Europe Devastated By Storms, Earthquakes

LONDON (AP) — Snow and strong winds of hurricane force swept across Europe and as far east as Iran today, leaving a trail of death and destruction.

And at the height of the great winter storm, a series of earthquakes struck Italy, killing more than 250, by police accounts, razing villages and leaving survivors huddling in sub-freezing cold.

Hardest hit by the high winds were England and Scotland, where at least 16 persons were killed, four persons were missing and hundreds were injured as houses collapsed.

In the eastern Mediterranean, blizzards struck Syria, Jordan, Israel and Iran and high winds wrought havoc in Lebanon.

Reports listed two children burned to death and hundreds injured in forest fires fanned by the high winds in the Caspian region of Iran.

Syria in the wake of weekend hurricane-force winds, was blanketed in deep snow. Damascus Airport was closed, and the port of Latakia was badly damaged.

Winds of up to 100 miles an hour struck in Jordan, and Amman—the capital—had the heaviest snowfall in years. The storm spread misery among Arab refugees from the war with Israel in the Jordan River Valley. Their tents were torn to shreds.

More than a foot of snow fell on Jerusalem, paralyzing the holy city. Savage winds sent trees crashing, and rains flooded low-lying areas of Israel.

In Lebanon, 500 persons were homeless as high winds wrecked seaside resorts.

The $2.5 million British oil drilling rig Sea Quest broke loose in heavy seas off the northeast coast of England. It was not known how many men were aboard, but one tug was alongside and two others were on the way.

Gales hit Scotland, England and Northern Ireland. Heavy snows and the threat of avalanches trapped thousands in the Swiss Alps. Storm raged across the eastern Mediterranean.

The Sicilian quakes hit before dawn, but hundreds of persons were sleeping outdoors despite six inches of snow because there had been three lesser quakes Sunday. At least 10 persons were reported killed in Gibilina, a town of 6,000, and more deaths were reported in Salemi and the smaller towns of Poggioreale and Salaparuta.

Up to 11 inches of snow swept the Hebrides islands off the Scottish west coast in the gale-force winds that raged over Scotland, England and Northern Ireland.

Buildings in many parts of Glasgow collapsed, one cited as reported killed and hundreds of persons were injured. The winds uprooted trees and did severe damage to ships and cranes on the Clyde River. Electricity failed in Glasgow and its suburbs, and hospitals went on emergency power as casualties came in "by the dozen."

"There is absolute havoc," Glasgow police spokesman said. An ambulance service spokesman said there was no shortage of food and drink.

Sunny weather in Spain over 100 casualties, and there were still many people feared and trapped under the debris of houses which have partly collapsed.

In the south in England and Wales a five-day freeze ended, but the thaw became a mixed blessing as it flooded many roads. Some were under three feet of water. One British policeman was killed when his car skidded and flipped over on a snowbound highway near Norwich.

Alports in several countries were closed with freezing rain and carping runways in ice. Heavy snowfalls blanketed roads and railroad tracks in the Swiss Alps while blizzard winds whirled through the mountains.

Many tourists and skiers were snowed into their hotels. There was no shortage of food and drink.

SITTING AT THE DEFENSE TABLE, waiting for his trial to get under way in Fifth District Court in Jerome Monday morning, is Michael Dillon, 18, Jerome, who is accused of first degree murder in the beating death last March of Mrs. Alta Simerly. In background is Judge Thurston Ward, who is presiding.

Death Penalty Will Not Be Asked In Jerome Trial

JEROME — Michael Dillon, accused of the fatal beating of a Jerome woman nearly a year ago, went on trial here Monday on a first degree murder charge before a packed courtroom.

The prosecution in the case will not insist on the death penalty, but will let the jury decide the penalty if the defendant is found guilty at the conclusion of the trial.

Jerome County Prosec. Atty. Richard Seeley made the statement to prospective jurors when the case opened Monday morning in the Jerome County Courthouse. Mr. Seeley is being assisted by Frank Rettig, Jerome attorney.

Defense attorneys are James May and Peter Rittenman, of the Twin Falls law firm of May and May.

Seventy-six prospective jurors appeared for questioning. The questioning will continue until 12 jurors are selected. As of the noon recess, three had been questioned. The jury selection continued into the afternoon.

The trial is expected to last a week.

Young Dillon, 18, is accused of the slaying of Mrs. Alta Simerly, 60, Jerome, last March 14. Mrs. Simerly's body was found March 19 in a gravel pit near the Jerome Golf course.

The Dillon youth was arrested shortly after the body was found. Mrs. Simerly's car was discovered parked on a Twin Falls street and the trunk was blood-stained.

District Judge Theron Ward is hearing the case. Every juror being questioned is being asked what his attitude is regarding the death sentence. The three jurors questioned before the noon recess indicated that if the facts prove Dillon guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, they might recommend a death sentence.

"Some of the questioning of the jurors dealt with an alleged confession and its admissibility in evidence. Judge Ward ruled that this matter should be handled during the trial.

Doctors said Kasperak's bile duct was blocked and his gall bladder enlarged. They removed the gall bladder and cleared the common duct leading from the liver to the small intestine.

"His transplanted heart continues to beat normally," doctors said.

Meanwhile doubts were heard in Johannesburg, South Africa, whether the heart transplant is yet actually a success.

In South Africa, D. R. Christian D. Barnard, the surgeon who performed the first human heart transplant, said, "I don't think we've succeeded in transplantation of a human heart yet."

"To succeed one must be able to discharge your patient so that he can go home and live a fairly normal life. We haven't shown that we can do this yet."

Barnard said he was taking intensive precautions against infection in his second transplant case, Dr. Phillip Blainberg, when he goes home perhaps two weeks hence.

Patients' Progress Reported

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Mike Kasperak, his transplanted heart still functioning well, remained in critical condition after removal of his gall bladder Sunday in an emergency operation at Stanford University Medical Center.

The one-hour operation was performed by a team headed by Dr. Norman E. Shumway. The 54-year-old patient had a greatly enlarged heart of the 54-year-old steel worker Jan. 6 and replaced it with one from a 43-year-old Santa Clara housewife who had just died of a massive brain hemorrhage.

Appeal Made

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jennette Rankin, only member of Congress to vote against entering both world wars, today asked women "to vote against every man who is for the war" in Vietnam.

The 87-year-old Miss Rankin led a women's march on Capitol Hill at the opening of the 1968 session of Congress only a day after Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield called for a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam to try to stimulate peace talks.

Pioneer Loop Team Set For T.F. in 1968

Twin Falls again will have a Pioneer Rookie League team, according to an announcement made Monday by Tex Goodson, president of the Magic Valley Cowboy's board of directors.

Mr. Goodson said the league will expand to 10 teams. A league meeting held over the weekend and the new franchise in Twin Falls was granted to the Atlanta Braves.

He said about 30 players will be on the team and that the season should begin about June 29. The Atlanta Braves have a team franchise in Boise several years ago, Mr. Goodson said.

Twin Falls was without rookie league baseball last year after the San Francisco Giants dropped their franchise here and moved to Salt Lake City.

ISU Grid Coach Named At State Board Meeting Here

The appointment of Edward M. Cavanaugh, 39, as new football coach at Idaho State University was announced at an Idaho State Board of Education meeting Monday in Twin Falls.

Cavanaugh, who is head of recruiting at Utah State University, replaces Leo McKillip, who resigned after his third season as head of the Bengal football coaching staff.

The board of education is to meet for two days in Twin Falls. The morning session Monday centered around Idaho State University business.

ISU President, William E. (Bud) Davis recommended a new sports arena to the board after a student referendum had approved the proposal. Dr. Davis told board members that the covered sports center will cost about $2.5 million and that cost per semester to student will be about $12.

