LORENZO CABRERA

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of three articles on the migrant workers engaged in farm activities in Twin Falls and the Magic Valley. The series is authored by Randall Morgan, Hanson educator, former Peace Corps member, and several-time visitor to Mexico. The interviews with Mr. Morgan were in Spanish. This series is exclusive with the Times-News and will give an insight into the life and thoughts of these people.)

By RANDALL MORGAN
Lorenzo Cabrera, his wife, and children live in two barracks rooms at the Twin Falls Labor Center. They do not have electricity, but the bathroom and showers are down the street, and although the coal range is a comfort in the fall, in midsummer's heat it is best to get along without it. Despite its spartan aspects, the Cabrera home is cheerful and spotlessly clean, and the rent is right: eight dollars a week.

do most of the talking, but was quick to add her own observations to what he said. The Cabreras were born in Texas and are American citizens, but they speak almost no English. During the winter they live at El Mirador outside El Paso.
Q: "When you came to Twin Falls, do you always work for the same man?"
C: "We work two or three days for one farmer, then we work for another when that work is finished. There are weeks when we're left idle a day or two. Six or eight in my family."
Q: "Then the whole family works with you?"
C: "No, only six. There are twelve in my family."
Q: "At what age do the children start working in the field with you?"
C: "At fourteen. That's regulated by law."
Q: "Are you treated as well here as you are treated in Arizona?"
C: "The people in Arizona are very kind, very warm. The community where we live is one in which everyone takes care of each other. We have something to discuss our problems and difficulties, and we see that things get done."
Q: "How is it here in Twin Falls?"
C: "It's different. For instance, this is the first time that I have ever heard anything like what you're doing here today. This is the first time anyone has asked for our point of view."
Q: "Do the people of Twin Falls disregard the migrant workers that come here in the summer?"
C: "Not necessarily. In this state we have never experienced any feeling of being looked down upon. In other states yes, but never here. Wherever I go here with my wife and children, we are always treated very well."
Q: "Then you have never noticed any prejudice here?"
C: "No. We never have. Perhaps some people have, but I don't think anyone in this camp has experienced prejudice."
Q: "Are the farmers in this area good people to work for?"
C: "Yes. When we are called out to work, first we discuss the amount we are to be paid, then the farmer will leave us alone to do the work. He doesn't interfere. If he doesn't like the work you do for him, he doesn't just run you off. He tells you very diplomatically. Almost everyone here is like that."
Q: "Are the conditions as good in Texas and in Arizona as they are here?"
C: "It's the same in Arizona, but not in Texas. That's why I left Texas."
Q: "Do you think your sons will want to go to field work when they grow up?"
C: "Yes. I hope they will. See MIGRANTS, Pg. 2, Col. 1

Planning Agency Pondered

Twin Falls County Commissioners and city council members respectively attorneys to draw up an agreement for a regional planning commission.

The action was taken during a meeting at the city hall with Charles Finkelstein, San Francisco, a representative from Housing and Urban Development. Mr. Finkelstein made the trip to Twin Falls to explain the procedure in organizing such a planning commission.

The county commissioners have directed a planning commission which has been involved in compiling statistics on county roads, highways, water, potential recreation areas, jobs, etc., for the past two years. Joe LaValle, county zoning administrator, said these figures and statistics are now in order and available at his office.

"You are at the point where everyone in the county should be involved," Mr. Finkelstein said. He said it appeared the county officials have done a good job in gathering the basic information for the same purpose.

The HUD representative explained that about six years ago Congress decided some of the federal agencies were granting funds to cities for sewer installations (for instance) when similar grants were being made to metropolitan cities for the same purpose. They decided if the areas formed planning commissions efforts could be coordinated and money used in a long run. He recently the City of Twin Falls applied to HUD for open space funds to develop Dierke's park and other areas. The funding was delayed because the area lacks a regional planning commission.

 Q: "Some day will you buy your own land?"
 Q: "That would be good, but it's not a lottery or something, but as it is, it's just not possible. The only way I could buy land would be to make a special application to see that our sons gets a very good education. Then he could get a big, beautiful job and help me out. But we can't do that. I just don't see one thing we need something else. There's always a sickness in the family or something like that. And with a family as large as mine."

 Q: "How old is your eldest?"
 C: "My boy is twenty-one."
 Q: "Did he finish high school?"
 C: "No, he only went to the sixth grade. So far all of my children have been able to go to the sixth grade because we need them to work. We're all working now so that the girls can stay in school and help."
 Q: "Mrs. Cabrera, would your life be better if you didn't have to go on the circuit each year?"
 Mrs. C: "Of course, it would be much better. It's wonderful to have a job after year, something that didn't force you to move all the time. But there just aren't any jobs like that. When there's no work in Arizona, we have to take the children out of school and support them. Nobody likes it that way, but that's the way it is."

Gooding Man Is Named To Training Job

K. C. Bumpgartner, Gooding, has been named on the Job Training director for the eight-county area. It was announced this week.

The selection was made by the state Office of Economic Opportunity, Boise, after applications were received locally and a recommendation was made. Mr. Bumpgartner owns a service station in Gooding and is state vice president of the Future Business Leaders. He has served in the U.S. Army and was graduated from Boise Junior College.

Larry Mack, director of the South Central Community Action Agency, said 18 applications were received for the position. He said Mr. Bumpgartner was selected for his business knowledge and leadership qualities. He will operate out of the SCCAA office in Twin Falls.

The OJT program was previously administered out of the Boise office, but the operation was changed to get a director for local areas. His purpose will be to seek jobs and training for unemployed or underemployed persons.

Talented Buhl Girl Gains Nod As Airline Stewardess

BUHL — Betty Lou Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Benson, Route 4, Buhl, has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess and the top honor of her class at the American Airlines Stewardess College, Fort Worth, Texas.

The "junior birdman" doll with which she is pictured represents the special distinction awarded her by vote of her classmates in the college's 21st stewardess class of the year.

It signifies that Miss Benson, who has now been assigned to flight duty out of Chicago, has what fellow students believed to be the best qualities of an ideal stewardess.

She was a member of the class which named comedienne, Phyllis Diller, the "Patron Saint of the Styling and Grooming Department" of the college.

A native of Wendell, Miss Benson is a 1968 graduate of Buhl High School and a 1966 graduate of the University of Idaho, Moscow. In college, she was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is 5 feet 5 inches tall with blonde hair and blue eyes.

