Jan's A Sweetheart—She's Off To Seek National Title

Not only will Twin Falls be represented in the Miss America pageant this year, but another talented and attractive young resident will be carrying Idaho's banners to the National Sweetheart Pageant in Hoopston, Ill. Jan Worsencroft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Worsencroft, 618 Cindy Drive, left early Tuesday by plane for the Illinois town where she will participate in the national Sweetheart pageant. This is reserved for the first runner-up from corn producing states.

Members of the Illinois town's festival committee felt the first runner-up in each state has almost as good, if not as good a chance of becoming Miss America as the girl selected for the pageant. In the Miss Idaho pageant, a result these girls are given another chance to wear a jeweled crown by competing for the sweetheart title.

Not often does a single town in Idaho have both the Miss Idaho and the first runner-up. Twin Falls is an unusual town.

Jan was selected Miss Idaho State University and as such competed in the Miss Idaho pageant last spring, finishing second only to another lovely

Twin Falls miss, Diana Hopperstead. The little town of Hoopston also is known as the sweet corn capital of the world. Last year was the first time Idaho had been invited to participate in the national Sweet Corn Festival there by sending an entry to the sweetheart contest.

Velma Guyer, first runner up in Miss Idaho's year—pre-nominee at Twin Falls miss, attended last year.

While in Hoopston, Miss Worsencroft again will compete with other girls in a bathing suit, in talent and an evening gown. Her talent is dancing, although she also plays piano.

Located about 100 miles from Chicago, Hoopston has a city of about 7,000 citizens and is the center of an active farm area. Miss Worsencroft, although not an authority on agricultural matters, should feel at home.

She says she is looking forward to the week she will spend there, as it is certain to prove enjoyable and educational. It is much more relaxed, she said, than the Miss Idaho pageant, and much less demanding than a Miss America contest.

Arabs Attack Jerusalem

Raiders Fail In Mission

By United Press International

Arab terrorists today launched their first rocket attack against Jerusalem since the 1967 Middle East War, firing three Soviet-made missiles that narrowly missed a crowded hotel and a hospital. There were no casualties or damage.

Israeli authorities said two of the rockets exploded on a pile of gravel outside the 400-bed Judea Gardens Hotel, jammed with both tourists and Israelis. The third missile slammed into the hotel at the St. Simon Hospital for the Crippled.

Israeli officials in Jerusalem said they had been unable to fire the suspected rockets. Launching sites. The targets were about two miles from the center of the city and three miles from the El Aqsa Mosque.

Three Soviet-built rockets also slammed today into Beisan, a city of 15,000, four miles west of the Jordan River in the Beisan Valley, a military spokesman said. The rockets exploded in open areas and there were no casualties.

Arabs fired the rockets from positions across the Jordan River from launching sites, military experts said.

Highly placed Israeli political sources at the same time said Israel will bring worldwide pressure to bear on the Arab states to arrange a "modern day Jewish exodus" from them.

In response to Iraq's execution Monday of two Jews among 19 convicted spies by employing military rather than military tactics.

In their view, Middle-East tensions whipped by the burning of the El Aqsa Mosque and the almost daily guerrilla attacks and air raids are now at flashpoint.

The Israeli government said it would convene an emergency session of the Knesset (parliament) Thursday to discuss the plight of the Jews.

Government communiques said Jews in Arab countries "are being oppressed and humiliated and held as hostages."

An investigation into the El Aqsa Mosque fire appeared about to be postponed pending completion of preparations for the trial of Michael Dennis William Rohan, the Australian accused of having started the blaze.

State To Get Federal Aid For Fires

BURLEY—The state of Idaho should receive a check this week from the federal government for reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Sun Dance fire two years ago, Lt. Gov. Jack Murphy said here Monday.

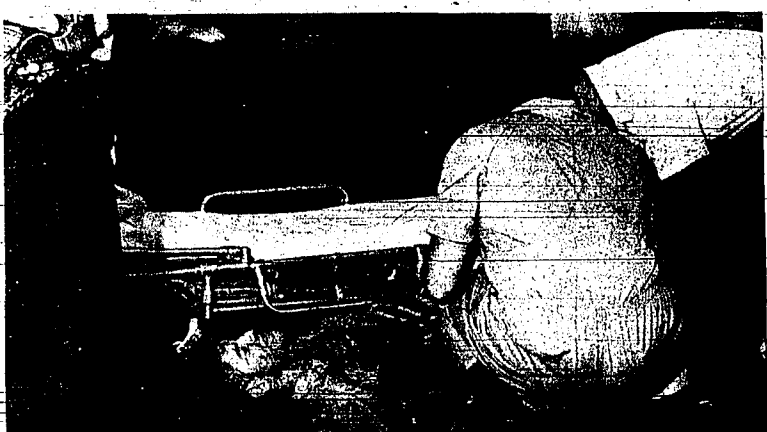

Speaking at the Burley Chamber of Commerce meeting, Mr. Murphy noted the state legislature will be presented several bills this next January which would seek to clarify the mutual reimbursement of expenses incurred during the present triangle arrangement between the state, the Bureau of Land Management and Forest Service.

He said three directors from the federal Office of Emergency Prevention have met with state officials and worked out a satisfactory settlement on the Sun Dance fire, but that officials still are working with BLM officials to settle the accounts on the Chino Creek and Trapper Creek fires.

All of these fires occurred in northern Idaho in land owned largely by the state. In the Clearwater area the state owns 50 per cent of the land and has fire protection contracts with the BLM and Forest Service, Mr. Murphy said.

The three groups operate as a fire association, the state official explained, and under the existing contract, one group can call on another one for assistance.

Gov. Don Samuelson attempted to get the fire area declared a disaster area at the BLM's secretary's suggestion, but it failed and because they were purely on federal land.

INJURED EARLY TUESDAY in a car-motorcycle accident at a Twin Falls city intersection was Tim Marlow, 21, Twin Falls. Here he receives emergency treatment from ambulance personnel prior to being taken to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, where he is in fair condition with a broken leg and other injuries. The motorcycle he was riding collided with the left side of a car driven by Lillie M. Baker, 58, Oakley, about 8 a.m. Tuesday.

Citizens Rap Both Constitution, Change

By RICHARD HIGH JR., Times-News Staff Writer

Both the existing 80-year-old Idaho State Constitution and its proposed replacement—drafted by the State Constitutional Revision Commission came under fire Monday night in Twin Falls at the 80th and final Magic Valley constitutional revision hearing.

The existing constitution was termed "full of cobwebs and full of bigotry" by a member of the revisionary commission while opponents charged the new document takes "too much power from the people," concentrating its unduly "in the hands of the governor and legislature."

After preliminary remarks in support of the new draft by revisionary commission members, testimony was taken from 12 persons who were about equally divided between boosters and critics of the revised constitution.

At the conclusion of the hearing, area legislators offered general support for the efforts of the revisionary commission, but expressed reservations over specific recommendations.

According to revisionary commission vice chairman Mrs. Eugene H. Smith, Idaho Falls, who attended the hearing, "The point at issue is how much confidence the people have in government."

She said the commission attempted to draw up a "flexible" constitution, "one that would be rewritten every time a new problem comes up."

Battle Flares Fifth Storm Forms East Of Florida

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Marines fought well-entrenched North Vietnamese troops in 120-degree temperatures today in close-quarters battle on the jungled floor of the Que Son Valley where more than 800 guerrillas died last week.

Reports from the battlefield said more than 100 Marines were killed or wounded in the past 24 hours of fighting. The United States lost at least 35 killed and more than 150 wounded in fighting "just west of Tam Ky."

Rebuilt Tanker Begins Voyage Into Ice Fields

CHESTER, Pa. (UPI)—The icebreaking tanker Manhattan, largest American merchant ship, took on a record load of fuel Monday before beginning its historic 100-day round trip to Alaska through the frozen channels of the Northwest Passage.

The 1,005-foot tanker was anchored in deep water in Delaware Bay about five miles from the Atlantic breakwater to take on 184,000 barrels of bunker oil from barges plus 30,000 barrels of diesel oil for accompanying icebreakers.

It was the largest amount of fuel ever taken aboard on a commercial ship—more than five times the oil needed by the Queen Elizabeth 2 for a transatlantic crossing.

MIAMI (UPI)—Eve joined the season's list of tropical storms Monday night, leaving weathermen little time to recover from killer Hurricane Camille.

The season's fifth tropical blow formed from a depression that swept westward along the beaches in the Northern Bahamas Monday. At 6 a.m., Eve was centered near latitude 30.8 north, longitude 74.2 west, or about 280 miles east of Jacksonville, Fla.

