Jet Crash Kills 11 Close To Site Of Yule Tragedy

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — For everybody who could. The school the school was wonderful. They had an Allegheny Airlines propeller. I'm crashed in bad weather while proud of them.

Allegheny Airlines, which has had three fatal plane crashes, since it started flying passenger service in 1959, said it had no reason to believe there is any link between the two accidents occurred Monday night, the 2,100-foot-high Bradford Regional Airport. There are no plans to stop any flights, a spokesman said.

The latest crash was Flight 737, which originated in Washington, stopped in Harrisburg and was bound for Erie and Detroit. The first crash was Flight 736, which goes the other way. Both were Convair 580s, both were making instrument landings in snow, both turned over. Both had more survivors than dead. Both were coming in after severe winter storms. Neither pilot gave any warnings. Both took place about 5:30 p.m.

Cherico, a World War II pilot, told Allegheny officials he could think of only two explanations: "The flight chart for the airport is off, or there is somebody in the area with a citizens band radio operating on the same frequency as the airport."

Judy Barillo, wife of the golf pro at the Pine Acres course on the same Allegheny Mountain plateau five miles northwest of the airport, said the plane made a "tremendous noise" when it crashed.

"Then our picture window just lit up," she said. There was just JET CRASH, Page 2, Col. 1

AIH, SPRING—but not necessarily in the mountains. While the annual "January thaw" may have city residents thinking of such things as getting out of the snow, it may be washing the family car, it's still winter in the mountains. Educators Assert Governor's Budget Will Hurt Schools

By RICHARD HIGH JR., Times-News Staff Writer

Gov. Don Samuelson's executive budget recommendations Monday were received "with a little" by officials of the College of Southern Idaho and school trustees and superintendent. The first of a series of hearings held in Magic Valley by the Legislature's Joint Finance Appropriations Committee.

The schoolmen disputed the mill limitation on property taxes, some asking that school boards be given power to raise the mill limitation without the currently required two-thirds approval.

Camden—Meredith County district superintendent told the touring legislators, "We need to give the school boards some power on levies over 30 mills."

"I've seen the power of school boards go down down down, until they have no power above the millage level. They're down to be able to raise the levy to improve a program," Meyer added.

But Idaho School Trustees Association President, Zane Spahr, Bliss, said his organization favored retaining the 30-mill limit.

He said, "Financing above the 30 mills ought to come from the state instead of the taxpayers at the school district level."

Both superintendents and trustees spoke in favor of a proposal of the State Board of Education that funds should be supplied to increase teacher salaries by $500 a year in each of the next two years.

Twin Falls Superintendent Ernest Ragland said it is "a little ironic" that Idaho teachers have been in a "situation" where they have had difficulty getting people. With the sanction, it has aggravated the problem.

Dr. Ragland said the governor's executive budget recommended increase of 15.5 million may not be adequate for school needs.

"It might leave a difference that might have to be picked up by a locality," he said.

College of Southern Idaho President, Dr. J. Taylor, told the visiting legislators that Gov. Don Samuelson's budget recommendations are threatening both vocational and academic programs at the junior college.

Dr. Taylor said the Governor's proposed $1.7 million for vocational training programs and the $600,000 appropriation for academic programs at the junior colleges are not enough to maintain current programs.

"At this funding level, I question whether we can operate the program as we have at the present time. We feel that we must have more aid at the state level than we received last year," he said.

Following the hearing, Dr. Taylor received the backing of the Finance Appropriations Committee. Chairman, Sen. Richard S. High, R-Twin Falls, who said the state junior colleges require "increased financial support from the state."

ESL Teacher, Chairman, Eldon Evans told the Times-News that the governor's proposed cutback in state aid for the junior colleges and vocational programs raise the possibility of an increase in local college district taxation to support the colleges.

"The money has got to come from somewhere. If we lose money from the state it will have to come from somewhere else. We may have to raise the millage."

Dr. Taylor expressed particular concern over the Governor's proposal to support the state's vocational schools with $1.7 million during the next biennium — $3 million less than received in the past — the State Board of Education.

Council Approves Land Deal

The Twin Falls City Commission approved the city's purchase of lots 5 and 6, block 74, located behind the city hall building.

Herb Derrick, city manager, noted the money for the purchase had been designated in the city's budget.

The city, following this transaction will own all the property in that block except for two houses.

The commission voted to amend the ordinance dealing with the airport commission. The joint airport agreement with the county needs to be changed. Five men were appointed to the board, subsequent to the approval of the county commissioners. The appointees are: Arno Anderson, Warren Barnard, and Gus Koller, all Twin Falls; Gary Black, Castleford, and George Cairner, Hailey.

Ordinance No. 41 regarding the closing hours for drive-in restaurants was put on first reading. The closing time of the drive-in restaurants is from 11 p.m. to midnight.

