Airliner Hijacked By Cuban

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A National Airlines jet was hijacked today over Texas by a man who threatened to blow up the plane with a grenade and was flown to Cuba. There were 64 persons aboard.

The DC8 landed at Jose Marti Airport in Havana and the first off the plane was the hijacker, described as a pilot as a Cuban, AP correspondent Fenton Wheeler reported from Havana. Wearing a yellow shirt, he walked jauntily with his security papers. He appeared to be carrying no weapons.

The man had held command over the plane during refueling at New Orleans. Later, after walking into the cockpit with a grenade and a pistol shortly after takeoff from Houston, Tex.

Ordinarily, the plane and passengers would be returned quickly but the apparent illness of passengers caused a delay in the flight back to the United States.

The passenger or crewman—it was impossible to tell which—was removed from the plane in a stretcher and was driven away in a Red Cross ambulance. He once raised his head, showing he was conscious.

The plane carried 57 passengers and 7 crewmen and the hijacker of the plane. The passengers then followed, the first dozen or so U.S. servicemen. The soldiers were taken to a military base at the airport.

"I've got a Cuban in the cockpit with a grenade in one hand and a pistol in the other," the Capt. Sigiliver of Miami reported by radio as Flight 1064 took off from Houston.

"I am being ordered to Cuba," he added.

The flight, which originated at Los Angeles, had made a scheduled stop at Houston. It also was scheduled to stop at New Orleans before reaching its destination at Miami.

A FAA spokesman said Oliver "Red" Hunter, the hijacker, was not enough fuel in the tanks to overfly New Orleans.

FBI agents and police stood by in New Orleans, while a fuel truck topped the tanks.

Wife Held Hostage And Latter Killed

SANFORD, Maine (AP)—Police say Ralph Goodwin, 28, held his wife hostage for more than six hours Tuesday then shot her apparently accidentally while holding a gun to her head. She died today.

Goodwin was wounded by police. He had held a gun to his wife's head as he emerged from a house to talk to neighbors. As he descended the stairs, Goodwin tripped and the gun went off, police said.

Earlier photographers had entered the home with police and took pictures of Goodwin holding the weapon to his wife's head as they sat on a bed together. Goodwin, an unemployed machinist from Dover, N.H., had barricaded himself inside the home of his brother, Alfred, after forcing his wife to accompany him to Maine.

Earlier Tuesday, warrants had been issued for Goodwin's arrest after he had held two men at gunpoint in a Somersworth, N.H., trailer camp and had fired one shot.

"I know I'm sick. I know I've done wrong, but I am not going to jail for it, that's for sure. They will take me out of here first and then they will come for me after the shootings."

Sanford police said they believe Mrs. Goodwin witnessed the incident in Somersworth and when she declined to accompany her husband, he turned the gun on her and forced her into a car.

The couple had two children.

By The Associated Press
A sweltering heat wave withered much of the eastern two-thirds of the nation today and overtaxed power and water facilities in large cities as perspiring residents sought relief.

A slight break in the five-day hot spell denied the northern plains, but the change in temperatures was so abrupt it triggered violent thunderstorms in the Midwest and the East which unleashed torrential rains and occasional flash floods.

Two persons were reported drowned in a flash flood which swept the northeastern Iowa community of Waverly today following an 8-inch downpour that swamped the area in a little over two hours.

Lightning from the same storm knocked out electric power in Waterloo, Iowa, for four hours.

Relief from the heat was on a do-it-yourself basis for millions in the Midwest and the East where the mercury remained in the high 70s and low 80s throughout the night. Readings in the 90s stretched from the central plains to northern New England Tuesday.

Boston registered a high of 98, New York 97, one degree below its record for the date.

The instinct to gouch up the air conditioner or hop into a cool shower created record demands for electrical power and water in Chicago and knocked out electricity to 24,000 homes in New York City. The outages ranged from a few minutes to an hour or more.

Adding to the demand for water in both cities were hundreds of illegally opened fire hydrants turned on by residents.

In Boston, the fire department turned on sprinklers for youngsters at 75 hydrants. City officials removed electricity consumption hit an all-time peak Tuesday and water consumption jumped 23 per cent.

As far as any general relief, the Weather Bureau was not optimistic. "Little change is expected in the over-all picture" was the way a forecaster put it.

President Confers With Vietnam Peace Negotiator Cyrus Vance

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson and members of his staff conferred for several hours today with Vietnam peace negotiator Cyrus Vance, who returned to the White House after a trip to Paris.

Johnson got a personal briefing from Vance, an associate White House spokesman said. But there was no comment from Johnson, Vance or White House spokesmen on the conversations.

Vance, who had talks with South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu this weekend in Honolulu and the White House said Vance was bringing up to date on the Paris discussions, which so far have produced no significant progress toward a peace settlement.

White House spokesmen said Vance would not go to Honolulu with Johnson.

James Earl Ray May Return To U.S. Tonight Or Thursday

By COLIN FROST
LONDON (AP)—James Earl Ray may be on his way back to the United States tonight or Thursday to face trial for the killing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray cleared the way for his return by signing a declaration Tuesday that he did not want to appeal the order for his extradition issued by London's chief magistrate on July 10.

It was not known whether Ray's lawyers would deliver his statement to the Home Office or whether they would let the 15-hour extradition treaty deadline expire this afternoon without taking further action.

In either case, Home Secretary James Callaghan could supply the order for Ray's extradition before midnight. He would then be delivered to the U.S. Justice Department for the transatlantic flight.

Ray has left London with news of his actual arrival in Memphis, an American source said.

Other informed sources speculated that Ray would be flown back with a heavy guard aboard a U.S. military plane or a chartered civilian U.S. military planes can use British civilian flights such as Heathrow and Gatwick airports near London.

Ray's American lawyer, Arthur J. Hanes of Birmingham, Ala., was due in London this morning to ask a court to appoint his client back to the United States, but U.S. officials indicated this request would be turned down.

Ray's decision not to appeal the extradition order came as a surprise after a routine court hearing Tuesday at which he sat quietly while his British lawyers agreed to have him held in prison on another eight days on charges he violated Britain on a forged Canadian passport and carried an unlicensed gun.

These were the charges on which he was arrested June 8 at London Airport, ending a two-month, worldwide search following the slaying of the civil rights leader April 4 in Memphis.

Ray's British lawyers had been preparing an appeal based on the contention that King's

District Asks $1.3 Million School Funds

A claim for $1,356,667.73 for the state and county share of support for Twin Falls School District No. 411 was made in Boise this week when Dr. Ernest Ragland presented the district's annual report to the Department of Education.

Ragland stated that amount represents over 40 percent of the district's operating budget for 1967-68. The budget this year amounted to about $2.8 million.

The amount of the billing is made on the basis of average daily attendance times $272, set this year by the state. Just over 6,000 students attended school last year in the district.

In the billing, a weighted average of attendance is used. Elementary students are multiplied by 1; high school students by 1.3, and special education students by 2.

During the 1966-67 school year in district 411, the average expenditure per pupil was $359.89, about $59 less than an average of $418.77 for similar schools in the state.

Dr. Ragland noted that in 1964, prior to enactment of the new law, the school district received $246,600 from its state and county billing made in the annual report. This year's figure represents less than a 25 percent increase over 1964.

Realigning Of School Trustee Zones Studied

Twin Falls School District No. 411 trustees are considering realigning of the five trustee zones in the district.

Ernest Ragland, superintendent, stated this week.

He said that the five zones have had no boundary changes since they were set up 29 years ago.

At that time, in 1948, School District No. 411 was formed, he stated.

Since that time heavy population areas have shifted considerably, and trustees feel that more equitable boundaries can be formed.

Dr. Ragland stated that the state will have to approve the boundary change and that elections in the district will be held to elect trustees to approve the change by vote. He said he expects that if trustees do decide to ask for the boundary changes, an election will be held some time this fall of this year.

TOKYO (AP)—A 10-coach electric train smashed into the rear of a light-rail train apparently stalled at crowded Ochanomizu Station in downtown Tokyo Tuesday night, injuring more than 150 passengers, police said.

Postal Service Stays At Murphy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The status of Murphy as county seat of Owyhee County has been confirmed by the Post Office Department today.

The department has declined to change its mind on a decision to keep the county's post office at Murphy, Idaho.

State Sen. Richard High, Twin Falls, said Wednesday he had not heard of the proposed relocation of the post office in Twin Falls, but said there had been a cooperative study under way in Idaho for some time on ground water.

High said the U.S. Geological Survey has been participating on a 50-50 basis on such studies in order to avoid duplication of work and gain the most benefit for money spent.

Several other water authorities in the Magic Valley area were out of town including delegates to the Well Drillers Convention in Boise and director, Earl Westlake, Bennington; George Roessler, Shoshone; Darrall Smith, Jerome; Cecil Brown, Blaine; Kenneth Witt, Caldwell; and Doug Cushman, Blackfoot.

Stay In Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Minority Leader Mike Mansfield called today for Congress to remain in session during the national political conventions next month.

He abandoned any hope of meeting the original deadline to adjourn Aug. 3, in advance of the Republican National Convention opening the following week in Miami Beach, Fla.

Most other congressional leaders who have called on Congress to continue its session until after both party conventions. The Democrats meet in Chicago, Aug. 26.

T.F. Water Research Center Is Proposed

MCCALL, Idaho (AP)—A University of Idaho professor has suggested water produced in Idaho be taxed to provide funds for development of a research center at Twin Falls.

The proposed center, C. C. Warnick said, would examine ground water supply through state control.

Warnick, at a meeting of the Idaho Well Drillers Association at Twin Falls, said the center would be financed with a federal grant.

State Sen. Richard High, Twin Falls, said Wednesday he had not heard of the proposed relocation of the post office in Twin Falls, but said there had been a cooperative study under way in Idaho for some time on ground water.

High said the U.S. Geological Survey has been participating on a 50-50 basis on such studies in order to avoid duplication of work and gain the most benefit for money spent.

Absentee Voting Starts On Thursday

Absentee ballots will be available beginning Thursday in the office of Twin Falls County Clerk Harold Lancaster, and persons who will be away on August 19 to the polls Aug. 19, may cast absentee votes beginning Thursday morning.

Mr. Lancaster said ballots must be cast in the clerk's office on the second floor of the county courthouse.

He also reminded local residents who had not yet registered that registration books will close Aug. 3 at 9 p.m. Anyone who failed to vote in the last general election has automatically been dropped from the registration books, he said. Persons who have moved from one precinct to another but who have not yet been registered at that time also should re-register before the Aug. 3 deadline.

Mr. Lancaster said 27,000 official and sample ballots for the Aug. 6 primary election have been delivered to his office as part of the preparations being made for the primary voting.

Wednesday is the deadline for certification of candidates by the secretary of state to the various county auditors, and the primary will be published through the SDA's office during the past fiscal year ranged from $2,500 to $900,000.

Abe Fortas Continues To Testify On His Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice Abe Fortas told a Senate committee today he had been asked to testify on the Supreme Court bench, to complain about a speech on the costs of the Vietnam war, testifying on his nomination to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice, said the friend had said "I thought I thought a very exaggerated statement about the costs of the Vietnam war that I thought would do great harm to the country."

The justice continued: "I recall him because he was my friend."

The incident was brought out by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., in his second hour of Judiciary Committee questioning of Fortas this morning.

Ervin said the speech was given at a business meeting at Hot Springs, Va. The friend was not identified.

Ervin pressed Fortas to say whether the phone call was made "at your own volition or at someone's request."

The suggestion that President Johnson might have been given the call appeared chaotic. Fortas turned the question aside, saying: "I think it is my duty to observe certain limits. One of these limits is to neither affirm nor deny any conversation with the President of the United States."

