Johnson And Sato Confer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson greeted Japan's Prime Minister Eisaku Sato today and told him that the destinies of the United States and Japan are closely linked in Asia.

He said both governments recognize responsibility they have to all of the people of Asia.

The Japanese prime minister is here for two days of talks expected to deal mainly with Asian security.

After a ceremonial red-carpet welcome today at the White House, the President and the 66-year-old Japanese political leader planned a 90-minute conference. The Vietnam war and the future role of Okinawa, the massive U.S. defense base in the Western Pacific only 350 miles from Red China, were upmost on the agenda.

Sato has said there is growing unrest among Japanese and the nearly one million Okinawans for some kind of political reunion with Japan.

IDAHO'S LIQUOR LAWS were discussed Monday during a public hearing in Twin Falls at the Holiday Inn. Two of the officials attending the meeting were Rep. Robert Green, Boise, left, and Richard L. Cade, director of Liquor Law Enforcement for the state. Rep. Green is chairman of the legislative committee conducting the hearings. Eventual revamping of the liquor code will be the result of the hearings.

Two Hippies Ask Trial In Buhl Case

BUHL — Three out-of-state youths involved in a drug incident over the weekend in Buhl were arraigned before Buhl Police Judge Jack Lewis Monday afternoon on charges of vagrancy.

David Sharp, Muncie, Ind., pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, while Dennis Bohling, Auburn, Nev., and Alan Littman, Queens N. Y., both pleaded innocent and requested jury trials.

They are being held in the Buhl city jail. The $300 bond. Two other youths described by Police Chief Richard Frazier as "hippy types" are being held in jail here, awaiting a hearing in Probate Court as juveniles.

Chief Frazier said officers found five more capsules in the Volkswagen bus in which the five hippies were riding. The car reported to be owned by one of the juveniles. Officers also confiscated three kits containing 300 farmer members and their wives.

Headquarters for the conclave will be at the Ponderosa Inn. Theme for the meet is "People, Land and Water" and Gov. Don-

Unyielding Positions Of Israel, Jordan Dim Settlement Hopes

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Unyielding positions taken by Israel and Jordan before the U.N. Security Council Monday have further dimmed hopes of any Middle East settlement soon.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban made plain that his government is in no hurry to come to terms when he brushed aside two rival resolutions both designed to bring the Arabs near-

Farmers Are Getting Less For Labor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — American farmers are the only members of our society who are taking less for their labor and services than they did in 1947.

Roy W. R. Poage, D-Tex., said today.

"One of the most striking comparisons shows that during the past 20 years the hourly earnings of industrial workers have increased 123 per cent and corporate dividends are up 241 per cent," Poage told Texas Farm Bureau members. "During the same period, farm prices are down nine per cent."

Poage is chairman of the House Agriculture Committee. Colton, for example, brought the farmer about 32 cents a pound in 1947, Poage said. Today even with a government subsidy, the farmer gets about 28 cents.

Japan Hunts Navy Men

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police hunted at U.S. request today for four missing American Navy men who criticized U.S. policies in Vietnam and said they wanted to defect to a country not involved in the conflict.

There was speculation the quartet might have taken refuge in foreign embassy, as another G-2 opponent of the war did earlier this year.

LDS Church Leader To Officiate At Chapel Dedication Ceremonies In T.F.

The second counselor in the first presidency of the LDS Church will be in Twin Falls this Sunday for dedication of the Sixth and Eighth Ward Chapel.

The ceremonies start at 2 p.m. Elder Nathaniel Eldon Tanner, a former industrial and political leader in Western Canada, has been second counselor in the church since October of 1963 and had previously served as a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles for a year and as an assistant to the Twelve for two years.

He was a school principal in Canada from 1928-32 and also served on the town council at Cardston. He also served in the Alberta Legislature.

He was Minister of Lands and Mines in the provincial cabinet and from 1952 to 1958 was a leader in Canadian industry. He was born in Salt Lake City.

Political Killings Claim 5 In Philippine Election

By TONY ESCODA
MANILA (AP) — Political killings took a reported five lives today as about 80 per cent of the Philippines' eight million voters went to the polls in one of the nation's most bitterly contested elections. Four persons were slain on the eve of the balloting.

