

JUST THINK OF IT! Diamond Head in the background, salt water splashing in your face and the musical chant of native voices drifting over the deep blue water just off the white beaches of Hawaii. It can be yours. And in February, too. Another tour sponsored by the Times-News and Magic Carpet

Travels is being planned. In fact, arrangements have just been made and will include a special tour for golfers who have always had the desire to hit away on some of the most beautiful fairways in the world. Read below and find out all about it

Want To Get Away From It All? If So, Schedule A Hawaiian Winter Vacation

A double-barreled winter vacation spectacular has been arranged for this year's Hawaiian tour, being sponsored by the Times-News and Magic Carpet Travels.

Arrangements have just been completed on four islands of Hawaii for arrival of Magic Valley winter vacationers on Feb. 6 with the escapees from Idaho winter having a choice of two exciting itineraries—a traditional sightseeing vacation or a golfer's "Getaway."

New group jet fares and the new "common fare" allow travel to neighboring islands, deluxe accommodations and many more features than have been included in previous Times-News travels, but at an attractive price of only $499 per person.

The sightseeing schedule has been arranged for those who wish to see much of the island beauty, tradition and variety, but still have free time for relaxation and recreation.

The golfer's "getaway" is an itinerary with no regimentation, but providing an opportunity to play some of the world's greatest courses, relax at luxurious beach resorts and forget the daily pressures.

The 10-day outing will appeal to many golfers—and non-golfers—who may already have been to the islands and want to break from winter to paradise.

The sightseeing group will be driven to the fabulous Hukilau Hotel at the edge of Waikiki, overlooking the ocean and picture esque yacht harbor. During five days and nights here, they will enjoy a Pearl Harbor cruise, "Night in the South Pacific" (dinner, show and visit at Polynesian Cultural Center) and days of leisure to surf, rest or take advantage of other tours, superb dining, Polynesian entertainment, etc.

Then they will be taken to the "Garden Isle" of Kauai and "far out" to beautiful, secluded Poipu Beach Hotel for two nights.

They will visit Waimea "Grand Canyon of the Pacific," Fern Grotto via Waialua river boats and other fascinating spots. There also will be time to try the surf or just bask on the beach.

On the morning of Wednesday, Feb. 14, the group will drive to Lihue Airport and be flown to Kahului, on Maui, the "Valley Isle" where they will be driven up the slopes of Haleakala for a breath-taking view of this and four other islands. Then they will go back to Iao Valley, "Yosemite of the Islands," and around to Lahaina, whaling center and early capital of Hawaii.

After lunch and a rest at the unique Sheraton Maui Hotel, the group will go back to Kahului Airport and on to Hilo, the "Big Island of Hawaii" where they will stay at the Orchid Isle Hotel for two nights.

While there they will have time for a leisurely visit to the Orchid Gardens, Rainbow Falls, See SUN, Pg. 2, Col. 2

Outcome Of U. S., Egyptian Talks Awaited By U Thant

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said Saturday he expected American-Egyptian talks Monday to show whether there would be an agreement for a postwar settlement in the Middle East.

The General Assembly, after ending its general debate Friday night, postponed debate on the Middle East indefinitely to give more time for private negotiations toward action on that question in the Security Council.

Thant, leaving headquarters for a luncheon engagement, was asked by reporters if he expected some agreement next week that could become the basis for Security-Council action toward a solution following Israel's war of last June 5-10 with Egypt, Jordan and Syria.

He replied that he had expected that to become clear this week but now "it seems this will be clear only on Monday." That day, he said, "There will be talks, I believe, between the United Arab Republic and the United States."

"They have been having contacts, as you know," he went on. "According to my information, there will be contacts on Monday."

As to whether he expected an agreement actually would result, he said, "It's difficult to anticipate." Asked if any particular proposal was pending between the two, he said, "Yes, there are a few proposals going back and forth."

He did not say what they were. But, in answer to a question, he confirmed that one proposal under discussion was an intended Soviet-U.S. resolution that was drawn up last July for the assembly's Middle-East emergency session but was never submitted because the Arabs rejected it in advance.

Asked whether the Soviet Union was in on the talks, he said, "I don't think the USSR is involved here—but maybe in Washington."

Haulers' Talks Collapse

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An attempt to settle the tumultuous, two-month steel haulers' strike virtually collapsed Saturday in the face of opposition from two principles in the dispute.

Striking truckers and the National Steel Carriers Association snubbed a meeting called by a seven-state mediation panel trying to find a compromise in a key issue—the amount of time truckers must wait at mills for loading and unloading before collecting penalty payment.

A spokesman for the mediation panel said the seven hours of talks were fruitless without the truckers and National Steel Carriers. He said the panel would try to set another meeting, possibly Sunday.

Daniel Berger, an attorney for the truckers, said his group would not resume negotiations with the panel. He commented after truckers in Pittsburgh approved 437-134 the original pact offering a five-point program to end the walkout.

"The fact that we approved this today doesn't mean we're going back to work today," said Berger.

Marines Stop New Viet Cong Thrust Toward Con Thien

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines planes and artillery thwarted a fresh attempt by Communist troops Saturday to crack the Leatherneck shield against mass invasion from the north by a direct ground attack in the Con Thien sector.

The U.S. Command said a Marine jet, aloft Friday to combat revived enemy pressure, had dropped two 500-pound bombs on Con Thien by mistake, killing two Marines and wounding 21.

Fighting by the light of parachute flares, a Marine battalion encamped 1.2 miles south of Con Thien's shell-pocked hills hurled back about 500 Hanoi regulars in a three-hour battle before dawn Saturday.

Spokesmen said the North Vietnamese struck behind a screen of tear gas and smoke grenades after lobbing in 130 mortar shells. In retreat they headed toward the mountains southwest of Con Thien with Marines in pursuit.

The U.S. Command said 21 Americans were killed in the battle and 20 were wounded seriously enough to require helicopter evacuation for treatment. An undetermined number of others remained in the line with lesser wounds.

Twelve enemy bodies were found on the field, along with 10 weapons and seven gas masks. There was no estimate of how many North Vietnamese dead and injured may have been carried away.

The enemy probe developed after a sharp increase Friday in the enemy's long-range shelling of Con Thien, two miles south of the demilitarized zone. Compared to recent daily totals of 30 or 40 rounds, 384 rounds of artillery, rocket and mortar fire whistled in.

The shelling killed three Marines and wounded 15.

In reporting the mistaken bombing, a spokesman said the Marine plane, "making a bombing run Friday evening in support of ground forces at Con Thien, had two 500-pound bombs impact on the perimeter of the ground unit." An investigation is under way.

The flurry of enemy activity against the Marines who are blocking infiltration routes from North Vietnam came little more than a week after massive American firepower and unseasonal floods curbed a month-long artillery siege of Con Thien in which the Communists fired up to 1,000 rounds a day.

Theft Suspect Is Nabbed By T. F. Officers

Two off-duty Twin Falls police officers arrested a Rupert man wanted on a charge of robbery Saturday night as he sat drinking coffee in the Sports Cafe, 110 Main Ave. N.

In custody and charged with being drunk and failing to register as an ex-convict late Saturday was Benjamin Graham, 30, Rupert. City police said he will be turned over to Rupert city authorities. He is wanted there on a complaint issued Friday charging robbery at the home of a Rupert woman. A statewide alarm was broadcast for Graham by Rupert police Friday afternoon after a Rupert woman reported she was robbed at gun point at her home of approximately $100. The robbery allegedly took place at about 1:30 a.m. Friday.

Graham, who also gave his name as Benjamin Grant, was believed to be in the Twin Falls area and was spotted by one of the officers to whom he was known. The two officers, wearing civilian clothes, said they were looking for Graham although they were actually off duty at the time.

Officers said Graham was not armed when arrested and that he offered no resistance when taken into custody at about 7:45 p.m.

Can You Vote? Better Be Sure

More than 2,000 Twin Falls residents are now qualified to vote Nov. 7 in the election of four city council members, City Clerk Constance Leiser reported Saturday morning.

When books opened Sept. 21, only 875 persons were properly registered because of the light 1965 vote and new election laws which require any voter missing one municipal election to be dropped from registration lists.

A complete list of persons who were properly registered when the books opened on Sept. 21, as compiled by the Times-News, begins on page 7 of today's paper. If your name is not on the list and you have not registered at the city clerk's office since Sept. 21, check with the clerk's office on your registration status. Books will remain open for new registrations through Saturday, Nov. 4 and on Nov. 2, 3 and 4, the city clerk's office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. as usual and will reopen from 7 to 9 p.m. to accommodate working persons.

Mrs. Leiser pointed out that anyone who missed a municipal candidate election must re-register. Persons who have moved from one precinct to another must notify the clerk's office to have their registration transferred to the precinct in which they now reside.

Eleven candidates are seeking office in the Nov. 7 election in Twin Falls.

Polls will be open at noon on Nov. 7 and will remain open until 8 p.m. with the first ward voting in the Twin Falls county courthouse; the second ward at Twin Falls city hall; third ward at Magic Valley International Inc., 304 Fourth Ave. W.; fourth ward at the Memorial Lutheran School, 260 Shoup Ave. W., and the fifth ward at Washington grade school, 116 Blue Lakes Blvd. N.

Generally, the First Ward includes the area between Main Avenue and Shoshone Street and north to Shoup Avenue. The Second Ward is bounded by Main Avenue and Shoshone Street and east to Locust Street while the Third Ward includes the entire area south of a line formed by Addison Avenue West, Main Avenue and Kimberly Road. The Fourth Ward lies north of Addison Avenue West to Shoup while the Fifth Ward is north of Kimberly Road, east of Locust Street and Blue Lakes Boulevard. A precinct map will be published by the Times-News prior to election time.

Zoning Plans To Be Heard By Council

A public hearing on five zoning requests and revisions will be held Monday night during the regular meeting of the Twin Falls City Council, and three vacancies on the Twin Falls Airport Commission will be filled.

Scheduled for hearing are items covered in a public hearing last Monday by the city zoning commission. They include a sign regulation change for C-L zones; application of Charles Hopkins for rezoning his property for a nursery school; request of the Twin Falls Clinic and Hospital for a zoning variance to permit expansion; amendments to the zoning ordinance's definition of a double frontage lot, and providing for hard surfacing of driveways and parking areas adjacent to commercial drive-in establishments.

Several election official appointments are also scheduled Monday night.

A Trip Through The South Hills In Autumn Can Be A Thing Of Joy

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING to do on a sunny Sunday afternoon? How about a drive through the colorful south hills. Fall colors in the mountains are now at their best and many motorists have been driving into Rock Creek Canyon and nearby areas to enjoy the scenic beauty. The view is free, fees for the use of improved picnic and campgrounds have been removed. The fees are required from June through Sept. 12. Almost any forest trail or seldom used timber road leads into country of assorted brilliant colors ranging from bright gold to red. Popular trips for area motorists include a route through Rock Creek Canyon to the Magic Mountain area, and either southeast to Oakley or west to Rogerson.

For those who want to avoid the confusion of the annual deer hunt, this weekend is the last chance. Hunters will swarm through the area next weekend. But for the hiker, forest officials report this has been a perfect year in the south mountains. An early frost has turned the leaves to many shades of red and gold and there is plenty of sunshine.

Most of the color is provided by the bright yellow leaves of the quaking aspen trees and contrasts with the stark white bark of the trees and the evergreens. Road conditions beyond paved areas are rough but generally good on all main roads. Approximately four inches of snow has fallen in the area this fall. (Photos by Bonnie Baird Jones)

3 Nevada Men Hurt In Hollister Accident

HOLLISTER—Three Nevada men en route to north central Idaho for elk hunting were injured and their vehicle demolished in an accident one mile north of Hollister on U. S. 93 Saturday at 2:15 a.m.

State and County officers said the men were traveling in a small foreign four-wheel drive vehicle towing a one-wheel trailer filled with hunting and camping equipment.

Only one of the three remained in Maple Valley Memorial Hospital Saturday afternoon and his condition was listed as good.

In the hospital with cuts, bruises and a severe hand injury was James H. Soderquist, 34, 3704 Palomar Ave., Las Vegas, Nev., who was believed to have been riding as a passenger in the front seat of the vehicle.

Treated for cuts, bruises and other injuries and released early Saturday were Dr. William G. Findoroff, 38, 1133 Sir Patrick, Las Vegas, owner and believed to be the driver, and Dr. William B. Harris, 2121 Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas.

Deputy Sheriff Paul Corder said the men had apparently been driving for a number of hours and the driver fell asleep at the wheel. He said the men were not certain who was driving at the time but it was believed to have been Dr. Findoroff. When officers arrived all three were semi-conscious or unconscious and lying in the borrowpit beside the vehicle.

Mr. Corder said food and equipment were scattered half a mile along the highway.

The vehicle and trailer were demolished, officers reported. First reports from the accident scene indicated at least one person had been killed.

State Patrolman Chet Hillman and Sheriff James H. Benham assisted in the investigation.

KILLED ON FARM
LATAH, Wash. (AP)—Edward A. Wenner, 68, Tensed, Idaho, was killed when run over by a bulldozer on a farm in Latah Friday, the Spokane County Sheriff's office said.

PAUL MAYOR HAROLD WILSON extends a hand of welcome to Lee Schlender, the first lawyer to ever practice in Paul. Also greeting the lawyer are Joe Bauer, next to Mr. Schlender, president of the Paul Chamber of Commerce, and Otto Steinbrink, president of the Paul Idaho Bank and Trust. Mr. Schlender will open his office later this month.

History Is Made As Paul Gets Attorney

PAUL—The first law office to open in the history of Paul is to be established in the new shopping center here by E. Lee Schlender.

Mr. Schlender, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schlender, Malta, was admitted to the State Bar last month and has been associated with the law firm of T. V. Behn, Buhl.

Mr. Schlender was in Paul last week meeting local businessmen and looking over his new location in the office formerly occupied by Dr. Jerry Ennis. He plans to open the office the last of this month.

The new lawyer was born in El Centro, Calif., and traveled around America with his family, his father being an engineer with General Electric.

The family moved to Malta in 1955 and his father serves as manager of Raft River Electric. He graduated from the Raft River High School in 1964 and was graduated from Idaho State University with honors and a BA degree in philosophy. He was a varsity athlete at ISU.

While attending the University of Idaho, he received the law faculty foundation scholarship and graduated last June with a law degree. He clerked for James Annett, Burley attorney, for several summers while attending the university.

He said he is very impressed with the Paul area, especially the manner in which the community works together. "I'm a native of this area and acquainted with the people and will enjoy living here. I consider this area to have a greater potential for growth than any other industrial or agricultural area in the state," he said.

He said his opening a law practice here is the result of combined efforts of the local Chamber of Commerce and Rep. Oscar Arstein.

Five Men Seeking Three Jerome Posts

JEROME — Last minute filing at the Jerome city hall has insured competition with five men seeking the three city councilman posts to be filled in the Nov. 7 municipal election.

Filing nominating petitions at the closing date were Elwin L. Tinker and Frank Titus. Both seek the lone two-year term. The winner will fill the unexpired term of Paul Hurlless who resigned earlier.

Previously announced candidates for the two four-year councilman term include S. N. Weeks, Marshall Everheart and J. A. Russell.

Mrs. Mabel Beveridge, City Clerk, reports there are 850 to 900 registered voters compared to 2,500 to 3,000 eligible to vote if they were registered in the city.

"Registration is heavy and I expect it to continue," she said. Mrs. Beveridge said that one of the reasons for the heavy registration is a new state law which says that only those persons voting in the last city election are registered. In past city elections, a person was registered if he or she voted in either of two previous elections.

Mrs. Beveridge said that the petitions of all five candidates have been checked and each contains a sufficient number of electors.

Mr. Titus was born in Nampa and graduated from the Nampa High School and the University of Idaho. He has been a resident of Jerome since 1937. Until recently he owned and operated Titus Inc., until its recent merger with Ready to Pour concrete. He also owned and managed Titus-Harp Construction Co. of Jerome.

He was a member of Elks, Rotary Club and the Jerome Chamber of Commerce. He is also past President of Jerome Junior and Senior Chamber of Commerce. He is also past president of Rotary Club.

Mr. Tinker was born at Rigby and was educated at Wendell. He has lived in Jerome since 1924. He belongs to the American Legion, having served in World War II. He has been secretary-treasurer of Boy Scout troop 38 for several years.

He has been warehouse foreman for Farmers Elevator for the past 26 years.

Hansen Man Is Hurt On Horse

HANSEN — Fay Frahm, 65, was hospitalized early Wednesday morning in Field's Memorial Hospital at Salmon after an accident caused when his horse threw him into a tree while he was on an elk hunting trip. Six of his ribs were pulled away from the backbone, two of them broken.

The accident occurred late Tuesday evening. He was unable to stand riding out so he walked to the hospital, taking him six hours. He was accompanied by a guide when the accident happened and the guide also accompanied him to the hospital.

He will be hospitalized for about a week. Mrs. Frahm went to Salmon Thursday to be with her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed took her to Salmon.

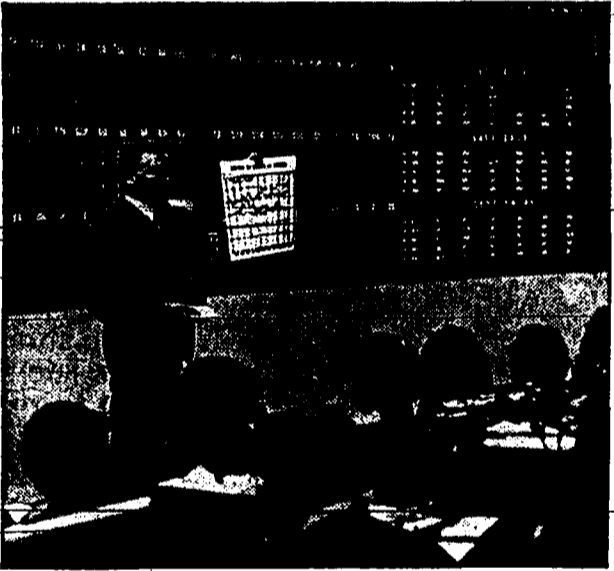

Not Guilty

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A topless go-go dancer with the unlikely but real name of Queen Victoria Vanilla Williams bounced one of Miami's last vestiges of the Victorian age into the history books Friday.

In a two-word ruling, Criminal Court Judge Carl Stedman upheld Miss Williams' plea that public exposure of the breasts need not always be indecent.

"Not guilty," the judge said and dismissed a disorderly conduct charge against the shapely Virgin Islands native. Stedman's ruling came after he personally inspected a local topless nightspot to see if the dancers offended public decency.

Elderly Utah Couple Survives 6-Day Ordeal

By LARRY DUM
Associated Press Writer
SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—An elderly Mormon couple survived six days and nights without food in south Utah's vast and desolate Last Chance Canyon country.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lloyd lived on slimy, brackish creek water and, Lloyd said, "constant prayer."
"We're resurrected," the old man muttered as he was helped from the rescue plane which brought them to Salt Lake City Friday night.

The ordeal began Oct. 6 when Lloyd, 75, and his wife, 73, decided on a trip to the Red Rock Desert wilderness area. He had two extra days off from his job as an elementary school crossing guard.

Lloyd said a wrong turn led them down the Last Chance Canyon trail to a point where they couldn't turn the car around. While continuing downward, he said, the car slammed into a "washout" in the road. Mrs. Lloyd hit the dashboard, gashing her nose and blacking both eyes.

ELDERLY COUPLE SURVIVES. Ira Floyd, 75, and his wife, 73, prepare to go home after surviving six days and nights without food in the desolate Last Chance Creek area of south Utah. Man at left is unidentified. (AP wirephoto)

They managed to get the car out, only to slide into a creek bed farther down. Lloyd said he didn't want to try to walk out because of his wife's arthritis. The first two days, Lloyd told relatives, the water wasn't too bad. But the farther they traveled, the more brackish it became. "But we drank as much as we could hold," he said. "That kept us alive."

Mightily, Lloyd said, they built a fire, rationing the few matches he had. By Tuesday, when the search for them was in full swing, he first sighted a search aircraft, but the pilot didn't see them. He told relatives he saw planes on several occasions. "We could have made it maybe one more day," he told son-in-law Harold Stevens. "Our faith was all that carried us on. We prayed all the time."

Fish and Game Warden John Kimball of Kanab, Utah, found them wandering along the creek bed Friday, more than 30 miles from the nearest populated area. The U.S. Weather Bureau said weather on the Kaiparowits Plateau above was between 50 and 80 degrees all week. Outside of Alaska, that plateau has been described as the largest unexplored region in the United States.

TICKET PRONE BOISE (AP)—High school students with higher grades in driver training courses are more prone to get traffic tickets, an Eastern Idaho instructor told fellow teachers here Friday.

C. Victor Anderson, Rexburg High School driver training teacher, spoke at a sectional meeting at a closing session of the two-day series of workshops for Idaho teachers.

In a study, Anderson said 45 per cent of the students who got A's in driver training at four eastern Idaho high schools had received traffic tickets since completing the course. Of those who got B's, he said, 40 per cent received tickets.

And of those students who got C's, only 34 per cent received tickets.

MAN ARRAIGNED IDAHO FALLS (AP)—A Brigham City, Utah, man was to be arraigned this morning on a federal bank robbery charge after the Friday afternoon robbery of the Bank of Idaho in Idaho Falls.

