Legal Battle

Twin Falls' legal battle featuring Prothonotary Gov. Judge Richard Reed and Police Chief Frank Barnett took another turn late Thursday when the judge asked for dismissal of a complaint against him.

The complaint is a lawsuit filed by the chief against Judge Reed. Chief Barnett asks that a contempt of court charge against him be dropped and leveled recently by Judge Reed, be cleared-up. The chief asks for a decision on court procedure in connection with the admission of personal notes in court action. The chief's refusal to reveal the contents of notes he had in his possession while testifying brought on the contempt of court ruling by Judge Reed.

Now Judge Reed has asked that Chief Barnett's complaint be dismissed on the grounds the complaint fails to state a case. A hearing on the matter will be held in Fifth District Court at 10 a.m. April 15.

CSI Has Report Of Bomb

The College of Southern Idaho Vocational-Technical school on Kimberly road was quickly emptied of more than 200 students and instructors Friday morning after a telephone call warned of a bomb planted in the building.

The call, received at the administration office shortly before 8 a.m. by Jan Miller, a CSI student and switchboard operator, said only that "there is a bomb at the vocational school."

Miss Miller informed CSI business manager H. L. VanVosky of the warning and he notified school director Orval Bradley, who ordered the building emptied and searched.

The caller, Miss Miller said, hesitated for some time in his report of the bomb. "I answered 'College of Southern Idaho' several times, and finally just said 'hello,' before he said anything," she said.

"My first impression was that it was some kid," she stated, "and I think it was probably someone no older than the early 20's."

City and county officers made a complete search of the building and by 9 a.m. students were beginning to return to classes.

King's Slaying Triggers Violence

A night of violence set off in the shock wave sweeping the country after Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination today, but flared up again among students in many cities.

Several high schools had to close because of student unrest, sometimes led in with memorial services for King.

Throughout the country during the night, crowds of angry Negroes broke firebombs, looted stores, threw firebombs that burned buildings and attacked police with guns, stones and bottles.

Several deaths were attributed to the violence.

While the cities were cleaning up the debris of the night's violence, riotous young Negroes reporting for classes in high schools and colleges began to show their anger in demonstrations.

At Kalamazoo, Mich. they took over a student center at Western Michigan University, locked all doors and refused to let any whites inside. Then they threw a group of young Negroes from the building.

Classes were dismissed at high schools in Freeport, N.Y., Trenton, N.J., and Toledo, Ohio.

Several schools in Chicago were closed today because of angry Negroes, broke a window and burned a small American flag.

In Detroit, two policemen shot at Negroes as they paraded a Negro section, and broke windows in that city occupied the street violence.

Siege Of Khe Sanh Is Lifted, But Relief Forces Stay Outside Base

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — The siege of Khe Sanh was lifted today, U.S. officers said, but spearheads of a big relief force less than a mile away made no attempt to enter the Marine combat base.

The 8,000 Marines at Khe Sanh were still under fire from North-Vietnamese gunners, who pounded the base in the northwest corner of Vietnam with 100 rounds. This was one of the relief forces of the 20,000-man U.S. Marine Corps.

Members of the garrison sallied out two miles for the first time since the siege began nearly three months ago, but broke back an attack by 400 North Vietnamese with heavy losses.

With the North-Vietnamese force around Khe Sanh base once estimated at 20,000, reduced to about 7,000 by official estimates, the possibility of a big, decisive battle was still glimmering.

Khe Sanh stands astride one of the invasion routes from Laos. North Vietnamese captured the base in the siege and they were told the coming battle for Khe Sanh would be the last battle of the war, it was hoped.

Now that the siege has been declared lifted, the U.S. objective is to seek out the North Vietnamese around Khe Sanh.

"We've moved out and taken territory," a senior officer said. "The basic concept of the enemy besieging Khe Sanh is over."

There's no particular value in a hookup, they're within a kilometer and a half of each other. It would be no effort to march together and to shake hands. The important thing now is that we're moving, and we have other objectives.

With the 20,000-man relief force of Marines and air cavalrymen heading down on Khe Sanh from three sides, a 500-man battalion of Marines on Thursday pushed farther outside the two square miles of forest than any Leathernecks had since it was taken under siege 75 days ago.

The Marine battalion occupied a hill two miles southwest of Khe Sanh for the night and then was attacked before dawn by about 400 North Vietnamese. The Leathernecks drove off the attack, reported the enemy left 24 bodies in the barbed-wire around the night camp, and said Marine casualties were extremely light.

It was the heaviest fighting of the war.

Disorders. However, their efforts to whip up a general strike were not successful.

There was no immediate reaction to the court's ruling, which was read by a spokesman.

The assembly had convicted Robles of violating the constitution and had ordered the president to take immediate action.

