

Presidential Candidates Woo Delegates With Lavish Spending

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH
CHICAGO—A highly intriguing mystery at this Democratic convention is the lavish open-ended spending of the three front-running presidential candidates: Humphrey, McCarthy and McGovern. The Democrats are pouring out money for hoopla, razzle-dazzle, endless partying and entertainment and less evident purposes as if they had access to bottomless tills.

Source and amount of these funds is a secret—and virtually certain to remain so. There is no law requiring disclosure or accounting. Numerous tales are afloat about big contributors and financial angles. Credited as leading Humphrey backers are nationally known businessmen, bankers and unions. The helms of two great industrial fortunes are said to be McCarthy's principal benefactors. McGovern's still baffling eleven-month campaign is reputed to be beautifully financed by "Kennedy elements."

Every major convention hotel has a Humphrey hospitality lounge equipped with a musical jukebox, refreshments, pretty girls in minis and every conceivable variety of campaign propaganda and display. McCarthy is out in a behind with similar facilities. They are not as numerous or elaborate as Humphrey's, but on the other hand, McCarthy far outdid Humphrey in staging a so-called "welcoming demonstration" upon arriving in Chicago Sunday afternoon. Everything about the big night affair was carefully organized and directed.

There is no sign of either stinging or lack of money in the Humphrey camp. Whatever else the word in information may be wanting, it is not convention funds. McGovern is putting on a show, although not in the class of his front-running rivals; however, even at that it will cost between $100,000 and $200,000. The Windy City can't complain that the Democrats are not free-wheeling big political spenders.

USING A NIGHTSTICK and pulling on a shirt, Chicago policemen disburse a couple of "hippies" from the steps of a Chicago apartment near Lincoln Park during a disturbance early today. 'Yippies' Play Tag With Chicago Police

CHICAGO (AP) — Nearly 1,000 Yuppies, hippies and assorted purveyors of protest played a traffic-smarling street tag with police over a four-mile section of Chicago's most famous streets Sunday night, climaxing a day of varied protest demonstrations. Despite a short barrage of rocks aimed at police in Lincoln Park after midnight, there were very few arrests—least eight for the number of people involved—at one point about 2,000. Activity began on a serious note in the early afternoon when several youth and antiwar groups peacefully picketed the major hotels of Democratic National Convention delegates. They were protesting U.S. fighting in Vietnam. Soviet troops in Czechoslovakia, federal troops on the alert in Chicago, and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in the lead for the Democratic presidential nomination. But toward midnight a sudden, unplanned ramp developed that rallied zig-zagged through several sections of Near-North Chicago. Problems first began when the more than 1,000 demonstrators set up picket lines at the Conrad Hilton and the Palmer House—they were visited by the three major presidential contenders during the day—and returned to Lincoln Park, a sort of informal gathering place about three miles north of the Loop, Chicago's downtown heart. There were a couple of minor clashes with police as several persons were arrested for interfering with police, and as dark fell the question on nearly everybody's mind was whether to obey the park's posted 11 p.m. closing time. Many of the demonstration marshals who kept picket lines under tight and orderly control earlier in the day decided there was no point in confronting the police Sunday night, and so they walked among the couples and groups huddled in blankets on the grass or warming themselves over trash basket fires, urging everyone to leave. Most of the overwhelming white crowd started to comply, but ran into a half-dozen Negro militants who kept shouting exhortations who mounted each others' shoulders to shout, "The park is free! The park is ours!"

Disident Texans May Name LBJ As Feud Flares

CHICAGO (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey held a heavy—but highly uneasy—lead for the presidential nomination today as a deeply divided Democratic party headed into its 1968 convention. The vice president had in his pocket two-thirds of the first ballot votes needed for a top prize, but most of the talk and much of the enthusiasm were for two non-candidates humiliated by their 60th birthday anniversary party: Lyndon B. Johnson and Edward M. Kennedy. Mr. President, home on the ranch near Johnson City, Tex., was giving no hint on whether he'd even show up in Chicago—though his Tuesday offers a dramatic opportunity to put real steam behind a budding "Draft Johnson" movement. Sen. Kennedy, like Johnson an avowed noncandidate, was relaxing at Cape Cod, Mass., but perhaps more insistent "draft" movement appeared to be surfacing in Chicago. Forces in the Texas delegation are ready to put Johnson's name in nomination as former Gov. Michael DeSalle of Ohio is ready with Kennedy's—and this morning important new strength turned the senator's way. Longshot presidential hopeful Eugene S. McGovern said he Kennedy "called me and talked to me directly and said that he wanted the nomination I would probably throw my support to him." McGovern, a South Dakota senator, added, however: "I don't expect that to happen. I don't know about any Kennedy movement." A liberal senator from the Midwest, Phillip Hart of Michigan, endorsed Kennedy for the nomination—and Sander Levin, chairman of the Michigan delegation, said it would "lean to Kennedy if Kennedy became a candidate." Like McGovern, both Hart and Levin spoke cautiously, saying they were not urging the last of the Kennedy brothers to get into the race. But a boom or at least a boomlet, has been launched. Attention was centered particularly on the 118-vote Illinois delegation where, at the direction of Mayor Richard J. Daley, a presidential preference vote was put off until Wednesday—obviously to see if either the Johnson or Kennedy drives catch fire. Blair Clark, campaign manager for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, contended at a news conference in mid-morning "it now is quite clear" that Humphrey is not going to win on the first ballot. On paper, at least, the strength of the declared candidates remained constant. The Associated Press, basing its count on primary results, public pledges, checks with delegates and caucuses, gave this standing in mid-morning: Humphrey 682; McGovern 374; Kennedy 314; Johnson 149; Hart 149; DeSalle 149; Levin 149; McGovern 149; Hart 149; DeSalle 149; Levin 149. The convention's 2,622 delegates make their White House choice Wednesday night. On answer front, meanwhile, Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia resigned as a delegate to the convention—though he remains a candidate for the party's nomination.