About $3,200 was taken in the robbery, officials said. Authorities said Ted Robinette, 30, was in Idaho Falls City Jail less than ten minutes after the bank was held up.

A bank teller said a man approached her, brandished a pistol and told her to place all the money she had in a paper bag he gave her.

Mrs. Ursula Kelly said she did as the man told her, filling the bag with currency. When the thief ran from the bank, two bank officials pursued him across the parking lot and into a blind alley, where an armored car service employee ran in and faced the suspect.

with a .38 caliber pistol. Police said they found a .22 caliber pistol and $3,207 in Robinette's possession when they arrived minutes later.

BEGINS STUDY BOISE (AP)—A committee charged with aiding the State Board of Education in preparing recommendations for the 1969 legislature began its study of Idaho school problems at a Friday meeting.

The 33-member citizens' group organized itself and heard a warning about education conditions—and possible future ones.

Wayne York, executive secretary of the Idaho Education Association, told the group there was unrest among Idaho teachers, as shown by the "sanction alert" called this year.

York said unless conditions in schools are improved, a full sanction—under which teachers are urged not to sign contracts—would be imposed.

IEA delegates are expected to decide a course of action at a spring assembly next year.

Subcommittees were set up by the committee, one to study small schools, one to study large ones.

Nixon Says He Will Decide On Candidacy Soon

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says he will decide by January whether to seek the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

Nixon told newsmen Friday that the 1968 race for the nomination could be the most exciting since the 1951 Taft-Eisenhower battle.

If he thought he would be the strongest Republican candidate, he said, he would throw his hat into the ring in January. He won the nomination in 1960 but lost the election to John F. Kennedy.

Nixon spoke to newsmen before addressing a private GOP Key Men Committee dinner.

Buhl Schools Are Closed For Funeral

BUHL — Buhl schools were closed Wednesday in memory of Melvin Wilson, Buhl high school teacher, who was killed in a hunting accident last week. The action for closure came at the school board meeting this week. Trustees approved the purchase of insurance for the driver training cars from Farmers Insurance group. Coverage is based on 100,000 thousand dollars bodily injury and property damage and $1,000 medical coverage.

A request to release the Twin Falls county commissioners from the peremptory writ of mandate requiring certification of an equalization levy, was tabled pending further information.

Considerable discussion was given to present school facilities. It was noted by trustees that monies available for expenditure on capital outlay or building improvements have not been adequate to replace worn or obsolete structures such as the vocational agriculture shop and that financing will have to be accomplished through a special levy. Trustees are studying the problems of renovation, replacement, and remodeling, projecting future needs as they relate to school facilities.

Times-News Gives Honors To 7 Boys

CHRIS SCHUT

EDDIE NICKEL

DENNIS DEROUEN

GLENN WALLIS

REX CHRISTENSEN

JOHN McCLURE

Saturday was National Newspaperboy Day and newspaperboys throughout the United States were honored by their employers as the final link between the production of a newspaper and the delivery of that product to the reader.

Each year the Times-News selects five per cent of its carrier force to become recipients of the Inland Awards for Outstanding Newspaperboys, sponsored jointly by the Times-News and the Inland Daily Press Association.

This year seven young men were selected by the Times-News Circulation Department for the awards. The selection was based on standards set by the Inland Daily Press Association and followed this criteria: 1. Length of period of continuous service (more than six months). 2. Customer service, salesmanship and collection efficiency. 3. Scholastic standing and citizenship.

This year's winners selected by the Times-News were John McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. David McClure, D. DeRouen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard DeRouen, Glenn Wallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert D. Wallis, Eddie Nickel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nickel, Rex Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Christensen, Lex Heyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Heyer, all of Twin Falls, and Chris Schut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Schut, of Rupert. Lex Heyer is not pictured on left.

The boys range in age from 13 to 15, and have a combined total of 19 years service to the Times-News. The longest period of service is held by Chris Schut who has had a carrier route for five years and nine months. The others range in length of service from 13 months to 37 months.

Chris Schut of Rupert who is 15 years old, is also one of the two to receive additional special recognition from among the group.

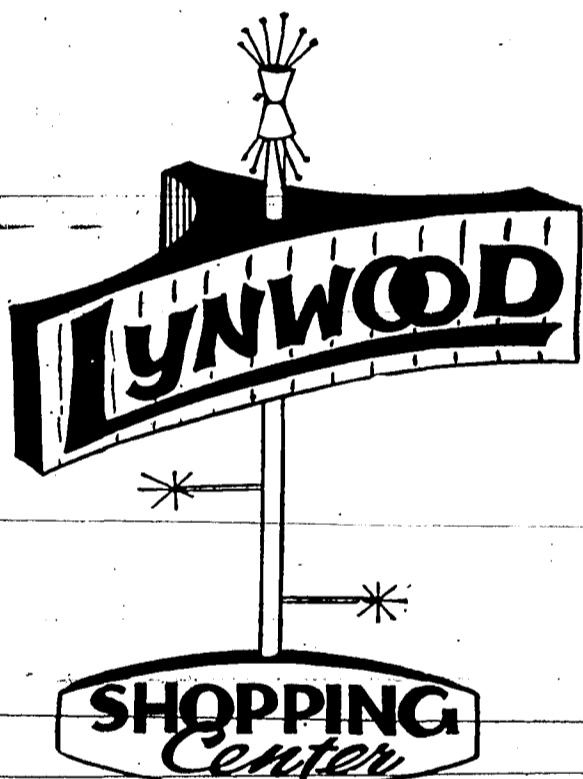

The other is Eddie Nickel, who is also 15 years old, and has been with the Times-News carriers program for 32 months.

Both Chris Schut and Eddie Nickel will receive $25 savings bonds as a special distinction for their outstanding sales and service to both the Times-News and their customers.

Harold H. Stiles, Circulation Manager of the Times-News, in speaking with the boys when the awards were presented, said, "The Times-News joins newspapers throughout the nation in thanking you for your excellent service and consideration to both the Times-News and its customers. We thank you for getting our product to the home and without your enterprise would not work. You are the final link between the news and the reader and without the newspaper the modern newspaper could not operate. You are businessmen who sell a product to a customer, and as such you learn the value of money, prompt payment and honesty in dealing with people. Again we thank you for your service to the Times-News."

The newspaperboys will, as part of the Inland Awards for Outstanding Newspaperboys be taken by the Times-News to Boise on Veterans Day for the Boise-Borah football game, and at that time they will also attend a special Governor's Banquet in their honor. An address will be given by Governor Don Samuelson.

Most of the boys when asked what their newspaper route had done for them, indicated that through their work they had accumulated a savings account and hoped to use some of the money for college when they leave high school. Many of them said they purchased their own clothes and provided for their own hobbies through their Times-News carrier route.

AS A RECENT STUDY unit in the Heyburn School third grade taught by Mrs. Truth Wrigley, youngsters learned about houses in various parts of the world. The 8-year-old students became so excited with the unit that each constructed a miniature house after looking at pictures. The results were outstanding according to visitors of the room. The structures were made from everyday materials. Among houses constructed were frame, eskimo, houseboats, forest, desert, hogan, pueblo, mobile, tree, teepees, Hawaiian and apartment. Aide To LBJ Denies Clearance Rejections WASHINGTON (AP) — Walt Rostow, special assistant to President Johnson, denies assertions he was three times rejected for security clearance during President Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration.

A brief filed in a Civil Service case at the State Department makes the charges. It was filed last month on behalf of Otto F. Otepka, who is fighting dismissal as the department's chief security evaluations officer.

"From 1951 onward," Rostow told a reporter when asked Friday about the brief's allegations, "I had continuous security clearance from various agencies of the federal government." Eisenhower took office in 1953.

The State Department said only: "There will be no comment from the Department of State on any matter involving the Otepka case while that case is being heard."

While the brief has never been made public and Otepka's attorney, Roger Robb, declined to discuss it, a person who has seen it gave a newsmen some details.

This informant, who would not permit use of his name, confirmed the brief makes the reported statement about Rostow and the Eisenhower administration.

The informant said, however, that he understood the rejections of Rostow for certain assignments at that time were not based on security reasons but because Rostow's particular talents did not meet the requirements.

Rostow, 51, has long had a reputation for scholarly achievement in international studies and has been a prolific writer in this field. His current White House post is that of chief adviser on international matters. He is widely regarded as one of the strong voices in the administration for U.S. firmness in Vietnam.

The late President John F. Kennedy brought Rostow into the government from Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he was a professor of economics.

While Rostow said he had had security clearance since 1951, he did not say why he had been given it at that time, a year when Harry S. Truman was president.

Rostow's biographical data on Who's Who lists him as a staff member in 1951 of the Center for International Studies, a private agency. Eminent scholars sometimes receive security clearance so they may make use of classified documents in their studies.

The brief for Otepka was reported to develop an argument that a "get Otepka" effort had its beginnings when the Kennedy administration came into office.

It was said to cite testimony from Otepka to the effect that he was called into a meeting in December 1960, with Dean Rusk, secretary of state designate in the new administration, and Robert F. Kennedy, choice of his brother-president for attorney general.

They were reported to have told Otepka that Rostow would be appointed to a State Department post and to have sought emergency clearance for Rostow without a field investigation.

Otepka was said to have balked and stated he knew of information in Central Intelligence Agency and Air Force files that made him feel a field investigation was advisable.

As to the Eisenhower administration's rejection of Rostow, the brief was reported to say he was rejected in 1955 by Herbert Hoover Jr., then undersecretary of state, and twice later by Roderrick O'Connor, then administrator of the department's Bureau of Security.

Hoover, now living in California, said "offhand, 'I don't know' when asked about the report."

O'Connor, reached in New York, said, "I do not recall this incident. I just do not remember it."

The Otepka case has been hanging fire for nearly four years. John F. Reilly, then deputy assistant secretary of state, ordered Otepka dismissed in November 1963 on grounds of insubordination.

Otepka has been fighting the dismissal under Civil Service and State Department regulations. In the current phase, the brief went to Edward A. Dragon, a department hearings officer, after hearings in closed sessions. Dragon will make recommendations to Rusk.

Heyburn Council To Buy New Dump Truck

HEYBURN—The City of Heyburn accepted the bid submitted by Cameron Sales, Rupert, for the purchase of a new dump truck costing $3,695 Wednesday night during the regular board meeting.

The new International truck will be delivered to the city in 30 days and J. R. Brown and Earl Rose, both councilmen, were instructed to receive bids for the purchase of a truck bed for the vehicle.

Oscar Egbert, Heyburn postmaster, asked council assistance after it was discovered that one city block was house-numbered backwards. He said the error was made in the distribution of numbers during the recent numbering project and that the distributors started the block in the wrong direction.

Bill Hellewell told councilmen he had received a letter from the city lawyer advising him to have a rental house he owns hooked to the city sewer within 30 days after notice.

The council, after hearing the house will be moved away next spring and the property used for another purpose, told Hellewell he will have until May 15 to have the house moved.

Harold Hurst, board chairman, said the sewer was constructed to protect people for sanitary and health reasons and is required by state law. He said the sewer can not fulfill its purpose unless all people comply with the city ordinance and hook on.

Mr. Hurst reported there are several "unsightly" properties in the city that should be cleaned up and councilmen agreed that the ordinance pertaining to this be enforced and a list of descriptions will be given to the city lawyer for immediate action.

George Hellewell presented a plat for development of his river property and after discussion the council decided to check further concerning surveying.

Mrs. Ulsa Osborn asked to be connected to the city sewer and Bud Scovill, city manager, noted

Midweek Class Slated At Filer

FILER — A midweek Bible school class will begin at 4 p.m. Wednesday at Peace Lutheran Church and will be conducted each Wednesday from 4 to 5:30 p.m., according to Rev. T. D. Johnston, pastor.

The school will be for all interested children in the community in grades five to eight. Studies will be presented on Bible stories and how they apply to children's lives today.

Mr. Scovill reported that he has reseeded the ball park and seeded the new McBride Addition park. A rainbird type irrigation sprinkler will be purchased by the city for use in the park developments.

Parking spaces and pedestrian crosses have been painted on streets around the center of the city and at the school. Three street lights have been installed with two being in the McBride Addition and one in the Stone Addition. Light wiring has been changed at the ball park to protect persons using this facility.

According to Don Hill, city electrician, the previous switch was on the lower part of the pole with easy access to youngsters.

The Nov. 7 election was discussed and it was decided it should be held in the judge's quarters this year instead of the city office conference room. Voters are asked to use the judge's door to the east of the city office.

Petitions filed for city posts have been checked by Mrs. Bruce Brower, city clerk, and found to be in order.

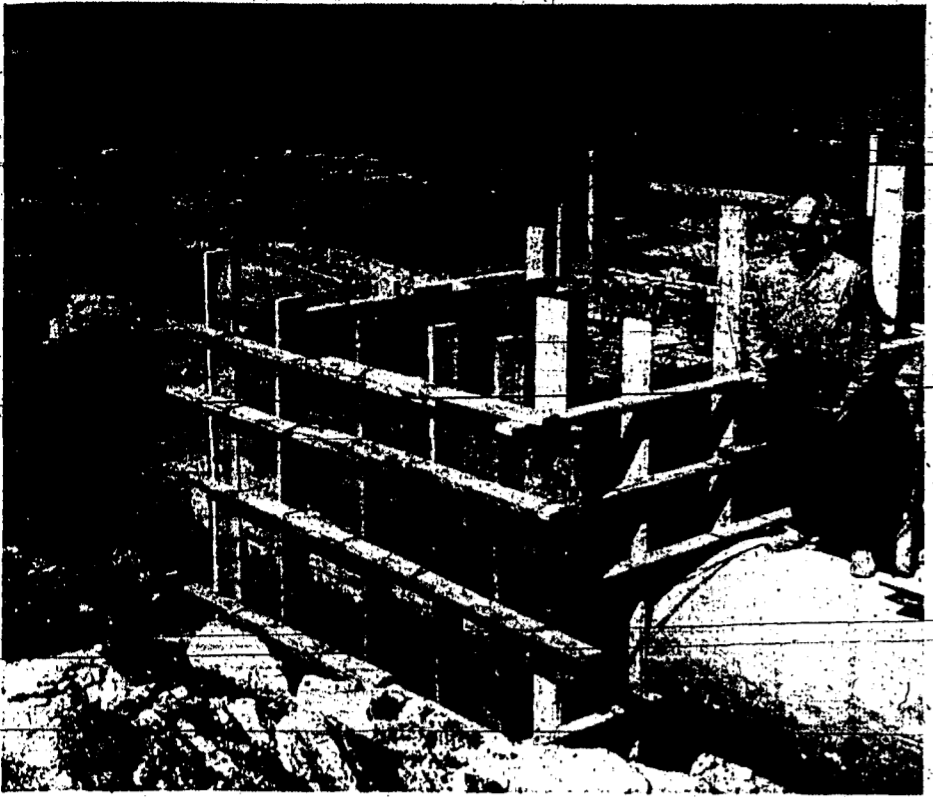

Running for election are Mr. Hurst and W. T. Duff for mayor; Mrs. Lazelle Greenhough and Bob Hambleton, two-year councilman term; and J. R. Brown, Jack Strauss, Ivan Ellason, Glen Tilley and G. Fred Dayley, Sr., four-year terms.

Incumbents include Mr. Hurst, Mr. Brown and Mr. Strauss. The two-year term is to be filled to complete the unexpired term of Ross Corless, who recently moved from the area.

Mrs. Leah Scovill and Mrs. LaPrlet Stoddard were approved to serve as election judges.

Bud Scovill will attend a meeting this month at Washington. Art McGill, city policeman, has undergone surgery and will return to duty later this month.

WORKMEN ARE COMPLETING the third large concrete weight structure which will anchor the large 36-inch city water line in place down the south wall of Snake River Canyon. Work is now complete on installing the line in a trench down the wall and final touches are being made at the top of the canyon. Another small section of line is yet to be put in place in the canyon.

Pipeline Work On City Water System Progresses At Canyon

Another of the many complicated phases involved in installation of the 36-inch water line that will carry the city's new supply from Snake River Canyon to the city system has been completed.

This involves placing sections of the giant pipeline up the 400-foot south wall of Snake River Canyon.

Only one small section of the pipe will be exposed with the remainder covered in an underground trench.

Three large concrete block structures have been installed atop the pipe at strategic points to hold the pipe in place under heavy pressure.

As one worker at the site said, the pipe descending the wall will have to be capable of supporting the weight of the entire amount of water in the city's five-million gallon storage tank at the top of the canyon. Should pumps forcing the water through the system cut off, all of the pressure of this water would fall onto the line on the canyon wall.

"Pipe of this type, he said, has been known to jump out of the ground under such pressure and if not adequately weighted.

One concrete structure is now being completed at the top of the canyon rim over the installed water line. Another is completed midway down the canyon wall and the third is also installed at the base of the wall.

In order to place the large pipe in the trench up the wall, crews built a switch-back road for equipment carrying pipe sections.

Large quantities of rock and dirt were also blasted from the wall to make way for the pipe trench.

Except for a small area between the foot of the wall and the Snake river where the pipe crosses by means of an old bridge, the entire installation of the 36-inch water line is now complete.

Work is being done by Kloeppfer Construction Co., Logan, Utah, at a cost of $425,847 and is now about 85 per cent complete for the entire contract.

Reservoir Depth More Than In '66

SHOSHONE — After Magic Reservoir was turned off, it contained 82,900 acre feet of water compared to 14,000 acre feet a year ago. The present carry-over is 43 per cent of capacity. A domestic stock water run will probably be made in November as usual.

Saturday American Falls reservoir contained 473,000 acre feet, compared to 13,000 acre feet a year ago. There will be stock water distributed under the Milner Gooding canal system.

Some laterals may be dried up temporarily to do maintenance work and will be turned on again after the work is done.

PTA To Meet

SHOSHONE — "What's New" is the program topic for the PTA meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Monday at the Lincoln school auditorium.

An evaluation of the new math and new method of teaching English will be explained by V. C. Ross, North Shoshone.

1. FOR all governments, city, state and federal, spending no more money than they have income.
2. AGAINST leaving future generations burdened with our indebtedness. We believe that perpetual deficit spending at all levels of government is an injustice to our children and if continued, will prove disastrous for us and them.
3. FOR our City Government paying its own way, not relying on Federal Grants which brings Federal control and inefficiency.
4. AGAINST the present City Manager form of government because it has proven inefficient, expensive, and lacks public control. We appreciate the fact that it should be more efficient and less costly and could be.
5. FOR exhausting all local talent before seeking outside surveys by presumed experts, and feel local citizens would serve without pay when asked.
6. FOR expansion of the present airport facilities to meet sensible needs. We oppose the proposed regional airport because we feel the population in our area will not support it with its again increased tax to maintain it.
7. FOR property owners being able to upgrade their property without being penalized with prohibitive tax increases.
8. AGAINST Urban Renewal. It authorizes the seizures of private property by force, encourages deficit spending, and will generate higher taxes for us.
9. We support our local police and recognize the importance of higher morale with the individual patrolman for maintaining maximum law enforcement efficiency.
10. We openly opposed the Blue Lakes Water System, and felt it was wrong but we will now help to keep its costs of operating as low as possible.
11. Present plans call for destruction of the Twin Falls water filtering plant. We will fight to retain the filter plant. It is the means by which, in case of emergency, water can be delivered to Twin Falls by gravity.
12. We are alarmed at the law-suit being brought against the city because of the death at the water tank of Mr. Herbert Thomas. We agree that the estate of Mr. Thomas should receive just compensation for any negligence which contributed to his death but we see no city obligation, and fail to understand why the engineering firm and contractor have been omitted from this suit, and why the suit was brought only against the city.
13. City books are not fully audited. We will if elected, exert pressure to obtain complete city audits.

Veterans Are Eligible For School Aid

Both Vietnam and Cold War veterans can receive G. I. Bill educational help at the high school level to prepare themselves to meet college entrance requirements without reducing their eligibility for college study under the Veterans Administration program.

The VA estimates that the one million to 1.5 million veterans who are eligible for education benefits would need further schooling before being ready for college. Each year the military services are releasing an additional 100,000 men who would need this type of assistance.

All of these people are potentially eligible for a special VA benefit for the educationally disadvantaged which was provided in recent veterans' legislation, Loryn E. Kopan, director of the Boise VA Center, said.

Single veterans can receive $130 per month while attending full-time programs at either high school or preparatory school level under the higher rates authorized by the recent law. Veterans with one dependent receive $155, and those with two dependents get $175 per month and $10 more per month for each additional child.