He drew intense interest from the gathering toward the end of the half hour talk when he commented on his present bid for re-election.

The hijack battle pushed the total number of North Vietnamese around Khe Sanh, five-day operation to 180, U.S. losses were put at 24 dead and 17 wounded.

One general in the U.S. command, while not saying specifically what shifts would be made in the relief force, said he had a good assumption that either one of two things could happen.

As the enemy reduces his forces around the base, a withdrawal which U.S. officers believe has started, the Marine likely will do the same, from the 6,000 men there, perhaps down to 1,000.

The U.S. Army troops may replace some of the Marine units. There also are 400 South Vietnamese Rangers and another 400 civilian irregulars helping defend the fortress.

The North Vietnamese there are still North Vietnam's mess troops around Khe Sanh but "not in the line," they were in a "wild card."

Hughes Buys Mining Land
By MIKE DOAN
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Billionaire Howard Hughes, who spent an estimated $15 million in Las Vegas in one year, has expanded his empire to the mountains.

He bought 4,000-acre mining land in northern Nevada, it was learned Thursday.

The Hughes Tool Co. bought 400 acres of land Wednesday.

Required $25,000 near Virginia City, center of the Comstock silver and gold rush before the turn of the century.

Hughes, who has not been seen in public for years, has bought four Las Vegas casinos.

Not once did he mention Sen. Church by name, but he did refer to "the present cast of the Senate."

He said, "The present Senate holds open a committee position. That's not more that deserve attention."

Rep. Hansen said he did not seek the Senate seat for more money. The Senate is a big stick. I can do more for a state from the Senate because here I have the same vote as the Senator from New York, or California.

Kivian was present for the singing of "Swallow Dreams," but the song was changed to "Home on the Range" for Rep. Hansen.

The gathering clapped wildly for Hansen.

Action Urged

"We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders," he said. "The execution of those who have gone to the streets of the United States of America."

"I would like to see white America killed Dr. King she opened the eyes of every black man in this country," Carmichael said.

Emperor Sees 5 American Governors

The five were John A. Volpe of Massachusetts, Bill A. Boone of South Dakota, Don Sam Guetterer of Idaho, Earl Warren of California, and George Wallace of Alabama.

The audience lasted about 45 minutes.

Four of the governors arrived Thursday to attend a conference in Tokyo.

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and 10 other American governors, including the opening in Tokyo of an American food and farm products exhibition.

He lashed out at the government and at big corporations.

"We must create opportunities for the young."

He said many of the black power leaders advocating riots in America "are sick."

He said there is a lot of debate in the House yet on a tax increase "because a cut in income taxes is the only way the young Congress can deal with the nation's debt."

He said 14,000 grade school children will be added to the nation's schools this year.

He said our inflation is the greatest problem we face.

RELAXED BUT FORCEFUL seems to be the speaking style of Republican Congressman George Hansen. He is seen here addressing the Thursday noon luncheon of the Kiwanis Club. Rep. Hansen spoke of racial strife, the national debt, the war in Vietnam and his bid at the Senate seat now held by Democrat Frank Church. The talk was condensed into a short half hour. More than 150 people attended the dinner at the American Legion Hall.

A Twin Falls couple, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hankins, left Friday morning for Valentine, Neb., where their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hankins, Brookings, S.D., died sometime Wednesday in a blizzard. Their vehicle became stranded beside the highway.

Ex-Residents Found Dead In Blizzard

Deputy Sheriff Matt Vico said the local couple was stranded Thursday to attempt to locate the Hankins family and advise them of the death of their son and daughter-in-law. In the time the couple's two children, Cindy, 6 years old, and a 4-year-old boy were still alive in a Valentine, Neb., hospital. The little girl died later Thursday. Officers said the couple was apparently en route to Laramie, Wyo., where Mrs. Hankins parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mullin, live. The blizzard hit the area at about 5 a.m. Wednesday and their vehicle was not discovered until noon of Thursday when a road crew plowing snow uncovered the stranded automobile. Officers in Laramie and Valentine, informed the Twin Falls Sheriff's office that Mr. and Mrs. Hankins were still alive. The parents had attempted to get to the school here and their bodies were reported lying beneath her remains. Vico said the school here was unable to determine if they died from carbon monoxide gas while the vehicle was running or if the snow covering the vehicle caused the suffocation.

Summary, Extended Outlook

Precipitation in the form of rain moved into the valleys of Southern Idaho and Eastern Oregon during the night. Moisture amounts were general but relatively light. Except for some local areas, rainfall was 10 of an inch or less. Some of the heavier amounts were .32 of an inch at Kimberly, .27 of an inch at Tropic, 10 at Hatley and .18 of an inch at Enfield and Boise. Soda Springs had some new snow on the ground this morning. A cold front is advancing into eastern valleys this morning but rain is expected to end in the western valleys. Occasional rain is forecast through the day in our valleys. Rain will change to snow in the mountains and eastern valleys. Some partial clearing is indicated for western valleys tonight and a chance for frost will make some production in fruit orchards likely during the early morning hours. Precipitation is expected to continue with colder nights in the eastern valleys by Saturday night.