Dr. Davis told the board of education that the sports center would be "more usable than an uncovered sports arena and that the number of times it could be used as a year would far exceed that of an uncovered facility."

The board authorized the ISU president to secure the services of an architect to begin drafting of plans for the project.

The appointment of Dr. Frank P. Cosgrove, Austin, Tex., as dean of ISU's College of Pharmacy also was confirmed Monday morning. He succeeds Dr. John V. Bergen who resigned his administrative duties to return to full-time teaching.

Hearing Started In False Evidence Case

A preliminary hearing, closed to the public, opened in Twin Falls County Probate Court Monday morning for Mike McGreer, former city police officer charged with planting false evidence.

McGreer is one of two former officers facing similar charges as a result of an arrest late last month of two Jerome men on narcotics charges. Charges have been dropped against the Jerome men.

Judge Richard Reed presided over the hearing Monday morning on a motion from Edward Heap, attorney for the defendant. In addition to the press, the mother and wife of the defendant also were asked to leave.

All witnesses, most of them police officers, were asked to wait outside of the courtroom until called separately to testify.

Attorney Heap also advised the court that Douglas Kramer would assist him as defense counsel in the preliminary hearing.

Attorney Heap asked the judge to clear the courtroom on grounds the case against his client and Mr. Heath has already been given extensive publicity and that further publicity would only serve to jeopardize his case—and that of Mr. Heath, whose hearing is scheduled later this month.

Judge Reed said he would grant the motion, not because of publicity that might be given, but because the rules require such procedure on motion by the defense.

Probate Court officials said they have scheduled the full day for the hearing, although it may not require the full day, or may continue longer.

The preliminary hearing is held to hear evidence in the case on which the court can determine if there is sufficient reason to believe a crime has been committed and the defendant should be held for trial.

MIG21 Shoots Down U.S. Thunderchief

SAIGON (AP) — A MIG21 flashed up through monsoon clouds to shoot down a U.S. Air Force Thunderchief Sunday during a strike against an airfield deep in North Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today.

The pilot is missing.

The F105 Thunderchief was taking part in a radar attack on the Yen Bai airfield and storage area 78 miles northwest of Hanoi. It was the 78th American warplane reported lost in combat over North Vietnam. This includes 30 downed by MIGs while American pilots claim to have shot down 103 of the Communist jets.

Hanoi claimed three U.S. planes were shot down Sunday, including an RB-57 electronic counter-measure plane loaded with highly sophisticated electronic equipment to jam North Vietnam's radar warning system.

Mansfield Urges Halt Of Bombing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield urged halting U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, saying Hanoi may have given the "one small indication" President Johnson has publicly sought that peace talks might result.

The Montana referred Sunday to a New Year's weekend statement by Nguyen Xuan Day, North Vietnam's foreign minister, that Hanoi "will hold peace talks with the United States if U.S. bombing and other acts of war against the North are stopped."

Mansfield said both President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had specified a number of times that if North Vietnam "would just give us one small indication" that it wanted to talk peace then U.S. bombing might be halted.

He said he believes "Frank's statement" could be considered in that light, "although adding it's hard to say" whether the Hanoi offer was sincere or a propaganda ploy.

Mansfield's statement came on the eve of today's opening of the second session of the 90th Congress, in which Vietnam policy is again expected to generate much friction.

Jennette Rankin, 87, the nation's first congresswoman, pledged to carry on antiwar protest she said she'll involve up to 10,000 women to the steps of the Capitol today.

Miss Rankin, a Montana ranch owner who as a congresswoman voted against U.S. entry into both World War I and World War II, said she'll risk jail term if necessary by ignoring a police order that the demonstration halt at a square near the Capitol.

"They told us we couldn't demonstrate on the Capitol grounds," she said. "But I am going to the Capitol and expect many women."

Kingfish Is Dead At Age 67

WEST TISBURY, Mass. (AP) — Warren R. Colpman, who played "Kingfish" on the original Amos 'n Andy radio program, is dead at 67.

Death came unexpectedly at his home on Martha's Vineyard Saturday night.

Colpman, 30, stage and film actor for 30 years, later produced, directed and wrote for the stage and motion pictures.

He played the lead in "Porgy and Bess," "John Henry," "Roll With Me," "The Grapes of Wrath" and "Anna Lucasta" on Broadway.

Court Approves Railroad Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court approved today the merger of the Pennsylvania and the New York Central Railroads, clearing the way for their combination by Feb. 1.

The two roads were given a go-ahead almost six years after they had asked the government to allow what would be the biggest merger in the history of American business.

Turnout Poor

BANGKOK (AP) — Thai voters went to the polls Sunday for the second time in 10 years and according to reports from around the country it was the worst turnout in history.

British Put Final Touch To Program

LONDON (AP) — The British cabinet on the first day today laid its sweeping economic retrenchment program, with one prospective casualty the contract to buy a billion dollars worth of American F111 bombers.

A provisional decision to drop the order for 50 F111s was up for final Cabinet approval. Defense Secretary Denis Healey was battling to save the contract, and colleagues said he still had a fighting chance to get up to 35 or 40 of the big swing-wing planes if he could offer the Cabinet comparable savings elsewhere in the defense budget.

The British were told last week they could take 10 years to pay for the F111s and would be given American orders for British arms to earn the dollars to offset their foreign exchange losses.

Second Session Of Congress Faces Grim Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — The second session of the 90th Congress opened at noon today in a Capitol coated with fresh snow in contrast to the grim problems confronting the legislators.

All the frustrations of the Vietnam war that plagued Senate and House members before they adjourned just a month ago were still on hand.

And compounding the difficulties and divisiveness of the war in a election year were the concerns over soaring crime rates, rising prices, racial unrest and threats to the stability of the dollar.

In advance of the start of the session, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana urged a halt to the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam to test Hanoi's willingness to enter into peace talks.

His words echoed a similar plea from Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., who served as ambassador to India during the Eisenhower administration.

In his national television address, the President will outline the legislation he wants passed. Anticipated is a call for measures aimed at heading off a renewal of the racial violence that plagued many U.S. cities last summer.

Johnson also is expected to appeal anew for an income tax increase, a proposal on which he suffered his biggest defeat at the 1967 session.

Possible buttress for Johnson's request this year are the devaluation of the British pound, the continuing outflow of dollars and gold and climbing prices.

And in an effort to strengthen the dollar and cut down an adverse balance of payments, Johnson may propose a tax on travel abroad, tax rebates for U.S. exporters, a tax on imports and removal of the gold backing for the dollar.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler plans to discuss these possible measures with key congressional leaders early in the session. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Sunday he feels Congress would balk at a tourist tax. An income tax increase was just one of several administration proposals bunted aside last year.

Other major legislation unsuccessfully pushed by the President, despite heavy Democratic majorities in both Senate and House, included open housing, anticrime, gun controls, truth-in-lending, election reform, and pipeline safety measures.

How these and other administration bills fare this year may have some front-loading taken by congressmen since they adjourned a month ago.

All House members and one-third of the senators come up for re-election in November along with the President.

Johnson said the nation's gold was available to back the dollar.

"The only way this can happen is to remove the gold requirement that each $1 in federal reserve notes, the only paper money now circulated, must be backed by 25 cents in gold."

Chairman William McGonaghy of the Federal Reserve Board last year urged quick removal of the gold cover to serve notice the nation is willing to use its last ounce of gold to defend the dollar.

Administration officials agreed with Martin's basic reasoning but not on the timing. Johnson is expected in his State of the Union message Wednesday to review the new balance-of-payments program which includes investment control and a possible tourist tax on Americans traveling abroad.

