TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1968

TEN-CENTS

THE TIMES-NEWS and Idaho Power Christmas Lighting Contest winners have been named and the winning selections appear here. The first place winner, on the left, is at the home of Donald W. Lamberti, 244 Duholo Ave. A large wreath encircles the lighting display and shows three different scenes. Next is the second place entry by Bill Bevor, 245

Seventh Ave. E. The display shows angels in front of the home. Third place went to Mrs. Earl Grummitt for the display at 636 Grant Ave. The scene is Christmas in Vietnam. On the right is the fourth place winner at 896 Monte Vista Drive belonging to Dr. William Jones and his family. (T-N photos by Dan Johnson)

Annual Christmas Lighting Contest Winners Listed

An inexpensive lighting display of plywood and egg cartons won first place for Mr. and Mrs. Don Lamberti, 244 Du Bois Ave. in the annual Twin Falls lighting contest.

The contest is sponsored by Times-News and Idaho Power Co. Judges for this year's contest were Mrs. G. L. Smout, Max Stuart and O. J. Smith.

The Lamberti's lighting display is encircled by a large wreath. The backing is of plywood and egg cartons which have foil glued inside them. The 336 small lights inside the wreath show three scenes—one of the three wise men, another of an angel and a shepherd, and the Madonna scene. "For God So Loved Us" are the titles of their original display.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamberti have been entering the contest for the past 11 years. Last year they placed second in the city-wide contest.

Second place winner is Bill Bevor, 245 Seventh Ave. Bill Young Bevor has won the lighting contest the two previous years.

His display features three angels gathered around the Christ Child. The angels, which appear almost life-like, are made of chicken wire and their faces are molded of plaster. Their hair is of curled tin foil and the halos are made of tinsel. The figures are draped with pastel colored sheets and cheese cloth. He said he spent about a month and 60 for his display.

Mrs. Earl Grummitt, 636 Grant Ave., third place winner, got her window display idea in April. "Christmas in Vietnam" is the theme of her display. She said she was reading an issue of a Marine magazine when she saw the picture of a young Marine reading the Bible with his gun at his side. This display has a special meaning to Mrs. Grummitt, since her son, Downie Gregory, is in Vietnam and won't be home until August. She painted the Marine scene on one window and used the other two window sections to portray his thoughts.

Mrs. Grummitt said she painted on the scene for about a week, working nights after work. The windows are accented by spotlights.

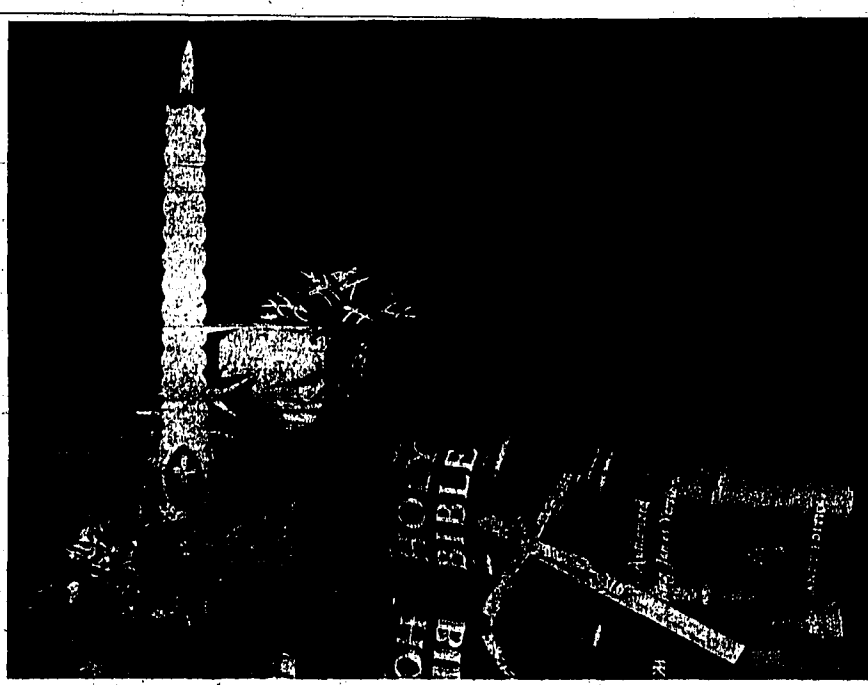

Fourth place winner in the contest is Dr. William Jones and his family, whose display can be seen at 896 Monte Vista Drive. They have been entering the contest for many years and won first place several years ago. Mrs. Jones says her husband starts working on the display after hunting season.

She said they had planned a more elaborate display this year, but Dr. Jones has been ill with the flu and some of the work was not completed. They got their ideas several years in advance, quite often from Christmas cards. The figures, in front of the house, are cut out of ammonia. She said their greatest expense is the paint used on the figures.

Honorable mention honors went to Dan S. Nielsen, 527 Polk St.; Shannon Kay Film, 215 Seventh Ave. E.; W. C. Milberg, 428 Sixth Ave. E.; Aurora O. Gonzalez, 128 11th Ave. E.; and Mrs. Claude DeWolter, 568 Alturns Drive N.

The first place winner will receive $60; second place, $35; third place, $20; fourth place, $10, and the honorable mention awards will be $5 each.

Spacemen See 'Sandy' Moon

THE MOOD OF CHRISTMAS is captured in this picture—and yet it isn't. For the mood of Christmas is much more than a picture. It is millions pausing to worship the birth of Jesus Christ. The mood is also the fellowship and words of peace that followed the Man when He walked the earth. The mood is the teachings of Christ that have remained through the centuries. The mood is remembering Him on Christmas Day. He was a Man who never ventured more than 200 miles from where He was born. And yet each step He took caused a thunder that will be heard for all time. As this candle burns, the spirit of Christmas should grow, Christmas, after all, is the mood to guide mankind. On Christmas Day mankind should take time to thank Him, who made this day possible. Borman Inscriptes Prayer For Peace To 'All Mankind'

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—The Apollo 8 astronauts swept today into an orbit around the moon and as they gazed back at their troubled home planet, a quarter-million miles away, flight commander Frank Borman offered a Christmas-time prayer for peace.

"Show us what each one of us can do to set forward the coming day of universal peace," Borman said with great sincerity as Apollo 8 raced through its third of 10 planned orbits around the moon.

Borman, a lay reader at St. Christopher Episcopal Church in League City, Tex., explained he originally had planned to give a prayer at Christmas services in the church.

He asked Mission Control to pass on a recording of the prayer for delivery at services tonight.

"I was supposed to lay read tonight," he explained, "but I couldn't quite make it."

Borman read the prayer about five hours after he, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders joined the ranks of history's premier explorers at 4:59 a.m. EST when they fired Apollo 8 into a perfect lunar orbit.

"They reported the moon looked like dirty sand and televised startling pictures of a wild and wondrous lunar terrain."

Borman said the prayer not only was for St. Christopher, but "actually to people everywhere."

"Give us O, God, the vision which can see Thy love in the world in spite of human failure."

"Give us the faith to trust the goodness in spite of our ignorance and weakness."

"Give us the knowledge that we may continue to pray with understanding hearts, and show us what each of us can do to set forward the coming day of universal peace."

The Apollo 8 commander had indicated before the flight that he would make an appropriate Christmas-time gesture from space. He is expected to join with Lovell and Anders for another Christmas commemoration during a television program tonight.

As they circled the moon, long a goal of man's dreams, the astronauts gazed in astonishment at a sight never before seen by man—the backside of the moon that constantly hides itself from earth.

It was akin to Columbus sighting the New World, Balboa starting down at the Pacific or De Gama rounding the Cape of Good Hope. It was Jules Verne, Buck Rogers and Flash Gordon all wrapped up in a neat Christmas package for the adventure-lovers of the world.

The astronauts then zipped around to the front side to beam to earth dramatic pictures, accompanied by a vivid word description.

The engine fired them into an initial orbit ranging from 69 to 193 miles high. A second firing during the third lunar orbit circularized the path at about 70 miles above the surface.

About the same time, Apollo 8 swept past the halfway point of Christmas Eve Day is always

Bucher Avers Reds 'Goofed' On Seizure

MIDWAY ISLAND (AP)—The commander of the USS Pueblo today questioned whether or "the people who came out and captured the Pueblo had actually been authorized."

"We had the feeling they had blown it," said Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher during a two-hour refueling stop here on route home. He stated that he felt the "sole purpose" of the North Koreans capturing the U.S. Intelligence ship was to "embarrass the United States government more than anything else."

The Pueblo crew cheered as Bucher described their captors as "apes."

Bucher and the other 81 surviving members of the Pueblo crew returned to American soil at this naval installation 1,000 miles northwest of Honolulu and were greeted by Adm. John J. Hyland, Pacific Fleet commander.

They were scheduled to arrive at San Diego's Miramar Naval Air Station at 5 p.m. EST for a joyful Christmas reunion with their families.

You are regarded as a group of young heroes and we are very proud of the way you stuck it out for such a prolonged period," Adm. Hyland told the crew.