Bomb Threat

Mr. Bradley said that classes were just beginning for the day when the threat was received. Most students were already in the building. The last class Thursday night at the school was between 11 p.m. and midnight. Sometime between that time and 3:30 a.m. the building was broken into and burglarized. At that time city officers closed a rear window of the building and students remaining in the building fled. The fact that someone had been in the building illegally gave police and other officials a new direction that there could well have been a bomb planted. However, the caller gave no indication that time and the supposed bomb was to go off, and officers were unable to locate any explosive device in the building of Idaho inspection station.

Grand Opening Held By Station

BURL - A grand opening for Fields' Texaco Station in Buhl is being held Friday and Saturday. The new service station was built by Jack Fields of Loyd Spradling in June, 1967. The grand opening follows expansion of the building, including a canopy and new island, overhang located on the front and back of the building and all new exterior lighting. The station is now open 18 hours a day, from 8 a.m. to midnight, and will provide a 24-hour ambulance service. The station will also serve as a State inspection station.

Lodge Members Participate In Crazy Daze Hat Parade.

Under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Watts, program chairman, members of Primrose Retreat Lodge No. 76 held a crazy-daze hat parade at their recent regular meeting.
Prizes for the hats were won by Mrs. O. Johnson, guest; Mrs. William Boyd, funniest; and Mrs. Ed Walte, grand sweepstakes prize.
Tentative plans were made for a district meeting of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs for new recruits members at Flies. The meeting will feature a pot-luck dinner and Mr. Boyd, grand master, will be the speaker.

Don't want him to think I'm selfish. And I don't want his mother to take a dislike to me, but I don't think it fair for Mrs. mother to invite her daughter to make herself at home in my apartment before I move into it. Or am I wrong?

TORN IN BUFFALO

DEAR TORN: No, I don't think you're wrong. Tell Ray how you feel, and let him handle it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 35-year-old woman and live with my mother-in-law in a two-bedroom, mid-fifties, in very good health and she has a good job.

Although she drives her own car, she will not go anywhere in the evening unless I take her. She makes no effort to have friends of her own, but expects me to include her with mine. If she is left out she pouts and will not speak to me for weeks.

I would like to move into a place of my own, but every time I bring it up my mother cries and says I don't "love" her and that I am selfish. I DO love her, but I just have to start living a life of my own. I have two married sisters and a married brother who also think I'm selfish. If I don't include my mother in everything I do, if I were to move, we would still be in the same city, and I would see her often. Please tell me what to do.

DEAR BEWILDERED: MOVE! And don't feel guilty.

HEARING SET

BOISE (AP) — Dist. Judge Alfred Hagan of Boise has set April 11 for hearing a motion to dismiss a suit filed to set former Alabama-Gov. George Wallace on the Idaho presidential ballot.

The dismissal motion was filed on behalf of Sec. of State Pete Benson, against whose suit is directed.

Wallace's suit contests the constitutionality of a lack of provision in Idaho law for third party presidential candidates.

CONSTRUCTION VIEWED

BOISE (AP) — Final consideration on calling for bids for a $2-million new state office building is on the agenda for a Wednesday meeting in Boise of the Permanent Building Fund Advisory Council.

The four-level, 100,000-square-foot building will be the first of a planned capital mall development.

Robert Desharzo said if the contract approves, the bid opening breaking would be held in mid-May. Construction would take about two years.

U.S. Offer Assailed By Red Paper

TOKYO (AP) — North Vietnam's official news paper charged today the United States "has not in the least given up its aggressive design" in Vietnam.

At the same time, Communist China's official newspaper described the partial cessation of bombing of North Vietnam as a "new trick or peace hoax."

The North Vietnamese said the partial cease was not enough to justify the United States' peace settlement of the war.

"Peking" said, "President Johnson's bombing order was intended to 'force the Vietnamese people to bend their knees and surrender to the aggressors by means of a new trick.'"

It was the first Chinese comment on President Johnson's Sunday night bomb pause announcement. Peking still withheld comment on North Vietnam's announcement Wednesday agreeing to meet with the United States to prepare for peace talks.

Nhan Dan, official organ of North Vietnam's ruling Workers' Communist party, made the signed Commentator, pseudonym of a high-ranking official.

Federal Aid Given School At Shoshone

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Office of Education has certified payment of $2,460 to John School District No. 312 in Shoshone in partial payment of federal aid in the current fiscal year under the impacted area local program, Sen. Frank Church announced Friday.