Engelking Urges Formal Test Of Year-Long School Proposal

By EARLE L. JESTER
BOISE (AP)—Idaho's top public school official proposed today that one school district be chosen for a test of his proposal for year-around school operation. Dr. F. Engelking, state superintendent of public instruction, said a number of districts might be eligible for such a test, adding it is possible a federal grant could be obtained to finance a test project. He said that after the November election it is expected that the federal government will be available as to whether federal funds can be obtained, and in what amount. At that time, he said, he will invite school districts interested to volunteer their participation and if a satisfactory program can be developed the project will be undertaken. Engelking's plan is for the offering of a complete schedule of classes during summers. They would be expected to attract students' desiring remedial or accelerated learning and Engelking said that over a period of years, probably one-third the total enrollment of a district would be affected. Teaching the summer classes would be one-third of a district's staff of teachers. Under Engelking's plan, another one-third of the teachers would take advanced training during the summer months, the remaining one-third would have the summer off. Those assignments would be rotated, so that over a three-year period all teachers would have summer instruction only one year. All teachers, and students, would have a brief summer vacation. Engelking said it is likely the primary demand for summer classes would come from secondary students. But he said it is likely some elementary work also would be offered and kindergarten training would be provided for all pre-school youngsters. "I think this plan is a practical one and will work in many Idaho school districts," Engelking said. "There are two primary advantages. It would result in utilizing buildings, equipment and facilities throughout the year and it would justify increasing teacher salaries, because the teachers would be giving a full 12 months' service." Engelking said the plan could permit those who desire to teach in the summer to do so, that they would receive only three-fourths the annual pay of teachers working 12 months. The state superintendent said he could not now estimate the probable cost of a pilot program, since it would depend largely on the size of the district and the number of teachers available.

Burley Woman Dies In Car-Truck Wreck

BURLEY—Mrs. Fred (Agnes) Hansen, 60, Route 2, Burley, died shortly after arrival at Cassin Memorial Hospital of injuries received in a car-truck accident on 200 South and 250 East, a county road. John W. Tilly, 60, Route 2, Burley, was driving a 1964 Dodge truck, owned by Burley Irrigation District. Mr. Tilly told sheriff's officers that he had stopped at a stop sign, then pulled out into the road and was struck broadside by Mr. Hansen's 1964 four-door car. The truck tipped over and the car stayed upright. Officers said Mrs. Hansen was traveling alone but passengers in the Irrigation truck were Norvin Parks, 50, Declu; John Smith, 54, and Bill Craythorn, 28, both Burley. None of the men in the truck were injured. The car was demolished and the truck received damage of $1,500 to the left side of the cab and the truck frame. Cassia County sheriff's officers investigated.

Detective To Handle T.F. Youth Cases

Twin Falls Police Chief Frank Barnett said Monday that one of three city detectives will be assigned to fill a vacancy in the juvenile department, created last week when Ernest El Marlow, head of the juvenile department, resigned. Chief Barnett said that he feels the work load in juvenile cases is not heavy enough to warrant a separate department. He said one of the detectives will be assigned to handle juvenile cases, in addition to his regular detective assignments. The arrangements, the chief said, will be permanent. He said that the juvenile cases become heavy enough to again establish a separate juvenile branch of the police department. Mr. Marlow has been head of the juvenile department since 1953, when it was set up under the title Police Chief Howard Gillette.

Ike Shows Signs Of Ailing Heart

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has shown "further increase" in heart irritability since Sunday and remains in critical condition. Doctors of the Walter Reed Army Hospital said that extra heartbeats have been occurring with increasing frequency since Sunday. But they added that there had been no further episodes of "rapid heart action," which constitute the more serious symptom of his condition. The hospital issued this morning report. Gen. Eisenhower has shown further increase in heart irritability since yesterday. Extra beats have been occurring with increasing frequency. However, there have been no further episodes of rapid heart action. "The general condition remains critical. He enjoyed a light breakfast this morning and continues to rest comfortably."

Twin Falls Studies Proposal School All Year Long? Could Be

That long summer vacation youngsters and teachers get at the end of each school year may become a thing of the past, by first officials of Twin Falls School District No. 411 are looking at this possibility right now. "We are one of the few Idaho school districts that operate nearly year around. Going on a year-around schedule throughout the system, however, is something that needs careful study." This is what Superintendent Ernest Rugland had to say Monday. Elmer Sommer, chairman of the school board, even went further. "We are headed toward year around classes, of that there's no doubt. When is another question, but it can't be too far away." Teachers and youngsters can all afford to relax, however. If there is a switch it won't come this school year. "There are too many problems to consider," Mr. Sommer said. "We can't expect a teacher to instruct year around without some compensation." Dr. Rugland said. "When a teacher works during the summer months they are given more money," he added. Twin Falls at present has its post graduate courses and its summer courses in all levels of education, and Dr. Rugland said this system is close to being in a year around operation now. "Also, it costs a lot to shut down with summer comes. It's easier to keep the doors open year-around," Mr. Sommer said. But any decision will need board approval. "We don't know if we will apply for this experimental year around program but I will receive attention," Mr. Sommer said. There are more than 6,000 youngsters in the Twin Falls school system. Mr. Sommer said a year around school operation would mean broader education for

12 Dispatched To Fight Blaze

Twelve men from the inter-regional firefighting crew of the National Forest have been sent to the Canyon fire in the Angeles National Forest in California, according to Darrell Smith, fire dispatcher. The crew left Twin Falls Municipal Airport early Sunday. A crew of 12 was also dispatched from Payette, and another crew of 12 was dispatched from Boise. The fire in which seven teenage fire fighters and their crew boss were killed Saturday. Several others were injured.

