TEN CENTS

Bullets Were Blanks, But Bayonets Were Real

Just Training Exercise? It Was A Riot

By JAN SAINSBURY
Times-News Feature Editor

At 1:00 Saturday afternoon the sheriff of Twin Falls County, James H. Benham, notified the 118th Armored Cavalry Idaho National Guard that military assistance was needed to suppress a riot in the city of Twin Falls.

The governor of Idaho was notified and authorized the Oregon-allowing military assistance for this area.

By Saturday night, 400 National Guard troops from units at Rupert, Jerome, Gooding, Halley, Buhl and Twin Falls were setting up tents at Frontier Field near the Armory.

And by 8:00 a.m. Sunday soldiers were in control of the liquor store, the gun shops and communication points under the direction of the Twin Falls Sheriff.

And it was all a game. Or was it?

At least one lady thought so. The early morning hours were confronted by a lady who came out the back door of her house and threw water at the soldiers.

She told them to go play their games somewhere else.

One lady complained to the fire department that "smoke" was "infiltrating" her house. Later one guardman, hearing about the incident, caused by smoke from a burning auto set on fire by "rioters" in the area, said, "She'd be happy I suppose if the blasted rioters infiltrated, rather than the smoke?"

Only the language was a bit stronger.

A service station attendant displayed some ignorance of the reason for the riot control exercise in Twin Falls.

"I don't know why they're doing this," he said, "we ain't got more than 10 Negroes in the whole city." Personal efforts to explain that the reason for the riot control was to ready the city's law enforcement officials as well as the Idaho National Guard in methods of dealing with any riot situation, did little or no good.

The fact that the riot was to be staged by a group to be called the "Western Warriors" See IT WAS JUST, pg. 11, col. 1

Savage River Sends Torrents At Texas Cities

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP)—The savage Rio Grande, monstrously blasted by Hurricane Beulah's cloudbursts, sent a record torrent pouring into the fringes of five South Texas cities today after ripping out a flood control dam.

The Texas Department of Public Safety warned residents along the side channel—the Arroyo Colorado—in Mercedes, La. Floria, Harlingen, Rio Hondo and Llanito to flee to high ground.

Nearly 1,000 Harlingen residents fled to shelters by dawn as water topped the rim of the arroyo and lapped into the neighborhoods of fine homes.

At 6:30 a.m. CDT the Arroyo surged with 38.2 feet of water—more than a foot above the receding crest—and it still rose. A call went out for more volunteers to help crews who had spent the night building sandbag dikes around homes and storm sewers which line the Arroyo.

3 Exchange Students Die Near Wells

WELLS, Nev. (AP)—Three exchange students from Thailand, en route to study at Utah State University, were killed in a highway crash Sunday evening. Three others were injured.

The dead, all from Bangkok, were identified as Aychai Manuchai, 39; Pridi Sudharmad, 32; and Ritha Chulalai, 27.

The injured were taken to a hospital at Elko.

The group had been on a cross-country trip following summer studies in Washington, D.C. They were headed for Los Angeles to turn in their car, which crashed Sunday evening 35 miles east of Wells.

The auto was found 200 yards off the road about 7 p.m. authorities said the accident may have occurred Sunday at 6:15 p.m. Several more roads were time registered on the broken wreckage of one of the victims.

Sailor Lives To Tell Of 10-Week Ordeal At Sea

CHATHAM, Mass. (AP)—A 64-year-old Chicago machinist whose home-made sailboat was disabled by storms in the Atlantic has lived to tell of a 10-week ordeal at sea that included rescuing his one companion, a pet beagle, Sheba.

Nels B. Nelson's trip to Florida was interrupted the night of July 11 off Newfoundland, said a sailor with "waves as high as the 41-foot mast" came up and pulled the three survivors and the main mast of the 30-foot craft, the Savanna.

After a New Bedford fishing boat found Nelson Sunday about 10 miles off his Cape Cod town and took his craft to port, Nelson recounted the difficulties that had befallen him and the 3-year-old black and tan beagle, Nelson, a bachelor, said he went forward to fix the broken mast when "something hit me on the head."

"When I woke up at daybreak I couldn't move my left arm," the sailor said. "The tiller was snapped off, the sails were damaged and the radio was smashed."

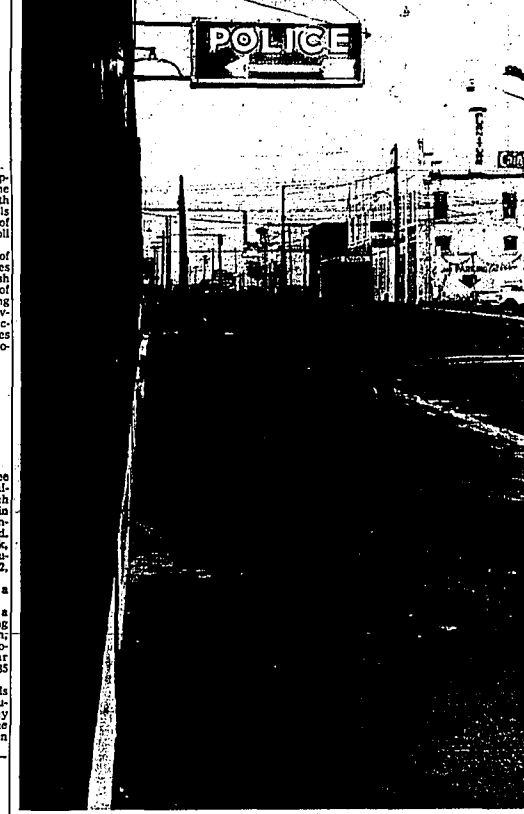

Nelson said he managed to clamp the tiller to the rudder and catch an easterly wind to ward shore, using a second rudder, an unaccounted for one, he said, but he knew port every night.

