TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1968

TEN CENTS

consultants, while Robert Pitt, principal speaker and regional administrator for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, Washington, D.C., is at the right. Forty-two Twin Falls residents flew to the Bay Area for a personal inspection of similar projects in that region.

T.F. Group Studies City Rejuvenation In Bay Area

By O. A. (GUS) McHARR
Forty-two residents of Twin Falls, all interested in one way or another in breathing life into the sagging downtown section of the city, Tuesday participated in a whirlwind visit to San Francisco Bay Area communities to see how other people are solving their problems.

The one-day visit, which included a luncheon provided the Idahoans with an on-the-spot opportunity to visualize what they would like Twin Falls' downtown area to look like if the improvement work now under consideration gets going. And they all returned home with a "glow" of waiting for "feeling that is sure to gain momentum."

By charter bus, the tour participants looked over rejuvenation results in Santa Clara, Palo Alto and Los Altos. And it was in Los Altos, where the $100 million project, through the downtown area, which traces line from roadway, where parallel parking is permitted on one side of the street and angle on the other and where each store, although conforming to a more or less general pattern, still stands out each as an individual, that caught the fancy of the Twin Falls citizens. It seemed that there were just more ideas at Los Altos that would fit into the plans for Twin Falls that are hearing completion.

After the personal inspections, the group had a luncheon at Joe DiMaggio's place on Fishermans Wharf that everybody thought to "hear" remarks of several speakers including Robert Pitt, regional administrator for the Department of Housing and Urban Development. He is second in command of that department on a national level.

"This is a great thing that all you community leaders are doing here," Mr. Pitt said in "hundreds" through the downtown area, which traces line from roadway, where parallel parking is permitted on one side of the street and angle on the other and where each store, although conforming to a more or less general pattern, still stands out each as an individual, that caught the fancy of the Twin Falls citizens. It seemed that there were just more ideas at Los Altos that would fit into the plans for Twin Falls that are hearing completion.

"You men and women are doing it now my personal story will benefit from all this, but how our town, collectively, will benefit. There is no question, seeing all of you here, this far away from home and your businesses, that you are interested in making Twin Falls a really good community."

The Washington official said that a "your demonstration" shows the way this thing ought to be. It will take teamwork from all sectors.

Big Turnout Of Voters Okays School Fund Levy

Twin Falls School District No. 101 passed in 1958 by about 72 percent of those voting. About 1,400 people voted that year on the levy. About $45,000 is raised annually now by the levy, to accomplish remodeling, land acquisition and "build" additional classrooms.

The official total of votes on the trustees was 1,291, one of the heaviest votes in a trustee election in recent years.

Mr. Smith, the incumbent in Zone 3, had a total of 237 votes. The mill levy, which will be in effect for 10 years, was passed by a majority of 843.

The total of 1,291 votes was the largest turnout for a school election since the bond election to construct Robert Stuart Junior High School was passed in 1961, 3,347 to 852. The mill levy, which will be in effect for 10 years, was passed by a majority of 843.

In Zone 4, incumbent Henry Coiker was defeated by Dr. Conner. Dr. Conner had 556 votes; Mr. Coiker, 233. Norman S. Herzigler 170 and Roland D. (Rolio) Moore 20.

Zone 3 candidates were Washington: Smith, 116; Strope, 23; and Sumpth, 11; Bickel School: Smith, 25; Strope, 14; and Sumpth, 4; Lincoln School: Smith, 153; Strope, 116; and Sumpth, 37.

Voting by polling places for Zone 3 candidates was Washington: Smith, 116; Strope, 23; and Sumpth, 11; Bickel School: Smith, 25; Strope, 14; and Sumpth, 4; Lincoln School: Smith, 153; Strope, 116; and Sumpth, 37.

Zone 4 candidates were Washington: Conner, 556; Coiker, 233; Herzigler, 170; and Moore, 20. The total of 1,291 voters casting ballots to fill the two trustee positions is nearly 10 times the amount casting votes in all district 411 trustee elections since 1954. The highest vote in those four years was in 1955 when 204 voters cast ballots to fill

U.S. Calls On Hanoi For 'Specific And Urgent' Steps To Limit War

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
PARIS (AP) — The United States called on Hanoi today for "specific and urgent steps" to limit the war in Southeast Asia and advance peace prospects.

It proposed restoring the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam and strict respect of the neutrality of Laos and Cambodia, all regarded as chief North Vietnam objectives.

North Vietnam countered with a demand that the United States stop all remaining attacks on its territory at once and pledged to withdraw its troops from the area.

The U.S. said it would be willing to discuss the issue in a second full meeting, and when it was over Ambassador Thuy asked not to meet again until Saturday morning.

Florida University President Resigns In Wake Of Protests

By The Associated Press
The president of Florida State University has resigned in the wake of student protests in a censorship controversy as militant youths continue to disrupt academic life in the United States.

Dr. J. Lee Murphy, acting chief executive in the absence of Gov. Don Samuel, announced his resignation to the AEC "in reviewing his original thinking."

Under the present system, a student who is unable to provide his own legal counsel is given the services of a court-appointed attorney at the line of his court arrangement if he requests such services.

Dr. Murphy said there is considerable additional assistance that would be required for Mr. May if defendants asked the services of legal counsel at the time of arrest, as well as when arraigned in court.

James J. May Named As Public Defender

Appointment of a Twin Falls county public defender was announced Wednesday morning by the Board of County Commissioners.

Named to the new position is James J. May, former prosecuting attorney. His appointment was announced by a contract for a contract fee of $1,168 per month. Under the contract, Mr. May will be furnished with a secretary and office facilities.

Mr. May was one of two attorneys whose names were submitted for consideration by a committee, headed by Ed Bennett and appointed to recommend available men for the position.

The contract approved Wednesday will run from Jan. 13, 1968. At the end of that time county commissioners will be able to determine if they will continue this system of public defense.

Local Political Parties Study Ballot Vacancies

Democratic and Republican Central Committee members of Twin Falls County will meet in separate sessions at 8 p.m. Friday night at the district rooms of the Twin Falls County Judicial Building to discuss vacancies on their respective ballots.

Legislative district chairmen also will meet at the same time.

Idaho law requires the county and district party assemblies be held on the third Friday of May to fill their ballots and to select delegates for next month's state party assemblies.

In Twin Falls County there are a number of vacancies on the Democratic ticket especially in the party officials' category. It is felt that there are no Democrats currently seeking the office of county assessor, sheriff, prosecuting attorney, probate judge or the state legislative offices, coroner and several positions on the county ballot.

Republicans have not filled the ballot, including the position of county treasurer and several precinct committee offices.

Kennedy Has Nebraska Win, Turns Attack On Humphrey

By WALTER R. MEARS
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy marched to victory in Nebraska's Democratic primary and turned his campaign guns today toward Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey — with a suggestion that he might rival Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy join him.

The New York senator marshaled 53 per cent of the vote for a majority over McCarthy, President Johnson and Humphrey.

McCarthy, with 31 per cent of the ballot, absorbed his second defeat by Kennedy in a week, but the Minnesota senator said he would campaign through the primaries ahead, and was not interested in an alliance with Kennedy.

Republican Richard M. Nixon rolled to 20 per cent of the vote, and greater support than he had anticipated. He said it proved Nebraska was Nixon country.

