

Capitol Hill Tax Rebellion Staged Against Income Tax

By RICHARD P. POWERS
WASHINGTON (AP)—There's a tax rebellion underway on Capitol Hill.

It has nothing to do with President Johnson's request for a 10 per cent surtax on federal income taxes. This is a rebellion against a one per cent income tax levied by suburban Montgomery County, Md., where about 100 congressmen maintain their Washington-area homes.

Nearly all of them have ignored the new county income tax.

One who didn't ignore the levy is Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio. He took notice of it and refused to pay.

Some congressmen contend they are residents of the states they represent and pay income taxes to those states. It would be unfair, they say, to have to pay the income taxes levied by Montgomery County or, for that matter, by the states of Maryland and Virginia and the District of Columbia.

However, they do pay personal property and real estate taxes levied in their respective Washington-area jurisdictions. The Montgomery County tax was levied only for the last nine months of 1966. It was to be paid by "all residents." No other county in this immediate area yet levies an income tax.

Ashbrook says he filed a Montgomery County tax return, but sent no check. He estimates as many as three-quarters of his colleagues who live in the county have not even filed a return, much less paid the tax.

Under the law, said Douglas Dayhoff, county finance director, congressmen "are liable. Where there has been no change in the law, I feel we do have to collect."

He says he will seek full taxes from members who come from states with no income taxes, such as Ohio, and seek to collect a percentage from congressmen from states where the income tax is less than Maryland's.

Ashbrook believes, however, that as an Ohio resident he is not liable for either the Montgomery County or Maryland tax.

Although Dahoff is unmoved, there is no known effort among state officials in Maryland or Virginia or from District officials to force members to pay state or D. C. income taxes.

THIS PILE OF DEBRIS was a house trailer just a few minutes before this picture was taken. Driver of the trailerhouse and Ford pickup truck, Phillip Smith, Murray, Utah, and his wife were on the first day of a five-week vacation when their outfit was struck in the rear by a diesel truck driven by Leo Charles Blackwell, 38, Treynor, Iowa, Monday morning. This picture was taken by Mrs. Everett Savage, Times-News correspondent at Heyburn, who came by the site 14 miles east of Twin Falls on Interstate 80N, before the debris was cleared from the highway Monday night.

Drive Held

SAN ANTONIA, Tex. (AP)—A fund drive is under way to restore historic Hangar 9 at Brooks Air Force Base and name it for astronaut Edward H. White II who died in a fire aboard an Apollo spacecraft.

Hanger 9 is the last of those used at Brooks for pilot training during and just after World War I.

Motherhood Collides With School Board And Loses

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Stanley R. Duda, superintendent of the Chartiers Valley Schools, Motherhood collided with a school board—and lost.

Mrs. John Hill gave birth to her fourth child while on a sabbatical study leave. Monday night, she was fired from her teaching job.

"I was fired for being a mother," she said. "That's the only thing I can see I've done. They couldn't think of another reason." The story of how the 42-year-old elementary school music teacher gained a son and a master's degree, but lost her job, goes back to 1966.

In March, her school board granted her a sabbatical leave to study at Duquesne University the following school year at half-pay.

Then she started to gain weight. And, school officials said, she showed up for classes in loose-fitting clothes.

On June 10, she got a telephone call from her boss, Dr.

Fire Fighter's Death Is Probed

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The death of a 19-year-old fire fighter Monday in a Missoula hospital was being investigated today.

The youth, Gerald Chilini, Butte, Mont., became ill at the Trapper Peak fire in north Idaho Monday. He was first taken to a hospital in Bonners Ferry and later transferred to Missoula.

BACK INJURED

KIMBERLY — Virgil Durfee, district Brand Inspector, was released from the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Sunday after being hospitalized last week for treatment of a broken back received when his horse fell on him. He is expected to have to remain in a body cast for about three months.

Jury Declines To Indict George Ware

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Black Power disciple George Washington Ware was freed today — a week after his arrest on a state sedition charge.

The Davidson County Grand Jury declined to indict Ware, 27, a field worker for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

He was jailed Aug. 22 on a warrant sworn by two Nashville attorneys. The warrant accused him of committing sedition by saying that "black people should achieve power by any means necessary."

Ware could not be reached for comment. He has been free under $5,000 bond since last Friday.

A member of the grand jury told a newsman a "preponderance" of the 13 members was against indicting Ware.

Under Tennessee law, sedition is advocating the violent overthrow of the state or federal government, or belonging to any organization advocating such action.

Ware came to Nashville last week to teach at the Liberation School for young Negroes. This came shortly after he and former SNCC Chairman Stokely Carmichael returned from an unauthorized visit to Cuba.

As a result of that visit, the State Department revoked their passports.

State Rep. Charles Galbreath and attorney Jack Kershaw swore the warrant against Ware. Galbreath is a director of the American Civil Liberties Union; Kershaw is a former member of the White Citizens Council.

NEW YORK (AP) — Burton Silverman is en route to Moscow with hopes of renewing acquaintances with his old Brooklyn Heights neighbor, Emil Goldfus.