Russ-Czech Talks Continue Despite Rumor Of Accord

MOSCOW (AP) — Czechoslovak and Soviet talks went into an afternoon session today on the fourth day of negotiations and reports they had reached a tentative agreement to end the crisis. But some Czechoslovak sources expressed doubt that anything like a final solution had been agreed upon. Authorities party sources in Prague said there was hope of reaching an agreement that would include Soviet recognition of the liberal party leaders. The great secretary of the Czechoslovak Embassy, asked about the report, replied: "I don't know anything about it." One Czechoslovak source said Svoboda is anxious to reach agreement and return home. The spokesman said Svoboda would be accompanied home by Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek reported earlier to have been taken prisoner by the Soviet troops who invaded his country. One Czechoslovak Embassy source said the negotiations were continuing, but that preliminary agreement on a compromise already had been reached on a pullout of Soviet East Bloc troops within 10 days. In return for this, the source added, the Czechoslovak press would be prohibited from publishing anti-Soviet statements. The great secretary of the Czechoslovak Embassy, asked about the report, replied: "I don't know anything about it." One Czechoslovak source said Svoboda is anxious to reach agreement and return home. CSI Vocational School Entered, Police Report

The College of Southern Idaho Vocational-Technical school was broken into, and a number of items were stolen, according to Twin Falls police officers.

The break-in occurred sometime Sunday night, officers said, and items are being sought by prying a back door open.

Among items missing were a 1962 Ford pickup truck, two shotguns, five pistols, and electrical and other equipment.

Several filing cabinets in the were broken into. Officers said the truck was probably taken to transport the stolen items.

Several filing cabinets in the building also were broken into, but nothing appeared to be missing from them, officers stated.

T.F. Man Hurt In Accident

A Twin Falls man was injured, but did not require hospitalization, in the 193 vintage he was driving was demolished in a one-car accident eight miles southeast of Twin Falls Friday.

Idaho State Police report that David E. Pinkston, 19, Route 2, Twin Falls, was driving a 1930 Ford owned by Delmer Pinkston, also Twin Falls.

Mr. Pinkston said officers that he was driving south when he looked away from the road momentarily. When he looked back, he was in the center of the road and another car was approaching.

He overcorrected the vehicle and it went out of control. Mr. Pinkston was charged with failure to maintain control.

Allies Kill 1,000 Reds In Savage Drive

SAIGON (AP) — Smashing communist forces across South Vietnam, allied forces killed more than 1,000 of the enemy today and Sunday and raised their toll to more than 6,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese dead in the past eight days, military spokesmen reported today.

The intensified fighting went into its ninth day today with one battle still under way below the demilitarized zone. Near Con Thien, U.S. Marines cordoned off more than 300 North Vietnamese troops and were trying to tighten the noose around them. Fifty-two of the enemy were reported killed.

The U.S. Command said that more than 5,000 enemy troops were reported killed last week. The count has not been so high since the week ending May 18, when 5,346 were reported killed in the midst of the second major enemy offensive of the year.

The latest enemy thrusts smashed by allied forces were across Vietnam's central highlands and farther north along the coastal lowlands where hundreds of enemy troops were reported slain by allied infantrymen and a massive rain of U.S. fire and air power.

Senior U.S. officers in Da Nang said they saw no end to the intensified fighting. Total allied casualties have been light, because of superior American firepower from bombers, artillery and helicopter gunships which have accounted for perhaps 80 per cent or more of the enemy dead.

Military spokesmen in Saigon said two battalions of North Vietnamese had been wiped out in a weekend of savage fighting at the Duc Lap Special Forces camp—and a nearby district headquarters compound.

The isolated camp, at the southern tip of the central highlands on an invasion route from Cambodia, held out against 3,000 enemy troops for three days until reinforcements fought their way in late Sunday and relieved the 300 defenders.

At last report, all was quiet inside the camps. But less than two miles away from the district headquarters, a battalion of South Vietnamese infantrymen, sent into the area to bolster allied defenses, clashed with enemy units this afternoon and reported killing 15. Three government soldiers were killed.

Two more American planes, an Air Force F-4 Phantom and a Navy A-1 Corsair, were reported lost in attacks on North Vietnam's southern panhandle and the two crewmen of the Phantom are missing. The pilot of the Corsair was pulled from the South China Sea by a helicopter after he bailed out east of Vinh. These losses raised to 885 the number of U.S. warplanes reported downed over the North in the 3½-year bombing campaign.

The siege of Duc Lap was lifted when 1,000 government commandos and their American advisers fought their way into the Green Beret camp.

One of the defenders, M. Sgt. Thomas Boudy of New York City, reported: "We thought it was all over. A group of us Americans were going to make a last ditch stand on top of the hill. We would rather die than give up."

Garage Damaged During T.F. Fire

Twin Falls firemen were called to the home of Richard Sheridan, 449 Fifth Ave. W., Saturday to extinguish a garage fire.

There was extensive damage to the north end of the building and to an apartment above the garage, according to Capt. Francis Horjics.

The fire started when grease was being cleaned from the garage floor with gasoline, Capt. Horjics said.

Two fire trucks answered the call and extinguished the blaze in 28 minutes. No other buildings were damaged.

Rupert Woman Remains In Coma

KETCHUM — Mrs. Carl Pothier, Rupert, was listed in serious condition Monday after an accident at Ketchum's wagon Days on Saturday.

Mrs. Pothier was flown early Monday morning from the Sun Valley Hospital to St. Alphonsus Hospital in Boise.

She suffered a concussion and remained in a coma Monday.

Mrs. Pothier was taking moving pictures of her son who was riding in the kid's horse races when a horse ridden by Timmy Knight was unable to stop and the horse struck her in the head with his hoof.

The claim was filed by Mr. Mayer's attorney, Emil Pike, Twin Falls.

Mr. Mayer claims he was arrested on a charge of embezzlement in connection with the rental of a car.

He said, in the damage claim, that a warrant for his arrest was issued and he was arrested and spent four days in the Jerome city jail. Mr. Mayer claims the warrant was issued illegally.

