VOL. 64 NO. 208 TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, TUESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1968 TEN CENTS

County Budget Is $3,566,285; No Levy Hike Likely

Twin Falls County Commissioners announced the tentative 1968 county budget Tuesday morning in the total amount of $3,566,285, which they say can be provided without a tax levy increase to county property owners.

Chairman Heber Loughmiller said commissioners were studying and slaying taxes up until Monday evening in an effort to keep all expenditures at a minimum.

Mr. Loughmiller said that of the total $3,566,285 budget, which compares to $3,237,120 spent last year, only about one-third or $1,240,130 will actually come from taxes. The remainder, he said, is raised through fees and other revenue.

While the typical county budget shows an increase of $300,000, commissioners feel they will, at least in the long run, be able to show the taxpayers a reduction in actual tax levies over last year. With assessments continuing on the same 14 per cent basis as last year, Mr. Loughmiller said, they should be able to show the taxpayers a reduction in actual tax levies over last year. With assessments continuing on the same 14 per cent basis as last year, Mr. Loughmiller said, they should be able to show the taxpayers a reduction in actual tax levies over last year.

In the current expense budget for example, a major reduction of about $70,000 was possible by reduction in the building fund and several other departments. Commissioners, through a series of meetings with taxpayers in the county, attempted to determine what new projects and items should be included in the 1968 budget.

Surveyor 7 Ready For Soft Landing On Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor 7 appears set to make a soft landing on the moon tonight.

It will make the last U.S. probe of the moon before man heads there himself.

Scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory will attempt to put the craft down near the rugged highlands north of the crater Tycho.

It carries a television camera, a small scoop to dig trenches, a device to analyze soil with radiation and magnets to detect iron.

If things go well, the 2,300-pound space vehicle will be slowed from 8,000 miles an hour by retro-rockets so that it will be going 3 m.p.h. 13 feet above the lunar surface. It will free fall the last 13 feet.

Landing was expected about 8:15 p.m. EST.

The mission of the Surveyor, launched from Cape Kennedy, Fla., early Sunday, is to see if there is any significant difference between the Tycho area and the equatorial plains chosen for manned landings planned for as early as next year.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Educational Association called on Congress today to enact a $6 billion program in addition to the $1 billion that the organization had the additional $5 billion urgently needed to quell a national teacher revolt and halt racial outbreaks in the nation's cities.

Difference Of Opinion Has Odd Twist

Who's Going To Operate Headstart?

A difference of opinion, with an odd twist, has developed in Twin Falls over operation of the Headstart program. The school district thinks it should be run by the Community Action Agency and the Community Action Agency thinks it should be run by the school district.

The situation came to light Monday night at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of School District No. 411. Doyl Simcoe, director of guidance, reported on a convention he attended recently in Los Angeles and told the board of the Headstart program in many school systems in the nation, is operated by Community Action Agencies rather than school districts.

Tuesday morning Dr. Ernest England, school superintendent, explained that one of the prob-

SPEAKING TO JAYCEES at the Holiday Inn Monday night are Joe Cilek, left, and L. James Koutnik, both members of the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency. They outlined a way to finance a downtown urban renewal project. The Jaycees endorsed the urban renewal project after the presentation. Application for federal funds will be made in the near future and the city council may get the urban renewal proposal in 90 days, Jaycees were told.

Urban Renewal Plan May Go Before Council Soon

Two members of the Twin Falls Urban Renewal Agency told local Jaycees Monday night that a way to finance a downtown urban renewal project was being finalized and the city council may get the package proposal in 90 days.

Joe Cilek and L. James Koutnik spoke to an estimated 50 Jaycees, after the hour and a half presentation, the Jaycees endorsed the local urban renewal plan.

"Basically, we're talking about a plan that means no, I repeat no, tax increase to citizens of Twin Falls," Mr. Cilek said.

An urban renewal study has been under way in Twin Falls for two years, and the planning stage is finished. It involves the downtown core area, about 15 square blocks.

Mr. Cilek said the plan will be submitted to the Department of Housing and Urban Development in the near future. "It should be back in 90 days or so and then the plan will be presented to the city council," Mr. Cilek said.

If the council approves the plan, execution of the urban renewal project could start in late summer or early fall, it was reported.

Financing the project is complex, but roughly an estimated $2 million is involved in the total project. Mr. Cilek said $871,000 will be asked from the federal government.

Another $300,000 to $400,000 can be raised by a local improvement District in the downtown area, with the cost of the LD paid by downtown property owners.

Parting meter revenue on private property which is off street parking could raise another $150,000 over a period of years, it was reported.

To raise the balance, the Urban Renewal Agency would ask for another $500,000 from the government.

"We find that we can't sell the downtown project if we are going to tax residents of Twin Falls who are not concerned with downtown," Mr. Cilek said.

"As our plans develop we have found that property owners in downtown have expressed an interest in the project area and want to build new businesses there," he said. "If the property owners were 'local people.'"

Along with the plan, an application for the federal funds to get the project started will be submitted to the Department of Housing and Urban Development, it was reported.

Heart Transplant Patient Improves

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — A patient whose condition had improved but remained critical, doctors said today of the heart transplant recipient.

At the hospital, which he was awake and alert, with liver and kidney functions slightly improved.

The 54-year-old ex-steelworker received a new heart Saturday night to replace his failing one.

His condition became critical Monday when he began to bleed from the stomach and intestines. Blood transfusions and other measures appeared to have stopped the bleeding, which his doctors attributed to severe pre-existing liver disease.

