WILL THE TURKEY fit in this purse? Probably, but it would be less conspicuous in other places. If you want to cook your goose, just try lifting a turkey or shoplifting other items from local stores this Christmas season. Some shoplifters get away, certainly, but many are apprehended and most local stores are well-protected against the would-be thief.

Confessions Of A Shoplifter: It's Tough On Nerves

By RUTH MILLER
Times-News Staff Writer

With less than a week left to finish Christmas shopping, take it from me and do it the easy way — pay for your purchases.

This week, with the cooperation of the Twin Falls City Police Department and the managers of four local stores, I conducted an experimental shoplifting excursion.

The four stores, which shall remain nameless, were selected at random. I hit a grocery store, a variety store, a department store and a large drug store.

The managers of the stores and two members of the city detective division, Jim Kistler and Ron Strober, viewed my operations from various vantage points in the stores.

Equipped by percentage, I was 75 per cent successful, but that one time I got caught was the worst moment of my life.

And, I'm sure it was one of the worst moments in my aunt's life. I had been in the drug

Heart Attack Is Fatal For Albion Mayor

ALBION—Curtis G. Mahoney, 62, Albion mayor for the past 13 years, died Tuesday of a coronary while feeding cattle on his ranch southeast of town.

He was born March 6, 1906, at Albion and on July 3, 1928, married Zelma Pearl Smith at Burley. Mr. Mahoney had lived his entire life at Albion except for three years in Burley.

He was surviving his 13th year as mayor at the time of his death. Mr. Mahoney belonged to the Burley Elks Lodge, Albion Grange and the Albion Chamber of Commerce.

Survivors include his widow, Albion; two sons, Val Dell Mahoney, Albion, and Robert Mahoney, Idaho Falls; one daughter, Mrs. Don (Thelma) Lou Toupin, Orem; another daughter, Florence Mahoney; one brother, Douglas Mahoney, both Albion; one sister, Mrs. Joe Fredrickson, Blackfoot; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Albion LDS Chapel by Bishop Ernest Clark. Final rites will be held in the Albion Masonic Cemetery.

Friends may call at the McCulloch Funeral Home, Burley, Wednesday afternoon until 10 a.m. Thursday and at the Albion church Thursday one hour prior to service.

Curfew Law On Drive-Ins Is Planned

City Attorney William Langley is drawing up a new ordinance to amend the present city law regulating closing hours of Twin Falls drive-in restaurants.

At the Monday night city council meeting, Frank Barnett, chief of police, requested that the ordinance be changed, making the closing time for drive-in restaurants midnight instead of 1 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays.

Mr. Barnett said the 1967 ordinance allowed such establishments to remain open until 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday. He said, however, that only one of the drive-ins has chosen to stay open until 1 a.m. and the others close at midnight.

This causes the young people to congregate at the business and has become a major policing problem, he said.

The police chief said that prior to 1967 there was no ordinance regarding the closing hours of these restaurants.

Mr. Langley is planning to present the new ordinance at the next regular council meeting and Mayor Egmont Kroll will call for a vote on it.

TRADE PACT SIGNED

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany and Czechoslovakia signed a 1969 trade agreement worth $875 million in goods, the Communist news agency ADN reported.

Tight Credit Is Ordered To Curb Inflation Spiral

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board today ordered a new discount rate to curb inflationary trend plaguing the nation's economy.

With economic barometers reporting the economy still running too fast, the board announced Tuesday the interest rate charged by Federal Reserve district banks on loans to their member banks is going up from 5 1/2 per cent to 5 3/4 per cent.

The move is calculated to discourage the present high level of borrowing by making it more costly.

The board said it wants "to fasten financial conditions conducive to the reduction of inflationary pressures, with a view toward encouraging a more sustainable rate of economic expansion and attaining reasonable equilibrium in the country's balance of payments."

The new discount rate takes effect today in eight of the 11 Federal Reserve districts.

Since directors of the Federal Reserve banks in St. Louis, Kansas City and San Francisco didn't join their counterparts in the other districts in asking a rate increase, they will continue using the 5 1/2 per cent rate. Observers expected uniformity throughout the system in a matter of days, however.

The board's action Tuesday reverses a decision made last August when it ordered the interest discount rate lowered from 5 3/4 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent.

The board said then the reduction was needed because the 5 1/2 per cent figure was a "crisis" rate that would have had psychological effects on the economy if it stood too long.

The board's announcement didn't indicate how long the return to the 5 3/4 per cent rate might last.

Many bankers and economists praised the interest rate boost, although they said it was expected.

Dr. Saul Klman, vice president and chief economist of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks, analyzed the rate cut this way:

"If the discount rate is short-lived, and my own view is that it will be, then mortgage rates will rise temporarily, choke off further economic expansion and dampen inflationary expectations."

Some observers expressed doubts, however, about the effect of the Reserve Board's action.

"Unless this increase is an indication the Federal Reserve Board is getting tougher, this thing won't work," said Walter Klein of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts.

Other developments reported Tuesday, providing a backdrop for the Federal Reserve policy change, included:

—Another rise in the industrial production index, indicating the output of the nation's industries rose in November to 167.4 on a scale that pegs output in the 1957-59 base period at 100. The rise was the strongest in one month since May.

—Another rise in the industrial production index, indicating the output of the nation's industries rose in November to 167.4 on a scale that pegs output in the 1957-59 base period at 100. The rise in one month was the strongest since May.

Personal income still climbing, though at a slower rate than a few months ago. Wages and salaries, which account for two-thirds of personal income from all sources, were up 9 1/2 per cent in the first 11 months of the year.

—A 7 per cent spurt in housing starts in November, mainly in the South. But housing industry spokesmen fear the onset of a tight money period would cut deeply into available funds for mortgages.

—Earlier this month the government reported unemployment dropped in November to 5.3 per cent, lowest in 15 years. Many economists see rapidly rising prices as almost inescapable when unemployment reaches such low levels—a situation posing unpleasant choices for those trying to steer the economy from Washington.

Prison Escapees Hold Boise Woman Hostage In Flight

BOISE (AP)—Two armed prison escapees were captured in downtown Boise late this morning after holding a woman hostage, sheriff's officers said. Police said the hostage was not harmed.

The hostage, whose name was withheld by sheriff's officers, was taken near the town of Eagle, west of Boise. The escapees were identified as Johnny Wayne Barr, 26, and Earl Leon Wright, 23.

Acting prison warden Fred Abrams said the two trustees disappeared from the Eagle Island Prison farm early this morning.

"They apparently took the hostage in a car and drove into Boise where they were captured in front of the First National Bank after a chase through the city," an official said. Barr and Wright were armed with a shotgun and a rifle.

Barr was serving a two-year sentence for assault with a deadly weapon from Nez Perce County and Wright was serving time for forgery and issuing a phony check from Cassia County, Abrams said.

Wright was sentenced on May 10, 1965, for forgery, and later released according to authorities. He was returned to the prison on June 30, 1966, on a charge of violating parole conditions.

Light Vote Re-Elects Two College Trustees

In a light turnout that had been forecast, Jerome and Twin Falls County voters re-elected two incumbent members of the College of Southern Idaho board of trustees, Rev. John Garrabrandt and James H. Shields.

Rev. Garrabrandt, pastor of the Jerome Methodist Church, and Mr. Shields, 74, both were unopposed. Mr. Garrabrandt unofficially received 339 votes and Mr. Shields 384. There were a total of 404 ballots cast, with five persons receiving a total of 28 write-in votes. Von Nebeker received 21 votes, Rex Davis 4, and three other persons each received one.

Both trustees had earlier expressed hope that voters would turn out in force to support their re-election and both have expressed pleasure at the progress and growth the junior college has made since its establishment.

Both will serve six-year terms.

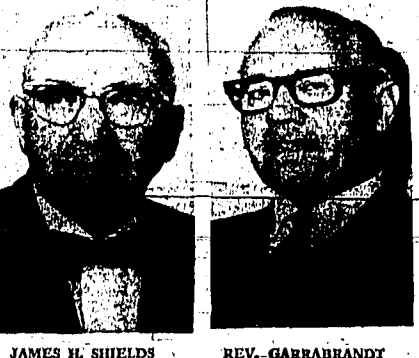

Other CSI board members are Eldon Evans, chairman; John Coleman, clerk; and Robert Blustock Jr.

Rev. Garrabrandt has been a member of the college board of trustees since being appointed in December of 1964 by Robert E. Smylie, who was governor of Idaho at that time.

Since his appointment he has served continuously as vice chairman. He has served as a member of the Bull School Board and had been a member of the original committee which established a junior college in Bull several years ago.

Both trustees were elected to a two-year term on the college board in 1966. He has taught on the junior high school level, besides having pastored several Magic Valley churches.

He has been pastor of the Jerome Church for the past four years.

County Plans Funds For Harbor House

The Twin Falls County Commission has agreed to include $13,500 in the 1969 county budget for creation of a Harbor House for juveniles.

The proposal in the county is to staff the house with adults who will supervise the juveniles. By Idaho law, juveniles, if ordered to detention, must be segregated from an adult jail population. Males also must be kept separate from females.

Harbor House is an effort to create a home atmosphere rather than a jail atmosphere, Judge Reed told the commissioners.

At the present time, commissioners are seeking public opinion on the 1969 budget. Anyone who wants to present a view to the commission is invited to do so on Mondays and Tuesdays between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The tentative budget must be completed by the middle of January, and the final budget must be passed by the middle of February.

Guardsmen Charged With Evading Draft

CHICAGO (AP)—Thirty-one men, including three employees of the Illinois National Guard, were arrested today on charges of using phony documents to win deferment in the draft.

Brig. Gen. Richard T. Dunn, head of the Illinois National Guard, said that when a man enlists in the Guard, a form is sent to his Selective Service Board indicating he is a member of the Guard. The government forms were used in this case.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, announced in Washington that eight men had been named in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Chicago Tuesday and warrants had been issued for 27 others.

The FBI made the arrests, all but one in the Chicago area.

Four other men were being sought.

The FBI called the case a scheme which resulted in individuals obtaining illegal deferment in the draft.

Agents arrested three full-time employees of the Illinois National Guard, they are Capt. Willis Everett Vivian, about 40, who works in the Washington Park Armory on Chicago's South Side; and Sgts. Willie Britton Jr., 37, and Don L. Cleveland, 31—Britton and Cleveland now work in the Chicago Avenue Armory on the near North Side. But Gen. Dunn said they and Vivian all were stationed in the Washington Park Armory prior to Feb. 1.

Conviction could result in sentences up to five years in prison or fines of $10,000 or both.

The three guardsmen and five others were charged with aiding draft evasion, causing false statements to be made to draft boards and conspiracy to violate the Selective Service Act.

Rate Boosted

NEW YORK (AP)—First National City Bank of New York, one of the nation's largest, announced today it has raised its prime rate for business loans to 6 1/2 per cent from 6 1/4 per cent, effective immediately.

The 6 1/2 per cent is the highest prime rate charged by any bank since such rates first went into effect in 1947. At that time, the prime rate was set at 1 1/2 per cent.

The prime rate is the interest banks charge their most creditworthy customers, such as large corporations. Other interest rates are based-up from the prime rate.

Gold Prices Soar To Peak For Six Months In Europe

LONDON (AP)—The price of gold shot up to a six-month peak on European bullion markets today on the basis of speculation that President-elect Nixon's administration may raise the official price for the metal.

Successive American governments have fiercely resisted any increase above the $35 an ounce the United States has been committed to pay since 1934. But the return of Treasury Secretary-designate David Kennedy to commit himself to defend the present official gold-dollar rate was taken by bullion dealers and speculators as a hint of changing thinking in Washington.

The price of gold jumped 60 cents at the morning fixing in London and 50 cents in both Zurich and Frankfurt. The London free market price was $41.825, the highest level since June 22, when it reached $41.80. It was $41.70 in both Zurich and Frankfurt.

In Paris an ounce of gold jumped from $43.59 at Tuesday's closing to $44.28. Over-all volume amounted to the franc equivalent of $3.5 million, up $805,000 from Tuesday. The gold-in-high for an ounce of gold in Paris was $45.36 on July 5.

London dealers said turnover was small. Demand was extremely heavy, but sellers were hanging on for a still higher price.

The dollar moved downward on all European foreign exchange markets.

In London the pound moved down $2.3552 from Tuesday night's closing $2.3550.

In Zurich the dollar was quoted at 4.2652 Swiss francs against Tuesday's 4.2657. In Frankfurt at 3.9983 marks against 3.9988, and in Paris 4.6490 francs against 4.6497.

Shortly after the initial high opening in the Zurich market, the price of gold climbed a further 12 1/2 cents to $41.825 an ounce. An estimated five tons of metal changed hands in the first two hours, but above-normal turnover but still below the crisis level of last March.

Flu Bug Buzzes Busily Around Schools, But Classes Carry On In Spite Of It All

The flu — or whatever the bug is — has reached into almost every phase of life in Magic Valley and absenteeism in schools is high.

However, only one Magic Valley school is seriously considering closing its doors early for the Christmas vacation.

Sister M. Bernita, principal at St. Edward's Catholic School in Twin Falls, said 56 grade school students were absent Tuesday.

"We might have to let our school out early," she said. The school was to close its doors Friday, but consideration was being given to a Thursday closure.

At Twin Falls high school there is a 93 per cent attendance record and school officials will keep the doors open through Friday, but consideration was being given to a Thursday closure.

Two hospitals in east Magic Valley, in light of the heavy outbreak of flu in that area, have started limiting the number of visitors. Cassia County Memorial and Mindoga Memorial have imposed visiting restrictions, with members of the immediate family being the only people allowed inside hospital doors.

This is protection to patients in the hospitals, officials said.

An official at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital said no visitor restrictions are planned at the present time.

The Magic Valley businesses have been plagued with the flu with a large part of the work force at Amalgamated Sugar Co. still out.

So far, the Holy Tong strain of the flu has not been detected.

Dr. Luther Thompson of the Southeastern Idaho Health Office, said officials are keeping a watchful eye for the Hong Kong flu, but "we have not detected this strain yet."

Schools at Kimberly, Minico, Burley, Jerome, Bluff, Gooding, Shoshone, Wendell and Mullanville will be dismissed Friday, on schedule.

Officials at all the schools said absenteeism was high. Minico reported 85 per cent attendance Friday, but Gooding and Burley listed 75 per cent attendance in the junior high.