He added that during the time spent in jail he had the responsibility of caring for his injured son and as a result of his confinement he has "suffered severe financial loss."

He also claims that while in the Jerome jail, a Jerome police officer discharged into his face the chemical "mace." Mr. Mayer alleges that he suffered severe inflammation of the eyes and burning of the throat when the chemical was fired on him.

The damage claim will be heard to the Jerome City Council at its next meeting.

Street Work Progresses After Rain

The Twin Falls City Streets Department has resumed its paving work this week, according to Ron Scheuffele, city engineer.

The work was slowed by the recent heavy rainfall. Mr. Scheuffele estimated the rain damage to the streets as moderate.

Streets being paved are Sigrid Avenue, Morningside Drive North, Locust Street North, Alta Vista Drive, Princeton Drive and James Avenue. Mr. Scheuffele said this work would be completed in two or three weeks if no more rain occurs.

The city is also working on an irrigation line along Stadium Boulevard.

They are working in cooperation with School District No. 411 to complete work this fall to ease traffic on Locust Street during football games.

LIGHTING AND HEALTH HAZARDS

Q. We recently moved to a new home and noticed the very latest lighting fixtures. I find the illumination from these too intense. Can too much artificial light harm the eyes?

A. The amount of light ordinarily provided in modern offices is not likely to cause permanent eye damage. If you have a headache, ask that the light be adjusted. Many illuminating engineers have the notion (not supported by medical facts) that inadequate lighting is harmful to the eyes, and therefore the more light the better. Actually, a 20-foot-candle level was considered adequate a decade ago. Now, it is not uncommon to find 30-foot-candle levels in modern offices. Many people prefer less illumination.

Czechs Use Road Signs To Harass Invaders

PRAGUE (AP)—Road signs the Czechs and Slovaks have all over Czechoslovakia have written them in the Cyrillic alphabet used in Russia.

On the route through southern Bohemia from West Germany to Prague, other signs read, "Ivan said one. 'This is our country,' said another. There were end-travelers encountered such less variations on the main theme "Moscow is that way, meters ahead" and "Watch out, please get going."

New signs also warn travelers of Soviet-checkpoints or road blocks.

Entering Prague on one road, travelers encountered signs as, "Soviet roadblock, 1500 meters ahead" and "Watch out, please get going."

for Ivan, 500 meters from here." Another phase of the sign campaign aims at confusing the occupiers and hindering their activities.

In many villages and in Prague, street signs and house numbers have been removed. Signposts have been splashed with buff paint. Others have been pointed in wrong directions.

As a result, the Soviets are finding it hard to get around. Russian truckdrivers losing their way in a town can never get more than a shrug from Czechoslovak pedestrians they ask for directions.

Jury Test For Trial Continues

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—With the prosecution and defense each armed with 30 unused preemptory challenges, jury selection resumed Monday in the murder trial of two Kitzville, Wash., youths.

Leonard E. Maine and Thomas Braun, both, 20, are accused of killing a Ukiah youth and trying to kill his girl friend.

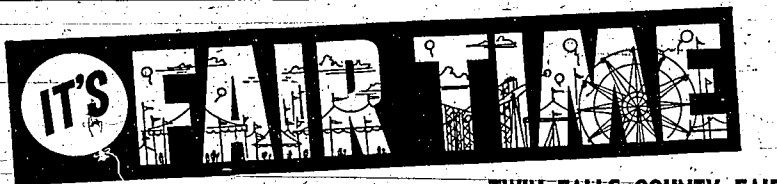

Although seven women and five men were seated tentatively before court recessed last Thursday, attorneys said they expected the jury selection process to take most of this four-day court week.

Maine and Braun were accused of the execution-style murder of Timothy Luce, 17, in a vineyard near Ukiah on Aug. 21, 1967. They also are charged with kidnaping, raping and assaulting his companion, Susan Bartolomei.

Living on despite five bullets fired into her head and neck, the 18-year-old girl still is almost totally paralyzed. She communicates by blinking her eyes and moving one finger.

The case so aroused public opinion in Mendocino County that the State Supreme Court upheld a defense motion for a change of venue and moved the trial to San Jose.

COLLEGE AID TOLD WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Education reports that colleges and universities in Idaho received nearly $1,620,000 in federal financial assistance for 3,243 students in the fiscal year ending last June 30.

Candidate Discusses Utah View

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. George S. McGovern, South Dakota, late entrant into the Democratic presidential nomination race, met with Utah delegates to the party's national convention Sunday.

He was the first of the candidates to talk to the Utah delegation. Tentatively, McGovern, McCarthy or key backer will speak to the Utahns Tuesday and Hubert H. Humphrey forces will appear Wednesday.

McGovern, pending to questions, said he would support either Vice President Humphrey or Sen. McCarthy if the party nominates them.

He also said he thinks the United States should cease bombing in North Vietnam to make the Paris peace negotiations more meaningful.

The Utah delegation transacted no business because Sen. Frank E. Moss and Gov. James H. Hunt had not arrived. Both are scheduled to put in an appearance Monday.

Utah delegates have caucuses scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings.

Gov. Maddox Leaves Post As Delegate

CHICAGO (AP)—Gov. Lester G. Maddox resigned today as a member of Georgia's challenge delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

In a brief announcement as the Georgia delegation went into a caucus the governor said he resigned in order to devote his full time to his candidacy for the presidential nomination.

The Convention Credentials Committee has recommended that Georgia's 43 convention votes be split between a conservative delegation picked by Maddox and an integrated rival group headed by Negro State Rep. Julian Bond.

In Atlanta, Stan Hathcock, the governor's aide, said Maddox's two aims are to have the regular Georgia delegation seated and to continue his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

OEO To Open New Center In Twin Falls

The Neighborhood Center, under the direction of the Office of Economic Opportunity, hopefully will open in the Salvation Army annex within the next few weeks, according to Al-Morgan, director of the Community Agency.

