

Space Explorers Return In Triumph; Pacific Splashdown Caps Perfect Flight

AMERICA'S MOON EXPLORERS — Michael Collins, left, Neil Armstrong, center, and Edwin Aldrin — returned safely to earth today, splashing down in the Pacific after a fiery ride through the atmosphere to end an epochal eight-day journey to the surface of the moon. But no brass bands and heavy hand-

Nixon Boards Ship To Welcome Trio; Isolation Begins

ABOARD USS HORNET (HSP)—Apollo 11's astronauts, their footprints stamped forever in history with 21 memorable hours on the moon, streaked home today to the south Pacific and 18 days of total isolation. President Nixon headed the welcoming committee aboard this aircraft carrier 1,000 miles southwest of Honolulu. Neil A. Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. cut a fiery path through earth's atmosphere after nearly a million miles in space, completing a goal President John F. Kennedy set for the nation eight years ago. They brought with them a priceless cargo of moon rocks. The 60 pounds of rocks, in two boxes, were to fly to a new facility immediately by jet direct to the U.S. Space Center near Houston, Tex., where scientists were eagerly willing to start detailed examinations. Nixon was joined by Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Dr. Thomas O. Paine, administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for the welcome aboard the recovery carrier. The world was watching. Americans prepared for a weekend of celebration from which the astronauts themselves would be sealed away in quarantine to make sure they had brought no diseases back from the moon. Since their launch from Cape Kennedy July 16, Armstrong, Aldrin and Collins had traveled 852,700 miles through space; and Armstrong and Aldrin had spent 21 hours on the moon. The single lunar lander to take the step Armstrong called "a great leap for mankind." Columbia, the name they bestowed on their command ship, plowed into the upper atmosphere at 24,000 m.p.h. 80 miles over Australia. The Rogers-Collins plane was assigned 250 miles east of the original target to avoid heavy thunderstorms. Ground controllers made the decision to shift the recovery zone to avoid any complications from high winds, heavy seas. See APOLLO, Pg. 2, Col. 8

Mental Health Plans Pressed

By LORAYNE SMITH Times-News Valley Editor First steps toward realization of mental health services for the Magic Valley area were taken at a meeting Wednesday night in the Twin Falls Judicial building, sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Twin Falls Mental Health Association. The situation now is that with the passage of Idaho Senate Bill 1173, "Mental Health Services Act," the state is committed to the formation of a broadly-based advisory board representative of all eight counties in Magic Valley. Another meeting has been set for Aug. 5, also in the judicial building here, and hopefully it will have been done so that an advisory group can be officially formed. After what State Rep. Ray Lincoln agreed was "undoubtedly 100 meetings" of local persons interested in this cause, the consensus of Wednesday night's gathering was definitely that "now is the time." Representation at the meeting included considerable support from throughout the area with members from Gooding and Shoshone, representing the North Side. A total of 14 health groups, attending, as well as representatives from the Twin Falls Mental Health unit, Department of Public Assistance, County Commission, Community Action Agency and Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. It was pointed out by Mrs. James Douart, Weiser, president of the Idaho Mental Health Association, that all previous efforts toward obtaining a mental health clinic were stymied because of funding problems which counties were unable to assume. She stressed that with the recent legislation, the state Health Division of the Idaho Health Department assumes the cost of the clinic. See MENTAL, Pg. 2, Col. 3

Parades, Rodeos Set In 3 Communities

Pioneer Day celebrations commemorating the arrival of the Mormon pioneers in the Snake Valley in 1847, were under way in three Magic Valley communities Thursday. Parades, rodeos, street sports, dinners, and programs were scheduled in Hagerman, Oakley and Carey, with smaller observances held in several other communities. The Oakley celebration began with a sunrise salute under the direction of the American Legion Post, with breakfast served in the Oakley City Park and a program of speakers and speakers held at 10 a.m. in the LDS Stakehouse. A brief barbecue was held at noon, with a parade scheduled at 2 p.m., followed by a gymkhana. The Oakley rodeo is scheduled for both Thursday and Friday nights and the 22 1/2-mile marathon race is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday, prior to the rodeo at 9 p.m. The race, for which $1,000 is offered for first place, begins at the grandstand at the rodeo grounds. At Hagerman the parade was held at 11 a.m. with a luncheon dinner served by the Relief Society in the air conditioned LDS church at noon. The rodeo be-

SALMON (UPI)—A swarm of flying ants prevented many television viewers in Salmon from witnessing man's first walk on the moon. A translator which provides television reception from Idaho Falls went off the air Saturday. It did not come back on until Monday. According to President Frank Stahl of the Lemhi Television Corp., flying ants plugged a blower which clogged the equipment.

Soviets Release British Captive

LONDON (UPI)—British intelligence reports of the capture of a major Soviet spy in Britain, Brooke, had been reported in the recovery zone to avoid any complications from high winds, heavy seas. See APOLLO, Pg. 2, Col. 8

Reds Attack Marine Post

SALMON (UPI)—Harling rodeo performers attacked a U.S. Marine position in South Vietnam's northern quarter today, military spokesmen said. The U.S. Command said American battle deaths rose last week despite a lull in fighting. Communist infantrymen firing machine guns and throwing grenades assaulted a defensive position of the 1st Marine Division 22 miles northwest of Da Nang just before dawn. The attack killed one Marine and wounded 10 others.