Miss Benson studied more than 100 different subjects during her six weeks' training at American's Stewardess College. Subjects ranged from make-up and grooming to flight, food service and theory of flight.

Other Frontier

While the Apollo space program has been reaping headlines, American exploration has been moving quietly forward in another realm largely unknown to man.

At $470 million. In addition to 20 U.S. agencies, undersea ventures are being conducted by states, universities, foundations and private companies.

Greater fishing harvests are one potential dividend from more knowledge of the seas. But there are also hopes of growing food there, multiplying reserves of oil and gas.

The federal cost of oceanographic research is, in comparison with the space program, relatively low. Outlays in the Federal Marine Science Program last year were estimated premium grades are far higher than some cars require. Standards can vary from station to station and from brand to brand.

Gasoline

Having ordered truth in lending, the federal government is now considering a rule requiring candor at gasoline station pumps.

Accordingly, the FTC has called a hearing for October on its proposal to make oil retailers post conspicuously the octane rating of the gasoline being sold.

Once a motorist familiarizes himself with his own car's needs, this sensible move will allow him to judge for himself which grade to buy, no matter which station he visits.

So next time you feel down in the dumps, just remember the sunflower. Always looking toward the sun and always finding it.

With that bit of logic Mr. Spectator, slightly stiles away for the sunlit lagoon because, like you said, the sun shines every day.

WASHINGTON—One reason why President Nixon's 500-kg. anti-ballistic missile managed to squeak through the Senate Thursday may have been the reluctance to compromise by Sen. Philip Hart of Michigan, leader of Democratic anti-ABM forces.

The question of compromise was at the core of the three-room struggle waged last week for the support of Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, one of the Senate's most respected Democratic elders.

There was talk in strategy conferences about liberals' trying to woo Anderson, chairman of the Senate Space Committee, by promising support of future space appropriations. But anti-ABM Republicans, seeking a way for themselves and their President to escape embarrassment, proposed a more practical route for Anderson—a device—a new compromise.

That would have meant letting Anderson rewrite the amendment to the military authorization bill, co-sponsored by Democrat Hart and Republican John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, barring ABM deployment.

But Hart resisted, insisting that the bill's compromise would be worse than losing the fight. Irritated, Republicans felt Hart's office staff feared that the Cooper-Hart amendment might be transformed into the Cooper-Anderson amendment.

Moreover, the anti-ABM camp felt Cooper, assigned to negotiate with Anderson for his stipulation allowance, the oil industry now is also running into difficulty over oil imports from an unexpected source: Secretary of the Interior Walter Hickel.

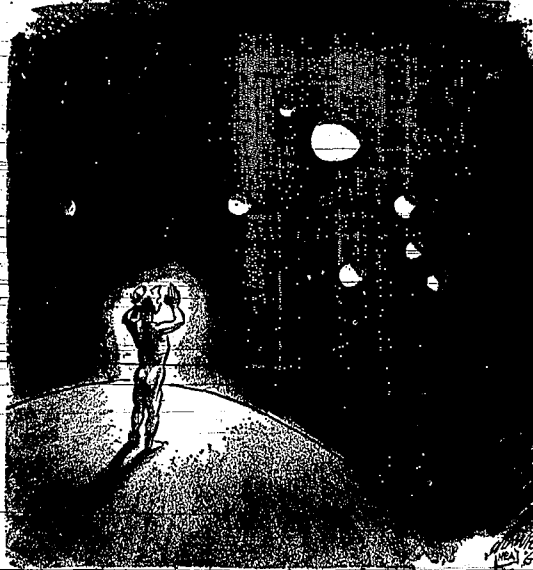

With a background in Alaska oil and gas, Hickel was regarded by oil lobbyists here as an ally in the internal debate over stipulation allowance. The oil industry now is also running into difficulty over oil imports from an unexpected source: Secretary of the Interior Walter Hickel.

Hickel believes it can compete. In fact, the first draft of the Interior Department's report to the Sultz committee expressed the view that U.S. oil production would stay at 85 per cent of the present level even if foreign imports forced the present price of oil—a barrel—down to $2—refuting the oil industry's claims that imports would curtail a domestic production.

"Hello? Hello?"

ANDREW TULLY

Poor, Old New York City

WASHINGTON— I really don't know what we're going to do with New York City. In any other country, or area, it would be ruled uninhabitable and forthwith condemned, and its hurried, fearful citizens moved to Oshkosh, or Elko, Nevada.

But since its people continue to insist on living there, perhaps they represent a potential, major contribution to science. They are, of course, a different breed from other Americans, bless their tough, long-suffering hides, and the thought occurs that they might be the precursors of a species of super human being.

With that thought in mind, I suggest that it behooves President Nixon to take time off from Rumania and dispatch a passport of New Yorkers to the Mayo brothers' medical center in Rochester, Minn., for a series of exhaustive tests. It would be exciting if the good doctor should discover that the ordeal of existing in that curious city has produced a race of men and women which eventually could populate the maintained military base in 2,600 different places outside our own country.

We still maintain 2,200 bases abroad. But that means we have shut down 200 others we are quietly phasing out many others.

There was a time when U.S. military installations—abroad—enforced our allies. Incumbent governments felt that American guns were protecting them against attack from outside and overhead from within.

At the same time, these host governments profited handsomely from the American dollars spent on and by the almost 2 million American and dependents stationed abroad.

But what profited them drained the U.S. Treasury. Further, with the advent of improved intercontinental missiles and supersonic bombers, it became less important to maintain U.S. troops around the globe. Now it is just as practical to deliver destruction from a distance.

So while we have been closing 300 overseas bases, here at home we have been building or reactivating additional bomber bases. Presently, our strategic aircraft are based at 27 places in the United States; here they will be spread over 50 bases.

Quietly, without fanfare, our military aircrews have been trained to a world that is, at body knows how, to collect garbage, remove snow, unsmelt traffic, run the subway or protect the subway from rapists, murderers and mug-

For months, Anderson had been considered an ABM supporter. About one week before the vote, however, Anderson mentioned in a private discussion to anti-ABM Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota that he was deeply concerned over the prospect of adopting a major new weapons system by so many a might-recovery scheduled this intelligence to the bipartisan anti-ABM bloc, who correctly pinpointed Anderson as the difference between victory and defeat.

That would have meant letting Anderson rewrite the amendment to the military authorization bill, co-sponsored by Democrat Hart and Republican John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, barring ABM deployment.

