

Jerome Police Force Investigated, Mayor Asks Chief's Suspension

By FRED DODDS
 Times-News Staff Writer
JEROME—A month ago citizens here were talking about the Michael Dillon murder trial. Now they have a new subject. One that touches on all the lives of citizens in Jerome because this subject deals with the police department and a charge by the city mayor there are "irregularities" with the way the chief is running that department.

Mayor Earl Greenawald asked for the suspension of Police Chief Clarence Yngst at a city council meeting last Tuesday night.

The council refused to suspend the chief, but has ordered an investigation and it is now under way.

The council met in closed session all day Wednesday. According to Councilman E. E. Buer, who also is police commissioner, it was a meeting with the entire police force. Several witnesses were interviewed and councilmen Thursday were busy sifting facts in the case.

Saturday, the closed session will resume. Councilmen said they will hold a news conference Saturday at noon.

Mayor Greenawald has leveled seven charges at the police chief and the department.

Chief Yngst has answered each of the accusations and has accused the mayor of having a grudge and "digging up everything he can to discredit me."

Charges by the mayor against Chief Yngst are: The chief has failed to seek approval for department changes in personnel and for safety alterations; abandoned bicycles are allegedly sold by the police department and the money not turned over to the city; a check sent to the police department by the sheriff was allegedly endorsed and cashed at a Jerome service station, but the money was not turned over to the city; the chief was once charged with a fish and game violation; a receipt book entry in Police Judge C. J. Shupe's bond receipt book was alleged to be forged and the police account was $45 short which represents the amount of the receipt.

Also, the city auditor reported the chief received a double reimbursement for expenses. The mayor alleged that the chief was paid out of the police petty cash fund, then received another payment for the same expense by the city.

It is further alleged that the police department has received gifts of liquor during Christmas from a liquor license holder.

Chief Yngst has said, answering the charges one by one, that he has permission to make personnel changes and alter salaries; he is not aware abandoned bikes are being sold privately; a check from the sheriff was cashed but the money has been turned over to the city clerk; and the fish and game violation was not done on purpose and the mayor was once charged with failure to yield the right of way in Jerome.

The police department is still investigating the alleged forgery in the judge's receipt book. Chief Yngst said. Other answers include: The double payment was an honest error and the matter has been cleared up, and the chief has no knowledge of gifts of liquor, he added in closing.

The charges against Chief Yngst are alleged to have happened during his last two years. Chief Yngst has been with the Jerome Police Department about four years.

"We have not asked for his (Chief Yngst) resignation. All we are trying to do is investigate these charges made by the mayor, Mr. Buer said.

Mr. Buer did not attend the Tuesday council meeting, but had informed the mayor two weeks before that he would not be there.

S. N. (Shorty) Weeks, another councilman, also was contacted and he said, "Chief Yngst is not the only involved in this investigation." He declined to comment further.

Mayor Greenawald was "out of town" Thursday and could not be contacted for comment.

Marshall Everhart, a councilman, said the council will study this matter and then make recommendations. He said he had no idea what the recommendations would be at this point "as we are just getting our study under way."

Mr. Buer said he doubted if the matter would be completely cleared up by Saturday at noon.

Mr. Buer added: "I don't see where these charges involve anyone but Mr. Yngst. We have had no proof of misconduct and most of these funds are not city controlled, they are managed through the police department."

There are rumors in Jerome that the Dillon murder case and its investigation by Jerome police has something to do with the investigation.

"This is not true," Mr. Buer said. "The Dillon case has nothing to do with this investigation."

Elwin Tinker, the other councilman in Jerome, could not be contacted Thursday for comment.

Mr. Everhart said, "This situation is controversial and because of this we will release a statement and talk with newsmen Saturday. That way we will all be able to present the true story and keep the public informed."

Education Plea Not Expected To Prolong Session

By EARLE L. JESTER
 Boise (AP)—Another attempt to broaden the call of the Idaho Legislature's special session to include additional aid to education developed today, but it was not expected to delay adjournment.

There were some predictions the session could be ended by nightfall but most forecasts were for a windy Friday.

Democrats in both the House and Senate discussed in party caucuses procedure to be followed in handling remaining legislation. It was agreed generally there would be no resistance to suspension of the rules.

Sen. Don Loveland, R-Burley, chairman of the Joint Finance Appropriations Committee, said the request for additional aid to education was outlined to his group.

He said additional money were advised to make their request to Gov.

Don W. Samuelson, who alone can say what subjects a special session may consider. The governor in the past has used to improve an aid school appropriation on grounds there is not sufficient money.

Loveland said if the governor broadens the call to include the proposed $215,000 to $225,000 for aid to exceptional children it is likely his committee would approve introduction of a bill.

All remaining legislation in position for final consideration, provided the lawmakers agree to suspension of rules which require reading of bills on three successive days.

Sen. Don Loveland, R-Burley, chairman of the Joint Finance Appropriations Committee, said the request for additional aid to education was outlined to his group.

He said additional money were advised to make their request to Gov.

Fire, Explosions Rip Chicago Plant Killing 6, Injuring 78

By D. M. KREISHER
 CHICAGO (AP)—Fire and a series of explosions ripped a sausage factory Wednesday killing six persons and injuring 78.

The body of the president of the firm, Roy R. Laidly, 61, was found in the rubble hours after the fire was extinguished. One person was missing and feared buried under fallen timbers and bricks.

"People were running, falling, screaming everywhere," said Frank Shear, 52, general manager of a nearby plant, who witnessed the explosion. "You could see bodies going up in the air."