Tot Survives Mysterious Family Deaths

AZUSA, Calif. (AP)—A scared 3-year-old boy's dim memory that "mummy" was dead and daddy his mummy" held one of the few clues today into the deaths of his policeman father, mother and any brother.

Lost, suffering from exposure and dehydration and his left leg mangled, Michael Berg Jr. was spotted by rescuers Sunday sitting on a rock in a mountain canyon.

He is the sole survivor of a family whose head was a young, often-commented Los Angeles

LOOKING MORE like a deserted street in Wells than one in downtown Twin Falls, soldiers patrol Second Street North in the early morning hours Sunday. Soldiers were stationed at key points, including the police station, liquor store and gun shops. Troops moved into the Twin Falls area Saturday night and were bivouacked at Frontier Field during the exercise.

50 Congressmen Say Formal Look At War Policy Needed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressmen said today that a formal look at U.S. policy in the Vietnam war was needed.

The 48 Republicans and 2 Democrats proposed a resolution asking the president to "whether further congressional action is desirable in respect to the Vietnam conflict."

As they prepared their move, Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, said Sunday he does not believe Soviet rejection of his bid for help in getting North Vietnam to the conference table has wrecked peace hopes.

Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., said he has introduced legislation to test U.S. policy in Vietnam in political light of nuclear firestorm, if it entered.

day at nearby Glendora community hospital, was found about 10 miles from the bodies of his mother and brother.

He cried for his mother through swollen lips after gulping down some water. Rescuers said he may have been wandering in the rugged terrain for four days—the length of time his family hadn't been seen.

The boy's broken left leg was set with splints and he was carried to a ranger station. He was clad only in blue jeans and a light shirt.

Investigators said they had been in the car with his mother and brother.

The officers said Michael's father, who had compiled an outstanding record of 10 commendations in his two years as a Los Angeles police officer, had taken a week's leave, saying he planned to visit an uncle's mountain cabin.

They never reached the planned destination.

OAS Condemns Cuba Intervention In Hemisphere

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—With an latest at Castro-Communist subversion in Latin America, the Hemisphere foreign ministers signed early today a resolution recommending that the American republics apply limited "sanctions" against non-Communist ships which sail to Cuba.

The 20th vote "to condemn forcefully" Fidel Castro's regime for "repeated intervention and aggression" in Venezuela, Bolivia and other hemisphere countries was a highlight of the debate at a three-day Organization of American States conference on the Cuban threat.

The clear 15-0 vote, with six abstentions, for the U.S.-proposed sanctions was an especially sweet victory for heavy U.S. diplomats.

After long hours of negotiating they lost a bid for hemispheric unanimity against non-Communist ships doing business with Cuba.

Rusk Briefed On British Failure

By WILLIAM M. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk got a first-hand fill-in today on the latest British attempt by Britain to persuade the Soviet Union to agree to reconvene the Geneva conference to seek peace in Vietnam.

British Foreign Secretary George Brown briefed Rusk at the secretary of state's office in the U.N. General Assembly's general policy department.

As co-chairman of the Geneva Conference on Indochina, Brown and Rusk met before the body, but informants said both sides stood by their well-known position and the Soviet diplomat showed "no give."

Rusk is to give a dinner tonight for General Secretary of the Soviet Union, Leonid Brezhnev, and Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir.

U.S. Planes Drop Leaflets On Village

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP)—As the blasting back and forth across South Vietnam's northern frontier went into its third week, U.S. planes dropped leaflets urging North Vietnamese villagers to join the South, officials said today.

In an unprecedented move, some 240,000 leaflets were dropped in a village just above the border warning of "the terrible risk of death and destruction" caused by 832 bombing attacks in the area.

Meanwhile, William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. commander in Vietnam, said he had ordered allied forces to give up the post, saying it was a position from which the risk of ultimate military success may be viewed with increasing clarity.

Reduction Of Charge Asked In Slaying

A motion to dismiss the first degree murder charges against Joaquin Lasa, charged with the shooting death of Marcos Jasso Aug. 24, with the alternative that charges be reduced to voluntary manslaughter, was before Twin Falls Probate Court Monday morning.

Defense attorneys Lloyd Walker and Douglas Kramer presented the motion after the state rested its case in the preliminary hearing Monday.

Judge Zoe Ann Shauk recessed the hearing until 2 p.m. Monday, at which time arguments in support of the motion were scheduled.

Prosecuting Attorney Michael Felton rested the case for the state Monday morning after introducing only one additional witness, Mrs. Inez Heller, an employee at the Blue Front Bar where the shooting occurred.

Mrs. Heller was not on duty at the time of the shooting, but testified as to incidents involving the defendant and the victim prior to the death of Mr. Jasso.

Preliminary hearing for the defendant began Thursday when the state introduced seven witnesses and was recessed Thursday afternoon to be continued Monday.

Judge Shauk said he has reserved the remainder of the day for the hearing and expects it to end before court closes Monday afternoon.

Mr. Lasa was the owner of the Blue Front Bar at the time of the shooting and the establishment of Mr. Jasso, who was shot in the upper chest with a shotgun.

New York Schools Reopen With Volunteer Workers

NEW YORK (AP)—The Board of Education reopened schools today with the aid of 1,000 volunteer workers, many of whom were teachers.

Without regular classes, the board hoped to keep the schools last Thursday and Friday in expectation of a return to normal today.

At a recessed at 1 a.m. today, both Schools Superintendent E. Donovan and Board of Education President John J. P. L. were approved by union members, adding: "The best way we have of getting back to regular classes is to make tomorrow (Monday) the best day we've ever had in this work stoppage."

Controller, Pilot Blamed For 16 Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board today blamed the pilot, and instructions by a Federal Aviation Administration traffic controller, for the civilian parachute accident near Wakarusa, Ohio, Aug. 27, in which 16 skydivers were killed.