The name of the game, of course, became procedure to try to secure one way or the other that you returned to us alive and that right off the bat precluded a heavy military move in retaliation.

Two Air Force C-141s carrying the crew members and a coffin left Midway at 10 a.m. EST on a seven-hour flight to San Diego.

Hodges was fatally injured when the Pueblo was captured off North Korea on Jan. 23. He was the only fatality.

"Every member of the crew had been subjected to terror of some kind one time or another," Bucher told the admiral, crew had newshen here.

"Whether it was actual physical beating or not is beside the point, because the terror of expecting a beating is just as terrifying."

Bucher said he was "rarely beaten in the face because I was subjected to a lot of camera orders and they wanted me to look at least presentable to the camera."

"But this didn't keep them from caving in my ribs, or kicking me in the talbone to the point where I was almost unable to walk for many weeks."

The 41-year-old commander said the crew "was subjected to various forms of physical and See 'GOOFED,' Page 2, Col. 4

Cause Not Known

Fire Destroys Paul's Market, Jerome

JEROME — Paul's Market, which opened in a new building just a year ago, was destroyed by fire of undetermined cause early Tuesday morning.

Owners of the super market, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Malone, estimated the loss at more than $200,000. Charred heaps are all that remain where checkstands and shelves of groceries and produce had been. The metal ceiling trusses and cinder block walls were left intact, but the merchandise was termed a total loss.

The fire was reported about midnight by Ferrell Johnson who was passing the market on South Lincoln. Both the Jerome city and rural fire departments

Lynn Bingham, Jerome fire chief, said he was unable to determine the cause of the blaze, which was declared out about 3 a.m. The blackened debris was being patrolled by firemen Tuesday morning.

Don Rupert, rural fire department chief, said 12 of his volunteers answered the call.

Mr. Bingham said firemen had to contend with a mixture of rain and snow, but he was thankful the temperature was not as low as it had been here Saturday night.

The rain did not provide much help in putting out the fire which was protected from, the elements by the roof of the building. Some of the charred roof is still intact.

The building is owned by Kenneth Pinegar, Spanish Fork, Utah, and was built just one year ago. The merchandise was moved into the new building over New Year's, 1968, and the business opened Jan. 5.

Mr. Malone, the owner, said he was at the store at 8:45 p.m. Monday and a resident told officials Tuesday morning that he had been by the store at 11 p.m. and there was no sign of fire then.

Inspectors are expected to begin their investigation Thursday. The market included fresh and frozen foods and a donut shop.

Stormy Weather Fails To Dampen Yule Spirits

Shoppers hurried on last minute Christmas errands Tuesday despite stormy weather across Magic Valley which brought more snow to the northern part of the area and rain to communities to the south of the Snake River.

Heavy snow was reported in Shoshone and the Wood River Valley, while in Buhl, Twin Falls and the Burley-Rupert area, rain which started Monday was melting snow and creating slush and drainage problems.

Christmas Eve Day is always a big day in Twin Falls. Stores in the shopping centers and in downtown opened on schedule and patrons began cleaning the shelves. At one downtown store, a shopper was seen carrying a large green Christmas package through the slush, desperately trying to keep the parcel dry as he slipped across the street.

Another woman, loaded down with packages, looked like the cartoon character straight out of "Blondie and Dagwood."

Even the youngsters got in on the act. They visited the stores in droves, getting last-minute presents for parents and friends.

But despite the bad weather, the clogged streets, the slippy pavement and the flurries for flits, the mood was bright and the central topic of interest, besides Santa Claus' arrival, Wed- See WEATHER, Page 3, Col. 3

A 'First' For the State

Alaska Names GOP Senator

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Theodore Stevens, Republican, was named Monday to the U.S. Senate to fill the vacancy created by the Dec. 11 death of Democratic Sen. E.L. Bartlett.

Stevens' appointment, announced in Anchorage by Republican Gov. Walter Hickel, completes a sweeping revision of Alaska's political leadership. Stevens, a 45-year-old Anchorage lawyer, will be the first Republican senator from Alaska.

The party shift will leave the seat in the incoming Senate at 87 Democrats and 45 Republicans.

Alaska's political make-up was significantly altered this year, beginning with the primary election defeat of Sen. Ernest Gruening, 81-year-old Democrat. Gruening failed in a write-in bid in the Nov. 5 general election. Anchorage real estate man Mike Gravel, the Democratic primary victor, was elected over the Republican candidate, banker Elmer Rasmuson of Anchorage.

Then, on Dec. 11, President-elect Nixon named Hickel to serve in his Cabinet as secretary of the Interior.

Sen. Bartlett, 64, died that night in Cleveland, Ohio, where he recently underwent heart surgery.

Keith Miller, a native of Seattle who moved to Alaska in 1946, takes over the governorship from Hickel. A Republican, he currently is Alaska's secretary of state.

Stevens will serve two years in the Senate before a special election in 1970 to fill the remainder of the term to 1972.

Stevens' appointment by Hickel gave him a prize he felt to win in election bids twice. He lost the Republican primary earlier this year to Rasmuson, who, in turn, was defeated in November by Gravel.

In 1962, Stevens won the Republican senatorial nomination but lost to Gruening.

Mart Skids

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market skidded to its second steepest loss of the year Monday in moderate trading.

The Dow-Jones average of 30 industrials fell 13.24 points to 853.75, its biggest drop since it declined 13.60 on July 22.

Brokers attributed the setback to apprehension over the tightening money situation and the fact that it was the last day in which profits and losses could be taken for 1968 tax purposes.

Of 1,601 issues traded, 1,024 declined and 378 advanced.

Volume slipped to 1.97 billion shares from 15.91 million Friday.

Grounding Of Air West's Planes Snarls Schedules

Hap Masoner, Air West sales manager at Joslin Field, said Tuesday he is not certain how the grounding of Air West's F73s will affect the local terminal.

He said it is possible that the number of flights in Twin Falls will be reduced during the interim, but he expects revised schedules.

These particular planes were grounded in compliance with a government request made following the recent crash of an F73 in Alaska. All airlines using this plane are in the process of checking for metal fatigue in the wings.

Mr. Masoner said three Air West flights were canceled Monday and these cancellations were related to the inspection agents.

He said Sun Valley Airline and Redders Flying Service will assist the local airport in making flights, but he pointed out, this is a bad time of year for something like this to happen.

All flights to Twin Falls were canceled Tuesday morning due to field conditions and surface winds. Mr. Masoner reported the runway had been blasted as closely as possible, but there is still some slush and the strong cross winds were also causing problems. He said one Sun Valley Airline flight had landed Tuesday morning, but it had been unable to take off again.

Holiday

Following a tradition of many years, the Times-News will not publish on Christmas day in order to allow employees to spend the day at home with their families.

Christmas is the only day of the year that the Times-News does not publish an edition of the paper.

The Times-News takes this opportunity to wish its subscribers a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

TV Viewers To Glimpse Spacecraft

The Apollo 8 spacecraft can be viewed through telescopes only at certain brief intervals as it crosses the dark section of the moon, according to Norman Herrett, local astronomer.

"Areas as small as a football field on the moon can be picked up by telescopes but an object as small as Apollo 8 cannot be identified with them except as a tiny white dot," he said.

"There is an observatory in Denver with a special amplifying device attached to a telescope which will enable viewers to watch Apollo 8 on television. On Christmas Eve at 4:40, 6:20 and 8:40 p.m. for a period of about a minute each the Salt Lake City channels will broadcast the Denver telescope's sightings.

"Since the sightings are so brief—I think those interested in seeing Apollo 8 cross the dark portion of the moon should watch it in the comfort of their own homes on Channel 5," concluded Mr. Herrett.

Dispute On Firing Is Resolved

The trial examiner's decision in the case of Rita Gray versus Idaho Frozen Foods, division of Consolidated Foods Corp., has been upheld by the National Labor Relations Board.

Louis S. Penfield, trial examiner, issued his decision, finding that the respondent (Idaho Frozen Foods) had engaged in "unfair labor practices" and recommended that it cease and affirmatively action be taken. Following the decision, Idaho Frozen Foods and the union agreed to the decision and the general counsel filed a brief in support of the trial examiner's decision.

The board supported the examiner's decision with one member dissenting.

Mrs. Gray had been discharged from Idaho Frozen Foods and in a trial it was pointed out that the basis for dismissal was her pro-union activities.

The examiner ordered that Mrs. Gray be rehired at a job comparable to what she had been previously.

Colorado Drive Provides Funds To Help Girl

AURORA, Colo. (AP) — Barbie Hannavan, 6, a thalidomide child, will have her chance to live.

Residents of this community of 50,000 had a party Sunday night to celebrate a $12,000 fund drive that raised $15,000 to help pay for a delicate operation Barbie needs to survive.

"It's a little like the gift of the Magi so many years ago," said Denver television personality Ben Avery, the master of ceremonies.

"We had intended to give Barbie a gift, but she has given us a gift. It has drawn our community together as never before."