Physicians said he was suffering some kidney failure also. Though conscious and able to respond, Kasperak said his blood pressure had fallen in his throat because of lung disease.

"These many complications are severe but soluble as long as the heart function is good," said Dr. Norman E. Shumway, head of the Stanford Medical School team that made the transplant.

New-Style Budget Spending Is In Area Of $190-Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spending in the new-style budget now being prepared for submission to Congress into this month will reportedly reach or exceed $190 billion, indications there are that increased spending for both the Vietnam war and domestic programs.

An official in a position to know said the spending figure will definitely remain below $200 billion for the fiscal year which begins next July 1 under the unified budget concept to be presented to Congress for the first time this month.

If the same system had been in use last January, a spending program of $175.5 billion would have been presented to Congress for the current fiscal year.

now contemplated since the administration decided to incorporate in the new budget the recommendations of a special presidential commission created one year ago.

For conservative purposes, however, the source said spending under the old-style administrative budget would range between $145 billion and $150 billion if that system were still in use.

Administrative budget spending in the current fiscal year is now scheduled at between $130 and $137 billion with a budget deficit of less than $20 billion without higher income taxes.

LBJ-Eshkol Talks Indicate More Arms

By FRANCES LEWINE SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson's talks with Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol have produced an indication that a Soviet buildup for Arab nations may mean more arms for Israel.

This was the outcome of conferences spread through 28 hours Eshkol spent at the LBJ Ranch Sunday and Monday conferences at which U.S. officials had said a durable peace in the Middle East would be the prime subject.

A joint statement omitted any mention of the United States sending a low-level but 60 Phantom fighter planes. Eshkol wanted them as an offset to what he says is a dangerous resupplying of Soviet arms to the Arab nations after the June war with Israel.

But the prime minister didn't leave the LBJ Ranch in the street-spattered, lead-over Texas hill country empty handed. The statement said:

"The President and the prime minister considered the implications of the peace arrangements in the Middle East and the ways and means of coming with this situation."

"The President agreed to keep Israel's military defense capability under active and sympathetic examination and review in the light of all relevant factors, including the shipment of military equipment by others to the area."

Powell Claims Congress Has Reversed Position On Rights

By BRUCE F. LOWITT LOS ANGELES (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell says Congress has reversed its position on civil rights since his expulsion from the House of Representatives in 1958. He says it is now cutting away earlier civil rights gains.

Powell, making his third known trip to the United States since his self-imposed exile in the Bahamas in late 1966, said he would kick off his tour with a walk today through Watts, Los Angeles, primarily Negro district, "to meet with all my soul brothers."

The 58-year-old Powell, from New York's Harlem district, said he would accept a criminal contempt charge stemming from his failure to pay a libel judgment against him. He won a 1967 special election but did not claim his seat in Congress.

He said he would return to New York because he was a victim of that obscene, illegal legal action against Congress and the courts.

Early Retirees Suffer In Monthly Social Security Benefit Provisions

By BRUCE BOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA)—About half the Americans who now apply for retirement benefits under Social Security do so at the full retirement age of 62. Those who do get only 80 percent of the monthly benefits they would get if they waited until they were 65. If they retire at 63, the percentage they get is 86 and two-thirds. And at 64, retirement brings them 93 and one-third per cent of full benefit.

Government analysts suggest that the reason so many people are choosing to retire at 62 is that employment opportunities in the age-stressing automation, new high levels of skills and young workers.

The early retirees suffer in monthly benefits because they will be drawing them for a longer time. But an inevitable reduction evidently has not stemmed the rush toward speedier retirement.

For those who still choose to wait until 65, the outlook since adoption of 1967 Social Security revisions is even better than it was before.

Beginning with March 2, 1968, Social Security checks, the minimum monthly retirement benefit for a person 65 goes up from $44 to $55. This will be paid to an individual whose average yearly earnings under Social Security come only to $800 or less.

The maximum monthly benefit, payable to a worker reaching 65 in 1968 with average yearly earnings of $4,800, is rising with the March 2 checks from the old level of $135.00 to $153.60.

Later on, as higher average earnings under Social Security become possible, the top monthly benefit rises. The average yearly old retiree will rise, with the peak of $218 coming in the year 2006. At that point the earnings average can reach $7,800 a year, which is the income level from which Social Security taxes are to be taken from 1968 on.

If 2006 sounds far off, it should be remembered that most students presently in college won't be retiring until after that.

Johnson Tops Polls Over 4 Contenders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two public opinion polls reported Monday that President Johnson is running ahead of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

A special survey by Louis Harris, copyrighted by the Washington Post, said Johnson is riding a new crest of popularity that would make him the favorite over all four leading Republican presidential contenders if the election were held now.

This is a reversal of the situation two months ago when a Harris survey indicated that any one of the four GOP possibilities could defeat the president.

The Gallup Poll reported that in a two-way race Johnson would have a 46 to 41 per cent edge over Nixon with 13 per cent undecided.

In a national sample of adults in 310 locations around the country, the Gallup Poll reported that if Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., ran as an independent peace candidate in a four-way race he could expect about nine million votes.

Idaho's State Hospitals Lack Funds

BOISE (AP)—Funds appropriated by last year's Idaho Legislature will not be enough to bring Idaho's four state hospitals up to federal Social Security Administration standards for medicare patients.

That was what State Health Department Administrator, Dr. Terrell O. Carver, said Monday in announcing a meeting this afternoon of administrators from the four institutions.

Carver said the meeting would concern certification of the hospitals both as specialty institutions and as general hospitals. He said he hoped funds received from admittance of medicare patients would eventually pay for the upgrading necessary to bring three of the four up to standards.

