Idaho Power Co. Dedicates Dams

HELLS CANYON — Two decades of blazing controversy and rapid-fire construction ended in the 100-mile Hells Canyon reach of the Snake River bordering Idaho and Oregon.

It was held on the powerhouse deck at Hells Canyon Dam, mountain-walled final project in the 1,200-megawatt complex that also includes Brownlee and Oxbow dams.

Roach, in a hard-hitting speech to a large crowd gathered in the shadow of the giant dam's towering bulk, declared the new development "a tangible demonstration of the superiority of individual enterprise."

"This is a typical American achievement brought into being by the spirit of American enterprise and the pooling of the savings of thousands of citizens to power service and naming it the 'T. E. Roach' Hells Canyon development," he said.

Idaho Power's board chairman who sparked the time-consuming drive for its authorization, planning and completion.

The historic ceremony, ironically as notable for brevity as for length, came at the height of public tours of the multi-purpose development harnessing the river.

Viet Cong Kill Four Correspondents

Surviving Writer Tells Of Massacre

Editor's note: The writer of this dispatch, an Australian freelance journalist, was one of five news correspondents attacked by the Viet Cong Sunday. Four were killed.

Writing for Associated Press

SAIGON (AP) — We had headed toward the Mekong Delta but there was nothing doing down there, so we decided to head back toward Saigon.

John Cantwell, an Australian and a Time magazine staffer, was driving. Michael Birch of the magazine was in the front seat, I was in the right front seat of the small, open jeep-type vehicle.

On the right in back was Ron Laramy, a British national who worked for Reuters; in the center was another Reuters man, Bruce Plogit, an Australian. I was the last to get in and had to take the half seat in the back with my left leg hanging out over the side.

We saw two gunship helicopters attacking about 1,000 yards to the north. We headed into a very crowded and poor district on a muddy street about 12 feet wide. Moving the other way was a strong current of refugees streaming west. VC — VC VCI.

I was sitting on the mudguard on the left. So I had a higher view and I said, "perhaps from intuition, 'The VC are up ahead stop! stop! stop!' "

Bruce said, "Oh, go ahead anyway," but immediately after his face went pale. Apparently he had seen something that hadn't been seen.

We drove into an open intersection. It was empty.

I shouted, "Stop! Stop!" because I was scared and I felt that there were VC there.

Cantwell swerved to the left and while he was trying to get into gear, the two soldiers opened fire. One on our left had a burp gun, the one on the right an AK47. There were two other VC there in the background and the fifth, the commander as I learned later, was nearby.

It wasn't a real ambush. They were holding the perimeter of the VC area. The burp gun and the AK47 pushed bullets for a few seconds. Then I heard Michael Birch call out pleadingly, "Bao Chi! Bao Chi!" — Vietnamese for newsman.

The commander just looked at me still holding his gun and said derisively, "Bao Chi! See WRITER, Pg. 2, Col. 7

The second, which I believe was John Cantwell, was lying on his back to the left of the jeep parallel to me but about six feet away.

The automatic fire stopped and the commander came forward with his left arm out straight holding a rifle. He began to walk toward the jeep. Everything was quiet for a few seconds. Then I heard Michael Birch call out pleadingly, "Bao Chi! Bao Chi!" — Vietnamese for newsman.

The commander just looked at me still holding his gun and said derisively, "Bao Chi! See WRITER, Pg. 2, Col. 7

Hayden Retires

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Carl Hayden, a 91-year-old Arizona Democrat who has served in Congress longer than any other person announced today he will retire at the end of his term June 2.

Hayden strongly endorsed his 37-year-old administrative aide, Roy Olson, to take his place.

His 56 years in Congress have taught him that "contemporary events need contemporary men," the senator said.

Fred Hoops, 66, Dies Of Short Illness

Fred Hoops, 66, 230 Richardson Drive, pioneer general contractor of Twin Falls and prominent Idaho business leader, died Sunday in St. Benedict's Hospital, Jerome, of a short illness.

Mr. Hoops was born in Hagerman, Wyo., May 6, 1901, and came to Idaho in 1904, residing here since that time. He entered the construction field at an early age and in 1921 commenced his first construction contract, a portion of U. S. Highway 93 near Hollister.

Since that time his company has built highways throughout the Northwestern States. In recent years he has held many major contracts for Interstate System construction in Idaho and surrounding states. He died in his home, built part of each section of new Interstate highway placed under contract.