The Shoshone school district is retroactively entitled to a total of $4,321 in the current fiscal year. This current payment represents half the amount. The money is being made available under Public Law 874 which provides federal assistance for operating assistance in both schools with large numbers of children of federal employees.

The money is allocated by formula in which the number of federal employees determines the amount made available.

PRAGUE (AP) — Oldrich Cernik, an outspoken progressive and proven economist, was nominated Thursday night for the Czech premiership. It is likely he will form a new government next week.

The Communist party's 110-member Central committee recommended the building, 44-year-old Cernik to President Ludvik Svoboda after two hours of secret balloting. Cernik's nomination was certainly to be approved, the contract pending completion of voting by all units of American operations in "other parts of the country. Congress Asked To Enact Legislation To End Long Feud Over Track Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is being asked to write into law an enforced end to the long feud between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., announced Thursday the Senate Committee on Education and the Labor Committee will hold hearings as soon as possible to "consider all alternatives which are obviously necessary."

Magnuson said he was "absolutely astounded" that the National Collegiate Athletic Association and its ally the U.S. Track and Field Federation would turn down the peace pact proposed by a Senate-created arbitration panel.

Three paths to enforced peace are open to Congress: —Magnuson has threatened to legislate around the set-in-stone path to enforced peace, the one spurred by the colleges; —Magnuson has threatened to legislate around the set-in-stone path to enforced peace, the one spurred by the colleges; —Magnuson has threatened to legislate around the set-in-stone path to enforced peace, the one spurred by the colleges;

World's Finest Bourbon a 173-Year-Old Secret

CHICAGO, Ill. — Before you can call yourself the world's finest anything, you'd better have a case in your favor.

Jim Beam Bourbon has that "case."

The whole matter started with Jacob Beam—who would be 200 years old this year—and a secret he discovered.

The secret, in the case of Jim Beam Bourbon, goes back to 1795, and it is still hush today. The secret lay in the heart of Kentucky where there was, and is today, the right combination of soil, sun, water, and climate: the perfect Bourbon formula.

In north central Kentucky Jacob Beam found the perfect formula—water that runs from limestone and out to make Bourbon in the rolling hills, and he added his own special touch.

KIMBERLY NURSERIES' new building along Addison Avenue East has several unique features. The sun beats the building and plants during the daylight hours and at other times there is thermostatically controlled heat. There are 60 8- by 10-foot doors that fully open, allowing complete circulation of air. The firm recently moved to this location, one and one-half miles east of Washington School, after 40 years in Kimberly.

Kimberly Nurseries In New Location

One of the oldest established businesses in this area has moved to a new location. After being located in Kimberly for 40 years, Kimberly Nurseries has moved to a new location along Addison Avenue East, one and one-half miles east of Washington School.

Kimberly Nurseries, one of the oldest established firms in the area, started in 1903 by the Tyler brothers, George and Grover, in Heyburn. Because of high winds and bad sandstorms in those early days, the results of newly planted seedlings were that they were usually cut off at the ground. In 1907, the operation was moved to the now Twin Falls tract and located in Kimberly.

Two years later in 1909, the late Carl E. Wright became associated with the nursery and it has been operated continuously by that family since then.

During the early years, until about 1914, the nursery prospered by grafting on to a variety of a million apple trees annually. At one time there was about 15,000 to 20,000 acres of apple orchards in Magic Valley. However, the high prices of grains and farm products during World War I years caused most of the orchards to be pulled out, the fact that many of these young plantings never reached bearing age.

Many other changes have been made in the nursery business in various ways. Landscaping which plays a major role in their business now has changed from a simple decision to planting to a complex cooler, rock and water pattern.

After being in Kimberly for 60 years there was a need for expansion. Because of the lack of sufficient frontage, a new location was sought, and Addison Avenue East was chosen.

Kimberly Nurseries' building is new in design and has many unique features, such as being heated by the sun during the daylight hours, thermostatically controlled heat when needed, 60 eight by 10-foot doors that fully open, allowing complete circulation of air as well as nylon shade cloth casting about 55 per cent shade during the hot summer months.

The plants in this building are watered and fertilized automatically by a misting watering system. This represents a most effective way of handling nursery stock at this time.

Kimberly Nurseries offers a wide range of services, including both residential and commercial landscaping, having the knowledge and equipment for proper installation, and a horticulture spraying service.

The public is invited to visit this modern nursery.

Idaho's Total Crop Acreage Is Unchanged

BOISE — Idaho farmers indicate that they plan to plant about the same total crop acreage as in 1967, according to the USDA Crop Reporting Service.

Prospective increases for grain, oats, barley, dry beans, dry peas and sugar beets were offset by decreases in wheat, potatoes and mixed grains.

Intended spring wheat acreage, at 270,000 acres, is 12 per cent below last year. Barley acreage, at 530,000 acres, is expected to be three per cent above a year ago and five per cent above the five-year average.

