Savage Battle Continues

Yanks Kill 312 Reds

SAIGON (AP) — American armor, infantry and helicopter gunships on Wednesday pushed their enemy kill to 312 in two days of fast-moving battle on South Vietnam's northern coast plain.

The American troops reported 92 of the enemy killed Tuesday and another 220 Wednesday in the fighting which began when a Viet Cong rocket was fired, slammed into a patrolling armored personnel carrier.

U.S. casualties in the two days of fighting were four dead and 48 wounded, the U.S. Command said.

The enemy force was presumed to be from the North Vietnamese 2nd Division, which for many months has operated in the battle area of rolling foothills and rice paddies five miles southwest of Tam Ky, the capital of Quang Tin Province.

After the initial contact Tuesday, the American command rushed in reinforcements, artillery was called in and helicopter gunships went into action until the North Vietnamese broke contact.

The tanks, armored personnel carriers and infantry came on enemy positions again Wednesday about 11:15 a.m. The armor and infantry attacked behind a hail of artillery and aerial explosives which broke up the North Vietnamese formations.

The armor and infantry pursued the retreating North Vietnamese and caught up with them again in the afternoon. Fighting continued until about 6 p.m. when the North Vietnamese succeeded in pulling away again.

Meanwhile, U.S. Marines of the 3rd Division continued their sweep in and behind the central sector of the demilitarized zone and reported turning up another enemy cache containing 195 rockets and 147 antitank mines.

U.S. Headquarters said the Marines in their three-week-old sweep have turned up nearly 40 tons of munitions and other supplies which the North Vietnamese had stockpiled for another offensive in South Vietnam's northernmost provinces.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that enough enemy equipment had been found elsewhere this month to equip 50 enemy battalions, or about 15,000 men.

Titan Rocket 'Sprays' Satellites Into Orbit

GUSHING A FOUNTAIN of flame, a 127-foot-tall Titan 3 rocket lifts from its launch pad in pre-dawn darkness today at Cape Kennedy, to orbit four military research satellites. Later data indicated that the satellites were placed in orbit as designed. (AP wirephoto)

4 Military Craft Placed In Station

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A mighty Titan 3 rocket today successfully sprayed four military research spacecraft into separate orbits, including one experimental communications craft that could hasten the day when battlefield troops can talk among themselves via satellite.

"We've got all of the satellites out. Every one is working just fine," the launch control center said at the completion of the tricky 6 1/2-hour, four-in-one mission.

The 127-foot-tall Titan 3, the type booster which someday will orbit astronauts in the Defense Department's Manned Orbital Laboratory, blasted off at 3:37 a.m. EDT in a spectacular pre-dawn launching that could be seen for miles along Florida's east central coast.

Flying a space rocket, the Air Force aerospace maneuvered into upper space more than 2 1/2 hours after liftoff and successfully ejected one radiation-studying satellite into a cigar-shaped path ranging from 113 to 22,300 miles high.

After another orbit change by the rocket, almost four hours later, two more payloads—the communications craft and a satellite to research heat transfer in spacecraft fuel systems—sprang into stationary orbits where they will be kept in permanent position 22,200 miles over the equator west of South America.

The fourth satellite, a heavy radiation-detecting craft, was ejected minutes later after the rocket shifted a final time to a slightly elliptical path that will cause that satellite to slowly cruise around Earth at altitudes ranging between 21,000 and 22,300 miles.

The principal payload was the experimental communications satellite called LES-6 for Lincoln Laboratory—Satellite. Built by the Lincoln Laboratory of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the 365-pound craft carried radio-relay gear powerful enough to link simultaneous conversations between 300 Strategic Air Command airplanes, its developers said.

The fourth satellite was to help engineers learn how heat transfers in spacecraft fuel systems in the weightless environment of outer space. This information would help engineers design fuel systems for future spaceflights, officials said.

Humphrey Rakes U. S. Policy; Nixon Avers GOP 'Peaceful'

By The Associated Press
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, citing Southeast Asia as an example, pledged today his administration would never permit the United States to "march alone" in foreign policy.

The United States cannot play the role of global gendarme," he said in a speech prepared for the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco. "The American people don't want it and the rest of the world won't accept it."

Speaking in the city where the United Nations was born, the Democratic presidential nominee also suggested a U.N. peacekeeping force in Vietnam to administer free elections and verify the withdrawal of foreign troops.

But his Republican opponent, Richard M. Nixon, said Wednesday Republicans have been "peace keepers, not just the peace talkers"—both at home and abroad.

But he said he can see no such result from an immediate bombing halt and so will make some of his friends unhappy by refusing to call for one.

His San Francisco speech, outlining what he called a "new strategy for peace" and new guidelines for U.S. foreign policy, was his sharpest departure from Johnson administration policies.

Nixon told his cheering supporters the Democratic record is one that will inspire a peaceful revolution at the polls Nov. 5 that will elect him president.

Mexican Violence Continues

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Sporadic violence continued in Mexico City Wednesday night as students burned more buses and reportedly shot at shopkeepers who wouldn't support their demands against the government.

Unconfirmed reports said one person was killed and two were wounded when police came to the southeast part of the city.

But the isolated skirmishes were nothing like the large-scale combat between students and police and soldiers Monday night and Tuesday, when 15 persons were killed.

A police motorcycle was set afire near the Mexican Olympic committee headquarters, guarded by troops. Striking students also burned at least five buses and two street cars.

Police meanwhile sought a mysterious group of thugs who rained the streets on two previous nights, shooting up six schools and beating up students.

One newspaper said a 28-year-old man told police of being kidnaped by members of a right-wing student group called MURO and threatened with death if he took part in the student demonstrations.

Nixon told a Denver audience Dwight D. Eisenhower's administration ended the Korean war and kept the nation out of others for eight years. And he said: "We did not have this problem of 'peace and fear' at home."

Humphrey earlier said he would urge a halt to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam tomorrow if he thought it would help the peace talks—regardless of what President Johnson likes."

But Nixon is apparently scaling down—in recognition of a growing threat from third party candidate George C. Wallace—a prior assessment that he would carry all southern border states.

He told newsmen he now counts only Florida, Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia as being safely in his column and said he thinks he has a chance of carrying North Carolina, Georgia and Texas.

CBS Official Sees FCC Probe As 'Immensely Dangerous'

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard S. Salant, president of CBS News, today labeled as "immensely dangerous" a Federal Communications Commission inquiry into his network's coverage of disorder in Chicago during the Democratic National Convention.

Citing First Amendment guarantees of freedom of the press, Salant said the FCC letter which questioned the network's coverage "may well be the most troublesome threat to our role as part of the free press that has yet been devised."

The FCC, Salant said, advised the network that it had received "hundreds of complaints" concerning news coverage and asked for a reply "within 20 days."

FCC letters were also sent to NBC and ABC.

"The 20-day letters are becoming pretty frequent," he said at a news conference, adding that this incident is an "extreme example."

"Are news judgments to be made finally by some agency of the government?" he asked.

Salant, disputed contentions that his network made "no mention of provocations by the demonstrators, no mention of injuries to police," in its coverage of the disorders in downtown Chicago during the convention.

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley criticized "the television coverage of these events."

Salant, speaking at a convention of CBS radio affiliates in the New York Hilton Hotel, produced five recordings in which network correspondents, reporting the confrontations, made specific mention of provocation by demonstrators.

The correspondents reported that rocks, bottles and cherry

Sugar Beet Action For 1969 Is Taken

There will be no acreage restrictions of 1969 sugar beets, a recommendation made by the State Rep. Jack Clabhorn announced Thursday.

He said he was informed of this by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, Mr. Clabhorn is president of the National Sugar Beet Growers Federation.

The announcement made by Mr. Freeman is in opposition to a resolution passed by the federation, Mr. Clabhorn said.

"At the acreage allotment hearing in July, growers representing 80 per cent of the sugar beet production recommended there be some restrictions because of the large crop that will be produced this year. It is estimated to be 27 per cent larger than last year, and 15 per cent above the average," he said.

Mr. Clabhorn said the industry produced 500,000 tons more than the quota in 1967-68, and the sugar could not be sold until production dropped below the quota.

He said cane production of sugar is now over the quota, and part of the 1968 production cannot be marketed until 1970.

"The Department of Agriculture has ordered a 15 per cent cut in acreage of 1969 for this year, but more sugar will be still produced than the quota allows," he said without some control over production, future cutbacks will be needed.

'Clean' Sweep

LIVERPOOL, England (AP)—Margaret McConville unplugged Britain's biggest local radio station and plugged in her vacuum cleaner.

An announcer was preparing to open the day's program Wednesday at Liverpool's Radio Merseyside when Mrs. McConville, newly employed to clean the place, looked around for a plug and disconnected the station's 3,750-watt power circuit.

As the broadcasting electric went dead, Mrs. McConville went on with her work. Then she replaced the plug after 15 minutes and put the station back on the air.

"I thought it was all right to plug in my vacuum," she said. "It looked like an ordinary electrical point to me."

Senators Launch Fortas Filibuster

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the long-awaited filibuster against Abe Fortas now on against chief justice apparently in full bloom, indications are that the first moves to shut off debate will come Friday.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield said after the first day of head-on debate Wednesday that nothing definite had been decided.

But other senators said they expected Mansfield to try to force a showdown by the first of next week, setting the stage for a Friday filibuster to invoke debate-limiting cloture.

Although the Senate leaders didn't say, it was clear to a -filibuster, there was little doubt it was one when Michigan Republican Robert P. Griffin, a leader of the opposition to Fortas, held the floor for two hours and 40 minutes.

Griffin zoned in on Fortas' acceptance of a $15,000 fee to consult a university law seminar, calling it "clearly wrong in principle."

The debate so far isn't directed at Fortas' nomination, but toward Earl Warren, but a motion by Mansfield to bring it up for debate.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said that if a filibuster against just the preliminary motion cannot be broken "we might as well give up."

Living Costs Continue Spiraling Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose three-tenths of a percent last month, continuing 1968's sharpest price spiral in 1 1/2 years, the government reported today.

Big increases for food and housing caused most of the August rise which continued this year's jump in living costs at an annual rate of 4 per cent or more.

The latest jump boosted the Labor Department's Consumer Price Index to 121.9. This means it cost $12.19 last month for every $10 worth of goods and services in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported at the same time that average weekly earnings of some 45 million rank and file workers hit a record peak of $109.10, up 20 cents. But the rise in living costs more than wiped out the monthly wage gain.

Viet Strength Will Build, U. S. Avows

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford says the United States will continue to build toward a 550,000 troop ceiling on Vietnam and has little hope of lowering that level in the foreseeable future.

That was Clifford's answer Wednesday to a Republican congressional question about some 80,000 U.S. troops who were returned from Vietnam by June regardless of who is president.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., who is traveling with Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, said in Seattle Tuesday that by June 1969 "we are likely" to have fewer troops in the war unless the situation deteriorates.

In issuing his rebuttal, Clifford cited testimony he gave Sept. 10 before the House defense appropriations subcommittee, of which Laird is a member.