Mr. Hoops also purchased and later resold the large Nevada ranch holdings known as the Utah Construction Ranches.

Mr. Hoops married Ruby Juster in Twin Falls, Nov. 21, 1921. She survives, as do a son, William R. Hoops, and a daughter, Mrs. W. G. (June) Briges; one brother and one sister, William A. Hoops and Mrs. Lynn (Jenny) Stewart; all twin brothers.

WASHINGTON—It is not surprising that the Soviet Union already has made up its mind about the outcome of peace talks between the United States and the complete and unconditional surrender by the United States. What is ironic is that so many nations of the so-called "Free World" have accepted the Russians as champions of the principle of self-determination.

From India to Great Britain, India's Indira Gandhi are in the forefront of those leaders of democrats who have adopted the Soviet line. Bleats also are being heard in Great Britain, and Ivory, Sweden and West Germany, demanding that the American imperialists pack up and go home. This would be understandable if the United States were a democracy traditionally, but it is preposterous that these countries should make common cause with a Communist Russia that has put the old imperialists to shame.

In Spain, enlists a cataloging of the territorial gains perpetrated by Moscow since World War II, but it seems relevant to inquire why our friends across the seas persist in ignoring these acts of international larceny. For example, how many demonstrations have been staged in the last six months over the Soviet take-over in 1940 of the Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania?

India—Gandhi's heart bleeds for the poor Viet Cong, but has ever heard of these three, the Soviet or their power? When De Gaulle and the Swedes berate the United States for trying to help South Vietnam defend itself, do they space a moment's quiet thought to Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania?

Magic Valley School Trustee Elections Slated

School trustees will be elected this week and next in the majority of Magic Valley communities.

In many of the districts, there is competition, but about half the towns' incumbents have opposition for the three-year terms. Elections already have been held in Minidoka County, Gooding and Bliss.

Voting is scheduled Tuesday at Jerome, Eller, Valley, Wendell and Glenns Ferry.

Jerome school patrons will not only elect two trustees but also will select a representative to the trustee post later in May. The incumbent, V. Triplett, did not seek re-election in Tuesday's voting.

Roy Coulson is the sole contender for the lone trustee post to be chosen Tuesday. The incumbent, A. E. Brune, did not file. The polls will be open from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Valley High School.

Three candidates are seeking the two posts in Wendell School.

The first-time Jerome district has ever asked for a plant facilities levy and it will go for two years only. They noted that this type of school financing is much more economical because it eliminates the high interest charges on bonds issues.

Gordon Hollifield and Jack Hyder are competing in zone 5 and Gordon Hager is unopposed in zone 4 at Jerome.

At Filer Lawrence Kilgore and R. Ramsdell are vying for the trustee post in zone 1. The incumbent, V. Triplett, did not seek re-election in Tuesday's voting.

Roy Coulson is the sole contender for the lone trustee post to be chosen Tuesday. The incumbent, A. E. Brune, did not file. The polls will be open from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Valley High School.

Three candidates are seeking

the two posts in Wendell School.

At Glenns Ferry, Kenneth Sesser, Hammett, is running unopposed for the one vacancy on the board of education. The incumbent, J. M. Barton, did not file for re-election in Tuesday's election.

At Richfield, Hansen, Shoshone and Burley all are slated to elect three trustees May 13.

At Kimberly, Louis Bulcher, who has served several terms, is opposed by Mrs. L. M. Jack-

District No. 223. Dr. Richard Hagerman, incumbent, is unopposed in zone 1, but in zone 3 Frank Orth, incumbent, is opposed by Leonard Schaefer. Polls will be open from noon to 5 p.m. in the school auditorium.

At Minidoka County school district, William Mallory is unopposed in zone 1, but in zone 2, at Hailey and Milton, Sam Crockett tied for the post and Mr. Butler was appointed by the board.

Two incumbents are running unopposed at Fairfield for posts on the Camas County school board. They are Zane Harrison, Hill City, and Joe McCarter, Corral.

In Cassia County both incumbents have opposition in their bid for re-election May 13. In zone 1, W. E. Johnson and Herb Forbes, polls will be open from 1 to 5 p.m. in the city hall.

Hansen school patrons also will elect three trustees May 13 with competition in two zones.

