Businessmen Go Back To School, But Just For Day

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

Education is everyone's business, school officials like to say, and Tuesday they made it everyone's business.

More than 400 people from all walks of life toured the Twin Falls School system then met at noon at the High School gymnasium to compare notes, listen to short talks and eat lunch.

"It was a tremendous success," Dr. Ernest Ruggland said. He is superintendent of schools. "I would you take you swallowed hydrochloric acid."

"The sacraments," the youth replied.

Outside the chemistry class, the group fell against the wall as the bell rang ending the period.

"Now you'll see why we have such wide hallways," Mr. Kail cautioned.

In less than a minute the hall was jammed with students, all hurrying to catch their next class. The confusion lasted less than five minutes, then it was quiet once again. The tour continued.

The group saw library facilities and the study hall where 200 students read quietly from textbooks.

The high school was built about 18 years ago. On June 30 of this year the final payment on the bonded debt of $1.4 million will be paid and the high school will be out of debt.

"This building doesn't look that old," one woman said on the tour.

The building has been expanded steadily since it was first started, and now a total of 1,464 students visit that institution daily to get an education.

Mr. Lawrence said an enrollment of 1,500 is expected next year. "This will be our best year. After that, enrollment will steady, then taper off. He said this was based on a school and area study made recently.

"That is, it will taper off if the area doesn't grow very rapidly in five or 10 years."

Classes average between 20 and 21 students at the high school.

In the vocational part of the building, those on the tour were shown mechanical and wood working facilities, in addition to agriculture and electronics.

Electrical equipment in one room was estimated to cost $25,000.

"When our kids leave this class after two years they have a good background in electronics," Mr. Kail said.

He said he prepared many for jobs once they are out of school. "Most of our training is very widely accepted in the business world."

There are three full time counselors at the high school, Mr. Lawrence said there is a counselor for four, and the three guide the individual through his high school years.

After the tour of the high school, this reporter went with a group to four Bicket grade schools. It houses 595 students, but 10 of them were out Tuesday with the flu or for other reasons.

The first class visited there was a class of first graders. While the teacher explained the new math, a young boy attempted to lock a young girl in a closet.

The activity was stopped. See SC10105, Pg. 2, Col. 4

Mideast Foes Swap Gunfire

Arabs To Aid Jordanians In Israel War

United Press International - Jordanian and Israeli troops battled with machineguns for an hour today near the Sea of Galilee, a military spokesman in Amman, Jordan said.

The spokesman said the Israelis began the fight, shooting from a watchtower on the west bank of the Jordan River ceasefire line laid down at the end of the 1967 Middle East War. The spokesman said there were no Jordanian casualties.

The shooting followed an announcement by Egypt that Kuwait and Saudi Arabia will send troops to aid Jordan against Israel. Israel warned Lebanon against guerrilla raiding and announced it will double the strength of its air force by mid-1970.

On the diplomatic side of the Middle-East crisis, government sources in Jerusalem said Israeli officials are more and more worried that the United States, Russia, France and Britain may try to impose a "big power" solution to the Israel-Arab situation. They said Israeli leaders fear Moscow and the French may try to arrange big power talks in the United Nations and lead them toward imposing a solution.

Dayan, a hero of Israel's 1955 and 1967 wars against the Arabs, also said his air force will double its strength in the next 18 months. Despite a French embargo against arms to Israel, the United States has arranged the sale of F4 Phantom jets to the Jewish state.

In Jerusalem, the government sources said Israel has told the United States it opposes a big power imposed settlement. They said Israel fears the Soviets and the French may try to arrange big power talks in the United Nations and lead them toward imposing a solution.

Police Get You Coming And Going

By RUTH KOONCE MILLER
Times-News Staff Writer

New equipment which will make the job much easier for Idaho State Policemen on the lookout for speeding motorists will be put into operation in the near future.

Li. Dean Bennett, head of the Idaho State Police in Magic Valley's District No. 4, said that new Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder (VASCAR) units will be installed Monday in four cars in District 4.

He said the units will be put into the patrol cars while the operators are in Boise attending a training meeting on the VASCAR units.

Attending the meeting from District 4 will be Bill Watts, Jerome; Frank York, Twin Falls; Bob Brown, Burley; and John Brewer, Rupert. The men and cars were selected to distribute the units throughout the valley.

"The units will be in use shortly after the training meeting," Li. Bennett said.

The units, which are not visible to motorists, are mounted in four locations in the front of patrol cars. The four parts are an adaptor, which attaches to the speedometer cable; a module computer, which controls beneath the car seat; a control panel of two switches, which mounts on the steering column, and a readout panel with illuminated numbers, which attaches to the dashboard.

While the VASCAR is electronic, it is merely a simple computer. It operates on factors of time and distance in speed computation.

When a patrolman is clocking a violator, he flips the "time" switch as the speeder passes a selected landmark and flips it off when the suspect's car reaches a second landmark.

When the patrol car hits the first mark, the operator turns the "distance" switch on and switches it off at the second landmark.

Time and distance, measured and fed into the computer, are calculated to the nearest tenth of a mile per hour, and is displayed on the readout module. The reading remains there for evidence until the push of the reset button clears the computer for another speed check.

The VASCAR has several advantages over radar, which has been in use in Idaho for many years, and also over speedometer pacing.

Li. Bennett said the most important advantage is that it can be used while an officer is on patrol. Unlike radar, which must be set up at a traffic point, the use of VASCAR does not take patrolmen off regular patrol duty.

It also provides a fair and accurate clocking under a variety of circumstances. Officers see NEW DEVICE, Pg. 2, Col. 1

Documents Reveal Red Plans For Offensive During 'Tet'

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist sources said documents captured in four regions of Vietnam have ordered guerrillas to prepare for month-scale fighting during this month's Tet lunar new year holiday, U.S. intelligence sources said today.

Acting in nip in the bid any Communist offensive against the cities of South Vietnam, government troops seized a Viet Cong arms cache in a Saigon cemetery and issued tighter security rules. The regulations ban the traditional use of fireworks to celebrate the holiday, which starts Feb. 17.

The American intelligence sources said documents captured in the northern coastal city of Da Nang, two U.S. Marine helicopters collided in flight, killing the eight American aboard, communiques said.

Booby traps set up in a marshy plain 16 miles south of Da Nang killed nine Marines and wounded 31 others, Spokesmen said Communist guerrillas used unexploded 105mm and 160mm howitzer shells they had found in swamps near Da Nang, rigging the shells with time fuses.

The booby traps were set off as the Marines passed. By an patrol, UPI correspondent David Lamb said the Marine casualties occurred in six booby trap incidents.

Spokesmen said a spy within the Viet Cong movement led government soldiers to the arms cache Tuesday in the cemetery at the western edge of Saigon.

South of the northern coastal city of Da Nang, two U.S. Marine helicopters collided in flight, killing the eight American aboard, communiques said.

Treaty

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon today urged the Senate to proceed promptly with ratification of the treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons to have-not countries.

Nixon, who opposed ratification of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty during the election campaign last fall following the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia, said in a special message to the Senate:

"My request at this time in no sense alters my conviction that the treaty is a necessary action. I believe that ratification of the treaty at this time would advance this administration's policy of negotiation rather than confrontation with the U.S.S.R."

Nixon To Chat With Leaders Of 5 Nations

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon will travel to Europe at the end of this month to meet with leaders of five allied nations, informed sources said today.

Nixon will visit Paris, London, Bonn, Brussels and Berlin, but the sources said they did not know in which order. Nixon was expected to confirm details of his trip at a news conference Thursday.

The French government announced today that Nixon would pay an official visit to France next week, with President Charles de Gaulle shortly.

The White House said Monday that Nixon would make a "working trip" to Europe within 60 days. When asked today about the exact date of the presidential trip, the White House would not comment.

Kimberly Man Commended For Research Work

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A Kimberly, Idaho engineer, Marvin E. Jensen, was presented the 1968 Walter L. Huber research prize at the convention of the American Society of Civil Engineers on Monday.

Jensen's project was entitled "Research on the application of engineering principles to the solving of soil and water problems in irrigation and drainage engineering."

'Spy' Official Of Red China Flees To U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A defector from Communist China, who perhaps was the key link between their secret service headquarters in Peking and their espionage network in Western Europe, is believed to be somewhere in the Washington area today "in protective custody."

Dutch press reports said Iwan Hoshik, 47, Peking's charges d'affaires at the Hague until his defection Jan. 24, was believed to be a valuable source of information. They quoted "well-informed American observers" in Washington as saying he was "one of the best catches ever to fall into our hands."

J. S. BASE ATTACKED

NALIA, Okinawa (UPI)—Students wearing helmets and burning Molotov cocktails tried to storm the gates of the U.S. Air Force base Tuesday to protest stationing B52 bombers there.

HEARD ANY TINFOIL RECORDINGS LATELY?

Total records were all Thomas Edison could play on his important invention, the record player. And he had to reward the spring-driven motor after every selection. Today you listen to music recorded on long-playing plastic records which don't stall, slow down or wear out until after World War II. Your record player might seem a little dated in its look, but it could be just perfect for someone who doesn't wish to purchase a new one right now. Two Missing Girls Found Near Filer

Two teenage girls missing from their homes since Monday evening were found near Filer Tuesday by Idaho State Police officers.

Suzie Grey, 13, and Linda Juarez, 15, were reported missing by their parents. All law enforcement officers in the area were asked to watch for the girls. The search lasted Monday night and through Tuesday.

Then the girls were found three miles south of Asgrow Seed Co. near Filer. They have been released to the custody of their parents.

Further action on the case is pending, Twin Falls Police Chief Frank Barnett said.

He said at one point one of the Twin Falls police units, who only minutes behind them but apparently the girls managed to find out they had been listed as missing and managed to evade officers through Tuesday.

Two Idaho Highways Remain Closed; Snow, Ice Make Others Hazardous

BOISE (UPI)—Two roads remained closed in Idaho on Wednesday and snow and ice contributed to driving hazards on many others, the Department of Transportation and Law Enforcement reported.

Report On Extension Of Runway Due

City-county airport commission members ranged over a wide scope of business Tuesday as they met at the airport administration building in bi-weekly session.

Members called for a report on status of the runway extension program and this will be given at the next session by City Engineer Jean Miller. Barring delays, it is hoped that the extension will be completed by late next fall in order that Air West and also charter air lines will be able to bring larger planes, including jets, into Twin Falls.

Frozen Foods Employs Vote Today

Employees at Idaho Frozen Foods, a subsidiary of Consolidated Foods Corp., are holding a union election today. The balloting will close at 4:30 p.m. and the results will be tabulated immediately thereafter.