The California Gov. Ronald Reagan polled a surprising 22 per cent, said he was gratified and would not refuse the GOP nomination, if it were offered.

But Reagan said once again that he is not going to become a candidate, and will not campaign for the nomination.

"I could not now foresee myself so telling the folks 'It's a job that needs the man.'"

Sixteen Republican nominees voted were at stake in separate balloting, and candidates who favor Nixon won all of them.

The Democratic delegate pledged to Johnson, crowding the lengthy ballot.

Twenty-eight and nominating votes were at stake — two more automatically to the national committee members.

But in the delegate contest, as well as the presidential preference poll, Kennedy led the way.

Candidates who expressed a preference for him led by 17 delegate spots. McCarthy-pledged candidates led for 16.

Nine uncommitted delegates who have expressed no preference filled out the list of leaders for Democratic delegation.

With 1,094 of the 2,133 precincts counted, this was the vote in the Democratic popularity poll, which is not binding on delegates.

Kennedy 77,008 of 81 per cent; McCarthy 46,893 or 31 per cent; Humphrey 12,702 or 8 per cent; Johnson 8,480 or 6 per cent.

Johnson's rejection of candidacy came too late for his name to be taken off the ballot.

In the Republican camp, this was the situation:

Nixon 11,824 or 70 per cent; Reagan 35,708 or 22 per cent; McCarthy 11,824 or 70 per cent; Johnson 8,480 or 6 per cent.

Reagan's name was on the ticket, but an automatic ballot lists all potential nominees who do not file denials of candidacy.

Rockettaker is a candidate for the nomination, but is not entering primary.

McCarthy said he had made a good showing in Nebraska, but added that he was expected because there had been a campaign for the absent California.

Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace had scattered written votes in the Democratic and Republican camps, and all the votes in a multiple primary staged by his American Independent party.

It is felt that there are no Democrats currently seeking the office of county assessor, sheriff, prosecuting attorney, probate judge or the state legislative offices, coroner and several positions on the county ballot.

Union Pacific Railroad Predicts Healthy Future For Most Interests

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The company has three other trains which are considered major services: the Cities of Los Angeles, Portland and St. Louis, but appeared willing to submit passenger service to a faraway siding.

The 48-page annual report devoted to passenger and mail traffic. The report said the company spent $108 million in 1967 for improvements to passenger cars, compared with $124,234,506 for improvements to freight cars.

Chairman Frank E. Barnett of Union Pacific's executive committee said the profit of the railroad is to blame for declining passenger service.

"We do not feel obligated," Barnett said, "to provide passenger service where we have no passengers."

He said proposed discontinuance of passenger trains are a case where the public has defined its own interest and has demonstrated that it has no interest in the continuation of these trains.

Union Pacific has voted to discontinue three trains: Portland between Kansas City and Portland; trains 5 and 6 between Omaha and Los Angeles; and trains 35 and 36 between Salt Lake City and Butte, Mont.

The company has purchased 2,383 acres of land near the Bear River area of the will-beek-a-five-per-cent increase in freight rates this year. But Barnett said the increase wouldn't offset an anticipated $75 million rise in labor costs.

Company executives told Minerals and Chemicals Co. that the company has acquired some 3,500 acres of potential industrial land in the Salt Lake Valley and is considering doubling its holdings.

The company's natural resources division reversed a downward trend with gas and oil operations showing net gains of more than $16 million in 1967.

Natural resources division executive Lee S. Osborne said he believes it cannot be defeated.

uranium exploration is under way in Wyoming and is being considered for Utah, New Mexico and Texas.

Barnett said Union Pacific would approve Union Pacific's proposed merger with Rock Island Lines. The merger is opposed by two other railroads—Denver and Rio Grande Western and the Chicago and Northwestern.

Barnett said Union Pacific had offered to compensate those lines for revenue losses due to the merger. He said of the proposal now before the ICC—Barnett said he believes it cannot be defeated.

The Junk Car

The pitiful thing about the junk car situation is that it never gets any better. It gets worse. Take the western entrance to Twin Falls, on Highway 30 from Filer. About 10 years or so ago this was an attractive entrance to the city — a wide road, slancing between well-kept farms, across winding Rock Creek Canyon, past the green lawn and clean brick lines of Magic Valley Memorial Hospital and into the city along lines of attractive motels.

Today all the attractiveness of the entry to the city is wiped away by the cancerous growth of junkyards on both sides of the highway just west of the city limits, overflowing into an area of Rock Creek Canyon that once was considered a possible site for park development. And what makes it really frustrating is, there's nobody you can point a finger at. You're not a bureaucrat. You can't single out the junkyard operators and say it's all their fault. They're conducting a legitimate business. They're providing a needed service in getting the wrecked autos off the streets and sides of highways, and they have to put them somewhere.

It is possible they could pay a bit more attention to cannibalizing all usable parts from the wrecks, stacking them neatly and conveniently and then screening the remaining junk metal in concentrated yards. What too often happens now is that the wrecks are just spread around over a wide area and left scattered so that they can be reached if a part is needed off a particular model. But this would be only a temporary relief, at best, because the wrecks keep piling up and there is no way of getting rid of them. The price on scrap metal is so low and the transportation costs so high that it would actually cost money to get rid of it.

The Wonderful Pullmans

Remember the Pullman car? Remember like Mr. Spectator does that it was once the top of the line in luxurious travel. Well, an era is coming to a close. The Pullman is not a train and the Pullman people are not hauled on the floor. Who can forget the old Pullmans that sounded as a levered mound through the car, announcing that "dinner is now being served."

First these famous cars were made of wood and then they were made of steel. Now they will only be made of dreams. Who can forget the sight of a long passenger train pulling into a station with porters in snow white jackets standing in the windows and when you stepped aboard a Pullman you were a guest.

Passenger coaches might spill to high heaven from coal smoke, dust flew in the windows and when you stepped aboard a Pullman you were a guest. But the moment you stepped aboard a Pullman you were a guest. There were no shouted orders, trainmen did not yell the name of the next station, people did not shove benches and baggage peelings were not hurled on the floor.

Who can forget the old Pullmans that sounded as a levered mound through the car, announcing that "dinner is now being served." Often Pullman cars were put on a siding at the station. The traveler went to the car and to bed. During the night the car was hooked onto a train and the traveler might wake up to find himself at his destination. Or a passenger might arrive in his home city early in the morning. The car would be set out and he would awaken at his usual hour.

As the train rushed through the night, one could look out the window and see lights in the farm houses, watch the stars or get an instant look down the main artery of a small town. There was a great whistling of the broom as the passenger prepared to depart and this was the signal to extend a tip. A passenger was never strapped into his seat. MR. SPECTATOR SAYS: As a heat-producer in body, honey is said to equal the best meat in fuel value, but did you ever try to grill honey?

the operators would just pull up stakes and move on, leaving the junk behind them. County officials have been worrying about the problem for some time, and they are not alone. The same problem exists all across the nation. There has been talk about buying a metal press, which would crunch the old bodies into compact metal cubes. But such presses cost in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

And then, there is the problem of what to do with the cubes of metal. It still is not economically feasible to sell them as scrap metal. Some persons have suggested that the metal cubes be used as reinforcing filler in pouring of concrete abutments, such as might be needed for a new crossing of Salmon Falls Creek in the western part of the county. This might be a use, but it would be an expensive one, considering cost of the press and cost of transporting the metal cubes.