Goldfus is better known to the world as Col. Rudolf Abel, the Soviet master spy who was exchanged in 1962 for U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers.

"He was a fascinating man... even before I learned he was a spy," recalled Silverman Monday. Before Goldfus' true identity became known the two Brooklyn neighbors became fast friends.

Pretrial Talk Set On Asking Of 2 Newsmen

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A federal judge has scheduled a pretrial conference Sept. 4 on a request by two television newsmen that Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison be enjoined from harassing them because of their criticism of Garrison's Kennedy assassination probe.

U.S. Dist. Judge Alvin Rubin ruled Monday that the allegations by Walter Sheridan, an investigative reporter for the National Broadcasting Co., and Richard Townley of NBC's New Orleans affiliate, WDSU-TV, were sufficient to require a hearing.

The judge, at the same time, decided that Sheridan does not have to appear before the Orleans Parish grand jury, which is helping Garrison investigate what he claims was a plot hatched in New Orleans to kill President John F. Kennedy, who was slain Nov. 22, 1963 in Dallas, Tex.

He said if Sheridan was required to appear before the grand jury he would be forced to match legal wits with Garrison without an attorney.

Rubin, however, denied a request by Sheridan and Townley that Garrison be enjoined from prosecuting them on public bribery charges.

The two newsmen were accused by Garrison of attempting to get his assassination probe witnesses to change their testimony. Townley is also charged with intimidation of a state witness.

Wilson Stakes Prestige On Return To Economic Health

By RODNEY PINDER

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson staked his personal prestige today on Britain's return to economic health with a Cabinet shakeup in which he took the reins of the Department of Economic Affairs.

Wilson's goals are a cut in unemployment, a strong pound, and to wage restraints and a prosperous Britain hammering at the door of the European Common Market for admission.

Wilson also is acutely conscious of the disillusionment of voters weighed down by rising prices while wages are frozen in an attempt to curb domestic demand and bring the country's trade into balance.

Although the measures are showing signs of success, with the trade deficit halved last year and prospect of a small surplus this year, Wilson knows that he must soon offer the voters some light at the end of the tunnel or face trouble in the general election that must be held by the spring of 1971.

Emphasizing his Common Market drive was the dismissal of Douglas Jay, president of the Board of Trade and a staunch opponent of a Britain in Europe. Wilson brought into the Cabinet George Thomson and Anthony Crosland, both ardent Europeans.

In the main Cabinet changes, Peter Shore, 43, replaced Michael Stewart as head of the Economic Affairs Department under Wilson's supervision; Crosland, the former education minister, replaced Jay at the Board of Trade; Thomson replaced Herbert Bowden as commonwealth secretary, and Reginald Prentice, 44, replaced Arthur Bottomley as minister of overseas development.

He figures that, for the time being, such foreign headaches as Rhodesia, Aden, Hong Kong and Vietnam can take second place to the economy. It is also generally believed that Britain's application to join the Common Market will stand much more chance of success without the handicap of having to support a sickly pound sterling.

FAIR OPENS
BOISE (AP) — The Western Idaho Fair begins its 1966 run Tuesday on new fairgrounds and without the word "state" as part of its name.

Formerly called the Western Idaho State Fair, the "state" was dropped because the exposition is financed solely by Ada County. It did not receive state funds.

This year's fair will run seven days, two days longer than in the past.

The new fairgrounds are adjacent to U. S. Highway 20 just west of Boise. The old grounds adjacent to U. S. 30 were sold when an interstate highway spur slashed through them.

LOAN APPROVED
MOSCOW (AP) — Federal approval of a loan of $2,150,000 to finance construction of the University of Idaho's first high-rise dormitory was reported Tuesday by university officials.

The 11-story dormitory is the first unit in a proposed housing complex which eventually will accommodate 1,152 students.

The loan is being made by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. It will be repaid by revenue from dormitory rentals.

SWISHER SPEAKS
BOISE (AP) — A former Idaho legislator and candidate for governor Monday described American involvement in Vietnam as a blunder based on an ill-founded fear of communism.

Pocatello publisher Perry Swisher, a former Republican state senator and a 1966 independent candidate for governor, said the high cost of the war effort was draining funds from needed domestic projects, including irrigation of southern Idaho.

Jordan In Better Condition Than Foreseen After War

By DAVID LANCASHIRE
AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Jordan is in a state of suspense, as one official describes it, but it is in better condition than many foresaw two months ago after the Middle East war.

It faces crushing problems: It lost its richest land and its 28-plane air force. Its 58,000-man army was knocked out. It has 230,000 refugees to be fed and housed.

And if it becomes clear that Israel intends to keep all the Jordan-claimed territory west of the Jordan River, Arab political circles say, King Hussein's regime could face an upheaval.

There is evidence that Jordan is trying to prevent any efforts to explode armed resistance in the territory occupied by Israel despite Israeli contentions the government is inciting Arabs on the rich west bank to rebel.

Jordanian officials and Western diplomats here say there is no incitement and point out: Not one Israeli has been reported killed on the west bank since the Middle East war and no riots have erupted.

