Committee Is Picked To Coordinate Plans For T.F. Retardation Center

An organizational meeting to select an advisory committee on mental retardation center plans for Twin Falls is tentatively set for Sept. 14 at 8 p.m. in the Idaho Power auditorium. The meeting plans were the outcome of a meeting Tuesday night called by Tom Nelson, President of Harbor House, and Ray Lincoln, who as chairman of the Twin Falls mental retardation center development to date. Only about 18 persons representing interested organizations and the county and city commissioners attended the Tuesday night meeting. Most expressed continued interest in working on behalf of a retardation center to expand the proposed present basic program to include facilities of interest to such groups as Harbor House, Mental Health Association and Cerebral Palsy Council. Mr. Nelson was named chairman of the group to continue through the organizational meeting Sept. 14. Numerous other groups and all interested persons will also be asked to attend the coming meeting. Mr. Nelson was also asked to write the Idaho Department of Health officials who have announced plans for a meeting in Twin Falls "in the near future" and ask that they set up such a meeting shortly after the Sept. 14 session. Goals of the organizational meeting as suggested Tuesday night would also include resume reports from each interested organization as to what their hopes are for the eventual expansion of the presently funded basic mental retardation center. Federal and state funds have already been approved for such a center in Twin Falls. A community guarantee of $25,000 has also been provided but all organizations represented Tuesday night indicated plans to expand the program to a more community rounded facility by raising $75,000 locally to increase matching funds and overall financing of the facility. County Commissioner Morris W. Carlson pointed out this additional $50,000 would represent only one mill on the present county evaluation and he said with public education and support he felt the commissioners would carry out dictates of the public. Several members of the Harbor House organization expressed the belief they would not attain their goals through the proposed center. Mr. Lincoln, state representative of District 23, who has worked toward establishment of the proposed center in Twin Falls, said there is no reason why it cannot answer the needs of all interested groups providing members are willing to unite and to work toward raising local funds. All of the needs, he said, could not be answered in the first, and basic, phase of the project and probably not in the second, but he said the residential portion of the center could easily be expanded to cover the Harbor House facilities. Harbour House proposes temporary shelter for homeless children or for those needing care while their parents are unable to care for them or while the court is establishing a permanent home. In the mental retardation center would be facilities for housing children who might come from outside of Twin Falls for clinical examinations and treatment over a period of time. Curtis Eaton urged the group to organize and to meet state officials when they are next in Twin Falls, with a relatively low income groups, civic organizations and public agencies are represented on each of the county committees, as well as on the CAA. The people who attended the Tuesday night meeting, which was held at the Sunnyview Courts recreation building, heard a brief explanation of the purpose of the committee and the CAA and an outline of some of the programs undertaken by the group since its original organization in March. One of the major projects of Mr. Morgan's office has been the taking of a survey to determine the extent of poverty in the tri-county area. The survey results will provide a basis for future operations of the CAA and the individual county committees.

2 New Forest Fires Reported In Northern Idaho Panhandle

BOISE (AP)—Two new fires, both burning on state-protected forest land, were reported today in the North Idaho Panhandle. Gov. Don W. Samuelson said they added to seriousness of the fire fighting problem. The governor said no reply has come to his second request for emergency federal assistance to aid in paying for the fire control work. One of the new fires was in the Sundance Mountain area four miles east of Coolin, on the east shore of Priest Lake. Samuelson said many summer homes are adjacent to the lake, and if the fire is not controlled quickly it could threaten them, as well as the community of Coolin. The other fire was an offshoot of the Trapper Peak fire north of Priest Lake. It burned in the Bugle Creek area southeast of the main fire. The governor said Tuesday he thought federal officials "misunderstood" his original request for help. Fire fighting has cost the state more than $1 million this summer. A request that Idaho be declared a federal disaster area was turned down Monday by the Office of Emergency Planning. Samuelson sent a second telegram Tuesday. The state attorney general's office was also probing whether Idaho could issue deficit warrants to cover fire fighting costs. More than 20,000 acres of north Idaho forest land have been blackened in recent weeks. Samuelson said he is awaiting an attorney general's opinion before deciding on a special session of the Idaho Legislature. If deficit warrants are allowed, Samuelson said he may delay a special session until 1968.

Fire Fighters On Verge Of Big Victory

By The Associated Press
Fire fighters appeared on the verge of winning a two-week-old battle against timber blazes in many areas of the Northwest early today. However, new trouble spots were being watched in California and Washington. Meanwhile, the U. S. Weather Bureau updated its five-day forecasts for the region, predicting temperatures 10 to 15 degrees above normal and little or no rain through the weekend. In Oregon, Idaho and Montana, all but two major blazes were reported controlled. Canadian officials said the number of fires northeast of Vancouver had been reduced to about 310, 35 less than last week's peak. The Evergreen Mountain fire in Washington was out of control. A new blaze spread over 600 acres Tuesday, bringing the number of acres blackened in that area to more than 4,000. A heat wave in sections of Southern California increased possibilities of new blazes near an area where several homes were burned by brush fires early today. Officials reported more than 7,800 acres of timber and brush land had been burned in Ventura and Los Angeles counties. Two oil pumping fields north of Los Angeles were also threatened.

SMOG-CLINGS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Eye-blinding smog clung to the Los Angeles basin today in what the U.S. Weather Bureau described as the greatest concentration in a decade. The state attorney general's office was also probing whether Idaho could issue deficit warrants to cover fire fighting costs. More than 20,000 acres of north Idaho forest land have been blackened in recent weeks. Samuelson said he is awaiting an attorney general's opinion before deciding on a special session of the Idaho Legislature. If deficit warrants are allowed, Samuelson said he may delay a special session until 1968.

Brown Praises London Police

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary George Brown appeared outside the Red Chinese Legation today and praised police who were involved in bloody fighting with members of the Chinese mission Tuesday. Brown also expressed his sympathy for three policemen injured in the fighting, that also sent eight Chinese to a hospital. Brown made no effort to enter the legation but spent about 10 minutes walking around the area.

Organization Of Community Action Committee Is Completed At Meeting

Organization of a committee that has been formed to help alleviate poverty, and the ignorance and apathy that accompany it, in Twin Falls County was completed Tuesday night with the election of 14 additional members. Election of the new members, all representatives of the group, the committee has been designed to aid, brought the total membership of the Twin Falls County Committee for the Underprivileged to 30. C. E. Bossard, Twin Falls, is president of the group, representatives of which comprise one-third of the South Central Idaho Community Action Agency's membership. The agency is the organ for procurement of federal anti-poverty programs in Twin Falls, Jerome and Cassia counties. More than 40 Twin Falls residents attended the election meeting, to which about 1,000 members of Twin Falls' low income groups had been invited. The election was held in compliance with federal regulations which require that at least one-third of the membership of such committees be comprised of low income group representatives. Similar committees are now in the process of being organized in Cassia and Jerome counties. Three representatives of each of the county committees will serve on the CAA, which is directed by A. W. Morgan, Twin Falls. Representing the Twin Falls group will be Mr. Bossard, Roger Abernathy and Bob Davis. Mr. Bossard also has been named president of the CAA.

John Williams Wins Demo Nomination

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Rep. John Bell Williams, firebrand foe of the national administration, won the Democratic nomination for Mississippi governor in a smashing conservative victory that left Negro voting hopes wrecked today. The 48-year-old veteran of two decades in Congress, who lost his seniority for supporting the Republican presidential ticket three years ago, rallied hard-core segregationists and middle-of-the-roads to his cause with a blistering attack on liberalism. With reports from the last precincts from Tuesday's voting trickling in, Williams' lead over state Treasurer William Winter approached 60,000 votes. Winter, who topped first primary voting three weeks ago, led this time in only 20 of the 82 counties.

Reds Make Dramatic Move Into Capital In Attempt To Discredit Election

SAIGON (AP)—Communist soldiers boldly moved into a provincial capital early today under cover of a heavy mortar barrage and freed 997 prisoners in the most dramatic action of the Red campaign to disrupt and discredit South Vietnam's presidential election. A wave of attacks in the five provinces making up the war zone bordering North Vietnam indicated an all-out effort to spread disaffection in the sector which has always been the most politically sensitive in the nation. There were 29 reported attacks or incidents in the 1st Corps war zone, where the ground war and the political war have blended into a single fierce struggle in the past few days. While the attack on the jail in Quang Ngai was the most spectacular Red assault, the Communists also hit a power station, a helicopter field, a U.S. military advisory compound, a U.S. Seabee camp and a radio station. The South Vietnamese suffered many casualties, including 70 killed and 104 wounded in a combined mortar and ground attack on a Vietnamese army post and district headquarters at Tam Ky. Three Americans were reported killed and 44 wounded, while known Communist losses were six killed at Quang Ngai and 14 killed at Tam Ky. In addition to the attacks in the 1st Corps area, Red mortars shelled a camp in the highland city of Dalat, and wounded 10 Americans Tuesday night in a barrage on artillery positions 20 miles northeast of Saigon. Overshadowed by the intensified Communist campaign in the South, American pilots kept up heavy attacks on North Vietnam and flew 151 missions Tuesday. The U.S. Command one Marina A4 Skyhawk was lost and the pilot was missing. It was the 66th U.S. combat plane reported lost in the northern air war. Moving at 2 a.m. today into the capital of Quang Ngai Province, some 300 miles above Saigon, an evidently large force of Communist troops rapidly split up, hit the provincial prison and the headquarters of the South Vietnamese 2nd Infantry Division and mortared the American advisory compound. Although some 400 prisoners were retaken by dawn, the daring raid was a shattering blow in one of the largest cities in the north. The missing captives include some criminals as well as large numbers of Viet Cong suspects, the equivalent of a full battalion of reinforcements. At the same time Quang Ngai was under attack, the Communists hit in Thuá Thien Province about 50 miles to the north, mortaring a U.S. Marine helicopter field, a radio station, a U.S. Seabee camp and a South Vietnamese training center. Thirteen helicopters were damaged. In another attempt to hamper Red infiltration into the northern area, B52s made two heavy strikes today inside the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam. Both raids were above the Marine outpost of Con Thien on the jungle route which is the shortest North Vietnamese entry to South Vietnam. Fighter-bombers again streaked off at dawn to hit the Red gun and mortar positions just above the DMZ. The Reds have installed there an unknown number of 152mm guns with a range about 18 miles. Despite the Communist attacks, the election campaign went on outwardly unaffected in preparation for election day Sunday.

straight-time pay of an auto worker, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, is $3.41. Including wages and fringe benefits the average worker receives about $4.70 an hour. The companies' offer was estimated unofficially as a 5.25 per cent increase over the current provisions, although neither the union or the management will confirm this. The industry offers made no mention of equal pay for Canadian and American workers or of a guaranteed annual income, both demanded by the UAW.

SAIGON (AP)—Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, the front-running military candidate for president in Sunday's elections, said today that if elected he may try to halt the bombing of North Vietnam for more than the one week he has been proposing. A longer pause would depend on a favorable response from Hanoi and agreement from the United States, Thieu stressed in a talk with newsmen after a campaign speech to more than 10,000 Vietnamese troops. Artillery roaring in the background and jets from nearby Tan Son Nhut airbase sometimes drowned out Thieu and civilian candidates as they spoke to the soldiers in the biggest political rally so far. Thieu told the troops: "We are ready to negotiate. The problem is whether North Vietnam will accept. It is up to them." He told newsmen later that if elected, "I will talk to North Vietnam first. If I get a favorable response, then I will talk to the Americans and may ask for more than one week." Observers in Saigon, however, think it unlikely that the United States would go along with even

Case Closed

Idaho State Police run an efficient operation and part of this operation involves keeping other law enforcement departments posted on wanted men, captured criminals and cancellations when a case is solved. On the blotter at the Twin Falls Sheriff's office Wednesday morning was a cancellation report. It involved one "Dr. Richard Kimball," reportedly "wanted" for the past four years for murder and escape. "Case closed," read the blotter notation at 10 p.m. Tuesday.

The 32nd traffic death of 1967 in Magic Valley occurred Aug. 30 as the result of an accident in Cassia County. Clayton R. Taylor, 16, Almo, at 6:15 p.m. Aug. 23, one-half mile south of the Almo store on a gravel road. Deputy Sheriff Glen Loveland, investigating officer, said the Taylor youth, who is listed in good condition at Cassia Memorial Hospital, Burley, was traveling north when he was passed by another car. Neither Mrs. Lloyd nor Taylor could see each other approaching because of the dust created by the passing vehicle, the officer reported. Both vehicles were knocked into the borrow pit by the impact of the crash. Both drivers were alone in their cars.