Removing the gold cover would reinforce the program although in itself would have no effect on the flow of dollars abroad.

Another possible hint on administration thinking came Sunday from Walter Heller, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers. He called for removing the gold cover and abandoning gold as a world money-metal.

Heller was interviewed on NBC's "Meet the Press" radio-television program.

Only Belgium, Switzerland and South Africa among major nations now have any type of gold cover on currency. Even France, where the love for gold is unquestioned, requires no gold backing for domestic money.

The U.S. gold cover now ties up about $10.5 billion worth of the metal.

The British were told last week they could take 10 years to pay for the F111s and would be given American orders for British arms to earn the dollars to offset their foreign exchange losses.

Becker, 128 Martin St., Twin Falls, has received messages of congratulations from President Lyndon Johnson and other high ranking government officials for his participation in law enforcement in Washington, D.C., during the protest rally held Oct. 21-22 at the Pentagon. The letters are signed by Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, the Secretary of the Army and Attorney General as well as the President.

Louisiana Payment Law Ruled Unfair

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court found unconstitutional today a 1962 Louisiana law that authorized payments to parents of children in private, nonsectarian schools.

A federal court in New Orleans had ruled August that the purpose of the law was to continue segregated education in the state. It ruled the law in violation of the constitution's "equal protection" guarantee, saying Louisiana was illegally promoting private discrimination.

The Supreme Court, acting on a motion by the Justice Department, affirmed the three-judge court's ruling.

Series To Help You Reduce Income Tax

"This is the year to itemize deductions."

These are the words of Ray Do Crane, tax expert and veteran newspaperman whose 14-part series, CUT YOUR OWN TAXES, will begin Jan. 22 in the Times-News.

Millions of dollars can be saved legally by taxpayers knowing their rights and privileges if they take advantage of allowable credits and deductions while filing their income tax this year.

An expanded version of CUT YOUR OWN TAXES is available through this newspaper in book form for just 50 cents. This handy 64-page illustrated guide will take you through income tax forms line-by-line with money-saving tips. You will want to have it at hand while filling out your Form 1040 and auxiliary forms.

Do Crane tells how the average taxpayer can save his share of these millions in his easily understandable columns written for the Times-News.

Do Crane's advice is aimed at people with average incomes, not big businessmen and heavy investors in the stock market. (But you will find tips on reporting your stock dividends.)

You will find dozens of tax saving suggestions available to homeowners, health insurance recognized as one of the nation's foremost authorities on tax matters. Sheldon S. Cohen, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, said:

"As editor and writer with creativity and insight—his articles on the many aspects of taxes have contributed substantially to more effective tax administration by raising the level of public understanding."

Watch for this tax expert's money-saving series beginning Jan. 22 in the Times-News. To order your copy, send your name, address and 50 cents to:

WASHINGTON—As a practical politician, Bobby Kennedy has not closed the door to his final click on challenging Lyndon Johnson for the Democratic nomination for President. He is still saying that he "expects" to support Johnson for reelection which, when looked at from his position, is about as far as he can go.

Kennedy's latest reaffirmation of his "expected" support of the President came at a San Francisco luncheon last week, when he said his disagreement with Johnson over the Vietnam war would not necessarily bar his endorsement of the President for a second full term in the White House. This makes sense, because no politician who does his thinking above his neck is going to burn a bridge he might need later.

Any man with Presidential ambitions knows he must stay in his party if he is ever going to realize them. In Bobby's case, this means he cannot risk challenging the regular organization unless he is sure he can win. An unsuccessful attempt to depose Johnson at the nomination in 1968 will be remembered by the party regulars in 1972, especially if it results in a split that loses the White House for the Democrats.

Thin Ice
The odds are long that he will, it will not be because he wants to, but because he has no other choice.

For Bobby, the temptation must be strong to challenge the President this year. All the polls say he is the overwhelming choice of Democrats to be their Presidential nominee. He is the most sought-after political speaker in the nation. The crowd he attracts are idolatrous, not the politely curious that turn out to see Lyndon Johnson, and there are more about them than some of Bobby's critics trouble to count.

Moreover, the Vietnam war is still a big liability to Johnson. It is more divisive than any war ever fought by Americans, and even those who support the President's policies in Vietnam want out as soon as possible and tend to be querulous about Johnson's capacity to arrange a peace. The people want peace with honor. He is capable of being persuaded that Bobby Kennedy can achieve it sooner, perhaps because he keeps harping on the necessity of stopping the killing.

Bobby's reaction to the Hanol statement saying the North Vietnamese government would like to see the United States stop its bombing and other warlike acts against North Vietnam was an example of his instinctive ability to reflect the plain citizen's viewpoint. Stop the bombing, he says, and see what happens—we can always start killing people again if the negotiations fall.

That attitude is making more and more sense to Main Street, which has been forced to take a chance on war and now is eager to take a chance on peace. It is difficult to convince the shoe salesman in Buffalo or the insurance agent in Sioux Falls that a sane, sane policy of peace can do any harm, which is what the Johnson Administration has been forced to try to do for years.

"If we wait another year," says Kennedy, "it will be far worse." Again he is speaking for a great many Americans, to whom another year might bring death or the permanent crippling of some brothers and fathers in a Vietnam rice paddy.

So, Bobby Kennedy will not keep that Presidential door open just against President Johnson. He will keep it open against Johnson's momentum and Johnson's case is rendered hopeless by events. Should such a situation eventually, Bobby is not about to permit Gene McCarthy, or anyone else, to step in for the kill.

He is capable of being persuaded that Bobby Kennedy can achieve it sooner, perhaps because he keeps harping on the necessity of stopping the killing.

Bobby's reaction to the Hanol statement saying the North Vietnamese government would like to see the United States stop its bombing and other warlike acts against North Vietnam was an example of his instinctive ability to reflect the plain citizen's viewpoint. Stop the bombing, he says, and see what happens—we can always start killing people again if the negotiations fall.

That attitude is making more and more sense to Main Street, which has been forced to take a chance on war and now is eager to take a chance on peace. It is difficult to convince the shoe salesman in Buffalo or the insurance agent in Sioux Falls that a sane, sane policy of peace can do any harm, which is what the Johnson Administration has been forced to try to do for years.

"If we wait another year," says Kennedy, "it will be far worse." Again he is speaking for a great many Americans, to whom another year might bring death or the permanent crippling of some brothers and fathers in a Vietnam rice paddy.

So, Bobby Kennedy will not keep that Presidential door open just against President Johnson. He will keep it open against Johnson's momentum and Johnson's case is rendered hopeless by events. Should such a situation eventually, Bobby is not about to permit Gene McCarthy, or anyone else, to step in for the kill.

The Policeman

All law enforcement officers of Magic Valley have received a message from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. As a new year starts, it is timely and important, both at the same time. Mr. Hoover's message is one that should be read by all citizens because everyone, in one way or another, should be interested in law enforcement.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I recently returned from a week-end at a well-known resort where we met another couple. (I'll call them Freddy and Alice.) They posed as husband and wife, but we know for a fact that she is his mistress, not his wife. (Someone at the resort knows Freddy's wife.)

What people do is their own business, but I learned a lesson. I think I know why men enjoy mistresses so much. Alice was always well-groomed and beautifully attired. Her hair was trim and she always had a smile on her face. Never once did she interrupt Freddy or disagree with him.

She gave him all her attention, laughed at his jokes, and her company was consistently gay, pleasant and charming. I can assure you Freddy had the time of his life. Please print this. If more wives acted like Alice there would be fewer mistresses.