Gunner firing from ambush killed two members of the government's commission on elections and wounded four others seriously, a local news agency said.

The new violence raised to 50 the number of politically motivated deaths this year. Thirty-three were counted in the last nationwide election two years ago.

Although there appeared to be no widespread terrorism, some 25,000 troops were on the alert.

Eight of the 24 Senate seats were at stake, and President Ferdinand Marcos' Nationalista party had to win at least six of the contests to avoid a setback to his re-election chances in 1969.

If the opposition Liberals gained control of the upper house, they could block the economic legislation Marcos hopes will help get him back in office.

Marcos' pro-Western foreign policy, including the sending of 2,000 troops to the Vietnam war, was not an issue. Debate centered around domestic programs.

Besides the Senate seats, 63 governorships and almost 14,000 provincial and municipal offices were to be decided.

'Copter Crash Claims Second U.S. General In Vietnam War

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — The United States lost its second general in the Vietnam War today. Maj. Gen. Bruno A. Hochmuth, 56, commander of the 3rd Marine Division, was killed in a helicopter explosion and crash north of Hue. Four men died with him.

The crash came little more than four months after Maj. Gen. William J. Crumm of the South China Sea while en route to a Communist target in South Vietnam. Five men were lost with Crumm, 48, in that accident July 6. He headed the Strategic Air Command's 3rd Air Division on Guam.

The U.S. Command also announced that Communist gunners shot down two American helicopters and damaged five more Monday in fighting along the coastal lowlands 305 miles northwest of Saigon. But it was not known whether Hochmuth's death was due to enemy action.

The general, a lantern-jawed Texan who took command of the 3rd Division last March, was on an inspection trip. The pilot of another helicopter accompanying him said the general's craft was flying at about 1,000 feet when it appeared to explode in the air, broke in two and crashed on its back in a lake.

There were no survivors. Two American pilots, the American crew chief and a Vietnamese interpreter also died in the crash.

U.S. military headquarters in Saigon said it was not believed there was any enemy fire in the area at the time, but officers at Marine headquarters in Da Nang said they did not rule out that possibility.

The lineup of fighting along the coastal lowlands coincided with a hill around Dak Tu, in the central highlands, after two weeks of hard battling there. Only occasional sniper and mortar fire were reported this morning after a fierce battle late Monday in which 10 paratroopers of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade were reported killed and another 33 wounded.

Eighty-nine B-52 bombers pounded suspected Red positions 16 miles southwest of Dak Tu, dropping 150,000 pounds of bombs on a suspected base camp and staging area.

3 Sergeants Welcomed Home After Being Freed By Reds

By RICHARD DAW
Associated Press Writer
FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — Fellow Special Forces soldiers shouted "Welcome home" and embraced S. Sgt. James E. Jackson Monday night as he and two other U.S. Army sergeants returned to the United States after years of captivity by the Viet Cong.

The cheer for Jackson came from a trio of his comrades as he stepped off a military plane that returned him and M. Sgt. Daniel Lee Pitzer of Spring Lake, N.C., to Ft. Bragg.

Pitzer walked unsteadily and

Light Voting Marks Debut Of Mrs. Black

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — Light voting marked the political debut of Shirley Temple Black today in a special Congressional election in which the onetime child film star is running against nine men.

Overnight drizzles cleared, but none of the 575 polling places in the 11th Congressional District was crowded.

John Bruning, clerk of San Mateo County, which is the Congressional district just south of San Francisco, stuck to his estimate of a 60 to 65 per cent turnout of the 221,961 registered voters by the time the polls close at 8 p.m. P.S.T.

Stassen Will Be 'Peace' Candidate

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Harold Stassen announced today that he will enter Wisconsin's presidential preference primary next April as a "peace" candidate on the Republican ticket.

The former Minnesota governor, who first campaigned in Wisconsin for the GOP presidential nomination more than 20 years ago, said he had decided to campaign to give Republican voters a wider choice.

Stassen held a variety of posts in the Eisenhower administration and now is a Philadelphia attorney.

He is the first candidate on either ticket to announce formally for the Wisconsin primary.