But Hart resisted, insisting that the bill's compromise would be worse than losing the fight. Irritated, Republicans felt Hart's office staff feared that the Cooper-Hart amendment might be transformed into the Cooper-Anderson amendment.

Lindsay obviously has reached the same conclusion that New York City is not ready for self-government. He seeks, as it were, to have the city made a ward of Washington, a not irrational proposal.

But once President Nixon has installed Atty. Gen. John Mitchell as a gavel-wielder of that implausible metropolis, Congress should pass a law and appropriate the money for a comprehensive and long-range head-shrinking of the special New Yorker. For the sake of our children and our children's children, it is imperative that we find out whether New Yorkers are a superbreed or merely represent a monumental case of masochism.

What A Lesson

peace in a country no larger than the state of Illinois, has already been closed.

In Japan we have agreed to release, "relocate" or "convert" about 50,000 American installations.

In Spain where we built three big air bases, we are putting one in mid-Madrid.

On July 9, President Nixon ordered a 10 per cent reduction in the strength of certain U.S. military forces overseas.

Esophagitis

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you please give the treatment for esophagitis?—V.A.

The treatment is essentially the same as that for peptic esophagitis. Inflammation of the esophagus, or gullet, which empties into the stomach.

The inflamed tissues need to be protected from irritation. Therefore alcohol and highly-seasoned or spicy foods should be avoided. I also recommend not smoking. In any instance, the benefits may be indirect but I think are real.

Esophagitis may result from a back-splash of stomach contents, an atonic acid if the patient has a hiatal hernia. Or there may be an ulcer of the gullet. Or it can occur, and very severely from swallowing caustic materials whether by accident or in a suicidal attempt.

A word of warning: X-ray of the esophagus may reveal a narrowing. It is essential to determine whether the problem is really in the esophagus or in the stomach.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please help me. I have varicose veins. I also have eczema around my ankles. I have been to three doctors and been told to just shrug it off. If they had this itchy stuff they wouldn't.

I have received no help. What must be done? What can I do to get rid of it and relieve the itching? I am 56. — Mrs. C.H.W.

What you are sure you're not just "doctored hopping," hope that somebody will give you some sense and solve everything.

My guess is that the doctors instead of talking about the varicose veins, and all you wanted to talk about was the itch. Am I right?

Varicose veins can interfere with circulation enough to cause skin eruptions (eczema) and itching and to prevent ulcers from healing if any start.

If you have the varicose vein problem corrected, there is reason to think that your itchy ankles may stop bothering you.

Dear Doctor: I am 55, five-foot-two, weigh 120 pounds, a gain of 12 over the past year. I had my blood checked and have been for 15 days with a weight loss of only five pounds.

Weight loss, if any, is very desirable. It is a good thing to give me any answer to this? — Mrs. D.B.

If you mean can I explain how you are discouraged, the answer is yes, I can explain a year to gain 12 pounds; why expect to shed it far faster than you gained it? Stay with your diet. Weight loss takes time.

use for years, controlling diabetes, safely. You've confused tolbutamide with thalidomide, which is a totally different drug. It was used in Germany (and elsewhere to some extent) not to prevent pregnancy, but as a sedative.

Then it was found that, when prescribed for use to help from pregnancy, it caused a frightful number of serious birth defects — babies born without arms and legs, and other such horrors.

So thalidomide, not tolbutamide, was withdrawn from use.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Please send your booklet, "Lost Secrets of Reducing." I enclose 35 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. I have attended a reducing club in our area. Would you value your opinion of such clubs? — Mrs. D.

From observing the results of such clubs, I have only praise for them, although I make the reservation that they should operate on sound principles of reducing and not rely on drugs or "crash diets."

There are some clubs that are banded into nationwide organizations and have produced excellent results. Not for every body, but for a great many.

The point, perhaps, is that some people expect the club to do it all for them. It won't, nor will any method of reducing. You've got to put some sincere effort into it yourself.

One of the strongest aspects of the club is the psychological factor: not struggling alone, but knowing that others are with you. There's also the element of knowing that, if it does succeed, so can you.

Although "lost secrets" is fairly new, I've already had some gratifying letters from people in such clubs, saying that the booklet has been helpful to them and fits in well with sound club programs. Yes, I favor such clubs.

Never take a chance on diabetes or the untold horrors of this disease, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of this newspaper for a copy of the booklet, "Hidden Treasures of Reducing." Please enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Because of the tremendous volume of mail received daily, Dr. Thosteson regrets that he cannot answer individual letters; whenever possible he uses readers' questions in his column.

Navy Destroyer Is Home For Local Youth In Far Pacific

The son of a Twin Falls couple is serving aboard the USS Cochran, now operating with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Stampan Robert Whitekiend, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Whitekiend, 640 Filer Ave. W., was graduated from Twin Falls High School in 1967 and joined the Navy last August. He reported aboard the Cochran, a guided missile destroyer in November, for his first cruise in the Western Pacific.

The Cochran is among a small, scrappy fleet of ships — Navy destroyers — which is adding new episodes to the saga it began in World War I.

Radar-picket destroyers maintain a coastal blockade along South Vietnam's coast to intercept Communist supplies bound for the country by sea. During 1968, U.S. ships searched an estimated half million watercraft and seized those which were peddling supplies to the enemy.

At the same time, other destroyers provide gunfire support for allied troops ashore. Making high-speed runs, these shallow-draft ships dart in and out along the coast, firing on targets up to 13 miles inland. Last year, the Navy unleashed more than a million rounds at some 15,000 targets in both North and South Vietnam, much of the firepower coming from the armada of destroyers.

Before the November, 1968, bombing in a 14-destroyer operation, Sea Dragons completely stopped Communist sea-barge traffic trying to move south in the shadow of North Vietnam's rugged coast.

They also trained the guns on North Vietnamese artillery sites, railheads and war industries until the bombing halted.

Unlike their World War I counterparts, modern-day destroyers have a missile and rocket firing capability to increase their fire power. These sophisticated weapons are ready as a deterrent against enemy submarine or air attack on our sea-going forces.

With their advanced aircraft carriers, destroyers run interference by placing themselves "in harm's way" between the enemy and the carriers. They carry inch anti-aircraft batteries or surface to air missiles on the DD's provide an umbrella for the carriers in case of air attack.