The Israelis have made no claims of arms being smuggled across the river, where secret crossings are easy and frequent.

Security sources said that Jordan arrested eight Syrian infiltrators who tried to slip into the occupied zone this month on a guerrilla raid against the Israelis.

One European diplomat oberved: "Jordan wants to keep the resistance passive."

It has reason for wanting quiet on the west bank. Chaos or terrorism, or Israeli reprisals that could follow an uprising, would send countless more refugees fleeing into eastern Jordan.

An Arab resistance campaign, the government calculates, would give Israel an excuse to refuse permission for the present refugees to return to their homes. Jordan hopes Israel can be persuaded to accept 150,000 or more.

Israel has balked at wholesale return of Arabs because of an exhortation by one government official for them to act as "a thorn in the side of Israel." Senior diplomats here note that this was an isolated statement, and they dismiss it as Arab rhetoric.

SITTING LEGS APART as he takes part in the conference of anti-Vietnam war groups is Black Power advocate H. Rap Brown. The meeting was held at the Overseas Press Club in Manhattan Monday. Johnson Unlikely To Convert Achievements Into Poll Support

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is unlikely to convert two major international achievements into massive support at the polls next year.

But both will help shape the lives and leisure of many Americans for years to come.

Earlier this summer, U.S. officials reached agreement to cut tariffs on thousands of items over a five-year period in return for cuts by other non-Communist nations.

And last weekend the United States agreed with nine leading industrial nations on a framework for creating new money to help pay for new trade.

Both moves have bipartisan support but lack massive voter attention given such questions as the Vietnam war and trouble in the cities.

Yet government officials consider them so important to the country's future that they've spent four to five years trying to resolve problems surrounding each.

President Johnson called last weekend's agreement "the greatest step-forward in world financial cooperation" in two decades and said it will advance the welfare of all Americans.

The reduction of tariffs and the means to finance more trade will mean more jobs for Americans, the administration contends.

The government estimates that every $1 billion in exports means 127,000 jobs for Americans. Government officials expect the successful round of tariff talks to increase exports although they hesitate to say by how much.

Foes of specific tariff cuts contend these could lead to increased imports which could affect some U.S. jobs.

With the machinery for monetary reform taking place, the non-Communist world is expected to have the money to pay for growing trade.

It took four years to draft the monetary reform outline which now must be approved by the International Monetary Fund and ratified by participating countries. Approval from 85 per

Man Injured In One-Car Crash

One man was slightly injured and damage estimated at $700 resulted to his automobile in a single car accident late Sunday one-quarter mile west of Curry on U.S. Highway 30.

Sheriff's officers said Michael J. Emerick, 21, 1136 Wilmore St., Twin Falls, escaped with minor injuries and was treated and released from Magic Valley Memorial Hospital.

His vehicle was passing another on the left side, officers said, when he pulled back into the right hand lane and lost control.

The vehicle swerved and skidded completely around in the highway, missing the car it had just passed and a large oncoming truck. The accident was reported at 11:10 p.m.

Open Housing March May Bring Unrest

By KEN HARTNETT
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — An organization of young Negroes plans to return tonight to the predominantly Polish South Side where an open-housing march Monday night brought out thousands of taunting, threatening whites.

One minor injury was reported during sporadic bottle and rock-throwing from white persons that shouted, "We want slaves!" Police estimated that 3,000 persons lined the route of march.

The police, equipped with riot and tear-gas guns, prevented any serious clashes between the whites and the 250 marchers, most of them members of the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Ten persons were arrested, including two juveniles.

The Rev. James E. Groppi, youth council adviser, said the marchers would return tonight and said Gov. Warren P. Knowles should summon the National Guard.

The Guard was called out last summer when the priest and the youth council marched in suburban Wauwatosa in protest against membership by public officials in all-white clubs, and was summoned earlier this month during rioting in the predominantly Negro inner core.

"This was a white riot," said Father Groppi. "That crowd was out of control. That disturbance of Third Street (the Negro riot) was nothing compared to this."

Gov. Wallace May Have Treatments

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Should Alabama Gov. Lurleen Wallace begin X-ray cancer treatments next month, the therapy will take three to six weeks to complete, physicians say.

Surgeons at the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute removed a lemon-size tumor and a section of the governor's colon July 10.

Returning Sept. 10 for a checkup, Mrs. Wallace, 40, probably will be an out-patient as doctors determine whether she should undergo precautionary X-ray treatment.

Rupert Man Is Shot In Mishap

SHOSHONE — Investigation is continuing into the accidental gunshot wound received by Ray Madisen, 47, Rupert, about 12:30 p.m. Sunday outside his car five miles west of Richfield.

State Patrolman Ron Eggleston, who investigated, said the shotgun accidentally discharged, striking Mr. Madisen in the back during a family argument. Mr. and Mrs. Madisen were outside the car and their three small children were inside the car at the time.

He was taken to St. Benedict's Hospital, Jerome, where he was treated and dismissed Sunday night.