ANNOUNCEMENT SET WASHINGTON (AP) — The long-awaited announcement of about 70 cities selected for the model cities program will be made Thursday.

91 Demonstrators Arrested On Central State Campus

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP) — At least 10 Ohio highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies were injured, mostly by thrown objects, authorities said. Most of the injuries were minor, but one patrolman suffered a broken leg.

The Greene County sheriff's office said between 300 and 400 students were involved. Several of those arrested also complained of injuries.

About 600 National Guardsmen moved into the area Monday night to help put down the riot. About half moved onto the campus and the others were on standby at the county fairgrounds four miles away.

Capt. Dwight Carey of the highway patrol said classes would be held today but that no other student congregations would be permitted.

The disturbance started at midnight Monday along with the return to the campus of an expelled student, Michael Warren, 23, of Cleveland.

He had been ordered off the campus last week after allegedly threatening harm to President Reinbert Stokes of neighboring Wilberforce University, also a predominantly Negro school.

Offer Rejected TOKYO (AP) — North Vietnam rejected today President Johnson's offer for peace talks aboard a neutral ship in a neutral sea. It reiterated Communist terms for ending the war in Vietnam.

The rejection was in an article in the Hanoi newspaper Nhan Dan organ of the North Vietnamese Communist party.

The article, signed by "the Commentator," synonym of a high-ranking party official, was broadcast by Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency.

Molten Steel Covers 21 Men, One Dies BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Tons of white hot molten steel spewed over 21 men at a foundry Monday claiming one life and setting off screams of anguish in what a survivor called a scene of hell.

The Jefferson County coroner's office said Jerry Copehland, 39, of Pleasant Grove, died of burns after he and eight others were critically injured. Two others were seriously injured. Ten received first aid treatment after the unexplained blast sent 17,000 pounds of liquid steel flying out the end of a large centrifugal molding machine.

Officials at American Cast Iron Pipe Co. said they do not know what caused a metal plate to be blown from the end of the cylinder holding the hot metal.

"It was hell," said John Whitley, a worker who escaped injury.

Educational "Task Force" Authorized The organization of a local Task Force for Educational Improvement was authorized Monday night when School District No. 411 trustees met in regular session.

Sup. Ernest Ragland said the organization of such a force, which will evaluate and appraise local schools, has been recommended and requested by State Superintendent of Public Instruction D. F. Engeling. The task force will involve about 100 citizens and educators suggested by community organizations.

The Profiles of Excellence, published by the National Education Association, will be used to assess the quality of Twin Falls and other Idaho schools. Community organizations are asked to make their recommendations for committee members to the superintendent.

George Staudaher, assistant superintendent, said several employees had requested to work beyond their retirement age, finishing the 1967-68 school terms. The board granted the extension of their employment.

Mrs. Terry Snow, a teacher in the Head Start program, and Mary Lou Whitaker, an aide in that program, were hired by the board.

Jose Marino was accepted as a trainee who will work the rest of the term on the custodial and maintenance staff. His salary will be paid by the Department of Public Assistance.

Power Fails Areas of east Twin Falls experienced a power blackout at 8:12 p.m. Monday with 200 customers without electricity when equipment failed. Idaho Power officials reported.

By 9:30 p.m. all but 50 customers had full service restored and all customers were in service by 10:30.

Times-News Employee Retires

E. J. (Shorty) Pardee has worked at one job since 1943. And on Friday, Nov. 10, just four days ago, Eli Pardee retired after 24½ years of service as a linotype operator at the Times-News.

He and his wife, Hallie, came to Twin Falls from Gettysburg, S. D., where he had started in the newspaper business when he was 17 years old. He worked at almost every job there was in a newspaper office at the Potter County News, a weekly paper in Gettysburg. But both he and his wife have never regretted their move. As Mrs. Pardee says, "If you've lived in the Dakotas and then move here, you'd know why we love it."

Both agree that the climate and the people are just what they were looking for when they came here in 1943. Eli (Shorty) Pardee is now 60 years old and was given a retirement party recently by his fellow workers at the Times-News.