"Eve is a young storm and its course has not become firmly established," a weather advisory said, "but is moving toward the northeast about eight miles an hour and indications are for this course and speed to continue today."

Weather interests along the Middle Atlantic Coast eastward to Bermuda should be alert for future advisories.

Opportunity For Job Turns Sour; When Twin Falls Man Is Beaten And Robbed

A Twin Falls man, who was offered a chance for employment in the Kimberly area, was beaten and robbed Monday night while on his way to look over the job site.

Lyle Bailey told sheriff's officers a couple picked him up in Twin Falls to take him to Kimberly where they wanted him to do some masonry work.

At 7:30 p.m., shortly after the job started, Mr. Bailey called officers from a ranch house and reported he had been beaten and robbed.

When Deputy Sheriff Chuck Johnson arrived at the scene, he found the man bleeding from the chin and forehead.

A Murrtaugh couple was subsequently arrested and charged with assault with intent to commit robbery.

Carl and Carol Bauer, Route 1, Murrtaugh, were arrested after midnight by Idaho State Police Officer Chet Blackburn. The officer said he observed the car the couple was in north of the Snake River Canyon, headed back toward Twin Falls.

Officers from throughout the Valley participated in the manhunt, which resulted in the arrests.

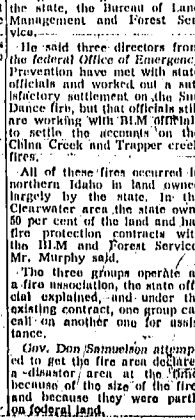

Both suspects are in Twin Falls County Jail in lieu of posting $5,000 bond each.

He said they stopped the car on the pretext of fixing a flat tire, then assaulted him with a beer bottle.

Mr. Bailey said he was knocked unconscious by the pair and when he came to, he found that his wallet containing the cash was gone.

A description of the man and woman was obtained from Mr. Bailey. He was admitted to Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, where he is listed in fair condition.

Sheriff Paul Corder and Deputy J. D. Turner recalled seeing a man and woman fitting that description several months ago. Acting on this information, they went to a ranch north of Murrtaugh and discovered Mr. Bauer, 41, and his wife, 32, had been driving a car which fit the description of the car Mr. Bailey described.

Weather Synopsis

Weather systems are becoming more active in the storm track in the northern latitudes. A family of low pressure disturbances is moving across the Northern Pacific and Southern Canada. Their trailing cool fronts will be brushing across the northern intermountain region at 24 to 26 hour intervals for the next few days, and probably all week.

The air mass over Southern Idaho and Eastern Oregon is expected to remain dry but significant shower activity is not likely to develop. Temperature changes will be more frequent than with averages generally less than last week.

The cooler air which moved into most of Southern Idaho and Eastern Oregon yesterday will be warming from the west today. The eastern valleys will be a little warmer Wednesday while the western area turns cooler. In the 80s and lower 90s will be the general rule both days.

Tonight will be a little cooler in the Eastern Idaho valleys and a little warmer in the West.

Four Persons Injured When Car Hits Bull

BUHL — Four people were treated and released from Magic Valley Memorial Hospital early Tuesday morning after the car they were in struck and killed a black Angus bull about one and one-half miles east of Buhl.

Twin Falls County Sheriff's office said a 1967 Ford driven by Joseph A. Zoccone, 54, Hagerman, was traveling west on U.S. Highway 30. Mr. Zoccone told officers a car he was approaching was blinking its lights and he dimmed his lights. In return, he saw the bull. He attempted to miss the bull, but struck it with the right side of the car.

Mr. Zoccone said he later learned the other vehicle was stopped and its occupants were attempting to warn him of the bull in the road.

Mr. Zoccone and his three passengers — Joseph Zoccone, 52; Hagerman; Amato Zoccone, 48; Youngstown, Ohio, and Victor Zoccone, 44, Youngstown, received minor injuries.

South Hills Girls' Camp Has Break-In

A break-in at Camp Tavakani, Camp Fire Girls' Camp in the South Hills, has been reported to Twin Falls County Sheriff's office.

The break-in apparently took place sometime last week and was reported Monday to officers after Forest Service personnel at the Rock Creek Ranger Station discovered the doors to the lodge standing open.

A fire extinguisher was emptied on the fireproof door and a two-foot crushed glass Camp Fire emblem taken. It also is believed some gasoline was taken.

PROTEST IS QUELLED HELSINKI, Finland (UPI) — Riot police charged into a crowd of about 300 anti-Vietnam War demonstrators Tuesday night to break up a protest outside the U.S. Embassy. Four demonstrators were arrested and a policeman was injured.

Gang Feud Wounds Two In Michigan
TAYLOR, Mich. (UPI) — A continued feud between Detroit area motorcycle gangs erupted into another shootout early today, leaving a policeman wounded and two gang members seriously wounded.

Taylor police said plainclothesman Freeman Suter, 27, on stoop in another case at the top. Hat restaurant was gunned down when he tried to stop a gang member fleeing the shooting. Suter, emptied his revolver at the suspect while falling, police said.

One suspect, Larry Prince, 22, Taylor, believed to be a member of the Scorpions motorcycle gang, was arrested after the parking lot of his brother, Wayne, 19, was ransacked.

According to Wayne County sheriff's deputies, the younger Prince entered the restaurant shortly after midnight and into an argument with Jessie Lester, 33, a member of the Highwaymen, who allegedly accused Prince's gang of killing to "hack up" the Highwaymen at a shootout late Saturday at the new clubhouse of the Wanderers gang in Van Buren.

One motorcycle was shot twice and another stabbed in the back at that location, which is the site of the erection of the new clubhouse.

Lester was shot and seriously wounded during the gunfire Tuesday night. Another man ran across the parking lot, police said, Suter tried to stop him and was shot at close range.

Storm Deaths Reach 139; Many Missing

CAULFIELD, Miss. (UPI) — As rescue and cleanup operations continued, 1,000 miles apart today, there were indications that the death toll from the 1969-1970 hurricane season would reach 139.

The Gulf Coast, where the hurricane struck in full force, said the toll from devastation flooding in mountain towns along the Ames River reached 80 known dead, with 100 persons missing. The damage from the flooding was estimated at more than $132.5 million, well below the predicted $1.5 billion damage predicted for the Gulf Coast.

Many residents along the Gulf Coast returned to their shattered homes Monday to find their homes empty of their belongings.

revised constitutional draft. The League's support was given continued protection of water rights, staggered four-year terms for state senators, a cabinet system and the short ballot, the two-level court system and the addition of a "right of privacy" to the bill of rights.

Bob Pettigrew presented the F. A. R. Bureau's position. He supported the addition of the "right of privacy," but opposed the revision of the bill of rights. He also supported the revision of the supreme court from five to seven or nine justices.

The Farm Bureau spokesman voiced objection to the proposal of gubernatorial right to appoint members of the State Land Board. "We are all well aware of what conditions exist in the vicinity of Payette Lakes," he said, with reference to the controversy surrounding allegedly low lease rates charged for land development at the lakes.

Of the ten persons offering testimony as individuals, two were nearly completely in favor of the revised version; five were split on only opposed and three pointed out both its strengths and its weaknesses.

Following the hearing, Magic Valley hearing chairman Sen. John M. Barker, Buhl, said the revision documents are "standards has good chance of being approved in the legislature or by the people."

He speculated that the legislative committee would call for the short ballot, but said that placing the lieutenant governor on the same ticket with the governor had drawn little opposition.

Sen. Barker said he saw little hope for passage of four-year terms for senators, an extension of the House terms also were extended.

He said he expected the Legislature would call an extension of the state's indebtedness to some "nominal percentage of the state assessment, on the order of two per cent," but said he expected the Legislature to restrict indebtedness provision to be approved.

He said the Legislature may want to call for a "Missouri Plan" in the judiciary, where a judge is appointed to a six or eight year term, at the end of which a vote of confidence is called for in an election. At that time the people have the chance to vote the judge out of office.

He expressed at the six Magic Valley hearings over which he has presided, Sen. Barker said opposition has been centered on the short ballot and unlimited state indebtedness.

The revision committee will gather together all testimony and recommendations and will bring a final draft to the next session of the legislature.

It is if all of both houses approve the draft by two-thirds majorities, the new constitution would be taken to the people in the 1970 general election.

TERRORISTS KILL 14. SAIGON (UPI) — South Vietnamese police said today that Viet Cong terrorists had killed 14 civilians, wounded 410 and kidnaped 139.