A bystander, Charles Peppers, 23, said he saw a boy, about 10, with a badly cut face, run out of a damaged house across the street from the factory.

"Help me, mister, help me!" the kid was screaming, Peppers said. "I lifted him over a fence but he ran away and I couldn't catch him."

Windows were shattered in buildings and cars a block from the Mickleberry Sausage Co., located on the South Side, near the International Amphitheatre.

Cars parked on streets along the building had in a usual car lot across the street were battered by the debris.

About 250 firemen with 50 pieces of equipment battled the fire for hours in freezing temperatures before bringing it under control.

"The injured, many of them without 30 persons, thought to have been in the factory, quickly filled nearby hospital emergency wards and were taken to hospitals miles from the scene as the casualties mounted."

Manifold, being briefed daily by the Johnson administration said he regards as significant the U.S. removal of the alertness of the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo, where it was stationed after the North Koreans captured the Intelligence-gathering Pueblo and her 83-man crew.

Sources at the United Nations said removal of the Enterprise was suggested in the United States last week by Ambassador Kennedy, who said it would be a conciliatory gesture.

Still sailing in the Sea of Japan are two other American carriers, plus destroyers and support ships, with about 20 vessels making up the force.

Senator Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield calls North Korea's identification of the USS Pueblo's crew as "being carried out on a reasonable level without the usual vituperation from the other side."

"I think that the North Koreans' release of the names of the dead and wounded is an encouraging sign that we may get the crew members back," he said.

Long-Expected Red Offensive Begins

By GEORGE ESPER
 SAIGON (AP)—The long-expected Communist offensive to drive U.S. forces from the two northernmost provinces of South Vietnam may be under way.

North Vietnamese troops made a heavy artillery and rocket ground attack on the U.S. Marine combat base at Khe Sanh today after taking the Lang Vei Special Forces camp nearby in the northwest corner of the country.

AP correspondent John T. Wheeler reported from Khe Sanh that the Red gunners fired more than 300 artillery, rocket and mortar rounds into Marine positions there, and North Vietnamese troops drove the Marines from part of a hilltop outpost a mile from the perimeter of the Khe Sanh base.

The Leathernecks counterattacked and, with heavy artillery and air support, drove the North Vietnamese down the hillside in which the defenders suffered heavy casualties.

Fourteen of the 24 Americans escaped, and eight of them were wounded, some critically. The other 10 were dead, captured or trying to make it to Khe Sanh.

Of about 400 South Vietnamese and Montagnard irregulars in the camp, some 25 wounded were lifted to safety by U.S. helicopters along with the regulars.

Nearly 150 more irregulars made it to the Khe Sanh base during the night or today, leaving about 225 dead or missing.

The last American, South Vietnamese and Montagnard forces were driven from the Lang Vei camp three miles west of Khe Sanh after an 18-hour siege in which the defenders suffered heavy casualties.

Officers at Khe Sanh said the Communists appear bent on a drive to the South China Sea along east-west Route 9, the western end of which Khe Sanh guards.

Funds For Gooding Hospital Not Allowed

GOODING—A new Gooding County Memorial Hospital will not be built this year.

This official word was given to board members of the Gooding Hospital at a meeting in Boise Wednesday. The Hospital Advisory Board of the Idaho Department of Health ruled to allocate $1,214 million in funds to St. Alphonsus Hospital in Boise.

This leaves Gooding Memorial officials out of the picture for 1968 funds, but Lee Wagner, chairman of the Gooding Hospital board of directors, said Thursday he was still hopeful funds would be allocated to Gooding out of the 1969 federal Hill-Burton grant.

"We will know in July when this matter is discussed again in Boise," he said.

Both Gooding and Oneida Counties had asked for federal funds to aid in construction of new hospitals. Officials in both counties claimed they had priorities for the funds.

However, St. Alphonsus also applied last year and last fall the advisory board of the state agreed to give the money to the Boise Hospital.

Gooding and Oneida protested the action and since last fall the matter has been under consideration.

"We may get our hospital yet, depending on what we find out in July about 1969 federal funds," Mr. Wagner said.

The reasons why the board took the action it did in Boise are still to be released.

Last March, Gooding County residents passed a $550,000 bond election to build a new hospital. But an additional $300,000 is needed to do the job, and officials were asking for the extra money through Hill-Burton funds—funds which are set aside for hospital construction in the nation.

If Gooding does not start work in another year they will lose the bond, and the hospital. The hospital serves an area of 17,000 people.

Gooding Memorial Hospital has operated on a provisional state license for several years, Mr. Wagner reported.

A site for a new hospital has been picked. It is located on land just north of the State School for the Deaf and Blind.

Mr. Wagner said, "Our position is better now than before. We did not get a victory because we didn't get the 1968 money available for our needs, but we hope to get the money in 1969 federal funds."

He said the hospital in Gooding has the old-type brick-work, construction and fire hazards cannot be corrected. "The arrangement of our facilities makes renovation impossible,"

Hall Of Fame Taps Mr. Daigh

Agriculture and livestock in Southern Idaho would not be what they are today if it wasn't for the late C. W. (Warren) Daigh, former Twin Falls County agent.

Mr. Daigh is one of five area men who will be honored at a Southern Idaho Agricultural Livestock Industry Hall of Fame banquet to be held at the Holiday Inn Feb. 19.

Mr. Daigh, who died Jan. 8, was a county agent for 38 years in Idaho and Oregon, and fought hard to bring agriculture and the livestock industry up to the standards that they are today. He retired as county agent in 1961 because of ill health.

