

Evidence Of Atrocities Found

By BARRY KRAMER
SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces executed more than 1,000 French prisoners from the nearby region during the February offensive in Hue, the U.S. Embassy reported today.

The embassy made its atrocity charge as the U.S. Command reported hard fighting around Hue, the former imperial capital, and U.S. B-52 bombers exploded their raids into Laos to excursions during the Communist occupation of the city.

The embassy said its report was based on information from allied sources and the South Vietnamese national police. Iters attacked North Vietnamese soldiers the victims were found in 18 separate mass graves.

"Monday and today, military units were ordered to clear the area," the report said, "A number of bodies showed signs of mutilation. Most were found around the border from the with hands bound behind their backs."

"Evidence also was discovered of victims having been clubbed unconscious prior to being buried alive."

Victims included Father Urban and other cities in the northern provinces. Thousands of U.S. air cavalrymen have set up fire support stations in the 25-mile-long valley and are sweeping through it, destroying enemy bases and communications.

The U.S. Command would not comment on the reported 832 deaths on Laos, its customary policy toward U.S. operations in that supposedly neutral country.

But U.S. communiques reported only three B-52 raids against enemy positions in South Vietnam Monday and today, a sharp re-attack from the average of 10 to 15 bombs had been flying previously.

Allied expectations of new attacks on Hue were heightened by two sharp clashes Monday in which U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese forces met in a series of battles near the old imperial capital and along the main highway running north to the outpost below the demilitarized zone.

A military spokesman said the enemy lost 253 killed. He reported four Marines dead and 23 wounded. The Vietnamese put their losses in the two actions at seven dead and 19 wounded.

Heavy fighting broke out when a regiment of South Vietnamese ran into 500 to 1,200 North Vietnamese along Highway 1, the main supply line near Dong Ha, headquarters of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division.

U.S. Marine tanks and armoured personnel carriers drove across the flat coastal marshlands to join the battle, which continued for six hours. After the contact was broken just before midnight, allied troops reported finding 150 enemy bodies.

The allies reported a total of 378 enemy troops killed, and light casualties of their own, in the three battles near the old imperial capital and along the main highway running north to the outpost below the demilitarized zone.

Prisoner Pries Way Out Of Jail

RUPERT—Mindoka sheriff's officers were searching today for Ken Robinson, 31, who escaped from the jail here Monday night by prying the door open.

Officers said Robinson, whose real name is David Henry Smith, but has gone by Robinson for years, apparently used pieces of iron to pry off the bars on the jail door. He escaped from the jail sometime between 7:20 p.m. and 10 p.m. when the jailer made a routine check.

The escape is described as 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighs 150 pounds and has black hair, brown eyes, medium complexion with a scar on the left arm and chest.

He was sentenced Monday afternoon by Judge Theron Ward to three years in the state penitentiary for obtaining money under false pretenses. He had been in sheriff's custody since April 10 and it is believed he had been planning his escape for some time.

Robinson, originally was charged with insufficient funds checks, but this case was dismissed and he was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses instead.

He was to have been taken to the state penitentiary in Boise Tuesday.

628 Arrested As Police End Sit-In

NEW YORK (AP) — City police, called in by the Columbia University administration, routed student sit-ins from five barricaded campus buildings early today. More than 100 youths and 15 policemen were injured, and 628 persons were arrested.

The 75-minute police action, which began at 2:45 a.m., brought a sometimes violent end to the week-long sit-in.

The demonstration began April 23, primarily as a protest against the university's construction of a gym in a park separated from the university from Negro Harlem. It had faded into a sit-in against university persons injured and hundreds more homeless.

No Contact

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — For the second day in succession there was no contact today between the U.S. and North Vietnamese here in their efforts to agree on a site for Vietnam peace talks.

In the last contact between the two embassies Sunday, U.S. Embassy Counselor Robert A. Hrusvich handed North Vietnam Embassy official Nguyen Con a message from Washington believed to contain the American rejection of Warsaw as a site for the talks.

Johnson Asks Okay Of New Money Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to approve what he termed a landmark plan to create an international money paper gold—and coupled his request with another plea for higher taxes.