He asked the Senate Judiciary Committee "to indulge me to the extent you will."

Fortas said he was surprised by comments that the services he has performed for President Johnson were unprecedented.

"This is just not true," he said.

Fortas said that from the days of President George Washington on through to Harry S. Truman, he had been called on by members of the Supreme Court in whom they had confidence for help.

As he began his testimony on this point, a response to a question from Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., newsmen were handed a three-page statement citing illustrations of instances in which presidents have turned to Supreme Court justices for advice.

The document was entitled "Memorandum for Justice Abe Fortas" and was timed at 8:45 a.m. today.

Fortas said that other members of the court have been called to perform services for a president, adding that he had not been asked to do so to time had asked advice of Chief Justice John Jay.

Ervin raised the issue anew at today's hearing by referring to a testimony given in the June 4, 1967 issue of the New York Times.

Ervin said that the article was accompanied by a picture of Johnson and director, Earl Westlake, Bennington; George Roessler, Shoshone; Darrall Smith, Jerome; Cecil Brown, Blaine; Kenneth Witt, Caldwell; and Doug Cushman, Blackfoot.

the roles of a Supreme Court Justice.

Fortas said that there was one thing he had not done Tuesday in acknowledging that he has performed services for Johnson, "I thought it was a matter of the court on Vietnam and the Detroit riots."

Ervin picked up where he left off Tuesday in his criticism of Fortas, who had been an associate justice since 1965, sided with the majority.

Fortas, who has taken the position that it would be improper for him to comment on the court's decision in which he participated, sat silently in the witness chair.

Iraq Chief Ousted By Military Rebels

By ELIAS ANTAR
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Iraqi military rebels have ousted President Abdel Rahman Aref and expelled him from the country, Radio Baghdad said today. The reported coup was bloodless, but a dispatch from Tehran said there was heavy fighting.

The Tehran newspaper Eghtesalat, quoting travelers and field correspondents, said there was severe action in Baghdad, Basra and other towns including Khormanshahr and Khosrovi near the border of Iran.

A Revolutionary Command Council took over all executive and legislative powers. Its membership was not announced immediately, but there was speculation it is led by the Baath Socialist party, which rules Syria.

Denouncing Aref's regime as "a narrow, illiterate, a Baghdad broadcast said the ousted leaders had "divided the country into feudal sections for their personal enrichment," failed to settle the rebellion of the Kurds in the north and Iraq, and pursued a "ruthless and superstitious policy on Palestine."

Aref had advocated a political settlement of the Arab-Israeli dispute. Syria's Baathist government is the most militant of Israel's opponents in the 1967 war.

Iraq's borders, airports, ports and railroad services were shut down, and an indefinite curfew was imposed, the radio said.

Baghdad Radio reported Aref, 62, had been sent to join his family in exile. It did not say to what country he went, but Turkey was considered likely.

The government of Premier Taher Yabha also was dismissed, the radio said. It emphasized that the takeover was bloodless.

Messages of support from various military units were broadcast and the radio said fighter planes were flying over the capital in support of the coup.

It hinted that the takeover had been carefully planned, saying military commanders throughout the country had "waited out instructions to the letter to prevent any bloodshed."

James Earl Ray May Return To U.S. Tonight Or Thursday

By COLIN FROST
LONDON (AP)—James Earl Ray may be on his way back to the United States tonight or early Thursday to face trial for the killing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray cleared-the-way for his return by signing a declaration Tuesday that he did not want to appeal the order for his extradition, issued by London's chief magistrate on July 2.

It was not known whether Ray's lawyers would deliver his statement to the Home Office whether they would let the 15-day period for him to file an appeal expire this afternoon without asking further action.

In either case, Home Secretary James Callaghan could sign the order for Ray's extradition before midnight. He would then be delivered to the U.S. Justice Department for the transatlantic flight.

"I suspect the first word that Ray has left London will be Memphis," one American source said.

Other informed sources speculated that Ray would be flown aboard a U.S. military plane or a chartered civilian jet. U.S. military planes can use British air bases, but U.S. officials indicated this request would be turned down.

Ray's decision not to appeal the extradition order came as a surprise after a routine court hearing Tuesday at which he quietly while his British lawyers were away, he had filed in prison another eight-day appeal of charges he entered Britain on a forged Canadian passport and carried an unlicensed gun.

Ray's British lawyers had been preparing an appeal based on the contention that King Jr.

Abe Fortas Continues To Testify On His Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice Abe Fortas told a Senate committee today he had called a businessman-friend, while on the Supreme Court bench, to complain about a speech on the costs of the Vietnam war.

Fortas, testifying on his nomination to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice, said the friend had made "what I thought was a very exaggerated statement about the costs of the Vietnam war that I thought would do great harm to the country."

The justice continued: "I called him because he was my friend."

The incident was brought out by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., in his second hour of Judiciary Committee questioning of Fortas this morning.

Ervin said the speech was given at a businessman's meeting at Ft. Springs, Va. The friend was not identified.

Ervin pressed Fortas to say whether the phone call was made "at your own volition or at someone's request."

The suggestion that President Johnson might have been behind the call appeared obvious.

The document was entitled "Memorandum for President Abe Fortas" and was timed at 8:45 a.m. today. There was no indication of who had prepared it.

Fortas made use of it after saying that "no arguments" had heard comments after his testimony Tuesday that his response to calls from President Johnson for help in few matters of a critical nature since he became an associate justice in 1965 was unprecedented.

Fortas said that other members of the court have been called on to perform services for a president, adding that President Washington from time to time had asked advice of Chief Justice John Jay.

Ervin called the issue anew at today's hearing by referring to an article in the June 4, 1967 issue of the New York Times.

Ervin said that the article was accompanied by a picture of Johnson and Fortas and that Fortas was described as one of Johnson's closest friends and as one of the shrewdest lawyers in Washington.

The picture caption also said, Ervin added, that Fortas had not lost "his instincts for making wheels turn when he put on the robes of a Supreme Court justice."

Fortas said that there was one thing he had not done in Tuesday in acknowledging that he has performed services for Johnson since becoming a member of the court, on Vietnam and the Detroit riots.

Ervin asked up where he left off Tuesday in his criticism of decisions in which Fortas, an associate justice since 1965, sided with the majority.

Fortas, who has taken the position that it would be improper for him to comment on the court's decisions in which he participated, sat silently in the witness chair.

Industrial Output Rises To New High

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's industrial output rose to its second "straight" monthly record during June but the rate of the advance was down considerably from a month earlier, the Federal Reserve Board reported Tuesday.

At the same time, the government announced a plan to pump an additional $300 million in home mortgage aid into the economy after Aug. 1 through the nation's savings and loan associations.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board said it will do this by permitting each S&L to lend to prospective home buyers and builders a larger percentage of its savings deposits. The board said even more money might be made available in this way later.

The June slowdown in the growth of industrial production followed government announcements last week of virtually stable home retail sales during June and an increase in the unemployment rate from 3.5 to 3.8 percent.

Both officers had been suspended by Jackson Township Police Chief Walter McCurdy pending an outcome of the grand jury probe.

Dimitrov, a Jackson Township resident, had told police that Angelo had stolen the .45-caliber Smith and Wesson model 1917 revolver a week before the shooting spree.

"Minifortress" Prepared For Sirhan To Enter Plea Friday On Charge

By GENE HANDBAKER
LOS ANGELES (AP)—It looks like some prosperous suburb's proud new curb-side walls of eggshell white and brown tile floor, air conditioning, frosted-glass light fixtures.

But the handsome draperies hide steel plates—big enough to protect against anything, including explosives, that might conceivably be thrown through the windows.

This is the "minifortress" where Sirhan Bahara Sirhan pleads Friday to a charge of assassination Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

The room is 50 or 60 feet from the cell where six deputies constantly guard the 24-year-old Jordanian from anonymous death threats, Sheriff Peter J. Pitech said in displaying it Tuesday. The room and hallway on the 13th floor of the Hall of Justice.

"Someone would have to get through the entire building to get to this room," Pitech told newsmen. "Whether it will be used for Sirhan's actual trial will be up to the judge assigned the case, the sheriff said.

The low-ceilinged chamber, 40 by 50 feet, was a visiting room for women prisoners until they were moved to another jail building this year ago. Then it has been used to store paint, air-conditioning gear and kitchen steam kettles.

The room is decorated with its long planned conversion to a squad room for instructing deputies assigned to the jail on the top two floors.

Sheriff Pitech told 87 newsmen that he invited them to see "this so-called minifortress," as the recent local headline described it, "so there would be no mystery about it and its location.

A sheriff's aide pulled the draperies, drew string to disclose three steel plates 6 feet wide, 7 feet 7 inches tall and a quarter-inch thick. All eggshell white, they stand on rollers and track about two feet in from the three windows overlooking Broadway.

"The plates are for protection, no one gets near other spaces will," Pitech said. "... explosives or a bomb."

Behind ropes in the room are two abutting mahogany cabinet units with five swivel chairs. Expected to sit from left to right from spectators' viewpoint, Pitech said, they are for the judge, his chief prosecutor and his two aides.

A plywood enclosure, painted white, surrounds the room, raised, built-in desk. There are metal folding chairs for 79 newsmen and other spectators.

The room faces to the east, chairs for sheriff's aides and other officials.

Sirhan's court appearance Friday will be the fourth. The first was an early-morning arraignment after Kennedy was fatally shot and five bystanders were injured at the Ambassador Hotel of the New York senator's victory in California's Democratic presidential primary.

The next two appearances were in a chapel at the Central Jail, from which Sirhan was moved July 7, before newsmen and other spectators will be searched before Friday's hearing.

WASHINGTON—Here in Hell City, D. C., we have got a couple of pips masquerading as responsible public officials in the Rev. Walter Fauntroy, vice chairman of the District City Council, and the Rev. Channing Phillips, president of the Housing Development Corp. and Democratic National Committeeman from the District.

The Vietnam war, was killed while trying to make a lawful arrest of a robbery suspect. He was shot six times with his own revolver, a circumstance which would seem to rule out accidental death.

was "not talking about the individual men in this case, but about a system that matches a hostile police force against a hostile community."

Don't Spoil It

Some people just don't know when they are well off. U.S. Rep. William H. Harrison of Wyoming represents a state with no urban problems. One might expect him to be happy about that idyllic condition of wide open space.

"Stop Following Me!"

Both have issued statements that can only be described as curious concerning the Black United Front's resolution declaring that a Negro, if facing arrest, is justified in killing the arresting officer—presumably if the officer is white.

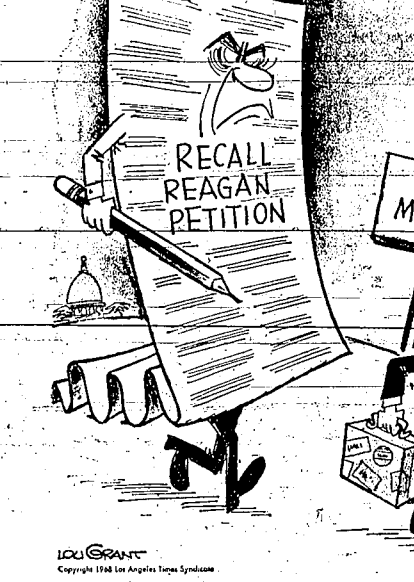

Phillips was asked whether he approved the BUF resolution. "Well, I was there," he replied, "and the vote was unanimous. Later, this man of God changed his stand somewhat by saying the resolution

One BUF member has said that "all those who approved the 'honky cop' resolution were 'very, very responsible people.'"

Latin Cooperation

Latin Americans traditionally have been highly nationalistic peoples, jealous of their own special interests and suspicious of their neighbors. This nationalistic fervor is not always channeled into the useful arena of competition in trade and other world affairs, where it could spur economic advancement.