The institutions are State Hospital South at Blackfoot, the Gooding Tuberculosis Hospital, State Hospital North at Dring and Namu State School and Hospital. The Gooding hospital meets the standards, he said.

The meeting today and Wednesday is to be closed to the public, Carver said.

Fulbright Doubts Peace Talk Effort

By ROBERT F. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright expresses strong doubts the Johnson administration is aggressively pursuing the possibility of peace talks with North Vietnam.

"The administration is only interested in surrender," he said Monday in an interview.

The Arkansas Democrat, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he did not expect the White House and State Department would follow up on the recent Hall statement that peace talks will result if the United States ends its air strikes and other acts of war.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has said the administration is trying to determine whether the statement was an actual step toward negotiations or a propaganda move.

Asked whether he agreed with other Vietnam war critics who have urged a bombing halt to test the enemy's intentions, Fulbright said he had advocated that course consistently in his long-standing opposition to administration policy.

"This is the same old thing," he said of the debate over whether the bombing should be called off as a possible peace move. "There's nothing new here."

On the other side of the controversy over Vietnam policy, an administration supporter urged that critics remain silent during the exploration of Lincoln's intent in its latest statement.

Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., told the Portsmouth, Va., Chamber of Commerce Monday night "the wrong word in public, a wrong gesture, an ill-timed move can all make a difference in whether talks can be arranged."

But Fulbright said the administration had "taken the position it is not interested in compro-

Newsweek Bureau Chief Told To Leave

SAIGON (AP)—The South Vietnamese government today ordered Everett G. Martin, Newsweek magazine's bureau chief in Saigon, to leave the country Wednesday. The government gave no reason but apparently was angered by critical articles in the magazine.

Martin was told last week he had to leave in seven days but then received unofficial word he would be allowed to stay until March 16. He was called to the immigration office today and told to leave by Wednesday, the 22.

The government seized copies of Newsweek last October and again on Jan. 1 because of articles critical of the government and the South Vietnamese army. Government-controlled newspapers have criticized Martin and Newsweek in recent months because of various articles in the magazine.

A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said it had no comment.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The 1968 state auto inspection stickers are expected to be theft-proof.

John Rogers of the Public Safety Department said Monday the stickers could wrinkle almost beyond recognition when anyone pulled them from the windshields. Rogers is head of the department's motor vehicle inspection division.

Rogers says the stickers will only be usable once and part of the ink coating will come off on the windshield when the sticker is removed, leaving the word "VOID" over the sticker.

Distribution of stickers begins Feb. 16 at authorized service stations.

Times-News

Official, City and County Newspaper... Pursuant to Section 60-10B Idaho Code... Published daily and Sunday at 130 Second Street West, Twin Falls, Idaho, 83301, by the Times-News Publishing Company, Inc.

WASHINGTON—World tour or no, a 14-day, 14-city, 14-state George Romney has just about had it. Unless he personally arranges the surrender of the Communist enemy in Vietnam or pays off the national debt with his own money, I don't believe nice guy George could be elected dog catcher of the District of Columbia.

The decline of the Michigan governor must rank as the demerit of 1967. Back in February, '67, Romney led all other potential Republican candidates for President with the support of 41 per cent of GOP voters in a Louis Harris poll. Today, he runs a poor fourth — the choice of only 8 per cent of the party faithful. There is a ready reply to the question of how this sure-footed Michigan politician and governor suddenly has depreciated like a 1964 model Rambler-American. He is now operating in the big leagues, and apparently nobody over-told him that things are done differently in such company. Moreover, unlike Eisenhower, Romney has shown a fantastic incapacity for learning as he goes along.

Referring in a recent interview to Romney's various comments on the Vietnam war, Ike said the governor "sounds like a man in a panic. And a man who panics is not the best candidate for President." He has been on so many sides of so many questions that one begins to wonder just where he does stand.

Ike, of course, was reflecting the views of most Republican professionals, who have all but washed their hands of Romney. But Ike's comment had a special death-dealing significance merely because it was uttered by a man who exerts unique influence on the nation's electorate. And among wireless Republicans, Ike is remembered as the guy who licked the Democrats twice in a row.

With Romney's fortunes at their lowest ebb, Dick Nixon is even more heavily favored to win the vitally important primary contests just ahead. Time is now also on Nixon's side. Romney has very little of it left to mend his battered image — only two months in the case of the New Hampshire primary. Perhaps his only chance is to personally sell himself, during his projected hand-shaking tour of the state, as a thoroughly decent and wholesome citizen — which, for all we know, he is in personal recollection what he lacks in know-how.

Romney's people are wont to remind skeptical journalists that this approach worked with Eisenhower, who made some spectacular gains in 1952. But, to employ cliché, Eisenhower was a hero, and so far Romney has been merely an attractive bumbler.

The Romney camp also is plotting over the results of the Harris poll which shows that Nixon, after leading Lyndon Johnson 48 to 41 per cent in November, 1967, now has slipped behind the President by 44 to 47 per cent. Sure, but Romney may trail Johnson by 38 to 47 per cent, a decline of 10 percentage points since he announced his candidacy a couple of months ago.

Moreover, the relative strength of the two candidates when pitted against Johnson is unimportant at this point. Neither Nixon nor Romney can afford to look beyond the primaries to next November; their first goal is the Republican nomination. And here Nixon is practically out of Romney's sight, leading the governor's army of GOP voters by a whopping 63 to 24 per cent. Parenthetically, Nixon leads the so-called "other conservative" candidate, Ronald Reagan, by 65 to 27 per cent.