In a special message, Johnson sought approval of amendments to the International Monetary Fund's Articles of Agreement distributed to governments of the non-Communist world earlier this month.

The new money would be in the form of a bookkeeping entry in a public check, it is said. He had sent a telegram to a group of supporters in Vermont.

Residents Asked To Display Flags

Loyalty Day Observance Planned

SITTING ON A MEMORIAL honoring those who have shown their extreme loyalty to the United States are, from left, John Price, post commander of the VFW, and Mayor Egner. The memorial to Twin Falls County residents who have lost their lives in Vietnam is situated in the Twin Falls City Park. Mayor Egner and Mr. Price are discussing the VFW-sponsored Loyalty Day which will be observed Wednesday in Twin Falls. The VFW urges all residents to fly the stars and stripes as a token of their loyalty.

The Twin Falls Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is requesting all Twin Falls residents to fly their flags Wednesday, designated as National Loyalty Day.

John Price, post commander, said that Mayor Egner has named Wednesday as Loyalty Day in Twin Falls, in conjunction with the advance ceremony. The VFW is sponsoring the day throughout the United States.

No observances are planned Wednesday by the VFW in Twin Falls, but the post will host a dinner and dance Friday evening at the Twin Falls American Legion Hall.

Mr. Price said that dinner will be served from 6 p.m. to midnight, included on the menu will be an assortment of seafood and chicken.

The auxiliary of the VFW will be serving the dinner. Also on the agenda is a social event, a dance, beginning at 9 p.m. Mr. Price said the VFW welcomes all strangers who wish to attend.

Proceeds for the evening's events will go toward the VFW building fund.

There are about 200 members in the local VFW post.

All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting to hear an explanation of the Bureau of Land Management plan for the land located east of Salmon Falls Creek. This is one of several such meetings being held in connection with the land classification. Dale T. Waddoups, Bureau of Land Management specialist, Durley, announced.

He said a public hearing is planned for Tuesday as a final step before classification. At that time, he said, the proposal will be revised to follow suggestions and requests from the public. These opinions are being solicited in public meetings such as the one planned in Twin Falls on May 13.

In addition to the 230,000 acres of public land, now devoted to grazing, another 14,000 acres is designated for disposal or transfer to local governments or federal and state agencies or private individuals.

Mr. Waddoups said land along Snake River and Salmon Falls areas under consideration for classification as multiple use lands. Lands retained under this classification would be available for grazing, fish and wildlife development, industrial, mining, watershed protection, timber production. This could also be used and wilderness use among other things by the wildlife organization.

Rockefeller To Fight For GOP Nomination

By CHARLES DUMAS
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller became an active candidate for the Republican presidential nomination today when he announced he had pledged to fight for the office because of concern over "the growth of crises that are not from the American people."

Abandoning the "available" posture he had assumed only 40 days ago for a more aggressive role, the 59-year-old New York governor explained:

"I frankly find that to comment from the sidelines is not an effective way to present the alternatives—the alternatives that I believe can lead us out of our difficulties—in order and progress at home, to peace and understanding abroad."

Rockefeller's role of the change in his political posture at a State Capitol news conference televised across the nation. It had been announced by the governor that he would announce his active candidacy.

Shortly before he went before the cameras, it became known that he had sent a telegram to a group of supporters in Vermont saying he would seek the nomination to "give our party a choice of candidates and programs."

The only other major candidate for the GOP nomination is former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, with whom Rockefeller has had a close eye-to-eye on government philosophy.

Rockefeller set forth four reasons for his announcement of candidacy.

He said he had decided to run because of:

"The dramatic and unprecedented events of the past weeks have revealed in most serious terms the gravity of the crisis that face us as a people."

He did not elaborate on the point, but Rockefeller associates said he had been deeply disturbed by the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Rockefeller also believed that the signs of disintegration were President Johnson's decision not to seek renomination had so the course of events—growing unrest and anxiety at home, and the signs of disintegration abroad."

He underscored the need for "disintegration" in the text of his official announcement. Rockefeller said he would do everything he could "with all my energy" in the weeks remaining before the GOP national convention "to bring before the people the dimensions of the problems as I see them and how I believe as a free people we can meet them."

He is to begin Wednesday by spelling out his views on the "dilemma" in a major address in Philadelphia.