ABM Provocative? Then So Is Parachute--Jordan

WASHINGTON (Special To The Times-News) — In a speech on the Senate floor yesterday, Sen. Len Jordan, R-Id., announced his intention to support President Nixon's request for deployment of Phase I of the Safeguard Anti-Ballistic Missile System. The Idaho senator said that he did not intend to get into the numbers game of relative advantage of the superpower nations in the matter of either offensive or defensive capability. "It is enough for me to accept the proposition that either side could incorporate the other, but with varying degrees of effectiveness. Because 10 per cent of our people live on one per cent of the land it is quite likely that an equal exchange of nuclear missiles delivered to the most strategic targets in each of the superpower countries would do more damage to us because our population is much more concentrated. "All of us recognize the sheer folly of a nuclear arms race. It is important to get the superpowers to the bargaining table. We await word from Soviet leaders and we have waited for some time," he said. Sen. Jordan, in his speech supporting the ABM system, also said it is a "new round" of weaponry, but is a "wholly defensive system." "It seems to me that Safeguard is no more provocative than a parachute in a fighter plane, a life preserver on a sail boat or a seat belt in an automobile," he said. "All are designed for the same purpose, and that is to save lives. Moreover, it is more consistent with the moral objectives of the United States for this country to provide more effective ways of protecting people than it is to base our deterrent power wholly upon our ability to kill people in their countries or to 'accept' heavy casualties at home." He said he was "unconvinced" by those who profess to vouch for the peaceful intentions of the Kremlin leaders. "If Russia truly wishes world peace, let them come to the peace table with serious intent. The U.S. must never be maneuvered into a position where nuclear blackmail becomes a tempting prospect," he said. The senator also declared that cost of the minimum phase of the protection was not out of line and he added that "failure to take the step could not only endanger our security by the mid-seventies, but also weaken our negotiation position in the immediate future." Sen. Jordan said the most compelling need of the present times is to "stop this devastating arms race." He said President Nixon thinks "we need the start that this bill gives us" and he thinks that "we need it now." "He thinks we are protecting 'whistle-blowing' that should be going to the courts. Personally, I might be willing to take that risk for peace which proponents endorse. The President cannot take that risk. "I shall support the president. It is in our best judgment that it be an act of over-security, rather than under-security for the nation. "Each senator will vote the dictates of his own conscience. When I vote to sustain the President in his awesome responsibility of planning a national defense, I will do so in the most effective manner possible in order to achieve a lasting peace. I shall be at peace with my conscience." The vote on the ABM system is expected before the end of this month. The debate has been one of the greatest in the history of the Senate and is expected to be extremely close.

Mayor Won't Call

BURLEY — Mayor Joe Peters said Wednesday evening he does not plan on calling a special election to decide whether the city should go to a city-manager form of government. Mayor Peters is the first full-time mayor Burley has had, in a statement issued Wednesday, he said he made the decision after consulting with Kent Church-city attorney. "It appears a special election cannot be held, according to the laws of Idaho. This is on the grounds that the petition and issue a hold in the same manner as a general election." He said a city must advertise 45 days in advance of an election. "By following Idaho law, Mayor Peters said, the general election will be Nov. 4. "Special elections must be held 60 days before this, which would bring us back to Sept. 4. We must advertise 45 days in advance, which brings us to last Monday." A petition bearing more than 700 signatures was presented at city hall last week. The petition asked that a special election be called so that voters could decide if they wanted to go to a city-manager form of government. Mayor Peters said, "The law gives the city 10 days to examine the petition and issue a proclamation calling for a special election. The petition was turned in to the clerk's office at 11 a.m. July 17." He said, "This did not give us ample time to check the petition and publish it by Monday."

William Grange Gets Idaho Power Post

William Grange, former Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce manager and now manager of Cable Vision, Inc., will become director of industrial development for Idaho Power Co., the utility announced today. Grange will succeed Orland C. Mayer when he retires Oct. 1 after more than 40 years with the company, the last 20 of them in his present position. D. S. Bailey, vice president for division operations, said in announcing Grange's appointment, that he will join Idaho Power on a full-time basis about Sept. 1. "Mr. Grange has had a broad and immensely successful business career," Bailey said. "We are confident his ability and interest in the economic growth of the Snake River Valley will enable him to assist in area development with the same See GRANOE, Pg. 2, Col. 7

Being Lost Is No Picnic For Child

What happens when a young child gets lost? Many things. A child got lost Wednesday night and for 16 minutes it was real detective work in the Twin Falls County Sheriff's office.

Deputy Eddis Lammers was on duty. It was 7:50 p.m.

"Don Moore" of 243 Seventh Ave. N., with three children in tow, walked into the sheriff's office. He introduced a blond-headed boy with deep, blue eyes.

"This boy came to our house. He's lost," Moore said.

The boy was on the verge of tears and Deputy Lammer's joked with him a moment. Then he got a pad of paper and a pen and started to ask questions.

"What's your name son?"

"Bryan," the boy said.

Deputy Lammer's wrote this first piece of information on his pad of paper.

"Where do you live?"

"Georgetown."

This was on the pad.

Slowly Deputy Lammer's began to build a log of information.

It was learned the boy's name was Bryan Wade Evans and he was visiting an aunt in Twin Falls. His parents were also visiting the aunt and the boy told Deputy Lammer's the father's name and what kind of car the father drives.

"What's your father's name in Georgetown?" Deputy Lammer's asked.

"He feeds the ducks and rabbits like a bottle of pop."

Deputy Lammer's then contacted Twin Falls Police and informed them he had a lost child at the sheriff's office.

"Get him some ice cream," the police said.

"Don't have any, but I'll be right back with a bottle of pop."

The boy smiled.

Meanwhile, a check was being made of the city directory, trying to determine where in the area of Seventh Avenue North the boy might be from.

The boy had told Deputy Lammer's he was going to visit a friend named "Ricky" in that area, but got lost and stopped at the Moore home. He said his parents were staying with "Aunt Jean."

The check of the city directory was made to see if there were any women named "Jean" that lived in the area concerned. There were nearly 50 names that had to be checked.

While a volunteer tried this, Deputy Lammer's kept up conversations with the boy.

"How many sisters and brothers do you have?"

Food Buyers Find Stocks Of Poultry

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service reports that food shoppers will find ample stocks of meat and poultry and some choices in fresh vegetables and fruit in food stores and supermarkets this last weekend in July.

Broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys continue to be the most abundant meats. Some benefits may be in the abundant class, especially steaks in some areas. Pork items in good supply are chops, ham, roasts, and smoked picnic.

Bacon may be featured in some areas. Fish buys to consider are canned tuna, Maine sardines, and fish sticks and portions.

Fresh vegetables in best supply are cabbage, lettuce, and potatoes. Fresh fruit in best supply are peaches, grapes, plums, cantaloupe, and watermelons.

Other foods that appear on USDA plentiful food list for July are rice and summer vegetables.

Senate Tobacco Foes Aver Ad Ban Would Help Children

By WILLIAM B. MEAD

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Leaders of a successful Senate antismoking drive said today the abolition of television and radio cigarette commercials would spare thousands of children from the smoking habit.

Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, chairman of the Senate consumer subcommittee, cited a study by Professor Julian J. Simon of the University of Illinois. Simon concluded cigarette consumption would drop 5 per cent, the first "commercial-free year" and result in "an increase of human life in the United States of about 180 billion minutes or 310,000 years of life."

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, said adult smokers might keep smoking even without commercials.

"But you're going to see a big decrease in the number of children taking it up," he said. Cigarette makers last year spent $217.2 million, 70 per cent of that total advertising outlays, on television and another $24.3 million on radio commercials.

Joseph P. Cullinan III, chairman of both Philip Morris Inc. and The Tobacco Institute, told Moss' Senate consumer subcommittee Tuesday the cigarette industry would stop all television and radio advertising by September 1970, sooner if manufacturers permit cancellation of contracts.

