Failure To Meet Deadline Won't Impair Petitions

BOISE (AP) — Secretary of ballot. State Rep. T. Conrass said Thursday he believes failure to meet a deadline set in Idaho law will not impair the right of backers of two initiative proposals to get them on the election ballot if they get sufficient signatures.

But he added that the arguments were not provided by the June 8 deadline by backers of two other initiatives — one to amend the Oregon minimum wage and the other to require a public vote before urban renewal can be approved.

The defense secretary, in his second full-dress news conference since taking office March 1, said casualties on both sides have gone up as a result of the enemy's "determination to increase the level of combat."

ICC Orders Probe Of Freight Hikes WASHINGTON (AP) - The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered an investigation into increases in freight rates asked by the nation's railroads. The ICC suspended the proposed rates for several days Wednesday, pending its investigation. But at the same time it indicated it would authorize the railroads to file an across-the-board 3 per cent tariff increase. The ICC said that despite authorization of this 3 per cent increase, which could be filed on July 1, it also will look into that hike as well as the 3 to 10 per cent ones. The railroads had asked for the rate increase to offset inflation and material costs which they said rose $500 million in the past year.

Skeleton is That Of Man Sought By FBI LOVELOCK, NEV. (AP) - More details about the suspected slaying of one of the FBI's most wanted men might be available in the next few days, says Sheriff Daniel Higgins. Higgins said a hole in the steel of a skeleton identical to one that of George Benjamin Williams, 57, indicated foul play, "perhaps murder by gunshot." The skeleton was found Wednesday by the FBI, was found May 20 in a shallow grave near old mining claims northwest of Lovelock, by prospector William Thompson. The bones and teeth were discovered wrapped in several blankets which had been a coil after being dumped in the ground about 40 miles from Lovelock in Northwestern Nevada. The victim's head was sticking out of the ground. He was on his back with one of his legs bent upward. "The body could not be identified until we could find it," Higgins said. "I said Williams might have been hiding in some cabins before he was shot." Higgins said he had found a mattress with possible blood stains on it. "It may be that the man who shot Williams had a gun somewhere," Higgins said, but that case is far from closed. "All that was left was just the bones and the teeth. The teeth were good. That's how I was identified, through dental work he had done on his teeth in Sacramento, Calif.," Higgins said. Higgins said FBI records showed Williams was wanted on a federal warrant from Sacramento charging bank robbery. He was on a list of Mahru County, Ore. The records also show he was convicted of grand larceny, possession of counterfeit money, bank robbery, and attempted escape, the sheriff said. The FBI said he was put on the wanted list in Sacramento on March 16 on a charge that he robbed a bank in Newcastle, Calif.

Jerome Sets Sewer Bond Vote July 30

JEROME—The Jerome City Council has approved a $100,000 general obligation bond issue to be put to the voters July 30 for expansion and improvement of the sewer treatment plant.

If approved, bonds will be put out at interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

Only real property owners will be allowed to vote, and a two-thirds majority will be required to pass.

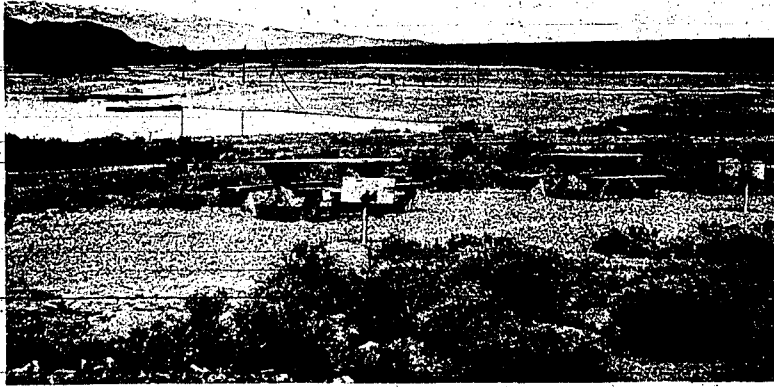

Voting places will be the Pioneer Hall and City Hall. Voters should register or check to see if they are registered at the City Hall.

Councilmen stated that they hope to pay for improvements out of the present sewer charge but the bond issue would give them authority to have a mill levy if it is needed.

Lawrence Harper, executive director, and Rev. Harold Livingston of the Housing Authority met with the council Tuesday night. Rev. Livingston stated that construction of the low-cost housing for the elderly is expected to begin in three weeks. He also stated that they may not need the $18,000 interim loan offered by the government.

