Fortas Resigns Court Post Under Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Abe Fortas announced today his resignation as an associate justice of the Supreme Court and President Nixon accepted it effective immediately.

Under fire for taking, though later returning, a fee—said to be $20,000—from the family of now-imprisoned financier Louis Wolfson, Fortas chose to quit rather than face possible impeachment proceedings in the House.

Fortas' letter of resignation to Nixon was delivered to the White House Wednesday night and the President signed a letter of acceptance and sent it to Fortas shortly before 10 a.m. EDT today, according to press secretary Ronald Ziegler.

Ziegler refused to answer any questions about the contents of the exchange of letters.

Fortas' resignation will give Nixon two Supreme Court seats to fill at almost the same time. Chief Justice Earl Warren plans to retire at the end of the current term—in about a month. He had intended to step down last fall but stayed on through an earlier furor over Fortas—President Lyndon B. Johnson's above attempt to name the one-time peep shower from Memphis as successor Warren. The senate balked at confirming Fortas and Johnson withdrew the nomination.

One of the leaders of the successful fight to block Fortas' ascendancy to chief justice, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said the justice's resignation was "long overdue." He said Fortas should have stepped

School Bus Wreck

Kills Boise Boy, 25 Others Hurt

BOISE (UPI)—An eight-year-old Boise boy was killed and 25 other children were injured today in a grinding school bus-wrecker collision on Highway 20-26 on the outskirts of Boise.

The impact of the collision threw the bus onto its top and the Interminator Motor Line freight-truck on its side in a borrow pit.

Several of the 25 injured were reported in critical condition. The victim was identified as Mike Arland.

All available ambulances in the Boise area were sent to the scene and the injured, mostly students from Hillside and Pledge Park schools, were rushed to St. Luke's Hospital and St. Luke's Hospital.

The bus, number 14, was taking the children to school from the Dry Creek area.

An eyewitness said, "The front of the bus was just ripped off and the engine was about 30 feet from the vehicle, in a massive rut on the side of the road."

The cab of the truck was wrapped around a tree. The driver, believed to be from Salt Lake City, had to be cut from the vehicle with welding torches.

The bus remained on the highway when it overturned, spilled across two lanes of traffic.

"It was a cab-to-cab collision," an eyewitness said. "Both vehicles were demolished. The accident occurred near the Boise Fairgrounds."

War End Sought By Nixon

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon, asking the American people to hold him accountable for whatever happens in Vietnam, has offered the Communists a new peace plan designed to end the war within one year.

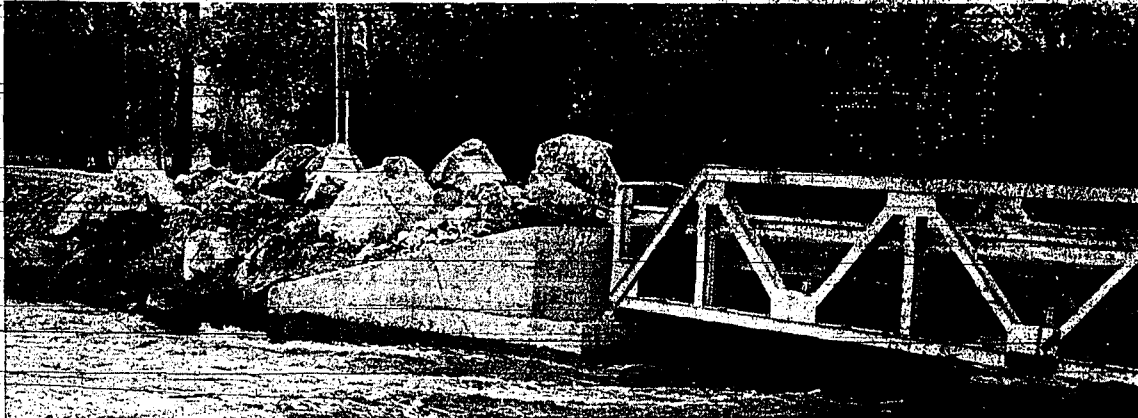

In an effort to nudge the Paris talks into action, and in response to the 10-point Viet Cong peace proposal made earlier this month, Nixon went on television Wednesday night at what he called a "critical turning point" to offer:

"Withdrawal, in stages, of U.S. and Allied troops from South Vietnam over the next 12 months, provided the North Vietnamese do the same. After 12 months, fighting would stop."

"The United States will accept whatever government the South Vietnamese people want, including reunification with North Vietnam if necessary and full participation of the Viet Cong, the Communist guerrillas, in the government."

"A warning the United States will never pull its 240,000 troops out unless, and a pledge that the United States will not accept a settlement at Paris that is only a 'disguised defeat.'"

Nixon's 22-minute address combined a flexible peace plan with a firm message. See NIXON, Page 2, Column 7.

TONS OF ROCKS are being used to keep the abutments to the Star Bridge, on the road from Halley to the Federal Resources Mill and the Silver Star Queens mine at Broadford, from washing out. This bridge was washed out in the 1965

Flooding of the Big Wood River and a portion of the river cut through and ran in its old course that year. Now, Army Engineers and Blaine County crews are again working to reinforce levees built earlier this year along the river in the Bellevue area. They hoped Thursday to complete work near the Broadford bridge.

Crews Struggle To Control Wood River

HAILEY — Army Engineers are trying to reinforce the levee and Blaine County crews are hoping to bring the swollen Big Wood River under control through the Halley-Belleveue road Thursday as the mouth of Adams gulch, some three miles north of Ketchikan, near the Flowers brothers saw mill.

Water was washing around the east side of the Adams gulch bridge, flooding the road.

County officials, who have declared the situation an emergency to provide authorization for Army Engineers to return here to help with flood work, said crews will begin work at the Adams Gulch site if they finish "hoisting up" the bank near the Broadford bridge Thursday.

It also was reported that Warm Springs Road, which "cuten" away the bank under the porch of the summer home of Milton Colton, two miles up Adams gulch, will be replaced or repaired.

County officials said the Army Engineers had spent $50,000 in flood control work here earlier this spring, but since the allotted money had been used at two engineers had left the area until the emergency was declared earlier this week.

T.F. Airport Temporarily Lacks Chief

Twin Falls was without an airport manager today.

Ed Woods, the former manager, assumed his duties as maintenance superintendent for the new Ketchikan Co. highway plant which is being constructed in Twin Falls.

Herb Derack, city manager, said he has received several applications for the position and expects to get some more before a new airport manager is hired. He said he expects the new man will be hired within a few weeks.

Until a new manager has been hired, Mr. Woods has volunteered to serve the airport in an advisory capacity. Mr. Woods has been the Twin Falls Municipal Airport manager since March, 1961.

HOSPITAL MERGER SOUGHT

NAMPA (UPI)—Patrons of Mercy Hospital in Nampa said Wednesday steps were under way to merge the facilities.

Youth Shot

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UPI)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's Latin American tour triggered student demonstrations that led to shooting and death in Tegucigalpa Wednesday.

Police charged into an unruly crowd protesting the governor's visit and firing the skirmish one youth was shot and killed. Police said an officer's gun had been dropped and accidentally discharged.

The incident occurred outside the presidential palace, where Rockefeller was conferring with Honduran President Oswaldo Lopez Arellano over lunch.

After the meeting, Rockefeller strode out into the crowds wanting to see him, shake hands and kiss women spectators.