If they are able to the Pardees hope to travel a bit, possibly to California, during the retirement years. The Pardees have a daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Lillian, of Salt Lake City, whose husband is a professional photographer. And an adopted daughter, Mrs. Robert Edwards, whose husband works in the agricultural warehouse industry and now lives in California.

The Pardees have one grandson and Mrs. Pardee describes him as Eli's pride and joy. He is Robert Pardee Mangel who is in the Army stationed at Schofield Barracks in Hawaii. He is a Specialist Fourth Class assigned to the 1st Infantry. Robert is the son of Mrs. Jacqueline Lillian, and Mrs. Robert Edwards' daughter, Susan, is in college in California.

E. J. Pardee is a past member of the Masonic Lodge and the Elks Club in Twin Falls, and has been active in his part-time hobby of gardening. The Pardees have taken short vacations to the Sun Valley area and to Jackson Hole in the past and, "enjoyed them very much, especially the trip to Jackson Hole."

LEUSAKA, Zambia (AP) — Zambia will stop all air traffic with Rhodesia, its white-ruled, rebel neighbor, on Jan. 1, 1968, a transportation ministry spokesman said today. And no new deal will be made with Rhodesia "because there is no legal government there," he added.

IN HIS TIME, E. J. (Shorty) Pardee set enough type to wrap around the world, or enough to put out several editions of the Times-News single handed. He retired recently after 24½ years with the Times-News. He now plans to take it easy. He is seen here with a cake — not the front page of the Times-News — at a party given him by his fellow workers. The cake was created by Mrs. Joy Rinehart of the Lynnwood Safeway Store.

Minnesota Plans Model 'Dream City'

By FRANK CAREY Associated Press Science Writer ST. LOUIS (AP) — Plans are being made to build a kind of national model dream-city in Minnesota — possibly one weather-proofed by plastic domes — an engineer on the government-supported project reports.

Max L. Feldman, of the General Electric Co., reported Monday the federal government has already contributed nearly $250,000 to aid private industry planning for the estimated $8 billion, built-from-scratch city that would have 250,000 population, and perhaps be built by 1976. It would differ from all current federal programs in the model-city-line programs, he said, that relate only to improving "pieces of cities" within existing communities, rather than building a brand new one incorporating the latest technological advances.

He told a science-writers seminar that planning concepts for this new city include such tentative ideas as two-mile diameter domes; multipurpose buildings to include homes, business concerns and recreational facilities; and computerized medical check-up systems. Feldman said that while details are not complete, the objective of the Minnesota model-city would be to build "the most technologically modern city" possible — and to surmount "the gap between technological ability and its application to cities."

Feldman told the fifth annual briefing session on "New Horizons in Science," sponsored by the Council for the Advancement of Science Writing, that a group of Minnesota industrialists and scientists had sparked the new venture.

And he said that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, former mayor of Minneapolis, has been a prime mover in its support.

Max Brown Given Republican Endorsement For PUC Post

Twin Falls businessman Max Brown was endorsed as a local candidate for a seat on the Idaho Public Utilities Commission at a Republican Central Committee meeting Monday night.

Thirty-nine people attended, including several state Republican Central Committee officials, and local GOP officials.

Gene Sturgill, Twin Falls County Finance Chairman, said the meeting "was a work sesion, but we did endorse Mr. Brown."

He said the endorsement was the only action "of a political nature" at the meeting.

He said there was no talk at the meeting of a Republican candidate for the Senate seat now held by Sen. Frank Church, a Democrat.

Idaho Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy, Rep. George Hanson, and Idaho Legislator Lloyd Barron, Fairfield, have been mentioned as possible candidates in 1968, but Mr. Sturgill said there was "no talk along this line."

Sometime this week, 13,000 Republican Central Committee newspapers will be mailed to voters in the county, he said.

The meeting was held in the Twin Falls American Legion Hall.

Disputed Ownership of Shoes At Jerome

BOISE, (AP) — A disputed ownership of a pair of shoes will culminate in an annual auction sponsored Saturday by the Democratic Club of Ada County.

The Democrats say they will sell to the highest bidder a pair of shoes worn by Gov. Don W. Samuelson on the date of his election to office. But Samuelson's office denies that the shoes are the governor's.