Harper stated that the contract had been let to Neliseh Construction Co., Twin Falls, at a rate of $16 per square foot for the dwelling area and $20 per square foot for the non-dwelling area.

Sharon Albertson and K Clark met with the council in behalf of the Kiwanis Club and the clean-up program. It was decided to put a notice in the paper about regulation garbage containers so more garbage would be picked up.

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has opened up a new diplomatic exchange of letters with Premier Aleksei Kosygin of the Soviet Union.

breaking down completely. A second objective is for U.S.-Soviet talks on arms limitations, including the development of new military missiles and the shipment of weapons to the explosive Middle East.

How About Another Transplant?

While Premier Kosygin has a neither accepted nor rejected the President's proposals, the Soviet leader has indicated by his response that a complete halt of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam is needed before he'll discuss the other issues.

One of the chief authors of the President's recent messages to Kosygin is Llewellyn Thompson Jr., the current U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union.

As one high-level administration official puts it: "The public negotiations on Vietnam are being held in Paris for the record. The significant secret talks are being conducted in Moscow."

Although it isn't generally known, Thompson arranged the Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting at Vienna in June 1961, which led to the 1962 Geneva agreement on Laos which the Communists signed but never honored.

For reasons still unexplained, the Russians have been reluctant to talk with State Department officials are pushing to open a consulate in Chicago by mid-August.

Parking Problem

Parking in Twin Falls has been a problem for years and will probably continue to be a problem in many areas for many years to come. This problem is felt most critically around the churches of the city, where the elderly often have to walk blocks before they can attend services.

The City Council is considering at the present time an ordinance that, if approved, will have churches in the area of Shoshone Street North and East. The council wants to remove parking on that street from Sixth Avenue North and East to North Five Points.

Traffic moves in the area at between 25 and 35 miles an hour. The legal limit is 25. Vehicles often pass within inches of each other, and parked cars are in danger constantly from the traffic.

There are also rolls in the pavement which can cause the cars to bang together while on the street. And, going toward Five Points, the lanes are narrow at the intersection of Sixth Avenue North and East. An unwary motorist can wind up a statistic easily.

The city wants to remove the parking and turn the street into a four-lane route with ample room in each lane.

MR. SPECTATOR

Just A Case Of Extension

Mr. Spectator notices in the news columns that Mountain States Telephone Co. officials plan to make another attempt to get subscribers to vote on that telephonic service proposal for Monticello, Idaho.

Not so long ago the ultra modern equipment of the national TV networks were able to predict who would win a certain election even before had the country had completed voting. In fact, it was so obvious that there was a rumor had the people in California didn't bother to go to the polls. What was the use? Their vote wouldn't count.

Which reminds Mr. Spectator that he still longs for the old days when you could sit up a telephone and say, "Hello, it's me Jim" and the operator would do it.

Which brings us to the end of this series of thoughts. And all because seven or eight thousand people didn't want to vote whether they want extended area service or not.

RAY CROMLEY

Don't Sell The Young Short

WASHINGTON — We are not living in a sick society. We are not losing our sense of morality or our belief in law. We are not raising a generation of irresponsibles.

The majority of our young people are sincere, conscientious, believers in God, the rights of other man and in reason. They have faith in their parents and in their own ability to do right.

While a few young men and women are the Adolf Hitler Youth, the vast majority in college are there to get the best education they can. They know their college administrators and their teachers are not perfect. But they know that when they are adults they will not be perfect either.

Recent surveys have shown that, in the majority of cases, student private beliefs in morality and belief in law are as strong as those of their parents and their grandparents. These, of course, are not the students publicly abusing the rights of others.

A student vote at St. A. Ford University censured the student body president for his part in demonstrations which they felt went beyond the point of reason. Groups of students at other universities have organized for their right to go to classes undisturbed.

This reporter teaches two high-charge Sunday School classes. These young people think as calmly and as deeply as young people did 20, 30, and 40 years ago. They have the same belief in democracy, in law, in respect for the rights of those who disagree and in their willingness to obey the vote of the majority as did their parents and grandparents.

This reporter has also worked the last several years with groups of young people who hang around at corner drug stores, with young men who belong to gangs and with some young men who are in the streets. These are not young men and women full of revolutionary change. They are unhappy and troubled. They want a job. They want to get on with their lives. They want to be treated as adults, when their peers aren't watching them. They're like the young man who wrote on the walls of a hotel room, "Catch me and stop me from what I am doing," or words to that effect.