County Studies New Jail Facility

Possibilities of constructing a county courthouse to provide county-city jail facility that would serve the county sheriff's office and city police departments in all communities were being discussed Tuesday by Twin Falls County commissioners and Sheriff Paul Corder.

Commission Chairman Heber Loughmiller said the most economical method of meeting the county's serious need for a new jail facility would be to build a new jail facility within the present jail site.

He said the present jail facility would be expanded to accommodate 40 prisoners, providing they are all the same type of prisoners. However, he said, the critical problem in the present jail facility is the lack of accommodation to segregate the various inmates in connection with the present jail area and under the present jail area.

Radical and psychopathic prisoners now must be housed with those who could be released easily, the sheriff said.

He also pointed out that juvenile prisoners often are released from the jail area and create problems for officers.

Present kitchen facilities in the jail are being replaced with a new kitchen area and steel wall reinforcement and could be converted to cells without major cost, Mr. Loughmiller said.

A fourth floor apartment which now accommodates the sheriff and his wife could be converted to a jail area. This would necessitate preparing meals and bringing them to the jail area and under observation by the night desk man at the sheriff's office.

Robert M. W. Ballsten, local attorney, met with county officials to urge steps be taken to bring jail facilities up to standard and to provide a means of separating prisoners and limiting the numbers retained in a single cell area. Mr. Loughmiller said repairs are being made to the jail under way in one "tank." New plumbing and flooring will be installed in a permanent repair project, he said.

He found, he said, that he could not offer alternatives "in view of the circumstances that confront the nation."

Numerous people, within and outside the Republican party, are urging me to take this office to foster an active campaign for the discussion and debate that sustains our democracy."

He is "deeply disturbed by the course of events—growing unrest and anxiety at home, and the signs of disintegration abroad."

Hearing To Be Held On Classification Of BLM Lands In Twin Falls County

Details of the proposed classification of some 230,000 acres of public land in Twin Falls County for multiple use ownership under multiple use management will be explained in a public meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Idaho Power Auditorium.

All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting to hear an explanation of the Bureau of Land Management plan for the land located east of Salmon Falls Creek. Oldest Human Remains Recovered

WASHINGTON (AP) — A scientific team from Washington State University has recovered what is believed to be the oldest human remains ever found in the Western Hemisphere from an archaeological site in southwestern Washington State.

The remains of human skull and other bones have been dated by radiocarbon methods as 11,000 to 15,000 years old.

The discovery was made in an excavation 13 feet deep at the bottom of a 500-foot canyon in the Palouse River 1.5 miles from its confluence with the Snake River.

The site is to be flooded in December by the reservoir of the Lower Monumental Dam.

Geologist Rolf Fryxell, assistant professor of Anthropology at Washington State, was credited with the discovery. The human remains were uncovered in an extension of excavations made at the Marmes Rockshelter or cave from 1962 to 1964 under direction of Prof. Richard D. Daugherty.

The find was announced Monday in the office of Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., author of a 1956 law authorizing cooperation of federal agencies in archeological surveys and preservation of antiquities threatened by federal projects.

Magnuson said he introduced the bill at the request of the WSU scientists who wanted to explore the Snake River Canyon.

Fryxell told newsmen a bulldozer "scrapped the top" of sediments containing the bones in July 1967. Further excavations in November of that year, he said, produced the discovery of bone fragments. Human remains uncovered at the site included a few pieces of rib, long bone, vertebrae and bones (from the wrist and fingers) that Daugherty said identify of the site as a human habitation was made only two weeks ago with the recovery of two missing pieces of the skull and a point of bone artifact. The skull pieces were partially charred and the long bones are the ends, Fryxell said, indicating that the person either was cremated or cooked and eaten by his fellows.

T. L. Stewart, senior physical anthropologist of the Smithsonian Institution and the geologist of the discovery, has the fact that the human bones could be dated from association with surrounding sediments.

He found, he said, that he could not offer alternatives "in view of the circumstances that confront the nation."

