TEN CENTS

IT NEVER LOOKED SO GOOD—The "Welcome to Twin Falls" sign over the entrance to the terminal building at Joslin Field. Local fire fighters grouped for the bus ride into the city and a well-earned rest after arriving by special Forest Service transport plane from Denver. Members of this inter-regional crew are the elite of the fire fighters and are rushed to any area of the nation to fight fires. Like the other local units they are always on call.

Tired Fire Crew Returns To T.F.

Tired, dirty and glad to be home, 24 members of the inter-regional fire fighting crew of the Forest Service dropped off a transport plane at Joslin Field in Twin Falls at 2 a.m., Thursday after a flight from Denver. Members of the crew had originally left Twin Falls by air on June 21 to fight the big fire in the Angeles National Forest near Los Angeles. After their task was accomplished, they were flown to the home base. Wednesday about 2:30 p.m., two other groups flew into Twin Falls. The Twin Falls Hot Shots had been fighting a 5,000-acre fire in Arizona. With them were members of the Pan-Ams, the Mexican nationalist group. Both had been in the field many days. Members of the inter-regional crew arriving at the local field early Thursday were Bill Williams, Twin Falls leader; John Mulwoney, Ken Thompson, Rod Rushon, Jerry Randolph, Mark Phillips, Mike Moore, Wayne Thomas and Tom Brimont at Twin Falls; Clayton Edmonds and Ben King, both Bulli, Mike Barnes and Rick Paul, both Ruckelshaus, and Roland Ward, both Borley; Laine Meyer and Mike Thompson, both Gooding; Chuck Mobbatt, Shoshone; and Jim Scherer, Larry Slater, Carm Walcott, Gary Walcott and Vince Williams, all Jerome.

California Man Is Killed In Highway 93 Accident

HOLLISTER — A California company which built the segment of U.S. Highway 93 where he lost his life. The victim and an unidentified man were reported to be traveling in separate cars toward Mountain. Mr. Orr's traveling companion, an unidentified man, was killed in the accident. Mr. Orr was dead at the scene, according to officers. The vehicle apparently rolled over him once, and he was also thrown across a highway marker. His body was taken to Reynolds Funeral Chapel, funeral services and burial will be at Livingston, Monday. The Magic Valley death count at this time last year was 22, Idaho's death toll stands at 139, 29 ahead of last year.

Idaho State Police identified the man as Robert Lynn Orr, 36, Pleasant Grove, Calif. They said Mr. Orr was alone in his car when he apparently went to sleep at the wheel. The 1967 Chevrolet went out of control and traveled 487 feet off the roadway. Mr. Orr was thrown from the vehicle and crushed beneath it. The accident was reported by a local resident to police. Mr. Orr was a contractor and was on his way to work on a highway project near Peter Knapp's home. The same construction

Projection

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson called on Congress Wednesday for $1.6 billion to provide increased police protection for the nation's capital and to give the district's City Council the power to enact stronger gun control laws.

Rally For Wallace Disrupted By Fights

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — A rally for George C. Wallace in Minneapolis Convention Hall was interrupted Wednesday night by a confrontation between police and demonstrators that included some fist fights. Wallace was stumping in the hall on an attempt to get on the Minnesota ballot as the third-party candidate for president. Several hundred of the demonstrators—about half of them whites and half Negroes—swung into the Wallace public meeting. Some 30 policemen quickly swarmed onto the floor, surrounded the throng and pushed it toward an exit ramp with night sticks extended horizontally in front of them. Witnesses said the officers did not use the sticks to strike anyone. Police said five persons were arrested, one Negro man, two white men, one white woman and one white juvenile. All were charged with breach of the peace. Police said about 35 minutes later, restoring calm, Wallace's appearance at the rally for an hour and 37 minutes. It was another eight minutes before Mr. Smith, this is the second man-caused fire in the Sawtooth National Forest this season and both are the only ones reported to date. Aircraft operating from Redder's Flying Service in Twin Falls dropped 10 loads, 800 gallons per load, of water on the blaze. Local ranchers, Twin Falls forest district personnel and a Hollister ground tanker crew brought the fire under control about 4 p.m. Mr. Smith stressed that there had been no lightning in the area recently and that the fire had to be man-caused. He emphasized that fireworks on national forest grounds are strictly prohibited and that violators can be prosecuted. Mr. Smith said a small patrol plane at the site throughout the night. Two to three men were still on patrol Thursday morning to watch for further fires. Cottonwood Canyon is about 10 miles south of Twin Falls in the Sawtooth National Forest. Mr. Smith said the fire had broken through a brushy area and was burning in grass and brush, mostly on grazing land and did not involve any structures. Another fire report was received late Wednesday of smoke in the forest area near Fairlight. However, forest officials said search failed to reveal any fire. There were no Bureau of Land Management fires in that area reported Wednesday, or Thursday.

South Hills Blaze Is Controlled

Fire crews using aircraft and ground equipment controlled a 300-acre range fire Wednesday afternoon in the Cottonwood Canyon of the South Hills, and U.S. National Forest Fire District Chief Darrell Smith said the blaze was man-caused. According to Mr. Smith, this is the second man-caused fire in the Sawtooth National Forest this season and both are the only ones reported to date. Aircraft operating from Redder's Flying Service in Twin Falls dropped 10 loads, 800 gallons per load, of water on the blaze. Local ranchers, Twin Falls forest district personnel and a Hollister ground tanker crew brought the fire under control about 4 p.m. Mr. Smith stressed that there had been no lightning in the area recently and that the fire had to be man-caused. ## New Jersey City Hit By Disturbance

PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — For the second consecutive night, Paterson was plagued Wednesday night with sporadic outbreaks of rock throwing and fire-bombing that police said led to the firing of shots in the air by officers in the predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican sections. Helmeted city policemen, many of whom were carrying shotguns, rushed in to cordon off the area on Tuesday night from regular traffic. Police said patrol cars, as well as other vehicles, were pelted with cans thrown from rooftops. All were thrown from rooftops. One high-ranking police official said shots were fired in the air on one occasion to discourage looting on rooftops. Fear gas also was used to break up crowds that ranged in size up to 100 persons, police said. Twenty persons have been injured and 20 arrested since violence, triggered by charges of police brutality to a 28-year-old man, erupted Tuesday night. The Municipal Court remained open throughout Wednesday night. A curfew Wednesday night lasted for six hours as the city was again opened to traffic, police said.

Halts Workers

HAPSALA, Sweden (AP) — Swedish girls, eager for the all-over tan, have delayed work on a church near their swimming club. Indifferent to onlookers, most of the girls take everything off. "We have plenty of volunteers to work on the roof," said one of the church builders. "There's one brunette who stops the work."

DEBT REPORTED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal government closed its 1968 fiscal year on June 30 with a deficit exceeding $36 billion, the Treasury Department reported Wednesday.

New York Sniper Identified, Gun Law Pressed

The gun dudd added fuel to the controversy over gun controls which began anew following the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last month. In Washington, President Johnson expressed horror at the shooting and renewed his plea for gun control laws to protect the American people against handgun and reckless murder by snipers. New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination in Oregon, said in a statement that the shooting burst of violence by gunfire in the heart of New York City should be a message to Congress: Give us sensible control over guns. Less than 12 hours after the Central Park incident, another shooting opened the Harlem district. Patrolman John Mues, 28, in the leg. He was treated at Harlem Hospital. The victim of the Central Park killing was Ullrich Kleiser, 24, daughter of a Kingston, Pa., physician, who earned her living by walking dogs, for apartment dwellers. The gunman also shot Charles Dach, 59, twice in the back, as he sat on a park bench, and wounded patrolman Phillip Sheridan, 28, and Jesse Hubbard, 35, in the right leg and left hand respectively. Miss Kleiser was shot through the back of the head when she went into the lavatory after trying to help a shaggy gray terrier to an outside railing. Maurice Johnson, 56, a park attendant in charge of the lavatory, heard a noise, apparently the shot, and went from his office through the men's section to open a locked door to the woman's section.

Tests Begin

PARIS (AP) — France has warned ships and planes away from the area of Mururoa in the South Pacific starting Friday as a nuclear test that a new series of nuclear tests — expected to include the detonation of France's first hydrogen bomb — is about to start. A special notice Wednesday set a limit of 500 nautical miles around Mururoa as dangerous until further notice. Mururoa is about 750 miles southeast of Tahiti. The tests will run through August and September.

Brother Of Sirhan Is Fired Upon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Saldalah Bishara Sirhan, brother of the man accused of killing Dr. Robert F. Kennedy, says two men fired at him as he drove on a freeway. Sirhan, 35, told police the shots were fired from one of two cars that pulled alongside his car after following him for six miles before dawn Wednesday on the Pasadena Freeway. The first bullet struck a car lying on the back seat of his car and the second zipped past his head and buried itself in the door beside him, he said. "If he had been sitting upright, the bullet probably would have passed through his neck," Pasadena police officer said. The cars turned in opposite directions after another 100 yards at the end of the freeway. Sirhan said he could not identify the cars or the Pasadena police headquarters.