He was county agent for Twin Falls County for 14 years. Prior to that he was Minidoka County agent for 12 years, Bannock County agent for five and seven years as a county agent in Oregon.

While he was a county agent, he was known as "Dean of Idaho County Agents."

Being a county agent in the early days of his career was no easy task. He helped farmers improve farming methods and to use good conservation practices.

He also was a vital part of the livestock industry. He established the Twin Falls County Cattlemen's Association and was secretary for the group for many years.

After his retirement, he aided in several farm and livestock organizations in advisory capacity.

During his years in Magic Valley he saw many changes in farming and other related fields. He also was active in 4-H work.

Mr. Daigh was a member of the Grange and American Legion for more than 40 years. He also was a member of the Twin Falls Presbyterian Church, Twin Falls Grange, and was a veteran of World War I.

THE LATE C. W. (Warren) Daigh, former Twin Falls County agent, will be honored for his outstanding work in agriculture at the Southern Idaho Agricultural Livestock Industry Hall of Fame banquet. The banquet will be held Feb. 19 at the Holiday Inn, Twin Falls.

On Leave

SAIGON (AP)—Approximately half of the South Vietnamese army was on leave when the Communists launched their country-wide offensive against major cities last week, qualified sources said today.

These sources said the South Vietnamese Joint General Staff had authorized leaves of up to 50 per cent for the time around the Tet holiday Jan. 30.

The holiday is the most important one on the calendar for Vietnamese and, by tradition, is thus for visits to families.

County Will Review Legal Annex Ruling

County commissioners and their legal counsel are planning to meet either late Thursday or Friday to review the Supreme Court ruling on the county judicial building.

The ruling, which had been pending for several months, was received Tuesday afternoon, but as special legal adviser Lloyd Welsh has been out of town, county officials have not had an opportunity to meet and review it, Mr. Felton said.

He said what further action will be taken is not at this time known.

The Supreme Court's unanimous decision affirmed part of the district court decision and reversed other parts, stating the county was not right in building it without the benefit of a call for general contractor bids.

Ruling that the trial court, Fifth Judicial District, erred in not reviewing the action of the county commissioners is a determination of an emergency, the Supreme Court stated the conclusions of law and judgment are in error. That part of the judgment denying injunctive relief is not in error, the ruling said, since the building is complete.

The high court remanded the case to the trial court to enter new findings of fact, conclusions of law and judgment conforming with the Supreme Court ruling.

The 10 general contracting firms that bid for the building reversed other parts, stating the

Wallace Announces As Third Party Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP)—George C. Wallace announced today as a third party candidate for president, declaring that neither major party is heading the "wishes of the American people" and pledging "I will run to win."

The former Alabama governor, who withdrew from a similar third-party campaign bid four years ago, told a news conference: "I am in the race irrevocably."

Wallace said he hopes his name will be on the ballot on all 50 states and that he will be able to finance such an effort.

"I believe the American people will finance any effort to give themselves a voice in the affairs of our country," he said.

When he withdrew in 1964, after the Republicans nominated Barry Goldwater for president, he said this showed his message for states rights had been heeded.

Today, Wallace noted he has recently stated that unless the Republicans or Democrats offer the American people what he termed "a real choice in 1968" that he "would lead a political effort which would in fact offer this choice."

There has been no response from either of the parties which would show the American people that they are heeding the growing disillusionment with what amounts to a one-party system in the United States," he said.

He said, "The American people are hungry for a change in the direction of our national government. They are concerned and disturbed about the trends being followed by our national leadership."

He called for an end to crime running rampant in every city of the nation, for punishment of what he termed "unreasonable acts" siding the country. He called a return to constitutional government and "a nation wherein our states are able to run their affairs, their schools, hospitals and other domestic institutions without receiving federal funds from Washington, D.C."

City Of Buhl Is Given $80,000

BUHL — The City of Buhl has been given $80,000, stock from the estate of Rollie Homing, according to Bernard Sivert, clerk. The contents of the will were made known at the regular council meeting Tuesday evening in the council chambers.

The dividends from the stock are to be maintained as a library fund for the Buhl Public Library for the purchase of books. The amount will continue so long as the City of Buhl keeps the current mill levy of 2.7 mills in support of the library.

The will also listed a bequest of $10,000 for lights at the Buhl High School football field and Harris Field softball park. Such an amount is matched by the state.

Profitable

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—Police felled a holdup Tuesday night at a supermarket. Two of the three bandits were shot and wounded by police and some $3,000 scattered over the floor of the store and in a parking lot. Wednesday, after all of the money was gathered up, store manager Jack Morelatti said an accounting showed the store gained $1; two or more individuals, firms or organizations.

Morelatti stated that they would assume the additional costs for maintenance and power for the softball park as stipulated in the will.

Mrs. Frank Squires and Mrs. Martin Miller were appointed to the library board and the resignation from the board by Eva Walker was accepted.

Lawrence A. Fawcett was appointed street name and water superintendent for a probationary period of eight months effective Feb. 1, following the retirement of Jess Holmes.

Councilman approved Idaho state liquor catering permits to Walter Caldwell doing business as the Club Royal for the Buhl Department of dance at the Buhl Moose hall on Feb. 17 and to Gene Davis doing business as the R and R Lounge for the Buhl Country Club dinner March 2, at the Moose hall. Both permits were issued at a $20 fee.

ICC Orders Trains To Run During Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission issued a formal order today, requiring the Union Pacific Railroad to continue operating its Portland-Rose trains during an investigation.

The office of Rep. George Hansen, R-Idaho, said the commission would hold public hearings along the route served by the trains, which operate between Portland, Ore., and Kansas City, Mo., and run across southern Idaho.