The vote is being held after unfair labor practices were found in the last union vote in March, 1967. In the last election the Meat Cutters union was defeated by a small margin and the Teamsters received eight votes.

The employees will vote for the Meat Cutters union or the Teamsters or for no union.

This is only the second union election in the potato processing plant.

Oregon Man Unhurt In Plane Upset

HAILEY—An unidentified pilot, Ore., pilot and his two passengers narrowly escaped injury when their four-passenger biplane aircraft, while en route landing strip, plunged into deep snow and flipped over onto its back while attempting to land at the Hailey Airport today.

Before coming to a stop the airplane ploughed through about 50 feet of deep snow which apparently cushioned its impact.

Occupants of the aircraft walked from the site of the crash to the airport parking lot about 600 feet away where they had a car parked; reported Lawrence Johnson, owner-operator of Johnson's Flying Service at the airport. Mr. Johnson met the pilot and his two passengers at the parking lot directly following the crash. He learned that they had returned to the area to resume skiing at Sun Valley where they had been vacationing two weeks before.

The plane was extensively damaged. The crash victims continued on to Sun Valley.

Injuries Claim Life Of Airman

BOISE (UPI)—Ismael Gonzales Jr., 22, Mountain Home Air Force Base, died in a Boise hospital Tuesday from injuries received last week in an accident on Interstate 80 North between Boise and Mountain Home.

Gonzales' death brought Idaho's 1968 fatality toll to 11 for traffic, compared with 21 a year ago.

Closed

RICHFIELD — Richfield school is closed in Twin Falls Tuesday morning after a two and one-half day absence after 22 per cent of the students failed to attend school in the morning.

School will remain closed until Monday, according to Superintendent Neil Anderson.

The Richfield-Dietrich basketball game, originally scheduled for Tuesday night, was postponed until Saturday.

Schools

(Continued from Page 1) shortly and the teacher, slightly embarrassed, continued her explanation of what a first grader learns in the Twin Falls school system.

Classrooms, it was learned, are just starting to get overcrowded.

Two classrooms have been created at Bickel out of one giant room. A cardboard partition has been placed between the classrooms. But when one teacher wants to have her class sing, the teacher on the other side must either join in or keep her children quiet until the singing on the other side of the wall stops.

Former Attorney Takes Court Post

BOISE (UPI)—Gerald Schroeder, 29, former U.S. Asst. Atty. in Boise, was sworn in Tuesday at Probate Judge E. E. Smith, who served for 12 years before his appointment to 4th District Court.

There are 461 students in the senior class at the high school. With a leveling off of students and the population in Twin Falls remaining about constant, one teacher at Bickel was a $8,000 a year, she believed classrooms would continue to become crowded as the years pass.

She did not know why, but stated the classrooms were getting more crowded each year. "I have 27 in my class now and probably will have more than 30 next year."

One man on the tour had a theory about the continued growth in Twin Falls schools.

"The young are leaving this area to find jobs. This is being filled by middle-income people, people who have business or can run a business in California and still live in Twin Falls," he said.

Site Bought For New Lumber Yard

LeRoy Anderson, president of Anderson Lumber Co., has announced the purchase of property for the construction of a new lumber yard in Twin Falls.

The property, which is located east of Addison Avenue East and Eastland Drive on the south side of the highway, was purchased from Glen and Al Jenkins.

Construction on the project will begin immediately and the ground breaking was officially held Wednesday afternoon.

Rube Mayer, manager of the Twin Falls company, said the work is to be completed in 45 days. He said the new yard will be approximately eight times larger than the present site. The company will be adding new lines of tools, equipment, etc.

The Times-News Publishing Co. recently announced the purchase of the present Anderson Lumber Co. property, 132 Third St. W., for the construction of a new publishing plant.

Anderson Lumber Co. has 17 lumber yards in Utah and Idaho, two mill work plants, and Pioneer Wholesale in Salt Lake City.

Contractors for the construction were R. E. Hefter, Earl Peck, Ben Walton and Al Clawson.

34 Licenses Lost In T.F. In January

Thirty-four drivers in Twin Falls County lost their driving privileges in January and 19 of these cases involved drinking, it was reported.

A total of 428 motorists, 363 of these from Idaho, lost their driving privileges during the month. The announcement was made by the head of the driver improvement division of the Department of Law Enforcement. He is Paul R. Hunk.

Suspensions for drunken driving amounted to 207 in January, he said.

Ada County led the list for people losing their driving privileges with 73, and 25 of these suspensions were for drunken driving. Fourteen were for reckless driving, 16 for driving while the license was suspended, 13 lost licenses under the state point system and three lost a license for refusing to take the blood alcohol test.

Also included were one revocation and one suspension for failure to appear for a hearing.

Trailer Home Is Lonesome, Suit Goes On

The first brief concerning the location of a trailer home now parked at the corner of Filer Avenue and Washington Street North has been filed with Judge Theron Ward, Fifth District Court.

Mr. and Mrs. William VanDyke, owners of the large mobile home, have been disputing with the city officials about locating the trailer there. It has been at its present location for nearly two years, while Mr. and Mrs. VanDyke have been renting a house. The trailer will probably not be moved unless the court rules in the city's favor in the case.

The city's main argument is not one concerning zoning, but that the mobile home does not conform with the uniform building code.

Lloyd Webb, attorney for Mr.

Artist Jailed For Cutting Flag

VAN NUYS, Calif. (UPI)—An artist who fashioned a Nehru jacket from an American flag has been sentenced to a five-day county jail term.

Jared Hill, 25, of Clondale, Calif., was sentenced by Municipal Court Judge Dan Kaufmann, who found Hill guilty of one count of peace disturbance and one count of flag mutilation.

and Mrs. VanDyke, employed a Detroit testing laboratory, to test the trailer's structure to determine whether it would meet the specifications of the building code. These results were received about two months ago. It was noted that some parts of the trailer did meet the necessary standards, while other areas did not.

City Attorney William Langley said he will file the second brief shortly and after the third brief is filed by Mr. Webb, Judge Ward will rule on the case.

Hoop Shoot Championship Finals Set Here Saturday

The finals for the 1969 Twin Falls Hoop Shoot championship will be held at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the Twin Falls High School Gymnasium.

All champions will compete in their age group. A trophy will be awarded to the first place winner in the different age groups. The winner in each age group will also receive an expense paid trip to Pocatello with the CSI basketball team on Feb. 15.

Boys participating should wear gym shoes and be at the gymnasium by 6:25 p.m. All the boys will have 20 shots. The hoop shoot finals will be a preliminary to the College of Southern Idaho basketball game.

The winners from the various age groups from Twin Falls schools are as follows: ten-year-old winners: Mark Neville, St. Edwards; Charles Blessing, Lincoln; Randy Semba, Bickel; Brent Crook, Harrison; Joe

Report: Wallace's Alabama Challenge

WASHINGTON — A bitter struggle now building up behind the scenes in Alabama between Gov. Albert Brewer and former Gov. George Wallace now points to a Wallace-Brewer clash for the governorship in 1970.

As a loyal Wallace lieutenant, As a speaker of the house, Brewer was named by Wallace to run for lieutenant governor in 1966—the year Lurleen Wallace was elected governor.

stage in Alabama for Wallace to make another run for President on his third-party ticket.

The Governor's explanation to intimates seems too simple: He wants the study of his archives.

Sportsmen

The Utah Legislature has taken a powerful step toward settling the continuing dispute between landowners and sportsmen.

In Utah, trespassing on private land is a misdemeanor under current law, and the violator is liable for a $50 fine.

Backers of the Utah measure claim it would enable the state to hit the habitual violator.

In Idaho, landowners feud continually with thoughtless sportsmen who refuse to heed signs asking that the hunter at least ask permission to hunt before crossing a fence.

they should have first chance at the game.

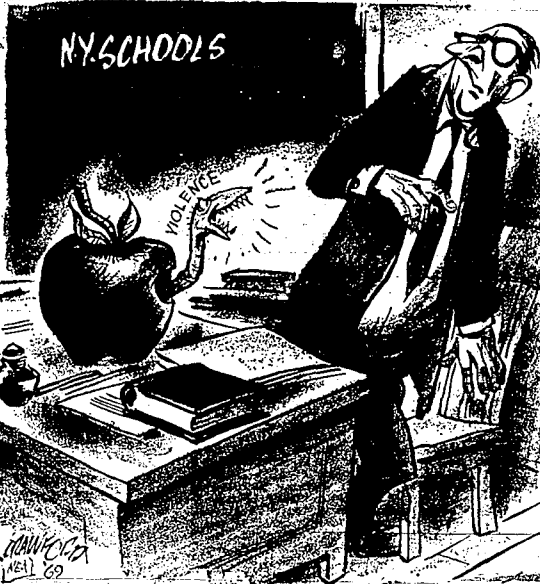

"Sportsmen reply that 'the country belongs to everyone' and that 'I pay taxes'— comments which ignore the fact that the landowner has bought his land, and pays taxes himself on his own land.

"How would these hunters like it if we were to walk into their living room, tear up the furniture in a search for something, and then walk out, leaving the doors open?" retort the landowners.

And so the feud continues unabated. Many landowners are willing to allow hunters access to their land—but they would like to know the hunters are in the vicinity.

Landowners would be well-advised to contact their legislators if they want similar legislation in Idaho.

Credit Cards

Unsolicited credit cards in the view of some recipients are a welcome convenience. In the view of others, they are not only a nuisance, but an expensive one if they should fall into the wrong hands.

Whatever else they may be, they are becoming a common method of recruiting new credit customers.

That measure, to be incorporated as an amendment to the truth-in-lending act passed by the 80th Congress, would require a check on a consumer's credit worthiness before an issuer would send him a card he did not request in writing.

Such cardholders also would be limited to $50 in liability in the event of unauthorized use of his card, under the bill's provisions.

MR. SPECTATOR

A Minority Report

John V. Evans, minority leader of the Idaho State Senate who hails from Malad (District 33, Oneida and Blannock counties) is a man of opinions.

Every few days Mr. Spectator gets a letter from Senator Evans pointing out just what he — and the minority members — believe.

In most cases Mr. Spectator reads them with interest and then tosses them away but in the latest communication the Senator had a few ideas outlined which may be of interest to all of you.

Who knows — we may be giving you readers something that is making history and will change the way of government in Idaho.

The members of the 40th Legislature have been classified by many newsmen as probably the most qualified group of legislators in Idaho's history.

