STUDY HALL'S a lot quieter this year at Kimberly High School. Superintendent Robert Sherman says it is seldom an instructor needs to quiet the students, and students admit the atmosphere makes them want to study more.

Now School Is "Piece Of Pie" For Proud Kimberly Students

By RUTH KOONCE MILLER
Times-News Staff Writer

If the attitude of the students at the new Kimberly High School is any indication, the unique school ought to remain looking just that way—new.

The students, by their own admission, are extremely proud of the circular facility. And the instructors have noticed this.

"They're all proud of it—you see very little pride or other release clattering the floor," reports Robert Sherman, superintendent.

Why are they proud of it?

Because it's new. Because it's different. And, of course, because "kids from other schools are jealous."

One girl even said she knew some teen-agers in California who wished they could go to school at Kimberly, which is apparently the ultimate.

The new school is, indeed, unique and students, parents and teachers have much to be proud of. The round structure features pie-shaped rooms and utilization all possible space.

The corridors, which are all carpeted, seem to be the most

Leads Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — A Nationwide poll shows that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller leads the first round of the building Monday to reserve their new places.

Reservations for specific numbers opened Monday at 8:30 a.m. and 21-T plate was reserved for Mr. Rockefeller, Twin Falls, who began his wait in front of the assessor's door Saturday afternoon.

Sheriff James H. Benham said about four persons, including Mr. McAuley, spent Sunday night on the steps of the courthouse with camping facilities such as sleeping bags and hot coffee to help them through the wait.

Reservations, carrying an additional slight charge, may be made through Nov. 30, officials of the assessor's office said. If the buyer doesn't want to wait in line a second time, the plates will be mailed.

Persons must pay for their plates when they receive a special number. Assessor Thompson explained.

Persons lucky enough to receive a low number, or the ones they want will not have to wait the early lines for three years, as the new 1968 reflector plates will continue to be used through the end of 1970, with new tags for the particular year added, rather than an entire new plate.

Turkey Soccer Riot Claims 41

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Rioting broke out in the central city of Sivras today over a soccer rivalry that resulted in 41 deaths in a stadium riot Sunday.

Police reported screaming fans in Sivras burned down several stores and a hotel owned by residents of Kayseri. The two cities are 125 miles apart.

Provincial police called in the local army garrison to put down the riot.

In the Sunday riot, fans from Sivras objected to a home team goal in the soccer game at Kayseri Stadium. Stones were thrown and the stadium was stamped for the exits.

Police in Sivras could not estimate the size of the mob, saying rioters moved in at a point along different parts of the city of 100,000 residents.

Provincial police said at least 10 persons were arrested for having incited the attacks.

Middle East Question Goes To U.N. Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly, in a final meeting of the emergency session on the Middle East, voted without dissent today to hand that question over to its regular session opening Tuesday.

The 122-nation assembly adopted an American resolution that would require the parties to that affect a few moments after it was introduced formally by Austrian Ambassador Kurt Waldheim. The vote was 93-0 with 3 abstentions.

Despite that show of unanimity, the resolution was not adopted out of little hope for settling the dispute before the Dec. 19 target date for closing the regular session.

Buhl Youth Captures Little Rodeo Honors

A 13-year-old Buhl cowboy, Mike Morrison, took home the all-around high point trophy from the annual Little Buckaroo Rodeo which ended Saturday night at Frontier Field in Twin Falls.

Young Morrison was a top performer during all three shows held for young riders and ropers 7 through 14 years of age.

He placed first in both the calf riding and pony riding events on a total point basis.

Other state championship trophies awarded Saturday night at the Little Buckaroo Rodeo were a climax to the final rodeo events included Kevin Lancaster, 6-year-old Wendell boy, top roped in pony barbed riding, and Jaye Rowe, 12, also of Wendell, who took calf roping championship honors.

Morrison was awarded the trophy in calf riding as well as the all-around trophy.

Competitions in the Saturday night championships were young performers from Twin Falls, Wendell, Gooding, King Hill, Buhl, Elsie, Grace and Soda Springs.

More than 50 contestants performed during the third-packed show, sponsoring officials said. This was the second annual Little Buckaroo Rodeo for young riders.