Summary, Extended Outlook

High pressure is again weakening over the intermountain region today as another upper-level low pressure area develops over the Southwestern Valley. Considerable moist air has spread far ahead of a surface cold front located in the eastern portions of Oregon and Washington. This has caused occasional light snow in East-Central Oregon and Southern Idaho during the night and morning hours. Snow will tend to spread east and southward in the moist air ahead of the cold front and some scattered snow flurries will continue after the frontal passage tonight and Thursday. Cold-weather-will continue throughout these agricultural valleys with daytime temperatures today and Thursday mostly in the upper 20s and the 30s. The lows tonight will range in the teens and the 20s with some of the higher valleys near zero. Precipitation in the valleys should average less than two inches. Partly cloudy skies were the rule throughout these valleys yesterday and winds were from the most part light. Temperatures yesterday remained on the cool side with afternoon highs ranging from the mid and upper 20s in Southeastern Idaho to the upper 30s and the lower 40s over the Southwestern Valley. Low readings this morning ranged from 2 above zero at Fairfield to 30 at Parma. Snow depths this morning were mostly traces in the western valleys with 1 to 2 inches on the ground in the Upper Snake River Valley and 1 to 3 inches in the Southeast Highlands of Idaho. The extended weather outlook for Southern Idaho and East-Central Oregon calls for low pressure to continue over the Northern Intermountain region. Therefore, periods of snow are expected most days through Monday but most likely Thursday and Friday and again Monday. Temperatures through Monday will average about 3 to 10 degrees below normal. Normal high and low temperatures for this period include Boise, 38 and 24; Pocatello, 35 and 18; Gooding, 37 and 21; Burley, 39 and 20; Idaho Falls, 32 and 14, and Twin Falls, 25 and 18.

'Mini-Quakes' May Help Cut Casualties

SEATTLE (AP) — Believing it possible to determine which localities are prone to earthquake damage, University of Washington scientists are creating "mini-quakes" in the laboratory in the hope of finding ways to reduce the damage. A soil sample just 6 1/2 inches by 3 inches is placed in a cylindrical cell in an instrument which measures stress in three directions. Readings indicate what the response of the earth would be in case of a tremor. The work is financed by a $103,000 grant from the National Science Foundation. Principal investigators are Dr. Mehmet S. Ghalib, assistant professor of civil engineering, and Dr. Robert C. Bosron, associate professor of geology. They said soils react differently to earthquake stresses. "In some cases the soil is turned to boiling liquid, causing a building to sink and tilt," said Dr. Sheriff. "In other cases the soil densifies, causing a hardening that results in uneven settling and produces cracks and distortions in the structure. A third effect is loss of strength in the soil, causing slides." By translating soil and geologic responses through use of the instrument, the scientists hope to develop design requirements for the various seismic zones. They view this information as highly valuable for structural engineers and architects.

Saigon Agrees To Meet Hanoi On 'Tet' Truce

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government said today it is ready to discuss a "truce arrangement" with North Vietnam for New Year's Day. It will also join in a Vietnam-wide truce for New Year's celebration that begins Feb. 17. President Nguyen Van Thieu already has announced a 24-hour cease-fire for Christmas, beginning at 6 p.m. Dec. 24th. "It will still too early in making any decision concerning a possible standstill in military operations for New Year's Day and Tet," a foreign ministry communiqué said. "In case Hanoi wishes to seek a truce arrangement for New Year's Day and Tet, the government of the Republic of Vietnam will be ready to discuss the matter with the representatives of North Vietnam."

Coed, 20, Kidnaped In Georgia

ATLANTA, GA. (AP) — Where is Barbara Jane Muckle? The question went unanswered today as federal agents led a nationwide search for the 20-year-old coed kidnaped from her school at a motel near the Emory University campus. The whereabouts of her mutilated parents was not known publicly, as officials at both local and federal refused comment on the case. The girl's mother, Mrs. Robert F. Muckle of Coral Gables, Fla., told De Kalb County police that Barbara was kidnaped about 4 a. m. Tuesday by a young gunman and boy accomplice, Mrs. Muckle said she was held at gunpoint, chloroformed and then tied up by the boy while the daughter was taken from the room in freezing weather in her nightgown. Mr. and Mrs. Muckle, members of a nationally prominent land development family, were seen about 16 hours after the abduction was reported, accompanied by FBI agents, the Muckles were riding in a car about the terminal area of the Atlanta airport. "I don't think there's any reason to think anything will happen in the next few hours," said De Kalb police captain William De Kalb, who said the investigation drew to a close. Neither police nor federal agents reported any leads in the case. An Emory official said Barbara had been ill with the flu for a similar ailment for several days and had been staying with her mother at the motel in northeast Atlanta. Muckle, 56, and his brothers, Frank Jr. and Elliott, pioneered the building — a large, pre-planned community in Florida.

Flu Epidemic Aims Blow At New York

By The Associated Press
The American Red Cross calls the nationwide influenza epidemic a "disaster situation" and the health commissioner in the hardest hit city—New York—predicts it will be even worse there by New Year's Day. Health Commissioner Edward O'Rourke estimated Tuesday that 500,000 New Yorkers—one in every 16—had recovered from the flu in the past two weeks. O'Rourke said 200,000 persons were currently in the most critical stage of the disease. And he predicted that the city's epidemic would peak during the first week in January, probably around the start of the new year. Meanwhile, reports of outbreaks of respiratory illnesses including Hong Kong flu continued to come from all sections of the country. The Red Cross asked its chapters to provide workers and nurses to hospitals, schools and nursing homes. Hospitals throughout the country restricting visits in order to avoid exposing patients to the flu virus.

Burley Stops Request On TV Poles

BURLEY — Burley city councilmen have denied a request from Cable Vision to erect 470 poles in the alleys of the city. Brian McNorton, located in a subordinate role, quinquennial Monday night meeting that the poles would be 25 feet high and five inches in diameter. The council recommended the Cable Vision firm install the cables underground instead. City officials also took under advisement a counter offer from Unity Light and Power requesting that the dispute between the city and the cooperative be dismissed with prejudice. The dispute involves who should provide electrical service to customers living in an area recently annexed by the city. They have been served by Unity Light and Power for many years and the court's decision in the case favored the cooperative, which still is providing electrical power to the district. The city last council meeting, the city filed a request to Unity Light for dismissal without prejudice. If this was granted, it would give the city the possibility of re-opening the dispute. Instead, the cooperative made the counter offer of dismissal with prejudice at this week's meeting. The first reading was held on a proposed ordinance adding to the present building code, dealing with moving buildings within the city limits. Councilmen discussed adding a damage clause compensating the city for damage to city property when buildings are moved. No action was taken on this proposal. Payment to contractors working on the McBride Addition Local Improvement District was approved after discussion regarding the quality of pavement on the street. Sunday closing hours for grocery stores were discussed and councilmen approved having signs made limiting parking in the new downtown diagonal parking area to passenger cars only. Licenses were renewed and approved for master plumbers, journeymen, limited plumbers, gas contractors and journeymen gas fitters.

Taxes

Twin Falls County Assessor Clifford Thompson issued an urgent plea Wednesday morning to taxpayers to pay their personal property taxes for 1968. "The deadline is next Monday. Those who don't pay their taxes by the deadline face a two per cent penalty charge and an eight per cent interest charge." He said there is no choice under Idaho law. Only about 20 per cent of the $400,000 in county personal property tax has been paid, he said. Payments may be made by mail or by person to the office of the assessor at the Twin Falls County Courthouse.

Nixon Doubts Gold Price Will Change

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Nixon's principal spokesman said today the incoming chief executive does not anticipate any change in the $35 an ounce official price for gold. Gold was back in the headlines following a Tuesday news conference at which David M. Kennedy, Nixon's choice for secretary of the Treasury, decried a "firmly embrace" of long standing price at which the U.S. government buys and sells gold in dealings with other nations. Ronald L. Ziegler, Nixon's press spokesman, gave newsmen a carefully prepared statement which said: "The subject of any changes in the price of gold has not been discussed and we do not anticipate any changes... in the price of gold." During the campaign, Nixon said he saw no reason to change the official gold price and Ziegler said no alteration of this position was anticipated.

Mail Plane Vanishes At Lewiston

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — A mail plane vanished on a flight in Northern Idaho early today and search efforts were concentrated in the rugged, mountainous Snake River area about 30 miles south of Lewiston. Missing on a chartered mail flight from Boise to Spokane via Lewiston was Eugene H. Whiteley, 45, Spokane, state aeronautics officials said. The plane was due in Lewiston at 3:30 a.m. The search was held up earlier today when a snowstorm grounded search planes, but the Nez Perce County sheriff's office said the storm cleared before noon. Rescue planes were in the air before noon, and ground rescue teams were moving into the area in four-wheel drive vehicles and snow vehicles. Two boats also were deployed up the Snake River.

Progress Is Slow For Registration

The deadline for motor vehicle registration in Idaho is Jan. 1, and it appears there will be no extension of this deadline. In Twin Falls County, the registration of motor vehicles is progressing slowly. Wednesday, Twin Falls County Assessor Clifford Thompson said people visiting the courthouse the slowdown in registration. "Many bring their vehicle title instead of the registration. This means we have to look up the registration for 1968. This takes time." He said also that quite often the registration slip does not match the description of the motor vehicle. About 28,000 motor vehicles are registered in Twin Falls County annually, but only about 7,000 have been registered to date. "The line is always long at the courthouse now," Mr. Thompson said. He urged people to come with the proper papers. "This would cause the line to move faster," he added.

'Sniperscope' To Help Troops Quell Riots

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
A Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A device used to pinpoint enemy snipers during night fighting in Vietnam has been added to the weapons provided the National Guard for possible use against rioters in the United States.

One kind of the devices, called Starlight Scopes, are being stockpiled at key depots for use by state National Guard chiefs, if needed.

Sources said the scopes probably will be brought into play against snipers firing on guardposts or police from the darkness during night civil disorders.

The National Guard Bureau has notified adjutant generals that the Starlight Scopes will be earmarked for them in depots at Toiyahanna, Pa., Lexington, Ky., and Sacramento, Calif.

Provision of the scopes is the latest action taken by the Army to prepare the National Guard, police and its own forces for possible widespread civil disturbances in the United States.

These preparations intensified starting last spring when riots broke out in many cities after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Among other things, the Army has given the National Guard infrared search lights, standard flood lights, radars, public address systems — granade launchers, shotguns and portable riot gas dispensers.

The Army has claimed outstanding success for the Starlight Scope in South Vietnam to detect enemy guerrilla fighters for more than 400 yards.

The device, which is hand-held or mounted on rifles and machine guns, amplifies the glow of the moon or stars, enabling its operator to see objects that otherwise would be blacked out.

National Guard sources said another new aid for anti-riot forces has been the preparation by the Army Map Service of special maps of 115 cities considered potential locales for future civil disturbances.

About 9,000 copies of each city map are being printed, showing location of key installations and facilities.

Trouble Is, The Laws Are Not Enforced

Anemia

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a friend who is anemic and she is eating raw liver. She grinds it up, keeps it in the refrigerator, and takes a teaspoonful and drinks it in a glass of orange juice. She has always heard that raw meat was dangerous.

While proper diet is wise, don't expect it to make up entirely for excessive bleeding which needs attention.

Seal Herds Grow

One of the more pleasant stories in conservation circles is that of the northern fur seal. Less than 200 years ago, the brown seal numbered in the millions and called his home the vast ocean expanse from the Bering Sea all the way down the Pacific coast.

fect the seals and gradually their numbers increased to an estimated two million. But the best news to the conservationist was the return of the northern fur seal to his former southern haunts.

Then came the hunters, first those of the Russian czar and later the American. Fifty years ago, there were only about 100,000 of the creatures left, and all of those in the Bering Sea.

This year an expedition of marine biologists brought the news they had sighted a herd of approximately 100 of the seals on San Miguel Island, off the Santa Barbara coast of California. The seals have since returned to their northern haunts for the winter, but they can expect a welcoming committee of scientists should they return to San Miguel next year.

The Love Affair

America's love affair with the automobile, which goes back at least to the 1892 Duryea, is not likely to be affected by the branding of the car as "Public Health Enemy No. 1."

was made by three Yale University professors. Aside from causing air pollution and clogging city streets, cars are responsible, they said, for more than half of the disabling accidents in the nation and contribute to heart disease because a motorized people shuns healthful walking.

Since the first one-cylinder started frightening horses, disturbing the peace and polluting the air, Americans have been willing to overlook any shortcoming for the pleasure of tooling a mechanical monster along the highway.

As valid as their complaints may be, the auto industry remains a cornerstone of the economy and the auto practically indispensable for modern, mobile man.

And they become more enamored of the creature as each new model rolls off the production line. Last year there were more than 94 million vehicles of all kinds on the road. The condemnation of the auto

Words will have no more success in persuading auto-happy Americans to give up their cars than the surgeon general's exhortations have had with cigarette smokers.

Telescope--TV Link May View Apollo Near Moon

NEW YORK (AP) — If Apollo 8 orbits the moon Christmas Eve, television viewers may be able to witness this historic event with an astronomer's eyeview through a telescope.

The spacecraft will look like a white dot traveling across the darkened portion of the first quarter moon.

To show the Apollo ship in circumlunar flight NBC will hook into the telescope at the Denver Museum of Natural History. Its planetarium, completed five months ago, is the first equipped with a television-telescope system.

"We might get lucky and catch them around the edge of the moon," said Jim Kitchell, in charge of NBC's coverage of the flight. "There's less chance of seeing them on the lighted side of the moon. That's a pretty hot surface. If we can pick up a 30-foot spacecraft 250,000 miles in space it'll be pretty amazing," he said.

The planned sightings will be at 4:35 p.m., 6:41 p.m., 8:42 p.m. and 10:40 p.m. Dec. 21, all times EST.

In addition, at least six live transmissions from the spacecraft itself will give viewers a closeup of the moon and what their planet looks like from space. The transmissions will be received at NASA's Madrid tracking station and will be fed to American and European television systems.

It will be the heaviest coverage television has ever given to a space shot. All three networks will be on the air 24 hours a day from lift-off Saturday until the end of the mission Friday, Dec. 27.

Kitchell said he hoped the telescope can track the spacecraft across the moon for at least six minutes during four of the orbits. This is the time the ship—coated with a highly reflective silver-blue surface—remains in sunlight after crossing from the lighted part of the moon into the dark part.