In a report on the accident, the board said also: "The parachutists, all of whom were experienced and aware of the hazards of jumping under the prevailing conditions, were not without fault."

The board listed two primary causes of the accident. The failure of the pilot of the jump airplane, a B25 light bomber, to end the mission because of cloud coverage which prevented visual reference to the ground. Federal aviation regulations prohibit nonmilitary parachutes jump through clouds or near clouds.

An erroneous radar identification of the B25 by the FAA controller, which resulted in inaccurate radar positioning of the aircraft.

The pilot, Robert Bruce Karns, 32, dropped 18 of 20 skydiver passengers from his B25 at 20,000 feet. Although the intended drop zone was Wakarusa's Ormer Airport, the parachutists fell in to Lake Erie, a dozen miles northwest of the airport, and four to five miles offshore. Two of the skydivers were rescued and two who remained in the plane jumped on a second run and landed safely in the drop zone.

Romney Blazing Unusual Political Trail

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney's cross-country tour is any standard, American politicians face some new hazards and experience in the 1968 campaign. Political strategists looking for new gimmicks may face the question: "How do we top George?"

However, as Romney prepared to tour the predominantly Negro district of Watts in Los Angeles today, even his aides were wondering. If his visits could backfire among party conservatives. Although the Michigan governor is not a member of the party, nor says his urban tour is "non-political," the undeclared candidate for the Republican presidential nomination is blazing unusual trails for politicians more accustomed to air-port rallies or flag-draped platforms in cornfields and coliseums.

Romney has done some of the usual things—climbing up rickety ladders to give painters a helping hand with the brush flying through the Catskill mountains in rainshowers to give a sermon at a boys camp chapel, and climbing down into a subway being constructed 30-feet under San Francisco Bay.

But in the new politics, Romney has also:—Sat in the gloomy storefront headquarters of black militants to defend himself against charges that his Mormon religion is racist.

—Climbed to the roof of a four-story walkup in Spanish Harlem to peer down at a garbage strewn yard because a woman dared him to visit her home.

—Eaten watermelon with former black nationalists and hippies in a flat decorated with a flag of a called snake the motto, "Don't Tread on Me."

—Stopped in to the middle of several hundred hippies in San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district where, he told newsmen later, he was offered marijuana as a gift.

Romney's stated mission is to learn first-hand about the problems of the cities and the programs being tried to solve them.

But the Michigan governor is also interested in lining up support and delegates for the 1968 GOP presidential nominating convention. And his aides acknowledge that his travels through slums and hippiedom could backfire, particularly among party conservatives.

Romney is no darling of the conservatives because of his refusal to support Barry Goldwater in 1964. But at least one Romney strategist feels the governor will have to get some conservative support in order to win the nomination.

Rambler American. The only U.S. car that could stop you from buying an import.

At a price very close to the leading import, the American seats six people instead of four.

It gives you nearly twice as much room in the trunk and more than twice as much engine under the hood.

Like the imports, the American doesn't change its style every year, gets about 20 miles on a gallon of regular gas.

Unlike some imports, it never gives you the feeling that you're driving a toy.

Rebel. America's most underrated car.

The Rebel 550 Hardtop is the lowest priced intermediate sized hardtop in America.

It looks sporty, drives sporty and still gives you all the things that most people buy a car for.

The Rebel—Hardtop, Wagon, Sedan or Convertible, V8 or 6—is everything we think a car should be.

Before you pay more for an intermediate, make sure you get as much.

Ambassador. The car with air conditioning as standard equipment.

Air conditioning has been around for a long time, but so far only a few companies—the people who make

Rolls Royce for one—have had the good sense to include it in their cars at no extra cost.

We just don't understand why someone should be asked to pay a lot of money for a luxury car and then be asked to pay over $300 more for the luxury of air conditioning.

Introducing the Javelin.

Although we've always had the reputation for making sensibly priced, well-built cars, we've never had the reputation for making hot, sporty cars.

We'll soon have the reputation for making hot, sporty cars.

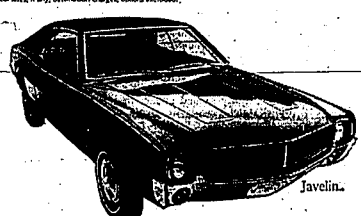

The front and rear bumpers on the Javelin are massive. Unlike thin blade bumpers, these give the car a rich, racy look.

The side windows on the Javelin are solid sheets of curved glass, without vents to break up its fast lines.

The Javelin SST comes with wheel discs, special exterior trim, reclining bucket seats and a woodgrain steering wheel, all standard.

And all for a lower price than the other sporty hardtops.

Skydiver Refuses To Open Chute

ROCKLEDGE, Fla. (AP) — Carrying the signed contract for his own funeral and wearing two parachutes, skydiver John Wask stepped from an airplane Sunday at 3,200 feet. Instead of gripping the ripcord he folded his hands in prayer and tensed to his death.

Five weeks earlier almost to the hour Wask stood below at Green Air Park and watched his pretty wife, Rickie, 22, bail out of the same plane on her second jump and die near his feet after her chute tangled.

Shattered by the death of his wife, whom he married one year ago today, Wask told a reporter, "She took up skydiving just to please me."

The papers in his wallet indicated Wask wanted to be buried beside his wife in the $1,700 silver casket he had chosen.

Wask was an aerospace reporter and he continued on the job, returning to sport parachuting after the accident.

"He told me it is the best way to die, the way Rickie would want to die," said Paul S. Leech, Wask's editor at the Melbourne, Fla., Daily Times.

"She would want to die having fun, doing what she wanted to do."

Mrs. Leech said, "He told me that would never happen to him because he had enough experience so that, if his chute curled, he would know how to right himself."

Lyle Goodin, safety officer for the Falling Stars Jump Club, watched through binoculars from the ground Sunday as Wask hurried toward the ground.