Another suggestion has been that the federal government might subsidize transportation of scrap metal to steel mill processing sites. There is some indication that it might be economically possible to reuse the scrap if it weren't for the high cost of transporting it to the mills. Taking another tack, some people have advocated that the cost of disposal be "built in" to the price of new autos and that the automobile companies be required to dispose of all of the wrecked or worn out cars they have made.

So far, however, all it has amounted to is talk, and the ugly graveyards of scrap metal keep growing and blighting the landscape. Government officials would welcome any ideas or help they could get in solving the problem. If you care, and if you have an idea on the matter, contact your county commissioners, legislators or congressmen and let them know it might help, and it can't hurt to let them know you are concerned.

GET A SECRETARY?

Dear Mr. Spectator: Out at the Twin Falls High School one of the teachers insists that term papers be typed, not written. I don't know if you've noticed a couple of the different results of this order. One student, whose father has a well-trained secretary, had a secretary type out the paper for his daughter. Another girl, who couldn't type and whose father did not have a secretary, labored over her report using the one-finger method for a typewriter. One thing is nice about it. The girl whose father had the secretary didn't find it necessary to miss any social obligations, just to get that pesky term paper done. But what about the poor secretary? A Local Senior

PHRAISE BE!

Dear Mr. Spectator: Twin Falls County should be proud of its active Historical Society, in the four years we have lived in Idaho, we have learned the name of the place for the first time through this society. The meetings consist of films and pioneer speakers in the winter months. In the summer at least three trips are made to the sites of mines, towns, trails, etc. These are conducted by people who have lived and are familiar with the area. In this program as the original pioneer families will soon be gone. Their messages will be extinct except for the few tapes the Society has.

For $1.50 dues per year per adult you can gain a wealth of knowledge, a family outing that will always be remembered, and help preserve the history of our state. Be yourself a favor and join the Twin Falls Historical Society. Mrs. P. Terry Lemmon

WASHINGTON—Now, after a Nebraska primary which was largely a wash note to Dick Nixon, the stop Bobby Kennedy movement is in full cry. Since Nebraska is almost certain to go Republican in November, the primary there's not much more than a practice drill for Oregon and California. It is, of course, Hubert Humphrey, who must stop Kennedy, but he can't afford to go about his chore in subtle low-key fashion. The primaries are not a sudden-death matter, to Humphrey as they are to Kennedy, who must aim at a clean sweep.

Politics Made Easy With ★S

NEW YORK—Some time ago, regular readers may recall, we explained here that trying to make sense out of American presidential politics is like trying to understand a railroad timetable. You cannot get anywhere with either one unless you pay strict attention to the little signs and footnotes. As we pointed out, that harsh is the reason why the railroads are in such trouble, and also why candidates make so few whistle stops nowadays. It is simply too discouraging to pack a bag and memorize a campaign speech—only to find that you hold a ticket on an asterisk.

No club car, no observation platform. In that regard it is just as difficult to figure out political developments. When we last looked at the popularity poll, for example, 67 per cent of those queried said they voted all in favor of President Johnson (*). Will not run on the Hubert Humphrey trip on the first Monday in November. Well, since we explained this problem to our readers, two more primaries have been held. And as far as we can see, the landscape is no longer the same with asterisks and footnotes than ever.

To begin with, the major campaign issue is no longer the Vietnam war, now that both sides have decided to discuss peace (). In neutral Paris (). () Which party is up on the fighting in Asia. () If the Paris students will lay down their arms. The most important function of a primary election is to take political control away from the few and give it to the many by letting the voters choose to be selected by a vote among all the registered members of the party (). Except in states where members of one party are allowed to cross-over and vote in the opposition party's primary election.

BRUCE BLOSSAT

Bobby's Win Was A Good One

INDIANAPOLIS (NEA) —There are strong echoes of 1960 in the quick effort by some political figures to minimize Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's substantial victory in the Indiana primary. In the 1960 Wisconsin primary, John F. Kennedy beat Hubert H. Humphrey by 10,000 votes, won two-thirds of the state's convention delegates and six of the 10 congressional districts. Some political observers immediately labeled it a defeat for Kennedy and a moral victory for Humphrey, mostly because they found two predictions that Kennedy would sweep all. But this reporter's survey of 35 states at that time found most party professionals hailing Kennedy's Wisconsin win as impressive.

Today's professionals, especially in the big-city states, are judging Bob Kennedy's Indiana triumph in much the same way. They know he was applying plenty of money-muscle and veteran political skills in his whirlwind campaign from Lake Michigan south to the Ohio river. But they also know Indiana was basically a very tough state from which to launch a driving effort for the presidency. One Kennedy source says that his campaign committee was out but had a lot of roughly 100 persons who had helped John Kennedy take Indiana in 1960. Only one agreed to work this time. Most of the others were warped into Gov. Roger Branigan's state organization or into regular county organizations which refused to help. There were no voter lists to work from. Party regulars at all levels gave the Kennedy camp the freeze. Before Kennedy entered Indiana, a top Democrat here told him not to do it, that Branigan is a favorite son would demolish him. Much was said and not inconsiderably the basic conservatism of the state. What Kennedy did accomplish was hardly minor. He beat Branigan by 60,000 votes and 70 per cent of the vote, by 110,000. It would have been a disaster to have run in the 60 to 60 per cent vote that looked likely for a while, but 42 per cent for Kennedy in a three-man race was solid. The McCarthy people thought that percentage was excellent when they achieved it in New Hampshire. It was hardly cause for a shade better than the 25 per cent which most polls indicated as his likely cause for French claims of moral support. If his backers seriously believe it is, then self-delusion is setting in. What may be most surprising for Dan and others watching the parade of primaries is the fact, foreseen early in this column that Kennedy cracked both the Negro voters and the blue-collar workers most susceptible to backlist sentiments. He took Indianapolis, Gary, Fort Wayne and Terre Haute to prove his double thrust.

Though his hold on the populous suburbs seems weak, his sturdy appeal to disparate elements in the troubled city cores may—if demonstrated further—persuade big city leaders that he is at once a militant winner in November and the man most able to effect a racial reconciliation in an era of great internal strife.

The candidate who gets the most votes in the primary is named winner and takes that state's delegates with him into the presidential nominating convention in Indiana, for example. Senator Kennedy got 42 per cent of the Democratic votes and thus claimed the victory (). So did Senator McCarthy who got 27 per cent, which he said was a big 7 per cent more than he expected. () From the Greek word meaning "melting pot." () From the Latin word meaning "ethno." Another big issue facing the candidates is the need for aid to education () which is being pointed up by many college students who are doing what they call "our thing" (). Includes additional policemen and anti-air hardware. () From the Italian phrase meaning "cosa nostra."

Taking issues such as these to the public, aspirants for the presidential nomination have been entering various "primary elections" (). An automatic profit-making device operated by the television networks, included as part of political announcements, etc. electronic vote analysis, spot commercials, leased-telephone lines and revised predictions taped earlier in the day. The most important function of a primary election is to take political control away from the few and give it to the many by letting the voters choose to be selected by a vote among all the registered members of the party (). Except in states where members of one party are allowed to cross-over and vote in the opposition party's primary election.

