GOING TO ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. for the Miss America Pageant is like sending a battalion of Marines into combat. At least it is for Twin Falls' Diana Gall Hopperstad here. She is Miss Idaho and Wednesday received word she was to be in New York City Friday for an appearance on the Johnny

Carson show. This meant a hasty change in plans. With only three and a half hours sleep in 24 hours; Miss Hopperstad and her parents left Twin Falls Wednesday for Boise and the trip onward to New York City.

Argument Halts Supplies Of Food To Storm Victims

By United Press International

A federal official ordered a stop to the airlifting of food to the hurricane-ravaged Gulf Coast Wednesday. At the same time Mississippi and the Red Cross appealed for food donations.

George Hastings, head of federal disaster relief efforts on the Gulf Coast, said an adequate supply of food and clothing has been stockpiled. But Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams said there is a "desperate need" for more items and the Red Cross issued a call for food.

The contradiction over food apparently stemmed from whether the need was considered in immediate or long range terms. "I don't think anyone is suffering from the lack of food," said Hastings, an official of the Office of Emergency Preparedness. "They may not have a balanced diet, but they can certainly live."

The Red Cross and Williams took a different slant. "Food of all types is still needed—canned goods, stuff that would not spoil," a Red Cross spokesman said. "You never know until each night when they take stock just how much food will be needed."

The Red Cross announced Wednesday 153 persons had been killed in the hurricane in Mississippi and Louisiana, including 28 bodies as yet unidentified. The Red Cross said 4,500 persons had been injured and 275 remain hospitalized.

In Virginia the toll from last week's landslides and flooding was 34 known dead and 34 still missing. The count in the hardest-hit Nelson County, Va., was 53 dead and 82 unaccounted for.

Sen. Jordan Sees Action On Salmon Tract By '70

LEN JORDAN

Idaho's Republican Senator discusses the Salmon Tract water situation in interview here.

Final action on a project to provide supplemental water for the Salmon Tract can be expected by early next year, Sen. Len B. Jordan said here Wednesday.

The senator, speaking at a news conference at American Legion Hall, said the final report on the project now is in the Boise office of the Department of Interior.

It is expected to come out within a month with a favorable report, and then will go to the Bureau of the Budget. By the early part of next year it should be out of that bureau. Then, Sen. Jordan said, since it is a supplemental project, rather than a new project, it should have a high priority.

There has been some speculation around the state that Sen. Jordan will not seek another term in 1972. The senator seemed to refute this when, in answer to a question about whether he will run again, he asserted: "Well, let me say this, I haven't given any thought to not running."

Regarding the White Clouds and the Sawtooth National Recreation Area Bill, Sen. Jordan said there is a good deal more interest in the House of Representatives than in the Senate this year than when a similar bill died there last session, and he is hopeful they can get action on it in the near future.

Before it comes to a vote there, however, he said, he expects the House will hold hearings in the fall on the earlier hearings held by the Senate.

Asked about possibility of a change in mining laws after the Public Land Law Review Commission reports next year on a study it has been making for several years, Sen. Jordan said he did not think this is being considered.

When the present mining laws were set up in the 1870's, Sen. Jordan said, the intent was to "conquer the West. But, priorities change."

He noted that demands on the land resources for recreation and conservation are greater now than they ever have been. He also said that minerals are not as plentiful as they once were and other resources available on public lands, like timber and furs, are scarce.

Asked about protection of Idaho's water for Idaho, the senator said, "I hope some of us don't have tunnel vision on this."

He said Idaho has two of the three dams of much potential irrigable land as is now under irrigation, and inquired that merely protecting what water there is would be enough.

He said that because there is not enough storage space at the time of current being stored in the river to do more than take care of annual runoff, he can envision 10 day (maybe around 15 days) of water being stored in Idaho is going to have to pump water back into the state — "import water from other areas."

Weary Diana Wends Way To Fete

"The only thing I can do right now is scream for help. With those words Diana Gall Hopperstad fell back into a gold-colored chair, close to exhaustion, and waved her arms at the stacks of luggage at her feet.

Miss Hopperstad, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant of Twin Falls, is Miss Idaho. As such, she is the state's representative to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 6.