FTC Chairman Paul Rand Dixon offered in exchange to hold off the FTC's proposed rule until which all cigarette advertisements would have to carry a stern health warning.

Audit Of Schools Ordered

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE (UPI) — A legislative interim committee has ordered performance audits of the state's institutions of higher learning beginning with the University of Idaho, UPT learned Wednesday.

James A. Deffenbach, post auditor for the Budget and Fiscal Committee, confirmed reports that the committee directed him to begin such audits as soon as possible.

"It is true that the Budget and Fiscal Committee directed that the performance audits be made in the area of all higher education in line with the wishes of the Legislative Council and the legislature as a whole," he said.

"It was the feeling of the legislature that an overall performance audit in conjunction with the formula (for public school aid distribution) would be of some help to the members and might help avoid some of the difficulty they had in the last legislature.

"In view of this, the budget and fiscal committee felt it desirable that we start with the oldest and largest institution, which of course is the University of Idaho, and work from there to the other institutions."

Financing of higher education precipitated the governor's last winter between GOP legislative leaders, particularly in the House and Republican Gov. Don Samuelson.

Deffenbach, who was Samuelson's budget director until July 1, said that so far as he knew the governor's demand for an audit had nothing to do with the legislative committee's decision.

"It was the wish of the Legislative Council and the legislature to avoid this thing about sectionalism," he said.

The lawmakers appropriated a total of $34 million for the four principal institutions of higher education, including general fund money, surplus, federal funds and other monies.

Of that total, the University of Idaho received 16.7 percent more.

Boise State, which just entered the state system last Jan. 1, got 25.9 percent more than the amount it claimed for the previous biennium.

Except for Boise State, the legislature appropriated more for the institutions of higher education than the governor recommended.

Samuelson threatened to use his veto power until he and the legislative leadership resolved their differences.

There were reports the proposed performance audits had bipartisan support in the legislative council, indicating the lawmakers were not necessarily prodded to action by Samuelson.

"In view of the fact there was a problem in the Joint Finance Committee in determining budgets for higher education, then I think it was the

Autopsy Reveals Alcohol Caused

NAMPA (UPI) — An autopsy indicated that alcohol and not a beating caused the death of a former Fort Hall man who died in the Nampa city jail after being arrested for public drunkenness.

Coroner Henry C. Wesche said the reports of the autopsy on Theron Joseph Taquena, 30, Nampa, showed he had taken a lethal amount of both ethyl and methyl alcohol.

Taquena received a beating shortly before he died but Dr. Wesche said the autopsy reports ruled out the possibility that the beating rather than the alcohol caused the death.

Meantime, a preliminary hearing is scheduled July 30 for Pete Aitkens, 44, also Nampa, charged with aggravated battery, Aitkens, arrested at the same time as Taquena on a drunkenness charge, allegedly was in the jail cell with Taquena when the younger man was beaten.

Feeling of the legislators involved that a performance-type audit of all institutions of higher education would help prevent this sort of difficulty in the future," Deffenbach said.

Another report of the proposed performance audits had bipartisan support in the legislative council, indicating the lawmakers were not necessarily prodded to action by Samuelson.

'Moonquakes' Show Up On Seismometer Left By Apollo 11 Spacemen

By AL ROSSITER JR.
SPACE CENTER—Houston (UPI)—The seismometer left on the moon by Apollo 11's explorers has come up with evidence that the moon is not a cold, dead body but instead may have an active interior like earth.
 It also indicated the moon may not be homogeneous, but might be made up of layers of different type material.

 Dr. Garry Latham, principal investigator in charge of the first seismic experiment put on the moon, said Wednesday the most exciting find to date was the report of a "whimper" on the moon's surface caused either by a moonquake or the impact of a huge meteoroid.
 The event was recorded by a series of whinges on a graph at the channeled spacecraft center, a quarter million miles from the moon.
 "If we were to see that event on the earth, we would say that it corresponds to an earthquake a few thousand miles away," Latham told a news conference.

"Now as far as this event occurring on the moon, I would guess off-hand from our experience that this is an event occurring one or two thousand kilometers away and that is the first evidence of layering in the moon that we have. This is a tentative conclusion."
 "If that were a meteoroid impact, it would be the equivalent to an explosion of a few kilotons (of TNT) and that would be a very large meteoroid which is rare and we would be very lucky to get it so soon."
 "So for that reason, I feel reasonably confident that in fact, I'm going to claim a case of champagne from a colleague in California on a wager as to whether or not there are moonquakes on the basis of that one event."

 Latham said he had the bet with Prof. George Kennedy of the University of California at Los Angeles.
 Quakes on earth are produced by the stresses and strains of a hot, active core. Moonquakes would indicate the moon was experiencing the same thing.
 The seismometer is a very sensitive instrument weighing only 25 pounds, was reported working well Wednesday. But, Latham said it is heating up faster than predicted and he feared the high temperatures of the lunar noon this weekend might damage its electronics.

Pat Nixon Views Splashdown By TV, Will Join Husband

HONOLULU (UPI)—First from Asian lands, Lady Pat Nixon, envious of her husband's inside seat at the splashdown, said she will join her husband's first-class airplane to watch the recovery of the Apollo 11 crew on its return from the moon.
 "Afterwards, Mrs. Nixon will board her sleek Air Force jet to Guam, crossing the International Date Line to rejoin her husband, for their busy tour of Southeast Asia and Communist Romania."
 "Like all Americans, Mrs. Nixon has caught the bug and is exultant over the big space step in space. Both she and the President are excited over the world image the space successes have created for the nation."
 When asked why she isn't aboard the USS Hornet today for the astronauts' big welcome home, she smiled and said, "I'm not asked."
 Instead she will be viewing the homecoming in the white and gold presidential suite at the Kahala Hotel, Honolulu. She invited a group of reporters covering her to watch the big moment with her.

Honolulu was a stop on her homecoming for Mrs. Nixon who said on arrival "it's wonderful to be back" as hula dancers strung colorful leis around her neck and sang Hawaiian songs.
 Mrs. Nixon, who arrived Wednesday she toured the East West Center and extended the hand of friendship to students.