I predict that this Legislature will finally reach the position of being equal partners with the other two branches of State Government — Judicial and Administrative — as was envisioned by the authors of our Idaho Constitution.

It first appeared evident that we were not going to be dominated by the Governor when he made his proposals in regard to Education.

1. With the General Fund surplus of some $20 million, we should fully provide for our children's educational needs — both at the Public School and College Level — for this is the State's Constitutional responsibility.

2. That the property taxes on our homes, businesses and farms are already high enough and should not be given the responsibility to carry any further tax burden.

3. That there are still great inequities in our State's taxation program of which this legislature intends to attempt to solve.

4. That it is the responsibility of the Legislature to appropriate the funds to all the departments of State Government and also make sure the funds that were appropriated are used responsibly and properly for the purpose for which it was appropriated.

These are just a few of the goals which I believe the 40th Session of the Legislature will be able to achieve.

Dick Is No Good At Sports

WASHINGTON — You critics can say all you want about Richard Nixon, but you've got to give him one thing: he's no good at sports.

This, I maintain, is the single most comforting aspect of the new man in the White House.

Wives who for so long taunted their husbands with reports on the athletic feats of the Kennedys, the Robert McNamaras and the John Lindseys will be forced to go back and look down. Their mates have a ready squelch at hand, to wit, that Richard Nixon doesn't play quarterback for the New York Jets either.

In and around the White House the Kennedys were a political nuisance. They were always climbing a mountain or slaying off tackle for a first down (usually busting somebody's head in the process).

The Kennedys liked, played tennis, jogged, played baseball, sailed, skied and rode surfboards. Confound it, I would not be surprised to hear that one of them had gone private in rounds with Cassius Clay, or pitched the seventh game of the World Series for the Tigers.

"The people who are responsible for crime in this country are the victims. If they didn't allow themselves to be robbed, the problem of crime in this country would be solved," Applebaum said.

"What makes sense, professor, why do you think the courts are soft on victims of crimes?"

"Who knows? They're probably looking for thrills. Boredom creates a part, but it would think the biggest factor is that victims think they can still walk around the streets of their cities and get away with it."

"You speak as if all the legal machinery in this country was weighted in favor of the victim, to think that the person who committed the crime is better off."

ART BUCHWALD

Crime Victims

WASHINGTON — There is so much talk about crime in the streets and the rights of the criminal that little attention is being paid to the victims of crime.

"While everyone is worried about the victim, the poor criminal is dragged down to the police station, booked and arraigned, and if he's lucky he'll be let out on bail."

"I guess in this country people always feel sorry for the victim that do that for the person who committed the crime."

"What is the solution, professor?"

"I say throw the book at anybody who's been robbed. They know what they're getting into when they decide to be robbed, and they should pay the penalty for it."

"Who knows? They're probably looking for thrills. Boredom creates a part, but it would think the biggest factor is that victims think they can still walk around the streets of their cities and get away with it."

Rhythm Method

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you please explain the rhythm method of birth control.

This is a question which, frankly, I don't like to write about. Why? Because at best it still is not as reliable a method as any other.

Note to Mrs. D.H.: Steady, hard drinkers very often lose sexual vigor. This may be made even worse by the pressure of whatever emotional problems lie behind the drinking.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I see where a well-known doctor stated that to give up smoking after a lifetime of it is harder on one than the damage it does.

My answer would be that if I had a patient in, say, his late 70s or 80s and he enjoyed smoking, I wouldn't worry about what might happen to him 20 or 30 years later.

Empysemas can be controlled. To learn how to live with this serious lung disease, write to Dr. Paul W. Yan, who has written a book on emphysema.

Hailey To Vote On Sewage, Water Bond

HAILEY — Hailey city voters will vote March 4 on a $400,000 revenue bond to improve the city water and sewage system. If voters approve the city of Hailey to sell revenue bonds in the amount of $400,000 to provide funds with which to improve and extend the water system and also to acquire land and construct a municipal sewage system.

BPW Group Hears About Inauguration

A two-thirds vote is required on the bond issue. It is pointed out by city officials that cost of the project will be paid for entirely from users of the system and no assessment will be made against property. Residents of Ward 1 will vote at the National Guard Armory and those living in Ward 2 vote at the city hall. Election officials include Mrs. Maudie Thamm, Mrs. L. E. Outs, Mrs. Ella Ramsey, judges: Mrs. Harold Schaeffer and Mrs. J. E. Leichter, clerks, and William Huss, constable, at Ward 1. At the city hall Mrs. Amelia Worthington, Mrs. Marilyn Porter and Mrs. Lucretia Donahue will act as judges; Mrs. Lucille Johnson and Mrs. Mary Brown, clerks, and Holger Albrethsen, registrar for the election.

Blast In Cabin Triggers Slide In Deep Snow

BIG PINE, Calif. (UPI)—An explosion in a mountain lodge apparently triggered an avalanche in Big Pine Canyon, which authorities said destroyed three cabins and damaged a fourth. Fire Chief Charles Wall said the explosion ripped through the Glacier Lodge sometime during the weekend, scattering debris 200 yards in all directions. The lodge was rebuilt after it was destroyed by fire last summer. An accumulation of gas was tentatively believed to have caused the explosion. The blast apparently touched off an avalanche of snow on the steep slopes of the canyon. The snow destroyed the annex to the lodge as well as three private cabins. None of the buildings was occupied at this time of year because of the snow. The wreckage was discovered by an employee of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power who walked into the canyon on snowshoes.

During the program portion of the meeting Mrs. Betty Ainsworth informed the members of the legislative luncheons held each Tuesday at the American Legion Hall. She gave a talk on the care of the flag. Mrs. Gordon Gray, Twin Falls Title and Trust, spoke to the group on wills and trusts. Mrs. Alda Strong, president, announced the local club would have a Valentine party at the next meeting at the Senior Citizens Hall. Mrs. Mary Grace Cox, Jerome, was introduced as a guest and she read an original poem by Mrs. Strong which had been printed in a winter edition edited by Gem State Writers Guild of Idaho. She presented Mrs. Strong with an issue of the magazine. A report on the recent BPW board meeting in Boise was given by Mrs. Ina Knox. She also asked all members to be considering attending the state convention in McCall in June. Mrs. Betty Rodd, Queens of the months from June through December were Wanda Lancaster, Shirley Anderson, Evelyn Lauder, Audra Wilcox, Grace Rast, Betty Rodd and Dorothy Rice. Mrs. Sarah Gough was crowned queen for the second division. Third division queens included Wanda Lancaster, Dorothy Rice, Lodema Smith and Shirley Capps. Shirley Anderson was crowned queen of the fourth division and Laura Burch, runner-up. Mildred Jasper was queen for the second quarter of the second division; Betty Rodd crowned for the third quarter; Eunice Smith, club president; the guests, the planning committee, Betty Rodd, Betty Jo Cooper and Lovelle Parr, and the queens to be crowned. The poems used throughout the party were "original ones" by Mrs. Blackmer. Dorothy Rice was crowned queen of the year. Audra Wilcox was crowned stork-queen of the year. Named as quarterly queen was Betty Rodd.

WASHINGTON — A bitter struggle now building up behind the scenes in Alabama between Gov. Albert Brewer and former Gov. George Wallace now points to a Wallace-Brewer clash for the governorship in 1970.

As speaker of the House, Brewer was named by Wallace to run for lieutenant governor in 1966, the year Lurleen Wallace was elected governor.

Ever since, the Wallace-Brewer relationship has been souring, with Brewer asserting more and more independence.

Now Wallace wants Brewer to run for governor in 1970 as a member of Wallace's American-Independent party, setting the stage in Alabama for Wallace to make another run for President on a third-party ticket.

The Governor's explanation to inmates seems too simple; he wants the study for his archives. But the only other explanation—that he is eyeing a possible third Presidential race in 1972 (when he will turn 68)—seems preposterous.

House Committee Suggests 'Staggered' Licensing Of Vehicles

BOISE (UPI) — The House Transportation and Defense Committee today voted to introduce legislation calling for issuance of automobile license plates on a "staggered" basis throughout the year.

Under the proposal there would be no re-registration during the months of November and December.

Proponents of the bill said they felt it would eliminate long waiting lines at the county offices which occur during the 1 1/2 month period now used for all motor vehicle re-licensing.

This staggered system will result in a considerable intangible savings in administrative costs at the county and state levels, Mills told the committee.

Under the present system approximately 80 per cent of the year's work has to be processed in less than two months.

Up for debate in the Senate was the state's first, clearly-defined paternity act.

It would defeat the presumption of legitimacy of a child born in wedlock if experts, appointed by the court, agree that the husband is not the father.

Session Gathers Speed

BOISE (UPI) — Idaho's legislative session began to turn a little faster today, the 24th day of the legislative session, and major committee reports began to emerge and debate on major issues was expected.

The Senate was slated to take up the proposed code of ethics and conduct after passing over the matter in a joint caucus Monday afternoon.

The code would place stringent regulations upon senators and representatives and has been termed by many as "too encompassing."

Tuesday, the Senate's Education Committee defers to the executive budget and voted to give the state's institutions of higher learning $5.5 million more than recommended by Gov. Don Samuelson.

The governor had trimmed that amount from recommendations of the Board of Education in his executive budget message to the legislature. But one Republican joined with five Democrats on the education committee to make the vote to exceed the governor's recommendations.

Joining with the five Democrats on the committee was Sen. John Barker, R-Boise.

The committee also recommended the use of a formula for distribution of whatever is appropriated to the four higher institutions — Idaho State University, the University of Idaho, Boise State College and Lewis and Clark Normal.

Also Tuesday, the State Affairs Committee in the Senate introduced a measure calling for creation of the Idaho Commission on Federal Land Laws with an appropriation of $100,000 from the state general fund.

The commission would be made up of nine members appointed by the governor and would be charged with developing a land-use policy on federal domain lands.

The commission members would serve for a period of two years and would represent mining, forestry, hunting, outdoor recreation, banks and savings associations, agriculture, city and county government, conservation and the general public.

News Dealer Held In Boise For 'Obscenity'

BOISE (UPI) — Norman H. Rhodes, 50, owner of Rhodes News Agency, is scheduled to appear in municipal court at 9 a. m. Friday to answer to a charge of selling obscene literature in violation of state law.

Rhodes was arrested by the city police vice squad Tuesday afternoon, the first person in Boise to be charged under the state law prohibiting sale of level and obscene literature.

Police Chief John R. Church said Rhodes was released on his own recognizance pending the court appearance. He said the arrest climaxed a week's investigation by the vice squad.