This is good, according to the black-haired beauty who took the Idaho pageant by storm recently with her musical talent. "I'm looking forward to the pageant very much, but I'm being forced to leave a couple of days early. You don't know what kind of problems this can cause."

Governor Backs Ravenscroft On Mining, With Reservations

By RICHARD CHARNOCK
BOISE (UPI) — Gov. Don Samuelson today said he would support restoration laws to assure promises of restoration are kept, would be "fine" providing that it is not an "out and out hindrance" to mining.

However, the governor said he felt Idaho already had sufficient restrictions on the books to require restoration — pointing to the dredge mining act in particular. He said, though, that if more legislation is necessary to assure reasonable restoration following pit mining then he would have no objection.

Meanwhile, Samuelson — along with two companions — gave newsmen a travelogue on his recent trade mission to the Southwestern Country Islands. He also announced appointment of Edward W. Rice, a Boise businessman and former city councilman, as state representative from Legislative District 15. Rice, who takes office Sept. 1, will succeed Lyle R. Cobbs, who recently moved from that district. Both are Republicans and Rice will seek reelection next year, Samuelson said.

Ravenscroft said that once the claims are patented they would come under Idaho law and therefore he felt the legislature should consider compulsory restoration.

Samuelson, who returned from the Country Islands trip Monday, said he felt there was tremendous potential there for development of markets for Idaho products—particularly agricultural products.

His view was backed by Gerry Mills of Boise—Gawande Corporation and Harold West, who represents the state Wheat, Bean, Pea and Lentil Commissions, Mills, West and Industrialist J. R. Simpson, accompanied Samuelson and Mrs. Samuelson on the trip.

University Needs Cited

A plea for the state of Idaho to heed the recommendations of the State Board of Education in funding Idaho's universities, was made here Wednesday by Eldon (Dick) Smith, Rexburg.

Mr. Smith said it is not easy to get men of the excellent caliber of Dr. Hartung, ISI President William Davis and Boise State President John Barnes, and added that currently there are only two excellent college presidents in the United States.

"I would be spotted more wisely. What we need is a schedule of priorities. Then, in an obvious reference to trouble experienced during the Legislature this spring, he said, "Government cannot justify taxing people to create a surplus and then spending it on the Legislature."

Israelis Hit Egypt Army Headquarters

By United Press International

Israel commandos struck deep into Egypt's heartland and blasted an army headquarters with powerful short-range weapons, Israeli military spokesmen said today. Egypt said the raid consisted of one plane which was driven off by ground fire.

Israel spokesmen said the raiding party shelled the Egyptian army regional headquarters at Manqah, about 200 miles south of Cairo on the Nile River, with 120mm mortar shells that fired a bigger shell than the mortars used by U.S. and Communist forces in Vietnam.

The Israelis described the raid as retaliation for repeated and continuing attacks by Egyptian snipers and artillery along the Suez Canal. Eleven Israeli soldiers have been killed there in less than two weeks. The raid came little more than 24 hours after the U.N. Security Council condemned Israel for launching air strikes into Lebanon two weeks ago.

Heyburn Bakery Unit Set

By United Press International

Representatives of the IIT Continental Baking Co., Inc., Wednesday announced plans to build a distribution center to help deliver its bakery products in the Mini-Cassia area.

shipment to Twin Falls, unloaded, reloaded, and shipped back into the Mini-Cassia area. Mr. Ward said "it will take two hours a day will be cut from the employees' schedule as a result of the new distribution point."

According to Ralph Ward, Los Angeles, regional vice president for IIT Continental, a 15-foot by 10-foot building will be built on a three-acre tract between 10th and 17th Streets facing Highway 39N on the north at Heyburn. J. J. Peterson of the announcement in the Ponderosa Inn he said that the Mini-Cassia area will operate from the distribution point—a superintendent, four delivery men, and one nightman.

The company's bakery product distribution to the Mini-Cassia area is currently handled from the Twin Falls installation. According to the bakery official, efficient distribution will be possible for bakery products produced in the company's Ogden plant for shipment into southern Idaho. Now the Ogden products are shipped to Twin Falls, unloaded, reloaded, and shipped back into the Mini-Cassia area.

