Surcharge Bill Passed By Senate, Sent To LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed and sent to President Johnson today the long-debated bill adding a 10 percent surcharge to individual and corporation income taxes and ordering a $5 billion federal spending cut.

The increase, to go into effect July 1, 1969, the freeze provision on federal matching for aid to families with dependent children included in the 1967 Social Security Act.

Under this provision, the federal government would have limited its aid to the same proportion of a state's children which that state had on the welfare rolls in the first three months of 1968.

The measure also includes a variety of other provisions retained by Senate-House conferees out of a wide-ranging series of riders tacked onto the legislation in the Senate.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Tex., of the Ways and Means Committee told the House Thursday passage of the bill was essential to meet the gravest fiscal situation the United States has faced since World War II.

Chief Justice Warren Is Retiring From High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren is leaving the Supreme Court to leave his post in 1971, to notify the president of his desires. It normally would be up to the president to announce the retirement.

Warren said on his 75th birthday two years ago he thought there should be compulsory retirement for all public officials but did not specify what age he believed that the strength of our system in this country depends on the infusion of new blood into our institutions.

Warren's salary is $40,000 a year. Usual procedure for a Supreme Court justice is to serve on the court until he is 70, to leave his post in 1971, to notify the president of his desires.

Warren was trained in law at the University of California but never sat as a judge until, at age 32, he was picked to be the nation's highest jurist. He was no stranger to courtrooms, however, having laid the foundation for a political career with serving as a racket-busting district attorney and attorney general.

Radar Signal Misreadings May Have Caused Erroneous Reports

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. sources indicated today that misreading of radar signals may have caused erroneous reports of enemy aircraft sightings in the demilitarized zone and triggered mistaken American attacks on allied warships in the South China Sea.

The sources said it was "highly probable" that American planes and artillery fired last weekend on allied ships, which radar scope operators mistook for low-flying helicopters. A U.S. patrol boat was sunk and an Australian destroyer got 200 holes from American missiles.

GOP Vice Presidential Hopefuls Are Moving Into Richard Nixon's Camp

By CARL P. LUESDORF
WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican vice presidential hopefuls are moving into the camp of from-running GOP presidential contender Richard M. Nixon.

Earlier, fellow freshman Sen. Edward H. Brooke Jr. of Tennessee had abandoned his "favorite son" status and lined up his state's 25-vote delegation with Nixon.

Although Hatfield delivered the final blow to Nixon in 1966, some reporters at a news conference Thursday indicated surprise at his endorsement of the former vice president as a firm defender of the U.S. stand in Vietnam.

South Africa To Resume Gold Shipping

CAPE TOWN (AP) — Finance Minister Nicolaas Diederichs announced today that South Africa will resume gold shipments abroad.

He said in a press statement that the government has agreed to make available 10 million gold ounces to the International Monetary Fund for France, and $23 million to the fund for Britain, resulting in a fall in South African gold reserves held outside the country. The reserves will have to be replenished through resumed gold shipments, the minister said.

Diederichs gave no indication how or when his government would resume overseas selling of its newly mined gold, about 75 per cent of the non-Communist world's output.

South Africa reserved the right to act after announcement of the two-tier price system for gold, Diederichs said. Formerly, the two-tier system was a temporary gimmick and applied for an increase in the price of gold, resulting in a fall in the realistic solution to international monetary problems.

South Africa's gold and foreign exchange reserves are at record high, and it has no immediate need to sell gold for foreign exchange, but gold coming in the back of the South African exports normally and cannot be stockpiled forever.

Hijacked Airliner Back In Caracas

CARACAS (AP) — A Venezuelan airliner with 79 persons aboard landed in Caracas today 22 hours late. It had been hijacked by two renegade winged Dominican and forced to fly to Cuba.

The pilot, Capt. Harry Gibson, said 74 other passengers; five crew members were well treated during their unexpected stay Thursday in Santiago, eastern Cuba, he said.

Jacker, identified only as a young Dominican, presumably was given asylum in Cuba.

Four U.S. citizens were among the passengers: Army Col. Henry Joslin, chief of the U.S. Military Assistance Group in the Dominican Republic; his wife, Wandis; William Taylor of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co., and Russell Edgerton, who was not otherwise identified.

Gibson said the hijacker entered the cockpit 20 minutes after the plane was scheduled to take off from Puerto Domingo for Caracas and Caracas.

"He had a grenade in his hand," said the 31-year-old pilot. "I told us to fly to Havana, but I explained we did not have enough fuel for this and had to land in Santiago."

He said the hijacker did not object.

Gas Pumps, Tractor Burn After Crash

PAUL — Larry Cotton, 22, Rupert, escaped injury about 3 p.m. Wednesday when the tractor he was driving, burst into flames after it struck a gasoline pump at a large station.

A spokesman for the Amal tractor and engine Co., owners of the tractor and employee of Mr. Cotton, said he had driven the tractor to the station to get some propane gas.

The driver apparently lost control after he had started the tractor on the station island and immediately burst into flames, causing both pumps and damaging the front portion of the tractor.

Larry Chambers, owner of the station, shut off the main valve on the large storage tanks to stop the gasoline flow, and his wife summoned the West End Fire department, who prevented the fire from spreading to the office and other areas.

Mrs. Chambers said she was in the house, located about 100 feet from the station, and heard a loud "snap." She looked out her window and saw the tractor engulfed in flames and Mr. Cotton jumping out.

A delivery truck and another car were at the station, but were removed by their owners and were not damaged.

Mrs. Chambers was unable to estimate damage to the station but damage to the tractor was estimated at $150.

Job Orders Needed For Area Youths

"We need many more job orders, especially for older girls," said C. W. Parenteau, assistant manager of the Twin Falls Employment Office, in a recent interview.

"Many of these girls have had clerical training or are just as willing to do yardwork as the boys."

"Right now we need young men, especially those with some experience, to register for hay-baling. We've had several calls for them in the last couple of weeks," said Kleinkopf.

Prospective employers with any type of job, full-time or part-time or full-time work should call the Employment Office, which in turn will find a suitable young employee.

