U.S., Saigon Report Accord On Talk Plans

PARIS (AP) — Top U.S. and South Vietnamese diplomats agreed today on new proposals for the Communists aimed at getting the Vietnam peace talks under way.

Chief U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman and South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky conferred on why different procedures might be suggested to break the present deadlock on how to start the long-awaited four-way parley.

"We are going to present the other side with some new proposals," an authorized U.S. source quoted Harriman and Ky as saying after their 12-hour meeting.

The informant declined to disclose any details of the now-advanced approach but it acknowledged the main point at issue involves seating arrangements for the conference.

At issue are such symbolic matters as who is to speak first and what shape the conference table will be. American sources said there is still room for compromise and they remain hopeful the conference will get under way before too long.

The South Vietnamese delegation, masterminded by Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, is pressing the Americans not to compromise on Communist demands for procedures implying recognition of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

The Americans tend to be less concerned than either the North or South Vietnamese over status symbols, stressing instead a need to start negotiations to end the war.

Qualified sources said the Saigon government feared U.S. negotiators were anxious to get the talks started before President Johnson leaves the White House, Jan. 20 and might consider procedural concessions that would give the status of a full delegation to the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

American officials sought to minimize the reports of differences between the U.S. and South Vietnamese delegations. They stressed that the United States will make no deal with North Vietnam on conference procedure unless it is acceptable to Saigon.

North Vietnam's Col. Ho Van Lau proposed again on Tuesday that the conference should meet at four equidistant tables and draw up its agenda in the speaking order. Both arrangements would make the conference appear to be one of four equal delegations, a status which the Saigon and U.S. governments refuse to concede to the NLF.

But whereas South Vietnam's delegate Pham Dang Lam called both proposals unacceptable, the United States avoided any such categorical rejection. An authorized American source said the United States still preferred a rectangular table and two-way talks, which would symbolize the U.S.-South Vietnamese view of the talks as a two-sided proposition. The United States did not accept Lau's proposals, the source said, but it did not reject them either.

Nixon Offers Cabinet Freedom To Name Aides

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Nixon moved today to give his no-surprise, no-Democratic Cabinet unusual freedom in picking aides for top posts.

Normally the President-elect himself exercises principal authority for deciding on recruits for top departmental posts. However, Klein said Nixon urged his Cabinet choice to take the chore in consultation with himself and members of his prospective White House staff. Nixon will have final say on choosing the men or women who will hold these top jobs since he must nominate them under his own signature.

Reaching into the ranks of Republican governors, high-powered businessmen and educators, Nixon came up with 12 of telling newsmen that a Democratic many longtime associates and friends, who generally reflect the internationalist-minded and fiscally conservative attitudes of the president-elect.

Asked about the absence of Democrat, Herbert G. Klein, Nixon communications director, quipped the President-elect had appointed "all independents who vote Republican."

However, press spokesman Ronald L. Ziegler made a point of saying that a Democratic Nixon will get one top job to be announced in the near future — ambassador to the United Nations.

The post has been offered to Sargent Shriver, now ambassador to France. Shriver is a chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee called Rogers a "man of unquestioned integrity and ability" and said: "I feel sure that his common sense and good judgment will serve the country well."

"An excellent choice," said Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield. "I am delighted with his appointment and look forward to a continuing good relationship with him."

Disent did come from Georgia state Rep. Julian Bond who was a leader of liberal forces at the Democratic National Convention. A Negro, he noted the cabinet is all-white and said Negroes are in for some disappointments during the Nixon administration.

Hore, in brief, is the background of the men-Nixon will send to the Senate for confirmation after he takes office Jan. 20.

Rogers, 55, a New York and Washington lawyer, longtime Nixon advisor and attorney general for three years in the Eisenhower administration, to be secretary of state.

Kennedy, 63, board chairman of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co., an veteran of 16 years with the staff of the Federal Reserve Board, to be secretary of the treasury.

Laird, 46, ranking Republican of the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee and a Nixon campaign adviser, to be secretary of defense.

Mitchell, 55, former partner in Nixon's former New York law firm, an expert on state and municipal bonds and manager of the Nixon campaign, to be attorney general.

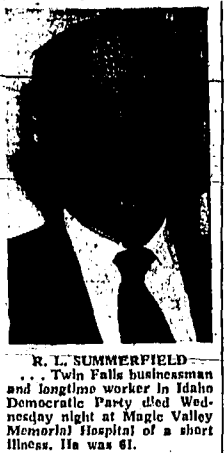

Blumenthal, 47, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and a Montgomery, Ala., contractor who was a Democrat until 1952, to be postmaster general.

Hickel, 49, a self-made millionaire in real estate and construction and governor of Alaska since 1967, to be secretary of the interior.

Hardin, 53, former dean of agriculture at Michigan State University and, since 1954, chancellor of the University of Nebraska, to be secretary of agriculture.

London Firemen Stage Slowdown

LONDON (AP) — London's fire engines are unpunctual, its fire stations unswamped and littered, and only emergency calls are being answered.

It's a slowdown by the 5,000 firemen in 120 stations who received a $2.40 pay increase offered by the Greater London Council. They make from £48 to $57.60 a week.

The Fire Brigades Union wants $4.80 to compensate for "compulsory overtime" caused by a shortage of 500 firemen.

Urgent Need To Use State's Water Noted

By ROBERT VANAUDELEN, Times-News Farm Editor

Water — Idaho's most current, controversial issue — is the subject being discussed during the Idaho State Reclamation Association's annual convention now under way in Twin Falls.

Speaking to more than 200 delegates to the annual meeting Thursday morning were Dr. Robert Lee, director of the Idaho Water Resources Board; Wilton Towne, Portland, Federal Water Pollution Control Administration; and R. Keith Higginson, state-reclamation engineer.

Dr. Lee said there is a note of urgency for state development of its water resources. He said senators from the Northwest have been able to obtain a 10-year moratorium on any study of diversion of water from the Northwest to the Southwest.

"This legislation may be under attack in the next and subsequent sessions, but even if not changed, 10 years pass quickly in a development program. We need to be able to demonstrate that we have the potential for developing the land and water in Idaho."

Dr. Lee also touched briefly on state programs now under way for the more active being California, he said.

Mr. Towne spoke on water quality management. He said this problem became serious shortly after World War II. Prior to that time the federal government had no responsibility

But, in 1948 Congress realized that interstate waters were becoming polluted from various sources and passed its first act on water quality. Mr. Towne said the streams were becoming polluted because of the rapid population and industry growth in this nation after World War II.

Mr. Higginson spoke briefly on changes the state reclamation bureau has made in regards to Idaho water. He discussed some of the laws that have been changed in the past two years, such as the well drillers licensing law and the ground water law.

The delegates to the convention were welcomed to Twin Falls and Magic Valley by Egon Kroll, Twin Falls mayor, and Howard Allen, president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday afternoon Dorrell C. Larson, extension irrigatorist, University of Idaho, and John Woodworth, director of the Idaho High and Game Department spoke.

Featured speaker at the banquet Thursday evening will be Dr. Paul Heuston, Twin Falls radiologist. He will talk on "Nepal: Its Land and Its People."

Friday morning new directors of the association will be named, as well as committee reports. The convention ends Friday noon.

Bill Sands, Best-selling Author and Founder of Seventh Step, a Nationwide Rehabilitation Program for Ex-convicts, Will Speak Tonight at 8 at the Fine Arts Center of the College of Southern Idaho.

The speech will be carried live on KVMT Television, Channel 11, starting at 8 p.m.

Although there is no charge for admission, tickets are required and they are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Only a few are left. They may be obtained by calling 733-8230.

The talk is sponsored by the Twin Falls Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

Salmon Falls Water Project Hearing Set

A public hearing on the proposed Salmon Falls Reclamation Project has been scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Twin Falls American Legion Hall, states the Idaho Water Resource Board.

The Salmon Falls Project is proposed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation to provide supplemental water for an area south of Twin Falls in Twin Falls and Cassia Counties.

The proposed project is designed to lift and divert an average 181,600-acre feet annually from the Snake River into the Salmon Falls Division land. The estimated cost of the project is set at $46,561,000, with the bulk of costs being charged to irrigation needs and $233,000 charged to fish and wildlife uses.

A 47-mile-long canal would carry the water from a new pumping plant—above Milner Dam. Four re-lift pumping stations and a series of smaller canals would distribute the water above the main canal to augment local water supplies to 40,300 acres of irrigated land and 14,730 acres of dry land.

Storage facilities to preserve the Snake River spills for use in the Salmon Falls Division are to be provided at Ririe, American Falls and Pallas. Dam, while an additional ground water well field in the Snake River plains recharge area would allow underground storage.

It has been indicated that some of the Jerome area water users would oppose the project because during water-short years, the proposal would involve an exchange of water from wells north of the Snake River in the Jerome area.

The child was delivered at Georgetown University Hospital by Cesarean section at 8:40 a.m. Mrs. Kennedy will have three other girls and seven boys ranging in age from 18 months to 17 years.

Flu Bug Hits Area, New Strain Absent

By FRED DODDS, Times-News Staff Writer

The flu bug has hit Magic Valley, but the Hong Kong strain of the annual sickness has not been detected yet.

An estimated seven to eight per cent of the students at Twin Falls High School are out with the flu, and the figure is above 10 per cent at Robert Stuart Junior High School. Some teachers also are out of school.

The average stay in bed is four days.

Dr. Luther Thompson, director of the South Central Idaho office of the Department of Health, said: "We have not detected the Hong Kong strain yet."

He said there is little danger

Flu Bug Hits Area, New Strain Absent

unless a person is in the high risk category. Such a person might be elderly or suffer from a lung ailment, he said.

