Saigon Hit By Attacks

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — A new wave of Viet Cong terrorism hit Saigon today as provincial capitals Sunday. Military and Vietnamese and wounding 92.
Intelligence sources have said terrorist attacks might precede the threatened third major enemy offensive of the year, but the lull in the ground war still continued.
Twelve Vietnamese were killed and 91 wounded in the weekend bombing of four theaters, one of them only a block from national police headquarters in Saigon. A large explosive charge set off outside the Saigon theater killed four persons and wounded 52. Also in Saigon, a military official was assassinated and a 17-year-old boy seriously wounded.
A hand grenade was thrown and a group of militiamen watching a traveling troupe perform in Phu Cuong, a provincial capital 15 miles north of Saigon. Four persons were killed and 23 wounded, including two of the performers.
Terrorists set off bombs outside two theaters in Ben Tre, another provincial capital, in the Mekong Delta 50 miles southeast of Saigon. Government headquarters said four persons were killed and 18 wounded.
Vietnamese informants say at least 1,000 Viet Cong troops have infiltrated the capital city in preparation for the third major offensive of the year expected within the next two months.
Allied defenses around Saigon were alerted today with the arrival of the first contingent of a new infantry division from Thailand. Some 1,500 troops of Thailand's 12,000-man Black Panther Division arrived at the U.S. Army's Newport port facility just north of the capital.
The division will have a dual mission: to block enemy infiltration into Saigon from the northeast, where elements of the North Vietnamese 5th Division are said to be based, and to smash Viet Cong guerrilla bands in Bien Hoa province, one of the capitals, to ease the threat of enemy harassment against allied military installations there.

Akron Has 5th Night Of Disturbances

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Scattered fire bombings were reported in Akron for the fifth straight night Sunday when a beefed-up National Guard force kept the peace in Negro areas of the city.
At least nine fire bombings were reported in the downtown area. Most heavily damaged was the Wilson Lumber Co. on North Street near the downtown area. The building was gutted and the threat of enemy harassment against allied military installations there.
The curfew that had been lifted Saturday night was imposed again Saturday night, when the curfew was moved up to 8 p.m.
Streets were reported virtually deserted after the curfew hour.
Another 400 Ohio National Guard troops were brought in to the wake of a series of disturbances Saturday night, when the curfew that had been imposed Thursday- and Friday- nights from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. was lifted. Some 650 guardsmen now are on duty in the Akron area.
Poor People's Campaign leaders said Negro leaders will demonstrate in the city Sunday night a list of grievances dealing with housing, education, welfare, employment, recreation and police relations. A march to demonstrate for Negro demands is planned for July 30.

Burglars Steal $2,710 In Daring T.F. Theft

Burglars broke into the vault and punched open a small safe inside the vault at Equitable Savings and Loan Association during the weekend, making off with approximately $2,710 in currency and change.
Twin Falls police and FBI agents were investigating the burglary Monday morning.
City police said it occurred at 220 Shoshone St. E. sometime between 6:15 p.m. Friday and 10:45 a.m. Sunday when it was discovered and reported by E. A. Burby, manager of the firm.
A sliding window on the southeast corner of the building was forced open, police said, and burglars cut a hole approximately 12 by 16 inches through cinder block walls of the vault in the main building area.
Inside the vault, they removed a cash on change boxes and punched open a small safe to gain access to the currency. Officers said nothing else in the building was disturbed and burglars may have left the area early in the morning.
Federal authorities have offered to open a land route for relief shipments to Biafra, but the Biafrans have refused, claiming the supplies might be poisoned by their enemies. Meanwhile, a handful of airplanes have been flying food and medicine into Biafra, despite Nigerian threats to shoot them down, but this is not nearly enough.
Sources at the talks here indicated the delegates were considering a proposal by the Biafran leader Li Col. Odimegwie Ojukwu, for relief supplies to be landed by sea at Aguta, in the Niger River delta, and at its

FCC Chief Speaks To Broadcasters

BURLEY — Idaho broadcasters were told they are obligated to help achieve unity Monday morning during a state convention at the Ponderosa Inn.
Speaking at the opening business session of the two-day convocation was Rosalind Hyde, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, who stressed that broadcasters should promote tolerance and a common national culture.
"There is need for less violence in communications," she said. "I lauded the recent appointment by President Johnson of a commission to study violence in communications. He said the FCC would cooperate with the study but the study is not the proper function of the FCC itself because it would 'smack of censorship.'"
Also speaking Monday morning was Allen Shepard, Boise, Idaho attorney general, who discussed libel and slander laws in the state.
About 125 persons are attending the convocation here. They were welcomed by Mayor J. Peters and Robert Saxvik, Burley, president of the Burley Chamber of Commerce and Immediate past president of the broadcasters group.
Al King, director of station relations, NAB, Washington, D.C., spoke at noon Monday and the speaker of the Monday evening banquet will be Mel Blafie, whose voice is well known in Disney productions.
Monday afternoon was devoted to recreation and the convention will close with additional business sessions Tuesday.