Glenn Simmons, superintendent of the Bureau of Reclamation, Idaho Falls, said it will be unlikely that more water will be turned over the falls this season. He said "the only reason it had been turned over Saturday, is because the falls Sunday, which heavy rains in the upper Snake River Basin had made it necessary to do so."

M.D. Degree Awarded To Jerome Man

Capl. David W. Becker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Becker of Route 1, Jerome, has been graduated from the University of Washington School of Medicine with an M. D. degree.

The doctor studied under the Air Force Institute of Technology program which provided selected Air Force members resident training in scientific, engineering and other fields at civilian institutions and industrial organizations.

Dr. Becker will serve his internship at David Grant Hospital, Travis Air Force Base, Calif.

A 1960 graduate of Jerome High School, he received a B.S. degree in 1963 from the College of Idaho and also studied at Washington State University.

Idaho Senator Requests New Apportioning

SANDPOINT, Idaho (AP) — A state legislator says Idaho must be reapportioned politically once again to replace county political units with district committees.

State Sen. Arthur P. Murphy, D-Mullan, said that is the remedy for what he called a "constitutional failure to meet the Supreme Court's one-man-one-vote ruling."

Murphy spoke Thursday at the annual convention of County Auditors in Sandpoint.

He said Idaho's present apportionment "which includes both county and district units, violates reapportionment and creates confusion and duplication."

Murphy said political committee units should be made subordinate to committees in legislative districts.

The auditors also heard from Max East, executive director of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho. He said Idaho is heading for a budget it cannot afford.

Yost predicted a budget of more than $200 million for the next biennium. "The money simply is not available," Yost said.

News Specialist Team Joins Editorial Page Of Times-News To Report Events

Rowland Evans and Robert Novak, called by Newsweek the "hottest political reporting team since the Astor brothers split up" have joined the editorial page of the Times-News.

These two writers consistently get more scoops than any other writing in Washington and they are preeminent reporters.

Since the column's first appearance in the New York Herald-Tribune in May, 1962, these two young reporters (both under 40) have moved to the forefront of the ever-increasing pack of Washington columnists because of their ability to dig out the news and get it into their column first.

Time and time again their column finds its way from the editorial page to page one of the more than 100 major newspapers in which it appears throughout the country.

The fact that they are a two-some gives these writers a distinct advantage over other writers. Obviously, they can be in two places at once.

It is not unusual for one to be touring the country or even out of the country on some fact-finding mission, while the other covers the home base in Washington.

But they are never out of touch. All columns are the products of both minds. When apart they read their columns to one another over the long-distance telephone. When together they are tough critics of each other's copy.

Rowland Evans, Jr., has covered the Washington political scene for more than 20 years, starting just after World War I at the Associated Press Washington bureau. He was assigned to cover the U. S. Senate in 1953 for AP and two years later he switched to the Washington bureau of the New York Herald-Tribune.

During this time his circle of friends and contacts among the decision-makers of Capitol's new channels has continued to widen, come Democratic or Republican administrations.

A good friend of the late President Kennedy, Mr. Evans is nonetheless at ease with the Dirksen and Goldwater and with President Johnson, whom BERLIN—This time it will be much different," said the West German student leader. "This time there will be no burning of synagogues, but we'll burn everything else—polic stations, newspaper offices, banks."

What he was saying, in effect, was that the student rebels under the titular and probably temporary leadership of "Red Rudi" Dutschke is anti everything but Semitism. Probably the Jews are exempt because there are now so few of them in Germany—less than 40,000 by latest estimates—and thus not

The student leaders' promise to what they call the "New Future": control of the administration of factories, for example, and the equitable distribution of goods. It is the fact that this is part of their manifesto which calls for the destruction of all bureaucracies—well, that's showbiz. At any rate, the students have come to the workers listening to them.

Gun Lovers On The Defensive

WASHINGTON—Wallaby Cartridge, the president of the National Gun Lovers of America and Big Game and Parkman, the other day when I saw him in a restaurant spoon-feeding an Old Fashioned into the mouth of a U-J. senator.

While ever German government officials have admitted that the students now form the only effective opposition "party" in the new democratic Germany, Dutschke and Co. accept the fact of life that requires them to find allies.

The Red Leaders

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Fidel Castro, dictator of Cuba; Lin Biao, Premier of China; Chou En-lai of Red China; Kim Il Sung, dictator of North Korea; and Pham Van Dong, Ho Chi Minh's spokesman in North Vietnam, all had their start in student-teacher riots.

On Gun Control

You hear all sorts of arguments for and against gun control legislation, mostly against in this area, but one fact stands out loud and clear. Nobody yet, even the staunchest proponents, has been able to come up with any sort of guarantee, or even very much hope—that gun controls would accomplish the job they want done.

Lutheran Church Elects New Head For National Council

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Robert J. Marshall of Chicago was elected president of the Lutheran Church in America Thursday night, succeeding Dr. Franklin C. Fry who died two weeks ago.

The more than 700 delegates attending the fourth biennial convention of the LCA chose Marshall over 63 nominees, all pastors in the Lutheran Church which has 3.2 million members.

On the third and last ballot, limited to the top four contenders, the Rev. Dr. Carl Segerhammer of Los Angeles, the president of the Pacific Southwest Synod, received 77 votes, second highest in the election.

Third contender on the last ballot was the Rev. Dr. Samuel E. Kidd of Philadelphia, president of the Eastern Pennsylvania Synod who received 64.

Fourth was the Rev. Dr. Harold Hays of Staten Island, N. Y., dean of Wagner College, with 50.

WHAT'S THE SECRET?

Human Interest That Moves Into Action Fast.

BETTER GET YOUR AD IN and see for yourself. But, stay handy to the phone. There's nothing like a Times-News Want Ad to ring the bell.

Thinking people often question God because of sickness and suffering. But, the world is suffering. We are suffering. We are making our blood run cold with blasphemous accusations that God surely has forsaken us when He made a world like this.

David said, "It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I might learn thy statutes." (Psalm 119:71) Valuable lessons are learned in the school of suffering. As pain cannot be polished without friction, neither can man be perfected without adversity or suffering.

Suffering is often God's barbed wire across your road, so that He may bring into your life something better. In the world, some are enriched more by the suffering of the people than by the wealth of the millions. Suffering and sickness to the Christian is meant to be a blessing not a curse. (I Peter 1:6-7) ALL MUST GO THROUGH THE SCHOOL OF SUFFERING.