Barbie, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hannavan, was born with a deformed spine and without a right arm after her natural mother took the drug thalidomide during pregnancy.

Doctors have said that without the operation, to partially correct the spinal abnormality, Barbie will die. The money will be used to pay noninsured costs at Rancho Los Amigos Hospital in Downey, Calif.

The operation has not yet been scheduled.

'Whipped' Youth Commends Judge

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The teen-agers who chose to look with a leather belt instead of five years in prison have vowed he will stay out of trouble, and defended the judge who gave him the choice.

"The judge went out on a limb for me," Scott Grandstaff said last weekend. "I'm not going to cut it off."

"If anybody even suggested a burglary I'd shine my shoes on his face," the youth said.

District Judge Carmon C. Harris sentenced the Grandstaff youth Thursday in the whipping by his brother-in-law on charge of concealment of stolen property. Harris had given the teen-ager a deferred sentence earlier this year in connection with another burglary.

Bob Hope Shrugs Off Hazards As Plane Loses Engine On Way To Entertain GIs

By EDWIN O. WHITE

SAIGON (AP) — Bob Hope's plane lost an engine, Billy Graham preached in 2,000 and Archbishop Terence J. Cooke arrived, each bringing a part of what Christmas is to U.S. troops in Vietnam.

Hope, the 46-year-old comedian whose typical one-liners have brought laughter to front-line GIs in three wars, shrugged off the failure of one of the four engines on the U.S. Air Force C130 that brought him and his 65 entertainers to Saigon.

"I heard a strange noise, the plane lurched and one of the four engines stopped," Hope told a news conference after the plane landed safely. "I jumped into Rosie's arms (Roosevelt Grizer, the 300-pound former pro football star) and he held me and hurped me twice."

Clad in white shoes and yellow pants and swinging a golf club, Hope later performed his first 90-minute show in 100-degree weather at the Long Binh supply base 20 miles northeast of Saigon to an audience of 30,000 that included U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker and

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the U.S. commander in Vietnam.

"This is the perfect time to come to Vietnam, now that the war has moved to Paris," Hope said. "We know that the bomb is working. We flew over the Ho Chi Minh Trail on the way here and nothing was moving — it was the worst traffic jam I ever saw."

North of Da Nang in an amphibitheater at Phu Bai, some troops waited as long as six hours in a monsoon drizzle to hear Graham preach.

"Maybe somebody misunderstood and they expected Raquel Welch," the evangelist joked.

Before his religious message, Graham told the troops that the majority of people in the United States are behind them in their effort in Vietnam.

"After the service, Graham spent 20 minutes shaking hands and signing autographs before boarding a helicopter for a tour of U.S. 7th Fleet vessels off the coast. He arrived Saturday for a five-day visit.

Archbishop Cooke of New York, who is a Roman Catholic vicar of the U.S. armed forces, said on his arrival from visits with U.S. troops in Thailand that he brought "a message of hope and a special prayer for peace."

"Christmas is a family celebration and as these people are making an added sacrifice," the archbishop told an airport news conference.

Fires Claim Lives Of 13 Children In Yule Tragedies

By The Associated Press

Three fires claimed the lives of 13 children and 12 young people died in two auto accidents over the weekend as the Christmas holiday season neared its peak.

Three Navy crewmen were killed in a helicopter crash and a disabled veteran and his son, a Marine home on Christmas leave from Vietnam, died in their auto.

The largest toll was taken Saturday night near Hartsville, S.C., when two autos collided and left seven dead.

"The entire community is in a state of shock and disbelief," Mayor Bob Bass said at church services Sunday. "Our deepest sympathies go out to the hundreds of relatives."

A few hours later, five youngsters of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin of Portsmouth, N.H., died in a blaze as their parents visited next door. A sixth child escaped.

Later Sunday, five teenagers were killed when their car hit a tree south of Allentown, Pa. Police said the car went out of control on the road between Lannick and Lineport in Lehigh County. And in Conesville, Pa., five children died as their home was swept by fire. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Green Jr., a sixth child and a grand-father were hurt.

Three youngsters died Friday night in an Atlanta, Ga., fire as their parents were hiding Christmas presents in another part of the building. Intense hottest blocked firemen as Nathan James, 6, Martha Ann Whitley, 4, and Bethlashing Whitley, 2, died from asphyxiation.

Soviets, Egypt Demand Israeli Withdraw Troops

CAIRO (AP) — The Soviet Union and Egypt declared today that the establishment of peace in the Middle East demands the execution of the U.N. Security Council resolution and the withdrawal of Israeli troops from occupied Arab lands.

"Israeli regional expansionist policy, as indicated in statements of Israeli leaders, prevents the establishment of peace in the area," said a joint communique issued after the departure of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

He had been in Cairo for four days for conferences with President Gamal Abdel Nasser and other Egyptian officials.

Land Proposal Made In Boise

BOISE — A total of 5,656.19 acres of public land south of the Snake River on Deadman Creek in Owyhee County may be withdrawn to allow construction of the Grindstone-Butte Dam and Reservoir.

The proposal was made Monday by the Bureau of Reclamation. It's part of the Southwest Idaho Water development project, officials said.

A description of the land to be withdrawn and a hearing date will be announced later, it was reported. Objections may be submitted to the Land Office Manager, Bureau of Land Management, Boise.

Benn, Route 2, Kimberly, was assigned Nov. 28 to the 25th Infantry Division in Vietnam, as an infantryman.

WASHINGTON — Reports circulating here and abroad strongly suggest the possibility of a Nixon-DeGaulle summit meeting some time early next spring. It is suggested, in foreign capitals, that French President Charles deGaulle would welcome such a meeting. Here in Washington, the suggestion is that Nixon would welcome it too—as a way of stressing the United States and with his former NATO partner. That idea took root strongly after the Russian-led invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The Pueblo

Remember the Pueblo? The 82 surviving crewmen — and the body of one who died of wounds received when the U.S.S. Pueblo was captured by North Koreans 11 months ago — started home last Sunday evening.

When the Pueblo was captured, there was a great hue and cry to go in and get them. Get them with force. Return the men and return the ship. But this thinking failed to move those who had the power to get the job done.

Pope Charts Second Synod Of Bishops

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI announced today that the second meeting of his synod of bishops will open at the Vatican next Oct. 11.

The Pope made his announcement at a pre-Christmas meeting with members of the Sacred College of Cardinals, members of the papal court, and representatives of the Diocese of Rome. The Pope gave them his Christmas greetings.

The synod of bishops was created after the conciliar council to assist the Pope in governing the Church. The first meeting brought together 200 bishops who met from Sept. 29 to Oct. 28, 1967.

Though the bishops were forbidden to take up the issue of birth control at their meetings, they discussed a wide range of other issues, including mixed marriages, canon law, liturgy, seminaries and doctrine.

Aliens! You Must Report In January

Aliens! You must report. This is the word from R. G. Hoffeller of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. All aliens living in the U.S. except for accredited diplomats and persons accredited to certain international organizations must report their addresses to the Attorney General each year. The needed forms can be obtained from any post office or immigration office.

Mr. Hoffeller cautioned all aliens and employers that the issuance of a social security card to an alien is not evidence of permission from the Immigration and Naturalization Service for the alien to work.

Laminated identification cards showing present status, and permission to work have been issued to those admitted to the U. S. for permanent residence.

However, other aliens may not accept employment unless they have been authorized to do so by the immigration office.

Any employer or alien having questions concerning the employment of aliens should contact the nearest immigration office.

Aliens must register each January.

Seattle Nets First Funds For Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Seattle Model Cities project has become the first to get construction money and officials say the project is in the final stages.

The $5.2 million Model Cities grant for Seattle's slum rebuilding project was announced at a news conference Monday. Officials said federal agencies have pledged almost $19 million to the project.

Atlanta will be the next city to receive Model City operational funds, Department of Housing and Urban Development officials said.

The Model Cities program was first recommended by a presidential task force three years ago and now includes 147 projects. All cities involved have received planning grants but Seattle is the first to get building money.

Officials said the 16 other cities whose operational plans are now being reviewed or are expected to be submitted in days are: Baltimore, Boston, Cambridge, Mass.; Charlotte, N.C.; Denver, Detroit; Highland Park, Mich.; Huntsville, Ala.; Philadelphia; Portland, Maine;

Decision Reverses Election

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — A panel of three state judges said Monday night that the candidate elected attorney-general of Oregon last month spent too much money from his own pocket and thereby disqualified himself.

That means Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton, the Democrat who has held office 18 years, will remain there another four years, since Oregon law provides that the election runner-up becomes the winner in this circumstance.

State Rep. Lee Johnson, Portland Republican, the apparent November winner, now becomes the loser. He would not say at once whether he will appeal.

Oregon law provides that a candidate for attorney general, his family and his close business associates can not spend more than $2,000 in the campaign.

Johnson, whose committee spent an unprecedented $17,000 in the fall campaign—reported spending an even $2,000 from personal funds. This was in a report required by law Nov. 20.