Banks Submit 'High' Interest For BSC Bonds

BOISE (UPI) — First Security Bank of Idaho, Idaho First National Bank and six other associations submitted the apparent low bid for the purchase of $5,400,000 revenue building bonds of Boise State College.

The bonds are to be issued to construct a special services building, a vocational technical building and a health and physical education building.

The average offered rate on the bonds: Eldon (Rick) Smith, chairman of the State Board of Education, said, "This high interest rate shows us even more than expected," and noted the board could delay awarding the bid.

Phillip A. Dufford, however, said the board had no choice, and added, "If we wait six months in hopes of a lower rate, it's more than likely that building costs will rise to the point where it will cost us any savings."

The bonds are to be issued to construct a special services building, a vocational technical building and a health and physical education building.

THE FIRST MALE undergraduate of formerly all-girl St. Xavier's College in Chicago, Kenneth Rogers, 19, sits "alone" in the college lecture—under the interested gaze of numerous other students, Rogers said he sometimes feels that the eyes of all the 790 coeds in the college are fixed on him. The 122-year-old institution announced just two months ago that it would accept men. Rogers entered St. Xavier's after completing a two-year course at City College. (UPI-telephoto)

UFO 'Fancier' Scoffs At Studies Which Deny Life Exists In 'Space'

By TOM TIEDE WASHINGTON (NEA)—America is laughing at Don Keyhoe again.

He's the 70-year-old director of the National Investigations Committee for Aerial Phenomena (NICAP) and, for the past two decades, has been the country's most indefatigable researcher-promoter of flying saucers.

Yes, he believes in them. Without apology, he says the trouble is, not enough other people hold his view. And since the late 1940s, when he first advanced his theories, the news clips on him have gone from glowing to scolding and no-holds-barred.

Now the giggles come again. An Air Force-sponsored "Scientific Study of Unidentified Flying Objects" has recently concluded that UFOs are purely in the mind of the beholder, that there are no visitors from space, and that future saucer investigation would only be a waste of time.

Keyhoe says the report is poppycock, but admits it is a blow to the body. He fears many people "who didn't really know what to think before" may now decide they, ah, knew UFOs weren't real all along.

It is, he feels, a sad day for saucer slayers. So what about all the disk reports over the years? What about the photographs and fragments and burned-out fields? What about the books written about people having conversations, even dinner with the strange and scaly little green men from out there?

Well, says Keyhoe, for his part he scoffs at the "conclusion" to ignore. And he insists his research group will continue as always to root out and investigate "legitimate" glimpses of aerial phenomena.

Keyhoe says he has never found a credible example of an earthling-spaceling meeting. He won't say the people who report them are liars, but he hints they have extraordinary imagination and cheek.

Keyhoe says his own saucer belief stems from the proposition that since it's not impossible that they exist, it is therefore possible. And since he knows of some 11,000 sightings of this possibility, he has convinced himself that travelers are indeed coming here from other worlds.

Keyhoe's theory represents the nonemotional level of saucer advocacy. And because it does, he and his organization have gained a more or less respectable rating over the years—between the skeptics, that is.

Respectability, he says, is a continually elusive goal for saucer buffs. He says there are too many nuts and kooks in the field; and they are forever body-trapping hopes of official saucer acknowledgment.

Because of this fakery, he adds, many responsible UFO slayers have had to go underground. They won't talk a ny more, for fear of ridicule.

Therefore, according to Keyhoe, saucer sightings last year (375) dropped sharply from 600 in years (in 1966, there were 1,117 UFO reports).

"Our files," he sighs, "contain statements of unimpeachable citizens who, because of public suspicion, will not let their names or their stories be published. If we could name some of them, we would shock a lot of the bellylaughers in the country."

Keyhoe believes that public suspicion of all UFO believers is ignorantly unfair. Of the more than 10,000 members of his investigatory group, "we have hundreds of Air Force officers, physicians, engineers, missile trackers, chiefs of police, lawyers and federal officials."

And they, he feels, do not deserve at-large humiliation. "My records," he says, "list about 3,000 saucer sightings which I believe to be hard-core, honestly made and thoroughly investigated. Many of the incidents happened in community leaders and outstanding citizens."

"You just can't shrug off the reports of, say, veteran airline pilots or aerospace engineers. They are used to seeing things in the sky. They know when something is wrong, and they have no reason to make up stories. "No, my thinking about flying saucers will not change. As long as there are respectable people reporting unexplainable objects, I believe there is something up there and try to get others to do the same."

"And who knows," he adds "I may have the last laugh yet."

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR-ABBY: We have a neighbor whom we would like to help, but we don't know where to start. She grumbles and pities herself so much it is a chore to visit her. Her children have moved far away and seldom telephone her. (I suppose they can't stand her whining.) She sits and does fancy work most of the time, and little else. She goes from one doctor to another and doesn't like to get out of the car for an hour afterwards, complaining and wasting their time. Her husband doesn't seem much concerned. They rarely go out. She has a lovely comfortable home, but she is so lonely and unhappy. How can we help her?

HER NEIGHBORS

DEAR NEIGHBORS: It is difficult to say whether your neighbor is a content or emotion-disturbed, but since she "goes from one doctor to another," I assume she's under observation or treatment for whatever ails her. Some people find a curious comfort in feeling sorry for themselves, and those who complain most about "neglect" actually invite it. If it makes YOU feel any better, call on your lonely and unhappy neighbor. But don't look for any improvement. She may be happier than you think.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old boy who has had a problem nagging at me since I was 11 years old. You see, when I was younger I did some damage to a neighbor's house. (I broke two windows on purpose.) I never owned up to it, but now I would like to pay this neighbor for the damage I did, but I don't want him to know who did it. Can you suggest some way of paying this man without letting him know who I am? Sign this: GROWN UP

DEAR GROWN UP: You could get an estimate of the damage and mail him the money. But I have a better suggestion—Face him like a man, apologize, and hand him the money. He can only admire you for it, and you'll have proven to yourself that you're really "grown up." Congratulations.

DEAR ABBY: Take it from

AMONG THOSE TO attend the forthcoming Mother-Daughter Tea sponsored by the BPO Deth Lodge No. 206 are Mrs. Rodney Murphy and her daughter, Virginia. The tea is scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m. Feb. 16 at the Burley Elks Lodge. All wives of Elks members and widows of Elks are invited to attend.

LDS Quartet Festival Held

DECLO—The Declo LDS Ward Quartet Festival was held recently at the church, with Mrs. Don Whipple, in charge of activities. The program included Marva Darrington, Diane Woodbury, Kathy Jo Zollinger and Marie Darrington, accompanied by Mrs. Lyle Woodbury.

A mixed quartet, composed of Mrs. Lyle Woodbury and Mr. and Mrs. Brent Peterson, presented two selections, and were chosen to represent the ward at the Quartet Festival to be held Friday at the Burley Stakehouse, where all of the wards in the stake will compete. The winners of the entertainment quartet division were Jana Lynn Taylor, Karen Meade, Carolyn Zollinger and Wendy Jacobs, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Garrard.

After the program, refreshments were served from a table centered with crystal punch bowl flanked by pink tapers in crystal holders. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Whipple, Mrs. Garrard, and Mrs. Gayne Zollinger.

Founder Of Mooseheart Is Recognized

BULL — Memorial services for Catherine Smith, founder of Mooseheart, were conducted during the regular meeting of the Bull Women of the Moose. The officers took part in the draping of the charter.

It was noted that a dance will be held for Moose families at the Moose Hall with live music furnished. There will be no admission charge.

The college of Regents will host a card party Saturday at the Moose Home. Members discussed the dinner to be served for the Golf Association Banquet. Plans were made for the annual Moose dinner. It was announced that a Friendship card and game party would be held March 1.

Mrs. Charles Tippet, Mrs. Harry Davis and Roy L. y n n Brown were reported ill.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Mlle G. E. Wilcox, Wilcox, Wignington and Vera Wooley.

It was announced that the first meeting of the month will be formal.

Club Luncheon Is Scheduled

The February luncheon for the Magic Valley Christian Women's Club will be held at 1 p.m. Feb. 27 at the YM-YWCA, with the Elaine Powers' Figure and Beauty Salon presenting the program.

Julia Westendorf, Filer, violinist, will present the special music. Susan Koontz, Boise, Boise CWC chairman and past local CWC chairman, will be the guest speaker.

Nursery service is available by calling 733-9180. Luncheon reservations can be obtained by calling Twin Falls, 733-9107 or 733-9180; Filer, 225-5180; Bull, 544-4528, or Jerome, 324-5256.

Area Auxiliary Slates Election

KETCHUM — Election of officers of the Sun Valley Hospital Auxiliary will be held March 7 at the auxiliary annual meeting.

The nominating committee has presented a slate of officers and directors to be voted on. They include Mrs. G. A. Krivoy, president; Mrs. Royce Asher, vice president; Mrs. Ann Houston, treasurer; Mrs. Stanbun Atkinson, recording secretary; and Mrs. William Shields, corresponding secretary. These officers will constitute the executive committee to serve for one year.

For directors to serve two years, names submitted are Mrs. Oliver Dibble III, Mrs. Ed Goldberg, Mrs. James Hogg, Mrs. Harry Holmes, Mrs. Donald Siegel and Mrs. Agnes Stronk.

For directors to serve one year, Mrs. Frederick Blechman, Mrs. Jack Gray, Mrs. J. A. Greenland, Mrs. George Marchland and Mrs. John Moritz.

Mrs. Gatzert Spiegel is chairman of the nominating committee.

Class Meets

FILER — The Lads and Lassies Sunday School Class of the United Missionary Church met at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Homer Schnell, for a party and business meeting.

Officers were elected. Tracy Estes is president; Cheryl Cox, vice president; Mark Estica, secretary; Doris Ellis, treasurer, and Peggy Baker, game chairman.

Plans were made for a Valentine party in February.

MARY ELIZABETH Larsen and her mother, Mrs. Russell C. Larsen, appreciated the warm Hawaiian sunshine as a change of pace from their hometown climate in Kimberly, during their stay at the Hilton Hawaiian village on Waikiki Beach. The pair were in Honolulu to attend the American National Cattlemen's Association convention. Mrs. Larsen also presided at the convention sessions of the American National CowBelles Association during her stay.

Social Calendar

Royal Neighbor Lodge will have a regular business meeting at 8 p.m. Friday at the IOOF Hall.

A basque dinner, featuring all Basque food and Basque music, will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday at St. Edward's Parish Hall. It is sponsored by members of the Knights of Columbus and their wives.