'Dishpan Hands'

Dear Dr. Molner: A year ago my hands became extremely itchy while cleaning, other than a cleaning fluid mixed with a very small amount of water. Foolishly, I used no gloves.

Moreover, the resolution also demands that police assigned to the black community be placed under the control of the black community, and deposes that "black people have resolved that this change will occur by any means necessary."

 PRAQUE, Czechoslovakia (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new Communist leaders defied the Kremlin and other orthodox Communist governments Tuesday night and said the nation will continue on its liberal course, with the full support of the people.

Mayor Says Demo Conclave Will Be Held In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Mayor Richard J. Daley says the Democratic National Convention will be held in Chicago as planned and city workers will be used if necessary to install communication equipment for it.

Daley spoke sharply Tuesday at the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. rejected a bid for the striking International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers to have their 7-day move also would bring pickets to the Amphitheatre, the spokesman said.

"What we're going to do is we're going to do it with city workers," Daley told a news conference Tuesday. "We're going to have the convention in Chicago, period."

A spokesman for the electrical workers said if city workers are used to install equipment, picket lines will be set up at the Amphitheatre to keep other tradesmen out.

The IBEW also rejected a Bell proposal that convention installations be farmed out to contractors independent of Bell. Such a move also would bring pickets to the Amphitheatre, the spokesman said.

"The company has said it could install more than 70 per cent of the equipment needed if the dispute were ended immediately. The convention is scheduled to open August 26."

"At this time, we still plan to hold the convention in Chicago," said John M. Bailey, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Tuesday. He expressed regret at the latest impasse but added, "We still hold out some hope of getting the job done in Chicago."

mans fear the liberal ferment will spread to their countries, and the Soviet leadership also is uneasy.

The Czechoslovak presidium said it will prepare a reply in the next few days. In an interim communique, it said it was aware that opponents "are active and trying to misuse the democratization process against the party and against socialism."

Alexander Dubcek, the new chief of the Czechoslovak party, refused to attend the Warsaw meeting and proposed instead that he and his colleagues hold a series of bilateral meetings with the various allied Communist leaders.

Reliable sources said the letter from Warsaw demanded that the Czechoslovak leaders attend; a Communist summit conference within two weeks to justify their program. The New York Times reported in a dispatch from Prague: The report said the letter charged that the policies of the Dubcek regime had given rise to "revisionism" in the party and had raised the specter of a counterrevolution by forces friendly to "imperialism."

The letter reportedly made one concession to Prague's new leaders — agreement for separate meetings with the leaders of the five nations before the joint meeting, with all the conferences to be in Prague.

The Czechoslovak presidium's communique said it agrees in principle to a consultative meeting of a group of countries but wanted preliminary separate consultations.

The Czechoslovak news agency CTX meanwhile reported that additional Soviet troops have left the country. It gave no numbers.

Earlier, Czechoslovak intelligence officers acknowledged that only 1,500 of the 16,000 troops moved into the country for the maneuvers in June had left. The latest reported Soviet promise is that all will be out of the country by Sunday.

Canadian Mail Workers Get Offer

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian government made its first wage offer today to 24,000 postal workers threatening to strike Thursday, a union spokesman said, but movement of mail between post offices already has stopped.

Post offices were opening today only to distribute mail already in the office.

Postmasters in the United States were told not to accept mail addressed to Canada until further notice.

The union spokesman said union negotiators were studying the wage offer. He declined to say what it amounted to. The union seeks a 15-cent raise from the present maximum of $2.75 an hour.

Even with an offer for the table, union leaders indicated it was too late to stop the strike scheduled for 5 a.m. Thursday. They have said a vote on any offer would take three days.

Majority Of United Steelworkers Expected To Vote For Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Local union presidents say they expect 98 per cent of the United Steelworkers' rank and file to vote to strike the nation's basic steel industry. "The companies have a shock coming," said the president of a big Ohio local. "Our guys are ready to go."

Decisions To Be Made On Role Of Lewis-Clark School

BOISE (AP) — Decisions will be made in the next few months to decide what role Lewis-Clark Normal School will take in Idaho's higher education system, the school's new president said Tuesday.

Dr. Jerold Dugger, currently head of the department of education at Boise College, said "In the next few months I and the faculty and the state board of education will be examining the school to decide what this role will be."

Sanctions By IEA Hurting Recruiting

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho Education Association's sanctions against Idaho schools are hurting recruiting efforts in the Pocatello schools, according to the district superintendent.

Supt. Rulon Ellis said in a report to the board of trustees appointed from out of state for jobs in the Pocatello system are fewer than last year.

He said many applicants withdrew their applications when learning of the IEA sanctions and said they did not want to get involved.

"Resignation, retirements and leave of absence since April 1 have thus far created 11 vacancies in the Pocatello school system for the 1968-69 school year. One hundred eight of these vacancies have been filled, but 23 positions are still vacant and we are searching for qualified applicants," Ellis said.

Berger Crash Is Reported By Officers

BERGER — A new 1968 Buick owned by Abbio Urtegun Oldsmobile Buick was extensively damaged at 5:23 p.m. Monday in a two-car collision one-half mile west of here, according to Idaho State Police.

Officers reported the two vehicles involved were traveling south on Highway 83. A 1969 Ford, driven by May-N. Marchello, 30, Route 2, Twin Falls, attempted to make a left turn onto a county road.

Julia F. Hoops, 62, Twin Falls, driver of the 1968 Oldsmobile, attempted to pass the Ford on the left side and the two vehicles collided.

Officers reported there was no left turn signal on the Ford and Mrs. Marchello was cited for a defective right light.

A passenger in the Oldsmobile was Marcella Chadwick, 11, Twin Falls.

No injuries were reported.

Body Recovered OROFINO, Idaho (AP) — The body of William D. Olin, 19, Orofino, was recovered Tuesday from the North Fork of the Clearwater River.

Olin drowned Monday when his truck slipped into the river 50 miles northeast of Orofino.

BUILDING BURNS SAN JUAN (AP) — Fire almost completely destroyed a partially finished Sears, Roebuck store in the San Juan suburb of Dayman Tuesday night.

I. W. Abel, president of the union, after a daylong series of meetings with his top negotiating teams Tuesday.

He told a news conference that the companies still had not put any money on the bargaining table although industrywide negotiations opened June 3 in New York and have been going full tilt in Pittsburgh for more than three weeks.

Longer Bar Hours OK'd By Committee

BOISE (AP) — Authority for county commissions and city councils to allow Sunday sales and extend tavern closing hours has been recommended by a legislative council committee.

The local Government Committee Tuesday also recommended the county commission be given authority to issue liquor licenses in unincorporated areas if the licensed establishment operates a restaurant.

The committee recommended Sunday sales be allowed between 2 p.m. and 10 p.m. in establishments operating as a restaurant and that closing hours be extended up to 2 a.m. with an approval of local authorities.

Qualifications Listed For Good Sniper In Marine Book

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The ability to go for long periods without food or water, to control emotions and for kill "calmly and deliberately" and without remorse are the main qualifications of a good sniper, says a proposed Marine Corps manual.

In effect, it adds, the sniper cannot be made the musty, born.

The 240-page manual is being circulated through Marine commands for comment and has not yet been adopted.

Written by Maj. Robert A. Russell of Vista, Calif., who commanded early pickup sniper teams in Vietnam, it lays out the first formal training program on the subject since World War II.

The document says that candidates for sniper training should "undergo psychiatric screening to make sure they have certain essential mental qualities."

"A sniper... must kill calmly and deliberately, shooting carefully selected targets," the manual says.

"He must not be susceptible to emotions of anxiety or remorse."

The manual says "a proper mental condition cannot be taught or instilled by training."

Russell, now retired, told newsmen at the time he completed the manual more than a year ago that sniping is a "very personal kind of fighting—you can see the look on people's faces" when they are shot.

By this, he meant that a telescopic sight brings the face of the often unsuspecting victim close to the eye of the sniper, even from a thousand yards away.

"It's different than spraying lead all over a hill," Russell said.

His manual says a sniper must be highly intelligent, because he must learn a wide variety of skills, such as ballistics, radio operation, adjustment of the sniper's map reading and military intelligence collection and reporting.

Sniper teams, generally two men, must operate for long periods "by themselves" and "this means the manual says the sniper must display decisiveness and self-reliance.

"Stressing coolness—the document says that "even an instant of uncontrolled emotion can be fatal."

"The sniper must possess true equanimity, a perpetual self-possession and serenity which fosters maturity and patience," the manual says.

Request Made

BALTIMORE, Md.—(AP)—Thirty-two of the 33 Baltimore-Fire Department's battalion chiefs asked Tuesday for cars and chauffeurs to drive them to and from work.

"It is important to the chief's position," the Board of Fire Commissioners were told.

There was no explanation given for the 33rd chief being left out of the request, which was taken under consideration.

Study Claims Segregation To Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — America will become increasingly segregated by race over the next 17 years, says a study released today by President Johnson's National Commission on Urban Problems.

The study finds that between 1960 and 1985, nonwhites will become more concentrated in cities and whites will continue moving into suburban areas.

"The projections vividly portray the geographic fulfillment of the fears expressed by the President's Commission on Civil Disorders—that the American society is becoming an apartheid society," said the study's authors.

Nonwhite population within cities of 50,000 or more are projected to increase from 50 to 58 per cent; white population will decline from 30 to 21 per cent.

Former Sen. Paul H. Douglas, chairman of the commission, said in a forward to the report that the findings are projections—not predictions. But he said they underscore the "alarming prospect" that "our people may be increasingly segregated. This should be read not as prophecy but as warning."

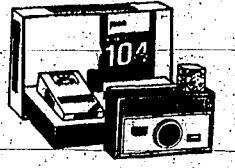

The report says the shifting of population "undoubtedly" will mean more cities will have non-white majorities by 1985. Of the largest cities the only ones with nonwhite majorities now are Washington, D.C., and Newark, N.J.

The authors of the report are Patricia Leavay Hodge, research associate at the University of Chicago's Population Research Center, and Philip M. Houser, director of the center.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am 18 and my going-away party was a girl who is also 18. It is getting serious between us, and now I have a problem. My father is a mortician, and his father before him was also a mortician, and that is what I want to be. My girl says she feels "funny" about my going into that profession, and unless I go into something else it is all over between us. Abby, the mortuary business has been very good to our family, and I have never considered going into any other profession. Before one day I will inherit this business, and I couldn't do any better in anything else.

I have never liked a girl as much as I like this one and I hate to lose her, so what should I do?
MORTICIAN'S SON

DEAR SON: If your girl doesn't dig your chosen profession, it's time to bury your relationship.

DEAR ABBY: When a friend invited me to her home for a dinner party, I knew it was the date of her wedding anniversary. But since she made no mention of the occasion, neither did I.

I surprised her with a gift when I arrived. She took it, thanked me, and quietly put it out of sight. Not one word was mentioned about my gift on the occasion all evening. Obviously, no one else had remembered it.

I was hurt and disappointed because I had written a poem and enclosed it with my gift, and it would have pleased me had she opened my gift and read my poem to her guests.

A few days later I received a note from her thanking me for the gift and poem, but it didn't make up for the hurt I felt that evening.

Don't you think the hostess showed extremely bad manners in ignoring my gift the night I brought it?