Cong Reject Nixon's Plea For Pullout

PARIS (UPI)—The Viet Cong today rejected President Nixon's call for a mutual withdrawal of U.S. and North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam, calling it "unjust and unreasonable."

The statement did not mention other points in Nixon's eight-point peace proposal, made on television Wednesday night.

"In fact, the United States is still sticking to its old, unjust and unreasonable proposal in changed form," an official statement from the Viet Cong National Liberation Front said, "calling for mutual withdrawal of troops, putting out the name level—the agreement—and the victim who is remaining against a proposal we have rejected many times."

Iraq Executes 10 Charged With Spying

By United Press International
Iraq today executed 10 persons all charged with spying for Israel, Iran, and the United States, Baghdad radio reported.

Five were military men and five civilians, the official Iraq radio said in a broadcast monitored in Beirut. None was described as Jewish.

Allied Task Force Invades Communist Stronghold

SAIGON (UPI)—A task force of 8,000 American and South Vietnamese troops have invaded the Communist A-Shau Valley stronghold along the Laotian border and captured it, their commander said today.

The A-Shau Valley, a Communist stronghold, had pushed the Communist death toll for the offensive past 2,000, with 200 Americans reported dead.

American troops patrolling other routes leading to Saigon from Cambodia reported 10 North Vietnamese soldiers slain in three battles Wednesday against 40 U.S. soldiers killed and 13 wounded.

The A-Shau Valley, two miles from the Laotian border in South Vietnam's far northwest corner, is an offshoot of the Ho Chi Minh trail supplying Communist soldiers in the five northern provinces.

U.S. headquarters in Saigon said the latest round of shelling attacks focused against South

Burley Working For City Manager Plan

BURLEY — A meeting has been called for May 22 in Burley to enlist support for the city manager form of government, reports Chas. Krumm, Burley city clerk, speaking at the drive.

Committee members, Don Chisholm, Grant Fillmore and Edward Rich, were selected at a public meeting this week which was called to discuss the proposed change in city government.

Burley presently operates with the mayor-council system and in 1949 residents defeated a proposal to change to the city manager form.

Goal of the sponsoring committee, Mr. Krumm said, is to be employed to bring about such a change after the present city council to set an election, 2) get 200 signatures on a petition asking for a referendum on the subject, and 3) get a majority of councilmen which fall who indicate support for the city

Eugene Will Host 1970 Crime Meet

BURLEY — Eugene, Ore., will be the site for the 1970 meeting of the Western States Crime Conference, and Yakima, Wash., will host the event in 1971.

Officers for the conference were not decided upon at the closing sessions of the 19th annual conference Wednesday in Ponderosa Inn, SPOKANE, law enforcement officials said.

The meeting is the first of the series since 1957, when the Soviet reluctance to provide

Storms Wane In Midwest; Hail Falls

By United Press International
Severe thunderstorm activity was waning in the Northern and Southern Great Plains today and in the Southeast after Wednesday's tornadoes.

Tornadoes dipped down during the early evening hours Wednesday in Texas and North Dakota—the first of the season in the northern border state, but no injuries or damage were reported.

A tornado watch was issued by the weather bureau Wednesday night for Eastern North Dakota, Central South Dakota, part of West-Central Minnesota, and parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado and Nebraska.

Coltsville to baseball-sized hail fell in Abilene, Tex., the weather bureau reported. Large hail also fell 70 miles east of Lubbock, and 40 miles northeast of Lubbock, as well as in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and some flooding.

Winds gusting up to 80 miles an hour were clocked at Waterbury, S.D., Ogden, Utah, and a shelter or booster pump in Dothan, Ala., and Bemidji, Minn.

Twister Flattens Pump House

GLENN'S FERRY — A one-by-four timber was driven into the ground 18 inches from the center of the building when it came and an eight-foot section of pipe four inches in diameter fell 40 feet through the air.

The pump house was not widespread enough to be called a tornado, but the "twister" caused some $500 estimator damage to a shelter or booster pump in the middle of the Sallor Creek project.

Part of the building was buried 1,500 feet by the gale, and the rest of the hours were centered with 200 feet of the site.

Carl G. May, manager of the project, said the pump house was not operating at the time of the storm, were not damaged.

The pump house was located about a mile and one-half south of the site, which is the complex of buildings visible from Glenn's Ferry above the Snake River canyon.

Mr. May says a lot of rewiring will be necessary because of the windstorm and at least two str-

Retirement—Not Dead Stop, But A Change Of Direction

Plan now for retirement — whether you're up in the middle age bracket, or just a high school student — is to plan now.

This was the advice given Wednesday by H. R. (Dick) Oberg, representative in charge of employee fringe benefit programs for J. S. Simplot Co. in a speech to the Twin Falls Rotary Club.

One of the increasing problems of our times, he said, is that people do not know what to do with themselves when they retire.

Retirement should not be a dead stop for a person, Mr. Oberg said, but rather, should be a change of direction. The trouble is that most people don't make any plans until they actually do retire. Then, in most cases, it is too late.

Retirement has a right to be useful and has dignity," he said. By retirement time a person loses some of the incentives he has gained maturity and has time to put into use the wisdom he has gained in his past years.

Retirement must be planned ahead of time, a path to follow on retirement. He must try new activities, rather than just in his current vocational field.

And vitally important, he said, is that when a person retires he should keep learning.

"Dynamic retirement has to be our aim," Mr. Oberg said. The Rotary Club program Wednesday was dedicated to "Salvation Army Work." Mr. Oberg is a graduate of the Salvation Army Officers College in San Francisco.

He told Rotary members he still is very interested in the Salvation Army, because he still is a member.

"It is a church, you know," he said, "and I have helped the organization as 'Christianity in Action.'"

Big Shots And The Stock Sale Killing

Thursday, May 15, 1969 PHONE 733-0931

WASHINGTON—Unless somebody on high steps in with a silencer, a current inquiry by the Securities and Exchange Commission will reveal that several Pentagon and Lockheed Aircraft big shots made a stock sale killing as a result of their secret knowledge that Lockheed was facing staggering financial losses last year.

million. Persons within the Washington financial community confirmed that there was a "rush" to dispose of Lockheed stock by "people in the know."

Witch Hunt

The Students for a Democratic Society and their ilk are not fascists or Nazis, as is often charged. What they are staging on college campuses this spring "looks startlingly like a raging revival of Puritanism," thinks satirist Russell Baker.

Satan must be expunged—The souls of the bodies he inhabits must be saved, even if the bodies have to be destroyed. And sure enough, just as happened in Salem three centuries ago, when one witch (college president) is exposed, six more spring up on six more campuses.

"So How Come You're Not Laughing Any More?"

The Lockheed loss was estimated by the Air Force team as threatening to all but wipe out the stockholders' equity of $77 million, as listed in the company's annual report. But the disaster never occurred. The military rushed to the company's rescue by placing an order for 23 million shares of Lockheed stock in January.

Remember 1944?

From "way back" in the history of Twin Falls and this area in 1944, we'll take you today a little closer to the present and scan some of the issues of the Times-News back in 1944. That's only 25 years ago so some of you folks were probably here then and will remember it all.

ly to condemn 400 acres of land to provide for an airport enlargement program designed to put this territory in a position to take advantage of the aviation boom which is expected to follow the war (World War II). Mayor Bert Sweet told members of the press that the city "meant business" and will go to court if they cannot buy the land.