LEARNED A LESSON

DEAR LEARNED: I don't know what Freddy's wife is like, but maybe she could top Alice if all she had to worry about was how she looked, and how to be charming for a few hours (or days) at a time. I wonder how Alice would hold up with a steady routine of battling hot irons, hables and budgets. And possibly knowing that her husband was week-end ending with somebody else?

DEAR ABBY: Like most people who read your column, it had never occurred to me to write. That is, until I read that letter in your column for the young wife whose husband constantly corrected their two small sons (ages 2 1/2 and 5) at the dinner table until they left in tears.

I have a message for the father: As an engineer by profession, I am inclined to perfectionism and intolerance of the faults of others. Fortunately, I am more tolerant today than I was when I was raising our first son. Looking back, I am and shall forever be deeply ashamed of the way I hounded and belittled our son until his self-confidence and initiative were destroyed.

This boy, of superior intelligence, became a high school drop-out, incorrigible, and a runaway. Now 21, he has no direction, a questionable future and has tried everything from liquor to LSD. Except for an occasional letter or phone call every three months, we never know where he is.

We have five younger children who are fine because by that time I had learned a little, however, that doesn't diminish the sin of my intolerance. So please, Abby, tell this young father to give his small sons patience and affection before it's too late.

INDIANA FATHER

DEAR ABBY: I have been corresponding with a young man for about two years. I have been sending my letters with "love." He has been ending his with "fondly." What would you say his "fondly" means?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: His "fondly" is just a cut above "sincerely," but a long way from "love." One who signs his letters "fondly" is taking no chances on being misunderstood.

Dressmaking Class Slated

HAILEY — A "Better Dress" class for all homemakers who have had some experience in clothing construction is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Jan. 19, at the courtrooms.

Mrs. Mary Lou Ruby, extension home economist, said the class will be conducted for four weeks in making a better dress and six weeks in making a good garment. The Bishop method of clothing construction film-strip on "Making a Good Dress and A Tailored Garment" will be shown.

Mrs. Ruby said 20 homemakers need to be registered for the class before it will be given.

Reading Books Review Is Given

MAN ROBBED
EAGLE (AP) — A Boise man who stopped on State Highway 16 to help what appeared to be a stranded motorist was robbed of $30, according to Ada County sheriff's office.

J. W. King Jr., told officers he stopped in the area west of Boise near Beacon Road.

A man about 5-feet-7 with long dark hair and a mustache pointed a gun at him, he said, and demanded his money.

King, 48, said he handed over money out of it.

Officers began their search for his billfold and a girl with the "hippie-type" robber took the three robbers about 10 p.m.

DETENTION LEGAL
BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — Detention of an Indian youth found intoxicated at school was legal, his parole officer said last weekend, even though he was not given a hearing before he was placed in jail.

Commenting on the controversial jailing of 16-year-old Darwin Sheepshead of Fort Hall, who committed suicide Jan. 4 in his Bingham County jail cell, a parole officer John G. Owens said he was not informed the youth had been jailed until the day after his arrest.

But Owens said he would probably have ordered the youth jailed if he had known, and that a hearing would have been held had the youth not taken his life by hanging himself.

MEET SCHEDULED
BOISE (AP) — Officials from schools across Idaho will be in Boise Thursday for a three-day meeting to hear of educational progress and discuss school business matters.

Meeting jointly will be the Idaho Association of School Superintendents and the Idaho School Business Officials.

Reds May Have To Depend On Small Supply Vessels

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communists are being forced to rely heavily on small ships to supply North Vietnam because silt is choking channels and waterways leading into the major port of Haiphong, U.S. intelligence sources say.

They said this means the Communists must use many more vessels than previously.

In peacetime, the approaches to Haiphong were kept open for big ships by constant dredging of the approaches.

But the sources said Sunday the Communists apparently are having increasing difficulty carrying out the necessary amount of dredging. They have no reason for this except to cite "war-time conditions."

"Sitting has become a real problem," one expert said, "because of a bad harbor."

"You see very few of the bigger ships going in these days. North Vietnam needs small ships."

Vessels up to 10,000 tons used to be common sights in the Haiphong harbor, the sources said, but now ships in the 5,000-8,000 ton range are smaller and need to haul petroleum, food and other cargo to support the Communist war effort.

Statistics on merchant ship arrivals in North Vietnam show a sharp decline in 1967—more than twice as many times as in 1965 and an increase of 83 times over 1966.

Exports said this was traceable in part to the requirement for smaller ships as well as an increase in Soviet aid to North Vietnam.

Normally secret shipping statistics, made public by Rep. Charles Chamberlain, R-Mich., show the number of non-Communist ship arrivals rose slightly last year. The 1967 total reached 76 arrivals, an increase of 4 over 1966 but still well down from the peak of 401 in 1964.

The United States has applied steady pressure against allies and other non-Communist countries in an effort to cut off this source of shipping to North Vietnam.

Former Resident Of Valley Dies

HAGERMAN — Robert Allen Smith, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Halfway, Ore., formerly of Hagerman, died Saturday at his home following a long illness.

He was born Aug. 17, 1949, in Wendell and moved with his parents to Mountain Jump nine years ago. In 1962 they moved to Halfway. He attended school in Hagerman for three years.

Surviving in addition to his parents are three sisters, Mrs. Gary Randall, Denver, Colo., Mrs. Darrell Romino and Shirley Ann Smith, both Halfway, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley H. Gardner, Windsor, Vt.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Thompson Funeral-chapel—Gooding, with Rev. Edward Hargreaves, Hagerman Methodist church, officiating. Last rite will be in Hagerman Cemetery.

Report Made On School Finance

SHOSHONE — The Public Retirement system of Idaho reports the amount of money paid for each school district from July through September, 1967.

Shoshone received $3,301,300 for District and $1,400 for District, with the estimated cost for the biennium for Lincoln county at $4,732 and the total for the state $8,707,782.

This is the support given by the state to the school districts to fund the employee's share of the teacher retirement costs.

Breakin Reported At Hansen School

HANSEN — Nocturnal was reported missing when a breakin at Hansen High School was reported to the Twin Falls sheriff's office about 9 a.m. Saturday.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Johnson said that the building was entered via a basement window. Some screwdrivers were taken from the basement area and used to pry the office door open. He said it looked as if an attempt had been made to open the safe, and other items in the office had been disturbed but nothing taken.

He theorized that the subject or subjects were attempting to get gate receipts from a basketball game held at the high school Friday night.

Many Elderly Men Retire From Draft Board Duty

By HAL COOPER
NEW YORK (AP) — More than 1,500 of the old men who have been selecting the young men to fight in Vietnam have retired from draft boards across the country in recent weeks. Others will follow.

600 Negroes Serving On Draft Boards

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Selective Service Administration says about 600 Negroes are now serving on local draft boards—an increase of 315 in a year.

Under the draft law of 1967, a Selective Service spokesman said, all local board members over 75 years of age or with 25 years service were required to retire. This provision resulted in about 1,500 vacancies on draft boards.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, has been pushing local boards to increase the number of persons in minority groups represented in the makeup of boards. This has resulted in more Puerto-Rican, Spanish-American and American Indians as well as more Negroes on draft boards, the spokesman said.

The action resulted, the spokesman said, in Arkansas now having 35 Negro board members where it used to have none, and Louisiana now having 33 where it formerly had none.

than any potential Republican presidential candidate.

The poll defined a hawk as one who wants to escalate the military effort in Vietnam and a dove as a person who wants to reduce it.

On that basis, the poll found 65 per cent of those sampled felt Johnson was a hawk, and 18 per cent thought he was a dove, while 16 per cent offered no opinion.