FUNDING OF IDAHO'S institutions of higher learning came for discussion by Eldon Smith, left, member of the Idaho State Board of Education who spoke to members of the Twin Falls Rotary Club Wednesday. With him is Fred Wenzerski, club president.

Stalled Elevator Traps Society Woman Five Days

CHICAGO (UPI) — A socialite who spent five days trapped in an elevator in her near North Side home filed a $100,000 damage suit Wednesday against the firm hired to maintain the elevator.

Mrs. Rosemary Bauer Bull, 55, charged the Otis Elevator Co. with negligence in maintaining the elevator in her home.

Mrs. Bull's ordeal in the barely two feet square elevator began at 5 a.m. Thursday July 23, when she was on the upper floor (the four-story house) and took the elevator down to get a lemon, she said. "I paid $300 a year for elevator maintenance from Otis. I had complained about noises in the elevator and the repairman had come twice on the day before to check it," she said.

The elevator stuck between the first and second floors. Mrs. Bull was alone in the house. Her husband is dead. The elevator has no escape work, nobody works."

Migrant Center's Building Donated By Renewal Agency

Opening of a Migrant Center under sponsorship of the Community Action Agency for an undetermined length of time is planned by agency officials as a result of the loan of a downtown building.

Larry Mack, head of the local Community Action Agency, said Wednesday the building at 113 Third St. E., formerly the Gay Nineties Bar, has been donated to the agency by the Urban Renewal Agency and can be used until the Urban Renewal program reaches this area of the city anytime from January to August.

A work party is planned Saturday by community action staff members to clean the building. Efforts are being made to obtain donations of used office furniture and equipment in order to put the center in use as soon as possible.

The migrant program was only recently started in Twin Falls, and involves three field representatives working with migrant families and individuals.

These workers will use the new center for headquarters, and will meet migrants there. Mr. Mack said the center will also serve as a location for group meetings and social functions.

When the entire building is cleaned and in useable condition, he said, it also will house adult education classes and testing programs.

Records Near Completion In Bull JP Case

Transcripts are expected to be completed within the near future to permit the reconvening of a preliminary hearing for Kearney (Jack) Lewis. Bull charges of insufficient funds, check and improper use of county funds.

Mr. Lewis, former justice of the peace in Bull, appeared earlier before Judge Harry Turner, acting as justice of the peace in Twin Falls for preliminary hearing. His attorney and the office of county Prosecutor Robert Galley are awaiting transcripts of testimony given during the hearing before making final arguments. Judge Turner's court reported as soon as transcripts are completed the hearing will reconvene for final arguments and the court will then rule on whether or not the former justice should be bound over to district court for trial.

Vote Indicated On Charter Plea

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI)—Sponsors of a petition aimed at eliminating the Lewiston City Charter for the purpose of annexing Lewiston Orchards said Wednesday they have gathered a "sufficient" number of signatures to force a vote on the matter.

Joseph McArthur reported his group had gathered 427 signatures on the petition, which seeks to return the city to state law from the laws presently followed under the charter.

Under terms of the charter, the Lewiston Orchards area cannot be annexed to the city unless at least 50 per cent of the orchards residents favor the merger.

However, under state law, the city doesn't have to have the permission of the Orchards area residents to annex. It simply votes to do so, and the Orchards "has no say in the matter."

BURLEY—The public hearing on state lands will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 4 at the Henderson Inn, instead of 8 p.m. as previously announced, reports Rep. J. Vard Chaburn, chairman of the Legislative Council committee on state lands.

Nixon's Desegregation Policy Called "Retreat"

WASHINGTON (UPI)—until Dec. 1. "I think it was the most significant civil rights retreat in many years," said Pollak, now a Washington attorney. "I think it was a retreat and a harmful step."

The Justice Department and Education Fund broke off a long-standing working arrangement with the government Monday as a result of the Justice Department's decision to name a committee to draft a statement of grievances about the administration's school desegregation policies.