Union Frowning Upon Automakers Contract

By KIT KINCADE
DETROIT (AP)—United Auto Workers Union negotiators today unanimously recommended that new contract proposals by the Big Three automakers be rejected as "inadequate and inequitable." In making their offers Tuesday, the auto companies said they constituted "the highest wages increases ever offered" the union. The UAW national negotiating committees at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler said they had given careful consideration to the proposals, however, and found them to be unacceptable "when measured against the fantastic profitability and productivity of the automotive industry." The union negotiators added the offers did not meet the "pressing needs of the automobile industry's workers and their families." The recommendation that the proposals be rejected came as no surprise. It was expected, since the offers failed to meet several demands which the UAW had considered essential. Meanwhile, the UAW is expected to select one of the Big Three companies as a strike target in the next two days. The union traditionally focuses on one firm and drives to a settlement there through negotiation or strike. Three-year contracts covering some 650,000 workers at the Big Three expire at midnight Tuesday. Chrysler's top negotiator said the union's rejection of Tuesday's offer was "less than enthusiastic." The union had no immediate comment. National union negotiating committees at the Big Three meet today to examine the offer and to forge their expected rejection arguments. The UAW's International Executive Board meets today and Thursday to consider ratification of the committee's action and to pick the target. Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, will enter talks at the target company Friday. Here are highlights of the companies' offers:

—An immediate 13-cent-an-hour wage hike.
—Improving the workers wage in 1968 and 1969 at the rate of 2.8 per cent of his previous hourly wage.
—A guaranteed minimum cost-of-living increase of four cents an hour.
—A pay hike for skilled tradesmen above the general increase, to be worked out in negotiations.
The companies estimate that their offer would boost wage benefits alone by 33 to 51 cents an hour. The current average hourly

Synopsis, Farm Summary

Sunshine, warm temperatures and low humidities will prevail today and Thursday with little chance of thundershowers in the valley areas. Temperatures will likely climb a little higher this afternoon, especially in the southeastern valleys. Some cooling and a little more afternoon thundershower activity appear likely near the end of the week. Temperatures were a little higher in the west and cooler in the extreme southeast yesterday. Highs were mostly in the high 80s and low 90s in eastern valleys, Wood River Valley and Camas Prairie and in the 90s in Magic and western valleys.

Five-Day Forecast

Warm and mostly dry weather will continue another five days. The dominant ridge of high pressure at upper levels will weaken about Friday or Saturday enough to allow somewhat cooler air to move into the Snake River Valley of Southern Idaho. Some increase in afternoon cloudiness and scattered thundershowers are likely near the end of the week and through the weekend. However, little or no rain of consequence is indicated for Southwest Idaho and most of Magic Valley. In southeastern Idaho measurable rainfall will be spotty and quite variable, probably averaging less than .10 of an inch. The outlook for favorable harvest weather remains very good for the west half of the district and reasonably good for the eastern half, with the occurrence of thundershowers and strong gusty winds most likely in the southeastern valleys and the upper end of the Snake River Valley over the weekend.

School Buses Back On Roads, Be Careful

The reappearance of bright yellow school buses on the city streets signals an increase in the safety responsibilities of area motorists as thousands of youngsters return to their classrooms, advises Supt. L. Clark Hand of the Idaho State Police.

The superintendent reminded the motoring public that Idaho law requires motorists to stop for school buses when the vehicles' stop signs are extended and when red lights are flashing, except on four-lane highways when vehicles proceeding in an opposite direction of the stopped bus do not have to stop.

Supt. Hand noted that except for the four-lane highway provision, all vehicles must stop when school buses are loading or unloading.

He requested drivers to be especially careful when driving in the vicinity of schools and playgrounds.

"It takes our youngsters a few days to become familiar again with the dangers of traffic," he said, "and a little extra caution on the part of the motoring public may prevent a tragic accident." Supt. Hand also advised parents to warn their children of traffic hazards and to instruct them to walk on sidewalks or the proper side of the road when going to school and returning home.

"Pedestrians and motorists alike must share the responsibilities of traffic safety," he said.

The superintendent pointed out that after driving at higher speeds throughout the summer, drivers often forget designated speeds near school grounds and crossings.

"Be prepared for the unpredictable actions of young pedestrians," he concluded, "be ready to slow down or stop suddenly."

Formation of a Home Reading Club for all regular subscribers to the Times-News was announced Wednesday by Harold Stiles, circulation manager.

The club will operate along the same lines as a nationwide Home Reading Club plan in force at more than 300 newspapers from coast to coast. It entitles all subscribers to a low-cost combination price for both magazines and newspaper.

For $1 a month in addition to the regular Times-News subscription rate, customers can have their choice of any four magazines from a list of 44 of the country's leading periodicals. An exception is Life magazine, which is delivered weekly and sells on the newsstands for 50 cents a copy. Life may be selected by Reading Club members along with two others from the list for $1 a month.

This special service is exclusive to Times-News subscribers and the rate is far below normal newsstand or subscription prices for the magazines.

"The price can't be beat," Mr. Stiles said. "Customers sign up for two years and begin receiving their magazines in six or eight weeks."

Carrier boys also benefit from the program. Each boy who obtains Home Reading Club members on his route will receive points toward a wide variety of prizes, ranging from transistor radios to a trail-bike valued at $150.

The Home Reading Club will be open for membership for a limited time each year, closing this year on Oct. 28.

Subscribers pay their carrier a total of $2.75 per month for both the magazines and newspaper. The carrier delivers the Times-News, the magazines come by mail.

A complete list of the magazines available to club members appears on page A-8 of today's paper.

SUSAN MACDONALD, Times-News Circulation Department employee, looks over some of the outstanding magazines being offered to the newspaper's subscribers as part of a Home Reading Club plan.

Florida Teachers Will Stage First Showdown On Spending Problems

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The first classroom showdown on Florida's educational spending problems developed today as Pinellas County, the state's fifth largest, opened the new school year with half of its 3,500 teachers preparing to resign before dark.

Members of the Pinellas Classroom Teachers Association, which claims to represent about 90 per cent of the county's teachers, signed resignations Tuesday night to become effective at 5 p.m. today.

Whitney B. Newcomb Jr., vice president of the association, said 1,606 resignations were submitted Tuesday and "we expect more today."

In Clearwater, the county seat, school Supt. Thomas A. Southard said he would "remain hopeful as long as we have one minute left."

"We will utilize every means that we know to replace these teachers if it is necessary," Southard said. But he added that a list of available substitute teachers does not include "nearly that many names."

The resignations were the latest in a series of actions by teachers in the wake of sanctions imposed two months ago by the Florida Education Association and the National Education Association.

The teacher associations seeking higher pay, invoked sanctions for what they termed inadequate financial support of the state's schools. They have begun a national campaign, through advertising and word of mouth, to discourage tourists, new industry or new teachers from coming to Florida.

Last Wednesday more than 30,000 members of the FEA met in a football stadium at Orlando and most pledged to resign Sept. 5, the day most of the state's schools are to open.

Phil Constans, executive secretary of the state association, pledged its support to the Pinellas teachers.

"There's no question about it," Constans said, "we're not kidding about this thing."

The effective time for the resignations was set to allow the school board time to reconsider its action in rejecting a pro-

Plans are under way, Henry Bellmon told a Tuesday news conference, to set up Nixon for President committees soon in "the crucial primary states of Nebraska, New Hampshire and Oregon." Such a committee already is at work in Wisconsin, which also has a presidential primary.

Operation Headstart To Begin On Sept. 11

Twin Falls' third Operation Headstart is scheduled to resume Sept. 11 in the Presbyterian Church rooms.

Word of federal approval of the program was received this week by W. A. Morgan, director of Twin Falls' Community Action Agency. Mr. Morgan was informed by the Office of Economic Opportunity, Kansas City, Mo., that carry-over funds from the previous Headstart program may be used to pay the expenses of the new project.

Approval of the Twin Falls School District's application for new funds is expected to be announced soon, he added.

The new program will accommodate 130 kindergarten-age students. Also approved were projects in Murtaugh and Hansen for 30 students. Twin Falls' last Headstart project had 150 students enrolled.

Parents who are interested in enrolling their children in the new project are asked to contact Doyt Simcoe, School District No. 411 guidance director, whose office is at the School Administration Building on Main Avenue South, phone 733-6900. Information also can be obtained directly from Mr. Morgan at the Community Action Agency's headquarters in Sunnyview Courts.

Meetings On Inspection Law Slated

A series of public meetings to explain Idaho's new vehicle inspection law begins Sept. 11 in Magic Valley at the Twin Falls Idaho Power Company auditorium.

Sessions have been set for Idaho Falls, Blackfoot, Pocatello, Twin Falls, Jerome and Gooding. All meetings begin at 1 p.m., Harold Davis, director of the Vehicle Inspection Division, noted.

The Jerome meeting is scheduled for Sept. 12 in the district courtroom of the courthouse, and the Gooding meeting in the Gooding district courtroom Sept. 14.

Those who plan to operate in inspection station are urged to attend, Mr. Davis said.

The new Idaho law requires that all Idaho registered vehicles must be inspected at least once after Jan. 1, 1968, and then at least once in every 12-month period thereafter. The law provides that a fee of $2 shall be charged for each inspection, Mr. Davis pointed out.

 JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—"We are not going to have gangs of marauding hoodlums parading up and down our streets and destroying our property when I am your governor," John Bell Williams, the one-armed congressman who won the Democratic nomination for Mississippi's chief executive post, told the crowds.

"I know how to nip in the bud that kind of thing," avowed Williams.

Few Mississippians doubt the only thing standing in the way of the 48-year-old lawyer from the small central Mississippi town of Raymond and the governor's office is a Republican, Rubel Phillips, in the Nov. 7 general election.

Republicans haven't won a state office since Reconstruction and don't appear likely to this year.

Williams is a segregationist and proud of it. And he preaches a brand of political evangelism that white Mississippians like to hear.

Law and order, states rights, segregation and constitutional government highlight his sermons shouted from the stump.

The progress and problems of Mississippi took a second seat to these emotional issues.

Williams told a group of Negro hecklers at Woodville his left sleeve was empty and he walked with a limp because he fought for their right to peaceful protest.

Arab Leaders Try To Keep Meet Going

By DENNIS NEED
 KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and Sudan's Premier Mohamed Mahgoub made frantic efforts today to prevent the Arab summit conference from foundering in a storm of bickering and boycott.

Mahgoub met until the early hours with Syrian Foreign Minister Ibrahim Makhos, whose delegation stayed out of the opening session Tuesday night.

With them was Algerian Foreign Minister Abdel Aziz Bouta flika, whom Mahgoub enlisted to persuade the Syrians to remain in Khartoum.

Conference sources said Makhos told the Sudanese premier he had been unable to contact Syrian Chief of State Nouruddin Atassi for instructions and so had stayed away.

Nasser, also urged the Syrian delegate to try again to reach Atassi for instructions to take part in the meeting.

Makhos postponed a flight home today but conference sources said he again took no part when the summit conference met for its first full working session. The Syrian ambassador to Sudan told newsmen the Syrian delegation would take no part in the conference and would fly home Thursday.

Only eight of the 13 Arab heads of state are participating in what was to have been the first full top-level Arab meeting since 1965. However, all but Syria have sent representatives into the conference.

There was no confirmation in Khartoum of a report from Washington in the New York Times that Nasser has apparently foiled a plot to overthrow him by arresting about 150 senior Egyptian officers, including some of his closest followers.

Talk Of Peace Breaks Out In Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—Talk of peace has broken out in Nigeria's eight-week-old civil war—but most of it is coming from secessionist Biafra, now threatened by jet attack.

Nigeria's new war Cabinet pondered a lengthy Biafran white paper today that contained the strongest bid to end the fighting since the war between the federal government and the breakaway state erupted July 6.

Although the proposal stops short of bringing Biafra back into the Nigerian federation, it included a joint services authority to establish cooperation in eight areas from transportation to currency.

There was no immediate response from the federal government after the proposal's disclosure in a broadcast from Benin, in the Midwest region.

The government is in a strengthened position since its recent purchase of jet fighters from the Soviet Union. Travelers from Biafra have reported a corresponding dip in morale there.

The government made public, however, the text of a speech by Anthony Enaharo, commissioner for labor and information, in which he listed its peace terms.

They require an end to secession, acknowledgment of federal authority in Biafra, acceptance of new states splitting Biafra into three parts, acceptance by Biafra of civilians in the federal and state military governments and agreement to hold constitutional talks with civilians from other states.