DEAR HURT: Jonathan Swift put it this way: "Good manners is the art of making those people easy with whom we converse. Whoever makes the best people uneasy is the best bred in the company." I think your hostess showed extremely GOOD manners, not bad.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT JOE PETERS

Terri Thorne, Peters Recite Nuptial Vows

SHOSHONE—Terri Rae Thorne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Thorne, Wells, became the bride of Robert Joe Peters, son of Mrs. Beulah Peters, Elko, in a June 15 ceremony performed by The Reverend Cain, Elko, in the Wells Presbyterian Church. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. John Thorne, Shoshone, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sallee, Eden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Royal Original gown. Pearls outlined the oval neckline and scallops extended from the neckline to the hem of the Chantilly lace cape that swept into a wattleu train accented with a looped bow. The dress featured long, ruffled sleeves. A forward cluster of pearlized orange blossoms held her three-tiered, old-bow-length veil of nylon illusion. The bride's flowers were pom-pom carnations centered with a white orchid.

Maid-of-honor was Gloria Olsen, Wells. Bridesmaids were Lois Sallee, Twin Falls, and Deanna Schwab, Elko, cousins of the bride. Tom McDermott, Elko, served as best man. Ushers were Jerry Thorne and Leo Peters. Flower girl was Jennette Smith and the ringbearer was Jess Peters.

The church was decorated with altar baskets of green carnations, white snapdragons and stock. Mrs. Ray Hopworth was organist and Mrs. Joe Larsen was soloist.

After the wedding, a reception was held at Friendly Hall. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Jess Urrest, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Sallee, Mrs. Don Blevins and Mrs. Floyd Schwab—all aunts of the bride, and Cindy Urrest, Mrs. Fred Peters was in charge of the guest book and refreshments.

Party Held
KING HILL—Mrs. Calvin Hoagland hosted a birthday party for her daughter, Teresa, who celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary at their home. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hoagland and her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Lish.

Annual picnic of the Emmon Club will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dossett.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. John Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Thorne and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Thorne, Shoshone; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thorne, Murtaugh; Mr. and Mrs. Garth Galloway and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sallee, Twin Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sallee and Mrs. Don Blevins, Eden.

Richfield—Welcoming dinner for Richfield's new Methodist minister, Rev. Hardy Thompson, and family will be held at 1 p.m. July 28 at the Methodist Recreation Rooms. The date was changed from July 21 because the minister will be acting as a summer camp counselor at that time. Sunday church services at Richfield and Shoshone will be led by Leonard Rogers, Dietrich.

Church Says Blow To Bill May Be Fatal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, has termed House action on the Scenic Rivers Bill a "severe, perhaps fatal blow to the bill's chances at this session."

The bill failed to get the needed two-thirds majority Monday for immediate floor action.

The measure had been criticized in the House for a dam-moratorium provision.

The proposal would establish a national wild rivers system that would include portions of the Salmon and Clearwater river systems in Idaho.

Church also said he has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve a request by Northern Pacific Railroad for lower freight rates on grain shipped from North Idaho to Pacific Northwest points.

The ICC has suspended the new tariff schedule for seven months pending investigation, and Church asked ICC Chairman Paul J. Tierney to consider immediate approval of the proposal.

3 Girls Freed From Accused Kidnap

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Three teenage girls held as hostages for more than 24 hours were freed Tuesday night when police captured Edward Thompson Jr., an accused kidnapster. The father of one of the girls, one each of another were found shot to death earlier.

Shaken and at times sobbing, the girls were returned to their homes in Roanoke, Va., shortly after Greensboro police arrested Thompson.

With pistols drawn, police stopped Thompson in a stolen car belonging to the father of one of the girls. He offered no resistance. Police found two rifles and a pistol in the car.

Thompson, 37, a Negro from Eden, N.C., was declared an outlaw by a Superior Court judge in Hendersonville June 25. This meant any citizen could have legally shot him if he disregarded an order to surrender.

He was wanted on six counts of kidnaping, three of rape and one each of armed robbery, car theft and assault on an officer. The crimes occurred in May and June near Hendersonville and Mooresville in western North Carolina. The victims in all the cases were white.

The car in which Thompson was stopped at Greensboro belonged to J. Howard Davis, 50, a Roanoke salesman whose body was found earlier in the afternoon in the basement of a house near Roanoke. Also in the house was the body of Mrs. Brewster Freeman, 50, of Roanoke. Both had been shot.

The three girls were Jo Ellen Davis, 13, daughter of the dead man; Hester "Cherry" Freeman, 17, daughter of the dead woman; and Mathilda Love, 13, of near Roanoke, a cousin of Hester Freeman.

A year ago this Friday, Mathilda Love's mother, her brother and two sisters died in the Hendersonville, N.C., crash of a Piedmont Airlines jet. Her father had died earlier of a heart attack.

Thompson was held without bond in an undisclosed jail for security reasons.

Pioneer Day Celebrations Set For 3 Towns

reln, to control their horses. A queen's dance at 9 p.m. will conclude the July 31 celebration at the high school tennis court. The "Society of Music" will furnish the music. Twin Falls Times-News 17 July 17-18, 1968

Pioneer Day celebrations, commemorating the arrival of Mormon pioneers to the Salt Lake valley in 1847, are planned as highlights of the summer in three Magic Valley communities.

Oakley, Cary and Hagerman all will hold special events July 24, including parades, rodeo, beef barbecue and queen's contests. Many former residents and visitors suggest the population of these towns during the annual event.

A two-day event is planned at Oakley with a beef barbecue to be held at the Oakley park. A parade, breakfast, rodeo and the traditional marathon race at the rodeo grounds also are included.

The rodeo and marathon race is sponsored by the Oakley Vigilantes, of which Kelly Poulton is president; Clyde Bell, vice president; Rad Layton, secretary; Cliff Woodhouse, John Pomesbeck, Keith Franks, Bob Anderson and Ardel Simpson, all directors.

At Cary, a parade, slated for 10 a.m. July 24, will feature a clinic, church, business and children's floats with $120 to be given in prize money. A community picnic, with a free dinner and refreshments, will be held at the fairgrounds at Cary at noon.

Horse racing will start at 2 p.m. with cash prizes offered for the quarter mile saddle horse event, three-eighths mile race for all, novelty race, relay race, spud race, musical chair and a kids' pony race. Street sports will follow the horse racing.

A rodeo is scheduled both nights on July 23 and 24, with the Gooding county sheriff's posse, Cary Junior Riding Club and Carey Riding Club to participate. The Liberty Belles of Gooding also will ride.

Rodeo committeemen are president—Claude Harkins, secretary, directors include Lynn Stewart, Reed Weaver, Leo Peterson, LaGrande Peterson, Claude Harkins, Dee Farnsworth and Boyd Barton.

The committeemen point out that for 75 years Carey has commemorated the crossing of the plains by the Mormon pioneers and the local event has grown from a small community picnic and horse racing to a major Blaine County attraction with two night rodeos, as well as a parade, program, horse racing and street sports.

Another traditional celebration is planned in Hagerman where the El-Capas bareback riders, Boise, will be featured during the afternoon events July 24. Pioneer day events at Hagerman will begin at 9 a.m. with a queen's contest and kids' races at 10 a.m. The parade will begin at 11 a.m. and the rodeo at 1:30 p.m.

The El-Capas, consisting of girls and boys from 7 to 17 years of age, are known throughout the Western states for their daring horsemanship.

They perform their hair-raising routines without bridles or saddles, using only a narrow leather strap known as a tack-

7 Horsewomen Competing For Wagon Days Queen

KETCHUM — Seven 16 to 21-year-old horsewomen of this area are competing for the title of Queen of the Wagon Days celebration Aug. 23-25. All are accomplished horsewomen. This is the largest group ever to compete for the honor, according to Ivan Swaner, general chairman for the celebration.

One of them is an instructor in English style riding at the Sun Valley stables. Another has competed in California rodeos. All are accomplished horsewomen.

The winner will be judged 50 per cent on the number of Wagon Days buttons she sells; 25 per cent on her horsemanship and 25 per cent on her personality.

Sen. Loveland Speaks To Rigby Group

RIGBY — Idaho Sen. Don Loveland, Republican candidate for the Second Congressional District nomination, told a Rigby group Wednesday he is against the 10 per cent federal income tax surcharge.

"It is just another item against the American taxpayer. The surtax should have been a 10 per cent reduction in federal spending," he said.

Sen. Loveland, who was the Idaho Senate's Finance Committee chairman, said his committee has aided in a spending reduction in Idaho. "As a fiscal conservative, I feel that additional taxes are an oppressive burden. These taxes could be dropped if federal overspending is curbed," he said.

He plans an extensive tour of Eastern Idaho to meet with various party leaders and fellow legislators.

Kennedy, an automobile dealer, is running for his fifth term.

Transplant Patient Wants To Start Job

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Everett C. Thomas, who 10 weeks ago received a transplanted heart, is eager to begin work shortly as a trust consultant for a Houston bank.

"The quicker I get busy, the quicker I'm going to get well," says the world's first heart transplant recipient to plan a return to employment.

Thomas, 47, of Phoenix, Ariz., will start work about Aug. 1 for the Medical Center National Bank near St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital, where he underwent the transplant operation May 2.

"The heart transplant doesn't have any effect on my mind," Thomas said Tuesday. "It may slow my body down but I can sit at a desk, do my studying and do my advising, this is fine."

Thomas, an accountant who administered a trust fund before undergoing surgery, will help the bank apply for trust powers. "I have a need and I have a talent and we will try to put the two together," he said.

His wife, Helen, and two of their three sons, Paul, 17, and Carl, 12, have found an apartment near the hospital. Thomas is expected to leave St. Luke's shortly before he begins work.

Their other son, Mark, 20, will remain in Arizona for college, he said.

Thomas said he wants to "be an example of what a transplant can do, to encourage people to realize that the transplant is not a strange thing."

"But it's just an interim thing," he said. "Just like when you have a broken arm... you break your arm; you go back to work when it's healed; you don't stop at a desk, do my studying and do my advising, this is fine."

Masingill And Mooney Top State Junior Qualifiers

Mike Mooney, Pocatello, tied a 73 over 18 holes on the Blue Lakes Country Club golf course Tuesday afternoon to win medals-honors and top-all Idaho qualifiers in the USGA Junior Championship and earned the right to travel to Brookline, Mass., for the USGA National Junior Golf Tournament.

Brad Masingill, Payette, was the other top qualifier after defeating Mike Taylor, Ontario, Ore., in a sudden death playoff. Both ended the regulation 18 holes with 75's. One odd fact is that the same two ended up in a playoff in last year's qualifying round at Pocatello, which Masingill also won.

Masingill, on the first hole of the playoff, dropped in a 25-foot putt for a birdie while Taylor had to settle for a par four and third place.

There was a three-way tie for fourth place at 76, which also called for a playoff to decide the second, third and fourth alternates. Larry Malone, Twin Falls, won the three-man affair while Grant Patterson, Ontario, Ore., took the third alternate spot and David Crozier, Pocatello, won the fourth alternate spot.

Jeff Masingill, Payette, and Scott Jerman, Pocatello, finished at 77. They also had to go into a sudden death playoff to decide the fifth and sixth alternate spots. Masingill came out on top on the first hole.

Coming in with 78's were Ricky Taylor, Teton, and Joseph Marmo, Idaho Falls. Mooney and Masingill are to report to the Brookline Country Club on July 28, with practice rounds beginning the following day.

Qualifying rounds will be the 30-31 and the field will be cut for the match play finals August 1-3.

Officers, directors and committee chairmen of the Idaho Wildlife Federation are reminded of a state board meeting scheduled for 10 a.m., Sunday at the Cougar Point Campground.

State President Marshall Everhart, Jerome, said the campground is located 10 1/2 miles off U.S. 93 on Williams Creek. The turnout is about five miles south of Salmon.