Dozens of the retired were from the start of Selective Service, told an interviewer.

Under federal legislation which became effective Jan. 1, draft board members they are unpaid volunteers—must retire upon reaching 75.

There are 4,087 local boards with a total of 17,232 members and 86 appeal boards with 503 members. During January the age rule required the retirement of 1,500 local board members and 35 appeal board members.

As an extreme example of the rule's effect, it eliminated further service by all five members at Hot Springs, S.D., where Joe C. Weyl was dean of the board at 80.

Another 333 board members in various parts of the nation will reach 75 during 1968.

In general, the retiring draft board members never regretted the time and effort spent serving on their boards, and during the hectic buildup of armed services manpower during World War II they sometimes worked from morning to midnight.

Archer A. Page, 80, who was on a Richmond, Va., local board from the start of Selective Service, told an interviewer: "I must have acted on 25,000 or more individual cases over the years. It was a duty to be done just as the boys were sending out into a duty."

"I thought about retiring the job-up several times, but I didn't," said Tom Hargis, 85, who was chairman of the board of Madison County, Ark., from the time it was organized. "I just kept staying on."

Dr. George Earl, 83, until Jan. 1 a member of the Minnesota state Selective Service Appeal Board, said, "It's been tough a lot of times but I never thought of resigning."

One of 85 Californians required to retire because of the age limit was peppery John P. Dunning, 87, of Sacramento who served on his local board from the start.

He said the World War II

drafts were better than those the boards are getting today. "They were a lot healthier for one thing," Dunning said in an interview. "But what can you expect the way kids are living now, using dope, growing their hair long, running around? We didn't have the problems with those in World War II that we have now. Now you have all these conscientious objectors who come to board meetings prepared to read three hours worth of documents to you, if you let them."

LEARNING-TO-READ

Q. Is it true that girls learn to read earlier than boys?
A. Yes. Various studies have shown that girls learn to read earlier and more easily than boys. No one knows why. Much current research in the development of reading ability simply confirms the obvious. Good readers like to read. Poor readers hate it. Good readers have higher educational aspirations than poor readers, are less likely to be misadjusted, and have more literate parents. Poor readers need individual tutoring.

'Minischool' Program Set For New York

NEW YORK (AP)—A plan to put "minischools" for children 2 to 4 years old in every block in poverty areas has been announced by a city school official.

The program will start next fall with two schools, Mrs. Shelley Yumans said Sunday. She is director of Title III projects of the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Mrs. Yumans said: "We find the earlier we get youngsters, the better they do in school. She said the "minischools" will be in rehabilitated buildings and will be staffed by professional teachers and other aides.

Copper Strike Enters Its 7th Month

By The Associated Press

The nationwide copper strike enters its seventh month today with negotiations scheduled to begin on Jan. 23 between the Anaconda Co. and union officials in Butte, Mont. The last negotiations there broke down Oct. 19.

The company has estimated losses up to Jan. 7 at $24 million and the total economic loss in Montana has been estimated at $51 million.

There are no new developments reported between Phelps-Dodge Corp. and the striking union. Talks in Douglas were resumed Jan. 8 to be resumed upon call.

Meanwhile, the Arizona State Department of Mineral Resources said, the strike during 1967 reduced production by 300,000 tons or 40 per cent of the state's 1966 production.

There are no major bargaining sessions scheduled between Kennecott Copper Corp. and the United Steelworkers. However, talks continue on a local level.

Steelworkers Local 800 and Kennecott's Chino Mines Division continue to meet in Hurley, N.M., but have declined to comment on progress.

Merchants in the Silver City, N. M., area who extended credit to 1,200 strikers say they now find substantial portions of their capital tied up in accounts receivable but feel they can roll with the punches if the strike is settled by the end of the month.

However, they express grave concern if the strike continues beyond that.

More than 60,000 workers have been idled by the strike which began July 15 and affects the "Big Four" of the industry—Kennecott, Phelps-Dodge, Anaconda and American Smelting and Refining.

2 Cardinals Quit Posts In Church

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Two more cardinals have quit their posts in the central government of the Roman Catholic Church as part of Pope Paul's reorganization. The Pope named an American, Francis Cardinal Brennan, to succeed one of them.

Cardinal Brennan, 72 and a native of Shenandoah, Pa., has been dean of the Sacred Rota, he succeeds Benedetto Aloisi Cardinal Masella as prefect of the Congregation for the Discipline of Sacraments.

Gustavo Cardinal Testa, secretary of the Congregation for the Oriental Church, also resigned. Maximilian Cardinal de Furstenberg of the Netherlands was named to succeed him.

Five cardinals have now resigned from the Vatican Curia, the central government of the church, since Jan. 8.

Demand Influences Good Prices For Cattle In '67

CHICAGO (AP)—Good demand influenced relatively good prices for cattle at Chicago's stockyards in 1967, but hog and sheep prices fell, compared with previous year.

Cattle prices carried on into January the $25-$26 range which had been established in late 1966. But some improvement was noted in the spring and prices edged ahead of $27 a hundredweight and just after the long Labor Day weekend reached a top of $30 for best grades of slaughter steers.

Butcher hog prices, which had ranged between $20 and $21, never attained the higher price in 1967. Hog prices were mostly between $18 and $25.50 during the first six months of the year, then appeared to have leveled off between $19 and $21 late in the year.

Hog production showed an increase during the year, accounting for some of the depressed prices.

With feed grain prices moving low, new ground and some farmers turned to feeding the hogs cheap corn. The result was a relatively higher output of heavier hogs to market.

Sheep prices never attained the $30 price top which was held for many days in 1966, but touched $29 in June. While the 1966 sheep price range was mostly from $25 to $28.50, the 1967 price moved mostly in an area between $23 and $27 per hundredweight.

In December, Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman called together in Washington leaders of cattle, hog, poultry and general farm organizations to seek their help in getting producers in their groups to limit production in 1968. He told them if production is not limited there could be a disastrous decline in prices.

The record feed grain production in 1967 and subsequent lower prices for the grains was tempting some livestock and poultry producers to expand production beyond present levels, Freeman said. Further expansion would surely depress prices and cause heavy losses for many producers, he said.

Defenbach Plans Talks On Surplus

BOISE (AP)—Budget Director James A. Defenbach said today he plans prompt discussions with state officials to determine whether a sizable surplus is in prospect for the current biennium.

Defenbach said latest information available to him indicates that the only surplus fund surplus that can be anticipated for the two-year period ending June 30, 1969, is the $3.6 million which the state started the year with.

State Sen. William C. Rodion, R-Boise, the Senate majority leader, said last week that information he obtained from legislative sources indicated the surplus might grow to $5.5 million by the end of the biennium.

The tax commission's monthly report showed that in the six-month period ended Dec. 31, the general fund revenue exceeded advance predictions by about $870,000.

If this trend were continued throughout the two-year period, the surplus could be about $2.5 million in addition to the carry-over of $3.6 million, for a total of more than $7 million.

However, the monthly reports have shown considerable variability during the six-month period, and Defenbach said it would require some research to determine whether predictions should be revised upward.

HOLDING SILVER SHOES Award by Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co. is Whitney Jones, customer relations manager at Thelsen Motors Inc., 701 Main Ave. E. Thelsen Motors received the award recently for having outstanding customer relations.

Theisen Motors Gets Top Award For Work In Area Of Customer Relations

Theisen Motors, Inc., 701 Main Ave. E., has received the Silver Shoes Award by Lincoln-Mercury Division of Ford Motor Co. for receiving the award was Whitney Jones, customer relations manager.