Space Voices Describe Apollo Flight

SPACE CENTER—Houston (UPI)—Astronaut Michael Collins Friday told a television audience the teamwork involved in the voyage. Apollo 11 was like "the periscope of a submarine."
 "All you see is the three of us, but below the surface there are thousands and thousands of others."
 Other communications with the moon crew Wednesday:
 Apollo 11 commander Neil A. Armstrong, checking out the spacecraft had sailed past the halfway point en route home from the moon.
 "We're right in our own backyard."
 Moonwalking astronaut Edwin E. (Buzz) Aldrin, on why the moon is a challenge was "available."
 Armstrong, signaling off a 15-minute relay.
 "To all the people listening and watching tonight—God bless you."
 Michael Collins, worrying about chum bugs in his home town; they're sort of bacteria little fellows. They don't say much, they just chum away... which is about what we're doing up here."
 Collins is describing some "flight planning" for Apollo 12: "We're checking to see how much spaghetti and meatballs they can get aboard for (Apollo 12 lunar module pilot) Alan Shepard."
 Mission Control: "We're not sure the spacecraft can take that much extra weight. Have you made any estimates?"
 Collins: "Well, he's close."
 Neil A. Armstrong, noting cool, but comfortable calm temperature during the night.
 "The temperature here is better by a country mile."

PLANS TO LAUNCH the first orbital "space workshop" in 1972 have been announced by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. NASA said the orbiting space station will carry an elaborate bundle of telescopes to unlock the secrets of the sun and the universe. An artist's concept, top, shows an Apollo-type spacecraft docked into the space station. The drawing, bottom, depicts the layout of the station, with the Apollo and a telescope mount. ## Idaho Education Director Says State Will Aid Audit

BOISE (UPI)—Dr. Donald King, who will assume the post of executive director for higher education Aug. 1, said Wednesday he would state the state will cooperate in the performance audit of Idaho's institutions of higher learning.
 However, board president Mrs. John G. Walters said she had heard nothing about the performance audit, at least "not that it was to begin now."
 King said prudent interpretation of data from the audit would assist the legislature in understanding the needs of education at all levels.
 James A. DeFenbach, pool auditor for the Budget and Finance Committee, Wednesday confirmed reports that the committee had directed him to begin such audits as soon as possible. King said the state will cooperate in the performance audit of Idaho's institutions of higher learning.
 Mrs. Walters said she did not know if she had heard anything about it. "I don't know what it includes, I had heard about it."

Broadcast Industry Protests Federal Role In Smoke Ads

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The broadcasting industry accused the government today of supporting the cigarette industry's plan to stop advertising on television and radio.
 The plan, which would eliminate cigarette commercials by September 1970, was announced Tuesday. Senate antismoking leaders called it a "gross contribution to public health."
 But broadcasting sources told UPI the radio-television industry fell was left out in what they called a deal between senators and cigarette makers. These sources said the industry would bitterly oppose the plan, which would cost broadcasters $240 million a year in cigarette advertising.
 The broadcasters signalled their intention to fight in a letter called out by senators and industry sources with UPI but asked not to be identified.
 The broadcasters indicated they would accept the "written" proposal to phase out cigarette commercials gradually over the

'White Man's' Laws Disrupt Indian Ritual

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Indian tradition or not, sacrificial maidens can't be barred.
 Vice-Squad officers handed down the warning to the group of "The Flying Indians of Acapulco" and then arrested the young maidens in question when she appeared Tuesday at the city's summerfest grounds.
 The Indians have been performing for "tens" of years throughout the United States and other countries and have as a part of their act a ritual sacrifice. During the "sacrifice," the maidens are disrobed as she waits at the back of a 100-foot deep stage.
 The sacrifice scene was part of the Indians' 500-year tradition of their mid-dance ritual, a spokesman said.

Supreme Court Reverses Ruling

BOISE (UPI)—Idaho's Supreme Court Wednesday reversed a conviction and judgment from the Seventh Judicial District Court of Blinnham County against Robert Wilson, Pocatello.
 Wilson had been found guilty by a jury of the crime of rape. The high court ruled that the admission in evidence of certain irrelevant, immaterial and highly inflammatory evidence had deprived Wilson of a fair trial.
 The case was remanded to the District Court for a "new trial."

Rupert Couple Says Vows In June Wedding Rites

RUPERT — The marriage of Cathy Groesbeck and Jerald Kraus was solemnized June 7 in the Congregational Church, here.

Rev. Raymond Milligan performed the double-ring ceremony before a background setting of lighted arched candles, flanked with heavy baskets of gladioli, snapdragons and chrysanthemums. Pink satin bows marked the pews.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Groesbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kraus, all of Rupert.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gorgeous empire gown of white organza over satin, re-embroidered daisies enhanced the rounded neckline, sleeves, and the front of the gown.

White satin bows accented the neckline and waistline. Her waist-length veil of illusion and chapel train trimmed with remembered daisies were secured by a daisy headpiece. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of pink daisies, pink gerberas and white roses.

Cheryl Rasmussen was maid of honor and Sherry Kraus and Debbie Bird were bridesmaids. Flower girls were Deanna Kraus, niece of the bridegroom, and Lori Deide, cousin of the bride. Caldwell, Jake Kraus, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer, and candlelighters were Suzie Rau and Mark Deide, cousin of the bride.

Monte Price, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and Gary Kraus, brother of the bridegroom, and Jerry Groesbeck, brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Ushers were David Smith and Tom Cook Kelly and Lilace Kraus, cousins of the bridegroom. Stan Rasmussen and Barbara Giesler were gift carriers.

Martha Bedke played traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Clyde Richan, who sang "We'll Have It" and "Wedding Prayer."

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church annex, where the bride and groom were met by the color scheme.

Kathy Hergenreder Bradshaw, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the guest book, and Joanne Giese, June McConnell, Kendra Wanzendorf, Bonnie Weber, Colorado, cousin of the bridegroom, Mary Isaak and Beverly Hergenreder, cousin of the bridegroom, cared for the gifts.

MR. AND MRS. JERALD KRAUS (Leyson Studio photo)

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my mother. She is very fat, and I am ashamed of her. She's a good mother, but she weighs more than 300 pounds, and cuts everything she wants and plenty of it. I don't see how my daddy can stand her. I don't think he could get his arms around her. I don't like for my friends to meet her, and I don't want to go out and be seen with her. What chance do I have to get a boyfriend when he sees HER? I know a girl is supposed to love her mother, but how can I when I don't even respect her?

I have a picture of her before she got fat and she was beautiful. She is only 30. (Sign me) ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: Every fat woman is "ashamed" of herself, but losing weight is strictly do-it-yourself project. I will print your letter in hopes that your mother sees it, takes the hint, goes to her doctor for a check-up and a diet, latches on to "Tops" or "Weight Watchers" and becomes her "beautiful" self once again. Meanwhile, little girl, even though your mother's appearance may not make you "proud," there are other qualities of equal or greater importance. And, troubled by weight, she needs your love now more than when she was slim and "beautiful."