Rupert Sorority Plans Hat Show, Open House Feb. 27

RUPERT — A special hat show for Miss Cassia ladies will be hosted by the Beta Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Feb. 27 at the home of Mrs. Gary Newton, Rupert.

The event will be an open house for the public from 2 until 4:30 p.m. and from 7 until 10 p.m.

All hats sold are new and delivered from the East especially for the occasion. Further information about the show can be obtained by calling either Mrs. Gary Newton or Mrs. Terry Bailey, both Rupert.

Plans for the event were discussed during a meeting of the chapter Jan. 23 at the home of Mrs. Frank Sanders.

Prior to the discussion of the upcoming show, the group heard a report on coin collecting, given by Col. Lynn Spillman, Caldwell. Mr. Spillman showed several cases of valuable coins and explained why coins become valuable and how to tell which mints circulated them.

The collector is the father of Mrs. Richard Maggard, a member of the Beta Sigma chapter.

Plans for the chapter's annual Valentine's Day party on Feb. 14 at the home of Mrs. Gary Asson, Mrs. Larry Duff, chairman, told the group that the Valentine Queen would be crowned that evening from a group of three candidates.

The candidates were nominated because of their work in the sorority and for their personality, poise and attractiveness. The queen will be elected by way of a skit given by the pledged of the chapter. Dinner, dancing and games will constitute the party.

Mrs. Larry Wright, president of the chapter, reminded the members of their invitation to the Valentine Ball to be held in the Downtown Ballroom at Boise on Feb. 22.

The meeting concluded with a program by Mrs. Dean Ulrich, who discussed the meaning of good thoughts and deeds and told how such people as Clara Barton, Raymond Burr and Art Linkletter have put them to work in our society.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held Feb. 14.

Meeting Slated

GLENN'S FERRY — Mrs. D. D. Anderson is dinner hostess for the Feb. 12 meeting of Nu Chapter, The Delta Kappa Gamma Society, at 7 p.m. in the Coffee Kupa Cafe, Hammett.

Mrs. Arlen DeMeyer is chairman of the professional affairs committee which is to present the program, "How Can Music Improve Our Daily Living?" Her committee members include Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. LeRoy Bestman, Mrs. Clarence Joseph and Mrs. Frank Jones.

The international honorary society for women teachers now includes 2148 chapters with the two most recent additions being Xi in Utah and Alpha Psi in Oklahoma.

Lincolnettes Check Data For Swimming Pool

SHOSHONE — Members of the Lincolnettes are in the process of checking out data regarding construction and maintenance of a municipal swimming pool. After the material is compiled, if it seems feasible, they will promote such a project in the city of Shoshone.

A committee will contact all other clubs and organizations in the community to solicit support and will secure information from other cities where such pools have recently been constructed to assist in outlining the construction and maintenance data.

The discussion on the project was held during the last regular meeting held at the Manhattan Cafe. Mrs. Dean Durfee conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Lita Peterson and Mrs. Gordon Connell were introduced as new members.

Mrs. Clarence Magottin gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Stanley Strunk gave the treasurer's report.

A letter of thanks was read from the Chamber of Commerce for the Lincolnettes assistance in judging the Christmas lighting contest.

A memorial plaque for Vietnam heroes was discussed also. This will be further investigated.

People of the community who are interested in the swimming pool project are solicited to contact the City Council at this time.

Nixon Generates 'Crisis' By Serving French Champagne At White House

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A White House social affair has generated possibly the first micrisis in French-American relations of the Nixon administration.

President Nixon, departing from the pro-American wine policy of former President Lyndon B. Johnson, served a fine French wine last weekend at the first formal party since he assumed office—honoring foreign diplomats.

American legislators from wine-growing areas are up in arms. "Horror!" the California congressman cried. "What a bungle." "But the New Yorker, 'de Gaulle's not worth it,' protested another.

Without publicity, Nixon served Pol. de Roge, a superb champagne unavailable in many Washington liquor stores. "We haven't had it in years,"

Sawtooth Bill Introduced By Senators

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special)—Sen. Frank Church and Sen. Len Jordan Tuesday reintroduced legislation which would establish a National Recreation Area in the mountains of Central Idaho. The measure, the outcome of extensive hearings held in Idaho and Washington, D. C., was approved by the Senate in the 90th Congress, but did not reach House consideration.

Sen. Church, who introduced the bill on behalf of himself and Mr. Jordan, said, "It is designed to preserve one of the most beautiful mountain and valley settings in the West—and is a distillation of years of study and effort by the people of Idaho, their elected senators, congressmen and agencies of the government."

Church added that the measure "calls upon the Secretary of Agriculture to expedite studies which we hope will lead to the inclusion of a high mountain country—now the Sawtooth primitive area—in the national wilderness preservation system. The Forest Service would administer the approximately 350,000 acres in the proposed national recreation area."

Sen. Jordan referred to the measure as "one of the most unique and coordinated programs for diversified outdoor enjoyment that has ever been proposed in Congress."

"Incentive for private land owners to cooperate will be through scenic easements rather than in the purchase of fee title by the government of privately owned land, Jordan said. "Landowners will be compensated for keeping their operations compatible with the national recreation environment concept. In this way the authentic ranching atmosphere of the Sawtooth Valley will be maintained and enhanced."

The total area encompassed in the Sawtooths is more than 350,000 acres, of which 200,000 acres are now in the National Forest Primitive Area, 117,000 acres are national forest lands, 25,000 are privately owned, 10,000 are federal domain land and 1,600 acres are owned by the state of Idaho.

Sen. Church stressed that the creation of the Sawtooth Recreation area would assure that additional facilities needed to accommodate the increasing thousands of visitors to this area.

Sen. Jordan described the Sawtooth range as one of the most important watershed areas which feeds streams necessary for the propagation of salmon and steelhead and said that special attention would "be given to maintaining high water quality for the production of this fishing resource."

Both senators expressed hope for early Senate action on the measure.

Boy Scout Fund Drive

BUHL — The community finance drive in the Sunset District, Boy Scouts of America has been organized and the drive will begin Saturday in the district.

Wade Quigley was appointed campaign chairman by the district chairman, Gerald Shackelford. Mr. Quigley will be assisted by Shelby Williams, rural routes; Vern Craner, business district; and Dale Christensen, who will be responsible for the sponsoring institutions.

They will recruit several captains who will select team workers to assist with the drive.

The goal for the Sunset District is $4,000. The sum of $1,500 has been raised from the Buhl area through the Cabaret International featuring Archie Moore, leaving $3,400 to raise. Each scouting family with the cooperation of the sponsoring institution has been asked to raise $24 per family.

It is suggested that each business contribute a like sum of $24 per business which will help to meet the goal of $24 per scout which is the cost of providing this character building program to the youth of the community between the ages of 8 as cub scouts, to 18 as senior or explorer scouts.

The contributions are deductible as tax items according to the district chairman, Buhl and Castleford have met their goals in the past years and are to be commended for participating in this worthwhile cause.

HOLDING A CAST OF A TRACK REPORTEDLY made by an anthropoid sub-human animal called "big foot" in northern California is Roger Patterson, a Washington rancher. In October, 1967, he took 29 feet of 16 mm. film of what he thought was a female "big foot," estimated to stand 7 to 7½ feet tall and weigh 400 to 600 pounds. The cast he took of her foot print measured 12½ inches long. The widely publicized 29-foot film segment and footage of other expeditions has been combined into a documentary now showing in area theaters. Mr. Patterson said proceeds will be used to finance a six-man, six-month expedition into four western states including Idaho in an attempt to capture one live "big foot."

Subject of Documentary Now Showing In MV Is Controversial "Big Foot," A 7-Foot, 500-Pound Anthropoid Ape

By SANDRA SMITH
Times-News Staff Writer

In an attempt to gain funds for a six-month expedition pursuing a creature that may or may not exist, a color and sound documentary film, "Big Foot," is being shown in many Magic Valley theaters Wednesday through Saturday.

For the past eight years Roger Patterson, Yakima, Wash., has chased the elusive gorilla-like "big foot," as it is called in northern California where sightings of the gargantuan animal have most frequently been reported.

In October, 1967, Mr. Patterson made 10 or 15 trips into areas of reported sightings or tracks paid off in 29 feet of 16 mm. film, which apparently captured a female member of the disputed species from a distance of approximately 100 feet until it ran out of sight in the California forest in Humboldt County. This film footage is the only existing clear motion picture record of any of these creatures.

Mr. Patterson, 40, and another man, Bob Gimlin, were tracking the animal near the headwaters of Bluff Creek when both their horses slipped after rounding a bend, throwing the riders to the ground.

Mr. Patterson made it to his saddlebag where he had a camera, ran across the creek and shot the 29 feet of film. Afterwards the two men tracked the animal—estimated to stand 7 to 7½ feet tall and weigh 400 to 600 pounds—for three miles, finally losing it in heavy brush and tracks in rough terrain and tracks underground, according to Mr. Patterson. That was the last sighting they made.

This brief footage, played in stop frame and slow motion as well as the way it appeared when taken, is the core of a film produced by the British Broadcasting Company. Casts being made of huge tracks and other actual expeditions are shown in this film narrated by Dr. John Napier, director of the pelican hill program at the Smithsonian Institution.

Proceeds from this film and membership dues from an assisting Mr. Patterson direct will finance a six-month expedition beginning in May in search of a "big foot" into not only California but also parts of Oregon, Washington and even Idaho. Other sightings have been reported in these areas and the six men of this expedition hope to confirm the sightings.

"Since 1963 I've gone on two- and three-week excursions three or four times each year on what I would call sub-expeditions," says Mr. Patterson. "The objective of the coming expedition is to capture and bring out live one of the legendary animals. To this end, it will be equipped with tranquilizing guns, infrared and zoom lenses for cameras, dogs with radio transmitting collars and a large aluminum sled."

"I don't want to see a slaughter of these near-human creatures," says Mr. Patterson. "I want to see a trigger-happy adventurer who let his floppy blouse on this thing," he has stated. "Therefore he believes that the existence of the creatures must be substantiated so that safeguards can be set up for the species' preservation."

There has been considerable skepticism of Mr. Patterson's efforts, but he has recently encouraged scientific support for the animal's existence has come forth. The chief proponent of the Dept. of Interior's Coast and Geodetic Survey, A. Joseph Wright, believes in "big foot."

"The presence of large, hairy, human-like creatures in North and Central America appears very logical when the physiographic history of the northern part of this continent is considered," Mr. Wright said to Mr. Patterson in a letter. "He believes that a migration of one creature from Asia to North America over an ancient land bridge between the two continents could well have occurred."