One passing note was the mountain excursion train had broken free and rolled down about 300 feet before it reached off the cog railway and crashed on the ground.

Gov. John W. King, who rushed to the scene, ordered a "full-scale investigation" by the state Public Utilities Commission. He said it would begin today.

It took rescue workers using a flat bed railway car about four hours to bring the dead and injured to the base of the mountain. The number of persons on the train could not be determined immediately.

The accident happened about 1:30 a.m. of the way down the mountain.

GM Boosts Prices Of 1968 Autos

By CHARLES C. GAIN
AP Business Writer

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors today became the second auto company to boost prices of its 1968 cars as it announced a 4.5 percent price increase averaging $110 higher than a year ago.

For the second year in a row, General Motors—giant of the auto industry—came up with a price increase smaller than that posted by a major competitor, Chrysler last week led off the industry price parade by disclosing its 1968 cars would average $122 or 4.5 percent above 1967 prices.

Ford and American Motors have not listed new figures yet.

GM's cost analysts figured its prices increased at 3.6 percent over 1967 prices.

Sticker prices include federal excise taxes and dealer handling charges but not freight or local taxes.

GM said its higher price tags "recognize increased material prices and payroll costs, made no mention of possible increases in its labor costs as a result of current negotiations with the United Auto Workers."

It marked the second year in a row that GM came in with lower price increases after a major competitor had announced its new sticker prices.

Killer Hurricane Beulah Increases Coastal Threat

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A spokesman for Continental Oil Co. said waves up to 15 feet were expected Tuesday off the Louisiana coast, some 1,000 miles from Beulah's center.

The New Orleans Weather Bureau warned Beulah probably would change to a more northerly course.

As the storm pointed toward Brownsville citrus growers continued harvesting a multi-million dollar crop of oranges and grapefruit. A hurricane would do many millions of dollars worth of damage if it hit the loaded trees, growers said.

At 4 a.m. Beulah was centered about 370 miles southeast of Brownsville. She continued moving at a steady 12 miles an hour, picking up moisture from the warm Gulf of Mexico waters.

Beulah is expected to increase yet more in intensity during the next 12 to 24 hours, said the National Hurricane Center in New Orleans said. "The conditions appear favorable for Beulah to become a severe hurricane within 24 hours."

With its forward speed expected to remain about 12 M.P.H. or possibly slow a bit, Beulah seemed unlikely to reach land ahead before midnight.

The west-northwest course pointed the storm's center a little below Brownsville toward the coast of Mexico.

Last week Beulah claimed 18 lives in the eastern Caribbean. It is expected to reach the coast of Mexico.

Line Forms For Numbers Game In T.F.

Although there are no 1968 license plates in the courthouse as yet, a long line of potential buyers lined the first floor of the building Monday to reserve their new places.

Union Leaders OK Plan For Detroit Teachers

By BILL HALLS
DETROIT (AP) — Union leaders Wednesday agreed to accept a proposal that could send some 3,000 Detroit public school pupils back to school Tuesday.

The tentative agreement was reached in a nightlong bargaining session between negotiators for the Detroit Federation of Teachers (DFT) and the Detroit Board of Education. It must be approved by the teachers, however, before the schools can reopen.

The union's executive board voted unanimously to accept the proposal.

DFT President Mary Ellen Riordan told some 3,000 teachers at a ratification meeting today that the vote would be taken as soon as the proposed contract terms had been mimeographed for distribution.

The Detroit school board said the proposal called for an $850 across-the-board annual increase for two years and a 3% school year.

The present school year is 40 weeks, and the teachers had demanded that it be cut to 38 weeks.

Peter Grylls, chairman of the board's financial committee, told 3,000 teachers the package would cost $3.35 million a year.

Grylls said the board would like to make a final decision on where the money is coming from.

Grylls said the board would like to make up what otherwise will be an 38 week school year.

U.S. Air Force Bombs Bridge Near Border

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force F4 Phantoms hit a highway bridge just one minute away from their supposed safe zone.

The bridge was one of the speeds from Red China's border Sunday in the war's closest strike yet to the border.

The pilots said their bombs were dropped on the center span of the Thai Khao I Highway and 92 miles north-northeast of Hanoi.