Ray Pleads Innocent To Assassination Charge

By DOUG STONE
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray pleaded innocent today to a charge of assassinating Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. here April 4 and trial was set for Nov. 12.
Appearing publicly for the first time since his extradition hearings in London, England, Ray entered his plea through his lawyer, Arthur Hanes of Birmingham, Ala.
Security officers searched persons around the Shelby County Criminal Courtroom to witness Ray's arraignment.
Ray, wearing a checked blue sport coat and blue slacks, was led into the courtroom at 10:57 a.m., COT, and the arraignment proceedings ended 12 minutes later. Ray was returned to his steel-lined, air-conditioned cell block in the county jail.
Hanes had both indictments read—one alleging murder in the first degree and the other charging Ray with carrying a dangerous weapon.
At the end of each reading, Hanes said: "My client wishes to enter a plea of innocent."
Ray remained silent throughout the arraignment. He was seated at the counsel table between Hanes and his son, Arthur. Behind them sat Sheriff William N. Morris Jr. and two other officers.
Judge Preston Battle had told Hanes a plea did not have to be entered today and asked whether the defense wanted a recess. "We will enter a plea to the indictment," Hanes responded. Battle also asked if Hanes wanted a period of "a few days or a few weeks" to determine when he would be ready to try the case.
Dist. Atty. Gen. Phil Canale told the court he had conferred with Hanes about having the trial in late September. But, he said, it might last until the Nov. 5 general election. Under Tennessee law, sequestered jurors cannot cast ballots.
Canale suggested the Nov. 12 date and Battle asked if it could be set earlier. Hanes said he felt

Soviets Demand Czechs Come To Moscow For Showdown Meeting

By JOHN WEYLAND
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist party today rejected the defense by Czechoslovak party leaders of their liberal course and demanded again that the leaders in Prague come to the Soviet Union for a showdown meeting today or Tuesday.
Reports from Prague indicated the Soviet Union would reject the Soviet soil, would be rejected. The Czechoslovak leaders were reported willing to meet their Soviet critics, but only on their own territory.
Pravda rejected the Prague charges made against it by the Warsaw meeting of the Soviet Union and its four hard-line allies — East Germany, Poland, Bulgaria and Hungary.
"The Soviet party papers accused the Czechoslovak leaders of playing down the threat to the Communist system in Czechoslovakia. It is the Soviet Union that regards the defense of communism everywhere in the East Bloc as its business."

Louisianan Points To Wallace Strength At Governors Meet

By WALTER R. MEARS
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen said today that party candidate George C. Wallace is the presidential favorite in his state and that he is "certainly enough to throw the election into the House of Representatives" if the Republicans and Democrats are tied.
McKeithen said he supports Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for the Democratic nomination and for the White House. But he spoke in ill of Wallace, saying his praise for Humphrey is "about as much as you'd expect from a governor from the South who's not too far from Alabama."
He held a news conference at that time, Wallace "is the high man in our state," he said. "I am sure that President Humphrey to overtake him," said McKeithen, here for the 60th National Governors' Association.
McKeithen said he believed that two major parties will reach an agreement on how to divide the possible electoral vote. He denied a majority of the electoral college in the election. If that happened, the choice of a

LBJ Rests After Summit Talks

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson's rancher's respite in the Texas hills after U.S.-Vietnam summit sessions that withered hopes for a peace accord or even a let-up in the Vietnamese war.
President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam did see some prospect, nevertheless, that his country's power will grow to the point of permitting what he termed a phasing out of some American military units one at a time in 1969. But he stressed that he would not accept a complete U.S. withdrawal from the war.
Johnson and Thieu put in 10 hours conferring privately on both key advisers flanking them in meetings Friday and Saturday in Hawaii.
Johnson stayed on a bit after the end of the day, but he said and surf at famed Waikiki beach.
Johnson, never known publicly to shed his type of relaxation on the Pacific, "parade of the Pacific" was off by let for the LBJ Ranch near Johnson City, 65 miles west of Honolulu, after a complete meeting ended at the U.S. Pacific Command hilltop headquarters overlooking Pearl Harbor.
Back home, the president and Mrs. Johnson attended Mass Sunday at St. Francis Xavier Roman Catholic church in Stonewall, a mile or so up the winding road to the ranch.
The time of the presidential return to Washington was flexible. It could be Tuesday night, by way of Chicago. The National Governors Conference there has been putting on pressure for a Johnson appearance and speech.
The Honolulu summit conference closed with a communique, a statement by Johnson to reporters, and a Thieu news conference.
The two presidents agreed that the comparative lull in the Pacific war by no means represents any deceleration by the enemy, but rather a regrouping and renewed offensives.
At some time in the next two months, they promised "to meet and defend whatever military and economic interests will be inflated by the other side."
Johnson and Thieu said they detected no signs of a h r a k

Arguments Set Tuesday For Legal Action On Initiatives

BOISE (AP) — Arguments are scheduled Tuesday for legal action on the initiative and referendum proposals on the Idaho ballot in November.
Secretary of State Pete T. Conroy said that by the deadline for filing petitions, both proposals lacked the required number of certified signatures.
A backlog of both initiatives contained the petitions had about 5,000 more signatures than those certified.
The Idaho mining backers said about 5,000 were not certified by county recorders on grounds they were of persons whose names were not in legislative records. A bill in the State law makes no provision for precinct registrars to report to county recorders names of those who register in the county part of an election year.

Nigeria, Biafra Aim Talks At Ending Starvation

NIAMEY, Niger (AP) — Representatives of Nigeria and secessionist Biafra have begun talks aimed at breaking the five-month stalemate that has threatened with starvation in the breakaway West African tribal state.
The two delegations met Sunday in Niamey, the Niger capital northwest of Nigeria and agreed on an agenda for peace talks to begin under way soon in Ethiopia. A communique issued after the conference said the delegates also discussed "concrete proposals for the transportation of relief to the civilian victims of the war."
There was no indication, however, of any progress toward agreement on relief measures.
Another meeting was scheduled today. It was expected to discuss a starting date for the peace conference in Addis Ababa.
Millions of persons are on the verge of starvation and as many as 1,200 persons are said to be dying daily in surrounded, landlocked Biafra and in areas recaptured by advancing federal troops.
Federal authorities have offered to open a land route for relief shipments to Biafra, but the Biafrans have refused, claiming the supplies might be poisoned by their enemies. Meanwhile, a handful of airplanes have been flying food and medicine into Biafra, despite Nigerian threats to shoot them down, but this is not nearly enough.