If one was to find Christ through their suffering, would it be a lesson that yielded the biggest dividend. Many times God has to put us down in sickness and sorrow to bring us up and exalt us. Him. It is for better that one lose his comfort than his soul.

Remember, the world is suffering or sickness which press so hard against you is the best shaped tool in God's hand to chisel you for eternity.

There are other reasons for suffering, but the first question the sufferer should ask is, maybe God is trying to save me from a worse fate?

Hazards Are Described At Glens Ferry

GLENS FERRY—Two properties were called health hazards, due to broken glass, the possibility of caving ceilings and a refrigerator that had its lock still intact, by Nicholas Lemich, county sanitarian, at the Tuesday meeting of the Glens Ferry City Council.

Letters were sent to Florence O'Malia and Golden Lish advising them of the hazardous condition of their properties.

Francis Hicks, city attorney, reported that the survey crew had finished on the west side of Canyon Creek between First and Fourth Avenues. He stated that the necessary condemnation papers were ready for Elmer Tucker and Leonard Thompson, that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson were signed for a sewer easement. He gave a progress report on other easements preparatory to the sewer lagoon system installation.

It was reported that the Bureau of Land Management had received an application for filing on 20 acres of land on which the city will build a motorcycle track.

In other business Lynn Pack's $1,100 building permit for residence, remodeling and "Tene Siade's application for a water meter were approved. A bill for a damaged television antenna for $74 from Clifford Mitchell was deferred for action.

Chairman of the zoning commission, Bert Walker, stated that the applications of Robert Belliston and Forrest Jones met the zoning ordinance while that of K. A. Starkey will require a public hearing.

A representative of Deppe and Nelson Construction Company will survey the city streets this Saturday, reported councilman Floyd Wise.

Finally, the city liability insurance policy was discussed and the council requested Eddie Bostic, clerk, to contact the city's agent to determine if the new policy covers the airport.

JOHNNY HART and Brant Parker, co-creators of the Wizard of Id, ponder medieval mirth beneath a thirteenth-century fountain at the Cloisters in New York's Fort Tyrone Park. The popular comic strip starts in the Times-News Monday.

Johnny Hart, Brant Parker Are Drawing-Board Wizards

The wild and wacky Wizard of Id will join the Times-News week-day comics on Monday.

The "Wiz" is a wild and original new brand of humor by Brant Parker and Johnny Hart, Mr. Hart is the young cartoonist who skyrocketed into comics stardom six years ago. Teammate Parker actually "discovered" Hart when Parker was a newspaper cartoonist and Hart a talented high school boy in Binghamton, N. Y.

Now, after a decade in the caldron, Mr. Parker and Mr. Hart have mixed a magic potion of medieval merriment into one of the zaniest new comics since Krazy Kat.

You will clearly see the reason why the Wizard of Id has been added to the list of fine comics you will find in the Times-News each day.

So Monday evening, turn to the comic page and start right off with the interesting characters of this fine daily comic.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: As I write this practically-minded-by-tears. My husband told our 17-year-old son that if he didn't come home with a haircut to-night, he didn't have to come home at all. It is midnight, and Jon is not home yet.

Why should something like the length of a boy's hair make such a big difference to a father? Jon is not a "bad" boy. All the boys he goes with have long hair.

Jon and his father have fought about this for over a year and now it has come to a showdown, because he finally pushed the boy too far and gave him an ultimatum.

If something happens to Jon I will never forgive my husband for his stubbornness, and I don't like long hair on boys, either, but at least I didn't drive my own son out of the house because of it.

Please put something in your column about fathers who always have to have the last word. I have given up.

HEARTBROKEN MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: There is much more involved here than hair. In a good father-son relationship, the father never gives his 17-year-old son an ultimatum merely because he "outranks" him. Patience and understanding should be forthcoming from the older and wiser man. Altho I also prefer short hair on men, I realize that long hair is "his" and kids have as much right to their fads as adults.

Tell Father to emphasize the more permanent and lasting aspects of his son's character and forget the hair for now. It will grow shorter (or disappear entirely) soon enough.

DEAR ABBY: I cannot for the life of me understand what is

Wrap Up A Pineapple Gift For Bride

This pretty pineapple present is both a festive and hospitable way to honor your favorite bride-to-be. A delectable dessert is hidden inside the salty smooth whipped cream wrapping tied with a pineapple bejeweled ribbon.

Open the package to find more golden jewels of pineapple tidbits cushioned in clouds of whipped cream between layers of angel cake. A hint of rum perfumes the cake and pineapple for extra party flavor. Keep it cool until the guest of honor appears. Then for a final decorative touch, add a small bridal bouquet to set the mood.

For ease, make the cake part with mix. The special bonus is an extra 8-inch layer of angel food cake. Serve this for another dessert in a mode-style-topped with a shower of crushed pineapple.

Golden canned pineapple adds a sparkling touch to beautiful mood and adds served at pre-nuptial showers and buffets. Pineapple will be in demand too for the traditional pineapple, chicken or almond salad for the wedding feast.

THIS PINEAPPLE PRESENT for the bride-to-be is a must at any pre-nuptial shower or buffet. A delectable dessert is hidden inside the salty smooth whipped cream wrapping tied with a pineapple bejeweled ribbon.

PINEAPPLE PRESENT FOR THE BRIDE

1 (1-pound) package angel food cake
1/2 cup powdered sugar
1/2 tablespoons light rum
1 pint whipping cream
1/2 cup vanilla
1 (1-pound 1/2-ounce) can pineapple tidbits
Red food coloring.

Line 10x15x1-inch jelly roll pan with waxed paper. Prepare cake batter as package directs. Turn three cups batter into ungreased 8-inch layer cake pan. Spread remainder of jelly roll pan. Bake cakes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 15 minutes.

Invert cake layer and cool to use for another dessert. Turn clean out of jelly roll pan onto clean cloth covered with sifted powdered sugar. Cool. Trim off all crusts. Cut into crosswise into three (10x4 1/2-inch) strips. Drizzle each strip with one-half tablespoon rum. Whip cream with one-half cup vanilla and one-half cup stiff. Reserve half for frosting.