The city manager reported that the water project is nearing completion. The water project work has been removed from the cover on the old reservoir and the inside is being smoothed. The project should be ready for use in a short time.

Derrick also said Detweiler Bros., Inc., has installed all the water meters in their contract. They will have a lot of work to do in the next few days.

The city commissioners were notified of either the legislative leadership or the sponsors and they will decide whether to refer them to committees for their consideration or submit them on an individual basis.

One of the proposals of the citizens committee on the State Legislature is that actual introduction of bills be permitted between the organizing session, held early in December, and the beginning of the regular session.

Robert Barbour Jr., the committee staff director, said that such procedure had been authorized by the 1967 Legislature and bills would be in position for actual consideration to begin immediately after convening of the regular session.

Urban Renewal Unit Okays Funding Pact

The Twin Falls Urban Renewal board took another step Monday toward making the downtown project a reality.

The board, during its regular meeting, adopted resolutions to execute a contract with Housing and Urban Development and for funding the project.

Joe Kelsch, director of the local Urban Renewal agency, explained that the step actually was just a formality. Following the action on the resolutions, the board members will sign the papers and they will be sent to the HUD office in San Francisco.

In August, the city commission approved the basic document and the papers were sent to the federal office. There are two weeks, according to Mr. Kelsch.

Joe Citek, of the Urban Renewal Board, said the members have had preliminary discussions with some of the tenants and landlords affected by the project.

He said the people of Twin Falls can expect to see some of the tenants move within the next 45 days. He said, of course, this is up to the discretion of the property owners.

The designs for the improvements are expected to be initiated in the next 30 days. The Urban Renewal board will meet with the city commission Monday noon and informed the city of the progress.

CAA Is Given Extension Until Feb. 1

The North Central Community Action Agency has received a 30-day extension to operate until Feb. 1, according to C. E. (Ed) Bernard, board chairman.

Mr. Bernard said the agency's application is being processed at the State Department of Social Services, Kansas City, Mo. He said the program is being extended for 30 days on an indefinite basis.

The extension affects the three full-year Headstart programs and the CAA office. The programs are being funded for 30 days on an indefinite basis from 1968.

Processing of the applications is being completed and usually takes approximately 60 days. The Kansas City office has had the local application for only 30 days.

BOISE (AP) — More than 200 bills were reported ready today for introduction in the Idaho legislature when it begins its 1969 session next Monday.

The remainder were drafted by the council for either individual legislators or council committees.

The drafted bills will be presented to either the legislative leadership or the sponsors and they will decide whether to refer them to committees for their consideration or submit them on an individual basis.

One of the proposals of the citizens committee on the State Legislature is that actual introduction of bills be permitted between the organizing session, held early in December, and the beginning of the regular session.

Minidoka County Agent's Salary Controversy Aired

REPORT — The controversy over the Minidoka County salary was rekindled Monday afternoon as Dr. James Kraus, dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Idaho, attempted to clear up some of the residents' problems and questions concerning the extension of the county agent's salary.

Dr. Kraus was in Report Monday afternoon to participate in a panel show sponsored by KATV radio. Members of the area were encouraged to phone in questions and comments during the program.

Main item of discussion during the hour-long program was the salary of the agent. Dr. Kraus explained that the total extension service budget is $4,299,000. Of that amount, $1,411,000 per cent is provided by state See MINIDOKA, Page 2, Col. 7

MEANWHILE, BACK in the Valley, the springlike weather this week was a welcome change from a cold, early winter. It won't be many days ago that City Park was buried under a real blanket of snow. Lebanese Premier Resigns As French Halt Aid To Israel

By The Associated Press

Premier Abdullah Yafi of Lebanon, under fire since the Israeli commando raid on Beirut International Airport, handed in his resignation today, but a government spokesman said President Charles Helou has not accepted it yet.

"Dr. Yafi ... believes a new government demands a new situation," said the spokesman. "Big decisions have to be made and Dr. Yafi believes the president should have the opportunity of choosing a new man if he is wished."

Beirut newspapers reported that legislators favor a national coalition to replace Yafi and his four-man Cabinet, "who have been severely criticized for the unprovoked state of the Beirut airport."

The newspaper speculated that a pro-Egyptian former prime minister, Rashid Karami, might become the next premier. He led the Nasrallah revolt against President Camille Chamoun in 1958, a move that could cripple the air force that is Israel's prime strike weapon.

The Israeli air force of French jet fighters scored the first knockout blow in the Arab-Israeli war of 1967, virtually destroying the Jordanian, Syrian and Egyptian air forces in a matter of hours.

Since then Israel's Mystere and Mirage fighters have repeatedly attacked Arab positions, particularly in Jordan, in retaliation for artillery and guerrilla attacks on Israeli settlements and patrols.

An Israeli spokesman in Paris said the embargo has been in effect since Sunday. Informed Israeli sources said their air force has enough spare parts to last "many months," but the Paris spokesman said, "We regard this step as having a possibly dangerous effect on our air force."