Storm Deaths Reach 139; Many Missing

CAULFIELD, Miss. (UPI) — As rescue and cleanup operations continued, 1,000 miles apart today, there were indications that the death toll from the 1969-1970 hurricane season would reach 139.

The Gulf Coast, where the hurricane struck in full force, said the toll from devastation flooding in mountain towns along the Ames River reached 80 known dead, with 100 persons missing. The damage from the flooding was estimated at more than $132.5 million, well below the predicted $1.5 billion damage predicted for the Gulf Coast.

Many residents along the Gulf Coast returned to their shattered homes Monday to find their homes empty of their belongings.

WASHINGTON — A Supreme Court ruling... of this nation against a congressional forcible destruction of its citizenship...

was automatically naturalized when his father was made a citizen by a special act of Congress in 1953. Carmichael is now living in the African nation of Guinea...

Attack On Freedom

A free press would not be free if government told it what to print or not to print. That is why the First Amendment is in the Constitution.

The Federal Communication Commission... the most powerful bureaucracies exercising as it does a considerable degree of control over radio and television broadcasting.

One of its members, Kenneth A. Cox, told the American Bar Association that Congress should require newspapers to give free "right of reply" to anyone criticized in print.

The idea of right of reply is fine and we would be happy to match the record of the free press in keeping the public informed on various sides of public issues with the record of government.

In fact, the right of reply concept is observed by the great majority of newspapers. In addition to the news columns, nearly all offer space in letters columns to anyone who may respond to criticism.

MR. SPECTATOR

Las Vegas, You Say?

Mr. and Mrs. Spector had been through Las Vegas several times, but only at the airport-on-the-way here or there or somewhere. Never in the city limits.

Well, last week things were different. Mr. and Mrs. Spector got to Las Vegas for a three-day stint. Along with Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis and Mrs. Sarah Painter.

Mr. and Mrs. Spector are happy to report that all those named agree that Las Vegas is for the birds — not for us!

If you really like to gamble or even to tip those that's one great place to go. But if you are sort of on the retiring side and like a place to rest, moderately priced and nice and cool, then you will have to find another haven.

We see now why the gambling places flourish there. It is so hot outside that people just don't go out unless they are leaving the city or coming in. They spend all their time there in the various bars, wherein are located the various gambling opportunities, drinking opportunities, and the "name" shows.

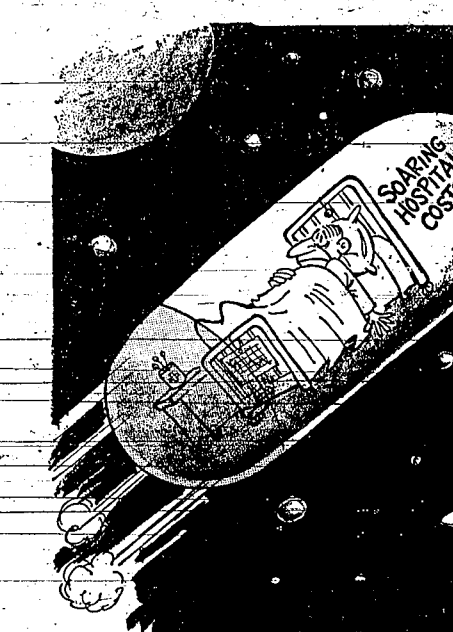

It is hard to believe it but the 9 a.m. temperature on any given day hovered around the 90 degree above mark and then sometime during the day the thermometer would hit 107.

And the heat is not like that of Magic Valley. Here, we admit, temperatures over 100 degrees can feel hot — but down at Las Vegas it's scorching!

We enjoyed ourselves so much that we were able to get a return flight that left there six hours ahead of the one we were scheduled on. And then in just two hours — if we were driving it would have taken 10 or 12 hours — we were back in good, old Idaho and thankful for it.

We are sure the Las Vegas Chamber will not like Mr. Spector's observations but that's the way it was. And, before we close, let us report that our $22.50 a day room was equal to any $15 room in the Magic Valley. And then, to top it off, there is a six per cent room tax added

Let The Kids Take Over?

WASHINGTON — Sometimes it seems like good ideas don't last. Youth take over the country. And sometimes — as in the case of that mob scene of 400,000 kids at the Woodstock Music and Art Fair — it doesn't. By and large, I'm afraid our children are not yet ready for self-government.

Instead, I suspect the hearts of most parents went out to those miserable over-age mopeys who suffered and sickened and died in the dreaching rain and almost incredible traffic jam that made of the festival a chaotic quagmire. The inclination was to get on the long distance phone and tell Sonny or Sister, to come on home, have a good meal and slip between clean, cool sheets for 12 hours of slumber.

After all, for reasons known only to their parents, children of their most appealing when they are in trouble. And, brother, were they in trouble! As one kid admitted: "This is just one big, bad trip."

Altar Of Science

We've not yet had a satisfactory explanation for what killed Bunny, the astronomer. The little 14-pound monkey was found in a capsule and hurled into orbit about the earth. We were told the purpose of the mission was to measure the physiological effects of prolonged weightlessness.

What was to have been a four-week mission ended in one week when Bunny, "fired and buried," was brought down to earth. The capsule was lost in the clouds over the Pacific, the intended minute snatch was unsuccessful, so Bunny and his capsule plummeted into the ocean.

He was unstrapped, removed, limp but alive. Twelve hours later he died. Preliminary autopsy revealed bruises on the liver and heart, probably from re-entry. Probable cause of death: heart failure.

I expect we have heard the last of it. I don't know how you feel about animal experiments, but by my measure this one was not worth the millions it cost. Col. Henry Powers, prominent in our early space program and now employed in related industry, says, "The abortive flight of Bunny was a complete and total waste of $2 million. You can learn more from a computer than from a monkey."

Further, teaching an animal to trust man and to respond to your signals... then this... It reminds me of the old story of the father who told his son to jump from a ladder into his arms. Instead, the father let the boy fall to the ground, then said,

Hates His Job

Dear Dr. Hosteson: My husband complains that he is feeling bad. He went to the doctor who told him he was suffering from complete exhaustion. I wonder why he kept it until it was so bad. He is a bartender — is that the reason? He hates his work. He is too old to change careers. Is there a long, well-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: What causes a disturbance of vision that may last 10 or 15 minutes? The vision becomes dim, and it's as if a flash bulb had gone off in my face. I've had these spells about twice a year — once in 1967 or 1968, and I am now 45. Sometimes they are followed by a headache. It's almost impossible to read or drive a car during this time.

I was told by an eye doctor that they are connected with migraines, but I've never had any of those and tell me the exact cause. The attacks still frighten me. — R. J. T. Such visual disturbances may be part of a migraine headache pattern. It is also possible that they could be a type of cerebral palsy disorder, related to epilepsy. Another possibility is a disturbance in circulation, although I think it is unlikely to be caused by the attacks started so young.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: My favorite drink is a tall glass of orange juice with a raw egg in it. I think it's very healthy and contains germs. Am I not safe if I take this drink as a health measure? — L. M. If I didn't want all raw eggs containing germs, I think some of them MAY, and cooking destroys any that may be there.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: I can't see how your medicine is any healthier than if you drank the orange juice and ate a cooked egg. Dr. Hosteson is interested in his readers' questions and whenever possible uses their questions in his column, but because of the great number received, he is unable to answer individual letters.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: Ever since I was little, I have been drinking quinine water with no ill effects. Would the continuing use of it would be bad for one's health? — J. L. Not necessarily. Some individuals are sensitive to the quinine — the usual symptoms being ringing in the ears and dizziness.

Note to Mrs. W. C. Without seeing it, I don't guess what this "patch" on your scalp might be. But since it is scaly, it may be a dandruff. I can certainly advise you to have it examined by your doctor. It could be anything from psoriasis to a fungal infection. I cannot answer individual letters.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: I am unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are answered in his column whenever possible.

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. I guess you're old enough for me to tell you the secret. The fact is that not all medicines are created equal. We have a new patent, it one brings better results for a given patient, you use it; if the cheaper drug does not do the job, then you use the other one.

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. Perhaps not so much for what it does to them as for what it does to us. Angel does not share my reservations as to the value of every involuntary victim of painful experimentation. For the sake of the innocent, it is a lot of unwilling victims. And it could be that our cruel culture is lessening living standards by contributing to our increasingly insensate disregard of one another and, indeed, our increasing abuse of our own bodies.

Shame if man gets where he wants to go but becomes something less than he is.