At the polls, as at the race-track, there is no such thing as a free lunch. The boys still have to run around the track. But at this point Dick Nixon looks just about as unbeatable in those early primaries as the laws of chance permit. Maybe George Romney had better forget that hand-shaking bit and challenge Nixon to a stroll across Lake Michigan.

Poor Reasoning

We fail to follow the thinking of Senator Frank Church in promising Indians at Fort Hall he would help fight against any inundation of their lands through raising of the American Falls Dam. Even if the dam were to be raised to the maximum possible the action would result in a very few additional acres — not more than a few hundred — being covered with water.

which now pours down the Snake River and past this area. Surely Senator Church must have had his tongue in his cheek when he told the Indians that he would fight any inundation of their lands. The lands that would be covered for parts of the year should the dam be raised is marginal land at the best. Those who question this need only to inspect it.

Heart Of The Matter

The color of Clive Haupt's skin made no difference to dying Philip Malberg, who, with Haupt's heart beating inside him, became the second person in history to undergo a successful heart transplant operation. It made no difference to Dr. Christian Barnard, leader of the medical team which performed both operations in Cape Town. Blood type, not racial type, was his overriding concern.

classifying and segregating men according to race, as they are by the precise laws of South Africa and the customs and attitudes of other countries, why should the internal organs be excluded from this discrimination? If blood, kidneys and hearts are interchangeable, just how important are the superficial variations of skin color, lip shape, hair type? As long as one man's "white" blood flows through his veins by the grace of another man's "colored" heart, it will be a constant rebuke that these questions are unanswered.

That Census

The machinery is being set up for taking the U. S. Census of 1970, and again there will be innovations unless Congress acts. Far from the simple purpose of the first U. S. Census, which was to equalize the representation of congressmen, today's is a compendium of all the things bureaucrats have become curious about during the preceding decade.

come. This comes under the head of providing facts valuable to commerce, industry and planners in general, which may account in some degree for the junk mail which inundates all homes. The Census Bureau's earnest protestations that all information it gathers is held in strict confidence does not meet the principle of issue. This principle is the right of free citizens to personal privacy.

BIG-CITY SCANDALS The theory that only under machine-dominated city governments can corruption thrive will have been discredited if courts in New York and Los Angeles convict appointees of non-machine mayors as recently returned incumbents.

Republican Lodges. Mayor Samuel W. Yorty of Los Angeles is a "maverick" Democrat, unlike Mr. Lindsay in many respects but like him as a political independent who won his seat by accusing his predecessor of giving special privileges to business interests. Now his administration too is shaken by a major scandal with the indictment of four city officials and former harbor commissioners for bribery, perjury and conflict of interest. Regardless of the outcome of trials in New York and Los Angeles, the charges point up a situation too common in many cities: The problems created by the unending flow of people in comparatively small areas compounded by the mentality of those supposed to solve the problems. The only hope, however, is to elect outstanding men even though they may be betrayed. — The Oregonian

Now It's Eyeball To Eyeball

WASHINGTON — The most valuable television football-watcher's award was presented last week to Harry Dalinsky of Georgetown at a dinner given at Duke Zeffert's restaurant in Washington. Dalinsky, who could not attend because he was watching the Orange Bowl game at the time, was represented by his wife, Marion, who "brought in her acceptance speech that Harry considered it a great honor to be voted the trophy which consisted of a silver tray which was a replica of a TV dinner.

great moments in Harry's life, and he told me during a commercial, just before I was leaving for the dinner, that he wanted all of you to know that if he could have possibly got out of his chair, he would have been there tonight.

that Dalinsky had not missed one football game that was televised in 1967 including all the pre-season contests as well as reruns of games from former years. His eyeballs had covered more yardage and he had passed up more meals and caught more foul from his family than any football-watcher of the year.

Bones Of History

NEW YORK (AP) — Wars and politics make up the dusty bones of any people's history. But — to make a people come truly alive you have to know what "turned them on" when they were living flesh — what antie pastimes pleased them, what foolishness they followed, what follies led them to act as they did.

Remember Technocracy, the banion derbies, hula hoops, the ouija board, chair letters, Dr. Emile Coue, raccoon coats and coonskin caps? Sann tells the story better than any story ever managed to catch attention — and the cash — of the crowd. It makes for sobering as well as vastly entertaining reading.

One film, shot by director Andy Warhol, showed Dalinsky sitting staring at his set for three hours without moving a muscle. He is considered one of the greatest underground films ever made.

VERSATILE FRANKFURTERS top up with scrambled eggs for a pleasing looking breakfast menu. The skinless hotdog, an American favorite, is good at any time of day, summer or winter.

Skinless Franks Make Tasty Breakfast

Frankfurters for breakfast? Certainly, but not encased in a bun and garnished with mustard as enjoyed at sports events. Instead, "skate" skinless frankfurters in butter and surround with scrambled eggs for a tasty treat that may be just the thing to-anticipate nonbreakfast eaters to the table.

If you're thinking that frankfurters before noon may not be too good an idea, read on. Nutritionists believe that breakfast is the most important meal of the day and that any food in the morning is better than no food at all. Studies have shown that when the body goes without food from dinner one day until lunch the next, it does not make efficient use of the food when it does eat it.

Unusual morning meals can help your family get off to a good start. Even though unusual, the foods should still supply nutrients to the diet.

Choose frankfurters and you'll have no worries—all meat skinless frankfurters are a good source of protein.