At Amalgamated Sugar Co., the manager, Robert Day, is absent with the flu. A supervisor reported a large portion of the work force is out with the flu.

Robert Sherman, superintendent of Kimberly schools, is home in bed with the flu and an official at Kimberly said many members of the faculty are out. Flu among students at Kimberly is not widespread, it was reported.

Abenjamin at Burley, Rupert, Jerome and Gooding was reported above normal, but the flu was not of epidemic size, it was reported.

Dr. Ernest Bagland, superintendent of schools at Twin Falls, said the sickness started after Thanksgiving. "It appears it will be with us through Christmas," he said.

Dr. John Mathis, director of preventive medicine for the Idaho Department of Health, said his reports indicate there is some type of flu virus around, but not the new strain of sickness are the common cold.

He said the department does not advocate the use of vaccine, except for those who are in the high risk category.

Common symptoms of flu are fever, aching, sore throat and headaches. The symptoms last three to five days. Rest and fluids are recommended.

Dr. Thompson also said a visit to the family physician if recommended.

The flu is nationwide, reports indicated Thursday, and the chances of the Hong Kong variety coming to Magic Valley are good. Christmas travelers are carrying the virus with them, Dr. Thompson said.

Author Bill Sands, speaking in Twin Falls Thursday, reported his wife, who was sick with a case of the flu.

Dr. Thompson said indications are the virus is in the area, but emphasized there are no indications yet that the virus is the Hong Kong variety. He said indications are that absenteeism in schools is about normal or a little above for this time of year.

Yanks Battle Viets In 12-Hour Struggle

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines and North Vietnamese troops battled for 12 hours Wednesday, and the heavy fighting spilled over into the demilitarized zone, the U.S. command reported.

"Twelve Marines and eight North Vietnamese were killed and 30 Marines were wounded, the command said.

Confirming earlier reports, the headquarters also announced that the number of American troops killed in action in the eight years of U.S. involvement in the war had passed the 30,000 mark. The weekly casualty report said 102 Americans died in combat last week, raising the total to 30,057 since Jan. 1, 1961.

In the same period, the U.S. Command said at least 422,979 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have been killed, including 1,713 last week.

In the fighting along the northern frontier, U.S. light bombers streaked over the southern edge of the demilitarized zone to attack about 200 North Vietnamese troops. The U.S. Command said was raining mortars, machine-gun and small arms fire on the Marines. U.S. artillery guns also blasted at the Communist troops, some of whom were well-entrenched in heavily fortified bunkers.

U.S. headquarters also reported that U.S. Marine artillery fired Wednesday on 10 to 12 North Vietnamese soldiers sighted in fortified positions inside the DMZ about 10 miles east of the enemy fighting. An aerial observer spotted the enemy troops a mile inside the southern half of the zone, a spokesman said, and the Marine artillery destroyed 12 bunkers and triggered three secondary explosions; indicating hits on ammunition stores. The number of North Vietnamese killed, if any, was not known.

On the Saigon front, meanwhile, 400 south Vietnamese paratroopers killed 18 enemy soldiers but lost 13 of their own Wednesday when the government force encountered about 200 entrenched enemy riflemen 42 miles northwest of the capital. The government spokesman reported.

Roy Strawser Heads Schools At Hagerman

HAGERMAN — Roy Strawser, who has been high school principal here this year, has been hired by the Hagerman School Board as superintendent and principal for the coming year.

The action came at the school board meeting Monday night when the resignation of George M. Carnie, who has held the position the past seven years, was accepted.

Mr. Carnie pointed out in his letter of resignation that "as a result of dedication of school board and staff members Hagerman School District has become one of the leading small schools in the nation."

He explained the reason for the early resignation was to give the school board opportunity to fill the position, which will revert back to a single person serving as both superintendent and high school principal.

The retiring official said he has not yet decided on his future plans.

Mr. Strawser taught a 4th grade class at Hazelton in Palau, Nev., and at Wedgell before coming to Hagerman nine years ago.

He received his B.A. degree from former Southern Idaho College of Education at Albion, and his master's degree in science from the University of Utah in 1966. He has completed work toward his doctorate of education at Utah State University, Logan.

Frank Henkle, school board chairman, said Mr. Strawser is presently involved in working with the Charles Kettering Foundation, Denver, in developing a plan, to be financed by the foundation, to initiate a Human Relations Environment within the school.

Under construction is another 10-mile section of Interstate 80N which bypasses Boise's central core. Tests Reveal No Flaws In Apollo Rocket CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The space agency today said that no leak exists in the first stage of the Apollo 8 moon rocket and that the Dec. 21 launch date for man's first journey to the moon still stands.

Officials reported Wednesday night a leak had been detected in one of five first stage engines of the Saturn 5 rocket that is to boost Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell III and Air Force Maj. Wiliam P. Anderson on the historic lunar mission.

Engineers and technicians trouble-shot the suspected problem throughout the night, pressurizing the engine under various conditions.

"We concluded," a space agency spokesman said, "that the high leakage rate occurred only during draining operations. Our tests proved that it would not occur when the engine operated during the launching."

With the leak situation settled, the launch crew began looking forward to the next major milestone—picking up the lengthy 102-hour final countdown on Monday night, aiming for a lift-off at 7:51 a.m. EST Dec. 21.

The theft was reported at 7:25 a.m. Lost is a plastic figure about four feet high. It was wearing a red suit and black boots, has a large midsection and sports a white beard. Police records list an alias for the decoration. It's Santa Claus.

Santa Claus Gets New T.F. Phone Number

With only 12 days to go until Christmas the orders at the North Pole are stacking up and Santa Claus, a busy man the year around, has turned to the telephone for help.

He has more children than ever to "meet" this year and the elves are busy in Santa's workshop, building toys and feeding the reindeer.

To the children that want to call Santa to place last minute orders, the telephone number is 734-2294. It's a first for Santa because it's a direct line from Twin Falls to the North Pole and it's on another prefix.

In years past, the old prefix of 733 has been used. But it was changed this year to mark the beginning of expanded service to Twin Falls customers.

In the future, the prefix 734 along with a four digit number will be assigned new business and home locations.

People will no longer be able to speak in four digit numbers when leaving messages, because a "2294" could apply to either the "733" or the "734" prefix.

K. G. Mann, district manager of the Mountain States Telephone Co. in Twin Falls, said the addition of another prefix for Twin Falls makes the continued growth of the area. "It is another indicator that the city is not standing still."

The progress is noted because of the direct line to the North Pole, where Santa is ready day or night to take telephone calls from youngsters with up-to-the-minute instructions on weather, house entry conditions, and gifts.

SANTA CLAUS is seen here getting a call at the North Pole. The Mountain States Telephone Co. has installed a direct line with a new prefix number. The number is 734-2294. He is available until Christmas at that number.

Dump Ground Is Closed At Hailey

HAILEY — The Hailey city dump grounds have been closed and all trash must be hauled to a four-community dump grounds on Ohio street between Hatley and Ketchum.

Mayor George Allen made the announcement at the Hailey Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday in the Baptist church annex. The dump is to serve Sun Valley, Ketchum, Hailey and Bellevue.

The new Idaho brochure of the Department of Development and Commerce was displayed.

R. C. Stephens, Robert Vernon and Walter Campbell will assist Santa in distributing treats to youngsters following the free movie being sponsored by the chamber here Saturday at the Liberty Theater. Mr. Vernon, local manager of the Idaho Power Co., said his firm will furnish prizes for the annual Christmas-lighting contest. The chamber will decorate two giant fir trees in front of the Blaine county courthouse again this year.

WASHINGTON—The elections are long over, but Senator Eugene McCarthy still seems to be busily running for something—or other!

The secrecy-clanked headquarters is located in a $47,500-a-day suite in the small, swank Capitol Hill Hotel, on a corner directly opposite the Senate Office Building.

The $47,500-a-day campaign headquarters also houses the money-raising committee—a neatly cozy set-up.

The three largest listed donors are Mrs. Martin Schell, Pleasantville, N.J., $7,000; Mrs. Andrew Gagnin, Litchfield, Conn., $1,000 (he is a manufacturing executive); and Alfred Taylor, 3700 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, $1,000.

tributors were from New York State. The other beneficiaries of the fund were unnamed candidates for Congress, who received amounts ranging from $500 (J. Buford Johnson, St. Cloud, Minn.) to $7,500 (Wayne Morse, still challenging his narrow defeat in Oregon, and John Gilligan, decisively licked by Republican William Saxbe for the Senate in Ohio).

ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK Report: Hubert Eyes 1972

WASHINGTON—Vice President Humphrey, now virtually certain to run for the Senate in 1972, is being strongly urged to set up a Democratic Advisory Committee to control top-priority party policy during the Nixon administration.

At the same time, these Humphrey men have no doubt that if it came to that Humphrey would take on McCarthy in the primary, thrash him at the polls, and go on to overwhelm the party.

The need now is not so much to compete with conservative Democratic leaders in Congress as to fill the vacuum that exists with the Congressional wing of the party in the hands of aging non-elective like Speaker John McCormack and Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield.

The Poor

The belief that it is the well-off, upper-middle-class, on-the-climb person living in the suburbs who has the ulcers while the poor are at least spared some of the worries which money brings has been upset by a nationwide survey just released by the Blue Cross Association.

Both top and bottom income groups, however—amounting to three out of every four American families—shared concern over how they would pay for the rising cost of health care.

Nearly half of the poor people who were interviewed were plagued by worries over money, insecurity and health problems.

The picture of the happy, healthy, carefree derelict sitting on a park bench sympathizing with the hurried executive is something that exists only in the imagination of cartoonists.