Cause Sought In Chicago Explosion

CHICAGO (AP) — Investigating teams continued work today to determine the cause of an explosion which demolished a block-long building in Chicago's downtown section, injuring 56 persons.

Only one remained hospitalized and they were reported in good condition. Most of the injured were passing by on bicycles and debris Saturday night.

The building had housed a restaurant, a jewelry store and clothing store.

Fire and police officials reported an odor of gas immediately following the explosion on the western fringe of Chicago Loop. They suspected the blast was caused by gas.

But William J. Ball, vice president of operations for Peoples Gas Light & Coke Co., disputed that. He said the smell of gas did not necessarily mean that the blast was caused by a gas leak. Instead, he said a leak could have been caused by the explosion.

Fire officials said it was impossible to give a total amount of damage because of widespread window breakage.

Wage, Price Restraints Being Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential panel saying wage and price increases are on a "dangerous road," is calling on Congress and business leaders to use utmost restraints.

The Cabinet Committee on Price Stability, in a statement mailed to several hundred industry and business groups, says the wage-price surge could offset benefits from the new tax increase — and federal spending cuts.

It cites average annual price increases of 4 per cent and wage hikes of 6 to 7 per cent and says:

"This is a dangerous road. The public interest is clearly violated by any price increases that widen profit margins and any wage settlements that extend the recent disturbing pattern."

A ranking government official said the Cabinet group has ruled out mandatory wage-price controls as an acceptable solution. "The only solution is for people to behave sensibly," he said.

THE LAST AMERICAN

The Negro, too, has a place in American history. Thurgood Marshall, Ralph Bunche, Edward Brooke... great names of the present. But what of Benjamin Banneker, John Rank, Peter Salem, Phillis Wheatley, James Dorham, Paul Cuffe, Estevanillo, Matthew Henson?

These were but a few of the many Negroes who made noteworthy contributions to the development of America in its earlier days.

The growth of our country is replete with examples of the Black men who rose from obscurity... only to be ignored by most historians when their life spans were completed.

In an effort to collapse the walls of ignorance and misunderstanding of the Negro's role in American history, this newspaper presents "The Last American," a 24-part serial tracing the Negro American through his life in the New World.

Sunday Is Bad Day For U.S. Windows

By The Associated Press

Sunday was a bad day for American windows in two foreign cities. Demonstrators left piles of broken glass at the Playboy Club and Hilton Hotel in London and at the U.S. Information Service Library in Izmir, Turkey.

In London, a shouting mob of 500 broke away from a crowd of 10,000 anti-Vietnam demonstrators and attacked the American hotel and club in London's fashionable West End.

Screaming "Down with the Bourgeoisie," they smashed car windshields, broke a big plate glass window at the Playboy Club, ignited rubber boxes and tires at a garage and hurled stones and bottles in Hyde Park.

The mob smashed the main entrance glass doors at the Hilton and shattered glass windows in a restaurant and snack bar. Guests and hotel staff personnel watched from upper stories.

The crowd then surged across Park Lane, dodging police and snarling traffic. Some demonstrators continued stoning passing automobiles. A limousine belonging to an Arab sheik was wrecked.

The aftermath: 33 police, 14 demonstrators and one elderly bystander injured; 45 demonstrators arrested; Edward Taylor, a Conservative member of Parliament, called for a ban on demonstrations in London.

In Turkey, riot police arrested five youths in the Aegean port city of Izmir on charges of smashing the plate glass windows of the American library. Seven other persons were arrested in Ankara for attacking an American colonel in the street.

The anti-Americanism started last Monday with the arrival in Istanbul of units of the U.S. Sixth Fleet for a visit. American sailors on shore leave were attacked by Turkish university students, and more than 20 American sailors were injured. The ships are scheduled to leave Tuesday.

Cadets Slate Foreign Tour For Training

Two cadets from the Boise Civil Air Patrol Squadron have been selected to go to Spain and Jamaica.

In July, several cadets in this area have been to various special activities.

Joseph W. Rasmussen of the Kimberly Cadet Squadron attended the PAA cadet orientation held at Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma City, Okla. He will arrive in Twin Falls Aug. 2.

Dan H. Shewhaker, also of the Kimberly Squadron, left Twin Falls Sunday to attend the jet orientation course at Perrin Air Force Base, Texas.

Some 50 Civil Air Patrol Cadets and their leaders, representing seven foreign countries, will arrive in the Magic Valley area Aug. 4 for a three-day tour of the area, according to Lt. Col. George Falkner, Rupert.

Col. Falkner said the visitors will be representing Norway, Germany, Switzerland, Turkey, Jamaica, El Salvador and Spain.

They will arrive at the Twin Falls airport the morning of Aug. 4 and visit the Snake River Trout Farm in Buhl. Other stops on the tour include the Shoshone Indian Ice Caves and Sun Valley.

From Sun Valley, the group will return to Burley for an evening picnic at the Ponderosa Inn Aug. 4. The public is invited to visit with the group during the picnic. They will leave from the Twin Falls airport Aug. 5.

Col. George Forscher, commander of the Idaho Wing of the CAP, is on active duty in the Air Force at the present time and will be unable to attend the tour.

Rich To Support Don Loveland

BURLEY — Roscoe C. Rich, past president of the National Whistleblowers Association, announced recently he will vote for the election of Sen. Don Loveland as Representative of Idaho's Second District.

Mr. Rich, who also served on the Idaho Highway Commission for 11 years, said, "Sen. Loveland is the only candidate who can meet the increasing problems of the rancher and farmer. He has the knowledge, being personally acquainted with these vital areas, to meet the challenges of today as well as plan for the future."

Mr. Rich, a former state senator, noted that the legislative aid and protection of the farmer and rancher are "vital."

He concluded, "Sen. Loveland demonstrated his understanding of the issues during his State Senate service."