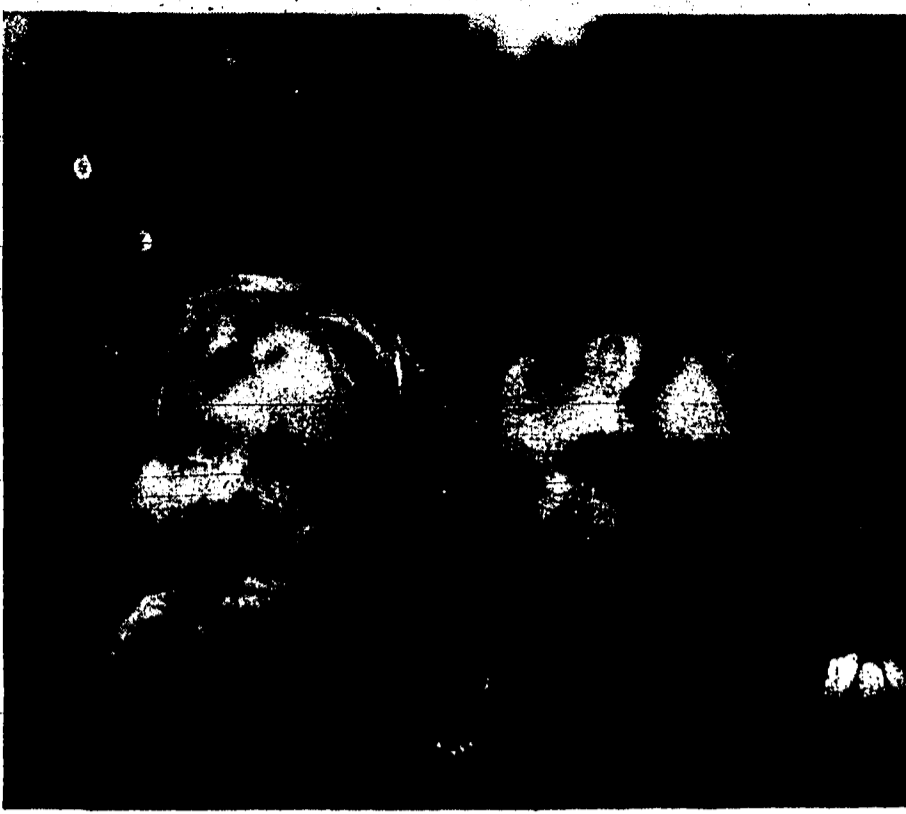

Eligibility for G.I. Bill education requires at least 181 days military service with part of it after Jan. 31, 1955. One month of VA educational assistance is authorized for each month of service up to a limit of 36 months.

The new law has the effect of raising this limit for the "educationally disadvantaged." They can receive the payments while taking the courses they need for college entrance without affecting their basic eligibility.

The new benefit applies to those veterans who have "not received a high school diploma or its equivalent at the time . . . of discharge from active duty," and those who need "additional secondary school training, either refresher courses or deficiency courses to qualify for admission to an appropriate educational institution."

Kopan said that eligible veterans who took pre-college training between June 1, 1966, and Oct. 1, 1967, will have their original eligibility for college training restored.

Applications for educational assistance and for the reinstatement of eligibility can be made at the VA office in Boise.

Business Is Booming For Fisherman

A new and fast growing business in Twin Falls is the Tropiquarium, 559 Main Ave. W.

This is a business that deals mostly in fish—aquarium type fish.

According to the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adams, aquarium fish is a fast growing hobby with residents in Southern Idaho and Nevada, the area they service.

Mr. Adams said since opening in April, the business is doing about $3,000 a month volume. The Adams service 98 per cent of all the stores in Southern Idaho and parts of Nevada.

About 75 per cent of the business is wholesale and the other part is retail.

Idaho Cities Seek New Sources Of Revenue

By MARK BROWN, Associated Press Writer

BOISE (AP) — Idaho's cities are looking for new sources of revenue to finance a growing load of services that cannot be bought on a pay-as-you-go basis. Increasing costs for fire and police protection, street maintenance and city administration are outrunning the traditional property tax base of support.

Some services provided by cities such as garbage collection, sewage disposal, airport maintenance, and recreational services such as golf courses can be funded through fees. But the majority of city services cannot be performed on a pay-as-you-go basis.

And the demand for such services is growing.

Several potential sources of revenue have been suggested as replacements and additions to the property tax method of financing municipal government. They include a sales or income tax levied by the cities, a business and occupations tax, and giving a bigger portion of state-collected excise taxes to the cities.

Two, recent legislative acts have affected property tax revenues collected by the cities.

One is the so-called "phase-out" of the property tax on livestock, livestock and timber products. Beginning in 1968, the measure provides for removal of the tax over a four-year period and replacing the revenue with sales tax monies collected at the state level.

Because of a downward trend in "inventory" tax collections, and an upward trend in sales tax collections, the cities are likely to gain because the replacement revenue is a specific percentage of total sales tax collections.

A revamping of some mill levy limits in the newly adopted municipal code will give cities more leeway in budgeting for specific services.

The former two-mill limit for fire protection has been increased to nine mills. In addition, the new law allows a city to levy two mills for a capital improvements fund.

Unchanged by the new law is the 30-mill limit on general funds, three-mill limit on city recreation, two-mill limit on cemetery, one-mill limit on armory, five-mill limit on libraries and three-mill limit on airport funds.

Oiling, maintenance and lighting of streets is subject and three-mill limit on airport funds. Oiling, maintenance and lighting of streets is subject to no limitation by the new code.

However, the trend in the Idaho Legislature, from which the cities derive expressed powers—is away from dependence on property taxation.

This trend is illustrated by the property tax relief granted when the 1965 legislature passed the state's current sales tax law, and by the plan to exempt inventories from taxation as property.

A swing to income or sales taxes levied by cities or other governmental subdivisions, however, appears to be barred by a 1923 Idaho Supreme Court decision.

In this case — State vs. Nelson — the court interpreted the Idaho Constitution as prohibiting the collection of a sales, income or occupation tax except in instances where the tax is imposed as a regulatory rather than a revenue-raising measure.

Authority for cities or counties to levy sales or income taxes would probably require a constitutional amendment.

Currently, two state-collected excise taxes are shared with cities and counties. They are the liquor tax and the highway users taxes, including motor fuels and vehicle registration fees.

A plan endorsed by the Idaho Association of Cities would increase the shares from both sources to the cities. Another plan now being studied by the Idaho Legislature's Interim Tax Committee would hike the vehicle registration fees with the increase going to the cities and counties.

Ed Simmerman, director of the Idaho Association of Cities, believes the cities could be granted authority to levy a business and occupations tax within the present constitutional framework.

He believes such a levy could be justified as a regulatory measure if it were applied in relation to the services provided by a city.

In that case, he points out, businesses which require a greater amount of police and fire protection would pay a heavier tax.

Any color as long as it's black.

That's how they did it with the fabulous Model T.

It was a unique car, it was in a price range all its own, and if you wanted one, that was your choice of color. And a lot of people wanted one.

Then, all of a sudden people wanted more of a choice. They didn't make speeches or write their Congressmen. They didn't even stop to think about it. They just went out and bought another color.

And the automotive industry was paying attention. Which is why, today, if you care to, you can just about design your own car—what with all the optional choices of engine, transmission, suspension, wheels, bodies. That's the way the system works.

The one thing that hasn't changed from the good old days to the good new days is this: "You pays your money and you takes your choice."

ISU Freshmen Overpower Idaho 38-20

Idaho State University's freshmen scored early in the game off a break and later on a 47-yard field goal and in between rode the running of fullback Dave Beauchamp and a strong line past University of Idaho's coach Jerry Dellinger, after the 38-20 Saturday night.

Beauchamp, a 210-pounder from Coeur d'Alene, shredded Idaho's line with hard running and got fine support from quarterback Jerry Dunne, Boise, and Rick Hulbert, Capital of Boise. ISU also unveiled a fine pass receiver in Ted Walker, a 5-3 end from Englewood, N. J., and of 2,000 and both schools expressed interest in maintaining Twin Falls as a permanent annual site. The Twin Falls Shrine Club, game sponsors, awarded the first-year trophy to ISU coach Jerry Dellinger, after the game.

ISU pretty well controlled the game and Idaho looked strong only for a brief period in the third period. But ISU regained mastery and was pulling away at the end.

Idaho took the opening kickoff but went nowhere. On fourth down, Idaho's basic reply was in the hands of fullback Mike Wiscombe from Boise's Borah High who personally accounted for more than half of Idaho's yardage.

The game, played in a bitter wind, attracted a crowd of about 2,000 and both schools expressed interest in maintaining Twin Falls as a permanent annual site. The Twin Falls Shrine Club, game sponsors, awarded the first-year trophy to ISU coach Jerry Dellinger, after the game.

Idaho started its only drive of the first half as the second period began. With Wiscombe picking up 28 yards in two tries, the Vandals moved to a first down at the ISU 20. ISU held twice there before quarterback Larry Stonebarger, Oakley, Calif., bootlegged for 18 yards to the two. Stonebarger sneaked in from there but the point-after attempt was blocked.

Idaho State used up most of the remaining time in the half with a return drive, quarterback Dunne going to the air for 32 yards in two passes. After Beauchamp picked up another 23 on an option to the three-yard line and Dunne went over. Idaho appeared to have gained momentum as the second half opened, stopping ISU cold and coming back with a drive built around some great running by Wiscombe. The Boise lad broke tackles on every play as he packed five times for 49 yards, two big ones of 17 each. Tom Stolarz, Inglewood, Calif.,

Linterman's Late Run Saves 19-14 Win For Vandals

By RICK TEMPLE, Associated Press Writer
MISSOULA (AP) — Halfback Rudy Linterman ran 54 yards for a come-from-behind fourth quarter touchdown Saturday and kicked two first-half field goals to lead his Idaho University Vandals to a 19-14 Big Sky Conference victory in the battle for the Little Brown Stein with previously unbeaten Montana. Montana had taken a 14-12 lead on two touchdowns in the second quarter. Linterman made up for his seven-point fumble by taking off for the Idaho 46 and going all the way with 4:44 left in the game.

Palmer Beats Thomson For Golf Crown

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Arnold Palmer fired 12 birdies and an eagle while defeating Peter Thomson by a single hole in the 36-hole final of the Piccadilly Match Play golf tournament Saturday.

On the ensuing kickoff, Linterman fumbled and Grizzly guard Herb White recovered on the Idaho 11. Four plays later, Magnuson scored from the five, to give Montana a 13-12 lead. Mick O'Neill kicked his second extra point to make it 14-12.

It was a bitter disappointment for the Grizzlies, who had mounted a brilliant season under new coach Jack Swarhout and hoped to post their second Big Sky victory in Saturday's regionally televised game. Montana mounted one 37-yard drive late in the game, but it bogged down with a minute to play. Quarterback Ed Steiner failed on two passes, then quarterback Pete Mullins completed Montana's only aerial of the day to Ron Barnes, a nine-yarder, short of the first down.

Pirates Hand Manager Job To Shepard

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates' new manager hopes to steal a page from the Red Sox and Cardinals' book.

Idaho stopped the Grizzlies cold in the first half. Montana got only one first down and didn't cross the 50-yard line. The Vandals scored the first two times they got the ball.

Linterman kicked a 25-yard field goal with 4:55 left in the first quarter after Vandal Joe Tashy had intercepted a Steiner pass on the Montana 33 and returned it to the 18.

King Paces Richfield Past Clark County

RICHFIELD — Terry King scored four touchdowns and passed for another as the Richfield Tigers defeated Clark County 32-0 Wednesday night.

After the kickoff, Montana had to punt and Idaho drove 86 yards for its first touchdown with halfback Jim Pearsall going over from the one. The big play in that drive was a 38-yard pass from quarterback Steve Garman to end Jerry Henderson that carried to the Montana 19.

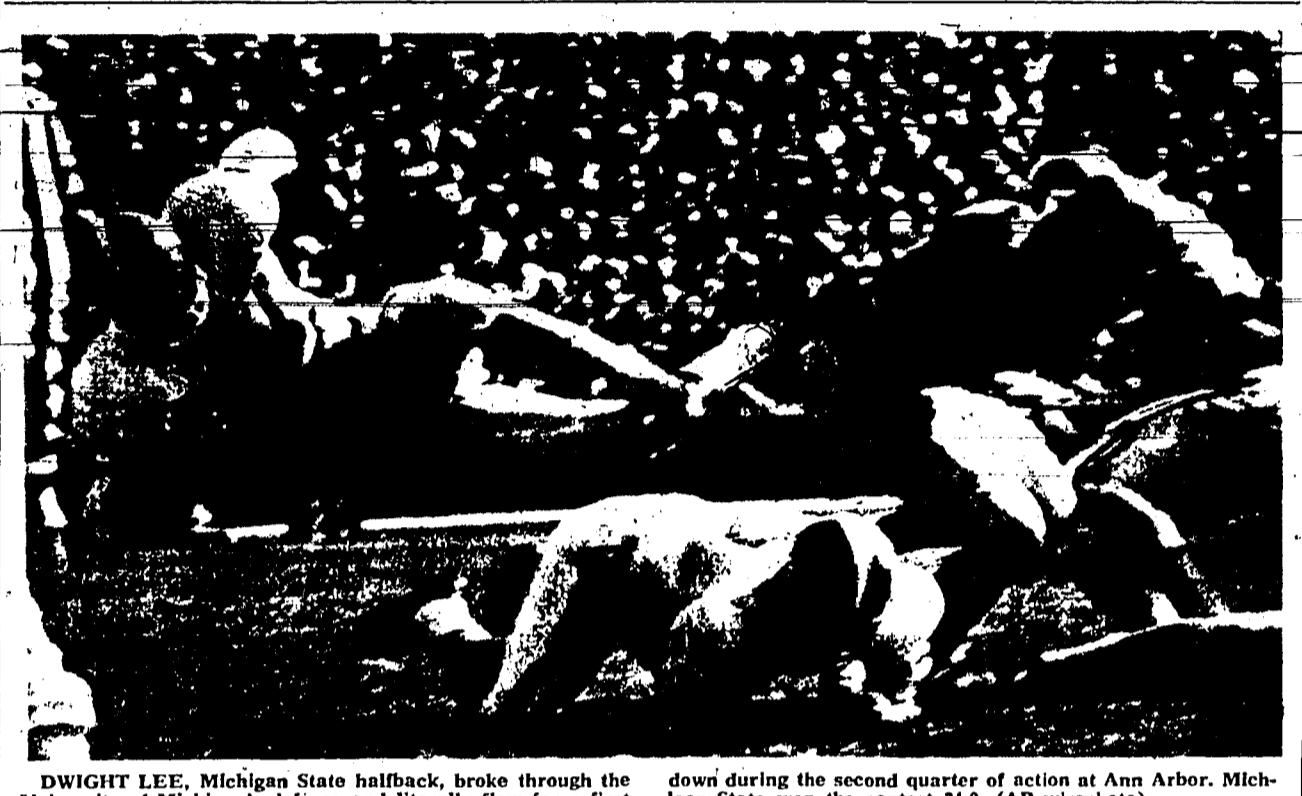

The point kick failed and it was 9-0 at the end of the first quarter. The Grizzlies couldn't do a thing in the second period. Vandal Byron Strickland intercepted another Steiner pass on the Idaho 35 and returned it to the Idaho 41. The Vandals then drove 53 yards and Linterman kicked his second 25-yard field goal of the day.

King intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter and ran it back 60 yards for another Tiger score. Red Riley added the extra point.

Cartwright and flanker Terry Murray got together on a 52-yard scoring pass on the sixth play from scrimmage to put Navy ahead 7-0.

SPORTS

BY LARRY HOVEY Times-News Sports Editor The wolves arose Friday night after Boise turned what should be a good Twin Falls football team into a punching bag.

Boise Mauls Twin Falls Line, Runs Off With 27-7 South Idaho Loop Victory

It is understandable that Friday night's debacle would turn a few stomachs. What Boise did to Twin Falls was something else.

"This," said a very disheartened and baffled Merl Eden after the game, "was more humiliating than the 48-0 loss to Boise two years ago, because Boise isn't as good a team as it was then and our team didn't have much of anything."

Therefore, the board itself is to blame and the administration is also. For two reasons. One, the coaching staff, the smallest in the SIC, is further limited by restrictions placed on it by the administration.

When this happened for the third time last year and a third coach was hired without even consultation of the athletic director or head coach, the answer was: "We are being threatened by an NEA sanction and we're going to fill our vacancies as quickly as we can."

Then consider the boys themselves. "My boy can't play if they aren't going to teach him," one father screamed. Football isn't quite like other sports.

And we also have been informed that we are partly to blame because we do not give any Twin Falls team the proper credit it deserves. Okay, we'll take our blame. The rest of you, the people paid and elected to oversee the whole operation fall in line.

The Boise Braves, paced by two hard driving fullbacks, crunched over the inept Twin Falls Bruins 27-7 Friday night in one of the complete drubbings a Twin Falls team has taken in years.

Boise hardly knew Twin Falls was on the team as its line pushed the Bruin forward around on offense and held them to almost nothing offensively. The only bright spot for Twin Falls was a 96-yard kickoff return by Bret Staples after Boise third touchdown plus some real scrambling by the junior unit which staged the only consistent drive of the night late in the one-sided battle.

Boise, despite a 1-4 record, (losing to the top rated team in Idaho and the one-four teams in Oregon) hammered Twin Falls right through the middle with Abe Brown and Gary Crist picking up most of the yardage. Once in a while Boise went outside and that paid off well, too.

It was after that one that Staples, after faking a reverse handoff to Blake, romped 96 yards untouched and Con Wells rolled out for the extra point. Early in the fourth quarter, after a heads up fumble recovery by Frank Durham when the Indians got the ball in Jerome territory and drove down to take a 24-13 win over the Jerome Tigers Friday night. The Indians scored first in the middle of the opening quarter on a one-yard plunge by Dan Turner. Don Mathews converted the extra point.

Philipp passed for two touchdowns and his runs on passing plays added up long yardage. At one point in the first half, he completed nine passes in a row for 142 yards and the two touchdowns.

Purdue broke the game open in a hurry and without ever having the ball for an offensive play. Dennis Cirbes intercepted Jerry Ehrsam pass on the Ohio State 30 shortly after the opening kickoff and walked a tightrope down the sidelines for a touchdown.

Purdue's 33-yard line until the waning minutes of the last quarter when they scored against Purdue reserves. The touchdown came on a 10-yard pass from substitute quarterback Kevin Rusnak to end Bill Anderson.

Kelly's Run Lets Burley Drop Tigers

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (AP) — Mike Kelly's 72-yard run to paydirt on the first play of the game proved to be the deciding factor Friday night as the Burley Bobcats took a 6-0 win over the Mountain Home Tigers.

After the touchdown run the Tiger defense settled down to stymie the Bobcats, but found its own offense stifled in return. Burley stopped Tiger drives on its own one, 15 and five yard lines.

Mountain Home tailback Steve Holdren was once again held scoreless as the Tigers suffered their second consecutive shut-out. The victory evened up Burley's Cross State Conference record at 1-1 but the Bobcats remain undefeated in the Eastern Idaho Conference.

Utags Quash UOP's Bid For Upset 7-6

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Utah State quarterback John Pappas engineered a 63-yard third quarter scoring drive Saturday afternoon as the Aggies pulled out a 7-6 football win over upset-minded University of the Pacific.

Pappas hit split end Garth Hall on passes of 16 and 26 yards before his two-yard touchdown toss to halfback Altie Taylor. Jim Murphy's extra point — his tenth in a row — won the game.

Cowboys Use Passing To Down Utah

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A fumble and a pass interception set up two early scores and quarterback Paul Toscano rattled Utah's pass defense for a 28-0 Wyoming football victory Saturday.

It was Wyoming's ninth straight win, including the Sun Bowl last season. It also gave the Cowboys a 3-0 record in the Western Athletic Conference. The game was less than five minutes old when flanker Hub Lindsey scored on a 14-yard pass play after Tim Gotberg's fumble recovery at the Utah 19. Six minutes later, Jerry DePoyster kicked a 21-yard field goal following interception of a deflected Utah pass at the Utah 25.

Utah quarterback Jack Gehrke, a victim of both the fumble and interception, was under pressure all day from Wyoming's charging defense. Meanwhile, Toscano deftly mixed his running and passing plays, scoring once himself on a two-yard run in the second period. He left the game late in the third quarter after Wyoming had run up the 28-point margin.

The deepest Utah penetration ended at the Wyoming 35. Except for the field goal and some long kickoffs, it was a bad day for DePoyster. The Wyoming kicker, who has booted several 50-yard field goals, missed two field goal attempts and three extra points.

Gophers Nip Illini On Field Goal

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Jeff Nygren's 23 yard field goal with less than five minutes to play capped the sparkling play of sophomores Jim Carter and Phil Hagen to give Minnesota a 10-7 Big Ten victory over Illinois Saturday.

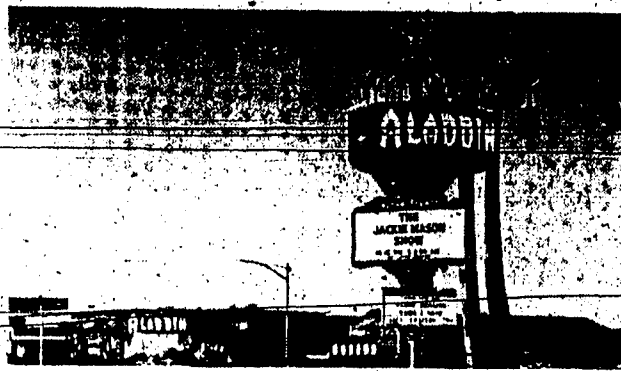

A stubborn Illinois defense, playing before a homecoming crowd of 56,103, matched Minnesota's touted defense and limited the Gophers to a net of 52 yards in the first half before finally yielding to the running of Carter and the passing of Hagen.

