

No Copper Strike Talks Are Planned

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Negotiations are in progress and none have been scheduled in the nationwide copper strike, now in its 101st day.

Close to 50,000 workers have been idled by the strike which some observers say may only be somewhere near the halfway point.

When the strike began July 15, the Commerce Department

Mia Farrow's Sister Opens Yoga Institute

BOSTON (AP)—Prudence Farrow, 19, who says she once wanted to be a nun, opened a Yoga institute Sunday in a rented room in Arlington Street Church, a Unitarian-Universalist congregation in the heart of Boston.

Miss Farrow, sister of Mia Farrow Sinatra, said "The hippies are the most interested in Yoga, but quite a few of the people who come are elderly—you know, 35 or 36, not hippie at all."

Miss Farrow said she was in the grotto of the Roman Catholic shrine at Lourdes, France, when she decided to study Yoga in 1966. She said she tried LSD before she tried Yoga.

Her teacher was a disciple of Maharshi Mahesh Yoga, described as a favorite teacher of the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. Mrs. Sinatra has announced plans to visit Maharshi in India.

Miss Farrow said her mother, actress Maureen O'Sullivan, also is interested in Yoga.

Carnival Set For Friday At Richfield

RICHFIELD — Richfield PTA members made plans for the fund raising Carnival Friday, approved the budget, and heard a legislative program at the Thursday night meeting held at the elementary school.

Girl Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Cliff, gave the opening flag ceremony. Junior high school girls sang two numbers with their music teacher, Mrs. L. T. Sanders, as piano accompanist.

Project selected for the year was a new stereo for the high school with the PTA paying $100 on the purchase price.

The budget of $326.50 includes $50 for purchase of Christmas candy for the annual community treat sacks for children.

Mrs. LeRoy Magoffin conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Everett Ward, president. As membership chairman, Mrs. Magoffin announced dues would continue at 50c per person.

Mrs. Udell Robinson announced room mothers for the year with booths at the carnival to be in charge of the room mothers.

Supt. F. R. Briggs presented the legislative program with the unit approving most of the proposed legislative measures or PTA concerns to be voted on at the Nov. 2-3 convention in Twin Falls.

Some exceptions the Richfield PTA did not favor were increasing school financing by an increase in sales tax, public school kindergartens, consolidation of either non-high school districts or high school districts, and changing the Average daily attendance to average daily membership was not favored.

The second grade and freshman class were winners of the month's parent attendance prize. The eighth grade room mothers were in charge of serving.

The Friday night carnival will start at 6:30 p.m. at the grade school. Serving will be in the cafeteria with hamburgers, barbecued hamburgers, hotdogs, plate lunches, pie, doughnuts, coffee, and punch to be sold. Executive board of the PTA is in charge of serving.

Carnival booths will feature milk can throw by the first grade; five and ten cent fish ponds by the second and third grades; dart throw, fourth; cake walk, fifth; candy and popcorn, sixth; bean bag throw, seventh; and bingo booth, eighth.

The sophomore class will be in charge of the dance for high school students.

The community is invited to support the carnival which is the one big fund raising project of the PTA.

Hospital Costs May Rise Greatly

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hospital costs may soon average $100 a day.

This is the conclusion of a study issued Sunday by the Brookings Institute. It is based on a projection from cost increases which have run 7 or 8 per cent annually for nearly 20 years, but which have been rising at an even higher rate in the last two years.

The basic, per-person charge for hospitalization in a semiprivate room for two patients now runs $40 a day in most Washington-area hospitals.

Glens Ferry Senior Class Float Wins

GLENS FERRY—The senior class float showing a fountain portrayal won first prize of $30 at the Glens Ferry Homecoming parade Friday afternoon.

The freshmen won second prize with their float depicting "New Arrivals." The sophomore float was entitled, "Spirit of Glens Ferry" won $10 and the juniors were fourth with their theme "Burro-in to Win," complete with a football boy and live but rather impatient burro.

The drill team, the "Pilotettes," received $5 as the winning marching group and $1 prizes were given to each of the two winners in the individual groups, pre-school, first through third and fourth through sixth.

Phyllis McCleary was named queen of the Homecoming event. Tere Meserole was senior princess, Viki Sellers was junior, Mary Egusquiza was sophomore princess and Vangie Gonzales, freshman princess.

Parade judges were Mrs. Ila Belliston, Milford Fletcher, Mrs. Carolyn Stafford, Mrs. Claudia Whitten and Mrs. Charles Meserole.

Booths were maintained along the first block of East Idaho Avenue, offering foodstuffs for sale during the afternoon festivities.

After the game with Wendell in the evening, a dance in the Glens Ferry City Hall concluded the event.

Weary Tabulators Sort Winners In Vietnam Vote

By GEORGE MCARTHUR SAIGON (AP)—Weary tabulators continued to sort winners today from among 1,200 candidates for South Vietnam's House of Representatives and the only assurance with two-thirds of the 137 seats decided was that the body would be widely varied.

Court Gives Power In Rights Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department won a chance today in the Supreme Court to bring greater federal power to bear on violators of Negroes' rights.

In a case from Georgia, the court agreed to decide if an 1870 civil rights law can be used to criminally punish private individuals who interfere with—or physically harm—Negroes using restaurants and other public facilities.

The court said in a brief order that it would hear the department's appeal later this term.

WIDOW ARRIVES
TOKYO (AP)—Mrs. Oigi Vanna Wright, widow of American architect Frank Lloyd Wright, arrived Sunday to back a movement to preserve the Imperial Hotel, designed by her husband.

in the past 13 months, about 40 seats were still in doubt. The candidates assured of victory in Sunday's voting ranged from government supporters to some thinly disguised neutralists. It remained impossible to assess the political complexion of the assembly.

Officials said that the final unofficial tallies should be available by tonight, except for some from remote provinces.

The known returns insured that the government of President-elect Nguyen Van Thieu, who will be inaugurated Oct. 31, will have to deal with both a House and a Senate of varied political hues.

The 60-man Senate elected last month divided more or less along opposition, progovernment and independent lines. The House promises to split into even more groups.

Outwardly this would make Thieu's prospects a bit gloomy. However, much horse trading remains to be done before the new constitutional institutions shake down.

In addition, under the constitution, Thieu retains for the first presidential term some wide powers—such as the naming of province chiefs. These were granted to placate the military and insure that the prosecution of the war was not overly restricted by bickering legislators.

South Vietnamese officials and the U.S. Embassy were generally content with the turnout 72.9 per cent of the nation's 5.8 million registered voters.

While this fell well below the 83 per cent in September's presidential election it was considered a respectable figure in a war-torn nation with the Communist guerrillas threatening terror at the polling places. The threatened terror largely failed to materialize. Official government figures said six South Vietnamese soldiers and six civilians died in period during and immediately preceding the voting.

The "Wild" Teens

With social critics, as with anything else, you pays your money and you takes your choice.

We are, warns one, in the midst of "the most critical delinquency problem in the history of our nation."

David Wilkerson, a young Pennsylvania clergyman, went to the slums of New York to found Teen Challenge, a center dedicated to working with juvenile delinquents. Similar centers have been established in a score of cities.

In 10 years of helping kids in trouble, he has dealt personally with an average of 600 teen-age narcotics addicts and a much larger number of other delinquents a year.

Telling about his experiences in a new book, "Parents on Trial," he claims that teen-age rebellion is a reflection of youth's loss of confidence in adult society.

Delinquency can strike any home, he has learned, not just impoverished slum dwellings. But well-to-do suburban delinquents are protected by their parents, say Wilkerson, and thus encouraged to commit more crimes.

They become "hidden delinquents," unpunished and unrecorded in crime statistics, while city children are sent to reformatories to begin the trail from one penal institution to another.

Another commentator, however, dismisses the general hand-wringing over the state of teen-age morals as so much nonsense.

Today's kids are in great part the victims of garbled statistics that don't always differentiate between malice and mischief, says social historian Frank R. Donovan.

After a study of teen-age behavior from savage societies to the present, to be published as a forthcoming book called "Wild Kids," he concludes that "in almost every area of juvenile activity youngsters of yore make today's kids seem relatively saintly."

He cites such instances as a Victorian advertisement offering "ladies from 14 years of age to be disposed of by auction." Today, teen-age prostitution is virtually nonexistent.

He further claims that youngsters of earlier times drank more than they do today and that the demonstrations at Berkeley and elsewhere look like Sunday School picnics compared to the university riots of old when students used to fight it out with the faculty with swords and cudgels.

There were the infamous gang wars of 19th-century New York when boys barricaded the streets and fought hand-to-hand with the police. A report of the city's Board of Metropolitan Police more than 100 years ago stated that not even pagan Rome ever witnessed "a more rapid and frightful declension in morals... among certain classes of the young."

He reports that homes for unwed mothers in the 1920s were filled with young girls, while the '30s were rampant with wandering bands of teen-age vagrants.

Actually, says Donovan, past society controlled adolescent behavior in fewer areas and over a shorter span of years than does today's so-called permissive society.

So sayeth two men. And as is usually the case with differing opinions, the true picture of modern youth probably lies somewhere between the two extremes.

The fact that things were worse in the past in no way dismisses the very real problems that worry us today.

Yet neither is it likely that human society has endured all these centuries only to enable us to record its dissolution.

Viet Confusion

"Killing a person in Vietnam is murder," James A. Pike told students at the University of Dayton the other day, recommending that any among them who believed in the war "should drop his deferment, go over there and kill, kill, kill."

Furthermore, "If a person thinks the war in Vietnam is O.K., I would advise him to wear a pin with the words, 'Kill a Commie for Christ.'"

For the controversial former Episcopal bishop of California, what was once gray to him has now turned into sharp black and white—"My position on the war has moved from mild hawk to violent dove"—and anyone who does not agree with him is morally suspect.

Presumably, if the United States had met quick success in ending the Communist attempt to take over South Vietnam a year or two ago, Pike would not have been blessed with his present enlightenment and today would stand approvingly, if unwittingly, among the rest of us as accessories to murder.

For if the war is murder now, it was just as much murder then.

No one need apologize for changing his mind, of course, whether it involves Vietnam, the Trinity or anything else. Many Americans, including the most prominent, have moved into the dove ranks, and more are doing it every day as the casualty tolls mount on both sides. Times may well prove Pike absolutely right about Vietnam.

Many millions of others, however, have got to the point where they don't know what to think about the war. They look for some sort of dispassionate and reasoned guidance from the nation's intellectual leaders, of whom Pike is one, or at least plays the role of one.

But they will know even less what to think as the result of this emotional outburst that tells them that their natural, patriotic support of their President is nothing but a mask for murder in their hearts. In fact, it may even start them to thinking just the opposite of what Rev. Pike wants.