McLain Wins 18th, Tigers Blank A's

OAKLAND (AP) — Detroit's Denny McLain, winningest pitcher in the majors, breezed in his 18th victory Tuesday night as the Tigers blanked the Oakland Athletics 4-0.

McLain scattered eight hits and struck out one in boosting his season mark to 18-2 and protecting Detroit's 6 1/2-game American League lead over the streaking Baltimore Orioles, who trimmed Chicago 4-2.

The Tigers' 24-year-old right-hander has won nine in succession—all complete games—in his bid to become the league's first 30-game winner since Lefty Grove accomplished the feat for the 1931 Philadelphia Athletics.

Chicago Nips Phils 4-3 In 12 Innings

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Glenn Beckert's run-scoring double in the 12th inning gave the Chicago Cubs a 4-3 victory Tuesday night that snapped Philadelphia's seven-game victory streak.

Beckert, who has hit safely in 21 games, came up with his winning blow after Al Spangler walked.

Beckert had tied 3-3 with a pair of runs in the bottom of the ninth when Tony Taylor doubled and scored when right fielder Jim Hickman dropped Ricardo Lopez's fly. Lopez came in on Cookie Rojas single.

Held hitless for five innings by starter Chris Short, Chicago pitched for a pair of the first six innings when Hickman tripled pitcher Ken Holtzman doubled and Beckert singled.

Holtzman, Regan (9), Niekro (12) and Patterson (12) pitched for the Phils. Wagner (12), G. Jackson (12) and Dainoff (10), W. Ragan, 8-2, 1-1, Wagner, 1-1.

20-Game Winner Club Appears Cinch For Record Membership

NEW YORK (AP) — The exclusive 20-win club has five members last year but the gates appear to be swinging wide open this season.

With the 1967 campaign still a little more than half over there are 12 candidates with over 10 victories and 12 more who have won at least nine, including Monday's winners, Denny McLain of Detroit, Juan Marichal of San Francisco and possibly Luis Tiant of Cleveland.

Cleveland has a shot at that super swank 20-win club whose rolls have been closed to membership since 1934.

Dizzy Dean with 20-7 for St. Louis in 1934 was the last National League to hit the 20-mark and Lefty Grove with 31-4 in 1924 was the last in the American League.

Two of the big winners, Juan Marichal (16-4) of the Giants and Tom Seaver (12-3) of the Cardinals, were scheduled to face each other Wednesday night before Marichal was scratched for an extra day of rest.

The world champion Cardinals also have another member of the club in Nelson Brieske (10-6) Dodger's shutout win.

Woody Frazar of the Philadelphia Phillies is up there with 10 wins and both Larry Jackson and Phil Short of the streaking Philadelphia Phillies are in the mix.

The New York Mets' rookie phenom, is 12-4 and Don Drysdale, the Los Angeles Dodgers' shutout ace, is 10-6.

Other National League winners who have won nine, include Phil Niekro, Pat Jarvis and Ron Allen.

The Chicago Cubs and Larry Dierker of Houston.

McLain at 17-2 is the top winner in the American League, followed by Tiant at 15-5. Mel Stottlemyre of the New York Yankees has won 12 and Dave McPherson of the Jays of Baltimore and Sonny Siebert, of

Panel Urges Hiring Of Negro Grid Coach

AMES, Iowa (AP) — A special committee named to study complaints of Negro athletes at Iowa State University urged Monday the "immediate appointment of a black coach in football."

The Ad Hoc committee of the human relations committee also recommended "aggressive recruiting of black coaches in other sports."

The Ad Hoc committee was appointed by president W. Robert Parks June 28 to investigate grievances submitted to the athletic council by the black student organization.

The grievances included one that no Negroes are on the coaching staff.

Negro athletes threatened to quit unless their complaints were acted upon.

In its reports to president Parks the committee said its investigation showed Negro students "have felt the painful effects of acts of prejudice." But the report said the committee felt the prejudicial acts uncovered "do not appear to derive from planned discrimination."

The report also made complete and clear that the athletic council has never opposed the hiring of qualified black coaches.

Parks said "... however, it has refused, and rightly so, to believe, to accept a quota system on black and white coaches in our major sports and has correctly refused to be coerced into hiring black coaches under the threat of boycott."

Parks said he was turning the report over to the athletic council for its consideration.

Braves Drop Astros For Sixth In Row

HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Johnson's tie-breaking single in the eighth inning and a three-run burst in the ninth propelled the Atlanta Braves past Houston 6-2 Tuesday night for their sixth straight victory.

Deron Johnson doubled with one out in the eighth, brought up the single by Sonny Jackson and scored on Bob Johnson's single to left, breaking a 2-2 deadlock.

Deron Johnson singled home one run and Tito Franco sent two more across with a pinch single as the Braves wrapped it up in the ninth.

Cecil Upshaw, pitching in relief of rookie George Stone, blanked the Astros over the final four innings, bringing his record to 4-5.

Houston took a 2-1 lead in the fifth on John Bateman's double and Dick Simpson's single but the Braves pulled even in the sixth on Bob Johnson's double and a run-scoring pinch single by Bob Tilton.

Ogden Replaces Idaho Falls At Top Of Standings

OGDEN (AP) — The Ogden Dodgers trounced Idaho Falls 12-0 Tuesday night to replace the Angels at first place.

The Dodgers jumped off to a quick five-run lead in the opening inning on two walks, singles by Bob Valentine, Tom Paclorok, Steve Garvey and winning pitcher Sandy Vance and a home run by Bill Buchner.

Valentine and Buchner singled in two more runs in the third, and Ogden scored twice in the sixth on Valentine's sacrifice fly and Steve Roman's balked in Dave Gaston from third.

Bud's Duds Tops Gem State Paper

K and T Steel defeated Gateway Trailer Sales 16-0, as Prescott hit a homer for the winners and Howard hit one for Gateway.

Hartnuff, Wilding, Evanson and Kinsell all hit home runs to lead Olson's Sport Center past the Beacon Club 17-0, while the Klover Klub downed Buttry's 14-11. Galley hit a four-bagger for the winners.

Royal Lounge dropped Clugan 13-5, as Martin hit a homer for Royal Lounge and Henrie hit one for the losers.

Snead Blasts Site For PGA Tourney As Matter Of Strength, Not Finesse

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Sam Snead, shooting for his fourth PGA title here this week at the age of 56, says golf is not any more the "club" game that critics have made it a drag.

"There no longer is any place for 'clubmaking,'" the hillbilly stylist added Tuesday as he took a practice swing around the 7,696-yard Pecan Valley Country Club Course with Open Champion Lee Trevino. "It's all grit and groan."

Indians Nip Angels 2-1

In 10 Innings

ANHEIM, (AP) — Larry Brown stroked a run-scoring single in the 10th inning Tuesday night, giving the Cleveland Indians a 2-1 victory over the California Angels.

The Indians snapped the dead-lock against reliever Bobby Locke and Marty Patten in the 10th after rookie Tom Murphy limited them to three hits over the first nine innings.

Joe Azcue led off with a double and Vern Fuller sacrificed pinch runner Tommy Harper to third. Lou Johnson drew an intentional walk before Patten replaced Locke with a 1-0 count on Brown. Brown then singled to center, sending Harper across with the tie-breaking run.

Stan Williams, who replaced starter Sam McDowell in the eighth, picked up his seventh victory in 11 decisions.

Squawfish Poison Used On Spawners

BOISE — A chemical rough fish eradicator which kills undesirable squawfish populations without harm to trout in the same waters was judged a success recently following a test in the North Fork of the Payette River upstream from Cascade Reservoir in the Idaho Fish and Game Department disclosed today.

In fact, some anglers continued fishing for trout during the chemical treatment to destroy a large spawning run of squawfish up the river from the reservoir. All of the North Fork from Cascade Reservoir to Payette Lakes at McCall was treated in two days. Department biologists estimated that some 200,000 squawfish were killed, while all other fish species were unharmed.

A department spokesman added that the squawfish eradication work did not include all waters used as spawning areas by Cascade Reservoir squawfish. Lake Fork and Gold Fork, two tributary streams, were among those not covered. Some squawfish also spawn along the shoreline of the reservoir itself.

Called "Squoxin," the chemical is a specific for squawfish eradication, developed by Dr. Craig McPhee, University of Idaho. It acts on the nervous system of squawfish, cutting off oxygen assimilation and suffocates the fish. Other fish species or livestock are not affected. A later application of Squoxin is under way for about 25 miles of water on the Snake River from Calder downstream to slack water.

for "clubmaking." The hillbilly stylist added Tuesday as he took a practice swing around the 7,696-yard Pecan Valley Country Club Course with Open Champion Lee Trevino. "It's all grit and groan."

"Every course now has to be more than 7,000 yards. It's not unusual any more to have 263-yard par three holes dead into the wind or 480-yard par fours up the hill."

"The fairways are so narrow you can have a perfect shot and still not have a chance for the green, and then you can lose a ball in the rough a foot off the fairway."

"Slammin' Sammy—as he was affectionately called back in the 1940s and 1950s—is the elder statesman of the 165 teaching and tournament pros who tee off regularly in the 40th professional golfers association on championship.

He isn't taken lightly by his peers, not even those half his age.

His swing is the silkiest in the game, a model for the younger pros. His proficiency, like other of the aging, is on the greens and Sam has tried everything from croquet-style (now outlawed) to side-saddle and orthodox.

He recaptured some of his old form last week to get second money in the 40th professional won by young Dave Stockton.

Snead had most of his hair and very little of his present naught when he won his first PGA in 1942 when the event was match play. He won again in 1949 and 1951. He was runner-up in 1938 and 1940.

Like Snead, Trevino just toyed around the course, hitting two and three balls on some holes.

"The course playing fine and you've got to be straight," Trevino said, "but I like it. The tighter the fairways, the heavier the rough, the better it is for me. I think the rough ought to be up to your knees."

Twins' 6-Run First Routs Boston 12-3

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL (AP) — Tony Oliva smashed a two-run triple and John Roseboro homered for two more as Minnesota outdistanced the Red Sox against Gary Bell in the first inning and buried Boston 12-3 under an early hitting avalanche Tuesday night.

It was only the Twins' third victory in their last 12 games. All of Minnesota's scoring was compressed into the first four innings against Bell, 4-1, Bill Landis and Jerry Stephenson.

Oliva also doubled home a run in the second inning, while Rich Reese singled home two runs in the third-inning and Red Rebeck drove in a pair with a single in the fourth.

Three former champions—Vic Ghezzi, Jack Burke and Chick Herbert—withdraw, but 17 men who have won this title were left in the field.

Trevino is one of seven open winners in the field, which includes Nicklaus, Bill Casper and Arnold Palmer. Just back from the bone-chilling winds and gorse of Old Carzouste in Scotland, South Africa's Gary Player, who won there last week, isn't entered. Neither is Roberto de Vincenzo of Argentina, the 1967 British winner.

The defending champion, Don Janjary, a Texan accustomed to the intense heat and courses that favor the pitch-and-run.

Orioles Romp Over Chicago To Hike Skein

CHICAGO (AP) — Andy Etchebarren's tie-breaking homer in the fourth inning sent high-flying pitcher Tom Seaver to a straight victory Tuesday night, a 4-2 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

The triumph was the Orioles' sixth straight under new manager Earl Weaver. The Sox suffered their first defeat under Manager Al Lopez after three straight wins.

Paul Blair's run-scoring double in the second put the Orioles ahead but a two-run single by pitcher Tommy John in the bottom of the inning gave Chicago its only lead.

Singles by Don Buford, Mark Belanger and Frank Robinson tied it in the third and Etchebarren's fifth homer of the season put Baltimore ahead to stay.

Doubles by Blair and Buford in the sixth padded the Orioles lead. Winner Jim Hardin, 11-5, scattered seven hits, seven strikeouts and two walks.