Destroyers take on life-guard and plane guard roles, too. During each launching and recovery of planes aboard a carrier, a destroyer follows in her wake to rescue any pilots or ship's personnel who might find themselves suddenly in the ocean during these hazardous evolutions.

Search-and-rescue operations are another job destroyers handle. Alerted that a plane is having trouble, the destroyers race to the rescue.

Vietnam is not the only place in the Western Pacific where Navy destroyers are on the job. They patrol the Straits of Taiwan between Formosa and the Communist mainland and operate periodically with Republic of Korea naval units and other SEATO member nations.

While guarding the Pacific approaches to the U.S., First Fleet destroyers gain the experience for upcoming Western Pacific deployments.

Destroyers earned much of their reputation during the two world wars as killers of enemy submarines. Today their anti-submarine warfare capabilities are even more formidable.

Since their World War I debut, the destroyers' 65-year heritage has been one of efficiency, dedication and hard work. They're continuing these traditions today in the vastness of the Pacific.

Officials Send Poetic Answer To Town's Gripe

DUNTON CUM DOUGHTON, England—(UPI)—The nearest telephone is three miles from the village of 40 persons and Town Councilor Leslie Garnham-Fisher recently complained to General Post Office officials of the fact in verse, to attract attention.

A GPO official replied: "Dunton patch is far away 'From habitation bright and gay."

"It will have a careful look 'To see if incomes that, we took 'Would be enough to pay the way."

"From April to the following May."

Naval Reserve Exams Set For Later In Year

Vice Admiral Charles K. Dunton, chief of naval personnel, has announced the 24th annual national competitive examination for the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) will be given Dec. 13.

The regular NROTC program prepares a young man for Navy or Marine Corps commission while he is studying at one of the many civilian colleges and universities where NROTC units are established. All tuition, fees, uniforms and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives $50 per month subsistence allowance for not more than four years. During the summers between academic years, the student participates in interesting at-sea training periods as a midshipman. After completing a baccalaureate level college course and meeting other requirements, he is commissioned in the regular Navy or Marine Corps.

Firemen Called Three Times In Tuesday Blazes

Twin Falls firemen were busy Tuesday afternoon, answering three calls in a two-hour period. None of the alarms was serious, officials reported.

The first was at 4 p.m. to the Wagner Truck parking area at 410 Locust St. N.

Dry grass, believed to be started on fire by children playing with matches, burned near several trailers.

An antique wagon on property owned by Sterling Larson was slightly damaged. There was some damage to livestock trailers in the area, also, it was reported.

At 4:45 p.m., firemen went to the home of Mrs. Hazel Neff, 331 Martin St., where straw was burning near a shed. The straw was destroyed but the shed was saved.

And at 6:45 p.m., firemen went to the Tempo store parking lot where there was a fire in the rear seat of a parked and locked automobile. Damage was minor. The car's owner is not known.

Green Beret Men May Not Face Charges

SAIGON (UPI)—The Army has temporarily suspended its investigation of murder charges against eight Special Forces (Green Beret) officers, a civilian lawyer for one of the accused said today.

Attorney George Gregory, 311 of Cheraw, S.C., conferred for three hours today with his client, Maj. Thomas E. Middleton of Jefferson, S.C., at Long Binh military stockade, 15 miles north of Saigon.

"I suppose this suspension is to work out the attorney thing," Gregory said. "I don't know how long the suspension will be for, but the pre-trial investigation is about half finished."

The investigation is to determine whether the Army will hold a general court martial or special court martial or dismiss the case, Gregory said.

Middleton and seven other Green Beret officers, including the former commander of the U.S. 5th Special Forces group, Col. Robert B. Rehart, are held on investigation of planning and carrying out the murder of a Vietnamese civilian last June 20.

Gregory said Monday the slain man was a double agent, working as a spy for both the Communists and the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

Mt. Rushmore Can't Take Any More

WASHINGTON (UPI)—George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson and Theodore Roosevelt, Mt. Rushmore in South Dakota, are not likely to be getting any company.

Not even the faces of our monolith conquerors.

Or so at least, reports the National Geographic Society.

Through the years, the National Park Service has received hundreds of suggestions to add figures next to the giant sculptures of the four Presidents. A recent request proposed the late General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Firemen Called Three Times In Tuesday Blazes

"All the granite suitable for carving, a colossal head has been used in the present design," according to Lincoln Borglum, whose late father, Gutzon Borglum, carved the masterpiece. It took him 13 years.

The Mount Rushmore sculptures—the faces 60 feet high—have been called the "most colossal, ever created by man and are visible for 60 miles. Lincoln's nose alone is longer than the entire face of Egypt's Sphinx.

Idaho Land Board Tackles Dispute On Cabin Leasing

BOISE (UPI) — The State of Idaho may get a "free" $8 million bridge across the north fork of the Clearwater River in the Dyrtrahak Dam area, but caution was the word Tuesday when the proposal came up at a State Land Board meeting.

Robson said, "We should negotiate on this."

The Army Corps of Engineers asked the board for assurance that if it builds the Granada Bridge that the state will guarantee building and maintaining both the bridge and the road.

The board also delivered once again into the sticky problem of whether Idahoans should be given preference on leasing of cabin sites over wealthy out-of-staters who bid up the prices.

Budget Position Shifted

BOISE (UPI) — The post of Idaho budget director has been removed from the status of employment within the state merit system and apparently will remain a political post, it was learned Tuesday.

State Personnel Director Bill Peterson confirmed that the job, which has been advertised through the personnel commission, will be filled through the offices of Gov. Don Samuelson instead.

Earlier this month the governor issued an executive order which made the budget division a part of the Department of Administrative Services under the direction of State Administrative Services Director Gen. Edward Sawyer.

The board also approved the transfer of $9,000 from the five emergency fund to the first Lake Timber Protective Association to allow it to continue operating through calendar year 1970.

The association had assessed 18 cents per acre for fire protection costs and then ran out of money.

Approved assignment of state lease for operation of Park Hotel in Heyburn State Park from James Preston for $128,000.

Gave the Land department permission to buy a $500 lawnmower to take care of grounds at the building to be constructed by Magic Valley College at Albion.

Approved the 43-year-old Deffenbach quit the job it was not under the merit system either when James Deffenbach was appointed to the job to take a new position as director of the legislative post audit.

FTC Imposes Strict Limits On 'Giveaway' Contests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Trade Commission Tuesday adopted regulations to assure that gasoline and supermarket giveaway games are fair and moved to impose similar rules on all promotional sweepstakes.