Humphrey Campaign Biography Repeats His War Contentions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The authorized campaign biography of Hubert H. Humphrey, due out this week, repeats the contention that the vice president's private feelings about the war in Vietnam match his public pronouncements.

The book, entitled "A Man for All People," was written by Ralph Martin and will be released in Washington Wednesday. A copy will be sent to each delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

In one part of the book, Humphrey deals with recurrent doubts that his support of the Johnson administration's Vietnam war policy isn't as enthusiastic in private as it is in public.

The book includes pictures of Humphrey with his chief opponent for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, a fellow Minnesotan.

Humphrey recalls how McCarthy had supported him in his past campaigns including his abortive attempt for the vice presidency in 1956—a year that Humphrey thought Adlai Stevenson would make him a running mate.

Back in 1956, Humphrey says, he had a meeting with Stevenson in Washington "and understood that if I could give him strong support—that he could pick me at the convention to be his running mate."

However at the last minute the late Sen. Estes Kefauver's strength at the convention forced Stevenson to let the delegates choose the No. 2 man, to Humphrey's "deep disappointment."

"Mariel (Mrs. Humphrey) always called me the happy warrior," the vice president says in the book. "She says I'm happy because there's no conflict between my private views and my public views."

The major portion of the heavily illustrated book, composed of captions... in Humphrey's words... deals with events in his past and present including the problems of being a vice president.

"The vice presidency is a job with sobering responsibility and very little authority," says Humphrey. "I don't recommend it to everybody. When I first became vice president, I was warned that my relationship with the President would deteriorate within six months to a year, according to the standard pattern of history. Well, we fooled them."

"President Johnson and I have been friends for 20 years. He knows me well enough to expect loyalty but not mimicry. This has been my standard," Humphrey says.

"On Vietnam Humphrey says, 'Nobody wants to see the war in Vietnam come to an end any quicker than I do so that we can bring our boys back home. What I'd really like to see in Vietnam is a cease-fire so that we can have peace while we talk peace.'"

Rail Service Is Ordered Between Utah, California

WASHINGTON (AP) — Western Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads have been ordered by the Interstate Commerce to continue passenger trains between California and Utah for one year.

Western Pacific had sought to discontinue the California Zephyr between Salt Lake City and Oakland, and Southern Pacific asked discontinuance of the City of San Francisco between Ogden and San Francisco. Other railroads operate the trains between Utah and Chicago.

Both railroads cited declining patronage and heavy revenue losses in the positions for discontinuance. The ICC said Friday the service was required by public necessity and continued operation would not unduly burden interstate commerce.

The ICC noted the trains provide the last remaining transcontinental service from San Francisco through the Salt Lake City-Ogden area, and the only service to intermediate points along the route in California, Nevada and Utah.

Among those opposing the discontinuances were state and local governments of Utah, California, Nevada and Colorado; a national organization of railroad passengers; railroad labor groups and numerous individuals who offered opposing testimony at public hearings held along the routes.

Rep. Ken Hechler, D-W.Va., a frequent critic of the ICC, said the order may mean the commission "is beginning to wake up and protect the public interest."

"For too long, the ICC has been like a sleeping giant. Let the rail passenger service deteriorate and vanish like the steamfired locomotive," he said.

"But there are recent signs the commission is awakening from this long slumber, I only hope it isn't too late," Hechler said.

He said much of the ICC's "new-found vigor" can be credited to ICC Examiner John Messer's recent recommendations that railroads be required to maintain minimum standards for passenger service.

Sen. Frank E. Moss, said the Senate Commerce Committee, of which he is chairman, will hold hearings day and Thursday on proposed "Last Train Deregulation Act."

Dr. Spock And Co. Are Not Worst Off

July 22-23, 1968... Official City and County Newspaper... Member of Audit Bureau of Circulation and A.P.

WASHINGTON — They tell me the appeals in the cases of Dr. Ben Spock and Co., sentenced to two-year prison sentences for encouraging draft dodgers, will take up to two years and maybe longer if their cases are granted a review by the Supreme Court.

Under the pulse of free speech Traditionally, American courts have cracked down hard on defendants convicted of inciting others to break the law.

After the sentencing, Coffin said he found the trial "dismal, dreary, and above all, demeaning." He said that certain members of the jury had earlier hoarwring.

time in some "dismal, dreary, and above all, demeaning" prison cell.

without breaking any laws. Besides, it has never been successfully maintained that the motorist caught doing 90 miles an hour was merely attempting to start a "serious national debate on traffic regulations."

Longevity

Medical science has accomplished wonders in promoting longevity in human life in the Twentieth Century, but even today scientists confess they haven't the faintest notion why people live as long as they do, or why they don't live longer.

and the ability of the cell to function. A still more recent theory—one which is receiving increasing research attention—holds that life is totally programmed from conception. The theory is that genes of the fertilized egg contain a chemical program for life, including embryonic development, birth, growth, aging and death.

In short, Spock, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., writer and college teacher Michael Goodman and Michael Ferber, Harvard graduate students were portrayed as men who knew what they were doing. At least one of the "defendants," Chaplain Coffin, had emphasized this when he demanded that the government prosecute the group or be found derelict in its duty.

Once the government acted, Spock and Coffin at least are household words — in some households. But do even they remember the names of any of the draft evaders now doing of course, Coffin and the others cried persecution. This was their right, but it lacked that certain perverse style that had marked their earlier hoarwring.

Nor will most citizens be moved by the defense argument that the defendants' case is not a matter of credit for helping to start a "serious national debate on war issues." Gene McCarthy did that to give him that praise! — Depending on how quickly he leaves the case, Spock and his pretty soon start telling you when he has to go. And when he does—praise him even more!