Democratic chairman of the event, Jim Noble of Boise, however, claims the shoes were given to him on the sly by a member of the governor's staff.

He said some friendly partisan dialogue ensued in which each suggested the other might want to fill Samuelson's shoes.

A Column for Sports Fans

By Bob Reese
Style is the mark of the great ones in sport... and the great ones never seem to lose their style. Even in the twilight of his career, with his champion's style, Mickey Mantle can still bring the crowd to its feet when he steps up to bat.

In Old Times games Joe DiMaggio still swings the bat with effortless grace. Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh and Y. A. Little, all long retired, can still show a rookie passer how to hit the receiver's fingertips. In his 50's Eddie Arcore would still have a lot of horseplayers betting on him... and boxer Sugar Ray Robinson, sometimes called the best fighter, pound for pound, who ever lived, kept his champion's style into his 40's. And Ben Hogan, limping down the fairway—and pausing to rife an iron dead to the pin, is still the mighty Hawk... that indefinable something called style, or class, that makes a champion... style is something that sets the great new 1968 Dodge and Chrysler apart from the others, too... a new and beautiful flare that breathes beauty and excitement. Come in... see the great new line on display in our showroom!

SALES REPORTED
BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Land Department Monday reported sale of two rural acreages in Southwestern Idaho.

A 320-acre parcel in Elmore County, located one mile northwest of Glenna Ferry, sold for $11,750. Purchaser was C. J. Russell, Glenna Ferry.

A parcel consisting of .031 of an acre on State Highway 16 right of way, two miles north of S. H. 44 in Ada County was sold by the Idaho Department of Highways to C. A. Wheeler, Boise, at the appraised price of $50.

Horse Racing Report Is Given Here

Members of the Idaho Racing Commission meeting in Twin Falls with the State Fair and Rodeo Association reported that despite the loss of the Boise racing program last year there was an increase in racing returns in the state.

Robert Green, Boise, commission chairman, said this was probably due to the expansion of racing in the Coeur d'Alene area, which attracts fans and horses from Eastern Washington. Boise, he said, did not hold racing during the past season because of a temporary lack of track facilities.

The commission discussed with fair association members the racing site which is being prepared for the coming year. No decision was reached on the requested dates for the Coeur d'Alene area pending a meeting with the governor and all interested groups.

In other business, Mr. Green reported the average spent per person at races through Southern Idaho in the past season at the parkway which was $11. This is on a basis of total race attendance, he said.

Although this does not compare with the $34 average spent at such tracks as Yakima where racing has been under way for some time and crowds are more accustomed to the betting system, or to the $70 or $80 average spent on the country's greatest thoroughbred tracks, Mr. Green said it does show a growing interest in Idaho. Mr. Green also listed other figures on Idaho racing returns for 1967.

ACQUISITION OK'D
BOISE (AP)—The Idaho Public Utilities Commission announced Tuesday approval of the acquisition by Boise Water Corp. from the City of Boise of the water system at Gowen Field and the Municipal Air Terminal.

The facilities were built by the Federal government at the time Gowen Field was constructed as an air force base. They later were transferred to the city.

The facilities include three wells, two pumping stations, a standby diesel powered generating unit, two 150,000-gallon storage tanks and more than nine miles of pipeline. They are connected by a 10-inch pipeline to the Boise Water Corp.'s system, which serves most of the City of Boise.

Vietnamese Gestures With Regard To Captives Show Propaganda Change

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
 AP Special Correspondent

Vietnamese Communist gestures with regard to their American captives illustrate a shift in propaganda emphasis over the past 10 months and suggest that both Hanoi and the Viet Cong are investing hopes in the anti-war movement in the United States.

In July 1966, after more than a year of air attacks on North Vietnam and heavy use of American air power in the South, Hanoi and Viet Cong propaganda threatened vengeance against captured U.S. crews, even hinting broadly at public war crimes trials.

Now the stress is on humane treatment. The Viet Cong, for example, has just released three prisoners who, according to Communist sources in Cambodia, will represent the beginning of a "trickle" if the Communists are satisfied with news stories about the three.