Donald M. Lunetta, 28-year-old curator, who designed the planetarium, offered use of its telescope to the three networks some time ago. But only NBC expressed an interest and its coverage will be exclusive.

It employs a camera especially adapted for astronomical use by additional electronic circuitry. This allows the operator to make time exposures of space objects.

At one second exposure, the camera's ASA rating becomes one million. By comparison, the latest film available has an ASA rating of 1,000.

"With this kind of speed, good resolution of faint objects in deep space can be achieved in a short period of time," Lunetta said.

The use of the time exposure also will permit the astronomer to locate the spaceship from among the millions of stars. "If it moves, it's Apollo," said Kitchell.

Public Meet On Children Set Friday

BOISE — A public meeting of Idaho's Interdepartmental Committee on Children and Youth will be held Friday in the Statehouse, according to D. F. Engleking, committee chairman.

The committee was created by the 1963 legislature as an advisory committee to the governor and legislature to coordinate programs and services for children and youth through continuing research and study by state agencies involved in child health, welfare and education.

The six state agencies participating in the program are the Department of Public Instruction, Health, Public Assistance, Labor, Employment and Vocational Rehabilitation.

The one-day meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. with opening remarks by Gov. Don Samuelson, and will conclude with an open question and answer program beginning at 3:45 p.m.

SHARING A JOKE, Apollo 8 crewmen William A. Anders, left, and James A. Lovell Jr. prepare to enter a spacecraft simulator for a practice "flight" on Tuesday, in training for their Saturday launch from Cape Kennedy, Fla., on an epochal trip around the moon. Governor To 'Eye' Budget BOISE (AP)—Gov. Don Samuelson has indicated he will use his veto powers to ensure the 1969-71 general fund budget is in line with his recommendations. Samuelson said he "won't allow" the 1969 legislature to pass a budget which would obligate the succeeding legislature to increased appropriations.

Samuelson told the Idaho Press Club Tuesday he will propose a budget of about $20.7 billion for the next biennium.

A newsman told Samuelson that Rep. Jenks L. Palmer, R-Malad, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, has said the legislature might pass a budget larger than the governor's recommendation to provide more for public schools.

"You'll have to ask Jenks if he wants to raise taxes," Samuelson said. "If you do this, you're just obligating the next legislature two years from now." "I won't allow it," he declared.

The governor said he was against using any general fund surplus for anything except one-time expenses, such as construction of a new state prison. If the surplus of a continuing expense would only lead to a tax increase, he said.

Samuelson also announced he has hired Mike Adams of Idaho Falls to be his full-time press aide, beginning in early January.

Samuelson sidestepped questions on whom the Judicial Council had recommended to fill the district court vacancy created by the election of Judge Charles E. Donaldson to the Supreme Court and whether he would appoint Walter Resource Board Chairman George Crookham Jr. whose term expires early next year.

40 Officers March On City Hall

Spokane Police Intensify Wage Protest

SPOKANE (AP)—The struggle over higher pay for Spokane policemen intensified Tuesday as 40 off-duty policemen marched on City Hall to publicize their wage demands.

The policemen, accompanied by their wives in some instances, carried signs critical of the city administration's position in the pay dispute.

The demonstration and subsequent picketing of City Hall apparently was prompted by action of the City Council Monday night. The council referred to committee the 11.9 per cent wage boost sought by the policemen.

The proposed pay hike was recommended by a state mediator several months ago after the city administration and Spokane Police Union Local 1461 were unable to agree on new wage scales for policemen.

Uninformed members of the Police Department were offered a 7.5 per cent wage hike—excluding fringe benefits—by the city. The police union originally had demanded a 15 per cent increase.

Asst. Police Chief Wayne W. Hendren said that while the policemen's demonstration Tuesday was "upsetting," he thought the 11.9 per cent increase now sought by the union was justified in light of other wages paid in the Spokane area.

Richard O. Tilton, president of the policemen's union, said several "informational" pickets would remain at City Hall for five days to get the union's message to the public.

Tilton added that it was possible that there could be a "general slowdown" of law enforcement activities here but he refused to say what particular action might take.

Spokane has 234 uniformed policemen on its force.

City Personnel Director Roy Wesley said a patrolman's starting salary now is $322 a month or $6,264 per year. After four years on the force, the patrolman's pay increased to $624 per month.

The 1969 budget adopted by City Council in October would raise the beginning salary for patrolmen by $30 a month to $352. A patrolman with two years on the force would receive $601 per month under the new city's administration.

Spokane firemen earlier accepted the 7.5 per cent wage hike but a spokesman for the Fire-Fighters-Union said Tuesday the firemen would not work for less than the policemen.

Kenneth Strong, president of the union local, added, "if we get even $1 less than the police, we will fight with whatever means are necessary."

However, both Strong and Fire Chief W. A. Dunham said the firemen would not honor the police picket line at City Hall and refuse to work.

Spokane County Sheriff William J. Reilly said if any slowdown by police should occur, his department would assist the Police Department in any "serious" situation.

Wyoming OKs New Highway From Idaho

LAVA HOT SPRINGS, Idaho (AP)—The state of Wyoming is backing Idaho's proposal for an interstate 15 link between McCammon, Idaho, and Little America, Wyo.

Idaho highway board member C. Ed Flandro made that report Monday night to 28 Eastern Idaho municipal and county commissioners.

At a meeting arranged by the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce, Flandro said the Wyoming Highway Board notified the Idaho board last Friday in Boise it would request federal funding for the some 70 miles on the Wyoming side of the state border.

The Wyoming board said the state would make the project its only request for additional interstate funding. The Idaho and Wyoming boards have scheduled a meeting for Jan. 9 in Cheyenne to discuss the mutual proposal. The new freeway would generally follow the present route of U.S. 30N.

Though the two states are not among the 28 recently allocated additional interstate mileage by the federal Bureau of Public Roads, Flandro said the fact both states want the new Interstate 15 link should provide strong leverage with the change of administrations in Washington.

Flandro said the 87-mile portion of the proposed interstate from McCammon to the Wyoming line would cost an estimated $13 million.

Santa's Hot Line To North Pole Is Busy, Busy

Santa Claus' telephone number was listed in the Times-News last week and since then the trunk line to the North Pole has been jammed with calls from children placing last-minute orders.

The number, the first new prefix for Twin Falls, is 734-2294.

Oh Saturday, one first grader dialed the correct number but got a busy signal.

"Guess Santa's busy now," he said.

He waited, head held in his hands, his eyes on the telephone. Every few minutes he would dial the number. The busy signal persisted.

Tally Of Votes Shows 80 Per Cent Cast Ballots

BOISE (AP)—Voter turnout in Idaho for the general election was 80.23 per cent of registration, according to figures released Tuesday by the secretary of state's office.

Confessions Of A Nervous Shoplifter

shoplifter working in Twin Falls that day.
The drug store where I was apprehended was the last store on my route—thank heaven—probably would sense I had the courage to continue my "shopping."
Monday night, on the first leg of our trip, I went into a grocery store. I was carrying the large purse and wearing a bulky coat. I went directly to the meat counter and picked up a frozen 10-pound turkey, which I carried all over the store, trying to find a vacant aisle so I could dispose of it.
After several minutes my hands were about to freeze and I finally got my chance. I unbuttoned my coat, placed the turkey in a strategic spot and rebuted.
I took off down the aisle, past the check stand and out the door, desperately trying to remember how pregnant women walk.
Meantime, my detective friends were helping me appear inconspicuous by breaking up laughing.
As I was coming back into the store one of the clerks saw me and reported me to the manager.
Before I started my shopping spree I had made a list of things I would like to take, and that turkey was the only one of those things I was able to get.
The same evening I hit a large variety store which, like many other local stores, has an excellent security system.
I had been circulating for several minutes and already had gotten a long wool scarf shoved into my coat pocket.
Then came trouble. In the form of a clerk in the store who knows me. We both were very eagerly trying not to let the other know that we were watching each other.
He caused no concern for several minutes until the manager, who had told him of the experiment, called him off in fairness' sake.
My bravado increased by the minute when I decided I was no longer being followed, and I shoved a pair of light-weight, packaged slippers into my pocket.
You've never seen such a bulge in your life! So, then I had to sneak around, get the slippers back out of my pocket and into my purse.
By this time, I'd had it and headed for the door.
I shoved on the door marked "entrance" and nothing happened. So I had to fumble around trying to pull it open, and finally did manage to get out with my loot.
When I went back in, I decided I liked the scarf so well that I bought it and the slippers were returned to the display counter.
The department store I "shopped" in Tuesday afternoon was crawling with shoppers, and at least half of them were people I knew and had to stop and talk to.
If any of them saw me make my heist there, I hope they read this story.
There clerks were watching from the mezzanine. A College of Southern Idaho police training student was stationed on the stairs, and several off-duty policemen were patrolling.

The officers knew what I was up to, so let me alone. Shortly after I entered the store I grabbed a mini-slip from a safe counter near the front of the building.
If I hadn't made my "move" right off, I don't think I would have gotten out of the store without being apprehended.
I continued shopping for about 20 minutes, but the police student, I'm sure, was on to me, and he could see nearly every section of the store.
At the rear of the store, which was the only spot that was not within his eye-span, I attempted to steal some men's socks and a pair of children's mittens, but just as I was beginning to make my move, clerks came up and asked if they could help me with something.
I was eyeing some shoes at the rear of the store, when I ran into a clerk that I know quite well and who wanted to visit.
Meanwhile, the tag from the slip had fallen out of my pocket and the whole time I was passing the time of day with my friend, the clerk, I was attempting to put the tag back into my pocket.
After making my goodbyes to her, one of the policemen who was working in the store, went up to her and asked her if she knew me.
"Oh, yes."
"Very well?"
"I'd keep my eye on her. If I were you."
"Oh, O.K. I sure will — ha! ha! ha!"
And, out the back door I went. When the detectives and I managed to admire my haul, I found the slip I had so hastily taken was about four sizes too big for me.
The slip was returned to the manager.
My shoplifting tour was enlightening—but not much fun. No more fun than it is for the stores who get taken for billions of dollars a year.
Nationally, shoplifting, combined with employee thefts, cost retailers $2 billion last year.
The shoplifters' take during Christmas this year is expected to rise by 10 to 12 per cent, while sales are expected to rise only eight to 10 per cent.
It can be done, but you're bound to get caught sooner or later, just as I was.
I really don't make up a large percentage of those charged with shoplifting or petit larceny.
In this category, most of the offenders are boys, but in the Christmas category, most of the offenders are women.
Those arrested for shoplifting can be expected to receive a fine of from $50 to $100, or it's really cheaper to buy in the first place.
This Christmas the downtown stores have banded together to employ off-duty policemen and CSI police students to keep a sharp eye on the shopping crowds.
Most stores are not without some type of preventative means

Heyburn To Install Sewer Lift Station

HEYBURN—Cost of installation for phase three of Heyburn's four-phase sewer project has risen by $11,000, with the city council's authorization to the P and E Construction Co., Twin Falls, to construct a lift station in the McElride Addition.

The Twin Falls firm holds the now $102,000 contract for installation of sewer lines and four lift stations from S Street to 7th Street on the west side of town, and the completion of the lines in the Dayley Addition and all-else-up-to, but not including, the Bailey Addition. Completion is set for the first part of May.

During last week's council meeting, members of the council noted that the public is invited to attend all council meetings from now until the first of March, when the 1969 budget will be set. The public is invited to discuss the budget and any problems they may have with the council.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—A bandit with yuletide greetings robbed the Loyola Federal Savings and Loan Association of $1,400 Tuesday.

Idaho Education Association Official Draws Picture Of Average Gem Teacher

By WAYNE YORK

What is the average Idaho teacher like? The Idaho Education Association has compiled information which may indicate that the quality, training and preparation of teachers lag in the Gem State.

Sixty-three per cent of Idaho's teachers are women; 42 per cent of these women are 51 years of age or older; 37 per cent are 56 or older; thirty-seven per cent of Idaho's teachers are men; 34 per cent of these men are 26 years of age or younger; 30 per cent are 30 years of age or younger.

Nineteen per cent of Idaho's teachers did not have at least a bachelor's degree in 1967-68. Last year, 1967-68, 16 per cent lacked degrees—the highest percentage of any state in the country. Two-thirds of all teachers in the state now receive less than $6,500 a year—many of them much less.

Five per cent of America's teachers do not have at least a four-year bachelor's degree, but in Idaho, 16 per cent do not. No state in the West exceeds the national average of five per cent.

Dr. Richard Willey of Idaho State University found that both the number and per cent of Idaho teachers with 200 semester hours of college credit have decreased in recent years. He concludes: "Apparently, many better trained teachers are leaving the state."

Scores of persons continue to be used as teachers and administrators in Idaho with so-called letters of authorization and no official teaching certificate whatever.

—In 1967-68, Idaho used 81 teachers and administrators with no certification—merely letters of authorization.

Already this school year, 107 letters of authorization are in use. The final number will be much larger and nearly every school system in the state will declare a district-wide emergency and proceed to use these unqualified persons before the year is over.

Burley Jaycees To Sell Oranges

BURLEY—Boxes of oranges will be sold Wednesday and Thursday evening at Burley by the Jaycees with proceeds from the sale to be used for needy families of the area.

Pat McDonald is serving as chairman of the orange sale. The 15 cases of oranges are being stored at Columbia Electric warehouse. Local Jaycee members worked over the weekend and bagged the oranges.

Selling oranges at Christmas time is an annual state project of the Jaycees, McDonald reported. If residents wish to purchase a case of oranges they may do so by phoning Mr. McDonald or Verlon Sutton, club president.

PUBLIC PARTY NOTED WASHINGTON (AP)—A State Department spokesman said Tuesday a meeting has taken place between U. S. and North Korean representatives at Panmunjom in an effort to secure the release of the U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo and 82 crewmen.

Nixon's Cabinet Members Possess Many Skills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are 12 men that President-elect Nixon has appointed to his cabinet in his upcoming administration.

SECRETARY OF STATE

William P. Rogers, in the words of one liberal, "is the kind of Republican who appeals to a Democrat like me."

It's an asset sure to help the 55-year-old former attorney general when he takes over as secretary of state in the Nixon administration.