The dissident lawyers retreated into silence Wednesday to await the document, which is to be presented to their superior, Assistant Atty. Gen. Leonard, and to Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

Stephen J. Pollak, who preceded Leonard in the Johnson administration, said in an interview he thought the "every lawyer's actions were every valuable in pointing up the questions that have been raised" about the present administration's commitment to civil rights enforcement.

Pollak referred specifically to the recent administration request that the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals reverse itself and delay its orders for full desegregation in 30 Mississippi school districts from Sept. 1

Jack C. Landau, special assistant to Mitchell for public information, said, "We have no comment."

Mitchell, with President Nixon's San Clemente, Calif., was reported to be "concerned but not angry," Mitchell and Leonard, who was traveling somewhere in Louisiana, "were aware there was some grumbling down there but nothing of any magnitude," inside sources said. "I don't think anyone was aware it was of this peak."

Clifford L. Alexander, former chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) who resigned after publicly denouncing the administration's civil rights position, praised the Justice-Department civil rights lawyers.

Trees And Color

Most look forward to a good frost because they have believed down through the years that a frost will mean a change of color.

Now, Mr. Spectator has been told that frost plays no important part in the colorings: He got the "word" from officials of Kircher, Helton and Collett, Inc., Dayton, Ohio.

But reading that frost didn't have anything to do with the fall colors came as a shock to Mr. Spectator.

All season long, roots take up water from the soil and pass it up through the stems to the leaves.

When fall approaches, a microscopic layer slowly forms across the leaf stem cutting off the flow of nutrients from the soil.

Today's little Gem in comes from the College of Southern Idaho. Seems as though someone came up with the bright idea of taking pictures for the school annual at the same time the prospective students register.

Now the students are registering and the annual comes out when school is concluded next year.

But above that, students are registering with unkempt hair, old clothes, play clothes, five o'clock shadow, peeling faces from summer sun.

Finally, what about those that are still green in the fall? That happens in trees that do not completely lose their leaves.

WASHINGTON—Sen. Eugene McCarthy may run for reelection after all—in New York.

This is that he lay the groundwork for that by coming out for Mayor John Lindsay—who lost the Republican nomination and is running as a kind of independent candidate.

Lindsay is very eager for McCarthy's active backing; wants him to electorator for him in the impending fall campaign.

A Big Lift For The Nation

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Amid the persistent talk that President Nixon is shaping major domestic policies largely according to a "southern strategy," some significant critical voices are heard in the long run.

There is a small but articulate group of people in the media, the academic world and elsewhere, this source adds, which will not let Nixon ignore in any substantial way what it regards as the crushing problems of the cities—the racial struggle, poverty, pollution, etc.

As to the cities, the racial struggle, poverty, pollution, etc. are not limited to the old, established centers which for decades have been the principal bastions of Democratic power.

Two Fields

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I was recently accepted by a college for registered nursing, and now I've also been accepted for training as an X-ray technician.

I like both fields and am having trouble deciding which to take. My mother told me X-ray technician is a good field, but some people become sterile and are unable to have children.

As to the X-ray work, I've read about the radiation to cause sterility. Second, the risk is so well known that ample protection is now provided.

Everyone from the young man to the newest assistant wears a badge with a photo-sensitive film in it. These films are checked on a regular schedule.

If you choose nursing, there's a constant demand for nurses and a high salary. There's also a demand for them everywhere.

If you decide on the X-ray, you'll be a citizen. Children's hospitals not only have to do a great deal of very intricate X-ray examination, but also a great deal of very intricate X-ray examination.

I don't recommend pulling out such hair, simply because our noses are a natural habitat for various germs, especially the staphylococci. Even a single hair pulled out before and after, there is some risk of the germs infecting the spot from which the hair has been pulled.

I suggest snipping the hairs off close to the surface. Neither method will increase the hair growth in any way.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What is a Bartholin's cyst, and would it be better to have it removed?

There are two Bartholin glands at the vaginal opening which produce a lubricating secretion.

In one poem, he describes himself as "the existential runner" although he says most of his poetry has no relation to politics.

McCarthy, who has taken up bachelor quarters in a walk-in Washington hotel, says that his wife, Abigail, has long been in the making.