Combine remaining whipped cream with strained pineapple tidbits (save one-half cup tidbits for garnish). Spread evenly over two cake strips. Stack and top with third cake strip. Put one-half cup of remaining whipped cream light pink with food coloring. Frost top and sides of cake with plain whipped cream. Spread tinted whipped cream in strip over cake. Decorate the "ribbon" with reserved pineapple tidbits. Makes about eight servings.

McLain Wins 12th, Tigers Stop Boston

DETROIT (AP) — Right-hander Denny McLain boosted his American League leading victory total to a ninth three-hitter and Mickey Stanley drove in four runs with a homer and a double as the raming Detroit Tigers turned back Boston 5-1 Thursday night.

McLain, 12-2, held Boston hitters for 2-3 innings before giving up a walk to Rico Petrocelli and consecutive singles to George Scott and Elston Howard. He gave up a single to Reggie Smith in the ninth.

He struck out ten and walked two as the Tigers maintained their 1/2 game margin over second-place Cleveland.

Stanley slammed a three-run homer, his fifth, off Gary Waslewski in the fifth and doubled home another run in the seventh.

Detroit scored its first run off loser Dick Ellsworth, 5-5, in the third on a walk, McLain's sacrifice and a single by Dick McAuliffe.

Ellsworth left the game in the fourth with a pulled muscle in his left side and Waslewski and Al Lyle finished up for Boston.

Extra police were sent to the park to help prevent a recurrence of a firecracker and bottle barrage during Wednesday's 8-5 Boston victory. No incidents were reported among the crowd of 30,000.

Dodgers And Pirates Swap Decisions

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pinch hitter Tom Frazier belted his first major league home run with two out in the 10th inning and gave the Los Angeles Dodgers a 3-2 victory over Pittsburgh for a split of their two-night doubleheader. The setback snapped the Pirates' winning streak at nine games.

The Pirates won the opener, 7-3, as Steve Blass hurled no-hit ball for 6-2-3 innings.

Frazier, batting for winning pitcher Jack Elliott, 2-2, hit his homer off Elroy Face, 1-2, into the right field stands. Ken Boyer had opened the inning with a single but Wes Parker hit into a double play before Frazier unloaded.

Billingham pitched out of a ninth-inning jam in relief of starter Mike Kekich. The Pirates had runners at first and second and none out but Billingham got Donn Clendenon on a pop and an Al Mazeroski hit into a double play.

Wild Pitch Helps Phils Edge Giants

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A wild pitch by Philadelphia's Roy Sadecki helped Philadelphia to its first winning runs and right-hander Rick Wise made his second start as the Phils edged the Giants 2-1 Thursday night.

By winning, the Phils climbed back over the Giants to third place in the National League by two percentage points.

Cooler Rojas opened the first inning with a double and went to third on an infield out before Richie Allen was purposely passed. Rojas then scored as Allen took second on the wild pitch and Tony Taylor's two-out single scored Allen with what proved to be the winning run.

rounds of 42-42 for an 84 and wasn't particularly happy with it. Women's par is 72 on the course.

The 84 gave her a two-shot edge over Ardis Morgan of Jerome, who came in with an 86 in the afternoon, while the seven-time champion, Mrs. Virginia Undhjem, Twin Falls, was another shot back at 87.

Ruth Borlase of Twin Falls, Norman Love of Jerome and Emma Lou Andrus of Jerome were knotted for the lead in the first flight with 89s.

In the second flight, Elizabeth Toolson of Burley and Sharon Peterson of Buhl were tied with 103s while Flora Miller of Jerome was one back at 104.

A 105 by Betty McDaniel for the third flight lead with Phyllis Wiswell, Jerome, and Olea Hahn, of Gooding carding 110s; Peggy Grant of Jerome had a 111.

In the fourth flight, Maxine Royston of Jerome, fired a 119 to take a one-shot lead over Ethyl Martin, of Jerome. Barbara Parr of Buhl had a 121.

A total of 87 Magic Valley women entered the two-day event, which winds up Friday afternoon. A wind bothered the shooters in the morning but it settled down well in the afternoon.

Seaver-Led Mets Thump Houston 5-3

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom Seaver struck out 12 and touched off two New York rallies with a single and a double leading the Mets to a 5-3 victory over the Houston Astros Thursday.

Cleon Jones Drove in four runs for New York—three of them with a fifth inning home run that gave Seaver plenty of working room.

The Astros rallied for two runs in the ninth inning and shelled Seaver from the mound. However, reliever Billy Short retired Rusty Staub on a groundout with the bases filled to end the game.

Seaver, who allowed only seven hits, scored New York's first run in the fifth inning after he beat out a up in front of the plate. Bud Harrelson bounced to second baseman Denis Menke, who dropped the ball attempting to tag Seaver on the baseline. Both runners advanced on a sacrifice and Seaver scored on a sacrifice fly.

In the fifth, Seaver was credited with a double when center fielder Dick Simpson lost his fly in the sun. After Harrelson bounced out, Ken Boswell walked and Jones tagged his seventh home run of the year.

Art Yastley homered for New York in the sixth after Houston nicked Seaver for a run on a walk to Simpson. Rusty Staub's single and force out.

Pappas Has Revenge, Tips Redlegs 3-1

ATLANTA (AP) — Right-hander Milt Pappas picked up his 12th victory for the Atlanta Braves Thursday night, pitching 5-2-3 innings and beating his former Cincinnati teammates 3-1.

Pappas, who came from the Reds two weeks ago to a six-player trade, was touched for seven hits before leaving the game with a pulled muscle in his left side. The triumph gave him a 3-5 record. He also contributed a key bunt single as the Braves broke a tie with two runs in the fifth inning.