In zone 3 Everett Norris is unopposed, while in zone 4, Lee McCoy, incumbent, is opposed. He is the incum-

Britain Faces Government Spending Cuts

LONDON (AP) — Britain's prosperous areas face cuts in government spending for education, health and housing because Prime Minister Harold Wilson is allocating more money for the welfare of colored immigrants because Britain's racial problems are bad.

Wilson said in Industrial Birmingham Sunday his Labor government will make an "urgent examination of 57 areas crowded with immigrants and severely burdened regions."

The money, he indicated, will have to be diverted from areas under less pressure.

Wilson said nearly $2.2 billion will be spent this year on areas flooded by previous immigrants. This compares with $1.5 billion four years ago, he added.

Police shored back rival factions of demonstrators who tried to approach the prime minister after he wound up his first speech on race problems since Conservative Prime Minister P. D. Powell cut off a sit-in last month with an inflammatory speech against colored immigration.

Mounted police and constables pushed back about 200 colored immigrants who surged toward Wilson as he left the City Hall. Some police cordoned off both whites shouting support for Powell.

Wilson called in his speech for an all-party campaign to take race out of politics.

Group Presses For Utah Liquor Ruling

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A voluntary organization which promises total禁酒 says it may be by the drink could help the tourist industry grow.

A statement favoring sale of liquor over the bar was among six resolutions approved Sunday at the annual meeting of Utahians.

The organization said it supports a recently announced campaign to put a liquor-by-the-drink measure on the November ballot in Utah.

Last week, a citizen committee announced it would begin a mail drive to put the question before Utah voters.

Gov. Calvin Rampton said soon afterward that he did not think liquor by the drink would have any effect on Utah tourism.

John D. Hunt, president of Utahians, took a different view.

"The importance of the measure," he said, "will be particularly evidenced in the state's existing and potential resort areas as developers are encouraged to build new, larger and more attractive tourist, facilities and services."

The resolution adopted by Utahians said "We believe that all citizens of Utah should be presented with the opportunity to express their desires pertaining to liquor by the drink."

The resolution also called for improved roads, recreational areas, special training for workers in the service industry and increased appropriations for the Utah Travel Council.

"Detention Centers" Suggested As Counter Move In Committee's Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House report issued by his House Committee on Un-American Activities, said:

"There can be no question about the fact that there are mixed Communist and Black Nationalist groups which are planning and organizing guerrilla-type organizations against the United States."

In a section dealing with actions that could be taken against a systematic guerrilla-style attempt to overthrow the government, he said: "In the future, the report states:

"Acts of overt violence by the guerrillas would mean that they had declared a 'state of war' within the country and, therefore, would forfeit their rights to be free from place-to-place surveillance."

The McCarran Act provides for detention centers to be operated throughout the country and these might well be utilized for the temporary imprisonment of warring guerrillas.

Also suggested as a counter-move was the issuance of a photograph of each slum-dweller and information about their home city and their street address.

This classification would aid the authorities in knowing the exact location of any suspect and who is in control of any given community, with the result that the authorities would be better prepared and the ability of the guerrilla to survive.

BURLEY—The Georgian Hills Methodist Church, Memphis, Tenn., was the setting for the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. James Louis Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Cole, Memphis, Arch'd candelabra entwined with huckleberry-greenery containing majestic white tapers and surrounded by beauty-baskets of white gladioli and carnations in a later setting for the March 2 wedding performed by Rev. Frank H. Bule.

The bride, given in marriage by her father—a Bridal Original gown of delustered satin in empire styling. The lace bodice featured a scalloped neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a belt in the waist with a row of beaded buttons. The A-line skirt was enhanced with a wateau chapel train attached at the empurple waistline.

Her fingerless veil of English illusion was held by a satin crown accented with seed pearls and rhinestones.

She wore lace gloves and carried a cascading bouquet of white double carnations, pale blue pomander chrysanthemums with a detachable center corsage.

Riva Akers, roommate of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Wyatt, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Don Williams, sister of the bridegroom.

Sam Englebom was best man. Ushers were Larry Wyatt, brother of the bride, and Don Williams, brother-in-law of the bride.

Out-of-town guests attended from Burley, Idaho; Akron, Ohio; Huntsville, Ala.; Nashville and Millington, Tenn., and Arkansas.

Pre-nuptial "miscellaneous showers" were hosted for the bride by Lorraine Miller and Pat Hightower.