The churchman's words help no one. If anything, they will only serve to solidify opinions on both sides into mental concrete.

DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Back in April federal Housing and Urban Development officials advised the city and county that they should set up a single planning group made up of elected officials.

Its purpose was to coordinate planning, primarily for sewer development. Boise is now in a planning mode. The state has made no secret of it.

The Statesman carried a story April 11 saying that the Federal Housing Administration said it couldn't continue to insure mortgages in Northwest Boise because of water contamination — until area governments began work on an over-all sewer and water plan.

A Statesman editorial on April 18 said it was regrettable that pressure for this planning was coming from the federal agency, but that it was needed. Sewers represent a costly, long-range investment and money can be wasted in helter-skelter development.

It was reported on June 20 that the City Council had approved creation of a planning body. Other stories about the Planning Council appeared on June 9, June 22 and July 6.

We think it is good business for the local governments to cooperate in their sewer, water and transportation planning. Some cooperation already has been achieved under a less formal arrangement.

The Council will be made up of elected officials. Its jurisdiction will be limited to saying yes or no to applications of the municipalities and the county for federal funds. But it also will provide a forum to consider common problems.

There may be concern on the far right that this is a step toward metropolitan government. We think it is a step that can help avoid metropolitan government. The county and the municipalities of Ada County have so far done too little work together.

WASHINGTON—Casting aside their customary caution, a clutch of Far Eastern experts in the State Department is betting that Mao Tze-tung's Cultural Revolution is dead in Communist China.

This is not to say that Mao's campaign to impose 100 per cent pure Communism on the people will be abandoned forthwith.

The Cultural Revolution will continue to be a dramatic by-word, possibly for years to come, in line with the policy of Communist nations never to acknowledge mistakes. But from here in, say these experts, China seems likely to go on to a kind of moderation and consolidation, which would be officially described as a move toward "perfecting" the "gains" of the Cultural Revolution.

In effect, of course, such a zig would be a defeat for Mao — but a defeat no one would ever mention. There has been no clear-cut showdown and there probably will not be. It is the Chinese style to make changes or abandon a certain course without permitting any mention

This was a defeat not only for Mao but for the younger extremists in the military who wanted to take over.

As a result, Chou appears to have a solid base for any moves he might make to challenge Mao's leadership. He has always had the support of the national economy to whom Mao's revolution was a peril to their orderly plans, and the younger bureaucrats who saw the chaos endangering their future and seniority. With the army behind him, Chou could become the Chinese version of the man on horseback and take it all.

His history, however, offers no indication that Chou has such ambitions. He has been content in the past to be a kind of glibly nagging devil's advocate, working his will with Mao but never seeking to supplant him. He opposed Mao's Industrial "Great Leap Forward" in 1958, but was satisfied to lead the forces against collectivism without coming out in direct opposition to Mao, a neat trick in China's political jungle.

Chou is now 68 and perhaps feels his most effective — and safest — role is that of the chief administrator of the Chinese state. His brilliant record in that role guarantees he'll be sought after whichever side wins the power struggle sure to come after Mao's death.

Open The Mail And Learn

NEW YORK (AP)— Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Diet-conscious Americans now eat 177 eggs each a year for breakfast, which pleases those doctors who think most of us need more protein.

Some women of delicate appetite say they eat no more than a bird. They usually don't say what bird they have in mind, but it couldn't be a baby robin. Shortly after being hatched, those tiny birds need 14 feet of earthworms a day to satisfy their hunger.

Flight to freedom: Since Fidel Castro came to power in 1959, one in every 21 Cubans—some 370,000—has fled to the United States for refuge, and 700,000 more are listed as hoping to.

Quotable notables: "Don't put no restrictions on da people. Leave 'em ta hell alone."—Jimmy Durante.

Lack of prosperity note:

Poverty is a human not just a racial problem. According to U.S. government figures, in 1966 there were 20.1 million poor white people in America and 9.6 million poor Negroes.

Odd types of insurance: You not only can insure your pet dog or cat today, you can also insure your home for damages resulting from poor design, workmanship or materials. Loyds of London offers such a policy.

Cost of government: Someone has figured out that the average American now works 89 days a year to earn the 37 per cent of his income that goes to pay his federal, state and city taxes. That means you're in the month of May before you start working for yourself.

Spooky: We worry about witches and hobgoblins only one night of the year—on Halloween. But the National Geographic Society reports that Mustang, a mountain kingdom in Nepal, is haunted year-round by 416 assorted demons of land, sky, fire and water. A demon trap hangs over the doorway of every home there to frighten away these ghostly intruders.

Worth remembering: "It's impossible for a woman to be married to the same man for 50 years. After the first 25, he's not the same man."

Folklore: Whistling in a home or office brings bad luck. When gulls fly inland, storms are brewing; when gulls fly seaward, the weather will stay fair. Some waiters believe that if the first customer leaves a big tip, their tips for the rest of the day will be small. If you turn a photograph of someone to the wall, evil spirits will attack him.

It was Fred Alle who observed, "A conference is a gathering of important people who singly can do nothing, but together can decide that nothing can be done."

PAUL HARVEY

Home First Aid

A large charity fund needs to be done in two Mississippi counties. What will it cost?

Some poor people there who are not otherwise provided for need orders of food and the payment of 125 utility bills. And 128 of these families need help with their rent.

There is urgent need for more than 1,000 items of essential clothing and 260 sick people need money to have prescriptions filled.

When you have helped to heal those home folks' hurts and thus have alleviated much sorrow, sickness and distress, there are transients in town needing 4,000 places to sleep, 16,000 meals and more than 100 will need assistance with cash.

Among those transients 298 must have transportation, 900 need clothing, 300 are women and children who must have other aid.

Obviously, all this is going to cost a bundle, but what I'm asking is, how much?

In addition, personnel must be provided to make 1,895 personal visits to shut-ins and lonely persons in jails, rest homes, Veterans' Administration hospital.

For 800 less fortunate persons in these two counties let's provide a Christmas dinner. For the 1,409 children in those households let's supply toys.

You'll have 500 applicants wanting some of this Christmas aid, so you'll have to supply the personnel to sort them and such chores are tedious and expensive.

Indeed, this is a disaster of such proportions that we might have to call in the Army.

Matter of fact, that is the only way I know it can be done — by the Salvation Army.

And all the chores, help and handouts which I have described were administered last year by the Salvation Army in Hinds and Jackson counties in Mississippi on a total budget from the United Givers' Fund of $55,807.

Because the Salvation Army got some other money from some other sources, I am not listing many other services performed and not mentioning the compassionate care and the kindly interest and the Christ-oriented ministry which it provides to countless thousands.

The Salvation Army tended to all acute needs — all those groceries, rents, meals, garments, gifts, prescriptions, transportation — at an average cost of less than $5 per person.

The Salvation Army thus tended to the most urgent needs of two counties with a population of 243,000 on a budget of $55,807.

Leave this much welfare to government to administer and look out!

Federal government poverty experts allotted $32,874 to help Beverly Hills, Calif., where there were only six wealthy families.

The Federal Office of Economic Opportunity is spending $208,741 just to teach 40 Zuni Indians to make jewelry.

Seventy per cent of the poverty program budget in Hartford, Conn., is spent on salaries.

Charity which begins and ends at home still costs money but when government does the same job on a cost-plus basis, the overhead is astronomical and the impersonal results are comparatively negligible.

Choose your this day which way.

WAYNE BRANDSTADT, M.D.

On Tongue-Tie

In earlier centuries in Europe most babies were thought to be tongue-tied at birth and many midwives routinely severed the "bridle" or chord under the tongue with their fingernails.

Things took a turn for the better in 1776 when the court physician in Sweden announced that in all his years of practice he had never seen an infant that was truly tongue-tied. He had, however, seen several who had choked to death when, after the chord had been snipped, the unfortunate infant had swallowed his tongue.

True tongue-tie occurs in only about one in 3,000 infants. Many parents still ask their doctor to snip the chord of their infants and blame their child's slowness to learn to talk on tongue-tie. In many cases, as the child uses his tongue for speaking, the supposed tongue-tie corrects itself automatically.

To test whether your baby is tongue-tied, all you need to do is to take a dry cotton-tipped applicator and touch the junction of the skin and red mucosa of his lower lip and the two corners of his mouth. He will try to lick it away and, if he succeeds in touching the cotton with his tongue, he is not tongue-tied.

An older child who is tongue-tied will have difficulty making the sounds "d," "n" and "t," the only sounds that require him to touch the roof of his mouth with his tongue. He may also have trouble learning to play a wind instrument. If true tongue-tie exists, it should be corrected but this does not insure proper pronunciation. A course of speech therapy may be required.

In some cases the real trouble is a paralysis of the nerves that control the tongue. If this is the cause an operation will not benefit the child. If your child does need an operation to free his tongue, it should not be done before his fourth birthday. A simple snipping of the cord is not recommended because this operation is frequently followed by a recurrence of the tongue-tie. A plastic operation is required to prevent the cut surfaces from growing together again.

Q—My son, 6, has geographic tongue. The doctor says there is nothing to do for it. What do you think?

A—In this condition patchy reddened areas with sharp but shifting borders appear on the tongue. Unless your son makes a habit of sticking his tongue out, no one but you, your son and the doctor will know he has it. No treatment is necessary as the condition is harmless.

Leon Trotsky Ignored In New History

MOSCOW (AP) — One of Russia's most famous revolutionaries, Leon Trotsky, is virtually ignored in a new party history of the 1917 Bolshevik seizure of power. The new book reiterates a rewriting of history dating back to Stalin's days to assail Trotsky and portray him as merely one of many Communists who took part in the revolution. The book also mentions the late Soviet dictator, Joseph V. Stalin, by name 36 times, mostly in routine listings of persons attending meetings. Trotsky is considered by Western historians second in importance only to the leader of the Communist seizure of power, V. I. Lenin. But the 603-page history, issued this weekend, devotes little attention to Trotsky's role in the revolution. It does not mention the fact that he was instrumental in activities in Petrograd—now Leningrad—leading up to the Nov. 7 Communist take-over and the fact that he founded the Red army after the revolution. Instead, the volume—Book 1 of Part 3 in the official history of the party—repeats Stalin-era charges that Trotsky was anti-Leninist. Covering the tumultuous period from March, 1917, to March 1918, the book repeats charges that Trotsky was guilty of a "lack of faith in the internal forces of the revolution" because he demanded that world revolution come before building Communism in Russia.