Thornton filed suit to disqualify Johnson on the grounds he spent an unprecedented $17,000 in the fall campaign—reported spending an even $2,000 from personal funds. This was in a report required by law Nov. 20.

AN EXCITING TRIP has gone sour for these gum girls. They left their joint savings of $1,451 in cash in a telephone booth in Los Angeles on Monday, after coming to the "big city" from Denver to look for jobs. Sally O'Campo, left, and Bonnie Chavez had felt secure that they had enough money to live for a while in Los Angeles while they found jobs. But, after making calls to prospective employers on Monday, they left their wallet in the phone booth—and it was gone without a trace when they returned. Even though their money is gone, they still plan to look for work as switchboard operators. (AP wirephoto)

Prison Aides Ask 'Competency' In Filling Vacancy On Board

BOISE (AP) — Thirteen volunteer instructors at the Idaho Prison asked Gov. Don Samuelson Monday to fill an upcoming vacancy on the Board of Correction "with a man of proven competency in the field of education and rehabilitation."

"De-emphasis of education and rehabilitation in the name of security would be self-defeating," the thirteen said in a letter to the governor.

The letter also urged the Board of Correction "to proceed forthwith in the search for a trained, professional director of correction, and that he be given authority to begin a substantial upgrading in the quality of services at the state penitentiary."

The board vacancy will occur Jan. 1 with the retirement of Saul Clark. Other members are chairman C. L. House and A. Taylor Clark.

The volunteer instructors also asked that the next legislature provide "appropriations that will permit real growth at the penitentiary, with appropriate emphasis on education and rehabilitation."

"We are concerned about the future of the prison's education and rehabilitation programs," the volunteer instructors said.

"These undertakings have chronically suffered from insufficient administrative support at the prison. They now appear to be endangered by renewed administrative de-emphasis."

"Security is necessary to the effective operation of the institution, but it is only the means to an end. Society will never be secure unless prisoners are adequately prepared to lead useful and law-abiding lives when the time comes for their inevitable release from confinement."

Tiny Community Of Bethlehem Meets Yule Rush

BETHLEHEM, Md. (AP) — The U.S. post office in this tiny crossroads community on Maryland's Eastern Shore normally serves about 50 patrons.

But each year in the days before Christmas a veritable deluge of mail passes through the corner of the old-fashioned general store in which the post office is located.

Thousands of persons from throughout the United States and even foreign countries annually send their Christmas cards here to have them posted with Bethlehem's hand-stamped postmark.

Deadline Nears On Car Checks

BOISE (AP) — The supervisor of Idaho's motor vehicle inspection program said that all vehicles must be inspected by next Tuesday.

Harold Davis pointed out that all vehicles in the state must be inspected by Jan. 1 and state law does not provide for any extension of that deadline.

He also warned drivers who had their cars inspected in January of this year that they must have them inspected again by the end of this coming January.

"It isn't necessary that the vehicle be inspected during the same month in 1969 as it was in 1968," Davis said, "but it must be inspected at least once in the 12-month period following the original inspection."

Drivers who do not have their cars inspected by Jan. 1 or those who do not have theirs inspected within a year after the original inspection may be cited for driving an uninspected vehicle.

Liquor Hours Will Remain On Dec. 31

BOISE (AP) — Closing hours for the sale of liquor and beer will not be extended on New Year's Eve, it was announced Monday by Richard L. Cade, liquor law enforcement director.

Cade said state law does not allow extension of the 1 a.m. closing hour, even on Dec. 31.

"All liquor law enforcement investigators have been directed to work New Year's Eve and strictly enforce the closing hour," Cade added.

Blackfoot Man To Face Charges

BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — Francisco Lopez, 23, of Blackfoot, has been charged with two counts of assault with a deadly weapon in a Nov. 18 barroom shooting in Blackfoot in which two men were wounded.

David Amyotta and Clarence S. Poltra were wounded in the fight. Officers said a .22-caliber pistol was used.

Lopez was arraigned Monday and entered pleas of innocent. He was being held in the Bingham County Jail in lieu of bail.

Exclusive Report Indicates Santa Worries About Load

EDITORS: A scrapbook fan-see it anywhere?" voice in many homes is the fol- "Climb aboard," boomed Santa. "I'll in 1940 for parents to read aloud drop you off there. But I must to their children on Christmas say this is the first time I ever Eve. This year, as every year, I picked up (three hitchhikers number of newspapers and wailing tumbrels." just then Mrs. Santa Claus came running out wailing a long piece of paper.

Christmas Bulletin: Santa Is On The Way By HAI BOYLE. NORTH POLE. (AP) — He's off! Santa Claus is on his way at last! The jolly old Saint and his famous reindeer are zooming through the Arctic skies right now, heading for the American border. He'll reach it tonight.

The Northern Lights switched on in a clear steady green—the "go ahead" signal. And the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sent Santa this message:

"We are clearing all air lanes in your path, old boy. There is no speed limit for you tonight. The sky is yours. Go as fast as you like. Good luck!"

And Santa Claus needed that wide, clear road in the sky. For his big sled was piled so high with gifts it overflowed. It looked like a hay rick zooming through the crisp air.

"Oh dear, oh dear," worried Santa, just before the takeoff. "I do hope none of these presents falls out and hinders some poor innocent rabbit down below. This must be the heaviest load I've had in twenty years."

"What is he fretting about?" whispered Vixen to Vixen. "He's only riding that sled. We have to pull it."

Vixen laughed so hard the bells on her harness tinkled in merry music. And all the other reindeer laughed, too.

As Santa Claus climbed up into the seat of the sled, puffing a little because he had gained some weight this winter, three black and white penguins waddled across the snow in front of the reindeer.

"Here, here, get out of the way, please," said Santa Claus importantly. Then he said, surprised:

"Why, what are you penguins doing up at the North Pole anyway? You're supposed to be at the South Pole."

"We're on a vacation," said one of the penguins. "We're looking for Florida. Have you

Armed Bandit Hits Motel For $30 In Boise

BOISE (AP)—A West Boise motel was held up by an armed man late Sunday, according to Boise police, and its manager was robbed of $30.

The eight reindeer leaped forward and the big sled began sliding through the snow. Fast, or, faster, faster, faster—and then they were off, the ground and into the air.

Santa was on his way. And tonight, if you're asleep, he will come to your house, wherever you are.

If you plant it or feed it — GLOBE SEED Will have it!

Mrs. Opal Waller, manager of the Town and Ranch Motel on Fairview Avenue, said a clean-shaven man entered the motel office about 11:30 p.m., asked if she had a room he could rent and pulled out a pistol.

The bandit took about $30 from a cash drawer and fled on foot, officers said.

Local Man Heads Pacification Team

EDNAP ENANG, Vietnam — United States Army Capt. Darrell J. Buffalo, Twin Falls, is hard at work fighting the "other war" in Vietnam, the pacification of the countryside.

Capt. Buffalo commands a six-man civil affairs team located at Ednap Enang, a resettlement area for some 5,000 Montagnard tribesmen uprooted by the war. His mission is to advise and assist the Montagnards on a variety of village affairs including public health, agricultural methods, education, and public works projects.

"This is nation building at the village level," he says. "The objective is to work through Vietnamese channels for money and logistical support. Ideally, we're only here to advise."

Ednap Enang lies southwest of Pleiku City in the Central Highlands. It is 10 miles from the Cambodian border and only one mile from the famous Ia Drang Valley, scene of some of the hardest-fought battles of the war.

In general, the civil affairs objective in Vietnam is to minimize the effects of the war upon Vietnamese civilians while helping to improve their standard of living. It all is the team's goal of working itself out of a job. "Americans will not be here forever," Capt. Buffalo says. "When we leave, the people here must be able to carry on by themselves." His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Buffalo and live at 775 Ebony, Pocatello. Capt. Buffalo's wife, Phyllis, lives at 1105 Blue Lakes Circle.

Foggy Windows Blur Vision For Space Trio

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — With one of the most breathtaking views of all time out their windows, the Apollo 8 astronauts' face much the same problem as couples at a drive-in theater on a cold night—foggy windows.

Only two of five windows around the cone-shaped craft are clear, the pilots reported. Both side windows, each about 21 inches square, "have moderate haze on them," they told ground controllers, and a round window in the center "is almost opaque."

Foggy windows have plagued nearly every manned space flight, and project officials said there was no reason to think Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr., and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders would have any difficulty making critical maneuvers because of the problem. The source of the problem never has been pinpointed.

Irish Artist Given Probation For Theft Try

LONDON (AP) — Nicholas Howe, 45, an Irish artist, was put on probation for a year today after pleading guilty to trying to steal a Rembrandt from Britain's National Gallery.

The painting, known as "Lucia," was valued at $480,000. Howe was caught trying to slip it out the gallery Sunday.

President Johnson Urges Continuing Efforts To Control Balance Of Payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, giving an advance peek at some suggestions he's likely to make in his final economic message, has called for continuing stringent efforts to control the balance of payments deficit.