Most of the young people this reporter has met, and most of the adults, wherever they came from, have some high ideals. They are not the kind of people who are the result of two world wars and Korea. If you don't believe this, get a general Democratic victory. It is already well established that they will not get this year move in a body or even in large numbers to either of the late Senator Kennedy's staff members, Humphrey or Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

It is hardly sufficient to argue that, because he scored some points on the free press trail, this demonstrates that professionalism is not needed. The fact is that McCarthy lost the election of the eight primaries he entered.

The crucial and quite painful fact is that neither Humphrey nor McCarthy has shown any ability to attract new voters beyond "company" voters. The Humphrey camp is somewhat better off in that respect. It appears to have about him some lingering air of insecurity. He cannot forget his "run" from McCarthy's "run" beyond. It is possible, therefore, that men of eminent confidence are not drawn to him.

JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. Liver Treatment

Dear Dr. Molner: You mentioned the effect of alcohol on the liver, and also diet and medication. Please give a list of foods that are generally bad for the liver, for those whose liver problems were not caused by alcohol.

The term itself—cirrhosis—implies that, from whatever cause, the liver is hardened and filled with scar tissue. The liver has great powers of regeneration, if given a chance. This means correct diet, which we will discuss in a moment. Please give me anything that is poisonous. Alcohol ranks at the top of the list. The patient with cirrhosis must not touch alcohol.

Indeed, an average healthy diet is about the best way to put it. That means a good supply of protein and of carbohydrates. For some patients, fats may be limited since cellular changes in the damaged liver involve the accumulation of fat.

There was a day when very strict diets were used for cirrhosis, but experience shows that they were neither necessary nor of any real help, so today a well-balanced diet is used. As to the amount of activity for a cirrhosis patient, it depends on the individual's condition. The cirrhosis patient often tends to have a lack of appetite. A poor reserve of strength. Activity, for such a person, should be limited in whatever degree a patient has a little strength. Within that limit, there ordinarily is no reason for enforced inactivity.

HAL BOYLE That Rainy Day

NEW YORK (AP) — No one quite knows what to do on a rainy day. It seems to have loose ends. Children feel wistful and unimpressed. So, for grownups, if the truth be told, it's a day to do nothing. One of the ways to fill time on a rainy day is to take pen and paper and make a list of things you don't have done in life but haven't.

BRIAN BOSSAT Great Waste Of Human Resource

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Unhappy for the nation, there is no law in politics which assures the conservation of such superior manpower as had been recently lost in the presidential election of the late Robert F. Kennedy.

Together they comprised one of the brightest galaxies of talent and driving energy ever assembled in politics. At the moment of the senator's triumph in the California primary, they were ready to join in a powerful combination. They palmed a bill of staggering proportions for convention delegates in the assembly states.

Yet, when the funeral train from New York reached here on June 8, this extraordinary group of men and women began to scatter to the four winds—back to businesses, law offices, government work and lesser political endeavors. The result is incredibly low. Some of the key names are familiar and some are not: Theodore Sorensen and his wife, Phyllis; Philip and Thomas; Frederick Dutton, Lawrence O'Brien, Kenneth O'Connell, Frank Mauer, Alexander D'Amico, David Buckley, John P. Wilson, William Hayden Heister, Fred Salinger, John Seligenthal, John Durr, the able top staff men with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

NEW YORK (AP) — No one quite knows what to do on a rainy day. It seems to have loose ends. Children feel wistful and unimpressed. So, for grownups, if the truth be told, it's a day to do nothing. One of the ways to fill time on a rainy day is to take pen and paper and make a list of things you don't have done in life but haven't.

Indeed, an average healthy diet is about the best way to put it. That means a good supply of protein and of carbohydrates. For some patients, fats may be limited since cellular changes in the damaged liver involve the accumulation of fat.

There was a day when very strict diets were used for cirrhosis, but experience shows that they were neither necessary nor of any real help, so today a well-balanced diet is used. As to the amount of activity for a cirrhosis patient, it depends on the individual's condition. The cirrhosis patient often tends to have a lack of appetite. A poor reserve of strength. Activity, for such a person, should be limited in whatever degree a patient has a little strength. Within that limit, there ordinarily is no reason for enforced inactivity.

Improvement Plans Eyed On Rupert Civic Building

By LIZ BOLTON
Times-News Correspondent

RUPERT — The Rupert City Council may be moving toward a solution to the city's civic building situation after months of research and investigation, according to Rupert Mayor Wendell Johnson.

Mayor Johnson, who with the council discussed the matter again during the council meeting Tuesday night in Rupert, said the matter has been under study for the past year and a half.

Two plans for relieving the crowded and adverse conditions at the present building were presented earlier this week by the city engineer, Ron Kiebe.