Peace Envoy In Vietnam Explains U.S. Intentions

PARIS (AP) — The United States is making a persistent effort in the Paris peace talks to draw North Vietnam out of the American forces will be withdrawn from South Vietnam as rapidly as possible after a peace settlement. U.S. negotiators think that North Vietnamese disbelief in American military intentions is probably a major obstacle to progress in peacemaking. At the same time, they are trying to draw North Vietnam into a discussion of whether it will remove its own troops from the South. Indications of North Vietnamese views which Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and other officials have received from diplomatic sources leads them to conclude that the politicians in Hanoi cannot conceive of the United States giving up its massive investment in South Vietnam. They are therefore inclined to deal with the United States on a case-by-case basis. Xuan Thuy's charge that the United States intends to maintain military bases and troops in South Vietnam after the fighting stops. The Americans also want a North-Vietnamese commitment to withdraw troops in exchange for a similar pledge in any peace agreement. "You have called for the withdrawal of foreign forces from South Vietnam," Harriman told Thuy Wednesday. "We agree. And I remind you that at Manila (in October 1965), the United States and other allies of the Republic of Vietnam, pledged to withdraw their forces as the North Vietnamese army withdrew. Infiltration ceases, and the level of violence in South Vietnam thus subsides."

Vietnam Casualty Toll Is Listed For Past Week

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command reported today that 187 Americans died in Vietnam combat last week, the second lowest weekly toll of the year. This boosted the toll for 1968 to a first six months higher than that for all of 1967. The reduction in casualties was due to a lull in the ground fighting. But the report brought to 5,537 the death toll since Jan. 1, a period which included the Viet Cong's lunar new year offensive, a second assault on Saigon and heavy fighting below the demilitarized zone. In all of 1967, 9,410 American combat deaths were reported. The seven-day period that ended Saturday, this was 626 less than the week before. South Vietnamese casualties also were reduced, from 355 killed to 273 last week, and from 1,140 wounded to 856. Senior U.S. officers feel the current lull is the result of enemy troops regrouping, reuniting and reinforcing at secret bases across the country for a new wave of attacks on Saigon and other targets.

“McNamara’s Wall” Changes From Original Blueprint

DONG HA, Vietnam (AP)—No one would recognize “McNamara’s Wall” so far has it strayed from original design—but where it is in place it’s a “meat grinder” for infiltrating North Vietnamese troops, as one officer phrased it.

As originally planned, the wall, designed to check infiltration, was to include an elaborate wire fence stretching from the South China Sea coast 11 miles inland to the Marine base at Con Thien. This would have been on a line about a mile south of the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam.

Barbed-wire high echelon change of thinking, the fence will not be built, senior military sources said Tuesday. One main reason is the possibility of high casualties from enemy artillery while U.S. troops string the wire so close to the zone.

The fence was to have been strung with “German tape,” a

Girls Report On European Summer Trip

GLENNIS FERRY—Mary Knox and Laraine Carnahan told the Glennis Ferry Chamber of Commerce at the Monday noon meeting in Hansen’s Cafe of their tour in Europe last summer as A-H Ambassadors.

The girls were two of the 4-Hers from this section of the United States who visited 11 countries in the two months of the trip.

The girls showed slides they had taken to illustrate customs and dress as well as show scenery and places of interest in each country visited, and displayed a chess set from Germany and wooden shoes from Holland.

They reported that the warmth and friendliness of the people of these countries was most rewarding and they were made to feel welcome except in France and Czechoslovakia. In France people spit on the bus, and the area of Czechoslovakia was dark and forbidding so they were glad to get away.

In Germany they enjoyed the visits to authentic castles, and in Switzerland the chalets in which they were housed were delightful. In general, they found the peoples relaxed and the atmosphere restful, the countries clean and inviting, the girls said.

Next week, Richard Sears of the Idaho State Bank will tell of this reason for moving to Idaho from California to what advantages he found in this state over those in the Golden Bear area.

razor-sharp band of steel a quarter of an inch wide that defied wirecutters and slashed the marks of the teeth. Left in the fence actually were installed between the sea and the frontier base of Con Thien, but it was ineffective, the sources said. The enemy could walk around it or through it at several places.

Caps in the line of the fence so Vietnamese farmers could walk north of the fence to work their fields.

The entire project for halting the North Vietnamese troop infiltrations had some strong military opponents when it was ordered in the spring of 1967 by Robert S. McNamara, then defense secretary.

However, what exists of the project, with some modifications, pleases many senior officers on this northern front.

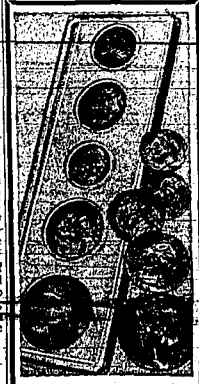

The elaborate ground radar and sensor system originally planned is said to be in place. But there are new touches.

Marine engineers are bulldozing an area 200 yards wide in one sector south of the wall to make it easier to shoot infiltrators. Abandoned hamlets once fortified and used by the enemy are being flattened.

Prefabricated concrete bunkers and living quarters, complete with firing turrets, are being put in front positions before such bases as Con Thien. Overlapping artillery firing patterns have been perfected to cover the area.

Enemy units still are able to penetrate the defenses and move into “Leatherneck Square” flanked by Con Thien and Gio Linh on the north and Dong Ha and Cam Lo on the south.

But once the enemy is inside the square, a senior infantry officer said, “he’s in a meat grinder.”

Dr. Sam Sheppard's Suit Against Paper Dismissed

CLEVELAND (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge James C. Connell Wednesday dismissed a damage suit filed by Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard against the E. W. Scripps Co., publisher of the Cleveland Press. In a suit filed last November Sheppard also alleged former Press editor Louis B. Seltzer and Cuyahoga County Coroner Samuel R. Gerber plotted the murder of his first wife. The suit said the three conspired to implicate, accuse, arrest and indict Sheppard "even though each... well knew (Sheppard) did nothing to do with the murder of Marilyn Sheppard."

Purchase By Hughes Is Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission says the proposed purchase by industrialist Howard Hughes of controlling interest in the American Broadcasting Co. raises "substantial questions" that must be settled before the commission can approve. In a letter to Hughes' attorney, the FCC said these questions should be fully explored at a hearing where interested parties may participate and where the qualifications of Hughes to hold such an interest in one of the three major television networks may be examined.

BOAC Planes Resume Flights

LONDON (AP) — British Overseas Airways Corp. BOAC planes began flying today after a two-week pilot's strike. Officials of the British Overseas Airways Corp. said flights would be back on schedule Sunday or Monday. A flight to Lagos was the first BOAC plane to take off. The pilots went back to work after the management of the state-owned airline agreed to consider their demands for pay increases to bring them up to American standards.

DINNER SET POCATELLO, IDAHO (AP) — Residents of the 24 counties in the Second Congressional District will sponsor a $25-per-plate dinner here July 12 for Democrat V. Manning, Democratic nominee for the seat.

Family Killed

GASPORT, N.W. (AP) — Five members of a family from New Berlin, Wis., were killed Wednesday afternoon when their twin-engine airplane crashed near a rural home outside this community in western Wisconsin. Police identified the dead as Patrick Pangborn, 35, his wife Shirley, 34, their daughters, Sandy, 13, and Phyllis, 12, and a son, David.

Library Might Be Torn Down For Parking Area

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The need for automobile parking space in Los Angeles is so acute that tearing down the central library to make a parking lot is under consideration. Jesse V. McLean, vice president of the City Parking Commission, and other officials told a news conference Wednesday that 3,200 cars could be accommodated at a cost of $10 million. By 1970, said McLean, a total of 10,000 downtown parking spaces will be needed.

Grow Drugs

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) — Two FBI-story reporters have been court-martialed for their part in growing about 40 marijuana plants amid the sand dunes of the Fort. The Army said Pvt. Robert E. Hatchell was court-martialed last Friday and Pvt. Robert E. Hatchell was court-martialed June 24. Hatchell was charged with growing six months of hard labor and two-thirds of their pay a suspended for six months. The Army did not release their home-towns. Army spokesmen said Tuesday both will take their cases before a board of review at Ft. Eustis sometime next week.

Woman Is Arrested With Heroin

BOSTON (AP) — A French woman was arrested at Logan International Airport after customs agents said they found $1 million in uncut heroin hidden behind secret partitions in her luggage. Police identified the woman as Erika Kriger, about 45, of Paris, who had just alighted from a Pan American World Airways plane from London. Customs officers were conducting a routine inspection of passengers' luggage when they said they spotted something peculiar about Mrs. Kriger's suitcases. They dumped out her clothing and other personal articles, thumped the bottoms of the suitcases, then ripped them open. Inside the agents found 13 pounds of heroin, neatly wrapped in several individual packages. Mrs. Kriger was taken before a U.S. commissioner who ordered her held in $50,000 bail on a charge of unlawful importation of a harmful drug. Conviction carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison.