Duke Will Be Glad To Host Love-In Again

WOBURN, England (AP) — The flower people—45,000 of them—grooved on joss sticks, rolled on the grass and got to do their thing all weekend long on the dream-deep lawns of stately Woburn Abbey. The duke dug it—at $2.80 a head.

With 10 per cent of the $70,000 profit from Britain's first mass love-in, the Duke of Bedford says he'll be glad to open his ancestral estate again next year to the hippies.

The duke turned to the flower power business over the long weekend as part of his relentless commercial campaign to pay off $16.8 million in death duties on the estate he inherited. Normally his customers are run-of-the-mill tourists, though he once was host to a paying nudist encampment.

The love-in crowd was smaller than expected—organizers had predicted 100,000—but they came painted, beaded and feathered to listen to continuous rock 'n' roll music, buy buttons and bells and make friends.

The love-in ended with the lawns strewn with champagne bottles, plastic cups, beer bot-les and soft drink cartons. But the duke was not perturbed.

The balance of the profit—after the duke's take—went to a company inappropriately called Four Square Ltd., formed three weeks ago to hold love-ins.

MR. AND MRS. CLAIR SEVERSON (Leedom photo)

Miss Crockett, Severson Say Wedding Vows

HANSEN — Christy Jewell Crockett, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Crockett and the late George Crockett, Hansen, became the bride of Clair Severson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Severson, Bonners Ferry, at evening rites held Aug. 5 at the Kimberly Christian Church. Howard Larsen officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her elder brother, Ivan Crockett, Loveland, Colo.

The bride was gowned in a floor-length A-line creation of white organza over satin featuring long lily point sleeves, a lightly fitted princess style bodice, a lace yoke styled high at the neckline and extending over the sleeves, and a border of lace at the hemline. A long lace train flowed gracefully from her shoulders held by a self-material bow. Her shoulder-length veil cascaded bouffantly from a jeweled crown enhanced with aurora borealis stones. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

An arch of lighted yellow tapers was on the altar, and spiral candelabra of lighted yellow tapers were at each side. A large bouquet of miniature gladioli and greenery was placed at one side of the altar and a bouquet was on the piano. Bouquets of the yellow gladioli and greenery were also tied in the center of the arch and candelabra.

Mrs. Charles Helman, Gardnerville, Nev., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jane Bennett, Parma, a college roommate; Susan Rosenbaum, Kimberly; and Mrs. Vyril Alcorn, Moscow.

Douglas Pendleton, Pocatello, was the bridegroom's attendant. Tim Hill, David Thomas, Shoshone, and Brian Crockett, Gardnerville, Nev., brother of the bride, were ushers.

Brian Crockett lighted the arch on the altar, and Kim Crockett and Kelly Crockett, Loveland, Colo., niece and nephew of the bride, lighted the spiral candelabra.

Stacy Crockett, flower girl, and Mitchell Crockett, ringbearer, Gardnerville, Nev., were also the niece and nephew of the bride.

A sextet, Donna Froehlich, Mrs. Terry Butler, Lou Ann Callen, Sylvia Freestone, Susan Rosenbaum and Christy Crockett sang, accompanied by Sam Kevan. Rev. Mr. Larsen sang, accompanied by Mr. Kevan. Sylvia Freestone was organist, and she and Mr. Kevan played duet prelude music and the wedding marches.

Mrs. Terry Butler registered guests. The table was covered with an embroidered cloth and guests used a long green plumbed quill pen.

Kathy Froehlich, Mrs. Tom Proctor, Hansen, and Mrs. Don Bryan, Twin Falls, arranged the gift tables. Carl Crockett and Judy Crockett, cousins of the bride, accepted the gifts from the guests.

A five-tiered white cake, decorated with yellow lilies and greenery and topped with a cluster of wedding bells, centered the reception table. A satin cloth with a floor-length organdy ruffled flounce covered the table.

A bouquet of yellow gladioli and Bells of Ireland flanked with lighted yellow tapers in green candelabra. A silver punch bowl completed table appointments.

Cake and punch were served by Mrs. Stoddard Jacobsen, Gardnerville, Nev., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Ivan Crockett, Loveland, Colo.; and Mrs. Brian Crockett, Gardnerville, Nev., sisters-in-law of the bride.

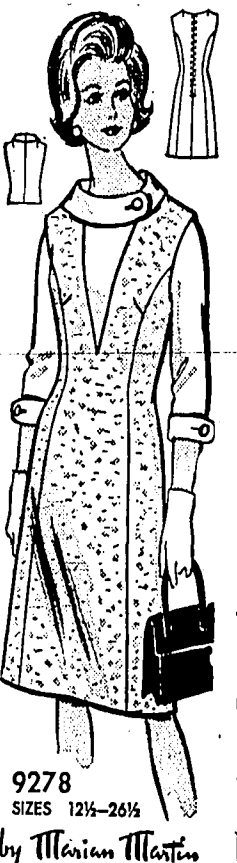

Ladies of the Christian Women's Fellowship assisted in serving at the reception.