The Union Pacific asked authority to discontinue the trains Feb. 19. The ICC said they must be continued for at least four months after that time.

The railroad said the passenger trains are operating at a loss.

Gov. McNair Trying To Curb Violence

ORANGEBURG, S.C. (AP)—Gov. Robert McNair is making new efforts to quell racial violence which has injured at least 18 persons, in this college town.

A source said McNair plans to confer in Columbia today with Henry Floyd, operator of a segregated howling alley which has been the target of rioting by Negro students of South Carolina State and Claflin colleges in Orangeburg.

Floyd closed the howling alley Wednesday afternoon and no new outbreaks occurred there.

Armed National Guard troops patrolled the shopping center where the howling alley is located throughout the night.

Three Claflin students were released from Orangeburg Regional Hospital Wednesday night after treatment for minor wounds received when struck by shotgun pellets.

Firing erupted near the adjacent campuses of the two schools about 10 p.m. Wednesday night while more than 200 Negro students threw bricks and rocks at cars passing on busy U.S. 601.

In previous incidents, a state highway patrolman, three Orangeburg policemen and at least six state college students were injured.

Two additional National Guard units were called to duty Wednesday night to augment 200 Orangeburg guardsmen alerted Tuesday.

Policeman Gets Trophy For Rollover

Jim Kistler, Twin Falls police officer, is a man of many talents. During a meeting of the department's staff Tuesday night he was presented three trophies.

Two of the trophies were earned by his ability with a pistol and based on scores accomplished by the officers during 1967 pistol matches. Kistler received a magazine trophy and a permanent trophy as champion individual during the year.

The third trophy was something of a surprise to Kistler. It was presented by Police Chief Frank Barnett for what the chief described as a unique feat.

While motorcycle riding with other officers, Kistler rolled his machine over, but he rolled it over frontwards.

"We all learned something. We didn't know it could be done," Chief Barnett commented as he presented the trophy. It was a small motorcycle mounted on a hardwood platform and standing on its nose.

Julius Schmitt Re-Elected President Of Federal Land Bank Directors At Gooding

GOODING — Julius Schmitt was re-elected as president of the board of directors of the Federal Land Bank, at their stockholders meeting held Tuesday in Gooding. Mr. Schmitt is entering his 50th year as director of the company. Ray Sweat, Carey, was re-elected vice president.

Jay Felt, assistant vice-president of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, was guest speaker. He stated that the "challenge" for the Federal Land Bank system during 1967 was one of adjusting to national and international factors of which we had little control, but which strongly affected money costs and supplies for our system.

This will continue to be a challenge in the future, according to Felt. He noted lending activity by the Bank System in the Northwest during 1967 proved the system's ability to "continue our objective of extending long-term farm and ranch credit service at the lowest cost possible, consistent with sound business practice under prevailing economic conditions."

Nick Adams Found Dead In Los Angeles Home

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The body of actor Nick Adams was found Wednesday night in an upstairs bedroom of the West Los Angeles home where he lived alone.

The cause of death was tentatively listed as natural. An autopsy was scheduled. Police said there were no marks on the body.

Adams, 36, was the star of television's "The Rebel" several seasons back and appeared in a number of movies.

The actor's lawyer, Ervin Roder, said he climbed through a rear window because the door was locked and found Adams' fully clothed body sprawled on an unmade bed.

Adams and his estranged wife, actress Carol Nugent, became involved in cross-divorce suits. For a time Adams had custody of their two children, Alyson, 7, and Joh Stuart, 6. A date for their divorce trial was pending. Miss Nugent's lawyer said.

The news of his death "upset her extremely," her attorney added.

In the last three years, Adams' career had fallen off, although he made several films abroad. His Hollywood movies were limited to such pictures as "Monster of Terror," "Young Dillinger," and "Frankenstein Conquers the World."

His lawyer said Adams was to film two new movies.

Adams was born July 10, 1931, in Nanticoke, Pa. His father was a coal miner and during the Depression Nick and his brothers were shunted to relatives. His real name was Nicholas Adamcheck.

Arguments Over In Utah Power Hearings

By LARRY KURTZ
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The arguments are over and the Utah Public Service Commission now must decide whether to let an Idaho electric cooperative serve in Utah.

A long series of hearings came to an end Wednesday, more than two years after the original application by Raft River Rural Electric Cooperative of Malta, Idaho.

It may be months before the commission reaches a decision. "We have a big job to do," said Chairman Donald Hackling. "We've got a million things to consider."

Pressed for an estimate, he said he hoped the decision would be made in something less than six months.

The matter may not end with the commission's forthcoming decision. If one of the parties feels it has cause for such action, it can appeal to the commission, then to the Utah Supreme Court and on up to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Raft River wants authority to serve the magnesium project, a proposed $32 million metal re-plant in Utah.

County, on the shore of the Great Salt Lake. It is a joint proposal of National Lead Co. of New York and I-K Inc. of Salt Lake City.

Project officials say it would not be economically feasible to build the plant in Utah without a power rate of 2.1 mills per kilowatt hour. Raft River has offered that rate. But Utah Power and Light, a private company, contends Raft River cannot deliver the power. Raft River would have to get the power somehow from the Bonneville Power Administration in the Pacific Northwest and then build a 130-mile line from its own service area to the site of the proposed plant.

UP&L also contends The Magnesium Project could operate profitably at a power rate of 4.8 mills, which UP&L says is the lowest rate it could reasonably provide.