After Being Held By Russians For 55 Hours, Soldiers Fly To Vietnam

TOKYO (AP) — Held by the Russians for 55 hours after their airliner was forced down, 214 U.S. servicemen flew on Vietnam Wednesday after a stop-over in Japan. The airliner's pilot said a Go-102 aircraft warning burst forced their plane to land at Iurup Island in the Kurile chain north of Japan. But the servicemen and the 12 crew members of the "ajitner" reported they were not mistreated. When they ran out of food, the Russians brought them bread and cheese. The American servicemen exchanged cigarettes and lighters with their Russian guards. "We were not mistreated in any way," said the pilot, Capt. Joseph Tosolini of Bethany, Conn. Tosolini denied that the plane violated Russian air space after it was forced down Monday on Iurup Island. "I felt it was my duty to sign," he told a news conference at Yokota, 30 miles west of Tokyo, where the plane landed. "If I had not signed, the plane would have been shot down through what I've been through for three days, I think you'd have done the same."

released—the plane efforts to get the plane back involved contacts between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Anatoly Dobrynin, the Soviet ambassador to the United States and between U.S. Ambassador to Moscow and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin. Some American officials feared a major incident over the plane because the four-engine jet was owned by Seaboard World Airlines was carrying troops to South Vietnam. Foreign observers in Moscow believed the Soviet Union wanted to clear up the incident as quickly and quietly as possible so that it wouldn't affect the disarmament talks the United States and the Soviet Union are planning. Tosolini said he had flown the route many times before and insisted, "I did not stray over Russian territory." Navigator Larry Guernon said his calculations showed the jetliner well below the 10,000-foot ceiling of the Soviet air space when it was intercepted. But the FAA in Washington said the plane may have been as much as 100 miles below the Soviet Union want-off course.

Woman Is Arrested With Heroin

BOSTON (AP) — A French woman was arrested at Logan International Airport after customs agents said they found $1 million in uncut heroin hidden behind secret partitions in her luggage. Police identified the woman as Erika Kriger, about 45, of Paris, who had just alighted from a Pan American World Airways plane from London. Customs officers were conducting a routine inspection of passengers' luggage when they said they spotted something peculiar about Mrs. Kriger's suitcases. They dumped out her clothing and other personal articles, thumped the bottoms of the suitcases, then ripped them open. Inside the agents found 13 pounds of heroin, neatly wrapped in several individual packages. Mrs. Kriger was taken before a U.S. commissioner who ordered her held in $50,000 bail on a charge of unlawful importation of a harmful drug. Conviction carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison.

Nixon Girls Campaigning Around U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's two daughters do some old-fashioned Fourth of July campaigning today in widely separated parts of the country. Tricia presides over a parade and political rally in Cedar Falls Park, Waterloo, Iowa, and then goes to Gowrie, Iowa, for an American Legion-Community Club picnic. Nixon's office said Julie, accompanied by her fiance David Eisenhower, attends a rally at the Hillsville, Va., county court house and then goes to Richmond for community picnics in Highland Park and Southampton Park. The girls-rejoin their parents in Washington, D.C., to celebrate Julie's 20th birthday July 5. Eisenhower also will be there.

Army Gathers 200 Reds In West Java

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian Army says it has rounded up nearly 200 Communist guerrillas in operations in west and central Java, where the Communists are apparently trying to organize a new attack. The communists Wednesday coincided with reports from other regions of intensified political and guerrilla activity by the Communists, who were outlawed after the 1965 coup failed. The army said at least 200 guerrillas were arrested in the Pekalongan district, on the northern coast of West Java last week. It said some of those arrested confessed they were attempting to revive the party in the region and were recruiting villagers into a "people's liberation army."

GLENN'S FERRY RAILROAD YARDS are the scene of tests on this machine manufactured in Austria and designed to lift rails, tamp ties and level track automatically. It is powered by a 100 horse motor and all functions are operated with electrical control. Although the machine costs $48,000, with the line equipment estimated at $55,000, railroad officials are interested since the machine can complete about one and one-quarter miles of track in eight hours, compared to some 52 men doing the same work in about six hours. If American railroad firms are interested, the machine will be manufactured in Rockford, Ill., by the Plasser American Corp. Joe Dreescher of Austria and two other employees are showing the machine in Glenns Ferry. The public is invited to see the machine at Glenns Ferry.

Bids Sought For Fencing, Road Work In Lincoln Area

SHOSHONE — Construction Center located at 710 N. E. Holiday Street (P.O. Box 3861), Portland, Ore. 97208, July 5, 1968, at 2 p.m. Pacific daylight time is designated for opening bids on IFB 2440, calling for placing of crushed aggregate surfacing on Kimama road, and July 11, also at 2 p.m., for the fencing work advertised in IFB 2439.

Guided inspection tours of the projects will be conducted by BLM representatives for the convenience of interested bidders. Contractors should contact the district managers of the bureau at the following Idaho locations for tour of other information.

Shoshone for IFB 2440, road surfacing, telephone 888-2208; Boise, for IFB 2439, fence construction, telephone 342-2711, ext. 382.

Portland Service Center will provide similar information. Work on both jobs is set aside for small business concerns only as indicated.

Restrictions On Pilots Are Urged By Board

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board has urged that airline pilots be prohibited from using radar to try to steer their way through storm areas.

Chairman Joseph J. O'Connell said the board believes there has been a tendency by some pilots to use airborne weather radar for deliberate penetration instead of weather avoidance as intended.

The board recommended that the Federal Aviation Administration amend regulations to prohibit penetration of thunderstorm activity in areas where severe thunderstorms or tornadoes have been forecast.

Bridge Club Has 11 Tables In Play

SHOSHONE — The Episcopical church with 11 tables in play.

North and south winners were Mrs. R. J. Sison and Mrs. W. H. Newcomer, first; Mrs. L. R. Dunken and Mrs. Roy Hill, second; Mrs. John Hahn and Mrs. M. L. Brown, third; and Mrs. M. Meeks and Mrs. L. M. Hall, fourth.

East and west winners include Mrs. Horace L. Holmes and Mrs. J. F. Henry, first; Mrs. Faye Jensen and Mrs. A. V. Williams, second; Mrs. A. V. Schrank and Mrs. T. J. Green, third; and Mrs. J. M. Shelby and Mrs. R. M. Peterson, fourth.

Mrs. Jeanne VanName, New York City, was a guest.

Mrs. Steelsmith Is Best Loser

HANSEN — Mrs. Thomas Steelsmith was best loser at the Slim and Trim TOPS Club meeting at her home. Measurements were taken as the program feature.

Plans were made to purchase a camera for club and color film will be used for the scrapbook records.

Charabell Niven was winner for the past contest. Her name was the only one left on the ball, signifying no weight gain during the contest. She received a monetary prize.

Plans were discussed for penalties and honors for losing and winners for the coming contest. It was decided to start a brick contest with the new quarters. Each member making a pound gain must carry the brick to and from meetings.

NEWSMAN GETS POST APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The appointment of James J. Boy of Boise to the Washington staff of Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, was announced Tuesday. The former Boise newsman is 42 and the wife of Mrs. Robert Hamersley of Boise.

Girl Dies

EAST LONDON — South Africa (AP) — Zoleka, the eldest of East London's 2-year-old Tukutse, 2, died shortly after she was admitted to the Prere Hospital with suspected inflammation of the brain.

A hospital spokesman said the cause of death could not be determined until after the postmortem.

The other quints — three boys and one girl — were reported well but they will be taken to the hospital to be examined by the spokesman said.

The quints were born Feb. 26, 1966, to Mrs. Nagesi Tukutse.

Hill City Boy Hurt In Mishap

FAIRFIELD — Kenneth Anderson, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, Hill City, and Billie, broke a leg Sunday when he was struck by a car as he and a companion were riding their bicycles on highway 88 about one-half mile east of Hill City near the Anderson home.

He was struck by a car driven by Mrs. John Dixon, Route 1, Wendell, when he turned his bike in front of the Anderson home.

He was struck by a car driven by Mrs. John Dixon, Route 1, Wendell, when he turned his bike in front of the Anderson home.

The right front headlight was damaged on the Dixon car.

Deputy Sheriff Zahner, Edwards and Sheriff Cox investigated the accident. There were no citations.

Losers Tied

PAUL — Edith Gilson and Lavern Bermingham tied for highest loser of the week for the TOPS Pamper Club, which met at the Idaho Bank and Trust conference room at Paul.

Each woman recorded a two-pound loss. The club's 20 members recorded 21 pounds lost during the week and 12 gained.

Plans were made for a Mini-Cassia TOPS club fun night to be held 7:30 p.m. July 18 at the Salmon Park, Burley.

Annual Homecoming Set At Magic Valley College, Albion

MAGIC VALLEY CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, Albion — Tenth annual homecoming is slated for Nov. 23 at Magic Valley Christian College with more alumni expected to return for the celebration than any previous year.

Walter Gillen, former faculty member now at Cocon Beach, Fla., will be the speaker at the homecoming banquet. Last fall more than 100 alumni attended the first 10 years of operation of Homecoming with more than 60 attending the banquet.

Other former faculty and staff members expected to be among the guests in November are: C. Davis, former Bible and Greek instructor and boys' dorm parent, and Jim and Lila Foll, who were on the first staff of the college and presently working for the college.

Homecoming events will include a Panther-Alumni football game, a cappella hymn sing, the alumni banquet as well as visits to displays depicting functions at the Lees Ferry and Magic Valley Christian College. An alumni lounge will be provided for former students to relax and reminisce and baby sitting service is being planned for the children.