The Communists have had little success so far from attempts to make propaganda capital of U.S. airmen. The statements attributed to them have been, for the most part, read by others in the prisoners' names, in English-language broadcasts. This leaves the authenticity of the statements open to question.

Sixteen months ago the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong insisted that all captured airmen, as Hanoi put it, "are not prisoners of war and cannot enjoy the provisions of the Geneva Convention of 1949 on the treatment of prisoners of war." This hinted that captives might be publicly tried and executed.

Citing the trials of Nazi leaders at Nuremberg, Germany, Hanoi said captive Americans could "by no means claim to be free from responsibility as far as criminal law is concerned; neither can they claim to be mere instruments who act only as ordered out of respect for military discipline."

"They are in fact war criminals," said Hanoi. "They are not prisoners of war. The American pilots are but pirates, saboteurs and criminals."

Demos Acknowledge Problems

By WALTER R. MEARS
 Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic campaign strategists acknowledge they'll face intraparty problems in trying to elect Senate candidates next year if Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy wages his threatened challenge to President Johnson in presidential primaries.

They foresee major difficulty in Wisconsin, where Sen. Gaylord Nelson faces a potentially tough re-election race, and where the voters will ballot in a presidential primary April 2.

Among other presidential primary states which will have Senate races next year are New Hampshire, California and Oregon, all possible McCarthy target spots.

One key Democratic candidate-bred divisions could be a problem for the party in those states, but added Wisconsin would be the most troublesome case.

One Democrat, unwilling to be quoted by name, said if McCarthy does enter primaries as a peace candidate opposing Johnson, Wisconsin will be one of his most likely targets. Nelson, himself a critic of the administration's war policy, would not discuss the position he might take in a McCarthy-Johnson primary in his home state. "It would be difficult," he said.

VISITING WITH Mrs. Grace Jordan, seated, wife of Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, prior to the recent Twentieth Century Club meeting at the Holiday Inn in Mrs. Erma Scott, Mrs. Jordan was featured speaker at the luncheon meeting and chose as her topic, "Political Sense and Nonsense in Washington, D. C."

Senator's Wife Reveals Life In Capital Is Hectic, But Rewarding

By NORMA HERZINGER

Mrs. Grace Jordan may not be an official Idaho delegate to Washington, D. C. as her husband, Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, is, but she has, through her charm and ability, been a wonderful representative of the women of Idaho.

This charm and ability was very evident to Twentieth Century Club members recently when Mrs. Jordan spoke during their November luncheon meeting at the Holiday Inn. Using the topic, "Political Sense and Nonsense in Washington, D. C.," she told of some of the behind-the-scenes activities of being a senator's wife—and some of her hectic, yet rewarding, experiences.

Mrs. Jordan invited members to visit the capital and told of the various duties of government officials and how the different departments of the administration function.

Mrs. Jordan's life in Washington, D. C. is filled with activities and with her pleasing personality and knowledgeable ability, she is called upon for assistance in many things. One time she was even called late at night by a complete stranger from a different state to see if she could supply 40 people to attend a banquet the next evening to fill 40 empty chairs.

When her husband has not been in public office, Mrs. Jordan has spent most of her life teaching, writing and bringing up three children. She has taught at the Universities of Oregon, Washington and California and at Boise College.

She has done daily and weekly newspaper work, has published a number of stories in magazines of national circulation, and is the author of four books, all with an Idaho setting.

The best-known of her books is "Home Below Hells Canyon," the story of 10 years the Jordans resided on a sheep ranch so remote that Mrs. Jordan had to teach her own children. The children once went 11 months without seeing another child.

Hardbound covers of the book are rare and if you are one of the lucky persons having one, treasure it, as it is now advertised at $20 per copy. In paperback, it continues to sell many hundred copies a year. It has been translated into six foreign languages and put into braille by the Library of Congress.

In Washington, D. C., Mrs. Jordan conducts a writing workshop for Congressional wives, now in its fifth year. She also writes a column for Idaho newspapers called "Where Rolls the Potomac."

Mrs. Jordan was introduced by program chairman, Mrs. Erma Scott, who also introduced Rev. and Mrs. Harold Nye who sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. Russell Pater.