The closest previous raid to China's border was 10 miles away Aug. 13.

U.S. pilots flew follow-up missions against three targets inside the Halphong, apparently trying to cut rail and road arteries carrying supplies out of the North Vietnamese port city to Communist troops fighting in South Vietnam.

Shahkawk jets unloaded 500, 1,000- and 2,000-pound bombs on a railroad and highway bridge Sunday.

8 Killed, 70 Injured As Train Falls Off Railway

MT. WASHINGTON, N.H. (AP) — Eight persons were killed and more than 70 injured Sunday when a train fell off the cog railway on Mt. Washington and landed in a gorge.

The excursion train had broken free and rolled down about 300 feet before it reached off the cog railway and crashed on the ground.

Gov. John W. King, who rushed to the scene, ordered a "full-scale investigation" by the state Public Utilities Commission. He said it would begin today.

First Lucky License Winner Is Schoolgirl

An attractive 10-year-old blonde, Joletha Nusbaum, Monday morning. She is the first winner in the Times-News Business Office License Contest.

Each day a photograph, taken by the "Mystery Photographer," will appear in the newspaper. If you recognize the license plate as yours, you have two days to claim your prize.

It didn't take Miss Nusbaum quite that long, however. A photograph of the license plate of the schoolgirl, "I was in bed Sunday morning—and my little sister, Blevin, who is 10 years old, screamed at the top of her voice that our license plate was in the Times-News. I couldn't believe it."

Joletha works part-time at the Motor-Vu Drive-in in the Snack Bar and is involved in activities with the Twin Falls High School Orchestra. She plays the piano and violin.

When asked what she and her family intended doing with the money, she said, "I think my father wants to buy himself a new suit with it."

The contest will last until another 42 license plates are drawn from those who are completed and all photographs. The photographer will be visiting all the Magic Valley areas along with girls who are distributing the Times-News bumper stickers.

For those wanting to get the bumper stickers as soon as possible they may be picked up at the Times-News Business Office in Twin Falls.

Every license plate photographed, as well as those winners in the daily $33 contest, will be eligible for the grand prize of $333.

The drawing for the $333 will be held after the daily drawings are completed and all photographs will be included in the drawing so that those who are not daily winners will have a chance at the grand prize.

School Is "Piece Of Pie" At Kimberly Now

Through the use of individual, movable seating, students can face any direction the instructor desires. This makes for much better utilization of wall and blackboard areas, and allows for better direction of attention.

Gordon Larsen, who is mathematics instructor at the new school, and also teaches classes at the old school, where junior high classes are held, is sold on the set-up.

The comparison between teaching in the two places is radical, according to Mr. Larsen. The students' attention is much better at the new school he says.

Classes began at Kimberly last Monday (Sept. 11) and Mrs. Hillverda said that in her 20 years at Kimberly, it has been the "smoothest week we have ever had. I think it is because of the architecture of the building."

One girl said she had a hard time finding her way around the first day, but admitted that it wasn't any worse than entering any other school for the first time.

Mr. Sherman expresses amazement at the conduct of the students. He notes that in study halls in the old building, students were constantly needing to be quieted. In the new building, which has several round tables in the study hall, decorum seems to be the rule.

The central hall area, where lockers are located, is likewise a boon to order. The five-minute class breaks are more than sufficient, but are maintained to keep on schedule with the other schools.

Kimberly High students go along with their instructors on the fact that they are more attentive. "We just feel more like paying attention. Our teachers aren't always falling apart or something."

One girl summed it up pretty well. "I think I'm more proud to be from Kimberly now than I was last year after basketball season."

HURLEY, N.M. (AP) — Kennecott Copper Corp.'s Chinao production system says the industry strike has cost more than $4.5 million to employees, the community and suppliers. A newsletter the firm said of this amount, $1,300,000 represents wages which employees could have earned if they had stayed on their jobs while issues in dispute were negotiated.

The strike started July 15.

Banks Still Approve Use Of Counter Checks

Twin Falls area residents who arrive at the store and find they forgot their checkbook need not fear when they write a counter check. Such checks, which these days bear only a number on which the check is drawn, are acceptable.