Views of Others Opinions Of Guest Editors

A GREAT CHIEF JUSTICE We have absolutely no doubt that history will record that Earl Warren as one of America's great Chief Justices.

hard cases. In one of them, the great 1954 school desegregation case, he wrote of the effect of inferior education in stamping inferiority on children, and led a conscience-stricken nation farther than previous generations had been able of willing to lead it.

This was the court that made meaningful the three Amendments adopted after the Civil War, and thus finally referred a settlement of the race issue to the nation's conscience. For schools, voting rights, public accommodations, employment and, in the recent session, for housing, the Warren court demanded for one citizen no less freedom and opportunity than for another.

liberals feared this Republican would follow the lead of his predecessor, Chief Justice Vinson. Lawyers questioned his lack of judicial experience. The Warren record indicates again that service on a bench is far from an essential qualification for the supreme bench, and that men placed on the latter, independent from politics, develop in almost unpredictable ways.

This was the court that made representative government the effective law of the land, as it long was only supposed to be. For the House of Representatives, for state legislatures and for local governments, the Warren court required that one man's vote be equal to another's.

It is a lesson to be reviewed as President Johnson considers a replacement for the Chief Justice. The speculation seems to be that Earl Warren timed his resignation so as to permit a worthy succession, regardless of this year's election results. In view of the ages of some other Justices, the court may conceivably be further altered in the coming months.

This was the court that protected America's democratic principles through the darkest days of the mid War and the oppressive days of McCarthyism. The Warren court did so by upholding the great rights of free speech and association and by striking down the laws that defended the and the Fifth Amendment against the Smith and McCarran Acts to a point where the latter were left ineffectual. In the recent session, by striking an unnecessary and tyrannical loyalty oath for the fifth time in seven years.

FALSE ECONOMY The House Appropriations Committee has whacked President Johnson's $13,100,000 budget for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission roughly in half. This is using economy as an excuse to obstruct the federal program for combating job discrimination.

Through its history, the Supreme Court has generally maintained its independence as the third branch and maintained its silence in the face of criticism. It has acquired its views with the necessities of the times, not forgetting, as Chief Justice Hughes put it: "We are under the Constitution, but the Constitution is what the judges say it is."

PLUCKY EMPHASIS ON WHAT'S IN THE HEART We're not certain how the local Roman Catholic hierarchy feels about it, but we think those two Benedictine priests in Tarrytown, New York, who have been under their white clerical jackets have adopted a fully acceptable mode of dress.

In such historical terms, Earl Warren has been a model Chief Justice. His judicial statements and his leadership on the bench, silent in private, and loyal always to the great tradition of a court unswerving in its duty under the Constitution, but the Constitution is what the judges say it is.

in reference to those who decried such sartorial experimentation among the clergy, the Rev. William A. Mann, pastor of the Holy Trinity Church in Tarrytown (the turtle-neck priest), declared: "It is a sad fact that good and intelligent people should have put more emphasis on what a person wears than on what is in his heart. That's a pretty good sermon." — Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Drunk With Power

ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK Illinois GOP Backs Nixon

Chicago—The surest sign that the Bourbons of the Illinois Republican party are elevating support for Richard M. Nixon for President to an article of faith is their placing of Rep. Paul Findley in political cold storage.

Qgilvio, president of the Cook County (Chicago) Board, was deeply offended when Rentschler gave National Committee woman Audrey Peak, a foe of Ogilvio's bid for the gubernatorial nomination, a key vote in the Nixon campaign.

'Is one reason why a first-ballot Nixon nomination becomes increasingly possible by the day.

Rather than personal popularity or effective organization, the reason for Nixon's success can be found in the way Illinois Republicans remember, meeting and learn nothing. They can neither forgive nor forget that Rockefeller did not back Goldwater in 1964.

Accordingly, Ogilvio, though still technically uncommitted, is set to take the course of least resistance and support Nixon. That general expectation in Illinois saved Ogilvio trouble during the primary campaign for the pro-Nixon Chicago Post-Dispatch, the powerful journal of Bourbonism.

From bits and pieces of information, collected across the nation, they are convinced that the presidential campaign for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy already are engineering much of the demonstrating against the Vice President's appearance at Independence Hall. They think some McCarthy supporters, privately convinced that Humphrey will win the presidential nomination, would like to make a nationally televised shambles of the Democratic Convention as a step toward forming a "peace party."

Findley's treatment is one of many indications that the herd instinct, common among Republicans generally but particularly prevalent in Illinois, is coming into play again. Just as there was something fishy about Rockefeller in not backing Barry Goldwater here in 1964, so is support for Nixon becoming a necessary condition of Illinois Republicanism.

Similarly, Sen. Charles H. McNamara, who clearly disesteemed Rockefeller as a first choice for President until Rockefeller actually announced, would ease his vote to Nixon, and only because of the Bourbons by backing Nixon. Furthermore, a barely won vote for Nixon at Miami Beach was so confidently anticipated by the party regulars that any other course by him would be regarded as a betrayal.

History is strewn with the wreckage of the party left by militant minorities, each of which thought it had cornered the market in social justice and virtue, and had discovered the true beliefs of the masses.

But outgoing affected Perry could still back the Nixon bid at Miami. Ogilvio also has kept the door open to switch in the event of a disaster. Nixon among the polls. But elected camp that both will avoid useless conflict with the Bourbons by backing Nixon.

Toilet Training

Dear Dr. Molner: My child is 17 months old. He is very smart and learns very fast. He would like to be toilet trained or should I wait a few months? Also, he loves a mirror. A friend says it will make him emotionally unstable. Is this true? — I.M., a 19-year-old mother.

— Depending on how quickly he leaves the case, Spock and his pretty soon start telling you when he has to go. And when he does—praise him even more!

The basic rule for toilet training is to try to catch the youngster "in the act." Or when he has to go. Then put him on the toilet, and when he goes ahead and performs, praise him to the skies. It does not take a smart infant long to catch on.