In a previously secret testimony, Clifford said there were no plans to reduce the troops in Vietnam at all, that he was unwilling to give any specific time when troops might be brought home and that could not predict any troops would be returned in 1969.

Daredevil Wants To Jump Across Snake River Canyon

Evel Knivel, nationally known daredevil and stuntman, will attempt to jump across the Snake River Canyon Wednesday and Thursday to take a look at the Snake River and investigate the possibility of making a motorcycle jump across the canyon.

He made headlines recently when he proposed to make a jump across the Grand Canyon in Arizona. This jump was prohibited by the Department of Interior.

Mr. Knivel is now looking for another canyon and access to private property where he would construct a mile long runway and huge ramp for the take-off.

For this jump he would use a special cycle with a jet engine which will reach a speed of nearly 300 miles per hour. Mr. Knivel seems confident this motorcycle could jump about any distance.

He said he would wear a parachute which would be released after the cycle cleared the canyon.

THE CSI TOWER is visible over the shoulder of Dr. Dwight Laird, head of the accreditation team currently visiting the College of Southern Idaho. At right is Dr. Norman Thompson, Eastern Washington State College, Cheney, Wash. Dr. Laird, president of Clark College, Vancouver, Wash., holds a CSI brochure displaying the CSI tower, a college landmark.

There are six other team members. The accreditation team finished a two-day evaluation Thursday. Results of its findings, and the recommendation on accreditation, will be known at a December meeting of the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools. Officials of CSI are seeking the accreditation.

Apartment Complex To Rise In T.F.

An apartment complex for low to medium income families will soon replace the blighted area in the 400 block of Second Avenue East.

This project will be built by Wills, Inc., and owned by Wills Apartments, according to Robert C. Wills.

Mr. Wills said they will receive no federal funds, but will be loaned money by the federal government at below the market interest rate. These projects are regulated by the Federal Housing Administration and Housing Urban Development.

The two-bedroom apartments will be carpeted throughout, electrically heated and major appliances provided. All utilities will be furnished, with the exception of a telephone, and the apartments will rent for $102 per month. The exterior of the buildings will be of brick.

The federal government regulates the income level of people eligible to rent these apartments. Two people cannot jointly make more than $5,000 a year and three to four people can't make more than $7,050 in order to qualify for this housing. Mr. Wills said minimum occupancy will be two people and maximum occupancy will be four people.

Mr. Wills has been working on this plan for the past six months and has purchased seven lots in the block. Three lots were bought from Mrs. Hannah Prater, one from Mrs. Hannah Lewis, one from Matthew Gorman and Joe Elam, one from Kenneth Leazer and one from Sylvia Holden. The total area of land is 350 feet by 125 feet.

For the past month workmen have been clearing the land of the houses standing there.

Mr. Wills said he expects construction to begin immediately and they will be shooting for a completion date in April or May.

Architect for the project is Robert L. Bush, Boise, formerly of Twin Falls.

There will be 32 apartments housed in four buildings plus a business building on the corner across from the Twin Falls City Hall parking lot. This building will house a laundromat which will be operated by Mr. Wills. The remainder of the building will be leased out for barber shop and beauty shop facilities.

Total value of the project is $48,897, Mr. Wills said.

He explained that his company was eligible for the federal loan since the purpose is to supply housing to low to me-

THIS BLIGHTED AREA in the core of Twin Falls soon will be replaced by four apartment complexes by Wills Inc. These houses are being moved from the 400 block of Second Avenue East and construction is expected to begin soon on the new housing project which has been approved by the Federal Housing Administration.

Changes In State Agency Suggested By Sen. Loveland

RUPERT — State Sen. Don Loveland, Burley, advocated the selection of the state director for the Department of Public Assistance by the board instead of the governor of the state during discussion Monday afternoon following a radio panel show in Rupert.

Sen. Loveland said the department's county councils should be the decision-making body of the department, in the individual counties, directly responsible to the state director, and medium income families and in doing so, replace old buildings in a core area of the city.

Mr. Wills said that anyone wishing further information as to whether they would qualify for the housing should call him at Wills, Inc., 733-2891.

that the board should be the one to select the director instead of the governor selecting him.

Sen. Loveland added he felt the county councils should also have a part of the writing of the regulations governing the eligibility requirements of those receiving state aid.

A new name for the state Department of Public Assistance, the Social and Rehabilitation Board, was also advocated by the senator. He said that by doing that, the board would not only administer public assistance, but also vocational and rehabilitation services as well.

This would help in the consolidation of departments in Idaho, he said.

Loveland is co-chairman of the budget and fiscal committee in the senate and advocates a rewriting proposal of the entire statutes covering public welfare which would be designed to give counties more authority in determining who is eligible for public assistance.

Sen. Loveland said there is a definite need and advantage local citizens getting involved in the DPA's work, to create an interest in local problems.

He quoted the director for the Department in Burley, Jerry Quick, as saying that child neglect cases for Cassia County alone had increased 300 per cent in the past 11 months, and that the department is probably handling only one of every six such cases.

In June, 1968, according to Mr. Quick, the department handled 94 individuals, and in August, 1968, it handled 80 cases.

Mr. Quick, according to Sen. Loveland, said that a conservative estimate is that there are 200 or more cases of child neglect or abuse in Cassia County at the present time, with only 80 reported. Most cases, he said, are from homes where the parents lack adequate education, have a low income, and are not able to participate in social activities in the area.

He said most parents are from long-standing local family groups and not from the Spanish Americans.

Sen. Loveland also noted that there is a pressing need for foster homes in the area at the present time.

Johnson Gets Catch-All Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate passed and sent to President Johnson Wednesday a catch-all $14,570,395,000 money bill containing funds for city housing programs cut far below the President's requests.

The overall total in the measure was $3,703,000,000 under Johnson's budget, with the biggest slashes in major administration housing programs.

The measure contains funds not only for the Housing and Urban Development Department but also for about 30 independent agencies. It is for the 12 months ending next June 30. Congress granted $25 million for the model cities program as $3,995,000,000 for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which was $375 million the administration is pushing to help Johnson's original request.

It allowed $750 million for urban renewal program for which the budget included $1.3 billion.

And it granted $30 million in new annual contract authority for the rent subsidy program for low income families. Johnson asked $53 million.

Several senators protested a $100,000 item in the bill to pay expenses of a nine-member commission expected to recommend pay increases for members of Congress and top government executives early next year.

ANDREW TULLY Arrangement: Ethically Questionable

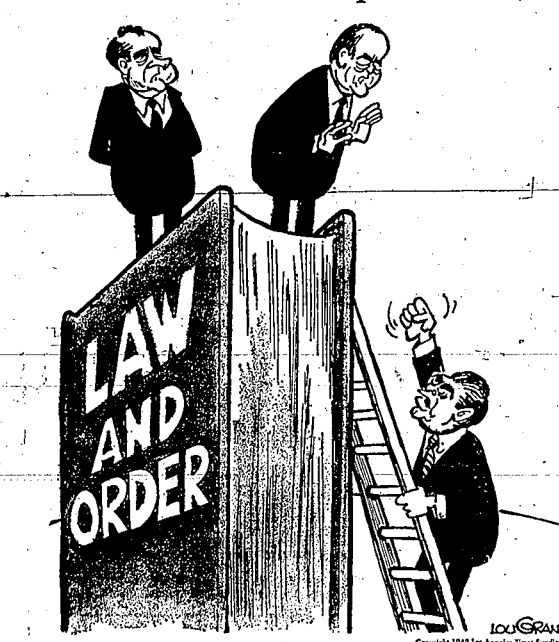

WASHINGTON — There is something naively pathetic about the walls of certain of the supporters of Justice Abe Fortas that he was done in by his friends. They suggest that Fortas, who has built up an image in Washington as an urbane and sophisticated political counsel actually was born yesterday.

United States were as impeccable as you can find in these wheeling-and-dealing days, and that he broke no law in accepting this stipend. The point is that, while the arrangement was perfectly legal, it was ethically questionable.

The Racial Wall

The situation in New York's paralyzed schools has been called a power struggle with racial overtones. More accurately, it is a situation characterized and caused by a strong and rising racial undertow, whose real dimensions are masked by the legal overtones of a confrontation between the citywide teachers' union, the central governing board and a local Negro district school board.

There is here no suggestion that Abe Fortas was beholden to the government but the knowledgeable operator in government circles knows that it is vital not to seem to give the wrong impression.

Handling Of Bank Robbery Cases Discussed At Parley

Although Idaho isn't bothered a great deal by bank robbers, the FBI is making certain. More than 50 law enforcement officials met Wednesday in Twin Falls to hear federal agents talk on bank robberies. Bank and loan officials in the area also attended. The session was held with prevention in mind, but some good pointers on what to do in case of bank robbery were presented. FBI agents said it is important for anyone falling victim to a robbery to call police as soon as possible, then stay on the telephone until positive police action is assured. Clerks are cautioned not to panic, and are urged not to try and resist the robber or robbers. Bank robberies are on the increase in the United States, and in Utah they have been six such robberies in the past three weeks, three of them during the past week. A bank robbery is a federal crime, but during the aftermath of such a crime all local law enforcement agencies are drawn into attempts to apprehend the suspects, FBI agents said. Fred Bassett, an FBI official, conducted the class Wednesday at Twin Falls city hall. Officers and financial officials, who attended termed the course very informative.

Williams Lauds Pension Benefit For State Men

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (AP) — State Auditor Joe R. Williams described today as "a real achievement" the extension of Social Security coverage to state and local government employees. They were excluded when the system was established. Williams reviewed establishment and expansion of the system. He is the state official responsible in Idaho for coordinating the social security program for governmental employees. The federal Social Security program, he said, "has come to play a major role in the nation's economic and social life."

Ex-Rupert Man Receives Fellowship

RUPERT — Ronald A. Nussbaum, son of Mrs. Dollie Dowell and Walter Nussbaum, Rupert, has been awarded a graduate assistantship of $4,800 per year to work on his doctor of philosophy degree at Oregon State University, Corvallis.

He began his work this month. Mr. Nussbaum received his Bachelor of Science Degree in zoology in 1966 from the University of Idaho, Moscow, where he was elected a member of Beta Chapter of Phi Sigma Society, a biological sciences honorary in 1965.

He served as teaching assistant at the university in the 1966-67 year and as a research assistant the following year at Central Washington State College, Ellensburg.

Mr. Nussbaum was graduated from Central Washington State College with a 4.0 average in the summer of 1968 with a Master of Science degree in Biology. His thesis concerned systematics and zoogeography of salamanders.

Mr. Nussbaum, his wife, the former Margaret Cramer, and their three children now reside in Corvallis. Mrs. Nussbaum's mother is Mrs. Millard Ball, Rupert.

Valley PTA Honors Staff At Reception

EDEN - HAZELTON — A reception for the teachers was held Monday evening at the Valley High School.

The pluck supper, sponsored by the PTA, was attended by 150 guests.