However, officials of three Twin Falls banks said today they are encouraging the use of personalized checks. Checks that have the name and address of the customer, and an account number stamped in magnetic ink.

The three banks are The Twin Falls Bank and Trust Co., Fidelity National Bank, and First Security Bank of Idaho.

At the bank and Trust, Harold Howe, assistant vice president, said customers are encouraged to stop in and sign up for a personalized checking account. The same goes for Fidelity.

Good Future For Tourism Is Predicted

SUN VALLEY — A bright future for tourism in Idaho was predicted today by Louise Sanduck, secretary of the State Department of Commerce and Development.

She told a convention of the Utah-Idaho-Nevada Hotel and Motel Association in Sun Valley that tourism is expected to expand at a faster rate than the state's growth in population.

By 1980, she said in her prepared remarks, Idaho is expected to need 370 new motels and hotels, whereas the anticipated population growth would justify only 112.

"Despite forest fire news," she said, "all indications are that Idaho is headed for another record year in tourism. Idaho was not depleted by the pull of Expo '67 which was felt in the East and Middle West.

In fact, Idaho had a big pull of its own in the Boy Scout World Jamboree."

Quorum Needed

FILER — Members of the Filer Community Farm Bureau were urged to attend a meeting at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Filer Grange Hall. Clyde Vansteddy, president, reports no business could be transacted the past several months, because attendance was so low a quorum was not present.

He stressed that it is necessary that several-business items must be acted on in September and asked members to attend if there will be a quorum.

Cigarette Vendor Machine Rifled

An estimated $20.40 was taken from a cigarette machine at Rogers Brothers sometime Saturday night, Twin Falls police reported.

Officers were called Sunday morning by the assistant manager at Twin Falls Mortuary Chapel and found the cigarette machine lying on the floor with the glass broken out.

"When officers arrived the machine had been put back in place and the glass cleaned away."

Nothing else in the building was disturbed, officers said, and it appeared the building was entered through an unlocked door.

Effectiveness Of Crime War Is Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans and the Justice Department today debated their feud over the effectiveness of the administration's war on organized crime.

The House Republican Task Force called upon the department to make available to Congress in closed session "tape recordings, log entries and internal communications" resulting from electronic surveillance against organized crime between 1961 and 1963.

The Justice Department said the standpoint of the use of electronic surveillance in organized crime cases—prosecutions are at an all-time high."

The department said the Republican Task Force "is ignorant of the fact that if such information has any value from the standpoint of criminal intelligence, it would be destroyed by release."

The Justice Department also said today the group "overlooks the fact that prosecution is the ultimate test of the effectiveness of criminal investigation. At the present time—two years after the abandonment of the use of illegal electronic surveillance in organized crime cases—prosecutions are at an all-time high."

WASHINGTON — Before committing these deathless thoughts to posterity, I waited in vain for some indignant Milwaukee taxpayer to sue Mayor Henry W. Maier for craven negligence resulting in the destruction of public property entrusted to what might be humorously described as his care.

orders his police not to interfere with thugs who are wrecking his office because he wants to let them "show their bad manners," and Milwaukee's citizens take it in craven silence.

ouly, still represents only an 11 cent minority—that they feel compelled to extend to the black man a license to wreck the national job.

As a citizen who has often flogged against those cops who forget they are servants of the public, I am sorry for the police of Milwaukee. Maier not only makes them look silly but he makes them look dangerous and opprobrious from the "civil rights" mob.

Two Grouches

Anybody in Twin Falls who moons about the Interstate highway ruining business by draining away the tourist traffic that used to be channeled through the city on U.S. 30 has got to be like the old highway sniffer, wailing a cocklebur and howled because he was too lazy to get up.

A Good Sneeze

If you are one of the 10 million Americans for whom summer in hill country is a time when you close your eyes and an asthmatic wheeze, don't take it out on Mother Nature. Blame it on the builder across town or the grain farmer in the next county.

says Howson: Botanists believe the wheeze was a part of the old world, when the Midwest was still largely frontier. It has grown rampant as man has broken up the soil to grow food or build homes and cities.

Respect Of Law

Much has been said recently about the need for greater respect for law and order, and it is hard to quarrel with this. Any nation without it is in bad trouble.