Let's Not Write Off Humphrey

WASHINGTON — Vice President Hubert Humphrey has taken only a few weeks to demonstrate a kind of political durability that even Richard Nixon may envy. On the eve of President Johnson's March 31 announcement of his intent not to run again, virtually any major Democratic liberal you would wish to name would have dismissed the vice president as "an old dinosaur" or a "sad-sack who had deserted the cause by supporting the President on the war and was, therefore, politically dead."

Only a few of those now talking him up face the fact that his absence from the coming primaries could put him in a weakened campaign posture by July. There is no way to gauge, moreover, the extent to which Humphrey is serving as a kind of "political reservation," where bewildered politicians wait it out while they deal with post-Johnson withdrawal symptoms and see what events may bring. Some professionals in the party are voicing skepticism over the chance that some of their trainees will need support under the aegis of a Kennedy delegate. They say many middle-echelon labor types are going to say, "Yes, Mr. Meany," and then do nothing.

NLRB Leanings

Until that promised day when the lion lies down with the lamb and dogs no longer chase cats, somebody is apparently going to have to referee the continual power struggle between employer and employe, management and labor. That somebody is the National Labor Relations Board, which was constituted by Congress and whose five members are appointed to five-year terms by the President.

Among those documenting charges that the NLRB has, over the past half-dozen years at least, developed a definite bias in favor of management, is the Labor Law Study Committee, a group representing some 35 national trade associations and hundreds of companies of all sizes. The committee contends that the NLRB has consistently flouted the law—and the intent of Congress in many decisions heavily weighted in favor of the big unions and against employers. Testifying before the Senate subcommittee recently, New York University law professor Sylvester Petro cited one instance where the NLRB forced a company to recognize a union despite a secret ballot vote by employees in which the union was defeated.

MR. SPECTATOR

Step On That Golf Bug!

In the years and years he has been around Mr. Spectator has endured a lot of things, a lot of trials and a lot of tribulations. But he seriously doubts that he ever went through what he went through last Sunday. It was a beautiful day. The sun was shining and the day was nice and warm. The wind was just what he needed, a mere breeze that twitched a leaf now and then but really not much more. And it was the day set aside for the first annual Times-New York Golf Tourney. The site was the Municipal Course west of town. It was a stag affair so only the male employees of the various departments were participating.

THE WRONG TOWN! Dear Mr. Spectator: We were very much pleased with the article carried in the Times-New York of April 21 about our daughter, Becky Sue, and her forthcoming trip to India. It was well done except for one glaring mistake. She is a Billie Jean King type of a girl, a first-class tennis player, and the fourth generation of Butters to live in Bliss. Yours, MRS. DORAN BUTLER Bliss

HUMBLING THOUGHT

A public opinion poll shows President Johnson's popularity with the voters has zoomed since he announced he would curb the bombing of North Vietnam and would not run for reelection. This must make him feel pretty good—except that it may be a little disconcerting to discover that the way to win popular approval of the way you're doing your job is to promise to give it up.

Non-Communists Are Favored

NEW YORK — The convulsions in the Communist world have been strongly obscured by President Johnson's decision not to seek re-election. For it is the Communist world that has been the most dramatic turn in favor of the non-Communist world. When the Reds are in deep trouble and fight among themselves the free nations have a breathing space. They have an opportunity to reappraise their policies and turn to more constructive matters. After 21 years of Marxist-Leninist indoctrination a dramatic turning point in the Communist world is being reached. The Central Committee's call for greater repression and tighter censorship in Russia also reflects the Kremlin's apprehension over the growth of dissidence among Soviet intellectuals, students and young workers.

Communist conference at Budapest was attended by a host of phantom mini-parties from the United States to San Marino and San Salvador. But there were no delegates from Cuba, North Vietnam, North Korea, Cuba, Yugoslavia and Albania. Romania left the conference in protest against Russia's attempt to dominate it. It was one more symptom of the difficulties the Russians now have in running the kind of international show that suits their purposes. The Russians and Walter Ulbricht, their most subservient puppet in Communist East Germany, have been struggling for more than two years to prevent the East European Communist countries from taking up diplomatic relations with West Germany. They view such relations as a threat to the Warsaw military pact and to the political status of East Germany.