Richard Bloxham was master of ceremonies. He introduced David Follingstad who led the National Anthem. Mrs. Deann Weatherwax gave the PTA prayer.

Mrs. Robert Brulotte, president, welcomed the teachers. Allen Stasny responded for the teachers. Debble Watkins sang, accompanied by Donna Lance. Both are Valley High School students.

Dr. Tom Utterback, superintendent, introduced the faculty members. Valley High School teachers include Arlyn Bodilly, guidance; Robert Brulotte, boys physical education; Inez and head coach; David Follingstad, music; Edna Chambers, home economics; English; Alpa Johnson, math; Kurtz, algebra and geometry.

Hazelton Grade School teachers are Monte Andrus, Ernest Reed, seventh; Iverna Albert, eighth; Phillip Cochran, sixth; Dorothy Reed, Donna Buschhorn, fifth; Beverly Burns, Virginia Hughes, fourth; Irene Johnson, music, library; and Kay Ritchie, remedial reading.

Eden Elementary instructors are Julia Brown, Helen Alkinson, Anna Romer, third; Esther Reed, Helen Boles, Maggie Hamilton, second; Nellie Metcalf and Susan Torres, first.

Board members were: Krish, Austin Mathney, Harold Grant and Roy Coulson were introduced by Chairman Rex Wood, Opal Johnson is clerk and Melba LaJaunesse, secretary.

Mrs. Brulotte invited parents and teachers to attend the next meeting to be held at Valley High School Oct. 14.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Behind all the public manifestations of young America's political power and influence, stands the actual voting strength of the young, and it adds up to this: They're outnumbered, 9 to 1.

The U.S. Census Bureau estimates that only 11.7 million of all persons of voting age for the November election will be 24 or younger—able generally for the first time to cast a presidential ballot.

The figure represents just 10 per cent of the 116.6 million Americans old enough to vote.

Against the backdrop of Chicago's demonstrations, campus unrest and swarms of youthful workers, are these cold statistics compiled by government and private research agencies on the youth vote:

Participation—Young voters have historically diminished their impact by turning out on election day at a lower rate than their elders.

In the 1964 presidential election, for example, only 51 per cent of the 21-to-24-year-olds voted. That compared to 65 per cent of the persons between 25 and 34, and 73 per cent of the persons 35 and over. The average voter is 45 years old.

Unity—Young voters are subject to many influences besides their own voting behavior: parents, education, economic status and the like. In recent presidential elections they have swung in the same direction as their elders, although slightly to the Democratic side of the over-all population.

Education—The tendency is to picture young voters as ranks of college students. But only about 16 per cent of the 21-24 age group is on campus and the greater part of it never has been. About 3.7 million of the nation's 6.7 million college students are too young to vote even though the voting age drops below 21 in Alaska, Hawaii, Kentucky and Georgia.

Furthermore, the 1964 participation record even of college-trained 21-to-24-year-olds was worse than the turnout of 45-to-64-year-olds who had only an eighth-grade education.

Despite the young voter's record, each major party devotes countless time and energy to enlist his support. For the politicians, more than a vote in November is at stake. There's the chance to recruit volunteer labor for the foot-soldier jobs of politics, and the prospect of winning a young voter's lifetime allegiance.

As usual, the Young Republicans and Young Democrats handle the job of wooing the young voters. Somewhat parallel but in business only for the campaign are youth divisions of Citizens for Nixon and Citizens for Humphrey.

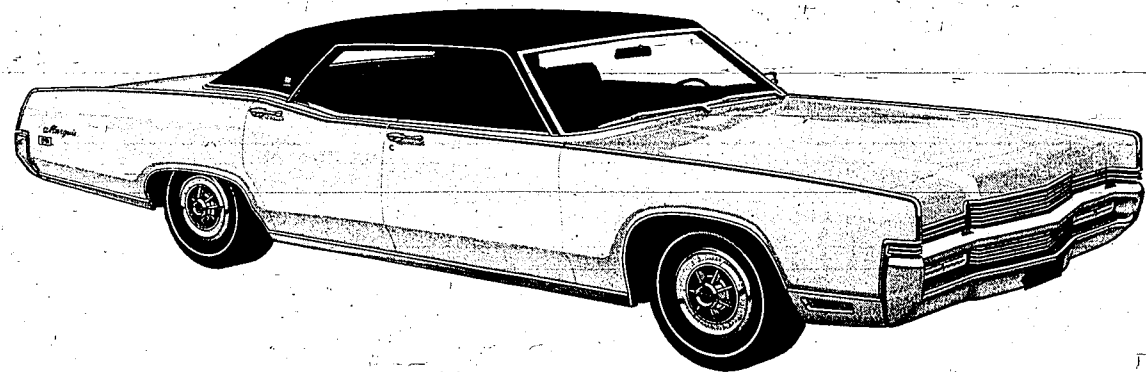

The Democrats, trying to soften the impact of antiwar dissidents on college campuses, are setting up a Student Coalition for Humphrey-Muskie.

The Coalition, according to a headquarters memo, "will be billed as an autonomous, or semi-autonomous, group composed of former McCarthy-Kennedy-Rockefeller students basically opposed to the war but committed to the election of Humphrey because of his domestic record and noncorporate image."

"Talk of the war," it adds, "should be avoided at all costs."

'Mr. Jiggs' Stops Traffic In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Residents of a North Side neighborhood have been seeing a lot of monkeyshines lately.

Traffic comes to a standstill along busy Clark Street many afternoons as Mr. Jiggs—a 4-foot-tall, 90-pound chimpanzee—skats about on his daily errands.

"I thought it was a hippie," a startled woman pedestrian exclaimed Wednesday as Mr. Jiggs sauntered past her in his red jacket and black trousers, carrying a bag of groceries.

Mr. Jiggs just smiled and waved.

Grocery shopping is one of his favorite errands. He likes to test the freshness of the fruit with a quick bite.

The chimp, whose home is in New York, has been living in a North Side apartment with his owner, Ron Winter, while he performs nightly in a downtown hotel.

There he rides a motorcycle, plays a violin, does acrobatic tricks and takes pictures of patrons with his camera.

Out on the street he does an occasional hand-stand, nonchalantly turns around to skate backwards, and—if a passing girl catches his fancy—grabs her hand to bestow a continental kiss.

FLOODS KILL 60
NEW DELHI (AP) — More than 60 Indians were reported killed in midweek when rain-swollen rivers burst their banks and flooded 200,000 acres of farmland in Uttar Pradesh. At the same time other parts of the state were still gripped by severe drought.

Anderson Believes Wallace Will Pull Him Into Congress

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer
A newcomer to Idaho politics made his way through Twin Falls this week shaking hands and speaking to young and old alike, asking for their vote in the Nov. 5 election.

At the age of 30, Joel Anderson is making an unknown and is striving hard to overcome that handicap. He is a candidate for the Second Congressional seat now held by Rep. George Hansen.

Mr. Anderson is a candidate on the American Independent Party ticket, an active supporter of former Alabama Gov. George Wallace.

On his Magic Valley tour, Mr. Anderson was accompanied by Joseph Stumph Jr., Twin Falls chairman of the Idaho AIP. Mr. Stumph, during an interview Tuesday, calmly confident of Mr. Anderson's chances in the upcoming election and said the AIP is organized throughout Idaho with county chairmen named in 33 of Idaho's 44 counties.

Both men are counting on a split in the Republican and Democratic vote and the image of Gov. Wallace to carry them through.

Mr. Anderson's opponents in the election are Orval Hansen, a Republican, and Darrell Manning, a Democrat. Both are from Eastern Idaho, both members of the Idaho Legislature.

In seeking the Congressional seat, Mr. Anderson spoke freely about his past and the future and his work in the past. "Are you a member of the John Birch Society?" he was asked.

"No," was the answer. He also is LDS and said he is running in this election "to bring some sanity back to the American way of life."

"I believe in individual responsibility and in less government control. The time has come for the politician to stand up and be counted. I plan to stand up now and will continue to stand up for principal if elected."

He was asked if he felt there was any chance of his being recognized in Congress if elected, and if he would be an effective Congressman.

"There's a lot of sympathy for what George Wallace stands for. There is a lot of that feeling right here in the second district. I think I can help get government in the second district back to the people."

Both he and Mr. Stumph feel George Wallace will either win the presidential election or certainly throw this election into the House of Representatives.

It takes about 270 electoral votes to gain the presidency. Mr. Stumph claims Mr. Wallace has 170 votes "swept up in the south and several key states in the north."

His feeling is that Mr. Wallace will hurt both Richard Nixon and Hubert Humphrey, with Humphrey running last in this race.

Therefore, the vote (if the election is thrown into the House) will be between Nixon and Wallace, and each state has one vote, Idaho is as powerful as New York in voting for a president.

Joel Anderson, voting with James McClure of the First District, will give one vote to Wallace and believe we me-there's several other states that go Wallace, also," Mr. Stumph said.

THE IDAHO AMERICAN INDEPENDENT Party is about to get its baptism of fire in a few weeks. People will know the strength of the Independent vote in the Gem State. Joe Stumph, foreground, is seen talking with Joel Anderson. Mr. Anderson is the AIP candidate for the Second District Congressional seat, and Mr. Stumph heads the state AIP.

The way he said it makes it sound simple and Wallace all the way. Mr. Anderson makes his way from one city to the next, driving himself in his own car, and depends on county chairmen in the various areas for furthering his cause.

In some counties he has no organization and must "get out and work on the campaign myself, from the ground up." He meets people easily. Most candidates do. He has deep blue eyes, believes in law and order and a strong Constitution.

Mr. Anderson said he believes allegedly once made by George Wallace, Mr. Anderson was slightly confused. The statement was to the effect that if the police could run America for two years "everything would be all right."

"I'm not familiar with that statement. In fact, I don't think he said it. But if he did, he didn't mean it like that."

Mr. Anderson said he believes in law and order and a strong local police force "with control over police by the citizens who authorize their existence."

His views on the Chicago convention, condensed, are: "Disgusting, shocking, curious, laughable." He said he believes the police acted correctly in suppressing riots in Chicago.

Mr. Anderson said he considered the Magic Valley a "key area" in his election hopes, and said he has strong support in this area.

Tuesday afternoon, he and Mr. Stumph made a visit to an area businessman, to solicit funds to continue the campaign for the Congress.

They looked confident when they left. But the name Joel Anderson is not well known in the area. Mr. Anderson thinks his name will be known "within the next five weeks. After all, it's this time of year that all political campaigns really get moving."

He said he told his wife last week that he would be home "sometime early in November." He hopes he'll be home to start packing for the move to Washington, D. C.

Soldier In Utah Faces Charges

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Army Spec. 4 Edward H. Schad, 25, Kirksville, N.Y., has been bound over to Third District court in Salt Lake City on a charge of first degree murder.

Schad is accused of the July 5 slaying of Clay O. Mortenson, 39, whose bound, nude body was found in his bedroom closet. A pillow case had been wrapped around his throat, shutting off the flow of blood to his brain.

Schad surrendered himself to military authorities in Frankfurt, Germany, about a week after Mortenson's death.