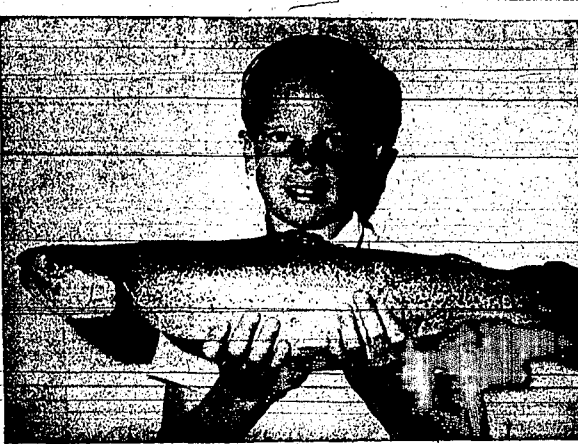

The Reds scored their only run in the second on a double by Vada Pinson and singles by Tony Perez and Leo Cardenas. Cincinnati led the score in the fourth with its seventh homer of the season, the first hit of the game off loser Gary Nolan, 2-2.

Marty Martinez opened the fifth with a lead-off infield hit and Pappas was credited with a single when he pushed a bunt past charging first baseman Fred Whitfield. Tito Francona's double, the Braves' fourth and last hit, scored Martinez and Pappas also scored when Cardenas' relay failed past the plate.

Cecil Upshaw relieved Pappas in the sixth and blanked the Reds on two hits the rest of the way.

White Sox Rally Past Indians 8-4

CHICAGO (AP) — Leon Wagner traded away by Cleveland only last week, turned on his former teammates with a two-run homer that triggered a six-run uprising in the eighth which pulled the Chicago White Sox to an 8-4 victory over the Indians Thursday night.

The outburst, lifting the White Sox from a 3-2 deficit, gave unbeaten Tommy John his sixth victory.

John gave up four hits and three runs in the first inning, but didn't allow another safety until the ninth, when Jose Cardenal singled, then came in on Tony Horton's double with none out. Reliever Wilbur Wood finished the game.

Wagner's homer, his first of the season, was followed by a run-scoring single by Tommy Davis, an RBI double by Ken Berry and a two-run double by John Cleveland ... 300 000 001-4 8 1 minute, 44.8 second time for the mark was turned down by the International Amateur Athletic Federation because Ryun set it in an unsanctioned meet.

Matlin yielded to demands by the AAU Men's Track and Field Committee that Ryun's record be given approval immediately.

The committee Wednesday night instructed Matlin and Co. to get the executive director of the AAU, to sign the reapplication. The two refused Thursday morning, saying a sanction of the meet, held in June, 1966, in Terre Haute, Ind., would be necessary.

That meet was sponsored by the U.S. Track and Field Federation, which is engaged in a struggle for the control of amateur track with the AAU.

Matlin and Co. were asked to attend a meeting Thursday of the executive director of the AAU, to sign the reapplication. The two refused Thursday morning, saying a sanction of the meet, held in June, 1966, in Terre Haute, Ind., would be necessary.

Although no threat by the track and field committee to revoke openly against the AAU committee, such a revolt was a possibility and was thought to have been the reason for his inaction.

The track and field committee issued a press release saying Matlin "will certify reapplication of Ryun's record to the AAU and with reference to the committee's resolution."

European Women Beat U. S. Squad

PARIS (AP) — The European women's golf team, led by powerful little Catherine Lacoste clinched a 10 1/2-7 1/2 victory over the United States Thursday by winning three of the second day singles matches and tying another.

The European selection started the day with a 5 1/2-3 1/2 advantage over the U.S. team that won the Curtis Cup from Great Britain in Northern Ireland last week.

The morning foursomes were split evenly with one victory each and one tie Thursday, to leave the Continentals ahead 7-5.

The Europeans then won the first two singles in the afternoon to assure the victory. Sun and showers sprinkled the 6,573-yard par 72 St. Cloud course during the day, and heavy rain fell at the start of play. After a clear spell, the rain came back briefly in the afternoon.

Miss Lacoste won both her singles matches and one of the two foursomes in which she played. She was two under par for the 15 holes she played in the afternoon. She was 3 up at the turn and never in trouble.

Liberal Party Is Gaining Support In Western Canada

By MAX HARRELSON
CALGARY, Alta. (AP)—For the first time in years the Liberal party seems to be gaining support in western Canada. That may be good news for Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau in next Tuesday's national election.

Some political experts are predicting that Trudeau's Liberals can double the 10 parliamentary seats they now hold in the prairie provinces and British Columbia. This could make the difference in party efforts to attain a clear majority in the 264-member House of Commons and end the "minority rule" which has hampered both Conservatives and Liberal administrations since 1962.

The outlook is good, observers say, for the Liberals to pick up three of the 13 seats Saskatchewan will have under a redistricting plan in the province of 17 Saskatchewan seats in the last Parliament.

Their biggest gains in the west, however, are expected in Alberta where they are running strong in five or six districts. Their only Alberta seat in the last Parliament was held by a man who had been elected in 1965 as a member of the Social Credit party, but switched to the Liberals.

They are not expected to gain any in Manitoba and probably will lose the one they won in 1965. In British Columbia, they are encouraged by the turnout drawn by Trudeau during his campaign swing and they hope to pick up two or three in addition to holding the seven they won in 1965.

The voting shifts in the west are attributed to several factors:

- The redrawing of district lines which gave more weight to urban areas where the Liberals are stronger.
- General prosperity in the west.
- The personal popularity of Trudeau and his stand against French-speaking Quebec as a special status.
- The collapse of the Social Credit party as a national party, Alberta, birthplace of the party, has fielded Social Credit candidates in only three districts and they are all in trouble. The Social Credit party also is expected to draw a blank in British Columbia. The Conservatives are expected to benefit most from this shift.
- The split between former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker and the present Conservative leader, Robert Stanfield. Diefenbaker is running for reelection from his home district in Saskatchewan, but has shown no desire to speak for the party elsewhere.

Delegates To View Plan On New Official

POCA TELLO, Idaho (AP)—Convention delegates of the Association of Idaho Cities will consider a proposal to establish the office of state fire marshal.

The proposal, to be presented to delegates Saturday, was approved Thursday by the AIC Board of Directors at the beginning of the group's 21st annual meeting.

Fire chiefs from Idaho Falls, Boise and Pocatello appeared before the board to explain the fire marshal proposal.

Les Corcoran of Idaho Falls said the marshal would promote fire prevention statewide. A fire prevention board would oversee enforcement of a fire prevention code, Corcoran said.

A bill to establish a fire marshal was passed by the Senate during the last legislative session, but was defeated in the House.