The issue of sovereignty was still the major bar to a halt in the fighting although Biafra appeared to give a little from its initial call for "irrevocable sovereignty."

He lost the arm and damaged the leg in a World-War-II plane crash.

Williams was stripped of his seniority in Congress for supporting Republican Barry Goldwater for president in 1964.

"They offered me that seniority back last year," Williams said, "with the only condition that I support Lyndon Baines Johnson or any other candidate they might select and endorse the national platform, whatever that might be."

"I told them thanks, but no thanks."

Report on the airport subject was given by Herb Love who was reporting on the Lincoln County Tax Equality Association action on the matter.

Love and Kenneth Blackburn reported on the meeting in Gooding on Extended Area telephone service between Gooding, Jerome and Shoshone. The majority of the people at the meeting, they said, were in favor of the change, and the survey made by the telephone company showed that of 918 people contacted 51 per cent were in favor and 48.1 were against.

The rate increase for Shoshone telephone service would be $5 for business and $1 for residences if the change is put into effect. Chamber members stated they would be more in favor of the change if the service took in Twin Falls area also.

Chamber At Shoshone Opposes Plan

SHOSHONE—Shoshone Chamber of Commerce members opposed a Regional Airport District when they met Monday noon.

Their action was taken after a discussion of the subject wherein it was pointed out that such an airport would cost in excess of $6,000,000 and the district would have to be covered by bond. In addition to paying back the bond it would also require a one mill tax per year for operation and maintenance.

In order to have the airport go through, petitions must be signed by 5 per cent of the voters.

No Telling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's top health expert says no one knows the extent of injury or hazard to humans involved in the radiation from color television sets and other electronic products.

Surgeon-General William H. Stewart said the problem is not well documented and needs federal research. But he added "it is established that certain widely used types of electronic devices are potentially capable of generating X-rays and that other types of electromagnetic emissions from such equipment can produce adverse biological effects."

CRASH IS FATAL

SODA SPRINGS (AP)—Richard Deon Hoopes, 18, Soda Springs, died late Tuesday night of injuries suffered in a car-train collision at a crossing in the center of Soda Springs. He was the lone occupant of the car.

Authorities said the youth apparently failed to see the flashing signal lights at the crossing.

ENROLLMENT UP

REXBURG, Idaho (AP)—Enrollment at Ricks College has reached a record high of 3,183. This compares with 2,951 last year, school officials said.

Gem Treasurers To Meet Sept. 14

SHOSHONE—The Idaho State Association of County Treasurers will meet at Sun Valley Sept. 14-15, according to secretary-treasurer of the association, Myron D. Johnson, Lincoln County Treasurer.

Mr. Johnson said main speakers will be Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy, Phil Long, Idaho State Tax Commission official, and Max Yost, from the Associated Tax Payers of Idaho.

Verna Russell, Payette County Treasurer, is the president of the State group with Clifford Hyde, Minidoka County, vice president.

FAIR PRAISED
 BOISE (AP)—Idaho's governor termed the Western Idaho Fair Tuesday "progress on parade."

Gov. Don W. Samuelson joined in ceremonies marking the opening of the fair on new fairgrounds adjacent to U.S. Highway 20 west of Boise. The old fairgrounds were sold after an interstate highway spur was routed through them.

Samuelson told fairgoers he has always enjoyed such an exposition. And he said city streets would be void of beatniks if the young people patterned themselves after the 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America represented among the fair exhibitors.

BIDS OPENED
 BOISE (AP)—Apparent low bidders were listed Tuesday on two eastern Idaho construction projects on which the state highway department opened bids.

There was only one bidder, Robert B. Burggraf Co., Idaho Falls, at $86,130, on one project, improving a half mile of U.S. 20 in Idaho Falls.

Holmes Construction Co., Inc., Heyburn, with an offer of $177,720, was listed as apparent low bidder, among four, for the other project, improving about eight miles of U.S. 30N from Pebble to Brancroft in Caribou County.

LAUDS GOVERNOR
 POCATELLO (AP)—An Indian leader said Tuesday that Gov. Don Samuelson "is the first Idaho governor who would listen to the Indian and his problems."

Kesley Edmo, vice chairman of the Fort Hall Tribal Council, praised the governor while Samuelson and business leaders from Pocatello and Blackfoot were touring the reservation.

PETITION GIVEN
 WEISER, Idaho (AP)—A group of western Idaho farmers and ranchers has petitioned Gov. Don W. Samuelson to allow county commissioners to close dry farm and range lands to "unnecessary" public access.

At a Tuesday meeting, about 30 persons voted to ask Samuelson to "proclaim closure to all unnecessary access by unauthorized persons not having essential business in the area of all non-irrigated farm and dry rangelands within our state."

PROGRAM SET
 BOISE (AP)—A rehabilitation program study for Idaho State Penitentiary will continue despite recent changes in top prison personnel, state officials said Tuesday.

The State Board of Corrections told the study coordinator, Dr. Dan McAlees, to continue working toward "a complete rehabilitation program." Dr. McAlees is director of rehabilitation counselor training in Colorado.

CLARIFIED
 BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Public Utilities Commission said Wednesday the rate hearing set for Sept. 12 in Boise does not cover a general 3.5 per cent truck freight rate increase request.

Instead, the commission said, it involves a 3.5 per cent increase only in certain tariffs of W. S. Hatch Co., Intermountain Tariff Bureau and Pacific Inland Tariff Bureau.

Herrett Center Praised By Archaeologist

By JAN A. SAINSBURY
Times-News Feature Editor
The Herrett Arts and Science Center, Inc., is an unusual place. It is unique in its approach to education as well as being an instructional center for adults, teen-agers and children.

It is now under study by a team from UCLA charged with making an appraisal of what the center is capable of doing, and whether or not it may join the Twin Falls School System in the complex job of educating young people.

It is the hope of Norman Herrett, owner and operator of the center, that its fine and vast collection which day by day is not only used, looked at, and talked about, but also handled by young people will continue to be of value to the people of Twin Falls and the surrounding area.

Dr. Emma Lou Davis, a Ph.D., from California, who is an archaeologist at the San Diego Museum of Man, at Balboa Park, speaks extremely well of the facility. On a recent trip to Twin Falls the Doctor pointed out that, "It is tremendously impressive. It really should become a municipal center, locally sponsored, rather than the efforts of one man. There is nothing to compare with it within 800 miles. And without question a great deal of imagination has been used to display and show the progress of man."

This year the museum is presenting a Pre-Columbus South American Culture display, with young men and women trained as speakers to communicate effectively with youngsters their own age.

Students attending the museum, planetarium, and observatory, pay a small fee of 50 cents to cover the cost of operation. The center is incorporated and all money received is used for the educational complex. Teachers are encouraged to use the facility free for their educational needs.

The speakers, comprised of students, come only from the top students, according to grades, as they graduate from the sixth grade at six schools in Twin Falls and Kimberly. After two years instruction they become teachers of the new students interested in teaching the program themselves. The program changes every year in response to educational demands.

David McClure, the director of a museum planning grant from the Federal Government, will take the conclusions and recommendations offered by the UCLA appraisal before the school board in September.

According to McClure, "We are at the moment still working on gathering material and data for use in putting together a workable plan. The school board, however, will really be the ones who determine whether or not this program will become a part of the school system."

2 Counties Involved In Tax Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Idaho counties are among 50 in 19 states involved in a case study analysis of revenue sharing with the federal government.

Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, said Clearwater and Owyhee counties have been chosen by the Public Land Law Review Commission for the study.

Jordan, a member of the commission, said case studies are designed to show actual influence of major public land ownership and use situations on the financial structure of state and local governmental units.

The Land Law Review Commission will be in Idaho Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to inspect public lands. It will hold hearings in Spokane, Wash., and Jackson, Wyo.

Jordan said case studies will give particular attention to the following:

- Examination of state and local government budgets, showing proportion represented by receipts from public lands.
- Extent to which public lands cause financial obligation for each state and local government, including such obligations as schools, roads, police and fire protection, public utilities and recreation.
- Description of federal aid programs specifically related to public lands, such as federal highway and impacted school aid grants.
- Comparison of revenue sharing receipts with payments in lieu of taxes.
- Listing of services or facilities provided by federal government on the public lands and adjacent non-federal lands.
- Comparison of total federal payments and contributions with tax payments if public lands were in private ownership.

THE YOUNG TEACHING the young, is the basic principle behind the concept of the Herrett Arts and Science Center, Inc., Twin Falls. Here a student of the center, who is well school in what he is doing, communicates that knowledge to young people his own age. The owner and operator of the center, Norman Herrett, maintains that the young people can partially prepare themselves for college and employment by becoming interested in the culture around them. They need additional instruction without doubt, but according to Herrett, they should also be allowed to teach each other.

Possession Of Food May Be Of Most Strategic Value In Less Than 8 Years

By LEWIS C. FRANK JR.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In less than eight years we will embark on a new age — an age of widespread and disastrous famines. Nothing will avert this crisis. In the new age it won't be the possession of atomic weapons that will have the greatest strategic value, but the possession of food.

These are the premises of a new book, "Famine 1975," by a leading agronomist and a retired State Department official to be published by Little, Brown and Co. The authors are brothers, William and Paul Paddock. They say that it is too late for birth control or mammoth agricultural programs to avert the crisis. They urge that the United States write off as hopeless cases a number of underdeveloped and developing nations. They suggest that American resources be used in the fashion of military logistics and that they can be used in the "time of famines" as a catalyst for a new period of American greatness.

The nations and governments who are written off as hopeless by the Paddocks may see in the work a possible blueprint for an official U.S. policy that would be hostile to them.

Far from endorsing the premises of the Paddocks' despair or their projected program to build American strength on the hunger of others, we may still be grateful if their work provokes controversy. The time is now (the Paddocks say it is too late) when peoples and governments must be shaken to get proper perspectives on population problems.

In his new best-selling book, "La Vida," anthropologist Oscar Lewis sets forth a theory of "the culture of poverty." He suggests that it is characteristic of impoverished people to live for the day and to fail to plan for the morrow.

Another writer reporting on a family planning project in an Asian village decries the people's inability to plan, their lack of "future orientation."

These observations about the poor are doubtless valid. But if we are to decry the shortsightedness of the poor, we should be screaming at the myopia of wealthy governments and at the relatively well-educated people who elect or tolerate those governments.

The governments of all major world powers know that population growth is outstripping world food production. And in proclaimed awareness our own government is far ahead of the others.

Yet awareness has not been matched by vigorous programming for either food production or fertility control.

Sen. Ernest Gruening, who has been conducting important but too-little-publicized hearings on the "population crisis" has pointed out that fewer than 20 persons in the federal government are working full time on birth control problems.

A special study group of the U.S. Public Health Service recently submitted a report calculating how available money or money to become available could best be spent to save lives.

For example, they estimated that a $2 million program to get the public to use auto seat belts could avert 23,000 deaths over a five-year period; a $119 million program for early detection of cervical cancer would save 34,000 lives. The seat-belt program would cost $87 a life saved; the cervical cancer program would cost $3,500.

Let's use the same approach.

Let's treat the "unwanted pregnancy" as the health problem it is. What could health administrators, Congress, and voters expect from a $100-million-a-year program that would serve five million medically indigent women in the childbearing years with family planning advice and supplies on a voluntary basis?

The 5 million is a minimal figure. We have approximately 39 million women in the childbearing years and our poverty ratio is roughly about 20 per cent. In 1965 approximately one out of 10 women in the childbearing year gave birth. Using the same figures for the poverty group, where contraception is practiced less effectively, when it is used at all, our group of 5 million gave birth to 500,000 babies. Including abortions and miscarriages, we had a total of more than 650,000 pregnancies.

We have shown earlier that a maximum of 60 per cent of pregnancies are desired, including those that are unplanned.

Using the same figures for the poverty group, we come up with a staggering total of 300,000 unwanted babies.

But this is only part of the tragedy. Using the national figures of the March of Dimes, at least 18,000 of these unwanted babies were born with serious birth defects. And based on U.S. government figures, the fetal deaths, neonatal deaths, and infant deaths, (under 1 year) experienced among this group of women would exceed 17,000 in the single year.

Let's use the same approach.

Let's use the same approach.

Let's use the same approach.

Let's use the same approach.

To the nation and communities these personal tragedies add up to staggering costs.

A $100 million program today would provide the finest family planning assistance for every one of the 5 million or more women in the poverty group who would want it and use it. It would include all the costs of supplies, medical examinations, educational materials and personnel.