Reform Target For The Demos

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The vagueness and emotionalism which engulfed the first open deliberations of the Democratic reform committee do not augur well for the development of realistic "pity reforms" for 1972. The most militant types seem to think that the most urgent necessity is some sort of cleansing verbal denunciation of all the events which surrounded the traumatic 1968 convention in Chicago.

been held within narrow variations—1,331 in 1960, 1,308 in 1964, 1,333 in 1968. At Democratic conventions, then, the mere physical movement of delegates and alternates not to mention other officially qualified persons, is incredibly difficult. Over-crowding of aisles and other convention hall space is assured. Authorities ordered to keep aisles open have a choice between a shrug of helplessness or a shouting campaign that can quickly slip into "over-reaction."

human flow, turned away from the door, met another surge of people still moving toward the hall—and chaos reigned on the boardwalk. This kind of "ticket fraud" is, of course, matched by the issuance of fraudulent tickets by the partisans of a particular candidate, by local bosses like Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago, or by more adventures determined to get into the hall.

increased pressure inside the abdomen, should be avoided. (This includes straining in the bathroom.) Bowling, golfing, swimming, jogging, tennis and other activities that do not seriously raise internal pressure in the abdomen are acceptable for a slight hernia patient. Don't neglect the importance of losing weight. Getting rid of excess fat inside the belly can help greatly.

County offices started closing at noon on Saturdays because there were "almost no callers." The Rev. H. J. Reynolds, retired Twin Falls Christian church minister, was named supply minister of the Presbyterian Church in Wendell.

When the late John Kennedy was nominated at Los Angeles, he needed a majority of 1,521 delegates. By 1968 this total had skyrocketed to 2,316. Despite warnings of the unworshipability of this number, it was increased to 2,622 in 1968. When delegates and alternates are figured in, 5,611 persons are considered to have been officially eligible to attend Chicago.

At Atlantic City in 1964, Lyndon Johnson's lieutenants a so feared empty space in that cavernous convention hall that they overbooked tickets by the thousands. On the second night, this produced the worst human traffic jam outside a hall in convention history.

Party reforms aimed at assuring fairer, more balanced representation for all candidates under the aegis of Adlai Stevenson to improve the Democratic party's tarnished image if it does not take first things first and devote a nonpartisan process which produces a politically manageable convention.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have never seen an answer that I can recall, but there must be one. What is the best age spread between children, how many years? Is one too close, four too far, three the "right" number? I am referring to the children themselves, but not necessarily what is best for the parents. I've heard so many arguments on having them very close (which I can't quite agree with) and yet I've been told it is unfair to have too large an age spread.

Gross earnings of the Twin Falls County Hospital came to $164,939 and down to "net, in the black," was $14,840. Chief Howard Gillette announced that Patrolman C. D. McCoy resigned and left the department in good standing. Sports Editor George Redmond wrote that "Hankering" Powers, who had a habit of turning out good football teams, "didn't know a thing out of two about that."

Wendell L. Wilkie quit the race for GOP presidential nomination at a Wisconsin landslide. Downtown stores closed from noon to 3 p.m. for Good Friday rites. Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon were shirking in Madame Currie at the Orpheum while the big attraction at the Idaho was Guns of the Plains starring Dick Foran. The next attraction was to be John Wayne in the Flynn Riders.

Budget Gets Board Okay At Minidoka

RUPERT — A small gathering of some 12 interested taxpayers gathered in the Minidoka County School central office Monday night to voice their approval of the proposed $2,221,657 school budget.

Following the public hearing during which no protests were aired, the school board trustees adopted the budget, which shows an increase of $11,731 over the 1968-69 figures.

The board then scheduled the first sale of bonds for the 2.2 million construction of two new junior high schools for the district for June 25. Supt. Camden Meyer said it is anticipated bids will be let in time to have enough construction completed by winter to allow work on the building to continue this winter.

The schools will be located on the Frank Payne property, south of Paul, and the Albert Pritchard land, on North H Street, adjacent to the Rupert city limits. The new schools should be ready for occupancy by the fall of 1970.

In final action, the board okayed the proposed summer school program in the district and chose the faculty. The six-week course will begin June 9, with emphasis on kindergarten and elementary programs, in addition to the migrant program.

Most Soldiers Approve Plan For Draft Of 19-Year-Olds

SAIGON (UPI) — Most American soldiers have approved of President Richard Nixon's proposal to make 19-year-olds more vulnerable to the draft.

"That is the way it should be," said Spec. 5 Johnny Campbell, 26, of Pikeville, Ky. "I wish I had been drafted when I was 19."

Campbell, who was inducted at 24, felt his late entry into the Army damaged his future. "I haven't regretted it," he said. "It would be better to draft men younger, then they would still have their full life ahead of them when they get out," he said. "I would rather see him (Nixon) cut out the draft and have the Army on a volunteer basis, though."

Agencies Admit Lack Of Planning On Gas Shift

By DANIEL RAPOPORT
WASHINGTON (UPI)—When it was all over, Rep. Donald Fraser, D-Minn., dropped the scientific jargon and summarized the day's findings. "The Pentagon has been caught with its pants down and knows it," Fraser and fellow members of a House foreign affairs subcommittee had just questioned non-Pentagon witnesses in and out of government about the Army's plans for disposing of 27,000 tons of polystyrene gas. The amount includes 12,332 tons of a nerve gas so potent it reportedly takes only one-fifth of a drop on the skin to liquefy a human being in seconds.

The subcommittee, which is officially interested in the international implications of the gas at sea, was told by the Army earlier this week: The plan was the safest and most efficient way of handling the job, that every precaution had been taken and that the Pentagon had "sought advice" from a dozen other federal agencies.

After hearing from some of those agencies, subcommittee Chairman Cornelius Gallagher, D-N.J., told a reporter: "I think the first time they were all in one room together was in this hearing room today."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, asked the secretaries of Interior and of Health, Education and Welfare to do all they can "to eliminate the possibility of disaster." He said risks of leakage "must be eliminated."

"Millions of dollars have been spent in the development of weapons of chemical-biological warfare," Muskie said. "But apparently nothing has been done to develop safe and effective means of neutralizing them."

Wednesday testimony produced these disclosures: The Interior Department, supposedly concerned with the dangers "the dumping would pose to marine life, was not contacted about the operation until Friday—two days after Rep. Richard D. McCarthy, D-N.Y., broke the story. Interior's qualified endorsement of the plan (the least objectionable of unpleasant alternatives, as one witness put it) was based on telephone calls to some "experts" and a general review of the Army's "conclusions."

The State Department, which was supposed to decide whether the disposal would violate any international treaties, first learned about it on May 8 and has not yet come to any conclusion.

The Department of Transportation, charged with the safety aspects of the train movement of the gas by train from arsenals around the country to Earle, N.J., now intends to amend its original permit to allow a 35-mile-an-hour speed limit on the trains and is thinking of setting aside an exclusive route. A spokesman eluded publicity and congressional concern at disclosure of the plan.

The Army said it had "tentatively" planned to begin the rail phase on May 18, a date which Tuesday was postponed indefinitely pending an independent review by the National Academy of Sciences.