Rep. Udall Alters War Policy Stand

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., saying he was wrong two years ago, has called for a change in U.S. Vietnam policy. His speech before the Sunday Evening Forum in Tucson was a switch from his previous pro-administration stand on Vietnam. "I believe this nation of ours has the brains, the know-how, the courage, the imagination to begin to extricate itself from a war we should never have blundered into," he said. MINIKIMONOS TOKYO (AP) — Twiggy, 17-year-old British model who helped to popularize miniskirts, said Monday she likes kimonos but she doesn't believe minikimonos will sell.

Lynda Bird Excited As She Makes Wedding Plans

By FRANCES LEWINE Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Lynda Johnson says she is excited and "very, very happy" as she prepares for her Dec. 9 White House wedding — but "scared to death" about housekeeping. The President's 23-year-old daughter frankly admits "I'm not very domestic" and, except for things like brownies, "I don't know how to cook anything." In talks with reporters, Lynda reveals a romantic, exuberant and anything-but-practical approach to her forthcoming marriage to 28-year-old Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb of Milwaukee, Wis. She says "Chuck and I have never discussed money matters," and she doesn't even know how much Robb makes as a Marine captain—"I never asked him." It happens to be about $611 a month. But Lynda herself is a substantial heiress and holds a part-time magazine job.

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — Utah Gov. Calvin L. Rampton says most of the Republican governors attending the National Governors Conference would like to have voted for his resolution backing President Johnson's Vietnam policies. "But they went against their convictions for purely political motives," he said. In a telephone interview with a Salt Lake City radio station, Rampton said the GOP governors "are attempting to keep their party in a fluid position so they can attack the President on either flank, depending on whether the war goes well or poorly." Rampton and Texas Gov. John B. Connally offered the resolution for wartime unity but only one GOP governor would vote to have it even considered at the conference. "The attacks which are being made on the President by Govs. Ronald Reagan and George Romney are politically motivated," Rampton said.

As newlyweds, they plan to rent a furnished apartment or house in or near Washington for the brief time Robb has before he leaves around the end of February for a year's duty in Vietnam. Lynda doesn't know yet where they'll honeymoon. But, she's already talking about a trip to the Far East to join her husband when he "gets R and R" — rest and recuperation leave for which Marines are eligible after six months in Vietnam. She says she may join him "God willing" in Hawaii or in Australia which her service set friends tell her is currently "very popular."

Beyond Robb's Vietnam tour, the plans of the young couple remain undecided. Lynda was asked whether Robb might eventually leave the Marines and take a job with the Johnson family radio-television station in Texas like her brother-in-law, Patrick Nugent. "I don't think anyone knows what he's going to do," Lynda replied. "He's going to Vietnam. When he gets back that will be his decision. We haven't discussed it."

Lynda will take a leave of absence Nov. 1 from her magazine job and return to it when Robb goes to Vietnam. She's not sure if she'll stay in their rented quarters or go back to live in the White House then. Lynda says she'll miss the White House, especially "the service." She admits she's "very lazy" and "I'll miss having someone to make phone calls and all the other things."

As for her domestic plans, Lynda says she hopes to learn to cook. Happily, she notes that nowadays there are frozen foods to fall back on. Lynda stood up gaily under a

"I'm not going to give out the names of anyone on the guest list," Lynda declared. She said the hardest thing about the wedding is making out the guest list. Some 500 friends and relatives are going to be invited. Lynda says they'll all have to stand during the Episcopal wedding ceremony because of space limitations in the historic East Room. "It will be a White House wedding with military flavor," Lynda said. She plans to wear a long white wedding gown not yet selected—with long sleeves "because I happen to like long sleeves." Robb will wear his military uniform. Lynda isn't sure they'll have room for the traditional military touch—an archway of crossed swords.

GIRL WINS TROPHY
BOISE (AP) — Pocatello's Barbara Boren, 17-year-old go kart driver, took home the big overall winner's trophy after some 31 buzzing go karts finished a 100-mile endurance race Sunday at Gowen Field.

The race, last of those sponsored by the EE-De-How Kart Club, Boise, drew drivers from four Pacific Northwest states to climax the year's activities.

ENROLLMENT UP
BOISE (AP) — A nearly one per cent increase in enrollment in Idaho public schools was reported by the Idaho Department of Education.

Superintendent of Public Instruction D. F. Engelking said total enrollment was 176,104, or .9 per cent higher than last fall.

Enrollment was slightly below last fall in elementary schools, but a higher than usual high school enrollment boosted the average, he said.

Engelking said totals at end of the school year are usually four per cent higher than in the fall because of students moving in during the year.

Enrollment at private elementary and secondary schools is less this year, he said.

2 Candidates Filed For 3 Dietrich Jobs

DIETRICH — Petitions were filed in Dietrich for Dick Rolce, mayor for a four-year term, and Homer Anderson, councilman for a four-year term.

There will be two councilmen voted into office, but since no petition was filed for the second one, this will be done by write-in votes.

Dorothy Edwards is judge of the election board, with Anna Dormier and Anna Lauer as clerks. Appointed as alternates were Genola Bradley, Gail Heiken, Anna Clegg and Vern Anderson.

The election will be held from 12 noon to 8 p.m. Nov. 7 at the Dietrich Grange Hall.

Tree Planting Project Slated

RICHFIELD — Plans for a Richfield beautification program have been started by the Richfield Lions Club with a tree planting planned as the first step.

Over 200 seedling trees have been ordered for spring delivery to be grown on a special lot or by individuals or clubs desiring to participate in the endeavor.

Melvin Pope, Lions Club president, named Lyle Piper, John Lemmon, and Norman Albrethsen to select a lot site.

Johnson Would Be Unable To Defeat 3 Republicans

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson would be unable to defeat the leading three Republicans mentioned as presidential candidates if any election was held today, according to the latest Gallup Poll.

The poll, conducted between Oct. 6-11, found that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., would fare better than Johnson but would not be able to get former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Pollsters asked the following question of 1,585 persons in 320 localities across the nation: "Suppose the presidential election were held today. If (candidate's name) were the Democratic candidate and (candidate's name) were the Republican candidate, which would you like to see win?"

A Nixon-Johnson race showed 49 per cent for Nixon, 45 per cent for Johnson and 6 per cent undecided. It was the first time that Nixon has shown greater strength than Johnson in the Gallup Poll.

Despairing insistence that he is not a candidate, Rockefeller holds an even wider lead over the President—54 per cent to 40 per cent with 6 per cent unde-

BEGINS DUTIES
KELLOGG, Idaho (AP) — A Coeur d'Alene man has begun duties as the new president of the North Idaho Chamber of Commerce.

He succeeds University of Idaho business college dean David Kendrick. The group will hold its spring meeting in Lewiston.

New Math Is Explained At PTA Session

SHOSHONE — A program on new math and new ways in English was given at the October PTA meeting, officers announced after the meeting Thursday.

Dale Chatterton, local math teacher, and V. C. Ross, teacher at Richfield, were featured speakers on the subject.

Mrs. Floyd Kisting, Dietrich, reviewed legislation to be voted upon at the convention to be held in Twin Falls Nov. 1-3.

Voting delegates to that from the local unit are Mrs. Burton Thorne, president, Mrs. Doyle Bennett and Mrs. Ray Tanaka.

Mrs. Elwin Webb, membership chairman, reported 33 paid members at this time and issued an invitation to all parents and interested persons to join the PTA. She said envelopes for membership payment will be sent home through school children.

Richard Jensen gave the PTA prayer. Refreshments were served by the junior and senior classroom representatives.

Mrs. Dorothy Vlayton's fourth grade won the attendance prize for the evening.

Death Takes Mrs. Brown

BUHL — Mrs. Alma Brown, 68, Buhl, died at her home Friday of a short illness.

She was born July 15, 1899, at Corpus Christi, Tex., and was married to Frank Brown Oct. 25, 1947, in Elko, Nev. She came to the Buhl area in 1942, and she had lived here since.

Mrs. Brown belonged to the Jehovah's Witnesses. Survivors include her husband, Buhl; two sisters, Mrs. J. C. (Connie) Elliot, Brownwood, Tex., and Mrs. Essie Schmitt, Buhl; three brothers, Leo Holcomb, Twin Falls; Frank C. Holcomb, Oroquieta, Calif.; and B. M. Holcomb, Boise, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Albertson-Dickard Funeral Chapel by Vern Shaw, Twin Falls. Final rites will be held in the Buhl Cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel Monday until 8 p.m.

Therapist Hired

SHOSHONE — Mrs. Marilyn Packer has been hired as a speech therapist for the Shoshone, Dietrich and Richfield school systems. She works two days a week, dividing the time where needed.

Mrs. Packer is a graduate of Brigham Young University and moved here with her husband, Scott, who is employed by the Bureau of Land Management.

Catholic Synod Of Bishops Goes Into Last Week With Much Action Ahead

By GERALD MILLER
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Synod of Bishops went into its final week today with action on its most important topics still ahead.

The tasks:
—Finish debate on liturgy changes.
—Hear and pass on a committee's report on doctrine and theology, the main issue being modern trends and tradition.
—Vote on whether to propose to Pope Paul VI changes in the Church's mixed marriage rules.
—Attend a meeting of the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras, who is scheduled to arrive for a historic, three-day Christian unity visit Thursday.
—Draft an appeal for world peace.

There was speculation the peace appeal might coincide with a new move by the Pope for an end to the Vietnam war. There have been indications in the Vatican press that a new papal attempt to foster peace in Southeast Asia was in the offing.

The most awaited developments are those dealing with doctrine and theology and the mixed marriage vote.

The synod elected a committee Oct. 12 to formulate a document on doctrine.

In debate on that topic the synod heard clashing views on the extent to which modern theological trends were endangering traditional Church teaching. A document prepared by Vatican observers was expected to vote on mixed marriages to show greater differences of opinion than were revealed the synod's only other two votes—on canon law and seminaries.

A large number of bishops came out for some liberalization of the Church's restrictions on Catholics marrying outside their faith, but there were sharp differences over how far the changes should go.

The bishops will be asked eight questions in the mixed marriage vote. One of these is whether the Church should ease its requirements for assurances that the children of mixed marriages be raised as Catholics.

Another is whether it should drop its rule that for validity such marriages must be performed before a Catholic priest and two witnesses.

Congressional Economy Wave Laps At Doors Of Agencies

By GAYLORD SHAW
WASHINGTON (AP) — The current congressional economy wave is lapping at the doors of most federal agencies but shows little sign of threatening the island of prosperity Congress has created on Capitol Hill.

The House voted last week to clamp drastic restrictions on spending by executive department agencies. But the same day it crushed a move to trim 5 per cent from its own payroll—or, as Rep. Robert L. Sikes, D-Fla., said, "to take the same medicine it wants to administer to other government agencies."