DEAR ABBY: Around noon on Saturday a lady called and asked to talk to Tony (my husband) and I said he wasn't home (which he wasn't) and then she asked if he was out of town. I asked her who wanted to know, and she says, "I'm nepo of your business," so I hung-up on her.

She called back in about an hour and this time Tony was home, so I just stood there and let him answer her.

All he said was, "I told you not to bother me," then he hung up. I asked him who it was and he said, "Some dicky dame who works at the plant," but he wouldn't tell me her name. If you were I would you try to find out who she is? And do you think there is some funny business going on? He's always walked a straight line.

SUSPICIOUS

DEAR SUSPICIOUS: If he's always walked a straight line, let it go. A man isn't responsible for who he calls HIM.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I just came back from a week's vacation at his parents' home in the high hills all the time we were there and the nights were unbearable. I was in my eighth month with my third child.

Our bedroom had one small window and the heat was making me sick—I noticed a huge window fan stored in its original box, so since nobody else was using it I asked my father-in-law if I could use it, and he said, "You don't need it. We've had it two years and have used it only twice."

So I spent my nights sitting on the porch trying to breathe. Our eldest child stayed a week after we left, and when he came home he said, "Right after you left, Grandpa hooked up the fan. He told me not to tell you."

My husband is already talking

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore Bridal Original lace gown with ruffled cuffs, collar and front bodice. The natural wedding was encircled with a bow and topped a bell skirt which swept to a chapel train. A caplet of organza petals adorned with miniature flowers stemmed with pearls, held the elbow length veil of English silk illusion. ### 9 Held By FBI In Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The FBI announced Wednesday the arrest of nine persons and indictment of three others in what it called a "severe blow to the Cosa Nostra."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said the nine arrests were on the basis of a sealed indictment returned by a federal grand jury in New York Tuesday.

The indictment charged them with violations of federal laws controlling union welfare and pension plans and banning interstate travel to abet racketeering.

The arrests were the culmination of an extensive investigation through the New York City area, western Pennsylvania and in Detroit, Hoover said.

The nine named in the indictments were charged specifically with conspiring to obtain an increase in a loan for the development of a Detroit real estate firm from the central states pension fund of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters in Chicago.

The indictments said attempts were made to have a loan of $1,000,000 increased to $1,250,000 through the payment of a kickback.

Arrested were Salvatore Caramanna, 40, of Staten Island, N.Y.; Edward Lanzler, also known as "Eddie Bull," 52, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Frank J. Ross, 29, Penn Hills, Pa.; Sebastian John LaRocca, 68, Trenton, N.J.;

Apollo Crew Due Applause

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—The nation can hardly wait to give Apollo 11 astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin E. Aldrin, Jr. a hero's welcome back to earth.

President Nixon arranged for the astronauts to visit New York, Chicago and Los Angeles on the same day, Aug. 13, after they get out of lunar quarantine. Lickertape parades are planned down New York's Broadway and through Chicago's Loop, and Nixon will host a dinner that night in their honor in Los Angeles.

In addition, San Francisco promises them its biggest parade ever, and Wapakoneta, Ohio—Armstrong's hometown—expects "maybe even hundreds of thousands" for its blowout. Before anybody has a chance at them, however, the three spacemen must go through an 18-day quarantine on earth to make sure they didn't bring any unearthly germs with them from the moon.

Doctors plan to release them Aug. 11. They will have just one day to visit families before they head for New York by Presidential jetliner for the first of three celebrations Aug. 13.

Canyon Areas Suggested As 'Wilderness'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress was urged Wednesday to set aside the Mt. Baldy, Pine Mountain and Sycamore Canyon areas of Arizona as part of the National Wilderness Preservation System.

Legislation to authorize the three new wildernesses was backed by Forest Service Chief Edward P. Cliff in testimony before the Senate public-lands subcommittee.

The proposed Pine Mountain wilderness was opposed by Brad Stewart, president of the Arizona Cattle Growers' Association, but there was no opposition to the other proposed wildernesses.

Stewart said Pine Mountain, an area used for grazing cattle, had nothing to recommend it from the viewpoint of scenic beauty or other features for inclusion in the wilderness system.

During questioning by Sens. Paul Fannin, R-Ariz., and Lon Jordan, R-Idaho, the Forest Service chief conceded wilderness status would prevent mechanized work in Sycamore Canyon to improve the water yield.

McCovey Cracks 2 Homers As National Loop Keeps Mastery Over American

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Powering Willie McCovey powered the thumping on in glowing American attention with a pair of long-drive homers Wednesday to power the National League to its seventh straight victory in the 40th annual All-Star game.

A crowd of 25,939 at Robert F. Kennedy stadium in Washington saw McCovey become only the fourth player in history to hit two homers in one All-Star game.

Johnny Bench, the 22-year-old catcher of the Cincinnati Reds, was the fifth man to leap at the seven-foot fence in the sixth inning to rob Bench of a two-run homer. Bench hit his first homer in his first at-bat in an All-Star game in the second inning to put the National League ahead 3-0.

The American League, which once led 12-1 in this series but now trails 12-17, got only six hits off six National League hitters finally cracked life

AL Doesn't See Pitching Change As Vital To Game

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It wouldn't have made much difference to the shell-shocked American League if the scheduled starting pitcher Denny McLain of the Detroit Tigers had shown up on time.

That's the opinion of Detroit manager Mayo Smith who happened to be manager of the A. L. squad that went down Wednesday for the seventh straight time, 9-3.

Billed as the starting pitcher, McLain failed to reach the stadium until about 10 minutes after the contest started by the time he arrived after a flying visit to his dentist in Detroit, the National League already had chalked up a one-run lead against Mel Stottlemyre and were on their way.

"I don't think the last night's change made any difference," Smith said in the post-game

T. F. Legion Raps Rupert In Finale

Twin Falls American Legion team wrapped up its regular season Wednesday night by rapping the Rupert Rangers 19-9 in a nine-inning test.

Both teams now await notification to the double elimination district tournament that will open at Burley Monday night.

Twin Falls zipped out to a 19-9 lead in the first four innings while pitchers John Geisler and Wayne Graham led the Rangers in check until the seventh.

Both teams were tied in the first when Rick Smith singled and rode in on Mike Chandler's triple. Will W. R. Wilson singled Chandler home.

In the third, Mike Erickson lived when his offfield fly ball was dropped and scored on Chandler's single. Rud Simpson hit in and Dave Traylor doubled. Geisler and Capps followed with hits to score two more.