Out-plantings in 1968 are indicated at 83,000 acres — up 14 per cent from last year but 20 per cent less than the 1962-66 average and 29 per cent below average.

Corn growers indicate they plan to plant 84,000 acres for all purposes (excludes sweet corn for seed and processing). This is two per cent more than last year and five per cent above the five-year average.

Potato plantings, at 232,000 acres, represents a decrease of five per cent from 1967, but is eight per cent above the 1962-66 average. A decrease was indicated for both of Idaho's fall producing areas.

Commercial dry bean plantings are indicated at 93,000 acres — up three per cent from last year, but 11 per cent below the average plantings.

Sugar beet growers reported intentions to plant 185,000 acres, up 11 per cent and 21 per cent above average. Harvested acreage of all hay, at 1,323,000 is unchanged from last year and nearly one per cent above average.

PAT LIGHT, 18-year-old Twin Falls girl, right, receives her Morgan Stallion colt from Carolyn Jessor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jessor, who donated the colt to the Idaho Morgan Horse Association. The association presented the colt to Miss Light for her outstanding 4-H work. Miss Jessor had the colt last year as a 4-H project.

"Orpheus" Is Pat Light's Reward For Her Outstanding Work In 4-H

A Twin Falls girl, after two hopes to train him for showing horses, finally has a horse she can call her own. She is very smart and has excellent breeding and should be an outstanding show horse.

Pat Light, 18-year-old daughter of Mrs. Leona Light, Route 2, Twin Falls, received a Morgan "Orpheus" colt for her outstanding 4-H work from the Idaho Morgan Horse Association.

Pat says this is the first horse she can really call her very own. She has had two horses given to her by her brother and sister, and were not colts. "This is the first horse I can really call my very own."

She trained the other two horses while in 4-H and won several trophies with the two of them.

She has been a member of the Boots and Bows 4-H Club and the Better Livestock 4-H Club, with Mrs. and Mrs. Lee Sharp as leaders.

She also was a member of the Twin Falls Junior Riding Club and at one time was president of the club and, for one year, queen. She has participated in several horse shows and riding events.

Pat says her horse projects have "helped me a great deal in gaining up. Patience, understanding, responsibility and a better outlook on life are but a few of the things horses have helped me obtain."

After graduating from the University of Idaho—she is now a freshman—she plans to set up a veterinary practice.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dopper are now operators of the Patterson Aply, moving to Richfield from Riverside, Calif. Mr. Dopper has been in the honey business for 18 years and will move his bees to Richfield after taking of the spring honey in California. John Jones, employe of the late Brig Patterson, will continue to work for Mr. Dopper.

Cattle belonging to the Lloyd Barron Ranch northwest of King Hill on King Hill Creek were branded and vaccinated at the ranch last week. Assisting with the work were Carl Naser, Sam Moun, King Hill, Lee and Paul Barron, Jim Brooks, Jim Reedy and Ruben Miller, all Fairfield. The cattle will soon be headed out to the range north of King Hill.

Mrs. H. Edwards and sons, Larry, Jay and Gary, Gooding; David Knowlton, Boise, and Victor Gallo and son, Glenn, Turley, assisted at the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wolfe, Turley, branding operations. Mrs. Edwards did the tagging. Dean Wolfe then assisted Mr. Gallo to brand and vaccinate his cattle.

Don Carahan and Lee Trail are planting beets at their ranches in Pasadena Valley, south of King Hill. Mr. Trail is also planting beets on the Karl Anderson Ranch in Paradise Valley south of King Hill.

Mrs. Charlotte Crockett, Hansen, reports the loss of two head of cattle this spring from poison hemlock. Ted Crockett lost one which was assumed to have eaten poison. Mrs. Crockett reports she lost several last fall also because of the weed. The cattle pull it up by the roots and it is the root which seems to have the concentrated poison and kills the animal quickly. Some of the weeds which are still selling. Both families of Crockett live in the Rock Creek Canyon area. They report the weed is growing along ditch banks right in pasture fields.

Mrs. Mary Knox and daughter, Janie, King Hill, attended the Treasure Valley auction sale held Saturday at Caldwell. It is the former Davis Livestock Commission Co.

Richfield cattlemen have cleaned the mid-alberr water pipe leading from the Dietrich Canal. They were Albert Peiley, Rupert Colchosa, Lyo Decker and Glen Nelson of Dietrich, members of the Dietrich Butte Cattle Association.

Two Hereford bulls were purchased at the Cambridge bull sale at Cambridge over the weekend for the Plich For Ranch, King Hill, owned by Mrs. Mary Knox. T. B. Burton brought the bulls to the ranch north of King Hill. They are from the B-Bar Ranch at Cambridge.