Minnesota took the lead in the third quarter on a 74 yard drive, climaxed by Carter's touchdown plunge only to have the Illinois come right back with a 75 yard drive to tie the score on a 9 yard touchdown pass from Dean Volkman to Jim Wright.

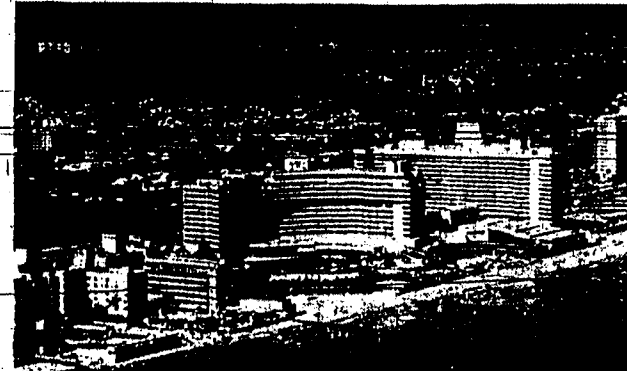

Worcester, Mass. (AP) — Junior quarterback Phil O'Neil scored one touchdown and passed for another in pacing Holy Cross to a 17-0 football victory over Colgate Saturday. Halfback Tim Hawkes grounded out most of the yardage in a 67-yard drive that sent O'Neil over from the one for the first Holy Cross touchdown. The Crusaders scored again the next time they had the ball, taking over on the Colgate 28 when Mary Hubbard juggled a punt snap. Holy Cross scored in three plays as O'Neil fired to end Bob Neary for a 24-yard TD.

Success Stories Related During "Pep Rally" Held By TOPS Clubs

By ARVETTA SAVAGE
Times-News Correspondent

BURLEY — They laughed at each other and applauded each other. But the biggest satisfaction of the evening was the realization that they could stand up and laugh at themselves.

And if crying was needed to help someone, it was apparent that this would have been done also.

But for members of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) from throughout Magic Valley who met at the Ponderosa Inn for a "pep rally," there was no time for sadness, and tears would have indicated success, not failure.

Ladies donned cleverly made hats, wore signs on their backs or even displayed lapel name cards cut in the shape of pigs. They sang songs about stretching girdles and some participated in a "baggy dress" parade in dresses they wore several "pounds" ago.

The funny part of the whole event was that members of the so called "fat ladies club," were not noticeably "fat." The atmosphere and personal attitude of members either removed or disguised any strong evidence of extreme obesity.

Nevertheless members, some carrying around 300 pounds, were present and bubbling over with excitement of shedding excess weight.

"Success" stories were related by club queens, who had lost up to 83 pounds. The touching situations each went through during periods when will power was stretched almost tighter than a girdle, brought tremendous applause.

The TOPS Club works similar to AAA (Alcoholics Anonymous Association) and many TOPS members consider themselves "foodaholics." One lady who has lost 83 pounds said that half the battle of losing weight is admitting you have a problem and getting the courage to let others know your weight.

She felt that being honest with herself and also with others was a contributing factor in helping her lose. She stood before the group and told of previous "maneuvering" she had to do to get in or out of bed and even turn over. She laughed with the audience as she talked of herself, and the women loved her.

And then there was the slim-trim lady KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) who had lost 70 pounds to reach her goal. Standing so attractive before the group, it was hard to picture her in any other "form." The applause given her was loud and well earned.

The spirit of determination and results displayed during the evening was overwhelming to Dr. Walter Peterson, Burley physician-surgeon, who was guest speaker.

The doctor congratulated members on progress and efforts and said that obesity is the greatest metabolic problem in the Western Hemisphere and is becoming more so every year.

He pointed out that overweight persons with a disease will usually die sooner than slimmer persons with the same disease. He said the formula for fat is "calories minus energy."

He spoke very understandingly to the ladies with the fact in mind that women bear children and are responsible for preparing three meals daily for 365 days every year.

Dr. Peterson said the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. "But don't you (the wives) eat it," reminded an enthusiastic loser in the audience.

He told of many excuses women frequently use for being obese and it seems that very few are strong enough to hold water. Diet pills and fad diets, he said, are crutches and should be left alone. "You lose weight with the 'crutch' but when it's taken away — there goes your will power."

He endorses the group therapy provided by the TOPS organization but pointed out that it doesn't work magic — it goes along with will power.

During a discussion a lady asked him if nervous tension caused obesity and he smilingly answered "yes, but only if you eat."

The rally, hosted by the TOPS Pamper Club, Minidoka County, was well attended by clubs throughout Magic Valley. Participating in the event were the TOPS Weight Whittlers, Malta; TOPS to KOPS, Burley; Nix on Pix, Twin Falls; Diet Does It, Richfield; TOPS Kalorie Counters, Bliss; TOPS pound Chasers, Murtaugh; TOPS Slimettes, Jerome; HOPS Teen TOPS and Slim and Trim TOPS, both Hansen; and Valley Benders TOPS, Eden and Hazelton.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Vivian Burke, Rupert, assisted by Mrs. Verlee Hall, TOPS Pamper Club president. Pledge to the flag was led by Denise Hall and Mrs. Jay Gitton led the TOPS pledge. Music was under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Widmier, all Paul.

Women's Section

AMONG THE MEMBERS who have lost their desired amount and were honored as members of KOPS (Keep Off Pounds Sensibly) include, from left, Sharon Crossman, who lost 70 pounds, and Joanne Christensen, 23, both Murtaugh; Mrs. Nona Jenks, 30, Oakley, and Denise Hall, 13, Paul. TOPS Clubs from throughout Magic Valley participated in the event.

WEARING DRESSES they wore several pounds ago are, from left, Mrs. Lorraine Rasmussen, Rupert, who has lost 50 pounds; Mrs. Faye Cole, Heyburn, 64 pounds, and Mrs. Verlee Hall, Paul, 81 pounds. All are members of TOPS Pamper Club, Minidoka County.

Mrs. Delores Sims, Pocatello, area supervisor and Mrs. Ollene Armstrong, Twin Falls, county captain, each remarked on the progress and meaning of TOPS saying that this is the fastest growing organization in the world.

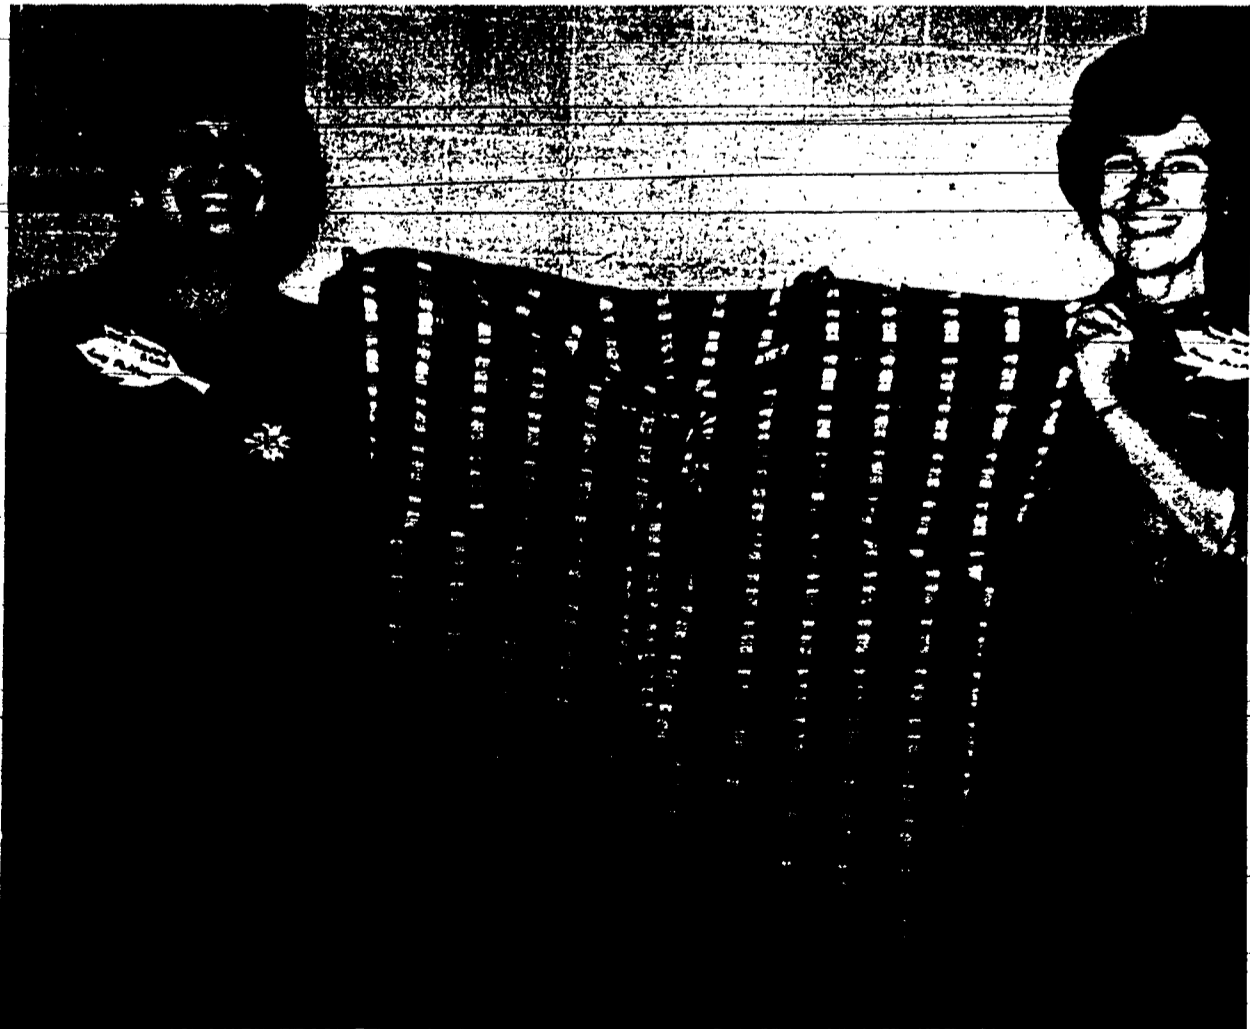

Mrs. Sims stressed the importance of not being ashamed of TOPS membership, for fear of it being a "public announcement" that you're having weight problems. "People have eyes and they can see for themselves. You're not telling them a thing they can't already see when you join TOPS," she stated.

Division winners introduced were Mrs. Vern Adams, Malta, division No. 1; Mrs. Vella Selders, Rupert, division No. 2; Mrs. Lois Pelton, Heyburn, division No. 3; Mrs. Barbara Jacobs, Twin Falls, division No. 4; Mrs. Nadine Singleton, Murtaugh, division No. 5, and Denise Hall, Paul, division No. 8.

Division winners and queens were selected best losers from January to September.

Queens and pounds removed during this nine month period include Mrs. Lois Pelton, Heyburn, 47 pounds; Mrs. Barbara Jacobs, Twin Falls, 24½; Mrs. Margie Harlow, Hazelton, 22½; Mrs. Eunice Adams, Jerome, 20½; Mrs. Nadine Singleton, Murtaugh, 15; Mrs. Elaine Drew, Burley, 11; Mrs. Verna Riley, Richfield, 10; Mrs. Floy Robinson, Malta, 9, and Mrs. Sandra Reinhardt, Hansen.

HOLDING A DRESS she wore 81 pounds ago is Mrs. Verlee Hall, left, assisted by Mrs. Nona Jenks. Mrs. Hall is president of the TOPS Pamper Club. The spirit of determination and Denise Hall is 12-year-old and a member of the Pamper Club. Mrs. Bobbie Bench, Burley, was announced Stork Club winner.

Mrs. Margaret Weeks, Mrs. Mary Pietz, Mrs. Portia Pruett and Mrs. Armstrong, all Twin Falls, presented a humorous skit on losing weight the hard way, by means of "dramatic" surgery.

Participating in the "baggy dress" parade were Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Pelton, Mrs. Faye Cole and Mrs. Lorraine Rasmussen. Assisting with arrangements were Mrs. Melba Durrant, Mrs. Giltons, Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Jenks, Mrs. Melvin West, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Widmer, Mrs. Leona McGregor, Mrs. Pelton, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Vern Baguley, all Pamper club members.

The Magic Valley clubs started organizing in 1959. The last to organize was the Waist Whittlers of Malta, which organized in August of this year.

TOPS, which has grown internationally, was founded in 1948 by Mrs. Esther S. Manz in Milwaukee. It has 5,494 local chapters in all 50 states, eight provinces and 12 other foreign countries for men, women and children. The organization contained 151,279 members by the end of January this year and during 1966 the clubs had lost a total of 701.1 tons internationally.

In 1966 it donated a $250,000 grant to research for obesity to Rev. R. A. Wagner, administrator of Deaconess Hospital, Milwaukee. Funds for this were gathered from individual clubs through fund-raising projects.

It seems that "war" has been declared. This group of women have joined forces in the TOPS organization against the "Battle of the Bulge." Word from the "pentagon" during the rally last week provides hope that the bulge is losing. As a matter of fact, the TOPS have made this pledge—it has to go.

Junior Music Festival Set Feb. 23-24 In Twin Falls

The Twin Falls Music Club, an affiliate of the National Federation of Music Clubs, has set the date of its Junior Music Festival for Feb. 23 and 24. It will be held in the LDS Sixth and Eighth Ward Chapel on Harrison St.

Mrs. Louis Thorson, festival chairman, will contact all area music teachers within the next 10 days with information relevant to correlation of materials sent out by the National Federation of Music Clubs. Requirements are the same as those in 1967.

The most impressive feature of the festival is that each student, instrumental or vocal, competes solely against himself and his own record of earned ratings. Each advances him to wards earning certificates of awards, Gold Cups and the coveted scholarship awards. In addition to these, all superior winners are given a certificate of award by the National Federation of Music Clubs, beginning with Primary Class No. 1 through the Senior Concerts Division.

The Twin Falls Music Club has had the ability to grow from one scholarship of $75 given to a student in 1957, to 11 given in 1967 totaling in excess of $900. Covering the ten-year period, $8,000 has been given to worthy participants.

Qualified students received stipends in various amounts to the University of Idaho summer session, Sun Valley Music Camp and Tempe Summer sessions. The Smith-Hackney-Ronk Memorial Scholarship of $200 is always given to a graduating high school senior majoring in music to be used at the college of his choice.

Together with music-loving people who have donated generously to the scholarship fund for several years, and the concerted efforts of the Twin Falls

Those accompanying the couple in addition to their parents, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett, Shoshone; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hiatt, North Shoshone, and a number of relatives from Utah.

The bridegroom's parents hosted a wedding breakfast at the Tropical Inn, Brigham City, Utah, after the ceremony.

That evening a reception was held at the Shoshone LDS Church Cultural Hall.

The bridal party received guests before an archway background enhanced with greenery and bouquets of pink gladioli.

Flanking the receiving line were tall beauty baskets containing pink gladioli.

The bride wore a Bridal Original gown of peau de soie. Re-embroidered alencon lace in a grape pattern of pearls trimmed the A-line skirt, sleeves, and the detachable chapel train. The fitted bodice of peau de soie featured the border trim banding to enhance the empire styling. Long lily point sleeves were caught at the wrists with tiny miniature covered buttons. A double row of orange blossoms held her elbow-length veil of English silk illusion. The bride wore a single rose drop necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rosebuds, stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

Her maid of honor was Sylvia Young, Salt Lake City, fiancée of her brother. Bridesmaids were John Souza, Tracy, Calif., and Marilyn Rose, Shoshone, sisters of the bridegroom, and Karen Griggs, Shoshone, college roommate of the bride.

Best man was Michael Rose, brother of the bridegroom. John Souza, Tracy, Calif., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was usher.

Kathy Hovey, Washington, D.C., registered guests.

Mrs. Frank Garrett, Joan Larson, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt, were in charge of the gift table.

The bride's table was covered with a white and pink lace cloth over pink taffeta and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. The cake was decorated with pink roses and white bells, silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The heart-shaped cakes, bearing names of the couple, flanked the wedding cake and were backed by crystal candelabra holding pink candles. The base of the cake was decorated with pink roses and fern.

Guests were served at quartet tables covered with white lace over pink. Each was centered with a crystal bud vase holding a long-stemmed rose.

Serving were Debbie Palmer, Vera Garrett and Deborah Beck.

Ketchum Meet Held By Area Delta Gamma

RUPERT — Mrs. Chris Hansen was hostess to Alpha Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma national honor society for women teachers, at her summer home on Sandy Lane near Ketchum.

The sorority members met to initiate their 1967-68 series of monthly meetings. Mrs. Charles Reas, Burley, was assistant hostess for the potluck dinner served at noon.

Mrs. Hansen conducted an informal tour of her home, recalling the circumstances of acquiring some of the early 1900 furnishings in the home, which was constructed 18 years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Hansen on the bend of Warm Springs Creek.

The business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Ray Reid, Burley, president of the chapter, opened with a collect composed by Mrs. Ruby Gilmore, Rupert. Mrs. H. W. Van Slyke, Rupert, program chairman, announced the theme of the 1967-1971 program plan for the society, adopted at the International Convention of Delta Kappa Gamma, held in Anchorage, Alaska, last July, as "The Critical Analysis of Values — A Basis for Action."

The long-range program will involve the study of personal values and identification and comparison of values. Mrs. Van Slyke stated that evaluation should be an important part of program planning, just as it is an important part of good teaching.

The group voted to place a memorial volume in the Rupert Public Library in tribute to deceased member, Norma Nelson, a former Rupert teacher.

Mrs. James Wright, Rupert, demonstrated use of dried, natural materials in creating original and attractive decorated stationary.

The October meeting of the society will feature a 1 p.m. luncheon at the Rupert Elks Club Oct. 21. State President Irene Smith, Idaho Falls, will be the featured speaker.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: I have a sister-in-law who just burns me up. She likes to watch television during the daytime, so she takes her telephone off the hook so nobody can bother her while she's watching television.

DEAR NO REGRETS: Thank you for your sensible letter. It comes at a time when so many parents have agreed to disagree. I hope it opens a few eyes of those who are still able to see.

When I call her for hours at a time, and her line is "busy," I know her phone is off the hook. What if someone from school tried to call to tell her one of her kids was sick? Or what if her husband got hurt at work? They wouldn't be able to get through to her.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

I get so mad at her I could scream. Is there some way I can make her understand she has no business doing this? READY TO SCREAM

HANSEN — Virginia Pickel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pickel, Hansen, became the bride of Rick Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hayes, Hansen, in rites Sept. 9 at the Kimberly LDS Church.

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I go shopping in the village, he is always greeted by many people I do not know. (Mostly women.) One woman will smile and say, "Hello, Joe." (My husband's name is Kenneth.) Then a woman will wave from an automobile and shout, "O, hello, there, Max!" Then I say to him, "What is this Joe and Max business?" And he says, "I must have a very common face."

Bishop Edwin Crockett performed the ceremony before a setting of baskets of pink and white carnations. Frank Keller was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Stantner.

What is your opinion? MRS. K.J.F.

Maid of honor was Gail Pickel, sister of the bride. Rex Kaiser served as best man, with Henry Keyes and Randy Hayes as ushers.

DEAR MRS. F.: I say your husband has a very common alibi.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the church. Julie McEwen, cousin of the bride, registered the guests and Carolyn Jennings and Delores Jennings arranged the gifts. Rene McEwen and Frieda McEwen carried the gifts.

DEAR ABBY: If you will print this letter, it may open the eyes of some of the hate-filled parents, who are doing their children irreparable harm.

The bride's table was covered with white and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake enhanced with pink roses and topped with pink wedding bells.

My marriage was a mess. After a separation, a reconciliation, and a divorce suit that was called off, my irresponsible husband entered the army and stayed there for 10 years. At the end of that time, HE sued ME for divorce, but I was the one who got it.

Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Shirley McEwen, Mrs. Phillip McEwen and Mrs. Donald McEwen, aunts of the bride.

We have two children, a boy and girl. Under the circumstances, they didn't know their father very well. But they could understand what was being said to them, and I never allowed anyone in my family to speak against their father. I let my children grow up and find out for themselves what kind of man he was.

The couple will reside in Kimberly, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming with his father. The bride is employed in the business office of the Times-News Publishing Co.

Today my children are both grown. They cannot "love" their father, but they don't "hate" him. They call him long-distance at Christmas time, and when he comes to town for a visit, they have him (and his third wife) for a meal. My children are loyal to me, and I have always encouraged them to maintain a respectful relationship with their father.

I am sure my children are of sounder mental health because of this. When you teach a child to hate one of his parents, you do the child more harm than you do yourself good.

"All That Glitters Is Not Gold . . ." And In Idaho It Might Just Be Silver

By JAN A. SAINSBURY
Times-News Feature Editor

Above ground a silver mine isn't very impressive. It's dirty, simple, and completely void of pretention.

Below the ground it's still dirty . . . and there are no frills. But below the ground one thing makes up for everything else: silver.

Silver is a magic word. It always has been.

Mention it to an old-timer and memories of big strikes and tall tales fill his dusty mind. And the lingering memory of a lost chance plagues his every day.