The first program the center hopes to organize will be a child care center.

Mr. Morgan noted that when the center opens, furnishings and equipment will be needed. According to OEO regulations these items must be donated or loaned. He said the center will need a typewriter, filing cabinet, an executive desk, stenographers desk, two chairs, a reception room, a small adding machine, children's playground equipment and toys.

Some of these items may be secured from the Twin Falls Air Force Base if they are available. Otherwise they will have to be donated by local people, Mr. Morgan said.

Rain Drips SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—

Record rainfall this month may reduce August sales by the city's water department, said Commissioner E. J. Garn.

Garn noted 2.05 billion gallons were sold in July, and 1.9 billion were sold during August of 1967.

Some 3.08 inches of rain have been recorded so far this month at Salt Lake International Airport. The previous record for August was 3.28 inches in 1945.

Utah Contenders Emphasize Support Of Agriculture

By The Associated Press

Agriculture was the main theme of Utah Democratic and Republican political contenders this weekend.

Att. Gen. Phil Hansen, Democrat seeking the seat held by Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, suggested to Davis County supporters as possible guidelines:

- Family farms must be preserved as part of the agricultural economy.
- Corporate farms should continue to function, but should not be permitted to employ monopolistic practices.
- Agricultural cooperatives should be encouraged.
- Farm products must be marketed at prices which bear a fair ratio to the cost of production and the cost of living.
- Incentives should be provided to attract light industry to smaller towns in rural farm areas to increase business activity, broaden the rural tax base and provide supplemental employment opportunities.

Utah Senator Views 'Incredible' Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, said Saturday upon his return from Moscow that the Soviet Union's invasion of Czechoslovakia was "incredible."

Moss said the Soviet action was more reprehensible than when it moved into Hungary and destroyed resistance there in 1956.

Moss and Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., had been in Moscow to attend the World Power Conference as representatives of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Prior to Russia's move into Czechoslovakia, Moss said, he had been on a trip with 10 people, including eight Czechoslovakians, in various parts of Russia.

Idaho Demo Chief Scolds Samuelson

BOISE (AP)—E. T. Waters, Democratic state chairman, said Saturday that state government was "on the downswing" since Gov. Don W. Samuelson took office in 1967.

The Republican governor had Idaho turn and state government has passed a turning point and that it was becoming more economical and more efficient now.

"I agree with Gov. Samuelson that the state government in Idaho has had a turning point," Waters said. "The turning point was a year and a half ago. It was a hard turn and state government has been on the downswing ever since."

"In the past 18 months the Samuelson administration has increased the number of new departments in the state as well as additional agencies," Waters declared.

"He has made false statements on economies realized, has made a mockery of the employee merit system, has shut down turn and state government and has in turn badgered the established departments and agencies."

Police Sgt. Max Jones said the safe contained little of value. It was discovered missing Sunday.

Dr. Luther Cressman and Stephen F. Bedwell have dated the ashes of a fire in the Fort Rock Lake Basin area of Central Oregon back 13,600 years.

The men say the significance of the discovery is that it demonstrates that man must have come south to the New World at least 30,000 years ago.

Resumes Work LAGUNA BEACH Calif. (AP)—

Paul Arct returns to work at the U.S. Post Office today after a eight-month dispute over his refusal to work Saturdays.

Arct, 48, a Seventh Day Adventist, says he was fired Dec. 20 for refusing to work on his day of worship. He had been with the post office 17 years.

Post officials helped him file an appeal, and regional officials reinstated him effective today, pending a formal ruling in Washington.

The father of three worked as a laborer at the nearby El Toro Marine Corps Air Station while his case was on appeal. Arct said Sunday that he holds no grudges against the post office.

Scientists Discover 'Old' Life

EUGENE (AP)—University of Oregon archaeologists say they have pinpointed the second oldest known date of human occupation in North America.

Dr. Luther Cressman and Stephen F. Bedwell have dated the ashes of a fire in the Fort Rock Lake Basin area of Central Oregon back 13,600 years.

The men say the significance of the discovery is that it demonstrates that man must have come south to the New World at least 30,000 years ago.

Scientists have known for some time that the Indians say that the ancestors of the American-Indian must have moved from Alaska either some time before 30,000 years ago or within the last 12,000 years. In the 18,000 years between there was no ice-free corridor on which to travel.

The UO discovery and recent excavations at Wilson Butte Cave on the Snake River plateau in southern Idaho, which have produced evidence of human life some 35,000 years ago, suggest that man first appeared in the New World more than 30,000 years ago, the archaeologists say.

Buhl Youth Is Injured In Collision

BOISE (AP)—Alden L. Palmer, 17, Buhl, escaped serious injury Saturday when the 1957 Chevrolet he was driving collided with farm machinery being towed by Tony P. Kuntz, 31, Buhl, two and three-quarters miles west of Buhl on Highway 30.

The top of the Chevrolet was nearly sheared off and the impact sent the vehicle into the borrow pit on the north side of the highway.

Young Palmer was pinned in his car for several minutes. First aid and a sedative were administered at the scene by a local physician. He was then taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital where he was treated for multiple cuts and abrasions and possible rib fractures. He was in good condition Monday.

Damage to the machinery was estimated at $5,000 and the car was demolished. Citations are pending due to further investigation of the accident. Assisting at the scene were Deputy Sheriff Carl Fryer and Buhl City Police Officer Benny Ekert.

UNEMPLOYMENT RISES LONDON (AP)—

Unemployment in Britain rose this month to the highest August level in more than 20 years, the government reported, but it claimed that taking seasonal factors into account officials were encouraged by the figures. They showed 569,731, or 2.4 per cent of the employable, were out of work Aug. 12.

Nevada Official Asks U.S. Probe Of Airline

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—The chairman of the Nevada Public Service Commission asked the Civil Aeronautics Board Friday to investigate Air West, a newly-merged commercial airline.