During long experience in government capped by the Nixon generalship from 1957 to 1960 and a brief but successful brush with foreign affairs, Rogers has built a reputation as a friend and intimate of President-elect Nixon.

Nixon himself has said that it was Rogers' help that turned the tide when the president-elect was faced with three of the major crossroads he described in his best-selling book, "Six Crosses."

Rogers, tall and blond, evokes the words of nearly everyone who describes him and from Nixon the accolade of "the best negotiator in the world."

Rogers only close contact with foreign affairs came in 1955 when he was in the U.S. delegation at the U.N. General Assembly.

Since 1960 when he stopped out of government with Nixon's presidential election defeat by Kennedy, Rogers has worked in New York law firm that handles some international matters.

The Rogers-Nixon friendship began during naval training during World War II at Quonset Point, R.I., and blossomed in the years when Nixon was congressman, and senator and Rogers a lawyer with and later chief counsel for the Senate war investigations subcommittee.

Rogers left the government in 1959, but returned to serve in the deputy attorney general under Herbert Brownell, succeeding Brownell in 1957. He was at Vice President Nixon's side during the "crisis" that almost cost Nixon his spot on the Eisenhower ticket.

Rogers is married and the father of four.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

Melvin R. Laird, President-elect Nixon's appointee as secretary of defense, is no stranger to the ways and wherefores of the Pentagon.

The 48-year-old congressman from Wisconsin has spent 10 of his 18 years in the House as a member of the Appropriations subcommittee on defense and has developed a reputation as one of the Republicans' experts on the defense establishment.

In his running feud with former Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, Laird often disputed the Johnson administration's statements and ultimately was correct.

Laird, the No. 3 GOP House member, has established himself as a hawk on Vietnam, although he has softened his position somewhat in recent months.

A Nebraskan by birth, Laird was brought up in Wisconsin. He entered politics as a 23-year-old state legislator, succeeding his father. After six years as a Wisconsin state senator, Laird was elected to Congress and started the long climb to power in his party.

In 1964, the year he helped in the overthrow of Rep. Joe Martin, he was chairman of the Republican National Convention Reform Committee. He has since become a dominant force on the GOP Coordinating Committee, the party's top-policy-making agency.

During World War II Laird served in the Pacific for the Navy and was wounded. He is married and has three children.

TREASURY SECRETARY

The country's top banker under the Nixon administration, David M. Rockefeller, didn't start his adult life intending to be a money man. Rather he wanted to be a lawyer.

But the realities of the Depression found Rockefeller, son of a banker, going to work for the Federal Reserve System, which overlooked the affairs of the money market.

It was the start of a career that led Kennedy up through the world of Illinois banking, to becoming president and board chairman of Chicago's largest bank, the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co.

In appointing the 63-year-old Kennedy as Treasury secretary, President-elect Nixon has selected a man who says that his Mormon religion has humanized his attitude toward money. "Belief in God makes me more in tune with others and their problems," Kennedy once said.

But he has said increased government spending isn't the answer to solving problems in the country.

"Partnership with private enterprise, including more loan guarantees and less federal spending, should be the role of government," Kennedy says.

Kennedy and his wife Leonora have four children, all girls.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

If pipe-smoking, methodical John M. Mitchell, the new attorney general, didn't create the "Pete" Nixon's presidential campaign, he at least made it go.

While serving as manager of the campaign, Mitchell once described his job as "programming the candidate."

A staff member termed it an apt analogy. "He operates with absolutely no passion," he said of Mitchell. "He's unflappable. He has a program . . . and he adheres to it."

Mitchell, 55, ascended to the campaign post only about two years after the two came together for the first time as partners in Nixon's New York law firm.

Mitchell is a Fordham law school graduate who specialized in state and municipal bonds. His political experience has all been advisory.

"I've never held an office in the Republican hierarchy," he said. "I've been associated with individual candidates and issues."

He was a commander of a PT boat squadron during World War II. Among his junior officers was John F. Kennedy.

Mitchell's position on civil rights and law enforcement is considered a largely unknown quantity.

He has four children and two grandchildren.

SECRETARY OF LABOR

George P. Shultz, who was ought out by Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy for advice on economics and labor relations.

The Nixon administration's labor secretary got his initiation into national policy discussions during the last two years of Eisenhower's first term, when he served as senior staff economist on the Council of Economic Advisors.

Shultz, who will be 48 Friday, then became consultant to Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell.

President Kennedy named him to the committee on labor management policy.

Since 1960 Shultz mixed labor arbitration duties with his tasks as dean of the University of Chicago's graduate school of business administration, a post he's held since 1957.

He headed advisory task forces on manpower, labor-management relations and wages-price policies during Nixon's campaign.

Shultz was educated at Princeton, where he was a blocking back on the football team, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

He was a Marine major in World War II. He has five children.

POSTMASTER GENERAL

Winton M. Blount, who parlayed four war-surplus factories into a $100 million business, will be in charge of the postmaster general's office, a federal agency that loses as much or more every year.

As a man with long experience in modern management and computer techniques he brings impressive and some unique credentials to a job that usually goes to reward campaign work or long friendship.

Blount, 47, is an Alabamian from Montgomery, who opposed George Wallace in two races for governor and in his third party presidential candidacy this year.

As president of the state Chamber of Commerce in 1965 he urged an end to violence against civil rights demonstrators and for respect of their civil liberties.

As president of the national Chamber of Commerce this year he pledged for an overwhelming show of force against riots to "insure that these criminals are stopped in their tracks."

"I suppose you would basically call me a conservative, but I try to think of myself as progressive," Blount said earlier this year when asked to describe his political philosophy.

In 1948 Blount took over his father's and a gravel business, purchased four war-surplus tractors and founded Blount Brothers Corp., now a $100 million general contracting firm.

HEALTH EDUCATION AND WELFARE

Wavy-haired Robert H. Finch, the Nixon lieutenant who reportedly could have had virtually any administration job he wanted, is to be secretary of health, education and welfare.

"He is Nixon's perfect alter ego," a friend has said. "They think alike. Both are perfectionists. Both are lovers."

Finch, 43, who is constantly puffing nervously on cigarettes, has been a key Nixon adviser since the president-elect ran for Congress in 1946.

Finch was administrative assistant to Nixon during the last two years of his vice presidency and managed the unsuccessful 1960 presidential campaign.

This year he was a key Nixon adviser. He served as lieutenant governor to Gov. Ronald Reagan, another potential candidate at the Republican convention. And he worked with Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, a bitter Reagan enemy.

His work drew from Unruh the compliment: "The lieutenant governor is a professional."

Finch had expressed considerable reluctance over moving to Washington, even though Nixon indicated Finch could have had virtually any White House spot he wanted.

"I've got a hell of an investment in California," he said. "I don't want to walk away from it."

But Finch, who describes himself as a "political animal," opted for the main political arena in Washington.

He is married and has four children.

HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

George Wilken Romney will bring to his new job of secretary of Housing and Urban Development a firm belief that he can do anything he sets out to do—and a public record that proves he's been wrong only once.

"How can he do it?" a friend once asked the three-term Michigan governor as they watched an opposing player run wild against a Michigan State University football team.

"Because he thinks he can," answered Romney who envisioned himself in November 1967 as fighting and winning the Republican nomination for president.

It was this characteristic above all others that led many people to believe he just might have pulled it off although no public opinion poll then or until he withdrew just before the New Hampshire primary gave him a chance.

Born in Mexico of poor Mormon parents who fled persecution in the United States, the 68-year-old silver-haired Romney never knew major defeat in his club from Washington lobbyist for the aluminum and auto industries, to chairman and savior of American Motors Corp., to reformer of the Michigan constitution to the Michigan state house where voters returned him three times by ever increasing margins.

Romney is a devout Mormon who abstains from tobacco, liquor and all such stimulants as coffee. With a drive and determination that tends to outlast breakfast for one-mile runs and propels him around the golf course after three balls in what he calls "compact golf" he hardly needs them.

Besides this drive, Romney will bring to his new job under Richard Nixon prime experience with the nation's urban ills, having presided in 1967 over the Detroit riots, worst in the modern U.S. history. That same summer half a dozen other Michigan cities were torn by racial strife, too.

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR

Walter J. Hickel, the new secretary of the interior, is a former Golden Gloves champion who parlayed odd jobs in America's last frontier into a million-dollar real estate enterprise.

Hickel, 49, the first Republican governor of his adopted Alaska, has spent his term as governor mainly concerned with selling distribution of the state's land, which is mostly owned by the federal government.

About 103 million acres are to be redistributed to the state, but the federal government has suspended distribution until claims filed by Alaska natives are settled.

He supported New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the GOP presidential nomination but went to work for Nixon after he got the nod, declaring the western portion of the campaign.

Besides his real estate holdings, mostly in Anchorage, Hickel is board chairman of the Anchorage Natural Gas Co. and director of the Alaska Pipeline Co.

He has six children.

SEC. OF TRANSPORTATION

The upcoming secretary of transportation, John A. Volpe, brings an experience to his new job that goes well beyond the political life that led him to three terms as governor of Massachusetts.

Starting as a member of his family's construction firm, Volpe moved into government in the 1950s. Appointed by President Eisenhower to be the nation's first federal highway administrator in 1957, Volpe directed the start of the nation's interstate highway system.

He left the federal government in 1960 to win his first term as Republican governor in his home state. He was defeated in 1962 for re-election, but regained the state house two years later. He won a four-year term in 1966.

As chairman of the National Governors' Conference, he continued his efforts to strengthen the nationwide highway program.

Volpe, 60, born to immigrant Italian parents, served as a Navy officer in World War II. Volpe is married to the former Jennie Benedetto and has two children.

SECRETARY OF COMMERCE

Maurice H. Stans brings to his new job as commerce secretary in the Nixon administration an expertise in financial affairs developed on high levels in both private and government life.

Stans, 60, entered adulthood as a saxophone player in his native Minnesota. But he soon moved into the world of commerce in Chicago and ultimately headed the nation's 10th largest accounting firm.

He became an investment banker and was appointed President Eisenhower's budget director from 1958 to 1961.

Reputed as a fiscal conservative, Stans is expected to continue the tight-budget economic philosophy he projected as budget director.

He played an active part in Republican party affairs after leaving the government and was a prime mover in raising money for Nixon's campaign this year.

Stans is married to the former Kathleen "Carmody" and they have four adopted children.

SEC. OF AGRICULTURE

President-elect Nixon's selection of Clifford Hardin to be his secretary of agriculture projects into the national political scene a man little-known outside Midwestern educational circles.

Hardin, 53, has served as chancellor of the University of Nebraska for the last 14 years and has watched the school more than triple in size since he became its head.

A man said by associates as having unshakable patience and perseverance, Hardin took little if any part in national or state politics, although he is a registered Republican.

Hardin was born and raised in Indiana's farm country and has spent most of his life involved in agricultural matters.

After graduation from Purdue University with a PhD in 1941, he started his academic career as a professor of agricultural economics first at Wisconsin University and later at Michigan State.

He rose to dean of the Michigan school's agricultural economics department before being appointed in 1954 to run the University of Nebraska. He is married to the former Martha Wood. They have three daughters and two sons.

Federal Funds Will Help Finish Stanley Highway

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than $900,000 in federal funds has been allocated to help improve two scenic Idaho highways, Rep. James A. McClure, R-Idaho, said today.

McClure said the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads would make $500,000 available for improvement of Idaho 21 between Lowman and Stanley in southwestern Idaho.

The other project, he said, will be improvement of the Lewis and Clark Highway between Kootenai and Montana, at a federal cost of $400,000.

Former T. F. Man Named To Park Post

A former Twin Falls man, John A. Rutter, has been named director of the National Park Service.
The announcement was made by Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Rutter has been serving as regional director in the Park Service's Western Regional Office, San Francisco.
Areas under Mr. Rutter's direction will include National Park Service areas in the states of Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Lava Beds National Monument in Northern California.
Mr. Rutter, 50, began his park career in the Navy. He has a degree in forestry from the University of California.
Mr. Udall said William L. Bowen, chief, office of design and construction, San Francisco Planning and Service Center, will succeed Mr. Rutter as regional director, and Glenn O. Hendrix, supervisory landscape architect at the center, will replace Mr. Bowen.

FEDERAL FUNDS APPROVED
WASHINGTON (AP)—A $37,000 federal grant has been approved to help finance tours through Rocky Mountain states of several performing groups, including Idaho's Oinkari Dancers.
The committee also scheduled visits to Heyburn and Farragut state parks.
High and Palmer said "The legislature has made sizable appropriations in the past to develop and improve the state park system and these visits will be made to evaluate the progress which has been made."
"The fact these hearings are being held prior to the convening of the legislature will permit maximum legislative understanding of the budgetary problems of state institutions and public schools," they said.

Joint Finance Committee Inspection Tour Planned

The list of places the legislative Joint Finance Appropriations Committee will visit on its biennial inspection tour was released Tuesday by the co-chairman of the committee.
The list gives the committee's itinerary for Jan. 6-11, the week prior to the opening of the regular session of the 40th legislature. The committee will be in South Central and Southeast Idaho during the first half of the week and then will go to North Idaho.
The co-chairmen—Sen. Richard High of Twin Falls and Rep. Lenkin Palmer of Malad—said the committee will visit Southwest Idaho points during the session.
The committee will meet with regional public school officials in hearings at Twin Falls, Downey, Idaho Falls and Coeur d'Alene.
Committee members will visit the following institutions: The State School for the Deaf and Blind; the tuberculosis hospital at Gooding; College of Southern Idaho; State Hospital South; Lava Hot Springs; Idaho State University; the Youth Training Center at St. Anthony; St. Mary's Hospital North; Lewis Clark Normal School; the Lewiston Children's Home; the University of Idaho; and North Idaho Junior College.

Friendly Cabbie Handed $250

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Cabbie Jim Newman's good turn to a stranger has brought him an early Christmas present—$250 which will help him and his family take a holiday trip to California.
Newman was driving Morris Lewis, a grocery store operator from Indianapolis, Miss., to the airport last week when his passenger suffered a severe nose-bleed.
Newman took him to a doctor, then a clinic and promised to wait for Lewis' and take care of his baggage. But Lewis had to stay overnight for treatment of a broken artery.
Lewis gave the receptionist a $20 bill for Newman, and that was a $15.05 tip above the fare. Then came a phone call early this week from Lewis' wife, who thanked him for helping a stranger in trouble, and later a surprise $250 check.
Newman said it was a smart move to get into the cab business a year ago, because "I used to be a mencester, and I never made that kind of tip hocking at a rump roast."