To the layman a silver mine is a romantic notion of quick fortune and of tunnel walls lined with wealth beyond imagination. To the miner it is a long hard day of digging into rock hard walls and of sending out carload after carload of ore.

It is a never ending process of elimination. Taking chunks of ore from one wall or another, piling it into steel cars which roll and scrape over narrow tracks along the narrow water soaked floor of a mine tunnel, takes hour after endless hour.

Blasting . . . digging . . .

hauling . . . hoping . . . and blasting again. It is part of a miner's world.

The Liberty Gem Silver Mine, near Hailey, Idaho, is such a mine. Outside . . . or rather above ground the mine is unimpressive to the layman. A few shacks, one for changing into "diggers," and another for equipment . . . still another, this one for compressors to operate miners' equipment, and furnish fresh air below ground . . . and one for a hoist to raise and lower the bucket of ore for loading into the trucks.

The same hoist and bucket also raises and lowers miners into the shaft which leads over a hundred feet below the tunnels being mined. The men stand one or two at a time (there isn't room for more) on the cross-beam of the bucket and grasp a greasy laden steel cable to be lowered at the beginning of their shift . . . and raised at the end of it.

They wade ankle-deep in water as they crouch and weave from area to area through the dimly lit tunnels. The air is fresh and clear, but it feels dank. And the sound plays tricks on you.

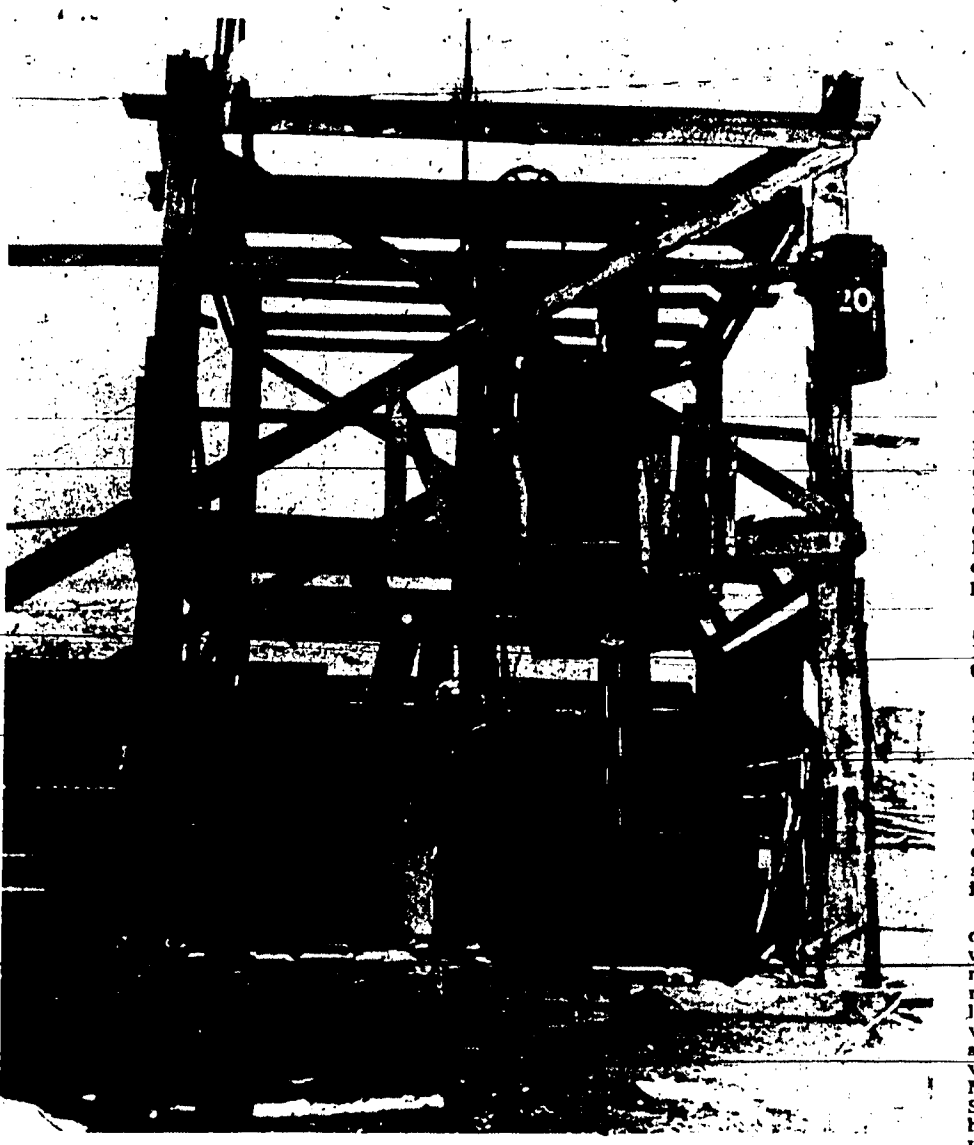

But for all the modernization of some of Idaho's mines . . . notably in the Coeur d'Alene district, where closed circuit television watches the ore-dumping operations, there are still many like the Liberty Gem Silver Mine near Hailey . . . mines which look more like the mines 50 years ago than the mines 50 years ago did.

The Liberty Gem Silver Mine was located first in 1927 by Guy E. Matthews and his two sons. They were prospectors and in that year located the silver mine approximately eight miles west of Hailey on the old Hailey-Fairfield Road.

Sunday Feature SECTION

Sunday, Oct. 15, 1967 Twin Falls Times-News B-1

LOOKING MORE like a mine a hundred years old than one in operation today this scaffold supports the hoist bucket and is the entrance to the shaft. The dead give-away is the power transformer in the upper right corner, and the presence of mine foreman, Tony Vitale, and the President of Liberty Gem Silver Mine, Paul Bovey. Mr. Bovey lives in Jerome.

And it's the silver that makes men dream.

The story is told about an old prospector who never quite hit it lucky who died and went to heaven, but the place was so crowded he couldn't get in. After pondering the matter the old man called an angel and whispered to him that there had been a silver strike in hell . . . and at once a rush of angels went past him headed for that place below. Soon heaven was empty . . . and as the horde of angels soared downward the prospector looked longingly after them and then turned to St. Peter, the only one left besides himself and said, "Maybe I'll join them . . . maybe there was some truth in that rumor."

And so goes the history of mining and prospecting everywhere. A thousand mines are found and a million dollars lost over a drink in an old time bar.

The Idaho Almanac contains the following passage under its entry . . . mining: "There is much controversy in the literature" as to what were the results of Idaho mining. The profits claims run to extremes. One thing is clear: the exact amount of gold and silver taken from Idaho mines will never be known. Men left with fortunes hiding in knapsacks or tucked away in the bottom of wagons. Much of the gold and silver was smelted elsewhere and credit given to other states. Although the exact amount is conjectural, phenomenal profits existed. Albert Williams, a government geologist, estimated that $500,000,000 of the gross output of about 2 billion dollars of all mines in Idaho up to 1880 had been profits. This is an average return of over twenty-five per cent."

The commodity value of silver alone recorded in Idaho from 1860 to 1960 totals nearly $540,000,000.

Idaho silver stories are never complete without the story of Noah Kellogg and his "mountain canary," or to be more specific . . . his burro. The burro, who was as stubborn as a mule, was a stray, and Kellogg was at that time an impoverished prospector who was grubstaked by a doctor and a building contractor.

Kellogg let the burro graze one night in Milo Gulch, and when he caught the animal the next morning the burro had made his way into what was later the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines . . . the richest source of combined lead and silver the world has ever known. Much later a Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines contractor was blown up in the bloody union warfare which broke out in those years at the turn of the century and which later culminated in the assassination of Idaho's Governor Steunenberg in 1906.

Silver mining and the basic history of Idaho's development, both economically and politically, are inextricably bound together in the 77 years of Idaho's statehood.

Paul S. Bovey is president of the Liberty Gem Silver Mine which was incorporated in 1964, and built to its present state through the sale of stock, although stock is no longer for sale.

According to Mr. Bovey "Things are going great now . . . but a couple of years ago I had to beg people to get interested . . . and now everybody wants to get into the act." The Hailey district has produced over $60 million in lead and silver during its history, and most of that was produced before the turn of the century. Currently about one half of all the silver produced in the United States is produced in Idaho.

At the Liberty Gem near Hailey "we have located a large vein of rich ore which we have traced on the surface and underground," says Bovey. "It ranges from a width of a few feet to about 28 feet and the 'strike' or length of the vein is not known. It is considered a good grade of ore."

"The average assay value of 15 carloads shipped to the U.S. Smelting and Refining Company in Midvale, Utah, was $46.90 per ton at the old price of silver ($1.29 3-10 per oz.) and at the present price ($1.62 to $1.82 per oz.) the value of that ore would increase considerably. And with the price of silver continuing to rise . . . some mining men predict that silver will soon be valued at $2.00 an ounce . . . good ore becomes even better."

But the days were not always full of buckets of good ore, and the promise of more.

When the Liberty Gem Silver Mine was leased and incorporated in 1964 the mine was flooded and caved in. "It takes a lot of guts," says Bovey, "to go into something like that on the word of old timers who remember what it used to be like."

Paul Bovey remembers the early help that was hard to get and even harder to keep. "I remember one fellow came in and wanted a stake . . . so I loaned him a rifle and bought him $55 worth of groceries . . . and I later found out where he sold the $55 worth of groceries . . . and pawned the rifle."

And today Paul Bovey can laugh about it. But the work isn't over. Mining is a hard business and a continuing business, and there is no resting as long as there is ore to mine.

Every day a different amount of ore is taken out of the Liberty Gem Silver Mine . . . it was 30 tons one day . . . 20 another . . . and 25 the next. Sometimes it is less and sometimes it is more.

The foreman of the Liberty Gem Silver Mine is Tony Vitale, a foreman in the old time sense of the word. He can whip anybody around and occasionally does . . . he plays drums at the Pastime Bar in Hailey when he isn't down in the mine, and he has seven children. He is tough and he knows it . . . and so do the miners who work for him. He is the perfect example of the kind of man you want for a friend and not an enemy. As a friend he would do anything for you . . . and he is the epitome of a loyal employee. He is extremely good at his job; he has to be. The production of silver depends on it.

FOREMAN TONY VITALE shows Times-News Business Editor, Robert Vanausdell, a piece of rich ore. This writer, and Mr. Vanausdell, were both lowered into the mine shaft complete with a set of "diggers," which is essentially the miners garb, including mining hat and light. The only trouble this reporter encountered was trying to keep a three-hundred-dollar camera/flash outfit out of the muck formed on the mine floor while crawling under beams three feet off the ground.

Tony Vitale is also one of the most colorful men you would ever want to meet. His language is graphic and to the point. He is an Italian from New York City. He was born and raised in Brooklyn. He has worked underground in the mines for 22 years. And he worked the Triumph mine for 12 years; the Triumph mine produced 23 million dollars.

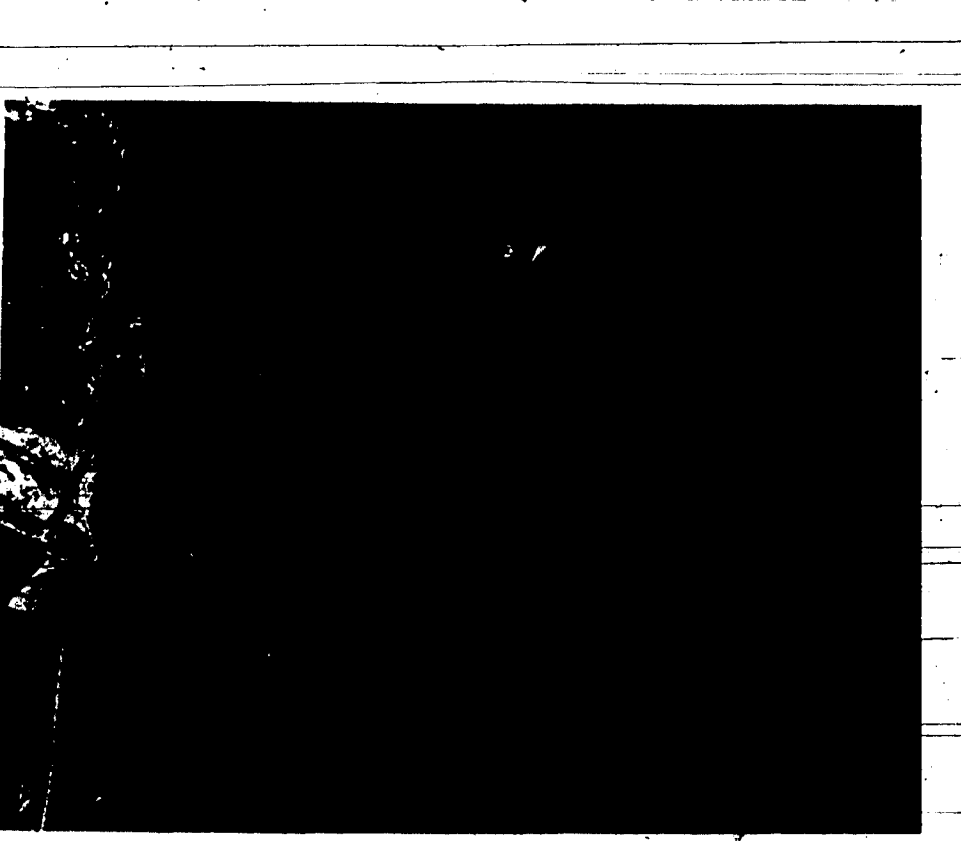

And so every day miners descend on the small ore bucket down the hundred foot shaft into the tunnels below. They dig and shovel and sweat in the cool air . . . Tony Vitale works with them . . . and by late afternoon tons of ore have been transferred from the face of the strike to the trucks above. And miners quit for the day . . . and the silver waits, where it has waited for centuries.

THE SHINE OF SILVER is not really visible on the walls of a tunnel until the pick cuts through the surface. And what one really sees is mostly lead . . . but the silver is there. Here foreman Tony Vitale picks at a fragment of high grade ore on the surface of the strike. The length of the structure is still not known.

THE SHORING IN THIS MINE supports dirt a hundred feet deep. Miners work long hours drilling and hauling ore. It is a dirty job . . . the dim light in this cave was augmented by an electronic flash . . . but there is nothing white to reflect that light . . . everything is shades of gray or black.

THE TUNNELS are long and narrow and some have little headroom; others require the miner to bend nearly in half to crawl through from one area to another. The pipes carrying air to operate the drilling equipment and supply breathing air for the miners.

ACTIVE IN YOUTH WORK, Karl Black sits at his desk in the Twin Falls Business College. He is consistently on the telephone between classes keeping in touch with his wife and five children as well as his community and church activities.

MAGIC VALLEY PORTRAIT . . . Farmer Teaches Business College, Or Is It The Other Way Around . . .

Karl L. Black has been with the Twin Falls Business College since June of 1961. When he began, he began as a teacher, something he loves very much . . . and now Karl Black is part owner of that enterprise. He is currently Business Administrator and is co-owner of the Business College along with his partner, Randel Wilson.

Karl Black was born in Eden, Idaho and has lived in this area all his life, with the exception of his service in the Infantry as a Platoon Sergeant during WW II. He was with both the 32nd Infantry Division, and the 24th Division in Luzon. He also served in Japan in the Army of Occupation for about a year after the war.

As a graduate of BYU in Provo, Mr. Black is well versed in his specialty.

He graduated with a bachelor's degree in Accounting, and minored in Money and Banking, and in Economics. Presently at the Twin Falls Business College Mr. Black teaches accounting, income tax, cost accounting, economics, and some auditing.

He is also a certified public accountant.

"The role of a business college in the United States today is an important and varied one," says Mr. Black. "A great part of our education dollar goes for a group of students who go to liberal arts colleges . . . and neglect quite often those vocational types of training which prepare students for immediate positions in the business world. We can train them to do good work in a relatively short period of time, giving them more than adequate skills."

Involved in the world of teaching, Karl Black enjoys visiting high schools throughout the valley talking to students about the current openings in business.

Mr. Black is the father of five children, and with his wife Bonnie Bailey Black, formerly of Springville, Utah, they live on a farm in Eden. Mr. Black was a farmer before his work at the Business College.

His oldest daughter is Karlyn who is 15 and a Sophomore at Valley High School. Kathy is 12 and attends Junior High School at Hazelton. Patricia is 9 years old and attends Eden Grammar School, along with the only boy, Michael, 7 . . . and the youngest girl, Kristine, who is six.

The oldest, Karlyn, hopes to attend BYU at Provo after high school.

As far as outside activities are concerned, Karl Black doesn't have much time. He operates the business college, runs the farm, keeps five youngsters in line, is a Bishop in the LDS Church Hunt Ward in the Gooding Stake . . . and still finds time to do active work with the Kiwanis Club on the Boys and Girls Committee.

"Youth work is important to me . . . besides the Kiwanis Club activities I believe that the primary calling of a Bishop in my church is to preside over the youth who depend on us," said Black.

"I think the youth of this country is far underrated . . . they get too much publicity for the off beat activities and not nearly enough for their good work. My daughter studies four hours a day . . . and I believe it's like that with most youngsters in this day and age. They have to . . . and they do it."

Mr. Black enjoys hunting and fishing when he can find the time for it . . . but his business and church take up most of his time.

Still, one cannot say he is not diversified . . . his children go to school in Eden, and at the Valley High School . . . he lives in Eden . . . or Hunt . . . his telephone is listed in Eden . . . but his address is Route 4, Jerome. All in all it would seem that just trying to contact home would keep a man busy.

State Taxes Rising, Spreading

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
Associated Press Writer

State taxes, like rivers in flood season, are rising and spreading. The heavy legislative year, over in all but a few states, left less ground where citizens could find refuge from taxes.

Levies are in effect on:

- Cigarettes in 49 states, all but North Carolina.
- Sales in 44.
- Corporate income in 40.
- Personal income in 38.
- Gasoline in all.

An Associated Press survey shows legislatures went in more for increasing old taxes than finding new sources of revenue. Take, for instance, California. The legislators approved a $1-billion tax program, the biggest tax increase in the state's history. It concluded boosts in income, sales, cigarette, liquor, banks, corporation and inheritance taxes. But about $115 million was set aside for property tax relief in 1968-69.

Three states entered the income tax field.

Michigan's Legislature adopted a package that included, for the first time in that state, income taxes on individuals, corporations and financial institutions. The personal income tax rate is 2.6 per cent. It is expected to bring in about $240 million a year. The 5.6 per cent corporate income tax, which replaced a complicated tax on business, is expected to produce $46 million next year, and the 7 per cent income tax on financial institutions is calculated to yield $2 million.

Nebraska, another newcomer in that area, enacted a corporate and personal income tax. The rates, set by the state Board of Equalization, are 10 per cent of the federal tax on VANCOUVER B. C. (AP) — Rene Castellani, 42-year-old former radio station promotions man, Friday was found guilty of the arsenic poisoning of his wife. He had been charged with first degree murder.

It was the second time such a verdict was reached. Castellani was convicted at an earlier trial but was granted a new trial by the British Columbia Court of Appeal.

Esther Castellani, 40, died in Vancouver General Hospital July 11, 1965, two months after being admitted for tests. She had been suffering from a mysterious illness for several months.

Book Review

"ALL THE LITTLE LIVE THINGS"
By Wallace Stegner

This is the story of two Easterners, Joe and Ruth Allston, who have retired to California after the death of their wayward son. The author, who is professor of English at Stanford University, is familiar with the Bay Area which is the locale of the novel, and describes with familiarity the eucalyptus trees dripping with rain from a Pacific storm, the poison-oak they try so hard to conquer, the cherry tree, the gophers that loved to chew the roots of baby trees, the red-tailed hawk that watches from a high tree and swoops down for closer inspection.

There is the Siamese cat called Catarrh for the congested rumble of his purr, who brings gifts which he leaves on the door mat—strange offerings like the upper teeth of a gopher, a pair of paws, the front half a cottontail rabbit, a cedar waxwing that may have feasted too well on fermented pyracantha berries.

There are hills and uncared for pastures, the bridges in the distance, the criss cross roads and paths that are a challenge to walkers because of the weeds and rocks and poison-oak.

Their paradise is invaded by assorted parasites other than bugs and animals and snakes. The developer with the bulldozer intent on changing the rustic to the urban and filling the air with dust and noise, Jim Peck, a bearded young cultist, builds a tree house on their property and starts his University of the Free Mind with its Yoga, marijuana and tree-wheeling sex. Jim Peck who repays the kindness of the Allstons by attaching his tree house to their lights and gets his water from their pump, whose friends leave their beer cans and litter all over the hillsides and noisily disrupt the peace of the countryside.

Joe is torn between impatience with the utter irresponsibility of the hippy and his friends and his feeling that they need understanding.

Marian Catlin is the attractive young wife and mother who comes to live in their paradise for a short time and brings with her belief in the goodness and worth of all the little live things. She sympathizes with the hippies and cringes at the death of any live thing.

The Best Way To Bowl: Get Into The Habit

By JAN A. SAINSBURY
Times-News Feature Editor
There is something absolutely delightful about a Catholic Nun bowling.

I'm not sure what it is, but there's something.

The sight and sound of a young Sister lightly snapping her fingers as a bowling ball crashes into the head pin leaving a seven-ten split is one not to be forgotten.