Compared with the U.S. problem, the fertility control programs of the developing nations are staggering. Yet there are hopeful signs on the horizon. The United Arab Republic, faced with an annual growth rate of 2.7, which would double its 31 million population in only 26 years, has launched a massive fertility control program. In less than eight months it has put 500,000 women on oral contraceptives and fitted thousands of other women with intrauterine devices.

Pakistan, with 121 million people and a growth rate that would double its population in only 22 years, has just opened a pill factory that will provide oral contraceptives for millions of women.

India, which every year adds almost 11 million mouths to its already underfed population, has the largest of all government programs. It pays Indian men to permit sterilization operations, has launched a huge campaign to insert the Lipps loop (the most widely used intrauterine device) and has just approved use of the oral contraceptives.

These governments and others, most notably Korea and Taiwan, have received encouragement and technical support from private American groups such as the Population Council of the Ford Foundation. These organizations and the International Planned Parenthood Federation have done superb pioneering work in demonstrating the use and efficacy of contraceptive methods.

Another hopeful sign was passage by the U.N. General Assembly last year of a resolution on population growth and economic development, which for the first time permits U.N. agencies to assist countries requesting help for advisory services in the field of population.

But even vastly improved programs in countries with runaway population growth will not necessarily obviate the catastrophe of famine predicted by Raymond Ewell, the Paddocks and others. The hope is that the catastrophes may be reduced in scope.

This will mark the beginning of the new season after a one month vacation. Plans for the event were made at an officer's meeting held at the church. Weekly meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the church, unless designated otherwise for special stake activity.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Why will a man pick a divorcee over a widow? It's a fact. I am a widow and I've lost out to divorcees time after time, and I have widow friends who have had the same experience. I am not bad looking, and I'm certainly not dumb. I have a nice personality (so I'm told), but for some reason I am not as appealing to men as a divorcee.

I should think a widow should have the edge because she is alone thru no fault of her own, but a divorcee is usually alone because she can't hold a man, or else she's fickle. If you can explain why men prefer divorcees over widows, Abby, you're a genius.

DEAR WIDOW: Sweeping generalizations are unfair and unjust. Many divorcees are alone "thru no fault of their own." Perhaps it is not as easy for a widow to be "merry" as it is for a divorcee to be "gay." Could that be a clue?

DEAR ABBY: There is a well-to-do, socially prominent woman in this community who has the reputation of being a kleptomaniac. She is charming, intelligent, and acceptable and is invited everywhere.

I had heard that she goes into bedrooms of homes where she is a guest and picks up small objects such as perfume bottles and compacts. She even opens the purses of other guests and helps herself to money, handkerchiefs, etc.

I was warned to keep my purse with me when this woman was in the company, but at a dinner party recently I left my purse in the bedroom.

Later I discovered my coin purse, containing $20 was missing. Do I dare accuse her? Should I tell my hostess? Who is responsible for the loss? If you were I, what would you do?

DEAR VICTIM: I would neither tell my hostess, nor accuse the woman merely because I had heard she was a kleptomaniac. For a warned should have been forearmed. Charge it off to experience and next time, keep your purse with you. (Meanwhile, don't peddle gossip, either.)

DEAR ABBY: Just as I was about to go out with my date, a girl friend (I'll call her Nellie) dropped by to see me. Nellie didn't make any effort to leave, although she knew we were going out, so my date asked her if she would like to go along since we were going to a house party and he was "sure" the hostess wouldn't mind one extra. Nellie jumped at the chance.

She stayed all evening, and after the party, my date took me home FIRST because Nellie lived closer to his house. (This was true, but I still didn't like it.)

My question: Don't you think Nellie should have refused to go along with us, since my boyfriend just asked her to be nice? Whose fault was all this?

BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED: One should never extend an invitation "just to be nice" in the hope that it will be refused. (Some people never refuse anything.) Your date made a triple error. Inviting Nellie along in the first place. Bringing an extra to a party without first consulting his hostess. Taking you home first.

Greenwich Church Tries Hippie Life

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly 400 tattooed artists, architects and religious leaders wearing rope nooses around their necks tried out the "hippie" life of psychedelic lights, discordant music and spontaneous happenings Tuesday night—at a Greenwich Village church.

The happening—officially billed as an "ordeal"—started with a kiss and ended with an order, "Get out!" and a push out the door.

For more than an hour, the participants took turns facing the hot lights of a police line-up, listening to bedtime stories while curled up with stuffed animals on long church pew cushions, and crawling through a blackened simulation of purgatory.

"It was a trip—like what those LSD trips must be like," said one smiling nun as she emerged from the Judson Memorial church.

Others disagreed. "It's a bunch of people taking themselves seriously about I don't know what," said a rabbi. "If this is a commentary on American life, it's a pretty infantile commentary." Father Francis Houtart of the University of Louvain in Belgium concluded, "It makes you think—just because there is no specific meaning you have to find some meaning."

As he walked off, Harold Spitznagel, an architect from Sioux Falls, S.D. told his friends, "I think I was put on."

The ordeals were created by members of the church's art program for leaders attending the 1967 International Congress on Religion, Architecture and the Visual Arts.

"The idea was to strip away people's hangups and to expose various aspects of an all-urban culture," explained Hugh Pickett, a church participant.

Funds Listed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Idaho's share of federal highway construction funds in fiscal 1969 will be more than $31 million, Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, said today. This includes $22 million for interstate highway construction and $9 million for primary and secondary roads.

Crossing Signs Urged By City Highway Board

Members of the Twin Falls Highway Commission, an advisory group to the city commission, Tuesday submitted two recommendations concerning traffic into and within the city.

A survey of railroad crossings made by the highway commission included 27 crossings in the city reviewed as to sight conditions, accident records and traffic control. Under House Bill 82, local governing agencies are asked to make such studies and to place stop signs at crossings where deemed necessary.

The highway group, headed by Henry Woodall, heard a report Monday night and voted to recommend the city place stop signs on Locust Street South and on Fall Street where the main line is crossed. Other crossings, the commission reported, appear to be adequately marked.

There have been only two accidents involving railroad crossings in the city of Twin Falls since 1964, the report said, although there are 27 crossings within the city limits.

Another recommendation from the highway advisory commission expressed the group's concern for U. S. 93 as a major Twin Falls highway.

The group, following a resolution unanimously approved, recommended the city contact the Department of Highways to request they look over U. S. 93 and make plans for improving it to current highway standards from the Idaho-Nevada state line to the Perrine Memorial Bridge.

Recommendations will be presented to the city commission at the next meeting Sept. 5.

Likes It!

NEW YORK (AP) — The handsome young Irishman had an easy explanation when asked why he had twice in 12 months stowed away on the line Queen Elizabeth.

"I like it here," John Joseph Hamill told inquiring federal officials Tuesday. "I wanted to see America."

A year ago Hamill, 23, of Belfast, stowed away on the queen and managed to get ashore for a week in New York before federal agents caught him. He was later deported.

This time he was three days out of Southampton, England, when he was picked up while sipping coffee on the liner's promenade deck. A U.S. commissioner held him in $5,000 bail.

University Study Targets 6 U.S. Cities As Riot-Prone

WASHINGTON (AP) — A university study targets six U.S. cities as riot-prone because their white and Negro residents are poles apart in perceiving slum problems.

Dr. John P. Spiegel, director of Brandeis University's Lemberg Center for the Study of Violence, said the study pinpointed Cleveland, Dayton and Akron, all in Ohio, and Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Boston.

"We are convinced that any one of the six cities could have a riot," Spiegel told the Senate Judiciary Committee Tuesday.

"The same elements are present in all of them."

Without saying which city Spiegel told the Senate panel that in one, 65 per cent of the Negroes interviewed complained of a lack of job opportunities, while only 27 per cent of the whites queried agreed Negroes had such a problem. In another city, said Spiegel, 77 per cent of the Negroes are fired by lack of decent housing. Only 26 per cent of the whites saw this as a major problem.

Ex-Miss America To Be Married

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Deborah Bryant, Miss America of 1966, will be given away by the president of her alma mater at her marriage Saturday to Roderrick Taylor Wilson.

Dr. W. Merle Hill, president of Christian College, will participate in the ceremonies at the Southwest Bible church in Prairie Village, Kan., a Kansas City suburb.

The former beauty queen's parents are divorced and her father, Hurley Bryant, is a civilian employee of the U.S. government in Vietnam.

Guardsmen from summer training camps to riot areas if needed.

—The second in a series of advertisements prepared by the National Guard Association of the United States to counter criticism of the Guard's performance in riots appeared in some large newspapers. Association officials said the Madison Avenue firm of Durand Sapan, Inc., had been retained to prepare and place the ads for an estimated $50,000.

Program For Inmates Will Be Continued

BOISE (AP) — The recent shake-up of top prison officials will not stop a rehabilitation program for inmates of the Idaho State Penitentiary.

Dr. Dan Mc Alees, a Colorado official, was given the go-ahead Tuesday by the State Board of Corrections to continue a study and program began last spring.

Mc Alees contacted the board Tuesday because he said he was uncertain about the future of the study in view of the resignation in early August of two members of the Board of Corrections.

Idaho Gov. Don W. Samuelson asked for resignations from the three-member board. Two have resigned and the third says he is considering it.

Mc Alees, a director of rehabilitation counselor training in Colorado, is studying rehabilitation at the Idaho State Penitentiary on a Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education grant.

Warden Mark Maxwell — who was one of the two board members to resign, but who is continuing on an interim basis — told Mc Alees the board of corrections "is very interested in starting a complete rehabilitation program at the prison."

He was substantiated by newly appointed board member C. L. House of Boise.

Mc Alees said the rehabilitation program would include upgrading current vocational training, screening of inmates and teaching social skills.

CLARK COUNTY sheriff's deputies and FBI agents gather in front of the Bank of Las Vegas branch at Overton, Nev., Tuesday after the bank manager and two women tellers were shot to death during a robbery. A 24-year-old man, Ernest Terry Conger of nearby Moapa, was later booked on charges of murder and robbery. Overton is a small farming community about 60 miles northeast of Las Vegas. (AP wirephoto)

Mrs. Black Is Chided By Candidates

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — With the bonnet of onetime child movie star Shirley Temple in the ring for Congress today, one of her opponents said: "If any old Shirley Temple movies are shown on TV, I'm going to ask for equal time."

The quip came from former U.S. Rep. Robert Barry, R-N.Y., who is among three Democrats and seven Republicans, including Shirley Temple Black, seeking the seat left vacant by the death of Republican Rep. J. Arthur Younger.

Mrs. Black, an attractive matron of 39, announced Tuesday she'll try as a Republican to break the all-male hold on California's 38 seats in Congress.

Two other of her Republican rivals had comments.

William Draper III, one of them, said gallantly: "She's an old sweetheart of mine, as a child movie star, and I'm looking forward to being her congressman."

Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore, another Republican, said, "I'm glad to see anyone enter the race, and let the people choose."

The only Democratic candidate to speak up, San Mateo Mayor Roy Archibald, said he was delighted: "She will make the seventh Republican candidate in their ranks, and that will just cause confusion."

Vietnamese Press Comes To Life With Campaign Coverage

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's presidential campaign is making the local press livelier than ever before. The newspapers are enjoying their freedom, but frequently adding more heat than light to the election.

When political censorship was lifted last month few editors were ready to accept the decree of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky at face value. As the candidates themselves grew bolder, however, the press followed suit.

Now the newspapers have surpassed the politicians and the reader is getting a heady political diet. The censored white space or delicate circumlocutions of the past has been replaced by uninhibited reporting.

Within the past few weeks Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, a presidential aspirant, has been called a traitor in print. Lesser though similarly emphatic labels have been applied to all his civilian rivals for the presidency.

Such free-wheeling treatment is not universal in Saigon's 38 daily newspapers published in Vietnamese, Chinese, French or English. But it is widespread enough to have made candidates of all stripes wince. Since the newspapers represent practically all brands of opinion save Communism or outright neutralism, they have lashed out at everyone.

Thieu and his vice-presidential running mate, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, were stung daily.

A wide range of newspapers—mostly two- and four-sheet dailies with more enthusiasm than money—have printed charges that Ky and Thieu are using their governmental positions to put pressure on provincial officials.

The honesty of the election machinery has become the overriding issue so far as the newspapers are concerned.

"Provincial officials are breaking their backs to support Thieu and Ky," one daily charged. "Obviously they are doing this to strengthen their own positions with their bosses."