The regulations being promulgated will require that the odds of winning, and a prohibition against a game being prematurely ended or "rigged." The regulations become effective in 60 days.

The FTC also instructed its staff to begin immediately to draft a "trade regulation rule" proceeding relating to use in other industries of so-called sweepstakes and similar promotion devices.

The regulations also require that the names and addresses of all winners, when they won, the total number of game pieces distributed, the date and the total number of prizes awarded.

'Slow Motion Shorty' Will Lead Hoboes As New 'King'

BRIT, Iowa (UPI) — Charlie Brown was there, and Connecticut Slim and Iowa Blackie and the Lord of the Open Road.

But in the end, Slow Motion Shorty was chosen new king of America's hoboes Tuesday.

Boxcar Myrtle French was chosen hobo queen.

"God bless you all," Whorly, gracious in victory, called to the crowd of 10,000 persons who gathered in this small North-Central Iowa town of 2,000 for the 69th annual Britt Hobo Day Convention.

Shorly-Gene Parker, Wichita, Kan., won over six other contestants, including the Pennsylvania Kid, who beat Slow Motion Shorty.

The king was crowned following a parade around town, then mulligan stew was served for lunch. It was provided by the local Chamber of Commerce, and booked in a restaurant.

Power Interests Vow Effort For Public On Snake Dams

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Private and public power interests promised Tuesday to make certain all public interests are protected if a go-ahead is given to a hydroelectric project on the Middle Snake River.

He said construction of the High Mountain Sheep Dam would cause unnecessary blockage of the salmon fish run and a negative effect on the water level downstream. He proposed the moratorium in a memorandum to the Federal Power Commission.

There should be strict standards to assure proper stream planning activities— together with environmental factors would put us in a better position to determine how the Snake will be used.

A joint statement by Kinsey M. Robinson, president of ENR and Owen Rud, president of WPPSS, said the applicants will "continue as in the past" until the dam is built.

The section of the river runs through Hells Canyon, deepest gorge on the North American continent.

Hickel's moratorium proposal also applies to two other potential sites, Pleasant Valley and Middle Snake, near Astoria.

Senate Endorses Measure To Revive Loans For Students

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate approved Tuesday a measure to revive the dried-up student loan program, but there was no chance the House would act on the bill before the colleges open in September.

Some 200,000 students strapped for money to enter college in the fall semester.

Moreover, House leaders said there was no assurance the anti-trust controversy could be averted even by the middle of next month.

The legislation provides incentive fees of up to 3 per cent to private lenders, mostly banks, to grant government-backed loans which now have a 7 per cent interest ceiling.

Because the prime interest rate is now 8 1/2 per cent, bankers have little interest in making 7 per cent loans even though they are government guaranteed.

While the Senate approved the bill 92-7, with only Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen dissenting, similar legislation is deadlocked in the House in a controversy over what to do about student disorder.

House leaders said the Senate bill could not reach a House vote before a congressional recess begins Wednesday and that the earliest date appeared to be Sept. 15-16 too late to help break the games into 60-day intervals— with none being terminated before the scheduled date unless all prizes have been distributed.

Man Is Back In Custody In T.F.

Larry F. Daugherty, 23, felled insane by a Twin Falls jury last June, is back in custody in Twin Falls after walking away from a halfway house in Pocatello.

Daugherty was ordered committed to State Hospital South at Blackfoot following his sanity hearing in Fifth District Court.

He is charged with robbery and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. He allegedly attacked Neal Pasoor with a pitchfork last March.

It was ruled he could not stand trial on the charges because he was insane.

He was to have been treated at Blackfoot and returned to Twin Falls to stand trial when termed sane.

Records show Daugherty walked away from custody last week and turned himself into the Twin Falls County Sheriff during the weekend.

Daugherty is now in custody of the county sheriff and may be returned to Blackfoot, it was reported.

NEWTON - ON - TRENT, England (UPI) - Rev. Peter Parkinson was not disturbed in the least that the man seated in the front pew at his Sunday service wore nothing but sandals.

Parkinson was delivering his first sermon at the East Midland Sunfolk Nudists Club, where he found the devotional appearance of some 50 mostly -naked churchgoers, "quite natural and normal."

The minister himself wore a black cassock and clerical collar.

The FFA and 4-H fat stock sale will be at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Little Arena at the fair grounds.

Stocks

NEW YORK (UPI)—Monetary uncertainties, created by devaluation of the French franc and new pressure on the British pound, kept stocks on the downturn in Wednesday, although most stock groups recovered from early losses. Turnover was moderate.

Activity moved into the final hour, the UPT market indicator, measuring all stocks traded, showed a loss of 0.59 percent on 1.49 billion shares of the UPT. There were 85 declines, 377 advances.

The Dow Jones average of 30 blue chip industrials was off 6.07 at 806.39 near 1:30 p. m.

Analysts noted that "there is no great selling pressure, but there just isn't any good news to spur investors."

Turnover amounted to more than 7,000,000 shares, about 1 1/2 million shares above the comparable period Tuesday.

RULES CHANGED

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Reserve Board has simplified its truth-in-lending rules by eliminating the requirement for firms to show the annual discount a buyer receives for promptly paying his bill, in cases where the discount is less than 10 percent. The board said it made the change because the annual discount rate was so complex to figure out that many firms simply stopped offering discounts when the rules became law July 1, grounds to be teachers. JACKPOT, Nev. — Forty journalists from four states were given a preview tour of a new motel complex at Cactus Pete's club here Sunday and Monday.

The guests toured the new 50-unit motel and grounds—and were taken on a side trip to inspect the site of the new Jackpot Golf Course and visit Crays Landing and old nearby Wheeler Ranch.

Al Huber, Cactus Pete's Corp. president, said after the tour that extensive landscaping and site development is underway at the club. He said more than 1,000 poplar trees are being planted around the club grounds.

Visiting journalists and their wives were from Idaho, Nevada, Utah and California.

The public grand opening of the new motel unit is slated for Aug. 23-24.

Civil Rights Official At CSI Office

A representative of the Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Justice, Education and Welfare, stopped in Twin Falls Tuesday on the final leg of an inspection trip to Idaho colleges.

Charles R. Batey Jr., representing the Denver regional office, was at the College of Southern Idaho on a routine inspection. Mr. Batey said a nationwide visitation of colleges and universities receiving federal funds is being made to determine that all comply with Title 6, Civil Rights Act of 1964.