Nuclear Test Showers Intermountain States With 'Fallout'

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Intermountain States were showered with the highest levels of radioactivity since a 1962 last weekend, Dr. Robert Pendleton, director of the University of Utah radiological health program, said Wednesday.

Highest readings were recorded to the weekend test by the Atomic Energy Commission in southern Nevada near Las Vegas which was called a cratering shot to test effects of underground nuclear blasts in hard rock.

An amendment to laws by the university field crews were taken on the front lawn of the State Capitol in Salt Lake City where background radiation was more than three times that of normal.

Pendleton said he was confident the radioactivity would not create any immediate hazard to the people, but said vast quantities of new radiation would be added on top of that already accumulated from past tests.

He was certain there would be no immediate recurrence of contamination in the state's milk supply such as in 1962 when the State Health Department forced some milk into stored products while radioactive iodine decayed to safe levels.

Pendleton, who has studied fallout in Utah since 1960, accused the AEC of making guinea pigs out of the people in Utah in its nuclear testing program.

Air and ground monitors throughout the state showed sharp increases in radioactivity Monday and Tuesday as fallout clouds passed over a wide area of Utah and moved into the central states, the scientist said.

Wednesday's storm complicated the tracing of the fallout, he explained, since the "knows" forces the radioactive materials to the ground.

Field tests by university researchers showed the radioactivity was distributed from Scipio in central Utah to the Cache Valley on the Idaho-Utah border.

Although heaviest levels were measured in Salt Lake Valley, Pendleton said further checking could produce higher readings in central Utah since a major cloud apparently passed south of Utah valley over Ephraim.

Pendleton and other researchers are assessing the latest radiation effects on Utah's wildlife and people. The Fish and Game Department plans to cooperate in checking deer.

AEC reports called the radiation released by Sunday's blast "infinitesimal." Pendleton referred to this as "standard public relations gobbledegook—the sort of thing they have been telling us since 1962, and it should be taken in that context."

Henry Vermillion, director of public affairs of the AEC's Nevada operations office, however said "I think the supposition that extremely minute amounts of radioactivity are quite harmful to the human race hasn't been proved."

"He said the level of radioactivity emitted from the underground blast is far below guidelines established by the Federal Radiation Council.

The populations of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada and Colorado probably breathed in the radioactive dust, he said, noting adequate information supports the theory that such inhalations can possibly produce in the future lung cancer, lymphoma, carcinomas and other malignant neoplasms.

Salt Lake City is about 350 miles northwest of the Nevada test site. Another 200 miles north of Salt Lake City, the AEC's National Reactor Testing Station in Eastern Idaho reported a slight increase in radioactivity.

A spokesman said Wednesday it was not dangerous and "any dosage received would be considerably less than what would be received from natural background radiation in a year's time."

Annual Meet Seen Benefit For Idaho; Details Stir Debate

By EARLE JESTER
And RUD JORGENSEN

BOISE (AP) — There is virtually unanimous agreement among Idaho legislative leaders that the shift from biennial to annual sessions will be beneficial.

There is considerable difference of opinion, however, as to the procedure that should be followed in implementing the constitutional amendment which provides for the change.

Voters approved the amendment in the Nov. 5 general election.

It provides simply that the legislature shall meet "annually" at the capital of the state, commencing on the second Monday of January of each year, unless a different day shall have been appointed by law, and at other times when convened by the governor.

The amendment says nothing about the length of sessions.

Still unchanged in another section of the constitution, however, which says legislators may receive no more than $600 — at the rate of $10 per day — as "per diem" allowances for any one session.

An amendment which would have removed that limitation was defeated by voters.

For a number of years legislators have received far more than the $600 per session. The State Supreme Court, in a test case, ruled the legislature could reimburse themselves for their expenses and they have done so, first at the rate of $15 per day and in recent years at $25 per day, in addition to the $10 salary payments.

The 1967 legislature created a legislative compensation commission, authorizing it to set the expense scale of lawmakers. The resolution creating the commission specifies that its action will have the effect of law if it is not countermanded by the legislature within 25 days after the beginning of the next regular session.

The commission specified that legislators will receive a year-around expense allowance of $200 per month, plus $35 per day while in session, plus the $10 per day constitutional allowance.

There was considerable informal discussion of that action during the legislature's organizational session last week and comment generally indicated the legislature will countermand it.

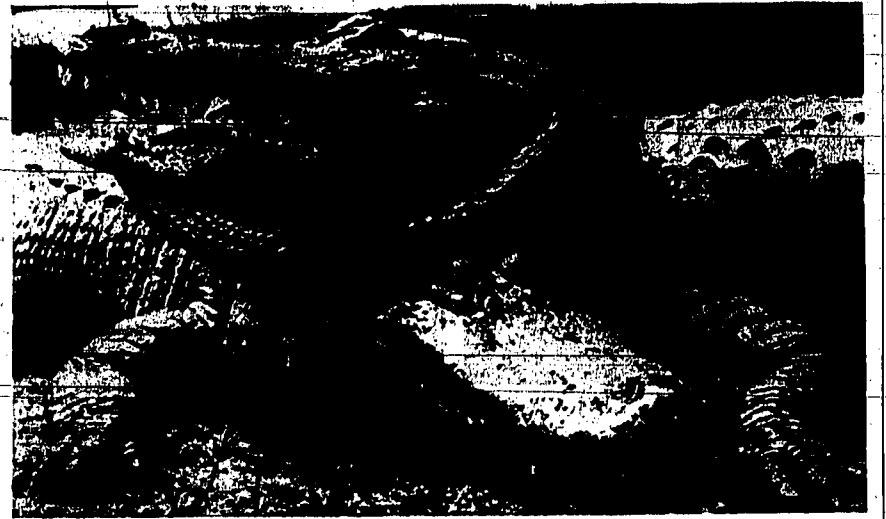

If it is permitted to stand, the commission's action would give each legislator more than $10,000 for each two-year term, assuming there were two regular 60-day legislative sessions.

The length of the sessions is a matter of considerable disagreement. Some legislators think one of the annual sessions in each biennium should be limited to 30 or 45 days with the other running 60 days.

One legislator said he would like to see the legislature limited to either session, with adjournment coming when the work is done.

There is disagreement whether legislation introduced, but not acted on, in the first session should remain active and available for consideration at the second.

Rep. Terry Crapo, R-Idaho Falls, the majority leader in the House, favors having sessions run from beginning to end of a

Lawmakers Favor Changes In Vote Law

BOISE (AP) — A primary election held later in the calendar year appears to be the most popular proposal for election law changes among Idaho's newly elected legislators.

The lawmakers, in an Associated Press survey, overwhelmingly said they favor changing the much-criticized election law. But there wasn't much agreement on what specific changes should be made.

Sixty per cent said they want to change the election statutes. Only 17 per cent said they thought the laws needed no change. The rest failed to answer the question.

Few of the lawmakers suggested adoption of recommendations made by the Legislative Council's election law committee, although 17 per cent of them said the primary election should be held in the year — one of the committee's proposals.

Suggestions for new election laws included: shorter campaigns; lower voting age; state presidential preference primary; allow write-in candidates only if declaration made publicly at least five days before election.

Sen. Arthur Murphy, D-Mullan

at national structure.

A permanent registration system, continually updated by county clerks.

Complaints have been voiced that the much-amended election laws are full of conflicting provisions — but only one lawmaker suggested elimination of conflicting sections as a current need.

The state Supreme Court criticized conflicts last summer, and restored an old provision of law for the forming of new political parties — that established George C. Wallace to get his name on the state's presidential ballot.

As well as the later primary — on the Tuesday after the second Monday in September, instead of on the Tuesday after the first Monday in August — major changes proposed by the committee include:

—Allowing creation of new parties and permitting parties to determine their own organiblennium, with bills remaining available for consideration at any time.

"It's foolish to reintroduce bills," he said. "That defeats the whole purpose of the annual sessions."

Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy, president of the Senate, thinks one regular session should be complete in itself, and a bill not approved at one session would have to be reintroduced to gain consideration at the next.

Murphy favors, too, limiting the subjects that normally would be handled at the two sessions. He proposes limiting one to financial matters only, but would permit consideration of other business by perhaps a two-thirds vote of the entire membership.

Sen. John Evans, D-Malden, the Senate minority leader, opposes restricting either session to a specific purpose. He favors handling appropriations on an annual basis, adding: "This is really what the people were voting for."

There have been many complaints from state administrators that the present practice of appropriating for two-year periods makes forecasting of financial needs difficult. They point out that budget requests first are submitted they are for a two-year period that ends nearly three years in the future.

The 1967 legislature, for example, appropriated for the two-year period ending June 30, 1969. The original budget request that formed the basis for those appropriations, however, were submitted in August, 1966.

Evans says, too, he sees no reason why the annual budgeting should not begin with the 1969 legislature. State fiscal authorities have the best pressure to enact laws in the closing days. Problems not fully resolved could be delayed until the next regular session, which would begin nine to 10 months hence.

'Whistler' May Remain In School

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Joe Engressia, the blind student who whistled his way through long distance telephone circuits to place free calls around the nation, will be allowed to remain in school, it was announced Wednesday.

Although the telephone company did not want to prosecute, the 19-year-old Engressia was temporarily suspended from the University of South Florida.

Engressia, blind since birth, appealed, citing his "between an 'A' and 'B' average." He was allowed back but placed on probation until the end of the quarter in March. Also, he was ordered to pay $25 to "a worthy cause."

Engressia said he made that much on calls by whistling to dial the numbers wanted.