Chairman Reese Taylor Jr. said the state will have no alternative but to order a hearing and conduct its own investigation unless the federal government acts.

"The present service deficiencies cannot be allowed to continue," Taylor said in a letter to Commissioner Whitney Gilliland of the CAB and to G. Robert Henry, president of Air West.

City officials in Las Vegas, Nev., and Phoenix, Ariz., have complained about service. Industrialist Howard Hughes is negotiating to purchase the firm, made up of three former airlines, Pacific, Bonanza and West Coast.

Taylor said he talked to Air West officials on July 21 about passenger complaints of "extended and unreasonable flight delays, problems in obtaining reservations and flight information and repeated discourtesies from ground personnel."

Henry said a breakdown of the airline's computer equipment in San Francisco was causing many of the problems.

Tops Pamper Club To Host Rupert Rally

RUPERT—The Rupert TOPS Pamper Club will be the host to the annual TOPS club rally for all Magic Valley organizations. The event will be held Sept. 26 at the Magic Valley Club.

Between 300 and 400 members are expected to represent the 13 Magic Valley Clubs during the event, which will include the recognition of a "most-talented" club of six divisions.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Walter Peterson, Burley, and special guest will be Delores Simms, Prater, the State TOPS supervisor.

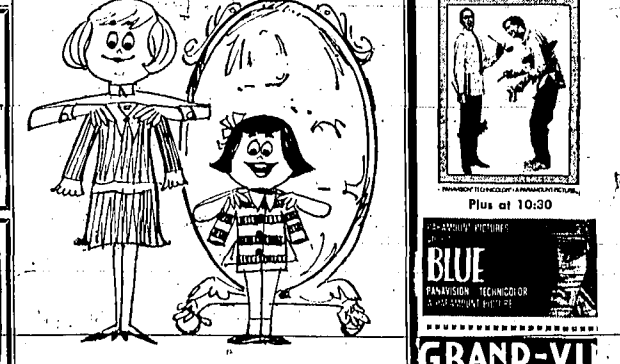

Plans for the upcoming rally were discussed during the weekly meeting of the TOPS Pamper Club in Paul.

Also during the meeting, LaVern Farrison was named the best loser of the week, with a two and a half pound loss recorded. Total loss for the week was 100 pounds. Farrison, with a six and a half pound gain noted. Fourteen members were present.

Linda Howard, Johnson Wed

MURTAUGH — Linda Ann Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard, Murtaugh, and Roger Dean Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Johnson, Twin Falls, recited marriage vows in an evening candle-light ceremony Aug. 2 at the Murtaugh Methodist Church.

Rev. Delbert Remaly performed the double ring ceremony before a "background" of decorated candelabra and beauty baskets of lavender, gladiolus and white daisies tied with lavender satin bows.

The bride-given in marriage by her father, wore a Bridal Original gown. A crepe band and bow formed a redingote effect on her hand-clasped Chantilly lace gown and swept to chapel train. Pearls encircled the scalloped neckline and the long, fly point sleeves were caught at the wrist by self-covered buttons.

Tulle petals formed the perky cluster atop her head which held a five-length veil of English silk illusion.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white Stephanotis and baby's breath centered with a lavender orchid.

The bride's attendants were Annette Hughes, college roommate, maid of honor; Shirley Larson, bridesmaid; and Debbie Jean Howard, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

Denise Howard, Buhl, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Danny Johnson, Twin Falls, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. Candlelighter and ushers were Mike Howard and Mark Howard, brothers of the bride.

Dan L. Johnson, Twin Falls, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Mrs. Don Howard, Buhl, aunt of the bride, and Paula Remaly, Kimberly, were soloists. Mrs. Jack Alfred accompanied the soloists and played the traditional wedding music.

Susan Hogue registered the guests.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church basement.

The bride's table was covered with a pink and white flounce skirt and pink and lavender flowers. The table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, decorated in lavender, pink and topped with two white satin bells. The cake was baked by Mrs. Uba Allen. Lavender and pink bouquets of silver candelabra flanked the cake. A silver coffee service and crystal punch bowl completed the table decor.

Guests were served at quarter tables which were covered with lace cloths and centered with brandy snifters holding lavender gladiolus.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Richard Howard, Buhl. Mrs. Don Howard, Buhl, presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Jean Robertson, Oroville, Calif., poured punch. All are aunts of the bride.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Wayne Hogue, Mrs. Jack

Fashion Can Be Rags To Riches To Rags Game

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The rag-trade is known as a father-to-son kind of business. But today's business' too, has its role as a springboard into the garment industry for quite a few of our young designers and manufacturers.

Mr. Blackwell, for example, a Dec. 2nd kid years ago, backed into, designing the day he pin-draped a costume on a girl when he was theatrical agent. Now he has a booming business in the California garment industry.

Larry Salters, designer for Russ Togs, came to the rag trade from business.

And Larry Farragut, who is responsible for the chic fashions of Maggi (Ann Bloom, Inc.) is another refugee from the halls of drama.

His stage name was Doug Brooks and he started in show business with Tony Curtis and Harry Belafonte. His major credits include "Demetrius and the Gladiators," "Girl Next Door," "Phone Call from a Stranger," "Remains in Reno" and others. His television credits are numerous.

Delightful to hear was the story of how this aggressive and busy actor is making his way through the process to springboard himself from show business to ladies' dresses with not one easy lesson.

The movies had dropped in popularity. Everything was going to Broadway. "I couldn't even get work when I wore my one-piece interview suit that had cost me 40 bucks," he said.

"One night, while I was watching a TV show in my hotel in Laurel Canyon, I saw a program that showed how someone went into the rag business and made a fortune. Should I give it a whirl?"

Farragut thought a hoot at the fact that never in his life had he looked into a window of women's clothes and asked himself how he could get into the business when he didn't know anything about dresses. With nothing to lose, he decided to try.

He didn't know Don Loper, either, but figured if he was going to learn the rag trade he might as well start big. And Don Loper of California BIG.