BREAKFAST FRANKS 'N' SCRAMBLED EGGS

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for exactly one month. The other night I discovered that my wife uses MAYONNAISE on her hair before she goes to bed. She has the preposterous idea that it makes her hair grow faster. She claims that lots of women use it.

I have never heard of this before, have you? I would like to find out if what she says is true, as I don't care to smell mayonnaise all night.

NEW HUSBAND

DEAR NEW: I am informed by my hair-raising expert mayonnaise contains a protein property which is beneficial to the hair, but here are hair color dyes are more effective, and smell better. Tell your wife that when you go to bed with a tomato you prefer to do without the mayonnaise.

DEAR ABBY: When my mother-in-law baby-sits with my children, I always find later that she has done some "house-cleaning." Scrubbing the kitchen and bathroom floors, cleaning out cupboards and closets, or something of that nature.

The problem is, my husband and I take different views on how I should react to this. Regardless of how good her intentions may be, I am irritated and resentful because I think she is trying to tell me that I am not a very good housekeeper. Abby, I may not be the world's greatest, but believe me, I am clean and neat, and nobody has to help me.

Now, whenever I know that she is coming to baby-sit, I feel compelled to clean extensively before she arrives. And even then, she always finds some "work" to do.

My husband says that I am wrong—that anyone else would be delighted to have such a mother-in-law. I know I can't change her, but I would like your point of view.

IRRITATED

DEAR IRRITATED: It is bad manners to "house-clean" another's home under these circumstances. You may not be able to "change" his mother, but you, or your husband, could ask her to change her ways in this regard.

DEAR ABBY: My heart went out to that mother who wrote to say that her husband's constant criticism of "their" two small boys at the dinner table upset them so terribly they could scarcely eat, and often left the table in tears.

My husband was a fine man in many ways, but he too insisted upon making the dinner hour the time for criticizing our son. Today, at the age of 20, our son is suffering from stomach ulcers—probably from long years of hickering at the dinner table. He is a fine young man, and he and his Dad really love each other. I realize that my husband, at the time of his criticism, was only trying to teach the boy, but how much better it would have been had he chosen another time.

I hope that mother can persuade her husband to keep meal time a pleasant, relaxing occasion, and to save his criticism for later.

Casualty Rate Up For U.S.

By HAL COOPER
NEW YORK (AP)—The casualty rate among U.S. troops in South Vietnam climbed significantly in 1967 over 1966. It increased both in the overall total and on a percentage basis, despite a predicted decline.

A comparative survey showed today that troop strength, greatly augmented during the year, averaged 448,200 against the 1966 average of 299,281. Casualties in 1967 totaled 9,353 killed and 62,001 wounded, a percentage of 15.9. The percentage killed was 2.08, wounded 13.8.

Total casualties in 1966 were 5,008 killed and 20,093 wounded, or 11.7 per cent of the average number of men engaged. The percentage killed was 1.66 per cent, wounded 10.13.

Henry Cabot Lodge, then U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, predicted last January the percentage of casualties would drop during 1967.

"I believe the purely military nature of the war, which keeps the Americans engaged in will make tremendous progress in 1967 and that the percentage of American casualties will start declining," Lodge said in an interview at that time.

At the end of the year the number of American dead since 1961 stood at 15,897 and the number of wounded at 99,742. Another 878 were listed as missing or captured.

Some men were wounded more than once, which somewhat inflated the total, and in many cases the wounds were minor. For example, of 437 wounded during Christmas week, 130 did not require hospitalization.

Christmas week dead totaled 185.

The bloodiest week so far for U.S. troops was May 14 to May 20 when 337 were killed and 2,282 wounded.

As of Dec. 30 the Pentagon reported a U.S. troop level of 446,000, compared with 380,000 a year previous.

In 1965, when the U.S. armed forces in the South Vietnamese arena totaled fewer than 200,000, casualties were 1,369 killed and 6,114 wounded.

The White House announced last August that the U.S. commitment would be increased to 550,000 men by June.

Budget Bureau Aide Schultze Is Second Adviser To Resign

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Director Charles L. Schultze of the Budget Bureau has become the second top presidential economic adviser to resign within a week.

Schultze's resignation, effective after the new budget is presented to Congress—was announced Monday night by the Texas White House seven days after it reported that Gardner Ackley would step down as chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers.

Named by Johnson to succeed Schultze in the $30,000-a-year post was Charles J. Zwick, 43, currently assistant Budget Bureau director.

Zwick was described as

Schultze's "principal assistant, come tax surcharge proposed and adviser on economic policy" by Johnson last Aug. 3.

"I'm just plain tired," he said.

A native of Plantsville, Conn., Zwick formerly taught economics at Harvard University. He joined the Budget Bureau in October 1965 after working for the Rand Corp., Santa Monica, Calif.

Ackley was named ambassador to Italy. Schultze plans to join the Brookings Institution, a private research organization based in Washington, and to return to part-time teaching at the University of Maryland, where he formerly taught economics.

Schultze, 43, said he began talking about leaving the director's job as early as last June but agreed to stay on until completion of work on the new budget for the fiscal year which begins July 1.

"That is scheduled for presentation to Congress Jan. 29."

The director said his leaving should not be construed as any break with the administration over economic policy. Schultze said he agrees with that policy and endorses the 10 per cent in-

Congressmen Set Selves Up For Possible Pay Raises

By ROBERT T. GRAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of Congress have set themselves up for possible pay raises over the next year without the public relations problems that could be involved if they actually voted themselves more money.

Formal recommendations on whether there should be an increase—and how much—will be presented to the members of a special commission and the President.

While the President would forward final recommendations to Congress, members would have to stand up and be counted on whether they should be paid the effect.