The French action was expected to add urgency to Israel's requests for quick delivery of 50 U.S. F4 Phantom jets.

Tribunal Backs Ruling Granting Aid To Idahoan

BOISE (AP) — A district court decision granting a former Coeur d'Alene Police chief increased retirement benefits was affirmed 3-2 Monday by the Idaho State Supreme Court.
The court upheld a decision by Judge Walter E. Dorn that the chief said a 1955 law allowing those with service-connected disabilities to qualify for increased retirement benefits was retroactive to 1948, along with an increase in benefits to 75 per cent of the pay rate for the chief's position.
"Coeur d'Alene police commissioners appealed the decision, but it applied the law retroactively." However, the high court said the law merely created a right which Dorn sought to exercise.

Court Refuses To Veto Votes In Ballot Dispute

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — First District Judge Watt Prather dismissed Monday a complaint to void the election of Ralph Lacy as Bannock County assessor.

The complaint, filed by 11 persons headed by Paul Thompson, contended Lacy was ineligible. Legal votes were counted and there were other errors in counting.

The complaint was filed on behalf of Lyle Anderson, narrowly defeated by Lacy in the Democratic primary.

Not Perfect

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Brown University researchers have developed a computer process which the institution says "turns out flawless final copy hundreds of times faster than any conventional method of editorial production."

"The hypertext editing process... does away with the need (sic) for pencils, ink, scissors, pastepots (sic) and even proofs," the release says. "It also eliminates much of the manpower that goes into editorial production, including writers, editors, proofreaders, secretaries and copy boys."

It was never written flatly into law. Instead, "legislative history" was made on the floor of the Senate and House just before the act passed in 1963, stating that it would not apply "where minimal training is needed" and where "there exists a substantial number of able and experienced workers presently unemployed." Only the apparel industry was mentioned above.

"I don't even have an opinion," Frank Border, a Minneapolis expert, told us. "This unwillingness to discuss the ban openly can only result from the Johnson administration's refusal to admit the unions are right on the issue. This is the union which runs and finances New York state's Liberal Party, which has political tentacles deep into the national Democratic party."

New For Gals

The annals of science are replete with examples of the selfless dedication of individual researchers in the never-ending struggle to push back the frontiers of the unknown. Add now the name and claim of Salim Ibrahim, who after 18 months of diligent investigation in an area that therefore had been a virtual terra incognita to man, has produced a 51-page technical report dealing with "the mechanics of form-persuasive garments."

The Sands Of Time

Now, however, the industry claims it cannot fill some 25,000 jobs and wants the use of MITA funds for apparel workers under the Federal Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA) first passed during the Kennedy administration. Symbolic of the union-imposed ban is the way it came about.

The Last Mile

Capital punishment, on the down trend for years in the United States, finally hit rock bottom in 1968. The year has passed without a single execution, the first on record since the Federal Bureau of Prisons has been keeping statistics.

WASHINGTON — Although it doesn't seem to be much of a problem to get a man from the beach to the man in the suit, it's still all most impossible to develop a fast train from New York to Washington. While some projects have been made by unnamed pulpmen, railspac officials said it was still too dangerous to send men to Washington, in one of the new craft.

MOTHER'S FEAR

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Since the birth of my first child several months ago I have been haunted by the thought that I will be unable to have any more children. I'm sure it is an unreasonable fear as there is no physical basis for it.

Double Trouble

Any man in these days of high prices and high taxes, who already has a wife and two children, who willingly acquires another wife and a third child, who is able to keep both women reasonably happy by dividing his time between the wife who is able to support two households and five dependents on a weekly income of $140 and such part-time earnings as he can bring in—any man who can do all this is more deserving of admiration than censire.

He was a crew member on an armed helicopter when, having arrived at Quang Ngai Airfield, they found it under heavy attack. They immediately came under intense small arms and machine gun fire from a village and rice paddy area to the south of the airfield. On pass after pass they exposed themselves to the hostile fire placing extremely accurate suppressive fire into the enemy positions.

New Service Proves Popular At Hospital

Dr. B. N. Carle said Tuesday that 38 patients have been processed through the electroencephalograph recently installed at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital at Ft. Leavenworth.

Dr. Carle's office has been the clearing house for patient applications for use of the brain wave study instrument. He said the schedule has been full since installation and his books are currently full through Jan. 21.

He said the patients have come from throughout Magic Valley and there have been a number of abnormal tracings. Some of these patients have required medical and surgical work following the machine readings.

"It has been a very rewarding effort," Dr. Carle said. But he said he expects a tapering off of patients soon. He said they have been kept busy because there was such a large backlog of patients needing the diagnosis, which is made possible with the instrument.