According to Emmett Harrison, general manager of Theisen Motors, "This award is a symbol of achievement for our dealers who meet the division's standards for establishing an effective customer relations program. The Silver Shoes award represents Lincoln-Mercury's overall customer relations effort, remind both division and dealership employees to put themselves in the customer's shoes."

"With the growth of today's automobile market, more and more attention must be placed on improved service. Seventy-five million cars are in use in America today, and in the next 10 years registrations are expected to exceed 100 million. Coupled with the increasing customer expectancy for a higher level of performance and reliability, this makes it essential for us to be aware of our customer's needs."

The Silver Shoes Customer Relations Program was first instituted by Lincoln-Mercury in 1963. To qualify for the award, dealers must appoint a customer relations manager, complete a series of customer relations manager training courses, hold employee meetings on customer relations, establish a customer contract program and maintain a high level of customer satisfaction.

Blackout

MOBILE, Ala., (AP)—An Alabama Power Co. official says vandals apparently cut down a 110,000-volt line in a wooded area behind a shopping center Sunday causing a one-hour power blackout for 10,000 to 15,000 residents.

Thieu Says Peace Burden Is On Reds

SAIGON (AP)—President Nguyen Van Thieu declared today that "the Communists started this war and if they want peace, the burden of de-escalation is on them."

Thieu added that Hanoi has not indicated any softening of its long established four points for ending the Vietnam war which, he said, constitute "nothing less than a demand for our surrender to the Communists."

All possibilities for peace in Vietnam should be "thoroughly explored," the South Vietnamese president said. But "after a reasonable time, if the Communist aggressors remain adamant, heavier pressure against them will become necessary."

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Society of Vietnamese Newspaper Editors, Thieu also defended the bombing of North Vietnam, reserved for his troops the right of hot pursuit of Communist forces into Cambodia if the Reds keep using it as a sanctuary and expressed his regrets that the United Nations could not play a more active peace-seeking role.

Thieu also had some criticism of allies of South Vietnam who he said had placed "themselves at the center of peace efforts in Vietnam," while such a move should be made by the government of Vietnam, as the principal party with the support of all allied and friendly countries. He apparently was referring to the United States.

Packers Thump Oakland 33-14 In Second Annual Super Bowl Classic

By JACK HANDBY
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Don Chandler kicked four field goals as Bart Starr led the Packers to a 33-14 victory over the Oakland Raiders Sunday in the second Super Bowl football game.

A sellout crowd of 75,540 watched in 64-degree temperature at the Orange Bowl while Vince Lombardi's National Football League champions took charge of the proceedings from the American Football League. Green Bay scored the first three times it had its hands on the ball and rolled over Oakland's eleven angry men just as they had beaten back the charge of the Kansas City Chiefs last year 35-10 in Los Angeles.

Starr, the man who won the NFL title for the Packers by sneaking home on the final 13 seconds against Dallas on New Year's Eve, did a brilliant job of directing the Packer offense.

Although Starr has had better days' passing, he was superb during a third period march that was climaxed by Donny Anderson's two-yard touchdown run.

The 82-yard drive that returned the game beyond reach saw Starr completing a 35-yard pass to Max Yergler on a third-and-one situation, hitting Carroll Dale for 11 yards on a third-and-nine play and connecting with Anderson for 12 yards on a second-and-10 call.

The Packers' strong defense kept Daryle Lamonica under control most of the afternoon although the Raiders' young quarterback did hit Bill Miller with two touchdown passes.

"They're a great football team," Lombardi said of the Raiders, "and they played well. I'm real grateful. We've got a great bunch of boys, and they played well. They deserve the victory."

Lombardi Praises Team, Parries Rumor

By STRATTON L. DOUTHETT
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jubilant over winning his second Super Bowl title, Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi praised the play of his team Sunday but parried rumors that he would accept a job with the New York Jets.

"We're a good football team, and we were ready for them," Lombardi shouted over the tumult of the Packer dressing room following Green Bay's 33-14 victory over the AFL champion Oakland Raiders.

Lombardi carried off the field by his players after his team won the game, shrugged off queries about reports he would take the head coaching job with the Jets in his hometown, New York City.

"It's much too early to answer that," he replied. "I have to go off and give Vince Lombardi a good, hard look."

Lombardi said he would vacation for three days in Miami before returning to Green Bay.

He refused to compare the Raiders with the Kansas City Chiefs, who lost 35-10 to Green Bay in last year's premier meeting between the NFL and AFL.

"Oakland is a good team and they are well coached," he said. "But we were ready for them, and our boys deserve everything they get."

Lombardi said he didn't feel there was any big play that broke open the game. "With a few exceptions, we did as we planned to," he said.

Although his coach refused to compare Oakland with Kansas City, Packer defensive end Willie Davis said he felt Oakland was an over-all better club than the Chiefs.

The Packers were scheduled to return to Green Bay immediately after the game.

Madison Uses Press To Nip Mimico 55-53

REXBURG — Madison used a full court press in the fourth period Saturday night to overcome the Mimico Spartans 55-53.

Pott Beats Casper, Devlin In Playoff To Win Crosby Tourney

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Johnny Pott clinched an amazing comeback Sunday by sinking a 25-foot chip shot on the first playoff hole—the 15th—to beat Billy Casper and Bruce Devlin and win the $104,500 Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

Leader after the second and third rounds, Pott faltered Sunday but came back with a birdie putt on two of the final three holes to jam his way into the playoff.

Pott's chip gave him a birdie three on the 406-yard 16th hole. In the playoff, and gave him a $18,000 check for his birdie putt on the final hole since 1963.

Casper missed a six-foot birdie try as he and Devlin each had pars in the playoff after all three wound up the regulation 72 holes at three-under-par 283.

The second place was worth $7,500 each to Casper and Devlin.

Pott came off with a double victory as he and his amateur partner Virgil Sherrill of New York won the pro-amateur division with a best ball score of 283, including a 61 last round.

Pott collected $2,700 as the pro on the team with the president of a New York City brokerage firm.

On the playoff hole, Pott and Sherrill drove Casper's drive retracted the left—though Billy's second shot ended up six feet from the pin while Devlin was on the front of the green and Pott was 12 feet off.

Devlin hit five feet past the pin. Pott clipped in and then Casper missed.

"I'm very happy," Pott said excitedly. "I couldn't be happier. My partner and I won the pro-am too and you just can't do any better in a tournament."

amateur champion, shot a 70 for fourth place while Ray Floyd, Canadian George Knudson and Bobby Nichols were at even par 288. Floyd and Knudson carded 70 for their final round while Nichols had 72.

Defending champion Jack Nicklaus had 72 for 280.

Arnold Palmer finished early over the 6,747-yard, par 36-36-72 annulo course with a 71 and 234 total, well down the list.

Rookie Bob Smith of Sacramento, scored a 67, low round of the tournament, to finish at 292 while first round leader Lou Graham slipped to 77 and 302.

Rauch Says Raiders Will Be Just As Tough

By BEN FUNK
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Green Bay is big, strong, well-trained and works well together, but we'll reach their strength shortly," Oakland Coach Johnny Rauch predicted Sunday after his American Football League champions went down to a 33-14 defeat by the National League Kingpins.

"We weren't awed by their superman reputation," a glum-faced Rauch declared. "We had complete confidence at half-time. Then we ran into two bad breaks in the third quarter and lost our momentum."

"We just made too many mistakes," and Bart Starr killed us in those third down situations," Raider quarterback Daryle Lamonica also said with confidence in Oakland's future.

"We'll be back," he said. "We're a good young ball club. We scored two touchdowns offensively and they did, too."

"I'm not proud at all of myself," Lamonica said. "I feel I'm much better than I seemed today. But I'm learning. It took Starr seven years. We can develop into a team like the Packers."