To make the calls, Engressia whistled the area codes and the numbers — all at 2,600 cycles in perfect pitch.

Speeding Car Tests Escape Under Water

DEWITT, Mich. (AP) — A car teetered at the edge of a 100-foot ramp, then sped toward the thin ice of Lake Geneva with two men apparently trapped inside.

It was just a demonstration of what to do in case you're trapped in a speeding car headed for water, sponsored by Michigan state police.

The rules are:

- Don't panic. Keep your doors closed. Your car will float at least four minutes.
- Wait until the car is settled, then roll down a window and crawl out, which is what Sgt. Larry Miller did.
- If the car noses down, smash the back window and climb out onto the trunk, which is what Sgt. William Carter did.

Miller and Carter were pulled to strong ice by four safety experts, who spread-angled themselves across the surface in a human chain.

'SANTA'S BELLES' they call these lovelies, as Sandy Gutierrez, 21, on left, and Virginia Lee Runnion, 25, part of a team of Santa's Belles, go to work in Los Angeles. They seek to get the attention of passers-by to contribute to the Volunteers of America Christmas fund. After 84 years of relying on male Santas for the street-corner collecting, the organization has decided to try out the comely young ladies wearing red minidresses and leotards. (AP wirephoto)

Viet Cong 'Minister' To Head Envoys

PARIS (AP) — The Viet Cong's National Liberation Front announced Wednesday a member of its elite ruling group, Foreign Minister Tran Bui Kiem, would be chief delegate at the Paris peace talks.

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh has acted as head of the front's delegation in Paris up to now. But a communique broadcast by Radio Hanoi named her as one of Kiem's two deputies when the expanded peace talks open.

Whether this was a step to upgrade the front's delegation or simply a belated announcement was not known. If the former, it might be an attempt to match South Vietnam's selection of Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky as overseer of its delegation.

A veteran of revolution at 44, Kiem is chairman of the front's commission for foreign relations. As such, he would become foreign minister if the Viet Cong seized power in South Vietnam.

More important, he is a member of the Board of Chairmen of the Front's Central Committee. This board is the inner ruling group of the Central Committee.

As far as is known, Kiem is not yet in Paris. One of his stature within the Viet Cong would be unlikely to arrive without a big fanfare from the front.

Mrs. Binh was named in the communique as a deputy to Kiem along with Tran Hong Nam. Nam and Mrs. Binh are members of the front's Central Committee.

Victim Of Theft Seeks Decoys Via 'Classified'

ST. HELENS, Ore. (AP) — This classified ad appeared in Thursday's edition of the weekly St. Helens Sentinel-Mist-Chronicle.

"To the person or persons who stole my duck and goose decoys last weekend: They were yours to use any time you asked. You thought it took courage to steal them. If you would like to know what real courage is, bring them back. Be assured you will be the first person I will loan them to."

The ad was signed by Bill Nelson of Deer Island.

Three New Directors Elected By Minidoka Water Districts

RUPERT—Minidoka and A and B Irrigation District voters Tuesday selected three new directors by landslide majorities, according to unofficial results released by both district offices.

Two of the winners belonged to a group which called itself "Concerned Minidoka Water Users Committee."

In Minidoka district 4 LaVern Montgomery received 906 votes, compared to incumbent Neil Miller's 240 and Johnny McGill's 133. Tad Aho, in district 5 received 1,040 votes to incumbent Clyde Greenwell's 236. Although activity in the A and B district elections was more restrained, Clark Higley defeated incumbent Russell Mohlman by a vote of 199 to 90, for the district 1 director position. Unopposed incumbent Dale Cahill in district 3 received 158 votes.

Receiving write-in votes were Bob Scott, John Rogers, Paul Crane and Leonard Cramer.

The "Concerned Minidoka Water Users Committee" last week "laid out" its platform, objecting to "autocratic" administration in the present MID operation and also cited a proposed increase in water costs as reasons for their campaign for the two new directors. Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Aho.

Both men are natives to the area. Mr. Montgomery owns and operates a 170-acre farm southeast of Rupert and also has a BLM permit for 325 head of feeder cattle. Mr. Aho farms in Heppner.

The new director for the A and B district, Mr. Higley, farms northeast of Rupert, where he draw a homestead in 1958. The votes will be canvassed Monday in each district by the Board of Directors.

Union Aide Hits 'Work' Statutes

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—The executive secretary of the Pocatello Central Labor Union says a contention that a majority of Idahoans favor a right-to-work law "is an insult to the intelligence of the people of Idaho."

The comment by Robert Lonaghan was in reaction to statements made by Trevelyan White, head of Idaho Citizens For Right-to-Work.

White had said two-thirds of the persons contacted in a statewide poll by his group favored a right-to-work law.

Lonaghan said Wednesday "the cold, hard economic facts are that the income in states with right-to-work laws is declining in relation to the national average, without exception."

Elderly Idahoan Dies In Smashup Near Caldwell

CALDWELL, Idaho (AP)—Francis M. Gusman, 88, of rural Caldwell was killed and two teenage girls were seriously injured in a two-vehicle collision west of Caldwell Wednesday.

Authorities said S. Reno-Villines, 14, was in critical condition in a Caldwell hospital and Melodie Hopkins, 15, was listed in fair condition. Both girls are from rural Caldwell.

Dep. Sheriff Frank Hooper said a vehicle driven by Miss Hopkins was enshrouded on Idaho 19 and a vehicle driven by Gusman was northbound on a county road when they collided at an intersection four miles west of Caldwell.

Miss America '68 Plans Marriage

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Debra Barnes, whose year-long reign as Miss America ended in September, has announced she will be married Jan. 25 in her home town of Moran, Kan.

Miss Barnes and Mitchell Miles of Pittsburg, Kan., announced their engagement at the Miss America pageant in September. Miss Barnes disclosed the time and place in an interview at Topeka with radio station WREN.

Idaho's First NFO Marketing Headquarters Opens In Paul

PAUL — A marketing office for the National Farmers Organization's Southeastern Idaho Zone has opened for business in Paul. It will serve all area NFO members.

The office, located in the Gamble building in Paul, is the first zone office to be established in Idaho and will be followed by the opening of at least three more soon, according to Barney House, NFO area field staff representative.

Mr. House said that one of the zone offices will be selected as the state headquarters and will join with the 36 current area marketing offices in the country. The office in Paul was established for the convenience of members of southeastern Idaho to help move farm produce through NFO marketing arrangements.

When asked whether or not the office would eliminate holding actions by the group, Mr. House said that the farmers never wanted the holding action but will continue to use it when necessary. For example, he said, there is a current holding action on B-grade potatoes, and, he continued, "I believe this is why the market is so good right now."

Mr. House said although the new office is mostly staffed by volunteers, he anticipates the office will remain open all year long. The office is opened from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. week-days. Ernest Stitt has been hired full-time. Others there most of the time will be George Brandon, the NFO district chairman; John Hansen, a member of the grain board, and Joe Taylor, also a representative in the grain department.

Mr. House noted that although the office transactions are strictly for NFO members, new members are always welcome. Those interested should contact the Paul office and a membership agreement will be explained.

Road Turned Over To State Jurisdiction

MURTAUGH — The Murtaugh Highway District will relinquish jurisdiction of a stretch of six miles of road on the west edge of Murtaugh to the state after the road is rebuilt, a new bridge and approaches built over a canal.

Known as the Murtaugh loop, the road goes past the school and LDS church, runs along the river, then connects with Highway 20 at the Bickett overpass. Blaine Seaslor, Shoshone, district highway engineer, said the state crews will do the specified work and after this is finished, the section will be officially turned over to the state. An automatic flashing signal will be installed at the railroad crossing.

S. L. Pickett, Murtaugh Highway district chairman, presided at the meeting attended by about 60 persons.

Persons attending a public meeting sponsored by the local highway district Monday night voted to relinquish the six miles of road on the west edge of Murtaugh to the state after the road is rebuilt, a new bridge and approaches built over a canal.

Joseph Fuld

HAILEY — Joseph W. Fuld, 80, one of the oldest residents of Hailey, died Wednesday afternoon at the IOOF Home in Caldwell, where he had been for the past several months.

He was born Aug. 27, 1878, at Ploverville, Idaho, and came to Hailey with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Fuld, when he was 3 years old. He had resided here since.

On Aug. 30, 1905, he married Lulu - Fuld at Hailey. They celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary in 1968. She died in September, 1955.

WASHINGTON (AP) — More Americans held jobs last month than in any November in history and the unemployment rate dropped to a 15-year low, the Labor Department reported Wednesday.

Total employment rose some 250,000 to 78.6 million and the jobless rate slipped from 3.4 to 3.3 per cent of the nation's civilian labor force, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

With figures for most of the year, Harold Goldstein, assistant commissioner of the bureau, reported steady gains in employment and a substantial reduction in unemployment for 1968.

"Thus far in 1968, employment has grown more rapidly than the civilian labor force," he said.

The labor force rose some 300,000 to 79.1 million in November.

Unemployment averaged 3.0 per cent the first 11 months of this year compared with 3.8 per cent in the comparable period of 1967, Goldstein added.

There was improvement in employment over the 11 months for all groups except teenagers, whose consistently high rate of the past few years was 12.2 per cent last month.

The November jobless rate for men was 2 per cent, lowest since the Labor Department began keeping the figures in 1948, and the 3.4 per cent rate for women was lowest in 14 years.

The unemployment rate for nonwhite workers, mostly Negroes, remained more than double the rate for whites—6.5 compared with 3.0 per cent—but represented considerable improvement so far this year.

For the first 11 months of 1968, the monthly rate has averaged 6.8 per cent, the lowest for any comparable period since the Korean War, the Bureau said.