He said the Office of Civil Rights is mainly concerned that services are provided to a student on an equitable basis.

In Idaho Mr. Batey has visited the College of Southern Idaho, Boise State College, Idaho State University and the University of Idaho.

"So far we have no complaints — in fact we are finding that as a rule of thumb institutions in this area are going beyond the law. They are implementing the spirit of the law as well as the letter of the law," he said.

The main purpose of the inspection is to encourage colleges to further strengthen their compliance with the Civil Rights Act, Mr. Batey said.

"We made full preparations for any planned disruption of play," the PGA itself is not involved in the dispute, which is between the Dayton Chamber of Commerce and 31 local civil rights organizations.

Trans National Group Buys NBA Champ Boston Celtics For Six Million

BOSTON (UPI)—The Boston Celtics, the most successful sports team ever, were purchased Tuesday for $6 million—the largest price ever paid for a professional basketball team. For the 11-time and defending National Basketball Association champions—Trans National Communications Inc. will pay P. Ballantine and Sons Brewery cash and stock worth a total of $6 million. The transaction must be approved by the league.

E.E. "Woody" Erdman, board chairman and president of Trans National, said the team would remain in Boston and the new owners would retain the Celtics' management of General Manager Arnold Reed Auerbach and President Jack Waldron.

Erdman told newsmen Trans National, which last year bought the Oakland Seals of the National Hockey League, began negotiations with the brewing company 10 days ago and completed them within two hours over lunch before player coach Bill Russell announced his retirement last week.

Despite the expected absence of Russell, Erdman said "I am not frightened with the franchise at all."

The sale of the Celtics, kings of professional basketball for more than a decade, was the third since founder and owner Walter Brown died in 1964. His widow sold the team in 1965 to National Equities which in turn sold the team to Ballantine in 1968.

Erdman promised "to take them out of the owner of the week category."

On hand for the announcement were Stephen D. Haynes, president of Trans National, as well as several stockholders—in Trans National—former New York Yankee pitching star Tom Seaver and former New York Football Giant players Pat Summerall and Dick Lynch.

Greg Cook Will Start For Bengals

By United Press International

The "future" is here for the Cincinnati Bengals.

When Coach Paul Brown drafted Greg Cook as his first pick earlier this year, he said he was passing up players who could be of more immediate help to the Bengals because, "Cook will be our quarterback of the future."

But Cook, who's only been in the Bengal camp a little more than a week since being named the most valuable player for the College All-Stars in their two-point loss to the New York Jets; was named as the starting quarterback by Brown for the Bengals' exhibition game Saturday night against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Brown made the announcement Tuesday as the team resumed practice following a 21-13 loss to the Boston Patriots last weekend.

Brown also said that another rookie, middle linebacker Bill Bergey, will start and call defensive signals.

The Bengals also waived three more players, linebackers Ken Herock, running back Bob Curington and receiver Alvin Scott.

The world champion New York Jets, preparing for their showdown Sunday against the New York Giants in New Haven, Conn., announced that Bill Worthy has signed a contract for his 10th pro season.

The purchase price for the Celtics, which was $4 million, Jack Ken Cooks paid for the Minneapolis Lakers, which he recently moved to Los Angeles.

Erdman called the price a bargain. "We bought a great management and a great history. The name Celtics is synonymous with championships," he told a news conference.

Erdman said Auerbach and Waldron would remain with the Celtics and their contracts would be extended beyond the current expiration date.

Two walks, a double by Ron Hunt and singles by Davenport and Dick Dietz produced three runs in the first inning off Luke Walker and sent him down to his third loss in four decisions.

The Pirates touched Perry who has eight losses, for 10 hits, one of them being Willie Stargell's 20th homer and another Jose Pagan's 6th.

Stargell's homer came in the fourth and Pagan's in the ninth with Bob Oliver aboard via a single.

Earthquake Rocks Japan And Islands

TOKYO (UPI)—An undersea earthquake as powerful as those that hit San Francisco in 1906 and Alaska in 1964 rocked northern Japan and the Kurile Islands early today. It generated 4 1/2 foot tidal waves but no major damage or injuries were reported.

Many residents of coastal towns and villages evacuated their homes after the meteorological agency in Tokyo issued a tidal wave warning. The alert was called off at 3 p.m., eight and a half hours after the tremor struck at 6:27 a.m. (5:27 p.m. EDT Monday).

According to the agency, the quake was centered in the northernmost island of Hokkaido and measured 7.8 on the Richter scale. The shock was felt in Tokyo, 720 miles to the south.

The first tidal wave hit Hokkaido's eastern coast near Nemuro, Japan's easternmost city, at 6:58 a.m. The 4 1/2-foot waves came at low tide and caused no damage or injuries, authorities in the area reported.

In Washington, the National Earthquake Information Center said the tremor was similar in strength to the April 18, 1906, S. a. n. Francisco earthquake which took 700 lives and the Good Friday March 31, 1964, Alaska temblor which claimed 131 lives.

Today's quake, according to Japanese measurements, almost matched the 7.8 reading registered for the great Kanto earthquake which killed 143,000 Japanese on Sept. 1, 1923, many of them dying in fires which broke out in Tokyo and Yokohama.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last winter when my husband attended a convention out of town he got involved with a lady delegate in her hotel room. When Alfred came home he told me about it and I was so angry that instead of saying he was sorry and would never do it again, he said he'd do it again if he got the chance.

Fortunately Alfred doesn't get many opportunities to travel. He has always said that he would never have an affair with a local woman because this is a small town and he's afraid of gossip, and I believe him, but I know I'll worry the next time he leaves town.

I asked him what he would do if I got involved with another man, he said he'd break my neck. Is this fair? He thinks he is being fair with me because he's telling me in advance what should I do?

ALFRED'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Tell him you are being "fair" with him, because if he repeats his convention capers you will break HIS neck.

DEAR ABBY: Whoever said that hypnosis for the purpose of getting heavy smokers to quit doesn't work is all wrong!

My brother had a three-pack-a-day man, and after a series of sessions with a hypnotherapist, he gave up cigarettes, and he quit smoking me in over a year. In fact, he's the one who complains the loudest when his friends smoke during a poker game.

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

DEAR KEEPER: Thank you for your letter, which was only one among hundreds in defense of hypnotherapy in this connection. However, I have been advised by several top-notch psychiatrists that most compulsive smokers (as well as compulsive eaters and drinkers) who have relied on hypnosis for a permanent cure are usually disappointed. NOT ALL... but MOST!