In Friday's final session, which lasted more than two hours, Utah Power and Light attorney Sidney Baucum cross-examined four witnesses and submitted resolutions from 10 cities and counties opposing Raft River's application. The statements were from Carbon, Emery, Grand, Iron, San Juan, Sevier and Uintah counties and the cities of Helper, Price and Richfield.

A number of resolutions favoring the application had been introduced Tuesday.

As the final witness in the hearing, Baucum called E. M. Naughton, president of Utah Power and Light. Referring to testimony by John W. Gallivan, publisher of the Salt Lake Tribune and president of H&K Inc. and Kearns-Tribune Corp., Baucum asked Naughton to clarify UP&L's willingness to serve the project.

Gallivan had testified Tuesday the Tribune opposed public power "except when private power is unwilling or unable to do the job. In the Raft River instance, Utah Power and Light obviously is willing, but economically unable to deliver power at the essential price."

Naughton said he wanted it to be "crystal clear" that Utah Power and Light was "ready, willing and able" to serve the project at "any reasonable rate set by the commission."

He said the company would be "most delighted to attempt to negotiate a contract to serve this customer."

Prison Farm Graves Will Be Dug Up

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — State Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton says all bodies in unmarked graves at Cummins and Tucker prison farms will be dug up.

The State Prison Board gave him a free hand Wednesday to resume the digging.

There has been no digging at the farms since Jan. 29 when Reuben Johnson, a Cummins inmate, led 300 men to an area where three human skeletons in makeshift wooden caskets were unearthed.

Murton said digging would start after he followed the hands' recommendation to establish proper cemeteries at both prisons.

Since Jan. 29, many ex-convicts have reported that there were many more bodies buried there and that they had seen inmates killed.

Some former prison officials have said the three skeletons came from a paupers graveyard.

Road Mishaps Kill 53,000 During 1967

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 53,000 persons last year, matching the 1966 toll, but an increase in travel resulted in a lower death rate for distance covered.

In announcing this today, Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said, "these 1967 traffic statistics support our conviction that the traffic loss of lives and dollars on the highways is an unnecessary expense that the nation can control."

The cost of the 1967 accidents was estimated at $11 billion.

Deaths in December totaled 5,210, up 3 per cent from the 5,040 killed in December 1966.

The 1967 rate was 5.5 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles, a 4 per cent decrease from the 1966 rate of 5.7 deaths. The record low of 5.2 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles was set in 1961. In 1957 the rate was 6.

Mileage traveled in 1967 rose to 970 billion from 930.5 billion in 1966, an increase of 4 per cent.

The council estimated that traffic accidents caused 1.9 million disabling injuries last year in addition to the deaths.

Of the $11 billion economic loss, 3.5 billion came from damaged and destroyed property and the remainder from wage losses, medical expenses and overhead cost of insurance.

There were 103 million registered drivers at the end of 1967 and 100 million registered vehicles.

CRASH KILLS MAN

BOISE (AP) — John Canoy, 83, Star, died Thursday from injuries received a few hours earlier in a traffic accident near Star, about 15 miles west of Boise.

The Ada County sheriff's office said Canoy was riding in a car driven by Mrs. Mary Tendi, Meridian, which was struck from behind by another car driven by Eldon Ross, 48, Star.

Authorities said Ross apparently was attempting to pass the other vehicle when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Tendi was hospitalized, but reported in satisfactory condition, and Ross escaped injury.

GOP TO MEET

The Republicans will also celebrate Lincoln Day and Mead Gov. Paul LaVett will be the speaker at an evening banquet.

During the day the Idaho Federation of Republican women will also meet.

George Gallup Says Public Is Confused, Cynical

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Pollster George Gallup, now in his fourth decade of surveying the moods of America, says the public today is confused, disillusioned and cynical and "wants desperately to find a way to resolve international problems without going to war."

"I think this goes back pretty much to their feeling of the inadequacy of the leadership of our country," says the man who founded the Gallup Poll in 1935. Only a handful of Americans want to pull out of Vietnam, or to "end the war by starting to drop bombs," Gallup said in an interview.

Seven out of 10 prefer bringing the South Vietnamese "up to fighting level," he said, "then phasing out our own operations."

Turning to politics, Gallup said Americans hold "no great enthusiasm" for any of the potential presidential candidates. As of now, he said, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is "far far ahead" in the race for the Republican nomination, although he termed Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York the strongest candidate the GOP could pick.

He said President Johnson is not in as much trouble politically "as the Republicans like to think," although the outcome of next November's election could hinge on the course of the Vietnam war.

Here is the question-and-answer interview:

Q. Dr. Gallup, how would you describe the current mood of America?

A. I think the mood of America today is one of rather great confusion and disillusionment. All the time we've been operating, 32 years now, I've never known a time like this—when people were so disillusioned and cynical. I think this goes back pretty much to their feeling of the inadequacy of the leadership of our country... the public wants desperately to find a way to resolve international problems without going to war.

Q. What does the public want to do in Vietnam?

A. First, only a small number just want to pull out tomorrow. On the other hand, that small group is balanced by about the same number of people who would end the war by starting to drop nuclear bombs. The views of the great majority of the people fall in between these two extremes.

A few months ago, we submitted seven different proposals that had been presented for resolving the war. The one most widely supported (by 71 per cent of the people) is one that would have our Army officers start doing a job of really training the South Vietnamese, bringing them up to fighting level, then phasing out our own operations. Within a period of time, they would be carrying the burden. We would still be supporting them. Most people see that sooner or later this plan has to be adopted. We can't stay there forever and prop them up.

The second most popular plan calls for turning over the whole problem to the United Nations, even if the United Nations tells us we must get out. Of the two plans, I think myself that the first one is more practical—to phase out.