All of the sudden the usual exclamations go by the wayside in preference to the more mild and charming . . . golly, gee, wow, and the somehow prophetic, "heavens!"

The Catholic Nuns were from the surrounding area and have been visiting a local bowling establishment each Sunday. Not only have they been bowling regularly, but they have been taking lessons.

None of the Sisters in the pictures with this article has been identified in the hope that we don't embarrass someone . . . confident that we won't, due to their good nature and charming humor.

Often there are as many as 22 Sisters bowling on a given Sunday. And they didn't seem to object to having their picture taken . . . unless of course they threw a gutter ball. And many of them did.

But when a strike was thrown it was like recess in a grade school . . . the Sisters couldn't have been happier.

I heard one Sister say, "I just don't understand it," as her bowling ball drifted into the gutter a few inches from the pins. And another lifted lightly on her toes as a somewhat mild excuse for body english.

So watch it, bowlers! If the habit becomes strong enough . . . there's no stopping them.

The Money Box

BY FRANK SCHELL

From Mrs. L. D. C. Burley, Idaho: I would like to know about gold money. Is it illegal to own it? Can it be sold legally? Is it true that only collectors can own it and then only twenty dollars' worth? If it can be sold legally, where would the owner find a market?

Answer: I presume you are speaking of United States gold coinage. In 1935 all gold lost its legal tender status (was demonetized) and was called in by the federal government. A great amount of it, however, was held back.

The question of legality is debatable. At the present time, it is sold and bought quite freely, by both dealers and collectors. Your possession of United States gold coinage is only limited by your ability to buy it, since you can purchase any amount of certain dates from dealers.

The last series of gold coins struck by the United States government are strictly illegal—and it may be that all the rest of it could conceivably be declared confiscated if the Treasury Department decided to do so.

However, at the present time, no such procedure has even been hinted at by the government and a great amount of gold coinage is displayed at coin shows.

The story that only collectors can own gold, and then only twenty dollars' worth, is a myth. No such ruling has ever been made by the government. You can sell gold coins to other collectors and a great many dealers are interested in buying it.

Values are about twice face value for twenty dollar gold pieces—depending upon condition, and the other denominations are about three times face—much higher for scarcer dates. The only exception to owning gold is that of foreign gold coinage.

You may not legally own any foreign gold coins struck since 1935—since they would have entered the country illegally.

At present, gold coins may be brought into this country legally only under an importer's license, which must be secured from the United States Government, but only gold which has numismatic value (collector's items) may be so imported, and the government decides which dates are those items.

If you have gold coins, or know of someone who has, who wishes to sell, drop me a card and I will be glad to send you a list of possible buyers.

The column is in receipt of three letters this week asking about values on foreign coinage. Since no description of the coins was sent in any of the letters there is no possible way to judge their value.

In the main, however, most foreign coinage has little collector value. Foreign countries have been in business a long time and have struck a lot of minor coinage—and most of it is still around. The bronze and copper coinage of Europe is very easy to find—and most of it runs from 5 cents to 25 cents in value. Silver coinage is worth more—because it is scarcer. Coins of Europe—and the Far East—struck in silver cost on an average of about a dollar apiece—and this is for coins struck over a hundred years ago.

The only exception to this is the crown-sized (dollar-sized) silver coins. These have come much into the collecting spotlight of late years, and they command prices which range from about $3 to $15 each—depending upon country of origin and condition.

Some of the older crown-sized coins are worth much more than this—but it would be impossible to even guess at values without a complete description of the coin, or visual inspection.

You can send such coins through the mail—insured—to this column and we will be glad to give you an opinion on value—and return the coin to you promptly. Please include enough money for postage and insurance for the coins' return.

(Questions on coins and currency should be sent to The Money Box, c/o the Times-News, Twin Falls, Idaho 83301.)

RECENTLY THE WESTERN States Sage Grouse Workshop met in Boise to discuss ways of helping our largest native grouse to survive. Men from six western fish and game departments, one Canadian province, and three federal land management agencies participated. Papers were presented on a wide range of subjects including techniques, habitat management, habitat research, and big game-sagebrush relationships. Shown here are Don McIntosh, Bureau of Land Management, Washington, D. C.; Elwood Bizeau, Idaho Fish and Game Department, and Harold Swope, Colorado Game, Fish and Parks Department; all active participants in the workshop.

Stay Of Execution Hopefully Set In Case Of The Disappearing Grouse

By DONNA HURD
Idaho Fish-Game Department
In recent years sage grouse have been threatened with slow extinction. However, Idaho's largest native grouse may have received a stay of execution.

The sage grouse is in danger because of Man's continued removal of sagebrush. Complete removal of sagebrush automatically means the end of sage grouse.

Research is the key that is providing the stay of execution. Current investigations are prying into every aspect of a sage grouse's life. Knowledge gained from these studies coupled with increased awareness of sage grouse needs by the federal land management agencies and state fish and game departments may provide a new hope for this fine game bird.

Very few seeds are eaten as the digestive system is designed only for leafy material. There is no muscular gizzard to break down hard material like seeds. Montana is in the second year of a ten year study on the ecology of sagebrush control. On five one-square mile study areas in south-central Montana, all aspects of the plots are examined before and after sagebrush elimination. Sagebrush removal is by both chemical and mechanical means. Insects, songbirds, soils, climate, and vegetation are all examined. In addition, the effect of cattle grazing is noted. Game animal use by antelope, mule deer, and sage grouse is also studied. This project is jointly financed by the Bureau of Land Management and the Montana Fish and Game Department.

Magic Valley Hospital Study Held

Papers were presented on a wide range of subjects including techniques, habitat management, habitat research, and big game-sagebrush relationships.

Sagebrush is important not only to sage-grouse, but also to mule deer and antelope. Steve Bayless, of Montana, determined the 90 percent of the winter diet of antelope consists of sagebrush. In some areas it has been determined that the entire winter diet of mule deer is sagebrush. Consequently, the presence of these animals is an important factor to take into consideration when planning sagebrush removal.

One of the principal activities of the Workshop is to develop guidelines to advise land users on how much sagebrush is necessary for sage grouse survival. These guidelines allow the land user to modify sagebrush eradication projects so that grazing will improve and yet leave enough wildlife habitat to permit sage grouse, mule deer, and antelope to maintain their numbers.

James Rosenbaum, assistant administrator at Magic Valley Memorial, said that visits from the JCAH are requested and are not necessary to gain state or other licenses. "It is merely an assurance to the public," he said, "that certain standards of medical practice are met." Here Thursday was Dr. Harland Metz, Chicago.

The requirements of JCAH are constantly undergoing changes as the medical field expands. Magic Valley Memorial has been accredited by the commission since 1954.

Accreditation visits take place every three years, unless a hospital receives a limited certificate. In such cases, they are eligible for another visit in a year.

William A. Daly Taken By Death

William A. Daly, 72, Basin, Wyo., a long-time resident of Twin Falls, died Wednesday in a Boise Hospital while visiting there. He was born in Anaconda, Mont., but lived most of his life here before moving away 12 or 13 years ago.

Dr. Daly, a veteran of World War I and an active member of the Elks club in Twin Falls, was preceded in death by a brother, Patrick J. Daly, who also was well known here. Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday in Relyea Funeral Chapel, Boise.

'Scuse Me

HAMBURG, N. Y., (AP)—Byron F. Whitford received a telephone call at his home from a solicitor asking for a $27 contribution for an advertisement in a fire prevention week booklet.

"Has this been cleared by the Hamburg Volunteer Fire Department?" Whitford asked the caller.

"Oh, yes," was the reply. "Well, that's funny," Whitford said. "I'm the fire chief, and I don't know a thing about it."

"Oops, 'Scuse me," came a mumbled voice from the other end of the line before it went dead.

Chairman Is Named For Wendell Fete

WENDELL — Bill Bunn was appointed chairman of the annual farmer's banquet sponsored by the Wendell Chamber of Commerce by Charles Iretton, chamber president.

"Other main projects for the rest of the year," said Iretton, "are Halloween and the Christmas promotion."

Your Spine and Your Health

By Dr. Ludwig C. Landwehr

GOOD POSTURE is obtained when your muscles hold your body in balance. Check your posture with this simple test: Stand with your back to the wall with your head, shoulder blades, calves and heels touching the wall. Place your hands at your sides and flatten the hollow of the back by pressing the buttocks back against the wall. The space at the back of your waist should not be greater than the thickness of your hand.

MRS. DONNA SHORT, BURLEY artist, views the painting of the mountain and waterfall scene she made on the garage wall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Kidd, Burley. She spent many hours painting the large 12 by 26 scene free hand. She spent more than a month on the task.

Bad Habit

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Chi Chi, an 18-month-old Siamese cat, has a hobby, her owners wish she would abandon. She brings home poisonous snakes.

Chi Chi started it by bringing in a 16-inch diamond-back rattlesnake in September. Then came another diamond-back of about the same size in early October. She topped it off this week with a 10-inch moccasin.

"Right in my kitchen she brings them," Mrs. Stuart Lang said. "She's so proud."

Life in MAGIC VALLEY

A 12 by 26 foot mountain scene with a waterfall graces the garage wall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Kidd, 820 West 21st St., BURLEY. It is the handiwork of Mrs. Donna Short.

She spent more than a month on the project and has made 14 other small paintings prior to starting on the large scenic mountains and waterfall. Her first art lessons were under the direction of Orvil Murphy, Burley. She is a member of the Desert Art Guild.

She has painted the scenic attraction completely free hand without any kind of a picture to sketch from, and this calls for changes as she paints.

The sky was painted with a roller and brushes are being used for the other parts of the pictures. At the bottom right hand corner the painting blends into the rock garden.

The rocks which make up the rock garden have been collected by the Kidd family during the past 15 years. In the rock collection, rocks are from all of the western states, and part of the middle western states, Hawaii and Europe.

To add to the unique large painting Mr. Kidd has installed spotlights which are on from 8 p.m. until midnight daily and are operated by a timer.

Mrs. Short the artist does the painting in her spare time for she is a waitress at the O W's Cafe, Burley.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidd who just wanted a rock garden with a waterfall, stated that "they had no idea of creating a scenic attraction when they started on the improvements for their backyard."

Mrs. (Zella) Kidd is employed at J. C. Penney Co. in the credit department and Mr. Kidd owns and operates the Jasper Kidd Appliance Sales and Service in the Burley area.

The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kidd have helped collect rocks for the family rock garden project.

They are Mrs. June Potter, RUPERT; Mrs. LaVerne Voeltzel, Pocatello; Karma Kidd, a sophomore at Ricks College and Cara Kidd, a senior at Burley High School.

Buhl Has But One Hopeful For Mayor

BUHL—Dr. Myron Thompson, a veteran of more than six years on the Buhl city council, is the lone candidate for the office of mayor in the Nov. 7 municipal election.

Two years remain on his present term as a council member, and Dale Christensen has filed for election to the council for the two years remaining on Thompson's term. Christensen served on the city council from April, 1959 until January, 1964.

Three candidates filed nominating petitions for the other two four-year terms on the city council—before the deadline. In addition to Joe Fehrenbacher and Dave Munroe, Lavar Bloxham, Buhl radio and TV repairman and employe of Pet Milk Co., has also become a candidate for the council.

Members of the city council are now elected at large in Idaho municipal elections and the two highest vote-getters between Bloxham, Fehrenbacher and Munroe will be elected to four-year terms on the council.

STU AND I ARE GOING TO A DANCE TONIGHT, BOOTS, AND...

I WANT TO TALK TO YOU ABOUT THIS GENERATION'S HOURS, PLUG! WHEN I WAS YOUR AGE...

I WANT TO SPEAK WITH YOU ABOUT THOSE DAYS, ROD! I'M DOING RESEARCH ON THAT ERA--THE CHARLESTON, BLACK BOTTOM, DANCING MARATHONS...

I FOUND SOME PICTURES IN AN OLD TRUNK IN THE ATTIC THAT SHED A LITTLE LIGHT ON EARLY FASHIONS AND STYLES!

AND I'VE HEARD UNCLE STEVE AND AUNT CORA REMINISCING ABOUT OLDEN TIMES, BUT YOU CAN... UH, DON'T YOU THINK YOU'D BETTER START PRIMING FOR YOUR DATE, PLUG?

I GUESS SHE TAUGHT YOU A LESSON, MR. BUTTINSKI! OKAY, OKAY!

BUT, DOGGONIT, DID SHE HAVE TO MAKE THE DAYS OF MY YOUTH SOUND LIKE A LECTURE ON ANCIENT HISTORY?

OUT OUR WAY

WHO, ME? ... WHY ME?

HOW DOES IT HAPPEN THAT I GET ALL THE TOUGH ASSIGNMENTS AROUND HERE?

IT'S ALWAYS THE LITTLE GUY WHO IS THE MOST AVAILABLE, THAT'S WHY!

JUST BECAUSE I'M ALWAYS OBEDIENT AND UNQUESTIONING, I GET PICKED FOR THE ROUGH JOBS EVERY TIME!

LEUMAS IS TWICE MY SIZE, AND HE GETS JOBS LIKE SPADING THE GARDEN, RAKING LEAVES, MOWING THE LAWN.... THAT'S CHILD'S PLAY!

ALWAYS, I'VE GOTTA PUT THE CAT OUT!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

by Bill Freyse

THESE OWLS CLUB PICNIC TICKETS ARE A REAL BARGAIN AT ONLY $2 EACH! OUR MENU WILL BE THE TALK OF THE TOWN!

HOW DO YOU MEAN THAT? CHILI JOE MADE THE FRONT PAGE JUST BY SERVIN' FISH THAT COULDN'T WAIT!

UM, YAS, LOBSTER, SQUAB AND BAKED POTATOES WILL BE THE STAPLES! EACH SERVED WITH THE APPROPRIATE WINE, OF COURSE!

I'M A LONG SHOT PLAYER FROM WAY BACK HERE'S MY DEUCE!

I'LL TAKE A PIECE OF THE ACTION TOO!

YOU WON'T REGRET IT, BOYS! WITH OUR FOUNDER'S DAY PICNIC WE'LL SHOW OUR TRUE IMAGE TO THE COMMUNITY!

FROM WHAT I'VE SEEN OF THE OWLS, THAT COULD BE DANGEROUS, MAJOR!

NEXT DAY: EGAD, WALDO, THIS IS A DISGRACE-- CHOMP-CHOMPE-- I VOUCHER FOR THE MENU PERSONALLY!

WITH OUR FLAT TREASURY, WE WOULDN'T EVEN HAVE A PICNIC IF THEM BEER KEGS HADN'T FALLEN OFF OUTSIDE THE CLUB!

OF COURSE THIS COULD BE SQUAB BUT ONLY IF THE PIGEON FLEW THROUGH A NARROW PIPE!

AND WHAT PUTS THE SUDS ON THIS FINE WINE, MAJOR?

WHY--ER, AH--THE MAYOR HAD AN UNEXPECTED VISIT-- CHOMP-CHOMP-F-- BY TOURING DIGNITARIES! HE COMMANDEERED OUR GOURMET ITEMS!

MENULY, NO CULTIVATED PERSON CAN ENJOY SUCH HUMDRUM FOOD! NEXT YEAR WE SIMPLY MUST--

TIMBER!

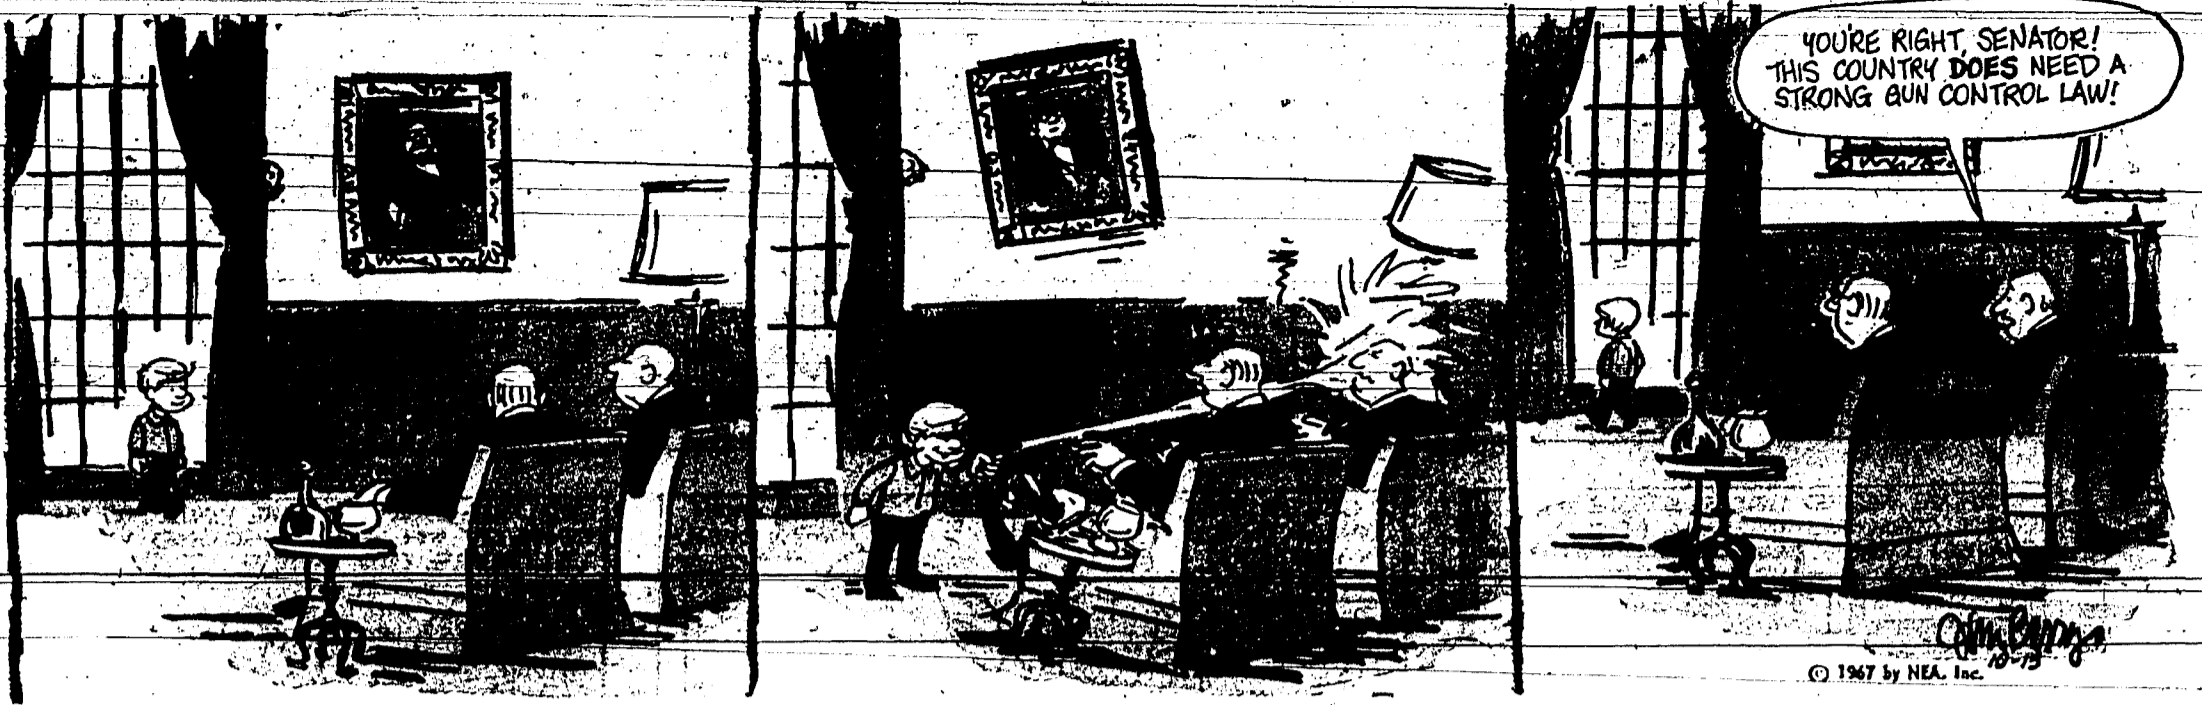

HE'LL LIVE! IT'S JUST A SIMPLE CASE OF OVER-EATING!

HE DOWNED EVERYTHING BUT THE HOOPS ON THE KEG! I WONDER WHAT HE COULD HAVE DONE IF HE LIKED THE GRUB!

"OH, I CAN'T SAY THEY'RE SO STUPID... THEY DIDN'T PAY TO GET IN HERE!"

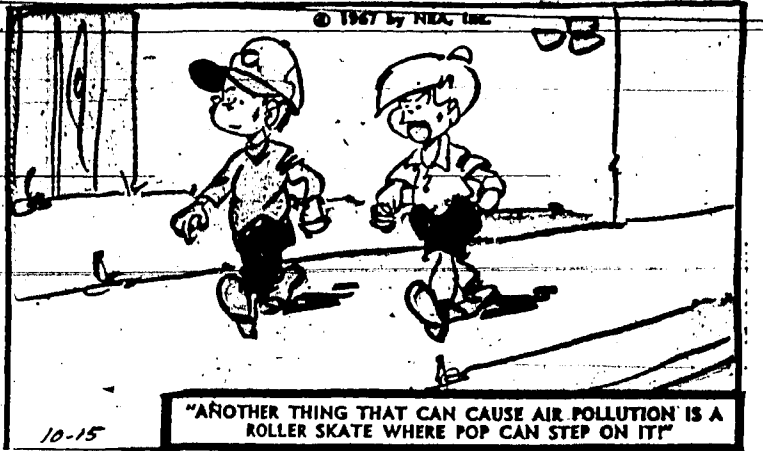

"HAVE WE EVER BEEN BUSY DOWN IN ACCOUNTING... WHY, I HAVEN'T BEEN HIT WITH A PAPER CLIP IN TWO DAYS!"