Theft Suspect Prefers Death To Arrest After Brief Battle

WILMINGTON, Calif. (UPI)—A 21-year-old man died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound Wednesday, a few hours after the overpowered two sheriffs deputies and held them at gunpoint rather than go to jail on an auto theft charge.

Phillip John Gerringer died in Los Angeles County General Hospital in nearby Torrance about three hours after police lobbed tear gas into his barricaded first floor apartment.

He was apprehended by police who lobbed tear gas bombs into his two-story house in a predominantly Mexican-American neighborhood in this southwestern Los Angeles community.

His young wife, who had been alerted to the shooting, shot at him not to do anything violent, was led away screaming.

Gerringer had overpowered the deputies, they went to the house to pick him up on a bench warrant. The suspect disarmed both of them and barricaded himself inside the house with one of them.

Neither hostage was harmed. Deputies said Sgt. Dewey

Hawkins, 43, and Sgt. Lauren Stuck, 48, went to the residence at mid-afternoon to serve Gerringer with a bench warrant charging him with failing to appear in Superior Court for trial on charges of grand theft auto.

Major Work Slated On Road Building

BOISE (UPI)—State Highway Engineer Ellis Mathes told the Idaho Highway Users Conference Wednesday that the Highway Department planned "the largest construction ever" in Idaho's highway history for the 1969-71 biennium.

The conference adopted a resolution asking Congress to consider a "broadly-based" tax for any urban mass transit system, and "single out highway users as having responsibility for this burden."

Mathes outlined current and proposed construction, noting that he is directing his under contract projects covering 281 miles of work at a total cost of more than $42 million.

Major improvements underway or nearly ready for contract include two major bridges on U.S. 95 between McInnis and State Creeks; improvement of White Bird Hill, south and north, including a one-mile bridge over White Bird Creek; the Bonners Ferry overpass and completion of U.S. 95 completion of Interstate 80N from its junction of Interstate 15W east of Burley to the Utah state line; completion of the Boise Interstate 80N bypass; and three major projects on Interstate 15 in eastern Idaho.

Mathes said he was hoping for improvements on primary, secondary and urban systems could be accelerated when the interstate system is completed in the mid-1970s.

The conference presented former Idaho Highway Director R. Doyle Symms with its first annual motorist award for his "outstanding contribution in developing Idaho's highway transportation system in the public interest."

Plans To Puncture 'Nessie's' Hide Stir Cries Of Outrage In Scotland

INVERNESS, Scotland (UPI)—For centuries, Loch Ness has been the monster Nessie's lake and the Clan Fraser aims to keep it that way—come hell, the Campbells or a yellow submarine.

Lord Lovat, the Fraser Clan chief who led commandos across European beaches in World War II, today piped a call to the defense of the Loch Ness monster against an American-built miniature submarine. He is one of Scotland's major landowners.

"The monster is Scotland's greatest, most visible asset," Lovat bluffed. "I don't mind the scientific survey going on to try to identify it, but I do object to its being harried and harassed by a submarine."

Lovat is asking Inverness police to enforce national laws which forbid attempts to "molest or hit the monster if it is sighted." He is also rallying clansmen and private landholders on the loch to stand ready to keep the submarine out of the icy waters.

The one-man submarine is en-

PHOTOGRAPHERS WERE AT the ready Wednesday to snap the last Chevrolet-Corvette rolling-off the assembly line at Willow Run, Mich. What got was the stubborn next-to-last model being pushed off because it wouldn't start. General Motors Corp. hadn't planned any, stately services to mark the demise of its tiny car, and it was just as well. The last Corvette was a golden two-door Monza sport coupe with white-wall tires, black vinyl bucket seats, tinted windows, a batch of "convenience" extras and a $2,868.30 price tag. It was the 6,000th model of the 1969 Corvette line—and GM felt, a shining end to Corvette's tempestuous 10-year life. But they hadn't counted on No. 5,999 to behave quite so badly. The engine of the blue two-door coupe only ticked over rumbly and quit cold when a worker tried to drive it off to lot No. 6,000 roar into history. Workers tinkered with the engine a while, then finally pushed No. 5,999 off the line.

Bandits Hold Family Of Bank Manager For Ransom

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N.Y. (UPI)—The FBI sought two men who kidnaped a bank manager's pregnant wife and three children Wednesday to get $100,000 in ransom.

Police said that ransom may have been as much as $125,000.

Roy Fuchs, manager of the Franklin National Bank branch in nearby Bethpage, said he got the money... at least 20,000 $5 bills—from the bank and dropped it in a vacant lot at the direction of the kidnapers. His family was almost immediately freed, he said.

Police and FBI agents retraced the movements of the kidnap car and Fuchs' car with Fuchs, 59, and his wife, Asenath, in the hope of getting some "clues" which would lead them to the men. A police spokesman said they had "certain leads" by mid-afternoon.

Neighbors said they had seen three men driving around in a late model Buick several times earlier this week as though they were casing Fuchs' house. Early Wednesday two men were seen in a tan Buick and a third man in a blue car.

According to the story Fuchs told authorities, he left his $50,000 Cape Cod style house at 8 a.m. EDT and was assaulted in the garage by two white men in their 20's wearing dark glasses. They escorted him back to the house and told him to warn Mrs. Fuchs not to make any outcries.

While Mrs. Fuchs dressed Lynn, 4, and twins Kurt and Bruce, 3, the men made Fuchs stay in a bathroom, apparently so he could not study their plans. They told him he must get $100,000 in cash as ransom for his family.

"When Mrs. Fuchs was ready, they taped dark glasses on her face so her vision was extremely limited. Then they drove off in Fuchs' station wagon with Mrs. Fuchs and the children in the back seat. Fuchs immediately took off in his other car for the 15-mile drive to the bank. When he arrived there, he explained his predicament to an assistant manager, the vault was opened and he put the money in a suitcase supplied by the kidnapers.

Fuchs said he then received a pre-planned call from one of the men who said he would find further directions under the seat of his car. A note he found there gave him driving directions to a parking lot next to a motel in Westbury. He left the suitcase there and returned to his home at 9:45 a.m. to await his family.

About 45 minutes later Mrs. Fuchs reigned at the wheel of the station wagon, the children to beside her.

Condemned Slayer Defends Goals Of Black Nationalism

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The condemned man stood before the bar, apparently unmoved by the thought of death, and claimed his cause was just. "The electric chair or fear of anything won't stop the black man today," he told the judge. "I am not a murderer. I have no malice toward anyone." Fred (Ahmed) Evans, 37, former Army paratrooper, some time astrologer, and a black nationalist, confronted Judge George McMonagle, who had just sentenced him to die in the electric chair at Ohio State Penitentiary on Sept. 22. Evans was convicted by an all-white jury of four counts of conspiracy to commit murder, and three counts of first-degree murder, stemming from a gun battle in the predominantly Negro Glenville district last July 23.