What this means? For Vice President Humphrey's chances for the nomination are hard to say as his name was not on the ballot. But many observers feel that he has control of the regular party since he has more than a big 7 per cent more than he expected. () From the Middle English word meaning to quit, as, in the sentence "He resigned to go for himself to running-for-re-election." As we said earlier, the situation following the Indiana primary is still anybody's limit. He has been bumped up by hy-former Postmaster General Larry O'Brien, who left the Johnson cabinet to run for Kennedy. In O'Brien's words: "It's still a horse race" (*). () Includes the Kentucky Derby. () When winner Dan's image was deteriorated for having been given a pain killer.

Some time ago, I stated that surgical operations on the elderly should, when possible, be performed in the home. Since this has given rise to some misunderstanding, I wish to make it clear that such operations must be carefully selected. This procedure would be most unwise in the case of an exploratory operation, or a procedure where the surgeon was unsure of the diagnosis and what he would find. Nor could it be used for brain surgery, chest surgery or any other procedure that would be likely to require keeping the patient under an anesthetic for a prolonged period.

In the case of simpler procedures, that could be done quickly, however, the operations can be performed at home and even in the patient's own bed. This has been recently recommended by a noted professor of surgery, not because it would make it easier for the surgeon but because up to 10 per cent of patients die from their home and leading him to a hospital is likely to cause a severe emotional upset. What causes them? Why must I have a checkup every six months? Is there any cure? A—The cause is unknown. About 25 per cent of women over 35 have them and the percentage increases with advancing age. Following the menopause, most fibroids show some evidence of spontaneous shrinking. Q—All I want to do is letuce and hard candy. What would cause this? ing with political debts payable at the Chicago convention. Thus, Humphrey can afford to stand aloof from the popularity contests. But he must not be lulled into preventing Kennedy from plugging popular support, lest the Chicago delegates become infected with the disease that swept Eisenhower to victory over Bob Taft in 1952.

With Nebraska out of the way, Humphrey's best hope is in the anti-Bobby propaganda—mostly in whispers—in Oregon and California. This could be a perilous course. Humphrey must avoid at all costs casting Kennedy in the role of the underdog fighting the machine. Even before Nebraska, this had been done by the Kennedy campaign issues. But Humphrey has no choice. As with Nixon's contest against Rockefeller, Vice President can kill himself by too much kindness to Bobby.

Nebraska did little for the Democrats, but it did show that Kennedy is still in the race, which is all he could expect. Since Humphrey's name was not on the primary ballot, he can't afford to drop out of the race. It is irrelevant. From a practical point of view, Lyndon Johnson's name on the ballot merely muddied the picture a little more. After all, Nebraska remains pretty much Nixon country. Should he be nominated at Miami Beach, he is almost sure to better the 61 per cent of the Nebraska vote he amassed in 1960, his highest total anywhere in the country.

With Humphrey bucking for the distaff of the country, one of Kennedy's biggest problems is his heavy dependence on Negro vote. It did him hard to lose voters that he represented only 3 per cent of the electorate, and nationwide it is still a little less than 10 per cent. Kennedy also will feel the squeeze in Oregon and California. So far, Dick Nixon has overshadowed the scuffling Democrats in the first two primaries in which they bumped heads. Even though Nixon was unopposed in Indiana, Nixon attracted a hardy anathema from the Negro bloc, especially among those old enough to possess memories. So far, Dick Nixon has overshadowed the scuffling Democrats in the first two primaries in which they bumped heads. Even though Nixon was unopposed in Indiana, Nixon attracted a hardy anathema from the Negro bloc, especially among those old enough to possess memories.

But they haven't stopped Bobby Kennedy yet, and they will not do so easily. He is a fighter and a speech-maker who manhandles the distaff issues in language the plain citizen can understand. He carries an air of intense sincerity which hardly makes voters feel that he will "do something" about their troubles. Besides, none of the other candidates can successfully claim to be Jack Kennedy's brother.

Honorable Defeat

HONG KONG—As we go into talks with Ho Chi Minh, we should remember about Communist negotiations. (Since) we are not strong enough to deal them a lethal blow, a coalition government offers the way to attaining our revolutionary goals. (The) strategy of peace and coalition with the Communists will allow us to complete victory. We will take over the reins of the government in the countryside, then start attacking the urban centers. (The) coalition government may include a nonrevolutionary element—namely, the Communists must follow the essential line of action as stipulated by the Communist front. (What is) important is that we must have tight control over the government, the laborers and farm workers. It does not matter if a few nobles are at the top. (To all appearances, it will be) a coalition government but actual powers (will) lie in our hands. (In regard to) the coalition government, our party will exert overall control, but if and if our agents are firmly established and if they properly carry out the principal lines of the Communist front, the party will lead the revolution to the final objective. (In summary, one document and another document will be) conducted in the line of "creating an honorable defeat" for the United States.

Czechs Plan No Changes

By PETER REHAK

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new premier, Oldrich Cernik, said Tuesday his liberal government — wants — continued cooperation with other Communist nations and economic links with the West as well.

"I want to emphasize," Cernik told a news conference, "that the government plans to do nothing to change the traditional ties with the Soviet Union and other Communist nations."

At the same time, he declared, Czechoslovakia is interested in more effective cooperation with capitalist countries and would like to work to remove barriers separating East and West.

Both Cernik and Prof. Ota Sik, the architect of planned economic reforms, said individual businesses will soon be free to trade abroad with only loose government guidelines and supervision. Also they said the government planned to make the Czechoslovak crown, its main currency unit, convertible in the West, although Sik said this would take five to seven years.

First, they said, Czechoslovak goods have to be able to compete in price and quality on the world market.

Czechoslovakia's new Communist leaders have been trying to calm down Moscow and assure it that their country will remain Communist despite the liberalization process. On Tuesday one high placed Communist source said he did not regard the exchanges between Prague and other Communist capitals as anything more serious than "polemics."

In Moscow, meanwhile, the Soviet bloc's economic coordinating body, the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance, or Comecon, opened talks Tuesday on the economic expectations of the Prague regime. Informants said the Czechoslovak delegate asked the council to reconsider the old Stalinist "division of labor" among the one-time satellites.

Camas Man Honored For Rescue Work

FAIRFIELD — Leo Gary Jewett, warrant officer who is flying an assault helicopter in Vietnam, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Jewett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Jewett, Fairfield, and is a 1960 graduate of Camas County High School and attended the University of Idaho.

The award was made for heroism while participating in aerial flight evidenced by volunteer action above and beyond the call of duty in the Republic of Vietnam. Warrant Officer Jewett distinguished himself by exceptionally valorous action Oct. 10, 1967, while serving as a pilot of a UH-1H helicopter during a combat assault mission near Chu Lai.

When a helicopter was downed in enemy controlled territory, Jewett exposed himself to the heavy hostile fire as he landed in a landing zone to rescue the wounded crew members.

After flying the injured personnel to safety, Jewett again exposed himself to the enemy fire as he returned to the area and extracted the security force. His outstanding flying ability and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest tradition of the military service, and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit and the U.S. Army, according to Col. George W. Putnam Jr., Chief of Staff.

Kennedy Name Appealing To Voters In Nebraska

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The appeal to voters of the Kennedy name and a drawing account on the millions behind it have helped Sen. Robert F. Kennedy further along the road toward the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Kennedy organization side-swiped Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., in Nebraska's primary Tuesday, sending the first-opponent of President Johnson's policies bumping to the brink of disaster.