One plan called for the remodeling of the present building, which would entail an addition of about 1,800 square feet, divided with a 572 square foot addition on the south side and the rest on the north. The initial estimate for the cost of the remodeling was about $45,000.

The other plan proposed the construction of a separate building, to be placed on a site not yet determined. The building would be constructed to civil defense standards, cover about 4,000 square feet of ground, and cost an estimated $88,000, according to Architect Clarence Smith.

Earlier this month, the council met with the Minidoka County commissioners and asked them to contribute $10,000 toward the cost of a new building, but were turned down. According to Larry Duff, prosecuting attorney, the county could not participate in the expense without a bond election.

The council had hoped that the country would provide $10,000, the federal government $32,000, and the city $45,000 toward the cost of construction of the new buildings which would include civil defense headquarters.

Mayor Johnson said that Minidoka County is one of the seven priority counties left, but that unless definite decisions to include civil defense in the building were submitted before July 1, no federal funds would be available.

According to Mr. Kiebe, the present civic building does not have adequate square footage to accommodate a civil defense headquarters, and the city does not have the money to build the new building without the county's aid.

Therefore, according to Mayor Johnson, the council is now re-studying plans for the remodeling of the civic building and has instructed the architect to submit the construction figures again to be investigated further. Whether or not to abandon the plan of building a new civic building has not definitely been decided by the council, although Mayor Johnson said it has pretty well ruled out.

Also during Tuesday's council meeting, the council voted to study situations of bankruptcy among city employees to get an understanding and insight into the causes of the situation before determining whether or not to discharge the employee.

Rupert City Police Chief Ed Calver was instructed by the council to patrol the Grandview Addition and to enforce all laws and ordinances in that part of the city, despite the fact a group in the newly annexed addition is protesting the annexation and their case waits to be heard in court.

Casualties In War Down Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — Allied and enemy combat casualties dropped last week, the U. S. and South Vietnamese commanders reported today, but the total number of Americans killed in the Vietnam war passed 25,000.

U. S. headquarters said 324 Americans were killed in the week ending last Saturday, 56 less than the previous week and the lowest count since 302 were killed in the week ending April 27.

The headquarters said 2,325 Americans were wounded last week, compared with 2,739 in the previous week. Of the total last week, 1,247 required hospitalization.

The U. S. Command reported 1,613 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed last week, or about half as many as the 3,176 enemy soldiers reported killed in the previous week.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 286 government troops killed and 1,189 wounded last week, compared with 392 killed and 1,156 wounded a week earlier.

U.S. Proposes Probe Of Pueblo Action

SEOUL (AP) — A South Korean news agency said today that the United States has proposed to North Korea that the Pueblo crew be turned over to neutral nations for an investigation to determine whether they violated North Korean waters.

The Dongwha news agency quoted diplomatic sources as saying that the United States wants the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission in Korea to conduct the investigation.

U. S. authorities would not confirm the report, in Washington, State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said on Wednesday that the United States made "certain proposals" to North Korea concerning the captured intelligence ship and her crew on May 28, but so far North Korea has not responded.

The Dongwha report said the United States also told North Korea it would express "regrets" to the Communist government if the investigation by neutral nations proved that the Pueblo violated North Korean waters.

The Pueblo was seized Jan. 23

Lightning Storms Blamed For Fires

By The Associated Press

Lightning storms in Southwest and Central Idaho mountains caused numerous lightning fires Wednesday. Most fires were small and the only damage reported was to grazing land.

Rain snuffed out a 5.8 acre fire within sight of a Boise suburb. The largest blaze covered about 700 acres.

Because of wet conditions, fire crews were able to ignore spot fires in high mountain areas.

If you plant it— or feed it, GLOBE SEED WILL HAVE IT!

Grange To Meet

KING HILL—King Hill Grange members will meet at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at the hall.

Mrs. Joel Young, home economics chairman, asks all members to bring their drawings for the design for the Grange booth that will be displayed at the more County Fair in August.

Firemen Called

SHOSHONE — The Shoshone City Volunteer fire department answered a call at five minutes before noon Monday when smoke began coming out from behind the sink area of the cupboard in the home of Mrs. Vera Clifford. This is the former residence of the late L. J. Mott.

The blaze was found to be caused from wiring on the kitchen stove and was extinguished without damage to the property.

Surcharge Has Safe Margin

By EDMOND LIBRETION
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's 10 per cent income tax surcharge appears to have a safe but not overwhelming margin for passage as it comes before the House for a vote after a year of controversy and delay.