Dear Dr. Molner: What do you think of a mother who stuffs her small children with food and arranges about how much they eat in front of them? Then the oldest child eats that much more. She has stuffed them from babyhood and they are all overweight. — A.H.H.

Now I admit that a certain percentage of young ones have learning disabilities. But let's take it for granted that your youngster is average or better and won't have trouble with him. It takes a little time.

I think she probably loves the kids and thinks stuffing them will make them big and strong. But she's horribly mistaken. Let's hope that something opens her eyes. Being fat isn't being healthy. Quite the reverse.

Don't let him get the idea that he is being punished if he makes a mistake. Don't strap him on the seat and make him sit until he goes. He'll just feel abandoned and rejected, and he's not old enough to get the idea of "staying there until you do." Some generous praise at the right time is far more useful than force or punishment.

The poor kids, thinking that overeating is the right thing to do will have the misery of being called "fat" in school, and struggling against overweight later, and statistics prove that they will be fatter than they otherwise would.

ROBERT ALLEN AND JOHN GOLDSMITH Convention Trouble Feared

hearings of a Senate subcommittee which has been investigating activities of the "Black Liberation Army" gang in connection with an anti-poverty program.

Philadelphia — Humphrey was subjected to a noisy demonstration at Independence Hall on Sunday, July 14, celebrating Independence Day. The Humphrey staff has obtained copies of advance handbills issued by "McCarthy volunteers" which urged McCarthy supporters to go to Independence Hall and show Humphrey that "we want independence from the Johnson Administration."

Humphrey aides lack little comfort in elaborate security measures for those planned for the convention hall by Chicago Mayor Richard Daley. With the convention city saturated with newsmen and TV cameras, the think as anti-McCarthy demonstration would harm the convention image even if it was miles from the convention hall.

That in the background for Humphrey's recent plea that all candidates join in repudiating the exclusion of which are, he said, "so characteristic of totalitarian politics."

Such disputes, however, have in the past been settled up by credentials committees made up of delegates from each state and territory, which have no credentials contest. Humphrey aides say they do not know just what would happen if a local challenge from a large number of states were to immobilize the credentials committee. They assume the committee, itself, would have to find a way to handle it.

Mail Service Cutbacks Are Outlined

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson outlined today a severe cutback in postal services which he said would be required by a forced reduction in personnel.

Watson told the Senate Post Office Committee the cutbacks would include:

- The beginning of a reduction to four-day delivery weeks on residential routes.
- The closing of 600 third- and fourth-class post offices by the end of August.
- Elimination of Saturday delivery on 100,000 routes.
- No extension of delivery service to newly eligible homes or services.

Watson said these cutbacks would be necessary unless Congress exempts the Post Office from a government-wide personnel reduction program. The government-wide cutback in employment was part of a package which included spending cuts and imposition of a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Watson said the program would mean a cut of 83,000 workers from the postal service's work force of 741,000 over a four-year period. Meanwhile, he said, the volume of mail will increase from 84 billion pieces annually to 93 billion.

McCarthy Camp Proposes Three TV Meetings With Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's camp has proposed three national television "confrontations" with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on "the issues confronting and dividing the nation and the party" from Vietnam to economics.

Both the Democratic presidential candidates agreed during a weekend filled with pre-nominal convention political activity to join in at least one televised discussion, but there was little agreement on details.

Other developments included a report Humphrey had turned down a suggestion that he resign the vice presidency to show independence from the Johnson administration. And California Gov. Ronald Reagan said he "couldn't possibly" announce as a GOP presidential contender before the party's convention.

Blair Clark, McCarthy's campaign director, Sunday proposed separate McCarthy-Humphrey televised discussions on foreign policy, domestic and economic policy, and the candidates' concepts of the presidency and government.

Humphrey aides favored a confrontation the week before the Democratic National Convention begins Aug. 26 but McCarthy's people said it should be earlier, to permit delegates and the public to analyze what they hear.

The two sides also disagreed on what to call the meeting. Humphrey's people used the term "discussion" and although McCarthy aides were not saying "debate" as in the past, they said their man wanted "the freest and clearest" exchange of views.

Vermont Gov. Philip H. Hoff said Sunday Humphrey turned down the vice presidency resignation suggestion a week ago during a meeting with Hoff and Maine Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis.

Hoff said he told Humphrey his major campaign problem is that "you can't be your own man" while serving as vice president.

The governor said Humphrey replied he could not resign the position to which he was elected.

Curtis did not join in Hoff's suggestion but told newsmen nomination of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy as Humphrey's vice presidential running mate would provide the drama and wider appeal he said. Humphrey's campaign needs.

Hoff and Curtis told of the Humphrey meeting at a National Governors Conference in Cincinnati Sunday dominated by huddles on the nominating conventions next month.

There had been new talk Reagan might announce as an active GOP presidential contender but he repeated on arrival he would not become one until his nomination as a favorite-son candidate at the convention.

"I couldn't possibly make a change on that at this time," Reagan said. "We'll go to the convention and then file up to the delegate."

But Michigan Gov. George Romney said: "I consider he's a pretty active candidate now. He seems to be doing pretty well."

Gun Laws Favored By GIs

By JOHN T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer
A survey among American combat troops whose lives depend on their weapons shows a strong support for gun control laws in the United States.

But at the same time most of the GIs interviewed on Saigon's outer defense perimeter said they thought short of confiscation controls would do little to cut down on the weapons they carry.

Spec. 5 Jerry Ballard of Kansas City, Mo., said, "I'm a member of the National Rifle Association (NRA), and I'm against confiscation. But I think mandatory registration of weapons is okay. A gun is no different from a car. You get that, go, and stopping mail order sales is a good idea."