All alumni planning to attend homecoming activities are asked to write Homecoming Chairman, MVCC, Albion, Idaho, 83811, for reservations. If they plan to stay in college facilities and eat at the school dining hall.

White House Pushes For Law Academy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration is pushing to establish a single academy to train all federal law enforcement officials, except FBI agents, it was learned Wednesday.

The school, tentatively called the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, would be located on a 60-acre tract at Beltsville, Md., a suburb northeast of Washington. It would be on land which has been used by the sprawling Agriculture Department's experimental center.

There are about 14,000 civilian law enforcement officials—not counting about 6,000 FBI agents—who would be trained by the academy. The academy is designed to handle 1,400 trainees a year.

One official said that although it has not been determined how the school it would be set up in the tens of millions, subject to congressional approval.

It is understood that the administration would be in a position to have plans ready some time this autumn which would include a preliminary activity to set up the school. The new facility would not be ready, however, for about three years.

In addition to handling recruits for federal law enforcement agencies the academy would operate refresher courses for present employees. Initial recruit training would be a three or four month course for trainees after which individual agencies would give their own recruits specialized courses.

Cargo Plane With Horses Demolished

LONDON (AP) — A British cargo plane carrying racehorses from France to England was destroyed on landing at London airport Wednesday and burst into flames, spilling dead grogms on the runway.

Seven persons and all eight horses aboard were killed.

The plane was a twin-engine, high-wing, four-engine, jet-propelled air transport firm. It broke apart as it sliced the tails off the jets.

Killed were the three-man crew of the charter aircraft, plus three grogms and an unidentified seventh person, believed to be an airport ground crew member.

The horses were seven mares and a foal being returned from Deauville, France, to stud farm in England. None was well known in racing.

Passengers due to leave on one of the damaged British European Airways Boeing 707 jet for Turin, Italy, watched—horrified—as rescue workers dragged bodies of horses and men out of the shattered wreckage.

Women Hand Over Bomb Then Escape

NEW YORK (AP) — Two young women turned in a Wednesday night with a jewelry case containing a homemade bomb, which quickly was dunked in water, police reported in the confusion, the women got away.

Police and firemen gave this account.

The firemen from Engine Company 23 in mid-Manhattan, had just returned from answering an alarm when the two women, in their early 20s, ran into the firehouse and one said: "This is for you."

The hand-over in a jewelry case to a police officer, Kammer. He and Lt. Alderick Kivana, opened the box and discovered what police later termed a "very mild" homemade bomb.

Kivana plunged the bomb into water and called the police bomb squad. The squad found in the case two vials of gun powder, a small battery and a flash bulb with wires attached.

"It could have harmed someone very seriously had it gone off when the package was opened," a police spokesman said.

Heart Patient Is Still Okay

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — George Henry DeBord, 46, was reported in satisfactory condition today during his second day of heart-attack treatment.

DeBord, a contractor from Holdenville, Tex., received Tuesday the heart of Maxie Elwood, an Oklahoma state legislator, who died of a brain hemorrhage.

A spokesman at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston said DeBord was talking, taking liquids by mouth and being visited by members of his family. Doctors said his heart rate and pulse are normal.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q—Until recently, I have bought only mutual funds because they seemed more secure. Are my three funds sound? I am now considering investing in speculative issues. Why did Warren jump 5 points one day late in May? — W. R.

A—Many new investors, through their uncertainties, but confidence in their own judgment will grow as you add to your knowledge.

Your three funds are aimed at growth and quite suitable for a young person such as you. Dreyfus has a good record in this respect and invests in a new "pop" fund, has performed well. Supervised Investor Growth was formed in 1966 and has shown satisfactory improvement since.

As to your final question, the rise in Varian shares followed announcement of a new plant process. A low-cost method of plating metal surfaces with any metal, alloy or nonmetallic substance at mass production rates could add significantly to future earnings. Conversely, a recent price drop in the shares was recorded following Varian's estimate of lower fiscal 1968 earnings. Over-reaction to the new reports is typical in a market characterized by heavy speculative participation.

Q—I have over 300 per cent profit in Asamera Oil and Products Research and Chem. A friend says I should sell and not be greedy. I think prospects make them worth holding. What do you think? — J. C.

Rider Is Star

LAS VEGAS, N.M. (AP) — One of the last three living members of the famous Rough Riders arrived in Las Vegas bus for the 69th annual Rough Riders reunion.

Jesse Langdon, 87, of East Rutherford, N. Y., rode in a parade through the center of town and the honored guest at a luncheon.

Two years ago, Langdon drove his sports car from New York to the celebration, honoring the famous cavalry group.

Theodore "Roosvelt" himself attended the group's first reunion in Las Vegas in 1909. He was 66 years old at the time.

Langdon, who is now 87, is a member of the Spanish-American War Veterans Association. He became president of the association in 1966.

Proposal To Hike License Fee Opposed

BOISE (AP) — A proposal to double motor vehicle license fees has been attacked by the manager of the Idaho Automobile Association.

K. E. Miller said "piling the burden on motorists to solve the tax mess is not the answer."

Myran Schieffler, state director of the Idaho Legislative Council, said last month that doubling license fees is one recommendation being considered by the legislature's tax study committee.

Miller said Idaho motorists have been the subject of several other tax raises lately, including the $2 inspection fee, a $1 fee for reflectorized licenses and an extra one-cent gallon in gas taxes.

Miller said the state inspector is "unproven safety value"

Restrict Police

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The City Council decreed Wednesday that a policeman who shoots a suspect will be suspended with pay and without prejudice until a hearing is held.

Police use of firearms has been a source of controversy in the Texas capital city since a Mexican-American job corps trainee was killed while running from a car.

Shoshone Sets Bond Vote For Sewer Plan

SHOSHONE—The old desk all system in the city. Possible sites for the lagoons were listed and the summary cost was estimated at $138,400.

A 30 per cent grant in the treatment portion of the plant would be provided by the government, in amount of $73,820, which would leave the city $64,580. This figure is exclusive of securing lands and rights-of-way.

After discussion, the council authorized—Mr. Smith, to go ahead with all necessary preparations prior to a bond election. Bids were reviewed and a new order is being purchased by the council.

Bar-tender permits were granted on application qualifications.

and building permits were granted to Edward Bayliss; to move in a house to remodel and to Reid Newby to move and improve a shed.

The clerk was authorized to write to the owner of the property used for city garbage dump in preparation to purchase the property.

The purchase of a garbage pucker truck was authorized, Riedel and Associates are being asked to draw plans for preliminary park and other city improvements.

The park improvements would include rip-rapping the river in one section of the park, to cut off a bottleneck, widen it in another, improve the tennis court with plans to possibly be able to flood it in the winter for a skating pond, curbing and parking stripping at the edge of the city recreation field.

The engineer's report must be available before the city can submit to the State Department of Parks the plans for improvement. If approved, the department will then assist in amount of 50 per cent of the improvement program, which may be spread over a period of five years.

Ordinance No. 287 was read for the second time and will be read at the August meeting, subject to adoption at that time. This pertains to accumulation of old autos, junk and debris on private property and alleys soon as possible.

Water Slows

AMERICAN FORK, Utah (AP) — The city's water system slowed to a trickle for a while Wednesday, forcing restrictions on lawn sprinkling.

A water pump burned out and was sent to Salt Lake City for repair. It was expected to be back in operation today.

Residents recently approved a $280,000 water improvement project. Construction is under way.

Security Tightened Around Memphis Jail For Return Of James Earl Ray

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Security is being gradually tightened around the Shelby County Jail and court complex in anticipation of James Earl Ray's eventual return to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Officials refuse to discuss their security plans, or even to confirm that extraordinary steps are being taken.

But one aspect came to light when Dist. Atty. Gen. Phil M. Canale, the man who will lead the Ray prosecution, revealed that a security door had been placed over the hallway leading to his and his assistants' offices.

"We've been meaning to put up this door for some time," Canale said. "The Ray case caused us to move a little faster."

The county's five criminal court judges, one of whom will preside over Ray's trial, have called for immediate remodeling of a wing of the criminal courts building to provide more courtroom and at least two new courtrooms.

The judges met Wednesday with Jack Ramsay, chairman of the Shelby County Commission.

Judge Won't Change Spock Conviction

BOSTON (AP)—Federal Judge Francis J.W. Ford Wednesday denied all 11 motions seeking to reverse the convictions of Dr. Benjamin Spock and three others on anti-drug conspiracy charges.

The 85-year-old jurist made no comment on the motions.

Lawyers for Spock, 65, Yale Chaplain William Sloan Coffin Jr., Harvard graduate student Michael Ferber, and author Mitchell Goodman of Temple, Maine, had sought a change of the verdict by one of three means:

- Acquittal by the judge.
- A new trial.
- Or an arrest of verdict on the grounds of an imperfection in the indictment drawn up by the federal government.

The next step in the case, which the defense has vowed to appeal as high as necessary, will be sentencing of the four on July 10.

Ford, who presided over the month-long trial which resulted in the conviction of four of the five defendants by an all-male jury, will set the sentence.

