know the complications. Is your family desperate for money? Does the baby-sitting income help pay the bills? If so, there's an understandable reason for your mom's urgency. Perhaps you could find a weekend job clerking or tutoring and replace the baby-sitting loot with money earned doing something you like better. But if money isn't the prime motive, a talk with dad is overdue. Pulling you out of church to help a pal is pushing parental prerogatives!—Ele and Walt.

There were any number of ways for declarer to make his contract against any line of defense whatsoever. The line he took gave Minda a chance to refuse to win the wrong trick.

South won the spade lead with his king and led a heart toward dummy. Minda took her ace (she had no option) and led the ten of spades. South won with dummy's jack and cashed the king, queen and jack of diamonds and the king of hearts.

Reuther Seeks Support For Strike

By A. F. MAHAN
 FLINT, Mich. (AP)—With other United Auto Workers leaders claiming the Big Three automakers are pushing them toward a strike, Union President Walter P. Reuther is seeking support among members for just such an eventuality.

Bargaining continued in its seventh week in Detroit on contracts to replace three-year pacts which run out in 16 days at General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp.

Both sides agree only minor progress has been made thus far, with none in economic areas. The union is clamoring for counteroffers to its demands that include a big wage increase and a guaranteed annual income.

Reuther and UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock today address rallies called for Flint's 70,000 General Motors hourly rated workers.

Their appearance was billed as one to report on negotiations, which the union contends the companies are letting drag with strike-threatening slowness.

But Reuther and Woodcock also are to ask for overwhelming approval of a strike, if and when negotiators decide one is necessary, to win what Reuther says is his union's "longest and most ambitious list" of demands.

UAW members in the Flint area vote Wednesday and Thursday. Unless results are different from those of past years and those already in this time, strike authorization will get lopsided approval.

Votes Monday at two Ford local unions favored strike authorization 2,869 to 74. Two Chrysler locals which reported last week gave approval by about the same ratio.

GM, Ford and Chrysler members have been told to have results into UAW headquarters by Friday.

Woodcock, also the union's GM director, and Ken Banjon, UAW Ford chief, accused the companies Monday of apparently being determined to force a strike through inaction.

Douglas Fraser, leader of the union's bargaining team at Chrysler, said that if reports published Sunday in Detroit are true then "the companies deliberately are trying to provoke a strike."

The report was that the companies may change tactics this time around, delaying an economic counteroffer until after the union has picked a target company.

None of the companies would confirm or deny the report.

The UAW has some 650,000 members employed in Big Three plants across the nation. The Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates the average hourly wage in the auto industry is $3.41.

AMERICAN MOTORS today unveiled this sporty-new car named the Javelin, which it hopes will reverse the downward trend of its auto sales. It has virtually the same appearance and specifications as the Ford Mustang and the Chevrolet Camaro with which it will do battle in the 1968 specialty car sales market. Prices were not announced but indications were that Javelin would be the lowest priced car in its field. (AP wirephoto)

American Motors Shows Sporty Car

By CHARLES C. CAIN
 AP, Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—American Motors today takes the wraps off a sporty, new car which it hopes will reverse the downward trend of its auto sales.

The newcomer, named the Javelin, has virtually the same appearance and specifications as the Ford Mustang and Chevrolet Camaro with which it will do battle in the 1968 car sales market. Prices were not announced but indications were that Javelin would be the lowest priced car in its field.

AMC officials told newsmen at a national press preview Monday night that they were confident AMC, fourth largest of the nation's automakers, would do better in 1968. The firm's sales sagged in 1967 and it went deep into the red.

The two-door hardtop Javelin, rushed through in a crash program by AMC engineers and stylists, was expected to be the answer to critics who said AMC's products had too much of the "granny look."

Said William S. Pickett, AMC vice president for sales, "This will be the kind of a car granny will want to drive but her grandchildren will be around borrowing it from her. It is youthful and peppy."

The AMC 1968 preview is the first held by any U.S. auto company.

Board Chairman Roy Chapin Jr., confirmed that the cars would carry a higher price tag in 1968 than they did a year ago. He blamed the boosts on increased costs of safety items, smog preventive devices and increased labor and materials costs.

Father Held On $50,000 Bail In Case

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP)—David Hoskins, who authorities said has admitted the shooting and arson that killed his wife and four young children, was being held today on $50,000 bail.

At Monday's hearing on an aggravated arson charge, Hoskins, 30, demanded a preliminary hearing, which was set for Sept. 7. Bond was not posted and the defendant was returned to Stearns County Jail.

John J. Flanagan, Hoskins' attorney, asked Municipal Judge Wendell Y. Henning to set bail at $5,000 because "it should be consistent with the offense."

County Atty. Paul J. Doerner asked for $100,000 bond, saying a grand jury called to consider the case "could return a true bill of first degree murder."

Hoskins, an active churchman who seemed to friends to be happily married, walked with slightly bowed head as he was transferred from the jail to the courtroom for Monday's hearing. In court, he stood straight with his tan shirt open at the collar and shirt sleeves rolled up two folds, while the arson charge was read.

He braced himself by holding a bannister with his left arm, still somewhat shaky from two .22-caliber gunshot wounds that authorities said were self-inflicted.

Valley District Has Lowest School Levy In District Four

EDEN-HAZELTON — There has been an over-all decrease in school levy of 5.75 mills, Dr. Tom Utterback, superintendent, reports.

School trustees of the Valley School District No. 262 certified the 1967-68 maintenance and operation levy at 29 mills, plant facility 2.5 mills and bond interest for a total of 31.5 mills. This is the lowest levy in District 4 and perhaps in the state, Dr. Utterback said. The 2.75 bond interest and redemption should approximately be terminated at the end of this school year.

School milk bid was accepted from Ida Gem Dairy. American Oil Co. was granted fuel oil bid of 11.13 cents per gallon and Floyd Brunson bid of $14.75 per ton for coal was accepted.

New playground equipment is being installed at Eden and Hazelton grade schools. The trustees expressed satisfaction with the progress of construction of the new music building.

Bob Brulotte, director of athletics, discussed the summer American Legion baseball program and discussed in depth the entire athletic program at a recent board meeting. He expressed satisfaction with the Universal Gym recently received.

This equipment will be used with physical education classes and after school for all boys interested in an overall body development program. Nine boys can work on this equipment at the same time. By alternating, 18 boys will be using the equipment at the same time. The old music quonset is being converted into a wrestling room.

Dr. Utterback said trustees were in accord on no mini-skirts for girls and no shaggy hair or beards for the boys.

The school lunch program will begin Aug. 28. Trustees toured the high school and expressed satisfaction in the over-all condition.

Dr. Utterback briefly indicated that Title I money from federal sources will in the future be allocated to the development of a "Library Learning Center" at the Valley High School.