Bombs Did Not Penetrate Ice

COPENHAGEN (AP) — A Danish nuclear scientist investigating the crash Jan. 22 of a U.S. B52 bomber near Thule, Greenland, said Wednesday night its four H-bombs did not penetrate the ice.

"Numbered machine parts from the four bombs were found on the ice and it can be taken for granted that no bombs have gone through," said physicist Joergon Koch.

He said radioactive danger in the area was minimal.

Vietnamese Cameraman Says Reds Made Execution Tries

By BARRY KRAMER
SAIGON (AP) — A Vietnamese free-lance cameraman captured by the Viet Cong today made three unsuccessful attempts to execute him.

Vo Thanh Son, 33, was taking televised news film for the Columbia Broadcasting System around the Cho Ray hospital in Cholon, Saigon's Chinese section, when he was captured on Wednesday.

Son said he was stopped near the hospital by a group of armed Viet Cong dressed in civilian clothes who asked if he was a policeman.

"They took me to their command post and robbed me of everything," Son said. "They tied my hands and they led me away after blindfolding me."

"About 3 p.m. one guy came and asked me if I worked for the Americans. I said I was a journalist and a cameraman and carried American accreditation. They said I would be pardoned if I signed a confession that I was an American spy."

"At four o'clock they told me they had orders to execute me."

"He said the Viet Cong had captured 18 persons including South Vietnamese soldiers. I heard a roll-call and about 12 were released," Son said. "They told the six of us to go and they marched us to a place we didn't know. Then they lined us up and told us to kneel down. "I heard two bursts of gunfire, probably from automatic rifles, and I had the impression that I was dead. But after a few seconds I heard some noise around and I knew I was still alive. I had the initiative to follow death."

"They shouted for the coup de grace to be shot at each of us. I was in the middle of the six, and I was the last one."

"When they started their first coup de grace on me, I heard a helicopter overhead. I heard a big bang, but I still heard the helicopter noise."

"I heard another gunshot but I still heard the helicopter noise. "One of the Viet Cong asked if I was finished and the other said 'not yet, we'll return after the helicopter is out of the area.'"

Son said the Viet Cong then left. He ripped off his blindfold and ran to a nearby, burned out gasoline filling station. He said he hid there overnight.

Later, government troops came into the area and he sought their help.

New Technique

KANSAS CITY (AP) — For the last five weeks, artist Nan Witte has melted aluminum truck pistons and poured the hot metal into live-gallon drums of potatoes for a new sculpturing technique.

So far, Mrs. Witte estimates, she has used 2,000 pounds of truck pistons and 500 pounds of potatoes.

Molten aluminum is poured over the potatoes. When it hardens, the spuds are scooped out and the result is free-form casting.

"Nobody went hungry during this project," Mrs. Witte said Wednesday. She referred to the baked potatoes retrieved from the hardened aluminum. "The salt and pepper are right over there."

Scout Council Reception Is Sendoff For Mike Mazzone

A well-attended Snake River Area Council reception was held Wednesday night as a send-off for departing scout executive Mike Mazzone.

Highlights of the reception were farewell wishes from members of Mr. Mazzone's scout Troop 63, St. Edward's Catholic Church, of which he was scoutmaster.

Joe Clements was master of ceremonies for the event, held at the American Legion Hall.

Members of the Order of the Arrow presented Mr. Mazzone with a statuette, and a line drawing portrait of him was presented by Bill Rappleye, who drew the portrait.

Dr. Joseph W. Marshall, regional chairman, spoke to the group at the reception of the National Executive Institute at Schiff Scout Reservation in New Jersey, a school for professional scouters.

Also included in the program was the recalling of a series of humorous incidents that happened to Mr. Mazzone during a White Water Trip.

Mr. Mazzone is leaving Feb. 10 to become a staff member of the National Executive Institute at Schiff Scout Reservation in New Jersey, a school for professional scouters.

Dear Abby

By ADIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I recently married Barney secretly. We are both 25. Barney had never been married before, but I was a divorcee with three children.

I know a girl who started to date at 14. She not only got to "second and third base," she's been in home plate. Now, at 15, she's got a reputation that won't quit.

DEAR WIFE: Barney is foolishly trying to postpone a difficult and disagreeable task, but he is only kidding himself.

So, Abby, keep telling girls not to try to grow up too fast. It isn't worth wrecking your young years for. You'll be glad you waited. I know. I am.

DEAR ABBY: We have a son in his early teens, and we were recently blessed with a very much wanted and prayed for baby daughter!

Lincoln County Budget To Be Adopted

SHOSHONE—Lincoln County Commissioners will adopt the 1958 budget at a meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the courthouse. The budget was tentatively approved in January, but cannot be raised from the proposed amount.

Overall the budget is up considerably this year over last, due to rising expenses. Provisions having to be made for a public defender, the re-evaluation program and raises in salaries of county employees.

Total budget is set at $240,796, compared to an appropriated budget of $204,245 a year ago. Of the amount budgeted, however, all funds are not spent and are rotated to keep the county on a cash basis as is a custom with all counties in Idaho.

Actual expenditures for the past year was $174,692.53. Breaking this down, $133,141 is in the current expense fund, which includes all county expenses for officers and the courthouse. The last year's budget for current expense was $117,350, while $18,256.24 was actually spent.

The post control budget is again set at $500 this year, though $891.35 was spent last year. The memorial fund is also maintained—the same at $400, with this amount divided between the Reichold and Shoshone Memorial halls, or Legion posts.