Although the papers have borrowed the words "hawk" and "dove" from the American press, none has come forward with anything like a conciliatory policy toward the Communists. They might generally be classified as outright hawks or just plain hawks, although practically all of them are conscious of the peace issue and discuss how it might be brought about.

On such issues as land reform, taxes, corruption or the American presence in Vietnam, the papers like the candidates have been noisier than they have been specific. On the other hand they have used their new, and possibly temporary, freedom to bring a lot of issues into the public domain. The U.S. presence is no longer sacrosanct.

There are areas where the press is still reluctant to venture too far. When the military junta recently disclosed that a shakeup was being planned in which some corrupt officers would get the ax, the local press named no names although foreign correspondents freely did so.

Lincoln County Probate Judge Has 38 Petitions

SHOSHONE — There were 38 petitions handled for juvenile under adult probation of the local Probate Court the past year, according to report filed by Judge C. M. Wilson to the State Public Health Department.

Of the 38 the majority were male, with repeaters under one petition making a total of 39 male and six female youths handled in the court.

There were four male cases for stealing, one for running away, one for forgery, eight for sex offenses, nine for liquor violations, 12 traffic, five for other offenses. Most of the youth traffic cases for the county are handled by the Justice of Peace Court.

The six girls who were handled were one each for truancy, forgery, sex and two traffic.

Ages include 23 male and two females at 17, seven male and two female at 16, three male, 15, 1 male 12 and seven male under 11 years.

Nineteen were placed on probation, one committed to jail, three committed to the state Board of Health and 10 transferred to other juvenile courts.

Thirteen were placed under the juvenile probation officer, stating most of the youths who have appeared have responded well and have not had to reappear, that a majority of them seem to have benefited as result of the experience.

Judge Wilson states that court work with juveniles is much more time consuming than the public realizes. As an example, he said with many cases, such as traffic, the matter is handled with one appearance and books are easily closed.

While with the juvenile case, many appearances are most often required, hearings and book work will continue on one case for many months, and sometimes years, and there is no fine or record showing county officials or the public that any work has been done through the office.

The juvenile matters, too, are not made public, in most cases, which is for the benefit of the child, and thus much of juvenile court workers' time is not recognized by the public or even county officials who administer other business pertaining to the court.

Mr. Wilson feels pride, however, in accomplishment in juvenile work through his court, stating most of the youths who

Purse Money To Total $9,700 At T.F. County Rodeo

CONFIDENTIAL
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Thurgood Marshall's supporters are confident the Senate will confirm him as the first Negro Supreme Court justice in the nation's history.
 USE TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS FOR FAST SELLING RESULTS

Cowboys will be competing for an estimated $9,700 in purse money and entry fees during Filer's annual Twin Falls County Fair and Rodeo which explodes into high-kicking action Wednesday night, Sept. 6, continuing through Saturday night, Sept. 9.

Last year's explosive arena competition logged 182 of the booted clan, riding and roping for a prize money payoff of $9,740 up for grabs in the sport's five standard arena events.

Lion's share of the '66 bonanza was earned by the sport's 1965 bareback riding champion, Paul Mayo, of Grinnell, Iowa, who bested 52 of the top bull riders to win the tough one-head competition and spliced it with a second place finish in bareback riding. His total came to $831.

His younger brother, Bo, won the bareback competition, posting a four-point lead over Paul on two broncs.

Winston Bruce, Cochrane, Alberta, Can., won the saddle bronc riding; Sonny Davis, Kenner, N.M., calf roping; and Roy Duvali, Boynton, Okla., steer wrestling.

Sparking the field of early entries this year is Glen Franklin, House, N.M.; Dean Oliver, Boise; Shawn Davis, Whitehall, Mont.; Bob Schild, Blackfoot; Ned Londo, Las Vegas, Nev.; and C. W. Adams, Atascadero, Calif.

Franklin, 31, is challenging for his second national calf roping championship. He paces current calf roping title charts with a nearly $7,000 lead on his nearest rival. His earnings to date are $23,848. He won his first national championship in '65, setting a new world record of $29,646 in a single season.

Idaho's great champion, Dean Oliver, missed his chance for his eighth national calf roping championship during "National Finals" action in '66. He's currently in eighth place in national calf roping title charts.

Shawn Davis, 26, like Franklin, is making a strong bid for his second national championship in saddle bronc riding. He too, in winning the '65 crown, set an all-time money winning record of $25,599. He's some $2,500 in the lead currently for the '67 title.

As a member of the more than 500 rodeos approved annually by the professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, competition in the Filer arena is conducted under nationally recognized rules.

Prize money won here will be credited to the individual cowboy's standings in the '67 race for national rodeo championships. These titles, carrying $24,000 in award money, go to the top money winner in each event at the close of the rodeo season, which is climaxed by the sport's "world series," the National Finals Rodeo, Dec. 1-9 in Oklahoma City.

Contestants' entries close here on Tuesday, Sept. 5, at 8 p.m., according to rodeo committee man, Tom Shouse, secretary-manager.

Supper Set

SHOSHONE — A pancake supper will be served by the Episcopal Church from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Lincoln School cafeteria. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Committee members point out that those who come are invited to eat all they want at the original price. There will be William Mabbutt's famous sourdough pancakes served as well as buttermilk variety.

Housing Demonstrators Are Saved By Police Tear Gas

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Negro open-housing demonstrators, saved by a barrage of police tear gas from surging walls of screaming, rock-throwing whites, returned to their headquarters Tuesday night and watched it ravaged by flames.

Fire officials said the fire that destroyed the headquarters of the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was caused by an arsonist.

The blaze erupted less than an hour after council members, led by their adviser, the Rev. James E. Groppi, a white Roman Catholic priest, escaped from a white throng police estimated at 13,000.

The hecklers spilled over sidewalks along the 22-block route that took the marchers deep into the predominantly Polish South Side.

The mob, chanting "kill, kill, kill," hurled insults, bottles and rocks at the 200 marchers protected by a thin line of policemen.

Police said 45 persons were arrested.

Twenty-two persons were injured, 11 of them policemen.

A similar demonstration along the same route Monday night resulted in 16 arrests and two injuries.

Less than an hour after the marchers groped their way through a protective screen of tear gas toward a viaduct leading out of the South Side Tuesday night, they were caught up in a new crisis.

It developed as their bus pulled up outside council headquarters in the inner core, the Negro section that was the scene of rioting July 30.

Police and Negro witnesses gave conflicting versions of what happened.

Sgt. Frank Miller said the council members began protesting what they called lack of police protection as they began moving out of the bus. Bottles smashed the windshield of a police car, he said, and shots rang out from a vacant building alongside council headquarters.

Miller said police fired tear gas to disperse the Negroes and fired shotguns into the air.

During the melee, he said, an automobile drove by and a firebomb was thrown through the window of the council headquarters building.

Firemen were kept out of the area for 15 minutes while police sought a sniper. None was found.

Negroes, who clustered on the street corner near the burning building, denied there was any sniper or melee and insisted police did all the shooting.

They said that police fired tear gas canisters into the building—a claim Miller denied.

No one was injured and no arrests were reported at the fire. No description was obtained of the occupants of the auto, police said.

U.S. Swimmers Win 13 Titles At Games In Tokyo

By ROBERT LIU
TOKYO (AP)—Charles Hickcox swam the fastest 200 meters backstroke ever Tuesday night as the talented American swimming and diving team cracked three more listed world records and won six final of a two-day sweep of all 13 aquatic titles in the World University Games.

The 20-year-old Indiana U. junior from Phoenix, Ariz., won the 200 backstroke in 2:08.4 one night after he had shattered the world standard for 100 meter backstroke with a time of :59.3. The 200 time erased the mark of 2:10.3 set by Jed Graef of Princeton University in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics.

The other record-breakers were Doug Russell, Midland, Tex., in the 100 meter butterfly,

:56.3; and Linda Gustavson, Santa Cruz, Calif., in the women's 400 meter freestyle, 4:37.8. Miss Gustavson, winner of the 100 freestyle Monday, captured a third gold medal in swimming the freestyle anchor leg of the winning 400 meter medley relay team, timed in 4:36.2. Other members of the quartet were Kendis Moore, Phoenix, backstroke; Cynthia Goyette, Detroit, breaststroke, and Martha Randall, Philadelphia, butterfly.

The other winners were Don Havens, Granada Hills, Calif., 100 meter freestyle, :53.2, and Keith Russell, Mesa, Ariz., Springboard diving, 838.75 points.

Doug Russell, a junior at the U. of Texas at Arlington, bettered the listed record of :57.0, held by Argentina's Luis Nicolao, and tied the pending mark of :56.3, racked up by Mark Spitz of Santa Clara, Calif., last July 8.

Miss Gustavson, a tall, 17-year-old, surpassed the official record of 4:38.0, accomplished by Miss Randall, but was well behind the pending record of 4:29.0, turned in by Debby Meyer of Sacramento, Calif., on Aug. 18.

The Americans cracked three listed world records on Monday night in the opening of the aquatic meet in the magnificent Olympic Pool.

In addition to the six gold medals Tuesday, the Americans collected three silvers for second, one bronze for third, and topped the qualifiers in two other events.

In basketball, the heavily favored Americans trounced Thailand 120-46 for a 3-0 record. Brazil, Japan, and South Korea also have 3-0 records. Jo Jo White of Kansas U. led the Yanks with 18 points.

Lanier Bats Giants Past Dodgers 11-1

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Hal Lanier drove in five runs with a triple, two singles and a ground out and Joe Gibbon pitched a three-hitter Tuesday night as the San Francisco Giants jolted the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-1.

Lanier's second-inning single scored Ollie Brown, who had tripled. The shortstop's ground out and Jim Davenport's two-run single added three runs in the fourth.

Willie Mays opened the fifth with a walk and scored from first base on Jack Hiatt's single to right. Lanier had a run-scoring single in the inning and knocked in two runs with a triple in the Giants' five-run seventh.

Mays hammered his 17th homer in the seventh for the Giants, who have won 11 of 14 games with the Dodgers this season.

CHICAGO (AP)—Jim Wynn's three-run homer capped a five-run, eighth inning rally that gave the Houston Astros a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

Cub rookie Joe Niekro had a five-hit shutout going into the eighth before he departed after Ron Brand, Julio Gotay and Joe Morgan singled.

Chuck Hartenstein took over for Niekro and gave up a run-scoring single to Doug Rader before Wynn slammed his 31st homer with two out.

Don Wilson, 10-9, who departed for a pinch hitter in the eighth, got the win. Hartenstein, 6-4, was the loser.

Shrimp Will Be Released In Lakes

BOISE—One million Mysids shrimp, give or take a few, are being collected alive in British Columbia's Kootenay Lake for shipment and release in eight widely separated Idaho trout lakes.

This is the third year in a row that the Idaho Fish and Game Department has brought many thousands of these small crustaceans, called "opossum shrimp" because they carry their young in pouches or folds of skin in the same way marsupials do, for introduction into state waters.

Earlier releases of opossum shrimp were collected at Waterton Lake in Alberta, Canada.

They were introduced into Priest Lake, Anderson Reservoir, Pend Oreille Lake and some lakes in the Stanley area. The goal this year is 300,000 shrimp each for Priest and Pend Oreille lakes, and 100,000 each for Payette and Anderson Ranch and 50,000 each for Stanley, Alturas, Redfish and Pettit lakes.

This same fresh water shrimp species was introduced into Kootenay Lake several years ago. Since that time substantial increases in size of both kokanee and trout have been attributed to opossum shrimp. They look like small crayfish and are about 3/4 of an inch long. They dwell near the bottom of deep lakes during daylight hours and migrate to the surface at night. They are unlike native Idaho shrimp that live only in shallow lakes and streams.

Bighorn Season Runs Sept. 2-15

BOISE (AP)—Hunting of bighorn sheep in Idaho is legal this year only from Sept. 2 to Sept. 15. The State Fish and Game Department reminded sportsmen Tuesday.

Errol Nielson, big game supervisor, said about 500 hunters each year go into the remote and rugged areas where the bighorn sheep are found.

Nielson said only rams with horns of three-quarter curl or longer may be shot. The horns must be retained with the animal while it is being transported from the hunting area.

Yanks Split Twin Bill With Red Sox

NEW YORK (AP)—Horace Clarke's run-scoring single in the 20th inning gave the New York Yankees a 4-3 victory over Boston and a split of their twilight doubleheader Tuesday night.

Jim Lonborg pitched a three-hitter and drove in the winning run with a clutch single as the Red Sox took the opener, 2-1.