The couple visited Glacier Park, Waterton Park, Calgary, Lake Louise and Banff, Canada, and Northern Idaho during their wedding trip.

The bride will continue her senior year studies at the state University at Pocatello where they will make their home.

Guests were present from Colorado, Nevada, Ketchum, Shoshone, Blackfoot, Bonners Ferry, Notus, Boise, Moscow, Parma and local towns.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The other evening I was ready to go out with my fiance when he asked me to please change my dress. He said he didn't like me in "pants." Abby, I wasn't wearing pants. I was wearing a divided skirt, called "culottes."

My mother said I couldn't go out with him unless I wore the culottes, so there I was, torn between my fiance and my mother.

Then my mother told my fiance he should apologize to me, and he said he didn't have anything to apologize for, that he should have the say in what I wear when I go out with him. My mother said after we were married maybe, but not until.

Well, my fiance left, and I haven't heard from him since and it's been four days. Abby, I love him and I'm worried, but I don't think I should break down and call him, do you? We've been engaged six months.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Call HIM and apologize. You don't say how old you are, but a woman who's been engaged for six months should be able to run her own love life without coaching from her mother. If your fiance accepts your apology, marry him before he changes his mind. A man who insists on wearing the pants in his family can't be all bad.

DEAR ABBY: When I was 13 years old, I and another girl were caught taking a wallet from the dime store. The manager caught us, made us give him our names and addresses and said he was going to call our parents. He told us never to set foot in his store again. We didn't. Fortunately he never called our parents. We promised ourselves we would never steal another thing, and we have kept that promise.

Years have passed and now our problem is, in filling out job applications, where it asks, "Have you ever been arrested?" Should we say YES or NO?

Please answer in your column as we are too ashamed to sign our names. Thank you.

TWO 18-YEAR-OLDS

DEAR TWO: You were only caught and warned: This is not the same as being "arrested." That you would ask, however, is a good sign.

DEAR ABBY: The letter you published from the mother of a retarded child moved me to tears, for my husband and I have also walked through this valley.

Our second child was severely retarded, and we were also crucified by thoughtless people.

One woman (a total stranger) came up to my door and said, "I hear you have a baby that's an idiot. I've never seen an idiot and I came to see yours."

I told her that my son was not on display to anyone of her cruel curiosity.

Although we were also blessed with two normal, brilliant children who have brought us much joy, our little retarded son has given us depth of love and understanding we never could have known without him.

What we considered at first "a cross to bear" has become one of life's richest blessings. If you feel that this will bring a little bit of courage to new parents of a retarded child, please print it.

Teacher Shortage Not Critical In Valley

Despite the much publicized shortage of teachers throughout the country, the situation does not appear to be critical in Magic Valley with most schools opening on schedule this week. A few will begin Sept. 5.

In Twin Falls however, the 269-strong teaching staff was just completed the week before school began, and it includes 49 new teachers.

"We've never been down to the wire like this," Ernest H. Ragland, superintendent, said, "and I think it indicates that we are not in a healthy position in Idaho." Generally, he said, the staff is completed in late June.

With 49 new teachers, representing a 20 per cent turnover, the Twin Falls school system recorded its highest percentage of new personnel in its history. Normal turnover is 15 per cent, Mr. Ragland said.

In most schools throughout the area, the teaching staff is complete, although music teachers seem to be in greater demand than supply, with two needed at the Cassia county school system and one at Gooding.

School administrators point out that in many cases, the shortage of teachers which normally would result from the fact that young people are not going into the profession in sufficient numbers to fill the demand is offset by married women, often referred to as "captive" teachers.

These women, usually middle-aged and with permanent homes in the community, have filled the gap in many schools. At Shoshone, where there were seven replacements this year in the 30-member staff, Supt. Kenneth Crothers said he feels the community is fortunate to have these "captive" teachers.

"I can think of no job which is better, either from time involved, or pay, for a housewife and mother than a teaching job," he commented. He said the pay does exceed many other types of work a woman might take and the hours are compatible with family life.

Two teachers were hired with provisional certificates in Shoshone, Mr. Crothers said, and in two years several elementary teachers will retire, which may pose a threat to filling the staff.

All positions are filled at Halley and officials there said each year some teachers are recruited from outside the district. At Jerome, Supt. William Lipscomb attributed the full roster to the fact that attendance is slightly lower in the elementary grades this year.

Many of the Jerome teachers are permanent residents of the county, he noted, and as such, are not affected by the offer of better paying positions outside the state.

Cassia county school officials at Burley said teachers on the 232-member faculty were hired from Oregon, Utah and Oklahoma as well as the local community.

Classroom size will be similar to last year and there are two vacancies both for music teachers in high schools in the county.

Gooding also needs a vocal music teacher, but Dee Keller, superintendent, said an elementary music instructor, Mrs. Robert Caron, will teach two hours daily in the junior high school, plus four hours in the grade school in the morning, so they will not be without any vocal music.

The particular field in which teachers are more difficult to find varies from year to year, he commented. Several years ago English teachers were scarce, he noted.