Dr. Napier of the Smithsonian also lends credence to their possible existence, and thinks perhaps the animals are seldom seen because of the extremely low density population of their wide-ranging habitat of about one per 100 square miles, he estimates.

"After all, the mountain gorilla of Africa's Congo was not believed in until discovered in 1902. I think many many people have seen these things but if they mention them they're laughed at, so they claim up," added Mr. Patterson.

Over 400 sightings, the first supposedly occurring in the 1800s, are now on record. Mr. Patterson has tape recordings of 50 more recent sightings. Generally the descriptions vary as to the animal's height and color, but agree that they have an upright stance, flat face, dense body hair, no neck, and one seemingly captured on the film also had a strong stench, comments Mr. Patterson.

A executive director of the Northwest Research Association, Mr. Patterson has outlined the loosely-organized group's five objectives concerning "big foot": disseminate knowledge among scientists and public, stimulate interest and encourage cooperation, prove their existence, classify them, and provide as detailed a survey as possible.

Interested parties, after paying a $2 membership fee, receive an informational bulletin every three months and a 5 by 7 inch colored photograph of the animal reproduced from the 29 feet of historic film. "So far we have about 10,000 members in the association," Mr. Patterson said.

"We think there is a relationship between the 'big foot' and the 'yeti' (the so called 'abominable snowman' of the Himalayas) but that they're basically different animals—maybe cousins to each other. The tracks here we've taken are a cast of a creature that Patterson has with him might have been human footprints except for their 12 to 14 inch length.

California Indians called what are assumed to be members of the "big foot" species "ohwah," meaning "devil of the forest," according to Mr. Patterson. Canadian Indians referred to the legendary animal with the term "sasquatch," or "wild man in woods."

The territory covered by reported sightings is indeed large, spreading from Alaska via the Yukon and British Columbia to Washington, Oregon, California and even Idaho and Nevada.

There have been two pictures in addition to Mr. Patterson's film taken in recent years. Both were still photographs, one taken in northern California from a high plane and the other taken in Oregon by a prospector, but according to Mr. Patterson neither were very clear or sharp.

"I think I'm safe in saying I have the only clear color picture and the only motion picture of any of these animals," he remarked. He added that the special effects departments of three Los Angeles film producers examined the footage and had "ruled out the possibility of fabricating the picture."

Mr. Patterson, who with his wife and three children operates a horse ranch in Washington, is convinced the "big foot" is real. After all, he filmed one, and more than 400 others have reported seeing similar animals.

He was asked if there was any similarity between sightings of flying saucers and of the "big foot." "I don't think so," he said.

"Some kind of unusual, tricky light in the sky, especially at night, can look like any one of a billion different kinds of flying saucers," to someone's imagination. But all of these sightings of a particular kind of ape-like animal, in forests in broad daylight, are much more believable and real," he concluded.

Brazil Clips Value Of Money

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI) — The Brazilian government devalued the cruzeiro by 2.5 per cent Tuesday and said it was considering suspending the political rights of more of its opponents.

The government said the new exchange rate would be 3.8 cruzeiros to the U. S. dollar, compared with the old rate of 3.8 to the dollar.

The cost-of-living has been increasing rapidly in the last five years and the government had devalued the cruzeiro on Tuesday by 15 per cent.

The National Security Council held a meeting for Friday to consider further suspensions of political rights.

The council has stripped political rights from 52 persons since President Arthur De Góes closed Congress Dec. 15 and seized near-dictatorial powers.

Former Inmate Of Death Camp Fears Suspect

GRAZ, Austria (UPI) — Mark Siedzik, 73, blanched when he came face to face Monday with Alfred Lusser, accused of murdering Jews in a Nazi World War II concentration camp.

"Let me out of here!" he said. "Lusser is here in the room and when I see him I see dead bodies!"

Siedzik testified Lusser helped shoot 20 patients in a Jewish hospital.

Personal Queries Stir Criticism

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, says there is no reason persons should have no answer "overly-personal" questions of census forms. He said Monday he supports legislation that fines may be levied only if persons refuse to give essential information such as their name, age and address.

Dramatic Honorary Society Chapter Is Formed At CSI

Five charter members were initiated recently into the College of Southern Idaho's Delta Psi Omega chapter.

The newly formed dramatic honorary is one of more than 200 chapters in the nation's junior colleges. The CSI drama department was just recently granted affiliation, according to Fran Tanner, chapter sponsor.

Initiated were John Elliott, Dalrymple and Cliff Hinkle. As part of their initiation, the chapter members presented memorized soliloquies from Shakespeare. Mrs. Tanner and Phillip Rayher, drama instructors, conducted the initiation.

The drama department's spring production will be "Oedipus Tyrannus." Tryouts for April production will be Feb. 14-16.

Congressman Asks Costs Of New Legislation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Charles E. Bennett, D-Fla., wants President Nixon to estimate the five-year costs for any legislation his administration proposes. Bennett told Nixon in a letter that Congress passed a law requiring costs estimates on proposals expected to cost more than $1-million annually, but the law has not been complied with in recent years.

DRIVERS FLUNK VIENNA (UPI) — More than half the persons who took drivers license tests in Vienna last year flunked, the city Traffic Department said today.

Pueblo 'Exec' Supports Bucher's Story

CORONADO, Calif. (UPI)—Murphy said, he was trying the same. The executive officer of the USS Pueblo Tuesday backed up Bucher's story that he was unaware that the ship had been ordered to surrender. He said the ship had knocked out the antenna and said the two machine guns aboard were an ineffective defense. Lt. Edward R. Murphy Jr., 31, second in command aboard the intelligence ship, told a Navy Court of Inquiry that his only recommendation to Bucher was that they stall for time to destroy secret documents.

"This was the captain's idea and my responsibility," Murphy expressed—the same to begin with—and my responsibility. He said that his run through the hearing—after surprise that his decision," Murphy said. Murphy repeated a previous statement that in captivity he worked with the Communists to seize an American ship in international waters. "I didn't believe until the last preparing charts and maps minute it would turn into an actual attack," he said. As they were being escorted into Wonsan, Murphy said, he would be obvious they were recommended "we stall for time because I knew classified material was still undestroyed."

California Budget Shows Prison Growth

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's 1969 budget reflects the lack of execution on San Quentin's death row in a stark way. It asks for 30 new cells to house the condemned prisoners. Present capacity on death row is 85 and there now are 81 men awaiting execution in the state. The last execution was that of Aaron Mitchell on April 12, 1967. The expansion of death row, the second in recent years, is included among budget requests totaling $16.2 million for fiscal 1969-70 to operate state prisons and youth authority institutions. The budget calculates prison population at 28,005, an increase of 330, and anticipates 5,915 youth authority wards, up 352 over the current year. While the ship was under fire

Steven Wilkie, 21, Rupert, was involved in two accidents Friday night at the intersection of Highway 25 and 500 W near Rupert. He was headed west on Highway 25 when a car driven by Leonard Barendrecht, 21, Rupert, pulled into the path of his auto from 500 West.

Barendrecht was cited for failure to yield the right of way. Damage was estimated at $350 to Barendrecht's 1963 Oldsmobile, and at $80 to Wilkie's 1968 Chevrolet.

Wilkie was in a nearby Service Station following the collision to get a flashlight and a bus, driven by Richard Walter, 42, Jerome, struck his car, No. 42, on Highway 25, for that accident.

Watte was driving a 1951 Aerechuck Bus, owned by the Northside Bus Co., Jerome. It was loaded with 33 passengers, all Jerome basketball players. No one was injured. Damage was estimated at $500 in the bus. State Police Blotter

Two citations were issued Friday morning following a bus-car accident at M Street and 19th in Heyburn. A 1963 Chevrolet, driven by Lekoy Borrowman, 22, Phoenix, Ariz., was demolished when it collided with a 1967 GMC school bus, driven by Verrell Summers, 58, Heyburn. The bus was headed north on M Street when it apparently tried to speed into the car, which was headed west on 19th street. Borrowman was cited for driving ing without due regard, and Summers was cited for failure to yield the right of way. Damage was estimated at $800 to the bus, which was owned by the Minidoka County School District. It was empty at the time.

Henry Hubbard, 23, Rupert, was cited for failure to yield the right of way Saturday afternoon after his pickup truck collided with a car driven by Jim Larson, 15, Paul, two miles west of Rupert on Baseline. Hubbard was headed north on 200-W when he pulled into the path of Larson, who was headed west on Baseline.

Damage was estimated at $200 to the Hubbard 1963 pickup truck, and at $200 to Larson's 1963 Buick.

Slick roads were blamed for a one-car accident Saturday afternoon five miles west of Burley on Interstate 80N. Denton Hughes, 38, Carrs Creek, New South Wales, Australia, was headed west when he slid off the road and knocked out 100 feet of fence.

No citations were issued and damage was estimated at $200 to Hughes' 1967 Mercury.

New "Ghosts, Gangsters" Auditions Set

Several adults auditioned Monday night for roles in "Ghosts and Gangsters," the next Community Children's Theatre presentation.

Adult auditions were scheduled again at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Boy Scout auditorium, according to Mrs. Eugene Sturgill, director.

She also re-auditioned interested youngsters that auditions for June 1969 roles will be announced late this week.

"Ghosts and Gangsters" opens March 21 and runs March 22 and 23 for seven performances.

Satellite Launch Delayed One Day

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—The Air Force has rescheduled the launch of the Defense Department's powerful new nuclear-armed military communications satellite for Saturday on a Titan 3C rocket.

The shot had been set for Friday, but was delayed a day by technical difficulties. The launch date was announced Monday night.

The launch will be the second of the week. On Wednesday, the space agency plans to orbit a smaller communications satellite for the Comsat Corp., and its 62 partner nations.

The Titan 3C is a 100,000-pound, 110-foot-tall, two-stage rocket with a communications capacity comparable to relaying through two-way conversations simultaneously. The communications satellite has a capacity of 1,200 two-way circuits.

Film Producers File Suit On Ad

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Producers of the controversial movie "The Killing of Sister George" have asked a federal court to enjoin the Los Angeles Times from publishing their advertisement because it did not comply with the paper's house code for advertising copy.

The suit contended the Times standard are "vague, ambiguous and arbitrary." It alleged the Times has no right to refuse advertising copy on the basis of "subjective objection" to its content.

Baseball Owners Spring Surprise; Bowie Kuhn Is Tabbed As Next Czar

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Bowie Kuhn, a National League commissioner, has remained generally in the background since entering the game, was named baseball commissioner only one year Tuesday in a surprise move by the 24 baseball owners.