"I called his office and asked, 'Where's Loper?' He was out. 'Well, you tell him I'll be in at 3 p.m.," he said, dropping his name with the assurance of a producer.

When Farragut walked in at 3 p.m. Don Loper was pacing his office waiting for an actor.

"All of a sudden," Larry admitted, "I knew I couldn't really bluff this one. So I simply said, 'I'm an actor.'"

Loper snapped back, "That's obvious."

"I told him I didn't know a thing about the dress business but was sure he needed me terribly," Farragut said. "He let me speak for about 10 minutes, then pointed to his office door. 'Hundreds of people come through that, looking for work. But you're the first to ever tell me how ill-equipped you are.'"

He hired Farragut on the spot. Loper sent his new employee to New York with a customer's list.

"I went to Dandel's," Farragut recalled, "pushing past a zonnie. I'd never heard of it in my life. But they bought it. I looked hundreds of orders that day without even knowing what I was selling."

But he was serious about learning the dress business. He walked the streets of New York at night and looked at all the store windows and then went back the next day to study and record some more. And, as is evidenced by his successful business today under the Maggi label, Larry did indeed learn the rag trade.

When he left Loper, he came to New York to work for Goette and, when that firm was closing, management wanted Farragut to take over the business. But he didn't have that much money at the time.

Farragut believes that the men in the business end of the clothing industry should get out into the retail stores, and see the consumer who buys their clothes.

"When a woman can afford dresses at $150 and up, she is no longer a baby. She usually knows what's right for her and won't be hurried into buying something that she doesn't like in close touch with your children."

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a person's reply write to Abby, Box 68700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90068 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DEAR ABBY: My mother was looking thru my year book when I was in high school and she stuff the kids wrote in it.

Well, one of my friends who happens to be a very nice girl, wrote, 'Have a bitchin' summer when my mother saw that she flew into a rage and hit the ceiling.

Abby, "bitchin'" doesn't mean to us kids what it means to the older generation. There is nothing dirty about it. My mother can't believe it, so please, do me a favor and explain that "bitchin'" when used by the kids today means "groovy, neat or cool." Thank you.

NOT BELIEVED

DEAR NOT: Much as I'd like the word when used by kids to describe the ultimate, it does mean what you say it does. But don't ever use it to describe your mother — no matter how "groovy, neat or cool" you think she is.

DEAR ABBY: Your reply to the Man Next Door about the violin-playing 10-year-old missed the mark entirely. (You told the complaining neighbor to keep his windows closed and buy an air-conditioner.)

THE VIOLIN-PLAYER'S PARENTS should keep their windows closed and buy an air-conditioner. The perpetrators of any nuisance noise should be required by law to keep their noise in, or to stop it altogether.

There is entirely too much tolerance of nuisance noise in the U.S.A. today. In many European countries they are, so strict about nuisance noise that all apartment houses are required by law to be soundproofed.

Many experts have testified that noise is as evil a kind of "pollution" as water and air pollution. It's not only nerve-wracking, it's a menace to good health. Anyone interested in knowing the names of the above-mentioned "experts," may write to Congressman Ted Kupferman, who has been sponsoring a bill on Noise Control.

BEN F. LAPOSKY,
CHEROKEE, IOWA

DEAR BEN: Amen Tell Rep. Kupferman that the "noise" he just heard is Abby, cheering for his bill.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to reply to "MOTHER OF SEVEN," who said "the world would be a better off if people would learn to love the children they get, rather than take pills to keep from having them."

A person does not have to "learn to love" a wanted child. The "love" is already there. Alho, some people may develop love for unwanted children. It can never be as natural and free from prejudice. One cannot be taught, forced or shamed into loving.

That woman with seven children is a greater threat to the human race than the bomb. While she is busy overrunning every planet, she has the nerve to encourage others to follow her example.

C. M. J.,
SANTA CLARA, CALIF.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "AVERAGE PARENTS:" Money isn't everything, but it does keep you in close touch with your children.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a person's reply write to Abby, Box 68700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90068 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cowboys Finally Conquer Idaho Falls By Splitting Doubleheader 3-2 And 1-4

IDAHO FALLS (AP) — The Magic Valley Angels defeated Idaho Falls Angels 4-1 Sunday to split a Pioneer League doubleheader. The Cowboys took the first on Magic Valley came back in the fourth. With two out, Rowbottom of the second inning, advanced when winning pitcher Ron St. Clair reached first on an error. He was sacrificed to second and scored when third baseman Larry LaGarde threw wide to first on Devon Lowell's grounder. Magic Valley came back in the fourth. Doves, Rabbits Offer Early Idaho Hunting

BOISE — Idaho's three-week season on mourning doves, and quail, black bear, antelope, and mountain goat following close behind, the state Fish and Game Department reminded sportsmen today. Season on forest grouse open with bighorn sheep and mountain goat hunting in several back-country areas. Mourning doves and rabbits seasons open Sept. 1 state-wide. Hunting for doves will continue through Sept. 22, with the bag and possession limits set at 10 birds the first day and 20 thereafter. Cottontail and pygmy rabbit hunting runs through Feb. 28, 1969, with bag limits of one doe, black bear, antelope, and mountain goat. The first of these starts Sept. 7. Numerous telephone callers want to know whether or not recent heavy rainstorms started the annual southward migration of doves. The best "educated guess" from the Department is negative. Chilly weather, especially nights, does precipitate the flights out of state early in September. It is too soon to tell whether that will happen this year. The season will be a general hunt on wild turkey this year in the lower Salmon River country Sept. 23-29, the same area as last year except that it will include all of unit 23 this year. No controlled hunt permit will be needed this year, since this is a general hunt, but a turkey tag is required. Special early hunts for archery are available in many units (see big game regulations) for antelope, and mountain goat. The first of these starts Sept. 7.