The Senate, anticipating House approval today, has scheduled its own vote Friday. If the anticipated vote is followed, everyone in the country who now has federal income tax deducted from his paycheck will find the tax bite 10 per cent bigger in about three weeks.

That means a worker now having $50 per week withheld for income tax would have $55 withheld until next June and possibly longer.

Tied to the increase in taxes is a mandatory $6-billion cut in government spending in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Johnson fought the spending cut as excessive. But he finally agreed to the measure because of what he called the overriding need for more revenues. In 1968, he estimated at $24 billion to $31 billion check inflation and bolster the dollar internationally.

The Senate already has voted for a similar package, but must consider the final version. For individuals, the effective tax increase this year is 10 per cent of their total tax bill, because for them the surcharge is retroactive to April 1. For corporations, it covers the full year 1968.

As the bill is written, the surcharge will expire June 30, 1969, but its principal architect, Rep. Wilbur Mills, Democratic chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has already raised the possibility of an extension if the nation cannot put its financial house in order by then.

Besides the income tax surcharge, the bill contains the excise tax on automobiles at 7 per cent and on telephone service at 10 per cent. Under the old law, the combined effect of the changes is estimated at a $15.2 billion revenue increase for the next fiscal year.

Cenarrusa Opposes Restriction

SANDPOINT, Idaho (AP)—Secretary of State Pete T. Cenarrusa says the name of George Wallace should be placed before Idaho voters this fall — if only as a matter of principle.

Cenarrusa says he's opposed to restricting the state's ballot to only two parties. A district judge has ruled that parties have the right to offer candidates in Idaho, but said Wallace's American Independent Party would not have time to complete required nominating procedures this year.

The case has been appealed to the State Supreme Court. Cenarrusa was in Sandpoint to address the convention of the Idaho Association of County Auditors.

The secretary of state conceded in an interview that "rules governing Wallace's attempt to get on the ballot are the same faced by candidates of major parties."

Poor People's Campaign Leaders Claim Great Success With March

By AUSTIN SCOTT
WASHINGTON (AP)—By the standards of the men who planned it, the 1968 march on Washington was a triumph. It showed support for the Poor People's Campaign which began Wednesday's march, in which to organize "Solidarity Day," leaders Wednesday brought out an outpouring of black and white Americans, estimated by Washington police at 50,000, to surge around the foot of the Lincoln Memorial.

The crowd stood in the sunshine and heard campaign chief the Rev. Ralph David Abernethy vow to keep Resurrection City, the Shantytown set up to house the Poor People demonstrators, in Washington with or without the government permission that expires Sunday night.

"Some of you may go home," Abernethy roared to the approval of the crowd, "but the rest of you are staying here, ready to go to jail."

The marchers, 10,000 more than campaign leader's predicted, representing all ages, races and creeds, were orderly and peaceful. There proved to be no need for most of the 4,300 police and National Guardsmen detailed throughout the city.

It was the second time in five years that tens of thousands of Americans marched on the nation's capital to back up demands that the government and what they considered a fundamental injustice.

In 1965, when the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. made his famous "I have a dream" speech, the issue was segregation. In the three months of planning brought 200,000 people to stand along the banks of the Lincoln Memorial Reflecting Pool.

Wednesday the issue was different—an end to poverty—and the difference was heard in the tone of the speeches, many by the thousands of men who shouted their approval to a plea, Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., widow of the man who conceived Wednesday's march, to end the Vietnam fighting, "the most brutal and evil war in history," and pour its costs into the war against poverty.

The demonstrators carried hundreds upon hundreds of signs: "UAW Supports Bold Action to Abolish Poverty in this Land of Plenty," "A Decent Job at Decent Pay," "Full Employment and Guaranteed Annual Income," "We March with John, Bobby—and Martin for a Dream."

The weather was warm and dry as the thousands of marchers who had begun gathering on the broad lawns of the Washington Monument as early as 8 a.m. began the half-mile trek past the Reflecting Pool, and alongside the weatherbeaten shanties of Resurrection City.

Spirits were high, and young and old were in a holiday mood as they carried banners, babies and picnic baskets to pack the hot, sunny plaza directly in front of the impressive white monument.

"The mood of the crowd is different," said Dolores Williams of New York, who was at the 1963 march. "It's lighter, less serious."

More than a dozen dignitaries and representatives of the poor paraded before the speaker's platform, but the crowd reserved its greatest applause for Mrs. King—who told them that Tuesday would have been her 15th wedding anniversary.

They cheered Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, but booed Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, as they carried banners, babies and picnic baskets to pack the hot, sunny plaza directly in front of the impressive white monument.