Sikes' amendment was aimed at a House payroll that has skyrocketed 84 per cent in the past six years and now is nearing $50 million annually. Upwards of 500 employees of House or Senate are paid $20,000 or more a year, a survey shows.

Sikes' colleagues listened politely to his contention that the House cannot "in good grace exempt itself from the restrictions on spending that we proposed for others." Then it rejected his amendment 134 to 66.

A week earlier, the House shouted down a move by Rep. Edward J. Derwinski, R-Ill., to put "some restraint on runaway salaries" by exempting congressional employees from a 4.5 per cent federal pay raise. That same day, though, other House members used nearly the same argument to exclude federal antipoverty workers from the pay raise bill.

Another area unlikely to suffer major cuts are public works projects, commonly called the "pork barrel." The bill sending federal funds into nearly every congressional district—for reclamation, flood control, river and harbor projects is now in conference committee. Earlier attempts in the House and Senate to trim it 5 per cent were soundly defeated.

Rejection of the two attempts to cut back or hold the line on spending in Congress itself came as House members moved toward adoption of a directive that President Johnson cut expenditures an estimated $6 billion to $8 billion in the current fiscal year.

Administration forces are pressing in the Senate to junk the House directive, or at least dilute it. The Senate Appropriations Committee eliminated the provision Friday. The Senate is expected to act this week, and a House-Senate fight likely will follow.

The bitter budget fight has its roots, some congressmen say, in the Vietnam war and the $2 billion a month required to pay for it.

War costs were a major factor in Johnson's still-stalled request for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Polls show the public favors spending cuts over a tax increase. Congressmen say they are reflecting the views of their constituents when they slash the budget.

politics," declares Rep. Tom Streed, D-Okla., who opposed last week's House action. "They are worrying about their image back home."

"If it is, it's damn good politics," replies Rep. Jamie L. Whitten, D-Miss., who helped engineer the cutback directive. "This House has reflected the feeling of the people."

In fighting his losing battle to restrain "runaway salaries" on Capitol Hill, Derwinski zeroed in on the House postmaster, who is paid $23,764 a year and supervises 85 employees. The New York City postmaster, Derwinski said, receives $2,500 a year less but supervises 39,791 employees. Under the federal pay boost, the House postmaster would get an annual raise of $1,088, he added.

Permits Issued
SHOSHONE — In Shoshone 19 building permits had been issued through September of this year. They total $49,550 with one new dwelling valued at $16,000.

Other construction included new commercial construction of $13,500 and alterations and repairs for $20,050.

Council officers and the executive staff were in attendance to present council progress during the past two years and what is in store for the future. The progress of the Snake River Area council over the past two years was presented by Robert A. Erkins, council president,

Ibo Tribesmen Flee Homes As Nigeria Troops Advance

By ARNOLD ZEITLIN
ENUGU, Biafra (AP) — At least a half million Ibo tribesmen fled from their homes around Enugu, capital of secessionist Biafra, as federal Nigerian troops advanced on the city.

Aside from 500 captured Ibos held in an army gymnasium, not one Ibo could be found today in Enugu, once a city of at least 150,000 persons. The bush hamlet of Enugu Azike, 50 miles to the north, was likewise deserted.

The wide area around the capital, from which the Ibos fled, had a population of 1.4 million in the 1963 census.

Two Irish priests, Fathers Oliver Barrett and J. Coleman, the only white men in Enugu during the battle between the federals and Biafrans, were busy hearing soldiers' confessions and the catechism recitals of the captured Ibos in the gym.

The federal authorities believe most of the Ibos have gone south to the already densely populated area.

The Roman Catholic priests said Ibos were sneaking from Enugu by dark even after the HAZELTON — Joe C. Gibbs, 44, Route 1, Hazelton, died Saturday night at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital of an apparent heart attack.

He was born June 11, 1923, at North Platte, Neb. He married Helen Howard Aug. 31, 1946, in Twin Falls. He was self-employed as a general contractor. A member of Twin Falls Elks Lodge No. 1183, he served with the U. S. Navy in the Pacific during World War II.

Before moving to Hazelton in 1929 he resided at Superior, Wyo. Surviving, besides his widow, are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Gibbs, Twin Falls, a brother, Carter Gibbs, Burley, and a nephew, Alan Carter Gibbs, also Burley.

Graveside services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Twin Falls Cemetery by Rev. Meryl Nemnick. The cortege will leave White Mortuary at 1:45 p.m. The family suggests any memorial contributions be made to the Heart Fund.

Confident

LIVERPOOL, England (AP) — A gang of thieves apparently felt confident after stealing $64,000 worth of cigarettes from a Liverpool brewery in daylight Sunday a block from the central police station.

Many brewery employees saw the gang take the cigarettes and drive off with them in a company truck and no body tried to stop them.

So the thieves stole a second truck and returned for another load. This time the brewers gave chase.

But the thieves escaped.

Target Limitations Cause Losses In Air War

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — An Air Force general charges that target restrictions in the air war against North Vietnam caused "more pilot and airplane losses."

The bitter criticism of past bombing limitation came from retired Maj. Gen. Gilbert E. Myers, who ended 30 years of military service as deputy commander of the 7th Air Force. He served 15 months in Vietnam.

He told the Senate preparedness subcommittee in testimony released today that many pilots were killed because of heavy restrictions imposed from Washington on bombing missions in North Vietnam.

"I felt that we were literally fighting with one hand tied behind our backs, that we could have been much more effective had we been able to pick more lucrative targets that existed in North Vietnam, that this would have had a much greater impact on the enemy and his ability to carry on the war in the South," Myers told the subcommittee Aug. 29.

Myers said that initially only one or two fixed targets were released at a time because "they were all approved at the Washington level."

"The existing practice of doling out the targets one, two and three at a time is too restrictive and results in more pilot and airplane losses," he said.

"Obviously the most effective, most remunerative targets in North Vietnam were not struck," he said.

He was the final witness before the panel, which previously recommended increased and more-effective use of available air power against North Vietnam.

In other heavily-censored testimony released today, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff, said the Joint Chiefs of Staff unanimously recommended two years ago "as heavy a blow as possible" against important military targets in North Vietnam.

"This view was not supported," he testified. "Therefore we supported the gradual approach that has been used since then."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene, commandant of the Marine Corps, testified he advocated "more effective bombing and I am also advocating more bombing if that is necessary."

"I have advocated the rapid and heavy application of air power to targets in North Vietnam, as well as in South Vietnam, wherever they might be found," Greene said.

When the subcommittee issued its recommendations Aug. 31 it said the top generals favored more bombing.

Both ground force generals disagreed with earlier testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who said even the Joint Chiefs admitted some of the targets they recommended—but were not authorized to bomb—were insignificant.

McNamara said only a few of several hundred bombing targets asked by the military had not been authorized.

Individually some of these might seem unimportant, Gens. Greene and Johnson said, but as a package they called them important to the overall military mission.

High-Court Will Rule On FCC Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether the Federal Communications Commission has the power to regulate community antenna television (CATV) systems.

The U.S. Circuit Court in San Francisco held that the FCC does not have such power. But the U.S. Court of Appeals in the District of Columbia ruled later in another case, not now before the Supreme Court, that the commission does have the power to regulate the last growing cable TV industry.

The Supreme Court's decision to hear the California case noted that Justices William O. Douglas and Thurgood Marshall took no part in consideration of the matter.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID K. SMITH (Shig Morita photo)

Miss Whitaker, Smith Exchange Nuptial Vows

Nadean Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Whitaker, Twin Falls, was married to David K. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl M. Smith, Holbrook, in rites Sept. 22 at the Logan LDS Temple.

The double ring ceremony was performed by President Raymond.

Accompanying the couple to the temple besides their parents were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Judy, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Savage, sister and brother-in-law of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Saul Whitaker, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Neal Hughes, sister of the bridegroom.

A wedding breakfast was held after the ceremony for the wedding party, headed by the bridegroom's parents. A wedding reception was held at the Twin Falls Fourth Ward LDS Cultural Hall.

The bride wore a gown of lace over satin, fashioned with fitted lily point sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and an empire fitted long skirt. Her lace cathedral train was held at the shoulders. The empire waistline featured a white satin inset with pearl buttons highlighting the gown. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a headpiece of satin roses. The dress and veil were designed and made by the bride and her mother.

The only jewelry worn by the bride was a pair of pearl earrings.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jean Savage, sister of the bride, with Vineta Whitaker, sister of the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cherie Smith and Leisa Smith, sisters of the bridegroom.

Vern Bastian, former roommate of the bridegroom, was best man.

Guests were registered by Virginia Helner, cousin of the bride. Gifts were received at the door by Kristy Reed and Cathy Reed, cousins of the bride, and displayed by Mrs. Leslie Thompson and Mrs. Carol Baker.

The bride's table was covered with white lace over a white background. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Audrey Reed, aunt of the bride, Linda Fillmore, Jerry Harker, Jeannie Fisher, Maureen Johnson, Janie McKnight and Barbara Porter, former roommates of the bride. The couple will reside in Rexburg, where the bridegroom will attend Ricks College.

Guests attended from Canada, California, Shelley, Moreland, Rigby, St. Anthony, Burley, Filer, Buhl, Holbrook and Malad.

A pre-nuptial shower was hosted for the bride by Mrs. Leslie Thompson.

SOCIETY TO MEET
SHOSHONE — The cultural living lesson for the LDS Relief Society will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Church.

Mrs. Hays Is Club Speaker

Mrs. Monroe Hays gave a talk from an article, "New Eyes for the Needy," when members of the Mentor Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Gerald Turner.

The article was about a firm in Short Hills, N. J., who has been in operation for 32 years never asking for money to support it. It has sent 600,000 pairs of remade glasses to needy persons all over the world.

The firm accepts jewelry, gold fillings, old silverware, etc., having sales twice yearly of articles they cannot use in remaking glasses to finance the project.

Hagerman Lodge Plans Parties

HAGERMAN — Mrs. Verda Wood gave the social relations lesson on the importance of seeking knowledge at the Hagerman Relief Society meeting Thursday afternoon.

Prayers were given by Mrs. Ernest Tolley and Mrs. Sam Collier. Music was under the direction of Mrs. Nels Anderson and Mrs. Ethel Boyer.

Mrs. R. K. Bendorf, Relief Society president, expressed appreciation to those who showed their kindness and for their assistance during the illness and death of her sister, Mrs. Marion Pugmire.

It was announced the special meeting on "wills" has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Nov. 9. Mary Schmidt, Gooding attorney, will be guest speaker at this meeting and will speak on the importance of having a will. There will be time allotted for questions and discussion.

Lunch will be served at noon, after which the regular lesson on soup demonstration will be held. At 2 p.m. the lesson on insurance will be presented.