Magic Valley Memorial Hospital Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday each week. Meanwhile,

Lake City, has been coming to Mrs. Leslie Price, Twin Falls, to be trained in Salt Lake City to operate the electroencephalograph.

The department said that in the first 11 months of 1968 traffic accidents claimed 220 lives in Idaho compared with 266 in the corresponding period of 1967. But the rate per 100 million single miles declined from 7.02 in 1967 to 6.83 in 1968, the department said.

'UFO' Study Finds No Hint Of Ships From Outer Space

By FRANK CAREY
A report on an Air Force-funded investigation of flying saucers will find no scientific evidence to indicate that these unidentified flying objects are spacecrafts from another world.

Informal sources told The Associated Press that this will be the primary thrust of the close-guarded report on a two-year study by a team of non-governmental scientists.

The study, financed by a $300,000 grant from the Air Force, was headed by Dr. Edward U. Condon of the University of Colorado.

Eight security has been imposed on the project from the start, and authorities are still working hard to guard against leaks.

The 1,000-page report has been turned over, at the Air Force's request, to a special ad-hoc committee of the National Academy of Sciences, which refuses to divulge any information.

Dr. Condon, 65, a physicist and a former chief of the U.S. National Bureau of Standards has repeatedly refused to talk.

The committee was set up to investigate the UFO phenomenon, which has attracted the attention of the public and the media.

The report will be made available to the public in a few weeks, but the Air Force is still working to guard against leaks.

Gov. Reagan Asks Legislators To Boost Penalties For Students In Campus Riots

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Ronald Reagan, offering California his 1969 program, called on the state legislature today to strike hard against campus turmoil by increasing penalties for students, non-students and faculty involved in disturbances.

The Republican governor, in his annual "State of the State" message, also offered "a substantial personal income tax reduction." He didn't specify who had promised it, but middle-income families hit hardest by his 1967 billion-dollar tax increase.

Pledging another year of economy, Reagan said, "Under no circumstances will I support or sign into law any tax increase."

And, he asked for new pornography controls and new weaponry.

Reagan also called for a "substantial personal income tax reduction" and a "substantial personal income tax reduction."

'No Settlement In Sight' Refinery Strike Continues

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The nationwide strike against major oil refineries entered its fourth day today, but the president of the striking Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union said there was little to indicate an imminent settlement.

President A. F. Grosproh said "the best offer any company has made amounts to about a third as much as we asked."

The union is asking 72 cents an hour general increase in 23-month contracts. The average refinery worker now makes $3.80 an hour.

In Midland, Tex., 10 OCAW picketers were jailed and released on $1,000 bond Monday after a personnel was unharmed.

The judge had enjoined the union members from striking the Jefferson County Texas oil plants before Jan. 10 on grounds three men Monday. Grosproh said the required 60-day strike would be broken.

A Mobil spokesman denied reports of a fire in the refinery at Torrance, Calif. Officials at the major plants said there was no danger and that in many cases, the supervisors, chemical and mechanical engineers now operating the plants have a higher level of operating competence than the normal operating crew.

A total of 190,459 persons picked Craters of the Moon National Monument during 1968. State Of Utah Files Lawsuit On 5 Firms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The State of Utah has charged five major drug companies with conspiracy to fix prices on antibiotic drugs.

A complaint filed in U.S. District Court Monday asks a jury trial and award of triple damages to be decided by the jury.

The suit was filed by Utah's outgoing attorney general, Philip H. Hannon, and the firm San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto, a specialist in antitrust actions.

The complaint was against Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc.; American Cyanamid Co., Bristol-Myers Squibb, and the firm U.S. States Pfizer, Cyanamid and Bristol were convicted in New York federal court in 1967 of fixing prices on antibiotic drugs.

Utah contends it has been compelled to pay higher than competitive prices for antibiotics, forcing it to raise the price of drugs because of this agreement among the drug firms.

McClure Seeks Limit On Imports Of Honey, Milk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bill limiting the imports of honey, meat, dairy products, textiles and milk pits into the United States was introduced Monday by Rep. James A. McClure, R-Texas.

"Our economy is dependent upon a spirit of cooperation among the nations of the free world," McClure said, "but this does not mean we are so committed to helping our friends abroad that domestic industries be sacrificed in the process."

McClure said he introduced similar legislation in the last session and the House Ways and Means Committee held hearings on the bills, but no action was taken.

Firms Obtain Order To Halt Picket Lines

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. (AP)—Three oil companies obtained a temporary restraining order Monday to stop mass picketing at the Southern California plants and refineries during a strike by the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

Superior Court Judge Richard S. Brown issued the order barring striking union members from mass picketing at plants operated by Powerline Oil Co., Texaco Inc., and Atlantic Richfield Inc.

The order said no more than five pickets may remain at plant gates, and at least 20 feet apart. Other picketers must remain at least 100 yards from plant gates.