The invocation was given by Mrs. D. A. Jackson. All guests were introduced including one special guest, Mrs. W. H. Dickerson, president of the State Federation. Patriotic decorations were centered on the tables and were arranged by Mrs. Helmut Moss and Mrs. Dean Kendrick.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My son, who is in the service, is engaged to a girl he has been going with for over a year. He's home on leave now, and his girl has been at our house night and day. The only meal she doesn't have here is breakfast.

There are seven of us in the family. This girl never since has offered to help clear the table or help me with the dishes. After she eats she goes right into the living room and sits down. If one of the younger children asks her to play with them, she says, "I don't feel like it."

She comments on items in my home as follows: "My mother has one just like it, only hers is more expensive. Or bigger, or newer."

My son will be getting another leave soon, then I'll have to wait on her hand and foot again. She never says thank you for anything. I haven't said anything to her as yet because I don't want to hurt my son, but am I wrong for keeping still?

CONCERNED MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: What is there easy? The girl is obviously ill-trained, ill-mannered and unappreciative. Since she is a guest in your home, you can't very well ask her to "help" you. If your son has chosen her to be his wife, and is blind to her deficiencies, she is going to be HIS problem. Pray that he gets wise before it's too late.

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is so superstitious it isn't even funny. I don't mind if she believes in all those crazy superstitions, but now she's starting in on me.

I have been married for four years, and am expecting my first baby in two months, and this crepe-hanger mother-in-law of mine keeps insisting that it is "bad luck" to buy even a rat for the baby until it gets here, because "something might happen."

I am furious, Abby. Some of my friends want to have a shower for me, but with all this silly superstitious talk, how can I let them?

I am healthy as a horse and would like to prepare for my baby, but I hate to go behind my mother-in-law's back.

What should I do?

FURIOUS

DEAR FURIOUS: Tell your mother-in-law that YOU aren't superstitious, and you prefer to be prepared for the baby you have every reason to believe you will have. Then go ahead and prepare and good luck.

DEAR ABBY: To the mother who objected because her husband kissed their 34-year-old son on the mouth, I say, "SHAME!" Our world is full of germs and disease, but the worst disease of all is hate.

A father who loves his son enough to plant a smacker on his lips is, in my opinion, a kind and loving father.

Our youngest son is 21. He was on the aircraft carrier FORRESTAL when it caught fire in Tonkin Bay. And when he came home alive and safe, believe me, his father and I greeted him with more than a handshake. We took him in our arms and kissed him on the MOUTH. If there were any germs around, I

MOTHER AND DAD

DEAR ABBY: I know several young snips like that baby-sitter who left a note "CLEAN UP YOUR FILTHY HOUSE, PLEASE."

I pay a sitter to sit, not to judge my housekeeping. I once hired a cleaning woman who came in, looked around, and walked out. So even cleaning women want you to clean up your house before they get there.

NORTH STOPPED MUCH TOO SOON. A Winnipeg reader writes, "Here is a hand that caused a lot of trouble in a recent tournament. I opened one club. Partner responded one diamond. West bid a spade and reached. It starts out just the same way out of the hand, but we feel that he should not have passed at three diamonds. When you open a hand with 7-4-1-1 distribution and your partner bids your four-card suit, your hand improves a lot. When he repeats his bid, your hand moves up still further, and we think your reader should have rebid three spades. The three-spade call is one of those all-purpose cue bids. It doesn't mean anything except that it is forcing. South doesn't know what it means, but he tries three no-trump because he thinks that North may be showing something like queen-small in spades. When North goes to four diamonds, South realizes that North was showing first, or maybe only second round, spade control. In either case, South's king of clubs looks like the card to guarantee a slam and South jumps to six diamonds. This looks easy when you see both hands. In practice, we wouldn't quarrel with a direct four-diamond bid by North. That would get the partnership to game at least, but we don't like North's pass of three diamonds.

Hand diagram showing North (D) 14, West, East, South, and East-West vulnerability. Includes opening lead and card counts.

I raised to two diamonds. Partner bid two hearts, I bid three clubs, he went to three diamonds and I passed. Everything broke nicely and he had no trouble making a slam. He felt that I should have bid more. I contend that I had opened with only 10 high card points and that he should have bid more with his 13. Should I have opened, and how should we have bid from then on?