At Rupert Doyle Lowder, assistant superintendent, reports that a more serious shortage of teachers has been averted by the large percentage of married women filling teaching positions. Two posts, one in junior high and one in elementary grades, are still unfilled.

Minidoka school officials have recruited teachers from outside the district and state and have some new ones in the system from California and Utah.

Lack of money is termed the biggest reason for difficulty in keeping and completing teaching staffs.

George Staudaer, assistant superintendent of the Twin Falls district, comments, "I don't think the public realizes that we are competing with other states for our teachers and that we just can't hold up against higher populated states like California."

He added that he had had the most difficulty in finding qualified science, special education, chemistry and counseling personnel, compared to a relative abundance of English and social studies teachers.

The Twin Falls school system did not have to resort to a lowering of standards or increase in classroom loads because of a teacher shortage this year, but officials weren't confirming that the situation would remain the same next year.

"If our teacher salary scale doesn't go up, it will undoubtedly be worse next year — and I can't say what will happen if it does," Mr. Staudaer said.

Summing up, the two officials pointed out that Twin Falls schools, both elementary and secondary, will not have an actual teacher shortage this year, since the average staff was completed in time for classes and student enrollment will be about the same as last year.

Nearly half of the new teachers are from out of state, although the system did not actively recruit any staff members. Active recruitment may be resorted to next year if the situation does not improve, Mr. Staudaer concluded.

PICKLE LOVERS UNITE! According to I. T. "Pete" Creed, all children are pickle lovers. That's why he and his wife have grown, picked, cut, washed and bottled over 50 gallons of pickles, all destined to end up on the tables at the Idaho Youth Ranch. The Creeds packed an average of seven gallons a day until they had the 50 gallons. Mr. Creed says, "Kids are always pickle eaters . . . and we hope to do this more often." The Creeds intend to send more cucumbers to the Idaho Youth Ranch so that the house mothers can make up other varieties of pickles. The 50 gallons are all dill.

Improvements Made At Shoshone Falls

One of the final projects of the season for the Twin Falls street department has been completed, City Planner Roger Marsh reported Monday.

He said street crews, as an additional project, have just finished paving the parking and view area at Hayes lookout on the road into Shoshone Falls.

Many of the rough spots in the road going into the canyon have also been bladed off and repaved, Mr. Marsh said. In the park area itself, crews have graded and placed asphalt on the area above the falls used for boat docking and for parking of cars and boat trailers. The roadway leading into this area is also surfaced for better utilization of the facilities and greater convenience and enjoyment of the boaters and water skiers.

Ron Scheuffele, city engineer, said the city still hopes to get work started on the park in the northeast part of the city which was donated by Boise Cascade Corp.

Mr. Scheuffele said federal funds have been approved for development of the park, but approval of a land appraisal is still pending. It has been necessary to reappraise the property as the first method did not meet federal approval.

The Boise Cascade property, tentatively called the Hayes Park, will be developed into a neighborhood park over a two-year period, Mr. Scheuffele said.

Committee OK's Rent Subsidies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration got the full $40 million it asked for rent subsidies and $37 million for its model cities program in votes by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

President Johnson has said the two programs are vital elements of the administration's "pledge to bring hope and progress to the nation's cities" through the application of "the newest ideas and wisest advice" of urban experts.

Democratic leaders scheduled for Wednesday floor action on the measures, part of an omnibus $10.4 billion appropriations bill.

Officials of the Housing and Urban Development Department have estimated the $40 million subsidy program will allow financing of 44,500 housing units for low-income families.

The committee voted Monday to allow $37 million for the model cities program. The President had asked for $662 million but the House provided only $237 million.

The program gives federal aid to cities which draw up comprehensive plans to improve housing, education, transportation, health, recreation and sanitation in slums.

The rent subsidy program provides that a low-income family pay no more than 25 per cent of its income for rent. If more money is needed to secure adequate housing, the cost would be met by the government.

The House made no provision for rent supplements in its bill.

The bill before the Senate provides $445 million more than the House's $9.9 billion total. The two housing items account for most of this increase. After full Senate action, a Senate-House conference to iron out differences is likely.

Typical Rioter Is Negro Man In His 20s

By BILL SIMMONS

DETROIT (AP) — The "average rioter" in Detroit is pictured as a Negro male 20 to 28 years old, a resident of the city, who was arrested on a charge of looting.

That's the composite picture that emerges from police statistics on the 7,207 adults arrested in the week of July 23 during looting, burning and violence in the nation's fifth largest city.

All but 150, held on additional charges filed against them before the riot, have completed their trials or are free on bond.

Reports from the records bureau of the Detroit Police Department shows about half of those arrested—3,595—had records of previous offenses, though some were as minor as traffic violations.

The records also show that more than 90 per cent of those arrested are from Detroit.

As in the riot last month in Newark, N.J., nearly 50 per cent of those arrested were over 25 years old.

Of the total number of rioters detained by police, 3,363 were charged with felonies. In Detroit, as in Newark, about 75 per cent of the felony indictments involved stealing or receiving stolen property.