In other convention action, the AIC nominating Committee selected a proposed slate of officers for next year. Voting will be Saturday.

Eddie Pedersen, mayor of Idaho Falls, was nominated for president; Lewiston Mayor Paul Wise, first vice president; and Sandpoint, Mayor Floyd Gray, second vice president.

Service Pins Are Given To Employees

Ten-year service pins were presented recently to two employees of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service in Twin Falls.

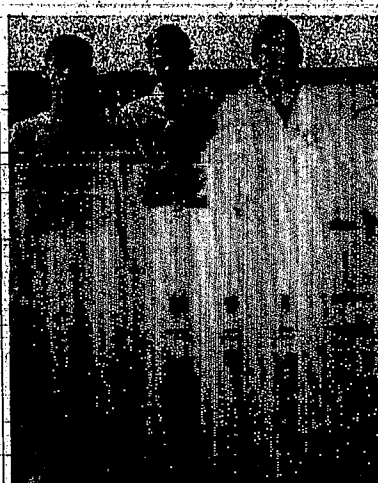

Receiving the awards were Bill Brake, file compliance supervisor, and Glendora Wubker, Twin Falls program clerk. Carl Boyd, chairman of the board at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, presented the awards.

Also receiving awards were six area persons who had been county committeemen and employees of "Triple A" during the period from 1933 to 1942. These certificates are presented to commemorate the 35th Anniversary of farm legislation. The Agricultural Adjustment Act (Triple A) was signed into law on May 12, 1933, which was the first national farm program legislation which in varying forms has continued to the present.

Former AAA county committeemen receiving the certificates are H. G. Lauterbach, 105 Buchanan, Twin Falls; Luke Sager, Route 4, Buhl, and Harvey H. Jackson, Twin Falls. Employees connected with the AAA at that time and now receiving certificates are Katherine Kline Hager, 428 2nd Ave. N., Twin Falls; Iris Hale; Route 1, Twin Falls, and Rub Welberger, 427 Seventh Ave. N., Twin Falls.

Farms In 1980--A Probable View

Do you ever wonder what a typical farm in the United States, or more specifically, in Idaho, will be like in 1980?

Various farm experts and agricultural economists are now studying this and attempting to come up with reliable projections. Earl O. Heady in his book, "Roots of the Farm Problem," points out several trends he feels will occur.

To begin with, he feels that with a high level of employment and with some degree of peace in the present rate of decline in the farm labor force and in farm numbers will continue.

Because a large portion of the nation's low income families are in agriculture probably the number of farm families and farm laborers must decline almost as fast as the number of farm families and farm laborers are to approach those of nonfarm groups.

Per capita disposable income is projected to grow about two percent per year and to be 50 percent higher in 1980 than in 1960.

Also, sizable reductions in the farm population and labor force are forecast for 1980. Heady labor is predicted to decline by 30 to 35 percent with the family labor force dropping by 45 to 55 percent. The projections suggest that the farm labor force will decline from seven and one-tenth million in 1960 to four million in 1980, a 44 percent decline.

Heady's book also predicted major increases in the use of fertilizers and other operating inputs by 1980. A major share of the rising productivity of agriculture undoubtedly will come from the use of fertilizers. Almost half of all farms will have sales over $10,000 by 1980 if Heady's projections are correct.

Since it is generally thought that the farm population will make up as little as four percent of the U.S. population in 1980, agriculture will probably lose a large segment of political influence. The drop in population will make up as little as four percent of the U.S. population in 1980, agriculture will probably lose a large segment of political influence. The drop in population will make up as little as four percent of the U.S. population in 1980, agriculture will probably lose a large segment of political influence.

Along Fences And Canals

The Brockman and Howard families also attended the Horsetour which began at Rockland and ended in the Almo area. During the Field Day activities, Mike Howard was elected a director and second vice president of the Idaho Junior Horseres Association. He is a member of the Foothill Lads and Ladies 4-H Club of which his father, Robert Howard, is leader.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brockman and family, John Silvers, Dana Silvers and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard and family attended the Idaho Junior Horseres Association Field Day at the Irvin Harrop and sons ranch, Rigby.

Floyd March, Tuttle, reports his potatoes are being cultivated for the last time this season as the vines are getting too large.

Ed Davis and Raymond Wright, Tuttle, had their fields of corn sprayed for weeds. Most farmers at Tuttle are haying and cultivating. Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hoekin and family have moved from the farm at Tuttle they have been leasing to a farm at Jerome which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson are putting up their first cutting of hay at their ranch south of King Hill. Other ranchers in the area who are cutting the first hay crop include Walter Schmitter on the Pugh Fork Ranch of Mrs. Mary Knox, north of King Hill, and John Davis, whose ranch is east of King Hill.

Andy and Tom Little, Boise, are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. King, and will help on the King farm, south of King Hill, which was known as the former Rainbow Ranch and owned by Mrs. Nellie Sudduth in the early days.

George Terry went to Portland last weekend to return his two nephews and two nieces, Jackie, Shawn, Polly and Mark Boone, to help their uncle and aunt with farm work and house work at their farm south of King Hill. The children will spend the summer at the Terry ranch.

The Karl Cepanek family, the Irene Parish family, and the Sidney Leasing family are riding south of King Hill, sending up their cattle and moving them further south because of poisonous chemicals being sprayed on brood crops for white fly, at the Black Mesa project. The cattle are on the range south of Pasadena Valley south of King Hill.

A returnee to Elmore County is Major Earl P. Tibendorf who has moved with his family from New York state near Buffalo to the Farmington area and purchased a ranch where they will raise thoroughbreds. Stationed at the Mountain Home Air Force Base previously, the Major, now retired, was attracted to this part of Idaho as a place to make his home. With him are his wife, Shirley, and daughter, Susie, a senior in Glens Ferry High School next fall, and son, Mike, in the eighth grade.

Herbie Largo, an Indian boy from the Brigham City, Utah, Indian school, assisting with summer work at the Green Times ranch at Almo.

Weed Harmful To Livestock Seen In T.F. County Farm

Several farmers in the Twin Falls County area have reported the growth of a leafy spurge which is a noxious weed and poisonous to livestock.