How You Can Tell —

Your Child Taking Drugs?

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you tell if your child is taking drugs, and what do you do if you find out he is?

A panel of experts discussing the problem of youthful drug addiction in the May issue of the Family Circle magazine made these points:

Many well-meaning, intelligent parents are unaware their children are taking drugs—or just aren't. Many children experiment with drugs, take them a few times, find they don't need them and stop. This may be hazardous, but the main problem is the youngster who takes drugs regularly for comfort, to feel good, to feel an emotional gap.

"Nearly every one of these youngsters has a psychological problem before even initiating the use of drugs. Often you find that it is a youngster who has not been getting along too well with a parent," said Dr. Ethel Wyner, a psychologist of Jamaica, N.Y.

Thomas J. Mackell, Queens County assistant attorney, explained how to tell if a child is taking drugs.

"We advise parents to observe their children and note unusual changes from normal behavior. If the youngster is friendly and outgoing, for example, they also would like to be away from their children, she may leave them with you. Begin offering your friendship, and if she accepts you can then encourage her or get professional help."

The woman slams the door in your friend's face, reports the authorities for disturbing the peace? In this way they will be able legally to look in on her and determine whether she is competent to raise her children.

DEAR ABBY: Re changing one's name to something easier to spell and pronounce. If MIL GRZEKOWIAK had to actually change his name in order to get a woman to marry him—well, My name happens to be WILHELM KURT KLEINSTEINBEGERMEISTER, a proud old German name, "little Little Stone" in English.

So far, it has not presented any problem because I have never asked a girl to assume it. Signed, WILHELM KURT KLEINSTEINBEGERMEISTER.

DEAR MR. KLEINSTEINBEGERMEISTER: With all due respect to your "proud old German name," should you ever ask an American girl to assume it, chances are you will become a "BILLY KLEIN."

DEAR ABBY: A commandant is in order to the young man who didn't want to kiss his bride with an "audience" gawking on. His taste has risen above the vulgarities of an uncultured public. Obviously, we will see what happens when it's done.

A church wedding is a most solemn occasion. The couple have come to God's altar to have him bless them and share their joy. Kneeling and with bowed heads, the couple have received the benediction of the Lord.

When this solemnity is broken by a "commandant" in a Hollywood-style kilt, the audience will invariably snicker. Real cut, but if the couple want to put on a show, why use God's altar for a backdrop? Sincerely,

A LUTHERAN PASTOR

Summer Classes Offered

Summer school classes are being offered at Twin Falls High School beginning June 3, and students of all ages may sign up, officials announced Monday.

At the present time, John Lawrence, principal at the high school, said 36-year-old women have signed up for a government course. This is the second year we've had students of all ages and from all locations taking courses at summer school.

However, registration has been slow and if more interest is not shown some of the classes may have to be dropped.

School will run from June 3 through July 23, with a vacation from July 4 through 7.

Students may enroll for one, two or three classes as a master's class will be given for each course completed with the exception of personal typing and driver's training. Registration fees are $1.50 a class except for driver's training which is free.

Each class will meet six days a week for one and one-half hours a day. First period is 7 to 8:30 a.m.; second period is 8:30 to 10 a.m.; the final period is 10 to 11:30 a.m.

One class of boy's physical fitness is scheduled for the evening. Students from other high schools should contact their principal to determine summer school needs and acceptability of credits, Mr. Lawrence said.

"These classes are not for students who cannot or did not make the grade," Mr. Lawrence said. "They give the students an opportunity to take courses which might not be available during the regular school year because of scheduling conflicts and the need of graduation requirements."

Classes to be offered include: U.S. History I; U.S. History II; Government; World Problems; English; American History; Typing; General Mathematics; General Science; Review of Algebra and Geometry; Arts and Crafts; French, Spanish, Driver's Training and Boys' Physical Fitness.

Enemy Attacks Show Reds To Fight During Peace Talks

By DARRY KRAMER
SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong's coordinated attack throughout South Vietnam Sunday provided more evidence of the guerrillas' determination to keep the peace talks from getting off the ground.

Such an attack is a slogan evolved by Communist guerrilla fighters over the past few decades. It is one of Chinese Communist boss Mao Tse-tung's principal weapons. Last night, talk talk talk, fight fight.

The North Vietnamese version of the tactic was clear in directives issued to its Communist troops in the South on April 3, the day after Hanoi accepted President Johnson's offer to talk peace.