Schad's preliminary hearing was Aug. 28, but City Judge Maruce D. Jones delayed ruling pending filing of briefs by defense counsel and the county attorney's office.

Bandits 'Goof' BECHTEL CITY, Ill. (AP)

Two would-be bank robbers prevented a bank robbery Wednesday when they locked the bank president and an employe in the bank vault along with all of the money.

Max Buzzard, president of the First State Bank, said all of the money had been removed from the cash drawers when the bank had closed earlier.

He said he and Darwin Barr, a bank employe, were ordered into the vault by two armed, unmasked, well-dressed men. He said he sounded an alarm from inside the vault to summon police.

The hapless robbers escaped before police arrived.

Date Is Set For 1969 Wagon Days

KETCHUM — Dates for the 1969 Wagon Days celebration were set at a meeting of officers Monday evening at the Alpine dining room.

President Ivan Swanner said next year's celebration will be Aug. 29 - 31. He said the officers felt these dates will in no way interfere with Bellevue's annual Labor Day celebration.

Election of officers for the coming year has been set for a meeting to be held Oct. 8.

Politics, Judiciary Don't Mix, Judge Says In Article

(Editor's note: This is the last of a three-part series written by Fifth District Judge Sherman Bellwood, Rupert, on Idaho's method of selecting judges.)

By SHERMAN J. BELLWOOD
Judge, Fifth Judicial District

After months of campaigning District Judges Charles Donaldson and Boyd Thomas are faced with more of it. Whether either of them can raise a meaningful issue with which a voter can identify remains to be seen. Dim are the prospects for a campaign which will enlighten voters.

I do not envy my brethren in their continued search for the people's favor. I shudder at the certain depletion of their personal wealth as they continue to travel our large state kissing babies, shaking hands, making speeches with nothing to say, passing out cards and brochures begging for support without being able to give a real reason.

I wince at the attempts they must make to maintain judicial decorum and independence in all this. I deplore the number of cases they won't get tried, the number of opinions that will be written which divided attention or not written at all, the number of decisions that will be neglected.

It is likely that despite all their efforts the contest will be largely a geographical-population struggle with the real question overlooked. It is likely the end is cast now, barring some untoward, though well-meant, move on the part of or on behalf of either candidate.

Rather than unite Idaho in a common pride in and respect for our highest court, a battle is being waged between the populations of Eastern and Southwestern Idaho which will be divisive. It is possible that the tenure of many judges will be subject to periodic contests as a result of this division.

One hears of future contests already in the making. No judge is immune.

Such is the fruit of a system which requires the popular election of our judicial servants. If we must persist in this fallacy, perhaps one day we will fill all seven seats in the new Supreme Court building — one justice elected from each of the seven judicial districts of the state.

Geography will then have its day, but it will not insure the best man for the job.

Only the merit plan of judicial selection comes closest to this political ideal. It works well in its simplicity. The people are entitled to it. Judicial applicants are screened and nominated by a non-partisan commission of lawyers and laymen (which we now have). Judges are appointed from the commission list by the executive; after appointment a judge periodically submits himself to the voters in non-competitive elections on the sole question whether the judge's record merits his retention in office.

Before my colleagues Thomas and Donaldson finish grooming in the quagmire of a popular nonpartisan election, they will express concurrence in these views. In the meantime let us judge the people's respect for the judicial department, and its dignity which they expect, will not diminish.

Blaine Receives Forest Income

HAILEY — Blaine County has received $14,164.58 as National Forest income apportionment for 1968. Of this 70 per cent, or $9,915.21 will be allocated to the Road and Bridge fund and 30 per cent, or $4,249.37 Class "A" School District No. 61. Last year's apportionment was $7,757.58.

Also received from the state was 12 1/2 per cent of the carried grazing fees collected from public domain for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1968, which amount to $458.20 for Grazing District No. 3 and $1,732.42 for Grazing District No. 5.

Rupert Man Hurt In Crash

RUPERT — A 26-year-old Rupert man, Cal J. Tolman, is listed in good condition at the Mieldeola Memorial Hospital with injuries received in a one-car accident a mile south of Rupert on State Highway 24 Tuesday morning.

The incident occurred when a 1968 Ford pickup truck, driven by Tolman, left the highway on the left side as he was headed north. The pickup truck traveled into the center of the highway crossing the highway.

Damage to the pickup truck was estimated at $300. No citations were issued by investigating Minidoka County Sheriff's officers.

Presenting Cadillac for nineteen sixty-nine

Even Cadillac has never built one like this!

The craftsmen who engineer and build Cadillacs are accustomed to creating the finest of motor cars, but they take special pride in these brilliant 1969 models.

A single glance at this automotive masterpiece reveals striking poise and beauty, dramatically new, yet unmistakably Cadillac. For 1969, Cadillac's traditional dignity is complemented by youthful styling unique in the luxury field.

A smoother, more responsive engine.

Cadillac's great 472 V-8 engine—the largest V-8 ever to power a production passenger car—is smoother, quieter and more responsive. Never before has power been employed so efficiently in the operation of a car and its equipment. And for 1969 front disc brakes are provided.

New concepts in comfort and convenience.

The 1969 Cadillac is completely new inside, with major innovations in design, convenience and decor. A newly conceived "control center" instrument panel makes controls even more accessible, and virtually surrounds passengers with luxurious protection and convenience.

Your Judgment is Invited.

There are eleven different models of the 1969 Cadillac, more than is offered by any other luxury car manufacturer. Each is truly a masterpiece from the master craftsmen.

Your authorized Cadillac dealer welcomes your personal inspection of this once-in-a-lifetime motor car. Stop by and drive one at your earliest opportunity. We think you'll agree that this is the greatest Cadillac ever built.

Former T. F. Physician Dies At 55

JEROME—Dr. Harvard C. Luke, 55, former Twin Falls physician, died at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital.

He was born Dec. 26, 1912, at Beaver, Utah, and attended the University of Idaho. For several years he taught school on the university level. Later he received his medical training at the University of Southern California.

In 1961 he began his practice in Twin Falls and in 1967 opened an office in Hazelton. He was a member of the American Medical Association, Idaho State Medical Association and the Hazelton Lions Club. A World War II veteran, he served as a major in the U. S. Army Medical Corps.

On Jan. 7, 1938, he married Wallace in Twin Falls.

Survivors include his widow, Jerome; two daughters, Susan Luke, Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., and Barbara; two sons, Elko, Nev.; two brothers, Charles Luke, Seattle, and Connel Luke, New Jersey; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Kenworthy, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Irene Grover, Malita, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services are pending. Wallace Reynolds Funeral Home, Twin Falls.

Funeral Services Edmond David Schoenhals, 2 p.m. Friday, Rupert LDS Stake Tabernacle.

Russ Boost Naval Action Near Britain

LONDON (AP)—A member of Parliament said today Soviet submarines and ships are stepping up activity around Britain in a drive to outflank the Atlantic allied land defenses.

Desmond I. Donnelly accused the government of ignoring the threat and scrapping British sea power-placate leftists.

"In the long history of national follies, there are few parallels to what is happening now off Britain's coast," Donnelly said.

"The long history of national follies, there are few parallels to what is happening now off Britain's coast," Donnelly said.

"The bus ride from the hotel parking lot to the convention center was like riding through a tunnel of policemen, and at the intersections were a lot more policemen," Elliott said.

"All along the two mile route from the hotel to the convention center signs were placed in windows of each home and adults were out front waving large new American flags and sometimes small children joined the adults and waved small new flags."

"The night of the delegates was spent at the hotel at 4 p.m. when I was to return to the hotel. There was no place to eat and during those long hours I was starved to get-two hotdogs," he stated.

"Mr. Elliott displayed the badge which he was required to wear to get in and out of the hotel hall."

"It appeared if you knew the guard you could walk in and out with no problems, if you carried a small badge, the badge had to be in place in a machine so the light would come on before you entered or left," Mr. Elliott stated.

The night of all the beatings, was used on people in front of the Hilton Hotel, Mr. Elliott reported. He and his family had traveled out of the area to have dinner and were returning to their hotel by cab and the cab could only get to within about a block of the hotel.

"The night of all the beatings, was used on people in front of the Hilton Hotel, Mr. Elliott reported. He and his family had traveled out of the area to have dinner and were returning to their hotel by cab and the cab could only get to within about a block of the hotel."

"We escaped and were not hit by any of the night sticks but we did get the tear gas," Mr. Elliott stated.

"There were quite a lot of people plus the hippies in front of the Hilton Hotel and the TV cameras were right on the spot, according to the convention which was just a formality of electing a president and vice president, I feel we should do more jobs and more type of system of selecting our officials. The people should have the right to vote for president by a direct primary election for the delegates have very little voice when everything is cut and dried," he declared.

On the happier side of the Elliott family trip, they traveled into Illinois, to the farm where Mrs. Elliott was born. The farm has been in the family for several generations and corn, soybeans and corn are raised. Their water problem is getting and keeping the drain pipes in the field open.

Robert Saxvik, chairman of the committee of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to check on proposed date.

"The chamber keeps a calendar of special activities."

By checking before setting a definite date for a meeting, the problems of having several big events scheduled at one time can be avoided, it was reported.

WALLACE PLANS MIDWEST JAUNT
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Rest and consultation filled third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace's day Wednesday, scheduled to begin a week of campaigning in several Northern, Eastern and Midwestern centers next week, consulting with advisers regarding the strategy of his platform and future campaign plans.

He has remained in Montgomery, away from the rigors of a presidential campaign, this week.

Monday, the former Alabama governor will hit the campaign trail again with a parade through downtown Chicago, then will speak in suburban Cicero, scene of racial unrest two years ago.

From there, Wallace is tentatively scheduled to visit cities in six other states and the District of Columbia by the end of the week.

In New York, aides said Wallace would rally Oct. 9 in Shea Stadium in Queens, where confidence he would fill the 55,000-seat arena.

COMES TO ELBA
ELBA, Alban Order, Wash. D.C. has arrived in Elba where he will live with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Orlin, and finish his senior year at the Raft River High School in Malita while his parents will continue their assignment with the Agricultural Foreign Aid Program in Africa.

Burley Meet Hears Demo Meet Report

BURLEY—Ed Elliott described the Democratic convention in Chicago when he addressed the Monday night luncheon of Burley Chamber of Commerce at Bryan's Cafe.

"At the airport there were lines of clean-cut young people dressed in red, white and blue suits with stovetop hats, waving flags and signs for Humphrey, but there were no TV cameras there, stated Elliott.

"First let me make it clear, I am for law and order, we must have law and order in this country," he said. "However, we feel Chicago was over policed," he added.

"All along the two mile route from the hotel to the convention center signs were placed in windows of each home and adults were out front waving large new American flags and sometimes small children joined the adults and waved small new flags."

Twins Music Club To Present Opera By Mozart

Rehearsals for "Così fan tutte," an opera by Mozart, are now under way by the Twin Falls Music Club, a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The opera, featuring a number of well-known musicians from throughout the area, will be presented Nov. 20 at the College of Southern Idaho Fine Arts Center.