Business Mirror

By JOHN CUNIFF

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Cris a college dean with no previous experience in banking find success and happiness in the intricate world of high finance at the age of 57.

Perhaps he can if he is competitive by nature, feels he can take on the double task of learning and performing at the same time, and is ready to admit the task will kill him or stimulate him.

That, at least, is a partial portrait of a man who is doing it. Ernest Arbuckle, former dean of the Stanford Graduate School of Business and now chairman of Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco-based but worldwide in influence.

Swapping jobs is nothing new to the former dean, who shifts companies to every 10 years or so.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q—I have a $2,750 paid-up insurance policy—cash value $3,000. I've been advised to cash this, start a savings account paying 5% and use this interest for the premium on a new life policy of $5,000. I'm 56 years old. Would it be better to buy stocks with 5% dividend and the possibility of increasing my principal? N. A.

A—Although you mention no dependents, I assume a family protection explains your desire to buy another life policy, provided you can get $5,000 of coverage for $250 annually and are able to pass the required physical examination. Better check with your doctor before you give up your old policy.

Your plan has its points, including a net gain to your estate of some $3,000. Bank interest, of course, varies with business conditions and is not guaranteed to remain at 5%.

Generally, though, high dividend yields and fast growth are incompatible so I cannot recommend you to think your capital gains may be large ones.

When that is achieved you should be willing to start off again.

Yankee President Won't Seek Commissioner Job; Sees Need Of Strong Man

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Burke, president of the New York Yankees, said Wednesday he was flattered to be called the leading candidate for baseball commissioner but ducked questions as to whether he would take the job if it is offered to him. "No, I am not seeking the job," he said at a news conference.

"Would you accept the job if offered?" he was asked. "That is an abstract question," he said. "I don't know what the job is. When we meet Dec. 20 in Chicago I hope, we will put together more definitely just what the job is to be and what the mandate. By a mandate, I mean that all the owners must agree to the commissioner to do, I am not in favor of exchanging a body for a body."

Burke said he favored a baseball man for the job and considered accepting a baseball man's offer. "I hope it doesn't give the strongest possible mandate to the new commissioner. The two leagues may be diminished in autonomy. Each club may have to give up a certain amount of its autonomy. I think there is need for a man of eyes, an attorney, Judge Landis (Kansas Mountain Landis, his first commissioner) but not an arbitrator who waits for cases to come to him. He must be a visionary, thinking not just of tomorrow but of next year."

Sports FROM ALL ANGLES

The College of Southern Idaho Golden Eagles are starting to sell now and are building toward the point of being a solid regular season team in the Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference.

But Coach Eddie Sutton isn't banking on a strongly about the conference title, although it would be nice.

What he wants is a peaking in the tournament season. The season and conference are a nothing since CSI is in a different junior college district for playoff consideration.

Still the improvement of the Eagles has been more than noticeable as the habits of high school picked up by the individuals are blended or sublimated to the needs of the team.

The team didn't look very good in the two scrimmages with Boise State, due in part to the fact Boise State isn't a bad club and has juniors in experience and the rougher edges were still there.

One of the impressions of those scrimmages was the Eagles couldn't play with lanky Nate Stephens and couldn't win without him. This is hardly a surprise since very few boys ever have the opportunity to play with a headliner.

It was obvious with Nate, as it is with most first-year collegians, that he was used to having the ball most of the time.

When the Eagles left on their first trip, we believed a 2-2 split would be good in fact a 3-0 would have been splendid. They came home 3-1.

In their first two home games the Eagles looked considerably improved and against Treasure Valley Monday night they stood up well under pressure. And it was they are starting to look like an Eddie Sutton team.

There is still a way to go before this team will be capable of the total court mastery Magic Valley fans are used to seeing. But it is worthy of note that while Treasure Valley stumped the Eagles with some fine outside shooting to make what appeared to be a breather tough, CSI bled its time and took the good shot, rebounded harder and won.

A complete three weeks ago it would have been the opposite. CSI has some boys used to a fast game and, under similar TVCC pressure then, would have reacted with a wilder offense.

As Coach Sutton says, the team still has to make a lot of progress. Given another couple of months like the past three weeks, even he should be able to find some satisfaction somewhere.

Latest news for University of Texas at El Paso has ex-CSI great Ples Vann leading the team in rebounding. Held goal down from throw accuracy and fourth in scoring with a 10-point average. That's not bad for a 6-3½ "midget" playing center in a major college schedule.

CSI hopes to begin construction on its gymnasium next month and hopes to have it ready for the 1969-70 season. Such progress brings the question of how far can football be behind? No one is committing as yet.

Top Offensive Teams To Meet

NEW YORK (AP) — The two most potent offenses in the American Football League will be matched when Oakland tangles with San Diego Sunday.

The Chargers boast the league's best attack with an average of 413.8 yards per game—including an average of 252.2 through the air—while San Diego has a 379.4 yards per game average.

New York remains the defensive leader with a 248.2 average.

Holy Cross Grid Mentor Resigns

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Tom Boisture, head football coach at Holy Cross the last two years, has resigned, school officials said Wednesday.

Boisture, who succeeded Mel Malsucco in 1967, had an 8-11-1 combined record. The Crusaders had a disappointing 3-6-1 record this season after breaking even in 10 games last year.

Virginia Nips Duke To End 10-Year Spell

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Virginia's Cavaliers defeated Duke in basketball for the first time in 10 years Wednesday night, rallying for an 81-76 verdict over the fifth-ranked Blue Devils in an Atlantic Coast Conference game.

The Cavaliers built up an 11-point lead, 44-3, but fell behind 35-31 late in the first half before John Gidding led a rally that produced a 41-41 tie at intermission.

Field goals by Mike Wilkes and Kevin Kent Virginia ahead early in the second half and the Cavaliers never trailed, leading by as much as 12 points at 70-58 before Duke closed to within four at 72-68 with four minutes left. The Blue Devils never got any closer.

Elias Fired As Academy Grid Coach

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Bill Elias, the head football coach, was fired Wednesday by the U.S. Naval Academy.

Capt. J. O. Coppedge, Academy athletic director, told Elias conference that the Naval Academy Athletic Association had decided not to renew Elias' contract "in an effort to improve Navy's football record."

Navy ended the 1968 season with a 21-14 loss to Army and a 2-8 record, its worst in 20 years. Coppedge said there had been no discussion concerning Elias' successor and that the Academy would welcome all applicants.

The 45-year-old Elias, a former quarterback at the University of Maryland, took over the Navy helm in 1965.

He guided the Midshipmen to a 4-2 record that year, but Navy dropped to 4-6 in 1966.

The only winning season Navy had under the former University of Virginia and George Washington coach was last year when the midlives were 3-4-1, including a 19-14 upset of Army.

Meredith Is Back Atop NFL Passing

NEW YORK (AP) — Dallas' Don Meredith has regained the passing lead from Earl Morrall of Baltimore in the National Football League, according to statistics released Wednesday.

Meredith, who slipped to second a week ago, took over the top spot with 170 of 330 completions for 2,494 yards, 21 touchdowns and an average of 8.31 yards per pass.

Morrall has connected on 177 of 303 tries for 2,812 yards, 25 touchdowns and an average of 9.28 yards.

Meanwhile, Cleveland's bruising rushing leader, Leroy Kelly, maintained his big rushing lead and increased his scoring lead.

Kelly has picked up 1,172 yards in 238 attempts for a 4.9 average. He has scored 114 points.

Benvenuti Is Ready For Don Fullmer

SANTA VICTORIA, D.F. (AP) — "Nino Benvenuti and Wednesday he was ready to fight 20 rounds if necessary to beat down Don Fullmer in a defense of his world middleweight boxing crown Saturday night at San Remo. It won't be necessary because it is a 15-round match," he concluded "my preparation and I am in the best of shape," said Benvenuti. "I am ready for the fight, which is certainly important—but which I am sure to win."

Cincy Rookie First To Gain 1,000 Yards

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Robinson's 33 rushing yards against New York last Sunday in the Cincinnati rookie in the American Football League's 1,000-yard club—an exclusive circle never before attained by a true first-year AFL pro.

The Bengal back carried 26 times against the rugged Jets in a 27-17 victory over the rookie season with a total of 1,023 ground yards. Cookie Gilchrist rushed for 1,000 yards in 1962, his first year with Buffalo, but he had played several previous seasons in the Canadian League.

Beattie Feathers of the 1934 Chicago Bears broke into the National Football League with 1,004 rushing yards, averaging better than 10 yards per carry.

Abner Haynes, who gained 875 yards for the Dallas Texans in 1960, was the only other rookie to lead the AFL in his rookie year. Jim Nance of Boston, who set the league record of 1,458 in 1966, picked up 321 in his first season.

Robinson, Gilchrist, Haynes and Nance are among nine members of the AFL's 1,000-yard club. Houston's Hoyte Granger, San Diego's Paul Lowe, Oakland's Clem Daniels, and Houston's Mike Garrett and Houston's Charlie Tolar are the others.

Herbert Dixon of Oakland, who has one regular season game remaining, trails Robinson in the ground-gaining derby with 849 yards. Rookie Robert Holmes of Kansas City is third with 633.

Kansas City's Len Dawson maintained his passing lead, based on completion and interception percentages, touchdowns and average gain per attempt. Dawson has hit on 122 of 200 passes for 1,020 yards and 16 touchdowns.

New York's George Sauer leads San Diego's Lance Alworth, 64-63, in the pass-catching race going into the final weekend of the season. The Jets' Jim Turner continues to lead the scoring parade with 138 points on 39 extra point kicks and an all-time pro record of 37 field goals.