The jury acquitted a former White House disarmament aide, Marcus Raskin, co-director of the Institute for Police Studies in Washington.

Spock and the others face possible jail terms of up to five years, and fines of up to $10,000.

Booze Flows

SAIGON (AP)—Fire in the hold of the freighter Golden State, crowded through a cargo of 500 tons of beer and carbonated drinks destined for U.S. servicemen in Vietnam.

No casualties were reported as thousands of cans of beer and soda exploded and foamed over the side into the Saigon River. The fire, which was brought under control in about two hours, was believed to have started in the cardboard containers for the beverages, said James Stelmetz, fire chief at the Saigon docks.

James L. Drach, Saigon representative of the ship's owners, States Maritime Lines, said he had asked the U. S. Army's Criminal Investigation Division to look into the possibility of arson, adding: "We can't understand why the fire spread so rapidly."

Watch For Snakes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—As patrol clerk Jewell Lyons opened an unmarked parcel Wednesday, out slid six racer snakes and a gopher snake.

"I didn't even scream," said Mrs. Lyons. "I didn't have time to scramble on top of a desk and then I shouted for help."

One of her coworkers at the terminal annoy office gathered the snakes after determining they were harmless. The reptiles were turned over to a city animal-control officer, who set them free.

Boy Recaptured After Escape

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—A Butler, Tenn., youth broke and ran from officers Wednesday while being escorted from justice court to serve 30 days for auto theft.

The youth, identified both as Hubert Campbell and Jerry Swiney, was apprehended within two blocks.

What Are Americans Talking About?

EDITORS' NOTE — What's on America's mind? America's conclusion? The nationwide soundings by members of The Associated Press Managing-Editors Association who were asked what their readers are talking about.

This report was compiled by Tom Fesperman, managing editor of the Charlotte Observer, and Jan Menzies, managing editor of the Boston Globe. Their first reports formed the basis for a series of stories earlier this year.

In February, our predicament in Vietnam seemed to be the only one that had a solution in the little towns and big cities across the country. In February, we wondered mainly about our behavior toward the Vietnamese.

In July—now that there's talk of peace around a big table in Paris—we're talking about ourselves, and about our behavior toward each other. In July, the memory of Bobby Kennedy's death in a kitchen corridor is still sharp.

Newspeople listening in on conversations on street corners and at club meetings and in offices and factories hear not so many specific mentions of Bob as they do of the need to put our own violence under tighter controls.

They're caught. It seems, in a constitutional dilemma: Should they shackle their own rights to own guns in order to control the talking to each other? But guns are not all they're talking about in July.

They still speak of the war, if not as much as they did a few months ago. They speak, not very excitedly, of the presidential campaign. They talk of taxes—the taxes that seem to be going up and up, locally as well as nationally. They talk of civil rights, still, but now they seem to be talking more of local action programs to give the Negro more his due.

They talk of the Poor People, and in some places they talk of busing school children to other neighborhoods, and in Texas they talk of maybe getting liquor by the drink.

"Eavesdrop" reports from more than 40 cities in the United States are full of the problems, the prices, the crime, the taxes, the mysteries of youth, the rebellions.

And the reports are largely cheerful.

The Americans are not talking about any great achievements in early July or about any big victories, or about any major progress, or about any rainbows for they thought even the May-June weather was pretty lousy.

We reported in February that the Americans were generally unhappy, and we must tell you in July they're still evidently bent with care.

But sprinkled here and there through this big salad of conversations were some small crumbs: Some people, of course, are talking about their summer vacations.

It seemed, after all, a bright thing to talk about.

The Americans are turning in upon themselves.

They're worried about the guns they own, and they're not quite sure how to control them. They're worried about violence in the country—not so much just racial violence, but crime and generally violent behavior—and they're talking to each other about it in Boston, in Council Bluffs, in Amarillo, in Saginaw, in Moline, in Newark, all over.

It's not quite the same as it was in February, when many editors over the United States fast reported on "what the people are talking about" in our Editor-to-People Survey No. 2.

"Murf The Surf" Declared Legally Insane By Doctor

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A news item that "Murf the Surf" Murphy, said to consider himself a modern day Robin Hood, has been declared legally insane.

Criminal Court Judge Carlisle Stedman canceled Murphy's murder and robbery trials after declaring him "mentally unable to aid his defense counsel or understand charges against him."

"The defendant is adjudicated insane and incapable of standing trial at this time," Stedman said at the Dade County hearing.

Dr. David Rothenberg, a psychiatrist, testified at the 13-hour hearing that "Jack Murphy is suffering from an extreme mental disorder, is extremely dangerous and belongs in a mental hospital."

Rothenberg quoted Murphy as saying during the May 6 examination, "I am like a Robin Hood, I'm here to help those that need help, and help those that have been wronged, and to punish those who do wrong."

The judge committed Murphy to a mental hospital for an undetermined term and ordered him held under maximum security.

Another psychiatrist, Dr. Peritz Schenbert, told the court that Murphy blames society for his situation which finds him charged with an abortive robbery and the slaying of two girls.

Three psychiatrists testified for the state that they found nothing wrong with Murphy's mental condition.

Whenever state officials believe Murphy is capable of trial he will be returned to Miami for another sanity hearing. If judged sane then, he could be ordered to stand trial.

Congressmen Want To Stop Another Resurrection City

WASHINGTON (AP) — Inter-mountain congressmen are included among those who introduced a resolution in the House aimed at preventing erection of another Resurrection City. The measure would prohibit camping or erection of structures on federal property, except that which is permanently designed for camping and open to all persons, Rep. Laurence Burton, R-Utah, said Wednesday.

Burton said he joined with Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., chairman of the Interior Committee, in introducing the resolution. Reps. James McClure, R-Idaho, and Thomas Foley, D-Wash., also sponsor the legislation.

Burton said the resolution followed an Interior Committee

Daley Says Convention Won't Move

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley has denied that the Democratic National Convention will be moved from Chicago because of a strike of telephone workers.

Daley flew to Miami Wednesday, arousing speculation that the Democrats were looking for a new convention site.

But the mayor said he and his wife made the trip to visit their daughter. "The convention will be held in Chicago," he said.

National Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey said "We have no intention of moving it."

The president of Illinois Bell Telephone Co. has voiced concern that the 57-day strike will prevent the utility from completing preparations for the convention.

James W. Cook, Bell president, told newsmen that installers must get into the International Amphitheatre if they are to provide the communications facilities needed for the convention, which starts Aug. 26.

Cook said Illinois Bell management personnel could install the needed equipment if they are permitted access to the Amphitheatre.

The striking members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers said they would picket the convention hall if the company tries to install the equipment needed for news coverage and communications.

Money is the key issue. The company has offered to pay increases up to $25 a week over 18 months for top-scale workers. The union is demanding $12.50 a week for the first year and $10 more for the last six months of the contract. Top-scale workers now earn $160.50.

Testimony On Scorpion Has Ended

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A naval court of inquiry investigating the disappearance of the submarine Scorpion has ended testimony by more than 60 witnesses and will begin Monday to review the evidence it has received since June 5.

The court will prepare findings of fact and opinion and submit recommendations to the Navy Judge Advocate General in Washington for review.

An Atlantic Fleet headquarters spokesman said Wednesday "there is no telling when the unclassified findings will be released to the public."

The nuclear-powered submarine was declared lost with 99 crewmen aboard June 5, the same day the court was convened. A small group of ships continues the search for the Scorpion, last heard from May 21 from a position 395 miles south-southwest of the Azores. She was homeward bound from the Mediterranean.

The court heard testimony Wednesday from unidentified witnesses behind closed doors.

Buhl Girl Gets College Degree

BUHL—Jo Ann Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Olson, Buhl, was graduated with honors from the University of California, Davis Campus, with a bachelor of science degree in landscape horticulture.

In ceremonies of the College of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences, she was awarded a Departmental Citation for outstanding work in her field.

She was a four-year member of Omega Delta, a women's service organization.

Miss Olson has received numerous scholarships, the George W. Pierce Scholarship this year and an honorary scholarship granted by the California Board of Parks and Recreation.

She will work in research in the Botany Department at U.C.D. this summer and this fall plans to attend Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., where she holds a fellowship to study toward a master's degree in ornamental horticulture and floriculture.

Wallenda Plans One Last Finale

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Karl Wallenda, 63-year-old patriarch of the circus, Great Wallendas, says he'll have one more finale in Wallenda, who retired from the world's premier high wire act two years ago, said Wednesday he would make a "special" final performance in Berlin and I agreed.

He came out of retirement this year for a "brief farewell" and had planned to make his last headstand at the St. Louis Shrine Circus final performance in Mexico, Mo., today.

"Show business people are funny," he observed. "I was asked yesterday to do the same day he would make a 'special' final performance in Berlin and I agreed."

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

WILLIAM BOYD

July 4, 1776, seems a long time ago. But, when you arbitrarily consider age 70 a life time, our nation was born less than three life times ago. As a young nation we had and still have perilsous and persistent diseases with our growing up pains. We seem to sway and swagger at times but somehow manage to stay on our feet in freedom. In our growing (and growing at times), we Americans recorded an unmatched national growth from rags to riches, from poverty to power.