Farmers in most sections of North Shoshone are finding the weed get up to do much damage. Because the snow has been gone for some time, they thought perhaps they could get into the field sooner than usual, but the cooler weather has apparently kept the ground from drying out sufficiently yet.

American Diet Declines In Quality

By OVID A. MARTIN
AP Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — If the American diet declined in quality between 1955 and 1965 — as the Agriculture Department reported Monday — it has lost further ground since then. The results of a nationwide survey made public by the department showed that only half the 7,500 typical households had adequate diets in 1965 compared with 60 per cent in 1955. It attributed much of this lowering of the dietary standards to a decline in consumption of milk and dairy products, vegetables and fruits.

Government reports show that in 1955, for instance, the per capita consumption of milk and dairy products, expressed in the equivalent of fluid milk, averaged 740 pounds a year. This average had dropped to 700 pounds in 1965. For instance, the per capita average was down to 618 pounds — a decline of nearly 12.4 per cent in 10 years. The decline has continued, with per capita average down to 584 pounds in 1967. A further decline is expected this year. This average had dropped to 700 pounds in 1955. For instance, the per capita average was down to 618 pounds — a decline of nearly 12.4 per cent in 10 years. The decline has continued, with per capita average down to 584 pounds in 1967. Well-Known Bull Of Rodeo Circuit Dies At Hagerman

HAGERMAN — "Louie Cabrall," a brabrah bull known throughout the West, especially along the rodeo circuit and with stockmen, and weighing just 200 pounds short of one ton, is dead. The docile 1,600-pound brabrah, died last week at the age of 18 years. "Louie" evidently died of old age and too rough a winter for him, according to his owner, George Otterson. When the bull became too weak to stand, a winch and hoist were fastened to raise the animal, but neither that, medicine nor love kept the old bull alive. Mr. Otterson acquired "Louie" when the bull was 5 years old. Prior to that time, Mr. Otterson's brother-in-law, Louis Cabrall, after whom the bull was named, owned the big bull. Mr. Cabrall trained "Louie" in a Roman style and they worked together. Instantly at his command.

Reverting to brabrah and bull nature, the brabrah became mean and untrustworthy and had to be killed. It was at this time that Mr. Otterson acquired "Louie." Otterson had purchased the animal in his California ranch for several years during the rodeo off-season.

Otterson, mounted atop this large brabrah bull, has been a familiar sight in the Hagerman Pioneer Day parades, Gooding Fair and Rodeo parades and the Wagon Day parades in Ketchikan.

Prior to moving to Idaho, Otterson also showed "Louie" at Red Bluff and Sacramento. Among the rodeos he has participated in are displayed at the Stockmen's

Idaho Falls Auction Firm Violates Act

IDAHO FALLS — Floyd and Leon Skelton, operators of a livestock auction at Idaho Falls, have been charged with violating custodial account requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, said today. The firm receives cattle consignments from producers throughout Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

In an administrative complaint, USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration alleges specifically that the respondents: (1) endangered prompt payments to consignors by using funds received from sale of livestock for purposes other than payment of marketing charges and remittance of net proceeds to shippers between Sept. 1 and Oct. 31, 1966; and (2) made shortages in the custodial account, amounts ranging from $2,500 to $30,000 between the periods of Sept. 23 and Oct. 8, 1966.

Two regulations require that funds received from sale of livestock consigned to a market agency must be deposited in a trust account to protect the shippers' proceeds. The account can be used only for net proceeds to shippers, plus legitimate marketing charges.

The P and S Act is a Federal law regulating those engaged in interstate marketing of livestock and poultry and meat packing. It prohibits unfair, deceptive, discriminatory, and monopolistic marketing practices. The respondents will have an opportunity for a formal hearing.

Construction Of Trail Creek Project To Start This Year

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Idaho Congressman George Hansen announces today that final construction of the Trail Creek Water Project in the Teton Valley will begin this year. Hansen said $10,000 has been secured for the $3 million project. Of that amount, $1,500,000 will come from federal funds. Because of the extremely tight fiscal situation in government, there were grave doubts about being able to secure funds this year. Hansen said. Straddling the Idaho-Wyoming border, the watershed project encompasses 55,300 acres. It will benefit 7,200 acres of land in the Teton counties of Idaho and Wyoming. The program is designed to provide watershed protection, flood prevention, and better methods of irrigation. Improvements will reduce erosion on range, forest, and crop lands and improve productive capacity. The watershed area encompasses the upper end of the Teton Valley and extends to include in some two miles of the confluence of Trail Creek with the Teton River. Victor is the only city within the watershed. The reclaimed area in the watershed is serviced by seven canals diverting water from Trail Creek as it travels across the fan below the canyon. In Targhee National Forest.