Oakland's Dave Grayson is the top interceptor with nine pass thefts while Kansas City's Roland Smith and Oakland's George Atkinson are the leaders in punt returns and kickoff punts, respectively.

Jerald Wilson of Kansas City still leads the punters with a 45.1-yard average.

Colts Nearing Records For NFL Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — "When Coach Don Shula of the Baltimore Colts, 'the defensive unit got together and made a pact among themselves to put forth an extra effort.'"

That something extra has carried the Colts within reach of the best defensive record in the National Football League since the advent of 14-game schedules seven years ago.

The Colts have not lost four games and have yielded 120 points in all while compiling a 12-1 record to nudge the Coastal Division title.

The fewest points allowed since 1961 is 144, by the 1963 Chicago Bears. The 1946 Pittsburgh Steelers yielded 117 in 11 games for the past World War II low.

Baltimore's defense, supposedly crippled by the loss of Unitas early in the season, has been surprisingly effective under the leadership of back-up quarterback Earl Morrall. The Colts rank third, behind Dallas and Cleveland, in yards gained per game and are second to the Cowboys in passing yardage.

Dallas is averaging 360 offensive yards per start, including 218.1 through the air. The Browns have gained 351.6 yards per game, the Colts 344.1.

Utags Rally To Nip Denver 81-79

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Sophomores Marv Roberts and Hurdley Graham sparked a second-half point explosion and led Utah State to an 81-79 basketball win over Denver University here Wednesday night.

Roberts, a 6-8 center, and Graham took over as the Aggies were down by 12 points early in the second half. At age point, USU reeled off 13 straight points in a four-minute span.

Roberts and Graham combined for 29 points in the second half. Denver, taking advantage of 15 turnovers by the Aggies, held the lead throughout the first half. The Aggies began penetrating the Pioneers' zone defense in the second half and gradually took over.

The game was played here to dedicate the new Mesa Junior College gym.

ABA May Pool Money To Land Alcindor

OAKLAND (AP) — The American Basketball Association may pool its resources to offer Lew Alcindor a $1-million professional contract, Oakland Oaks Coach Alex Hannum said Wednesday.

"There is an excellent chance the league will get together to share the cost," Hannum said. "I think he'll sign a contract in excess of $1 million."

Alcindor, UCLA's towering senior center, is expected to be the subject of a bidding war between the National Basketball Association and the ABA.

Hannum, who was coach of several NBA teams before coming to the Oaks this year, said, "We would ask his financial advisers what his choices are."

Hannum said a meeting of the ABA trustees will be held next Monday in Miami, Fla. and that the question of bidding for Alcindor is sure to be discussed.

"We know the urgency of getting headstart in talking to Alcindor and others," Hannum said. "We have to stick together more than the NBA does."

Hannum said he thought Alcindor would carefully consider any ABA offer because, "I think he would like to do something for the sport, particularly for his black brothers, by increasing the amount of teams there are to play for. I know Lew has strong feelings along these lines."

Association and the newer ABA once the current college season is over.

"If Lew could convince me he wanted to play in New York, say, and Houston had the rights to him, I would try to get all the pieces together and work out some kind of a solution."

Normally a player would have to sign with the team that drafted him.

Valley Holiday Tourney, Hagerman-Dietrich Match Spice Weekend Schedule

A four-team holiday tournament at Valley and a collision between two of the top scoring teams in the district highlighted the weekend basketball action in Magic Valley. A total of 25 games will be played in the two nights, but eight of them will take place outside the fourth district.

Bruins Will Begin Conference Action

The Twin Falls Bruins enter the Southern Idaho Conference season with a record of 1-1. Coach Charles Farmer and his crew will be definite underdogs.

Minico-Rolls To 82-45 Win Over Buhl

RUPERT—Taking full advantage of their height, the Minico Spartans rolled over the Buhl Indians 82-45 Wednesday night in the only Magic Valley game of the evening.

After a good first quarter, which saw the Indians stay with in four points, Minico exploded for 28 second period points to shove the game out of reach.

John Lukens' outside shooting and the inside wheeling and scoring of G. B. Jim Boatwright sparked the explosion that carried Minico to a 46-28 intermission lead.

Ashe Looks Sharp In Tourney Win

BRISBANE, Australia (AP)—Dropping up for the Davis Cup challenge round at Adelaide Dec. 28-29, Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., won impressively over Terry Addison of Australia, 6-3, 6-3, in the third round Wednesday of the Queensland Grass Court men's tennis singles.

Patriot Boss Denies Team Has Been Sold

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—William H. Sullivan Jr., president of the Boston Patriots, said Wednesday a report that the American Football League club would be sold and Mike Holovak released as coach and general manager, were untrue and "ridiculous."

Late Free Throw Lets Notre Dame Edge Wisconsin

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Tom Slinnott's free throw with 10 seconds remaining gave seventh-ranked Notre Dame a 57-56 college basketball victory over Wisconsin Wednesday night.

Sullivan, vacationing in Miami, said the report "was very embarrassing to the two men mentioned."

Murrough will meet Valley and Hagerman takes on Kimberly at 7 p.m. It will be losers vs. losers and winners against winners Saturday night.

The point night could erupt at 7 p.m. in the Hagerman-Dietrich match, also at Valley Friday night. Rickfield, a Bruneau, for the state of its conference state, and Carey, which will be at Leadoer.

Coach Farmer reports "I don't think we spent more than an hour and one-half or two hours on offense up to Monday. We've been trying to get our defense whipped into shape."

Against Borah the Bruins will be meeting a team that is not as tall as most in the league but among the quickest. Coach Farmer said.

The quickness, particularly if Borah goes with a press, will hurt Twin Falls which is slow and complicated things—at least in its first two games—with a lot of turnovers.

Frazier Eyes Showdown With Ellis

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joe Frazier's next fight may be a showdown battle with Jimmy Ellis for the world heavyweight title. But win or lose, it can't be any tougher or rougher than his brutal foul-marred 15-rounder with Oscar Bonavena.

First Frazier, the all-conquering world heavyweight champion of five states, is going to take a few rest. He wants to recuperate from his decisive victory over South American champion in the battle of the bulls at the Spectrum Tuesday night.

Bonavena looked like he had been put through a meat-grinder. But he was tougher at the finish than he was at the start. He never came close to dropping him.

Ellis, the World Boxing Association champion from Louisville, floored the tank-like Argentine twice in winning a unanimous decision in 12 rounds a year ago.

The New York or Miami could be the site of the fight-off. They are to take some good money to get them together. A $250,000 guarantee to each could turn the trick.

In scoring his 22nd victory (22-0, 19 knockouts), Frazier went 15 rounds for the first time and took more punishment than ever before. Although a big winner on the scorecard, the 24-year-old puncher had a swollen jaw, a cut inside his lower lip and two very tired arms.

Frazier must have hit the ju-jawed, square-jawed Argentine close to 1,000 punches to body and head, earning the unanimous decision by scores of 74-64, 73-64 and 70-67.

Wisconsin, in front 29-27 at the half, turned to a possession and the time the first minutes. The Badgers never got off a shot in the seconds remaining after Slinnott's free throw.

block with a man game while Hagerman, however, a height advantage for this one, and most of them will go with its zone. Leaving the district will be Twin Falls, going to Borah and Caldwell. Eller, which plays twice at Valley Friday night; Rickfield, a Bruneau, for the state of its conference state, and Carey, which will be at Leadoer.

Wood River stays home Friday to entertain the Minico Juniors, the host Wolverines having a 2-0 record.

American Falls comes into the area to play at Buhl (1-1) and stays over to test the Tigers at Jerome Saturday night.

Declo will return a date at Shoshone, having won the first meeting and Wednesday will be remembering a three-point loss of last week when the Trojans entertain the unbeaten Castelford Wolves.

Hagerman is home Friday to the Camas County Mustangs. Decision will be at Valley Friday night, which just could be the worst any Musher club has had on its home floor.

Raft River, which lost a pair in the east last weekend and now is 0-3, comes to Dietrich Friday for a rematch. Dietrich took the first one 80-38. Bliss also returns a non-conference test, coming to Filer to test the Wildcat Juniors.

On Saturday night the Minico Spartans will go back into the third district to test the strong Knights of Bishop Kelly at Boise. Buhl, which broke a losing streak at Glenns Ferry's expense last week, will be at Pilot Gymnasium.

Valley Takes Team Title In Mat Meet

KIMBERLY—The Valley Vikings crowned six individual champions and walked off with the team title in the Kimberly invitational wrestling tournament.

Meanwhile, the battle developed for second place, where after considerable reworking Wednesday, the final count showed 20 in the second place, 80 points one ahead of host Kimberly. Raft River was fourth with 62, followed by Oakley at 40, Shoshone 38, Wendell 34 and Castelford 29.

Declo seconded Valley in individual champions with four while Kimberly and Castelford had one each.

Champions and runners-up include: 98 pounds—Darrington, Declo, over Smith, Raft River; 100 pounds—McClain, Valley, over Smith, Raft River; 115 pounds—Slingo, Declo, and Kossman, Raft River; 123 pounds—Kroll, Valley, over Murphy, Kimberly; 130 pounds—Melis, Valley, over Jenks, Oakley; 136 pounds—Ledbetter, Kimberly, over Kelsey, Declo; 141 pounds—Taylor, Valley, over Kinsey, Kimberly; 148 pounds—Reinhold, Castelford, over Boyd, Valley; 157 pounds—McNurlin, Valley, over Shewmaker, Kimberly; 168 pounds—Gee, Valley, over Taylor, Raft River; 178 pounds—Osterhout, Declo, over Sligar, Valley; Heavyweight—Osterhout, Declo, over Steele, Kimberly.