Rauch blamed a breakdown in Oakland pass coverage and Green Bay's defense against the Raider sweeps for the loss. He gave Ray Nitschke the bulk of credit for halting the sweeps on which Oakland built its yardage during the AFL season.

Rauch refused to pinpoint any of the Raider mistakes.

"I was happy in the fact that at no point in the game did we give up," he said. "That's been the character of our boys all season. They're young and we'll get better."

"Nothing the Packers did astonished us," Rauch said.

JACOBY'S TRY UNUSUAL LEAD

Oswald: "From the first days of bridge, every table of standard opening leads recommends the higher of equal honors. If you choose to lead high card, except that you lead king, ace-king."

Jim: "This means that when"

Oswald: "It is going to be hard for me to change after more than 30 years of playing the old way, but I will make the effort. It actually doesn't make any difference at all on most occasions."

Jim: "It does with today's hand—South's contract. He has 16 points, 4-3-3-3 distribution and all suits stopped, while North has 11 points for his raise to game."

Oswald: "If West makes the ambiguous opening lead of the king, his partner will want to play the six. West may decide to lead another spade, whereupon South will have nine tricks."

Jim: "When the ace is opened, East has no problem. He knows that his partner has led from ace-king and plays his lowest spade to ask for a shift. West shifts. East will grab the first club lead with his ace and lead the jack of spades. Declarer will be held to seven tricks."

Answer: You have two hearts and only one spade.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of opening two spades, your partner opens two hearts and folds to three hearts over your two no-trump response. What do you do now?

Answer: Next Issue

a king is led, partner does not know whether you have led from ace-king or from king-queen. Sometimes this leads to trouble.

Oswald: "It does indeed. On the other hand, the lead of a leading king from ace-king is so deeply ingrained that it will be a hard one to get rid of, but I think the Jacobys should do so."

Jim: "O.K. From now on we lead the higher of touching honors so that the king lead denies the ace."

For Lack Of A Trim, They Cut Off His Gas

Dear Walt: I am a Junior in high school and in a war with my parents. Yesterday they gave me an ultimatum. They said either I shaved my sideburns off, or paid for my own gas when I used the car.

I am not growing these sideburns just for the heck of it. In a way, my business to me since I feel I look better with them, and my friends and barber agree. Last summer I had a full-time job and my employer wanted me to work weekends during the school year. But my parents said to concentrate on school work and they'd pay my social expenses. Now they're threatening to go back on their word. Do you endorse this? — York.

Dear York: No, I don't, but that won't cut any ice with your parents. You're in a squeeze. If you decide to keep the sideburns, you'd better time a lot of buddies you can double in on ensuing months. If you can't stand to help with gas money, you can repay them by helping wax the car or assisting with term paper typing or some other service. Future re-evaluation: When you're a parent, promise yourself that you'll let your kid express himself in grooming and clothing within clean and decent limitations. — Walt.

THE ANSWER FINAL.

Dear Eile and Walt: I've worn thick glasses for years and years and would like to answer the person who wrote it wondering what to say when folks asked to see his thick glasses and then made jokes when they tried them on. I say, "No," and then if my heckler still pushes me, I ask if he'd like to take the chance on an accident and replacing my specs at $50 to $75 per lens. If he persists, I say I and Walt Dulaney in care of this newspaper.

Dear Eile: I would like to try those? Thick glasses are not funny and any clod who thinks so deserves a like answer. — Jean.

THE GREEN-EYED MONSTER

Dear Eile: A week ago I went on a vacation camp. I was with the Green-Eyed Monster and couldn't come because of family matters. When I saw him again after the trip, he asked me just exactly what I did. I asked him what he meant by that. He said that he was told by a boy that went with us, that something happened besides camping. He said all we did was play records on a portable record player, and danced a little, nothing more. But no matter what I say to him, or my girlfriend tells him, he still thinks something else happened. Please come up with an answer because he hasn't said a word to me for days. — Nothing, Harpwood.

Dear Nothing: If this was a chaperoned jaunt, just tell the boy to talk with Mrs. X and put his mind at ease. But if it was unchaperoned, you're stuck with the boy's own judgment of your character. Dialogue in such cases: "Tom, I've told you the truth. If you take Jerry's word over mine, then you must have decided a long time ago that I was a cheap pushover, and it's a good thing I found it out now. If I don't hear from you in the next 24 hours, it's over between us." Then stick to your ultimatum. — Eile.

P.S. Would it spell "lecture" if I pointed out that a chaperone is frequently the best guarantee of a girl's good name? Date-Line's Timetable Newsletter, suggesting a schedule for dating, going steady and being "grown up" will be sent you for 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to Eile and Walt Dulaney in care of this newspaper.

Social Security Has Important Meaning - Phone "Classified" And Charge Your Ad - For Young Workers As Well As Old

By BRUCE BLOSSARD (NEA) — Social Security stands in an American mind as an "old man's program," but in fact it has important meaning for young workers, for some young students, and for large numbers of children.

It is designed basically to protect against the economic risk of income loss that can go with age. And about 17 million of the 19 million aged 65 or older do draw benefits under Social Security. In addition, all 17 million are automatically insured by the program for hospital insurance under Medicare.

But as we have seen earlier in this series, some two million orphans—survivors of deceased workers who would have qualified for Social Security benefits under Social Security—get benefits today.

A breakdown indicates that, under the revised 1967 law, some 425,000 students aged 18 through 21 are qualified as survivors to get higher cash benefits than would be available to them if they were in the case of their widowed mothers, qualified under the program, hundreds of thousands of unmarried youngsters under 18 and disabled children who suffered disability before 18 get benefits — assuming they qualified fathers would have qualified for retirement payments under Social Security.

The payment to the students of late high school and early college age is obviously an assist to them in meeting steadily rising education expenses.

Children of disabled workers qualify as so-called "widows." Again, this includes students up to 22.

In the disability field, young disabled workers also get a good break — a bit better under the new law — for those who were disabled before age 31, who presumably have barely begun their working careers, can qualify for benefits with less work under Social Security than the "older" disabled. The minimum number of years of work, one-half year of work, they get payments equivalent to those they would have if retiring fully qualified at age 65.

With healthy young workers just entering the Social Security system, the story of paying over-riding Social Security payroll taxes, the story is somewhat different.

Argument is often made that the young worker does not get his money's worth.

Social Security actuaries respond, however, by saying that young workers paying at maximum contribution rates over a working lifetime generally will get protection worth 15 to 20 per cent more than their contributions. Even in extreme cases, it is judged, the benefits are likely to be at least equal contributions.

As a matter of fact, because today's young worker unit is helped by steadily rising wage rates and still will attain higher earning levels, their ultimate cash benefit prospect under Social Security is a peak 30 per cent above pre-1967 law — against the average benefit increase of 13 per cent Congress provided.

Arguing the case another way, Social Security experts say the 1967 revisions give the "young" workers some $13,000 in additional protection — lifting his total in prospect from the old $49,140 to a new $62,120.

One last point the Social Security authorities make: It cannot be over-emphasized that the law will not be further liberalizations of the program whose benefit may fall heavily to the younger workers who, right now, see only their mounting tax burdens.

Hong Kong, Favorite Rest Area For Weary GIs, May Be Placed Off Limits

By TOM TIEDE
NEW YORK (NEA)—There is a possibility that Hong Kong, one of the favorite rest areas for weary GIs, soon may be placed off limits in the British Crown colony has endangered the safety of furloughing servicemen and the Department of Defense is "naturally watching" the developments there very closely.

At present, DOD refuses to speculate on any such action, charging that loose opinions can serve no useful purpose and only aggravate an already sticky situation.