Do you ever wonder what life may be like in another three life times hence? Will they be self disciplined in freedom or chained in regimentation? Will they continue our 20th Century reputation, and their own, as a precious legacy? Will they live in confusion, uncertain whether they should follow their consciences, uncertain whether they should obey God in expanded scientific achievement? Will they think that human adequacies can supply easy answers to hard questions? Come to think of it most of these questions are not 200 years ahead of time. The right answers and right action in our time could help simplify answers to other questions, come July 4, 1776.

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Since Kenneth Wilson has spent 43 adult years observing, evaluating and criticizing the behavior of businessmen, he was asked this question: "Are their morals improving or deteriorating?"

The answer was quick. "Undoubtedly they have improved significantly in the past 40 years," replied Wilson, recently retired from the presidency of the National Better Business Bureau, which he joined directly from college.

The cleaner atmosphere in the market place, he said, results from at least two factors: "There has been an enormous growth in regulations affecting businessmen" and competition now is a highly developed science of satisfying customers.

Perhaps business behavior rather than business morality was more precisely the subject of Wilson's replies, for most people think of morality as emanating from principle rather than being dictated by regulation and competition.

Regardless of the reason, Wilson believes the business climate now is much better for the consumer. Today, he maintains, "It is almost a necessity to satisfy the customer with good values or fail."

Wilson, now 70, recalled that "in the early days the frauds were pretty rank and largely in the medical and investment fields." While he still has such frauds, he said, most of them are more sophisticated and subtle.

While BBB regularly cracked down on the obvious fleeing games, itinerant peddlers, terrible inspectors and such, it seldom seemed to examine the traditional activities of its member businessmen.

Consumers, meanwhile, seemed to be increasingly concerned with defects in the system itself, and increasingly they directed their complaints to Washington and to law enforcement officials.

While conceding that BBB sometimes has that reputation, Wilson feels it is unfortunate and unearned. "Highly many people hear only of the exposes by BBB, Wilson maintains much of its work is unpublicized, behind the scenes," constructive aid in helping business pursue high standards.

That role could conceivably change. Wilson was asked if in the future the BBB might be engaged not so much in chasing frauds as in examining and re-examining the methods and practices of legitimate business.

"This is the big opportunity that now faces the Better Business Bureau and all business," he replied.

The cleaner atmosphere in the market place, he said, results from at least two factors.

Copper Prices Are Reduced

TORONTO (AP) — Copper prices to Canadian customers have been reduced to 45 cents a pound from 51 cents a pound by three leading Canadian mining companies.

The Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Co. Ltd., said the reduction is to meet U.S. competition.

U.S. firms now sell copper at 42 cents a pound — equivalent to 45 cents in Canadian money. Canadian copper prices were boosted last year during the U.S. copper strike.

Other Canadian firms making the reduction are Noranda Mines Ltd. and the International Nickel Co. of Canada.

Alex Rose Is Home After World Voyage

PORTSMOUTH, England (AP) — The 59-year-old Portsmouth man and his lively lady, the last few miles into the harbor.

Rose waved to the crowd as the 36-foot yacht reached the harbor. He and his wife Dorothy and his daughter Jane went aboard.

Rose set out from Portsmouth last July 16 and spent 320 days alone at sea, stopping in Australia, Sir Francis Chichester, who sailed alone around the world in 1967 in a bigger, faster boat, took only 226 days, but Rose was not trying to set any record.

"He is following a lifelong dream—to sail around the world alone," said Mrs. Rose who has been running the family fruit and vegetable shop alone.

Rose returned to Portsmouth nine days before his 60th birthday. Chichester and his 53-foot Clipper Moth II completed their voyage at Plymouth a year ago.

Rights Group, Demos Form Coalition

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A coalition of civil rights groups and Democratic party moderates organized under the name "Loyal Democrats of Mississippi" Wednesday night.

The coalition has announced it would challenge the regular delegation to the Democratic National Convention on the grounds that Negroes were not dealt with fairly at the state convention.

The group named as co-chairman Aaron Henry, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Hodding Carter III, editor of the Greenville Delta Democrat-Times.

Of the three Negroes elected to the 45-member delegation one announced he would not serve. He is Charles Evers, state director of the NAACP.

The other Negro delegates were still undecided about resigning. Both said they were sympathetic to the challenge, but believed there might be an advantage in staying on the regular delegation.

Parade For Children Set At Shoshone

SHOSHONE — The Chamber of Commerce again will sponsor the children's parade at the county fair, to be held this year at 10:30 a.m. Aug. 7. R. Churchman is general chairman of the event.

There will be section in comic, novelty, character, vehicles and pets with prizes to all winners in each division.

The children are to assemble at the courthouse lawn at 9:45 a.m. where members of the Civic Club will provide judges for the event. The judging will be done prior to the truck fair grounds where the prizes and popsiels will be given to winners and participants.

Floats, machinery and ponies are welcome but there will be no prizes for this section.

McCarthy Calls For Storage Of Crops

CORNING TOWN (AP) — Sen. McCarthy called to create flexibility and improve day for stockpiling agricultural farm income.

McCarthy's speech, billed as a major farm policy address, was scheduled to be delivered before a Rural America Independence Day observance sponsored by the National Farmers Organization and the Corning Chamber of Commerce.

Besides establishing reserve stocks of farm products, McCarthy also suggested adjustments in existing programs which he said would improve farm income.

"The challenge is not that of devising a totally new farm program but of working within the traditional programs already proved to be of value, making some adjustments and of developing new laws and procedures," he said.

Among other things, the candidate asked for a four-year extension of the Food and Agricultural Act of 1965, contending that it would "provide breathing space" until the overall farm situation can be improved.

"The program continues to be necessary for maintaining some degree of balance between supplies and the amount needed for domestic use and export," McCarthy said.

Lighthouse Burns

EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — East Providence fire fighters did the Fourth of July eve up big. They burned the 80-year-old Sabine Point Lighthouse.

The lighthouse was destroyed by order of the State Division of Fisheries and Rivers to make way for widening and deepening of the Providence River channel.

Like Course

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A group of elderly Navajo men and women rode a bus past an Albuquerque golf course en route to a parade, and were envious of all the grass.

"Most had never seen a golf course before," said Don Woodard of Gallup, supervisor of the bus. "They saw all that good grass and said it would make good feeding for their horses and livestock."

Mays, Mantle Maintain Longevity In All-Star Game But In Reserve Role

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays and Mickey Vernon, two of baseball's superstars, will be members of the squads, but not starters, in Tuesday night's All-Star game at the Astrodome in Houston.

Mays, 37, was among the nine extra players picked Wednesday by the National League's St. Louis Cardinals. Vernon, 38, was among the 15-man National League club. It was the 15th straight year for Willie.

The San Francisco center fielder holds All-Star records with 22 hits, 19 runs and six stolen bases in 18 previous games.

Indians Complain On Fishing 'Harassment'

FORT HALL (AP) — Indians of the Shoshone-Bannock tribes are angry with the Idaho Fish and Game Department for what they believe is "harassment" in hunting and fishing rights guaranteed them by treaty.

Tribal Council Chairman Joseph Thorpe Jr. said Wednesday the tribes are considering a $10 million suit against the state for harassment of Indians by state game wardens.

Thorpe said about 15 or 20 Indians from Fort Hall were prevented from fishing on the Yankee Fork of the Salmon River about a week ago by fish and game officers. "The officers told them they couldn't fish there and would be arrested if they did," he said.

"Indians," Thorpe said, "are allowed to hunt and fish on unoccupied public domain land, a right guaranteed in our treaty."

Ceremonies re-enacting the signing of the Fort Bridger treaty, which established the Fort Hall Reservation, were held Wednesday on the reservation.

Junior Meet

The Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce junior golf tournament will be held at the Municipal Golf Course July 12-13.

Tournament chairman Larry Whittle said the Jaycee event is open to any youth who will not have reached his 18th birthday by Sept. 1.

One player will qualify for state playoffs for every four who enter.

The state winner will advance to nationals at Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 18-24. The state champion was crowned at Caldwell July 26-27.

Interested youngsters may register with Clyde Thomas at the clubhouse or by calling Whittle at 733-3552.

Braves Edge Pappas And Giants 2-0

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Felipe Alou stroked a leadoff home run, sparking Bill Pappas and the Atlanta Braves to a 2-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday.

Alou, batted later, Gaylord Fister, second catcher over the right field screen and Pappas made stand up for his third straight victory since joining the Braves as the six-player trade with Cincinnati.

Pappas, 35 overall, also stretched his scoreless inning streak to 21.2 before being hit by a pinch runner in the eighth. He has allowed two earned runs in 20 2-3 innings with his new club.

Fister, now allowed Atlanta's only two singles after Alou's seventh homer of the season, and was lifted for a pinch hitter after being hit.

Pappas opened the eighth with a single and went to third when Willie McCovey threw a wild pitch.

Alou hit a two-run homer off Felix Milian for Pappas and scored on Henry Aaron's sacrifice fly.