Kuhn, a member of a New York law firm, replaces William O'Malley, who was fired by the owners at the conclusion of the winter meetings in San Francisco. Kuhn's last December salary was $100,000 in contrast to the $65,000 which Eckert had been paid.

Cincinnati Reds' president, Francis Dade introduced Kuhn as baseball's new commissioner, even though Kuhn was named to the job for only one year as commissioner pro tem.

The naming came two hours after the owners convened Tuesday afternoon. When the owners convened, they deferred action to seven-man committee consisting of Gabe Paul of the Indians, Dick Meyer of the Cardinals, John Miale of the Expos, Joe Garber of the Pirates, Arthur Allyn of the White Sox, Walter

Bybee Leads Castelford Over Hansen

CASTLEFORD — The cold weather Wolves met an even colder Hansen Huskie crew Tuesday night and took a 4-37 win. Hansen could only tally 15 at the half, and left behind 12 points as big Doug Bybee scored and rebounded well for the Wolves.

With two starters out for reasons of sickness, Castelford could never get much of an attack going, but held off Hansen's offense in the last half for the final six-point margin.

Milwaukee Stops Losing Streak

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Milwaukee Bucks broke a seven-game losing streak with their third win on the road since Jan. 22.

Chicago Bulls on a second half spree.

The Bulls, losing their fourth straight game, their seventh in the last eight, led for the first 22 minutes of the game and then fell behind 62-51 at the half.

O'Malley of the Dodgers and Dale said the committee discussed a half dozen candidates briefly before unanimously agreeing on Kuhn. He would not say who nominated Kuhn.

As soon as the committee agreed on Kuhn, the owners voted on the recommendation.

Kuhn has been working with the owners' committee which has been negotiating with the players' association over the funding of the pension plan.

Kuhn said, "I have been very active in baseball for 20 years. I have been extremely interested in the affairs of baseball."

When Dale was asked why Kuhn's "pro tem" was included in Kuhn's title, he said, "the term literally it means for the time being." But Dale added the appointment was for a one-year term.

Kuhn said that as commissioner he would disassociate himself as counsel on the player relations committee. He also said he expects the problems with the players to be resolved soon.

Regarding the threatened boycott strike, he said, "I would be surprised if spring training does not get off as scheduled. We've been able to settle this kind of negotiation in the past."

The 42-year-old Kuhn, a member of the New York law firm of Wilkie, Farr and Gallagher, was the principal lawyer for the National League in its case for moving the Braves from Milwaukee to Atlanta.

Wolman Will Sell Eagles To Magnate

BALTIMORE (UPI)—A lawyer for a financially troubled sportsman-millionaire Jerry Wolman submitted to a federal bankruptcy referee Tuesday a proposal to sell all assets of the Philadelphia trucking magnate Leonard Tese.

The "conditional sale" proposal could be accepted by referee Joseph O. Kaiser only if Wolman failed to satisfy debts he secured creditors by selling stock in a holding company composed of his few remaining profitable assets, by May first.

Kaiser said he would set a hearing date on the proposal and any others that might be made, Thursday. He indicated the hearing probably would be near the end of February.

The referee said he had not yet decided on how he would determine who might have the right to buy the football team, in the event there were other offers, but that he was leaning toward scaled bids.

As of Tuesday, Kaiser said he had had only one offer, but although at least four parties had written to him expressing interest and asking to be kept informed of developments.

Carey Dumps Bliss Bears By 52-35

BLISS — The Carey Panthers took a 10-2 first period lead over cold Bliss five Tuesday night, and stretched the advantage to a final 52-35 victory.

The Bears' Joe Leach was double-teamed most of the time, finished with only 11 points, almost 12 below his average. For the Panthers Rudd was the big man as he hit the nets for 10 points.

Murtaugh Has 55-46 Win At Raft River

RAFT RIVER — Murtaugh and Raft River played on dead even terms Tuesday night, but a temporary lapse through the third quarter gave the Red Devils 10 quick points and eventually the ballgame, 55-46.

Matching basket for basket, both squads relied on two men to keep them in the game early, as Darrington and Taylor paced the Trojans, while Quessell and Tronace paced the Red Devils.

Murtaugh's quick ten points came inside as the Trojans fell asleep on the boards.

Motta Inks New Pact With Bulls

CHICAGO (UPI)—Coach Dick Motta of the Chicago Bulls Tuesday received a new contract giving him the right of consistency but apparently no veto power on team trades.

The agreement emerged from a 2 1/2 hour session with Dick Klein, Bulls general manager.

Motta said after the meeting that he would remain with the Bulls at least until the expiration of his two-year contract, which runs through the 1969-70 National Basketball Association season.

Klein said Motta's contract had been changed from a personal services agreement to a coaching contract and that a clause had been written in to give Motta the right to be consulted on deals.

Golf Brass Cuts Limit On Tourney

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—U.S. and British PGA officials agreed Tuesday to limit representation on the British team for the biennial Ryder Cup matches to players from the United Kingdom and Ireland.

There had been talk of expanding the British team to include players from Commonwealth countries, in an effort to end U.S. dominance in the event. Britain has only three victories, the last one in 1957, and the one before that in 1933 — six years after the first contest.

It was the consensus of Tuesday's meeting that nothing should be done to alter "the essential nature of the Ryder Cup."

In a day-long meeting, the representatives of the two nations set Sept. 18-20 for the matches, to be played over the Royal Birkdale course, in Southport, England — the site of Ryder Cup matches in 1933, 1937 and 1955.

One important change agreed on was the addition of two players to each side. President Leo Fraser of the PGA of America said that the decision was made to expand the teams from 15 to 12 players in order that both sides would be able to field teams of maximum strength in the event of illness on the eve of the international matches.

Fosbury Told To Leave Circuit

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon State's backwards leaping Olympic gold medal winner, has been ordered by the team physician to halt competition for the rest of the winter indoor track season.

The physician said Fosbury was suffering from "mental exhaustion" and needed a rest. However, Oregon State coach Bernie Wagner said he hoped Fosbury would be ready to compete in the NCAA indoor championship meet early in March.

Fosbury was named Oregon's top amateur athlete of 1968 Monday night. He won the Olympic gold medal with a jump of 7-4 1/2.

Minico And Declo Swarm Through First Round Of Mat Tourney Unscathed

RUPERT — Declo and Minico, not losing a man between them, moved a little further ahead from their challenges Tuesday night in the opening round of the fourth district combined Class A and B wrestling tournament, Declo defeated Valley 28-31 at the end of the first session but the important thing was keeping people alive. Valley sustained a heavy upset when

Lombardi Is Still Mum About Plans

NEW YORK (UPI)—Vince Lombardi arrived in New York Tuesday and insisted that he does not know if the Green-Bay Packers management will release him from his general manager's post so that he can move on to the Washington Redskins.

The Green Bay management is scheduled to make an announcement Wednesday night and Lombardi said he expects to be attending a CYO dinner here when the news is revealed. Lombardi has asked for his release to become coach, general manager and part owner of the Redskins.

Lombardi said the lure of coaching and the prospect of owning 13 per cent of the Redskins were the principal attractions for switching jobs. "I miss coaching tremendously," he said, adding he didn't mind the prospect of taking over a personnel in the National Football League. "The challenge is not in maintaining something but rather in getting something new," he explained. As for getting a piece of the club, Lombardi said, "Anybody would like to own something plus... I've been accused for many years of being inhuman, Lombardi responded with a smile, "Perhaps that is all part of it."

Lombardi said he didn't feel he was "letting down" the Green-Bay Packers by seeking a release on his contract.

Davidson Belts West Virginia

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Sixth-ranked Davidson nipped an early rush by West Virginia University and built up a final 15-point lead to defeat the Mountaineers 94-70 Tuesday night.

Two free throws by Jerry Kroll put Davidson ahead for keeps with 10:14 left in the first half after the score had been tied five times and West Virginia had held a five point advantage at one point.

In taking its first win over West Virginia in play at Morgantown, Davidson took a 4-28 lead at halftime and widened it to 10 points, then to 14 points with six minutes gone, and West Virginia was never able to come closer than eight points.

Big O, Royals Thump Pistons

HOUSTON (UPI)—Oscar Robertson scored 33 points and led 10 assistants to lead the Cincinnati Royals to a 125-114 triumph over the Detroit Pistons before a record-breaking crowd of more than 40,000 Tuesday night in the Astrodome.

The record broke the old mark of 19,000 set last year in Madison Square Garden, Cincinnati, which led most of the way, took the lead momentarily at 9:31 on a jump shot by Tom Van Arsdale with 57 second to go in the third quarter. The Royals led 95-93 at the end of three periods and with Van Arsdale's four points and Jerry Lucas' three points, the Royals quickly moved out in front 102-97.

North Carolina Edges Carolina

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va. (UPI)—Second-ranked North Carolina had a difficult time with the Virginia Cavaliers for a while Wednesday night, but employed a full-court press to win going away, 80-76.

Carolina jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first half but the Cavaliers went into a 2-3 zone and tied it. With eight minutes left in the first half, Carolina went into a full-court press. Scott got six straight points, and the Tarheels took the lead. The Tarheels then spread the lead to 16 points.

In the second half, the Tarheels continued the press through the final period.

SPORTS

NBA Hikes Playoff Pool To $400,000

NEW YORK (UPI)—The National Basketball Association announced Tuesday a 25 per cent increase in 1969 playoff pool money, raising the total from $320,000 to $400,000 for distribution among the league's top clubs.

A player could earn about $10,000 if his team wins its division crown with the best percentage in the league and goes on to capture the NBA title.

By comparison, members of the Detroit Tigers, collected about $8,500 apiece for winning the World Series and New York Yankees players each received about $14,000 in their upset of Baltimore in the Super Bowl.

Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the NBA, broke down the $400,000 package into the following categories:

—The team with the highest percentage receives $5,000; the two division winners tie for $3,000 each.

—First place teams in each division collect $20,000.

—Each second place team gets $10,000.

—Third place teams receive $5,000 each.

—Divisional semi-finalists receive $25,000 each.

—Winners of each division finals receive $25,000 and the losers $17,500.

The NBA championship club gets $18,000 and the loser in the best-of-seven final series earns $2,000.

The $400,000 playoff money awarded this season is $20,000 more than the 1968 pool.

Madden Is New Raider Head Coach

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)—The Oakland Raiders today appointed John Madden as head coach, naming him the youngest coach in professional football.

Madden, 33, who has been an assistant with the Raiders for two years, replaces John Rauch who resigned last month to go to Buffalo.