There is little doubt officials are worried.

And they should be. As many as 5,000 GIs are on the island on a given day and even out of uniform they attack out for the native masses like tempting targets.

According to official guess, 50 soldiers have been injured by any of the riots thus far. But hundreds of verbal threats have been recorded and it is known that several troopers have engaged in brief, bloodless scuffles with Chinese civilians.

The odds are against such a safety record continuing for long. Hong Kong is too crowded (more than three million people) and U. S. military personnel are too vulnerable.

Some officials say a "hot" trooper is going to get shot or be killed. At least he'll get pounced on by the Red Guards and have the belt kicked out of him.

"As long as the Red Guards have to place the door to the place. It's bad enough taking risks in Vietnam," but in Hong Kong on vacation, it's absurd.

Presumably, nothing short of a complete evacuation of American withdrawal from the Oriental spa. Such an action would be a major setback for everyone concerned — including in many respects the Chinese Communists themselves.

United States troops are both feared and influential in one of the remaining bridges between the Western and Chinese societies. So would the British would who would be according

All the commercial establishments are straining, of course, to continue business as usual. Some are simply windows — still closed — waiting for the American rockabilly, still hurls from hotel lobbies. Tailors still churn out $32.50 tuxedos.

And, to date anyway, no service has been curtailed. A soldier can still buy an illegal jade necklace made in Peking, and still get it in the store. So, they say, are the helping prostitutes who are so bold they knock on hotel doors at random.

All this, however, is largely window dressing.

The situation is potentially disastrous, and everyone knows it. Commanders in Vietnam are privately encouraging troop trips to Hong Kong. Navy ships docked in Reuse Bay are often crammed with sailors not allowed to venture ashore.

In short, GI tourism has all but had it.

"It's just a bad place now," says a Vietnam veteran who recently visited the way of his friend. "I spent 12 months in Saigon and it didn't faze me. I spent 48 hours in Hong Kong and I was never so damned frightened in my life."

Food Prices Expected To Continue Upward In 1968

NEW YORK (AP)—Whether eaten in a restaurant or at home, food generally costs more in 1967 and prices are expected to continue upward in 1968.

The price of food, like scores of other products and services, rose in 1967.

During the first three quarters of the year, restaurant meals were about 3 per cent more costly than they were in 1966 while shelf prices in the grocery averaged less than one-half of 1 per cent higher than the previous year, according to the United States Department of Commerce.

The Institute said preliminary figures showed eating and drinking places had raised prices during the first three quarters of 1967 by 3.1 per cent more than in 1966, while food store volume for the same quarters was $40.1 billion, 1.7 per cent more than a year earlier.

Supermarket operators continue to report a 10-cent profit on 50 cents of sales.

The Agriculture Department predicts markups on food prices by processors and marketing firms will increase 2 to 3 per cent in 1968 over 1967's markups.

The department says the higher retail food prices—possibly by as much as 3 per cent.

"Operating costs of food marketing firms likely will rise in 1968," a food marketing report says. "Hourly earnings and fringe benefits of food marketing employees are expected to continue rising, and the rise is likely to be entirely offset by increases in output per man-hour. Prices of most inputs bought by marketing firms are expected to be higher next year."

Also expected to contribute to increased food costs are higher farm expenses.

Although food prices are expected to rise in 1968, the Agriculture Department says Americans probably will devote less of their income to groceries than in the previous two years.

It said 15.3 per cent of the per capita American income went for food in 1966 and 17.7 per cent in 1967. An expected jump in per capita income, it said, suggests "the percentage of income spent for food may decline" in 1968.

The department said the average household spends a total of $3.5 a week for food.

RECEIVING HIS SECOND purple heart is L. Cpl. Frank Bilbao, Twin Falls, who has made his home with his uncle and aunt, Mrs. Anlesco Bengoechea, Twin Falls, the past few years. Cpl. Bilbao received second and third degree burns in Vietnam when planes accidentally dropped napalm on the 3rd Marine Division with which the Twin Falls man is serving. He was then taken aboard the hospital ship USS Sanctuary and later flown to Koyosuka Naval Hospital in Japan. According to information written to the Bengoecheas by a friend of young Bilbao, he expects to be hospitalized until about March 1. He was graduated from the Twin Falls High School in 1965 and has been in Vietnam since February, 1967.

Court Rules On State Welfare Rolls

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide if states can keep new residents off welfare rolls.

Forty-one states have laws that bar welfare assistance to new residents until they have lived in the state a specified time.

A federal court in Hartford last June declared Connecticut's law in violation of the right to travel and Connecticut's action by California, appealed to the Supreme Court.

Residency requirements have been stricken also in the District of Columbia, Delaware, Illinois, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

The Court cut case was taken on by the high court for decision by next June.

The law was challenged when Connecticut Welfare Commissioner Bernard Shapiro denied benefits to Vivian Thompson, a 15-year-old unmarried mother who had moved to Hartford from Massachusetts to be with her mother.

Miss Langford Taken By Death

BUHL — Georgia Lee Langford, 40, died Monday morning at a Buhl Nursing Home of a brief illness.

A lifelong invalid, she was born April 30, 1927 at Whittier, Calif. She came to Buhl in August, 1954, with her mother, after the death of her father, David R. Langford, in Texas.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Frances Langford, Buhl, and an aunt, Mrs. Hazel Conrad, Buhl.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Buhl First Baptist Church by Rev. Floyd Austin. Friends may call at the Abernethy-Dick and Funeral Home Tuesday until 8 p.m. and Wednesday until noon. Final rites will be held in the Buhl Cemetery.

PLANS CAMPAIGN ELLENBURG (AP) — Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D - Minn., says he hopes to bring his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination to Washington State during the Oregon primary elections in May.

A CASTLEFORD COUPLE, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heath, have left for graduate study at Scarritt College preparatory to becoming Methodist missionaries. Mr. Heath, who has farmed in Castleford the past two years, has been accepted by the Methodist Board of Missions to serve as an agricultural missionary overseas. He and his wife were honored by the Buhl and Castleford Methodist congregations and the Castleford Christian Youth Fellowship recently.

Castleford Couple Leaves To Serve With Mission

CASTLEFORD — Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heath, Buhl, left last week for Megville, Tenn., where they will enroll in Scarritt college for a semester of graduate study in preparation for service as Methodist missionaries.

The couple has been accepted by the Methodist Board of World Missions, with Mr. Heath to serve as an agricultural missionary in the overseas mission of the church.

They will receive their assignment within the next few weeks, and after the study at Nashville will enter the missionary training school at Seward Point, N.Y. to learn the language of the country where they are going.

Mrs. Heath is a native of Iowa, and was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1965 with a degree in animal science. He has been engaged in farming in the Castleford community for the past two years.

Mrs. (Judy) Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Heide, is a graduate of Castleford High School and the University of Idaho in 1966 with a degree in mathematics and psychology.

Filer Telephone Firm Sets Meet

FILER — Annual meeting of the Filer Mutual Telephone Company is set for 2 p.m. Thursday in the telephone office.

Two directors will be elected for three-year terms. The two incumbent directors are Mel Leonard and Arnold Gier. All proxies must be received by the company three days prior to the meeting.

A financial report will be given by a certified accountant, and Charles Cunningham, manager, will make his annual report. It will be discussed and voted upon during the session.

New Purpose

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Under a bill proposed in the Georgia Legislature, equipment seized in raids on methamphetamine labs would be turned over to public schools. Ron Tom Palmer, DeKalb County proposes that the equipment be given to the schools for "educational purposes."

brought to the meeting will be discussed and voted upon during the session.