There were 255 arrests on charges involving weapons or explosives in rioting at Detroit where 43 people died. In Newark, where 27 died, there were 92 such arrests.

Seven felony arrests were for murder. One, against Patrolman Robert Paille in the death of a Negro youth, was dismissed for lack of evidence.

In 95 other cases, the charge is assault with intent to commit murder. Police list 26 of those arrests as snipers, among them five women.

There also were 52 persons charged with possession of explosives—gasoline firebombs.

Clark Claims Convictions In Crime Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark reports that convictions of persons involved in organized crime and gambling rose 39 per cent in fiscal 1967—but a Republican group said he was "fighting a war of retreat against organized crime."

Clark said convictions resulting from FBI investigations and Justice Department prosecutions in the organized crime and gambling fields totaled 197 during the year and that as of June 30, another 330 defendants were awaiting trial. He said convictions were based on "sound investigative techniques untainted by improper electronic eavesdropping, which has sometimes hindered successful prosecution in the past."

However, the House Republican Task Force on Crime said: "We view his regulations as inevitably discouraging the use of sound, acceptable and legal investigative techniques in combating organized crime."

Hearing Set On Water Situation

BURLEY — A formal hearing on the critical ground water situation in the Oakley-Murtaugh area will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Cassia County courthouse, reports Jack Barnett, of the State Reclamation Department.

Keith Higginson, Reclamation department engineer, will conduct the hearing. In 1953 the area around Artesian City at Murtaugh, Kenyon Farms, north of Oakley and Cottonwood area, near the old Buckhorn ranch between Artesian City and Oakley was closed because of declining water levels, caused by heavier pumping for irrigation.

Since that time, the Reclamation Department, has entered into financial cooperative agreement with the U.S. Geological Survey to have the ground resources investigated. As the result of this investigation, it is believed that portions of the closed areas now can be reopened.

Labor Day Death Toll Estimated

CHICAGO (AP) — An estimated 600 to 600 persons will die in traffic accidents during the 78-hour Labor Day holiday weekend, the National Safety Council said Monday.

Council statisticians predicted 23,000 to 26,000 persons may suffer disabling injuries between Friday evening and midnight Monday. Last Labor Day weekend 636 persons died on the nation's highways, the council said.

Trucking Freight Rate Hike OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission decided Monday to permit higher truck freight rates in the Rocky Mountain area.

The ICC's Division Two voted to allow the new rates to go into effect Tuesday. They will raise truckload rates five per cent and less-than-truckload tariffs three per cent.

Epstein's Death Being Investigated

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — Police removed pills from the home of Beatles' manager Brian Epstein Monday for laboratory analysis in an effort to determine whether they, together with liquor he drank at a Saturday night party, could have caused his death.

Epstein, 32, who was found dead in his Belgravia home Sunday, had been taking pills to counter the effects of hepatitis and glandular illness which troubled him for months.

An autopsy will be performed in London Tuesday. The result will determine whether an inquest will be held. If one is necessary, it probably will be held on Wednesday.

Business Mirror

By PHIL THOMAS AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A lot more than the hills are alive with the sound of music in the United States.

The echo is being heard from the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans, accompanied by a louder and louder tune — the cash registers of the music industry.

In 1930, there were 13 million amateur musicians banging, tooting and strumming away in the United States, according to the American Music Conference.

But by the beginning of this year, the ranks of the music men, women and children had swollen to more than 41 million. About 15 million of these range in age from 4 to 21, and the other 26 million are over 21.

"Amateur musicians in the United States increased by an average of approximately a million annually from 1950 to 1961," says the conference, which describes itself as an educational organization supported by major segments of the music industry.

"From 1962 to 1966, however, the average annual increase exceeded 1.8 million with dramatic increases of 2.3 million in 1965 and again in 1966.

"America's amateur musicians are almost entirely responsible for the long record-breaking upswing in sales of new instruments, instrument accessories and instructional aids that started 20 years ago. They have also contributed substantially to improved sales of sheet music in recent years."

The conference says these combined sales, which totaled $90 million in 1941, jumped to $955 million in 1966 and surpassed "the dollar volume of all records, still and movie cameras, comic books and playing cards."

How do you explain this current boom, boom, boom in an industry that was in decline before World War II?

"There is a higher level of education in the country and a greater need for individual creativity," says Marion Egbert, the conference's educational director. "This combination is part of the great atmosphere that exists for music making."

Egbert also cites new teaching techniques which make learning music fun and not a chore — plinking out the "Skater's Waltz" on the piano every day for a month is out — and the "growing awareness of people in education that things like music and art are needed to balance their programs. Almost every school today has a music program."

Or, as the member of a youth folk rock 'n' roll group puts it, musical instruments are a way for young people to express themselves.

A total of 1,430,000 guitars were sold in 1966, says the conference, and more than 4,650,000 guitars have been purchased during the past four years.

2:30 P.M. SUMMARY NEW YORK (AP) — Auto shares perked up a mixed stock market late this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

General Motors and Ford were up more than a point, Chrysler and American Motors fractions after an auto industry counter-offer to the union in the current labor negotiations. The strike deadline is next week.