Idaho Power Readies Line Construction

BOISE — Idaho Power Company will start construction June 1 on one of the final sections in a 58-mile, high-voltage transmission line to maintain maximum service reliability and increase capacity for power exchanges among five Northwest utilities, it was announced Wednesday. Company president Albert Carlsen said the section of line, estimated to cost $2.2 million, will extend about 60 miles between Idaho Power's Brady substation at American Falls and Scottville near the Atomic Energy Commission testing station. The utility's project is part of a 230,000-volt line being built jointly by Idaho Power and four neighboring companies at an estimated cost of $21 million from the Noxon hydroelectric plant in western Montana to the Naughton steam plant near Kemmerer, Wyoming. Construction of two other sections also is being started, with Utah Power and Light Company building between Scottville and the Montana border, and Montana Power Company building between the border and Anaconda. The remaining sections at both ends of the heavy-duty carrier already have been completed by the Excelsior and Washington Water Power Company. Idaho Power and the four other utilities will operate the new line as a coordinating group known as AMPSS — Associated Mountain Power Suppliers. Each company builds and owns the section in its service area, but shares in the annual costs of the joint facilities and has proportionate transmission rights.

Chimps Said Mirror Of Man

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Man behaves like, beast because his biological heritage is beastly, according to scientists. There may be some hope, however, that he can change his ways. Some beasts, at least, have managed to do this. The possibility that warring man can learn to improve his behavior in any way, understand it — by studying animals is being discussed at a three-day international symposium sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution. Title of the symposium is "Man and Beast: Comparative Social Behavior."

Evolution has bred into monkeys a need to keep their distance from one another. A wide variety of stratagems for doing both without seeming to do either. For example, a monkey too close for comfort to a stronger and more aggressive monkey will act as though this wasn't the case by looking the other way or starting at the ground. Animal "spacing" mechanisms were reported by Hans Kummer of Tulane University. His paper went deeply into territoriality, aggression patterns, dominance, submission, inhibition (some monkeys wouldn't dream of propositioning another monkey's wife), efforts to achieve privacy, and a widespread tendency to take out on strangers grievances kindred by one's neighbors. Human beings, like monkeys, Kummer suggested, often find it useful to exhibit foreign enemies in order to preserve unity at home.

Apollo 10 Carries Rig For Space TV

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—Television from space during the Apollo 10 mission will be in color, and it should be one of the most dramatic live shows ever seen. Astronauts Thomas P. Stafford, John W. Young and Eugene A. Cernan pushed hard for months to have a color television camera aboard their spacecraft. The result is that a 12-pound, $40,000 camera will be taken to the moon with the astronauts, and they plan to use it a lot.

The crucial question is whether inherited behavioral tendencies can be modified to make man less beastly. Some genetic characteristics manifest themselves in any kind of environment. Others surface only under special environmental conditions and can be controlled. Kummer suggested, by altering these conditions.

Astronauts have shown some reluctance to "obey" Apollo missions to interrupt their busy schedule. In space, to flash live pictures back to earth, but they have. Apollo 7 provided the first live telecast from space—gripping shots of the spacecraft floating inside the capsule amid floating instruments. But the pictures were in black and white, and the shots through the spacecraft window of the earth were poor quality. The Westinghouse camera developed for Apollo 10 should provide the best quality pictures so far, and the color is the first time. Stafford says he and his crew won't hesitate to use the camera during their eight-day trip to the moon and around it. He says the view from space is too terrific not to share.

Senior Class Is Honored At Murtaugh

MURTAUGH — The annual Senior Breakfast was served Monday morning in the hot lunch room at the high school for approximately 50 students, teachers and parents.

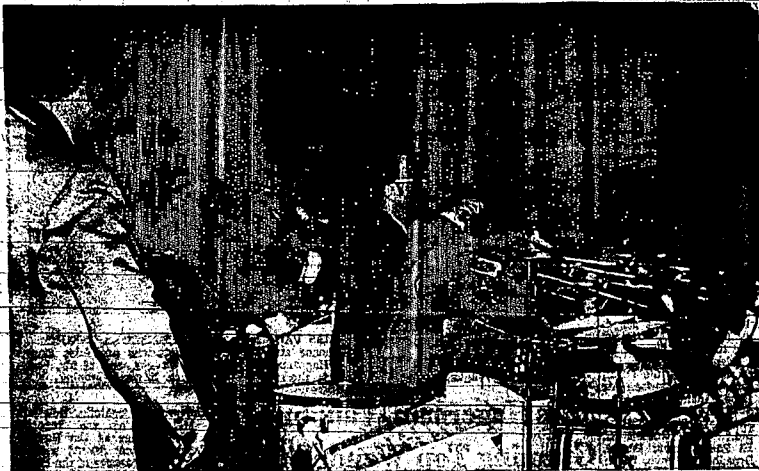

"For all of us who have flown up here to view the color mission, but Stafford's idea is to turn the camera on and leave it on when it doesn't interfere with the crew's duties."

"I think it should be very phenomenal, the views that you'll see compared to what you've had in the past... we hope we can show you some station keeping around the moon," Stafford told newsmen recently.

Eleven live color telecasts from the spacecraft are scheduled during the eight-day mission, but Stafford's idea is to turn the camera on and leave it on when it doesn't interfere with the crew's duties.

The invective was given by Kelly Goddman, the welcome by Jim Lattimer and DeVon Andersen, class sponsor, gave some appropriate remarks. Musical contests were conducted by Mrs. Glen Peterson and Mrs. Roy Stanger. Peggy Uhlig and Jane Peterson sang two songs with guitar accompaniment and Marvin Baker played two trumpet solos accompanied at the piano by Marty Wright. Jim Perkins, chairman of the board of trustees gave a short talk and the farewell and dismissal was given by Rocky Bennett.

Decorations were observed out in the class colors of blue and white by using world globes and blue streamers on the white table cloths. Carnations were made and cutting work done on the place cards and programs by the sixth grade students of Mrs. Morris Lattimer who served on the decorations committee with Mrs. Clarence Egbert, chairman, Mrs. Clyde Goodman and Mrs. John Silvers.

MEN IN BLUE director Gib Hochstrasser, on the drums, center, will put the Boise dance band through an "I Remember Glenn Miller" program at 8 p.m. Sunday at the College of Southern Idaho Fine Arts Center. The program, sponsored by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, is part of National Music Week activities in the city. Tickets are available at the chamber office.

Boise Musicians To Offer Glenn Miller Fete In T.F.

Tickets for the "I Remember Glenn Miller" concert are still available at the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce office, manager Ray Rostron said Wednesday. The concert, scheduled at 8 p.m. Sunday during National Music Week, is being sponsored by the local chamber. Boise's Men in Blue will play many familiar Glenn Miller arrangements of "In the Mood," "Serenade in Blue," "Chattanooga Choo Choo," and "Moonlight Becomes You." The mellow Miller mood of music has been played by the Men in Blue before standing-room-only audiences in Boise.

Murtaugh Man Wins Prize In Forensic Meet

Derrick Ater, son of Jim Ater, Murtaugh, placed first in the Junior College Forensic Meet held last month at Baylor University, Waco, Tex. Mr. Ater is a freshman at Wharton County Junior College, Wharton, Tex. His winning presentation was a cut from the novel, "Grapes of Wrath." He also was in the cast of "Brigadoon," which was presented by the junior college earlier this month. Mr. Ater, who attended Murtaugh High School, entered Wharton County Junior College after returning from Vietnam last August. He spent three and one-half years in the Navy.

Principal Sought For High School

GOODING—Trustees of Gooding School District No. 231 still are searching for a principal for the Gooding High School. The vacancy is one of two still remaining in the system. Trustees were told at a Monday night meeting. The high school operated during 1968-69 without an official principal. The last principal, James Wallace, resigned his position at the end of the 1967-68 term. One vacancy was filled Monday night when trustees approved the hiring of Wilma Dixon as a fourth grade elementary teacher. Miss Dixon is a graduate of Gooding High School, attended Ricka College and is completing her education at Brigham Young University. The other vacant teaching position is that of a mathematics and science instructor at the high school. Trustees granted tentative approval for the Gooding High School FFA judging team and instructor, Darrell Schifler, to attend a state judging meet in June at Moscow.