H. Paul Kliss, Hagerman, will stage the production.

Those included in the cast are Mrs. Robert Blastock, Filer, "Dorabella"; Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls, "Fiordiligi"; Mrs. David Mead, Twin Falls, "Despina"; Denis Foote, Twin Falls, "Guglielmo"; Roger Vincent, Filer, "Don Alfonso"; Jay Fowles, Shoshone, "Ferrando."

Most of the leading singers in the production have appeared with the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra, and all are well-known throughout the state for their stage appearances with various groups.

Tickets for the opera will go on sale the middle of October.

Producer Closes Drama On Cuba

NEW YORK (AP)—"The Cuban Thing," a play hit by a tear gas bomb at a preview and blasted by the critics at its opening, has become the first casualty of the new Broadway season.

Producer Ivor David Balding decided to close the play by Jack Gelber after reading the critics' reaction following the Tuesday night opening.

"I'm sorry it opened in such an aura of controversy," he said.

"The play, which some persons interpreted as pro-Castro, brought out a vocal crowd of demonstrators at the opening and six persons were arrested. A tear gas bomb set off at a preview last week drove 500 persons to the street.

Election Held By Wendell Group

WENDELL—The Wendell high school choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lalene Meyer have elected officers.

Ron Jesser was elected president; Gene Smith, vice president; Sylvia Dupee, secretary and Leah Gulsler, treasurer.

Scott Burns was appointed chairman of the committee to select on outfits for the group to wear. Committee members are Debbie Rott, Debbie Evell, Torry Klimes and Keith Stevenson.

Chamber Report Given At Decl

Parties planning special meetings or conventions are urged to call the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to check on proposed date.

"The chamber keeps a calendar of special activities."

By checking before setting a definite date for a meeting, the problems of having several big events scheduled at one time can be avoided, it was reported.

Hailey Park Needs Noted For Chamber

HAILEY—Some $4,000 is needed to provide a building for rest room facilities at the Hailey city park. The city council members at a luncheon meeting at the Baptist church, told Hailey Chamber of Commerce members at a luncheon meeting at the Baptist church.

"We have all the fixtures we need in the building," Mr. Warner noted, adding "we have gone a long way, but we now have worn out workers and worn out donors."

The Jaycees started work on the park several years ago and plan to complete the job. Rejected material from the State Highway Department has been used for a roadway through the park and it is hoped the road can be blacktopped.

Using land set aside several years ago for a National Guard Armory as a possible site for a second Little League grounds was discussed. The land is to the north across Highway 93 from the airport.

When asked if the city approved of a second Little League ballpark, Mr. Warner said he favored Little League ball diamonds, but believes that the present city park should be completed before another venture is begun.

He urged chamber members to attend a city council meeting and request the removal of billboards on the vacant land set aside for the armory.

Mrs. Charles Dunn, Merchants Committee chairman, said Christmas promotion will include a kick-off celebration Nov. 30 with a parade planned to compensate for the Back to School event which was rained out.

She asked all committeemen to meet Monday evening at the Blue Spruce dining-room to make further plans.

William House reported on the meeting of the Twin Falls, Ketchum, Sun Valley and Hailey chamber last week and urged promotion of improvement city park through the area.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, immediately following the dinner meeting Jerry Johnson resigned as president, telling members he will terminate his work with Inter-mountain Gas Co. effective as of Oct. 1, and that his plans are indefinite.

Mr. House, vice president, will take over the office of president and David Anderson of the Land Title Co. was elected vice president.

IRS Objections Stymie Hearing

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A hearing on a proposed plan to pay off $6 million in debts of uranium millionaire Charles Steen was continued until Oct. 10 Wednesday by Bert Goldwater, federal bankruptcy referee.

Steen requested time earlier this year, under federal bankruptcy laws to arrange a plan for payment of the debts in full.

Goldwater said a major stumbling block to approval of the plan submitted Wednesday was lack of approval by the Internal-revenue service, which claims Steen owes $1.8 million in back taxes.

Goldwater asked if the IRS would accept a $1.5 million bond An IRS representative said it would accept a $2.3 million bond. "I'm not going to throw out the plan or approve it," he said. "I want to see if we can't work it out."

Goldwater said he would seek to arrange a hearing to settle the IRS matter, and possibly other hearings on disputed creditor claims.

Girl's View Of 'Crash' Saves Life

KENMARE, N.D. (AP)—The insistence of a 5-year-old girl that she saw a plane crash played a part in the rescue of a state legislator from his burning craft.

Dawn Potter was riding with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Potter, and her younger sister and brother, in their car Tuesday when she looked out the rear window and cried: "Daddy, that plane crashed."

Her parents, who also had seen the plane landing at the rural airstrip, told their daughter that what she had seen was the plane landing on the runway. "No, the dirt is flying now, and it tipped over," insisted Dawn.

Potter, who farms in the Kenmare area, turned the car around and headed back toward the airstrip.

The plane was in flames when he arrived. Potter and John Johnson, a nearby farm worker, pulled Lee Christensen from the overturned craft.

Christensen, 43, a state senator from Kenmare, was listed in serious condition with multiple fractures, lacerations and burns.

SUSPECT ARRESTED SEATTLE (AP)—The FBI announced Wednesday arrest of two of three men who allegedly were involved in the robbery of the People's National Bank branch at Renton Sept. 17.

Athletes Drop Move Against Brundage

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP) — Negro members of the U.S. Olympic track and field team have dropped their demand that Avery Brundage resign as president of the International Olympic Committee, it was announced today.

Hilmer Lodge, chairman of the U.S. Olympic track and field committee, said that Brundage, the controversial, 68-year-old IOC head, had convinced the group that remarks he had made concerning a possible demonstration at the games in Mexico City next month had been misunderstood.

Brundage spoke with Stan Wright, Negro assistant coach of the team, and they agreed that Brundage had been misunderstood.

On Tuesday, 21 Negro members of the team signed a statement calling for Brundage's resignation. The statement was triggered by a remark Brundage made at a news conference that anyone participating in a demonstration in Mexico City would be sent home.

"He was misquoted," Lodge said. "His statement was misconstrued. The matter is closed now."

Cards Break Loss Streak, Top Phillies

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Nelson Briles drove in two runs and scored another as the champion St. Louis Cardinals snapped their losing streak today in the season at five games by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies 4-0 Wednesday night.

Briles needed just 19th out relief help in gaining his last victory against 19 losses, doubled home the tying run in the fifth inning and set up the tie-breaking rally, which scored on Lou Brock's single.

In the third inning Briles singled, driving in Dal Maxwell as the Cards scored twice. Philadelphia 1-0 100 001-4 0 St. Louis 002 021 00X-5 0 Short, Booser (7) and Ryan; Briles, Hoover and McCarrver. W — Briles, 19-11, L — Ryan, 18-13.

Maloney And Jones Spark Reds To Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jim Maloney fired a two-hitter and Mark Jones cracked two solo home runs as the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0 Wednesday night.

Maloney struck out 11 and gave up only a double to Willie Stargell in the second and a single to Roberto Clemente in the fourth.

Lee May hit a first-inning homer off the Pirates' Ellis and Jones connected in the fourth and again in the ninth.

Cincinnati's Pete Rose and Pittsburgh's Matty Alon, tied for the National League batting lead going into the game, each went hitless in four at bats.

Cubs Top LA On 4-Run Belt In Last Inning

CHICAGO (AP) — Ron Santo's grand slam homer for Chicago did the trick in the ninth inning to give the Cubs a 4-3 victory over Los Angeles' Bill Singer 4-1 Wednesday after Singer had taken a one-hit shutout into the ninth.

Willie Smith walked to open the first of the ninth and Billy Williams, who had singled in the fourth, followed with a double. Dick Howser was walked intentionally leading the bases. Santo then hit homer No. 24 on the first pitch.

The hit off Singer up to the ninth was a scratch single off the pitcher's glove in the fourth. Singer recovered the ball but his throw was too late to get Williams.

Los Angeles' run came on a homer by Willie Crawford off Bill Harris in the fifth.

Pioneer League Grows To Seven Cities; Pocatello, Helena Eyed For Eighth

KETCHUM — The Pioneer League will definitely be seven teams next year and Pocatello and Helena, Mont., are the likely candidates cities for the eighth spot, announces Warren E. (Ben) Jewell, league president.

Jewell said Salt Lake City will remain in the league rather than go into the Pacific Coast League. But the Utah capital will have a new working agreement with the new San Diego club. Great Falls and Billings will re-enter the circuit and bring a three-state flavor. The San Francisco Giants will shift their agreement from Salt Lake City to Great Falls while the new Seattle club will provide playing talent for Billings.

Jewell said he still has three major league clubs who would like affiliates in the Pioneer alignment. These include the New Kansas City Royals, Oakland Athletics and Philadelphia Phillies.

"So we still are looking for playing talent. It would be nice to get three more-so, we could accommodate all the teams that have working agreements available," Jewell said.

"I am told the Pioneer League's continued growth has been closely watched by the major league farm directors. We have shown we are very solid footing and the major league clubs are aware of this," he said.

Jewell added a d d e d the league's growth was up 12,000 this year, marking the third straight year of increase. "We accomplished this with two less games on our schedule, too," he pointed out. "We had 146,300 during the past season and that averages out to 1,125 per game."

Jewell took a swing through Montana and found Billings and Great Falls are prepared and under way. "I found a lot of enthusiasm in Helena. It has a good reputation as a baseball town. Although Helena has never had professional baseball it drew well in the old Copper State semi-pro league and still is doing well in Legion ball."

"I supposed to hear from them in the next couple of days," Jewell said.

Jewell added he has been in contact with various sports fans in the Pocatello area about bringing that city back into the Pioneer League.

"They have a new ball park finished and ready to go. Pocatello would be ideal because it is situated on the way to any town in the league. We've always had good association with Pocatello and would like to have them back in," he said.

"The holdovers clubs and affiliates in the league are Magic Valley at Twin Falls with the Atlanta Braves; Caldwell with the Chicago Cubs; Idaho Falls with the California Angels and Ogden with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Lamonia And Dixon Spark Raider Spree

NEW YORK (AP) — Hewitt Dixon and Darrell Lamonia are two good reasons why the Oakland Raiders are favored to retain the title in the American Football League.

Dixon already has carried the ball 33 times for 194 yards and 342. Dave Grayson intercepted two passes in the first 70 seconds of the third quarter in Oakland's 47-21 triumph over Miami.

And in Cincinnati's second straight victory, a 34-23 decision over Buffalo, Charley King and Al Beauchamp each intercepted a pass and dashed to a key touchdown for the Bengals.

Idaho Practices In Preparation For Idaho State

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — The University of Idaho football team held a two-hour controlled scrimmage Saturday in preparation for Saturday's Big Sky Conference game in Pocatello against Idaho State.

Coach Y C McNease had both Mike Landrum and Steve Olson operating the first team against the freshman squad playing the role of the Bengals. McNease said he hadn't decided who he'll start at quarterback Saturday.