The fourth inning was a nine-run job for Twin Falls with Jack Helfrecht starting it with a long double and then coming back to score two runs with a single. Rupert helped with three straight walks and a hit ball.

During that frame, Traylor singled in two. Steve McClain walked to force in a run, an other scored on an error and Erickson's hit plated another.

Rupert broke through in the seventh when Duane Mayer walked, moved up on an error and scored on Rick Runyon's single. John Baker's sacrifice fly scored the second run. Baker singled home the other Rupert run in the ninth.

Rupert: 203 runs 401 — 7. Finnell, Freeman (4), Fife (4) and Schulz, Geisler, Graham (6) and Traylor.

Ogden Sweeps Series Over Salt Lake

OGDEN (UPI) — The Ogden Dodgers swept a three-game series from the Salt Lake Bees Wednesday as they rolled to a 12-1 victory behind a 16-hit attack.

The Dodgers opened the scoring with a single run in the first inning and then added five more runs in the third, capped off by a two-run triple by catcher Jim Lefebvre.

Ogden added a single run in the fourth on a run-scoring single by Randy Bayer and got his eighth run in the fifth when Salt Lake pitcher Don Doherty hit Bob Randall and Leo Jacey with pitched balls, allowing a single to Donnie Harper and a hit to Randall when he uncorked a wild pitch to hit his third batter of the inning.

HOMERUN ROBBER Carl Yastrzemski of Boston and the American League all-stars reached over the fence to rob Johnny Bench of Cincinnati and the National League, as his second homer in the second inning and his third in the fifth to become one of five men to get two homers in one all-star game. The National League won 9-3. (UPI telephoto)

NL Takes Victory In Stride; McCovey Would Like HRs Added To Year's Total

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National League took their seventh straight All-Star victory Wednesday with all the say of a "super" homer by slugger Willie McCovey, the game's top hero with a pair of home runs.

McCovey, who had grounded out in the first inning, was 0-3 in All-Star competition until he lined Odum's 1-2 pitch off the scoreboard to make it 5-1.

After Ron Santo grounded out, Al Rosen, who collected a two-run homer in the third, and Bill Freehan in the third.

The Washington crowd, sprinkled with celebrities including pressmen and photographers, greeted the past attending the festivities for baseball's centennial celebration, got one of its few chances to cheer the "home" team when Howard the Washington Steamer slugger who has 34 homers this season, hit his homer.

Manager Howard had embarrased the home folks by miffing Hank Aaron's pop fly in the first inning to permit the first National run.

After Howard was hit by American League manager Mayo Smith for a pinch-runner after walking in the fourth, there wasn't much excitement in the last five innings when neither side scored.

McCovey, Bench and Felix Douderer gave the National League all the hitting it needed in the first four innings as they hit off six National League hitters finally cracked life

Eskimos Buy Working Pact With 49ers

EDMONTON (UPI) — The Edmonton Eskimos and the San Francisco 49ers have agreed to a two-year working pact.

The Eskimos general manager Norman Kimball said the deal "will insure a supply of top talent for the Eskimos for several years."

No San Francisco players were named in the agreement.

"We have agreed with San Francisco not to divulge precise details," Kimball said. "I can tell you that we are extremely satisfied with the deal. We feel this agreement will be a major step forward in establishing a price-or-method-which-will make robbing of CFL players by American teams prohibitive," he said.

"Edwards," 27, was brought to Canada by the Ottawa Roughriders in 1967 and acquired by the Eskimos in a trade. He has been the starting right offensive tackle since joining the team.

The 6-foot-7, 270-pound lineman was drafted to label the franchise immediately. Kimball said.

Wolman Puts Up Check In Effort To Regain Eagles

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Jerry Wolman would have to be approved by Wolman, the former owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, before the plan to regain control of the National Football League team, but it appears it will be several months before he will know if the team is his again.

Federal bankruptcy referee Joseph O. Kaiser accepted the check Tuesday and ordered it deposited in a local bank pending the outcome of an Aug. 25 hearing on Wolman's modified plan to regain control of the team from Leonhart Tice of Norrisstown, Pa., the conditional buyer.

Wolman sold the team in 1964 for more than $16 million in March but was given until Aug. 1 to come up with a plan for buying the team back.

The $500,000 check is to cover Wolman's remaining financial empire, which Kaiser has been supervising since December 1967.

Wolman submitted one plan to finance the repurchase through sale of shares in a public stock company, then modified the plan to allow the money to come from unidentified private interests.

Tice, contending the modified plan violated resale clause in the contract he had with Wolman, now refuses to sell the team to Wolman again.

Tice has asked the U.S. Dept. of Justice to continue to remove Kaiser from jurisdiction over the case, but Kaiser said such action would occur only after he files a written summary of the case and certifies a controversy exists.

He will not file the summary until after the hearing, he said. Kaiser also will decide at the hearing how Wolman's money will be split.

Ryun Starts Well, May Get Old Job

HIRAM, Ohio (UPI) — Frank Ryun, who lost his job as first string quarterback for the Cleveland Browns to Bill Nelson last year, may be on his way to a comeback.

The Browns worked on passing at their Hiram College training camp Tuesday afternoon and Coach Blanton Collier had high praise for the work of the lanky Tuckey.

"I haven't seen him throwing the ball that well since 1964," Collier said. "The last year was the Browns captured the National Football League title was in 1964."

The Browns' coach said he was also very pleased with the work of Gary Collins, the wide receiver who sat out most of last year with a shoulder separation.

"I looks like he's ready to go," Collier said.

Veteran defensive halfback Erich Barnes revised the camp he will report Wednesday. Barnes was delayed in New York City by a crisis in his off season business. He said he wanted to get it out of the way so that he could concentrate on football.

Barnes' arrival will bring the Browns up to full complement, except for unsigned rookies Ron Johnson and Al Jenkins.

Morton Looks Sharp In New Passing Role

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (UPI)—Vic Morton, the veteran quarterback expected by the Dallas Cowboys to take the place of retired Don Meredith, looked sharp Wednesday in summer training drills.

Coach Tom Landry said Morton was throwing better than any day since he reported to camp and was hitting the short and deep passes very well.

The Cowboys went through practices consisting of timing and passing drills. Dallas does not have any scrimmages scheduled for the next week.

Three rookies left the Cowboys' training camp Wednesday. They did not give their names.

They were guard Stuart Goltz, a 300-pound draft pick from Weber State; tackle Fred Lutz, a 270-pounder from Northern Michigan; and defensive tackle Bill Bailey, a 170-pound choice from Lewis & Clark.