100 Athletes Will Compete In Track Meet

NAMPA, Idaho (AP) — More than 100 young athletes, headed by prep star Jim "Bud" Weiser, are expected to compete in the annual Junior Olympic Track and Field Meet Saturday in Nampa.

Competition will be by three age groups, 13-14, 15-16 and 17-18. Winners in the boys' 17-18 division are eligible to compete in the national meet at Eugene, Ore., Aug. 18-19.

Judd holds the Idaho prep record of 1:53.8 in the half-mile race and was third in 1:32.7 in the mile during the prep season. That time is not recognized as a record, however, because it was not set at the state meet.

Judd was a member of the Idaho team in the national meet a year ago.

Almquist Gets Hoop Job With Vandals

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Donald Almquist, outstanding basketball player at Mullan, Idaho, High School, has accepted a grant-in-aid at the University of Idaho, basketball coach Wayne Anderson said Wednesday.

Almquist led his team in the Pandemonium title in the A-4 Division and was voted in the all-tourney team at the Idaho State High School A-4 Basketball Tournament in Lewiston last season.

"Almquist created a stir during the tourney when he scored a record 31 points playing with one hand in a plaster cast."

Anderson said "Almquist, at 6-foot-7, 170 pounds, would be a challenge for a top prospect on the Freshman team this fall."

Cunningham Rides 4 Winners In Third Pari-Mutuel Race Day

RUPERT — A large crowd bet a total of $7,000 during the third session of the pari-mutuel racing at the Minidoka County Fair Wednesday afternoon. The action will wind up Thursday afternoon.

Von Cunningham rode four winners during the afternoon and two big favorites went on the board — the quinella paid $142.20 in the 10th race and a whopping $278.00 in the eighth.

Race one, a yearling (no time) Go Go Jet, jockey B. Allen and owned by Ken Drogger, $3.80; $3.50 and $2.20; second, Snipster, ridden by G. Mills, a 1-2 owned by Paul Taylor; $7 and $2.80, and third, Bet Alo, ridden by J. Crigger and owned by Crigger, $3.00.

Race two, Three furlongs (no time), Quinella $7.60. Double paid $33.40. First, Wondering Bear, ridden by Cunningham and owned by R. L. Bloxham, $8.50, $3.00 and $3.20; second, Jato Jet, ridden by R. Jones and owned by Ted Jones, $5 and $2.60, and third, First Chick, ridden by D. Schiewe and owned by Joe Hansen, $8.

Cards Grab 2-1 Victory Over Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John Edwards broke a no-hit eighth-inning sacrifice fly Wednesday night as St. Louis scored its third straight victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Cardinal right-hander Nelson Briles, 10-6, got the best of Mike Kekich, 1-2, after Orlando Cepeda walked to open the eighth and look third on a double by Mike Shannon. Hank Aguirre relieved Kekich and gave up the first run on a sacrifice fly to Edwards.

Briles, an .075 hitter, reached base four straight times and doubled to set up the first St. Louis run in the fifth inning. He scored on a two-out bloop double by Julian Javier.

Briles gave up a run in the first inning when Len Gabrielson swamked with two out and scored on Tom Haller's double.

Pros Break Amateur Bid At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Australian Red Laver and Tony Roche saved face for the pros Wednesday by crushing United States amateurs Arthur Fergies and Clark Graebner in the singles semifinals.

Wimbledon's last Open Tennis Championships.

Red Laver, a left-hander and the boss of the pro set, was at the top of his game in overwhelming the 24-year-old Ashe of Richmond, Va., 7-6, 6-2, 6-2 and 6-2.

Laver, the 1961 and 1962 Wimbledon champion as an amateur will face the recent pro for the title, and $4,000 first prize on Friday.

This will be the eighth Australian final in 12 years.

But there was more hope for another American victory in the women's singles. Mrs. Billie Jean King, the new pro and Wimbledon queen the last two years (no show), the French-born Mrs. Nancy Gunter, 1, amateur from San Angelo, Tex., reached the semifinals and appeared headed for another showdown in the final. She has beaten Billie Jean in their last two meetings.

Mrs. King downed Mrs. Lesley Turner Bowrey, 6-3, 6-4, and will meet English pro Mrs. Ann Jones Thursday. Mrs. Jones routed Françoise Durr, the French pro, 6-2, 6-2.

Miss Ribey easily subdued Billie's Maria Bueno, a threat (the Wimbledon champion, 6-4, 6-2, sweeping all six straight games in the final set. She will face Judy Tegart, conqueror of Mrs. Margaret Smith Court in an all-Australian final, 6-6, 6-4. Mrs. Court will Wimbledon in 1963 and 1965, then retired for a year.

The women's final is scheduled for Saturday.

Red Hot

BOISE (AP) — Fishing for spring chinook salmon apparently has reached its peak. The Idaho Fish and Game Department says in its weekly fishing summary.

It said "red hot" reports of fishing success have been received from the Snake, Snake Fork of the Salmon, at Bear Valley, Decker Flats, Stanley Basin and Salmon City.

Contract Is Let For Hatchery

WASHINGTON (AP) — Awarding of a $258,709 contract for construction of new facilities at the Kootenai National Fish Hatchery at Kootenai, in Northern Idaho, was reported today by Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho.

The contract by the Bureau of Sport, Fisheries and Wildlife, to Huzar and Clark, Inc., of Spokane, Wash.

Church said the contract requires the firm to furnish all labor, equipment, materials and supplies needed to construct a modern hatchery building, the metal equipment shed, a reinforced concrete water reservoir and water system and miscellaneous facilities.

Paper Claims Strike Is Called For NFL Players

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Tribune said Wednesday night that John Gordy, president of the National Football League Players Association, has called a strike.

The Tribune, without attribution, said that Gordy, a Detroit Lions veteran, has directed the more than 600 members of the association not to show up at training camps next week.

Don Perkins, running back for the Dallas Cowboys, said in Albuquerque, N.M., that he had received a telegram from Gordy, calling a strike. He said he received it Wednesday morning.

"Dick Butkus, Chicago Bear player representative, said he had received a letter from Gordy explaining details of a meeting with club owners in Detroit this week."

"But there was nothing in it directing the players not to report to training camps," Butkus told The Associated Press.

"I don't want a strike, and I know that the Bear players don't want one. But if the association thinks it is best, I would go along with it. Right now, however, I have nothing to say."

Opposing leaders, meanwhile, remained silent while the possibility of a strike over a stalemate on pension appeared imminent.

Unofficially, it was reported during the day that:

1. The NFL players' Association sent telegrams to its members urging them not to report to training camps opening for 10 of the NFL's 16 clubs next week.
2. The latest player strike vote was a favoring 563 to 29.
3. Each club player chapter was setting up a "strike headquarters."
4. Club owners may not judge from their three-point compromise offer.
5. One player from a midwest NFL club who declined to be identified said the players accepted two of the three concessions proffered by the owners.
6. The players' contended the owners refused any increase.
7. A NFL insider, however, said the owners offered a 25 cent yearly $900,000 for two years.
8. The NFL players' originality asked for an overall pension contribution of $5 million.
9. The Detroit meeting brought accord on a reported offer by the owners to nearly match a player demand for a $150,000 salary minimum and also on a pay scale for training and exhibition play.
10. During the training period, it was learned, the owners offered to pay the usual $10 per day to each player, with this scale for exhibition games: A two-year player would get $70 per game; a three-year man $140; a four-year man $210 and a five-year man over $280.

St. Louis Gets 2 Draft Choices

WASHINGTON (AP) — St. Louis was awarded two of Washington's future picks in the pro football draft Wednesday as compensation for veteran cornerback Pat Fischer, who signed with the Redskins after playing out his option.

The settlement by football commissioner Pete Rozelle fell short of what the Cardinals were asking.

Rozelle, who intervened after the two teams failed to reach

Dear Abby

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Here is a hot flash for "NOT JEWISH," who had a Jewish-sounding name, looked Jewish, lived in a "restricted neighborhood," belonged to a "restricted" Country Club but was suspected of being Jewish anyway. I wanted to know if he should change his name to a more Christian-sounding one.

I AM Jewish, but I don't look it, my wife doesn't look it, and my kids don't look it. I have a very Anglo-Saxon-sounding name, but all my friends know we're Jewish because we wear stars of David around our necks. I have nothing against Christians, and if I were a Christian, I'd admit it, but let's get down to facts:

What should I do about it? I would have asked my grandfather, but he was awarded the distinguished service cross posthumously in World War I. Or I might have asked my Dad, but he was buried at Anzio Beachhead, and except for the "I" on his dog tags he might have been buried under a cross instead of a star, for whatever that mattered.

Maybe I should have asked the Catholic priest who held Passover services for the Jews in my division at the Iron Triangle in Korea, or the protestant minister who led prayers for some of us in places like Dak To, Cho Chi and Bien Hoa. I might even ask some of my black, white, Christian and Jewish buddies who made it home with me, but they all learned that in the muddy battlefields we are all "dinky," we are Christian or Jew.

So my all means, "Not Jewish" stay in your "restricted neighborhood" and enjoy your country club which doesn't accept Jews, or negroes, and probably not Catholics either. If you can change your name, son. But one day you will learn that names and looks don't make you a man. You and your friends, and particularly your parents had better sit down with you and reevaluate your thinking. Don't ask Abby what to do. Ask yourself.
S. F. C. U.S.A.