McCarthy's casual acceptance of the short end of a 53-1/2 percent vote in the Democratic vote did little to support his optimistic post-ballooning prediction that he will run even with Kennedy in the May 28 Oregon primary and may win the June 4 California test.

The truth of the matter is that most politicians see it, that McCarthy is now a poor bet in the Democratic race. It would take a brace of victories to boost him back into a top running position.

Kennedy said as much by naming Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as his chief target in future campaigning and inviting Humphrey to "bring him in" to combat Humphrey as the apostle of what Kennedy calls the Johnson administration's unsatisfactory policies.

Kennedy demonstrated in just about every category of Nebraska voter — city dwellers, farm

They scour the towns and cities for supporters willing to turn out for rallies.

They talk school officials into letting students out of classes to provide an automatic cheering section. They distribute bunting, banners, placards, streamers and buttons.

Whether this sort of campaigning in the smaller towns and streets and park rallies in the cities really harvests any substantial vote support is considered doubtful even by the candidates themselves.

Our Mother's House

Onco in a long while, films such as "A Taste Of Honey", "The Servant", "Darling" and "Blow-Up" create a special kind of excitement.

The reviews make it clear that it has happened again. Judith Crist, on the Today Show praised "Our Mother's House" as "a movie you won't want to miss."

Time Magazine termed it "Splendid! A modern gothic tale of innocence and evil." Saturday Review said "A triumph of the director's art!"

If you only see the "must-see" films, you must see "Our Mother's House."

Land Fill Operation Studied

Idaho Association of Cities members in the Magic Valley area are scheduled to meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Shoshone for dinner and to discuss city-county cooperation in operating landfills.

Vic. Bozzuto, Fourth District A.I.C. chairman, said county commissioners are being invited to meet with mayors and councilmen to discuss this and several other inter-governmental matters. In many counties, including Twin Falls, projects and programs are in the planning state which involve taxpayers of municipalities and rural areas, Heber Loughmiller, Twin Falls County commissioner chairman, explained.

Mr. Loughmiller said all three county commissioners from Twin Falls will be attending the meeting.

LIVE, INC. PRODUCTS which will be sold door-to-door Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in Twin Falls are inspected by two members of the Twin Falls Lions Club. From left are Bill Hemingway, chairman of the sale, and Ernie Jellison, member of the Live, Inc. board of directors. Included in the products are door mats, brooms, mop, wind chimes, rug, and car toys made by blind and severely handicapped people at the Live, Inc. workshop in Boise.

No Surprise

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) — It was no great surprise to Mrs. Donald Eck, 26, when she gave birth to a baby boy on Mother's Day.

Her other two children, LaDonna, 4, and Jason, 5, were born on Mother's Day, too.

London Gold Price Hits All-Time High

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold hit an all-time high in London today of $40.30 an ounce, then sellers drove it back to $40.10. Even this was 30 cents above Tuesday's price, and trading among bullion dealers was the heaviest since the free market in gold opened in London in April.

The cause of the jump was not immediately clear.

At the usual morning price fixing session, the price started at $39.50, but heavy buying forced the level up to $40.30. Then sellers emerged to settle the price at $40.10.

This was $5.10 higher than the official price at which Washington buys and sells gold to the central banks.

Lions Plan Three-Day Sale Of Live, Inc. Products

Members of the Twin Falls Lions Club will be selling products this week that have been made by Idaho's blind and severely handicapped in the Live, Inc. sheltered workshop in Boise.

Included among the products, which will be sold door-to-door from 5 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, are door mats, brooms, wind chimes, mops and car toys.

Maple Valley also have taken on the Live, Inc. sales this year and will be selling products this week in the various towns.

E. E. (Ernie) Jellison, a member of the Twin Falls Lions Club and a director for Live, Inc., said that this is the only way these making products at the workshop in Boise have of marketing about 50 per cent of the products made there.

Lions throughout the southern half of Idaho have taken on Live, Inc. as one of their civic projects. A small portion of the money raised in the door-to-door sales remains with the sponsoring club, but the bulk of it is returned to Live, Inc.

The handicapped people working at the Live, Inc. workshop are paid by the piece. The workshop is a combination unit—production and rehabilitation.

Headquarters for the three-night sale will be at the College of Southern Idaho Vocational-Technical School, where members of the Lions will provide a meal for the salesmen.

No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache and muscle aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upset, or over-exertion and strain. If this nagging backache, with restlessness, sleepless nights, in wearing you out, making you miserable and irritable, don't wait, try Doan's Pills — an analgesic, a pain reliever. Doan's pain-relieving action on nagging backache is often the answer. Doan's Pills — not a habit-forming drug but a well-known standard remedy used successfully by millions for over 70 years. See if they don't bring you the same welcome relief. For convenience, always buy Doan's large size.

Auction Of Old County Court Items Nets $900

Approximately $900 was realized by Twin Falls county officials as a result of a sale Sunday of used items, most of them left over from the remodeling of the old district courtroom and other county offices.

In prime demand were the high-backed jury chairs that were removed from the jury box of the old courtroom. These brought an average of $8. Other popular items were banister and railings, including both brass and wooden, which also were taken from the old courtroom.

Glass covered book shelves which stack together also brought high bids and county commissioners said the buyers continued to bid down to the last item. One man even offered a bid on a ladder hanging on the outside wall of the old hospital building where the sale was held. One of the building custodians rushed out to announce the ladder wasn't part of the sale items.

Messersmith Auction Service conducted the sale for the county.

Connie Fisk, Sugden Recite Nuptial Vows

Women's Section

Connie A. Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Fisk, became the bride of James L. Sugden, all-Twin Falls, in rites March 23 in the First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Robert C. Harvey performed the double-ring ceremony before a background of pink and white chrysanthemum altar baskets on either side of the tiered candelabra. The bridal aisle was marked with pink satin pew bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over peau de soie, styled with an empire waist line and bell sleeves. Corded lace applique cascaded the full length of her gown and bordered the sleeves. The full chapel tiered train fell from the high-waist and was covered with the same lace applique. Tiny, seed pearl butterflies were scattered on the lace patterns.

Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held in place with six tiny white rosebuds. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink rosebuds and pink hydrangeas on a background of greenery.

Pat Barry, Denver, Colo., served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Kay Baumert, Twin Falls, and Mrs. Cindy Garoutte, Buhl, sister of the bridegroom. Cindy Stansell, Twin Falls, was the flower girl. Serving as best man was Gary Haskell, Twin Falls. Groomsmen were Tom Thomason, Gunnison, Colo., and Keith Garoutte, Buhl, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Michael Garoutte, Buhl, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

Ushers were James Ledbetter and Tom Cox, both Twin Falls. Mrs. Charles Allen, Twin Falls, served as organist, and accompanied the soloist, Velma Guver, Twin Falls.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Fireside Lounge. Guests were registered by Mrs. Susan Carlson.

The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered white wedding cake decorated with pink rosebuds and white bells. Hearts and tiny doves encircled the separated tier columns. It was topped with two white doves over a set of wedding rings, encircled by a heart and pink lilies of the valley.

The Valley. The table was covered with white lace over pink satin.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Pat Newnham, Nampa, and Mrs. Bob Sugden, Boise, aunts of the bridegroom. Punch was served by Mrs. Margaret Hurlbert, Twin Falls. Mrs. Tracy Haskins, Twin Falls, poured the coffee.