WAYNE BRANDSTADT, M.D. Liver Cirrhosis

Q—What is the cause of cirrhosis of the liver? What are the symptoms? Is there any cure? A—Cirrhosis is a replacement of liver cells by scar tissue. It is a gradual process and in the early stages there are no symptoms. When about 80 per cent of the normal liver cells have been destroyed, the victim begins to complain of symptoms that are, in essence, those of a liver in a state of advanced decay. The cause is not thoroughly understood. In some victims, a combination of chronic alcoholism and an inadequate diet appears to be the cause. Other causes include hepatitis and poisoning with chemicals which have a special affinity for the liver. Since cure is difficult, prevention is the key. Factors in your best protection for some forms of cirrhosis are helpful. In others, cortisone and vitamin B and folic acid may be of benefit. Q—What is the cause of chronic diseases? I've had it for four years. A—Prevention depends on early recognition of the predisposing factors. These include high blood pressure, a high blood cholesterol level, diabetes, excessive smoking, obesity and chronic nervous tension. Prevention of these factors will greatly lessen the risk of having a stroke.

The Substitute?

(Editor's Note: Marlow is ill. Today's column is written by Barry Schwick, Associated Press Writer.) WASHINGTON (AP) — Just last May the Supreme Court made chomping of the idea that a court judge is a substitute for a legislator, entitled to punish or condone as they see fit. Juveniles accused of crime, the court said, are entitled to be judged by the same constitutional standards as adults are. "Neither the Bill of Rights nor the U.S. Constitution is for adults only," Justice Abe Fortas said then. On Monday, however, the court turned around and announced that juveniles in the states in deciding what juveniles are or see of. The 6-3 decision, written by Justice William Brennan, amounts to a clear victory for the censors and an utter rout for civil libertarians. It is an experiment in the business of deciding what is moral and gives government the right to declare illegal what it finds immoral. Brennan's pronouncement for the court reaches this end by building on the proposition that "the well-being of its children is of course a constitutional power to regulate the content of their lives." Since society and "constitutional interpretation" have recognized the authority of parents to direct the rearing of their children, the next step was that parents and teachers "are entitled to the support of the Supreme Court to suppress sales to minors of whatever books and magazines a majority of the legislators decide are too bad for young blood. The same probably holds true for movies, though the decision in a New York case wasn't explicit.

Students At Purdue Hear McCarthy

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says "every citizen should be asking himself about the responsibility Americans have for our ambler."

McCarthy addressed about 6,000 persons Monday night in Purdue University's Elliott School of Music.

"If democracy is to be revitalized, this matter of mutual responsibility is almost essential," McCarthy said. "The old need to have a sense of responsibility for the happiness of the young, and to listen to them, the young need to have a sense of responsibility for their black brothers. The rich, for the poor."

McCarthy is running against Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigan in the Democratic presidential preference ballot May 7.

Earlier Monday in two appearances at Terre Haute, McCarthy addressed Purdue students at Schulte High School and drew an estimated 2,000 persons, mostly Indiana State University students, at a downtown outdoor rally.

Nearly all of the 530 pupils at the high school turned out for the Minnesota senator, cheering him for two minutes before he spoke. McCarthy asked whether America is prepared to spend billions to fight the war in Southeast Asia while devoting only a fraction of that to aiding other troubled nations and solving a host of domestic problems.

He said the problems included housing, health care, education of the young and assurances persons can get adequate jobs according to their ability.

RFK Points To Starvation In Country

VALPARAISO, Ind. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy says the federal government is failing to cope with widespread starvation in the United States. He is campaigning heavily populated northern Indiana, told about 5,000 students at Valparaiso University Monday that "our government's effort to reach the hungry, through the commodity distribution and food stamp programs, reaches only 18 per cent of our poor."

"Our Department of Agriculture, in the face of overwhelming need, requests more than $200 million in available funds to the Treasury—money that should have gone to feed these people."

Kennedy is opposed in Indiana's May 7 primary by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigan. The New York Democrat said food stamps should be made more easily available to the poor by lowering the price for families working only seasonally, by keeping offices open all month instead of a day or two, and by discouraging stores from raising prices when the time to receive stamps approaches.

NOVEL OBTAINED

MIDCOON (AP) — Author Alexander J. Solzhenitsyn has protested that publishers in the West somehow have obtained his new novel "The Cancer Ward" and will profit from it, while the work is banned in the Soviet Union.