But it does come as a bit of a shock for a judge of Superior Court to rule that the state does, indeed, have the right to enforce laws prohibiting Sunday liquor sales, and then add: "This (the governor's belief that the law should be enforced) is worse than a bull in a china shop."

Dangerous Diet

Because of the importance of feeding in infants and children I get many questions relating to diet. One mother writes that her 12-year-old granddaughter, once a healthy, well-nourished girl, has taken alarming so much weight that she is now emaciated.

Another reader has heard that over a long period the child or adult who is 10 to 15 percent overweight is more active mentally than one who is overweight but so inactive that factors enter into intelligence and mental ability that it would be hard to state in a broad generalization.

Really, It's Still A Scraggly Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's been a scraggly time, and still is. In 1965, after his enormous election victory the year before, President Johnson was hailed as the magic and experience of his 23 years in House and Senate to get Congress to pass the programs he wanted. It did an historic job.

of remoteness as time passed, no longer looked like the man in the saddle with Congress. The result of all this has been a kind of look-alike which was illustrated by what Congress had failed to accomplish at the time it went home for a break in the year before.

Dear Mr. President

I have here a copy of a letter which was sent to President Johnson from a mother in Syracuse, New York. Perhaps the White House ignored it. Perhaps more than any of us, Mrs. A.P.S. deserves to be heard.

"Dear Mr. President: "We sit here side by side to look at the television, scarcely able to trust ourselves to talk. We are awaiting the homecoming of our son, Andy Jr., from Vietnam. "We cannot sleep. We cannot eat. We are filled to the brim with hurt. "This was a day long, long anticipated — it was to be a day of celebrating his birthday, a day of overwhelming happiness and joy. But now we will never know the "uttermost agony of waiting for his key in the lock. The key he asked for in his last letter. On the outside of the envelope he had written '77 days more!'"

Episcopalians Leaders Work On Wide-Ranging Reforms

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
SEATTLE (AP) — A government official here today said he is working on a wide-ranging program of reforms with a call from their top leader to move toward union with nine other American denominations.

Anda, considering the move to the project, the Rev. John E. Hines, the Church's presiding bishop, firmly backed it as "the right direction" in the ecumenical effort of the times.

He also urged emergency diversion of $3 million annually into the struggle to improve the lot of the Negro poor, and vice versa, but that religious bodies would join that program in a "full-scale mobilization" of the church.

His appeal came before an estimated 10,000 Episcopalians gathered in Seattle for the church's triennial general convention.

"Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation," he urged, "and to the worldwide, robed processions of bishops, clergymen, cross-bearers and

LBJ Scuttled Peace Chance, Writer Says

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — An American journalist who visited Hanoi said a promising chance for peace talks on the war in Vietnam was personally scuttled by President Johnson.

Harry S. Ashmore, Pulitzer Prize-winning former editor of the Arkansas Gazette, visited Hanoi last January with Editor William Baggs of the Miami, Fla., News.

Ashmore said he and Baggs visited with Ho Chi Minh for two hours, and found that "deliberately conciliatory and... He seemed prepared to consider a specific proposal based on a formula for mutual de-escalation."

"He had understood," Ashmore said, "that we would report our conversation to the State Department, and expected some response, since he had made arrangements to have another further message sent directly to him."

The response to Ho Chi Minh's letter drafted by himself and Baggs was "a complete lack of interest," he said.

There are 450 first graders, he said, and the school is getting the faculty completed, but vacancies are nearly all filled now.

De Hanger thanked members for the help given with the new Exposition Building on the fairgrounds. He stated that the total number of participants in the races was up from last year.

Since the meeting with Highways Department officials was questioning the placing of Rupert signs on the Interstate east and west of Rupert, nothing has been done. The Highway Department will be contacted again by correspondence to find out why a letter will be written to Governor Samuelson notifying him of dissatisfaction regarding the handling of the Rupert Employment Office by state officials and to point out to him what is happening.

RUPERT — Bruce McBride, Boys' State delegate sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, spoke at the chamber luncheon Thursday, giving highlights of the week-long session in June.

Bruce told the chamber members that he had learned the meaning of Americanism and also something about Communism and what it is doing in the United States.