The direction of Johnson recommendations for 1969 which will go to Congress some time before he steps out Jan. 20, was indicated Sunday in an exchange of letters between the President and Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler. Johnson endorsed recommendations in a report prepared by Fowler as chairman of the Cabinet on Balance of Payments on ways to further reduce the deficit.

The recommendations amounted to further doses of the medicine Johnson prescribed Jan. 1, 1967 to curb the imbalance between spending by Americans and the U.S. government abroad over what this country receives from abroad.

But at least one of the recommendations—continued limits on capital and other investments U.S. firms can make abroad—could be headed for trouble if included in Johnson's final economic message.

Economic advisers to President-elect Richard M. Nixon, who will have to decide which measures to continue, have spoken against these limitations. And some of Johnson's own advisers have, too.

Johnson said the recommendations on the balance of payments were being readied now "to facilitate an effective transition to the new administration and the orderly development of future policies in this important area."

Fowler's report gives top priority to "a stable economy and restoration of a healthy United States trade surplus."

It also includes such other principal timbers of the 1968 program as:

- Extension of the voluntary program under which U.S. banks have slashed their lending to foreigners.
- Further efforts to cut military spending abroad.
- Renewed efforts to lure more foreign travelers to the United States, the better to reduce the "travel deficit."

Fire Destroys Bunk House At Bliss

BLISS—Fire consumed a bunk house at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lenker, one-fourth mile north and one-fourth mile east of Bliss, Saturday night.

The bunk house was used as a bedroom for their son. Cause of the fire is unknown and the loss has not been estimated, but much of the youth's clothing, bedding and furniture were lost in the blaze.

The family was attending a basketball game in Hagerman at the time. An unidentified person turned in the alarm which was answered by the Bliss volunteer fire department.

Although the fire had too much of a start to save the bunk house, firemen and friends and neighbors kept the fire from reaching the main house which was about 30 feet away. Mr. Lenker expressed his appreciation to all those who assisted.

sistently for years—more money going out than coming in—the $3.0 billion deficit in 1967 was far heavier than usual and almost three times the size of the 1965 and 1966 deficits.

Johnson's "action program," an array of measures designed to cut the deficit in 1968, was announced from the Texas ranch last New Year's Day. The balance figures have improved quarter by quarter this year, making it likely the 1968 deficit will be down to about $1 billion.

"We have made a great deal of progress in 1968 toward our goal of a healthy equilibrium in our balance of payments," Johnson said. "More progress must be achieved to assure the continued strength of the United States dollar."

Motorists Advised To Slow Down

BLISS—State highway patrolman Jim Finch, Gooding, again advises motorists of the hazards of the present highway conditions in the area, following the fatality of a Moreland woman in an accident at Bliss Saturday evening.

Patrolman Finch advised all motorists to drive with extreme caution and to slow down. He stated that motorists are prone to speed up when they come to bare spots in the highway or places where it has been well sanded and are not prepared for sudden icy and slick spots.

Highways in the Gooding, Bliss, Hagerman, and Wendell area are ice covered and considered hazardous at this time.

Buhl Lincoln Courts Holds Yule-Party

BUHL — Residents of Lincoln Courts were entertained by members of the Calvary Assembly of God Junior Choir during the first annual Christmas party and gift exchange, held in the Lincoln Courts Community Center.

The choir was under the direction of Mrs. Richard Tatham and Mrs. Ralph Maxwell served as accompanist. Members of the choir included: Meats, McKeel, Cami Olander, Benny Buckendorf, Valerie Achenbach, Donna Tatham, Bart Buckendorf, Elaine McKeel, Sherry Olander, Terry Owen, Teresa Owen, Terry Cook, Linda Smith, Renee Perkins, Rhonda Owen, Pam Tatham and Timmy Littleboy.

The residents and guests held a potluck dinner with Mrs. Josephine Gilne serving as general chairman. Mrs. Frank Sedivy cooked the turkey which was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Morry Satogast of Gambles.

Mrs. Mary King, Mrs. Ethel Hight, Mrs. Del Foster and Mrs. Bertha Korpe were in charge of decorating the Christmas tree under the direction of J. C. Hendrix. They also filled the sacks of treats and set the tables for the dinner. Frank Sedivy assisted with general details for the event.

The Christmas tree for the center was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cary and decorations were furnished by John Crawford and Ralph Smith of Savor Drug. Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed treats.

Business firms and individuals furnishing the treats were: Farmers National Bank, Idaho Farmers National Bank, Idaho Mrs. Clyde Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Williams and the law firm of Hephworth, Nungester and Felton.

Mrs. Mary's Gift furnished the centerpiece for the table and Mrs. Francis Greer Shatz and her third grade students made individual favors. Room decorations were compliments of Western Auto.

Special guests at the dinner and party were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cary, Mrs. Bill Hicks, Mrs. Dorothy Pence, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bendini and Mrs. A. L. Kleinkopf.

Residents are enjoying the use of a piano loaned from the Ricky Perkins home during the holidays until one is placed in the hall.

Mrs. Gilne expressed her appreciation to all the business houses and individuals making the first Christmas at the community center one to remember for the tenants.

Mediator Orders Strike Bargaining

NEW YORK (AP) — A presidential mediator has called for local-issue bargaining in Boston, Philadelphia and Hampton Roads, Va., as a strike by the Association continues to tie up ports from Maine to Texas.

Contract talks were set to resume at a Manhattan meeting today between the IILA and the 140-firm New York Shipping Association.

"I think the federal government must take the initiative in procedure and move this along," said the mediator, David B. Cole, during Sunday's recess in talks.

Agreement has been reached on money issues for a new contract, and the main issue concerns whether longshoremen can repack certain cargo brought to the ships in containers. The union sees the use of containers to transfer cargo in bulk from trucks or railroad cars to ships as a threat to job security.

The New York shippers have offered to add $1.60 an hour to the present base pay of $4.62 an hour. They also would increase the current annual work guarantee from 1,600 to 2,000 hours, or a 40-hour-a-week, 52-week year.

Attend Funeral

Elks Members Of T. F. Fill Food Baskets, Give To Needy

The Twin Falls Elks Lodge is conducting its annual campaign to provide Christmas baskets for the needy, reported Roy Russell, chairman of the program.

Bushel baskets filled with basic food staples and candy were filled and delivered to area needy families to give them a hearty Christmas meal, he stated.

Each basket includes a turkey and all the trimmings necessary to prepare the traditional holiday meal, Mr. Russell said. The amount of food in each basket is determined by the size of the family it is intended to feed.

The majority of the funds to finance this program come from private donations within the club. Additional funds are derived from an Elk's Ball and contributions made by area companies, he said.

The Twin Falls firms of Amalgamated Sugar Co. and Carl Gill Inc. donated the sugar and potatoes. Buttery's, Wonder Bread, Modern Foods, Bertles, and Sun-Fresh Candies furnished the other food items at wholesale prices, he said.

These baskets will feed approximately 185 adults and 319 children on Christmas Day, Mr. Russell added.

Sinking Toll Rises To 57

KINGSTOWN, SL Vincent, B.W.I. (AP) — Officials have increased the number of persons missing and presumed dead in the sinking of the schooner Federal Queen from 41 to 57. Thirty-eight passengers survived the disaster.

The interisland vessel sank suddenly Saturday while foraging construction workers from Union Island to their homes on St. Vincent for Christmas. Officials said the boat capsized when deck passengers rushed from one side to the other to escape spray from choppy seas.

Those on deck were thrown into the water and many swam to nearby Cannon Island. But dozens below deck were trapped, and officials believe they went down with the vessel.

Luncheon Held By Wendell Club

WENDELL — Slip Knot Tops Club members held a buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bob Morgan. The room was decorated with a Christmas motif.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Chet Rice and Mrs. Floyd Lancaster. The luncheon was followed by a gift exchange and games. Winners were Mrs. E. E. Parr and Mrs. Clyde Gough.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 8 at the Civic Club Rooms.

Holly Bars Are Colorful Addition

Of all the traditional foods of the Christmas season, cookies are certainly the most popular. Everyone loves these sweet little holiday bars, and in many homes Christmas cookies disappear by the plateful.

Holly Bars are an elegant cookie that make a colorful and unusual addition to your collection of Christmas treats. Moist and tender, Holly Bars have a filling of sweetened condensed milk, vanilla, lemon juice and maraschino cherries on a delicately crisp crust. The topping is a fluffy meringue sprinkled with roasted almonds. Served alone or with a selection of other holiday cookies, these rich bars are reminiscent of spun-on ice cream. And while you're getting Christmas goodies, don't forget to leave a few Holly Bars for Old Saint Nick this Christmas Eve!

Look for other festive recipes in a colorful new folder, "Traditions with a Twist," that will be packed in specially marked sacks of Gold Medal and Gold Medal Wondra Flour this holiday season. Here is the recipe for Holly Bars from the Betty Crocker Kitchens.