Grisly Jest

PAOLI, Pa. (UPI)—Police on the fashionable Main Line of suburban Philadelphia have arrested two youths for stealing a body from a cemetery and running it up the flagpole at Great Valley High School. The youths were identified as Terry D. Darlington, 18, of Malvern, and Hey S. Belber, of Berwyn. They were released on $1,000 bail. Police said the body of a woman and the head from another corpse were taken late Friday from the Philadelphia Memorial Park, two miles from the school. The head was found on a nearby road.

Memorial Rites Slated For Crew Of Downed B52

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI)—Memorial services were scheduled at Fairchild Air Force Base here today for six airmen killed in the accident when a B52 bomber crashed into the ocean on takeoff from Richardson Air Force Base, Guam, last week.

Hailey Adds Space For Trailer Parking

HAILEY—A second area designated for trailer house and mobile home parking has been suggested by the Hailey Planning and Zoning Commission to the Hailey City Council.

In response to heavy criticism at two hearings held recently on the planning commission's proposals, the amended zoning plan would also allow for trailer homes to be rebuilt on private lots if they are burned or destroyed. The lots have to be 1,800 feet square. The second parking area will be on land owned by Leo Stravos, east of the railroad tracks.

In the original suggestions, there was only one area, in the northwest part of Hailey, designated for mobile home parking and anyone presently owning a trailer and parking it on his own lot could not replace the vehicle if it was destroyed.

Mayor George Allen said the zoning commission has not yet asked for a special meeting at which the proposed ordinance would be read in full. Two additional readings are required to make the proposals official, but it is expected the council will adopt the amended suggestions presented at this week's council meeting.

Ronald (Dick) Brown was hired to replace John Reeder whose resignation as street and water superintendent will be effective Friday.

Today's Market And Financial Report

Stocks

NEW YORK (UPI)—Absence of any great enthusiasm over President Nixon's Wednesday night message on Vietnam was largely responsible for a stock market that fell Thursday in moderately active trading. Most traders had been anticipating a major development that would help end the war. Instead, Nixon's call for a mutual withdrawal of U.S. and North Vietnamese troops from South Vietnam met with swift denials. "I am from the Viet-Con," said North Vietnam's response was expected to be no less hostile.

Defense Finishes

Its Case In Nevada Slay Trial

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—The defense rested its case Wednesday in the murder trial of Theodore Linn, 36, of Jackson, Wyo., accused of killing two Jackson businessmen in Nevada.

Attorneys were scheduled to make final arguments today. The prosecution has attempted to prove Linn dragged the slaying of Robert Stucker and Larry Dlinger and drove a car to the desert spot near Carson City where the two men were shot and buried in a shallow grave.

A key witness for the state told the jury he and a third man did the actual shooting while Linn waited in the car. However, the third man already had been acquitted in an earlier trial.

Idaho Schools To Receive $10 Million

BOISE (UPI)—Nearly $10 million in federal money will be poured into Idaho's public school system in fiscal 1969, and Suppl. of Public Instruction, F. E. Engelsing said Thursday, the programs have "added immensely" to Idaho education.

Engelsing said the basic purpose of the federal programs is to build up a particular segment of public school education, and added that "Every school child in the state benefits one way or another."

"Each local school district understands has different phases that need strengthening. He said school districts must give an accurate accounting of the money spent and must be able to show that the program is being effectively operated under proper procedures.

"In fiscal 1969, Idaho will receive $4.8 million under four programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 and three under the National Defense Education Act of 1958—the programs are:

—Title I, assistance for educationally deprived children, designed to meet special needs of the educationally disadvantaged, handicapped and neglected, and migratory and Indian children.

—Title II, school library materials designed to improve the quality of instruction by supplementing school library resources and textbooks.

—Title III, supplementary educational centers and services designed to stimulate local school districts to seek creative solutions to their educational problems.

—Title V, aid to state departments of education, designed to assist states in strengthening the leadership resources of their educational agencies.

Wendell, Buhl Could Be State Contenders; A-1 Schools Trailing Borah

Wendell might have a shot at the A-1 title and Buhl could be a contender in the A-2 field but Magic Valley won't have a chance at the A-1 track and field state title Saturday at Boise. First one wrapped up for the Borah Lions; it appears Buhl will take a couple of busloads of youngsters to the event and try to win district titles last week, they could make a strong bid. It seems

Legion Ball To Start With Benefit

The American Legion baseball season officially gets under way Saturday night with a sneak preview Legion baseball benefit at the Twin Falls and Magic Valley. Dr. Addison Irwin, business manager for the local team, said the proceeds will be used to defray expenses of the 40-game schedule this year and also help retire some debts outstanding from previous seasons. Irwin said he is confident that the team will be successful this year. He said the team has been one of our finest supporters and rooters over the years and this Saturday night's dinner is only one of the many fine things he has done for us. Dr. Irwin said the event would start with a cocktail hour from 7 to 8 p.m. with the dinner starting at 8 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door or may be had before hand at the Depot Grill or any Legion Booster member.

Eight-Run Met Rally Downs Braves

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Mets hit for six in the eighth inning, exploded for eight runs in the eighth inning Wednesday night, highlighted by Cleon Jones' first major league grand slam home run, and bases loaded double by Tommie Agee to defeat the Atlanta Braves 9-3. The Mets, who have battled time and time again, rallied to a 6-1 lead by knuckelballer Phil Niekro for the first six innings, got their first hit in the seventh when Ken Boswell singled with a triple. Boswell scored the Mets' first run on Jones' ground out. New York then produced its single inning outburst in the eighth when Niekro and George Stone. Amos Otis reached first when Earl Burns hit a third strike, got by for a passed ball to start the eighth. Bud Harrelson singled for the Mets' second hit of the eighth. Otis to third, pinch-hitter Art Shamsky bounced back to the mound but Niekro's throw to first was dropped by Bobby Jackson to load the bases.

Andretti Maintains Indy Pace

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Mario Andretti, still pushing for pole position in the 500-mile race, ran the hottest "hot" lap in practice Wednesday, at 171.65 miles per hour. ## Shot Put Record

BERLIN (UPI)—Hans-Joachim Rothenberg of East Germany established a new world shot put record Wednesday with a heave of 67 feet, 3 3/4 inches according to the East German News Agency ADN.

But Bishop-Kelly-of-Boise-will be strong in A-2 circles. In the east, Shelley, South Fremont, Salmon and Rigby all had a lot of points in their district. Their times and distances with a couple of exceptions, seem to rule them out of the test. Wendell is in the field where there are the most teams and greatest concentration of talent. While Borah probably will get 50 to 60 points and the A-2 winner should be up perhaps 35-45. The A-3 crown looks more like the first team to get 25 — if any get there. So far as sheer numbers are concerned, Twin Falls and Magic Valley will be well represented in the A-1 but Borah is sitting in the middle looking like six to eight individual firsts. That's more than the area talent, more than the area talent, more than the area talent.

Today's game will start from the beginning, however.