Supt. Camden Meyers reported that school in Mindoka County is doing well, and that enrollment is about the same as last year.

There are 450 first graders, he said, and the school is getting the faculty completed, but vacancies are nearly all filled now.

Reds Wheel Tanks Into South China

HONG KONG (AP) — The Reds army has wheeled tanks and heavy artillery into the south China metropolis of Canton to halt fighting between Maoist and anti-Maoist forces there, Hong Kong newspapers reported today.

The accounts, quoting unnamed and otherwise unidentified Chinese travelers, followed a report by Tass, the official Soviet news agency, of artillery duels on Canton's streets.

The report says the tanks and heavy artillery were moved through a Canton hospital, doubtless suspected anti-Maoists with gasoline and setting them afire over the weekend.

Another said 200 Maoists were killed by rebels in fierce fighting over the weekend.

Troops reportedly shelling refugees trying to cross the border with Yunnan, and British troops said they heard gunfire. Communist newspapers here claim, however, that the shooting is only target practice.

Cubans Ask Man In Street To Speak Up

By VENTON WHEELER
HAVANA (AP) — Cuba's leaders are encouraging the public in the street to speak up and discuss its right up to a municipal level; and if it is not solved, write to the provincial bureau of the party.

Most of the complaints have to do with consumer services and Communist party organizer Armando Halc has made clear they should not stop there.

Addressing the Central Organization of Cuban Trade Unions, Halc said: "If something runs badly or there is a weakness in a party branch, you must go there and discuss it right up to a municipal level; and if it is not solved, write to the provincial bureau of the party."

The official Communist organ Granma began publishing a column of public criticism in July shortly after Capt. Jorge Enrique Mendoza replaced the newspaper's editorial editor, Isidoro Malmierca, a member of the party central committee who was transferred to the National Fishing Institute.

Called "Popular Criticism," the column started off slowly but has picked up momentum in recent weeks. Its motto promises that "every problem should have a solution or an explanation."

Typical of its letters was one from Jose Rodriguez-Ramos of the Vedado section of Havana. He wrote public criticism in his neighborhood late and in bad condition. Hugo Garcia Morales of the state floor enterprise refused to write to the provincial bureau because the situation would be corrected.

Although many of the official replies come wrapping up in recent meetings on the column apparently offer the forum for the criticism the government is encouraging.

Nixon Is Stepping Up Campaign

By STANLEY JOHNSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is stepping up the pace of his campaign for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination which his aides believe he is virtually sure to win.

Their optimism was bolstered Sunday by a Los Angeles Times poll which showed him running far ahead of Gov. Ronald Reagan and all other contenders.

Nixon's former home state of California, Nixon had 28 per cent of that state's GOP voters with 11 per cent for Reagan.

Nixon said in an Associated Press interview, "I have to be dramatically effective in the campaign. If I can't demonstrate the ability to win, I've had it."

Fighting for these victories, Nixon has set up campaign organizations in four states which have presidential primaries. His staff members think he's sure to win in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and Nebraska, but may have a hard time in Oregon.

Despite the new organizations, sponsored by the Nixon for President Committee of Washington, Nixon has not formally announced whether he is in the running.

He said he will do that—one way or the other—between Dec. 1 and Feb. 1, adding, "I might put my foot in my mouth between then and now and myself out of the race."

In Miami, Baggs said, "The events Ashmore recorded are precisely correct as I recall them. There's lots more that he hasn't said. I'm going to say something this week. I may get into what he said and what he needed improvements in all departments at the school."

President Bowman thanked those who had helped with the stock sale at the fair.

Guests—Warren McCann, minister of the Rupert Methodist Church, R. A. Brown of the Credit Bureau of Bruney, and Marty Bell of The World of Bruney.

DEAR ABBY: Mike and I have been married for eight years and have three children. The other night Mike came home and told me that the men at work were having a stag party for a co-worker who is getting married this party, he said, was to be held at a club that features topless go-go girls. Mike said he really didn't care to go, but all the other guys in his department were going, and he didn't know how to get out of it.

I was against it from the start, but Mike promised if I let him go he wouldn't look at the girls. Well, I let him go, and when he came home he said he had kept his promise. Abby, I have been miserable ever since. Just knowing that Mike was in the same room with all those topless go-go girls really got to me. Do you think Mike really kept his promise? And how can I get over this terrible sick feeling?