Lt. Alfred Pick of Dallas, Tex., interviewed at Da Nang, seemed "ridiculous. Crooks and assassins can always get a gun whether it is registered or not." Pick said he was opposed to registration of guns.

Spec. 4 Paul Young of Burbank, Calif., said as a devoted hunter, he would not mind gun registration laws but added: "No matter what gun laws they pass, if someone really wants a gun he'll find a way to get it. You can't force it on the people who are not the killing, not the gun. Weapons are not bad by themselves."

"But I think it's a great idea to register and license weapons," said the United States GI who said these things can do to people and there ought to be some sort of control.

"A few GIs said that when they returned home they planned to get rid of the weapons they had in the States, particularly hand guns."

In the past, a few have said Vietnam has increased their hunting and that they would never take another life, even that of an animal, once they got out of Vietnam.

Several GIs deplored what has been called the arms race in some U.S. cities with racial hatred. A common remark was that those who had not seen what guns can do to another human could not fully realize the danger. "I'm angry until it was too late."

2 Escapees Captured in North Idaho

SANDPOINT, Idaho (AP) — Two Montana prison escapees were captured in Idaho near this North Idaho resort community Sunday—but not before they had threatened a couple of campers and left their pistol and car, left them bound and gagged and shot another man in the arm after kidnapping him and his car, sheriff's deputies said.

One of the convicts, shivering as jail officers surrounded him Sunday, said he had fled from the Lake Pend Oreille while fleeing officers and was "too cold" to keep running. The two convicts, however, although they still carried the stolen pistol.

The Bonner County sheriff's office here said David Finch, 28, and Raymond Lee Wilson, 27, were in jail here. The two were among 12 who fled a prison farm near the town of Liberty at Deer Lodge July 15. Three of the inmates were still at large.

Thornberry Appointment May Not Be Considered By Senate Until Fall

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP) — The likelihood that the Senate would act until September on the nomination of Earl Fortas as chief justice appears to have reduced chances of quick consideration of President Johnson's other Supreme Court appointment—Howard Thornberry as associate justice.

Sen. James O. Eastland, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee said Thornberry probably would be dismissed after questioning today by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., and a few other committee members.

Ervin said the majority of those workers behind the scenes, preparing literature and contacting voters for the candidate, are women. Not only are women important in a campaign's working force, but also in the selection of the nominee.

Mrs. Adams asked: "Who has a vital interest in economic stability, if not the woman who carries the burden of the household budget? The people, not the government are the producers of the national wealth," she stated.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Doris Robertson, treasurer of the county. She was joined by Mrs. Clyde Peterson, Wendell district commissioner.

The joint meeting of the county clubs will be Aug. 15 at Hagerman with the place of the meeting to be announced.

Maximum Security Measures Maintained For James Earl Ray

By DOUG STONE
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Maximum security measures are being maintained for James Earl Ray as he waits in an air-conditioned third-floor jail cell Monday for his trial on the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray's lawyer, Arthur Hanes III, said that Ray may request arraignment in a closely guarded courtroom today.

Hanes, who like other principals in the case, was in court order to restrict what he says about the trial, told reporters at a Sunday news conference that "I expect an announcement" today.

Hanes did not indicate what plea Ray, 40, might make to the judge. He said Ray is a first-degree murderer in the April 4 slaying of King.

Mary Adams Talks To GOP Wendell Meet

WENDELL — Mary Adams, GOP candidate for the U. S. House of Representatives from the second Idaho district, spoke Thursday to the Gooding county Republican Women at a joint meeting at the Wendell Civic Club.

Judge Adams told the gathering, "Women play a large part in any political campaign. In any campaign, headquarters are in the home."

Mrs. Adams said she and her husband visited the Elaine Motel where flowers and a plaque mark the spot where the civil rights leader was standing on a second-floor balcony when he was shot.

The lawyers also visited a rooming house which overlooks the motel. It was from this house that police say the fatal shot was fired.

A mattress fire broke out on the third floor Sunday night. City firemen rushed into the building. Sheriff Morris would have only that the fire did little damage and was extinguished quickly.

The sheriff would not say if the fire was set, nor on the first floor if broke out, or whether it was considered the work of other persons, who reportedly are irked over elaborate treatment Ray is receiving when he was whisked into the county jail on Friday.

Hanes described Ray's mood as one of optimism. "He's in good health and has no complaints whatsoever. He reads newspapers and magazines."

Hanes and his son, Arthur Hanes III, had a close family guard Sunday when they toured the neighborhood where King was shot.

Rights Leaders Say Small Provision Could Cripple Desegregation Program

By JACK R. MILLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights leaders say a little-noticed provision passed by the House would cripple the federal government's desegregation program.

The provision, sponsored by Rep. Jamie L. Whitten, D-Miss., prohibits use of federal funds to compel a business to integrate or force abolition of any school or to force students to attend any school against the choice of their parents.

It says the Department of Health, Education and Welfare cannot use its funds for such actions—or to force any such action—unless it has a receipt of federal aid by school districts.

As part of the Labor-HEW appropriations bill, the provision would be effective during the current fiscal year.

The bill passed by the House 277-147.

Arlin Denton, elementary principal here, said he would support the bill.

Mrs. LaRue conducted a tour of the school for the board members and pointed out the improvements under way at the high school building. The front entrance and the science room have been paneled and improved in appearance.

The school board approved the request of the 1968 class to plant a tree in memory of the late Herbert Constock.

The public use of the school playground was discussed and a unanimous agreement was reached—that the playground should be left in its condition until the summer recreation program is completed.

Mr. LaRue and the trustees plan to attend a clinic at Sun Valley Saturday in connection with the summer program sponsored by the Idaho Department of Education.