Although outwardly continuing to live together, they have been separated for some time.

They are Catholics; Mrs. McCarthy is a leader among Catholic laywomen. Also, they have four children—three daughters ranging from 13 to 21, and an 18-year-old son.

McCarthy dates from time to time with a feminine friend in the capital's ritzy French restaurants.

His attendance in the Senate is somewhat better than it was last year—when he gave himself 84½ days of absence.

He took no part in the liberals' long fight to revise Rule 22 on filibustering and was crucially active on the nonproliferation treaty and the so-called "national commitment" resolution to allow the Senate to claim a consultative role on any treaty before taking military measures or making crucial foreign-policy decisions.

In the month-long battle over the Safeguard anti-ballistic missile system, McCarthy showed up for most of the decisive filibustering and was crucially active on the nonproliferation treaty and the so-called "national commitment" resolution to allow the Senate to claim a consultative role on any treaty before taking military measures or making crucial foreign-policy decisions.

Most of the time he spent on joint discourse in which he said little about the ABM. Most of the time he spent on joint discourse in which he said little about the ABM.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: While pregnant I gained 32 pounds and so have quite a few stretch marks. Is there any way to rid oneself of these marks without noticeable? —R.S.V.

The marks will fade in color, but I know of no way to get rid of them.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a hammer toe on my left foot, which is a problem every time I buy new shoes. It has a corn on top of it which is very painful and also have a bunion and callus.

My medical doctor asked why don't I have the toe taken off. The doctor said no. What do you advise?

What's a hammer toe? Hammer toe can be a congenital deformity; it also can result from shoes that do not fit properly, are too short or too pointed.

Amputation sounds like too extreme a measure. I'll be sure to correct the deformity to a successful degree.

Corns and calluses, on top of the toe and at the end of the foot, are common and painful. They will persist until the deformity is corrected.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Does sugar diabetes have any effect on the sex life of a man? —L.S.C.

Low blood sugar — a puzzler until, correctly identified, — is often the cause of faintness, dizziness, visual and emotional disturbances. To learn how it can be identified and brought under control, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of your newspaper for a free booklet "Hypoglycemia," enclosing a long self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover the cost of individual letters.

Nasser Demands Summit

By United Press International
President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt announced his demand Wednesday for an Arab summit meeting to plan military action against Israel for the burning of the Al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem.

Nasser called for the meeting despite a decision in Cairo Tuesday by Arab foreign ministers to organize a summit of all Moslem nations which would include moderate and pro-Western states such as Turkey and Iran.

In a message to King Hussein of Jordan, Nasser said an Arab summit was "an urgent necessity."

Increased terrorist violence in Israel led police to clamp tight security measures across the nation Wednesday. The latest incident was a hand grenade tossed Tuesday next to a building where Deputy Premier Yisrah Alon was to speak.

At the United Nations, the 15-member Security Council unanimously condemned Israel for its air attack on Southern Lebanon villages Aug. 11. The council also denounced in strongest terms "any activities" of Arab commandos operating from Lebanon territory.

The two-day conference in Cairo of 15 Arab foreign ministers was convened in response to the move last Thursday at the mosque, the third most sacred of Islamic sites.

No date was set for the 40-nation, all-Moslem summit, which would be organized by King Faisal of Saudi Arabia and King Hassan of Morocco.

The foreign ministers also agreed to summon a meeting of the Arab League's Joint Defense Council early in November.

The session would study plans to mobilize the military strength of the Arab nations and improve the effectiveness of the Palestinian guerrilla movement.

Three Soviet-made Katyusha rockets, apparently launched by Arab guerrillas, hit Jerusalem Tuesday and barely missed a crowded hotel and a hospital for the crippled. There were no injuries.

Sixteen other unlaunched rockets later were found aimed at the city. Israeli officials said these missiles apparently failed to fire because of faulty batteries.

Israeli warplanes quickly struck back at the Arabs, launching attacks against guerrilla bases south of the Dead Sea. Spokesmen said all planes returned safely, despite light anti-aircraft fire. The raid was the second in as many days against Jordanian targets.