An invitation has been extended to all other church and civic organizations in the community and anyone interested in attending is invited to do so. The meeting will begin promptly at 10 a.m.

Dance Group Begins Season

BURLEY — The Buckaroo Square Dance Club opened the square and round dance season at Dworshak School, with Bill Brandon, Idaho Falls, as guest caller.

Couples attended from Twin Falls, Jerome, Murtaugh, Pocatello, Idaho Falls, and Burley. Special prizes were given throughout the evening. Walter Baker and Doran Combs presented a skit during intermission.

The new round dance, "Take Me," taught at the state federation meeting at Pocatello by Ross and Penny Crispino, Nampa, was taught to those attending at Dworshak School by Mr. Brandon.

100 Blue Birds Participate in Local Fly-Up Ceremony

One hundred Blue Birds "flew up" to become Camp Fire Girls at the Fly-Up Ceremony recently at the Robert Stuart Junior High gymnasium.

The program began with the Whoelo Call, the traditional opening for Camp Fire occasions, sung by older girls present. After the grand march, the flags were presented by Mrs. Eldon Kimball's Ya Kop Ha Junior High group.

Rev. Donald Hoffman from the First Christian Church gave the invocation, and Junior High girls, Debbie Rudolph, Vickie Rudolph and Dorothy Peavey, lighted the Whoelo candles.

Special numbers were presented by the Fly-Up groups. "The Grand Square" dance was given by Mrs. Henry Buchanan's group from St. Edward's School. Her assistant is Mrs. Robert Baker, and Mrs. Fred Britz was in charge of the dance.

"Nice Girls Don't Chase the Boys" was the title of a song by Mrs. Messersmith's "Tweetie Blue Birds" from Morningside School. Her assistant is Mrs. Orval Johnson. Mrs. Charles Hency's "Pussy Willow" Blue Birds from Kimberly had an authentic Hawaiian dance called "Pu-u-Pu," meaning "Pearly Shells." The "Twinkle" Blue Birds from Harrison School, with Mrs. Paul Ross as leader and Mrs. Dale Burrows, assistant, had a skit called "Little Bunny Froo Froo."

"Smoke the Bear" was sung by a group of fifth grade Camp Fire Girls, the Tandra Tawanka group from Lincoln School under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Lou Nield and Mrs. Harold Frazier. They were accompanied by accordion music played by their leader. While they sang, the Shining Stars Blue Birds from Bickel School, whose leader is Mrs. Marvin Fouts, acted out the skit. Mrs. Archie Turner, assisted Mrs. Fouts.

Washington School Red Rose Blue Birds, whose leaders are Mrs. Virgil Valentine and Mrs. Harold Smith, presented "The Camp Fire Girls Calendar," with appropriate props. Two groups without leaders sang "Weggis Song," which had been taught to them by Mrs. Dorothy

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Be fair, and give the other side of the question of whether to institutionalize a Mongoloid child. There are so many who say, "All the retarded child needs is to be kept at home, and assured that he is loved."

But, Abby, have you ever seen a mentally deficient child who has grown to adulthood? A 30-year-old man who still makes baby noises, but must be shaved, bathed, and taken to the bathroom? He is not very "loveable." O, his mother "loves" him all right, but her heart aches and twists as friends try to conceal their embarrassment. And the terrible shadow of "What will happen to him when I am gone," looms ahead and grows darker with the years.

Not all mentally deficient children are so seriously retarded that they would be better off in an institution, but once it becomes established that he must be cared for as a baby all his life, the sooner he is placed in a reputable institution, the better.

When our doctor suggested that I place my child in an institution, I cried, "I cannot put my child in an institution! What will she think?"

The doctor replied, "She wouldn't care. She wouldn't know the difference."

And it's true. She has been there for 19 years. She is safe and happy there. I let her when she was young enough to adjust. I love her, as I love my other children. And I have no regrets.

BEEN THERE

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem and no one in my family can come up with an answer. My brother has been separated from his wife and two children for over five years. He lives in the same town with them, but is now living with another woman. He and this other woman have just become parents of a baby boy. My problem is, how do I receive this poor little innocent child? Do I just ignore the precious baby and pretend he doesn't exist?

I do not live in the same state with my brother and am not in contact with him, but as far as I know there is no divorce in sight so it will be some time before he can make things legal with the woman he's living with, if that's his plan. I don't know what in the world they are thinking of. Surely not of that poor innocent child.

How in the world should I handle this mess? I don't want to do anything to hurt my brother's legal wife and children, but what about the illegitimate baby?

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: As I see it, the "mess" is your brother's and the woman with whom he is living. Their child isn't "illegitimate"—his parents are. Since you are not in contact with your brother, your probably shouldn't "do" anything.

DEAR ABBY: Altho this problem might sound funny to some people, it is serious to me.

My boyfriend has a very course beard. He shaves just before he picks me up, but by the end of the evening his face is like sandpaper. Needless to say, it sure does tear up my face.

Right now he is in the service, so I see him only a few days at a time, then my face gets three months to heal, but what am I going to do when he gets out of service and we decide to get married? Must I go around with a face that is irritated and burning and practically bleeding?

Possibly one of your readers (men who have had this problem, or women who have found a solution) can help me.

HAMBURGER PUSS

DEAR PUSS: I will pass on to you any suggestions I receive from my readers. In the meantime, easy on the check-to-checking.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 33709, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hagerman Relief Society Meets

HAGERMAN — Plans were made for the public card parties at Union Rebekah Lodge No. 45 meeting this week, with the next tentative date scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 25. A previous date was canceled.

The card parties will be held jointly with the IOOF Lodge, every other Wednesday at the lodge hall. Mrs. Norman Billington and Mrs. Flossie Marsh were appointed to be in charge of the parties.

Members were requested to bring donations to the lodge hall by Oct. 28 A M O S. The good train will be going to the IOOF home at Caldwell.

It was noted Mrs. Laura Sloan had donated tea towels and pot-holders to be used in the lodge kitchen.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Merle Green and Mrs. Elwood Grimes.

Is your Silverware Old Fashioned?

NORMAN HERRETT

When you were a child, your dinner table gleamed under its load of delicious, home cooked food — and the chances are that the "implements" you used to eat with were very heavy and very ornate. That was the style in silverware in those good old days.

Today's silverware is entirely different. It's streamlined, it's more graceful, slimmer, more utilitarian with a border knife blades and fork tines. Spoons, too, have been modernized with straighter handles and quite often with a more oval-shaped bowl.

If you perchance are still using silverware "handed down" to you by Grandma, you owe it to your duty as a gracious hostess or host to put it away lovingly and add a complete place setting of "new" silverware to your table.

We proudly display some of the finest, most beautiful and enduring silverware in America. Here, in lovely chests, you'll find gleaming sterling, silver plated knives, forks, spoons and the other pieces requisites for smart entertaining — or for just yourselves when you're eating en famille.

Come in and browse around. You'll like our friendly attention to your jewelry needs, whatever they may be.

Palmer, Geiberger Lead U.S. Pros Past British In Ryder Cup Competition

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
HOUSTON (AP) — Arnold Palmer and Al Geiberger hammered out double victories in individual matches Sunday and led U.S. golf professionals to a humiliating 2 1/2-8 1/2 rout of Britain's best that led to concern over the future of the biennial Ryder Cup competition.

"It is ridiculous — we are no longer a match for you Yanks," one disappointed British spokesman said. "We must change the format — maybe bring in the rest of the Commonwealth."

It was the 14th team triumph for the United States in the 40 years of the international event. The Americans have lost only three times — never on this side of the Atlantic — where their winning margins are getting uncomfortably bigger.

Cross Country Meet To Be Held Saturday

The 1967 annual intermountain AAU cross country championships will be held at the Sugarhouse Park, 75th East, 21st South, in Salt Lake City, Saturday.

The three different classes will include, the all comers, who will run a 3 1/2 mile course; the high school varsity, who will run a 2 1/2 mile course; and the high school sophomores, who will run a 2 mile course.

Colts Come From Behind, Tie Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Johnny Unitas' brilliant passing rallied Baltimore from behind twice in the fourth quarter and brought the unbeaten Colts a 20-20 tie with Minnesota in a National Football League game Sunday.

Baltimore now is 4-0-2 and leading the Coastal Division. In the process, Unitas broke the all-time NFL pass completion record, hitting on 20 of his 37 passes to give him 2,131 in his career. The old record was 2,117 held by Y. A. Tittle.

Twice in the final period, Unitas had to bring the Colts back after Joe Kapp had guided the Vikings to one-touchdown lead. Kapp took the Vikings 47 yards in 10 plays to the game's first touchdown and a 10-8 lead midway through the third quarter. Then Minnesota topped its margin to 16 with Fred Cox' 11-yard field goal late in that period.

It took Unitas only nine plays to move the Colts 80 yards after the next kickoff. He completed passes of 19 yards to Tom Matte and 12 yards to Willie Richardson before Matte bruised 15 yards off tackle for the touchdown.

The Vikings retaliated with an 80-yard drive in seven plays. Kapp's passes of 20 yards to Dave Osborne and 29 yards to Jim Phillips set up Kapp's 11-yard scoring strike to Phillips. Unitas immediately swept the Colts 80 yards in eight plays, connecting with Raymond Berry for 40 yards in the key play.

Pitts Leads Packers Past Giants 48-21

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Pitts scored three touchdowns and set up a fourth with an option pass Sunday as the aroused Green Bay Packers rallied in the second half for a 48-21 victory over the New York Giants.

The usual sellout crowd of 62,585 roared in anticipation of a National Football League upset when Fran Tarkenton threw touchdowns passes to Homer Jones and Joe Morrison, giving the Giants a 14-10 edge at halftime.

Green Bay surged back in the third period in which linebacker Dave Robinson intercepted two of Tarkenton's passes and went out on top to stay on Pitts' 58-yard touchdown run and a 36-yard field goal by Don Chandler, his second of the day.

Pitts, who smashed home from the three for the first score on this warm, sunny afternoon, shot across from the one in the fourth period. Elijah also set up a two-yard scoring plunge by Jim Grabowski with 21-yard after Bill Triplett fumbled on a kickoff return.

Tarkenton hit Jones for a final Giant score midway in the fourth period, but the Packers came right back with two more touchdowns on a 38-yard pass from Bart Starr and a seven-yard run by Donny Anderson.

Ryan Rallies Browns Past Chicago 24-0

CLEVELAND (AP) — Frank Ryan trotted out of the locker room in the third quarter and threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Gary Collins that started the Cleveland Browns to a 24-0 National Football League victory Sunday over the Chicago Bears, who played without Gale Sayers.