Health Agency Cites Peril In Floods

By The Associated Press
The Seattle-King County Health Department warned of polluted drinking water in the Snoqualmie Valley Monday as other picketers must remain at least 100 yards from plant gates.

The rain was slower than usual, but partially because of record high tides. Continuing rain led to the problem of the health department said water in the Snoqualmie Valley below Fall City was "dangerously polluted."

Officials said flooded septic tanks and animal waste had washed into many drinking wells.

Meanwhile, food limits were posted on many roads in King and Snohomish counties. The frozen and frozen officials said heavy traffic would break up the surfaces.

The 150 residents of Bellingham, washed out of their homes Sunday, were still unable to return Monday.

Wigs Are Part Of Wardrobe

NEW YORK (AP)—"Wigs are no longer a fad," says wig designer Richard Hartwick.

Hartwick, winner of the International Championship in wig styling a few years ago says that the human hair wig has become a part of a woman's wardrobe. Today, he says, it is not unusual for a woman to have two or more wigs.

For a woman's first wig, a hair-owning Hartwick suggests that she choose a color close to her own, which gives her a chance to become accustomed to the wig alone.

The more experienced wig wearer might choose his new wig creation, the Crescendo, a wig with three different shades of the same color.

WITH EVERYONE expecting pants, pants and more pants, the New York Culture Group pulled a switch today and opened its showing in New York with the Jo-Copland collection for February which didn't include a single pair of slacks. At right is one substitute for pants—an apricot-colored, wrap chestwaist dress with a slit to knee in front. At left is a blue and white checked tweed belted coat over a navy dress. (AP wirephoto)

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband has not come near me, even for a kiss, since my hysterectomy two years ago. My sex life is not neat, nor repulsive or ugly. My husband is the type who goes around our property cutting down all the trees that are imperfectly formed. We are in our early forties. Please print my answer. Hit may prefer to "CUTDOWN"

DEAR ABBY: If anybody writes in and asks you if she should marry a widower who was married to the same woman for 40 years, tell her not to. I've been married for three months to a man who is wonderful when he's awake, but he keeps calling me "Myrtle" in his sleep. Maybe he can't help it, but I was widowed twice, and I never once called my present husband Alfred or LeRoy in my sleep, and if I can be careful, so can he.

DEAR ABBY: My father is having an affair with a girl who is not much older than I am (I am 24). She went to work in his office soon after her divorce. I cannot describe how heart sick I am. I have always adored my father, and now I can't even look at him.

DEAR ABBY: My mother must suspect something because she looks so unhappy and worried lately, but she is proud.

I don't believe my father would divorce me to marry this woman. She has small children and knowing my father, he's not about to raise a family at his age. Maybe, too, this young woman doesn't want an "old" man to take care of, but she is playing him for all he's worth.

Should I tell my mother? I have the feeling it might help her to talk to someone. Should I go to my father and tell him about this person I would put up with this situation in his office for one minute.

What advice can you give me, Abby?

DEAR HEARTSICK DAUGHTER: Don't talk to your mother. And don't talk to your father—boss. (He might give you a bath, and at that age, your father may not find it easy to get another job.)

Try to reason with him. He's probably intoxicated with this girl and her seductive suggestions. You may not be able to shake him out of the date, but it's worth a try.

One evening at our club, a woman came up to me and said, "My, your hair looks pretty." Then she grinned and added, "and the people at our table have a bet on about whether you're wearing a wig or not. Are you?"

I primed right back at her and replied, "What a coincidence! The people at OUR table also have a bet on about whether you're wearing a wig or not. But nobody had the nerve to ask you."

Needless to say, that took care of her.

SUPERVISED

GLENNIS FERRY, Rev. and Mrs. Larry Maxwell of the Baptist Church, Glennis Ferry, were surprised with the gift of a new clothes dryer when services were closed Sunday evening, Dec. 29. But the mother and friends of the church expressed appreciation to their pastor and his wife this year.

Ewbank Wants Series Of Games To Decide Super Bowl Winner

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — "The world won't fall in for the American Football League if we don't win," says Webber Ewbank, coach of the New York Jets of the AFL, who is talking about his team's Sunday date in the Super Bowl with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Ewbank believes his team can win if the Jets don't beat themselves, but he wants it known he doesn't think this championship helps or hurts. As far as he's concerned, it doesn't affect one way or another. I don't think any pro football team pays any attention to the odds.

"What the Jets have to do," says Ewbank, "is to go out and execute. We have to be careful not to fumble, or fail to cover on a pass pattern, not to get intercepted. The team which makes the fewest of these mistakes will win. All I can say is that in the last two years we have been beaten but we haven't beaten ourselves."

Barry Keeps ABA Scoring Leadership

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Despite being sidelined by a knee injury, the Oakland Oaks' high scoring Rick Barry maintained his American Basketball Association scoring lead in games through Sunday.