McNease said Jim Thiemeis and Jim Pierson wouldn't make the trip to Pocatello because of injuries. Thiemeis is still nursing a bruised knee and Pierson is recuperating from a hamstring pull.

McNease put Dale Young and Fred Gabourie into linebacker spots to bolster Roosevelt Owens and Joe Tasby.

A's Nip Sox On 9th-Inning Bunt

OAKLAND (AP) — Danny Cater's two-out bunt single scored John Odum in the ninth inning and gave the Oakland Athletics a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox Wednesday night.

Trailing 4-3 going into the ninth, the A's tied it when John Davidson singled and pinch-runner Allen Lewis scored on Jim Paganaroni's single.

Bruins Will Invade Boise Friday Night

Defense and alertness are listed by Twin Falls Coach Norm Thomas as he points his Bruins to a victory over Boise Friday night. Carrying a 2-1 record, the Bruins are 1-1 in the league and are facing their greatest long-time nemesis. While Borah generally rates as the team to have the biggest box on Twin Falls, little consideration is given to Boise. The fact is Twin Falls has defeated Boise only seven times in 30 seasons. Idaho Conference meetings but four of those came in a row when the league began. Since 1944 Twin Falls has won four times with two losses. Since then the Bruins have one win and two ties to show in 17 outings. For the series Boise has scored 639 points and Twin Falls has 387.

New Cougars on the prowl for 1969

The Cougar does something for you you'd better believe it. Virtually everything is new for 1969, from skin side to inside. The Cougar convertible is undeniably new. But then so is nearly everything else. There's bold new styling, sleeker and more fluid with a European flair. From rakish new grille to wraparound rear bumper, the car looks quicker, sleeker, longer by more than three inches, wider by more than two. More room for you and your friends, more room for your luggage. For 1969, even the fuel tank is roomier to add reach to Cougar's stride.

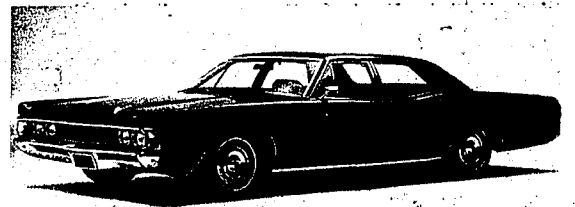

There's new panache under the hood, a twin venturi 351 cubic inch V-8 is standard, and power options climb all the way to a CJ-428 V-8 with Ram Air induction. And there are other exciting new options and cockpit design to help you custom breed your Cougar to your kind of driving.

About the only things not new for 1969 are features that are inbred to make Cougar still the best equipped car in its class: hide-away headlights . . . sequential rear turn signals . . . full-compartment carpeting . . . contoured bucket seats. Still the top cat.

Lincoln-Mercury Leads The Way . . . All The Way!

From the makers of the fabulous Lincoln Continental, a great new break-through in automobiles is happening right now at Theisen Motors, Inc., located at 701 Main Avenue East in Twin Falls. Manager Emmett Harrison stated today that the Lincoln Mercury line for 1969 will startle, thrill, and delight every man, woman, and child in Magic Valley. At the gala 1969 show-up will be held tomorrow, Friday, September 27, the complete 1969 lineup will be on display for young and old alike, with the Theisen Motors staff of sales and service personnel on hand to greet and describe the features of each and every car.

For 1969 Lincoln-Mercury leads the way with an exciting lineup of medium-price cars, not only new in looks and performance, in engineering and design, but totally new in their concept of value and luxury. These are the Marquis, the Marauder, and the Mercury Monterey. The only medium-price cars you can buy that enjoy common bonds with the foremost motor in America today — the distinguished Lincoln Continental. They are the only cars that share a level of luxury, convenience and comfort with the most luxurious of them all, the Continental Mark III. They are the only medium-price cars built by the

Mercury Monterey: luxury within every car buyer's reach

Here's a new high level of value for 1969, yours in a choice of two-door hardtop, convertible (both shown), and four-door hardtop or sedan. Now — at a price for less than you'd expect — you can enjoy the extra room, the smoother, quieter ride, the surprise performance of a truly quality car. The full 124" wheelbase, wide stanced tread and advanced suspension bring you a ride you'd expect from the makers of the Continental.

Mercury Interiors for 1969 are replete with such fine-car touches as walnut-toned appliques, deep-loom carpeting, fashionably tailored upholstery in rich cloth and vinyl and numerous appointments to make travel a more pleasurable, comfortable and relaxing experience wherever you drive.

Marquis: never a medium-priced car quite so luxurious

The stunning Marquis was designed, engineered and styled by the men who make the distinguished Lincoln Continental — and nobody knows more about luxury. The Marquis, available in convertible, two- and four-door hardtop and four-door sedan models, offers you luxury usually reserved for cars like the Continental — at a popular price. Like the Marquis Brougham, the Marquis features the impressive 428-CV V-8 and Select-Shift automatic transmission as standard. Dual lower door accent stripes and full-length bright curb molding add even more distinction. Inside, you are surrounded by luxury on all sides, with passenger conveniences virtually everywhere you look. Front seat center armrest. Deep-pile nylon carpeting underfoot. Buried walnut vinyl paneling on dash and doors add warm beauty and richness. No doubt about it — when it comes to luxury and value, Lincoln-Mercury leads the way!

THEISEN MOTORS ANNOUNCES BIG EXPANSION PLANS

Plans are complete and work will be underway within the month for the expansion of Theisen Motors, Inc., lots and facilities to include 85,950 square feet of display, sales, and service space, for the utmost convenience of their customers.

The entire three-quarters of the block on which Theisen Motors is now located has been purchased and will soon be the scene of this gigantic expansion program.

According to body shop foreman Wilbur Brown, a new body shop will be a 10-stall operation with double point booth, the addition of the latest in frame straighteners, and many other features that promise to make this the most complete and up-to-date body shop in Idaho at its completion.

Paris manager, John Balch, also heralds the building of a big new department to enable Theisen Motors to increase their inventory of parts and accessories for the Lincoln-Mercury automobiles.

New and used car sales managers, Dick Day and Elvin Brown, look forward with anticipation to the enlargement of the new and used car display areas, as well as the construction of complete new showroom and office facilities.

Theisen Motors has been in its present location since 1957, with continuous improvements being made to accommodate the steadily increasing business which this dealership has enjoyed. It has become Idaho's largest Lincoln-Mercury dealership and the fifth largest in the entire Denver district which is comprised of the eleven Western States.

From five employees in its first year the staff has risen to 37 members with an annual payroll of nearly $30,000 per year.

Here is Theisen Motors' Lot as it Looks Now. Watch us grow!

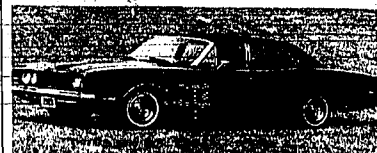

Marauder: sports car action with a luxury look

Here is sports car action that everyone can get in on — a high-splitted hardtop rummy enough for six and luxurious enough for the most demanding. The all new, all exciting Marauder. Its long hood, short-deck design on a snug 121" wheelbase gives you the ride, the feel, the speed, sure handling of an authentic sports machine. Its tunnel fast-back styling gives you the look of right now. Standard Marauder features include the velvety 390 V-8 with 3-speed manual transmission, concealed headlights, unique pull-down, front side marker lamps, dual point stripes. The cloth-and-vinyl interior offers luxurious comfort and convenience.

"Whitley" Jones, Theisen Motors' Customer Relations Manager, Accepts 6th Straight "Silver Shoes" Award

Lincoln-Mercury's coveted "Silver Shoes" award is given each year to the dealerships who, in the words engraved on the plaque, put themselves "in their customer's shoes." The Customer Relations Department is unique with Lincoln-Mercury dealerships, giving the customer the opportunity to have a direct line of communication through the offices of one man personally responsible to them and to the company.

Mercury Montego MX . . . liveliness and luxury combined at a popular price

Of all the intermediates, Montego MX gives you Cougar-inspired spirit, Continental-inspired styling. It's made by the same people! This is the roomier, roomier intermediate. Last year in its class it couldn't be topped for winning performance and this year it won't be topped for looks. The Montego MX, available in convertible, two-door hardtop and four-door sedan models, offers beautiful proof that luxury that is lively is now within every buyer's reach.

Montego MX Brougham . . . luxury leader of the intermediates

For '69, Lincoln Mercury lends the way with a great new team of intermediates. A housing that keeps forgetting that it's a family car. An uncommon convertible. A high-performance fastback. And more — all aimed and styled to reflect a new dimension in driving. Out in front it

Cyclone is strictly for fun

365 days a year. Sun, snow, wind, 220 hp 302 V-8, all-synchronized 3-spd. . . Cyclone lends the way to a speed manual transmission, and a new outlook on driving! Smooth, clean fastback lines sweep around country curves, through rush-hour traffic and down the freeway with responsive V-8 power. Cyclone answers the call of the open road with a standard hard top that folds back to fun-driving.

Cyclone CJ . . . high-performance fastback!

Lincoln-Mercury lends the way into the '69 high performance world with an all-new, all-exciting, Cyclone CJ fastback. Outstanding performance, bold styling, an aggressive personality are the marks of this competition-tread intermediate. Based on a production priced much lower than you'd expect

Lincoln Continental: Strong central design theme, new luxuries

The strong central design theme of the Lincoln Continental for 1969 achieves subtle identification with the personal luxury motorcar, the Continental Mark III. New interior luxury and refinement of detail strengthen the Continental's pre-eminence in the fine-car field. In addition to its elegant new interior design, the Continental offers a plush new Town Car floor option which features soft leather seat inserts with hidden stitching, a soft, padded nylon headlining color-keyed to the interior, deeper cut pile carpeting and exclusive door trim panels. More responsive performance and greater efficiency are obtained from Lincoln Continental's 400-cubic-inch V-8 engine, rated at 305 horsepower.

Diana Brown, Belka Marry

Diana Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max L. Brown, became the bride of Darrell Wayne Belka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin S. Belka, Salt Lake City, in a late afternoon ceremony Sept. 7 at the LDS sixth Ward Chapel, Twin Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Roy E. Babbel before a setting of large beauty baskets holding matching arrangements of apricot-colored gladioli and chrysanthemums tinted to match. The sides were decorated with similar arrangements and pews were marked with apricot-colored bows.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a Cahill Original gown, fashioned with an Empire-A-line silhouette of silk organza appliqued with lace embroidered in sea shells. The bodice, bolero-styled, was of alençon lace re-embroidered in select pearls with an oval neckline and scalloped short sleeves. Tiny, lace-covered buttons traced the back closing. The wattleau chapel train of organza, appliqued with matching sea-shell embroidered lace, fell from the waist.

Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held in place with a flower ornament of pearls. Lace elbow-length mitts completed her ensemble, and she carried a bouquet of white butterflies, roses and stephanotis. The bride wore small pearl earrings borrowed from her mother.