Protest Hike

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Helen Hall, 70-year-old Philadelphia widow, dressed in overalls and pushing her shopping cart, arrived in Spokane Monday at 10:30 a.m. from where she started. For her it's a kind of national protest march, which so far has cost 10 pairs of shoes and six shopping carts.

Mrs. Hall started her March walk almost 1 1/2 years ago, she says, as a protest against the Philadelphia Welfare Department. "They wanted to cut-off my money," she says. "I told them to go ahead."

Since then she's been walking most of the way across 29 states and even into British Columbia.

Gun Safety Classes Held At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — Gun safety classes were conducted in Lincoln County by the Fish and Game Department, in keeping with a statewide department project.

The classes are mainly on the seventh grade level, however, often other grades were included as space and time permitted.

Approximately 100 students were present for the three-day classroom instruction periods of one hour each. The same number also participated in actual on-the-line firing of 22-caliber rifles from the National Guard Armory.

Individual instruction was present for each student and was furnished by Shoshone city police, Idaho State Police and Fish and Game Department personnel. Ammunition was furnished by the Richfield Rod and Gun Club and merchants in Shoshone area who have ammunition in stock.

One thousand rounds of ammunition were used by the 100 students as each fired 10 shots under supervision. It is hoped this non-compulsory gun safety training each year will have a restraint on the number of hunting accidents in the future, states Larry M. Keeney, Shoshone, district conservation officer.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

DALE PATTERSON

"I don't like him. I don't know why but I just can't stand him (or her)." How often have you heard it? Quite often of course.

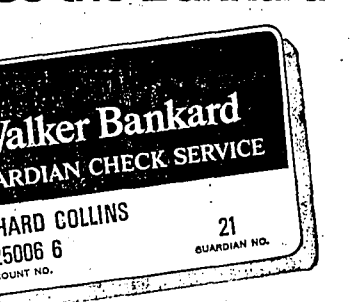

Such loathing can and does harm the leather more than the loathed. Let's consider the thought, isn't it ludicrous to dislike someone for no reason? In a true religious sense, animosity should not exist even if there is. Both the Old Testament (Deut. 6:5) and the New Testament (Matt. 22:37) say, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." Isn't it a simple question to ask, "How can we love God, whom we have not seen, when we don't love (or even like) people we see?"

Remove the human selfishness of hatred and you remove the cause of a basic conflict between men. Impossible? Of course it is for those who won't or don't try...

Hospital Aid Discussion Set May 9-10

BOISE (AP) — Allocation of postpone its decision on the $1.1 billion federal hospital construction aid program will be discussed by the Idaho Health Department today. The State Board of Health when it meets May 9-10 at McCall, but may also discuss the program. Its chairman said he did not know what action would be taken.

The Advisory Council for Hospital and Medical Facilities would have met about $150,000 to the O. N. E. D. County Hospital in Malad. It is short of its needs and would like the Gooding Hospital with $1 million of its requested $258,000. St. Alphonsus received more than $1 million in the current year and the two-year earlier which was strongly opposed to the program.

Chairman F. M. Blomquist, said the board would meet first from 1959 construction council's recommendation of the funds, with the remainder of the governor's wishes—and he said in to the Boise institution. If Congress does not provide the necessary funds, no allotment can be made. Prospects of the latter situation may bring the board to a decision.

Hershey Says Johnson Rejected Commission's Remodeling Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft chief Lewis B. Hershey says President Johnson has rejected a sweeping remodeling of the Selective Service System proposed by a White House advisory commission.

In February 1957 the commission appointed seven members and headed by former Assistant Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall—recommended sweeping changes in both the draft structure and its operation.

The next month, in a message to Congress, Johnson endorsed operational ideas including a youngest-first reversal of the order of induction, and a return to a kind of lottery system of selection.

But he withheld endorsement of the structural proposals. To centralize the system, replacing its 4,000 local boards with 300 to 500 area boards; to replace its 56 state and territorial headquarters with 15 regional offices; and to modernize and standardize it with mechanized data processing.

Johnson instead appointed a task force of Hershey, then-Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and then Budget Director Charles L. Schultze, to review these proposals.