The Oaks' teammates are a 19 game winning rampage, is averaging 35.9 in the 30 games he has played in. Minnesota's Larry Brown is second place with a 33.7 average, with New Orleans' James Jones, Kentucky's flashy Darel Carrier and the Indiana Pacers' Mel Daniels rounding out the top five.

Daniels, the ABA's rookie of the year in 1967-68, holds a decided edge in rebounding, gathering in an average of 15.5 per game. Hawkins is second with 13.4 a game.

Two of Barry's teammates on the Oaks, Larry Brown and Jim Hawkins, lead other ABA contenders, while Barry has the leadership in a second department.

Larry Brown is tied with Double Freeman of the Miami Floridians in assists, with a 6.3 per game average. The Oaks' Jim Ewbank leads in two-point field goal shooting, having pumped in 152 of 268 shots for a 56.7 percentage. Bill Berry of the Denver is a close second with a 55.8 mark.

Barry leads in free throw shooting accuracy, with .815 points from the foul line in 112 attempts for an 88.8 percentage. Carrier is the leading long-range gunner on three-point shots, having dropped 16 of 164 shots from beyond 25 feet.

Baseball Fund Is Turned Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Early scattered returns from big league ball players indicate a rejection of the owners' proposal to add $1 million annually into the player pension fund.

Marvin Miller, director of the Major League Baseball Players' Association, said Monday the first ballots received were unanimously against acceptance. About 600 ballots were mailed last week.

The Association has called on players to continue their support of a policy of not signing 1969 contracts until a satisfactory pension plan agreement has been reached.

Miller said he was unhappy about the owners' policy of negotiating only once a week and that he printed out that he printed out about three weeks would be required to analyze any new offer, clear action with the executive Board and send ballots to players with an explanatory letter.

The clubs must send out contracts by Jan. 15. Spring training for many players is scheduled to start about Feb. 20.

CRIME PAYS OFF

AT BRIDGE TABLE
Thirty years ago when standard American bidding had taken on something like its current form there was a simple definition of an opening bid of three clubs. It was made with a hand below distance in this direction. When not vulnerable against vulnerable we may open a five-trick hand with a three bid but we don't approve of opening pre-emptive such as the one perpetrated by Jacoby's East.

We really consider this sort of bid a bridge crime but on this occasion crime paid. South wanted to double three clubs but was playing a double primarily for take-out. He didn't want to pass and finally settled on three diamonds—his most satisfactory call.

At this point West came up with a brilliant bid. He didn't bother to show his good heart suit but tried four clubs. No one can blame North for cue-bidding five clubs. However, he should have recognized his partner's principal strength was the ace-king-queen of this suit. South could only sign off at five diamonds but North, out to be denied, went to six diamonds. No one doubted but that made little difference. Down one at six diamonds was bad enough.

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South
Pass 2♣ Pass 2♦
Pass 5♣ Pass 5♦
Pass 6♦ Pass 7♦

Q—With three spades, East spades is a close second choice. Your partner has shown at least 10 high card points and neutral spade support.

Flu Epidemic Agitates U. S. Fear Termed 'Nosophobia'

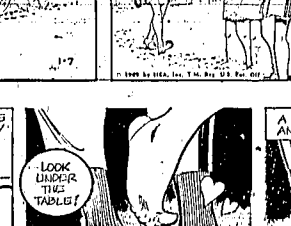

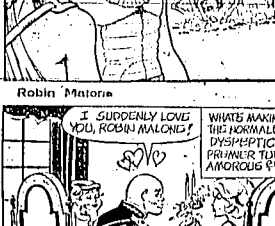

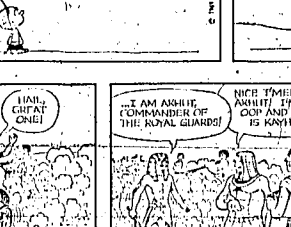

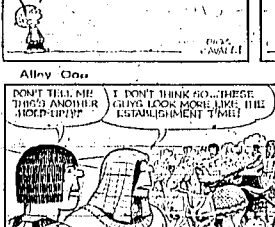

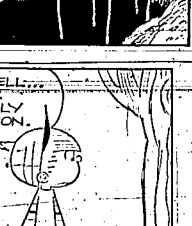

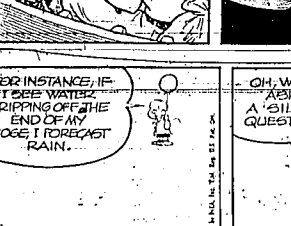

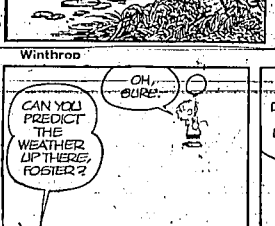

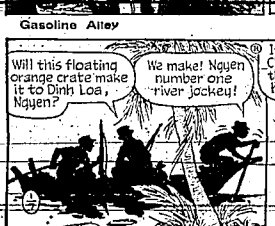

RESEARCHERS in nosophobia are agitating the 20 words most commonly used by coeds. YOU HAVE READ Mr. Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven," have you not? He originally titled it "The Raven." ONE—THE DUBLIN MAN—named Patrick Brennan who first put ham with eggs for breakfast. THE OTHERS—SMOTHERS' eyes is bright blue, the other bright green. CORRESPONDENTS in Mexico City say nosophobia is selling there now for $3. a high.