When they were introduced from the platform.

Realtors And Local Officials View Housing Ruling Calmly

By The Associated Press
Most real estate men and local officials pulled on the potential effects of the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling this week barring racial discrimination in all housing are approaching the question with studied calm.

Many expressed confusion over how the decision will be implemented and how it will affect local and state laws on open housing.

Typical reaction from realtors was the comment of Frank R. Hart, president of Walker and Lee, a residential broker-firm in Orange County, Calif.

"We sell minority people at this rate of Real Estate Boards," he said, "president of the National Association of Realtors said the Supreme court decision... whether a seller can be forced to sign a deed—even holding—that an 1866 law against his own wishes is getting discrimination in all housing... makes any further open housing legislation unnecessary."

And C. D. Lebey, a director of the Atlanta Real Estate Board, summed up the feeling of many, the California Real Estate Association, said he did not believe more factors in the ruling "will have any effect on association members in their concern and perhaps misund... day-to-day operation of their home sellers and home buyers."

Jack Kleeman, executive vice president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, said he felt it was "difficult to make a judgment" at this time.

Johnson Signs Bill For New 'Paper Gold'
By The Associated Press WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed a bill giving U.S. approval to a new international paper gold reserve currency intended to relieve some of the strain on the dollar.

For the first time in the world's financial history, Johnson said Wednesday, nations will be able to create international reserves by deliberate joint decision—and in amounts needed to support sound growth in world trade and payments.

The drawing rights on the international "paper gold" reserves could ultimately reduce the demand for gold and dollars as a medium of exchange in the steadily-expanding world economy.

Officials have said the reserves would help functioning of the international two-market system for gold set up earlier this year after speculative raids on the dollar and a rush of gold buying.

The bill Johnson signed authorizes U.S. officials to vote for a charter amendment to the International Monetary Fund providing for the new reserves, a sort of currency for use among central banks in the world.

Resolutions were discussed. Two resolutions were adopted and others were tabled until the meeting of the resolutions committee.

Action was taken to sponsor a Junior Grange. Election of officers and installation will take place at the June 29 meeting. All interested youth between the ages of 5 and 14 years are invited to attend. Mrs. Fra Weiser, Gooding, will be in charge.

Soviets Changing Propaganda Tactics Against United States

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviets have stopped doing a free propaganda job for the United States.

Kremlin leaders are no longer reminding their people that U.S. industry is the biggest and best, the U.S. standard of living higher than almost anyone else's.

Instead, Soviet propaganda concentrates on trying to depict things in the United States as awful. It seeks to destroy the image of a prosperous, successful country.

The deaths of Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy have served this propaganda well. But it goes deeper, into details of good things about American life.

For decades the heading Soviet-drive-for-economic-progress in this underdeveloped country was spurred by comparisons with the U.S. economy. Russians continually were told that they must catch up with the United States.

The inevitable result was to create an image in Soviet minds of America as an economic ideal, a place where the good life really existed rather than just being a promise slowly fulfilled.

Joseph V. Stalin began this use of U.S. examples when he was using dictatorial methods for Soviet industrialization in the 1930s. He brought in experts from the Ford Motor Co. and other Americans to show how things were done in the United States, and he hoped the peasants who built new industrial towns would imitate U.S. techniques.

Nikita S. Khrushchev inherited them when he became the top-Soviet leader in the 1950s. He made it more explicit by talking often of U.S. examples and setting goals to surpass U.S. production.

The United States is agriculturally rich and it grows more corn than the Soviet Union, so we must grow more corn, Khrushchev said. He promised greater milk and meat output per person than the United States. He prodded industry to catch up.

"In the current decade the Soviet Union, in creating the material and technical basis of communism, will surpass the strongest and richest capitalist country, the U.S.A., in production per head of the population," said the Communist party program issued in 1961 under Khrushchev's guidance.

In theory, that party program still stands. But the theory is allowed to exist only because it would be embarrassing to admit what everyone knows: Much of the program has been quietly abandoned.

"The task set by the party," Leonid I. Brezhnev said after Occasionally there is mention these days of such claims as that Soviet coal production exceeds U.S. output. On most things the Soviet Union cannot within the foreseeable future catch up.

The old tendency to compare seems to have been brought under a control which avoids backhanded praise of the United States. Instead, Soviet propagandists seize upon all the ills of U.S. society, whether poverty or violence. They depict the illnesses as the reality.

Second Paul Farm Festival Set Friday

PAUL — The second annual Paul Community Farm Festival is expected to be the biggest and most successful event in the city's history.