Gross Returns From Wheat Crop High

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department estimates gross returns from last year's record large wheat crop will total a record of $2.9 billion despite a sharp decline in prices.

Such a return would be 285 million more than the previous record set for the 1966 crop. The department said returns for wheat from sale or storage under price support loans will total about $2.2 billion. Added to this will be $725 million in government payments to growers complying with the government's wheat stabilization program.

The department expects the wheat price for the 1967 marketing season ending June 30 to average $1.41 a bushel compared with an average of $1.63 for the 1966 crop.

A grain situation report forecast the average price for 1967 crop will be $1.17 a bushel, 3 cents above the government price-support loan rate. This would be the same average as for the 1966 crop.

1967 Wool Payment Rates Set

Shorn wool payments for the 1967 marketing year will be made at the rate of 51.17 cents of the dollar returns each grower received from the sale of shorn wool markets. Don Boyd, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation, Twin Falls County Committee, has announced.

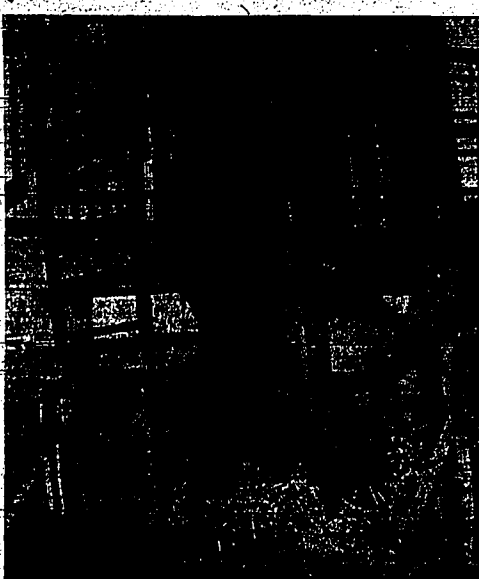

In announcing the payment rates recently, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said: "These payments to producers for wool markets in 1967 will have many sheep raisers from financial ruin and enable them to continue in business. The payments are estimated to total nearly $10 million, the highest in 10 years and more than double the amount of payments made last year on 1966 marketings."

The payment rate for wool is determined as the percentage necessary to bring the national average wool price of 38.8 cents per pound received by growers during 1967 up to the previously announced incentive level of 50 cents per pound under the national wool program. 1967 payments for 1966 marketings were made at the rate of 24.8 per cent.

According to the chairman, the ASCS county office this week will begin making 1967 program payments to producers who have filed their applications.

Producers on price support loans authorized by the Agricultural Act of 1965, which provides such price support through December 31.

"Beauty" was bred in the Bott herd. She was sired by Mini Crest Homesteaded Jc 17366.

Cattle Group Seeks Tighter Import Quotas

By OVID A. MARTIN AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — American National Cattleman's Association today urged Congress to tighten import quotas on foreign beef.

Johnston administration's opposition. It will press Congress to tighten quotas on beef imports.

Under current law imports of certain meats — primarily beef — from foreign countries are limited to 1.45 billion pounds this year before quota restrictions would go into effect.

The association's committee of the Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman. It will seek legislation to reduce the quota to 1.1 billion pounds.

The committee also wants to see that the quota is not expected to reach the base quota level, but some cattlemen believe differently.

The cattleman's legislative staff also would fit quotas on a quarterly rather than on the present annual basis. Such a change would be designed to spread imports over the year, when prices are low as well as at more favorable levels. Such spreading would be expected to have a smaller price-depressing effect on domestic cattle and beef prices.

Freeman has made clear the administration opposes any change in the law.

The Idaho Cattle Feeders Association will be held in the Idaho Room of Griggs Hotel and Col. For Sale at 11 p.m. according to Tom Hovenden, secretary-manager of the association.

The special feeder sale in Twin Falls will be the second in a series of special spring sales that the association is sponsoring as a means to encourage the production of good feedlot replacement cattle throughout the Magic Valley.

Richard Bilcoo, Heyburn, president of the association, feels that the progress and growth of the feeding industry in Idaho is dependent upon the production of good feedlot replacement cattle by many small farmers. Such a program does not require a large investment in equipment and there is an excellent demand for feedlot replacement cattle in the late spring.

The University of Idaho is currently conducting tests on the selection of the site for the production of good feedlot replacement cattle at their Caldwell station. Excellent and economic gains have been registered by calves who went on test in the fall and were fed a one to one roughage ration of corn silage and alfalfa hay on a dry matter basis and three pounds of grain per day. When cattle are fed such a ration they make most feedlot replacements, according to Bilcoo, because they have made an excellent growth and are not carrying too much fat. These are the types of cattle that bring premium prices from feedlots who specialize in feeding cattle to finished slaughter weights.