The salary level, now $20,000 a year, could go as high as $25,000 if Congress did not vote to reject or reduce it.

The nine-member commission will be appointed this July by the President, vice president, House speaker and chief justice. Its proposals must be in the President's hands by the end of 1969 and they will be submitted to Congress with the presidential budget message early in 1970. The process will be repeated every four years.

Along with recommendations for congressional salaries, the commission will propose pay scales for the level members of the executive branch, including Cabinet officers, and for the federal judiciary.

The salary panel was created after a sharp House-Senate conflict in a catch-all bill that among other things, raised postwar pay rates, boosted salaries and barred nepotism in congressional and other federal offices.

The House was all for the salary commission. The Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee was dead set against it.

Senators contended congressmen should be willing to justify and take full responsibility for raising their salaries. Turning the job over to outsiders, they said, was "taking the easy way out."

The Senators finally yielded in a conference to resolve differences on the two bills.

Agreeing to the commission was the price they paid for acceptance of their proposal to raise third-class mail rates to higher levels than those approved by the House.

The Senate—a smaller body with a greater percentage of members with sizable private incomes—was not as concerned as the House over the salary issue.

Man Sentenced At Murder Trial

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Terry L. Conter was sentenced to three consecutive life sentences Monday after he pleaded guilty to murder charges in the deaths of three bank employees.

Dist. Judge John Mendoza said the sentence he gave Conter "makes him ineligible for parole."

Conter was charged in the shooting deaths of bank manager Larry Staley, a former Utah and tellers Vera Walkington and Betty Helmann. The three were slain during a $35,000 robbery at the Overland Branch of the Bank of Las Vegas.

The holdup and shootings were last Aug. 29.

Idea Of College Super Bowl Is Being Worked On By NCAA

By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association is thinking about its own football Super Bowl to compete with the pros for the television dollar.

"This is just one of the several proposals submitted," Paul Brechler, commissioner of the Western Athletic Conference, said Monday, after the first meeting of the nine-man NCAA committee named a year ago to study the feasibility of a college football championship playoff.

"Our purpose is to find out if there is a workable plan and, if so, to submit it to the convention a year from now. If it's found impractical, that's the report we'll make."

If a playoff plan is devised and accepted, Brechler, chairman of the committee, said, it could be put into effect the fall of 1969.

Brechler denied that escalating television money was a factor in the NCAA's playoff interest but added:

"We have to be practical. We know there would be television considerations, I have heard $10 million mentioned, but I wouldn't think of estimating what such games might be worth."

One of the questions of the proposed plan for picking an official college grid champion is whether the playoffs could be held within the framework of the present bowl games.

"One proposal is that we hold the two semifinal games on Jan. 1 at two of the bowls, alternating them each year, and then have the final game a week later," Brechler said. Some already have dubbed the title game the NCAA's Super Bowl.

Other suggestions are that we hold the playoffs the first three weeks in December and have them over before New Year's," Brechler added, "but some insist this would take the lustre off the bowls."

The committee chairman said the American Football Coaches Association, the official body of college coaches, had expressed favor for a football playoff. There have been objections from other sources, he said.

The Southeastern, Big Ten and Pacific Eight Conferences are known to be strongly opposed to a playoff that would endanger the bowls. The bowls themselves are lobbying against the plan.

The committee is made up of Brechler, chairman; Paul "Bear" Bryant, Alabama; Ann Buswell, executive secretary of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference; Athlete-Directors Capt. Allen Cameron, Navy; Gomer Jones, Oklahoma; Dick Larkin, Ohio State; Albin Martin, Texas Christian; Bill Murray, executive secretary of the Football Coaches Association; and Jim Owens, Washington coach. Bud Wilkinson, former Oklahoma coach, is an ex-officio member.

The group will meet again Feb. 26-27.

Jack Curtice, athletic director of the University of California at Santa Barbara and secretary of the coaches' rules committee, reported that coaches were in favor of going back to the 1966 punt return rule, permitting all the snap, and also anxious to retain the present free substitution rule.

Westminster Wins Over NNC

NAMPA, Idaho (AP) — Ken Hall scored 35 points for the Westminster College Parsons Lake City team to lead the Salt Lake City team to a 91-87 basketball victory over Northwest Nazarene College.

Hall got 11 of his points in 12 tries from the free-throw line.

Falcons Deny Team Has Racial Policy

ATLANTA (AP) — Atlanta Falcons' owner Rankin Smith, replying to a telegram from the Atlanta chapter of the National Association of Colored People, has denied that his team has "a racial policy."

The NAACP chapter Monday questioned the National Football League team's policy and specifically referred to reports that Negro flanker Ron Smith had been traded to the Los Angeles Rams.

Smith said he telephoned Dan to assure him "we don't have a racial policy. We are trying to get the best football players regardless of race."

"I think this fact was borne out by the fact that our most valuable player is the Junior Coffey, a Negro," Smith said.

The Falcons' owner said Ron Smith was tried at cornerback and at split end "and didn't make it." He noted Smith was replaced respectively by Ken Renwick and Steve Slaughter, both Negroes. He called it "a matter of judgment and not discrimination."

Raiders' Quarterback Sick In Bed

ROCKY MOUNT, N.C. (AP) — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica was in bed with the flu and end Billy Cannon was missing when the Oakland Raiders opened their season Monday for the Super Bowl game with the Green Bay Packers in Miami's Orange Bowl Sunday.

However, Coach John Rauch said Cannon was detained at Miami airport in Memphis, Tenn., and was expected on the practice field today.