Changes Planned In Textbooks

BOISE (AP)—Widespread changes in the content of Idaho high school textbooks are scheduled during the next five years, Gov. Don Owen said Tuesday.
Owen said the State Department of Education, said Tuesday.
"While there is no noticeable change in book categories," Reddington said, "the content has been revised and updated. There is more focus on teaching techniques and philosophy to meet the modern demands of technical and vocational education programs."
He said the semiannual meeting of the State Textbook and Improvement of Instruction Committee approved some 400 book titles for adoption by the State Board of Education for school use.

Astronauts Test Return In 'Crisis'

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The Apollo 8 astronauts Tuesday practiced returning to earth under emergency conditions, while launch crews worked toward Saturday's historic blast-off for a Christmas-time flight around the moon.
Meanwhile, another launch crew at the busy spaceport prepared for Wednesday's launch of the most advanced satellite yet developed. It will more than double trans-Atlantic satellite telephone and television links.
Countdown preparations for Saturday's 7:51 a.m. (EST) launching "continues satisfactorily," NASA said late Tuesday.
Technicians preparing the moonship and its 363-foot-tall Saturn 8 booster rocket completed spacecraft electrical checks Tuesday, installed ordnance devices used to separate launch vehicle stages in flight and began loading helium into the moonship's engine system.

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Crop-killing cold spread-glittering frost over Florida's lush wintertime vegetable and citrus belts, twice in 24 hours, causing extensive damage that likely will put a "crimp" in the output of American housewives.
The cold came Monday and Tuesday, at a time when previous frosts had already made inroads on the vegetables in the nation's wintertime salad bowl surrounding Lake Okechobee.

Industrial Production Posts Third Consecutive Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Industrial production posted its third consecutive monthly increase in November, the Federal Reserve reported today. It said the output of the nation's factories, mills and mine stopped that of a year earlier by 4.8 per cent.

The strong upward trend of the index, one of the most significant indicators of national economic activity, seemed to indicate that the administrative efforts to flatten the rate of climb are still less than effective.

Businessmen and economists have been expecting further attempts, either by the administration or such semi-independent regulatory bodies as the Federal Reserve, to curb the rate of expansion.

In particular, they have been watching for the Federal Reserve to raise the discount rate, the basic interest rate it charges when it lends to its member banks. A rise in the discount rate makes borrowing more expensive for businesses and theoretically should force some to postpone expansion plans.

The industrial production index in November reached 107.4 per cent of the 1957-59 base period average. The index stood at 105.7 in October, this figure having been revised upward from the one originally released in the report last month.

Gains in output were widespread among finished goods and materials. "Auto" assemblies continued at the advanced October level and December schedules are set at the same rate.

Output of household goods increased in November except for television sets which declined. Production in most sectors of business equipment rose further. Output of iron and steel and most other industrial materials also increased.

Disputed Test Delayed One Day

U.S. Will Retain Ownership Of Shale Lands Minerals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department says the federal government will retain ownership of all minerals extracted in association with shale oil in public lands.

The department's chief legal officer, Edward Weinberg, said in a recent memo to Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall that the government will keep title to minerals which cannot be mined without disturbing rich shale oil deposits in Colorado, Utah and Wyoming.

Interior has challenged the validity of several thousand mining claims filed on federal oil shale lands.

Even if the claims are assumed to be valid, the Weinberg memo said, they do not convey rights to any minerals which cannot be mined without disturbing oil shale or other minerals subject to leasing under a 1920 law.

Mining claims are filed for such minerals as gold, silver and uranium.

Interior contends that minerals found in association with shale oil, including the aluminum-bearing dawsonite, are covered by the 1920 mineral leasing law and are not available through mining claims.

Samuelson Demands 'Profit' From Sale Of Gem State Land

BOISE (AP) — Gov. Don W. Allen, Gen. Allan C. Shepard and the state Board of Examiners told the governor that any state land sale should be made as large a profit as possible. Samuelson said he would look into possibilities for disposal of the land profitably.

Samuelson discussed the land to be vacated in the next few years, 60 of which are enclosed by the new state prison penitentiary land and 100 of which are completed south of Boise — which were given to the state after a long meeting of the Idaho Admissions board.

The governor said proceeds from the sale of the land would be used to help finance construction of new prison facilities. He said he planned to ask the legislature next year to allow the state to dispose of the prison land as it becomes available. Included in the area is a well with water running at a temperature of about 180 degrees, Samuelson said.

Samuelson objected to a request by Public Works Commissioner Robert V. De Sisto to authorize state payment for the houses in the Capital Mall area. There were no bidders. De Sisto told the board in a letter when the houses were put on the auction block.

The governor said one reason the houses were not sold was that they were advertised in the newspaper legal section, instead of classified ads. He said an attempt would be made to sell the structures, so the state would not have to bear the expense of tearing them down.

The board read a letter from state Treasurer Marjorie R. Moon, who said this fiscal year has been the first for many years in which the general fund had stayed in the black and no tax anticipation notes were necessary.

State Auditor Joe R. Williams said it was "the first time in my memory" that the general fund had stayed out of the red for so long.

Court Delays Execution Of Speck

CHICAGO (AP) — The execution of Richard Speck, 27, for murdering eight young nurses was stayed today by the Illinois Supreme Court pending possible future action by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Jan. 31 had been set as the date for execution. The order delaying the death penalty was signed by Justice

Daniel P. Ward of the Illinois Supreme Court.

The Illinois court recently upheld the conviction of Speck by a Circuit Court jury in Peoria in April 1967. The eight nurses were strangled and knifed in their Chicago townhouse dormitory but the trial was shifted, dominated on a defense plea that Speck could not receive an unprejudiced hearing in the community where the crime took place.

The nurses were slain July 14, 1966. Speck was apprehended a few days later when his identity was discovered in County Hospital where he had been taken for treatment of self-inflicted knife wounds.

ICC Examiner Endorses Plan For Merger Of Major Railroads

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Interstate Commerce Commission hearing examiner recommended today approval of the proposed merger of the Chicago and North Western Railway Company and Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad Co.

Chicago, have been held on the proposal for the benefit of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The examiner said that all of the conditions which the applicant must agree to accept for the merger were imposed including the position of any of the conditions sought by the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Lake Superior and Ishpeming, Western Pacific, Northern Pacific, and Great Northern Railroads. He said that although these railroads would suffer some diversion of traffic, it would not affect their ability to provide service to the public.

If the commission approves, the merger would form a rail complex of some 22,000 miles. It would operate in 15 states, extending from north in Illinois and Indiana to the West Coast. The C. and N.W. operates from Chicago westward into Wyoming. The Milwaukee operates from Chicago across the northernmost tier of states to the west coast of Washington.

U. S. Jaycee Official Is Speaker At Burley Confab

BURLEY—Donald R. Bianchi, vice president of the U. S. Jaycee, was guest speaker at a luncheon Monday in Burley during a confab of the Ponderosa Inn, hosted by the Burley Jaycee Club. Gail Manning gave the invocation and Jay Haskell led the prayer.

Mr. Bianchi told the Jaycees that the Burley Jaycee Club is one of the few clubs in Idaho that has a potential for receiving a gold chip award at the state convention next spring at Twin Falls. To receive a gold chip award, the club must have a 10 per cent increase in membership during the past five years. The Burley Club has had 10 per cent increase for the past four years.

"Jaycees are different, for we assist in developing young men as leaders," stated Mr. Bianchi. "Over 80 per cent of the president and top officials of all the large companies in the United States at one time were Jaycee members, and out of 75 U.S. Senators and Representatives elected 70 per cent of them have been Jaycees."

Presently there are about 300,000 Jaycee members in the United States and the organization has been active for 50 years, Mr. Bianchi reported.

"We as young men ages 21 to 35 need to become involved in community affairs and in turn by working on projects, leadership is developed," he stated. "The average American goes to work at 8 a.m., gets off at 5 p.m., returns to his home, mows the lawn or sweeps the walk, has his dinner with

Persecuted Prophet Jeremiah Could Not Remain Silent And Thus Suffered

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Brused, lacerated and high-deep in mud at the bottom of an empty cistern, Jeremiah waited for the end. "They hung me alive into the pit . . . I flung away his Book of Lamentations. Men dogged our steps . . . our days were numbered. The aged prophet had been beaten and dumped into the deep stone shaft to die, about 588 B.C., for condemning slavery and on charges of treason, sedition and national defense and security.

"Let this man be put to death for his weakening the hands of the soldiers," demanded the chauvinistic courtiers of Judah's King Zedekiah who had sent a desolate Jeremiah against the Babylonian forces of Chaldeans.

Babylon had become the new ominous colossus of the East in 612 B.C., crushing the Assyrian empire which had dominated the area for nearly a century and in rapid order, making Egypt, Judah and other states subject to it.

Through the vicissitudes of imperial overrule, first by Assyria, then briefly by Egypt and now by Babylon, Jeremiah had spent 40 years in urging internal moral and religious integrity as Judah's only hope.

"Amend your ways and your doings," he had pleaded, and the nation shall endure blessedly, but otherwise, it shall become a desolation, a fair of jackals, this city shall be burned with fire."

It was an appalling insight, but one that could apply to any desperately sick society plunging into oppression, distrust, strife and disunion.

"Behold, I will bring forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest is stirring," the prophet said. "The clamor will resound to the end of the earth, for the Lord has an indictment against the nations. His dire portions and attacks on prevailing conditions keep him in continual jeopardy.

"Denounce him!" yelled the mob patriots. "Let us denounce him."

In his tumultuous career, as related in the books of Jeremiah and II Kings, he was repeatedly threatened with death, and at various times, imprisoned, flogged, pinioned publicly in stocks, forced into hiding, half buried in a well and eventually driven into exile.

"We looked for peace," he said, "but no good came, for a time of healing, but behold, terror."

He was a lonely, solitary figure, unmarried, ostracized by his relatives, sometimes even feeling cut off from the divine focus of his own life so that God seemed "like a stranger . . . who dwelt outside."

"O Lord, Thou hast deceived me," he agonized at one point. "I have become a laughingstock . . . a reproach and derision all day long . . . Cursed be the day when I was born."

Yet if he considered God's will when he called to declare God's word for man's fulfillment, he said, there would come "in my heart—a fire—a burning fire shut up in my bones," and he could not hold it in.

"My anguish, my anguish," he exclaimed, "I cannot keep silent—for I hear the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war."

But even as he recognized the gathering clouds of doom, he, like the other great prophets, sensed so keenly the unshakable human attainment of humanity that he knew it must eventually bring a reconciliation.

"Behold the days are coming," says the Lord, "when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah, not like the old covenant . . ." Jeremiah wrote, in a passage which Christians see as a foreword to Jesus's coming at Christmas.

Jeremiah's ministry lasted from about 626 to 580 B.C., in the backwash of the abominations left by the vile King Manasseh, who had been totally subservient to the Assyrians and their barbarous paganism.

A brief-retard impulse under King Josiah's reign collapsed when he was killed in 609 B.C. in a battle with Egypt's forces, whose Pharaoh Neco dethroned Judah's next King, Jehoiachin, an unscrupulous, grasping puppet, bringing back mass depravity.

The harvest is past, the summer is ended and we are not saved," Jeremiah cried. "Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?"

With a crowd of sympathizers, he staged a demonstration outside the city walls, breaking a clay flask into bits to dramatize the fate facing Jerusalem. Then, standing in the Temple's inner court, he declared that Judah's debauchery would bring its destruction by Babylon.

An officer had the prophet flogged and locked in stocks—like the Benjamin's Gate as a public enemy.

Released next day, he continued his unrestrained denunciations, assailing Judah's military alliance with Egypt against Babylon. Officials seized him, "You shall die!" He was put on trial for treason. Another prophet, Uriah, already had been executed for similar warnings of a military catastrophe.

Jeremiah was let off temporarily under surveillance, barred from the Temple precincts, he dictated a scathing sermon to his secretary, Baruch, and had him read it publicly.

Aides to King Jehoiachin seized the manuscript and delivered it to him. He read the scroll, and burned it. "Seize Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet," he ordered. "The pair fled into hiding. "We are men . . . a man of strife and contention to the whole land!" Jeremiah sorrowed. "All of my course me . . . waiting for my fall . . ."

In 585 B.C., four years after Egypt overcame Judah, Jerusalem was overwhelmed by Babylon in the Battle of Carchemish, making Babylon the master of the Middle East from the Nile to the Euphrates; those who refused King Zedekiah's launched resistance against the new conqueror, Jeremiah returned to warn him that Judah would become "a horror, a blessing, an everlasting reproach."

Soon afterward, in 588 B.C., Babylon's forces invaded Jerusalem, sending its leading artisans and king into captivity.

Jeremiah urged the newly installed ruler, Zedekiah, to concentrate on peaceful social reform. "Do justice . . . deliver from the hand of the oppressor them who had been robbed," Zedekiah wavered, finally giving in to the war planners, Jeremiah mourned. "They have healed the wound of my people, saying, 'Peace, Peace,' where there is no peace."

but later removed to a guard-house on instructions of the king, who continued consulting him. When a royal order freeing Jerusalem's slaves went unforced, and ignored, Jeremiah thundered:

"Thus saith the Lord: You have not obeyed Me by proclaiming liberty, everyone to his brother . . . As a result, the country would be subjected to sword, famine and the horror of Babylon's forces!" which would "burn it with fire!"

WHY CHRISTMAS ALMOST WASN'T

IT'S NO USE! THE CLEIGH IS STUCK FAST!

LOOKS LIKE NOBODY'S GOING TO GET ANY PRESENTS THIS YEAR!

I WONDER WHY IT WON'T MOVE?

I KNOW, BUT IT'S A SECRET AND NOTHING COULD MAKE ME TELL!

TELL US!

SAY PLEASE!

Soon afterward, with Babylon's troops pounding at the walls and the city swept with hunger and panic, Jeremiah was arrested, again accused of treason and with the king's approval, cast into the empty cistern to starve.

But even in despair, Jeremiah saw a future and a hope, which Jews regard as a promise of national restoration and the Christians see as a harbinger of Jesus.

"Thus says the Lord . . . In those days and at that time I will cause a Righteous Branch to spring forth for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness."