A captured enemy document, dated April 4, informs political cadre that "troops should be indoctrinated to realize fully that in the fight against our barbarous, stubborn and deceitful enemy, we must closely coordinate our military and political struggle with diplomatic efforts."

"There will come the time when we have to accept diplomatic contacts with the U.S. but not submit to it. We must rely on the resistance of American people for national salvation."

The enemy soldiers were told that the U.S. offer to limit

CITIES IN EAST RECORD HIGH DEATH RISK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The place a man calls home can do a lot to protect him from death, according to a new study.

For the white male 45 to 64, says the death risk is twice as great if he lives in an Eastern city instead of a rural area of the central or western United States.

The highest risk states it lists are California, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Nevada, northern Arizona, parts of Louisiana, southern Mississippi and east-central Pennsylvania.

With the lowest risk: North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, Kansas, New Mexico, Oregon, Colorado, Texas, Iowa and Missouri.

86 Straight Wins Is Still Best Record

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — When Houston upset UCLA 71-69 in their famous Astro-Duck Derby, the streak Stephenville man was as happy as Houston coach Guy Lewis.

W. J. Wilson fired off a letter to Lewis congratulating him and saying "thank you."

Houston last Friday stopped UCLA's streak at 47 straight and preserved the longest winning streak ever posted in college basketball — the streak Stephenville man was as happy as Houston coach Guy Lewis.

Starting in 1934, his Tarleton team won 86 games in a row from all comers, including 100 consecutive games.

And, by 1940, John Tarleton was a junior college at the time San Angelo Junior College ended Tarleton's great streak with a one-point victory. Then Tarleton went on to another streak of 25 victories. So in 12 years, Wisdom's Wizards won 111 straight — a record unbroken since that record.

What was Wisdom's secret? It wasn't a secret at all. He told everybody interested what he was doing. The players were taught to keep the ball and throw only on a sure shot.

Wisdom was a successful football coach. His Tarleton team won 83 games, lost 12, and gained 12 between 1921 and 1933.

One of the most amazing facets of Wisdom's coaching career was the fact that he never played a game of organized baseball, football or soccer. He did, however, offer me a job if I took it. "Wisdom says, 'I studied everything I could get my hands on. My mind was open to fresh ideas.'

It's Boise Area A Boys, Local B Men In Regional

The names have changed but the format remains the same for this Saturday's regional track meet at Twin Falls' Brain Stadium where the A and B track men from the Third and Fourth District collide.

The Third District (Boise area) will shatter the Fourth District (Magic Valley) athletes in the Class A division while the Magic Valley Class B athletes again appear to have a big edge.

Area Class A men topped their counterparts from the Boise area in only three events—all of them in the field. Jay Wardle of Burley in the broad jump; Jay Birch, Twin Falls, in the pole vault; and Steve Gandy, Sun City, in the pole vault.

On the Class B side, Magic Valley men had the best in 12 of the 17 events, with one ending in a tie.

The following comparison tables are based on the district meets held Friday night at Nampa and Twin Falls tracks. Both were run under ideal weather conditions.

BRIDGE

GOOD REASONING AT ITS WORST

Jim: "Sometimes an expert will find a way to lose a contract that a player of lesser ability would never consider."

Oswald: "Here's one of this type that Fred Karpin shows."

East was the late Ewart-Kempson of England and South was one of the greatest players of bridge at that time.

Trump-at-trick two indicated that he held all five missing trumps and wanted to get a quick de-monstrous trick. It was expert resounding at its worst."

Jim: "Not necessarily. Had

South carried his expert reasoning to the limit further he could have guaranteed those five trumps in the East hand and still made his contract."

Oswald: "Of course. He could have cashed two more high clubs and got rid of his last two diamonds. It wouldn't bother him if East trumped in because

South, overawed, and hold his trump lost to one against any and all distributions."

all time. I won't mention his name because we don't want to malign his memory."

You must have ducked that fifth heart. In that case I can't see how South managed to get himself set."

Opposite: An expert at bridge but silly play. South ducked the first heart whereupon East shifted to the six of diamonds. West took his ace and led the diamond-queen. South was in dummy with the king. Now do you see what he did?

Jim: "I think so. He must have discarded his 10 of hearts and then led the nine, which put him in a bind. He was pitted against East. That play would have worked if East held all five trumps, but it had to be downright silly because it allowed West to give his partner a diamond ruff for the setting trick."