Mrs. Kathy Ledbetter, Twin Falls, was in charge of the gifts.

The couple took a wedding trip to McCall. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sugden, Rogue River, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Newnham, Boise, grandparents of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. William Newnham, Nampa, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Dale Sims, Kellogg, uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thomason, Sacramento, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Melvin, Ogden, Utah. Other guests attended from many surrounding cities.

The bride was honored at a lingerie shower hosted by Mrs. Kay Lynn Baumert, and a miscellaneous bridal shower hosted by Mrs. Kathy Ledbetter and Mrs. Bonnie McInroy.

By ABIGAIL-VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: I believe that too little control. This is not an unwed mothers should be forced by law to place their children for adoption. Unmarried mothers are not emotionally disturbed and they feel that it will add to their guilt feelings to "abandon" their children by adoption, and that we create a stigma by other people. So the unmarried mother attempts to assuage her guilt feelings by becoming a "martyr" and keeping her child to raise.

DEAR ABBY: Our only daughter is to be married in three weeks and my husband has the "jitters." It will be a small, informal church wedding. My husband wants me to walk down the aisle on the other side of our daughter because he's afraid he might break down and cry if he walks her down the aisle alone to give her away. We have always done everything together, and if he needs me for moral support, I don't think I should let him down.

DEAR PAL: If your daughter is being married in the church some "nice" girl to behave like they cat next into the lives of herself and her family. REALISTIC DEAR "REALISTIC": You're first sweeping generalization that "all unmarried mothers are emotionally disturbed" is absurd. From the thousands of letters I have received from girls in trouble, I have concluded that very few were "persecuted" by a predatory male. They are mostly nice girls who thought they were "in love" and were going to get married anyway or girls who became too intimate, too soon with a boy.

Cassia Scout-O-Rama Draws 500

BURLEY — Some 500 Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cub Scouts participated in a Scout-O-Rama Friday evening and Saturday at Cassia County Fairgrounds, sponsored by the Cassia District, Snake River Area Council.

The event began Friday with Scouts and leaders moving into the area between the race track, setting up tents and preparing cooking area for various troops. A special campfire program was held with the troops throughout the Cassia District presenting the entertainment.

Sheltered booth displays were arranged along with unsheltered booth displays which were open from all day Saturday.

A talent show was presented on the stage inside the booth area. Fifty events were held all day. Winners of the field events were Horseshoe tournament, Troop 11 first; and Troop 18 second; Tug-of-War, troop 21; Fifty Yard Dash, Troop 11; String Burn, Troop 13 first; Troop 110 second and Troop 16 third; Chariot Races, Troop 21.

The Atomic Race winners were Troop 21, first; Troop 18 second and Troop 13 third. This race, a first to the area with six boys each on the end of a long string tied to a piece of inner tube by pulling on the string the youths made a circle out of the inner tube and let it down over a can. The can was then carried to the next spot where it was put into a larger can and a lid was put on the larger can. This event was very popular with the youths.

An event for scouts and explorers only which was very popular was the log roll in a large tank of water. Youths winning the log roll for their troops were Ryan Hanks and Tim Hunt, both troop 18, first; Kevin Hanks, troop 10, and David Adams, troop 18, both second; Clair Robinson and Keith Blauer, both 13, third.

As onlookers walked around the field events area one could easily tell the youths that took part in the log roll for most of them were wet to their knees. The Pinewood Derby event for cubs was won by Glenda Whiteley, Oakley, pack 25, first; Robert Hamblin, Heyburn, Pack 24, second; and Howard Manning, Burley, Pack 110, third.

The Pinewood Derby winners will now compete for district honors. Camp inspection winners were Troops 13, 18, 11 and 124, all blue ribbons; Troops 12, 10, 10, 20 and 14, all red ribbons; Troops 24, 110, 110, 21 and 28, all yellow ribbons.

General chairman of the event was Bill Mendenhall. Other com-

State Medical School Said Unfeasible

BOISE (AP) — A strengthened tax base and the proper academic environment are needed to make an Idaho state medical school feasible, according to the head of the Idaho Medical Education Study Commission.

State Sen. Fred Bagley, R-Boise, said Tuesday a technical study for his commission would be considered next Saturday.

He and P. Tea Co., Chisholm Brothers Farm Equipment Co., Southside Electric Lines, John Jones and Unity Light and Power, Don's Tractor Repair, Rupert and Hal Luke and Mountain State Telephone Co.

The commission, created by the 1967 Legislature to determine if Idaho needs or could support a medical school, employed Economics Research Associates to make the study.

"When the commission originally met, Bagley said, the termination was made that the investigation and development of a medical school would be without meaning unless the role of the school could be related to the needs for total health care and medical manpower resources in the state."

"Briefly," he explained, "the consultants' evaluation recommends that Idaho's long-range plans should provide for medical schools when the necessary academic environment has been established, the tax base has been strengthened and immediate solutions to the existing health care problems have been implemented."

Constitution Draft To Be Ready Soon

BOISE (AP) — A rough draft of a proposed new Idaho state constitution is to be ready by mid-July, the Idaho Constitution Revision Commission said Tuesday.

But it may be several years before the document can be voted upon by Idahoans.

Chairman Raymond L. Givens, retired Idaho Supreme Court Justice, said the group would consider the rough draft at its July meeting, then order about 3,000 copies of the final draft for distribution to various Idaho groups.

Public hearings will be held before the 1969 Legislature considers it. Any proposed constitutional or constitutional amendment must be passed by the Legislature by the state legislature.

Idaho's present constitution only allows itself to be amended article-by-article. An amendment be voted upon this fall would allow it to be amended by section. Some legal authorities say even that would not allow adoption of a new constitution as a whole.

To enable voters to adopt an entire proposed constitution this fall would be the minimum legal authority.

The 1969 Legislature would propose an amendment allowing an entire new constitution to be voted upon as a unit.

That passes in the 1970 election, the 1971 Legislature could place the new constitution before 1972 voters.

Any new constitution receiving a majority of "yes" votes would go into effect at the time of the official "yes" canvas, in late 1972.

The commission Tuesday voted to lower requirements for passage of general obligation bonds put to property owners to a 60 per cent approval. A two-thirds majority is now required.

SHOSHONE — The Lincoln County Planning Commission will meet at 8 p.m. Friday at the county courthouse.

A discussion will be held on plans that have been made in other counties and on what needs to be done in Lincoln County. The public is invited.

WILL GET DEGREE
McMINNVILLE, Ore. (AP)—A Linfield College housemother, 70-year-old Mrs. Grace Bennett, will receive her bachelor of arts degree from the college this weekend. She is only few years behind seven of her eight children who are Linfield graduates.

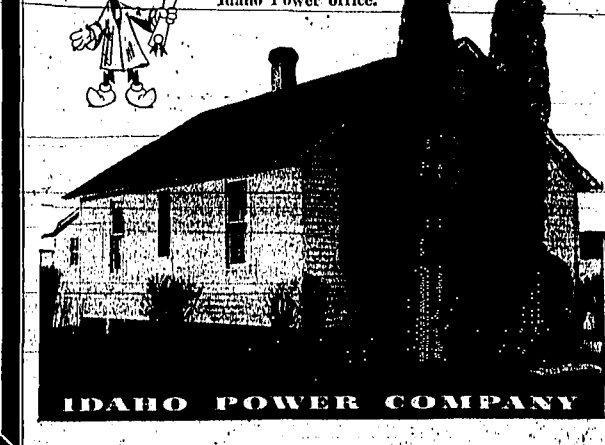

MR. AND MRS. JERRY FRICK, GOODING

"Electric heat makes older homes comfortable"

"Its two tall cedars have made our 40-year-old home a landmark in Gooding," say Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Frick. "Like most older homes, it was drafty and hard to heat. Two years ago we had electric baseboard heaters installed. Now it's always comfortable, day or night. There's just no comparison, and costs have been reasonable. Tell folks who want to know about changing an older home to electric heat to come and talk to us."