"He held his hands in a praying position," Goodin said. "We yelled and screamed at him to hit his chute," said Terry Alford, jumpmaster for the club.

Israel Will Move Settlers To Syria

TEL AVIV (AP)—Israel, indicating plans to stay put in some captured Arab lands, has announced it will move Jewish settlers into occupied Syria and a captured Jordanian sector where Israeli troops and helicopter gunners wounded 11 Arab soldiers.

Meanwhile, the Arab stepped-up terror campaign claimed its first Israeli victim, a 16-year-old boy whose home was wrecked by explosives planted near to it. The attack in the Gaza Strip near the Jordan-Israel frontier, also wounded his parents.

Prime Minister Levi Eshkol announced Israel will resettle the area on the west bank of the Jordan River between Beir-lehem and Hebron where Jewish pioneers lived until the first Arab-Israeli war in 1948.

Young army-trained pioneers already were heading into the craggy Golan Heights just beyond Israel's border with Syria to start a new community. They will live in concrete houses along the Beir-lehem ridge, a protected fortification for Syrian artillery firing at Israeli farms until the six-day June war.

The return to occupied Jordan by sons and daughters of old Jewish settlers in the Hebron area is within 40 miles of Nablus, an Arab town where Israeli army units said they captured 12 Arab terrorists and seized automatic arms, Czech mines and Syrian hand grenades Sunday.

Gun battles around the town continued for the second straight day, the Arab said, but just wants to be a favorite son to unify the party in his home state.

The Central Committee praised Reagan for a "job well done" as governor and unanimously supported his continued role in such state welfare programs as medical aid to the poor.

Adoption of the resolution followed an unexpected debate in which two Negro Central Committee members pleaded that their race be given a place on the Reagan delegation.

One of them, Benjamin Perry, from the South Central Los Angeles district hit by the Watts riot of 1965, noted that California's 1964 Barry Goldwater presidential delegation had no minority group members.

Later, Perry reported that Negroes "are tired of being treated as wards in the Republican party, and it is high time the party begin treating us as people."

State GOP Chairman James W. Hutto pointed out that the Central Committee does not pick the delegation. Under the law Reagan will pick a three-man steering committee to name his delegates.

California Republicans Ready To Back Reagan At National GOP Convention

By BILL BOYARSKY
ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—California's Republican party organization is ready to go to the GOP national convention backing Gov. Ronald Reagan as a favorite son presidential candidate.

A few hours before a poll was released showing Reagan's popularity has slipped a bit this summer, the Republican State Central Committee unanimously supported the first-term governor as California's favorite son.

State GOP Chairman James W. Hutto said the Republicans are indeed on this state and on Ronald Reagan.

Mervin D. Field's California poll indicated California voters are finding more fault with Reagan. Field's figures show 37 per cent thought Reagan was doing a poor job of this month, compared with 41 per cent in June, in both polls 31 per cent felt he was doing a fair job.

Those finding him doing a poor job jumped from 17 to 23 per cent. Field said voters in the earlier poll were judging Reagan more on style and personality. It now appears, he said, that Reagan's handling of state problems has begun to affect his popularity.

Field said Reagan is being criticized chiefly for proposing cuts in the state health program, for cutting off mental health funds and proposing tuition and fee increases for the state university.

The Republican party's state policy-making body gave its blessing to Reagan as the state's favorite son candidate for president next June as the head of an 86-vote delegation in the state's presidential primary election.

As of now no opposition is in sight for the Reagan delegation and none is expected since both moderate and conservative wings of the party endorsed Reagan as a favorite son.

Reagan insists he is not an outright candidate for president, but just wants to be a favorite son to unify the party in his home state.

Positions Open In Air Force

The Air Force is seeking applications from college seniors and graduates for the Air Force engineering program, according to T. Sgt. Art Harmon, local recruiter.

Sgt. Harmon said many vacancies are open in electrical, mechanical, astronautical and development engineering. He said the engineering program offers an opportunity for college trained people to fulfill military obligations as commissioned officers.

Applicants attend a 10-week course leading to a commission. The field is open to men and women and seniors may apply 30 days before graduation.

Further information is available at the Twin Falls Air Force Recruiting office.

House Has Trouble Keeping Occupied

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
WASHINGTON (AP)—Although Congress is expected to stay in session until late in June, Democratic leaders are having a difficult time finding enough business to keep the House busy.

When Rep. James A. Haley, D-Fla., complained last week that the House should be in session until late in June, he was not alone.

House Speaker Carl Albert, R-Ala., said each week until it finishes its business.

"We do work all the time," he said.

Power Groups May Agree On Joint Plan

KENNEWICK, Wash. (AP)—Two river power groups have agreed on a joint plan to build a $100 million power plant on the High Mountain River, which flows into the Snake River.

The plan, which would be reached by agreement on a joint venture in time for a Federal Power Commission conference Thursday in Portland.

Washington Public Power Service said Saturday it was ready to join Pacific Northwest Power Co. in construction of the plant, or by other means, project authorized for the area.

Pacific Northwest Power, a company primarily owned by the state of Washington, was granted an FPC license in 1954 to build High Mountain Sheep Dam, but the WPPSS challenged the award in court, saying preference should have been given to the public power application.

WPPSS is composed of 16 public utility districts in Washington State.

The U.S. Supreme Court ordered the FPC last July to reopen a hearing on the dam.

Miss Passmore, Wendel Resident, Dies At Jerome
WENDELL—Wilma Geraldine Passmore, 48, Wendell, died Saturday at a Jerome hospital following surgery.

She was born Feb. 5, 1919, at Buhl and moved with her parents to Tuttle. She attended schools at Tuttle and Bliss and moved to Wendell in 1954. For the past several years she was employed at Magic Valley Manor in Wendell.

trying to get the legislative business from the committees of the House and from the committee on rules which control legislation for floor consideration in order to have a full week of business, the Washington Democrat told Haley.