Ryan left the game with 7 1/2 minutes left in the third quarter after he was hit while passing. The Browns' quarterback was given medical treatment for a bruise on his chest while Dick Shiner took over.

Ryan came back in a few minutes and completed three passes on a 49-yard drive with Collins giving the Browns a 7-0 lead with 1:22 left in the quarter.

Sayers, the Bears' brilliant runner, sat out the game with a bruise on his left leg. He was injured two weeks ago but played against the Detroit Lions a week ago and gained 142 yards.

The leg was heavily taped and Sayers said he "would have been able to play" against the Browns, but he hurt his leg again during a pregame warm-up. "He pulled the muscle on a quick start," said Coach George Halas. "I was just jogging down the sidelines and suddenly hurt it," Sayers said. "I knew I wasn't going in there after hurting it."

Cleveland stopped the Bears in the second half and the Browns got into gear after the touchdown pass to Collins. Leroy Kelly raced 22 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Lou Groza booted a 24-yard field goal and Ryan threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Collins after end Bill Glass intercepted a deflected pass from Jack Concannon.

It was the Browns' fourth straight victory and their first shutout in regular season play since their 42-0 triumph over the Bears in 1960.

Chicago had Concannon at quarterback in the first half and Coach George Halas started Rudy Bukich after the intermission.

Defense Stops Boston As Raiders Win

BOSTON (AP) — The Oakland Raiders parlayed the passing magic of Daryle Lamonica and a mighty defense in crushing the Boston Patriots 48-14 Sunday for their fifth victory in six American Football League games.

Lamonica passed for four touchdowns in picking apart Boston's defense and guiding the Raiders to their second lopsided triumph over the Patriots this year.

The Raiders, who clobbered the Patriots 35-7 in Oakland last month, were in virtual command from the outset, striking for two first period touchdowns and then adding a pair of field goals by George Blanda for a 20-0 halftime advantage.

Lamonica hit on scoring shots by Bill Miller, Roger Hagberg, Billy Cannon and Warren Wells.

Roger Bird set up the first Oakland touchdown by returning a punt from his 48 to the Boston 13.

On the third play, Lamonica raced to a first down on the three. Two plays later Hagberg burst through right guard and Blanda added the first of his six conversions.

As the opening period ended Lamonica hit Miller on an eight-yard pass in the end zone.

The Patriots struck for their lone touchdown in the sixth minute of the third period, with Jim Nance going over from the one.

Diego Keeps Lead, Down Denver 38-21

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Swift striking San Diego protected its Western Division American Football League lead Sunday as quarterback John Hadl's long passes punctured cellar-dwelling Denver 38-21.

Hadl connected on scoring throws of 67 yards to Lance Alworth, 66 to Dick Post and five to Willie Frazier, in giving unbeaten San Diego its fifth victory in six games. The Chargers have one tie.

Denver suffered its sixth straight loss against one victory.

Denver scored first on Nemiah Wilson's 40-yard interception run with Hadl's second pass of the game.

San Diego then pulled even after linebacker Jeff Stagg's recovery of Floyd Little's fumble on Denver's 33. A Hadl-to-Alworth pass picked up 20 yards on the touchdown march.

San Diego shot ahead 14-7 with 6:24 left in the second quarter on a 36-yard drive in six plays after Speedy Duncan's 33-yard punt return.

Right after the second half kickoff, Denver tied it 14-14 on a 75-yard pass play from Steve Tensi to Eric Crabtree, who grabbed the throw at midfield and raced away untouched.

San Diego went back in front to stay 21-14 on its next offensive series with Hadl drilling a pass down the middle to post who took it in full stride and outran Denver defenders on the 66-yard play.

Herd Flourishes In New Location

BOISE (AP) — A herd of mountain sheep transplanted in the east-fork area of southwestern Idaho's Owyhee River from Canada several years ago has flourished in its new location.

Big game supervisor Errol Neilson of the Idaho Department of Fish and Game said the California bighorn sheep from Williams Lake in British Columbia are reproducing well in the Idaho desert area.

Neilson said 19 of the sheep were trapped in 1963 and brought to Idaho; nine more were transplanted in 1965 and ten last year. Of the 56 sheep, 21 per cent are lambs, he explained.

California bighorns had not been found in the southern Idaho area for many years until the new herd re-established the specie there.

Yastrzemski Was Boston's Hero Long Before He Turned Slugger

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
BOSTON (AP) — When Ted Williams retires, former Holy Cross southpaw pitcher Frank (Bots) Nikola was saying in 1958, "I have the man who will replace him in left field for the Boston Red Sox."

"Now I'm certain of it," scout Nikola said the next summer when Carl Yastrzemski, then only 20, led the Carolina League in hitting with .377 for Raleigh, N.C.

Carl Michael Yastrzemski, who grew up on Long Island potato fields and played semi-pro shortstop next to his third baseman father, made 45 errors at Raleigh. But Bots Nikola knew Yaz had the arm and speed to become a left fielder.

Nikola was so high on Yaz as a teenager that he could make the 60-mile-trip blindfolded from his New Hyde Park home to Bridgehampton where the Yastrzemskis lived.

A number of teams were bidding on Yaz's services but only Nikola had a chance, because Nikola put in the time.

And Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey put up the money—$108,000 of it.

Right now Yaz is more popular than Ted Williams, the last man to hit 400.

Yaz now will get $100,000 and he won't have to ask for it.

What makes Yaz so popular? Another Williams, Dick, can best answer that. Says the Boston manager:

"Yaz is a devoted team man all the way. I have never seen any player put forth so much individual and team effort as Carl did during the entire season and in the seven-game World Series.

"He is so dedicated to the game that he changed his hitting habits almost overnight and became a slugger. I can't remember any other player ever being able to accomplish what he did in one year.

Carl repeated his feelings and thoughts on the team as its unofficial leader.

The American League's triple crown winner and most valuable player praised the Cardinals, then said:

"In my six previous seasons here I looked upon them as nothing special. But now I can't wait until spring training begins. I'm looking forward to it and I know all of the players feel the same way."

The people of the Fens like the way he hustles after a fly ball, charges ground balls, throws runners out and hits baseballs out of sight.

He has done it all this year, and he will be doing it for a few more.

49ers Defeat Stubborn New Orleans

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco defeated defensively stubborn New Orleans 27-13 Sunday to remain in close pursuit of Baltimore in the Coastal Division of the National Football League.

The 49ers are 5-1. Baltimore leads with 4-0-2 after Sunday's 20-20 tie at Minnesota.

The Saint defense was so strong that several times they threw 49er quarterback John Brodie for losses or forced him to run. However Brodie made more than 40 yards on his runs.

Gary Cuozzo took New Orleans 80 yards to a 13-10 lead early in the third period as Walter Roberts took Cuozzo's pass for a 52-yard touchdown.

The 49ers came back 72 yards for a 19-13 margin with Dick Witcher taking a 15-yard pass in the end zone.

Tommy Davis' second field goal from the 39 made in 20-13 to start the final quarter.

The 49ers went 60 yards for the clincher with Brodie passing 33 to John David Crow and Ken Willard going the final 27 in five straight carries for the touchdown.

Purdue's Willing To Let Leroy Do It

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — "Let Leroy do it," is Purdue University's standard answer to any football problem.

Leroy Keyes, 23, junior from Newport News, Va., is one of college football's most versatile players.

Nobody who has followed the Bolleermakers the last two seasons will be overly surprised on the day Leroy throws a pass and runs downfield and catches it.

He kicks off, runs like a long lean cat, throws from halfback pass formations, catches passes of both Purdue and opposing quarterbacks, and generally makes himself a thorough nuisance to other teams.

The 6-3, 188-pounder has brains, too. Defensive Coach Bernie Miller credits him with "a tremendous knowledge of the game."

That, with his speed, enables Keyes to be at the right place with split-second timing. He also shifts gears quickly to slide through a short-lived hole in the line and his footwork reminds spectators that he was a star basketball player in high school.

Purdue, en route to the Rose Bowl last season, was loaded with running backs so sophomore Keyes was used mostly as a defensive halfback. He intercepted four passes for 161 yards and continually harassed the opponent's best receiver. He averaged 26.1 yards on kickoff returns and led Purdue's rushing averages with 8.4 yards per carry.

He ran back a Notre Dame fumble 95 yards for a touchdown and returned an intercepted Southern Methodist pass 53 yards. He got a little work as offensive halfback, completing three out of three passes for two touchdowns. He rushed for two more.

It had been a pretty good year for a sophomore on a squad loaded with veteran talent.

Leroy said he was willing to play either offense or defense this year but he'd like to show what he could do on offense.

Coach Jack Mollenkopf decided to make Keyes his starting flanker back and rest him this year when the opponent has the ball. It hasn't worked out that way. Keyes is on the starting offensive team but when things get sticky, he is rushed into the game as a defensive back.

He ran for one touchdown and passed for another in Purdue's opening victory over Texas A&M, picking up 143 yards on rushes, passes and kickoff return.

Then came the game against Notre Dame, ranked No. 1 in the nation. Alumni and other well wishers flooded Mollenkopf with suggestions that he use Keyes only on defense, to stop the great passing combination of Terry Hanratty to Jim Seymour.

Mollenkopf said he needed Keyes on offense and it was too much to ask the boy to go both ways against the Irish giants. Nevertheless, the game wasn't very old before Leroy was on defense, in addition to working in 72 offensive plays.

The last time Notre Dame got the ball, trailing 28-21, Keyes intercepted a Hanratty-Seymour pass and virtually wrapped up the game. He had knocked down three others. Wearing his offensive hat, he had caught nine passes for 108 yards and one touchdown, kicked off, made two kickoff returns and carried back one punt.

It's all very simple, according to Assistant Coach Miller. "You just tell him what to do," says Miller, "and he does it."

Hart Passes Cards Past Eagles 48-14

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Jim Hart passed for four touchdowns and a tenacious defense led the St. Louis Cardinals to a crushing 48-14 victory over Philadelphia in a National Football League game Sunday.

The Cardinals, after spotting Philadelphia an 11-point lead in the first period, took the lead for good with 15 seconds to play in the first half when Hart hit rookie Dave Williams on a 14-yard scoring pass.

The victory raised the Cardinals' record in the Eastern Conference's Century Division to 4-2. Philadelphia dropped to 3-3 in the Eastern's Capital Division.

Hart hit 18 of 29 passes for 267 yards. Charlie Johnson, ticketed to be St. Louis' No. 1 quarterback until he was drafted into the Army August, played the final three minutes. Johnson had a weekend pass.

Namath Pilots Jets Past Miami 34-14

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Joe Namath passed the New York Jets to a 24-0 halftime lead, then watched from the sidelines as his team whipped the Miami Dolphins 34-14 in an American Football League game Sunday.