Golf Needs Young Hero, Stockton Says

By RON SPEER
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) —

Dave Stockton, the quiet Californian who has won $62,000 in his last two starts, said Tuesday he hopes he or some of the other young hotshots on the pro tour can win the PGA championship.

"It's tough for youngsters to crack into the big ones, but I think it would be good for golf," said Stockton, 26, whose wife is expecting their first child next Sunday when the coveted PGA title will be decided.

"I believe—after winning my last two tournaments—that I can keep rolling and win it," Stockton said. "But if I don't, I hope some other young player does."

"We've had the years of the big three—when Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player were the big drawing cards—but I think this has been the year of the young breed," Stockton added.

"Look at the excitement—Lee Trevino put in the game by winning the U.S. Open," added Stockton, who replaced Trevino as the leader of the Young Rebels by winning the Cleveland Open's $22,000 jackpot three weeks ago and taking the $40,000 playoff last Sunday in the Milwaukee Classic.

"Bob Luna won two in a row this year. Tom Weiskopf won a couple, and Kermit Zarley won early in the year. There's a lot of other good young players around, and this is good for golf."

"But we've got to win the prestige tournaments—like the Masters, the Open or the PGA—to attract a following."

17-Year-Old Wins Medal In State Meet; 2 Area Women Make Top Flight

BOISE (AP) — Youth was served Tuesday at the Crane Creek Country Club when Kelli Voyce, 17-year-old from the host club, put together 39-40 rounds for a 79 to capture the medalist honors in the 34th annual Idaho State women's amateur golf tournament. Miss Voyce used only 31 putts on the 18 holes as she was seven over par figures of 36-68-72. But she was also the only golfer in the field to better the 80 mark.

Veteran Ruby Stone, from Boise's Plantation course, was the runnerup with an 80 despite a heavy knee brace on her right leg. Vicki Malles, from Nampa's Broadmore course, was next with an 81.

Defending champion Virginia Undheim, Twin Falls, was ousted from qualifying but toured the course in 89 strokes.

Last year's state runnerup, Rose Okerstrom of Idaho Falls, and Polly Collins of Crane Creek tied with 82s while Kelli Attebery, Weiser, was next with an 84.

A three-way tie developed at 91 and forced a sudden-death playoff for the 15th and 16th berths in the championship bracket.

Veteran Chloe Martin, Idaho Falls, canned a birdie putt of 35 feet on the first hole to win one spot and Val Merritt, Boise Plantation, bogied the hole for the second spot. Sally Harris, Caldwell, missed a comeback putt and settled for a place in the first flight.

Eighteen-hole rounds will be played Wednesday, Thursday and Friday with a 36-hole championship round scheduled for Saturday.

First-round pairings in the championship flight:

Miss Voyce vs. Sargene Sarason (87) Burley; Mrs. Undheim vs. Connie Ayres (87) Crane Creek.

Mrs. Okerstrom vs. Peg Rose (88) Crane Creek; Dolores Fitzgerald (82) Boise.

Lemhi Salmon Season Will Remain Open

SALMON, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho Fish and Game Department announced Monday that salmon fishing on the L C m h I River just below Hayden Creek will continue until July 31 at 11 p.m.

The fishing on that section was to close at 11 p.m. Monday. But Don Corley, resident biologist of the department, announced the decision after a public conversation with Director John Woodworth. It was based on the fact there was a poor harvest in the river this year.

The Lemhi River above the creek was closed to salmon fishing only at 11 p.m. Monday as scheduled.

Mortgage Market Will Get Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government announced Tuesday a plan to pump more than a half billion dollars into the home mortgage market beginning August 1.

Following a meeting with President Johnson, chairman John E. Hogue of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board said this would be done by reducing from 7 per cent to 6 1/2 per cent, effective on Aug. 1, the amount of savings capital the nation's savings and loan associations must hold as reserves.

This means that S & Ls and mutual savings banks which are members of the Federal Home Loan System can hold less money in the vaults and will have more to lend to home builders and home buyers.

The liquidity requirement, fixed by the Home Loan Bank Board for thrift institutions, is similar to the reserves which commercial banks are required to hold under orders of the federal reserve system.

Hogue said the reduction will make between $500 million and $600 million available for mortgage lending by S & Ls, the nation's largest single source of home loan money.

He said the board will consider another half point decrease later.

Shepard To Talk At Lions Meet

GLENN'S FERRY — Allen J. Shepard will be the guest speaker at the July 23 dinner meeting of the Glenns Ferry Lions Club in the Hanson's Cafe. At the 7 p.m. dinner, Al Joslin, program chairman, reported that the visitor is expected to talk on gun legislation, both as to registration of guns and crime control.

Brent Taylor, club president, said that this week the Lions are painting structures at the Elmore County Fairgrounds here, including some new buildings as well as repairing older ones where needed.

A steak fry is planned for Lions and their wives at the Bob Smith ranch across the Snake river from Glenns Ferry at 8 p.m. Saturday. Taylor said the club is furnishing everything necessary for the outing except "bring service" and "bring refreshments." George South is chairman.

Camas Picnic Set Sunday

GOODING — Annual Camas Prairie Pioneer picnic is scheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday with family and friends of early-day pioneers invited to attend.

The picnic will be held at the Soldier Creek Pioneer campgrounds and those attending are asked to bring something for the potluck dinner. Coffee, punch and ice cream will be furnished by the organization.

Prizes will be given for the person who travels the farthest to attend, also to the oldest person in attendance and to the pioneer with the most descendants attending. Themes of the picnic, and get-together is "Memories of Bygone Days."

All those with an interest in early Camas Prairie are invited to come and meet old friends and enjoy the program to be held following the dinner.

"Mr." Anderson Is Colonel For 2 Weeks

During the 50 weeks of the year Armour Anderson is known as "Mister" Anderson, the executive of a Twin Falls paper products corporation. The other two weeks of the year, he assumes his military role as a lieutenant colonel of the Reserve Forces of the United States Air Force. This year his duty was at the level of the Office of the Secretary of Defense. Though he was on duty as a part of the Office of the Secretary of Defense, he did not have to travel all the way to Washington, D.C. His special training period was accomplished at the Department of Defense's district headquarters of the Defense Contract Administration Services in Salt Lake City, Utah.

In the event of an emergency mobilization, Col. Anderson will assume the command responsibility for the administration of all Department of Defense contracts within the Salt Lake City District, which includes the state of Idaho. His mobilization assignment is considered to be one of key importance in the Department of Defense. In preparation for the possibilities of a mobilization, Col. Anderson's recent tour of active duty was one of long hours of study and review of the current production efforts in the Salt Lake City District.

Under the guidance of Lt. Colonel Kenneth R. Bland, regular service commander of the organization, Col. Anderson was schooled and briefed on recent changes to Department of Defense contracting policies, quality assurance procedures, and industrial production methods for modern and future military products.

tax on imports. Also, if the United States requires American subsidiaries in France to repatriate part of their profits—a new situation would arise, Chalandon declares.

"We would find ourselves back to the 1930s, when every country erected a tariff wall against her neighbors, and that is the very thing the United States has been trying to avoid."

Like many Frenchmen whose business interests require them to have an international outlook, Chalandon displays a peculiar love-hate attitude towards the United States.

For example, he made himself late for his next appointment in order to question the about American hostility to war in France. "Why do Americans hate us?" he asked, showing genuine concern. When it is explained that American hostility is directed towards President de Gaulle, and not the French people, Chalandon still looks unconvinced. Politics should be about principles, and not personalities, he maintains.

In conclusion, Chalandon believes that Europe is in for a period of severe deflation, and that unemployment in France, now around the 500,000 mark, will increase as French industry firms to cutting form. "The paradox is that as a banker I have always believed in credit," he said. "But now I have become convinced that credit is a bad thing."

buy at least one can of Bennett's paint

as a status symbol in your garage

It's your home. Why not let the neighbors know how much you care for it? Paint it with Bennett's and let them gush their teeth while Bennett's lasts... and lasts... and lasts. Smile, ski, smile, fish, smile, golf and have fun while they repaint too soon. Bennett's Colorizer Paints give an extra year or two of wear, compared to many bargain-priced paints. But if you don't buy our longevously, park a status symbol in your garage. Buy just one can of Bennett's and leave the garage door open. It's your home... at least make 'em think you care.

French Banker Slams U.S. Policies

By TOM A. CULLEN — This is a far cry from post-war days when France was the sick man of Europe, and America was called in to cure her. In those days only Marshall Plan aid kept French democracy afloat. But an American who comes abroad these days soon gets accustomed to being lectured. The tables have turned with a vengeance.

The eyes of Europe will be on the American Congress in coming weeks to see what the Congressmen do about the balance of payments deficit," Chalandon begins. "If Congress does not increase taxes, and take other steps to curb inflation, the gold rush will start all over again."

Chalandon denies that he would like to see the dollar devalued — "That would be disastrous," he maintains — but he would like to see gold become the world's reserve currency, instead of dollars and sterling, and he, of course, welcomes a free market in gold.

In this the young banker, president is merely following the line laid down by President de Gaulle. (When De Gaulle talks about gold, as he did on television — not long ago, his eyes become dreamy, and a sensuous quiver creeps into his voice.) Chalandon also takes the view, now fashionable in Gaullist circles, that American investment in Europe constitutes a menace. "In the immediate postwar period American investment was a good thing, because it helped Europe to get back onto its feet," he admits grudgingly. "But later we have come to realize that U. S. investment in Europe equals exactly the balance of payments deficit, which means that we have been paying for America to buy us up."

The banker's friendly exterior suddenly becomes tough when he speaks of the reprisals that would follow a new American move to impose a compensatory

Reacts Slams

By BOB HORTON, AP Military Writer
 HINGTON (AP) — The joint chief of staff says it shouldn't ridicule his chief's criticism of the Pentagon's study on the use of odd-named studies in the defense budget. It is suspect, he said, that all defense studies are conducted, he said, use senior military officials have reported many instances of dealing with military operations in developing nations "witchcraft, sorcery and magic" and other "psychological phenomena in the Congo." Astronaut Resigns From Program
 SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — The Manned Spacecraft Center announced Tuesday that astronaut John S. Bull has resigned from the space program because of a rare respiratory illness.
 Dr. Charles A. Berry, the astronaut's physician, said Bull, 33, has a rare respiratory illness that doesn't even have a medical name yet. He said no cure is known for it.
 Berry said the illness is characterized by chronic sinus difficulty, obstruction of the lungs and a restricted sensitivity to aspirin. He said it usually strikes young men in their late 20s or early 30s.
 Bull, a Navy lieutenant commander, left Monday night for the Bethesda, Md., Naval Medical Center where he will be examined.

Multi-Billion Dollar Foreign Aid Bill Faces Double-Pronged Attack In House

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN GOLDSMITH
 WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) — The multi-billion dollar foreign aid authorization bill faces a double-pronged attack in the House to either suspend the program entirely or drastically cut it down.
 As approved by the House Foreign Affairs Committee, the measure would authorize a new budget of $7.5 billion. Early this year President Johnson proposed a so-called "bare bones" budget of $3.9 billion. But bipartisan opposition to more large-scale foreign aid spending became so pronounced that the administration itself sponsored a sharp reduction.

A motion by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, long-time foe of large-scale foreign aid spending, to suspend this program completely for one year. It is Gross' emphatic contention that this would not shut off foreign aid. "There is at least $5 billion of unspent foreign aid money in the pipeline," said the veteran member of the Foreign Affairs Committee. "This money was voted by Congress in previous years, and is still available in the current fiscal year. There is absolutely no need to appropriate more billions; particularly at a time when we are presumably endeavoring to effect some $8 billion in budget cuts. I don't know of a better way to economize than by not voting more billions to be spent abroad."