All of the cattle feeder associations in the evening, several items of important business will be discussed and acted upon including the selection of the site for the 1959 convention of the association, legislative matters pertaining to the industry and the recent action taken by California Cattle Feeders in regard to an industry wide action for adopting standard collection procedures for cattle sold to meat packers.

All of the cattle feeder associations in the west are working together on this latter subject according to President Bilcoo. This action was precipitated by the failure of several packing plants in California during the past 12 months and in each instance these packers owed hundreds of thousands of dollars to western feedlot operators and claimed bankruptcy.

For the best in potato wireworm control without crop residues, apply Diazinon.

Excellent potato wireworm control, even in strains that are resistant to some other insecticides. That's what you can expect from Diazinon insecticide.

And there's no need to worry about insecticide residue to contaminate your crop... or crops following potatoes in rotation.

In fact, Diazinon may be applied for effective soil insect control in many crops including sugar beets. Diazinon stays long enough to do a job on wireworms, but there's no danger that crops will be rejected because of residue.

Diazinon is available in several formulations: liquid, wettable powder and granular. So it works in all standard equipment and fits any program you decide on.

You can broadcast it, or put it on combined with fertilizer before planting. Incorporate into the top 4 to 8 inches of soil. And Diazinon is easier to handle than many other insecticides. Just follow the label as you would with any insecticide.

Plan to use Diazinon for effective wireworm control this year and solve your residue problem, too. Your supplier can give you all the details when you order the formulation you need.

"The number one task that faces us (farmers) today is to get the American consumer to understand the importance of our industry to his everyday life."

This statement was made by JOHN SCOTT, National Grange secretary and Pennsylvania State Grange master, during the Twin Falls County Grange's annual banquet held recently at Robert Stuart Junior High School Cafeteria.

Mr. Scott said, "How many of these millions who know the culture only from the window of their auto or from the take it for granted food on their table realize that 4 per cent of the employment of this nation can be traced directly to our industry, the agricultural industry."

"Few realize that in 1950 farmers spent $48 million for tractors and that by 1965 this figure had climbed to $1 billion. That each year farmers buy other machinery valued at $2 billion, $1.5 billion for fuel and $1 billion for tires."

Edible Bean Contract Is Explained

JEROME — Jerome county farm bureau members are urged to participate in the dry edible bean contract of the Farm Bureau Marketing Association of Idaho.

Provisions of the contract, which provides growers with complete market analysis, were explained at the county directors meeting last week, reports Bill McCoy, chairman.

Directors agreed to support the establishment of a field office in Boise so the state legislative staff may be near the state Legislature while it is in session.

Walter Shouse reported on the status of Senate Bill 115, which states that persons who belong to farm organizations will not be discriminated against. Members are urged to write letters to their congressmen urging passage of this bill.

Russell Howard, former assistant manager of Washington State Potato Commission, has been named assistant manager of the American Agricultural Marketing Association, according to Kenneth Hood, AMA general manager.

Reports of the Jerome Community Farm Bureau and the First Segregation Community were given by Bud Patterson and Bernard Schwartz.

Reports of the Jerome Community Farm Bureau and the First Segregation Community were given by Bud Patterson and Bernard Schwartz. Bernard Schwartz stated that the health facilities at the Labor camp must be improved or it will be closed. Funds for these camps have been supplied for the most part by the beet growers. An investigation is being made into the possibility of a Federal loan for improvements.

Acme Making Mulching Harrows, Hydraulic-Folding Drawbars At Filer

FILER — Two new pieces of equipment have been added to Acme Machine Works, Inc., long line of farm equipment.

Recently these two new pieces of equipment, a 16-foot Acme Spring Time Mulching Harrow and a hydraulic folding drawbar for harrows, were field-tested on the Roger Vincent farm, north-west of Filer.

The mulcher, in various sizes, has three rows of spring tines and it works up lumps, clods and masses of soil and is attached to other equipment, such as a disc cultivator, plow or planter. Although this is the first three-row mulcher by Acme, a single-row one has been made for years by Acme.

The equipment is self-flattening when the other equipment is discing or plowing and lifts when implements are raised. The teeth are self-cleaning, trash releases and doesn't drag or bunch. Individual sections can be mounted for following sharply changing ground contours.

According to Hugh Farmer, Acme Machine Works, this equipment reduces compaction, harrows out tracks, reduces soil erosion, loosens soil after plowing and helps blend moldboard furrows together.

With this mulching harrow, farmer can plow and harrow, disc and harrow, cultivate and harrow or plant and harrow in one trip. Sections are adjustable for south-south and penetration. Mountings available for plows, discs, cultivators, other field equipment. Utility mountings allow shifting to various implements in little time.

Mr. Farmer says the mulching harrow incorporates chemicals for weed and bug control can be mounted with floating hook-up, with one-depth carrier or with spring-loaded down pressure.