The indigent fund for this year is set at $20,000, compared to $15,000 a year ago with $16,200.87 spent.

The public health budget is set at $7,555 for 1958, while it was $5,795 for 1957 and $5,795 was spent.

The weed control fund is again set at $45,000. Of the same amount budgeted last year $40,297.32 was spent. Commissioners explain that this is a rotating fund, with farmers charged for use of chemicals, services, etc., provided by the county.

The convalescent center facility fund is again set at $7,000 and the junior college fund is budgeted at $27,000. Last year it was $13,000 and of the amount $11,850.73 was spent.

The current expense fund of $133,141 as proposed includes $2,000 for the county's share of the public defender's expenses; $5,000 for re-evaluation, $4,000 for the election this year; $2,000 for civil defense; $17,000 for the commissioner's—specials—which includes $2,700 wages; $14,000 for other expenses; $5,000 for capital outlay; $7,000 for county agent's budget, which includes $5,300 for wages for the county agent and office help, $2,600 for other expenses of the office.

The major part of the county agent's own wages are paid by state funds.

Appropriated for the coroner's fund is $845 with $120 wages and $525 for other expenses.

The building and grounds fund is set at $10,000 with $3,000 wages and $7,000 for other expenses. The county commissioners fund is set at $4,411 with $3,600 wages and $811 other expenses.

The justice court budget and office expenses is set at $5,375 with $3,000 wages and $2,375 other expenses; district court budget is $2,700; prosecuting attorney budget is set at $8,100 with $5,000 wages and $3,100 other expenses.

The probate judge budget is set at $7,700 with $5,400 wages and $1,300 other expenses.

The treasurer and deputy budget is set at $11,000 with $9,300 wages and $2,300 other expenses—while the assessor and deputy budget is set at $13,350 with $10,000 wages and $3,350 other expenses.

Budget for the clerk-outdoor recorder and deputy is set at $12,160 with $10,000 wages and $2,160 other expenses.

The sheriff and deputy budget is set at $15,100 with $11,000 wages and $4,100 other expenses.

By using funds available for cleaning the courthouse last year and this, a thorough paint job, has been done in the offices of the courthouse, District Court and sections of the interior have been carpeted.

Most of the offices had not been painted for more than 10 years and improvements on the floors have been needed for years. By using indoor-outdoor carpet, the floors were covered for less than it would have taken for other types of covering.

Omer Shoak and Frank Shafer did the painting. Shoshone Furniture received the bid for the floor covering.

Trees Stolen

HOUSTON (AP)—In December Captor Jamison, 48, decorated a large pine tree in his yard with Christmas lights. Three days before Christmas someone cut the tree down and hauled it away.

Jamison replaced it with two small pines. They too vanished. He planted more pines, and someone stole them.

Jamison said Wednesday he is now considering replacing the pine with cacti.

Mini-Cassia's Community Concert Slated On Monday

BURLEY—The Mini-Cassia Community Concert Association will present its third program of this year's series at 8 p.m. Monday at Burley High School Auditorium.

"A Cavalcade of Musical Comedy" is an unusual platform presentation which traces the evolution of the American musical theater through the songs of its best-known and best-loved composers, from the minstrel shows of Stephen-Foster's day to the lavish productions of Broadway.

The musical package is tied together with bright ribbons of commentary giving fascinating insights and sidelights on the composers, their works, lives, and times.

This unique production brings whole eras alive and reveals once again what has made musical comedy a truly American art-form which has won worldwide acceptance, popularity and acclaim. Musical accompaniment is provided by pianist Leonard Bayliss.

Ronald Rogers' very special talents as a singer and actor in operetta, musical comedy and on the concert stage have been acclaimed by press and public across the country. A native of Wisconsin, he has sung in Carnegie Hall and has toured the nation with Paul Lavalle and the Band of America.

He has been guest artist with many of America's leading Symphony Orchestras, and has ap-

Woman Declared Insane In Arsenic Case

CORDELE, Ga. (AP)—Youthful grandmother Janie Lou Gibbs, who admitted feeding arsenic to five members of her family, was declared insane by a jury Wednesday and committed to a state mental hospital.

The jury's findings ruled out a trial for the 35-year-old woman on charges of murdering her son, Roger L. Gibbs, 10, but she could face trial on the charges in the future if ever adjudged sane.

Two other sons, a grandson and the accused woman's husband died within the past two years.

Personnel Unit Views Appeal Case

BOISE (AP)—The Idaho State Personnel Commission has taken under advisement the second appeal case filed since the new state merit system law was adopted.

Wilburn S. Melteny appealed to the commission after his dismissal as office manager at the Idaho State Prison.

Oral arguments were heard Wednesday. Melteny contends his was dismissed without cause.

The State Board of Corrections alleges Melteny failed to recommend adequate fiscal and accounting procedures.

The first appeal was by Dr. C. H. Kennedy, former chief merit inspector, fired by the State Department of Agriculture. That case has been taken to court by the department after Kennedy's appeal was upheld by the personnel board. The court appeal is still pending.

New York Legislature Talks Of Abandoning Puny State Lottery

By ARTHUR EVERETT
NEW YORK (AP)—The New York State lottery has proven to be such a puny baby that its legislative midwives now are talking about abandoning it.
 The lottery is probably the biggest financial disappointment since the 1964-65 New York World's Fair.
 Since sale of the $1 lottery tickets began last June, revenues have been less than one-third of the anticipated $30-million-a-month gross. The net profits of the lottery are earmarked for education.
 This led Earl W. Brydges, State Senate Republican majority leader, to say a few days ago when the state legislature was reconvening: "I never wanted the lottery and always opposed it. I think now when it is a relatively insignificant part of our total revenue, maybe this is the time to decide whether you want to get rid of it."
 His Democratic counterpart in the State Assembly, Speaker Anthony J. Travin, who originally supported the lottery, agreed it should be made a worthwhile enterprise or abandoned altogether. But he favored giving it one more chance.
 His remarks were occasioned by a legislative proposal to extend the sales outlets for lottery tickets to supermarkets, newsstands, shopping centers and "walk-in" terminals.