Gains outnumbered losers by a comfortable margin but the Dow Jones industrial average was down a point or more.

The stock market still was following a cautious path, analysts said, in view of the many uncertainties following Labor Day.

American Telephone, which edged lower, was pacing the list on volume late in the day.

Also active, Boeing and Hewlett-Packard rose more than 2 points.

Allis-Chalmers was upset by denial of the latest merger rumor and sank more than a point.

Gains of about a point were made by Goodrich, Uniroyal, U.S. Smelting & Chesapeake & Ohio.

Alcoa and Eastman Kodak were among the blue chip losers of a point or so.

Prices were irregularly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

South played his nine of hearts and let it hold the trick after West discarded a club. Then South led a spade toward dummy and finessed the jack. At this point South was sure of eight tricks and would make nine if he could pick up the whole spade suit. He ran off dummy's hearts.

East made a friendly play here. He had to make one discard and let his last spade go. Meanwhile South was discarding his last two clubs and West was getting rid of his clubs and the deuce of diamonds.

South cashed dummy's ace of spades, noted that East did not follow suit and led a diamond. West was in with the king of diamonds and had to lead a spade up to South's king-ten.

bidding at two spades after his partner's raise, he went to two no-trump.

North might have been satisfied to quit at two no-trump because his opening bid was about as minimum as possible but he decided there was no real play for two no-trump and if you were going to be set you might as well go down at a worth-while contract. Fortunately for North and South the defense was not equal to the occasion and South managed to gather nine tricks.

West started helping out by opening the ten of hearts. Dum-

Love's On Thin Ice If He Works Nights

Dear Walt: About six months ago I started working nights at a theater. My steady girl (Christie) would have me leave her at the skating rink at 7 p.m. and then pick her up at midnight. Fine. Well, all this time, while I was working, she was flirting with the soldiers that skate there. Once she was necking with one of them and was going to go out with him, but at the last minute she changed her mind and told me everything. Because she was honest, I forgave her.

I quit the job, and everything was OK. But now I'm getting another job and I know she'll go skating again if I have to work on Friday or Saturday nights. Seeing how things went before, do I have a right to say "no skating?" Or should I trust her? —Usher.

Dear Usher: It's virtually impossible for an attractive girl to remain "solo" throughout a five-hour skating session. If a relative (male cousin, younger brother, etc.) can take her, away from her. She writes great! If not, I think you have a right to object. But basic to all this is your job. Can't you look a little further and find one that just requires daylight shifts? —Wait.

Dear Ele: I'm not Phyllis Diller or anything, but there are lots of other girls in our section at school who are a whole lot prettier than I am. Sometimes the boys make wise remarks to me. Just last week, a lady talked to us girls about grooming, and the boys found out about it. When we girls came back to the classroom, one boy said to me, "You sure didn't change!" and everyone laughed. What should I do? Don't suggest a charm school. My mother's against it. —No Second Looks.

Dear No: I hope you paid close attention to the grooming consultant. Good appearance isn't won in 30 minutes. It takes day-by-day determination. Components? Count proper diet, adequate rest, deep cleansing of the skin, mastery of basic make-up methods, and polishing sewing skills.

If "charm school" equates "$500" or "professional model" with mom, ask her to investigate what your local YWCA, department store, or 4-H club offers for under $25. I think she'll be surprised and impressed! —Ele.

MOTHERS SINS FALL UPON GIRL

Dear Ele and Walt: "X" walks to school with us. We're fairly good friends, although she can never attend school activities because she has to stay home and take care of her sisters and brother (she's like a mother to those kids!) Her father works at night, and while he's out, her mother goes out and "pains the town." We know for a fact that her mother spent a weekend with some college boys recently, and has threatened to leave her husband several times.

No one is allowed to hang around "X" because parents have heard about her mother. "X" doesn't know the truth about her mother. She always feels hurt because kids keep great! If not, I think you have a right to object. But basic to all this is your job. Can't you look a little further and find one that just requires daylight shifts? —Wait.

Facts About Sears Retreads

- Only one used tire carcass in five qualifies for Sears Retreads, others are rejected.
- The new tread rubber is wound onto the tire like hot strips of tape. Electronic controls assure even winding uniformity.
- The entire process is performed with the tire and rubber under heat and pressure. The molding completes the tread building.
- Actual tread rubber used and tread design, too, are similar to our Supertread tires,

ALLSTATE Passenger Tire Guarantee

TREAD LIFE GUARANTEE AGAINST ALL FAILURES
Every ALLSTATE tire is guaranteed against all failures from road hazards or defects for the life of the original tread. If tire falls, we will—at our option—repair it without cost; or, in exchange for the tire, we will replace it charging only for tread worn (charge will be a pro-rata share of then current regular selling price plus Federal Excise Tax).

TREAD WEAR GUARANTEE
We guarantee tread life for the number of months designated. If tread wears out within this period, return the tire. In exchange, we will replace it charging then current regular selling price plus Federal Excise Tax, less a set dollar allowance.