But most of the important bills that still have to be passed, such as the anti-poverty measure and the President's tax increase proposal, are so deeply buried in committee that the little likelihood of early House action.

In any case, it is a vicious cycle. The House does not schedule business on Fridays and some Mondays, but then committees are unable to make progress since many members go home since the House is not meeting.

Thus, the House falls behind, and so do the committees.

The Senate is still far behind in considering appropriations bills, having passed nine to 14 for the House. Moreover, the Senate will have to pass an important tax law even-though the tax increase.

At the past week, the leadership badly managed to round up enough bills and get them through the Rules Committee to put together enough business to keep House members busy in the coming week.

Excuse for an important bill to expand the federal program to prevent juvenile delinquency, the program consists of such things as an amendment of the Packers and Stockyards Act, and the monthly resolution to provide for continued appropriations at last year's level because the fiscal 1968 money measures have not been approved.

Should action on these be completed, the leadership might have only two major bills with Rules Committee clearance available for the following week's schedule. Both are controversial measures no one is in much hurry to bring up.

One would penalize antiwar ship supplies to the North Vietnamese or try to block troop trains; the other is a complicated interstate taxation measure to set some federal standards for state taxes.

A bill raising postal rates and federal pay was approved Thursday by the House Post Office Committee, and leaders also got it on the following week's program.

Other bills which may be readied soon for the floor deal with much inspection, air pollution and election reform. But action has been delayed by the House and the so-called "truth-in-lending" measure are lagging behind. Leaders will be satisfied to get one on the program each week.

Three appropriations bills still must be passed by the House. Two of these, military construction and foreign aid, depend on completion of authorization measures. The last will be an omnibus supplementary measure including anti-poverty funds and other miscellany.

Rockefeller May Be N.Y. Favorite Son

By CHARLES DUMAS
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will go to next year's Republican national convention as a favorite-son candidate for president, if New York GOP leaders follow through on present plans.

Well-qualified sources reported Sunday that at least a tentative decision had been made to designate him, such as, a device, they said, to hold the state's 86-vote delegation together.

Among other things, the sources said, party leaders are anxious to prevent possible raids on the delegation by such potential candidates as former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the ex-Californian who now claims New York as his home state.

Designating Rockefeller as a favorite son, they said, would discourage such incursions and assure the governor of a major voice in selecting the party's nominee.

Rockefeller has been backing Michigan's Gov. George Romney for the 1968 presidential nomination while insistently disclaiming any further White House ambitions of his own.

Party leaders explained privately that they were reluctant to discuss the decision because of Rockefeller's concern that a talk might embarrass Romney.

The governor and other influential Republicans in this state were said to have concluded that, while they would prefer to commit the state to Romney, it is too early to take such formal action. At the same time, they agreed that something should be done to solidify the home forces.

Homecoming At Declo Is Successful

DECLO — First annual Declo High School and community Homecoming Monday was terminated a huge success by Susan Turner, Senior Class president. During Friday's activities, the Declo Hornets beat the Murtaugh Devils in a football game, 33 to 14. Two hundred persons attended the buffet style dinner sponsored by the Declo Kiwanis club and their wives at the school luncheon.

An alumni organization committee was formed with Jerry Anderson selected as president. He will be assisted in planning for the next homecoming by Mrs. Richard Wenzel, vice president, Lowell Turner, secretary.

This year's Homecoming royalty, Christine Gillett and Sam Matthews, were introduced during the program at the dance. Mrs. Moncur narrated an original poem, written by herself and Mrs. Louise Zadorozny, to introduce the program number, the first being Mrs. Vera McBride, who presented a piano solo.

Representing all the past ball players of Declo High School were Ross Anderson, Sam Matthews, Vadell Mahoney, George Schrenk and Gary Osterhout.

Wearing their original cheerleading uniforms were Mrs. Austin Walker, Mrs. Mike Matthews and Mrs. George Schrenk. They were assisted by present day cheerleaders Sandra Matthews and Patricia Matthews.

Childhood Sweethearts during their school days who eventually married were Mrs. and Mrs. Norman Smyer, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Gillett. They were introduced to the audience.

A humorous reading was given by Mrs. William Kelsey. A group of past students sang, accompanied by Mrs. Bessie Smith. By special request, Joe Fredericks, graduate of 1928, sang "I Love You Truly."

Bennie Chabum, Senior Class adviser, introduced the senior class.

Special prizes were awarded by Joseph Gillett to Lloyd Fisher, for traveling the farthest to attend. The prize was donated by Anderson's Dept. Market.

The graduating class of 1928 received the prize for having 100 per cent attendance, awarded by Declo Kiwanis Club; Mrs. Merle (Peggy Simplot) Clayville received the prize for the most children, awarded by the Mtn. Cafe. Joe Fredericks received the prize given by Jack Adams, manager of Class of 1928, for baldest alumnus, and Mrs. Sara Wright won two honors by having the most grandchildren and the oldest graduate attending. Donating these prizes were Adams and Norton - Lindsay, Inc., Declo, by Bill Matthews, manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Osterhout received the prize for the graduating couple with the most children, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Darrington won the prize for being the oldest graduating couple, donated by Gillett's Market, and Leonard's Service.

The gymnasium was decorated by the Senior class, and the stage scene depicting an early town street scene was painted by Mrs. Zadorozny. The class receiving the prize for the most original idea to welcome the alumni was the Sophomore class, with the Junior Class receiving honorable mention.

THE LEGION OF MERIT was presented in Washington, D.C., recently to Col. Vaughn E. Denning, center, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Denning, 514 Second Ave. W., by Rear Admiral J. J. Appleby. Col. Denning's wife looks on here.

The award was presented for meritorious conduct while serving with the Defense Atomic Support Agency. He is a resident student at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D. C.