Trio Hopes To Maintain Hold On American Classic Top Spot

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, Al Geiberger and Jay Hebert share a special fondness for Firestone Country Club.

They've won six of the nine tournaments held at the par 70, 17,800 yard layout since 1960.

The three, along with many others of the top names in golf, are lined up and ready for the $125,000 American Golf Classic which began its four-day run Thursday. Top prize is worth $25,000.

Jack Nicklaus defends his title against a blue-ribbon field which also includes reigning U.S. Open and Masters champion Orville Moody and George Archer, three-time 1969 tour winner Dave Hill, Gene Littler, Lee Trevino, Julius Boros, host pro Bobby Nichols, Bob Galt, Gary Brewer and Australia's Bruce Crampton.

Palmer leads the way with identical four-over-20 finishes in winning the Classic in 1962 and 1967.

Hebert took the PGA title in 1969 and came back in 1991 to lead the Classic at 198.

Geiberger captured the ACC in 1968 and 1969.

Jets' Guard Has Muscle Pull

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (UPI)—Randy Rasmussen, the likely successor to retired guard Bob Talamini, signed his 1969 contract Tuesday with the New York Jets and promptly was sidelined with a slight muscle pull in the left leg.

Two other Jets also suffered slight injuries that probably will keep them out of action for some time.

Wide receiver Steve O'Neal, who was injured in a game last week, is expected to return to the team from 1968 before being picked up by Cincinnati in the expansion draft last year.

Earl Christy, a punt and kickoff return specialist with three years of professional experience, was cut from the Jets' squad.

Chris Gilbert, a halfback from the University of Texas whom the Jets drafted fifth last year, signed Tuesday with the Fort Worth Bravos of the Texas Football League.

Gilbert said the Bravos offered him a better contract.

Petrone Sets U.S. Mark For Two Miles

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Frenchie Petrone raced to a new American record for two miles on the turf Wednesday.

Petrone captured the title in a running of the $106,450 Sunset Handicap which brought the Hollywood-Park crowd to a club.

Under a careful ride by jockey John Sellers, Petrone ran down the pace-setting Off in 1:09 1/2, a half-mile after the leader had opened up an advantage of eight lengths.

Petrone shot to the front coming into the stretch and easily pulled away to win by 3 1/2 lengths.

Petrone was timed in 3:18 to break the American record of 3:25 2/5 set by Penaway in 1953 at Arlington Park. It also bettered the dirt course mark of 3:14 1/2 set by Koles in 1951 for a North American record.

Petrone, with his victory in the Sunset, scored his second major U.S. turf win. Last winter he captured the $125,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap at Santa Anita for his first American victory.

The closing-day crowd of some 35,000 installed Petrone a 2-1 favorite and he returned $40, $20 and $20. Society II paid $5.20 and $4.20 while Off returned $5-40.

The speedy Off went to the track at the field house from the gate down the hold chute by the time the horses turned into the main portion of the grass course. Off had opened up a 12-15 lead over Koles in 1951.

Petrone came out of the gate slowly and was not rushed by Sellers with his top impost of $40, $20 and $20.

Petrone slowly worked his way through the field.

It was not until the horses had gone around the infield course the first time and were stretched into the back stretch that Petrone started moving up on the leader and by the time the field hit the half-mile pole he was in second position but

Knee Surgery Keeps Ladd Out For Year

LIBERTY, Mo. (UPI)—Ernie Ladd, the Kansas City Chiefs' giant 6-9, 290-pound defensive tackle, will miss the 1969 football season, head coach Hank Stram announced Wednesday.

Ladd underwent surgery on his left knee early in the year, and Stram said he and Ladd decided it would be best not to risk additional injury to the knee.

Ladd had reported to the Chiefs' training camp only to be told he had no permission to be late due to a wrestling commitment on the east coast.

Stram said "Ernie" underwent surgery on his left knee in January with the hope that it would be completely well by the time we originated our practice sessions."

"He worked on the knee very religiously since the operation but it hasn't responded as well as we had hoped."

"As a result," Stram said, "we mutually agreed that I would be best for Ernie and the Kansas City Chiefs if he were to miss up the 1969 season so that he can devote full time and attention to getting himself physically prepared for 1970."

Cards Send Lee To Bears For Gentry

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—The St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday announced the acquisition of defensive cornerback Curtis Gentry of the Chicago Bears.

Both men at one time were 17th-round draft choices. Gentry was drafted by the Cardinals in 1967.

Lee, a draftee last year was active for the first few games, but did not catch a pass and was on the reserve squad the rest of the season.

Gentry's acquisition is expected to strengthen the Cardinals at the defensive corners where starter Bob Atkins, one of last year's starters is on active duty with the Cardinals.

Other players on the roster who have been released to training camp and a third potential cornerback, Gerald "Cooter" Bobby Lee, a member of the college all-star squad and will not report until August 2.

Napoles Ready To Defend Title

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—World welterweight champion Jose Napoles will defend his boxing title Sept. 26 in Los Angeles against either Ernie Lopez or Emilio Griffith, Napoles' manager announced Wednesday.

Napoles, a native of Cuba, will be fighting out of Mexico City, which is $100 for the bout, manager Cuen Conde said.

Arrangements were made with Los Angeles fight promoter George Parnassus, who will arrive in Mexico Monday to complete arrangements.

Napoles resumed training Wednesday, and will go to Los Angeles Aug. 22, his manager said.

Rose To Meet Olivares In Title Match

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—World bantamweight champion Lionel Rose of Australia and Mexico's Ruben Olivares, No. 1 contender, today signed to meet in a 15-round fight for the title at the Forum Aug. 22.

Rose, a 21-year-old Aborigine from Melbourne, will receive a record $100,000 purse from promoter George Parnassus. This is the largest sum ever paid to a bantamweight champion.

Olivares, unbeaten in 51 victories and a record of 50 wins, is scheduled to earn $20,000.

Rose will be making the fourth defense of the title he won from Japan's Fighting Harada Feb. 27, 1968. He has defended his crown against Takao Satural, Chicho Castillo and Allan Rudkin.

Olivares has 49 knockouts in his 50 wins.

The fight will be shown "live" to Mexico City and Australia, according to Parnassus.

Winkler To Be Shifted To Center

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—Francis (Hubba) Winkler proved to be a handy man to have on the bench for the Green Bay Packers last year when they had injury problems in their defensive line and kicking position.

Winkler, a 6-foot-5, 250-pound former Memphis State lineman, shifted from his offensive line position to fill the gap on defense and also handled some of the Packers' kicking chores.

Things are different this year, however, with an abundance of defensive linemen and the presence of kicker Mike Mercer in camp. So, Winkler is learning a new position—offensive center.