The event is spearheaded by about 50 Paul merchants with assistance of each club, organization and church in the community. Members of the West End Fire department even will participate.

Fifty-three prizes totaling over $1,000 will be presented by business establishments. J. A. Boyer, chamber president in charge of the event, said this is the way selected by chamber members to express appreciation to the public for supporting Paul businesses.

John Clark and sons, Oakley, are in charge of barbecuing and serving 900 pounds of beef, expected to feed between 1,500 and 2,000 persons at the shopping center parking lot. The fire in the pit will be lighted at 5 p.m. Thursday and the meat put on the coals at about 11 p.m. Apple wood from the former Watson orchard has been prepared for burning.

The local N.F.O. has constructed pens and corrals in the Bauer pasture west of the bank and will conduct a pig scramble with 20 greatest pigs. Specialty acts will be held for entertainment and dancing to live music will follow the feed. A pole climbing event is scheduled for cash prizes and several booths will be operated by organizations.

Bill Whitton, of radio station KAYT, will donate his time as announcer.

Tax Payments Pouring In To Beat Deadline

IF YOU THINK your tax bill is high—talk to Earl Haroldson, Idaho Power Co. division manager. Here Mr. Haroldson presents the second half of the 1967 tax payment in Twin Falls county to Ruth K. Jones, Twin Falls County treasurer. The check is in the amount of $257,265. For the entire year the power company, largest taxpayer in the county, pays $514,530. During the past year the company's entire Idaho property tax bill climbed to more than $5 million, showing an increase of $415,930 over 1966.

Tax payments were pouring into the Twin Falls County treasurer's office Tuesday, final day for payment without penalties.

Ruth Jones, treasurer, said there were more last-minute payments this year than for some time.

Among payments made during the second half were those of Idaho Power Co. and the Union Pacific Railroad that boosted local receipts by a total of more than $300,000.

Idaho Power Co. presented Mrs. Jones with a check for $257,265 as the county's share of the second half payment on Idaho Power Co. property in Idaho.

The firm paid second-half installments in 27 counties with the complete 1967 payment of Idaho Power taxes in the state amounting to $5.3 million and the second half representing $3.5 million. Twin Falls county has received $514,530 for the entire year from Idaho Power Co. Union Pacific Railroad officials also noticed a tax increase over the past year.

Bryant, general-land and tax agent, Salt Lake City, made the payment for Union Pacific amounting to $30,061. That firm's total bill for the year is $160,122 of which $102,667 will go to school districts.

Mr. Bryant said the Union Pacific payroll and taxes contribute more than $30 million annually to Idaho economy, including its share of Pacific Fruit Express Co. taxes; the railroad's total tax in Idaho came to almost $4 million for 1967.

Pilots Must Serve 1 Year In Vietnam

AP Military Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force said today that all pilots flying combat runs against North Vietnam will have to serve a full 12 months of duty, rather than leaving as soon as they complete 100 missions.

An Air Force spokesman said the action was taken to eliminate inequities between pilots who fly missions against North Vietnam and those who operate against targets only in South Vietnam.

Under the old system, the Air Force said, "some aircrew members were allowed to return from Southeast Asia upon completion of 100 combat missions over North Vietnam."

"Most pilots were able to do this in about 10 months," the Air Force said, "but there have been flyers who finished their duty in as little as eight months; obvious that extending the tours would slow up personnel rotation and thus relieve the pressure to provide replacements.

The old system allowing pilots to leave the war zone after 100 missions regardless of time was time for most U.S. troops in the set up because trying against war, regardless of the number of missions, which sometimes mounted to 300.

Eden Woman Places 10th In Contest

ONANCOCK, Va. — Although the men stole the spotlight from the women in the National Chicken Cooking Contest recently, an Eden woman came through placing 10th in the national competition.

The men carried away the top four places in the outdoor barbecue division, a featured event of the 21st annual Delmarva Chicken Festival held in Onancock.

Mrs. Elmer W. (Karen) Ehlers, Eden, placed 10th with her "Peachy-Que Chick" recipe, and she will receive two whole fryer chickens each week for a year from her local OGA store.

Thirty-six states were represented in the contest, with Richard William, Woodcliff, N. J., named new champion of the barbecues. His recipe, called "Younger Chicken," is cooked with soy sauce, orange marmalade and honey marinade.

"Keeping the cooking simple, and letting the chicken flavor come through," were determining factors in the close competition, the panel of nine judges reported.