NOTE—A CONTEMPORARY reports "The Hong Kong flu epidemic has stirred the national nosophobia." Illuminating Our Language man says that "nosophobia" is a word that the flu scares many. That nosophobia is pretty common. One knew a business tycoon in Houston who suffered from nosophobia. A master salesman, he was. He manipulated men. He could work a committee meeting like a milkster works a cow. Except in one instance. If anybody coughed, sneezed, or blew a nose, he got up and left the room.

SOME OF CALIFORNIA is farther north than some of Canada. Detroit is to the west of any part of South America. None of England is as far south as any of the United States. Seattle is more northern than all of Maine. So notes a geographer. SWANS MATE FOR LIFE—That's common knowledge. Nosophobia, an Indiana subscriber says he owns a long-married cop that occasionally sneaks out at night to meet a flirtatious little non on the other side of the cattails, the renegade. Highly unusual, if true.

TURN A CHICKEN and a pigeon are 10 miles apart from coops and the pigeon is far more apt to get home. That you know. But turn a chicken and a pigeon are 10 miles apart from trapezoid puzzles called a maze and the chicken is far more apt to get all the way through it. Some geographers discovered the force going. And concluded that from the chicken is smarter than the pigeon. Just a minute, mister. If you don't think it's news a chicken is smarter than some thing, you've never raised chickens.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used wherever possible in "Checking Up." Address mail to L. M. Boyd, in care of P.O. Box 99187, Seattle, Wash. 98199.

Successful Investing

Q—Earning experience with stocks, I'm putting my children's gift money into government bonds, looking ahead to college. My only child is 9. I've read that inflation will certainly affect the worth of both, in cash and principal. Should I cash these bonds and buy growth stocks? If so, which ones? How long shall I hold them?—J.L.

First Winter Short Term Opens At MVCC

MAGIC VALLEY CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, Albion — Magic Valley Christian College's first winter short term, nicknamed "The Short Term," will run through the month of January and the first of February. The program will complete a unit during the month.

Each class will run for two hours and 15 minutes each day Monday through Friday. Classes will begin at 8:15 a.m. with an assembly break at 9:30 a.m. Classes resume at 10 a.m. and end at 11 a.m. when physical education classes begin.

During the Winter Short Term students can choose from seven different classes, including: "Introduction to Psychology," "English Composition," "U.S. History since 1865," "Beginning Gymnastics," "Monday Bowling," "Skiing and New Testament Survey."

All courses are acceptable to the State University. In this catalog, all courses are transferable to other institutions.

Tuition cost for the short term is $100 or $25 per hour. Students who desire to live in campus rooms will be charged $25 for their room and $36.65 for board. Books are not included in these figures.

Students interested in the Winter Short Term should either call or come to the registrar's office at Magic Valley Christian College.

Guidelines Given On Cassia Lunch Policy

BURLEY — Guidelines were issued to school principals in a policy statement for the Cassia County School Lunch Program by Dale Nelson, county superintendent, welfare personnel and church agencies.

The school policy will supply lunches without cost, at reduced price or an exchange rate to all children who are unable to pay the full price. The policy for determining eligibility will be made by the local school principal and the guidelines state that there will be no discrimination against any child because of his inability to pay the full price for the lunch.

Determination of the child's need and the family's inability to pay for school lunches will be based on criteria ranging from consultation with the student and his parents along with verification of the information. The principals could ask for specific information relative to the child's employment, sources of family income, amount of income, financial obligations of the immediate family members, and general household information pertaining to the family.

Pueblo Crew 'Integrates' Into Hospital

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Slowly, the Navy is integrating the 82 Pueblo survivors into the regular base routine at San Diego naval hospital.

The men freed in late December by North Korea now are being granted regular liberty. Starting Tuesday, they'll take meals with other patients at the hospital instead of at a special dining room set up for them at the RX Club.

The crewmen will take regular mess, a spokesman said. We're trying to make them regular patients here at the hospital, says Lt. Cmdr. Richard W. Hilsdale, an information officer.

The Navy made Monday's noon meal the last free meal the crew members would eat with the crew members, he said. Henceforth, the crew members will be eating official dehydrated meals to eat with their families while living in public cafeterias at the base.

Nine crewmen including Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, received purple heart medals Saturday. Bucher, who had been confined to a hospital room for a week with respiratory illness and mental fatigue, said simply: "Thank you." He grasped the shoulders and hands of a number of crewmen who watched the ceremony but did not receive awards.