- HOLLY BARS
- 1/2 cup shortening (part soft butter)
 - 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
 - 2 eggs, separated
 - 1 cup all-purpose flour (regular or instant)
 - 1 can (15 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/2 cup lemon juice
 - 1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries, drained
 - 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 - 1/2 cup roasted diced almonds
- Heat oven to 350 degrees. Blend shortening, confectioners' sugar and egg yolks. Mix in flour. Press and flatten mixture in ungreased oblong pan, 13 by 9 by 2 inches. Bake 15 minutes. Spread condensed milk, vanilla and lemon juice; stir in cherries. In small mixer bowl, beat egg whites until frothy. Beat in granulated sugar, one tablespoon at a time; continue beating until stiff and glossy. Do not overbeat. Spread cherry mixture over warm crust; carefully spread meringue over cherry mixture. Sprinkle almonds over top. Bake 20 minutes. While warm, cut into small bars, about 2 by 1 inch. Refrigerate. Makes about 4 dozen.

AN ELEGANT COOKIE that makes a colorful and unusual addition to your collection of Christmas treats is a Holly Bar. Serve alone or with a selection of other holiday cookies.

Newlyweds Are Honored At Area Reception

WENDELL—A wedding reception was held recently for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Kimbrough, parents of the bride.

Vickie Kimbrough, sister of the bride, and Terry Johnson registered the 58 guests attending.

Kay Kimbrough, sister of the bride, and Hazel Walker, Jerome, carried the gifts.

The bride's table was arranged by Mrs. Leeta Phillips, great-aunt of the bride. Mrs. Everett Hall, Wendell, poured coffee, while Mrs. Billie Joe Johnson, Jerome, aunt of the bride, served punch.

The two-tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother and Hazel Walker, Jerome. The cake was decorated with white and pink roses, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Cheryl Kimbrough, sister of the bride, served the cake.

The bride was attired in an off-white, cream and gold A-line gown.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson, Pasco, Wash., great-aunt and uncle of the bride; Mrs. Russell Carpenter, Twin Falls, aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Dell Whitney, Hollister, and Dale Phillips, Helena, Mont.

The couple plans to reside in Wendell.

A recent shower for the bride was hosted by Mary Tronson, Terri Klimes and Cathy Gilbert.

GREAT ACCESSORIES

Chunky-heeled shoes make great accessories for the ever-popular pants suits. They're comfortable and attractive, the perfect design for anyone who is fashion-minded.

OLD BUT GOOD

An old-fashioned recipe for checking perspiration is to mix equal parts of boric acid and powdered starch. It's mild and harmless.

Donna Rogers; Wolverton Say Nuptial Vows

Donna Rogers, Twin Falls, daughter of Mrs. Hazel V. Brown, Winston, Ore., became the bride of Donald M. Wolverton, Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Wolverton, Murtaugh, in rites Nov. 23 in the Twin Falls Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Earl Johnson Jr. performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a Bridal Original A-line gown in delustered candlelight satin. The interrupted mannikin-hemline-appliqued with a grape pattern of clusted pearls on alencon lace. Miniature self-covered buttons enhanced the gown back and a stand-off bow released a chapel train. The lily point sleeves were appliqued with alencon lace. A three-tiered queen's crown of crystal held her candlelight-colored, alencon veil of English silk illusion.

Reta Roberts, Texas, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, with Carol Turner, Twin Falls, and Bonnie Wolverton, Murtaugh, serving as bridesmaids.

Candlelighters were Vicki Scheele and Doug Brown, brother of the bride, Ringbearer was Scott Rogers, son of the bride, with Connie Brown, sister of the bride, as flower girl.

Best man was Jeff Morray, Santa Ana, Calif., friend of the bridegroom, with Gary Wolverton and Mike Wolverton, brothers of the bridegroom, serving as ushers.

A reception was held in the Presbyterian Florida Room. Out-of-state guests attended from Texas, California and Oregon.

The couple took a two-week honeymoon trip skiing in Montana and will reside in Hansen.

A private formal dinner was given in honor of the couple by the bridegroom's parents. Champagne was served and a special toast made by Merle Wolverton in honor of the newlyweds.

Former Filer Resident Weds

Mrs. Helen Tegan, former Filer resident, was married Dec. 21 to John W. Lusk Jr. in rites at the First Congregation Chapel, Quincy, Ill. Dr. Johnathan B. Story officiated.

The bride is field director with the Illinois Heart Association and Mr. Lusk is midwest division manager for Hillsinger Corp., Plainsville, Mass.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hackbarth and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lusk Sr. Mrs. Lusk is the daughter of Mrs. J. W. Banbury, Twin Falls.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Quilcy Country Club. The couple will reside at Quincy.

Secret Sister Gift Exchange Held By Unit

BURLEY—The annual secret sister Christmas gift exchange for Xi Mega Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, members was held at the home of Mrs. Arlie Harris, the chapter's honorary member. The center of attraction was the tall Christmas tree decorated in red velvet bows. A social hour was held, with arrangements under the direction of Mrs. Odeon Redman, second vice president; Mrs. Deann Perry and Mrs. Joo Adams, social committee.

Reports were given by Mrs. S. L. Walker, chairman of the service committee, announcing the Christmas tree for the senior citizens was put up in the lobby of the Burley Nursing Home. The chapter will purchase Christmas gifts for the senior citizens at the home who have no relatives to visit them on Christmas. A case of fresh fruit will also be purchased by the chapter and delivered to the home on Christmas eve.

Chapter members voted to put Tangle from the cookbooks in the convention fund. State Beta Sigma Phi Convention will be held June 6 through 8, hosted by Nampa, Caldwell and Homedale.

After the secret sister Christmas gift exchange, the group traveled to the Ponderosa Inn where dinner was served.

The Christmas centerpiece was awarded to Mrs. Clarence Bishop.

Guests were Mrs. Merl Atkinson and Mrs. Golden Grigg.

Filer Club Has Holiday Meet

FILER — Mrs. Robert Blass and Mrs. Tom Lancaster were in charge of arrangements for the Filer Post Noble Grand Club at its holiday dinner and gift exchange at the IOOF Hall.

Guests were Mrs. Richard Byce and Mrs. Lola Hatch. Mrs. Tom Lancaster and Mrs. Roy Lancaster received prizes. Mrs. Harley Williams presented a travel talk on Australia.

Mrs. Joe Lux is hostess for the January meeting and will be assisted by Mrs. L. G. Cobb.

Secret Pal Names Revealed

Union Pacific Booster Club's Christmas party was held recently at the home of Mrs. Vinole Boatright, with a gift exchange featured along with revealing names of secret pals.

Thought for the day was given by Mrs. A. C. Richardson. Games were played with high scores going to Mrs. Morris Blackburn and low to Mrs. H. R. Altred.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

LEAGUE HAS PARTY
FILER — The Clover Walker League held a Christmas party, with Adele Hoffman and Rose Marie White as hostesses.

Good Eating The One Dish Way

A feast is usually an elaborate meal prepared for a special occasion and for a number of guests. No doubt Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day come first to mind as festive celebrations! But on the 362 days that separate the calendar for the family all has to be fed delicious dinners—and substantial ones, too. If active teenagers and hard-working dads are present at the table.

Bavarian Cabbage 'n Apple Dinner—this easy and hearty main dish could be your family's next everyday feast. There's nothing "everyday," though, about its sweet-sour German accent. Convenient canned apple pie filling with its thick fruity juice supplies the sweet in the over-all flavor; sautéed red cabbage and vinegar are "relief" upon the tongue. A smattering of caraway seeds completes the sensationally different taste.

Serve the slightly crisp cabbage and tender apples heaped high on a warm platter and topped with succulent, traditional German sausages arranged pinwheel fashion. Bratwurst is a fresh sausage of German origin. If precooked, it needs only browning; if uncooked, it will require a brief simmering before browning.

Knackwurst is a completely cooked, garlic-seasoned, overgrown frankfurter that will be more flavorful if heated in liquid or browned in butter before adding to the platter.

For more good eating, try these go-alongs: boiled potatoes, thick slices of plain rye bread, mugs of cider for the children and a choice of beverages for the adults. Then for dessert later on, serve a delicious kuchen with canned peach pie filling, or perhaps a creamy pudding sauced with canned blueberry pie filling and accompanied by ginger snaps.

Now, doesn't that sound like a simple-to-prepare, taste-tantalizing repast? At least try the Bavarian Cabbage 'n Apple Dinner recipe and see if it doesn't become one of the asked-for favorites at your house between holidays!

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Holiday greetings from Reddy Kilowatt and your friends and neighbors of Idaho Power Company

TODAY, as every day, around the clock, around the calendar, men and equipment are on duty, and on call, to keep your electric service dependable.

IDAHO POWER COMPANY

Donna Will, Ustick Wed

EDEN — Donna Arlene Will, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Will, Eden, became the bride of Edward Leon Ustick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ustick, Jerome, in rites Nov. 30, performed at the First Christian Church, Jerome.

Rev. William L. Bartlett officiated at the double ring ceremony before a setting of electric candelabra trimmed with pink bows and cascading greenery, and baskets of green spider-chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Pink satin bows centered with greenery marked the bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an off-white, A-line full-length gown of brocaded satin, white fur enhanced the high neckline and long sleeves. Her chapel-length train was attached at the shoulders. A band of white fur held in place the shoulder-length veil of bridal silk illusion.