Questions And Answers Tell How Draft Law Regulates Student Deferments

The enactment of the new Military Service Act of 1947 has caused some changes in induction laws, according to Maj. Gen. George B. Bennett, state director of the Selective Service System.

Gen. Bennett said that the new regulations are causing confusion, particularly in the case of student deferments. He said that many questions are being presented to Selective Service Personnel, such as:

Question: What requirements must I meet to qualify for a II-S classification as an undergraduate college student?

Answer: You must file a written request with your local board for deferment as an undergraduate college student. Additionally, you must provide your local board each year with convincing evidence that you are continuing to pursue satisfactorily a full-time course of instruction at a college, university or similar institution of learning.

Question: How does the Selective Service System define the phrase "satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction" when the deferment of undergraduate college students is being considered?

Answer: To be considered as "satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction," an undergraduate student who is taking a four-year course should earn 25 per cent of the credits required for his baccalaureate degree at the end of his first academic year, 50 per cent at the end of his second academic year, and 75 per cent at the end of his third academic year. In the case of a baccalaureate degree for which 5 years of study are prescribed, the student should earn 20 per cent each year of the total credits required for the degree.

Question: What is meant by a "student's academic year"?

Answer: In determining eligibility for classification in Class II-S (college student), a student's academic year shall include the 12-month period following the beginning of his course of study.

Question: Last June I received my baccalaureate degree. I have been accepted for graduate study in history next September. Will I qualify for a II-S deferment?

Answer: You may be placed in Class II-S for such study but will be deferred for one academic year only, or until you cease to satisfactorily pursue the course of instruction, whichever occurs first.

Question: I have completed three years of college and earned 75 per cent of the units required for my degree but my class standing is very low. Can I be deferred for my senior year?

Answer: Yes. You may be classified in II-S, student deferment, for the fourth year of undergraduate study. Class standing does not have a relationship to the deferment so long as you are a full-time and satisfactory student.

Question: In regard to college student deferments, is a junior college considered an institution of higher learning?

Answer: Yes, if the credits given by the junior college are acceptable toward the granting of a baccalaureate degree by a college, university, or similar institution of learning.

Question: What are the limitations, if any, on how long a person can be deferred as an undergraduate college student?

Answer: A registrant can be deferred in Class II-S as an undergraduate college student if he satisfies the requirement for his baccalaureate degree if completed within the normal and specified time, fails to pursue satisfactorily a full-time course of instruction, or becomes 2 years of age, whichever occurs first.

Question: How do I apply for deferment as a college student?

Answer: You may obtain a convenient form for this purpose, Request for Undergraduate Student Deferment, (SSS Form 100) from your local draft board or from your college registrar. However, a letter to your local board requesting a student deferment will be acceptable.

$50,000 For An Opal!

It's funny about people. A lot of them still have the old-fashioned idea that opals are unlucky. Let's dig back a bit in history and see what some of the opinions of other days were.

According to ancient astrology the first opal one of Nature's loveliest—is the lucky jewel, especially for you or one born between September 23 and October 24. And the early Greeks thought the iridescent opal endowed its wearer with insight and prophetic vision. While the Romans, who were pretty smart people, swore that it signified majesty and power. One Roman senator in fact submitted to exile rather than give up his prized opal. His name was Mark Anthony.

If you're an opal connoisseur you know, of course, that the most valuable specimens are the Australian black opals. Yet strange to relate when they were first discovered in 1906 dealers would only pay an ounce for them. Today a perfect opal can bring as much as $50,000.

Our birth stones, including a collection of especially beautiful opals, deserve your most critical inspection. Some are set in lovely gold and platinum mountings. See them all today. HERBERT'S JEWELERS, 1220 Kimberly Road, Twin Falls, 733-0868.

MISDICTION SPRINGS TRAP

Jim: "We have devoted just about enough space to 'Bridge in the Menagerie'."

Oswald: "How about one more hand showing how the Hogs claim to use the fourth dimension in bringing home some of his absurd contracts?"

Jim: "You mean his version of the play called 'The Great Unblock' by the late Geoffrey Most-Smith?"

Oswald: "Yes. The Hog is in three-no-trump after typical bidding. He has six nice diamonds but his partner blocks the suit with the ace king and the only way to unblock is to dis-ensure three club-tricks some time or other and hold the contract to a small loss but the Hog was not interested in a small loss. He played the jack of clubs without the slightest pause. East returned the three of clubs and this time the Hog played the ten. West won with the queen while the Hog discarded a low heart from dummy. West saw no reason to abandon the club suit and led a third club. The trap had been sprung. The Hog took his two club tricks while discarding the ace and king of diamonds from dummy. Six diamonds and a spade followed to give him game and rubber."

Oswald: "The important thing about the whole play was that it was executed so smoothly. The Hog never paused to think at any time. He worked it all out as soon as he saw dummy. In addition the heart discard from dummy on the second club lead was a masterpiece of misdirection. At least it lulled West into enough sense of security so that he led the third club."

Jim: "At last, that's what the Hog said."

Keep It Cool But Not Chilly

Dear Ele: Recently I was sunbathing and a boy started whistling at me from his window for five minutes, but I didn't turn around or say anything. So when he came out of the house, he asked me if I could talk to him. I said I couldn't think of anything to say, so I told him "no."

Dear Ele: I think my mother may be cracking up. I'm a boy 18 years old. Since I was 14 I've been dating, and that was fine and dandy with her. But ever since I started dating Sue, my mother has been acting like I was 11 years old and shouldn't even be thinking of girls.

She's done everything short of a heart attack to make me late for dates, and almost always, by the time I get there, there's a phone call waiting at Sue's house to call "home" to get some message from mom.

Last night was the final straw. I was almost at Sue's house when I saw her. She didn't even offer a reason why she just started crying and saying I was headed for trouble. Does she sound well to you?