Butkus Cited For Play Against Rams

NEW YORK (AP)—When the Chicago Bears knocked the Los Angeles Rams out of the race Sunday, a wild man named Dick Butkus was picking off passes, catching kickoffs, forcing fumbles and putting the heat on the Californians.

For his performance, The Associated Press has named Butkus the Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Butkus, the Bears' middle linebacker, took a kickoff in the second quarter and landed on the Charles Hicks, who ran 88 yards to the Rams' 2. Brian Piccolo went in for the touchdown. Butkus set up the winning score a few plays later when he intercepted a Milt Plum pass on the Rams' 32. The Bears led 14-0 at the time when Jack Concannon swept right end for four yards.

Vandals Still Must Improve, Coach Says

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow — "Although I am pleased with our two wins over the past weekend, I feel that the Vandals still have a long way to go in producing the type of basketball that they are capable of playing," Coach Wayne Anderson said after the Vandals' 25-4 record of last season and will feature Paul Trewick, a sharp-shooting guard as their chief weapon.

Joe Shaves Mustache For $10,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Economies overcame esthetics, and Joe Namath shaved his celebrated Fu Manchu mustache Wednesday.

The economics of the thing was simple—Joe is a lot wealthier without the mustache that he was with it.

"I didn't wanna shave it off—I liked it," the New York Jet quarterback said. "But I went ahead and did a commercial this morning."

Namath declined to say how much the shave for television was worth, but The Associated Press learned the fee was in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Joe took it off, all off, not in his bathroom in front of a mirror, but in a studio on East 74th Street in front of three cameras. And when he did it, he was dressed not like the typical male when he shaves in the morning, say in a T-shirt or pajamas. Instead, Joe wore a dark blue turtleneck sweater, a darker blue sport jacket and bright blue slacks with a slight bell-bottom flair.

Once back at Shea Stadium for a workout, Namath made it clear he didn't shave because anyone said he should.

Milt Woodard, president of the American Football League, had written to Joe last week, suggesting the mustaches and beards that Namath and several other Jets had grown didn't do anything for pro football's image.

What it took Namath two months to grow came off in about three minutes. Taping of the entire one-minute commercial however, lasted for about three hours when he finished, two pretty brunettes and a vivacious blonde ran up to Joe and deluged him with affection, television style.

Horejs Named President Of Gun Club

Larry Horejs was named president of the Twin Falls Gun Club at the group's annual reorganization meeting Monday night.

Lynn Messman was elected vice president and Paul Beck is the new secretary-treasurer. Elected to the board of directors were Ed Lancaster and Dr. Jack Ballard, replacing Ray Reichert and Gene Shaft. Shaft also is outgoing president.

The group voted to have the club facilities open at 1 p.m. each Sunday beginning Jan. 5. Non-members will be invited to use the range. It is located on Washington Street North at the canyon.

The group set up a series of registered trapshoots next spring and discussed improvement of the shooting grounds. Jerry Eisenhauer volunteered to paint a sign on the east end of the clubhouse to help people find the range. This was decided after the group discussed the possibility of placing directional signs along access roads.

The new automatic skeet machines should be operating by the middle of January, it was reported.

Houston Was Top Offensive Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Final statistics left no doubt Wednesday that Houston had the most explosive offense in college football in 1968.

The Cougars won team titles in scoring—42.5 points a game—and total offense—a game average of 562 yards.

ARRANGING STOCK at the new Breez-Way Market, 1708 Kimberly Road, is Jay Davis, store manager. The store features self-service with discount prices, either by the case or by the can. They will carry a complete line of grocery goods.

New Self-Service Grocery Store To Open On Monday

Breez-Way Market, a new type of store for this area, will open Monday at 1708 Kimberly Road.

Jay Davis, manager of the store, said Breez-Way is an Idaho grocery store corporation and the Twin Falls outlet is the first in the state. He said, however, two more stores will open soon.

The store will offer a self-service type of shopping to the customer. The goods are placed in cases throughout the building. The cases are marked for ease of price and for the individual can or box. The customer keeps track of his own groceries by marking the cans with a grease pencil which he receives at the door.

Mr. Davis said in order to shop in the store, the customer must buy a $2 membership card each month. During the month he will be able to receive certain pre-selected goods amounting to $1 which will take off the cost of the membership fee. Senior citizens (over 65 years of age) do not have to purchase a card.

The store will buy in large quantities (by rail cars) and a spur track is being built from the railroad line to the back of the store. This will cut the cost, since no hauling will be necessary. The goods will be unloaded directly off the railroad car into the store.

Mr. Davis said the store also will carry canned goods in large quantities for institutional purposes... to serve restaurants, schools etc. There will also be "specials."

A complete line of regular grocery store goods will be carried, including dairy products and meat. All the products will be nationally-known brands and names.

Mr. Davis is the former manager of Jay's Save-On Grocery and Drug Store and Jay's Thrifty Market in South Park.

He said he will employ about 10 Twin Falls people to work in the store. Mr. Davis says the store will feature an old-fashioned friendly atmosphere and there will be free coffee and cookies all the time.

Prison Renovates Facilities After Nine Men Escape

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP) — Renovations at Utah State Prison should be completed Friday, Warden John Turner said Wednesday, recalling the repairs and improvements were necessary in the maximum security unit following the Nov. 15 escape of nine inmates.

The State Building Board is expected to recommend further changes within the next few days following a thorough inspection of the facility.

The nine escapees, including four convicted murderers—two sentenced to death—fled through ventilators into air ducts and utility tunnels and out through a boiler room.

Turner said ventilator covers had been welded on. They previously were bolted with a spot welding on each bolt.

Doors, air ducts, utility tunnels, ventilators and several gratings have been repaired, strengthened or changed, he said, adding they would be checked periodically in the future.

The nine men who escaped are being housed in the facility's segregation unit.

Hearing Set On Application To Start Phone Service For Three Creek Area

Application has been made by William N. Lott of Lott Electric in Burley, to the Idaho Public Utilities Commission to establish telephone service in and around Three Creek and Murphy-Hot Springs area.

A hearing on the application is scheduled for Jan. 9, 1969, at 9:30 a.m., at the Holiday Inn.

The area involved is bordered on one side by the Filer Mutual Telephone Co., of Filer, and on the other by Gem State Utilities Corp., with main office in Grand View.

Mr. Cunningham of Filer Mutual said that, until now, Murphy Hot Springs had been considered "a no man's land." He also stated that Filer Mutual would be glad to service the area if it could receive some aid in the construction costs.

Through research, he added, it has been estimated the costs of construction would be $50,000. But, so far, the residents of this area are not willing to help finance the project, Mr. Cunningham said.

Mountain States Telephone Co. public relations spokesman John Kirk, Boise, said it had been assumed that when service was extended to this area it would be done by either Filer Mutual or Gem State Utilities Corp. He also said that Mountain States Telephone Co. had never made plans to service that area.

Dan Dahl, manager of the Gem State Utilities Corp., in Grand View, said the construction costs would be so far out of line the company couldn't consider going into the area. He said his firm would remain neutral.

"All we are interested in is for the customers to get good service," Mr. Dahl said.

Mr. Lott said he has been working on plans for the area for some time. He said if his application is approved by the I.P.U.C. construction probably would start next spring.

Young College Men Design Smashing Rooms For Girls

By VIVIAN BROWN
NEW YORK (AP)—Young men in an annual design contest open to college students did smashing rooms for young girls.

Andy Stuart Thompson of Seattle, Wash., recent graduate of Washington State University, first prize winner in the contest (sponsored by Conso) did a room in limes and yellows with orange because "citrus colors give a girlish, openness," he says.

Walls were covered in lime vinyl and four large orange letters "L-O-V-E" decorated the area between two windows that had yellow painted louvered doors to hide air conditioning.

A plywood case plus doors and fabric made a handsome wardrobe. Andy had the case made at a lumberyard, sent fabric to a door company who inserted it into door frames to fit the case. The door fabric matches the bedspread.

An orange and white cushion on a wicker stool came from a discount house. Small mirrors framed in lime, gray, orange and shocking pink livened the wall. A small yellow-painted chest was placed under two lime-green shelves; a hamper was painted lime. The floor was checker-board black and white with a lime green acrylic throw rug.

Andy's own favorite colors naturally are orange, yellow and shocking pink.

Second-prize winner Robert Green, 21, is a recent graduate of Louisiana Polytechnic Institute with a bachelor's degree in interior design.

He chose black, white and yellow for his color scheme because "it has vitality, punch and is relatively inexpensive."

"It is really a do-it-yourself room," he points out.

He bought unpainted chests with good hardware and painted them. The white on black cotton dress fabric used for a bedspread was less than $2 a yard. He used this fabric also in a door frame on a shelf arrangement to conceal a portable television.

"The teen-age girls I have known seem to change their rooms every year or so, so why not get something pretty that's inexpensive. Dress fabric is a good choice. It has girl-appeal and serves the purpose well."

A wide black felt hanging on the wall had three small circular mirrors in it. There were large floor pillows—yellow, cor-one defense against three no-trump.

Baron Wolf Lebovic of Toronto decided that he wasn't going to open a spade into North's bid suit, and put the deuce of hearts on the table.

Sammy Kehele, one of the best players in the world, was delighted with that heart lead. Most anyone would have cashed his hearts quickly but Sammy had a better idea. He won that heart lead with his queen and led his nine of spades. So it couldn't afford to flourish with the whole heart suit still wide open. He went up with the ace and started on clubs. West bid to discard on that second club but had no problem. He threw a spade and continued to throw them as the other high clubs were cashed.