Distaff Solon Scolds Volpe On Speech

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — A Chinese-American assemblywoman is upset because she says Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe ignored the contribution of the Chinese in building the United States' first transcontinental railroad.

Assemblywoman March K. Fong, D-Oakland, sent a telegram to Volpe Monday saying she "sighted the efforts of the Chinese and demanded a public apology to the Chinese community."

Volpe was the featured speaker at ceremonies Saturday at Sacramento, Utah, to mark the 100th Anniversary of linking California to the East by rail.

In the telegram, Mrs. Fong told Volpe: "As you must know, many of (Chinese) workers performed their labor under virtual servitude and to slight them now, 100 years later, must be deemed either an oversight or an insult."

A spokesman for Mrs. Fong said her protest was prompted by a newspaper report that Volpe in his speech failed to single out the efforts of the Chinese in laying rail from California to Utah. The report said members of the San Francisco Chinese delegation who attended the ceremonies were angered by Volpe's speech.

DOES ANYBODY SMELL a rat? If you're under 25, you won't get that pun, so, in more modern vernacular, "she flipped her wig" — or in this case, wiglet. The Times-News cameraman caught this wiglet reposing, stylized form and all, on a desk on top of a purse. One can only assume that after a hard day's work, the tired secretary literally flipped her wiglet and decided to carry it home.

Taxmen Struggle To Solve Dilemma Of Militant Citizen

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — The Internal Revenue Service and an old adversary, Vivien Kellems, have tangled again. This time over the high cost-taxwise-of single blessedness.

The veteran tax fighter posed the question April 15 when she advised Treasury Secretary David M. Kennedy she was not going to pay any more taxes because of the "outrageous" rate charged single people. The 72-year-old Miss Kellems is single.

She indicated she would consider paying something if the government refunded the $73,000 which "avaricious tax collectors have wrested from me over the past 20 years just because I am single."

That's what she told Kennedy on tax day and that's what she told him again after she received a reply to her first letter from Richard M. Hahn, acting chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Service.

Hahn indicated Miss Kellems was not the first person to question the fact that single persons pay more than married persons having the same taxable income.

—He cited the case of one Antoinette M. Faraco who got the government's sympathy, but litary verdict recovered all, but tie else. The government said $800.

—"These purely personal matters are no business of Congress, particularly since there are millions more single women than single men. Where do these women get husbands? And how ridiculous can Congress be? Pretty ridiculous, I'd say."

—Miss Kellems' record as a tax fighter goes to 1946, when, as president of a cable accessory firm in Westport, Conn., she refused to withhold income taxes from her employees.

—The government confiscated $8,000 from her bank account as a penalty, but she sued in U.S. District Court and on a jury verdict recovered all, but tie else. The government said $800.

Mamie Relates Ike's Loyalty

NEW YORK (UP) — Enroute to Europe for a vacation, Mamie Eisenhower reminisced Tuesday about Dwight D. Eisenhower.

At a news conference aboard the liner United States Mrs. Eisenhower reported that she will probably return to the Eisenhower farm in Gettysburg, Pa. to reside when her trip is over.

The widow of the 34th President told reporters about an incident which she felt described her husband's loyalty to America.

"We were only married two weeks, I was 18 and thought it was quite something. One day my husband sat down and told me, 'My country comes first, you come second. As a bride I couldn't understand, but his country always did come first.'"

Floral Design Demonstration Given At Guest Day Tea

"Magic of Spring" was in evidence when Mrs. Kenneth Hodder demonstrated floral designs using spring blossoms at the Twin Falls Garden Club's Guest Day Tea held recently at the YM-YWCA building. Mrs. Hodder was introduced by Mrs. Russell Miller, program chairman.

Mrs. Hodder displayed and commented on various arrangements ranging in size from small to large. The designs included tulips, narcissi, lilacs, flowering almond and crab were used alone or in combination.

A patio arrangement featured dark blue Dutch iris in a large salad bowl with the salad fork and spoon as accessories in the design.

Demonstrating a dinner table arrangement for Mother's Day, Mrs. Hodder used reusable oasis like material to hold flowers on a crystal cake stand.

In a second design of double white lilies, made as a conversation piece for a bridge party, gay miniature hats served as design accessories.

Mrs. Hodder gave tips on conditioning plant material and suggested enhancing small gifts as cups or sugar and creamers with a small arrangement.

Mrs. T. W. Hicks, anti-litter chairman of the Idaho State Federation of Garden Clubs, presented a film, "A Nation of Spoilers," by the United States Forestry Department. Chester Bartlett, executive director of the YMC-YWCA, presented the project. A proclamation by Gov. Don Samuelson declaring May anti-litter month was read by Mrs. Hicks.

Reports were given by Mrs. D. E. Patterson, secretary, and Mrs. C. W. Daigh, treasurer. Mrs. Hicks gave a report of the nominating committee and Mrs. Victor W. Nelson was elected president for the 1969-1970 term.

Mrs. Miller continues as vice president. Clara Walton is new secretary and Mrs. Patterson, treasurer.

Announcement was made of State Garden Club convention June 4 through 6 at Idaho Falls. Mrs. S. W. Smith announced the Magic Valley Iris Society show will be held June 8 through 8 at Mrs. Henry Fry Jr., Laurel Mom, and Mrs. Henry Fry Sr.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: An article appeared in the local newspaper stating that girls between the ages of 16 and 24, who have never been married, were eligible to participate in a contest! I applied, was accepted, and after several rehearsals was turned away because I had a one-year-old son.

I am working my way through college. I am a cheer-leader, college news reporter, editorial pitcher, volley ball, captain, band student, basketball player, am on the debate team, take half lessons, and receive a superior rating in singing.

I work after school, keep my own apartment, and take care of my child.

What more can I do to correct my mistake of having a baby—out of wedlock? What must I do to gain a place in society? I do not have a bad reputation. Only a baby.

MARION W., LAWTON, Okla.

DEAR MARION: You may not have won this "contest," but if your impressive list of activities is any index to your determination and ability, you look like a sure winner in the more important contests of life.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the woman who was bitter because her ex-husband was marrying a "Vietnamese prostitute" and bringing her back to the states prompts this letter.

The expression "war is hell" is an understatement at best. I wonder how many American women would choose starvation over prostitution.

In observing many foreign wives who have come home with our GIs, the majority of them have become excellent wives and mothers. Their greatest problem is adjusting to the bigotry so predominate in American society.

It's not important what a person has been, it's what a person is—and is becoming that is important.

God's forgiveness is just as sure for the prostitute as it is for the man or woman who has indulged in premarital sex. Your compassion for the "Vietnamese prostitute" was noted and appreciated by this—

KOREAN VETERAN

DEAR ABBY: Recently a woman wrote that her ex-husband was marrying and bringing back to the states a "Vietnamese prostitute." Abby, I think she was mistaken.

Youngster, 7, Gains Strength In Savage Battle Against Illness

MADERA, Calif. (UP)—Crippling illness can strike men down with the swift ferocity of a tornado. But the body's ability to fight back and sometimes recover is an even more awesome phenomenon.

Such is the case with 7-year-old Dee Ann Bates. Last Dec. 17 she was a healthy, bright student bubbling with confidence about singing with her class for her school's Christmas program.

After singing that day she bumped her leg against a globe club riser. Ten days later she was near death.