The split lifted the Red Sox into first place in the American League, one half game in front of Minnesota, which lost to Baltimore, 4-3.

Clarke's hit to right came against reliever Jose Santiago with one out in the 20th after John Kennedy singled and winning pitcher Jim Bouton was hit on the hand by Darrell Brandon. Bouton pitched five innings of three-hit relief to earn the victory.

Both teams scored in the 11th, the Yankees on Steve Whitaker's home run after the Red Sox took a 3-2 lead on a pinch single by Norp Siebern following Rico Petrocelli's double.

There were threats by both clubs almost every inning after that but sparkling defensive plays preserved the tie until the 20th.

In the top of the 17th, New York center fielder Bill Robinson caught a fly ball by Reggie Smith and threw Mike Andrews out at the plate with a perfect peg. Two innings earlier, Smith and Carl Yastrzemski made successive diving catches, cutting off a Yankee rally.

The Yankees chased Boston starter Lee Stange and tied the game 2-2 in the seventh on a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter Roy White.

With one out, Robinson singled, then sped to third on a single by Bob Tillman. John Wyatt replaced Stange and White greeted him with a run-scoring fly to left.

The Red Sox took a 2-0 lead against former teammate Bill Monbouquette in the second. Smith stroked a leadoff double, stole third and continued home when Tillman's low throw skipped into left field. Ken Harrelson, making his first trip to the plate since signing with the Red Sox Monday, then poled his 10th homer into the right center field bleachers.

Raft River Is Relying On Line, Rebuilds Backfield

MALTA—Replacing backfield stickouts Dana Tracy and Ray Jones is an almost impossible job the Raft River Trojans have to do but Coach Ruel Barker believes returning experience in the line will be a big help.

The Trojans, who won't have the BYU-bound Tracy at tailback for the first time in four years, open their Magic Valley Conference schedule at 8 p.m. Friday at Castleford.

Looking his team over Coach Barker said "Our backs are small but we've got good speed. Our strong points should be a

Australian Team Wins Tennis Meet

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Top-seeded John Newcombe and Tony Roche of Australia won the 87th U.S. National Doubles Tennis Championships by overpowering countrymen Bill Bowrey and Owen Davidson 6-8, 9-7, 6-3, 6-2, Tuesday at Longwood.

Wimbledon champions Billie Jean King and Rosemary Casals captured the women's title with a 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Mary Ann Eisel-of-St. Louis and Donna Floyd Fales of New York.

Newcombe, 23, and Roche, 22, captured the one title that had eluded them the last two years. They won at Wimbledon in 1965 and are the current Australian and French champions.

Repeating their triumph, over Bowrey and Davidson in the Australian final, Newcombe and Roche were hard pressed for two sets before wearing down the fourth and fifth-ranked Aussie players.

The top-seeded foreign pair breezed through the third and fourth sets in taking the U.S. Doubles Title to Australia for the third straight year. Players from Australia have captured the U.S. doubles crown a total of 13 times.

Following Friday's opener at Castleford, the remainder of the schedule includes Sept. 8, Firth at Raft River; Sept. 15, Hansen at Raft River; Sept. 22, Raft River at Rockland; Sept. 30, (homecoming) Oakley at Raft River (1:30 p.m.); Oct. 5, Raft River at Burley jayvees; Oct. 13, Raft River at Murlaugh; Oct. 20, Raft River at Decio, and Oct. 27, Raft River at Bancroft. It was Boyer's 23rd homer—and second grand slam—of the year.

Nicklaus Fires 7-Under Par To Grab Third-Round Lead In Westchester Meet

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
RYE, N.Y. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, the big golden bear with the thirst for golfing gold, crunched out a seven-under-par 65 Tuesday and grabbed a three-stroke lead in the third round of the $250,000 Westchester Classic.

Hitting his drives like thunderbolts and sinking 12-foot birdie putts as if they were taps, the blond better from Columbus, Ohio, went 15 under par for 54 holes with a score of 201.

Three-shots back of him at 204 came Gary Player of South Africa, winner of every major pro crown; 44-year-old Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, the reigning British Open king, and Dan Sikes, the golfing lawyer from Florida who was given new life twice by rain-outs.

Player, a cold little precisionist making hardly an error, and De Vicenzo, the popular 44-year-old Latin, both had 68s while Sikes, suffering from what he calls overexhaustion, struggled home with a 70.

This richest of all tournaments, with a $50,000 prize awaiting the winner, turned into a glamor scramble among the world's leading professionals after suffering "a lost weekend" with three days of rain.

Robinson Hits Orioles Past Twins 4-3

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Brooks Robinson lashed a two-out, bases-loaded double in the sixth inning for Baltimore's first hit off Dave Boswell, and the blow carried the Orioles to a 4-3 victory over Minnesota Tuesday night.

Robinson's hit, following three walks issued by Boswell, cleared the bases.

The defeat knocked the Twins out of the American League lead as Boston jumped past Minnesota into first.

Boswell and reliever Ron Kline allowed Baltimore only three hits but issued nine walks between them. Kline walked in an Oriole insurance run after replacing Boswell with the bases full in the eighth.

Jim Hardin posted his fourth victory in five decisions for the Orioles with ninth inning help from Moe Drabowsky. Baltimore 000 003 010—4 3 0 Minnesota 001 000 002—3 10 1 Hardin, Drabowsky (9) and Haney, Etchebarren (8); Boswell, Kline (8), Grant (9) and Nixon, W—Hardin, 4-1. L—Boswell, 11-9.

Bosman Hurls Senators Past Chicago 3-0

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dick Bosman, recalled Saturday from Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League, pitched a five-hitter Tuesday night as the Washington Senators jolted the Chicago White Sox 3-0.

The Senators scored all of their runs in the fourth inning off Tommy John, on one line single, three soft hits and two walks. John has not won a game since July 8.

Tim Cullen opened the third by beating out a hit to third and Ken McMullen walked. Frank Howard grounded a single under Ron Hansen's glove at short, scoring Cullen, and Rap Peterson lined a single to left, scoring McMullen.

After Peterson broke up a potential double play on Hank Allen's grounder by making second safely after a rundown, Paul Casanova was walked, leading the bases. Mike Epstein fanned but Ed Brinkman singled off John's glove, scoring Howard.

Two Give Mets 2-0 Triumph Over Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ron Swoboda blasted a lead-off home run in the fifth inning and Jerry Grote singled in another run, leading the New York Mets past St. Louis 2-0 Tuesday night on the five-hit pitching of Cal Kousser.

Swoboda's 10th homer, only the second hit off 14-game winner Dick Hughes, plinned the rookie right-hander with his fifth loss.

Tommy Davis led off the sixth with a single and Ed Kranepool sacrificed. After a wild pitch and a walk, Grote singled Davis home.

Strong in contention, four strokes out of the lead at 205, were Arnold Palmer, the all-time money-winning champion who fired a 67 in a threesome with Nicklaus and dandy Doug Sanders; Bob Charles of New Zealand, the left-handed former British Open champion, with 71; and Frank Beard, the Kentucky

A's Star Says He Is Better Off At Boston

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "That's the first time I ever stuck my foot in my mouth and came out with a better break and more money," Ken Harrelson, the Kansas City castoff, said after joining the Boston Red Sox here last night for the American League pennant race.

"It's the best thing that ever happened to me. I'm convinced we're going to win the pennant."

Harrelson, first baseman for the Athletics, was given his release after sharply criticizing Kansas City owner Charles Finley in the recent player controversy.

After Finley had fired Manager Al Dark, Harrelson called Finley "a menace to baseball." "Nine clubs made me offers, seven in the American League and two National League clubs," the first baseman said. "I turned down one offer that would have paid me about $50,000 more than the Red Sox."

"But I wanted to play with this club. They're young and aggressive. They've got a lot of good years ahead of them, and I want to be a part of it. Did you know that at 25 I'm about the oldest guy on the club?"

He declined to say how much he got for signing with the Red Sox.

"It was a nice little bundle," he said, "and I'm making more money than I did with the A's."

61 To Try For Idaho Grid Team

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—Some 61 candidates for the University of Idaho football team are expected to turn out Wednesday as the squad gets ready to begin practice.

Coach Steve Musseau said the first day would be taken up with picture-taking, physical examinations and the first squad meeting. Two-day practice sessions will start Thursday.

The squad will include eight junior college transfers, 15 sophomores, 15 juniors and seven seniors.

Lack Of Weight Clouds Wendell's Grid Chances

WENDELL — No size. That sums up the situation facing Wendell and Coach Yogi Behrens and if speed can't make up for it the Trojans might be in for a long football season.

Coach Behrens counts only one of his eight returning lettermen over 155 pounds and overall the Trojans will have only four men over 165—the heaviest being 175 pounds.

"It scares me when I see the size of the other teams in the conference," coach Behrens says. "We've got a little speed but I have nightmares because I know they'll be stacking us outside."

Although the speed is pretty good everywhere, Denny Jacobson, the returning quarterback, and halfback Jack Lancaster represent the best. Jacobson is a state track performer and Lancaster has been a key figure in Wendell's track relay teams.

Wendell is deepest in the backfield with sophomore Ralph King, despite his tender age, having one letter at wingback; Rodger King, 155-pound junior, returning at fullback and junior Ron Beck, 140 pounds, ready to fill in for Jacobson.

Returning with them are guards Brandon Eaton, 140 pounds, and Savy Fabella, 135 pounds, and center Tom Ambrose, 175.

Two unlettered seniors are working at tackle. They are DeWayne Olsen, 150, and Bob Mattic, 160. Juniors up from the jayvee clubs are Keith Stevenson, 140 pound end; Rodney Allread, 165 pound end; Bill Kearley, 145, end; Chuck Gunning, 165, tackle; Tim Mink, 135, guard; Gary Laudert, 140 wingback; Bill Eaton, 170, tackle; Doug Jacobson, 150, guard, and Bill Lowrey, 165 pounds, center.

The Wendell schedule includes Sept. 7, Wendell at Castleford; Sept. 15, Wendell at Shoshone; Sept. 22, Kimberly at Wendell; Oct. 6, Filer at Wendell; Oct. 13, Wendell at Wood River; Oct. 20, Wendell at Glenns Ferry; Oct. 27, Valley at Wendell; Nov. 3, Hagerman at Wendell, and Nov. 11, Wendell at Gooding.

Infield Hit Gives Indians Win Over A's

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Vic Davalillo outraced the throw to the 10th inning Tuesday night, giving the Cleveland Indians a 9-8 victory over Kansas City.

Davalillo beat out an infield single with one out in the 10th and took third on Chuck Hinton's single before scoring on Chico Salmon's grounder to second baseman John Donaldson, whose throw home was late and wide.

The A's scored six unearned runs in a wild sixth inning for a 7-6 lead, then fell behind again before tying it 8-8 in the eighth when Bert Campaneris tripled and beat the throw to the plate on Donaldson's infield tap.

Death Takes J. C. Lockard

James Carl Lockard, 80, died Tuesday afternoon at the Magic Valley Memorial Hospital of a short illness.

He was born March 22, 1887, in Jamestown, Mo., and came to Twin Falls in 1961 from Washington where he had farmed. On April 8, 1917, he married Greta Blodgett in Beloit, Kan. Mr. Lockard belonged to the Methodist church.

Survivors include his widow, one son, James Lockard, Kimberly; four daughters, Mrs. Geraldine Turnline, Bay Side, Calif.; Mrs. Dorothy Norris, Hansen; Mrs. Arlene Street, Joplin, Mo., and Mrs. Verda Thomas, Louisville, Ky.; one brother, Ray Lockard, Gallatin, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. Webb Smith, Monte Vista, Colo.; 12 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at Reynolds Funeral Chapel by Rev. Harold N. Nye. Final rites will be held in the Twin Falls Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel Friday.

Miss Lindsay Gives Shows In Slum Areas

NEW YORK (AP) — Kathy Lindsay is a tall, blonde teenager whose interests include show business and volunteer work and who also happens to be the daughter of New York's mayor.

This summer she managed to combine those specific interests by spending six weeks of her vacation staging puppet shows for children in slum areas.

Tuesday she rang down the curtain on her summer job with the Carver Houses Puppeteers in Spanish Harlem. The youngsters in the troupe responded by presenting her a puppet named Peter.

"Kathy is nice," 6-year-old Tanya Mays, one of the youngsters who helped make the puppets, said between blowing bubbles on her chewing gum.

Kathy, 16, eldest of the four Lindsay children, has been living in Gracie Mansion with her father while the rest of the family stayed in a house at Laurel Hollow, Long Island.