The South went after the diamonds. The king held the first trick, the queen led to his ace next and the jack took the third but that was as far as South could go. West's light-spade was high and the defenders took the rest of the tricks.

If Sammy had run off his four hearts to start, South would have made his contract. West would have been forced to discard a spade on the fourth high club was cashed. West would have had to jettison a diamond to hold the king of spades and South would have made four diamond tricks, not three.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been: West: North, East, South: 1♠, 2♣, 3♠, 4♣, 4♦, 4♥, 4♠. You, South, hold: ♠AQ10854 ♥A10 ♦853 ♣854. What do you do now?
A—Yes. There is a strong temptation to get into the bidding swing and go to four spades but, don't follow it.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You pass as does West. Your partner bids four spades and East five clubs. What do you do now?

'Patient' Pipe-Smokers Deemed Law-Abiding Folk

"A PIPE SMOKER never why a plain man goes out on hangs." Have you heard that?

Am told, it is an ancient saying based on the belief that pipe smokers are too patient to do anything without considerable forethought, so never commit capital crimes. WHEN A MAN with a dark complexion falls in love with a young lady and kisses her, she is destined to receive a marriage proposal shortly thereafter from somebody else. That is what the superstitious French devoutly believe. IT WAS THE CONTENTION of old Dr. Samuel Johnson that "those who marry late are best pleased with their children and those who marry early with their partners." That notion is not without merit.

ONE WOMAN IN THREE has been in love with some man younger than herself. Two men in three have been in love with women older than themselves. That is what the survey-jackers claim. They say this obviously means a man is far more apt to fall in love with an older woman than a younger man. All right, that's fine, but our Love and War man says he already knew it.

NOT ONE CYNIC says a fisherman should enhance his national life by not coming home too soon. It's suggested he plan to get back "long after the where-in-the-world-have-you-been? singe, and right in the middle of the Oh-think-neveryou're-home stage." That's disappointing counsel. In fact, had the fisherman hadn't ennobled his character sufficiently to also above such sneaky tactics by sundown, he has wasted his day. And the cynic who recommended the aforementioned marital manipulation obviously just doesn't know

WHO WAS THE GREATEST of all screen-lovers? I'd say Clark Gable. All the women like Gable. Besides, men liked Gable. And in the long run, women like men who men like, too. Our Love and War man told me that. When Gable was about to kiss a woman on the screen, do you know what he always thought about to get that look of longing upon his face? A T-bone steak. Every time. He said so.

Accident Takes Life Of Monk, Thomas Merton

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Thomas Merton, the Trappist monk who wrote "The Seven Storey Mountain" and other best sellers, was electrocuted Tuesday when he moved an electric fan and touched a short in the cord, local Catholic sources reported.

The 53-year-old Catholic philosopher and theologian died on the same day as the world's leading Protestant theologian, 82-year-old Karl Barth.

Merton's body was found late in the afternoon on the floor of a room he was occupying during a visit to Bangkok. A doctor, who was summoned, said the monk's heart failed after the electric shock.

A priest at the Church of St. Louis said Merton was not missed when he failed to show up for lunch. But in late afternoon other monks became worried, searched for him and found the body.

Merton had come to the Far East several months ago to attend a number of religious conferences. He came to Bangkok for a meeting with the Dalai Lama, the spiritual leader of the Tibetan Buddhists who fled from his homeland when the Chinese Communists seized control there.

In 1966 he wrote "Conjectures of a Gullible Bystander" and in 1967 "Mystics and Zen Masters."

His "The Way of Zen" was written shortly after "The Seven Storey Mountain," was acclaimed as a sensitive discussion of monastery life.

Most of his works reflected the contemplative and rural life Merton led at the Gethsemani

Knowing Tots Query Rudolph's 'Booze'

NEW YORK (AP) — Santa Claus is encountering a more knowing sort of child this year, his early mail shows.

Abhey of the Cistercian Order, South of Bardonia, Ky.

The trip to Bangkok was one of the first breaks in a self-imposed isolation that Merton began two years ago. He withdrew, he told friends, to pray, meditate and study.

Merton actively opposed war which he called "an avoidable tragedy."

"What kind of booze does Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer drink?" asked a boy from Bay Shore, N. Y., who thought that might be what "causes his nose to become so red and shiny."

"Is it true you sleep all summer and spring?" one 12-year-old Santa.

But many of the letters addressed "To Santa, North Pole," and sent to New York City's main post office were more conventional:

"I have been a fairly good girl all year long, except for the don't list, which I am afraid of."

"My daddy walked away about seven weeks ago leaving us in a pretty bad fix . . ." confided one city girl.

Postmaster John R. Strachan would like to help. Santa do something for that little girl and hundreds of others like her. But he says contributions are needed because the $1,500 set aside from the postal employees' welfare fund won't go very far.

The post office already had 1,500 Santa letters and expects twice that number by Christmas.

Aides Say Nixon Turned Deaf Ear To Rocky's Hints On Cabinet Post

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had hoped for a post in Richard M. Nixon's Cabinet, but no direct job offer ever was made, informed sources reported today. Persons closely attuned to the post-election maneuverings between Rockefeller and the President-elect said the main reason Rockefeller was not taken into the Cabinet apparently was that Nixon did not want him.

At one point, during a face-to-face talk between the two erstwhile rivals for the Republican presidential nomination, Nixon made what one source described as "a passing reference" to the United Nations ambassadorship. But, the source said, this came at a point when they had agreed that Rockefeller could give the strongest support to the now GOP administration by continuing to serve as governor of New York. Therefore, Rockefeller did not regard this as a job offer.

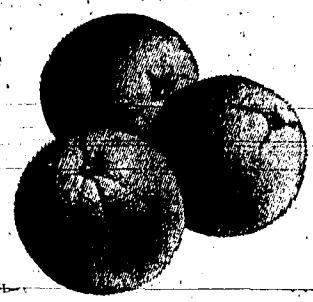

Rockefeller has said and will say that he really believes he can be of maximum public service by staying on as governor. Nixon will say that he would have been delighted to have Rockefeller's services but deferred to his wishes. Behind the facade of these comments, however, a different story unfolded in the weeks succeeding Nixon's election. Authentic sources say this is what happened: On election night, Rockefeller went to Nixon's headquarters at New York's Waldorf Astoria hotel in congratulate him on his impending victory and was told that Nixon was resting and would see no one. The governor left in a negative mood. The next morning, however, Nixon telephoned Rockefeller and thanked him warmly for his campaign support. There was no mention of a Cabinet post. During the next few days, in response to newsmen's questions, Rockefeller allowed that he would give "serious consideration" to a Cabinet offer. But he took pains to emphasize that he was not seeking a job.

In various ensuing comments, Rockefeller indicated he would be interested in serving either as secretary of defense, secretary of state or—as a distant third choice—U.N. ambassador. Rockefeller then sat back for a while to see if there was any reaction from the Nixon camp. There was none immediately. As the days stretched into weeks, Rockefeller began to get the feeling that his telephone never was going to ring. He confided to one friend, "Dick might not want a strong-minded person like me."

Spokane Poison-Control Center Offers Life-Saving Advice In Seconds

By ROBERT H. MOTTRAM SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Every 60 seconds in the United States, more than half a million times a year, a pre-school child slips the lid from a colorful container and swallows its contents. For about 400 of these youngsters, it will be their last childish experiment. They will die. Many others will escape with nothing worse than illness, thanks in large part to a nationwide concept in emergency aid — the poison control center.

These centers, scattered throughout the United States, can render immediate aid during those first panic-stricken minutes after mother discovers Johnny has swallowed the furniture polish. Here's how it works: Mother is in the living room when Johnny toddles from the kitchen with the furniture polish can in his little hand. He is smiling. The can is open. It is empty. Annoyed, mother takes the can from Johnny and goes into the kitchen to mop the spilled polish off the floor. But she can't find the spill. Perplexed, she looks around the room again. Then, four strides later, she finds Johnny lying on the floor. He's crying. Mother races to the phone, dials the information operator and asks the number of the nearest poison control center. She then dials the emergency number and pours out her story.

The nurse in charge of the center asks her the brand name of the polish, then flips through a bank of thousands of "product cards." Withdrawing the card for that brand of polish, the nurse notes the product's ingredients and their toxicity. She asks the weight of the child and the amount of polish consumed. Mother estimates the one-pint container was half full before Johnny opened it. The nurse asks Johnny's symptoms. From that point on, the case is in the hands of the poison control center staff. If the situation warrants it, they'll prescribe emergency treatment over the telephone. In any case, they'll want the child taken to a hospital emergency room or a doctor's office for observation or treatment. Calls such as these are received 24 hours a day at poison control centers in the Northwest. The Spokane center alone received 184 calls during November. Thirteen were from doctors.

The rest came from parents, babysitters and others. Other Washington centers in Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver, Aberdeen, Olympia and Pasco, go similar use. Oregon has only one poison control center—in Portland. Idaho's center is in Pocatello. Western Montanans use the Spokane center. The Spokane center is typical. Although it is not integrated with poison control facilities in other Washington cities, it is affiliated with the National Clearing House for Poison Control at Silver Springs, Md. The National Clearing House is subsidized by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Local centers are supported privately by the Spokane center, by Donconess Hospital. The National Clearing House maintains vast files on common and exotic poisonous substances. And it has medical experts available to offer help in unusual cases. In addition to being available by telephone at any time, the National Clearing House produces and distributes the cards which form the files of the local centers. The files are divided into three medications and household products. And each time the maker of a household product incorporates a different ingredient into its "new, improved product," the National Clearing House issues a new card—in the tune of about 120 per month.