DEAR ABBY: Today when I drove into a local shopping plaza I parked next to a car with two small children in it. They looked about ten years and four years old.

When I came back about an hour and a half later, they were still in there, crying their hearts out.

Just then the mother came alone, and I said "YOUR CHILDREN ARE BEING KEPT AWAY FOR SOME TIME!"

With no concern, she said "Yes, I know."

"Can people be so cruel to small children? Do they know the dangers?"

"MAD" IN BANGOR, ME.

DEAR "MAD": They know, but they think all the horrible things that happen to children unattended in parked cars can never happen to THEIR CHILDREN. Only to somebody else's.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HON. ESTER PETERSEN" (and no less than a hundred other sharp-eyed, right-thinking readers): Men culpable! The insurance agencies which should not be asked to tie for him and say that he is "out" when he is actually in should instead say that he is NOT AVAILABLE, like the cable company, and have her husband return the call.

MR. AND MRS. ORVILLE POHLMANN

August Nuptial Vows Said By Miss Werner, Pohlmann

JEROME—Immanuel Lutheran Church was the setting for the Aug. 1 wedding ceremony uniting in marriage Lois Werner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Werner, Jerome, and Orville Pohlmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pohlmann, Deshler, Neb.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. pastor of Immanuel. The wedding message was given by Rev. G. L. Hickman, Vancouver, Jerome, brother-in-law of the bride.

A bouquet of gladioli in shades of pink was placed on the altar. Two topiary trees near the altar and arrangements of gladioli on the candleabra enhanced the decorations. Pink bows, white candles and ivy decorated the Pew.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organza featuring a complete bodice, fashioned with a standing collar and long, sheer bishop sleeves. Stripes of Venice lace interwoven with pink satin ribbon accented the bodice, sleeves and the slight bell skirt. Lace was repeated on the detachable court train. Venice lace petals, centered with an organza, held her four-tiered elbow-length veil of imported silk tulle.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white gladioli and white Spider chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Ruth Probasco, Minneapolis, Minn., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, with Mrs. Shiron Hickman, Mrs. Gladys Habelmann and Mrs. Mary Reiling as bridesmaids.

Best man for his brother-in-law was Delmer Habelmann, Byron, Neb. Groomsman were Lloyd Werner, David Probasco and Dennis Reiling, Lincoln, Neb. Candelighters were Crystal A. Habelmann, niece of the bride; room. Vernice Dierker, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the

Miss Ohlsson, Eaton Wed

Maria Mariene Ohlsson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Ohlsson, Shafter, Calif., was married to Curtis Howard Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis H. Eaton, Twin Falls, in a single ring ceremony Aug. 2 at Saint Paul's Episcopal Parish, Bakerfield, Calif.

Rev. John D. Spear, Saint Luke's Episcopal Parish, performed the ceremony before a setting of ivory chrysantheums placed on the altar, candles and pew given.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a couture gown styled in ivory satin by Constantine. The dress, a fitted sheath with jeweled rosepoint neckline at the waistline and hemline, was covered with a recreated renaisance cloak trailing a cathedral train. The cloak and train were dramatically bordered with scrolls of atonement lace. Her head dress was a jeweled toque of orange blossoms in candlelight toke.

She carried a cascade bouquet of ivory roses.

Jessamine J. Ohlsson, Shafter, was maid of honor, with Sandra L. Ohlsson, Shafter; Georgina Eaton, Twin Falls; Beverly V. Greene, Shafter; Marilyn J. Anderson, Orinda, Calif., and Carleen M. Mitchell, Sunnyvale, Calif., bridesmaids.

Monique Cloud served as flower girl and Clint Sutton was ringbearer. Organist was Mrs. Ruth Cornejo, Oregon, and Ina Arstju and Mrs. Gene Lucero were in charge of the guest book.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were David Walbert Jr., Ohio; James Gidwitz, Illinois; Thomas Gidwitz Jr., North California; Gary Edward Oregon, and Martin Wright Jr., Connecticut.

A champagne-buffet reception was held for 250 guests at Casa Royale Inn, with Bob Bann and his combo.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to New York City, via Las Vegas and Twin Falls, leaving New York Aug. 20 on the SS France for Europe. They will be in Bologna, Italy, until June, 1970. The bridegroom will attend John Hopkins Graduate School of International Relations.

The bride was honored at showers given by nursing school classmates and by Mrs. H. W. Greene, Beverly Greene and Mrs. Ernie Hoffman, Shafter. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents at the Casa Royale. The tables were decorated with candles and flowers of the bride's colors.

Joking Red Guards Exemplify Relaxed Attitude Along Berlin Wall

By JOSEPH FLEMING
BERLIN (UPI)—"Let's hope for fun!" the East German border guard said as he looked at the "dirty automobile" being checked through the opening in the wall at the Friedrichstrasse crossing point for foreigners.
 The car did need a wash but would have passed unnoticed at most borders in the world.
 The fact that the East German soldier—one of 7,000 guarding the 99-mile border around West Berlin—took note of it in a friendly way showed the changed attitude toward the wall both in East and West on its eighth anniversary.
 It still shamefully separates parents from their children and brothers from their sisters. But no one calls it the "wall of shame" anymore.
 It becomes a permanent fixture in the cold war and the men guarding it at the Friedrichstrasse Checkpoint opposite the U.S. Army's Checkpoint Charlie are more relaxed, more polite, more friendly.
 "Make no mistake about it—they have guns and they will use them to prevent the flight of refugees.
 But they are not the sullen, hostile, fearful men they were in the first years immediately following the building of the wall on Aug. 13, 1961.
 Their new attitude reflects the change of attitude toward the West lives with.
 Their attempts to joke with tourists from their children and confidence a rising standard of living has given the East German Democratic Republic (GDR).
 "One likes the wall any better. It hasn't improved with age but rather has become more difficult to get across. But not even the wildest drunk talks any more about pulling it down."

Friends and foes of the wall grant that it served its purpose caused by the refugee flow. The new prosperity of East Germany would have been impossible to achieve with the Germans fled to the West.

The month before the wall with its electric alarm system, traps and dog runs has become so effective that most East Germans who flee to the West do so over another East bloc nation. This May, for example, 514 East German refugees were registered. But only 91 managed to get across the wall as another Soviet-ruled nation, or over the longer East-West German demarcation line, outside the bloc. The others fled over Hungary, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia or at least 170 have died escaping.