Madden served as linebacker coach under Rauch. Madden joined the Raiders in 1967 after coaching defense at small college powerhouse San Diego State.

Rauch resigned as Raider coach Jan. 18 and signed a four-year contract with the Buffalo Bills the following day. Madden's selection was announced by General Manager Al Davis.

During his four years at Oakland, the ex-Georgia quarterback compiled an impressive 15-17 record and was voted AFL Coach of the Year in 1967.

That season, the Raiders roared to a 13-1 mark and demolished the Eastern Division winner in the AFL game before bowing to Green Bay in the Super Bowl.

Madden was elevated from an assistant's job to head man when Davis was tapped to become AFL commissioner in 1966. Davis returned to Oakland as a partner and general manager after he effected the pro football merger.

Bears Add Ringo To Coach Staff

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Bears Tuesday announced the addition of Jim Ringo to their coaching staff and the shift of Abe Gibron from offensive line coach to coach of the defensive line.

"Abe is thoroughly versed in both defensive and offensive line play," coach Jim Donley said, "and has the rare knack of being able to communicate with the players. Everybody's capability can get the same smashing results on defense that he did on offense."

Rockland Edges Declo By 64-62

DECLE — The Rockland Bulldogs edged the Declo Hornets 64-62 Tuesday night, but not before they had to hold their breath while Declo attempted a one-and-one situation which would have tied it up with three seconds left in the game.

The contest was extremely tight for three quarters, but Rockland scored a cushion of from 8-10 runs most of the way until the final minutes.

McClean of the Bulldogs had tanked two charity tosses with 48 seconds left in the game, giving the visitors a seemingly safe 61-58 lead, but Declo swiped the ball twice to pull within two. Rockland saw the Hornets grab the ball once more with fast breaks with key steals and blocked shots.

Trailing 4-2, New York reeled off 15 straight points early in the first period. The Knicks led 34-15 at the end of the opening period and increased their lead to 40-18 after a minute of the second period.

Hailey Plans Days Of Old West Event

HAILEY — New officers for the "Days of the Old West" committee were elected at a meeting held Sunday evening in the Mint dining room.

Wallace Young was re-elected president; C. W. Gardner was elected vice president; Mrs. Roberta McKecher was re-elected secretary and Oliver Adams was re-elected treasurer.

Mr. Young pointed out that with sufficient funds accrued from last year's rodeo, it is felt that rodeo is "good business" for the celebration, and the committee will interview several Rodeo producers in the near future.

Plans were made for a carnival, and discussion on button sales and the annual barbecue was held. The celebration was tentatively set for July 4 and 5.

News Of Record

CASSIA COUNTY
Burley Police Blotter
 Two citations were issued following a three-car accident at 10:30 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Main Street and Overland Avenue. Steven H. Welch, 25, 922 West 19th St., Burley, was driving a 1968 Comet headed south on Overland Avenue and stopped for traffic light at the intersection. Frank M. Sprague, 15, 800 Burton Ave., Burley, was also headed south driving a 1968 Toyota and was unable to stop. His car collided with the rear of the stopped Weech vehicle.

Nathan A. Thornton, 17, Declo, driving a 1969 GMC pickup truck south on Overland Avenue was unable to stop and struck the rear of the Toyota. Damage was $100 to the rear of the Weech vehicle, $400 to front end and rear bumper of the Sprague auto and there was no damage reported to the Thornton truck. Receiving citations were Sprague and Thornton, both for following too closely.

Clinton G. Jensen, 42, Route

Heyburn, was driving a 1963 Chevrolet pickup truck at 12:25 p.m. Saturday north on Hilland Avenue, came to the stop sign on Main Street and was unable to stop because of snow covered, slick road.

The Jensen pickup truck slid into Main Street into the path of a 1964 Chevrolet pickup traveling west driven by Edward Kerbs, 49, 2948 Almo Ave., Burley. Damage was $400 to the Kerbs pickup truck and $350 to the Jensen truck. No citations were issued.

At 11:35 a.m. Saturday Vincent L. Stanfield, 52, 1659 Miller Ave., Burley, was driving a 1959 Ford pickup truck on Hilland Avenue, and as he approached Main Street tried to stop. The truck slid on the snow-packed road, turned around facing south and slid backwards into the intersection and collided with a 1967 Chevrolet pickup traveling east on Main Street, driven by Gordon E. Carson, 51, Route 1, Burley. Damage was $200 to the Stanfield pickup and $200 to the Carson pickup.

Elmer Veneman, 54, 842 Burton Ave., Burley, was driving a 1967 International truck-trailer owned by B and T Trucking Co., Oakley, at 9:07 a.m. Monday when it struck the rear of a 1968 Kenworth truck-trailer driven by Raymond C. Reed, 31, Declo, also owned by B and T Trucking Co., Oakley, who was stopped at traffic lights at Overland Avenue and Eighth Street.

Damage was $200 to the International and $25 to the Kenworth. There were no injuries and no citations issued.

Court Grants Order Against Remitting Tax

BOISE (UPI)—The Idaho Supreme Court Monday granted a temporary restraining order enjoining State Treasurer Majorie Ruth Moon from making payment of sales tax monies to the counties until further notice.

Tom Frost, Assistant Attorney General, said the court has set up a hearing for the purpose of determining whether the court should grant a preliminary injunction.

The hearing is scheduled for Feb. 17.

Frost said he had notified Miss Moon of the court order.

A motion filed with the Idaho Supreme Court last week by Samuel Eismann, representing taxpayers testing the constitutionality of the phase-out of the inventory tax, said Miss Moon, "stands ready, unless this court otherwise orders," to honor warrants of $98,630. The warrants were mailed by State Auditor Joe Williams.

Building Permits Listed For City

This compares with six permits issued in January, 1968, at a total estimated cost of $37,550. The breakdown of the permits—additions and structural alterations—is as follows: one new dwelling permit, estimated cost $163,272; permit, estimated cost $17,300; and 11 permits for repairs and City Hall during January for a total estimated cost of $205,568.

TRANSFER BID GIVES SAFETY

The Jacoby transfer bid is designed primarily to let the player who opens with no-trump be the declarer when partner bids a major suit.

In its simple form a response in diamonds shows five or more

South passes. He expects to make four spades but his partner has heard the two-no-trump opening and shows no slam interest.

Three no-trump by South would be an unbreakable contract but in a duplicate game you would find almost every pair in spades. Four spades by North gives his doubleton heart. In fact, even three spades might wind up down one.

Nothing can touch four spades if South plays the hand. Poor West is in trouble on the opening-lead. He has to lose-a-trick no matter what card he picks on the table.

His actual choice was the four of clubs. South played four from dummy and won the trick with his 10 spot. Then he played ace and another spade. West was in again and got out by playing his queen of clubs. This gave South a chance to discard a diamond and a heart on his last two clubs. Then South went over to dummy and led a heart but since West held both the ace and queen South had to lose two tricks there.

hearts and a hand of any strength at all. The no-trump bidder is asked to bid hearts. Most of the time he will make a minimum bid, but he may jump if his no-trump opening is very good in hearts. Similarly a heart response asks for spades.

The transfer bid is used in response to either a one or two no-trump opening. Thus North responds three hearts to his partner's two no-trump. South merely rebids to three spades. He has good spades but only three and as far as he is concerned, he does not want to show extra values. North raises to four spades and

Readers Dispute Statements On Sleeping Arrangements

WHEN I SAID most wives sleep on their husbands' left, I meant the wives of facecup sleepers. Most wives of normal sleepers are on the right, naturally. Should have made that clearer. Anyhow, how a husband and wife switch sides in matrimonial life in this matter is generally what they stick to. That is why the following report from a California lady is so unusual. Write she: "In 26 years of marriage to a navy man with travel incident thereto, I have slept to his left in seven homes and to his right in six. That is the only instance in our Love and War man's extensive files of a husband and wife who switch sides of the bed when they take up new residence.

ADVISES Dr. Joseph Peck: Most women have nasty spells. If you wife does, don't beat her. Just give her the impression you will, if she doesn't "come down." . . . OUR NAME GAME MAN contends that called Gary tend to be most vulnerable to the romantic attractions of short blue-eyed blondes who talk a lot. . . . YOUR HOUSE worth $20,000? If so, better keep it in good shape. The money men say a new house worth that much now will cost about $42,000 in another 30 years. . . . WOULD YOU SAY "Mange" rhymes with "orange"? Can't hear that. Orange has no rhyme, although morph comes close, claims our Language man. . . . NUMEROUS HISTORIANS still believe the house in the Japanese Empire was not meant originally to portray the rising sun, but was supposed to represent a chrysanthemum.

A MONTANA MATRON reports: "I've been worried sick about my husband's health. We're retired. And for about five years now he has visited the bathroom almost every hour. But he has refused to see a doctor. Well, I just found out there's nothing wrong with him at all. What he has been doing every night is bringing home two quarts of whisky which he hides in the water closet tank to drink the next day. What a relief!"

MY, MY, POETS are cropping up all over. Submits an Ohio subscriber named Ed Reynolds: "With graceful feet, a maiden sweet, I did trip the light fantastic . . . When she suddenly tore for the dressing-room door . . . You just can't trust a poet. Further, Eskimo girls do not rub noses. They kiss just like other girls."

CUSTOMER SERVICE: Q. "Did you have any brothers or sisters, old boy?" A. No brothers, but one sister. Highly talented girl, too. An artist. Probably one of the best portrait painters in the country. I'd say. Unfortunately, she lives in New York City where not much ticks anymore. Say, now that it has come up, do you know where the national mousing really is? Not in Manhattan. And not in Hollywood, either. They're just to the hills on the face. Freeways, and phones, and planes and TV have changed things. If you want to find the real mechanism nowadays, go back to the Japanese Empire, not Great Falls, or Vicksburg, or Seattle, or San Francisco, or well, wherever it is still unworked, that's where the cracks of the clock are, now. Did I change the subject? Expect so.

Governor Lauds State Offices Operators At

BOISE (UPI)—Ben Colwell, director of the State Division of Communications, told Gov. Don Samuelson today that the recent check indicated statehouse operators handled 90,000 calls per month.

"Broken down," Colwell said, "this means 2 1/2 calls per minute for each operator during her eight-hour shift."

Upon receipt of the report, Samuelson congratulated the switchboard operators for their job, while working cheerfully and efficiently.

The Division of Communications has proposed that the new state office building be equipped with a semi-automatic switchboard to give faster service to the citizens and to state employees using the telephone service.

Election Set

BLVDERS—One director will be elected during the annual meeting of the Project Mutual Telephone Cooperative Association, Inc., Feb. 11.