 Tickets are now sold only in hotels, motels, government offices and banks, the latter being the chief outlets. But the U.S. Congress has banned the sale of the lottery tickets in banks after April 1.
 For over 70 years there wasn't a single lottery in the United States. During that period, however, Americans spent untold amounts on Irish sweet-stakes and other imported lottery tickets.
 Then, in 1964, New Hampshire launched its state lottery. Like New York's, it hasn't come up to expectations. It was hoped it would produce $7 million a year in revenue for schools, but actually it has produced a little over $2 million a year.
 New Hampshire last year expanded the number of ticket sales outlets.
 There has been some sniping by critics who claim the New Hampshire lottery has failed to yield sufficient revenue to justify itself. But the voters have continued to approve it at local option elections, the legislative leaders and the governor like it and there are presently no moves afoot to abandon it.
 One of the staunchest advocates of government lotteries is Rep. Paul A. Fino, R-N.Y. As a college coxswain in 1933, he argued for a municipal lottery to raise funds for New York City, hard pressed financially in that depression year.
 Fino introduced his first state lottery bill in 1945 after his election to the State Senate. His first action following his election to Congress in 1952 was to introduce a bill calling for creation of a national lottery.

Attacks Mount Unevenly From 2 Sides Against Social Security System

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Social Security system, broadly revised under 1967 law, continues to stand like a fortress besieged—with attacks mounted unevenly from two sides.

On the one side, those who can only be called opponents of the system question its financial soundness and talk at times as if they would like to see it scrapped—though it has already endured for nearly 32 years.

On the other, ardent advocates of social causes malign the system as socially inadequate, as not doing enough for the poor and not giving any of the qualified aged as much as they are entitled to have in a time of rising living costs.

Recently a private insurance group invited a top Social Security official to speak to it, with obvious hopes he would be subjected to critical gunfire and show himself unable to "prove" the financial soundness of the system.

Other questioners have bombarded other key officials on the same front, raising anew the now old point that the system is allegedly more than $50 billion in the red because, if the system is to be maintained, it could not pay all obligations totaling that amount.

But this general assault on the system is acknowledged here to be the weaker of the two attacks. There is about as much likelihood that the Social Security system will be either abandoned or revised sharply downward as there is that the White House will be moved to Point Barrow, Alaska.

And, despite the constant drumming on the subject, few but the most rigid anti-tax, anti-government critics take seriously the argument that, in any realistic sense, the system is hundreds of billions in the red.

The key fact is that present and future income of the system, the money needed to pay off benefit obligations as they accrue, is guaranteed by law—and by law that almost certainly is never going to be changed in a way financially harmful to the system.

Social Security Commissioner Robert Ball and others see the new storms coming. They obviously fear that the system's social insurance elements based on payroll tax contributions by workers and employers will break down if Congress should ever yield broadly to demands that Social Security be come mainly antipoverty social assistance program. The experts agree that payroll taxes sufficient to finance such a program could not be levied. The big turn to general revenues would occur, and Social Security as an "insurance" program would be largely dead.

In the long run, the tougher attack is from those who see Social Security as a golden framework from which to deplete larger and larger amounts of money against a wide range of social ills, but chiefly poverty and inadequate health care.

Liberal senators and congressmen, labor leaders, Negro leaders, urban specialists and others continue, as they did when the 1967 revisions were being made, to brand the system as grossly insufficient.

Their pressures, having behind them the remembrance of four years of urban turmoil and the promise of still more, are much more likely to break down the system's fortress walls.

But this general assault on the system is acknowledged here to be the weaker of the two attacks.

There is about as much likelihood that the Social Security system will be either abandoned or revised sharply downward as there is that the White House will be moved to Point Barrow, Alaska.

Refreshments Are Donated For Jamboree

With the opening night for the seventh annual Country Music Jamboree just around the corner, many of the local merchants have jumped on the bandwagon and given donations for the refreshment stand.

Charles Swope from Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. will donate the soft drinks; Shelby's Market, candy; Twin Falls Feed and Ice Co., ice; Safeway's on Main Street, North, coffee; Gem State Paper Co., cups; Twin Falls Mortuary, coffee, pal, and Elmer Schroeder, Filer, popcorn. Mrs. Fredrick Baugh is Easter Seal chairman making preparations for the refreshment center, assisted by Mrs. Robert Cox, soliciting donations, and Mrs. Kenneth Jewkes in charge of finances.

The Country Music Jamboree is set for 8 p.m. Feb. 12 and 13 at the Filer High School Auditorium, with 14 country-western music bands from throughout Magic Valley prepared to present the programs.

Members of the Filer Key Club and DeKalb Club will assist in selling refreshments and members of the Twin Falls High School service organizations will usher.

All proceeds from the jamboree will go to the Twin Falls Easter Seal Center. Gene Bosserman, Gooding, is general chairman of the event, assisted by Rudy Willett, a m.c. on Twin Falls. Tickets for the programs can be obtained from any music store in Magic Valley as well as from Mr. Bosserman, Mr. Williamson, Merle Stoddard, many of the musicians and at the door the nights of the performances.