DEAR WIFE: Whether Mike kept his promise or not is between Mike and his conscience. And you can get over that "terrible sick feeling" by refusing to dwell on it.

DEAR ABBY: How come the budding girls of this generation are supposed to be so smart, but they don't know what to call their in-laws, except "my in-laws"?

Would it kill a girl to call the mother and father of her husband "Mom and Pop" like her husband does?

I don't go around looking for things to get mad at, but it just burns me up to be called "in-laws."

I wish you would print this with your answer, Abby, for the millions of brokehearted-in-laws who don't have names.

DEAR JUST: Many brides are unable to call their in-laws "Mom and Pop" without feeling some disloyalty to their own Mom and Pop. But there is always "Mother-in-Law" and "Mother Jones." Don't smolder

EXPERTS GUILTY OF BAD BIDDING
Oswald: "The late Ely Culbertson used to write articles about experts at their best and worst. Let's talk about a hand that shows one of our greatest partnerships at its very worst."
Jim: "West must have been pleasantly surprised when his ace and king of hearts took the full strength of his hand once he showed merely responding forces from them."
Jim: "Were they using limit raises?"
Oswald: "No. North's three spade bid was a force to game so he had bid the full value of his cards. I would be inclined to give West some credit for his good result. West did bid two clubs rather than two hearts."
Jim: "West didn't have much of a hand. I guess he wanted to keep the hearts in reserve in case he got doubled at two clubs."
Oswald: "He admitted that West's failure to bid hearts caused him to make the final slam bid. I sympathize with North but still feel that his six spade bid was inexcusable."
Jim: "I agree about North but must charge South with some blame. South should have cue bid diamonds before he cue bid clubs. This would have given North a chance to bid five diamonds over five clubs. When the bidding came to him as it did North had no choice except to bid some number of spades."

Bit of Imagination And Party's A Sensation!

There's not too much of summer vacation time left. Better hurry and plan your party now! Here are a few ideas sent to us by readers who tossed parties on similar themes and enjoyed great success. We hope you, too, can host a party where everyone goes home feeling sad that the fun evening's at an end.

PROTEST PARTY
Everyone seems to be protesting these days. Why not mock protest evening? Ask each person to come with some "protest" in mind. Then, as the guests arrive, provide them with ink, color crayons, cardboard and string or ropes, and have each write out his protest. "I protest soggy cereals!" "Ban the garlic socks, or less driving—feet's the word!" etc.

Guests might want to combine forces and present short "soap" talks to influence others toward their cause. Set time limits, and then it might be fun to take a quick vote on which campaign was the most clever and effective.

MILLIONAIRE PARTY
In the middle of the floor toss all that glitter—aluminum foil, aluminum pie plates, fake gems, pop tops from candy packages, gold and silver glitter, gold and silver colored string, washed and cleaned out tin cans, glossy type of wrapping paper and glossy type of wrapping paper as scissors, glue, paste, etc.

Each guest is given 10 minutes to use all the materials provided to create a millionaire-type appearance. Then each relates a short story on how he gained wealth or how he presently lives or a formula for success.

Games on a money idea would follow easily and add generously to the theme.

RECORD PARTY
Ask each guest to bring his favorite record and then sit around and listen, as you chat about it and various other sundry things and dance the evening away. Wouldn't it be great if each guest brought a different type of record and sang the lyrics to the oldies: Charleston, Big Apple or Zorba the Greek dances?

WISDOM HAT?
Each guest brings his favorite crazy hat (it could be borrowed or be an original creation).

New-Style Federal Budget Is Nearly Ready For White House

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP) — A new-style federal budget created by 16-member presidential commission, was reported today to be nearly ready for the White House.

The new format probably will be used for President Johnson's January budget message. It would call for a 10 percent cut in federal spending and a 10 percent increase in federal income taxes.

Eliminate last January's confusion about the exact amount of the deficit. Republican charged Johnson with fiscal flagging in his fiscal 1968 message, which stressed "100 million more—Accountants," or NIA, budget with a mere $2.1 billion deficit.