Namath completed 13 of 15 passes for 189 yards, two for touchdowns, and set up a third score before leaving the game in favor of Mike Taliaferro.

One of Namath's passes — to George Sauer — covered 61 yards in the first quarter and gave the Jets a 17-point lead.

Not until midway in the second quarter, with the Jets leading 24-0, did Miami penetrate New York territory and then only to the 44.

The Jets scored the first four times they got the ball. After Jim Turner's field goal put the Jets ahead 3-0, Miami was stopped and the Jets took over on their own 39.

Miami, with Rick Norton at quarterback, again was unable to move and New York took over and Namath promptly passed 61 yards to Sauer for a touchdown.

The third Jet score came on a two-yard pass from Namath to Emerson Boozer with 10:11 left in the half.

The Jets now lead the AFL Eastern Division with a 4-1-1 record. The Dolphins are 1-5.

Late Score Gives Rams Tie Game

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams drove 75 yards for a touchdown in the fading minutes to tie the Washington Redskins 28-28, after playing catch-up ball all Sunday afternoon in the heroics of the Redskins' brilliant quarterback Sonny Jurgensen.

Roman Gabriel threw the tying strike to Bernie Casey from six yards out with 1:04 remaining in the game.

Moments earlier it appeared that Washington would escape the jinx which had plagued them in their last two games when they lost and were tied in a total of 12 seconds.

Playing in beautiful weather before 55,381 fans in the Memorial Coliseum, Rickie Harris returned a punt by the Rams' John Willgore 51 yards, and the next play Jurgensen completed a 39-yard pass to Jerry Smith for the go-ahead touchdown.

Jurgensen fired four touchdown passes, opening up with one for 86 yards to Charley Taylor in the first quarter.

The Rams scored two touchdowns in the second quarter for a 14-14 deadlock at the half.

Jurgensen, who completed 18 of 41 throws for 334 yards, found Smith for a score on a 14-yard toss in the second quarter, another for 21 in the third and the other in the fourth.

Gabriel completed a 61-yard pass to Jack Snow for a touchdown and his second went to Casey for the final tally.

Late Pass Gives Dallas 24-21 Victory

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Craig Morton's third touchdown pass of the game with 24 seconds to play gave the Dallas Cowboys a 24-21 National Football League victory over Pittsburgh Sunday after the Steelers had gone ahead for the first time only 48 seconds earlier.

Morton, alternating with Jerry Rhyme at quarterback, found Pettis Norman alone in the end zone after scrambling for several seconds.

Pittsburgh, which fell behind 14-0 in the first half, took the lead with 1:12 to go as J.R. Wilburn made a leaping catch of Kent Nix's 11-yard pass in the end zone, capping a 91-yard march engineered largely by Nix's brilliant passing.

The Oilers were quarterbacked by Pete Beathard, obtained from Kansas City in a trade two weeks ago, but the Houston defense made the difference. Norton scored an interception touchdown, stole another pass in the end zone and his booming punts were a factor.

The Chiefs and veteran Len Dawson heard a chorus of boos from a record home crowd of 46,365. Dawson directed an 85-yard drive which pulled the Chiefs within five points late in the third period, but a lost fumble at the Houston 31 ruined his final chance with 2:50 left in the game.

Rookies Larry Carwell, Iowa State, and Zeke Moore, Lincoln U. of Missouri, made three big runbacks for Houston. Moore's 92-yard kickoff return TD put the Oilers ahead 7-3.

Carwell's 33-yard punt return set up a 45-yard field goal by John Wittenborn, making it 18-3. Another punt return for 26 yards by Carwell set up Beathard's 39-yard TD strike to Sid Blanks.

Just 81 seconds later, it was 24-3 as Dawson's screen pass was stolen by Norton and returned 23 yards.

Kansas City rallied with an 80-yard drive. Chris Burford twisted free of two tacklers and raced 44 yards to the seven yard line for the big play. Mike Garrett scored from the five.

"Laughing Stock" Hockey Team Is Leading League

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer

Los Angeles' laughing stock Kings are the National Hockey League's only undefeated team and maybe NHL's expansion draft wasn't so funny after all.

The Kings selected veteran goalie Terry Sawchuk in the draft and surrounded him with a band of inexperienced youngsters, prompting the consensus that they had done the poorest job of picking. So naturally, they're leading the NHL's expansion West Division.

Sawchuk made his first start Sunday night and was brilliant, as the Kings ripped Chicago 5-3. It was the sixth straight loss for the limping Black Hawks — the second in two nights against expansion teams — and shoved Chicago deeper into the East Division cellar.

Elsewhere, New York showed 51 shots at Pittsburgh goalie Les Binkley and topped the Penguins 6-4. Philadelphia won its third straight, trimming California 5-2 and Paul Henderson's third period goal gave Detroit a 1-0 decision over St. Louis and Glenn Hall.

In Saturday night's games, New York stopped Toronto 5-3, Montreal whipped Boston 4-2, Pittsburgh slugged Chicago 4-1, Minnesota topped California 3-1 and St. Louis battled to a 3-3 tie with Los Angeles.

Sawchuk, 37, kicked out 42 shots — 19 of them in the final period — as the Black Hawks buzzed around Los Angeles' goal. The Kings erased a 2-0

Chicago lead, scoring four times in the second period. Bill Flett, Brian Kilrea, Lowell MacDonald and Brian Smith scored the goals.

Los Angeles' five goal scorers had a total of 109 NHL games experience before this season — exactly 800 less than Sawchuk has played.

Orland Kurtenbach scored two goals for the Rangers who pounded away at Binkley and finally broke the game open in the third period.

Henderson's goal with just under five minutes left in the game, beat Hall for the Red Wings. Bruce MacGregor's pass set Henderson up against Hall, who had kept St. Louis in the game with a series of brilliant saves.

The shutout was the first for Detroit's Roger Crozier, since last Dec. 18. He made 30 stops. Five different players scored for Philadelphia against California as the expansion Flyers won their third straight and moved into second place in the West, two points behind Los Angeles.

Third-period goals by Ed Van Impe and Gary Peters wrapped up the victory as goalie Doug Favell kicked out 16 California shots in the final 20 minutes.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An eye injury to Jack Rodgers has forced a two-week postponement of his light-heavyweight match with Joey Giardello, which had been scheduled for tonight.

Sweetan Lifts Lions Over Falcons 24-3

DETROIT (AP) — Karl Sweetan, starting his first game of the season, broke open a tight defensive battle with two fourth quarter scoring strikes, carrying the Detroit Lions to a 24-3 National Football League victory over the Atlanta Falcons Sunday.

Sweetan, held in check most of the afternoon by the Falcon defense, hit Tom Nowatzke with a 25-yard touchdown pass, then fired a 10-yard scoring aerial to Bill Malinchak.

The victory snapped a three-game Detroit losing streak. Detroit has won two of six games with one ending in a tie.

The loss was wiless Atlanta's fifth. They have tied one game.

Neither team could muster much of an offense in the first half which was marked by numerous errors by both teams.

Detroit scored in the first quarter when cornerback Lem Barney, a rookie from Jackson State stepped in front of Atlanta's Tommy McDonald, picked off a Terry Nofsinger pass and raced 44 yards untouched for the touchdown.

Atlanta cut the margin to 7-3 halfway through the second quarter on a 34-yard field goal by Wade Traynham. Defensive back Floyd Hudlow set up the play with a pass interception.

The Lions took the next kickoff and marched to the Atlanta 15 in six plays where Wayne Walker booted a 22-yard field goal. Walker missed two other field goal attempts from 37 and 45 yards.

Oilers Strike Early To Stun Chiefs

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Houston, led by veteran safety Jim Norton, jumped to a 24-3 lead in the first 24 minutes and held on for a stunning 24-19 upset over Kansas City's struggling American Football League champions Sunday.

The Oilers were quarterbacked by Pete Beathard, obtained from Kansas City in a trade two weeks ago, but the Houston defense made the difference. Norton scored an interception touchdown, stole another pass in the end zone and his booming punts were a factor.

The Chiefs and veteran Len Dawson heard a chorus of boos from a record home crowd of 46,365. Dawson directed an 85-yard drive which pulled the Chiefs within five points late in the third period, but a lost fumble at the Houston 31 ruined his final chance with 2:50 left in the game.

Redskins Felt Arizona Game Was Crucial

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — "We felt at halftime that this would be our most crucial game," Utah football coach Mike Giddings said Sunday after the Redskins defeated Arizona 33-29 in a game Saturday night in Tucson.

Utah is now 2-1 in Western Athletic Conference play and needed the win to stay in the conference race which Wyoming now heads after three wins and no losses.

Giddings said the Utes played well although "they may have been a little too aggressive." Utah was twice called for interfering with Wally Scott's pass receptions in the end zone. Both resulted in touchdown plunges by Dave Barajas.

The coach said the turning point in the game came on Jerome Lawson's interception. Lawson intercepted a Marc Reed pass and ran 15 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown.

BIDDING CHANGES IN 35 YEARS

Oswald: "There was a long period in contract bidding when certain jumps to game were regarded as strong slam invitations. I am glad to see that we are getting away from that. It seems rather obvious that the way to approach a slam is slowly but surely—not helter-skelter."

clubs and held the first trick. The rest was easy."

Jim: "The bidding in the box shows how we would handle the same hand today. North's jump to four clubs is a fragment bid designed to show enough to bid the spade game with a singleton club as part of the strength."

Oswald: "South's four no-trump is of course Blackwood. He can use it safely because he isn't worried about his worthless doubleton in clubs. North has taken care of that problem by means of his fragment bid."

Jim: "Couldn't you have been more scientific back then and invited the slam by means of a five heart bid?"

Oswald: "I supposed so, but we were not science-minded in those days. The theory was that if we leaped into a slam, we might not get the best defense. Thus, if North held two clubs and one heart, my six spade bid might be met by some lead other than a club, whereupon I would have stolen the slam."

He's Burned - But Not By Sun

Dear Ele: Please give me an opinion on this. Do you consider it ladylike for a girl to ask a boy she's just met to rub sun-tan lotion on her back and legs, when her best girl friend is sitting right on the other side of her and could do the job perfectly well??—Red-Faced.

Dear Red: Although she's certainly not subtle, I'd hate to have you condemn the girl as a tramp just because she took advantage of the situation to lessen the space between you. Of course, it would have been better strategy, if she'd waited until her girl friend was unavailable. But aren't you kind of flattered that she showed her interest so openly? No? In that case answer—any repeat request with "Ask Suzie to do that for you, huh? I hate the feeling of sticky cream and ointment."—Ele.