Man Is Arrested On Theft Count

Ronald R. Rytting, 26, Twin Falls, was arrested and charged with breaking into the Yuroc Motor Co. a week ago, police records showed Monday. He allegedly forced his way into the building, at 351 Main Ave. E., and took a combination radio and tape recorder. Arraignment on the charge of first degree burglary is pending, records show.

One of 12 talented Idaho cowgirls will be selected Miss Rodeo Idaho during the Twin Falls County Fair and Rodeo, host to the annual contest.

Gene Hill, chairman, said the winner will be crowned during the final night of the rodeo, Sept. 6, by Jackie Bodenhofer, Gooding, reigning Miss Rodeo Idaho.

The contest will be held Sept. 3-6, with activities and appearances planned each day of the annual county fair and rodeo.

Contest activities begin at 2 p.m. opening day of the fair when the girls meet with the judges and then meet members of the press and local dignitaries.

The girls will ride each night during the grand entry at the RCA rodeo, Mr. Hill said.

"Little tree time" will be open for the cowgirls, all from Southern Idaho, as judging continues at luncheons, dinners, receptions and service club meetings.

Miss Bodenhofer also will be named during the Saturday rodeo, Mr. Hill said.

Miss Bodenhofer, who has headed Idaho fair and rodeo circles the past year, is 20 years old. She stands five feet, three and one-half inches tall and is attending the University of Idaho where she is an elementary education major.

The dark-haired Miss Rodeo Idaho also was a finalist homecoming queen in 1967 at the U of I and has been a member of Robann's Fashion Board.

Miss Bodenhofer is a past member of the Miss Rodeo Idaho committee, Mrs. Karen James, Jerome, and Mrs. Alma Vickers, Burley, said.

This year's contestants in their round of activities.

Janie Fife was just recently named queen of the Jerome County Fair and Rodeo. The 18-year-old senior at Jerome High School was sponsored in that event by the Chamber of Commerce and will be representing her home-town fair and rodeo in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest.

She is a member of pep club, drama and speech club, Job's Daughters and Jerome Junior Posse.

Karma Jeppesen, Halley, will represent Ketchum Wagon Days in the contest at Filer. She is 19 years old, stands five feet, four inches, and weighs 119 pounds.

She is a graduate of the American School, Frankfort, Germany, and attends Utah State University where she was named Kappa Delta sorority's outstanding pledge. She also is a member of the Angel Flight drill team. Is sophomore class vice-president and a cheerleader.

Marcy Valentine, Caldwell, is representing the Buhl Sagebrush Stampede. She is 20 years old, stands five feet, one inch tall and weighs 88 pounds. She is a senior at the College of Idaho, where she is vice president of Delta Omicron. She is also a songwriter, is active in dramatics, Highland dancing and works with migrant children.

Representing the Snake River Stampede in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest is Sue Ellen Smith of Boise. She is 19 years old, weighs 118 pounds and is five feet, six and one-half inches tall. She plans to attend Boise State College. She has been a member of the girl's choir, Girls Athletic Association, Future Teachers of America and the Treasure Valley Barrel Racing Association.

Another Caldwell resident, 18-year-old Erika Schuster, has entered the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest as a representative of the Caldwell Night Rodeo. She has been a member of the Idaho High School Rodeo Association, drill team, pep club and is a graduate of Caldwell High School. She is five feet, five and one-half inches tall and weighs 117 pounds.

The Ada County Mounted Posse is sponsoring Vicki Richardson in the contest at Filer. She is a freshman at Boise State College and has been a member of the Boreal Night Rodeo drill team, high school and college rodeo teams and national science club. She is 18 years old, is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 114 pounds.

Carol Qualman, Nampa, is representing the Idaho Rodeo & Fair Association in the state queen contest. She is 24 years old, is five feet, four and one-half inches tall and weighs 125 pounds. She received a BA degree from the State College. She is a past vice president, secretary and treasurer of the Idaho Girl's Rodeo Association and was a director for the 1968 and 1969 rodeo queens clinic. Jenny Peterson of Lemhi is representing the Gooding County Fair and Rodeo in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest. She is 18 years old, stands five feet, five inches tall and weighs 125 pounds. She attended the 4-H People to People European Tour, has been a rodeo queen, tournament queen, a member of the pep club, drill team, paper staff, basketball team and a cheerleader.

Joyce Novak, 18, Buhl, is representing the Gooding County Fair and Rodeo in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest. She is 18 years old, stands five feet, five inches tall and is a senior at Buhl High School. She has been a member of the drill team, girls' track team, Idaho High School Rodeo Association and the Yasha Warriors.

Local entrant in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest is 19-year-old Carolyn Harvey of Twin Falls, representing the Hagerman Pioneer Days Rodeo. She is five feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 133 pounds. She is a sophomore at Colorado State University where she is associated with Chrisman Angel Flight.

She represented the National Honor Society, student council and president of Trips. She is the 1969 State High School all-around cowgirl and the 1970 high school rodeo queen. She has been Camas County Rodeo queen and Jerome Fair queen. She will attend Idaho State University.

Representing the Intermountain Arabian Association in the Miss Rodeo Idaho contest is 19-year-old Kay Bethson of Jerome. She is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 130 pounds. She is a sophomore at the College of Southern Idaho where she is secretary-treasurer of the Rodeo Club. She also is president of Phi Theta Kappa, Junior College National Honor Society.

Lana Brackenbury of Jerome is representing the State Posse. She is 18 years old, stands five feet, five inches tall and weighs 109 pounds. She is a graduate of Jerome High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society, student council and president of Trips. She is the 1969 State High School all-around cowgirl and the 1970 high school rodeo queen. She has been Camas County Rodeo queen and Jerome Fair queen. She will attend Idaho State University.

Family Purchases Smiley Creek Lodge Near Ketchum

SMILEY CREEK — Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bevis have sold their Smiley Creek lodge, cabins, and trailer spaces to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson and family, who took possession last week.

The transaction was consummated by Wayne (Pat) Patterson, real estate agent, branch of the Lynnwood Realty, Twin Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bevis have been at Smiley Creek 15 years.

The Johnsons are formerly from Anchorage, Alaska, where he was in the construction business. Affiliated with them in their new business "The Smiley Creek Enterprises" will be their four daughters and their husbands.

At the present time their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, Kimberly, and their daughter Mrs. James Bennett, Anchorage, together with four of their grandchildren, are at their new home. Mr. Bennett will come as soon as he closes his business interests in Anchorage.

Mr. Johnson said additional cabins will be built next year. The new building will be enlarged to accommodate larger groups.

Fishing tackle and bait has been sold at the store in the past and the new management is in the process of obtaining the necessary license to sell hunting and fishing licenses. They will enlarge their sports equipment department.

Another plan for the future is for wilderness pack trips.

Mr. Johnson said plans for a motel have been submitted to and approved by the Forest Service, and that also will be built on the four and one-half acres they have purchased. He said they have an option to buy 11 more acres lying just across Highway 93.

A small creek winds between the trailer pads and cabins and furnishes water to irrigate the lawns. Water is pumped from the Salmon river to irrigate the strip of land which was donated by the Salmon Falls Sheep Co. for airport purposes.

The Johnsons will add additional mobile home pads to the 29 now installed, and will have space for overnight trailers. They will continue to operate the gas tanks already at the store.

Merit System Includes State Vocational Jobs

BOISE (UPI) — Employees of the State Board for Vocational Education are not exempt from the merit system, according to an attorney general's opinion.

Asst. Atty. Gen. James R. Hargis wrote Director Edward W. Sawyer of the Department of Administrative Services that the merit system law exempted only teachers at state institutions or professional employees of the Department of Education.

"Because vocational education is neither a state institution nor a part of the Department of Education," he said, its employees are not exempt.

Sawyer, whose department must approve appointments, said that "we've just had a number of recommendations for appointments which had come in and we weren't sure whether this department was exempt."

Registration At O'Leary Is Set

New students who will be attending O'Leary Junior High School for long time next fall may register Sept. 3, 4 or 5 at the school.

Officials said registrations will be accepted from 9 a.m. until noon and from 4 p.m. to 4 p.m. on those days.

Fees are $12 for ninth graders and $11 for seventh and eighth graders, including books, towel fees, activity card and locker. There is a $10 per year band instrument rental fee.

GAS DOES THE BIG JOBS BETTER FOR LESS!

A gas conversion burner can bring your present furnace up to date this winter. Eliminate the messy cut shovelling. Get rid of the problem of ordering oil. Cut out burner maintenance costs, because the gas company will rent you a conversion burner and maintain it free. Save money, because gas flows gently on your pocket, book, too.