- YANGTZE CHICKEN
2 Delmarval chickens, whole
soak chickens overnight in the following sauce:
1 cup soy sauce
1 cup tomato catsup
1 cup water
1 cup orange marmalade.
4 tablespoons honey
Tie chickens securely with wings in and legs together. Place on charcoal broiler rotisserie and season with forked holders. Broil on rotisserie for approximately 1 hour, basting frequently with marinade. Serves six to eight.
- PEACHY-QUE CHICK
1 2 1/2 pound fryer (whole)
1/2 cup melted butter
1 1/2 tablespoons Chicken Barbecue mixture (in a package in most stores) Combined with
2 teaspoons salt

WITH HER CHICKEN RECIPE, "Peachy-Que Chick," Mrs. Elmer W. (Karen) Ehlers, Eden, placed 10th in the recent National Delmarva Chicken Festival contest held in Onancock, Va. Thirty-six states were represented in the contest, with men taking the top four honors.

Designer Introduces Styles For All Non-Conformists

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—The designer who bypasses fads and designs for the fashion individualist will be a favorite with the woman who wants clothes that will enhance her special type.

This kind of fashion was created by Jeannene Booher in her summer collection for Claret.

She has interpreted the "girl chic" that new fashion heroine, in twirling pleats, supple creases and demure prints. You don't have to climb into all-over ruffles and bows unless you want them.

Proportion is beautifully balanced in the newest summer silhouettes. Stretched-out pull-overs have mini or flip skirts. Short, animated skirts flirt below long, lean jackets and spare dresses are balanced with oversized puff sleeves.

Jeannene believes the youth quake is over and that the "Peachy-Que" has crashed the age barrier. Now in their 20s and 30s, they have got up their own, new young fashion estab-

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY:—Our daughter Lisa is 17, and if I have to say so myself she is a very beautiful girl. She was invited to a formal country club party by a 21-year-old fellow who comes from one of the best families. He asked her if she could stay all night at his home as Lisa would probably be a late evening and it would save him a lot of driving. (They live in one of those big homes on a nearby lake.)

I told Lisa to tell him, no, that we want her to come home to sleep no matter how late the party lasts.

This morning I got a call from this young fellow's mother, urging me to let Lisa stay at her home all night. Abby, I have never met this woman. She is high society and she may be very nice, but just because people have money doesn't always mean they're nice. Anyway, I told her I was sorry, but I wanted Lisa home. Now Lisa says I'm square. Am I?

DEAR MOM: If you are "square," I want to be in all four of your corners.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are middle-aged and we're watching our weights. We do all right at home, but our troubles begin when we're guests in someone's home. (I don't mean for dinner, I mean those late midnight "snacks" after

Janis Schmidt, Hitt Exchange Nuptial Vows

DECLLO—Janis Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray G. Schmidt, became the bride of Dennis C. (Butch) Hitt, son of Mr. John C. Hitt, Burley, and the late Mrs. Fern Hitt, in rites May 25 at the Declo Ward LDS Chapel.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Joseph Preston before a background setting of baskets of white carnations and daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length A-line gown, an original fashioned of white linen with embroidered lace scallops bordering the hemline. The rounded neckline, elbow-length sleeves and chapel train were enhanced with embroidered scallops. Her elbow-length veil of nylon tulle was held by a pearl-studded tiara. She wore pearl earrings given to her by the bridegroom.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white carnations and daisies tied with white satin streamers.

Edith Matthews, White, served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Nan Darrington, Declo, and Dorothy Powell, Twin Falls.

Serving as best man was Tom Hitt, brother of the bridegroom. He was accompanied by Asher and Joe Schmidt, brother of the bride.

Edna Wardle, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Lynn Swan and Elsie Garrard as they sang.

Mrs. Wardle also played background organ music during the reception, which followed immediately after the ceremony in the cultural hall.

The bridal party greeted guests before a white backdrop flanked with pedestal baskets of white carnations and daisies. Guests were registered by Janet Asher.

The bride's table, covered with a white lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered white wedding cake topped with pearl-studded wedding bells, with a heart-shaped cake on either side. Arranged on a mirror, the cakes were baked and decorated by Mrs. Austin Walker and featured yellow roses and white swans, complementing the table decor. A china swan figurine belonging to the bride's grandmother.

Guests were served at quarter tables covered with white and white sereno cloths and centered with crystal saltiers containing floating white daisies.

Assisting in the serving were Sharon Hatch, Gloria Hitt, Dora Elquist, Carol Oliver, Alene Ramsey, Gale Dean and Joyce Engleman.

In charge of the gift table were Linda LaMot, Boise, La Verne McKinstry and Charlotte Wickel.