Very Worried.

Daugherty Survives His Worst Defeat, Predicts Spartans Will Do Same

By JIM NICHOLS
EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan State Coach Daugherty said today that his worst defeat was one of the nation's biggest football upsets, and he predicted his Big Ten champion Spartans will, too.

"I've seen sicker cases get well," said a subdued Daugherty after last year's 21-0 loss to the Spartans in the national championship game.

Three Pitch Chicago Past Indians 3-1

CLEVELAND (AP) — Don McMahon pitched five innings of perfect relief to help the Chicago White Sox defeat the Cleveland Indians 3-1.

The victory kept the White Sox in the eighth place in the American League. McMahon pitched five innings of perfect relief to help the Chicago White Sox defeat the Cleveland Indians 3-1.

Namath Has Big Day As Jets Win 38-24

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Joe Namath enjoyed his biggest day as a professional quarterback, passing the New York Jets to a 38-24 comeback victory over the Denver Broncos in an American Football League game.

Lions Come From Behind, Beat Browns

DETROIT (AP) — Milt Plum found his way back to the lightning bolts of Mel Farr and Tommy Watkins chewed up Cleveland's Detroit Lions from behind to win the first round of the American Football League game.

Garrett And Dawson Give Chiefs Win

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Len Dawson and Charley Davis gave the Kansas City Chiefs a 24-0 victory over out-manned Miami Dolphins in the American Football League game.

Two Hurl Pirates Past Giants 2-1

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Giants 2-1 in the National League game.

Patriots Shutout Buffalo 23-0

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The Patriots shutout the Buffalo Bills 23-0 in the American Football League game.

Sacrifice Gives Reds 3-2 Triumph

CINCINNATI (AP) — Tommy Lee Jackson's sacrifice hit gave the Cincinnati Reds a 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the National League game.

(In this year's preseason poll, Daugherty was ranked 37-1, while the Spartans were ranked 37-1.)

"We'll find out next week whether we have character on our team or not," Daugherty said.

The "cats" from East Lansing lost last year, finishing with a 7-2 record. Houston right halfback Warren Givens was named MVP.

End Paul Hoberg caught three passes for 124 yards, including a 35-yard scoring play in the third quarter.

Cougars Coach Bill Yeoman, who assisted Daugherty as a player for seven years, was asked whether the victory was surprising.

"When I'm like asking if it was surprised about all those Indians," he said. "Houston's football future looks bright."

Field Goal Lifts Packers Over Bears

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Don Chandler kicked a 46-yard field goal with 33 seconds left Sunday as the Green Bay Packers survived five pass interceptions and three fumbles and defeated the Chicago Bears 13-10 in a National Football League game.

Garrett And Dawson Give Chiefs Win

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Len Dawson and Charley Davis gave the Kansas City Chiefs a 24-0 victory over out-manned Miami Dolphins in the American Football League game.

Sacrifice Gives Reds 3-2 Triumph

CINCINNATI (AP) — Tommy Lee Jackson's sacrifice hit gave the Cincinnati Reds a 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the National League game.

"If we don't get anybody injured," said Daugherty, "the Spartans had led at halftime. Daugherty said, the final score would have been 37-0."

"Our game plan was not to come from behind," he said. "We thought we could control it."

"As it was," he added, "we had to start getting away from our game plan, and that's almost always disastrous."

"No runner can go without the man up front," said McDonald, "and we didn't have it."

The Saints played a conservative type of defense, said McDonald. "That surprised us because we expected a more aggressive game from the linebackers. The linebackers, however, weren't charging and that helps any runner."

McDonald moved into line-up when Redskins Coach Otto Graham benched Joe Otto Looney and moved Billy Mitchell from flanker to running back.

Other than one play last week against Philadelphia, McDonald said he had never seen a player like Mitchell in a time when he played with the Browns that Mitchell was not at flanker.

"One reason for the move was to give help to McDonald," said Graham in the Washington dressing room. "I can talk to him."

Units Passes Colts Past Eagles 38-6

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Johnny Unitas threw two touchdown passes to flanker Willie Richardson and boosted his team to a 38-6 victory over the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League game.

The Eagles jumped to a 6-0 lead in the second period on a play of field goal by Sam Baker, but then Unitas and Richardson took over.

The Colts scored on a two-yard pass by Jerry Hill and a 10-yard punt to Richardson pass to lead 14-0 at halftime.

In the third period, Unitas tossed 31 yards to Richardson for one score and sent Tony Stewart to the line.

Placekicker Lou Michaels punted a 52-yard field goal and the Colts scored on the drive after the blocked kick in the fourth quarter to complete the rout.

Meredith Uses Pass To Down Giants 38-24

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Don Meredith passed for four touchdowns Sunday as the Dallas Cowboys crushed the New York Giants, 38-24, in the National Football League game.

Meredith was never sharper as he completed 17 of 26 passes for 243 yards and added some timely timing with the ball before a crowd of 66,208 in the Cotton Bowl.

The Dallas defense was work-hard, well-oiled machine. Dallas Giants quarterback Fran Tarkenton, well in check, had only one touchdown toss — a 33-yarder to Homer Jones. Dallas intercepted three New York passes and forced two of them at crucial spots and Dave Edwards the other.

McDonald Gives Credit To Blockers

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "Please give credit to the great blocking I had," said rookie Ray McDonald, who gained 98 yards and scored three touchdowns in leading the Washington Redskins to a 30-0 conquest of the New Orleans Saints in National Football League action here Sunday.

"No runner can go without the man up front," said McDonald, "and we didn't have it."

The Saints played a conservative type of defense, said McDonald. "That surprised us because we expected a more aggressive game from the linebackers. The linebackers, however, weren't charging and that helps any runner."