IT LIES GENTLE ON YOUR MIND

COMPARE THE BIG JOB COSTS FOR ONE YEAR
	GAS		ELECTRICITY
HEATING	$144.13		$308.84
WATER HEATING	28.50		38.88
COOKING	15.00		28.20
CLOTHES DRYING	6.00		24.24

The above data was prepared by Skensky Engineering, Inc. of Salt Lake City, an independent registered professional engineering firm. All costs are based on a moderate income family of four living in a typical southern Idaho home, using gas filled with the Idaho Public Utility Commission and in effect as of June 20, 1969.

U.S. Action Planned Against Schools To Enforce Integration

By CRAIG A. PALMER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Nixon administration is serving notice on 121 Southern school districts that they cannot continue operating segregated school systems even though their federal education funds have been cut off.

The Justice Department is going to be moving against 40 or 50 of them in the near future," said Leon E. Panetta, chief civil rights officer of the Health, Education and Welfare Department (HEW).

"They have already filed five suits," Panetta said in an interview with the new tactic—against school districts that are seemingly beyond government reach when they no longer receive federal education funds—is part of the administration's desegregation policy announced July 3.

Under this policy, the administration's key weapon against desegregation is through lawsuits, which often require years for final disposition. But the administration also may use the Johnson administration's favorite weapon—the cutoff of federal aid, which had immediate impact.

Among "kinks" Panetta described were Justice Department resources and the length of the process to develop and prosecute cases.

HEW hopes to beef up its legal division to better develop cases before they are referred to Justice Department, Panetta said, "so that a suit could be filed at an early stage. The key is to try to prevent additional delay in the courts."

And the Justice Department, too short-staffed to monitor districts under court order to desegregate, will allow HEW to monitor them, he said.

The administration will face another civil rights test when school begins—the problem of students demands for black studies programs and racially separate housing at colleges and universities.

Will it still be an issue as it was last spring when his office called on Antioch College in Ohio to submit regular reports that its separate black program was not violating the 1964 Civil Rights Act?

"I think so," Panetta answered. "This is tied to the whole campus unrest issue."

Panetta said government policy on the issue has developed beyond Antioch. HEW also has advised Duke and Cornell universities on their black studies programs.

"We have made it very clear that if even the standards used to admit students to black studies programs results in students of only one race being admitted, it raises the inference there is a violation of Title VI," he said.

Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act prohibits federal funds for programs that discriminate.

"Panetta said, however, he doubted the government would fund for programs that discriminate.

"Practically speaking, I don't think a college will risk losing federal funds to a black studies program," he said.

Panetta said reviews of about 50 Northern school districts have been conducted. Only one, the Ferndale, Mich. district, has been cited for non-compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

THE FIRST WOMAN to be hired as a pilot for a domestic scheduled airline, Miss Jo Claire Welch, 30, runs through a pre-flight checklist on Monday before a flight from Houston to Austin, Texas. She served as co-pilot on the flight of Air East Airlines. (UPI telephoto)

Co-Pilot Wears A Skirt In Flights Of Texas Airline

HOUSTON (UPI)—When Air East Airlines made its inaugural flight from Houston to Austin, Tex., Monday, the co-pilot wore a skirt.

A 30-year-old blonde, Miss Jo Claire Welch, 30, of Houston, was the first woman pilot hired by a regularly scheduled domestic airline.

The brunette—Miss Welch, only hours away from becoming a lady captain—captain's Captainess?—describes herself as "an old maid school teacher," more often addressed as "Hey, you with the skirt!"

The daughter of Mrs. Bertram Kinney of Seattle, Wash., she earned an English degree at Trinity University in San Antonio, and later taught eighth grade English in Odessa, Tex. She credits her uncle, Dr. Edwin Goodall, Breckinridge, Tex., for getting her interested in flying back in 1958. "He knows I have never been run of the mill," she said. "I thought of being a stewardess, but after seeing the cockpit, I knew I wanted to be a pilot."

Now with more than 1,500 flying hours, many in the airlines, six-passenger turbo-prop Navajos, she said she looks forward to flying the 18-passenger, Handley-Page Jetstreams, which the airline has ordered.

Fred Vost, Air East President, who hired Miss Welch, said "Why not? She is eleven acts as our executive qualified pilot, and she is a secretary," a position which is very talented young lady. She presently vacant.

County Judge May Rule On Autopsy

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (UPI)—Under advisement Monday a county court judge may rule Wednesday on whether the body of Mary Jo Kopeczne can be exhumed for an autopsy designed to help try to resolve "doubt and suspicion" surrounding her death in an auto driven by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy.

Army Ponders Action On Green Berets

SAIGON (UPI)—It will take at least a month before the Army decides what to do about the eight U.S. Green Berets accused of murdering a South Vietnamese civilian, informed U.S. sources said today.

The bottleneck is that a single court report took all the testimony in shorthand at the inquiry into the case last week and he is the only person able to transcribe the notes into written form.

It is complicated because the Army requires that the 500 pages of testimony be typed without an error.

After the transcript has been completed, Col. Harold D. Seaman of Hampton, Va., chairman of the investigation, will recommend whether the men should be court-martialed or the charges be dropped and it will go to Gen. G. L. Mayne, commander of Army support troops in Vietnam for final decision.

The eight Green Berets, including the commander of all Green Berets (Special Forces) in Vietnam, Col. Robert H. Rhenault, 43, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., were accused of planning and carrying out the murder of a Vietnamese civilian June 20 near Nha Trang.

Idaho Guard Units Return From War

MCGHARD AIR FORCE BASE, Wash. (UPI)—The first Guardsmen returning from duty in Vietnam arrived here Monday afternoon as the United States steps up efforts to withdraw 25,000 troops from the war zone before Aug. 31.

The 11th Engineer Battalion is the first and largest National Guard unit to arrive here.

Major Gen. George B. Bennett, Idaho state adjutant general, greeted the unit before they were escorted to nearby Ft. Lewis for processing and discharge.

The unit returns to Idaho this week for hometown welcoming ceremonies at Idaho Falls, Grangeville, Rexburg, Rigby and St. Anthony.

Deactivation will take place at Idaho Falls following a parade Saturday.

The 11th left for Vietnam last September and played a major role in keeping two major supply routes open.

Lt. Gen. William R. Peers, commander of field forces and now chief of the Army's reserve affairs branch, called it one of the finest units in its command.

The battalion is commanded by Lt. Col. Donald R. Gormley of Ashton, Idaho.

U.S. Protests Airline Joint Effort-Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Justice Department said Monday an agreement by 11 major domestic airlines for a joint automated reservations system was monopolistic and a collective boycott of competition in the reservation systems field.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Richard W. McLaren, chief of the Antitrust Division and Justice Department attorney, Bernard M. Hollander, asked the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) either to ban the agreement outright or to schedule full hearings on it.

The 11 airlines, which account for more than 70 per cent of the "domestic passenger business, have an agreement with the Air Traffic Conference (ATC) of the Air Transport Association to use the reservations system developed by ATAR Computer System, Inc.

The airlines are Alaska Airlines, Continental, Delta Eastern, National, Northeast and Northwest airlines; Southern Airways, Trans World Airlines (TWA), United Air Lines and Western Air Lines.

The CAB scheduled oral arguments Sept. 3 on the agreement proposed earlier this year.

Negro Judge Is Named For Fete

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI)—A Negro was named a judge Monday for the first time in the 48-year-old history of the Miss America pageant.

Dr. Zelma George, sociologist-educator of Chicago, was appointed to help choose the next Miss America from among 50 all-white contestants representing every state in the nation.

The pageant opens here Sept. 1 and climaxes with the crowning of Miss America of 1970 on Sept. 6.

Dr. George is executive director of the Cleveland Job Corps Center for Women. She holds degrees from the University of Chicago, the University of Southern California and New York University.

Junior Achievement Committee Picked

Two committees were named during a recent Junior Achievement of Twin Falls board of directors meeting. The committee to select members for the year's Junior Achievement program was headed by Grant Osterhout, president, and Fred Ott, finance committee chairman. The other committee, headed by Loren Wheeler and Wes Corvelli, publicity.

Horse Brain Fever Said On Increase

BOISE (UPI) — Idaho's Bureau of Animal Industry Monday reported a sharp increase this summer in equine encephalomyelitis or so-called "brain fever" of horses.

During the past few years only a few cases of the disease were reported by veterinarians and last year there were only seven in the Gem State. So far this summer, Dr. A. P. Schneider, director of state-federal cooperative livestock regulatory programs, there have been 39 such cases in Idaho.