Rauch hoped Lamonica would be back, too, but was concerned over the virus his quarterback caught last Thursday.

"I'd be glad to sign an affidavit if he wanted," Rauch said. "I think he's getting over this flu. But he had a bad case of it, and rest is the only real cure."

Rauch slipped in an impromptu practice Monday morning, but the field was swarming with visitors for the afternoon session, the only one open to the press and public.

"We'll have a normal week's preparation up to game time, nothing more," Rauch said. "Besides, not too many people are excited about little old Oakland."

"Furthermore, there's nothing really new in football."

Weichers Leads In Crosby Open

PERDIE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Former water polo amateur champion Jim Weichers, Oakland, ended a 66 Monday at Pebble Beach to lead qualifiers for the Bing Crosby Open Golf Tournament Tuesday.

Twenty-three of 108 hopefuls made the grade in competition at Pebble Beach and Spy Glass courses. Three more will be selected Tuesday as the result of late cancellations.

Argento-Led Kentucky Is 84-76 Victor

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Phil Argento scored 27 of his 24 points in the second half to help break open a close contest and give the Southeastern Conference basketball victory Monday night.

Gary Elliott hit two long jump shots to pull Alabama into a 76-70 tie with 1:12 left in the game, but Argento countered with two free throws to put the Wildcats in front for good.

Kentucky scored eight points in the final 58 seconds—five by Mike Pratt—to sew up the triumph, the Wildcats' ninth against a lone defeat and third SEC victory against Kentucky.

It was the fourth straight defeat for the Crimson Tide, which now is 7-5 over-all and 2-4 in the SEC.

Announcement To Take Longer

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — University of Idaho President Ernest J. Berman said Monday it may take longer than he previously believed before a new football coach is announced—possibly not until next week.

Saturday Berman said he expected to announce the new coach in the middle of this week, indicating he expected to poll members of the Board of Regents on the top nominee by telephone.

Monday he said it didn't appear possible for the regents to meet this week and that he expected the new coach would be considered at the regents' next scheduled meeting in Twin Falls next Monday and Tuesday.

Although at first it was reported Hartung had been preferred from a final list of six, in order of preference, by the university Athletic Board of Control, Hartung indicated he wanted to re-evaluate all six finalists with the board.

T. F. Athletic Director, Head Football Coach Steps Down From Post

Mr. Edson, athletic director and head football coach at Twin Falls High School for the past three years, resigned Monday night and Dr. Ernest Rapland, district superintendent, formally announced the position was open to all applicants.

Dr. Rapland said Mr. Edson resigned by letter to the board Monday night while Mr. Edson told a coaching staff meeting of his decision.

Mr. Edson, who came here seven years ago from Gooding High School, said he was getting completely out of athletics so he could see my family something like you don't get much chance for that as a coach."

In his letter, Mr. Edson asked that the board director retaining him in a teaching position and Dr. Rapland said this probably would be printed. However, Mr. Edson said Monday night he had some interests in other areas that haven't developed as yet.

Dr. Rapland said the board indicated it "wanted to consider the field pretty well along with some that are in the system" already.

He added no deadline for filling the position has been set and the board would take its time in making a final decision. Whether the new football coach also would get the athletic directorship also was problematical, he added.

Mr. Edson came to Twin Falls to join Paul Ostyn's football staff. After assisting a year as wrestling coach he assumed the head position for two years, he said.

"The city of Grenoble launches a pressing appeal that a truce of arms be respected during the 1968 Winter Olympic Games.

New Union Will Not Form Picket Lines

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — President Mike Pyle said Monday the new labor union formed by the National Football League Players Association has no plans to throw picket lines around the stadiums.

But Pyle, defensive lineman for the Chicago Bears, said that in collective bargaining with the club owners, the union "will cut out any means to achieve our objectives."

The statement was made at a news conference attended by players from all 16 NFL teams. They announced Sunday they had formed the American Footballers Union of Professional Athletes within the Teamsters Union.

Attorney Dan Shulman of Chicago, who was retained as chief negotiator for the union, said it had no desire to negotiate individual salaries.

But he added that there are many grievances to be thrashed out with the club owners.

One of these, he said, is the matter of minimum salaries, "which are too low. Another is the player pension plan, which is not comparable to the one baseball has going." A third is the amount of pay received through training camps and the exhibition season.

Persons Must Obtain New Permit Cards

BOISE (AP) — Permit cards for the 1968 season must be obtained by persons wishing to fish in Idaho waters, the Idaho Fish and Game Department said.

Fisheries chief James C. Simpson said a random sampling of those returning the 1967 cards will determine how much pressure is on the two varieties of ocean-going fish within Idaho.

The data will also be used to determine the size of catches and timing of catches in Idaho rivers and streams.

The sampling represents about 10 per cent of all permit cards issued, Simpson said.

East-West To Meet In ABA All-Star Game

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Coach Jim Pollard and Babe McCarthy, who have captured the early inside tracks in their divisions, match their best basketball teams here Tuesday night in the first American Basketball Association All-Star game.

More than 12,000 tickets have been sold for the game, which will be played in the 14,000-seat Hinkle Fieldhouse at Butler University. The game will be televised in color to the league's other 10 cities, plus New York and Los Angeles, Indiana will be blacked out.

Pollard is best known for his All-Pro days with Minneapolis when he teamed with ABA Commissioner George Mikan to lead the Lakers to six championships in the National Basketball Association.

McCarthy earned his name in coaching by directing Mississippi State to four Southeastern Conference titles and three straight from 1961 to 1963.