The 1968-69 school year is scheduled to begin Aug. 28.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I have a sweet little 6-year-old daughter I'll call Molly, and I am expecting a baby in a few months. Molly plays with two neighbor girls who are 6 and 9. The mother of these girls has been juggling them in sex education, which has become a problem to me. The neighbor girls told Molly that "her Mummy was a chub in her tummy, and it's growing like a watermelon, and Daddy planted the seed!" Now, what in the world am I going to tell Molly when she asks me about this "planting" procedure?

I went over to have a talk with my neighbor, and I asked her to please tell her girls not to discuss such things with Molly because I intend to answer all her questions in my own way when the time comes, but right now she is too young to understand these things. I said this all in a very friendly way, and the mother agreed to cooperate. Twice since that time, Molly has asked me some shocking questions, as a result of something these girls have told her.

DEAR MOTHER: I think your neighbor's approach to teaching her daughters what every girl must know sooner or later, is the better one. I'd like to see the book. Can you help me?

CANCER

Q. Much has been written about cancer but I'd like to find a satisfactory definition of the term "cancer." Can you help?

A. What we know as cancer is uncontrolled cell growth — growth free from normal control exercised by the body. Cancer is a negative condition — a result of a breakdown in the control mechanism that welds the cells of the body into a single functioning unit. Cancer is not due to any new cells at all but to a change in the character of the cells, rendering them in one way or another unsuited to normal control.

Twins Sweep Twin Bill From Oakland

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — St. Paul (AP) — Bob Allison clubbed a double, triple and three-run homer, propelling Minnesota to a 10-0 second-game victory over Oakland Sunday.

Allison also scored a solo homer and Tony Oliva drove in two runs with a sacrifice fly and his 15th homer to pace the Twins to a 7-5 triumph in the first game.

Minnesota doubled and scored in a four-run outburst against Los Angeles Sunday night in the first inning of the second game. His ninth homer against reliever Ed Sprague capped a four-run explosion in the second and he tripled and scored on Frank Quilley's error in the fourth.

Jim Perry coasted to his seventh victory in 13 decisions behind the Twins 14th hit barrage. The Angels scored one run in the first inning on two errors on the Cowboys. Twin Falls came back to tie it up in the top of the fifth inning when Bill Solomon walked and advanced to third base on a double by pitcher Jim Mathis. Solomon scored on a ground ball by Jerry Robinson.

Two runs in the bottom of fifth inning when Les Scheitely, recently acquired from the Ogdon Dodgers, singled and advanced to second on a base on balls to John Fullmer, went to third on a fast ball and scored on a wild pitch.

Astros And Giants Share Twin Bill

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros and San Francisco Giants shared a split of their doubleheader Sunday.

The Astros took the first game 2-1 in Dick Simpson's run-scoring single in the 10th inning. Mike Evers struck out a personal three-game losing string by hurling a six-hitter in the nightcap, Jim Wynia's 13th homer deprived the Giants' left-hander of a shutout.

The Giants hopped on Houston starter Danny Coombs and relieved Frank Slocum for three runs in the third inning, then added three more in the sixth.

Simpson's tie-breaking single in the opener scored Bob Aspromonte, who had singled and moved to second when Inzer Bob Bolin hit pinch hitter Julio Goebel.

Willie Mays played first base for the first time since 1964 in the nightcap, handling eight chances without a mistake. Red Barber, manager Willie McCovey sat out the game with a knee injury.

 Jim: "How about a few columns on preserving entries for a long suit?"
 Oswald: "It looks as if you have been looking at Marshall Miles' attack on that subject in the May-June issue of 'Popular Bridge.' We might even use some of his ideas."

of diamonds when South led the queen, South looked awfully at the queen and could not resist putting dummy's ace on it. As South pointed out later, if that queen had really been a singleton, South would only have made one diamond trick if he had ducked and he was going to be sure of two diamond tricks by playing with the ace."

Oswald: "South was wrong in both his play and analysis. South would not make his contract if that queen was a singleton. He needed three diamond tricks; not two. Furthermore, South was not sure of two diamond tricks when West played the queen. There is no law to prevent a smart player rising with the queen when holding K-Q-10."

Jim: "West's play of the queen had little to commend it except that it worked. Once South wasted dummy's ace of diamonds he had no way to make his contract, of course he played it out to the bitter end, but East and West made no mistakes and South went down."

CARD SENSE

You are South. You are not vulnerable and opponents are trump. He has seven tricks in ♠ as dealer you hold:
 ♠KQ ♥10876 ♦532 ♣43-7 for two more. The obvious place to find them is in the diamond suit, the only five carder in his hand or dummy."
 Oswald: "South saw this, and at trick two he made the proper lead of a low diamond toward dummy. His plan was to play low from dummy and to repeat the ducking procedure, the next time he had a chance to lead diamonds."
 Jim: "That play would have worked, but unfortunately for declarer, West played his queen

Checking Up

Which of the states do you feel has the most impressive scenery? When pollsters here that question of a sizable sampling of highly traveled citizens, California came in first. The next nine in order, were Colorado, Washington, Florida, Oregon, New York, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Virginia and Kentucky. The practice of tipping cab drivers is frowned upon mightily in Australia.

Note a writer of detective fiction refers to a stained-glass window with the beautiful best with the bright sunlight caught up in it. Something's wrong there. Stained glass windows are at their beautiful best on cloudy days. He must be an atheist.

A lady of retirement years reports regretfully she still cannot recall the name of a "see appeal" in mixed company without blushing. Quite understandable. Those early inhibitions stick with you, don't they? Know an editor who refuses to allow the word "honeymoon" in his paper. Another can't take a "birdie." Any girl who looks like a "see appeal" it hard to believe the average woman's hair grows only about half an inch a month, but such is the case.

Very few men know how to hide poisonous reptiles in the mattresses of monarhes—There clothing on the average winter four times as much as a man's. However, the contents of her purse weigh twice as much bedtime to the task of jumping as the contents of his pockets.