Filipino Nurse Takes Husband

SAN LUIS, Batangas (AP) — Filipino nurse Chazon Amarao married her childhood sweetheart Sunday in a little church nestled among coconut palms and said she remembered the Big Cebu nurse and classmate as "just a nightmare."

"It doesn't affect me emotionally any more," said the radiant 25-year-old bride, who had under a bed 29 months ago while Richard Speck slaughtered her eight roommates, all student nurses.

She later identified Speck, 25, as the killer, and he was convicted and sentenced to death.

Miss Amarao married last week graduate Alberto Amarao, 22, in brief, simple ceremony. The bride attracted many newsmen and well-wishers to this sleepy Batangas province town 84 miles south of Manila.

Father Benjamin Percano, the San Luis parish priest, said of the bride: "She is a good girl — a quiet, simple girl."

Bedeas working as a nurse at Manila's Far Eastern University hospital, the new Mrs. Amarao is the only woman member of the San Luis town council. She was elected to a four-year term in 1967.

Amarao is preparing for bar examinations later this year and is considering going to the United States for graduate study.

If she does, Amarao said his wife would like a nursing job in the Washington, D.C., area.

Milkers Needed

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — A good cow milker in San Diego County is hard to find, one that dairies are offering rent-free homes, up to $700 a month and even a free gallon of milk a day.

Since it takes years to train a top milker, the San Diego County Dairy Herd Improvement Association is worried. "Just as the cow becomes accustomed to one milker, he becomes used to another dairy," a spokesman said.

Milkers are in great demand. So the dairies are setting up a school, three nights a week at Escondido High school. So far 17 men have signed up.

New Volumes Are Available At Richfield

RICHFIELD — New winter reading available at the Richfield Public Library are adult fiction books, the "Boy Scout Handbook" and "The Story of America in Pictures" by Alan C. Collins.

Fiction books are "Face My Assassin," "An End to Herod's Reign," "So Long as We Remember," "A Prison of Peace," "Ada Dallas," "The Desperate Hours" and "Enough Good Men."

"Land of the Living," "Jump in the Night," "Crosswind," "The Baroness," "Mr. Sedman and the Golem," "The Affairs of the House," and "David the King."

Mrs. Ted Dixon, librarian, states the library is open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays.

VISUAL TEACHING AIDS were discussed Monday at the pre-semester workshop held for College of Southern Idaho faculty members. From left are Ken Coffey and Elsie Opheim, both business instructors, and Robert E. Harris, instructor in English and humanities. Regular registration began Tuesday and will continue this week. Second semester begins Monday. An enrollment of about 3,000 is expected by the college.

Rivers In North Idaho Start Rise

Rivers and creeks in North Idaho were rising Monday, fed by light rain and rapidly melting snow.

The small Idaho community of Elk City, 50 miles east of Grangeville, was isolated Monday by heavy rain and water from the South Fork of the Clearwater River covered State Highway 14. Telephone service also was out.

Lampy Creek, where severe flooding in 1966 caused damage from Caldwell to Spalding, was rising swiftly Monday, and authorities in that area were considering whether to dynamite an ice jam at the creek's mouth near Spalding.

The creek was rip-rapped following the 1966 flood, and no houses along that stretch were evacuated Monday morning. However, several families were forced out of their homes along tributaries.

BIDS SOUGHT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, announced Monday bills would be opened March 13 for construction of a 350-ton bridge crane for Dworshak Dam and power house in North Idaho.

Hickel Predicts Vindication On Conservation Activities

WASHINGTON (AP) — An opportunity to know my record as Gov. Walter J. Hickel, President and philosophy as a public and delect Nixon's choice for private person, they will find me secretary of interior, says he is, are in basic agreement to pursue a Senate hearing on his nomination will show he is in basic agreement with conservationists on protecting natural resources.

Hickel's brief statement Sunday was his first public response to critics who have charged that his statements have indicated he would put his business interests ahead of public need in the area of conservation.

One of the things cited by Hickel's critics is his statement at a news conference opposing "conservation for conservation's sake."

Hickel said in his statement that "it is confident that when Congress and the public have an opportunity to hear my record and philosophy as a public and delect Nixon's choice for private person, they will find me secretary of interior, says he is, are in basic agreement to pursue a Senate hearing on his nomination will show he is in basic agreement with conservationists on protecting natural resources."

Hickel also said Sunday "with fairness and discrimination" when questioned by the Senate Interior Committee at the Jan. 15 hearing on his job.

Mansfield appeared on the CBS television-radio program "Face the Nation," he said Hickel will be examined closely but he expects eventual approval of the appointment.

In Seattle, Wash., Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, said Sunday that "it is confident that when Hickel will face stiff questioning at the hearing."