Graduate in '68...to flameless electric heat!

Most older homes can be readily converted to electric heat, with several types from which to choose. Modernizing loans are available now with payments as low as $15 a month. You can get full information and planning assistance from your local Idaho Power office.

3:30 P.M. SUMMARY NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregularly after a volatile afternoon. Gold mining shares advanced. Trading was active. The golds responded to news that the price of gold bullion world markets had soared to more than $40 an ounce. In the overall market, losses were limited to a narrow margin, and the averages dipped slightly. Analysts saw the list as undergoing further consolidation after its big advance earlier this spring. National Sugar Refining sprang more than 4 points, continuing Tuesday's "mystery" spurt. Leas active. Success gained nearly 2 points. Spokesmen for the companies, however, said they knew of no reason for accounting for the activity. Berman Leasing ran up 5 more points in further response to reports that the firm is pursuing a rose 2, Massey Ferguson more than a point. Among the golds, Dome Mines and American-Sheridan advanced. Campbell Red Lake more than a point, and Homestake a point or better. Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Business

BY PHIL THOMAS NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's retailers "can't say at the moment what the standard for the next eruption" of violence in the streets but must become active in leading the hard-core unemployed to work. "If they don't," says James J. Bliss, "they stand to lose the most. The retailer is right in the front line." The executive vice president of the National Retail Merchants' Association, a trade group for the department chain store industry, said in an interview. 2,000 members operate about 17,000 stores and annually account for about $30 billion of retail sales.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR Q—I am 58 and own almost 6,000 shares of Sears, Roebuck and Co. I believe the time has come when I should diversify. I have substantial savings accounts. R. S. A—Yes, in my judgment you are top-heavy with such an accumulation of one stock. Currently this represents a 60 to 70 percent of your net worth. It is beyond my function as a columnist to advise you how best to handle such a major financial responsibility. I believe the time has come when you should consult a lawyer on possibly establishing a trust fund for the benefit of you and your family. Q—I'm a single working girl without much of a savings account, but I own some shares of General Electric. Pan American, Perkin-Elmer, and Texas Gulf Sulphur. Should I sell all and concentrate on a few savings accounts? D. B. A—You evidently like to be where the action is and for the present I'd stay with it. Since you have made your own choices, I cannot be more specific, but I want to commend you for your attention to diversification. It would now concentrate on building a bank account for emergency needs. Then, should an emergency suddenly confront you, it will be comforting to know that money is in the bank to help you meet it. I have known so many people who were obliged to sell good stocks below their cost when an emergency coincided with a weak market that I must urge you to resume your bank savings plan. In the next few weeks you'll see a check for your account building gains and meanwhile you will have received additional shares of IBM from the recently announced 2-for-1 split.

Pro Grid Owners Give Super Bowl To Miami Again

By RON SPEER
ATLANTA—Ga. (AP)—The 1969 Super Bowl football game between the champions of the American and National football leagues was awarded Tuesday by the owners to Miami for the second straight year.

The game will be played next Jan. 12, in the Orange Bowl, site of the last Super Bowl this past January.

Miami won out over New Orleans in a battle to stage the game, with 25 owners of the two leagues voting for Miami and 11 for New Orleans.

Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle said that during the closed meeting the owners apparently were impressed by the

Burley Stops Minico, Keeps Hopes Alive

BURLEY, Ore. (AP)—Benavidez stopped Minico on three hits and drove in three runs Tuesday to give Burley a 5-2 decision and keep the Bobcats in the hunt for a share of the Eastern Idaho Conference baseball title.

Cosch Golden Woods' Bobcats tentatively are scheduled for a makeup game at Blackfoot Friday afternoon and if successful will share the crown with Skyline.

Lawrence Davis pulled a repeat of last week's winning run, stealing second and scoring after drawing an over-throw while trying to steal third. In the third inning, Benavidez belted a homer and drove in two runs to give Burley a 3-0 lead.

Minico rallied into a tie in the fifth when Foster singled and moved up as Dockter walked. Dean Mayes singled a run in and two walks forced in the next one.

But in the bottom of the inning, Pete Matthews and Vic Rodriguez opened with singles and Belliston drove a free pass. Jensen's bouncer went for an error to let one run in and Benavidez singled in the next two.

Indians Use Errors To Drop Yankees

CLEVELAND (AP)—The red-hot Cleveland Indians helped by two errors by New York shortstop Gene Michael, pushed scores to two runs in the seventh and beat the Yankees 4-2 Tuesday night for their fifth straight victory and 11th in the last 12 games.

The Yankees led 2-1 on Andy Kosco's fifth-inning homer and relief pitcher Jim Bouton had hurled five scoreless innings when the Indians mounted their winning rally. Larry Brown beat out a hit to short and continued to second when Michael threw the ball into the Cleveland bullpen.

Jose Cardenal walked and Chien Nishpan singled in the tying run and took second on a throw to third trying to get Cardenal. Max Alvis was purposely passed, leading the Indians to their comeback.

The Indians added a run in the ninth.

Hatchery Trout Can Survive Wild

BOISE (AP)—Experiments have shown hatchery trout can be prepared for survival in the wild.

The agency said forcing fish to swim against an increasingly strong current strengthens their muscle tone, just as jogging along a street helps a human.

Stacy Gebhardt, fishery management supervisor, said fish given the strengthening exercise are better prepared for planting in a stream than are those not conditioned.

But he said conditioning appears to be of little benefit to fish planted in a lake.

Uniform Idaho Hunt Calendar Presented At Sportsmen Meet

Standardization of Idaho's hunting calendar, recreational about half their kill in the first two weeks and the rest in the last two weeks, was the main topic of a two-day sportsmen meeting in Boise Tuesday night. The group will not meet again until September.

Charles Blake, district biologist for the Idaho Fish and Game Department, said a calendar had been prepared which would allow Idahoans to know exactly what the various hunting seasons would open years in advance. He noted this would be a great convenience to the hunting public in laying out vacation plans.

The calendar proposed includes the first September-Saturday, sheep and goats; third Saturday, deer and elk in the backcountry; fourth Saturday, quail and grouse; fourth Saturday, antelope; first October Saturday, a large block of deer and elk hunting in the front range; third Saturday, remainder of Southern Idaho deer and elk; and fourth Saturday, pheasants.

Blake said there would be some exceptions to confirm with local conditions.

Blake said the department also would seek extensions of two deer hunts in the Magic Valley area next fall. He noted this would include the fourth Saturday pheasants in the Magic Valley area and two weeks on Unit 52 (Picabo Hills and Lava).

Reason for the extensions was steady deterioration of winter range, which both units basically are, and gradual increase in wintering herd numbers. He noted the department is planning to migrate herds summering on the high prairies and southern tier of mountains. The current fourth Saturday pheasants, Blake noted, had weather conditions in specific years have been reflected in the harvest.