Since man is susceptible, the State Department of Agriculture urged that horses be vaccinated. The vaccination requires two injections at seven to 14 day intervals.

Housewife Flown To Denver For Emergency Care

COUNCIL, Idaho (UPI) — A critically ill housewife was rushed to Boise by ambulance shortly before dawn Monday and then flown to Denver, Colorado, for emergency treatment.

Mrs. Don (Mary Ann) Coffey, 25, and who is attending physician in Council said appeared to be a terminal kidney ailment and that it was probably a matter of two or three days for her to live without special treatment.

Vandals Destroy Siphon Tubes

Twin Falls County officers Monday reported a large number of siphon tubes on the Bill Patrick farm southwest of Berger were destroyed over the week end, apparently by vandals.

The tubes, Mr. Patrick told sheriff's officers, had been piled up after being removed from irrigation ditches. Someone fired 22 caliber rifle shells into the pile, damaging nearly all of the tubes. Officers said they found a number of empty cartridges at this scene. Investigation continuing. No estimate of the damage was listed by Mr. Patrick.

MALTA — Appointment of William C. Price as ranger of the Malta District, Snake River National Forest, has been announced by U.S. Forest Service officials.

Mr. Price will succeed Frank McElwain who has been transferred to Ogden, Utah. A graduate of Utah State University, Logan, in 1949 with a B. S. degree in forestry, Mr. Price was employed as a forester in the Challis Forest with headquarters at Mackay. He was promoted to assistant district ranger there, serving until November, 1969 when he was transferred to the Fishlake Forest in Utah and served as a district ranger at Monroe until his present assignment at Malta.

Search Pressed To Nab Final Prison Escapee

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI) — Nez Perce County sheriff's officers concentrated their search in the Culedas and Lapwai areas 20 miles south of here all day Monday in hopes of capturing the last of three Idaho State Penitentiary escapees.

They may have flown the coop, said a sheriff's radio dispatcher of Leonard Ortega, 32. "But we think he's in the area and we have 35 men searching for him."

Roadblocks have also been set up in the Pullman, Wash., Moscow, Lewiston, Culedas and Kendrick, Idaho areas.

Suspects In Rape Case Arraigned

Two men accused of raping a Twin Falls woman last week were arraigned in Twin Falls Police Court Monday.

Both men asked for preliminary hearings and the cases have been continued.

Delbert Crawford, 24, was arrested last Saturday and John H. Richardson, 23, was arrested Friday. Both men are accused of raping the woman last Wednesday. Mr. Crawford is being held in jail in lieu of posting $1,500 bond and Mr. Richardson is free after posting that amount.

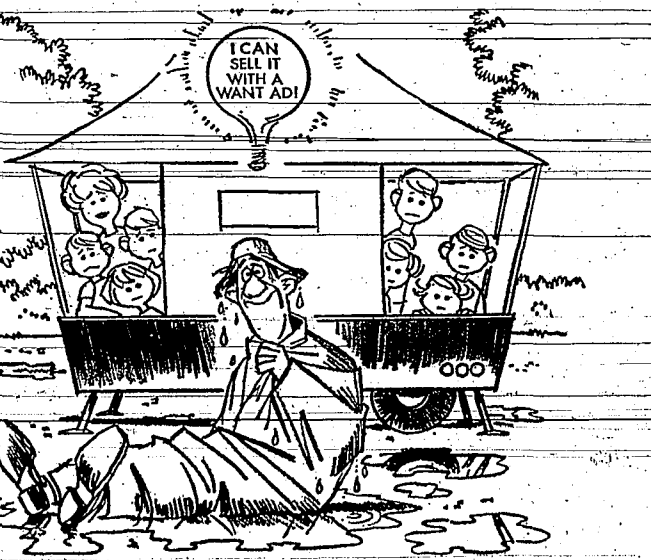

Filer Actor Helps Antique Company's "Shows Go On"

John Elliott of Filer stepped into the breach left by the illness of Rich Gardner last week so that the "show could go on" with the Antique Festival Theatre.

With only a few hours' notice, young Elliott played Gardner's roles in the two Boise performances Tuesday and Wednesday. With triple roles in "Tom Thumb," the trumpeter, "Cleopatra" and the "Ghost of Gaffer Thump," he was unsure of his newly learned lines but played with the confidence and stage presence of a real trouper and brought the house down with well-deserved laughter.

He worked for two years with the Buhl repertory group, has just finished as a drama major at CSI, where he will be remembered for his dual roles in "Oedipus." He worked in the summer drama program at the University of Texas, El Paso.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Stocks

NEW YORK (UPI) - The stock market moved into its second day Tuesday in moderate trading.

Analysts generally believed the softer tone stemmed from a continuation of the profit taking which began Monday after last week's sharp surge.

Gowder, the news background also was on the less conspicuous side. The Viet Cong reportedly stated President Nixon's decision to delay further troop withdrawals from Vietnam could result in heavier fighting.

Also, it was the general consensus - that the government would maintain its tight hold on the nation's money supply until further conclusive evidence of an economic slowdown.

Shortly before 1:30 p. m., the UPI marketwide composite showed a loss of 0.91 percent on 1,409 issues.

There were 944 declines and 296 advances.

The Dow Jones average of 30 blue chip industrials was up 9.30 at 822.14 near 1:30 p. m.

Q. Last year I invested $3,000 through an investment-counselor. You appear to have very little confidence in the firm, yet you are entrusting them with the management of a sizable amount of your capital. I would like to hear from you to carefully reappraise your thinking.

Since your stated goal is growth sufficient to keep pace with inflation, the move to common stock was a necessity. The type of short-term bond that you redeemed often used in order to "keep funds earning interest until a suitable investment opportunity presents itself. Bonds do not normally appreciate in price as do stocks, or, at least, recent years - bond market has moved consistently downward as interest rates increased.

New Officers To Lead Hansen Women's Club

HANSEN — The Women's Society of Christian Service opened with a song and prayer by the last official meeting of the outgoing president, Mrs. Kenneth Naylor. She reported that new WSCS officers will be installed at the Sunday morning church service by Rev. Delbert Remaley.

A letter of thanks received from Mrs. Edna Greenlee, Cascade, was read. She is the wife of a former pastor, and the letter was in response to cards sent to her at the time of Mr. Greenlee's death recently, at Cascade.

Since Mrs. Margaret Gardner has moved from the community leaving the office of Christian Social Relations vacant, Mrs. Remaley will fill that office.

Mrs. Marion Wall presented books to the society, urging them to be read to prepare them for missions. Mrs. Ralph Nelson reported there would be a churchwide study on China planned for the fall months.

The WSCS Hansen Circle Sept. 10 will be at the home of Mrs. Bryan Harris with Mrs. Joe Laughlin as leader. The Sept. 17 church meeting will be at the church with Mrs. Hugh Sanderson as leader. Mrs. Kenneth Naylor, Mrs. Vance Naylor and Wita Thomas will be hostesses.

Mrs. Austin Moore presented a pledge service program. At the worship center, she featured the new United Way colors, flaming red and gold, in ribbon and flowers. Red indicates the symbol of "Pentecost," God's guidance in the time of renewal. Gold represented continuity and golden cord or chain. The red rose represents love.

FASHION SHOW

... is topic of conversation at Boy Scout Cabaret. International Sunday at Ponderosa Inn in Burley. Sponsored by Roper's and The B' Mary Shop, the show featured fall and winter fashions for campus, work and play. Discussing show at left are Cabaret guests, Mrs. John M. Barker and Mrs. Harry Wilson, both Buhl. At right, one of the fashion models, Mrs. LaRee Hodges, also shows flare on golf greens, and was presented trophy at the Cabaret. the yellow rose, friendliness, constancy, and carnation, faithfulness. Together they mean response to God's Altar.

Mrs. Bryan Harris read an article—ways to serve—Mrs. Moore also read one, "Show Me Your Women's World." At the close of the program she passed the pledge card, which was filled in and returned.

Mrs. Naylor thanked members for their cooperation during her past two terms as president, and expressed the thought they would continue to do so for the new officers.

Mrs. Les Lowe, Mrs. Bruce Lulloff and Mrs. Hugh Sanderson were hostesses.

Events

Goodwill Club will meet at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ed Orndorf, 456 Jackson St.

GLENN'S FERRY — Birthday Month will be celebrated by members of Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma Society, at its Sept. 10 meeting in Mountain Home. Mrs. H. G. Stoddard is program chairman for the international honorary society for women teachers at the 7 p.m. dinner meeting.