The seemingly simple bruise on her leg led to a frightening chain-reaction of complications that left little Dee Ann in a near-vegetable state.

A blood clot from the bruise went to the girl's lungs. Massive infections attacked her weakened body and on Dec. 27 her lungs collapsed and her heart stopped.

Doctors at Valley Children's Hospital in Fresno restored her heartbeat and breathing after about three to five minutes of technical death.

But they feared the ordeal may have badly damaged her brain and possibly rendered her almost incapacitated for life.

The road to recovery appeared almost impassable.

For a time Dee Ann could not move her limbs. She was unable to talk, see or swallow and most of the time was only barely conscious.

But gradually, with the help of intensive care, the little girl's battered body began to fight back.

After 50 days in the hospital, Dee Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bates, took their daughter home.

At first it was a 24-hour-a-day job to care for her and the pressure mounted on the Bates couple, which has another child, 22-month-old James.

A therapist supplied free by the California-Hawaii Elk-Warrior Project began to work with Dee Ann and slowly the little girl began to work loose the bonds that imprisoned her.

Little by little she regained control over dormant muscles. She began to move her arms and her sight appeared to be coming back. Finally she began to talk — at first in a rush of isolated words and later in brief sentences.

She now appears to understand all that is said around her and often responds with a smile.

Films Slated

RICHFIELD — A program of public interest on today's drug problem will be presented at the high school. Paul Victor, Twin Falls, will speak and show films on use of LSD, narcotics and other drugs.

The program is for high school students and adults. The public is invited. There will be no charges.

Constant therapy and exercises to aid her recovery are painful to Dee Ann. Like any child, she resists movement which causes pain, but the therapist, Mrs. Jackie Roth, and Dee Ann's mother work with her constantly.

Doctors hesitate to speculate whether Dee Ann might make a full recovery.

But Ed and Betty Bates remember when their little girl could neither speak nor move and their hope increases as they watch her progress.

No matter what the outcome, the devastating ordeal has dealt the Bates family a hard financial blow. Bates, who works for a local electrical firm, estimates the cost of Dee Ann's intensive hospital care may total more than $10,000.

Concerned friends have set up a trust fund to help defray the medical expenses. The fund

Rich Alaskan Oil Field Poses Transportation Dilemma For Firm

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Standard Oil of New Jersey is planning a trans-Alaska pipeline and fitting out a tanker for a cruise through the Northwest passage as means of tapping a "major oil field" on the North Slope of Alaska, Standard President J. K. Jamieson said.

He told stockholders at the firm's annual meeting that Humble (Jersey) and other interested companies are planning a pipeline to bring crude oil from North Slope fields to a port in Southern Alaska.

"This project alone may call for an investment of up to $900 million," Jamieson said. "It must be obvious to you, therefore, that the companies operating in Alaska are fairly optimistic about the outlook."

The Standard executive outlined some of the problems faced by his firm and Atlantic Richfield in tapping the oil discovered by their joint venture. He listed extreme cold, remoteness of the area, absence of transportation facilities, impassability of the tundra during the summer thaw, and icing of the Arctic Sea most of the year.

"None of these problems is insurmountable — but it will take inventiveness, experimentation and large expenditures to develop production and bring the oil to market.

"As one example, Humble has a bold plan to test the feasibility of shipping oil through the Northwest Passage to East Coast markets.

"A tanker is now being equipped with a reinforced hull, an icebreaker bow, and special equipment to protect propellers and rudder. We hope it will be ready for its experimental voyage in August."

Jamieson also reported on other Standard projects throughout the world, noting the firm's capital investment rate has approached a record $2 billion a year.

He said the Santa Barbara Channel test wells off the California coast had produced "somewhat disappointing" results, but the firm was hopeful future exploration on other tracts would make the channel a commercial success.

"Our industry must continue an aggressive exploratory program in offshore areas such as this if we are to maintain the adequacy of our country's reserves," Jamieson said.

The Santa Barbara Channel drilling was criticized by conservationists and local residents prior to the granting of federal leases and after a blowout at Union Oil Co. well coated beaches with black sludge.

Board Chairman Michael L. Halder presented management's

SNOTHER PLAY WEST OF ALL

Gordon Keel writes from Vancouver, British Columbia: "My partner might well have dropped the bidding at two hearts and I should have stopped at three, but I tried a three-spade call where-upon he put me in a spade game. It was a mighty poor contract but with frumps breaking 3-2, the heart finesse and the king of clubs in back of the ace I had no trouble making my contract and winning the rubber."

"The interesting feature of the hand lies in what might have been. If I had bid four hearts I would have had a chance to make a smoother play. I have never seen one in my 40 years at the table and there it was if only I had bid differently. Of course, I might have failed to make it."

The smother play is the est of plays in bridge. Let's show the way.

East wins the first trick with a club to his partner's ace. A second club is won in dummy and South stops when he finds that trumps are divided 4-1. He does not look as if he has any other play for his contract except to find some very ignorant and the king of clubs in back of the ace I had no trouble making my contract and winning the rubber. Then he cashes dummy's two good diamonds and then throws West in with the last spade.

Dummy holds the pack of hearts. East is the king and South the ace of hearts and a spade. West must lead a club or diamond. Dummy ruffs and East's king of trumps is smothered. If he plays it now South overruffs him in turn, if he ruffs now South simply chucks his last spade.

Women With 'Small Heads' Seem To Appear Younger

TO LOOK YOUNGER—The Grandpa, teased; was smaller, a woman's head looks, the more youthful she seems to be. That is why Miss Ingrid Bergman, for instance, appears to be far less than her actual age. She has a small head. And in that classic "For Whom the Bell Tolls," she was characterized still less by a short haircut which created the illusion her head was even smaller.

A Los Angeles hairdresser (therefore recommends the short haircut to light-hearted ladies who want to represent themselves as younger than their years.

T. F. Navy Man Wins Award For Saving U. S. $204,000

A former Twin Falls man has won the highest superior achievement award in the 22-year history of the Navy Electronics Supply Office at Great Lakes, Ill.

Alec Kinsfather, employed as a program monitor in the Engineering Branch, Technical Division, ES0, developed an ion pump procedure which alleviated inoperable equipment aboard two Navy ships bound for Vietnam. For this development Mr. Kinsfather received a cash award of $1,255, and reportedly saved the Navy more than $204,000.

The procedure Mr. Kinsfather developed, Capt. John H. Garrett Jr. said, "prevented what would have otherwise led to the destruction of traveling wave tubes (TWTs) which had become disabled while in storage."

The commanding officer said both the USS Enterprise and the USS Long Beach had reported failure of the VA-125 TWTs, which are priced at $24,500 each.

"This tube," he said, "is of a unique design and represents one of a kind. Casualty report requisitions were submitted for a total of three replacements."

Mr. Kinsfather was assigned the task of determining what caused the tubes to fail shortly after installation. "Within only 24 hours," Capt. Garrett said, "he had determined the cause of the failure, to be accumulation of gas in the vacuum tubes while they were in storage."

He arranged to have 13 of the TWTs tested to determine which of the stored tubes were in a ready-for-issue condition. He developed an improved ion pump procedure to re-establish the vacuum of those tubes not ready for issue.

Through use of Mr. Kinsfather's pump-down procedure and additional innovations, 90 per cent of the TWTs were recovered, netting the Navy savings in excess of $204,000.

Three operable tubes were installed in the Enterprise and