Burger Asks Program Of Court Aides
 DALLAS (UPI)—Chief Justice Warren—Burger called Tuesday for a crash program to provide the nation's courts with a corps of trained administrators so judges may spend their time... Such administrators do not now exist, except for a handful who are almost entirely confined to "state court" systems... He said in a breakfast speech to the Institute of Judicial Administration... "We must, literally create a corps of court administrators or court managers and we must do so at once."
 The Institute is meeting here in conjunction with the 92nd annual convention of the American Bar Association (ABA).
 Burger proposed calling together 10 or 12 "of the best informed people in this country" and asking them to plan a training program for the necessary number of court managers. He did not say how many are required.
 "It should begin in the next 30 days," he said emphatically. He suggested lawyers and judges for the most part stay out of this planning group, which could be made up of experts in public administration, business administration and about six present-court managers where they can be found."

ACCIDENTS STUDIED
 SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The motorist most likely to be involved in a fatal accident is one under 25 years old driving in clear weather during the hours of darkness.

PERFECT PLAYERS

This left South with the problem of finding a club to lead. The odds favored finding the queen of clubs in the East-hand so Good Player South tried the club finesse and went down.

A superb player would have no trouble making the hand. He would realize that West held the king of hearts since East had won the first heart trick with the ace.

He would also mark West with the queen of clubs, relying on clairvoyance rather than a try with probability.

Once West was marked with both those key cards, South would simply run off all trumps and diamonds to come down to three clubs in his hand and the ace of clubs in the queen's hand in dummy.

Poor West would be squeezed out of his protection for the queen of clubs in order to hang on to the king of hearts and South would just cash out the clubs.

CARD SENSE

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1♣	Pass	4NT
Pass	3	Pass	5NT
Pass	5	Pass	7

You, South, hold:

♠AKQ84 ♥Q65 ♦AK104 ♣2

What do you do now?

♠Bid 6 or 7. Since at worst there will be a reasonable play for this and it may well be a sure thing.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of showing two kings your partner has bid six diamonds to show one king. What do you do now?

HOLD IT, McCOON!! YOU SEND ME HOME, AND YOU KNOW WHAT I'LL TELL EMP!

Captain Easy

WHERE WOULD HE TOPPOCK RECOVERED FROM HIS BALLOON INCIDENT? TOPPOCK AS LUCKY THIS TIME!

WHILE YOU GET A REPORT ON IT, I'LL KEEP RECORDS BACK AT THE OFFICE!

THE PATIENT WAS GLENN TOPPOCK... HE WAS DISCHARGED... LATER HE WAS ADMITTED... ONLY IF...

WHY WOULD ANY WOMAN WANTS TO BE IN THE WOMEN'S GARDEN CLUB?

HEARD YOU, TOPPOCK? YOUR LEGS ARE GETTING NARROWER, BUT YOUR SWORN INTO OFFICE. JUST FOUR HIPS ARE GETTING NARROWER. THAT'S NOT THE WAY I HEARD IT. CLAIRBURN MAKERS SAY THEY NOW HAVE TO MAKE OUR SEATS TWO INCHES WIDER THAN WAS NECESSARY 40 YEARS AGO.

BALLOONS — Am asked how toy balloons are made. Did you ever see a string egg? Not half the youthful citizens in the country have never seen a dancing egg. Anyhow, that's what a balloon-mold looks like. It's dipped in liquid rubber, which is allowed to solidify, then peeled off. That's just an ordinary everyday balloon. I don't know how the rubber balloons that look like rabbits with big ears, lower 48 is on water.

CUSTOMER SERVICE: What do you do with a husband who drinks too much? Like I mean last night my hilarious hero knocked everything off my dressing table with a fly swat.

Good Balance, Strong Grip Can Foretell Athletic Star

BALANCE—It's said house-painters, riggers, linemen, and other such craftsmen rarely get it immediately 10-to-10, and in reverse—men who do get sick sometimes in boats, cars and planes ought not tackle such jobs. Remember that young fellow. If you know you suffer from motion-sickness, stay off scuffling in high places. Incidentally, that superior sense of equilibrium, or the lack of it, is another inherited trait. It's a matter of fact, it's said to be one of the first three signs that a small boy has potential athletic ability. The other two are a strong grip and speed.

CUSTOMER ASKS how many United States. Excuse me, three invent to save their legs are getting longer, but your John Adams, Dr. George Harding, John Coolidge and Joseph P. Kennedy. HOW RIGHT WAS John C. Cannert? I mean overstudy every situation, and overstudy can be a serious waste when he comes to the man who tries never to be wrong will of time? . . . NOTE IT REPEATEDLY stated Pittsburgh's KDKA. A was the first radio station in the country, but a Californian claims San Jose's KWO was on the air 11 years before KDKA.

RAPID REPLY: Yes, sir, almost three-fourths of the population between Canada and the look like rabbits with big ears. lower 48 is on water.

We're at the garage, Uncle Wait!

AMOS: THE NEXT TIME YOU COME HERE TO SPEND THE NIGHT, HAVE HIM BRING ME A CIVILIZED PERSON! I WAS SO FRIGHTENED WHEN HE DIPPED IN LIQUID RUBBER, WHICH IS ALLOWED TO SOLIDIFY, THEN PEELLED OFF. THAT'S JUST AN ORDINARY EVERYDAY BALLOON. I DON'T KNOW HOW THE RUBBER BALLOONS THAT LOOK LIKE RABBITS WITH BIG EARS, LOWER 48 IS ON WATER.

ESAD MARTHA, WHAT ARE YOU THINKING ABOUT? I CAME TO SEE THAT CL BUREAU HAD... GREAT CAESAR!

Branden McCormick

Let's include a few dreamy platters so we can sit down and rest a bit!

THAT'S WHAT I SAID! THE WAY TO SOLVE BERN ALBUKIN'S PROBLEM IS TO FIND AN ACQUAINTANCE THAT PLAYS IN A BAND LIKE IT'S HARDER THAN FLESH AND BLOOD CAN BEAT!

HOW ABOUT THIS, THEN? DON'T GO WASTING TIME PROMISING SOMETHING THAT YOU'LL LISTEN TO THIS AND THAT. IT'S HARDER THAN FLESH AND BLOOD CAN BEAT! ANY BETTER? NOW LISTEN CLOVIA...