Mrs. Gladys Medearis is hostess, and there will be initiation for two candidates.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a little imagination and a lot of self-confidence. No one expects you to compete in a fashion show. If you don't own a sewing machine, rent one and discover the joys of sewing. If you're all thumbs, surely you have a friend who isn't. If not, do a little bargain hunting. By all means, do, and have a good time. I admire your unwillingness to go into debt or to borrow. And I'll bet if you were to marry a captain in the air force, she wants us to come to the wedding, which will be very small, and she has asked my husband to give the bride away. (Her own father is dead.) Annie's fiancé also wrote us a very nice letter, asking for our blessings.

DEAR ABBY: Now I've seen everything! Coffee dispensers that look exactly like filling cabinets.

KAY IN SEATTLE

DEAR KAY: Beautiful! They'll match up perfectly with lots of coffee drinkers who look exactly like office workers.

DEAR ABBY: Our son was killed in Vietnam early in 1968. He left a widow (I'll call her Annie) and three small children. Annie was a good wife to our son and we love her very much. We recently had a letter from Annie telling us that she plans to marry a captain in the air force. She wants us to come to the wedding, which will be very small, and she has asked my husband to give the bride away. (Her own father is dead.) Annie's fiancé also wrote us a very nice letter, asking for our blessings.

DEAR SIMPLE: All you need

My husband and I would like to go because we want to meet the man who will be the "father" to our son's children.

The problem is our eldest daughter. She claims that there was something between Annie and this captain while our son was in Vietnam, and she says if we attend the wedding it will show that we have no respect for our dead son's memory.

She has raised such a commotion that it has left me sick.

We can't believe that there is any truth to what she says about Annie. Under the circumstances, what would YOU do, Abby?

TORN

DEAR TORN: I would go to Annie's wedding.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cowboys End Home Season On Split With Great Falls

Magie Valley's Cowboys bid goodbye to the home crowd by splitting a doubleheader with Great Falls Monday night and keeping their faint hopes for a Pioneer League pennant alive. The Cowboys, who open a three-game series with pace-setting Ogden Tuesday night, dropped the opener 12-4 but came back with a two-run seventh-inning, highlighted by Howard Duckworth's deciding hit, to win the night cap 9-8.

Conception Escalona's solo homer in the first inning put the Cowboys ahead in the opener and for three innings Gary Hagen protected it. But in the fourth Rick Gallagher slapped three-run homer and after that the Cowboys, committing a lot of errors, couldn't stop them. The Giants turned three errors into two on one play — into three fifth inning runs and got a three-run double from Gary Thomas in the sixth.

In the nightcap, Magie Valley jumped into a good early lead with Rowland Houston and John Rivers carrying home first in-base runs in the second after Great Falls had scored once. Escalona doubled in three to give Magie Valley a 5-1 lead. But that melted quickly when Nick Powers crunched a three-run homer in the third and Great Falls tied it up with an unearned run in the fourth. Magie Valley regained the lead momentarily when Jim Freeman doubled and later scored on Rivers' sacrifice fly.

But in the fifth, two walks, a wild pitch and Mike Fisher's double sent Great Falls ahead 6-5.

Rick Atkinson got one back when he doubled and scored on two wild pitches. Then in the seventh, Escalona redirted then for a pinch-runner, and Blanks walked. One scored when loser Tom Palmeren overtook first base while trying to get Rick Dahlgren. Then Duckworth singled into left field to decide it.

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI)—If good guys never win, favored Lindy is in for a disappointing afternoon Wednesday in the fourth edition of the Hambledonian trotting classic.

Lindy's fame is known for his high-gamblers who bet the horses generally rated the best chance to beat him, Dayan and "The Prophet," now and any good bet.

The Prophet, who finished second to Lindy's Pride when the 95 Hamb favorite won for a second time in 1967, is the crown in the Yorker's Futurity, is outfitted with a steel frame around his neck while in his stall to keep him from chewing off his leg wrappings.

Dayan, the winner in three of four meetings with Lindy's Pride, is shown to attract gamblers around his stall and sometimes goes off stride on the track.

But Dayan's driver, Fred Phillips, is first in making his first Hambletonian start with the bay colt, says Dayan has plenty of "heart," Dayan is 1977 Hambletonian winner Hickory Smoke.

Area State Patrol Team Keeps Title

RUPERT — Idaho State Police's district five shooting team won its title for the 1968-69 season in the initial police combat match in Idaho Falls.

Some 60 shooters from throughout the state participated. Team members include Jim Finch, Gooding; John Brewer, Rupert; Bob Brown, Durbin; and Larry Platt, Hatley.

Mr. Finch also was named grand champion shooter of the meet, with a total score of 585 of 600 possible points. Mr. Brown finished with 584, and Mr. Platt was fifth in the individual scores.

The team score was 2,310 of a possible 2,400, which is reported the highest score achieved by the team since it was organized four years ago. A trophy was awarded for the honor.

The winning team has a record of 10 wins against 10 losses, and Tuesday will participate in the Magie Valley Police Officers shoot-off in Pocatello, Sept. 8. The group will travel to Arco.

Isbell And Hutson Lead 30s Squad

NEW YORK (UPI)—It all started with Cecil Isbell and Don Hutson.

The Green Bay Packers' famed passing-catcho of the late 1930s and early 1940s set the trend for the passing game which was to revolutionize pro football a decade later.

Isbell, who played from 1938 to 1942 with the Packers and Hutson, who played from 1935 to 1944, were among the players honored as the best players of the 1930s in "The First Fifty Years," a book celebrating the National Football League's first half-century.

Besides Hutson, the ends named were Bill Hewitt, Payne Stirling and Gerald Buckley. The tackles were George Christensen, Frank Cope, Albert (Turk) Edwards, Bill Lee and Joe Stydhar, the guards were Beattie Herber, Arnie Hansen, Danny Fortmann, Charles (Buckets) Goldenberg and Russ Lallow and the centers honored were Mel Hein and George Svendsen.

The backs selected were Cliff Battles, Earl (Dutch) Clark, Beattie Herber, Arnie Hansen, Alphonse (Tuffy) Leemans, Johnny (Blond) McNally, Bronko Nagurski and Ken Strong.

Detroit To Protest Signing Of Haywood; Expects No Return

DETROIT (UPI)—University of Detroit officials prepared to formally protest to the NCAA today the signing of All-American basketball star Spencer Haywood by the Denver Rockets of the American Basketball Association, but they admit there's no hope of getting him back.

"The boy has signed a professional contract," athletic director Bob Callahan said Monday. "I don't think there is any possibility of getting him back. We hope this situation will clarify and get the NCAA to try and protect the universities from this type of thing, so it doesn't happen again."

Callahan was glad about the UD's basketball future this season without Haywood, who left this type of thing, so it doesn't happen again.

Coaches Are Appointed

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Acting head coaches in football and basketball and an acting athletic director were appointed by Marshall University Monday.

R. D. (Rocky) Tolley, a former Virginia Tech lineman and native of Mullens, W. Va., was named acting football coach. He joined the staff last February as a defensive line coach.

W. Stewart Way, 38, was named acting basketball coach. He came to Marshall in 1966 from Huntington High School where he coached 19 winning teams in 21 years. He was largely assistant coach to Eddie Johnson.

Charles E. Kautz, an assistant athletic director two years under Eddie Barrett, was named acting athletic director. Kautz, a former athletic director at Ironton, Ohio, high school and coach at Rock Hill, S. C., and Ceredo-Henry, W. Va., played football at Marshall where he was graduated in 1948.

Top Battles To Feature Final Night Of Jerome Race Session

Jerome — A card of outstanding races is scheduled for Tuesday night, the final session of the Jerome pari-mutuel meeting, headed by the Intermountain Derby, a 400-yard sprint for 3-year-old quarterhorses.

Another featured race will be the 400-yard Rapid Bar Quarterhorse Handicap for three-year-olds and up. Entered in the race is one of the top Quarterhorse racers now active in the country, Smooth Move, facing such top-notch competition as Miss Beggar Joy, Mims Copper Jet, Do Gooder, Status Symbol and Bulla Bam Blues.

A special attraction will be a grudge race, with Rapid Jack and Gentle Jack meeting head-to-head in a tenth race added to the card. Rapid Jack is owned by the Shoshone Sales Yard and is trained by Jimmy Gibbs. Gentle Jack is owned by Jack Wallace with Tate Fowler as trainer. Mutual betting will be permitted on this race.