Congress in June renewed and revised the basic draft law, which spells out the national-state-local structure—leaving that structure intact.

By October, Hershey said Monday, the Task Force had worked out its position: "The present system should be continued. . . . We should not push the governors out of the system; it should still operate from the states," not from regional areas.

As for mechanized data-processing, Hershey said, Defense Department experts decided it would not be much use in a still-decentralized system.

Although the task force completed its report last January, and the President has seen and approved it, it was not made public until Monday.

Hershey said the only reason it was withheld was that he "didn't think it was newsworthy."

Cubs' Kessinger Is Leading National League In Batting

By VERN OLAN
NE WYOM (AP) — Don Kessinger is leading the National League in batting. That's a switch.

The 27-year-old Chicago Cubs shortstop became a switch hitter last year and hit only .231 in 1965 games. He previously had batted right-handed.

This year, though, Kessinger is rapping the ball from both sides of the plate. In last week's game, he had 12 hits in 23 times at bat, a .522 pace. The surge enabled him to lift his average 77 points to .333, highest in both major leagues.

Carl Flood of St. Louis, last week's NL pace setter, dropped 29 points to .291 and fell to second place. He had only six extra bases in 19 times at bat last week.

Pete Rose of Cincinnati advanced from sixth place to third on a six-point pickup to .287.

Rose hit .400 in last week's action, collecting eight hits in 20 locked for the runs batted in with 12. Each had three RBI last week.

Frank Aaron of Atlanta tied Ron Swoboda of the Mets for the NL home run lead at six. Aaron slammed a pair and Swoboda moved into first place in RBI with 16, one more than Swoboda.

An interesting statistic shows the Aaron brothers, Hank and Tommie of Atlanta, both among the top 10 NL hitters. Hank is seventh with a .330 mark, and Tommie is eighth with .316.

The figures include Sunday's games.

Roger Repoz of California slammed three homers and took over the American League lead in this category with six. Duke Sims of Cleveland is next with five. Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota and Frank Howard of Washington remain dead-

Don Wert, who had drilled an eighth inning homer for the Tigers' first run, singled to center with two on and two out in the ninth. Rick Mandryk pitched a perfect throw home, but Lachemann muffed it for an error.

Roseboro Breaks Slump, Twins Win

BOSTON (AP)—John Roseboro broke a slump with straight hits and Jim Perry reeled an old-hex Monday night in leading the Minnesota Twins to a 11-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Roseboro, a 10-year National League veteran claimed from Los Angeles last winter, raised his .061 average by rapping a homer, a double and a triple.

Backed by eight runs in the first two innings, Perry had an easy time in fashioning his third triumph against one less this season. He allowed only six hits.

Reed Pitches Atlanta Past Giants 7-2

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Towering Ron Reed, in his first start of the season, smothered San Francisco on three hits and pitched Atlanta to a 7-2 victory over the Giants Monday.

Reed, 25, who was 2-2 in parts of two seasons with the Braves, struck out five and walked only one. He also singled in the last Atlanta run in the eighth.

Los Angeles Evens Series With Celtics

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Boston's Celtics and the Los Angeles Lakers head East again all square in their National Basketball Association playoff series with the condition of Jerry West's injured ankle "the big question."

"I can't think it's badly hurt," said the Lakers' superstar of the sprained left ankle he suffered in the final minute of his club's 116-105 victory over Boston which put the set at 2-2.

Dr. Robert Kerran said more would be known today about the injury. It occurred in a collision with John Havlicek after West had scored 35 points in the Lakers' conclusive triumph.

Los Angeles mentor Bill Van Breda Kolff was thumped from the premises by referee Mendy Rudolph after collecting two technical fouls with eight minutes left and the score tied 55-55 in the third period.

The teams play in Boston on Tuesday night and then return the Forum on Thursday. The crowd of 17,147 on Sunday set a Forum playoff attendance record.

In the ABA final playoffs, New Orleans took a 3-2 lead over Pittsburgh in their best-of-7 series with a 111-105 victory Saturday night. The sixth game will be played Wednesday night in New Orleans.