 Should Gross' one-year moratorium fail, the bipartisan opposition has a series of amendments aimed at slashing the authorization total to around $4.5 billion. That would be a record low figure in the 20-year history of the foreign aid program.

near this northwest Alaska family, said, "I managed to buy up a couple years back and acquired some fine equipment. But I just the world isn't ready for a side producer."

Mixed Up

"Mixed-up" radio signals have been received recently by several stations in Sawtooth National Forest.
 The cause of the static, which generally came in close proximity to meal time, has been traced down.
 It seems that every time the housewife stationed at the Bald Mountain lookout, near Ketchikan, uses her electric mixer, it also mixes up radio reception.
 The Forest Service regularly employs couples in many of the remote fire lookouts during the summer months.
 Forest Service employees state the radio interference is minor enough that it doesn't completely block-out transmission—and besides, they hate to make the lookouts use a hand mixer.

Communications Woes Plague Conventions

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Both national political conventions, the first just three weeks off, are beset with communications woes that could affect network television and broadcasting.

Planning for the Democratic convention, scheduled for Chicago on Aug. 26, already is feeling the impact of a strike against Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

Party leaders say they may have to pick another city, possibly Miami Beach, site of the Republican meeting that opens Aug. 5.

The new threat, which could affect not only Chicago and Miami Beach but any city big enough to handle a political convention, came to light Monday.

American Telephone & Telegraph Co. warned a customer of the possibility of a strike by 24,000 long line installers who are members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers of America, a union spokesman said.

Such a strike could affect TV and radio facilities and telephone equipment, including a TV set that expires in 1970.

Negotiations in New York are being held on a day-to-day basis.

and there is no strike deadline at the moment.

A union spokesman said there has been no progress despite the presence of a federal mediator.

Industrywide, communications workers averaged $3.61 an hour in wages and fringe benefits before a recent contract settlement covering most employees in the Bell System.

The spokesman said communications already installed, and most of what is needed already is in at Miami Beach, would not be affected. But he said, radio and testing services would be cut off in the event of a strike.

Meanwhile, Sen. George Smathers, D-Fla., said Monday that Democratic National Chairman John Bailey has asked if Florida Democrats would raise the $600,000 needed to get the convention in Miami Beach.

"I don't see that there is any chance of it going anywhere except Miami Beach," he said. Smathers said while in Jacksonville, Fla., for a meeting.

Smathers added, however, that he could not give Bailey a direct answer on the matter of raising the money, but did suggest that television and radio networks, other communications media and airlines might contribute.

South Florida Democrats raised the $500,000 last September but lost the convention to Chicago.

Party leaders have indicated they will have to make a decision soon, probably within the next two weeks, on whether to move from Chicago.

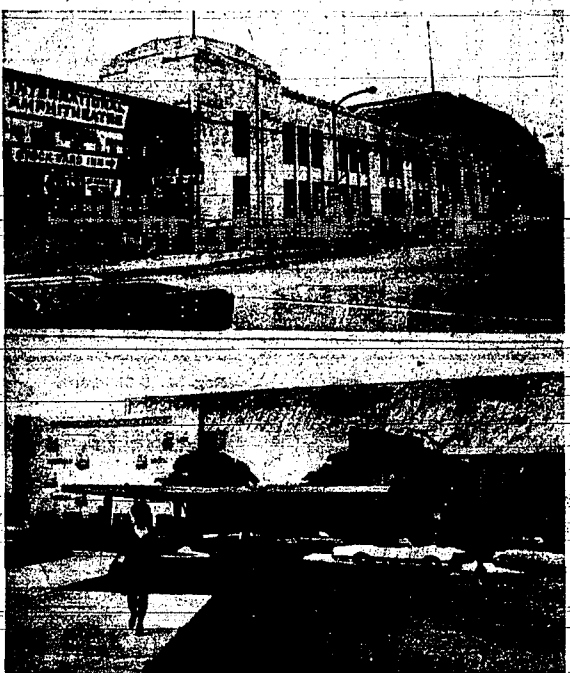

Some 11,800 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers struck Illinois Bell May 8, delaying installation of equipment needed for radio and television as well as equipment used by bandits, dates and party leaders.

Illinois Bell is studying a proposal by the union for binding arbitration of its demands for wage increases of 19.5% weekly immediately and $10 for the final 18 months of the existing contract.

Bell has offered the IBEW $12 a week over the next 18 months or $28 a week in a new three-year pact. IBEW wages are similar to the CWA scales.

Under the union proposal, strikers would return to work during arbitration.

"Any delay from this day on would jeopardize the convention," an IBEW spokesman said Monday in reference to Bell's pending decision on the arbitration proposal.

AT TOP IS CHICAGO International Amphitheatre, where Democrats will hold their national convention later this summer. Bottom is Miami Beach Convention Hall, where the Republicans will meet. Communications in both buildings are threatened by a possible Communications Workers of America strike against American Telephone and Telegraph Co., which could affect the conventions' television and radio facilities and teletype equipment. Beauties Of Desert Are Often Missed branches of sage in the spring are blooms of all descriptions.

Even the farmer often fails to catch the beauty of nature as did his predecessors as they grubbed the sagebrush. City residents ride through the remaining desert areas along good roads, in air-conditioned automobiles, usually oblivious to the hidden beauty.

Lincoln county is rich with such beauty spots and county residents invite visitors to take a look around.

Before parting the sage to find these spots of fragrance, a nd beauty, take a look at the angel itself. Given moisture by the spring, the silver sheen turns a healthy green.

The crushed leaves give off a pungent odor that, once smelled, lingers on. From all that has been written, it would appear more people become homesick for the West because of the smell of sage, or lack of it, than for any other reason.

Growing taller than sage are chokecherry and current bushes. Like the sharp odor of the sage, chokecherry blossoms have a strong but not unpleasant smell.

Unusual Bird

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Aviary had an unusual bird under a tree Tuesday — a baby sparrow with two tails, four legs, two hearts and two digestive tracts.

Victoria S. Lord, 14, found it on a neighbor's driveway in Upper St. Clair Township Monday.

The bird, a female, had a little milk and some fruit, then turned it over to an aviary official. The aviary estimated the bird's age at two weeks.

"Why couldn't she withdraw from society to meditate like other kids?"

Spock's Conviction Viewed By British Newspaper

By The Associated Press — Some claims put forth by Dr. Benjamin Spock and his anti-Vietnam war confederates are patently absurd, says an influential British newspaper, but they should have been rebutted by reasoned argument — not prosecution.

Commenting on the American baby doctor's recent conviction and two-year prison sentence for conspiring to counsel young men to evade the draft, Britain's nationally circulated Guardian adds:

"The trial becomes in microcosm a trial of the new liberalism. The verdict in the Boston court after many months had gone against the defendants. But a larger trial on the issue is taking place in the presidential campaign. So far the verdict has been going against the war — and it has helped bring about President Johnson's own decision to leave office."

And what of the American political scene between now and election day 1968?

West Germany's Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung sees Democratic Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and former Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the likely presidential contenders.

But, it cautions: "There is nothing to be sure of in this election campaign at present."

The death of Robert Kennedy — some claim — new insecurities... Since the murder the air has become more cloudy, the prospects more veiled. Displeasure and indecisiveness have spread over the pre-election scene.

Overall, it concludes, "The probability has increased that this year the tide is turning for the Republicans."

If American politics seem complicated to some foreign observers, the American character appears remarkably simple to others.

Prof. Yuji Aida of Japan's Kyoto University writes in the popular weekly magazine, Yomiuri, as an inducement to report on a 40-day tour of the United States: "Almost all Americans I saw were all very simple and naive — possessing 'crystal spirits' and philosophy. This is true not only with their personality but with their social structure and human relations, which are just as simple, clear and naive."

"The word 'simple' may create some misunderstanding, so I will call them 'precise.' But this is a watch-like precision, not complication... In America, there's no complication in social structure and human relations. And this respect makes the greatest difference between the United States and Japan..."

Few Qualify For Top Combat Award

CLEVELAND (MEA) — The Medal of Honor, this country's highest military decoration for bravery, is in a class by itself. It is awarded only to those who have demonstrated uncommon valor, often at the cost of their lives, in the service of their country.

Men who win the medal today earn it. But it wasn't always this way.

Back in the days of the Civil War, when the award was but a few years old, they sometimes handed it out like a Salvation Army worker distributes donuts.

A glance through the records reveals that:

It was once presented to every member of a Civil War regiment, the 27th Maine Volunteer Infantry, in 1861.

One Civil War soldier was awarded it in 1916 however, a board of review struck the names of these recipients from the rolls.

One World War soldier was nominated for the medal party because he was, according to the recommendation, "a nice lad who wants to stay in the service. He got the award."

Dr. Mary Walker, a contract surgeon for the Union Army, was the only woman ever to win the medal. She was later awarded to return it, but never did.

Medals of Honor were relatively easy to come by throughout the rest of the 19th century. In 1890, 33 medals were awarded, even though no war was in progress. Sixty-seven more were handed out the following year. Legislation later corrected this situation.

There are now exactly three Medals of Honor. The Navy version is the oldest, dating back to 1801. The Army's was instituted the following year. The Air Force now has its own device. All three versions incorporate an engraved bronze medal suspended from a neckband of blue ribbon. The difference lies in the design of the medal.

Conspicuous bravery is the key to winning the medal. Regulations say that the act for which a man is recommended must be "so outstanding that it clearly distinguishes his gallantry beyond the call of duty from lesser forms of bravery; and it must be the type of deed, which, if not done, would not subject him to any justified criticism."

An intensive investigation is made. A nominee's heroism must be substantiated by the "uncontestable evidence of at least two eyewitnesses," and it must be proved that the person acted while in full control of his senses, and that he did so at great personal risk.

A recommendation must be made within three years of a cited act, and the actual award must be made within five years of that time.

Certain fringe benefits go with the medal—a tax-free life-time monthly pension of $100, free transportation on military transport flights within the United States, and automatic appointment of winners' sons to the military academies, providing they pass the physical and mental requirements.

More than 3,200 have won the Medal of Honor since its establishment 107 years ago. The war in Vietnam has so far accounted for 38 of these awards. The Army leads with 20, followed by the Marine Corps with 11. Air Force personnel have won four and the Navy three.

McClure Asks Silver Sales Terminate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James A. McClure, R-Idaho, Tuesday said weekly sales of silver held by the federal government should be terminated to conserve its dwindling silver stockpile.

McClure warned that if the government does not hold back silver to meet increasing demands in the future, it may be faced with having to buy back the metal later at a higher price.

He noted that increased industrial consumption of silver has forced a reevaluation of the government's stockpile. Also, McClure said the government still must mint 50-cent pieces in order to maintain some relationship between our coinage system and previous metals.

McClure also said private

Earnings Higher For Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — The average Japanese family earned $218 a month in 1967, a 10.3 per cent increase over the previous year, according to a government report on the country's standard of living. Individual spending reached $63.5 billion in 1967, up 13.8 per cent from the previous year. But personal savings totaled $15.5 billion, a 2.7 per cent rise from 1966.

Citizens should be given the right to melt down and market the silver they hold in order to make additional silver available to private industry and to "reduce the need for sale of government-owned stocks."

Challis Is Gateway To Famed Area

Located in the approximate geographic center of Idaho, the town of Challis was founded by an Englishman, A. P. Challis. It was established at a base between the mining camps of Custer and Bonanza — both now ghost towns.

Moments of the pioneer days still stand as scenic attractions to the tourists who enjoy noting the historic past of Idaho. Near Challis the remains of charcoal kilns (ovens) stand as a mute monument to the crafts of our ancestors.