Robinson Bats Orioles Over Boston

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson's two-out single in the 18th inning drove in Boog Powell with the winning run and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Boston Red Sox 3-2 Sunday. The victory combined with Detroit's doubleheader loss to New York left the second place Orioles just five games back of the Tigers.

Errors Help Twins Down Sox 10-2

CHICAGO (AP) — The Minnesota Twins took advantage of four Chicago errors Sunday and blasted the White Sox 10-2. The Twins scored a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning without getting a hit as Tom McCraw and Ron Hansen threw wide of first base on ground balls. Alf Anderson scored on Hansen's error. Frank Kostro's sacrifice fly produced another. Rod Carew, whose double had led to a Minnesota run in the second, drove in another with one of three singles that brought home two runs and finished Chicago starter Gary Peters in the second, drove in another with another costly error. Minnesota clinched it with five in the ninth when Hansen committed another error. Rick Clark drove in two of the runs and pitcher Jim Kaut, 10-10, batted in one. Will Williams singled in the Chicago run in the first and Luis Aparicio singled in the other in the fifth. Minnesota, 010 025-10 11 Chicago ... 100 010 000-2 0 4 Kaut and Zimmerman, Roseboro (8); Peters, Wilhelm (8); Anderson, Josephson, W-Kaut, 10-10; Peters, 4-11.

A LITTLE TOO LATE: Yankee first baseman Mickey Vernon reaches for a pop foul off the bat of Detroit's Mickey Stanley only to find a youngster already had caught what would have been an easy out. This bit of foul play came in the sixth inning of a game against the Detroit Tigers. The Yankees swept a doubleheader from the Tigers. (AP Wirephoto)

Mother Of Four Takes Discus Event In Final Olympic Trials

WALNUT, Calif. (AP) — Olga Connolly, 30 and mother of four, won the U.S. women's Olympic discus trials Sunday while Wyoming's Barbara Ferrell of Los Angeles took third at 114. These all three who qualified for the 200 on Saturday won places on the team in a second event. Mrs. Connolly, of Eugene, Ore., won the longer race. At 23, Miss Tyus was a June graduate of Tennessee State. Although she lost to Mrs. Bailes in the AAU Championships at 100 and won at 200, this time she led the shorter race from start to finish.

Hoerner Saves Win For Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Joe Hoerner batted Nelson Belles out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth inning after the St. Louis Cardinals took advantage of four errors to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 Sunday. Belles, 17-8, was coasting along until pinch-hitter Manny Jimenez was hit by a pitch. Two singles lead with bases, and Hoerner came in. Matty Alou drove in a run, but Hoerner then struck out Willie Stargell and Don Cleveland. The Cardinals already had scored a second-inning run-off lower Dock Ellis, 3-3, before they got their first hit in the fourth inning. Orlando Cepeda scored first run on a walk, a stolen base and two infield outs aided by an error. Julian Javier got the first hit in the fourth. Milon Shannon was safe on an error and came all the way around when Javier's hit got past rightfielder Gary Kolb for another error. Lou Brock scored from second this time being when first baseman Donn Clendenon dropped Ellis' throw on Bobby Tolan's grounder. The Cardinals scored in the sixth on Shannon's single and Javier's double. Manny Mota hit a pinch homer in the ninth. Sudden-Death Birdie Gives Murphy Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — With one foot in the trap and Husky Bob Murphy rolled in one foot in the trap, the 24-year-old Harris blasted out 10 to 15 feet short of the green but in high Oklahoma Labron Harris to win the $100,000 Philadelphia Open on Sunday at the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club.

Murphy and Harris finished the four-day, 72-hole tournament deadlocked at 218. The two former U.S. Amateur champions, neither one ever a winner on the pro golf tour, started their playoff on the par 4, 16th hole where each matched regulation. They both had pars on the 145-yard, 18th driving to the green and two-putting from about 20 feet. On the 485-yard 17th, the 24-year-old Murphy, who learned his golf at the University of Florida, sent his drive into the fairway. Harris, 26, a graduate of Oklahoma State University, hit his tee shot into a fairway bunker on the right. Harris chipped out eight feet past the pin while Murphy came out of the bunker about 15 feet from the cup. The cigar-chewing Floridian putted first and rolled in for a birdie 4. Harris missed his shorter putt and it was all over. Murphy, who is 30th on the money-winning list, added the $20,000 first prize to his total of $44,245 with his extra-hole victory.

Oregon Team Is Regional Legion Champ

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Klamath Falls, Ore., gained its second straight District 7 American Legion Baseball Tournament title here Sunday night with a 7-0 victory over Lewiston. The Oregon team will go to the national tournament in Manchester, N. H., starting Aug. 29. Mike Keck gave up nine hits to the Lewiston club but fought when it counted and had plenty of hitting help from his teammates. Klamath Falls picked up a run in the fifth when Don Mattick doubled and came around on two Lewiston errors. In the sixth, Doug Miller walked and Steve Kanner tripled him home and came around on Cecil Davis' double. Mattick singled Davis home and he came around for the fourth tally on a single by Scott Smelcer. Klamath Falls scored twice in the eighth when Davis walked, Mattick made it with a single and Bob Earnst doubled both home. K. Falls 000 010 020-7 11 Lewiston ... 000 000 000-0 Keck and Miller; Ellis, Connolly (6) and Ray.

Randt Wins Grand Prix Auto Race

ENNA, Sicily (AP) — Australian Jochen Rindt drove a Ferrari to an average speed of 142.6 miles an hour Sunday to win the Mediterranean Grand Prix. Rindt toured the 50 laps of the 2.98-mile course—a distance of 149.1 miles—in 1 hour, 2 minutes, 40.3 seconds. The British Grand Prix of England was second, also in a Ferrari. Ferraris took the next three places with Italy's Ernesto Brambilla fourth and Germany's Jackie Stewer fifth. The 1968 national champion in the high jump, failed to clear the opening height of 52-1/2 feet.