DEAR ABBY: What is the maximum penalty for kidnapping a neighbor's dog just long enough to have him "debarbed"? I've heard that such an operation is a minor sin and does not hurt the dog in any way. Is this true?
"UP NIGHTS" IN ENCINO

DEAR "UP": If you are considering what you are obviously considering, you are barking up the wrong tree. Forget it.

DEAR ABBY: Re the answer you gave the mother of that 17-year-old girl whose father wanted her to stay at his house all night. The girl's mother said no, so the boy's mother telephoned the girl's mother urging her to let the girl stay, and assuring her that everything would be all right. I was glad you backed that mother up and said, "If you're square, I want to be in all four of your corners."

I once wanted a young girl to stay at MY home all night (my parents were in Florida) so I got a friend to call up her mother, saying she was MY mother, and telling her it would be well-chaperoned, etc. Well, it worked, and how I wish I hadn't. What a night! And what a nightmare! The police broke up the party at 6 a.m. and it made all the papers.

Miss Eggleston Weds Shoshone Man On June 7

BUHL — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eggleston, Buhl, was the setting for the marriage of Doreys Ann Eggleston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Eggleston, Deglo, and Dean Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams, Shoshone, in the presence of the immediate families of the couple.

Rev. Edward Summitt of the Buhl First United Presbyterian church performed the 8:30 p.m. double ring ceremony on Friday, June 7. The couple stood before a fireplace flanked by yellow chrysanthemum, daisy poms and white gladioli with two large yellow candles accenting the mantel.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin featuring bell sleeves, accented with lace. The rounded neckline was also accented with lace. The bride's gown was made by her sister-in-law, Cindy Eggleston, Soda Springs.
Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a chiffon petal flower and she carried a bouquet of yellow daisy poms and white carnations.

Doris Eggleston, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Debbie Eggleston, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid. Cindy Eggleston, niece of the bride, served as flower girl.

Bill Williams, Pocatello, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Jack Williams, Shoshone, brother of the bridegroom served as usher. A rosy washcloth was accepted with greater alacrity when she refers to dirt and food smears as "rocket dust." This gives more dignity and status to cleaning up than the traditional "go wash your face."

Miss Trounson, James Exchange Nuptial Vows

WENDELL — Barbara Jane Trounson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Trounson, Wendell, and Donald David James, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. James, Ford Angeles, Wash., were united in marriage in rites June 16 at the United Presbyterian Church, Wendell.

Rev. William Barrett, of the Jerome United Presbyterian Church, officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony before a background of pink and white peonies in tall white baskets and lighted pink tapers in candelabra trimmed in lace. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of fine nylon and lace. The jeweled fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long tapered lace sleeves. The full nylon skirt was gathered at the waistline with superimposed wide lace scalloped at the hemline and midway up the skirt.
Her nylon tulle veil, trimmed in lace, was held by a pearl tiara. The bridal bouquet, pink carnations and pink rosebuds was centered with a corsage of the same flowers.

Mrs. Jerry Trounson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Bonnie Sue Trounson, Betty Lou Trounson, Carolyn Trounson, sisters of the bride, and Mary Kay James, sister of the bridegroom.

Jill Robinson, Buhl, was flower girl. Gordon Trounson, Wendell, brother of the bride, was ringbearer. He also served as candlelighter.

Gregg Johnson, Gooding, was best man. Serving as ushers were Wayne James, James Braga, Randy Gorrell and Douglas Jeffries.
Harold Holsinger, organist, played the organ prelude and the traditional wedding music. Mrs. Lawrence LaRue, Wendell, and Arthur (Jim) Bennett, Hagerman, were soloists accompanied by Mrs. Holsinger.

Mrs. Gordon MacQuivey, Wendell, was officiator. The bride was an honored guest.
Shari Robinson registered the reception table was accented with yellow and white daisies and centered by a three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with white roses and a lace heart, and decorated with yellow accents. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Leonard Walcott.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Dennis Eggleston, Mrs. Robert Eggleston, Mrs. Dea Eggleston and Mrs. Don Shaver, Susie Eggleston, niece of the bride, registered the guests.

The bride was dressed by Mrs. Gary Whiteley and carried by Debbie, Susie and Cindy Eggleston.

The couple will reside in Bellevue for the summer, before assuming teaching duties in Aberdeen this fall.
The bride was hosted at a pre-nuptial shower by Mrs. Alvin Machacek, Mrs. Joe Machacek and Mrs. Walt Olson.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD D. JAMES (Lyon photo)

guests. Lynn Bennett and Suzanne Cheney were in charge of the gifts.

The bride's table was covered with white lace over pink and centered with a three-tiered square wedding cake. The cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Raymond Lancaster, was all white with pink roses. The tiers, separated by Grecian columns, were decorated with white wedding bells and butterflies. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom in front of a pearl heart; white tapers flanked the cake and two large crystal punch bowls with decorative ice rings in the punch completed the decor.

Mrs. Roy Griffin and Mrs. Dale Dewen cut and served the cake. Presiding at the punch bowls were Anne Solberg, Sandra Kimbrough, Mrs. Roy McHargue and Sandi Gates. Women of the church were in charge of the kitchen serving.

Out-of-town guests attended from Odgen and Salt Lake City, Utah, Boise, Twin Falls, Buhl, Jerome, Hagerman and Gooding.

An evening buffet rehearsal dinner was served at the social hall of the church, with members of the Mariners Club in charge of arrangements.

WASHDAY FAVORITE
Colorful, patterned Terry cloth apparel is rated as "terrific" for the well-dressed youngster set this summer. Terry cloth, with all the advantages of cotton, absorbency plus rapid drying qualities makes it ideal for afterbath and warm-weather wear. It is also a washday favorite, being machine-laundable with no ironing ever needed.

Emanon Group Has Guest Day

Guest day was observed with a salad-bar luncheon at the Knott Community Center when Emanon Club members met for their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Donald Treadwell and Mrs. M. K. K. U. I. program chairmen, introduced Vickie Shobe, who played some original compositions on the piano. Mrs. Ross North speaker about her trip to Europe and the Holy Land.

Hostesses were Mrs. Glenn Dosssett, Mrs. Marvin Ruhter, Mrs. John Gilson, Mrs. Elmer Dosssett and Mrs. Walter Snow.

Former Ballplayer Describes His Takeover Of Tonight Show

By JOE GARIGOLA — I had some doubts about whether I might want to learn early in life about telephone calls away from the baseball field, from the boss. Like the time I graduated from big league was in the bullpen, pen, and the catcher to the banquet circuit. I was called in, and bring your glove." While I was thinking that I was going to get a chance to play, the manager said, "Del describes his most challenging moment: occupying Rice (who was catching) the webbing on his glove, and he wants to borrow yours."

NEW YORK (AP) — There I was, sitting in my office at NBC, when the telephone rang and a voice, told me a network vice president was calling. I had some doubts about whether I might want to learn early in life about telephone calls away from the baseball field, from the boss. Like the time I graduated from big league was in the bullpen, pen, and the catcher to the banquet circuit. I was called in, and bring your glove." While I was thinking that I was going to get a chance to play, the manager said, "Del describes his most challenging moment: occupying Rice (who was catching) the webbing on his glove, and he wants to borrow yours."

Each time I got a phone call from 9 a.m. until noon each day, I figured that was going to be a regular church attendance is not that same, show, and out of answer to, that is not inlup, but USE TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS that has grown a close friend yours. But, I can tell you that it was both a challenging and an exciting week for me. My guests were interesting and cooperative. If I were doing the show again, I'd like to do it with the same people. (Beatles John-Lennon and Paul-McCartney were a little bit of a problem when they first sat down. They were tired, they were on the defensive. Eventually, though, they loosened up. When I asked and made my job easier, they also made me a big man with an 8-year-old lady in my house.)

LARRY NELSON will be in Montreal, Canada, next week to attend the 25th annual convention of Key Club International. There will be more than 2,400 in attendance. Key Club International is a service organization for high school men and is sponsored by Kiwanis International. The two attending are from Twin Falls High School.

3 Presidential Candidates Will Be On Idaho Ballot

BOISE (AP) — Unless organizers of a projected new political party fail to follow through, Idaho appears certain to have at least three candidates for president on the November general election ballot. It would be the first time in two decades that more than two parties qualified presidential electors in Idaho. Secretary of State Pete T. Cenarrusa said the way appears to have been cleared by a state Supreme Court decision for the American Independent Party to get its presidential candidate, former Gov. George Wallace of Alabama, on the Idaho ballot. The court ruled Tuesday that although Idaho law lacks specific machinery for a new party to qualify candidates, a constitutional right requires it, have that opportunity. Cenarrusa said filing of petitions with signatures of at least 1,500 qualified voters will be the first step in organizing the new party. That is scheduled for Friday afternoon. Thereafter steps to be taken to get its presidential candidate, former Atty. Gen. Allan G. Shepard and with organizers of the party, Cenarrusa said. Not since 1948 have more than two parties entered presidential candidates in Idaho. In that year there were five. In addition to nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties,