WEIGHT WILL HELP
Dear Ele: Your answer to the flat-chested teenager was very good, but may I add a little footnote? First: do not hunch! That only draws attention to the bosom as well as to the hips, but the hips can be exercised off. Third: the new fiber bras are wonderful—not like the stiff foam rubber padded ones. If this teenager did not act embarrassed about wearing one, I doubt if her friends would notice or make fun of her.—G.G.

GRIPE OF THE WEEK
Dear Dulaneys: I teach at a large high school. Over and over I find that the same students are elected to more than one office. Personally I try in my classes to suggest that it would be better to select a student for only one office each year. For example: the captain of the football team has enough honors without being elected the president of the class. Likewise the cheerleader who is also elected class sweetheart is receiving too much. Please print this letter. Maybe it might encourage some school hero to say "no" next time he is asked to run, and thereby leave the door of self-development open to a less favored lad.—MOM May.

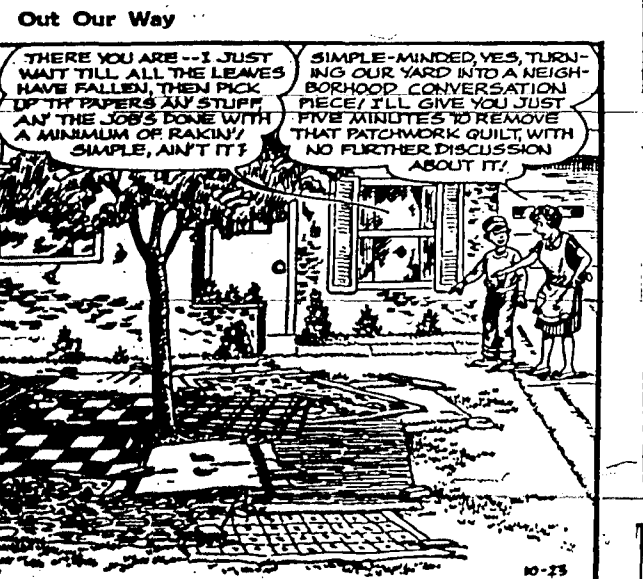

WHERE COMPETITION SHOULD STOP
Dear Ele and Walt: My father and my boyfriend's father are in the same line of business and often bid against each other for the same contracts. My mother and dad say I shouldn't date this boy because his father is our competition. My boyfriend and I say it is unfair to have this attitude. We think two people who are 18, and like each other very much, should be able to date, and if their parents insist, let them have their little feuds on the side. Who is right?—Loving Competitor.

Dear Competitor: If the parents engage in shady dealing to snag contracts, then it's understandable why they'd want to keep you two apart—both because of possible "security" risks, as well as disdain for the ethics of the other clan. But

Today's Market and Financial Report

Stocks

2:30 P.M. SUMMARY NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market remained lower late this afternoon but cut its worst early losses considerably. Trading was active.

The market sank sharply at the start. Analysts said selling pressure stemmed from the Federal Reserve Board's proposal to extend 70 per cent margin requirements to banks and other "unregulated" lenders who provided money for security purchases.

Convertible bonds were under pressure. The market fell nearly 10 points at worst in the Dow Jones Industrial average but later won back about two-thirds of that loss as traders came in to buy "bargains."

Auto stocks also affected by the proposed labor agreement at Ford, which some analysts regarded as expensive, were hit by selling. In late afternoon the Big Three auto stocks all showed losses of about a point.

IBM was off about half a dozen points late in the day but other glamor stocks had cut losses. Rheem Manufacturing was the volume leader as it held a gain of about 3 points on news that Seeburg was tendering $50 a share for a million shares of Rheem.

Polaroid was down more than 2 while one-point losses were shown by many issues, including International Nickel, Westinghouse Electric, Eastern Air Lines, Boeing and Pfizer.

Control Data came back to post a gain of 2 or 3 points. New York Central and Standard Oil of California advanced more than a point each. On the American Stock Exchange early losses were cut.

Grain

CHICAGO (AP)—Nervousness prevailed at the Chicago Board of Trade today and prices, except for wheat, moved over an extremely narrow range. The principal factor in the tense atmosphere was said to be a feeling that another war might break out in the Middle East between Israel and the Arab countries. While wheat futures moved over a range of about one cent, corn futures ranged over 1/2 cent and oats 1/2 cent.

Business Mirror

NEW YORK (AP)—An "emergency" committee of 700 businessmen from throughout the country has been formed here to combat what is felt to be an increase in the rate by which gangsters are infiltrating legitimate businesses.

"This is organized anti-crime," said a spokesman for the National Emergency Committee. "It is safer for an association to stick its neck out than for one individual to do so." Formation of the committee, which is heavily financed by big business, underlines the concern of government, police and business officials with the growing threat, as well as with the usually feeble counterattack.

One of the group's chief roles will be to alert industry to the methods gangsters use to move in on thousands of businesses; garbage disposal, machine vending and construction to be sure, but also banks, brokerage houses and automobile agencies.

It hopes to do this by arousing businessmen and their trade associations and by encouraging volunteer roles for civilians in the operation of police departments, courts and jails, and in rehabilitating former criminals.

This may be bad news for the office or plant bookie, for friendly and sociable as he may be, the committee views his activities as "the lifeblood of the organized crime syndicate."

By no means, however, is the concentration going to be on the small guy. The syndicate itself, sometimes better organized and more efficient than a conventional business, is the chief worry. Syndicate officers are constantly pressured to find legitimate outlets for their mounting billions.

The committee, a unit of the nonprofit National Council on Crime and Delinquency, will convene here Nov. 13, chaired by H. Ladd Plumley, who was president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in 1962 and 1963.

Meanwhile, it suggests business leaders familiarize themselves with some of these principal methods of infiltration: 1. Investment in legitimate businesses of profits from gambling, extortion, narcotics and other illegal sources. This type of infiltration is difficult to detect if the company's stock is traded publicly.

2. Loans with such fantastically high interest rates—such as 150 per cent a week—that the businessman must accept the lender as a partner or accomplice. After the partner is accepted, the original owner is dealt out.

The Daily Investor

By WILLIAM A. DOYLE Q. Last June I purchased 100 shares of Madison Fund common stock for my grandson, who was then nine months old. I had the stock registered under the Gift-to-Minors Act and filled out an agreement to have all dividends and capital gains reinvested in more shares of the same stock.

When I questioned the company if this stock is tax-exempt, I received a reply from the company's bank—telling me to take my question to a tax consultant. Please advise. Do I have to file an income tax return in my grandson's name? I am the custodian for the stock and have also opened a savings account for him, under the Gift-to-Minors Act.

A. Gosh, I'm not trying to give a generous grandma the brush. But my advice is to do what the bank suggested and get individual advice from an accountant and/or tax lawyer.

This column lays down general advice, but it cannot provide individual accounting or legal advice. And it's quite clear that you do need individual advice.

If no return is filed for him, the computer will go "hit." And the returners will start asking questions. This is all done through the taxpayer numbering system. I hope you have given Madison Fund and the bank your grandson's number—his Social Security number. It may seem silly. But, when he owns stock and/or has a savings account he must have a number.

Madison Fund (a closed-end investment company) has an arrangement through which stockholders can reinvest dividends and capital gains. Those items, however, must be reported to the IRS—even though they are taken in additional shares.

You have created a reasonably complicated tax situation. Do what the bank suggests. Get individual advice.

Q. I recently sold 105 shares of an over-the-counter stock. I pointed out to my broker that he should have sold 100 shares as a round lot and then the remaining five shares as an off-lot. He only laughed and said he saved me money by selling the entire 105 shares on one transaction. What do you say?

A. That's impossible to say if the broker is doing his job and putting in the very best efforts for his customers, he is most likely right. You are obviously confused on this odd-lot thing. It is only in trading of stocks listed on stock exchanges that there are fixed odd-lot fees—normally 1 1/2 cents a share for stock selling below $5 a share and 25 cents a share for stock selling at $5 or higher.

But in the over-the-counter market (for stocks not listed on stock exchanges) things are different. The "counter" market is a negotiated market—where brokers deal with each other.

Now, if your broker was able to find a buyer for all 105 shares you sold, he probably did do better for you than he would have done by first selling 100 shares and then looking for someone who wanted to buy five shares.

Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.

Soviets Build First Aircraft Carrier

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice Adm. William E. Ellis has disclosed that the Soviet Union is building its first aircraft carrier. The New York Times said today.

The story from Norfolk, Va., said the disclosure was made Sunday by Ellis, chief of staff of the Supreme Allied Command, Atlantic, which has its headquarters in Norfolk.

The carrier, believed designed for launching helicopters rather than jets, is viewed as evidence that Soviet naval strategists, traditionally concerned almost exclusively with defense, are thinking more boldly of gaining the ability to extend military power far from Soviet shores.

Ellis said in an interview that the Russians have "the second largest and best navy in the world" and are moving up fast. Since World War II, he said, they have built about 200 destroyers, 25 cruisers and more than 400 submarines.

"The Russians have really gone to sea," Ellis continued. "They've never before felt the need for carriers contrasted to the United States or Britain because they didn't have many overseas commitments. Apparently their thinking is changing."

This assessment was confirmed by Adm. Ephraim P. Holmes, supreme allied commander, Atlantic, for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and commander in chief of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet.

Three-Fifths Of Inch Creates Flap In Tobacco Industry

By GEORGE TAYLOR AP Business Writer. NEW YORK (AP)—Three-fifths of an inch is creating a flap in the tobacco industry and presenting smokers a bewildering choice of cigarettes.

The three-fifths inch is roughly the extra length of tobacco added to king-size filters to make cigarettes 100mm long.

Manufacturers have poured out many brands of the 100s since the longer cigarettes caught on earlier this year. One-count places at 35 the types of 100s on the market, including plain and menthol versions of the same brand.

The 100s leaped from 2 percent of all cigarette sales in the first quarter of the year to 12 to 15 percent now, says tobacco analyst John C. Maxwell Jr. He estimated they'll average about 10 percent for the year.

This means that smokers will consume around 53 billion 100s of an estimated 532 billion cigarettes produced this year.

The 100s—some four inches long—cost about a penny a pack more at retail. American Tobacco Co. claims to have been the first in the 100s market with its Pall Mall 100s in late 1965.

Maxwell estimates that R. J. Reynolds' Winston 100s, Pall Mall and Benson & Hedges lead the field in sales.

Stolen

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP)—E. J. Durham was riled Sunday when he discovered his entire pumpkin crop—two giant pumpkins of 150 and 80 pounds—had been stolen from his front porch.

He had planted only four hybrid seeds on his farm 10 miles from the city, and had promised seeds from the crop to his friends.