Jerome Couple Commended For Law Enforcement Aid

JEROME—A Jerome couple was commended Monday by an Arco Justice of the Peace for their action as "outstanding citizens" in bringing to the attention of law enforcement to a situation that could have ended in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jackson, Route 1, Jerome, were praised by Judge Glenn A. Phillips of Butte County. Judge Phillips said in a letter to the couple: "It is gratifying to me as a Judge to see that some of our citizens still have the spirit to bring such acts to the attention of law enforcement officers."

The act the judge wrote about happened late at night on Highway 93 north of Arco. It was March 2.

in something like this and promptly report the acts so that corrective action may be taken before we have a fatal accident on our highway."

Mrs. Jackson and her husband had moved the sign off the highway before continuing south to Arco. The car with the two men in it stopped the harassment in Arco.

Judge Phillips Monday reported in his letter that the two young men involved have been fined $20 and sentenced to three days in jail, each in connection with another incident in Arco.

The judge said: "I hope more of our citizens will start assuming more of their responsibility

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: John and I have been married for seven years and I think I have a problem—when we were first married, John decided that he wanted to go back to the university and get his B.A. degree, so I agreed to continue to work and support us so he could. John got his B.A., then decided he wanted to be a Master's, so I agreed to continue to work until he got that. Well, right after he got his Master's, he wanted his Ph. D., so I agreed to continue working. I've supported both of us for seven years now. I will be 33 on my next birthday and would like to quit my job and have a family while I'm still young enough.

John could easily get a teaching position at the university and support us both, but he now says he's "out of the mood" to have a family, and he doesn't want me to quit working. I am at the end of my rope, and any comments would be appreciated.
DISTRESSED

DEAR DISTRESSED: Part of the problem is your reluctance to look John in the eye and tell him what is on your mind—or else why would you be writing to me? If necessary practice in front of a mirror, and learn to say (convincingly), "Look, Abby, I have had it with the working. Let's YOU support US for a change!"

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 24-year-old "man" who has gone with a girl for four years, tells her she is "perfect" for him, and then balks at giving her an engagement ring? It's not the money because he is in business for himself and can well afford it.

He says an engagement ring is only a "symbol," but if I am so insecure that I need a "symbol" to be assured of his love for me, he will give me one—on the condition that I don't tell anybody.

I am about ready to throw in the towel. Can you help me?
FED UP

DEAR FED: Any "man" who would offer a girl an engagement ring on the condition that she doesn't tell anyone... is a little boy grown tall. And tell John that an engagement ring symbolizes that "THIS GIRL IS SPOKEN FOR"—so why the big secret?

DEAR ABBY: While driving thru a small city in upstate New York I became ill and a doctor hospitalized me for 15 days. I was in this semi-private room, and had a "roommate."

My first "roomie" was a 10-year-old kid who watched TV around the clock. I was trapped in an oxygen tent and almost lost my mind.

My next "roomie" was brought into my room at 3 a.m. He'd had a snowfall and missed a curve at 70 miles per hour. His wife tore in, hysterical, and proceeded to chew him out. She called him some interesting names, immediately repented, then stood outside the door and cried for two hours while her mother gave her the old "I-told-you-so" routine.

That afternoon about 500 relatives came to visit him. At least a dozen of them pulled out cigarettes and were just about to light up when they were calmly told by my roommate that the "guy in the other bed" was in an oxygen tent! I kept expecting awards. Cathy Pond was named Miss Lively; Tammi Tozer, Miss Twinkle Toes and Clare Emerson, Miss Willow. Not pictured is Susie Jackson who received an award for being Miss High Stepper. Those in attendance at the annual event included members of the Junior-Senior Drill Teams: John Lawrence, principal of Twin Falls High School; Mrs. Leann Larsen, Junior Drill Team sponsor; Mrs. Linda McKay, Senior Drill Team sponsor, and her husband, Dennis McKay. Mrs. McKay received the Most Understanding Award and Mrs. Larsen was presented the Most Patient Award.

to be blown to bits my minute. After they left, his wife sat on his bed and cried for another two hours.

By this time I was begging the nurses to put me in the morgue so I could get some rest.

My next roomie was a man whose wife adored him. She was there 18 hours a day, seven days a week and talked all the time. Somehow I got well enough to go home.

Abby, please print this. Maybe someone will remember it (God forbid) he ever has to share a room in a hospital.