Bridal attendants were Carolyn Bates Ames, twin sister of honor, Kay Babbel Ivas, Twin Falls; Mrs. Tim Rarick, Springfield, Ore.; Phyllis Champin, Twin Falls, and Janice Miller, the sister of the bridegroom, Salt Lake City.

Jay Marsh, Salt Lake City, served as best man. Ushers included Michael Brown, Brent Belka, Larry Belka and Garn Woodall who substituted for Tyrone Brown, brother of the bride, at present serving with the National Guard at Ft. Dix, N.J.

The groom, Mr. Norman Herzogler and soloist was Charles Lassen. Reading excerpts from Shakespeare was Mrs. Raymond Spilbury, Salt Lake City.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Blue Lakes Country Club.

The bride's table was skirted to the floor with gold satin over a gold nylon flounce, the top draped and held in place with corsages, carnations and roses. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped with white satin bells and Lilies of the Valley, and encircled with similar flowers, was flanked by silver candelabra holding apricot-colored candles and arrangements of Eleanore carnations, roses and chrysanthemums in crystal bowls.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Eugene Champin and Mrs. Richard Torgesen, aunt of the bride. A second table was similarly decorated and used for serving punch from a large silver bowl. Mrs. Vernon Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Thomas Watkins, aunt of the bride, poured.

A gold net cloth covering a small round table was used for the guest book attended by Mrs. Kevan Smith, Salt Lake City, cousin of the bride. Gifts were received by Jude Watkins and Kathleen Torgesen, both cousins of the bride.

Guests were seated at tables covered with white cloths and centered with brandy snifters flounced with apricot-colored net and holding apricot-colored satin roses.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Champin and the bride's family entertained after the reception. The bride and bridegroom were further honored at an open house given by the bridegroom's parents in Salt Lake City on Sept. 14.

Pre-nuptial parties were given by Carolyn Bates, Cheryl McKay, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Lucille Jones, Mrs. Roy E. Babbel, Mrs. Hugh Call, Mrs. Francis H. Fox and Mrs. Harvey Cook, all Twin Falls.

After a short honeymoon at Sun Valley, the couple will reside in Salt Lake City, where Diana will resume their studies at the University of Utah this fall.

Honored guests at the wedding were Mrs. Bessie E. Brown, Twin Falls, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kendrick, Salt Lake City, grandparents of the bridegroom. Other guests attended from Rockville, Md.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Portland, Springfield and Hermiston, Ore.; Salt Lake City, Boise, Soda Springs, Pocatello and Burley.

Nancy E. Todd, Richard Graf Exchange Vows

Nancy Ellen Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne E. Elstinger, Twin Falls, and Richard S. Graf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Graf, Heyburn, were united in marriage Aug. 2 in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Twin Falls.

Rev. Ernest Hasseblad, Quincy, Wash., performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with large baskets of red roses accented with pink daisies flanked by two gold candelabra holding white tapers. Candelights were Jackie Elstinger and Danny Graf, brothers of the bride and bridegroom.

Frank McMullan played the traditional wedding music. A prelude song was sung by Vaughn Nemnick and a prayer song was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bennett.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white satin accented with a heart-shaped scalloped neckline. The long lace sleeves were held by tiny buttons. Her waist-length veil of bride's illusion was held by a crown fashioned of pearls. The veil was designed and made by Mrs. Vaughn Nemnick. She carried a bouquet of red roses and pink daisies.

Mrs. John Hedegaard, Alberta, Canada, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Keith Robinson, Pocatello; Mrs. Raymond Poe, Hazelton, and Nancy Smith, Moscow, college roommate of the bride. Connie Graf, sister of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. Ed Swayzie served as best man. Groomsman included Marshall Holmes, Bruce Gray and Steve Graf, brothers of the bridegroom. Allen Poe served as ringbearer. The rings were carried on a heart-shaped, jacarimmed pillow.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Ed Swayzie. In charge of the buffet table were Earle Hartwell, Karen Mikel, Annie Wells and Mrs. Larry Kullm. Each guest was presented a rice bag by Jessie Nemnick.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white chiffon skirt tied with bow. The table was centered with a square, four-tiered wedding cake decorated with small pink roses and silver bells and topped with satin bells. The cake was baked by Mrs. Uba Allen.

Mrs. Reinhart Graf, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake, assisted by Mrs. Gene Bosserman. Mrs. Kenneth Leach, aunt of the bride, served coffee and Judy Carpenter served punch.

After a honeymoon trip to Acapulco, Mexico, and a tour of the Southwest, the couple will reside at 927 Opal, Apartment F, Pasco, Wash., where the bride will teach seventh grade and the bridegroom will attend Columbia Basin College.

Guests attended from Twin Falls, Burley, Heyburn, Rupert, Salt Lake City, Darby, Mo., and Alberta, Canada.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included those given by college friends at the University of Idaho and by Skyview and Hazel Del Manors.

A rehearsal party was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church by Mrs. Ray Poe Watts and Mrs. M. A. McCloud.

It's Old-Fashioned Look, Not Styling, That's 'In'

SHOSHONE — Baby clothes are real again, according to information from the county home demonstration agent's office here. An old-fashioned look, not old-fashioned styling, but a return to the "real baby" is one of the two new fashions for infants this season. The word has come from style centers that set the pace in wearing apparel for all ages.

Shoppers will find ruffled battie and organza dresses this year with machine washable, durable finish—side by side with bonded knit tents and pants dresses made of bias-cut wide-wale corduroy. For boys, footed coveralls made of stretch nylon will be companion outfits for plaid Norfolk suits made of washable wool.

Multi-colored and patterned pile outerwear and knitted parkas are available in infant sizes for baby boys and girls. Favorite coordinates include matching high-color, lined pile leggings or double-knit stretch-jeans. Even more popular is the knit snowsuit — like the ones grandmothers used to knit.

Along with standard pastels and white, fall fashions for infants come in washable bright colors and offbeat shades of olive and surf green. Patterns are strong from jungle and heraldic prints to broader and brighter stripes.

The other development in baby clothes is the "tiny Twiggy" theme. Infant's wear is no longer just covering. It is high fashion, easier to wear and care for than before.

WSCS Members Host Dinner

SHOSHONE — A potluck dinner served at the Methodist Church for the first Women's Society of Christian Service meeting, Mrs. Hugh Keith and Mrs. Charles Borden were co-hostesses.

A chili supper is being planned for October.

The Shoshone church will host a Choir Festival for the district in November and the WSCS will serve dinner.

Youths Meet

SHOSHONE — Committee chairman for the Methodist Youth Fellowship were named recently. They were Barbara Horn, program; Dana Newby, social; Susan Flavel, project, and Mark Richcreek, advertising. Officers will be elected later.

The Junior and Senior High MYF groups both meet at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday at the church.

Shoshone Civic Club Has Fall Salad Luncheon

SHOSHONE — The first fall meeting of the season for the Civic Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ivan Hopkins, president, where a salad luncheon was served to members and guests.

Other executive officers assisting with serving the luncheon were Mrs. Richard Gerly, vice president; Mrs. William Brown, treasurer, and Mrs. Alice Bailey, secretary.

Guests were Mrs. Fern Manning and Mrs. Marty Anderson.

A report on the flower show at the fair was given. The club sponsors the show. Mrs. Frank Dallas, who was named queen of the show, donated the $250 prize back to the club to use on this year's project.

The project for the year was considered by members but not definitely decided upon.

Mrs. Gerly reported on recent placing of the club scrapbooks and yearbooks of past years in the City Library where they will be available for use.

Members felt the library was the best place for storage of the material for future generations to refer to as they choose.

Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Gerly outlined the programs for the year, reporting they were printed by Mrs. Raymond Bernard.

A delegate to represent the club at the district convention will be named.

Mary Brooks will be the featured speaker at the October meeting.

Mrs. Eddie Tanaka will serve as club historian and will keep a scrapbook this year.

Mrs. Kenner and Mrs. Dalley made reports of their offices. Influence of improper movies on children was discussed.

Carla Johnson, Klimes Wed In August Rites

Carla Sue Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Johnson, Twin Falls, and the late Mr. Floyd (Jim) Johnson, became the bride of Ernest J. Klimes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klimes, Kimberly, in rites Aug. 18 at the LDS Second Ward Chapel.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Bishop Gilbert Anderson before a setting of baskets of pink and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Russell Johnson, Boise, wore a five-length gown of lace over tulle featuring a fitted waistline and long lily point sleeves. The neckline was trimmed with pearls and rhinestones.

Her veil of illusion net was held by a rhinestone tiara. She carried a cascading bouquet of pink roses and white carnations trimmed with lilies of the valley.

Jeanne Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janice Carroll, cousin of the bride, and Linda Hite, Wendy Erickson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

James Klimes, Kimberly, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, with Raymond Klimes, Kimberly, brother of the bridegroom, and Wade Glenn, Kimberly, as ushers. Garth Gonzales, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Ellen Newman played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloists, Velma Guyer and Rev. Howard Larsen, Kimberly.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the LDS Cultural Hall.

The wedding party greeted guests under an archway of greenery, pink bells and baskets of gladioli.

Verda Johnson, Boise, sister-in-law of the bride, registered the guests. The cake, made and decorated by the bride's aunt, Helen Carroll, Pocatello, was centered on the bride's table which was covered with lace over pink. The cake was decorated with pink roses and topped with pink satin bells.

The cake was cut and served by Elizabeth Merrell, Pocatello, cousin of the bride, and the punch was poured by Barbara Johnson, Heyburn, sister-in-law of the bride.

Guests were served at banquet tables covered with pink lace and centered with goblets containing pink floating roses.

Eileen Egbert, sister of the bride, was in charge of the gift table, with Little Klimes, Jerome, aunt of the bridegroom; Mary Jane West, Kimberly, Carla Newman, and Connie Sparks, assisting.

Evelyn Sparks, aunt of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies for the program.

After a wedding trip to Alturas Lake, the couple resides in Twin Falls, where the bridegroom is attending the College of Southern Idaho.

The bride was honored at showers hosted by Bonnie Carroll, aunt of the bride, and Linda

Craters Of Moon Background Used By Fashion Magazine

CRATERS OF THE MOON—A team from Harper's Bazaar, women's fashion magazine from New York, spent five days at the Craters of the Moon National Monument taking fashion pictures recently.

The shots included one of the models in a black bathing suit against the grotesque lava formations at the monument, reports Paul Fritz, superintendent. The group included Barbara Silka, fashion editor; Donna Mitchell, model; Hiro Wakabayashi, photographer, and a helper. Also modeled at the site were futuristic necklaces and voluminous, flowing capes.

From Craters of the Moon, the Harper's Bazaar group went to Zion National Park, in Utah, to get pictures against the red sandstone background.

The pictures taken at the Craters of the Moon are scheduled for the January issue of the magazine, Mr. Fritz said.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I am 22, and my friends tell me I'm attractive. My husband is in Vietnam, and we have a baby nearly a year old. I sometimes feel like I want to get away by myself, so I get all dressed up and go out for dinner and to a movie. My problem is there is always someone who thinks that just because I'm all dressed up and at a movie, or eating by myself, I'm trying to get picked up. I have had to change my seat in a show many times, and there have been times when I had to get up and leave. What do you suggest?