She carried a cascading bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds entwined with ivy. Her only jewelry was a single drop pearl necklace given to her by the bridegroom. She carried a white linen handkerchief made for her by her paternal great-grandmother in Germany.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Conrad Ebbesen, Twin Falls. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Alvin Meyer, Pocatello, and Karla Will, Eden, both sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Jim Nau, Meridian, sister of the bridegroom. Bonnie Childers was flower girl for her sister.

Dale Ronfeld, Nampa, served as best man. Ushers were Alvin Meyer, Pocatello, Jim Nau, Meridian, and Rex Kiser, Jerome.

Mrs. John Silek played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Keith Johansen, soloist.

After the wedding the newlyweds greeted guests at a reception in the basement of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with the four-tiered cake decorated with pink roses and white swans and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Flanking the cake were three pink candles in silver candelabra. Green fern entwined the candelabra and circled the cake. Pink carnations and rosebuds were nestled in the fern.

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ray Brown, Snohomish, Wash., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Rube Meyer, Twin Falls, Godmother of the bride. Punch was served by Mrs. Edwin Bruce, Murtaugh, Godmother of the bride.

Carol Quinlan, Nampa, was in charge of the guest book. The gifts were displayed by Kathryn Brown and Vicky Cowley, Snohomish, and Betty Will and Marie Will, Eden, sisters of the bride.

The newlyweds reside at 327 E. Ave. C., Jerome. They took a honeymoon trip to Salt Lake City and Pocatello.

Guests attended from Twin Falls, Eden, Kimberly, Murtaugh, Jerome, Hazelton, Bligh, Jerome, Nampa, Caldwell, Hagerman, Meridian, Pocatello, Colorado and Washington. Mrs. Jim Nau hosted a pre-nuptial shower for the bride at the Ed Holtzman residence. A rehearsal dinner for the bridegroom's parents in the Colonial Room of the Rogerson Hotel was hosted by the Hotel.

Hospital Guild Hosts Party

JEROME — Residents of the Long Term Unit, hospital employees, nurses and the Sisters were guests at a Christmas party hosted by St. Benedict's Hospital Guild recently in the hospital dining room.

Fredwyn Hansen sang a medley of Christmas songs, accompanied by Cheryl Froese. The high school sextet sang a number of songs. Cheryl Froese favored the group with holiday music on the piano. Mrs. Richard Reichard presented the Mini-Minirels in a puppet show, followed by group singing of Christmas carols.

Refreshments were served from a table with a candle centerpiece accented with frosted poinsettia surrounded by nolly. Each guild member brought a gift for a resident of the Long Term Unit.

In charge of arrangements were Mrs. L. E. Sanberg, Mrs. Aloys Hof, Mrs. Sharon Albertson, Mrs. Terry Nelson and Mrs. S. T. Richter. Mrs. Harold Kinns was in charge of guild members and Key Club members who assisted were Rick Lowe, Larry Peterson, Ted Klaus and Jeff Williams.

Dear Abby
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am an employee in a store. I have been here a long time and have a lot of seniority. I am reasonably certain that my boss is having an affair with one of my co-workers. My boss' wife is a good woman who I am sure knows nothing about this, but it is fast becoming obvious to everybody in the store and I'm sure it is only a matter of time before his wife hears the talk.

I like this woman very much and hate to see her being made a fool of. Should I tell her about her husband before somebody else does? She likes me, and I could break it to her gently.

DEAR TRUSTED: Tell the wife only if you're prepared to document your story with proof, and to testify in her behalf if she asks you to. And, of course, to find another job.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you would ask your readers to write to their congressmen and ask them to introduce a bill to force mothers who have children 18 years old and younger to stay home and take care of their children unless they absolutely have to go to work.

These working mothers who are out earning "money for extras" while their kids run the streets are a disgrace to the whole nation. Most of them have husbands to support them, but they're never satisfied. Thank you.

A STAY-AT-HOME MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Some working mothers have better behaved children than the stay-at-home kind who are always gabbling with the neighbors, golfing, bridging, or amusing themselves in other ways. It's not the quantity—but the quality of the time a mother spends with her children that makes the difference.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old boy with a big problem. My father made the football team again this year and I have a feeling my father won't see me play in one game. I made the team last year, too, and my father never saw me play once. I'm the only kid whose father has never seen him play.

My dad travels and he is out of town better than half the

Pink Ladies Host Annual Christmas Tea

BURLEY — Members of the Pink Ladies of Casalia Memorial Hospital held their annual Christmas Tea for hospital employees, patients and the public recently in the front waiting room.

A Christmas party for the senior citizens of the convalescent wing was also held hosted by the Pink Ladies. Refreshments were served and each of the senior citizens received a gift from the Pink Ladies.

A large Christmas tree was decorated in pink in the front waiting room. The tree was covered with white cloth and centered with a greenery and red tapers Christmas arrangement. The crystal punch bowl and silver coffee server completed the table appointments. Trays of cookies, candies and fruit cake were donated by the Pink Ladies.

Arrangements for the tea were under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Watterson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Wilma Merchant, Mrs. Eula Clark and Letha Buttner. The Pink Ladies have made 32 Christmas stockings which the new babies will be placed in beginning Dec. 20 for their trip home.

McHale Is Latest Center Of Attention In Search For Next Baseball Head

NEW YORK (AP) — The search for a new baseball commissioner has centered on John McHale, president and part owner of the Montreal Expos of the National League, The Associated Press learned Monday.

Although McHale withdrew during the long meeting that started Friday night and continued until the morning hours of Saturday in Chicago, there is a movement to draft McHale, who reportedly owns 15 per cent of the Expos.

When McHale asked that his name be withdrawn after receiving 11 of the 12 American League votes, the National League still had not discussed him. His name thus was not presented officially to the National League.

Jets May Have New Defense For Raiders

NEW YORK (AP) — Walt Michaels, defensive backfield coach of the New York Jets, doesn't have anything more to say about the last time the Jets played the Oakland Raiders. What he said then was expensive enough.

He did talk about the Raiders' pass receivers Monday and indicated the Jets may have something new for them for the American Football League championship game Sunday.

When the Jets played at Oakland five weeks ago, they lost the game in the last minute 42-32 but might not have if they hadn't lost safety Jim Hudson earlier because of something he said to an official.

For McHale to be moved into the job from which William D. Eckert was forced to resign under pressure two weeks ago, it would be necessary for the owners to draft him.

McHale, former Detroit player and later an executive in the Tiger organization as farm director, director of player personnel and general manager, moved to the Milwaukee Braves as general manager and then to Atlanta, where the franchise was shifted.

McHale succeeded Lee MacPhail as administrator of baseball under-commissioner Eckert in Jan. 11, 1967, when MacPhail left to become general manager of the New York Yankees.

The 46-year-old McHale was named president and chief executive officer of the expansion team at Montreal in August.

The next meeting of the owners is tentatively scheduled for the first week in February in Chicago.

Minico And Gooding Fall To Utah

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Logan High School rolled over Minico County of Rupert, Idaho, 72-43 Friday night in the first game of a triple-header basketball night at Utah State's George Nelson gymnasium.

In the other games, Skyview of Smithfield, Utah, downed Gooding, Idaho 89-88 and Utah State edged San Jose State 84-83.

Logan, shooting 50 per cent from the field to Minico's 35 per cent, was led by center Robert Lauriski and guard Kent Baugh who each scored 15 points.

Top scorers from Minico were center Jim Boatwright with 15 points and 13 rebounds and guard John Lukens with 11 points and three rebounds.

Skyview nearly doubled Gooding's attempts from the field and then scored with 92 per cent from the field compared with Gooding's 39 per cent.

Top scorers — from Gooding were Frank Krahn with 13 points and 10 rebounds and Terry Reinko with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

U. S. Netters Reach Peak Form Early

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — The American Davis Cup team reached peak form Monday three days before its collision with the Australians in the challenge round and Capt. Donald Dell issued a fighting statement that he was out to score a 2-0 rout.

"If we should cling the Cup on the first two days, we will try our darnedest to take the final two matches even though they don't mean anything in the result," Dell said after a team workout on the rain-drenched Memorial Drive courts.

"We've varied our coverage all season," he explained. "We've played zone about half the time and man-to-man the other half, but we may have two new coverages for this game."

"It isn't that we want to embarrass or rub it into the Australians or anything like that. We have suffered so many frustrating setbacks in the last three years that we want to redeem ourselves."

Ohio State Paces Grid Attendance

NEW YORK (AP) — The Ohio State Buckeyes captured their 11th consecutive national attendance crown in college football in 1968, it was disclosed Monday.

The Buckeyes, rated first in the last regular season Associated Press poll, averaged 80,427 spectators for its six home games. This was an increase of 3,727 per game over the 1967 campaign. Ohio State now has led in home attendance for 17 of the last 18 years.