According to Wallace Savage, supervisor of Twin Falls Weed Control Bureau, anyone spotting this weed should contact the local weed bureau. Mr. Savage said, "There is very little of this weed in the county and we would like to keep it that way."

This weed spreads rapidly by seed and also by roots. The plants start growing early from numerous pinkish buds. According to the University of Idaho Agricultural Extension Service, the young growth is dark green in color. The leaves are long and narrow and attached directly to the stem. All parts of the plant contain a thick milky sap. Farmers are advised to check on the presence of this milky sap to make certain of the identification of the plant.

As the plant approaches the flowering stage, the upper leaves turn yellowish. The top-most leaves or bracts surrounding the small flowers are broad and heart-shaped, yellow in color and are often mistaken for the flower.

The flower is inconspicuous. It matures into a three-part seed pod which contains three seeds. The seeds are about one-tenth of an inch long and nearly as wide. The color is flecked gray to brown to purplish. They are soft and relatively short-lived in the soil. When the seed pod matures the bracts open with explosive force enough to throw the seeds 15 to 20 feet. This obnoxious helps the weed to spread rapidly.

Along with being poisonous to livestock, the plant also contains a substance which in a habit of growth of other plants in the soil around the spurge.

Eradication of any perennial weed is difficult. The character of leafy spurge makes eradication imperative to avoid complete loss of infested areas.

Cultivation is the most economical method for eradication of large infestations. The cultivation should begin following harvest or in the spring after the spurge has reached the early bud stage. Cultivate every 14 days throughout the season. Eradication with this method will take two or three years.

For more information, contact the University of Idaho Agricultural Extension Service.

GRASSMAN TOUR—The future to determine the fate of Idaho potato futures are Kenneth B. Mackey, executive vice president, Chicago Mercantile Exchange, and Kristine Phillips, Miss Idaho of 1967. Mackey was present to record first transactions in the new Chicago Mercantile Exchange contract and naturally wore a dress made from a potato sack. Officials of the exchange, the nation's leader in perishable commodity futures trading, were enthusiastic about interest shown on the first day by growers, processors and marketers.

Idaho Grassman Tour Is Taken

FAIRFIELD—Outstanding use of available water and the development of stock water are some of the features of the 1968 Idaho Grassman tour of the Everett Coates C-7 Ranch. The tour was made Friday at the ranch located 14 miles northwest of Fairfield in the Willow Creek area.

During the morning hours the sun shone and the crowd was able to complete the tour of the ranch. Lunch was catered by the Occident-Rebekah Lodge. Musical entertainment was provided by a group under the direction of Marnie Shaw.

Hugh Hough, assistant chairman of the Idaho Grassman of the Year program, spoke to the group. Bob Loucks, Camas County agent, was master of ceremonies. Guest introductions included Ralph Sampson, assistant state land commissioner; Jim Kabadar, area conservationist; Bill Conservation Service; Fred Kohl, district extension agent; Roy Shipley, state range conservationist; SCS; Cy Higginson, range conservationist; and Loyd Campbell of the ASCS.

The tour of the Coates Ranch was guided by Bob Loucks; Dave Crnkovich, Camas County soil conservationist; and Sten Frostenson of the Camas County Grassman committee.

The first stop was north of the farmstead where the group viewed brush control on dryland pasture, brush removal and land planning to fill sloughs to facilitate irrigation along a hill to water the upper half of the ranch.

The next stop was south of the ranch where the sloughs had been re-channeled, willows removed and sloughs filled. On the west side of the creek the slough had been filled and one ditch took the place of eight. On the east side of the creek the main wash and two swales had been filled. About half of the corral area and two fields on the east side had been reclaimed from brush and the creek bed had been straightened.

The third stop was at the low-water irrigation diversion dam on Willow Creek which was constructed in 1955 and is anchored in bedrock.

Water development on dryland pasture was the fourth stop. A clay-lined stock pond is filled from the well and used for stock water and irrigation. A clay-lined stock pond is filled from the well and used for stock water and irrigation. A clay-lined stock pond is filled from the well and used for stock water and irrigation.

The fifth stop was to view field crops, alfalfa, timothy, grass and alfalfa plantings.

The sixth stop was new seedling of intermediate wheatgrass. Sixty acres had been seeded last June and 35 acres had been seeded in 1965. This area had stock ponds the water from the spring run-off and can also be filled from the well. The seventh stop was older wheatgrass and a large stock pond.

A spring development was the last stop. This spring was boxed and a tank built in 1954. It has never gone dry and water about 40 head of stock. There was 130 acres in this section seeded to alfalfa-grass mixture about six years ago. There was also a new seeding with seven to nine pounds wheatgrass to one pound of alfalfa.

Evening Chats is the second Camas County farmer to win the state title. Gwinn Rice, Hill City, was Idaho Grassman in 1967.

Coates was reared on a farm that is part of his present operation. He started his farm-life with his parents after five years purchased the place where he and his family now live. He owns 1,900 acres and leases about 100. In 1951 he was named Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Year by the Camas Soil and Water Conservation District.

Coates has also taken an active part in civic affairs. He is a former director of the Idaho Cattlemen's Association. Coates runs between 300 and 400 Black Angus and Herefords on his place. He raises his own replacements.

He is chairman of the Camas Cattlemen's Association and is a past president of the Elmore Cattlemen's Association. He is a director of the Elmore Prairie Wild Growers. He has served as a Camas County commissioner.

He is presently serving as trustee on the school board and has served in this capacity for many years.

Coates is married to the former Esther Moody who is a member of a pioneer Camas Prairie family and a former teacher. They have two children, Linda, who attends Boise College, and David, who graduated from the eighth grade last spring.

Coates was sponsored by the Camas County Chamber of Commerce and says that much credit is due to the efforts and help of the late Ray Albiza, county agent, and Dick Gooby of the funding—Soil Conservation office.

Sponsoring organization for the grassman of the year include the Idaho Association Soil Conservation—Idaho Elmore Co., Idaho Cattlemen's Association; Idaho Farm Bureau Federation; Idaho State Chamber of Commerce; Idaho State Grange and the Idaho Wool Growers Association. In addition, cooperating agencies are the U.S. Forest Service; the U.S. Bureau of Land Management; the Extension Division of the University of Idaho; and the Soil Conservation Service.