CARD SENSE. Q-The bidding has been: West North East South. Pass Double Pass Pass. 1♥ Pass Pass 2♥. You, South, hold: ♠A J 7 6 5 4 3 2 ♣K Q 4 3 2 ♠K Q 10 9. What do you do now? A-Bid four spades. What else?

TODAY'S QUESTION. Instead of bidding two spades, has 10 H. C. P. but he has two your partner bids three diamonds, two aces and a seven-trump over your two hearts, card suit that he can rebid if necessary. The bidding in the box shows how six could be

Dad treats my brother and me like grown men, sometimes with respect, sometimes with yells. But what he's on now is a fate worse than death. He tells us the dangers of hippies (free love and all that stuff), which we acknowledge truthfully and simply. But then, everytime two girls, 17 or younger, come into a restaurant where our family is eating, my dad puts a stupid grin-on-his-face. Then he points with his two complete stranger to the girls (who either they're hippies or not) and says to me:

MISS WOOL OF CSI, Kay Jones, Jerome, and Leren Wheeler, manager of her sponsoring organization, the May-fair Shop, look at a wool dress of the type Miss Jones and other contestants modeled last weekend in the Miss Wool of Idaho contest in Boise. Winner of the contest was Semo Sakalaris, representing Idaho State University.

Miss Wool Of CSI Had Fun, Learned Lots At Contest

"I didn't win—but we had a lot of fun and learned a lot—that's what's important," commented Miss Wool of CSI, Kay Jones, Jerome.

The former College of Southern Idaho coed competed with five other contestants last weekend in the Miss Wool of Idaho contest at Boise. Winner was Semo Sakalaris, representing Idaho State University, and runner up was Farelyn Bell, representing Ricks College.

Miss Jones, who finished her sophomore year at CSI last spring, is planning to attend either Boise College or Idaho State University next semester.

She was chosen Miss Wool of CSI last March, and was presented a wool dress by her sponsoring organization, The May-fair Shop. She is red-headed, five feet, seven inches tall and wears the size 10 dress required by the contest.

The contest was a short one, Miss Jones stated. Much of the six contestants' time was spent modeling and practicing modeling. A first was initiated into the contest when the six Idaho coeds modeled miniskirts.

The new Miss Wool of Idaho will receive an expense-paid trip to the Miss Wool of America pageant in June at San Angelo, Tex.

Among features of the contest was a luncheon with directors of the Idaho Wool Growers Association.

Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Jones, Jerome.

Antipoverty Picture Brightens

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Support from urban Republicans for the antipoverty program brightens prospects for House passage of the controversial legislation without major change, although Southern Democrats remain to be heard from.

ATTEND CONFAB
SPRINGDALE—Mr. and Mrs. Adonis Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Darrington, Mr. and Mrs. Burdell Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stanger and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Christen are attending the 30th annual convention of the National Reclamation Association in Honolulu, Hawaii.

With 20 moderate Republicans supplying the crucial votes—and most Southerners not participating—the House defeated 189 to 149 Monday a GOP-led attempt to reduce authorized funds for the program from $2.00 billion to $1.4 billion.

The House then went on to turn back a string of amendments from Republicans aimed at changing the operation of the Job Corps. The only amendment adopted all day would eliminate a second-year authorization for the program.

The action encouraged Democratic leaders to hope for continued success in preserving the Neighborhood Youth Corps and Community Action programs against amendment when voting resumes today.

The relative ease with which the amendments were defeated admittedly surprised Democratic supporters of the bill and they were quick to give credit to Republicans who joined them.

Despite strong appeals from the GOP leadership for support of the amendment cutting the spending authorization by $600 million, Republicans from New York, New England, Michigan and Ohio opposed it. The vote was taken by counting members and no roll call was taken of individual votes.

Before the House takes final action on the bill, probably late Wednesday, the Republicans will have another chance to cut the money. Then it will be on the record with a roll call and the result could be different.

If so it will be because Southern Democrats will feel compelled to vote for what they regard as an economy measure.