Figures released by National Collegiate Sports Services also revealed that Southern California placed second in home attendance, the highest placing ever for the Trojans—836,868, a gain of more than 8,000 over the previous year.

Lefty Driesell-Davidson Hero; Molded Championship Outfit

DAVIDSON, N.C. — (NEA)—Here, 20 miles up the road from sprawling Charlotte on N.S. 21 is an unpretentious community of 7,000 persons, four traffic lights, one pizza shop.

Here also is Davidson College, a small, well-heeled liberal arts institution which has an all-time enrollment that barely doubles the town's population. They live here together, those two, in the shadow of Charlotte.

While the town itself is a fairly common picturesque southern community, the college is not. Davidson College and the normal I.Q. do not coincide. The school has 15 Rhodes scholars among its alumni and has produced more college professors with doctoral degrees than any other college in the South.

"We discourage many students from attempting to enroll each year," a faculty member said. "Many just cannot handle the workload here."

It is curious, then, that here amid this scholarly village has spawned one of the finer basketball programs in the country—fine enough, indeed, to challenge the college's academic renown.

Here enters the pizza shop. The pizza shop is the result of Charles D. (Lefty) Driesell's presence in the brick house at the corner of Woodland and Lorimer, North Carolina. Folks say the same thing about Davidson's basketball program.

long and lean and has a forehead that becomes more visible every year. His handshake is firm and his smile sincere.

Eight years ago, Lefty came to Davidson from Newport News, Va., where he had coached a high school team. He grabbed a hammer in his left hand and nailed a sign on the door of Johnston Gymnasium: "Closed Practice."

There were snickers outside. Davidson was the Southern Conference doormat, had been for more than 25 years. "What could Driesell possibly cook up in that barn that anybody would want to see, anyway?" a gas station attendant asked.

The team was 9-14 that year but one of its nine victims was Wake Forest, a team which finished third nationally the previous year. It was fair warning. It also was Driesell's last losing season.

Now one of the nation's leading coaches, Driesell has guided the Wildcats to 149 wins and 62 losses in the elapsed time. Four of his teams have won more than 20 games and three of the last five have ranked among the country's top 10 teams.

Davidson, which won its second conference tournament under Driesell last season, finished with a 24-5 record and reached the finals of the NCAA Eastern Regionals. This season, with all starters returning, the Wildcats promise to go farther. Mike Maloy the 6-7 center, is regarded as Davidson's third sure-fire All-American. Folks in Charlotte, where Davidson plays many of its home games in the city's domed, 11,000-seat coliseum, say only a mongoose could guard the long-armed center.

"I've never seen anybody quicker," Lefty says.

Another player, 6-3 Wayne Huckle, has been knocking over benches and chairs surrounding the Charlotte arena for three years in pursuit of stray basketballs. He paused recently to take the Rhodes scholar test.

"If I ever go to war," Driesell has said, "I want Huckle in my foxhole. I think he's the greatest competitor in college basketball."

Success was not a match Driesell accidentally scratched into flame of course. When he began, for instance, his entire recruiting budget was $500—14 meat slices in aluminum trays and eating hot dogs.

Now, with the money basketball is making for Davidson, Driesell has two full-time assistants, 14 scholarships instead of 11 and might spend $300 court-ing one player.

HAND-WORTHY OF SLAM BID

By Oswald & James Jacoby

North can make seven hearts if he plays the hand in this suit. All he must do is take the right view of the spade suit after picking up West's queen of hearts.

Those who did not have the slam bid against them gained without doing anything to justify the gain.

Looking at all the cards you can see that declarer will have no trouble with the contract. He wins the first club, plays three rounds of diamonds in order to get rid of his club losers, then goes after trumps. He can play ace and queen of hearts. Either way he winds up having one trump trick and nothing else.

There was quite an esoteric discussion at the tournament as to which line of play was superior. The ace play is the winner. It uses holds a singleton king, the finesse is a winner. If East started with exactly five diamonds and king and a low trump.

Against that combination East would be able to promote his partner's 10 to a trick by leading a fourth diamond.

Without going into full mathematics, we can state that the play of the ace is about two per cent better than the finesse.

Needless to say not one of the pairs in the U.S. Team Trials landed in hearts. Instead, every South declarer played the hand in spades. Three arrived at six, two stopped below the slam.

The hand also illustrates the luck of International Match Point duplicate. The slam is a good one but not outstanding. It should be bid and the odds are that declarer will make it but it is not in the lay down category.

Those who bid it gained, and their unfortunate opponents lost.

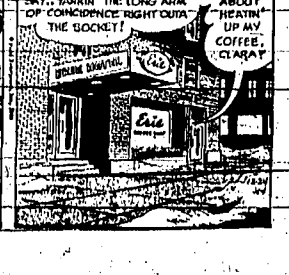

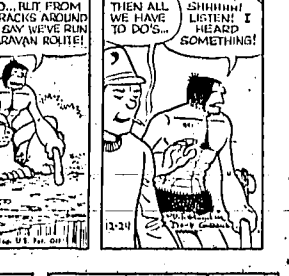

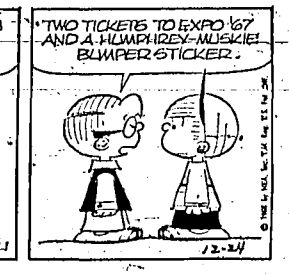

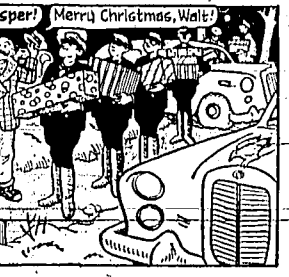

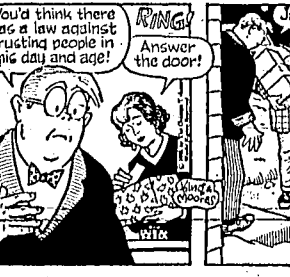

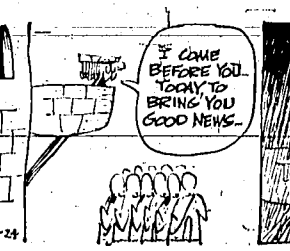

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of rebidding, three hearts, partner bids three diamonds. What do you do now?

Scribe Ponders Puzzler: Californians Have Big Feet

"WHAT'S responsible for the fact that Californian girls have bigger feet than the women else there?" inquires a San Francisco man. He has no cornered. Don't know why, although am aware it's true.

PACKAGES wrapped in dark paper always look heavier than packages wrapped in light paper, don't they? Well, a Missouri matron: "In the 20 years we have been married, my husband has never uttered a harsh word to me." And she adds: "Without paying dearly."

I'VE KNOWN four lady doctors and each of them was a real hunk on the back of the neck.

THE GENTLEMAN FRIEND of a girl called Zenis wants our Name Game man to comment on that moniker. Beautiful name, isn't it? Somebody ought to use it in a lyric.

HAVE LONG FELT ladies ought to be legalized and taxed. But a gentleman writes: "No money m a t e ' s argues, "Legalized gambling disrupts the local economy by involving each citizen who then fall to pay their bills. Thus the merchants suffer and so do the families of the gamblers." No doubt, no doubt. But could not the law limit the number of lottery tickets per customer? It's the hard-working fellow with the savings account who pays for everything that's public. The free-wheeling character who burrs his money gets off lightly. That's not right.

CUSTOMER SERVICE: Q—"WHAT about Douglas Wayne Corrigan, the fellow who announced he was going to fly to Los Angeles from New York, but landed in Dublin, Ireland, instead? Is he still around?" A. Certainly is. Lives in Santa Ana, Calif. Recalled some years ago he played on the Douglas Aircraft plant's softball team in Santa Monica, Calif. The team changed the game rules for him. Every time he hit a ball, he had to run to third base first, "prepped" to home plate, if possible, by way of second and first.

GIRLS WITH FAT THUMBS are endowed with great sex appeal. Even to the third base first, "prepped" to home plate, if possible, by way of second and first.

WRITES he: "I've known several fat-thumbed women and all were sensual warm females except one extraordinarily attractive to men."

A CONSTRUCTION MAN in Missouri says he has outfitted a camper in such a manner so as to enable his wife to drive to his job every day to cook him a hot noon meal. This she does without complaining, he writes, "because I taught her not to complain." Clever, those Missourians.

THAT AUTOMOBILE called the Mercedes was named after somebody's daughter. That you know. But argument continues over exactly whose daughter. Let's settle it. Her father was Gottlieb Daimler, the mechanic who built the first machine.

"IN REGARD to subduing a grizzly bear with a squirt gun full of ammonia, I'd say it's possible," writes an informant in Battleground, Wash. "I once was a bill collector. I used a small syringe filled with ammonia water to fight off dogs. It worked. Every time. No matter how vicious the dog."

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used whenever possible in "Checking Up." Address: L. M. Boyd, in care of P.O. Box 90187, Seattle, Wash. 98199.

"The reason I've been out ALL day, Mother, is there was simply no point in staying home with the phone out of order!"