McDonald moved into line-up when Redskins Coach Otto Graham benched Joe Otto Looney and moved Billy Mitchell from flanker to running back.

Other than one play last week against Philadelphia, McDonald said he had never seen a player like Mitchell in a time when he played with the Browns that Mitchell was not at flanker.

"One reason for the move was to give help to McDonald," said Graham in the Washington dressing room. "I can talk to him."

It Was Just Weekend Training Exercise, But It Got All Too Real

Peace Movement" an alleged Communist front organization, did little to change his mind.

Fictional calls to the riot control headquarters in the sheriff's office added to the realism.

Troops were dispatched to such places as the telephone building to prevent sabotage, of communication lines. Reports of houses burning down were constantly being checked out and the activity was extensive.

"But it wasn't real . . . at least to the greatest number of people. But to the 'rioters' who were selected from the ranks of the National Guard, the bayonets were real . . . and so were the pushing and shoving that typified the intense emotion which always accompanies riots and demonstrations."

The key installations in the community that were guarded were designated by Sheriff Benham. The road blocks on the Perrine Bridge and other entrances to the city were constantly being harassed by "rioters," who in some cases "kidnaped" guards and "stole" Jeeps, just to make it real.

Sheriff Benham felt that the riot control activity went "very well." He said also "We do appreciate the public's attitude toward our exercise. They were extremely cooperative."

The executive officer of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, Col. Sam Magaw, made one observation relating to the activity and its realism.

"I realize that men do not react the same when they know there are blanks in the rifles," he said. "But when a line of soldiers with fixed bayonets moves increasingly forward . . . someone has to move. You can't get more real than that."

Two exercises held at different times gave both the National Guard and the local law enforcement agencies considerable practice in the fine art of riot control.

Another group which benefited from the exercise was Magic Valley Hospital personnel.

They were alerted at the hospital at 10:30 a.m. that riot victims would be brought in and at 11:30 a.m. the first ones arrived. They were sorted into degrees of injuries and assigned to personnel at the hospital.

The "victims" were treated for gunshot wounds, fractured skulls, fractured jaws, fractured ribs, fractured hips, and various lesser ailments.

Once again, the simulated wounds were not real . . . but they were treated as if they were.

Extra personnel was called in when a gunshot wound that was treated at the hospital was recorded . . . then the man on an operating table was taken to the operating room for 20 minutes, along with staff to do the job. The realism was not in the injuries . . . but in the time, a vital commodity at a modern hospital.

Finally, everything was back to normal.

No riot was actually quelled. No rioters were actually reduced. Nothing had really changed . . . except for the experience of a few hundred men in their capability to control a riot.

Trend Away From Gaullist Regime Seen

PARIS (AP)—A trend toward the left and away from the Gaullist regime, already sketched out in the March parliamentary elections, was confirmed Sunday in three by-elections for National Assembly seats.

The by-elections were ordered because of irregularities charged in the March voting in which anti-Gaullist candidates won narrow upsets in the three districts. In Sunday's voting these narrow victories were turned into routs.

The results were seen as a demonstration of discontent with the domestic policies of President Charles de Gaulle's government. The vote was the first since the government, ruling with special powers, decreed several unpopular measures raising transit taxes and cutting down health insurance benefits.

In one by-election in Brittany, Socialist Yves le Fol defeated Gaullist Robert Richet, 24,955 votes to 28,577. Last March, Le Fol's margin was only 35 votes. Until now Brittany has been considered a Gaullist stronghold.

A second seat, in Normandy, was won by Centrist Roland Boudet, who easily defeated Gaullist Ernest Voyer, whom he led last March by only 125 votes. Boudet polled 18,043 Sunday to Voyer's 7,899.

The third seat, in southwestern France, was captured by Socialist Paul Vignaux, who defeated Centrist Patrick Brocas, running with Gaullist backing. Vignaux, whose margin last March was 1,248 votes, Sunday polled 27,748 to Brocas's 17,203.

REALISM WAS ADDED to the "riot" activities when National Guardsmen acting as the rioters burned an old car. The smoke from the burning auto, which was stuffed with old rubber tires, wood and other debris, filtered over the city. The initial "riot" was held at about 7 a.m. Sunday and the movement of heavy trucks and the sound of blank ammunition combined with the smog-like atmosphere provided by the smoke and early morning air made the exercise seem all too real.

Embezzling Religion Teacher Dies

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—Miss Minnie Mangum, spinster Sunday school teacher who embezzled nearly $3 million in the age of 71.

She became ill Sunday at the church where she had taught for more than 25 years, went home to bed and apparently died in her sleep. She was dead on arrival at a Portsmouth Hospital.

Her sister, Mrs. Lillian V. Eure, with whom she lived, said she apparently suffered a stroke. She had one in prison several years ago.

Miss Minnie, as she was called by her many friends and business acquaintances, was paroled 25 years ago after serving nine years of a 30-year prison sentence.

Her arrest in December 1955 and the disclosure of embezzlement totaling nearly $3 million brought ruin to the Commonwealth Savings and Loan Association in nearby Norfolk where she had been employed for 28 years.

It was the largest embezzlement in Virginia's history and one of the largest on record in the nation.

A plump and jolly woman dedicated to church work and charitable activities, Miss Minnie appeared to live well within the income she earned as assistant secretary "treasurer" of the bank.

At her trial she said most of the money she took went to friends and family members as gifts and loans and to charity.

Early in 1956 she was tried on 16 indictments alleging the theft of $2,884,857.06. She pleaded guilty to 12 counts, including one of embezzling more than $1 million.

She quickly established a reputation as a model prisoner at the State Farm for Women in Gloucester County, but was turned down by the State Parole Board three times before parole was granted in 1955. A former governor also had refused to grant her a pardon.

Much of the missing money was recovered in a series of federal raids brought against the recipients of Miss Minnie's generosity.

About $1 million was never accounted for.