The stone, hovering on the cistern was pushed aside and the light poured in. A black Ethiopian slave, named Ebed-netch, lowered ropes to Jeremiah and pulled him out. But he was again imprisoned.

Flu-Blamed For Colds Official Says

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — "It's like trying to add apples, elephants and camels."

This was the word from a harassed official of the National Communicable Disease Center which has been deluged with calls from persons worried about Hong Kong flu.

"Some people have colds and some people have something else and it's all being called Hong Kong flu," said George Steinhouse, public information chief of NCDC.

"We're getting calls from mothers with questions they should be asking their doctors," Steinhouse said Monday. "We try to assure them that if (the flu virus) is not a strange and exotic disease and tell them to call their doctor."

But still the calls keep pouring in. "We've got four men answering calls in this office alone and the telephone have been busy all day," the official said.

Steinhouse said the calls aren't just coming from the Atlanta area. "The London Telegraph wants us to tell them how long it will be before the epidemic reaches London," England," he said.

The NCDC says the new flu virus won't reach its peak until at least the first of the year.

River Rights Pact Outlined For 3 States

PORTLAND (AP)—A compact that would give top water rights in the Columbia River Basin to Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana was proposed Tuesday to the Columbia Interstate Compact Commission.

James E. Murphy of Montana introduced the proposed policy statement.

Oregon withdrew from the commission in 1965 because of slow progress, but sent an observer to the Tuesday meeting. He was Don Lane, executive director of the State Water Resources Board.

A committee was asked to prepare a statement on a proposed compact for presentation to the 1969 state legislature. Congress has authorized the commission to negotiate a compact.

The proposed policy statement was quoted from Raphael Moses, Colorado water authority, who said in a speech in Montana:

"As the competition for water in the country increases, the compact technique stands on the record made thus far, as the most satisfactory method yet utilized to apportion this vital resource."

High School Graduates Can Be Pilots

High school graduates are needed for the Army's Warrant Officer Flight program, reports SFC Clarence Fulton, Twin Falls Army recruiter.

This is the only program in the armed services that allows a high school graduate with no college to learn to fly and become a pilot, he said.

To enter this program a man must enlist initially for a two-year period. After basic training, he is sent to ground school at Ft. Worth, Tex. Upon completion of ground school he then goes to either Ft. Rucker or Hunter Air Force Base, Ala., for flight school. For the final stages of flight training his instructors are all combat veterans of Vietnam, SFC Fulton stated.

Upon graduation from flight school, after 36 weeks of both ground and flight training, a man earns his wings, becomes a warrant officer and signs for a three-year enlistment as a pilot, he said.

The flight physical for the Army's WOF program is the same as the Air Force Class I examination for jet pilots except the Air Force insists on 20/20 vision and the Army has recently reduced this requirement to 20/30 correctable vision, he said.

he stated. The WOF program involves training in either fixed wing or rotary wing aircraft, SFC Fulton stated. At this time the emphasis is on helicopters, he said.

If an opening exists for fixed wing training, the Army assigns the man who expressed preference for that training, he stated. For further information contact the Twin Falls Army Recruiting office, 245 Main St. W.

U.S. Airmen Help Navajos With Yuletide

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The Air Force is helping to play Santa Claus for the sprawling Navajo-Indian reservation again this year.

This time, however, it's no emergency—just generosity.

An Air Force C-124 transport landed at Kirtland Air Force Base in Albuquerque Saturday with Christmas gifts collected by the Utah Air Force Association.

The gifts will be distributed by the Navajo Tribal Council to all parts of the reservation.

The gifts were donated by employees at Hill Air Force Base, the Defense Depot Administration in Salt Lake City and aerospace industries in Utah.

Whitfield Transportation Inc., Albuquerque, has donated one of its tractor trailer units to haul the gifts to Window Rock, Ariz., for distribution.

Last year's Christmas was a bleak one for many of the 130,000 Navajos because of one of the heaviest snows in recent history. The Air Force flew numerous rescue missions in that storm.

MORE THAN 25,000 toothpicks, 535 styrofoam balls and 18 cans of green-spray paint went to make up this unique Christmas "tree," being decorated by Mrs. Eleanor Hantmorker of Victoria, Minn. The tree, handcrafted by Mrs. Hantmorker's granddaughter, Judith Chalkstrom of Wayzata, Minn., is seven feet tall and is decorated with 255 lights. (AP wirephoto)

Employees Feted By Buhl Bank

Buhl—The annual Farmers National Bank Christmas party was held recently with some 25 employees, directors and their husbands or wives present.

A social hour was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hamilton with prizes being awarded to Stan Thompson, Mrs. Walter Olson, Mrs. J. McCandless, Lowell Shafer and Jim Hart.

Dinner was held in Twin Falls. Guests were Irene Wilson, Lilian Bagley and Mrs. Lee Hoobing. Mrs. Walter Olson was honored with a special gift.

Tiny Soldier Seeks New Duty

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — First Lt. Richard Flaherty, 100 pounds and 4-feet-9, has volunteered for Special Forces training at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Flaherty, 23, who had to gain six pounds and obtain a waiver of the height requirement to get into the Army in the first place, is no stranger to rigorous living.

In 13 months of duty in Vietnam recently he was wounded three times and won the Silver Star and two Bronze Stars.

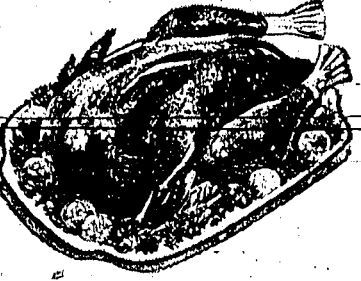

"I've taken a lot of kidding, about my size," he said at his home here. "I just tell them I'm 85 pounds of muscle, 14 pounds of dynamite and one pound of uranium-238, and it gets a lot of laughs."

Players Declare Owners' Proposal Is 'Inadequate'

NEW YORK (AP) — Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, called the club owners' proposal for increased pension and fringe benefits "inadequate and outrageous" Tuesday and added, "there is a possibility we will go to court."

The owners, represented by the Player Relations Committee, earlier in the day had offered to recommend an increase of $1 million in the annual contribution to the players' pension plan. The additional money

Richfield Hits Early To Beat Bliss

BLISS — Richfield racked up the first 13 points Tuesday night and went on to top the Bliss Bears 51-42 Tuesday night in a Northside Conference game that ended with each team having four men on the floor in the final minutes.

Richfield was firmly in control when Joe Leach scored the first Bliss point from the foul line to make it 13-1. But the Bears came back well, cutting the halftime deficit to six and early in the fourth quarter putting together a flurry that cut the lead to three before the Tigers wrapped it up.

Due to illness of two men and academic ineligibility of another, Bliss suited up only five men for the game. Frank Leaker left out with four minutes left, leaving Bliss with four men. Richfield Coach Leroy Johnson withdrew one of his men and allowed it to wind up four-on-four.

Kelly, Earl Morrall Nab NFL Laurels

NEW YORK (AP) — Leroy Kelly, Cleveland's explosive ground-gainer, is the National Football League's rushing and scoring champion while Baltimore's handymen Earl Morrall has captured the passing title for the first time in 13 pro seasons.

Kelly rambled for a personal career high of 1,239 yards, becoming the fifth player in NFL history to take rushing honors for two consecutive seasons.

The Browns' ace, who has gained more than 1,000 yards each year since he became a regular in 1960, forced 20 touch-downs and 16 of them on the ground to win the scoring title with 120 points.

Ken Willard of San Francisco was runner-up in the rushing derby with 867 yards and Dallas pluckier Mike Clark trailed Kelly in scoring with 105 points on 17 field goals and 54 extra-point conversions.

Morrall, given the Colts' quarterback job when regular Johnny Ueland camp up with a lame throwing elbow at the outset of the season, completed 182 of 317 passes for 2,909 yards and 26 touchdowns, according to final NFL figures released today.

The veteran signal-caller topped Dallas' Don Meredith in the passing standings, based on completion percentage, touch-down passes, interception percentage and average gain per attempt.

AFL All-Stars Dominated By Top Pair

NEW YORK (AP) — Oakland and Kansas City, with 17 players between them, dominate the Western team for the American Football League All-Star game. The team was selected by the coaches, and the remainder of the squad will be determined by the All-Star squad coach, who will be named later this week. The game is scheduled for Jan. 19 in Jacksonville, Fla.

San Diego's Kenny Graham is the only player who isn't a Raider or a Chief.

The Kansas City players on defense are center Jerry Mays, tackle Buck Buchanan, Jim Mackey, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch and safety Johnny Robinson. Oakland players are end Ben Davidson, tackle Dan Birdwell, linebacker, Dan Connors and centerbacks George Atkinson and Willie Brown.

The offense is made up of wide receivers Lance Alworth, San Diego, and Warren Wells, Oakland; tackles Jim Taylor, Kansas City, and Ron Mix, San Diego; guards Ed Budde, Kansas City, and Walt Sweney, San Diego; center Jim Otto, Oakland; quarterback John Huddle, San Diego; running backs Paul Robinson, Cincinnati, and Hervert Dixon, Oakland, kicker Jay Stenerud, Kansas City and tight end Billy Cannon, Oakland.

Capital Holds No. 1 Rating; 5 Magic Valley Teams In Top 20

By The Associated Press

Capital High swept 12 of 14 first-place votes to retain the No. 1 rating in basketball position in the weekly Associated Press poll of sportswriters and sportscasters.

With one weekend remaining before the holiday recess, the Eagles nailed down 20 points more than second-place Borah High.

Moscow—High—placed third, just one behind Borah.

Three new teams appeared in the top half of the 20-team list: Minico, tied for 18th last week, jumped to seventh while Nampan—High—last week—ranked 19.

Southern Idaho Conference plans to take eighth. The third new team is Skyline of Idaho Falls, which moved to ninth from 11th.

Caldwell High held its No. 4 listing, while Blackfoot jumped from 18th to fifth this week. Highland of Pocatello dropped from fourth to sixth, and Lewiston, which had its weekend slate wiped out by a flu epidemic, stayed in 10th place.

Rounding out the top 20 in order are Kelly of Boise, down from eighth; Sandpoint, down from eighth; Filer, Burley, New Plymouth, Pocatello, (down from seventh) Bonneville, Wood River, Gooding and Wallace.

25,000-Seat Dome Proposed For Idaho

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — An ultra modern domed athletic complex, which would be the largest in the West, was recommended Tuesday to University of Idaho President Ernest W. Hartung by the school's Athletic Board of Control.

Chairman Roland Byers, said the board, composed of faculty representatives, administration officials, student leaders and sportsmen, strongly urged construction of the complex.

At the present time, there is nearly $7 million committed for the complex to the Board of Regents through students fees. No estimated cost figure was given by Byers.

The facility would seat 25,000 persons and would house football, basketball, tennis, handball and several other types of sports.

Athletic Director Paul Ostyn said Tuesday's recommendation was "the first positive action by any group in making a recommendation for the athletic complex."

"This recommendation is not binding in any form, however, it is a strong voice of the Board in hoping to get the University of Idaho moving towards construction of the much needed complex," Ostyn said.

"In making statements on the complex, we cannot afford to build just one facility," he said. "This must be multipurpose in scope and we know it will take a lot of special designing in order to achieve the type of building we need."

The Moscow school now has an auditorium which seats 3,500 for basketball games and a 35-year old football stadium which holds 17,500.

All Loses Protest Over Jail Sentence

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Former heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali lost the first round Tuesday in his bid to have his 10-day jail sentence reduced but may yet still win the fight by default.

Attorney for Ali—formerly Cassius Clay—asked Metro Judge Robert Diehl to commute his client's sentence on the ground that Ali did not know his driver's license had been suspended when he was arrested by a traffic policeman 18 months ago.

Judge Diehl said the excuse didn't stand up in court and ordered Ali returned to the Dade County Jail.

However, the judge did say it was the usual holiday procedure to grant minor offenders Christmas amnesty and acknowledged Ali might be freed next Monday.

If released then, he would have served eight days of the 10-day sentence.

Kramer's Home Razed By Fire

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The home of Green Bay Packer guard Jerry Kramer was swept by fire Tuesday morning. His wife, Barbara, and youngest son, the only persons in the house at the time, fled to safety.

Kramer, scheduled to appear on the Johnny Carson television show in New York Tuesday night, was not at home when the fire occurred. Two older children were in school.

Stats Reveal Card Hurlers' Low ERA

CINCINNATI (AP) — Every one knows the St. Louis Cardinals had a pretty fair hitting record in 1968-70 in the league in batting.

But official pitching averages, released Tuesday, show even more why they won the National League pennant for a second straight year.

The Cardinals' pitching staff had an earned run average of 2.49—the best in the league. Los Angeles was second at 2.69.

The 63 complete games by Cardinals hurlers were second only to the 77 by San Francisco.

The 1,282 hits they gave up were the fewest except for the 1,250 given up by—would you believe it—the New York Mets.

The 472 runs and 409 earned runs were the fewest given up by any pitching staff in the league. Los Angeles (63), Houston (68) and Pittsburgh (73) were the only teams to give up fewer than the 82-home runs allowed by Cardinals pitchers.

They yielded 375 walks and that was beaten only by Atlanta pitchers with 382.

The Cards' Bob Gibson took off a major share of the individual honors. His 1.12 earned run average for 61 games was the best in National League history. It beat the 1.22 mark of Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1915.

Gibson also led in strikeouts with 268 and in shutouts with 13. Gibson finished with a 22.0 mark for 710, third highest in the league.

Miller 58, Klover Club 37; Terry Miller had 20 points for Miller's, while Warnell paced Klover Klub with 10.

Carey Grabs Victory Over Camas County

FAIRFIELD—The Carey Panthers put together their best game of the season Tuesday night and knocked off the Camas County Mustangs 53-39 in a Northside Conference game.

Carey managed only a two-point margin in the first quarter but sparked into an 11-point halftime lead when Camas County managed only five points during the second quarter.

Murdoch, Peck and Baird all hit in double figures to pace the win.

Undefeated Blue Devils Top Castleford 57-51; Lee, Meservy Spark Win

CASTLEFORD—The Dietrich Blue Devils, paced by the clutch shooting of little Jim Meservy and the strong rebounding of Randy Lee, dumped the Castleford Wolves 57-51 Tuesday night.

Injury Aided Chiefs, Kept Brown On Line

NEW YORK (AP) — Aaron Brown didn't fight when he was told to switch. He just got injured.