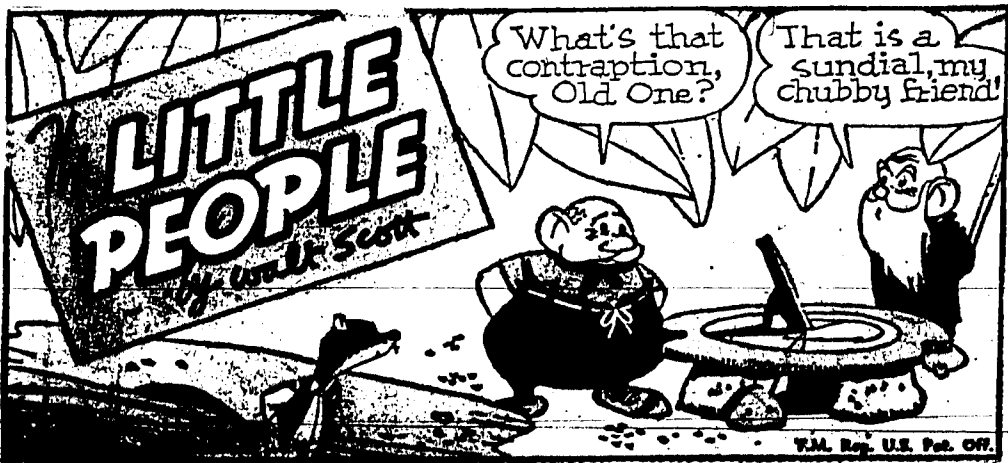

"NAME ONE GOOD THING WE MIGHT FIND ON THE MOON? HOW ABOUT NO DEMONSTRATIONS?"

"TWO TELEPHONES IN THE HOUSE... TWO TEEN-AGERS, YOU AND YOUR MOTHER AND YOU SAY YOU NEED A CONVERSATION PIECE!"

"ANOTHER THING THAT CAN CAUSE AIR POLLUTION IS A ROLLER SKATE WHERE POP CAN STEP ON IT!"

What's that contraption, Old One?

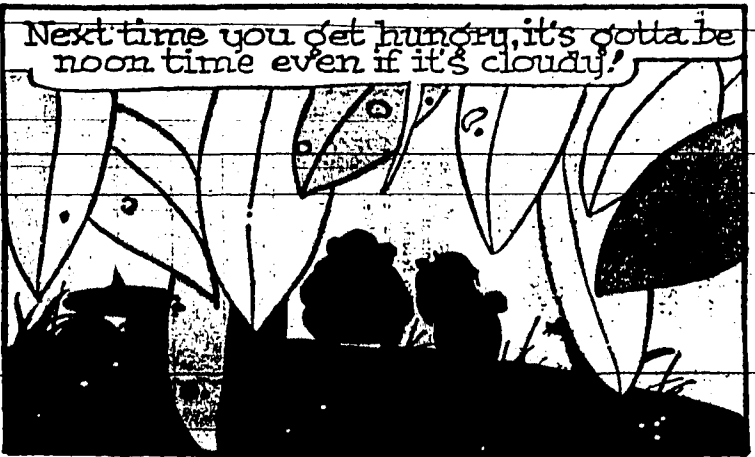

That is a sundial, my chubby friend!

What's it do?

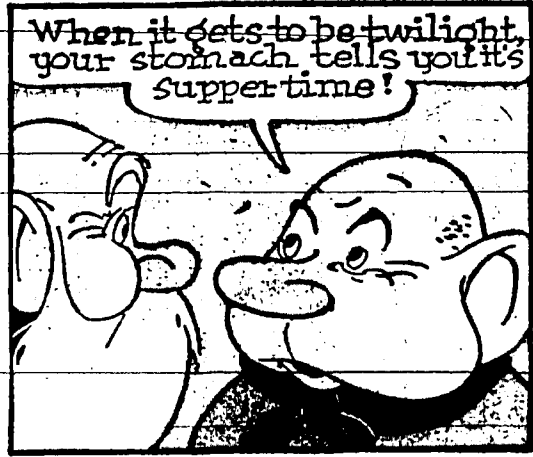

When the sun shines on it, the shadow points to the exact time!

But you already know what time it is! When it gets daylight you fix breakfast- You don't need sunshine to make shadows!

Next time you get hungry, it's gotta be noon time even if it's cloudy!

When it gets to be twilight, your stomach tells you it's supper-time!

Don't you ever think of any kind of time except meal-time?

Do you know of a better kind?

SPECIAL ISSUE:

ASK THEM YOURSELF

FOR GILES B. McCULLUM, vice president, Reuben H. Donnelley Corp. (contest-evaluation specialists)

● For us millions of contest addicts, I would like to know: 1) Are the drawings honestly "random" ones? 2) Are the "25-words-or-less" winners impartially chosen? 3) Do you investigate prospective winners to be sure they aren't rich or famous?—Mrs. G. S. F., Livermore, Calif.

● Contest drawings we manage or judge are completely at random. The "25-words-or-less" essay contests are judged in this manner: a staff of examiners reviews the entries, selecting those which most closely meet specifications of the contest. These entries are then reviewed by another staff of examiners. When all of the entries have been sifted, the final selection of winners is made by a group of executives. Winners are selected on merit alone. Judges have no knowledge of their financial or social status.

FOR PATTI PAULSEN, Miss Airline Stewardess of 1967

● I am a sophomore in high school, and I want to be a stewardess. What should I do?—S. N., Atlantic City, N.J.

● Be interested in people. College isn't required, but if you don't go to college, you must have at least two years of business experience after high-school graduation.

tion. The more activities you can crowd in, the more interesting you and your job will be. I was a cheerleader and a swimming instructor, for instance.

FOR ADAM WEST of "Batman"

● I read in a magazine that you won't be photographed with your children. Is this because you think it makes you look too old?—Vivienne Jackson, North Hollywood, Calif.

● No, it's merely because I don't want my young children exposed to so much publicity.

FOR GROUCHO MARX

● Having read in your book, "The Groucho Letters," about your sad experience during the stock-market crash before the Depression, I am curious to know whether you still invest in the market.—Ellen Hunter Bingham, Idaho Falls, Idaho

● You didn't read all of the book! In my letter on page 314, I tell about my present activities in the market.

FOR BARBARA STANWYCK

● How was your career started?—Beverly Baker, Cocoa Beach, Fla.

● I started as a chorine when I was 15. That led to a bit part in a play, "The Nooc." As a result, I got a leading role in the movie,

"The Locked Door." After that came the picture that made me a star, "Ladies of Leisure," directed by Frank Capra.

FOR BOB HOPE

● What part of your entertainment for our GIs do they enjoy the most?—Mrs. Eula Strong, Church Hill, Tenn.

● The girls I bring along! The GIs scream and yell, they take a million pictures, they stamp, they clap—and best of all, they laugh!

FOR AMANDA BLAKE of "Gunsmoke"

● Is the beauty mark on your face real or do you paint it on?—Dora Thyberg, Pocatello, Idaho

● The "beauty mark" was what I called a blemish until I started playing Kitty on "Gunsmoke," then we started accenting it with make-up for the character. I've worn it ever since—both in and out of character.

WHAT IN THE WORLD!

By ALLEN GARVIN

R. Buckminster Fuller

Happy Headcap The architectural genius R. Buckminster Fuller, builder of 5,000 geodesic domes in 50 countries, says much of his inventiveness may be the result of a birth defect. The 71-year-old Carbondale, Ill., intellectual confesses, "I was born cross-eyed, abnormally farsighted. Until I was four, I viewed in gigantic dimension huge patterns of everything—houses, trees, people, animals. I could see blurs, not faces, not eyes, not fears. I was a case history."

Duke's Record Hollywood statisticians report that John Wayne won his 500th screen fist fight in his recent movie, "The War Wagon." Actor Don Collier had the dubious honor of being on the receiving end of Duke's right hand. Statistics are not available on how many KOs Duke has punching left-handed.

Open-Shut Case When No. 40 of the Chicago Bears wiggles his hips like a belly dancer and accelerates like a racing car, it usually means a touchdown. Gale Sayers is one of the toughest backs in the business to catch. Part of his success is that he keeps his eyes wide open when he is hit, not closing them instinctively as so many runners do. Explaining his wide-eyed technique, Sayers observes, "You just look for the holes to run through. You can't run up to the line with your eyes shut."

New Job New Zealand songstress Gale Garnett hit the popular music charts with her recording of "We'll

Gale Garnett

Sing in the Sunshine." She had been a tv actress for years before making the big time. "I spent three years as a Polynesian, Mexican, and Indian in various series. When my sarong started to fade because of overuse, I figured it was time to look elsewhere." Her friends persuaded her to try singing. The result: a No. 1 record on her first try.

Shear Fun Recently, Broadway barber Rudy Montera received a phone call from Perry Como. Perry asked, "Rudy, it's been a long time since you cut my hair. How about coming down and doing the job?" Not an unusual request for any busy barber—but Perry was calling New York from his home near Miami Beach. Rudy packed his bags, and took his wife to Florida for the haircut and a two-week vacation.

THE NEW TOTEABLES FOR TRAVELING LADIES

By ROSALYN ABREVAYA

IN THE old days, travelers depended on guide posts to direct them to their destination.

Today variashaped highway signs and more sophisticated traffic signals are designed to whisk the motorist effortlessly through heavy traffic and complex highway systems.

But negotiating the maze of travel aids to tote on any trip may be another problem. Here is a selective guide to some of the "basics" you'll need, reflecting a trend toward more compact items and new disposable products you don't have to lug back!

Expect some hefty MILEAGE from Elisa Dagg's polycoated paper raincoat (1). (Matching helmet is optional.) It's beautifully constructed, does shed rain, and is reported to last about a dozen wearings.

Ventura's "expando" duffel bag (2) YIELDS THE RIGHT OF WAY for last-minute gifts, souvenirs, or extra pairs of shoes. The bottom unzips and expands an additional 10 inches!

The REAR-VIEW MIRROR is not for making up, right? Instead, count on Clairol's newly scaled-down compact blusher (3) to keep cheeks blooming. The tortoiselike case comes equipped with a mirror and an easy, finger-gripping brush.

Anticipate SOFT SHOULDERS ahead and that goes for the rest of you, too. Vitabath's luxurious bath collection (4), in a pretty pink travel case, pampers you with a trio of beauty aids—a bath or shower gelee, an after-bath friction-producing moisturizer, and, for a finishing touch, finely milled body powder.

CAUTION is the better part of valor if your skin is sensitive to harsh soaps often encountered in rest rooms while traveling. Helena Rubinstein's Skin Dew cleanser and eye make-up remover (5), does an exceptional job of gently creaming off make-up and grime.

On dusty auto trips, a sure way to signal a STOP to shininess on the T-zone of your face (forehead, nose, and chin) is with Miss Ritz Blotter (6). It's a special absorbent powder in a sleek white compact that blots up oil from the skin, leaving a sheer matte finish.

You may wish for HEADLIGHTS in some of today's poorly lighted hotel rooms, but don't despair. "Mirror-Go-Lightly" (7), illuminates with 10-watt reflecting light that is recessed—giving the brightness of much bigger bulbs. The rectangular mirror flips from regular to magnifying.

DON'T PASS up the inclination to take several necessary grooming aids because, until now, they presented a cumbersome packing chore. It makes good sense to tuck in a dispenser of Dermicel tape (8). An attractive white ribbon on one side, its uses are as unlimited as your imagination. To wit: it can secure lingerie straps when wearing sleeveless or backless styles; substitute for hair clips to set bangs or hair at the nape of the neck; line the inside backs of shoes if they're rubbing; or fix a ripped hem in a hurry, when needle and thread are unavailable. Also for people on the go are tiny Balm Argenta "pillows" (9) of lanolin-laden hand lotion. After a single application, simply discard the leakproof foil wrappers. To round out your grooming-aid wardrobe, check into One Time Products' new "travel valet" kit (10). Available at notions counters, it contains an assortment of 40 packages, which includes nail-polish remover and moist towelettes among its five essentials.

Count yourself in the SAFETY ZONE when you travel with either of these two hairdo revivers: Minute Set (11), which works on the principle of heated rollers (boiling hot), sets your hair when dry. The process takes from five to 10 minutes—a shorter time than it takes you to unpack—and is perfectly safe.

Enny of Italy's new Mini-Stretchwig (12), a ready-to-wear wig that stretches to fit any head, is a boon to the female traveler. It not only doesn't look wiggy but, when flipped inside out, folds to a quarter of its size for packing—eliminating the need for a wig case!

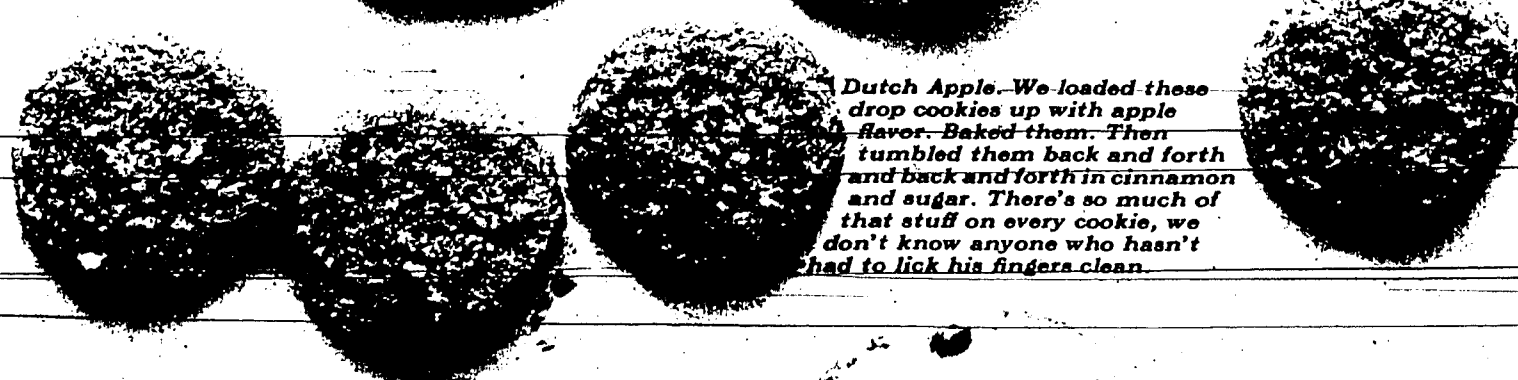

Once you've packed your gear and are on the road, relax and enjoy the scenery—that is, unless you're driving! ♦

DEAN MARTIN phones me regularly in that casual way of his. "Take my car for a couple of days," he'll say, "and build in a few surprises."

As a customizer of star cars—and builder of such "show" cars as the Batmobile—I'm expected to conjure automotive magic and even surprises: to fit a car, you might say, to its famous owner.

Once I surprised Dean by converting his handsome silver Ghia into a mobile sound chamber. We did it—my staff and I—with a stereo console and a maze of hidden hi-fi speakers. Next time his car came in the shop for the "surprise treatment," we dreamed up a special arm rest whose concealed compartment holds Dean's sunglasses and a selection of his favorite stereo tapes.

More often, months of planning go into "personalizing" a car to fit a star. It was that way with Sonny and Cher's "his" and "her" twin Mustang convertibles. Sonny's was turned lustrous with 30 coats of gold lacquer, pigmented with 24-carat gold leaf; Cher's is a dazzling "hot" pink.

We restyled the cars' exteriors to give Sonny an egg-crate grille and matching taillight design and to give Cher a similar front and rear arrangement but with a delicate lace plastic overlay—plus pushbutton door latches, hood-riding air scoops, and other goodies for both.

We upholstered Sonny's "his" Mustang in bobcat fur and buff leather, trimmed with rustic suede. Cher's "her" car got feminine frills: white ermine and Scottish grain leather, trimmed in hot pink suede. And underfoot, a three-inch thick carpet of pink mouton fur.

It has been said that I've built every conceivable comfort into star cars—including the kitchen stove. I admit it, though the hot food console we designed into Elvis Presley's famed "gold car" (everything 24-carat gold-plated, including the refrigerator, shoe-shine buffer, tv console, telephones, stereo, and shaving bar) was hardly the "kitchen" variety.

More recently I converted actress Jill Donohue's Alfa-Romeo (she stars in the "Tarzan" tv series) into a mobile make-up salon, complete with a built-in vanity for cosmetics and one of those primping mirrors set all around with light bulbs. And for recording star Dick Dale—who spends a lot of time behind the wheel of his Cadillac Eldorado—a soda fountain which, between changes of a traffic light, can dish up a frosty chocolate soda.

Barris and wife Shirley spent months planning "his" and "her" Mustangs for Sonny and Cher.

For the film, "Out of Sight," Barris built this ZZR spy car—with two engines for fast getaway.

I Build Cars for the Stars

By GEORGE BARRIS
as told to JAMES JOSEPH

Average drivers might be quick—perhaps a bit too quick—to label such extras "luxuries." Celebrities often find them workaday necessities. For a busy star—who may report to the studio at 6 a.m. and keep going with rounds of personal appearances, benefits, and business conferences until well past midnight—a car may afford the only place for relaxation. And, for that matter, for privacy. Small wonder, then, that some of my clients bring their cars in for the "privacy treatment": black glass or the one-way type substituted for what the manufacturer installed originally.

Another case is Frank Sinatra's jet-black Ghia—an impeccable car that's fitted to his personality, a rare meticulousness for detail, whether on-camera or off. Aside from a full complement of precision aircraft instruments replacing the Ghia's ordinary dashboard fare, and a myriad of road-safety devices (from shoulder harnesses to special brakes), Frank can keep constantly in touch with his private plane via two-way aircraft radio.

Once, while quick-sketching some changes he wanted me to make in the car, Frank explained the radio's importance. Being able to contact his pilot and arrange for a quick rendezvous at the nearest airport has often meant the difference between making some distant engagement—or missing it.

The point I'm making is this: not many stars nowadays gadget their cars simply for the sake of gadgetry.

Recently, for example, I huddled with Lorne Greene between takes on the hectic "Bonanza" set where Greene is before the cameras six days every week. He wanted his new car "stretched out" 15 inches or so longer than normal to give him more "working" space when behind the wheel. The average driver seldom thinks of his car as a work place. But many stars—Lorne Greene among them—do. He asked me whether

I could build-in, among other things, a dashboard recording console with its microphone concealed in the driver's sun visor.

"Driving to work," he explained, "I need to go over the day's lines. Then I play them back so I can get things just right."

Of all my celebrity clients, none genuinely enjoys driving more than Elvis Presley—yes, even when it comes to buses. To Elvis, who doesn't like to fly and seldom does, the diesel-engined Greyhound Scenicruiser we converted to a veritable road hotel, sleeping six, is essential transportation. He gets a big kick wheeling it, as he regularly does, the 2,800 miles between Los Angeles and his home in Memphis.

Yvonne De Carlo's 1968 Jaguar Mark 4.2 sedan is something else again—her personal good luck charm on wheels. Inspired by the show cars I'd designed and built for "The Munsters" tv series, she said she'd like her Jaguar redesigned along the same theme.

As both Yvonne's personal car and town car (the car she uses occasionally in parades and on personal appearances), the "Mystere Mark X," as I dubbed it, has become something of a Hollywood classic. Painted ebony black (the finish ingrained with a "spider web" effect) and with a blood red leather interior, the car has a roof-top luggage rack made from authentic gold-plated coffin rails, hand-sewn grey casket-cloth curtains at the windows, and, ornamenting the hood, a solid brass snarling wolf's head, whose ruby red eyes light up at night. Even the trunk handles are authentically "Munster": they're gold-plated coffin handles.

One of my favorite star cars wasn't a car after all—but rather a Jeep which Ross Bagdasarian (he's "daddy" of "The Chipmunks") asked me to redesign into a California-ranch hunting wagon with leg room enough, Ross joked, so that one of his hunting pals, comedian Jonathan Winters, could stretch out in comfort.

I suppose Ross could have asked Jonathan to tuck in his legs, but it seemed easier simply to stretch the Jeep, which I did, adding three feet to its length. Then I outfitted Ross' "BagBunny" for he-man hunting with a high-powered engine, four plush aircraft bucket seats, guns racks, bullet trays by each seat, and bright-as-day road lights for night hunting.

Looking back nearly 18 years to the first car I ever customized—a Jaguar that musician Lionel Hampton asked me to pretty up a bit as a present to his wife—I'm sure of one thing: a star's car is more than just a car. It's his alter ego on wheels. ♦

Yvonne De Carlo asked for a Munster theme, got this Mystere Mark X with coffin-rail roof top.

THOSE 1968 CARS— SAFER, ROOMIER, MORE POWERFUL!