A few miles west of the town, travelers can view the remains of a toll gate where a shrewd old settler charged the miners and freighters going between Challis and the mining camps.

Because the area is one of the least explored and the best-kept for its abundant wildlife, the people there, as now, could and can enjoy the big game hunting, the camping and fishing along the Middle Fork of the Salmon River.

The National Forest is the native home of mountain goats, sheep, and lions, deer, elk, and moose. The prime antelope are hunted in this forest than in any other forest in the U. S.

Explorers who like water will find the excitement of taking a chilling boat ride down the Salmon.

Part of the natural beauty of the area is attributed to the rainbow-colored bluffs of the Royal Gorge of Idaho which is surrounded by Crows Canyon. Also found are rich deposits of black limestone containing coral, and other semi-precious stones which exhibit the beauty of the Challis area.

All Outdoors Is Yours On Bicycle

The Bureau of Census tells us that by November of 1968, the average age of the some 200 million citizens in our country will be 28. This 28-year-old average American has more education, higher living standards, and more leisure time than any 28-year old ever had in all of recorded history.

The younger generation, more affluent American is not a "jet-setter," seeking escape from boredom through the medium of international cocktail parties. He is the new breed of average American; more aware of the environment he lives in, more vigorous in society, and better able to enjoy the satisfying and simple pleasures available in his life.

To millions of this new breed, bicycling has become a favorite activity... as an end in itself, or as a means to enjoying more fully the sights and sounds of an abundantly beautiful America.

While burning off excess calories, the new breed cyclist can be pleasurable — even pleasurable — alone; an opportunity becoming increasingly more rare in our highly organized society.

The wind at his back, sun in his face, the absence of the telephone's harassment, and the fragrance of Spring's green-up time is a healthy and soul-satisfying tonic.

Pedaling a light, but sturdy geared bicycle, the miles click away quietly and most effortlessly, and whether alone or with a group of friends or family, adult cyclists by the score find new vigor and fun in what has become the country's Number One Participation Sport.

Seashore, lake or mountain trails — all are available to today's cyclist. The National Trail Bill, recently introduced into the 90th Congress will provide for thousands of miles of bike paths and trails in national parks, forests, recreation areas and seashores.

In the meantime, more than 100 communities have built bikeways, turning existing but little-used roads into a network of bike routes, where cyclists of all ages can enjoy beautiful outdoor recreation at little or no cost. In recent months, new bikeways have been opened at Long Run, just outside of Louisville, Ky.; Pasadena, Cal.; Coral Gables, Fla.; Bloomington, Ind. and many others.

Providing scenic delight and recreation for millions in the Wisconsin Bikeway, nearly 300 miles of marked bike route crossing the Dairy State from LaCrosse to Kenosha.

Committee To Study Family Planning

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has named an 18-member committee to define the federal government's responsibility for family planning programs, and estimate costs of a five-year program of research, training and services.

Johnson named Secretary of Welfare Wilbur J. Cohen chairman of the new committee Tuesday and asked for a report on findings in two months. He listed two of the objectives as defining the federal role in:

—Research and training in population control, including development of new contraceptives, and in supporting research and training in private institutions.

—Helping families gain access to birth control information and services. Officials estimated at least five million American women do not now have such information.

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Petunias—displayed in a coffee can—brightened things at police court chambers Tuesday.

The red petunias were "Exhibit A" in the case of the city of Missoula vs. Raymond A. Dirindin, 21.

Dirindin pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor charge of illegally picking petunias from a public display at a bank. Acting Police Judge Edward J. Ball fined Dirindin $10 and confiscated the petunias.

PART SCORE PLAY HOLDS BIGGERS

People always wonder why we write about game and slam contracts most of the time and seldom discuss a part-score hand.

clubs but they did not find that line of play.

They led three rounds of clubs. South ruffed and played as safely as possible for his two-club contract.

He led a diamond to dummy's ace and a diamond back to East's king. East played a heart but he was a trifle late with his king up with his jack, just in case East had led from the queen. When West produced the two-club contract...

There are two good reasons for this. The first is that the higher contract is the greater the reader interest. The next is that the higher the contract the easier it is to write about.

Take today's hand. We could write a whole article about South's decision to bid two spades instead of letting his partner play the one-trump. We recommend a pass with this 5-3-2 distribution as a general rule but this time it turns out that the two-club call is superior. One no-trump would almost surely have gone down one trick against a heart club bid.

The spades can be set also. East must win the first or second-club and shift to a heart. Later on he will lead a second king when he sets in with the king of diamonds.

This line of defense will give East and West one trump-one heart, two diamonds and two

Three In Every 11 Women Are Chemical Blondes

Birdwatchers say a crow frequents to itself. Three out of 11 women, hereabouts are chemical blondes. A score in days beyond recall was 21 of anything not just a flim.

Where is the only place on your skin that you can put your right-hand so as to be unable to touch it with your left hand? That is the question a California subscriber springs on me. Been experimenting for about 20 minutes, but have to quit. The lady friend is staring curiously, and do not wish to give her further cause for alarm. Wait a minute, put the right hand on the left elbow, of course.

It was once customary in Scotland for a gentleman posing a coast to stand with one foot on a chair and the other on a table. The ideal bride both then and before her husband does. So says a matrimonial counselor. Do you conform, young lady? Performing hypnotists were banned on British TV after one such put thousands in the television audience to sleep during a half-hour show.

Am asked if roller skates were an American invention. No, sir, the Dutch must be credited. Records show the first roller skates were made of threaded spoons on woden shoes.

Customer service: Q. "Most of the shoppers are kids, aren't they?" P. Yes, they are about half. Q. "How many don't salt lakes in this country?" P. 13. Q. "Who was it defined death as having's eyes of yellow?" P. A. A Madison Avenue copywriter as I recall. But can't name him.

Contrary to previous report here, the Bible appears to conform—not just once—not merely twice but at least three times. "Checking Up" in care of L. M. Boyd, 2000 N. West 20th St., Seattle, Wash. 98119.

your questions and comments are welcomed and will be answered wherever possible in "Checking Up" at three times. Address mail to L. M. Boyd, 2000 N. West 20th St., Seattle, Wash. 98119.

Use Of Computer For Education Still In Infancy

By DICK KLEINER
PALO ALTO, Calif. (NEA)—The use of the computer as an educational tool is still in kindergarten. But already it shows signs of great promise.

The system is so new that there is yet no unanimity as to what to call it—CAI, for Computer-Assisted Instruction, for Computer-Based Instruction, or CMI, for Computer-Managed Instruction. At the moment, CAI is ahead by an electronic nose.

RCA's Instructional Systems Division, one of the pioneers in CAI, is presently installing the first major system. It is going into 15 elementary schools in New York, where 6,000 pupils will work at 192 terminals—terminal is computer-language for an individual keyboard. If by next fall, this system will be operational. Others will follow. There are already experimental systems here and in Connecticut, California, Mississippi and Kentucky, but New York's will be the first full-scale operation system.

In a way it, too, will be experimental. Nobody is quite sure how CAI works or exactly what to do with it. RCA freely admits this and is anxiously looking forward to the results of the New York installation.

There are many unsolved problems. What, for example, can the system teach? And is there anything it can't teach? Certain subjects are obvious. Math is one. A child is asked by the computer to solve a problem. He types his answer and is either right or wrong. The computer can equally well ask a child to pick out the adjectives in a sentence.

But how about spelling? Unless the machine types the word, the child won't know what the word is, and already the game is over. To teach spelling, obviously, audio would have to be added.

And what about subjects which require conceptual answers—essay-type questions, for example? Can a computer be developed sophisticated enough to grade these answers?

Dr. Patrick Suppes, head of Stanford's Institute for Mathematical Studies in the Social Sciences and consultant to RCA's Instructional Systems Division, thinks it can.

"And besides," he says, "no two human teachers would grade an essay answer the same."

Suppes also feels the objection of some to computers—that they might cause a student to become tense and nervous—fatters when you consider that possibility against some current considerations.

"Yes," he says, "it is possible that some children would react adversely to the computer. But I think more react adversely to some of the teachers we have here. One of the problems in education today is finding competent teachers."

Many educators believe that CAI will help with that problem. No one thinks computers will eliminate teachers, but the hope is that they will help eliminate the drudgery of the profession. Thus, computers could—and do today—supervise drills and practice, grade tests, tutor and handle administrative details.

This would leave the teachers free for the more challenging tasks. Suppes feels the profession would thus be more intriguing and attractive to better qualified people.

Others in the field believe that the school of 20 or 30 years from now will be much different from today. They see a first-grader being assigned an adviser—a college student or today—who helps him select the work to do.

Then the computers would take over—teaching, grading, assigning specific tasks. Between 30 and 40 per cent of a child's school time, in this view, would be spent with the computer. Another 30 to 40 per cent would be devoted to classroom lecture work, with a teacher. The balance could be given over to games and recreation. This playtime would be more than now, because the computer tends faster than teachers do.

One big problem confronting CAI is how to use it—"What is education and how do people learn?" in Suppes' words.

Textbook publishers are attempting to solve that now, with the help of groups like Suppes' type answers?—And how harsh a disciplinarian should the computer be? At the moment, it is rather mild—"No, try again." is its response to an error. But it could be made to say anything a school district wants—Boy, are you a dunce!—is within its capabilities. It could even be equipped to give a child a gentle shock, but nobody is seriously considering that yet.

Another problem, at the moment, is cost. There is no denying that it is expensive to equip a school district with CAI. But RCA points out that the computer, during non-school hours, could handle a school district's budget, payroll, and other tasks. And there seems to be almost no limit to how many pupils a computer could educate. In the New York installation, one computer can simultaneously question and answer 192 children. And the answers are instantaneous and personalized.

With that sort of ability in its infancy, CAI's potential is infinite.

Idaho Counts 895 Voting Precincts

BOISE (AP)—Idaho will have 895 voting precincts in this year's election, a rise from 802 in 1966, a survey of the 44 counties showed today.

Three counties increased their number of precincts and two made reductions and all the others were unchanged.

Bannock added two precincts for a total of 52. Canyon increased its total from 61 to 62 and Kootenai went up from 38 to 40.

Counties reducing their number of precincts were Bear Lake, from 16 to 15; Bingham 37 to 34; Boundary, 11 to 9; Clearwater, 16 to 15; Franklin, 20 to 18; Fremont, 17 to 16; and Idaho, 29 to 27.

The 1st Congressional District will have 20 counties and 233 precincts this year and the 2nd District will have 24 counties and 412 precincts.

20-Pound Loss Is Reported At Hansen Meet

HANSEN — A total loss of 20 pounds was noted at the Slim and Tim Topp's Club meeting at the Hansen home.

Speakers were Mrs. Lewis Morris and Mrs. Gene Walker tied as Queens for the week.

The treasurer, Len Boren, reported that nine charter members had been renewed and another who had joined shortly after the group was organized a year ago, had also been renewed. Others plan to renew as their year is up.

It was voted to purchase a scales which has the height measurement also. Members contributed money toward its purchase.

Mrs. Todd Bolton was a guest. Members were asked to contribute individually to the cost fund at the next meeting. Measurements will be taken at the next meeting. Plans were also made to have a graduation service for two members who have attained their weight loss goals and kept it off through the KOPS in waiting period. This service is planned for the Aug. 5 meeting. A special guest speaker will be obtained.

Breeds Quail

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (AP)—Albert F. Marsh's goal is a quail in every pot. "Americans don't know what they're missing if they've never tasted quail or quail eggs," says Marsh, who keeps about 5,000 of the birds and hopes to breed quail to a large size. "Continuous upbreeding will give us new generations of superior birds for the dinner table," he says.