It turned out to be the most rewarding injury the Kansas City Chiefs ever have had. The switch was to take place last year, when Coach Hank Stram decided to move Brown from the defensive line to the offensive backfield. But the plan was aborted because of an injury and Brown still was back on the defensive line when this season began.

Generally, his play is one of the reasons the Chiefs are meeting Oakland Sunday in a playoff for the American Football League's Western Division title. Specifically, his play against Denver last Saturday earned for him "The Associated Press" designation Tuesday as the AFL defensive player of the week.

By the time All-American Al Meserovitz spent his first year with the Chiefs, 1968, as a defensive end and tackle, Stram, however, wanted to see how the 6-foot-5, 265-pounder would do as a fullback.

"Aaron is an amazing athlete who has size, speed, quickness and coordination—all the things you look for in a big back," Stram said. "We wanted to try and utilize his ability and allow it free expression. At the time we also thought Brown's personality needed the challenge. The experiment would have provided."

Brown, however, suffered a serious thigh injury in an exhibition game and had to sit out the entire season.

By the time All-American Al Meserovitz camp this year, Stram had given up any thought of continuing the experiment. Instead, Brown became a starting defensive end, and his ability got all the free-expression it needed.

AAU, CBS To Broadcast Track Meets

NEW YORK (AP) — The Amateur Athletic Union and the Columbia Broadcasting System announced an agreement Tuesday to televise a series of track and field meets for most Sunday afternoons from May 31 through Aug. 31 next year.

Some of the programs will be live and some on tape. The live programs will include the National AAU Outdoor Championships from Miami Beach, Fla., in June and a triangular meet among the United States, Russia and the British Commonwealth in July. The two meets will be two-day affairs, Saturday and Sunday.

The Sunday programs will be shown over the CBS television network from 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time.

Mtn. Home Is Winner Over Glens Ferry

GLENS FERRY — Mountain Home's zone defense caught the Glens Ferry Pirates late Tuesday night and the Tigers romped home with a 52-21 non-conference victory.

The game was close only in the early minutes, Glens Ferry managing to stay within four at the rest period. But in the second quarter Glens Ferry's zone defense was so effective that the Tigers' offense just couldn't get going. Mountain Home warmed up with 17 points and romped into a 28-12 intermission edge.

All Glens Ferry's hopes for a comeback in the second half were washed away in a fast turnover as Mountain Home dominated the game.

Nitschke Nabs Player Of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — The biggest defensive play of the last day of the National Football League season was made by Ray Nitschke of the Green Bay Packers, who intercepted Jack Concannon pass in the final minutes to snuff out the Chicago Bears.

Nitschke's theft was the most dramatic of the night, earning him "The Associated Press" designation as the defensive player of the week in the NFL.

Green Bay took an apparently safe 28-10 lead into the final quarter with the Bears knowing they had to win to take the Central Division title. Long before the Bears' game was over, Minnesota was in the locker room in Philadelphia with a victory over the Eagles.

An inspired Bear rally closed the gap from 28-17, then to 28-20 and finally 28-27 in the closing minutes. The Bears had the ball on the Packer 43 on a first-and-10 situation before Concannon was thrown for a five-yard loss.

On fourth down, Concannon tried a desperate pass that was intercepted by Nitschke.

"We thought about attempting a field goal on that fourth down," said Bear Coach Jim Dooley, "but it would have been 37 yards and that was too much to ask of Mac Percival against the wind."

Gene Howard, a New Orleans rookie defensive back earned a commendation for his nine tackles in the Saints' 24-14 win over Pittsburgh.

After the game, Roy Jefferson, top Pittsburgh receiver, walked over to the youngster from Langston U. (Oklahoma) and said, "That's the best job anybody has ever done against me. You're really going to be a Bear safety."

Willie Williams of the New York Giants picked off two passes against Dallas and, although the Giants bowed to the Cowboys 28-10, Willie wound up with 10 interceptions, tops in the league. Spider Lockhart also made two interceptions in a Craig Morton pass out of the hands of Lance Rentzel in the end zone.

The St. Louis defense clamped down on the Cleveland Browns Saturday as Bill Nelson completed only one of three passes. Larry Wilson roamed far and wide for the Cards, who upset the Browns 27-10.

Hayes Still Holds NBA Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, San Diego's sensational rookie, has widened his National Basketball Association scoring lead and moved into the Top Three in rebounding.

Hayes dropped in 127 points in four games last week for a 31-game total of 938 and a 125-point bulge over runner-up Bob Rule of Seattle, according to weekly NBA figures released today.

The 6-foot-9 Rocket's 27 rebounds against Milwaukee on Friday helped him in third position in the rebounding derby behind pace-setter Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles and Boston player-coach Bill Russell. Chamberlain has grabbed 637 rebounds in 30 games. Russell is 556 in 27 and the Big E 553.

Hayes is averaging 30.3 points and 17.8 rebounds per start. Chamberlain remains on top in field goal percentage with an accuracy mark of .598, followed by Cincinnati's Jerry Lucas, .559, and Detroit's Terry Dischinger, .530.

Adrian Smith and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati are 1-2 in free throw accuracy with .882 and .856 percentages, respectively.

Seattle veteran Len Wilkens still leads the playmakers with 285 assists, to 280 each for Robertson and Milwaukee's Guy Rodgers. Robertson's per-game average of 10 leads is the top mark.

Royals Purchase Dodger Catcher

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Royals announced Tuesday the purchase of catcher Jim Campana from the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Officials of the local American League expansion baseball club earlier had announced buying Dennis Rife, a right handed pitcher, from Toledo of the International League.

FLANKER RETIRES PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ron Coe, a flanker for the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League seasons, announced his retirement Tuesday.

Lee And Meyer Battle For Magic Valley Scoring Lead At Record-Breaking Clip

Randy Lee of Dietrich and Don Meyer of Valley are locked in a scoring duel and the rest of Magic Valley's players are also raring. Through four games, Lee, a 6-1 senior, is averaging 30.2 points while Meyer, a 6-3 senior, has a 29.1 mark in four games.

This puts both well ahead of the pace for Ron Adkinson's record of 409 points.

Third places is held by Burley's Greg Bunn, a 6-6 senior, who is hitting at a 22.3 clip.

Townwise, the Filer Wildcats are scoring at a torrid 78.5 clip with Dietrich just behind at 75.2. Wood River is tops defensively, limiting three foes to 39.0 points per game, and Dietrich again is second at 42.7. Dietrich's average, winning spread, which some consider to be the truest measure of defense, is 34.5 points. With only seven men on his varsity, Coach Noel Johnson doesn't have much opportunity to throw-in the towel late in a ball game to manage such spreads.

Meyer, in his third year as a Valley starter, also is leading the district with 40 free throws—an average of eight per game. Gary Quesnell, Murtaugh's senior ace, is second with 29 in four games, while Bunn and Jim Burwright of Minico have 25. (Burley statistics do not include the unreported Bear River game.)

The scoring leaders, by A-1 and A-2, then Little Six, Magic Valley and Northside conference, include:

A-1, A-2—Greg Bunn, Burley, 23.1; Jim Burwright, Minico, 20.7; Ron Maxwell, Filer, 17.2; Kim Rawlings, Burley, 16.0; Scott Howard, Wood River, 15.7; Ken Livingston, Wood River, 14.0; Guy Ramsey, Filer, 14.7; Mitch Jones, Burley, 13.4; Mark Miller, Twin Falls, 11.2; John Bradley, Twin Falls, 11.0; Coates, Filer, 11.0; Allen Howa, Twin Falls, 10.0; and John Lukan, Minico, 10.0.

Little Six — Don Meyer, Valley, 29.4; Roger King, Wendell, 18.7; Ray Lapp, Jagerman, 18.5; Russ Nutcher, Kimberly, 17.0; Ross LeMoine, Jagerman, 13.2; Randy Clark, Jagerman, 13.2; Wolf, Valley, 13.0; Ralph

1969 Licenses Sent To Vendors

BOISE (AP) — The 1969 fishing and hunting licenses are being mailed to vendors this week, the Idaho Fish and Game Department reported Tuesday.

Also being distributed are fishing regulations for 1969. New licenses will be needed after Jan. 1 for winter fishing and waterfowl and varmint hunting.

The department noted, however, that the federal "duck stamp" issued last fall will be valid until the end of the waterfowl season.

ABC Will Air 28 NBA Contests

NEW YORK (AP) — Eighteen National Basketball Association games, including the All-Star game at Baltimore, and five playoff contests, will be televised by ABC this season, the network and the NBA announced Tuesday.

In announcing the schedule, Robyn Arledge, president of ABC Sports and Commissioner Walter Kennedy of the NBA, emphasized that the state would be flexible. Arledge said a game could be switched if another game should prove to be more meaningful.

Parents Can Be Santa's Helpers This Yule Season

Parents can be Santa's helpers this Christmas. Santa Claus knows a toy suitable for a 10-year-old boy may be potentially dangerous for a four-year-old child, and on Christmas Eve he tries to deliver toys accordingly.

Dr. Albert H. Domm, child safety spokesman for the western home office of the Prudential Insurance Co., suggests parents help Santa in delivering safe Christmas toys by keeping in mind the following shopper's checklist:

1. Does the toy have chemicals that may explode or poison?
2. Is the toy inflammable?
3. Is the finish on the toy labeled "nontoxic"?
4. Does the toy use electricity, batteries or flame which may shock, ignite, or burn?
5. Does the toy have sharp or jagged edges that could cut or injure?
6. Does the toy have removable parts that might be swallowed and cause strangulation?
7. Is the toy too heavy for a child to lift without injuring himself?
8. Can the toy be used safely without adult supervision?

Yule Splendor Accented With Accessories

The tiny size of a snowflake in no way diminishes its loveliness. Its delicateness, in fact, only increases its beauty in our eyes.

Similarly, the beauty of Christmas day comes alive when we fully perceive the importance of little things: shadows of candlelight, gleam of silver, smell of balsam and the crackle of fire at the Christmas hearth.

The voice of a friend, the embrace of a loved one, the eager rush of a child's fingers to open long-awaited gifts—these small memories can richly fortify us through lonelier days ahead.

Seeing beauty in small things can bring unexpected adventure to the humblest Christmas gathering. So, if Christmas this year is stripped and bare compared to years gone by, set about—in small ways—to transform it.

No space for a tree? No fire at the hearth? Then glorify the corner of a room with a tiny, handmade tree—fashioned of pinecones, or miniature apples, bananas, oranges and nuts.

Arrange fragrant evergreen boughs in a large vase or two, and for extra measure, create an extravagant red-ribboned evergreen swag for your doorway—either inside or out. Branches and tree, the Society of American Florists points out, can be purchased for a song at any florist shop.

Christmas day is more, of course, than festive decorations. It is meeting-again time, the day when we are buttressed by the presence of those we love. Blessed is the woman surrounded by friends and family who with her ignites the light of love. But what if family ties are gone? Twice blessed is the woman who still keeps the spirit of Christmas and ignites the light for a gathering of friends.

If your gathering is small, you have—all the more—reason to rejoice. For where only four or five assemble, there are greater possibilities for the truly personal encounter.

The early Greek Christians knew the invisible power of small gatherings. And their special word for small groups—"Koinonia" meaning "fellowship of the Holy Spirit"—is still relevant this Christmas Season.

CHILDREN AND ADULTS have a flair for Christmas ornaments. The personalized ornaments are made easily of paper mache over styrofoam. Imagination and creativity go to work in the designs as they come to life with nylon tip pens. Red and green pens show the Christmas colors while blue and black are used for accents. Children find the Christmas tree more meaningful as they help in the trimming. Their hand crafted ornaments are hung with hooks of bent paper clips.

SHOSHONE—The annual LDS Primary officers and teachers husband's Christmas dinner party was held at the church recreation hall. Mrs. Frank Garrett, president, gave the welcome address.

Conita Urrutia, accompanied by Mrs. D. S. Illatt, played accordion solos.

A ham dinner with homemade ice cream and cookies for dessert was served by the Beehive girls of the M.A.

Jay Fowler, accompanied by Mrs. Fowler, sang and led the group in Christmas carols. Mrs. D. H. Hansen recited a Christmas poem.

Decorations were along the holiday theme, with the Christmas party line illustrated with tiny telephone poles down the center of the table, decorated with pine cones, a tree with old-fashioned decorations and the fireplace with stockings hung.

Complexion Care In Winter Is Of Vital Importance

SHOSHONE — "Sports and soapuds make beauty bloom in winter." Esther Nyström, clothing specialist of the University of Idaho extension service, reminded women this week as she offered hints on skin care.

Wind and glare from snow can parch your complexion. Exercise in cold weather is invigorating. They bring out the rosy glow of health. But, lady beware. Even when your winter sports are no more than shoveling snow off the walk, your hands can become chapped and rough. The problem should be met throughout the season you are in, enhance the special beauty that winter brings.

For one thing, you can take advantage of the same precautions that are effective in summer. Soothe your eyes and protect the delicate surrounding skin against wrinkles by wearing sunlenses. While you are in on and snow. Wear a protective non-greasy sunburn lotion.

Just as basic is a program of steam-and-cream baths. And scrubbing the face gently, but firmly with upward motions removes chapped dead skin. A dried-out complexion should be lubricated, too. Here is a suggestion on one of the best ways to do it.

While running the bath water give yourself a soapuds facial, applying quantities of lather and massaging it into the skin. Rinse well and apply cleansing cream.

As you bathe, the steam will help the cream penetrate. A later wash of the lubrication. If your skin still tends to dryness, use a lubricating foundation under your makeup. Your hands will also benefit from soapuds — and softening. Apply hand cream or lotion each time they have been in the water. After soaking your hands in a bowl of soapy water, apply a special mixture for extra softening and cleansing. Melt bits of soap in a very little water, add a tablespoon of baby oil and blend the two. Massage over your entire hands, including the fingertips. This serves the additional purpose of softening the cuticle.

Neckties Are Perennial Leaders In Gift Department

SHOSHONE — When buying Christmas ties, "do into him as he would do unto himself," is the suggestion given through the clothing specialist of the University of Idaho and local home economics agent.

Neckties are perennial leaders in the gift department. There are hosts of patterns and types, but thoughtful advisers point out you will have a better chance of choosing something attractive if you consider the man's tastes.