Robert F. Ball was chairman of the 1967 state grassman program and Hugh L. Hough was assistant and Robert W. Henderlinder was secretary.

The Camas County grassman committee chairman was Wesley Field, Gwinn Rice was vice chairman and Sten Frostenson, Gary Smithy and Lee Sentien were members.

Allotment For Wheat Is Forthcoming

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department a 0.01 will announce acreage allotments 40 states for the 1968 wheat crop, perhaps in a few days, a spokesman said today. Indications of a record 1968 wheat crop are expected to add to previous pressure for a reduction in next year's acreage allotment.

Wheat allotments were cut about 13 per cent for the 1968 crop, but favorable conditions have boosted estimated yields to more than compensate for the reduction.

The allotment for this year is 59.3 million acres — with total production predicted at more than 1.5 billion bushels of wheat.

The Agriculture Department expects the carryover of wheat of July 1 to be more than 800 million bushels, compared to about 425 million a year ago.

World wheat production is expected to be on the rise, the department says, and limit U.S. exports of the grain could drop accordingly.

The department's field information hearings in wheat areas last month to find out how farmers feel about 1968 allotments. Generally, the department said, they favor a 10 to 15 per cent reduction from the 1968 acreage allotment.

Consequently, and considering this week's estimate of a record wheat crop, the 1968 acreage allotments could be cut from this year's 59.3 million acres to around 45 million.

CHICAGO — Fluid nonfat and whole milk, cheese, cottage cheese, and ice cream and other dairy foods were the front runners in 1967 per capita dairy foods sales, according to the 1968 edition of "How Americans Eat Dairy Foods."

The publication, a statistical review issued annually by the National Dairy Council, was released here this week.

Fluid whole milk reached an all-time high of 39.2 pints per person in 1967-up nearly 10 percent from 1966. Cheese sales averaged 9.7 pounds, a tenth of a pound below the all-time high set in 1966. Per capita sales of ice cream and other frozen dairy foods rose to 21.2 quarts, a record of sales equal to the record-setting level of 1963 and four-tenths of a pound more than 1966. Cottage cheese, at 4.5 pounds per person, remained at the same level as 1966.

Fluid whole milk sales in 1967 were 233 pints per person as compared with 242 pints in 1966. Total sales of fluid whole milk were 49.4 billion pounds in 1967, 200 million pounds less than 1966. Fluid whole milk sales have averaged close to 50 billion pounds annually in recent years, about 10 per cent higher than the level of sales in the late fifties.

Per capita sales of other dairy foods included: butter, down to 4.8 pounds per person from 5.4 pounds in 1966; fluid cream, 6.9 pounds per person from 7.1 pounds for 1967 after sales of 9.9 for 1966.

According to the NDC publication, a factory employee in 1967 worked 172.3 minutes to extract

His visit to Idaho was arranged by the University of Idaho extension service. Gupta will be a guest of farm families in Kootenai and Benewah counties for several months.

The first Idaho IFYE of 1968, Chon Ebersole of Tualatin, arrived late in April. He is a guest of Salmon and will later visit Eastern Idaho. Both exchange students will attend the annual Idaho 4-H Congress at Moscow, June 9 to 14.

Gupta lives on a farm that grows wheat, rice and potatoes. He also produces cows and buffalo. For five years he has been leader of a youth club similar to a 4-H club. He is married and has six children.

While in the United States he will study rural youth programs and learn about American methods of agricultural production. Gupta's trip is sponsored by the Directorate of Extension in India in cooperation with Friends of 4-H in the United States.

WRONG TIME FOR THE BATH COUP.
A little legerdemain is a dangerous thing. South knew all about the Bath Coup. He tried one at the wrong time and wound up taking a bath.

What had hung on to all his hearts, he collected three heart bids into him.

South's play of the five diamonds was a genuine Bath Coup. This was first developed in the English resort town of Bath, where the game is quite effective in that it forces the player whose king leads the first trick either to give declarer two tricks in the suit or lead something else.

The trouble with this particular Bath Coup was that the diamond suit represented a futile threat to South's partner. If South grabbed that first diamond trick and knocked out the ace of spades, the worst that could happen to him would be for East to give his partner three diamond tricks. If West had started with five diamonds, East would not have a diamond to lead.

Once the diamond parade ended, South would proceed to make the nine tricks necessary for his contract.

monds at trick one. West held the trick with his king and was tempted to continue the suit. After all, his partner had played the seven. Then West looked over—dummy—and noticed that the seven was the lowest missing diamond. He shifted to the three-of-hearts.

South took East's king with his ace. There was no Bath Coup possible in hearts since, if South ducked, East would be holding the trick. Then South proceeded to run off four club tricks before going after spades.

Once South led a spade, the contest ended quickly. East took his ace and led a heart. Since

Young America's Date-Line

ELIE AND WALT DULANEY

He Doesn't Kiss Her In Private

Dear Elie and Walt: Whenever you see any subsequent boy-friend and I say, "Alone, Elie and Walt," he never kisses me. But when ever his friends are around he does. Why?—Curious.

Dear Curious: A very guess is that his kisses spell "performance" rather than "passion," that "am I going to impress these guys?"

But consider a second possibility. Although they enjoy female tenderness, many young boys are insecure about their own ability to please knowing that a company love scene will not proceed to a point they can't handle. Knowing the boy which seems more likely to you?—Elie and Walt.

IS SHE BEING BEATEN-UP?

Dear Elie: My sister used to be practically a nudist at home, with him as well. A few weeks ago I went on Easter vacation and noticed I was and I had a date with one of the boys there. On the date I noticed a black and blue mark on her arm and several bruises on her leg. When I asked her, she was wrong idea and started to get about them, she made some real intimate story about "popping" today.

Dear Elie: I met another guy and I started going steady with him as well. A few weeks ago I went on Easter vacation and noticed I was and I had a date with one of the boys there. On the date I noticed a black and blue mark on her arm and several bruises on her leg. When I asked her, she was wrong idea and started to get about them, she made some real intimate story about "popping" today.

Dear Concerned

Dear Concerned: Talk to Ron directly. Don't trust any gossip. Instead, ask him if he knows how his has been collecting all the marks, and ask him how you want to be treated. Just asking—Elie and Walt.