Goosen To Try First Base Job

NEW YORK (AP)—G.H. Hodges plans to give catcher Greg Goosen the same chance that Leo Durocher gave Hodges 20 years ago—a shot at the regular first base job.

It worked wonders for Hodges who took over for a slumping Preston Ward in 1948 when Roy Campanella joined. The old Brooklyn Dodgers and remained on first base for 16 more years.

Manager Hodges hopes Goosen can do the same for the New York Mets.

"Greg has been swinging that real good," said Hodges before Tuesday night's game with Cincinnati. "So we're going to look him first for the next few days. He certainly has been adequate as a fielding first baseman."

Errors Let

Boston Edge Senators 5-4

BOSTON (AP)—Carl Yastrzemski raced home on a throwing error by catcher Paul Casanova in the 10th inning Tuesday night to help the Boston Red Sox a 5-4 victory over the Washington Senators.

Joe Foy opened the 10th with a triple to right center field off Dennis Higgins. The Senators reliever then walked Yastrzemski and Reggie Smith intentionally, filling the bases with none out.

Ken Harrelson grounded to shortstop Ron Hansen, whose throw to the plate forced Casanova's error. Yastrzemski called into right field, enabling Yastrzemski to score the winning run.

Frank Howard's 10th and 11th home runs of the season sparked the Senators to a 4-0 lead, but Harrelson and Yastrzemski sparked Boston rallies in the sixth and seventh that knocked the game 4-4.

The group voted $25 to defray travel expense for any teacher attending the conservation summer class being offered by Boise College.

WEARING HIS OWN Indian headdress, Gov. Don Samuelson chats with two of the young Eh-Chapas, about their coming summer schedule. The youngsters, ranging in age from 7 to 17, will be performing at Frontier Days in Twin Falls July 25-28 and at the Idaho State Parade Drill Competition in Gooding, Aug. 11-12. Dressed in Indian costumes, the hard-riding youngsters perform without saddles, doing fast-moving precision drills and unusual horsemanship feats.

Hard-Riding Eh-Chapas To Appear Here

The Indians are coming. Twin Falls is one of eight cities in the Northwest that will host a group of hard-riding youngsters—known as the Eh-Capa Bareback Riders, who have become popular in rodeos and other western shows in the past several seasons.

This year the youngsters will appear as a featured attraction for Frontier Days July 25, 26, 27 and 28 at Saddle Field in Twin Falls. The precision drill team is made up of boys and girls ranging from 7 to 17 years of age, most of whom call the Boise Valley their home. Each is responsible for training his or her own horse and the entire group appears in Indian costume under the supervision of an ex-Marine, Wayne Stear.

In a meeting with Gov. Don Samuelson, the group of youngsters, whose name is "Apache" spelled backwards, received the blessing of the "Idaho chief" who described them as good-will ambassadors for the Gem State.

In addition to their Twin Falls performance, they also will take part in several other major Idaho and Washington shows.

They will perform during the National Riders' contest and festival June 22 in Weiser; the Boise July 4th celebration; Snake River Stampede in Nampa, July 16, and the Idaho Parade and Drill Competition in Gooding, Aug. 11 and 12. Several other events including the final performance Sept. 21, 22 and 23 in Yampa, Wash., are on their busy schedule.

Last summer the group performed its daredevil routine before the thousands of Boy Scouts attending the International Boy Scout Jamboree at Farragut State Park.

In a feature article last July, Sunset Magazine described the young Idaho riders as "some of the most skillful young equestrians in the West."

Their 15-minute performance includes formations such as the wagon wheel (arranged in a circle), the wheel (formed at high speed, jumps in which the riders clear falls with arms outstretched), and a finale in which one of the riders clears a high cut while being carried four feet above the ground between two horses.

Challenge Is Given Youths At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — At the baccalaureate services at the local high school graduating class Sunday evening, Bishop D. H. Hansen, Shoshone LDS Church, challenged the youths to study the Bible and live according to the teachings found therein. The topic was "Good Thoughts."

Katie Hansen played the professional and recreational and was piano accompanist for musical selections.

Rev. Father William McQuaid, St. Peter's Catholic Church, gave the invocation and benediction and Rev. John Turk read the scriptures.

Melvin Webb, accompanied by Miss Hansen, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and members of the senior class sang under direction of music teacher, Ronald Jenkins.

Doris McDonald recited the poem "If." Corsages for the event were provided by the Bergin Funeral Chapel.

Jobs Help Student Meet School Cost

By RAY CROWLEY
NEA Publications

If you are a capable high school graduate and lack the means to continue your education, you may be eligible for the federal government-sponsored College Work-Study Program.

As presently operated, students may earn up to $1,000 a year or more under this plan. They may work an average of 15 hours per week during school periods and up to 40 hours a week in vacations and summers.

The usual rate of pay is $1.40 an hour.

Under the College Work-Study Program, students have worked as—assistant-teachers, non-paid orderlies, local government assistants, maintenance workers, museum aides, playground supervisors, teachers' assistants.

Some students are working in college laboratories and libraries. Some are programming computers, some serving food in the college canteen. Students are working off campus for public or non-profit organizations or in Community Action programs.

Students may be employed in almost any job which needs to be done and which the institution could not otherwise get done because of lack of funds.

Details of the work-study arrangements are subject to negotiation between the school and the student. But the work may not involve political activity or work for a political party, work on the construction, operation or maintenance of a facility used or to be used for sectarian instruction or religious worship. The job must not result in the displacement of employed workers.

Federal grants made directly to the college cover up to 85 per cent of the student's wages. The colleges determine which students are eligible for the program on the basis of financial need.

The colleges determine the jobs to be performed, establish the rates of pay, supervise the work, handle the payrolls and supervise day-by-day operations.

If you feel that you cannot continue your education because you do not have enough money, you should get in touch with the director of financial aids or director of student employment at your college or the college at which you expect to enroll.

Preference for employment is given students from low-income families.

To be eligible a student must be enrolled, or accepted for enrollment, as a full-time student in a participating college or other institution of higher education.

He must need the money in order to continue his schooling. He must be capable of maintaining good standing in his course or study while employed. He must be a citizen of the United States, owe permanent allegiance to the United States or meet other specific residence or immigration status criteria. Some colleges offer students a "package" of financial assistance, combining the Work-Study Program with a loan and perhaps a scholarship.

The Times-News is proud to offer this invitation to all boys and girls 6 through 20 years old in the circulation area.

5. Use the order form on this page. If there is more than one child in the family additional ads can be written on plain paper using this form as a guide.

IDEAS ON WHAT TO SELL OR TRADE

Bicycles, roller skates, comic books, white mice, turtles, dogs, cats, marbles, slods, footballs, boxing gloves, scooters, good luck charms, games, dolls, toy dishes, doll beds, basketballs, toy cars, horns, electric trains, story books, tents, knives, flashlights, coats, hats, shirts, gloves, model airplanes or boats, baseball shoes, skis, ski boots and anything else you have to sell or trade.

NOTE TO PARENTS

Let your children write their own ads with as little help as possible on composition. We are not looking for perfectly worded ads — they will be the children's work, not yours. Suggest to them what they may advertise if you wish, but let them have the fun of seeing their efforts in print.