Each day the mayor's daughter commuted to work by bus and subway. "It's really been fun," she said. "I wasn't afraid to work here. There were no disturbances or tensions."

Rockwell's Burial Is Refused

CULPEPER, Va. (AP) — It was just the kind of near-funeral George Lincoln Rockwell might have wanted.

His small, fanatic band of American Nazis gained center stage in full glare of the national spotlight Tuesday—confronted by the U.S. Army, surrounded by television cameras.

Rockwell had cherished publicity—and did many things to get it.

As a corpse he attained his ultimate publicity.

But at the end of a day at times so weird it was like a bad movie, the body of the slain "fuhrer" remained unburied and the Nazis refused to reveal where his body was or what they planned to do with it.

Rockwell's followers refused to doff their Nazi insignia and leave their swastika flag behind to enter the peaceful little Culpeper National Cemetery and bury their assassinated chief.

But those were the ground rules laid down by the Army. And when it came time for the government gravediggers to go home the Army rescinded its permission for ex-Navy Cmdr. Rockwell to be interred in Culpeper—or any other military cemetery.

Union Hires Picket At White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is being picketed by a union representing 63,000 postal workers seeking a 15 per cent pay raise.

"Postal employees for the first time in history are openly talking of a strike," said Sidney A. Goodman, president of the National Postal Union. But he did add that under the law and the union's constitution, his members would be prevented from striking.

Asked what would happen if the pay hike isn't granted, Goodman replied: "We will take that up when we get to it."

A House subcommittee has approved a 6 per cent pay raise for postal workers this year and another 5 per cent raise for next year. Present pay scales provide for a postal clerk maximum of $7,267 after 21 years.

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland has been asked by a U.S. Senate subcommittee to report on disturbances in the Albina District July 30 and 31.

He is survived by his parents who live at Glendale, Ariz., two brothers, Marvin Olmstead, Seattle, Wash., and Elwyn Olmstead, Glendale, Ariz.

He was a nephew of John Olmstead and a cousin of Ruth Brown, both Murtaugh.

Classes at the college began Wednesday.

Demos Urge Party Strife Elimination

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A high-ranking Democrat has urged party members at the local level to eliminate "internal strife" for the 1968 election and join in the same "kind of cooperation that existed between John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson."

"I can tell you that Lyndon Johnson, Hubert Humphrey, Robert Kennedy and our other national leaders will stand together in 1968," said Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien. "But what about our leadership on the local level?"

Some Democrats have said they will not support President Johnson in 1968 because of the Vietnam war.

Speaking Tuesday night at an Ohio Democratic party fundraising dinner, O'Brien said, "What I am asking of you is no less than the kind of cooperation that existed between John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson."

Mrs. Duvall, 52, Dies In Olympia

Mrs. Florence M. Duvall, 52, former Twin Falls resident, died Monday at Olympia, Wash., of a four-month illness.

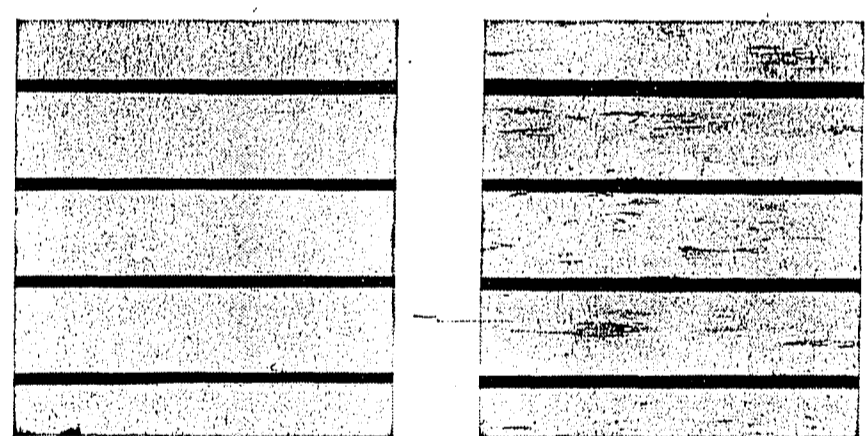

She was born Jan. 8, 1915, in Twin Falls and was graduated from high school here. She was married to Richard P. Duvall and later they moved to Seattle. For the past year they have lived in Olympia.

Survivors include her husband, Olympia; one daughter, Mrs. Ed Edmundsen, Santa Monica, Calif.; one son, Andy Duvall, Olympia; mother, Mrs. Hilma Anderson, Twin Falls; one sister, Mrs. Vern Lawrence, Salem, Ore.; two brothers, Rollins Anderson, Twin Falls, and Leonard Anderson, Santa Clara, Calif., and three grandchildren.

Last rites will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Olympia.

Utah Church Man Speaks To Conclave

MALTA—"With the help of the Lord, any man can keep His commandments," said Elder A. Theodore Tuttle, member of the First Council of Seventy, Salt Lake City, at the Raft River Stake quarterly conference held in the Malta LDS Stake house Sunday.

"Keep the Word of Wisdom. Don't smoke. Don't drink," he advised. "Courage is the greatest of all human qualities," he continued, "because it is the quality upon which all other qualities are based."

Elder Tuttle, an educator, has devoted most of his life to teaching youths. He was an administrator and instructor in the church school system and also administered the five South American missions of the church.

Edwin H. Paskett, president of the Raft River stake, discussed the difference between joy and pleasure.

"Joy is lasting, but pleasure is fleeting," he said. "There is no joy in breaking God's commandments, but only remorse," he declared.

Elder Willford M. Burton of the Sunday School Board, Salt Lake City, discussed the importance of the Family Home Evening.

Other speakers during the morning session were Buddy D. Ward and Frank Craven, coordinator of the seminaries of the church, who urged better attendance at seminaries.

Nadine Tuttle, Carla Tuttle and Ted Tuttle sang, accompanied by Mrs. Wells Hopworth. Mrs. Brent Udy, Mrs. Martha Bench and Mrs. Joy Harper also sang, accompanied by Terry Booth.

Prayers were given by William Tracy and Francis Gunnell. Arthur Anderson of the Home Teaching Committee stressed the importance and urgency of home teaching.

Other speakers were Blaine Wight, Jay Nielson, Earl Udy and Elder Tuttle who discussed "Becoming Worthy Parents." Robert Thompson and Mrs. Orville Udy sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Larry Powers.

Prayers were given by Bishop Ernest Clark and Ruel Barker. During the business session, Louis Wickel, Bert Goodman, Trent Stevens, Arlo Lloyd, Lyle Durfee and Bryce Tracy were advanced to the office of elder.

It was recommended that Lee Jolly and R. M. Kelsey be advanced to the office of high priest. Leonard Hall and Golden Gardner were released from the superintendency of the Sunday School. Inez Barlow was released as secretary.

Buddy D. Ward was named new superintendent of the stake Sunday School with Gary Fowler as first counselor and William Tracy as second counselor. Edwin H. Paskett conducted conference sessions. Mrs. Oleen Warr conducted congregational singing with Mrs. Brent Udy as accompanist.

21 Per Cent Of Soviet City's

MOSCOW (AP) — Twenty-one per cent of the people questioned in a survey made in a large Soviet city said they were religious, it was disclosed today.

Svetlana Will Appear On TV Interview

NEW YORK (AP) — Svetlana Allieyeva, Stalin's daughter will appear on an hour-long interview this fall on a network of stations affiliated with National Educational Television.

NET succeeded in signing Mrs. Allieyeva despite the fact that the three commercial networks reportedly were ready to offer her large sums for an appearance. She will not be paid for the NET interview.

Mrs. Allieyeva will be interviewed in English by Paul Niven, NET Washington correspondent, at 9 p.m. Monday, Oct. 2. The program will be seen live on a network of about 80 educational and noncommercial stations across the country.

The survey was the first of its kind observers could remember being published in this officially atheistic country, where a thoroughgoing campaign has been waged during the past 30 years to stamp out religion.

The survey was made in Kazan, a city of 900,000 located 450 miles east of Moscow. It took two years to complete.

Nauka I Religia—Science and Religion—the official magazine of Soviet atheism, published a report on the survey in its edition which came out today. The magazine did not say why it did this but the purpose was apparently to warn that religion still has a hold on a large part of the public.

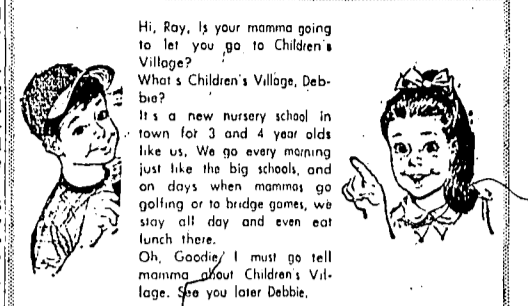

More than over 400 students and others at Kazan's university and the city's medical institute conducted the survey. They questioned 4,710 persons, about 1 per cent of the total adult population.

Of these, 989 said they believed in one or another religion.

The survey determined that 81 per cent of the believers were only 3 per cent of those who admitted to being religious were 30 years old or younger. This was in line with the widely accepted opinion that atheism has been most successful with young people who have known only a Soviet education.

Another expectable result was that 81 per cent of the believers were women. But a surprisingly large number of the believers belonged to the working class, the bulwark of the Communist state. The report said 34 per cent

California's Assembly Speaker Says Legislature Should Be Inventive

By BILL STALL
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Proclaimed in bold golden letters high over Abraham Lincoln's portrait and the elevated speaker's rostrum of the California Assembly is the Latin sentence: "Legislatorum Est Justas Leges Condere."

Translation: "It is the duty of legislators to make just laws."

But far more than that, believes Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, the 20th century legislature should be enlightened, vigorous and inventive.

The 44-year-old Unruh is California's most potent legislator, and its most powerful Democrat in the wake of last fall's Republican election victories which placed Ronald Reagan in the governor's chair.

Elsewhere, whenever he has the chance, Unruh is one of the nation's most energetic and outspoken advocates of a strong state government and particularly an independent legislature, free from outside pressures and with the prestige and power similar to those of the nation's restless early years.

For decades, too many legislative halls have been power vacuums, Unruh feels, echoing and rubber-stamping the demands of special interest groups.

Now Unruh sees the pendulum beginning to swing back, with California in the forefront. "It's very slow," said Unruh during an interview in his office, part of an expansive complex which houses the speaker's staff. His own office is decorated with modern paintings and mementoes of Unruh's travels and his association with the Kennedy family.

Seldom does Unruh preside over the Assembly, and he normally speaks—in eloquent rising and falling tones—only on the major issues, or a pit bill.

The prime resistances to strong state legislatures comes from the business community, Unruh contends, "not so much out of fear of the legislature, but because businessmen know what their situation is now and they don't know what it would be."

Other opposition comes from the vast federal bureaucracy, Unruh further believes, citing a fruitless attempt to get a federal study grant for legislative leaders.

Despite all this, Unruh says states have done more in the past three years than in the previous half century to equip their governments with the tools needed to act decisively. "It has begun...but there is a long way to go," Unruh said.

California has come far. All 120 legislators—80 in the Assembly and 40 in the Senate—have offices, both in the Capitol and in their home districts. Most have an administrative assistant.

Committees and their chairmen have staff consultants for research, and the legislative branch has its own well-paid fiscal and legal experts.

Last fall, Californians overwhelmingly approved a constitutional amendment, making the legislators' post virtually a fulltime job. The measure established annual general sessions, with no limit on length or subject matter. Legislators' salaries went from $6,000 to $16,000 a year, and they were covered by a code of ethics.

Counting his $25 a day expense allowance, the California legislator earned more than $21,000 for the record 217-day-long 1967 regular session.

It's too early for the amendment to produce dramatic changes, Unruh said. But one effect has been to ease the crush of bills, including critical financial measures, which used to pile up toward the end of the former 120-day regular sessions.

A major criticism of the national Committee for Economic Development in a recent report was that legislative seats were unattractive to qualified candidates and legislators too often were nonentities, unknown to many of their constituents.

Unruh concurs in the need for legislators to be in public view. "Visibility is the greatest safeguard against corruption...the greatest guarantee of performance," he said. "The less visibility you have, the more shockingly (inept) legislators you have."

Sawtooth Forest Free From Fires

The Sawtooth National Forest continued into what officials hope will be its second fire-free week Tuesday. Despite lightning storms and continued dry weather, the forest has had no fires reported since Aug. 21.