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 14 who was raised on a farm. I have a girl friend who is my age, and she was raised on a farm, too.

Abby, I am so embarrassed to be with her. She wears combat boots, boys' work pants, flannel shirts, and her hair is squared off in the back and cut real short.

I don't think she owns a dress. She has no interest in boys and she smells like a barn. Can I do to make her more like a girl?

DEAR ABBY: I am a cashier in a theater and am faced with this problem so often you wouldn't believe it.

When two people run up to the ticket window and shove money at me to buy tickets for themselves and somebody else, whose money am I supposed to take? If I take the money from one, the other person gets mad at me. But why should I be expected to make that decision?
LYNDA DORIS

DEAR LYNDA: Take the money that is closer to you. If it's a photo finish, ask both the would-be hosts to please settle the question between themselves. And if it's any comfort to you, waiters have the same problem. Only they don't have the protection of a glassed-in box office.

DEAR ABBY: Recently you published a letter from a 13-year-old color roll girl who thought she was mistreated because her mom told her what to wear, wouldn't let her wear makeup or have boys, and generally treated her like a 4-year-old.
 Abby, please make it clear to teenagers that while we are in our teens perhaps our parents should use even tighter restrictions on us. Our ideals and morals are just forming, and we need the struggles with our authorities to strengthen us. But we don't always want to "win."
 There is the story of a freshman scientist who watched as a butterfly struggled to be rid of his cocoon. Feeling sorry for it, the young scientist made tiny slits in the sides of the cocoon to ease the way. The butterfly soon emerged, but its wings were not yet fully developed (the struggle strengthens the wings) and it was unable to fly. He died shortly thereafter.

Mrs. Carnahan Is Hostess For Beta Sigma Phi

GLENNIS FERRY—Mrs. Don Carnahan hosted Xi Alpha Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at her ranch home recently.
 Mrs. Tom Hartung presented a program, "The Sense of Touch," providing ten subjects which the members tried to identify while blindfolded. Mrs. John Strum was the winner, naming nine of them correctly. In another demonstration, two members were draped in sheets, then the blindfolded women tried to identify them by feeling of facial features.
 Mrs. F. C. Anderson and Mrs. Bryce Keck reported on their trip to Gooding to visit the chapter's "adopted" kid from the Idaho State School, Little Richard Berthe. They took Richard shopping for his school clothes and will buy him a winter coat.
 The next meeting will be at Mrs. Anderson's King Hill residence, with Mrs. Strum giving the program, "Facts and Smell."

THIS HAND CAN BE DANGEROUS

We watched today's hand played seven times in the nationwide charity game. Three times the bidding went as shown in the box, with South making exactly three diamonds.

On three other occasions North passed the heart opening. Each time East reopened with weights the averages the wrong way.

Why did we spend so much time watching this one hand? When we watched it the first time something really extraordinary happened. West doubled the Culbertson system back in 1932. In his version of the system you doubled to show an opening bid.

After West's double there was no problem getting to the spade game and making that easy victory.

The bid succeeded this time but we won't endorse it. In fact we want to take a strong stand against it. Most of the time this sort of double produces a diamond response from partner and the doubler has nowhere to go except into trouble.

This sort of double also frequently gets your opponents off the hook. If you stay out of the bidding they go merrily ahead into trouble. If you bid, you warn them.

What do you do now?

Pass. You have shown your hand. It isn't worth a slight overbid, go to five hearts but do so at your own risk.

one spade. One West merely bid two spades and East played in a part score, the other two Wests jumped to three and East continued to game. A diamond was opened at all tables, not that it mattered except to simplify East's problem. He ruffed his second diamond and wound up making five odd.

We hate to print this hand because it shows a bad bid which is rewarded. Long experience has shown that the best action, but experience is based on averages and this hand

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three clubs your partner jumps to four hearts over your two spades. What do you do now?

Tall Girls Lack Employment As Miniskirts Favor Shorties

What the miniskirt does for have without laughing?" Sarah Bernhard, most likely... Men of German descent tend to be slightly taller than those of Irish extraction... A study of drinkers shows that executive talent apt to take a cocktail is the labor negotiator.

Now it's established any woman who wears shoe size 7D, 7½C or 8B can claim her feet to be similar to those of Greta Garbo, the actress lady. One Glen Fullerton, who sold Garbo her shoes years back, reports she consistently purchased the above-mentioned sizes, depending on the style. Look, young fellow, I'm aware your half the population has never even seen Miss Garbo, but the other half has, and more intelligent than giants, and exceedingly short men are usually sharper than exceedingly tall men.

Customer Service? Q "Say, sport, who is the world's greatest wrestler?" A "Can't say who claims that title now, but the old U. I. & S. States President Gama of India, no doubt about that. He put out a standing challenge to throw any 20 wrestlers in succession within 60 minutes, and no group ever even called him on it. Mostly, he performed in the Orient. The only two wrestlers he was known to have who dared tangle with him were the United States's B. F. Rollef and Poland's Stanislaus Zbyszko, but neither lasted more than 30 seconds against him. Gama stood 5-foot-7, weighed 260 pounds. He retired in 1936 at the age of 38.

NOW WEARING its "Sunday best" to receive visitors is Hells Canyon Dam, harnessing the Snake River in scenic and deepest North American gorge as a final project in Idaho Power company's T. E. Roach Hells Canyon Development. Since the three-project development was dedicated here earlier in 1963, the road leading from the Oregon end of the dam to powerhouse (center) has been surfaced. The company has erected a roofed viewpoint (circle) for convenience of sightseers and installed a high-intensity lighting system. Clean-up work during the summer also removed temporary construction plants and shops from benches carved out of rock in a narrow canyon. The project is reached by a modern highway extending 23 miles downstream from Oxbow Dam along the Idaho shore of a man-made lake, already being heavily used for public recreation.

Soviets Using New 'Copter Carrier

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chief of Naval Operations, says the Soviet Union's first helicopter carrier is operating in the Mediterranean and is "visible evidence of Russia's announced intention to become a modern major offensive seapower."
 The new 650-foot ship, named since the two Mediterranean Navy men emphasized the Soviet navy a new concept of tactical jet fighters and U.S. intelligence credits the Moscow with the ability to haul as many as three dozen helicopters, but no jet fighters. Moorer, answering questions about the ship's military significance, said the Moscow gives the Soviets "a mobile helicopter platform which we must assume is capable of landing Russian naval infantrymen from the sea as well as conducting anti-submarine warfare from the air."

 The naval infantrymen Moorer referred to are Moscow's so-called "black berets," an elite force activated by the Soviets in 1964 as an answer to the U.S. Marine Corps.

Manning Is Critical Of Price Hike

Darrell V. Manning, Democratic congressional candidate, charged Wednesday that General Motors and Chrysler are "attempting to drive the Idaho consumer to the wall."
 He said in Twin Falls he was disturbed about the auto industry practice of increasing prices five times in the last three years to "turn out unsafe cars."
 He also charged that increased labor and material costs justify only minor price increases, "but Chrysler has announced an $80 increase and GM a $49 increase per car."
 He said the Idaho consumer is not "getting a fair shake."

GOP Candidate Tops 'Democrat'

LEADVILLE, Colo. (AP) — Fred Anderson, candidate for Congress, has climbed 14,148-foot Mt. Democrat and proclaimed, "I'm the first Republican to be supported by the highest Democrat in the nation."
 Anderson, a state senator seeking to unseat Rep. Wayne Aspinall, D-Colo., said his only disappointment after reaching the summit of the peak east of Leadville was "not finding any voters there."

BOISE PARLEY SET
BOISE (AP) — The Idaho Health Association announced today it will hold its annual conference Oct. 24-25 in Boise. Dr. Arch T. Wigle of Pocatello, the president, said the theme will be "Citizen Action for Better Health."

Teen-Age Rock Combos Need Plenty Of Talent And Cash

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Many a teen-ager dreams of forming a rock combo and finding fame and fortune in today's white-hot pop music market.
 And many a teen-ager has his hopes destroyed when he faces the fiscal facts of life. It takes more talent to become another Rolling Stone or a member of the Fifth Dimension. It also takes plenty of cold cash.
 This was disclosed in a talk with Jim Pendergast, a young San Franciscan who has been road manager and is now "investor" in a hopeful group called the Mint Tattoo. It consists of only three musicians: Bruce Stephens, lead guitar and lead singer; Burns Kellogg, bass guitar; Greg Thomas, drums. The first two are from Sacramento, Thomas is from Chicago; all are 21 and shaggy-haired in the rock tradition.
 The Mint Tattoo is one of those groups that hasn't quite made it. To make it, you need more than a hit record, and the trio hopes to do just that with a new recording contract. Meanwhile the boys are struggling to survive in the rock jungle.
 "It's not easy," Pendergast figures that the guitars, drums and an electric piano amount to an investment of $2,000. The big expense comes with the speaker cabinets that blast the sound to the youthful audiences. Each player has four cabinets, for a total cost of $8,000.
 "You need strong amplifiers for the voices to be heard over the instruments," Pendergast explained. "After each engagement, the equipment usually has to go back into the shop for repairs."

Jobless Pay Lost Over 'Hair'

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — When Stephen C. Spangler didn't cut off his long hair and beard, the State Department of Employment cut off his unemployment checks.
 The 27-year-old Sausalito resident has asked Superior Court to award him the checks terminated last December when he let his hair grow.
 "The department decided the extra hair made him unattractive to employers of manufacturers representatives, the last job classification he had. That made him ineligible for compensation," the department ruled and the State Unemployment Insurance Board agreed.

New Volumes Reported For Filer Library

FILER — A number of new books have been added to the shelves of the Filer City Library, according to Mrs. P. E. Allen, librarian.
 "East of Eden," Steinbeck; "Treasure Island," Stevenson, and "Where the Red Fern Grows," Rawls, are replacements.
 Other new books include "Mill Country Harvest," Bolland; "Christy," Marshall; "Winterwood," Eden; "The Travels of Jimmie McHeeters," Irving; "The Bill of Rights," a Pulitzer prize winner; and "Night Falls on the City," Galham.
 New books for younger readers are "My River," "Mystery Stories," collected by Daly; "The White Stone," Lind; "Wedding Song," Crane; "Sawtooth, the City Nobody Knows," Franzler; "Walk in My Moccasins," Warren; "A Spell is Cast," Cameron, and "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," Irving.
 Non-fiction books include "Tides of Justice," "The Supreme Court," and "The Constitution in Our Time," Linton; "The Bill of Rights, Its Impact on the American People," Fribourg and "In the Shadow of Presidents," The American Vice Presidency," and "The Succession System," Harwood.
 Total circulation for August was 608 books, the librarian reported. Library hours are from 3 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Friday.
 "JAMMING" PROTESTED
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has protested Soviet jamming of Voice of America broadcast since the Czechoslovak invasion and called it a "violation of the rights of free speech in the U.S. practices of an earlier era."