Here's how each of the top manufacturers has met the challenge of American drivers who want the all-around best

By STANLEY H. BRAMS

THE 1968 automobiles have three things going for them that should make them warmly welcome to the average American family:

They are the safest cars ever built—thanks to new Federal government regulations and to Detroit's ability to comply with them quickly.

On the average, they are larger cars than those of the past—and our nation's auto buyers have proved over the long term that they definitely want more roominess.

Again on the average, they are more powerful cars—and power here doesn't mean higher top speed but instead the ability to get out of a potentially bad situation in a hurry.

You've been reading a lot about safety, of course. Maybe you've thought of it in terms of seat belts (and shoulder harnesses, the 1968 way to fasten-yourself-in). But there's much more to it than that. A good deal of it is subtle and built-in—nothing you can see when you look at the new crop of cars on the showroom floor.

Seat-back engineering, for example. You'll be pleased to know that the new seat backs are now made of a framing which corrugates or deforms under impact. Result: if your rear-seat passengers are thrown forward in an accident, they meet with a barrier which gives way gently.

Injuries have been caused, too, by front-seat backs folding up under a crash stop, pitching rear-seat occupants into the windshield. The 1968 seats all lock upright; it takes the snap of a lever to let them down.

Safety dictates many of the changes in doodads. For example, coat hangers now generally are of plastic; if a passenger knocks against one severely, it simply breaks off. Door handles and window lifts are almost flat against the side; some are recessed.

Instrument-panel knobs which face the front seat either have been minimized, sunk in, or changed to toggle switches. Plastic is being used for many instrument-panel parts, even for air conditioning hang-ons, which break off under impact. Inside rear-view mirrors are swivel mounted in breakaway fixtures. Steering wheels themselves gradually crumble under impact.

Safety in actual car performance is another 1968-model development. Fuel tanks are sealed better, and their filler tubes are designed to resist rupture at the tank. This minimizes the chance of explosion in a collision.

Increases in size, the second hallmark of the 1968s, are more subtly achieved. The so-called intermediates of the past have been the ones to benefit most by enlargement: Chevelle by Chevrolet and Fairlane by Ford are both notably longer. Pontiac's new Tempest has been widened; so have the Dodge Charger and the Dodge Coronet. The new Mercury Montego group is longer than the Comet series, which it replaces. Some increases in leg room and head room have been achieved by many makes.

Higher power engines are so commonplace that there is little point in particularizing. All the new ones and many changes in the old, it should be noted, started with the prime objective of reducing harmful exhaust emissions, as now required by California law and under study elsewhere. Higher power engines usually are better able to reduce these unwanted gases. In combination with these engines, the new carburetors are far more precise than before, and are preset at the factory for efficiency.

Cadillac's new engine has no less than three significant built-in characteristics. The air-injection emission-control system is built into the engine. So are many parts for air conditioning (which nearly all Cadillac buyers specify). The third development is a metal temperature monitoring device which lights up the dashboard temperature gauge to warn of overheating.

In addition, all makes now display engine or body numbers in a visible place, usually at an upper dashboard corner, so they can be seen through the windshield. This is an antitheft measure. General Motors cars have a buzzer system which goes on when the key is left in the ignition and the driver's door is opened—another effort to reduce car burglary.

Now to a rundown of the cars and their specific advances:

Buick: The new Specials have Riviera-like style treatment. There is an optional 285-hp. engine for some of the lines. Buick's Sportswagon has glass in the roof, both for better visibility and more luggage space. Springing is softer, yet devised to achieve better control.

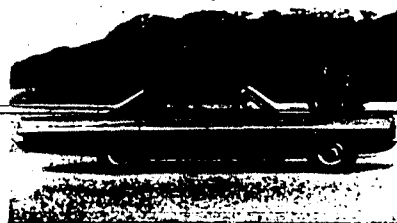

Cadillac: The new engine has 525 ft. lbs. of torque which means agility to spare in normal driving ranges. The hood is 6 1/2 inches longer. All models except the personal-car type Eldorado are slightly longer over all, and styling has been modified and smoothed from stem to stern.

Chevrolet: Caprice models on the standard Chevrolets now come with ventless windows along with forced-flow ventilation. Concealed headlamps are an option. Chevies have their first new bodies since they were born in 1964—over-all length increased four inches, tread longer, all on a re-designed frame. Camaro, too, eliminates vent windows. Wheels are larger, improving stability; and shocks have been relocated for a better ride. Chevy II has new curved glass to improve styling. The chassis is also new, built around a stub-frame which accommodates bodies nearly six inches longer. Corvair offers a choice of three engines with any of three transmissions. The Corvette has striking body innovations with sloping nose, longer hood, and shorter deck—no vent windows here, either.

Chrysler: A new 290-hp. engine (up 20) improves performance, and there are larger power options. Headlamps are concealed on the 300 series. A new hardtop

Dodge: The Charger sports car has been handsomely redesigned in longer (3.6 in.) size with concealed headlamps. One new engine option is available. Automatic temperature control can be ordered on Polara/Monaco models. Station wagons have squeegee rear-window washers operated from the dashboard and offer dual action rear sections—open them from the side like a door or from the bottom like a gate.

Ford: New sheet metal covers the standard Ford, flowing and longer looking, with shortened decks and a new roof for some models. Six engines are available. Fairlanes are completely new, led off by a top-line Torino series with long fenders "hopped up" a bit in their rear portion. Hard-top vent glass is eliminated; fastbacks have tinted glass for cooler driving. Falcon's rear end is restyled and glass is curved at the sides; ride is improved. Changes on style-leader Mustang include a simulated air-scoop placed just ahead of the rear wheels. Thunderbird landaus have alligator vinyl roofs. Engine cooling is improved due to new bumper slots, and new power disc brakes are standard at the front. A new wiper system eliminates the blind center areas.

Imperial: Front-end treatment is new—wider, more solid looking. The engine has a new cylinder head which "breathes" better, hence is more effective—and for the first time there is an optional performance version of this engine. A rear-seat heater and automatic temperature control are luxury touches.

Lincoln Continental: The roof is more formal on the coupe and, along with the new grille and taillights, creates a regal impression. One aim has been to encase the passengers in more comfort. Road shock through steering has been reduced, and noise and vibration in throttle and transmissions are eliminated.

Mercury: A new Montego line is bigger than the Comet group it replaces. Ventless side windows are provided. In all, the Montegos include 26 models, all the way from family jobs to two fastback hardtops, one a GT type. Mercury itself is longer (2.6 inches), has bumper air slots for better engine cooling, redesigned automatic shift, and optional front disc Secrets of Eastern Super-Men Revealed To West At Last!

PROVEN BEYOND DOUBT! Your body is hundreds of times stronger than you think! Your mind is thousands of times more powerful than you have ever dreamed!

Here's how to liberate these explosive powers that are your God-Given Right! Use them to fill up your life with dazzling new health and vitality...armies of devoted friends and supporters...wealth, power and influence far beyond your fondest dreams!

This is the startling story of a book buried by the very World War II it predicted...passed from hand to hand by the few who were fortunate enough to know of it till it became a veritable legend...and now released again for the first time in over 30 years, to prove to you that the limitations you have been led to accept for your mind and body ARE COMPLETELY FALSE!

(Right now, before you read another word, turn to the photograph below and study the towering credentials of this author. See for yourself that he was indeed a "Super-Scientist"—one of England's leading physicians, psychologists, neurologists and philosophers! And then, keep this man's unimpeachable scientific reputation firmly in mind, as you learn in this advertisement the almost-unbelievable new powers this book will liberate in every aspect of your entire life—LITERALLY OVERNIGHT!)

Here they are. Here is what this amazing book is designed to do for you, from the very first moment that you begin to skim through its pages—

1) You attain STARTLING NEW CONTROL over every part of your BODY! So thorough that you may actually will yourself to sleep in the blink of an eyelash...give yourself a full day's healthful "exercise" in minutes, without moving a muscle...shut off pain from any member of your body instantly, as though you had just given yourself a "mental anesthetic"!

2) You develop powers of CONCENTRATION, REASONING, WILL POWER so dazzling that you can actually HYPNOTIZE OTHERS without their even realizing that you are in the same room with them!

3) You then use these hypnotic powers to attain a MASTERY OF THOSE AROUND YOU so overwhelming that, if necessary, they will sacrifice their own goals for yours—will give up their own needs and desires to follow you blindly!

4) And at the same time, and equally as important, you will develop an ALMOST-INVUL-

NERABLE SHIELD AGAINST EVIL! Against the malice and hostility of others! Against bad luck, misfortune, ill health, financial reverses—before they can even BEGIN to work against you!

And 5) You will then go on to develop the "Super Powers" locked today in your unconscious—powers that you never dreamed existed until this book begins to reveal them, to you, one by one. HIDDEN "Sixth-Senses" that allow you to manufacture your own good fortune...develop telepathic insight into the deepest secrets of others...predict the future with astounding clarity...even above the physical limitations of your own body...and probe the very mysteries of life-after-death!

All These Incredible Gifts Are Yours!

But First We Must Add

Two Vital Words Of Warning!

Again, let me repeat that these techniques have been proven for thousands of years in the Orient, and that they are now being passed on to you, for the first time, by one of England's leading scientists. There is no doubt that they exist, and that they liberate almost frightening powers in the men and women who use them!

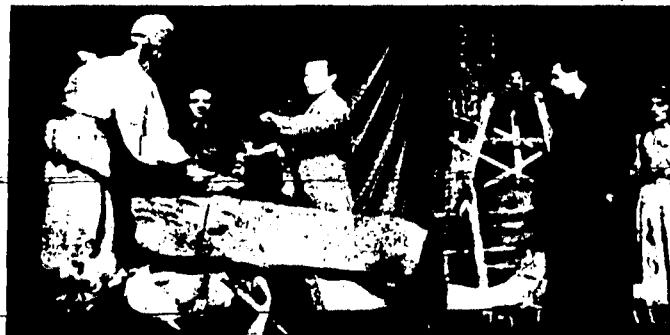

But—You Must Realize These Two Vital

Facts Concerning Them:

1) You will NOT attain them simply by "wishing" you had them! If you want this type of almost "Super-Human" power, you must be willing to work for it! To devote ten or fifteen minutes a day—EVERY DAY—to the mental exercises that develop these incredible forces within you! YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS A SINGLE DAY—nor will you want to, when you see, DAY, AFTER DAY AFTER DAY, the growing powers of concentration, reasoning, personal magnetism, bodily vitality, command over others, renewed health and vigor and all the rest THAT THESE EXERCISES ARE BUILDING UP IN YOUR BODY AS THOUGH IT WERE A GIANT GENERATOR!

2) And, even more important, by the very nature of these forces, YOU CANNOT TAP THEM UNLESS YOU ARE WILLING TO PUT THEM TO WORK FOR OTHER PEOPLE'S GOOD AS WELL AS YOUR OWN! If you wish complete control over others to direct them for their own good, these techniques will give it to you, but if you wish to turn them to evil ends, you will gain nothing! If you wish huge sums of money to build with, to make your visions a reality, these techniques will give them to you, but if you wish this money for nothing but selfish ends, you will get nothing!

This is a book for men and women with A PURPOSE in life—with dreams and goals and visions they have never before been given the power to accomplish! THESE POWERS ARE NOW AT HAND! They are yours, if you will simply stretch forward your hands to gain them!

A demonstration, before hundreds, in an English auditorium. The Yogi lies on a bed of ten thousand nails. The man with the sledge hammer is breaking a stone resting on the Yogi's body. The stone is too heavy for four men to lift it. It is broken after many attempts, but the Yogi is uninjured. Proof beyond doubt of the mind's power, when adequately trained, to ward off both pain and danger.

Here—again—is a small sampling of what awaits you in this truly incredible book.

The Magic Laws Of Nature—Revealed At Last!

How to cleanse your mind and body, with your own breath, so that your skin may actually become free of blemishes...your digestion that of a young person...your voice filled with the charm and fascination of music.

How to gain incredible personal magnetism that makes others follow your commands without question.

Why the powers of will, of concentration, and of mind-functioning that you use today are like a feeble infant to those that actually lie buried inside you.

How to achieve THOUGHT-VISUALIZATION so powerful that others standing next to you will actually be able to see, feel, be visibly moved by your thoughts, as though they were real!

The truth about FEAR. And why, if you allow it to run uncontrolled in your mind—if you do not take this one simple precaution against it—it may actually destroy your fortune by materializing the thing you fear most.

How to rid your mind forever of the deadly ideas of disease, failure and poverty.

How to DEMAND success from life! How to turn wishes into demands, and demands into inevitable reality!

The art of getting yourself ready to receive success.

The art of Masterly Inactivity! How to make great fortune COME TO YOU—far faster than if you were to pursue it 24 hours a day the wrong way!

Why some men's dreams always come true, and others always fail. Why fools often make fortunes from situations wise men avoid like the plague. Why some people attract good luck like a magnet, and others can only borrow bad luck. There IS a key! And page 55 has it!

You Have Far More Power Over Your Life Than You Have Ever Dreamed!

This Book Shows You How To Use It!

The great "Image-Mistake" (four people out of five make, that opens their bodies wide to sickness).

The science of tuning in to God. How to take a "two-week vacation" in 15 minutes, without ever leaving your chair. How to develop beautiful body muscles and posture by practicing "imaginary" exercises. How to attain the "perfect" state of relaxation—lie in stock, effortless ease on your bed that it is virtually impossible for you not to fall asleep.

Why do bad things happen to you? Learn for the first time how most people literally TUNE IN to bad luck! And how to shut it out of your life as though you were slamming down a window on a draft!

How to STOP LETTING OTHERS SHAPE YOUR WORLD FOR YOU! And start shaping life TO YOUR OWN ENDS—TOMORROW! When the first youth has faded from your body, a second youth still remains to be tapped. Here's how to develop it—overnight.

Why pain is an illusion. And how this simple technique of controlling your nerve-reactions can prove it to you in a few short minutes.

Do we live again? Is there a Grand Cycle of Life that knows of no mortality? Read page 176, and discover why the answer is overwhelmingly YES!

How You May

Never Take a Laxative Again!

New Miracle Regulator
Helps Relief Come
Naturally

New York, N.Y. (Special)—
Research has discovered a wonder-working substance that helps correct constipation without laxatives!

Doctors say most constipation occurs when waste loses moisture in the colon. To give relief, laxatives have to force action—flush, irritate or distend the intestine.

The new miracle substance works in a completely different way. It helps natural moisture in the colon work more effectively.
Thus by working on the problem, not on you, it helps correct constipation as no laxative can.

This discovery is now available under the name REGUTOL. It is not habit-forming. No warning on the label—no prescription needed.
Try REGUTOL—you may never take a laxative again!

brakes. The Cougar series has a larger standard engine, a softer front suspension, and offers a high-performance GT-E series.

Oldsmobile: Large restyling is quickly evident. Engines are larger, transmissions are recal-ibrated, and rear axles are reduced in ratio—the philosophy being to provide the same or better performance along with greater economy.

Wheel cylinders are enlarged —meaning better braking. A new tilt-telescope wheel boasts an industry first—a narrow contact ring of plastic which circles the entire wheel so you can squeeze it anywhere and blow the horn.

Plymouth: Silhouette lowered and styling pleasingly improved.
A new coupe also comes in a performance model, the Road Runner, the first such offered in the low-priced class. A new lightweight engine of 275 hp is designed by Plymouth for fast
"breathing" through big intake and exhaust ports, aided by a high lift cam.

Pontiac: Front ends are remarkably cohesive, what with a wide, deep bumper which gathers most components together.
Most bodies have vinyl plastic inserts on the sides—both protective and decorative. Ride has been softened, thanks to suspension redesign. Tempests have a really novel innovation on GTO models—a plastic-encased bumper which dents in the ordinary way when you run into something but which gently straightens itself out a moment or so after the impact.

Rambler: American Motors'
Javelin, in two variations, is a brand-new car in every sense—a two-door sports hardtop made for four-passenger use. The hood is long and the deck short;
the effect pleasing. Vent windows are eliminated. A new three-speed all-synchronous transmission is standard; there are three other options. Ambassadors are restyled front and rear. Rebel hoods are new. The American's roof is redesigned.

What does it all add up to?
Briefly, the 1968 lines please the eye as well as give more safety and comfort—achievements that should please all U.S. auto buyers this year. ♦

What You Should Know About the New Tires

By BOB FENDELL

LET'S SET the record straight. Tires have as much to do with the performance of your car as brakes, steering, and suspension. They also play a major role in safety.

Naturally, tire companies are always trying to produce a better product, and they have come up with three major developments in the 1968 models. Strangely enough, auto racing contributed the first of these improvements—the wide-section design. The other modifications are the radial-ply (belted) tire and new cord materials.

Besides giving the car a sporting look, the wide-section tires make a "footprint" up to 20 percent larger than the conventional tire, increasing stability, braking power, and handling. Wide-tracks, unfortunately, are not for everyone. Many cars simply do not have enough clearance in the wheel wells or are not equipped with the proper steering and suspension systems necessary to take advantage of the wide-section ride.

Radial-ply tires have been called the design of the future since they improve traction, handling, last much longer, and resist cuts and punctures. There are certain side effects, however—mainly a harsher, noisier ride at low speeds in some American cars.

Carcass plies crisscross in the conventional tire; thus they are called bias-ply tires. The plies in a radial are arranged at right angles, the sidewall plies running radially from the center of a circle and the stiffener belt running in the same direction as the tire tread. Because of this construction, the tread is supported more firmly, and the tire rolls more easily. The sidewalls, however, have more flexibility, and sometimes the radials seem to be flattening when, in fact, they are not.

If you wish to invest in only two radials (some companies sell only sets of four), put them on the rear wheels since bias-ply tires will not hold the road properly behind radials. A careful wheel balance is also essential in such a case.

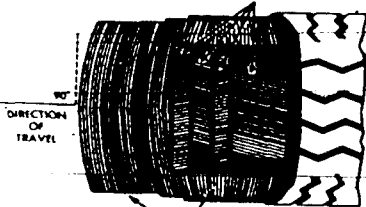

Another major improvement is the tire cord. Man-made fibers have long dominated. Rayon rides softer, but nylon is more durable and more resistant to heat build-up, a major enemy of all tires. On the other hand, less costly nylons have a tendency to flat-spot (it feels as if you have square wheels) until they warm up.

Now there are two more entries—polyester and fiber glass. Polyester seems to combine the better qualities of both rayon and nylon, but the yarn supply is limited and relatively expensive. Fiber glass runs cooler and has great dimensional stability.

When you choose among the new tires—most of which fall into the higher-price categories—base your decision on the worst driving conditions you will encounter. For instance, if you use a trailer or do much turnpike driving, consider radials or wide-sections rather than conventional tires. If you carry heavy loads—as in a station wagon—look at the new eight-ply-rated four-ply tires.

In the near future we can look for continued progress in tire technology. This year some lucky car owners will be able to fit wide-section radials, with an even better footprint. And, as car suspensions improve, new rubber and improved versions of the current cords promise a footprint as stable as if you drove on rails. ♦

Artificial Teeth Never Felt So Natural Before

Now... Plastic Cream Discovery Revolutionizes Denture Wearing

For the first time science now offers a unique plastic cream that holds your false teeth almost like Nature herself holds natural teeth. It forms an elastic membrane that holds both "uppers" and "lowers" as never before.

It's FIXODENT—a revolutionary discovery for daily home use. So different it's protected by U.S. Patent #3,003,988.

FIXODENT not only holds dentures firmer, but it holds them more comfortably, too.

Because FIXODENT stays so elastic, it helps absorb painful shock

Thus with FIXODENT you may now eat faster, bite harder... without pain. You may even enjoy apples, steak, corn-on-the-cob again.

FIXODENT's special pencil-point dispenser lets you put it exactly where it's needed. Avoids oozing over and gagging.

What's more, FIXODENT resists liquids that can dissolve other adhesives. Just one application may last 'round-the-clock.

Remember, dentures that fit are essential to health. So see your dentist regularly. Get FIXODENT today at all drug counters.

Our agents keep earning laurels but never rest on them.

Every life insurance company likes to think its Agents are best. We feel that way about ours—and with very good reason. Year after year after year, they keep winning industry-wide awards and honors.

Example? The elite Million Dollar Round Table: When annual memberships are announced, our Agents regularly walk off with far, far more than their share. (This past year, we had more Agents who qualified than any other life insurance company.)

And let's not forget the ladies: For the 24th consecutive year, New York Life had the greatest number of women Agents who qualified for membership in the Women Leaders Round Table.

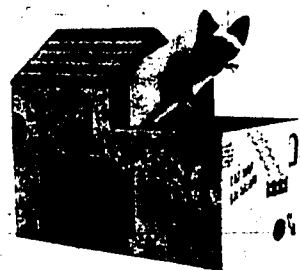

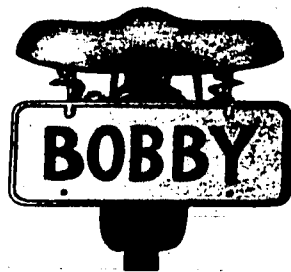

We could go on!...

Our secret? We select our Agents carefully. Then we train them. Long and hard. So they can do a better job for you.

In other words, they keep in winning form by serving you. If you're a New York Life policy owner, you know what we mean.