Winkler said after a recent workout, "I've always liked being in a game more," he said, "I'll let you know better about it after the Intra-Squad game—whether I'm back on the bench or not. It's a long way from an offensive lineman to a center."

Winkler is the Packers' regular center and Winkler currently is a playing right behind him.

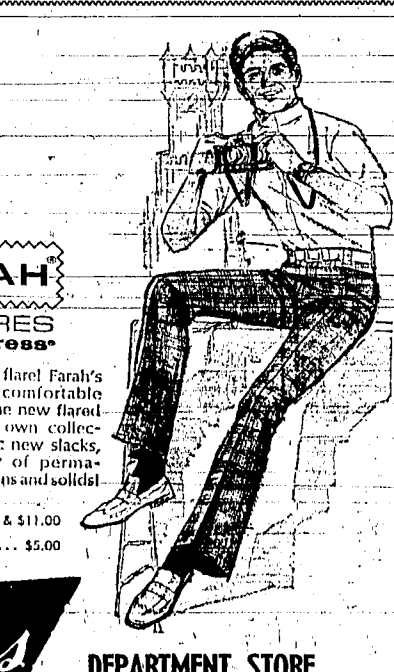

His shift was dictated by circumstances in the Green Bay offensive line and the shifting of Bob Hyland from a backup man for Bowman to offensive guard.

It was the first time Winkler had played center since his high school days when he played that position for one year.

Traffic Safety Activity Pushed

Tom Griggs, city engineering department, will attend a short course on "Statistical Methods of Traffic Studies" July 30-31 at Boise.

Jean Miller, city engineer, said he had appointed Mr. Griggs to attend the session because he has been concerned with the design of the traffic accident map for the police department. The course is being sponsored by the University of Idaho.

The Idaho Traffic Safety Co-ordination Association will hold a statewide meeting Aug. 13 in Boise. Mr. Miller said the purpose of this session is to encourage every city in the state to set a traffic safety coordinator.

Mr. Miller said Twin Falls has been considering this, but no definite action has been taken. He said, however, it would mean the city would hire a person for this position, but the city would be assigned to an individual already employed by the city.

Mr. Miller said a representative from his department will attend this meeting which will be conducted by Herb Mayer, Boise city traffic engineer.

The highway classification meeting has been scheduled for Aug. 12 at the Holiday Inn. Mr. Miller said the State Highway Department officials will meet with representatives from Burley, Rupert and Gooding during the morning and with Twin Falls and Jerome in the afternoon.

No Applause

BERKELEY (UPI)—The Berkeley Board of Education has refused to approve a resolution praising America's moon-walking astronauts.

The vote was a 2-1-2 standoff on a resolution to congratulate "all astronauts, scientists, engineers, staff and family" for the success of Apollo 11.

The negative votes came from the Rev. Hazard W. Williams and Mark Monheimer. Monheimer said, "Higher priorities in the United States program exist, and he could not support 'spending several billions on the Apollo project.'"

Scout Camp Bradley Given Perfect Rating

Camp Bradley, the summer camp for the Snake River Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, recently received its sixth consecutive "A" rating from the national inspection team of the Boy Scouts of America.

The rating system consists of an inspection covering 100 points. Sixty-eight of the points are required items with the balance being suggested items. A minimum of 91 points, with all the required items qualified, is needed for an "A" rating.

Camp Bradley scored its first 100 for the 1968 inspection.

"This is the first camp in Region 11, B.S.A., covering Oregon, Idaho, Washington, Alaska and Western Montana, to ever score 100 'per cent' and one of only a dozen or so in the nation to do so," according to Dan Gleed, scout executive.

"Needless to say we are pleased at this accomplishment. Our camp staff, under the direction of Alan Hutchison as camp director, has performed extremely well this summer. Much of the credit for this record can be attributed to the improvements and additions made at Camp Bradley from funds secured through the recent camp development franchise campaign," he said.

"During the past two years a great deal of camp development has been made from funds available as a result of the success of this campaign."

The Snake River Area Council rates second among all Boy Scout councils in its summer program. Camp Bradley serves as the center of one of the finest and most diversified summer camp programs in America.

From this location originate the council's famous "White Water" trips down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River; the Mac-I-Shu Trail, a 60-mile-plus backpacking trip into the Idaho Primitive Area; Dan Beard Rangers, a special boy leader training course in Scouting; Aquatic Camp, a special week-long camp specializing in swimming, lifesaving, boating, canoeing and physical fitness; and the regular Camp Bradley camping season.

More than 2,000 Scouts will participate in the Snake River Area Council's summer activities program.

After their visit to Puerto Rico, the Uriguen's will travel to Spain for a three-week stay.

Planning Started For Scout Cabaret

George Forschler, president of Ponderosa Inn, Inc., has been named chairman of the Snake River Area Council's Boy Scouts of America's 1969 Cabaret International. The announcement was made by Dr. Paul Heuston, president of the Snake River Area Council.

The Cabaret International is an annual social event in Magic Valley featuring outstanding entertainment and food. Socially, nationally famous entertainers and personalities provide the program.

Plans are well under way for this year's cabaret," according to Dr. Heuston, "with proceeds from the $100 per couple affair going to support the many facets of the council's program."

The cabaret is scheduled for Aug. 23, the new convention center at the Ponderosa Inn.

The Snake River Area Council is one of the top Boy Scout councils in America. It ranks in the top 10 in percentage of boys served and number two in the nation in its outdoor program. It has received recognition from the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Forest Service for its work in the field of conservation.

"We are particularly proud of the fact that our costs for council operation are well below the average for Boy Scout councils," Dr. Heuston said.

"A top ranked program for a high percentage of boys at a below normal cost is something we can be justly proud of. It is only possible through the continued efforts of many people giving their time and money in support of our this vitally important program."

Highlights of the Boys Nation program will come when the youths meet with the senators and congressmen of their respective states and members of the President's Cabinet, tour the White House, national shrines and area military installations.

Kennedy Returns To State Office

BOISE (UPI)—Idaho's controversial chief state meat inspector, Dr. C. H. Kennedy of Meridian, is back at his desk in the Department of Agriculture again.

Agriculture Commissioner Stanley J. Trenhille recently suspended Kennedy for seven days for unauthorized attendance at a state veterinarians' convention in Coeur d'Alene.

He said he had refused Kennedy's request to attend the meeting on grounds there was nothing on the program pertaining to meat inspection.

In April 1967, Trenhille fired Kennedy but the meat inspector later won reinstatement with full back pay after a battle through the personnel commission and Fourth District Court.