Oswald: "South had reasoned that East had three trumps at least two indicated

You, South, hold.

What do you do now?

A—Red. Let your partner decide whether to double or to bid five spades. You have bid so strongly that he won't pass under any circumstances."

Caravan Heads For Capitol

EDWARDS, Miss. (AP) — With a guaranteed annual wage as its battle cry, the Poor People's Campaign gets the first of its poverty-caravans headed for Washington today.

"We will march to poverty and we want meaningful aid and we want a guaranteed annual income," the Rev. Ralph Abernathy told a pre-march rally.

The march was a short one—a couple of miles from the Mount Beulah conference center to the town of Edwards, where buses awaited those making the caravan.

Six one-time rural school buses, each seating about 40, were obtained by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference to haul the "Southern leg" of the various caravans through 13 Southern states. It arrives in Washington May 19.

Selma, Ala., will be the first stop. The buses will stop about five miles outside the city and the group will march into town.

Abernathy, who took over as head of the SCLC after Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was killed, is a speaker in Monday's rally. April 4 urged youngsters in the area to skip school to see the caravan off.

HOLDING CAGE—with a monkey in it is Bob Adams, owner of the Tropiquarium, which is located in a new location. Grand opening of the Tropiquarium, which has several thousand tropical fish and several types of pets, including mice, rats, monkeys, birds, hamsters, etc., will be Wednesday at 818 Main Ave. N.

Students And Police Battle In Paris

PARIS, (AP) — Students fought pitched battles with police in the Left Bank today. The students hurled cobblestones and chunks of metal and the police used tear gas and clubs.

The students were demonstrating against university regulations, inadequate educational facilities and alleged police brutality in student rioting just after day was police action Friday.

The demonstrators broke up metal guards around the bases of trees and used them as weapons. They also climbed on a truck loaded with earth and stones and tossed stones at the helmeted police.

The sharpest action occurred at the intersection of the Rue Saint-Jacques and the Boulevard Saint-Germain, where students set up a barricade of cars and iron tree guards.

The fresh rioting occurred after sporadic violence this morning as seven student leaders appeared before a university disciplinary commission in the Sorbonne—University of Paris.

After a brief recess, most court were given jail terms of two and three months Sunday for throwing cobblestones in rioting Friday on the Left Bank.

House Committee Looks At Income Tax Hike Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prod-

ded anew by President Johnson, the House Ways and Means Committee has sat informed on the tax measure since last August, taking another look at the measure.

On the eve of the tax-writing committee's closed meeting today, Johnson warned Congress that further delay in passing his proposed 10 per cent income tax charge "is a ticket to disaster."

The warning came in letters

Sunday to House Speaker John W. McCormack, Chairman Wilber D. Mills, D-Ark., of the Ways and Means Committee, and other House leaders.

Johnson also put in writing his willingness to accept a $4 billion cut-in federal spending.

But he stated further his $16 billion budget is a tight one and made clear he wasn't suggesting cuts but rather acceding to those he views as necessary to get congressional backing for the bill.

It remained unlikely, however, that Congress would be willing to accept any tax increase, which would settle for $4 billion in spending cuts.

The Senate already has passed its tax bill tied to $4 billion spending slash.

And Mills has indicated it would be futile to ask House members facing re-election this year to approve cuts lower than the Senate's.

Hope for the boy faded, but search officials said he still could be found if he was lost in the woods.

The sheriff's office said about 400 were expected to take part in the hunt Monday, including 250 volunteers from McChord Air Force Base, Trail bidders were to be used to check higher slopes of the mountain.

About 700 searchers, aided by helicopters, found no trace of the younger member. The trail down from the Grays Harbor County sheriff's office was followed to the scene by a McChord helicopter.

Many Capitol Hill observers, while they're worried about the younger member, think he probably had all but vanished and wanted to place blame on the Republicans.

In the nationally televised and broadcast news conference with reporters to blackmail the administration into massive spending cuts—cuts he said the nation can't afford.

In Sunday's letter, Johnson said:

"The time is fast running out on one of the most crucial legislative measures of the decade—

the tax surcharge. Further delay is a ticket to disaster."

He called increasing taxes an

America imperative, especially to help ward off inflation. Finance the Vietnam war and protect the dollar abroad.