Less than four and one half acres of forest land have been burned this season, compared with the more than 25,000 acres of land that had been charred by fire this time last year.

Two 25-man pickup crews and the interregional fire suppression crew remained on out-of-district fires today.

According to Wally Porter, Forest Service employe, travelers through forest land are urged to use continued caution with camp fires, matches and cigarettes in order to maintain the record-breaking good fortune experienced by the forest last week.

An axe, shovel and bucket closure of forest land went into effect Monday, requiring that all persons traveling through Sawtooth areas by automobile, pack animal or other vehicle carry an axe, shovel and bucket for use on any fires they see.

Titan Booster To Be Displayed At T.F. Fair

An exhibit highlighting the Air Force's most powerful space booster, the Titan IIIC, will be displayed at the Twin Falls County fair Sept. 6-9 at Filer.

Designated as a booster for present and future Air Force space probes, the mighty Titan IIIC is the first launch vehicle developed by the Air Force from the outset as a space booster. Taller than a 12-story building and six times more powerful than the Atlas rocket which carried the Mercury astronauts into orbit, the power-laden 127-foot long Titan IIIC, developing 2.5 thousand pounds of thrust, can hurl more than 10 tons into a precise 115-mile-high orbit.

In space probes to date, the Titan IIIC has performed beyond all expectations. Early this year, January, 1967, a Titan IIIC blasted a 27,967 pound payload into orbit with all systems performing as planned. Eight communication satellites were released in an 18,200 nautical mile, near-synchronous equatorial orbit within eight-tenths of a second of the planned time.

This mission, together with the June, 1966, Titan II launch, provides a total of 15 operational satellites in orbit for the Department of Defense global military communications.

The future for Titan III promises to be even more spectacular. Some of the launches may include: scientific payloads into lunar and interplanetary trajectories, boosting manned aerospace into Earth orbit, boosting manned, orbiting stations and transporting a unit to supply and service space stations.

The scale model presented for this showing is one-fifth the size of an actual Titan IIIC space booster.

The public is invited to visit the display from 8 a.m. to midnight daily. Admission is free.

This exhibit is sponsored by Twin Falls County Fair in cooperation with the U. S. Air Force.

Bill Vickers Resigns From Police Force

Bill Vickers, member of the Twin Falls Police Department for the past five and one-half years, has resigned to move to Pocatello where he will continue his education at Idaho State University.

Mr. Vickers, who joined the department as a patrolman, spent 18 months in uniform before joining the detective department four years ago. He had worked with that department until his resignation became effective Monday. In Pocatello, where his wife, Casandra, has already moved and accepted a job, he will complete the one-year needed for a bachelor degree in business administration. After that, Mr. Vickers said, he may continue school at the University of Idaho where he would study law.

In announcing his resignation, Mr. Vickers said he regrets leaving the police department and has enjoyed working with the many outstanding officers over the past five years. He said he feels Twin Falls now has an excellent police department.

ATTENDANCE SET

MONTREAL (AP) — Expo 67 reported last week it set an attendance record of 2,549,472 and the season total since the April 30 opening passed 35 million.

FEATURED in an Air Force display at the Twin Falls county fair Sept. 6-9 at Filer will be the Titan IIIC, the first launch vehicle developed by the Air Force from the outset as a space booster. The Titan IIIC is taller than a 12-story building and six times more powerful than the Atlas rocket.

Prisoner Here Is Alabama Escapee

Charges of first degree burglary were dropped Tuesday in Twin Falls against Lloyd Weems when it was learned he was wanted by the State Board of Corrections, Montgomery, Ala., as an escapee.

Police Chief Frank Barnett said Weems will be held for Alabama authorities.

He was arrested in Twin Falls about two weeks ago in connection with the burglary of the Shell Service Station on Addison Ave. W.

Sharon Weems, traveling with him, is still being held in Twin Falls on burglary charges with a preliminary hearing scheduled for Thursday.

"Dumb Cop" Enjoys Very Little Popularity With Young And Old

By TOM TIEDE

PEORIA, Ill. (NEA) — Last summer a Peoria grade school teacher was familiarizing a class of tots with the duties of various city agencies. The instructor held up pictures of several employees and asked the children what each man did.

The kids said the fireman "put out fires." The engineer "built roads." The animal welfare man "caught stray dogs." The sanitation worker "picked up the garbage."

And what about the police officer?

"He's dumb," one child said. "He hurts you," another commented.

"He shoots you," added a third.

The answers may surprise some readers but they by no means surprise policemen in this nation. In fact, law officers expect such comments. They know full well that a good part of the public, adult as well as infant, dislike all "dumb cops."

"I've been on the force five years," says Patrolman Billy Pollard, "and in that time I've seen the same look in a lot of faces. It's not a very nice look sometimes." Looks, however, are the least serious manifestations of a problem. Recently, Pollard experienced a somewhat stiffer degree of it. He was working a south side district at the time and had detained a probable lawbreaker.

As Pollard questioned his suspect a quiet crowd began to gather. As they clustered, the suspect became bellicose. He refused to co-operate and told the officer not to touch him. In the course of the argument the men scuffled.

Then the crowd began to grumble. Somebody said something about police brutality.

Nasty names were used. Finally, deliberately, a small boy pulled a toy pistol from a toy holster, aimed it at Pollard and pulled the toy trigger.

"Bang," he snapped, "the dumb cop's dead."

The kid was not playing. Not really. He meant it. He saw the policeman as his enemy. And, as most police agree, why shouldn't he? Millions of boys learn from infancy not to respect the law officer but to fear him and jeer him.

"It's partly the parents' fault," says Pollard. "Every time some parents see their kids do something wrong they automatically yell: 'Don't you do that or we'll get the cops after you! The cops'll lock you up! The cops'll get you!'"

"Kids remember that all their lives."

Kids also remember the times their father got traffic tickets and came home to rap the entire police setup. They remember the neighbor kids making obscene comments at passing squad cars. They remember the filthy jokes made about "the fuzz."

And so it is that cop haters are bred.

"It's a serious thing," says Peoria Police Chief Bernard Kennedy. "It's not so much that it hurts individual policemen but, rather, that it hurts over-all police work. Without public co-operation, the police job is measurably harder."

"Not everyone in Peoria dislikes the police, certainly. In fact, we enjoy a good deal of public co-operation. You can tell that from the number of phone calls we receive from private citizens who see something or hear something suspicious. "But like most other cities, we find some public disinterest. I guess it's a sign of the times that today we see auto bumper stickers proclaiming 'Support Your Local Police.' The fact that such stickers are necessary is, I think, very sad."

Obviously, bumper stickers offer neither salve nor solution to the problem of public apathy in the United States. What is needed, according to both sides, is more overt communications between the cops and the citizens.

In Peoria, as elsewhere, people remain aloof from the police and vice versa. The station house is a place of horrors to avoid. The sight of a patrol car in a rear view mirror sends shudders through even the safest of drivers.

Who is to blame? Both sides are guilty, both sides prejudiced.

"Well," admits a rookie patrolman, "I guess it's true I get a little sour now and then. But this is a tough job. The people have got to understand our problems."

"Well," admits a Peoria druggist, "I really don't have anything against the police except they act so superior. They've got to understand that people are human beings."

The comments are typical here and everywhere. Police

"Crabbiest"

CRISFIELD, Md. (AP)—Ray Fuchs of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been named the world's crabbiest boss by officials of the National Hard Crab Derby.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew is to dub him with that distinction at the derby Labor Day weekend.

Fuchs' secretary complained that while driving her to work and taking her out to lunch, he talked incessantly about his children. Fuchs' secretary is his wife.

want civilians to give a little and civilians want police to do the same. It seems solvable. Among men of good faith, conciliation and agreement should be easy.

But it's not.

"I was on the force two years," complains a former Peoria law officer. "I did my best. Yet in that time I bet I got dozens of nasty calls from townspeople. The anonymous ones were the worst. You never heard such talk."

So the man quit. As he says: "I just got sick of being a dumb cop."

AVOIDANCE PLAY ASSURES GAME

The avoidance play does not mean that you avoid playing with someone you don't like. It means to avoid letting the dangerous opponent into the lead.

ters squarely up to South. He wanted to establish dummy's heart suit in order to discard a couple of his clubs but he also didn't want West in the lead again.

If he simply drew trumps and went after hearts West would be sure to gain the lead with the queen or jack and would undoubtedly lead a club. Of course, South could complain about bad luck with West holding both heart honors but South preferred to make his contract if possible.

Therefore South let the trump ride around to dummy and led the king of diamonds. East covered with the ace and South discarded his four of hearts.

After this loser or loser avoidance play it was just a matter of mopping up. East led a second trump. South won in his own hand, played ace and king of hearts, ruffed a heart, entered dummy with the last trump and discarded two of his three clubs on the good hearts.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

Pass 4♥ Pass 7

What do you do now?

A—Pass. You have the same 11 points you started with and you showed that much when you bid two no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three hearts, your partner bids three clubs over your two no-trump and four hearts over your rebid of three hearts. What do you do now?

four-spade bid. We like to raise our partner's major suit on most occasions but this time North should have seen that a diamond opening might hurt four spades while the chances were that nothing could hurt him if he played at three no-trump.

Actually, it would take a club lead to beat South at three no-trump but East had bid a diamond and West opened his partner's suit against the spade contract.

Dummy's jack lost to East's queen and East made the good return of a trump. This put mat-

ELE AND WALT DULANEY

What Subject Lights Your Fuse?

It's a common assumption that learning helps people to rise above their emotions and see everything in crystal-clear, rarified honesty, undistorted by emotional bias.

Well, that may be true up to a point. However, so far as the Dulaneys have observed, each man, no matter how learned, has one topic that can set him raving.

In your own clan you probably know a relative who foams at the mouth everytime he sees a boy in hippie-length hair. Press him for a spell-out of his hatred for the long locks and he'll quickly leap from "unsanitary" and "effeminate" to "un-American" and incoherent points east.

Granted ourselves the right to be human, we must respect the humanness of others. If we find a friend, relative or acquaintance has a sealed mind on a given subject, we must be tolerant of his intolerance!

Are all opponents of long hair fanatic ravers? No. Many can state their opposition, listen to rebuttal and reply without soaring into orbit. But the raver possesses no such cool. For him the topic has a chemical nature all its own, a climate that rubs his every nerve raw and causes spontaneous combustion.

Once bronched, the subject starts steam rising until it's boom! Or burst!

The range of sensitive topics is incredible. We once saw a sedate, white-haired man erupt into a profane, poison-tongued harpale at the mere mention of the name of the late President Franklin Roosevelt. To her, all woes, personal, national and international, dated back to his 1932 inauguration.

A fair-minded male of our acquaintance goes absolutely mental when I.Q. tests are discussed. His gentlest words for I.Q. testers are "frauds" and "charlatans." We wouldn't even try to guess the reason for his reaction, but valuing his friendship, we just steer well clear of his raving topic, knowing he does the same for ours.

WHAT ORBITS US? What sends the Dulaneys orbiting? If you're a regular reader you know Walt's views on paint-by-number kits and lovers out who try to reform their be-loveds, no need to elaborate there. Ele sees blood-red, how- ever, on the subject of child abuse (both mental and physical varieties). When pressed, she starts to sizzle and call for the "licensing of parents" to have children, only after appropriate qualifying tests, of course!

Funny? Well, before chucking off into the sunset, how about examining your own recent conversational fireworks? Note a similarity? Unless we miss our guess, you'll discover you've a "raving topic" too.

Granting ourselves the right to be human, we must respect the humanness of others. If we find a friend, relative or acquaintance has a sealed mind on a given subject, we must be tolerant of his intolerance!

Instead of continually flogging a useless cause, let's just establish the fact that our opinions differ and move on to more worthwhile areas. Dialogue: "We don't get anywhere with this one subject. You know my ideas and I know yours, so let's leave it out of future discussions." Then stick to the rule: "Hey, we agreed to skip that subject from now on!"

A few party games to break the ice are always handy tricks for a wise hostess to have up her sleeve. Ele has a wide selection in her pamphlet, "Ele's Ice Breakers: 33 Mixer Games." For a copy, write to Teenage Date-Line, in care of this newspaper, enclosing a dime and a self-addressed envelope.

BARBS

We know a town that is absolutely free of gambling, according to the mayor. You wanna bet?

Add to end-of-summer bonns: with the coming of cool weather, the fatty next door will have to begin wearing an undershirt when out in the yard.

Everyone here is a golf enthusiast — it keeps the boss paint-by-number kits and lovers out of the office three afternoons a week.