Reds Stave Off Cubs For 9-8 Decision

CHICAGO (UPI)—Pedro Ramos came in on relief in the ninth inning to retire Paul Popovich with the bases loaded, four runs in and two out Monday, and Tony Perez drove in three runs with a pair of homers to beat his season RBI total to 100 as the Cincinnati Reds broke a four game losing streak with a 9-8 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Ramos took over for Wayne Granger with a 3-0 count on Al Spangler and proceeded to walk Spangler for the Cubs' final run before getting Popovich to fly out to Bobby Tolan. Popovich had led off the ninth with a walk and after Don Kessinger walked, starter and winner Gary Nolan was relieved by Granger.

Granger got the next two batters before Bob Saino doubled for two runs, Ernie Banks singled and Jim Hickman doubled for the third run of the inning.

Nolan, standing for only the eighth time this season, gained his fourth win against five defeats while Cub starter Bill Hands suffered his 11th loss against 15 wins.

Perez blasted his 31st homer after a single by Alex Johnson hit the first out for his 32nd with none on in the sixth.

Lee May hit his 34th homer for the Reds in the fourth and Cincinnati tied twice in the seventh on singles by Nolan, Pete Rose and Tolan plus a stolen base by Tolan and errors by Randy Hundley and Kessinger.

Blanda Marshalls Off Or On? Hoop Loop Merger Is In Doubt Castoff Kicks Lions

Raiders To 24-6

Win Over Jets

OAKLAND (UPI)—Forty-one-year-old George Blanda came off the bench in the fourth quarter and pitched a 23-yard scoring pass to Charlie Taylor to pick up a lethargic Oakland Raiders team Monday night and lead them to a 24-6 victory over the New York Jets.

Palmer Says Hip Better, Stays Home

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, after firing a one-under-par 71 Monday in his first round of golf since withdrawing from the PGA tour two weeks ago, said his burr is "plugged—right hip—felt a little better but not good enough to return to the pro tour."

Srock Slates Bowl Clinics Here Friday

Bill Srock, a member of the Brunswick advisory board in a benefit exhibition match. Palmer and Nicklaus spotted their older opponents 50 yards on each hole, playing the "Spalding's-Dub's-Dread course" at 8:10 yards. Nicklaus fired a three-under-par 69, but it was Palmer's shot at the 30th hole from nine that gave his team a three-up lead at the turn.

Red Fish Are Running In Idaho Streams

BOISE—Blood-red fish are again moving up into the tributary streams of several Idaho lakes and reservoirs, according to Walt Bethke, assistant fish hatchery supervisor. He noted that red is the breeding effort of kokanee salmon, the fathead and coho of the sockeye and redfish from which Redfish Lake in the Stanley Basin got its name.

Pentathlon Team Selected

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Paul Pesthy, Dr. Bob Beck, both of San Antonio, and Lt. 1st. Bill Conroy of Drexel Hill, Pa., were selected Monday to represent the United States in the Modern Pentathlon World Championships in Budapest, Hungary Sept. 21.

QB Spot Vital To Kimberly Bulldogs

KIMBERLY—The Kimberly Bulldogs will have good speed in the backfield with veteran halfback Mike Erickson back and will have some size and power on both lines, not lack an experienced quarterback as they try to improve upon last year's 2-5 record in the Little Six Conference.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Walter Kennedy, Commissioner of the National Basketball Association, and President Jim Gardner, who is owner of the Carolina Cougars in addition to serving as ABA president, said they look as if the NBA may pay the price.

Howard Bats Solons Past Minnesota 7-3

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Frank Howard went four-for-four, including his 40th home run of the season, to lead the Washington Senators to a 7-3 win Monday night over the Minnesota Twins.

Michener Is Winner In Rifle Shoot

Roger Michener of Jerome won the high score and Gary Gee and Bill Debbon shared the group prize in the Idaho bench rest club's match Sunday.

Barry Plans To Stay In West, Let Oaks Go East

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Oakland Oaks basketball star Rick Barry is planning to stay in the Bay Area, regardless of where the Oaks go.

singling of Billy Cunningham of the Baltimore Bulls. The signing of Cunningham came on the heels of Saturday's signing of Olympic star Spencer Haywood by the Denver Rockets with two years of eligibility remaining at Detroit University.

LUCKY LEAD SINKS... GAME JUMP-BID... A letter from Montreal discusses baseball and the Montreal 'Expos' for awhile and then turns to luck in duplicate. It seems that in a recent duplicate our correspondent arrived at a normal four-spade contract. West made the generally held opening bid of a singleton trump but East's trump holding was impregnable and the writer had no way to bring in 10 tricks. At other tables the nine of hearts was led. West would cover dummy's queen with the king. Declarer would win the trick, play out his ace and king of trumps, continue with king, ace and a low diamond which he would ruff. With diamonds breaking 3-3, declarer would enter dummy with the ten of hearts and lead a fourth diamond. East would ruff right in his South would discard his third heart and wind up losing just two clubs and a trump. We sometimes want to tell people they can find sympathy in the dictionary somewhere between sucker and sly, but I don't sympathize with this writer. We would have opened a heart with the West hand without any hesitation, but the heart lead should not have let declarer make the game. Bridge players have been brought up on the rules of "cover an honor with an honor" and "second hand high," but this was a time for neither. All East had to do would be to let dummy hold that first heart trick. After that play South would be condemned to defeat. He could set up the diamonds but would have no way to set to dummy to lead the fourth and would wind up looking for sympathy just as our correspondent did.

Table with 2 columns: NORTH and SOUTH. It lists various card holdings and scores for different players.

CARD SENSE

The hiding has been... West North East South... Pass 2- Pass 2-... Today's Question: Instead of bidding two no-trumps, your partner has jumped to four spades. What do you do now?

Only Woman Undertaker Known For Her Neatness

HOW NEAT!—Customer asks if there are any lady undertakers. Only known one in the north of Canada. She was widely heralded for her ability to clothe the dead most neatly. She achieved this reputation in the costuming of corpses by the use of numerous pins. These she did not weave into the garments, but simply stuck in straight. However, this fascinating fact did not come to light until some time after her retirement. SPANKING — A 16-year-old girl in California was spanked by her father about once a month and she asked, 'Is this normal?' I thought not. Now numerous girls of that age complain they get spanked regularly. NOW ON THE MARKET is a circular knife that cuts a slice four months of an inch thick. Must not forget to relate this piece of news to that Bell-Gallo on the couch face down, so restaurateur who once canned me for slicing the neck to thick. THAT PROPOSAL to put modest skirts on cattle was ridiculous—but not so ridiculous as something's haywire here, any old boy who still feels calls upon regularly to whale away at his 16-year-old daughter with a baseball bat or a flying man sweater—milk production went up by 30 per cent. PRIZE FIGHTS — How many punches are thrown during one round of an average prize fight? Inquires a client. A tough query, that one. Inasmuch as there is no such thing as an average fight. Still, a sports writer with a counting machine once reported that 1,000 punches were thrown in each of most of the 10-round fights he had witnessed. So approximately 10,000 punches per round must be the correct answer. Your questions and comments are welcome and will be used to a chair, ordered a 'Megasa, Up.' Address mail in L. M. the Geoffrey Chaucer's 'Wife of Bath' in care of P.O. Box 99187, Seattle, Wash. 98199.

SCUBA DIVERS found these guns on bottom of Lake Michigan near Shadd aquarium Sunday. Two amateur divers found the 17 weapons, mostly semi-automatic and automatic foreign-made rifles, while diving near the aquarium. Police said it appeared that the guns had been in the 65-feet water for only a short time. (UPI telephoto)

Ice-Breaking Tanker Seeks Passage Across Polar Area

CHESTER, Pa. (UPI) — The after leaving its berth Sunday morning, then returned to Delaware Bay to take on 184,000 barrels of fuel, the most bunker oil ever carried by a commercial vessel plus 20,000 barrels of special diesel fuel for U.S. Coast Guard and Canadian icebreakers which will follow the Manhattan through the northwest passage.

The Manhattan leaves its anchorage about 5 p.m. EDT bound for its next stop, Halifax, Nova Scotia, on Thursday.

The Manhattan began the trip with three blasts of its whistle at 11:20 a.m. Sunday, then swung down the Delaware River to the Atlantic Ocean. After following the U.S. and Canadian coasts northeast to Newfoundland, the tanker will steer north between Greenland and Baffin Island, threading a path through icebergs that will become ever more numerous.

Through Baffin Bay, the actual northwest passage will begin. The route through the Canadian archipelago may vary, depending upon ice conditions, until the ship reaches the Beaufort Sea above Alaska's north slope, thwarted from Prudhoe Bay.