Take note of the types and colors he wears most. Don't try to reform his tastes. If he likes them bright and bold that's the kind to give him. If he prefers restrained and attractive, don't try to brighten his appearance with vivid creations, despite the fact they are uncommonly popular this year.

Most neckties are a little wider this Christmas, fashion authorities say. Whether a man is conservative or far out in his colors he is likely to appreciate the new shape. As for shirts, the "button-down" or "spread collar" fans. There is a wave of popularity for deep tones of peace motifs overshadow a lot of other Christmas messages.

Traditionalists go for the long-point collars that can be worn with or without a pin. Sport shirts are available in wide variety. The turtleneck is still in.

This year they come in both knitted and woven models. Among the top styles in knits are the single-fold mack-turtles, classic polo collars, and rolling, Italian-type collars. Some of the woven shirts have ties to match.

Card Trends
 NEW YORK (AP) — What's the trend in Christmas cards this year?

Irving Cohen, president of Fifth Avenue Cards, reports that cards especially those that are big-sellers are foreign in theme. In fact, Mr. Cohen claims that international themes are taking precedence over provincial American motifs.

The "button-down" or "spread collar" fans. There is a wave of popularity for deep tones of peace motifs overshadow a lot of other Christmas messages.

EDEN — Thanksgiving Day brought many friends and relatives to the Eden Lutheran Church to help Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Krohn celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

The couple recalls another Thanksgiving Day quite vividly. It, too, fell on Nov. 28, as did this year's Thanksgiving. It was that date in 1918 that Olga Walters and Gerhard Krohn stood before a few friends and relatives to recite their vows at her parent's home.

The five Krohn children all attended the church service and dinner held in their parent's honor. They are Mrs. John (Erlinda) Hartman, Werner Krohn and Arlyn Krohn, all Eden, and Mrs. Harry (Althea) Peterson and Hans Krohn, both Brush, Colo. A daughter, Gertrude, died in 1936 at the age of 16, and a son, Clarence, was killed in a plane crash in 1952 while serving in the Air Force.

The four-tiered cake, decorated with gold leaves and topped with the numerals "50" in gold centered the table, with vases of gold and orange shades of roses.

The cake was baked by Mrs. Vern Schutte, Eden, Assisting Pastor. The service was held at the home of Mrs. Bryan Harris Jr., with Mrs. Robert Pettigrove, Mrs. Kenneth Daw, Mrs. Gordon Hill and Mrs. Donald DePew as hostesses.

Games were played for entertainment. A hot punch was served with refreshments.

Dear Abby
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A few weeks ago, our under-age daughter ran off and got married. She realized it was a terrible mistake and came home to us. Her father succeeded in having the marriage annulled. We are trying to live down this terrible nightmare, and don't wish to discuss it with anyone. When people ask us for the "details," what should we say?
SMALL TOWN, U.S.A.

DEAR SMALL TOWN: Don't tell them anything. Your friends won't ask. And your enemies won't believe you anyway.

DEAR ABBY: Just what are the responsibilities when one's name is used for a "character reference?" Some friends of ours have decided to adopt a child, and they have given our name as a reference. These people pay their bills, the husband doesn't beat his wife or anything like that, but in our opinion they would make poor parents. Without going into detail, they both drink a little too much. He "strays" from the straight and narrow path occasionally, and it wouldn't surprise us if she fooled around, too.

We have children of our own and take our parental responsibilities very seriously, so what do you suggest we do? Naturally, we don't want to lose their friendship.

ON THE SPOT
DEAR ON: When asked for a character reference, respond cautiously. Your remarks will be kept confidential. If your friends read the same newspaper you do, they may see this, in which case the jig is up.

DEAR ABBY: My wife, who works for a large insurance company, has just informed me that they are having an office Christmas party, and this year they took a secret vote and it was decided that husbands and wives will not be invited.

I just informed HER that I didn't care what they voted and SHE was not going to any party without me. We had a few words about it and now she's not speaking to me.

I'd like your opinion, Abby. How do you feel about company parties that specialize in drinking and dancing, but exclude the spouses?
CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: I'm four squares against anything that breaks friendly relations and, especially between husband and wife. And company parties which exclude spouses lead the list.

DEAR ABBY: In answer to "UNHAPPY IN CAL." I can tell this lady that I have lived under worse conditions than she has. For 48 years I have been married to the stingiest man God ever created, but when I said, "I take this man for better or worse, until death do us part," I meant every word of it.

It's been rough at times, but Jesus is my personal saviour and He never gives us a heavier load than we can carry, so all I ask is the strength to bear my cross until He sees fit to change things according to His will.

I just got out of the hospital with my fourth nervous breakdown. I had shingles in my mouth so bad I still can't wear my dentures, but God knows what is best for me and I have placed myself in His hands. People with problems can do the same.

HAS FAITH IN WINDBER, PA.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 60706, Los Angeles, Calif., 90060 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wood River Valley No. 22 Honors Pauline Howerjon

SHOSHONE — Pauline Howerjon, Payette, president of the Department Association LAMP of Idaho, was honored at a dinner recently when she visited the Wood River Valley No. 22 meeting at Gooding 100F Temple.

The tables were decorated in a Christmas motif. Mrs. Milton Roberts, Gooding, was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Omer Shook, Shoshone auxiliary president, conducted the business meeting after the dinner.

Miss Howerjon was introduced, welcomed and given a seat of honor on the right of the auxiliary president.

She was presented a gift from the auxiliary. Mrs. Boyd Harrison and Mrs. Zane Harrison, Fairfield, sang her song, "If I Can Help Somebody."

Other distinguished guests introduced were Mrs. Ted Arbogast, Burley, past president of the Department Association and right aide to the Department Association vice president; Mrs. Floyd Betts, Payette, department association chaplain; Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Floyd Omen, Nampa, both members of the Department Association honor guard; Mrs. Zane Harrison, officer of the guard of the Department Association; Mrs. S. Shook, Canadian, flag-bearer of the Department Association.

Mrs. Bryan reported three women and five men had attended an auxiliary and caution meeting at Burley.

Mrs. Biswell was appointed by Mrs. Shook to have charge of Miss Howerjon's special project in her term.

Miss Howerjon spoke on her program, stating her motto is "Love balances the scales of justice," her emblem, "The Golden Scales of Justice and the Golden Heart of Love"; her guide, "The Open Bible"; and her slogan, "Growth With Pride." She spoke briefly on rules and regulations of that branch of the order. Mrs. Arbogast spoke briefly and other guests gave acknowledgments.

The next regular meeting of officers for the coming year will be held with members of the Canton.

The thought of the day was given by Mrs. Roberts.

"Mink And Pearls" Offer New Idea In Beauty Baths

Holiday giving this season can provide the fun of tossing a handful of pearls into the bath. Mink and Pearls make it possible for they are capsules with the look of 8-mm pearls that dissolve in the bath to release precious essence of mink oil and perfume.

Newly introduced by Jovan, Inc., Mink and Pearls are available in leading department stores throughout the country and at cosmetic counters of selected specialty shops.

Claiming both the look and feel of luxury, Mink and Pearls have the lustre of rich, oriental pearls. Moreover, they contain essence of mink oil, a super-emollient which softens and moisturizes the skin. Because it is a natural, non-metallic salt, mink oil is readily absorbed into the skin, acting as a natural moisturizer that freshens delicate skin surfaces. Closely related to the more familiar lanolin, mink oil gives the skin a silky, soft finish, so that bathing with Mink and Pearls is like a mini-massage with rich, fragrant emollient.

A skit, "The Choir of God," was presented by Mrs. Dale Platt, organist; Mrs. Raymond Hill, filler, narrator, and Mrs. Warren Adamson, soloist.

Mrs. Marvin Westvig and Mrs. Hamer Adams were welcomed as new members. Gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Russell Halstead and Mrs. Aubrey Shockley assisted with serving of refreshments.

FRAGMENT BID USEFUL TOOL

The so-called fragment bid in one form or another should be used by every expert partnership. Basically, the fragment bid shows a singleton in the bid plain, old-fashioned, unvarnished Blackwood and South's five diamonds reveals one ace outside the diamond suit. Because he has already shown first-round diamond control, he would have bid five clubs had his only ace been in diamonds.

North proceeds to bid six hearts and, while South has some minor problems, finding the safest way to play the heart slam, everything works nicely, and he makes it.

When this hand was played in the trials, we regret to report that not one of the five North-South pairs reached the slam. Only one of them was playing this particular fragment bid and when North bid four clubs, South decided that his overcall was so weak and his king of clubs obviously so useless that South merely bid four hearts and played it there.

We believe that the 1969 team will adopt the fragment bid for the World's Championship matches and, if a hand similar to this comes up, our team will reach the slam.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1♠	Pass	INT.
Pass	2♥	Pass	7

You, South, hold:

♠ J 4 ♡ K 9 8 7 ♣ K 5 3 ♢ Q 6 2

What do you do now?

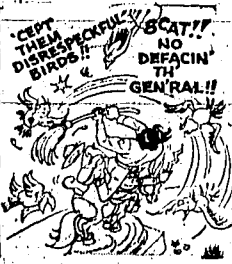

A—Pass. Your partner has just shown a little strength including some hearts. Your opening bid is a minimum.

Instead of bidding two hearts your partner raises you to two no-trump. What do you do now?

Policemen Train Dogs To Sniff Out Marijuana

The wicker basket... A FAIR with Clark Gable? A — Joan Crawford. They did eight pictures together... Q — "IS IT TRUE a navy-trained watchdog will never attack a man who is carrying a white flag?" A — Believe that depends entirely on how fast he is carrying it, sir.

WHAT TIME OF DAY were you born? The reporter shows up in the middle of the afternoon. A scholarly subscriber says: "I have become convinced a man is at his best all his life at about the same time of day he was born." I'm certainly at my liveliest in the middle of the afternoon. Maybe there's something to it. If that's right, most people are at their best between 3 and 10 a.m. That's when the majority of babies are born.

A SUBSCRIBER ASKS: "Do you remember when Billy Daniels first introduced 'That Old Black Magic'?" Certainly remember when Billy Daniels sang it. Who could forget? But he didn't introduce it. Johnny Johnston did. In a movie called "Star-Spangled Rhythm." "THE PERSON WITH the greatest chance of longevity is the one with the tendency to be fat who deliberately stays thin." So stated Dr. Clive McCay, specialist on how to live a long and happy life. If that doesn't give fresh hope to the dieters, what will?

NOW ANOTHER arithmetic trickster has me pinned to the wall with the following inquiry: "The combined ages of Geraldine and her alligator add up to 100 years. Geraldine is three times as old as her alligator." A — "God keep watch when the years older than her alligator is now. How old is her alligator?"

suit or possibly even in some other suit and at the same time confirms strong support for partner.

North's four-club call is an example. He has tremendous heart support and visualizes a slam if South can take care of diamonds.

South has a frightful vulnerable heart overall and the fact that his partner has a singleton club does not interest him in a slam but the essence of good partnership is to assume partner will know everything that is going on. Therefore, South does bid four diamonds over his partner's four clubs to show first-round diamond control.

North's four no-trump is

Miss Pielstick, Ebersole Plan August Wedding

LINNEA PIELSTICK

RUPERT—Mr. and Mrs. Elba Pielstick, former Jerome residents, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linnea, 36, Mark Ebersole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ebersole, Rupert.

Miss Pielstick attended Jerome schools through her sophomore year. She is a 1968 graduate of South Salem High School and is presently attending Salem Business College.

Mr. Ebersole is a 1966 graduate of Minico High School and is majoring in physics and math at Oregon State University.

An August wedding is planned at the First Baptist Church.

PERFECT GIFT

If your once-a-year super-extravagant party for friends and family happens to be at Christmas... if it is your custom to give favors to your guests at that time... then plan and construct a fabulous potted poinsettia plant Christmas tree, says the Society of American Florists. Arrange a pyramid of boxes against one wall. Place the beautiful scarlet and green plants upon them. At party's end, give one plant to each departing—and delighted—guest. It's a gift that grows.

Luncheon Held

The Alpha Delta Kappa Society held its Christmas luncheon recently in the Rogerson Hotel Colonial Room.

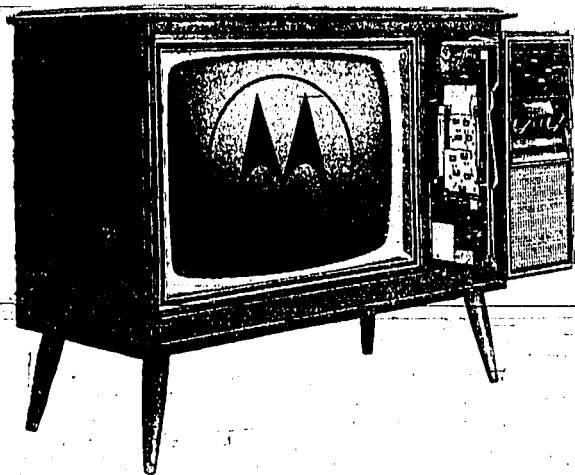

The tables were decorated in a Christmas motif, with a special corsage for each member. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mary Sackett, Isabelle Miller, Wilma Eaton and Edna Wilkening.

Get the Color TV with the works in a drawer.

The works in a drawer: 10 tubeless solid-state mini-circuits for solid dependability. Quasar is Color TV that stays at home working, not in the repair shop.

Have you been a color TV holdout? Still afraid of service problems? Look into Quasar... color TV with the works in a drawer.

Two important things made Quasar worth waiting for. The dependability of solid state electronics. And fast, at-home service you can only get with the works in a drawer.

In Quasar, most components except the rectifier and picture tube are solid state. They're tubeless mini-circuits... designed to work without burning themselves out. They plug in in minutes, if service is ever needed. A serviceman simply opens the drawer. Snaps in a replacement circuit. And that's it. In most cases service is handled in your home, not the repair shop.

Don't look for excuses! Look into Quasar instead. We're so impressed with Quasar reliability, we've guaranteed it (everything, picture tube and chassis parts), for two years. But you'll be impressed, too.

Two-Year Registered Guarantee on Picture Tube and All Parts

Original owner guarantee covers free exchange or repair of parts proven defective in normal use. Arranged through selling dealers. Labor and transportation extra. Guarantee not valid unless guarantee card mailed to Motorola within ten days after delivery of set.

EXTRA! New Motorola Electronic Remote Control! Remarkable and unique. Solid state! Solid reliability! Silent color and sound control. See it!