Pollard has his Minnesota Muskies leading the Eastern Division, and McCarthy's New Orleans Buccaneers are heading the Western Division in the ABA.

Both coaches will be able to count on some of their own stars.

McCarthy will have four players: center Ray Robbins, forward Doug Moe and guards Larry Brown and Jim Jones. Pollard will have three Muskies — center Mel Daniels, guard Don Freeman and forward Les Hunter.

Webster State Crushes Montana State

OGDEN, Utah (AP) — The Weber State Wildcats crushed an outclassed Montana State, 34-0, Monday night in a Big Sky Conference basketball game.

Six Weber players hit in double figures, including Larry Borgh with 18, Justice Thippen and Ted Bryant with 15, Dan Sparks with 14 and Nolan Archibald and Nancy Ruff with 12.

It was almost no contest from the outset, as Weber put together one of its best games of the year, outdistancing MSU in every statistical category.

The victory leaves Weber with a 2-1 Big Sky record and a 3-2 season mark. MSU is now 0-3 in the conference and 2-8 over all.

Weber's next conference outing will be in Pocatello against Idaho State Jan. 12 and 20 in a series which could go to three games, including a conference champion.

For MSU, Jack Gillespie hit 18 points, Don Luce 15 and Dave Nease 10.

Association Has Been Suspended

LONDON (AP) — British tennis officials got the official word Monday that the British Lawn Tennis Association has been suspended, effective April 22, for its decision to hold an open Wimbledon tournament and to look in other countries to join them in the big rebellion.

David Mills, secretary of the All-England Club which is planning the first open Wimbledon next June, said: "We regret the decision to suspend Britain, but we still hope other countries will permit their players to come and play here."

Britain's suspension as from April 22 had been announced in Rome, in stern language, by Giorgio di Stefano, president of the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

April 22 is the date Britain plans to abolish the distinction between professionals and amateurs. It has angered the ILTF by taking this decision in defiance of the international rules.

The suspension means that foreign amateurs will be forbidden to compete in Britain. The British, in turn, will be banned from the Davis Cup and from all tournaments overseas.

As things stand, Wimbledon will be confined to professionals and British amateurs.

The British hope the Americans will back them by voting for open tennis at the annual meeting of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association Feb. 7. That could change the whole situation.

Vols Edge Vanderbilt By 64-62

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Free throws by Billy Hann and Larry Mansfield broke a 60-60 tie and staked fifth-ranked Tennessee to a 64-62 victory over Vanderbilt, No. 8 in the nation, Monday night.

The Commodores overcame an eight-point halftime deficit and tied the score six times in the second half before the Vols won on two free throws by Hann and two more by Mansfield.

Hann broke the tie on a free throw with 3:55 remaining, then added another a short while later. Mansfield calmly dropped in two more for a 64-60 margin before Gene Lookyaar broke through for a Vandy layup at the buzzer.

The triumph was Tennessee's second straight in the Southwestern Conference title and gave the Vols an 8-1 record. The loss left Vanderbilt with a 10-3 mark.

Tennessee's Bill Justus was the game's leading scorer with 22 points.

"Pleasure"

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—A 74-year-old man, arrested for the first time on a traffic offense, appeared before Magistrate Margaret Young Monday, and asked if he could say just one thing.

"It was a pleasure to be arrested by such a nice officer," Gary P. Halls of Kansas City told the magistrate. He was charged with speeding by trooper B. F. Thomas of the Missouri Highway Patrol. Halls was fined $10.

Only Olds dealers have it. A horn control that extends all the way around the inside of the steering wheel. Think of it. You sound your horn with the simple reflex action of your fingers. It's part of Oldsmobile's Tilt-and-Telescope Steering Wheel—one of the exclusive Olds availability for '68. Olds also offers a button that pops open your trunk lid from inside the car. A switch that lets you lock all doors with a single click. Even a buzzer that warns you when you're about to nudge the speed limit. And they're all further proof that for '68 the young ideal belong to Oldsmobile.

1967 Idaho Economy On Par With Nation

Economic conditions in Idaho for 1967 were about on par with the national average, depending on the geographical area and industrial climate of the various sections of the state, and the state can expect about the same for 1968.

This was the report Monday by Kenneth J. Newman, vice president and manager of the First Security Bank, Twin Falls, based on a statewide survey of business in 1967. A news letter edited by Dr. Elroy Nelson, First Security vice president and economist and soon to be distributed, says the 1968 outlook for agriculture, metals, phosphate, paper and lumber is fair to good but some problems are expected in metal production in the Coeur d'Alene area due to labor difficulties.

Total gross and net farm income in 1968 is expected to show some increase with slightly higher prices for livestock and some increases in the quantities of crops marketed.

Banking officials noted that farm marketing in 1967 in Idaho exceeded the $500 million mark. This was slightly less than the $542 million record set in 1966, but on a tonnage basis, crop production just year established a new all-time record. Production was up in nearly all crops including grains, hay, sugar beets, dried peas, peppermint and fruit but prices were lower than in the previous year.

About half of the state's total potato production now goes into processing, the report states. Other statistics reported by First Security officials included non-agriculture employment in the state up about 2.4 per cent over the previous year and unemployment at 10,800 or about 6.2 per cent below the previous year.

Retail trades, based on preliminary estimates indicate $1.18 billion or about five per cent more than the previous year. Trade was sluggish in the early part of the year but generally good in late months.

CONFERENCE OPENS KANSAS CITY (AP)—A two-day conference opened Tuesday for representatives of 25 job corps centers in 11 north central states including Utah and Idaho.