Scout Abuse Costs Leader His Position

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — An assistant scoutmaster has been dismissed from his post for neglect of duty in the case of a boy Scout who was allegedly tormented and abused by fellow scouts at a camp near Tupper Lake.

Louis A. Langlois, president of the Otsego County Council, said that an investigation by both the state police and the governing body of the scouts in Otsego County had confirmed the incident involving one troop of five boys.

The 12-year-old victim told his mother of the attacks after returning last week from the Massawepo Scout Camp in St. Lawrence County.

A Rochester hospital has confirmed that the boy had bruises and whip marks on the youngster's body.

Scout officials said the boy told the assistant leader of the attacks several times during the four-day period in which they occurred and that the scoutmaster took no action. He was therefore dismissed from his volunteer post, Langlois said.

A state police investigator will report his findings in the case to St. Lawrence County authorities. The Otsego County scout leaders said they would be willing to cooperate with any legal action taken.

The boys involved are 12, 13, 14, and 16.

Youth 'Freedom' Group Tries To Improve Public Relations

By DONALD BERNIS

Earlier this summer in Chicago the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) barred all newsmen from their convention and posted guards at the doors to check the identities of those entering.

The YAF, in contrast, has labeled most of its convention sessions "public events" and has been selling tickets. News men have been informed of the pre-convention activities and have been assured that their needs will be accommodated when the 1,400 delegates gather Thursday at the plush new Stouffer's Riverfront Inn overlooking the Mississippi River.

Michael Thompson, national secretary of YAF, said, "YAF hopes that the country's news media will find that a convention of responsible young people gathering together to make plans to improve our country is as newsworthy as the SDS National Convention in Chicago, where plans were laid to tear our nation apart."

Heading the list of guest speakers is Rep. Barry Goldwater, Jr., R-Calif., who will address the general session Saturday night. The list also includes Rep. Donald Lukens, R-Ohio, syndicated columnist William F. Buckley Jr., cartoonist Al Capp, the Rev. Daniel Lyons, editor of Twin Circle, YAF National Commander Raymond Gallagher, Republican Women's leader Phyllis Schlafly, Ralph McClintock of the Senate-Pulitzer award, III and Dr. Phillip M. Crane.

The convention runs through Saturday night.

State Senator Withdraws Plea On Corps Center

BOISE (UPI) — State Sen. Neil Solber, D-Grangeville, has asked the State Director of Correction to withdraw his application to use the Idaho State Job Corps Center as part of the prison system.

Corrections Director Raymond May has proposed to use the camp, located 28 miles upstream from Kootenai on the Middle Fork of the Clearwater River as a "Halfway House" for first-offenders and medium security prisoners.

Residents of the Kootenai and Lowell areas have opposed the use of the facility for that purpose.

Solber said this escape of three prisoners from the new prison site south of Boise's Goven Field has strengthened his opposition of those persons law enforcement available in toward use of the Job Corps area in case of escapes center as a halfway house. It from that center.

'Spy' Reports Say Russ May Plan China Attack

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Intelligence reports say the Soviet Union may be considering an air attack on China's nuclear installations as the highest level of concern over possibility of war between the two Communist giants.

The reports, coming from Communist sources of varying degrees of credibility, assert Soviet leaders have been sounding out their Warsaw Pact partners, as well as some Communist party leaders, in Western Europe, as to what their attitude would be if the Soviet Union were to take such an extreme step.

Some authorities here believe the reports have been planted by Moscow for psychological effect against Peking, in view of the steadily increasing bitterness between Russia and China and their recurrent border clashes, however the intelligence reports are considered very seriously at the highest levels in the Nixon administration.

The assumption of those authorities who tend to believe the reports is that the Soviet Union wants to determine whether such extreme action would cost it support within the international Communist community, particularly in Eastern Europe.

The reports all appear to be talking about a possible Soviet attack by bombers armed with conventional weapons against top nuclear facilities, if Soviet leaders are indeed considering such a strike even on a hypothetical basis, they must be weighing the military implications of such a move. If China should decide to retaliate by a massive land invasion of the Soviet Union along their 4,500 mile border.

The Soviets would then be faced with a decision of whether to use nuclear weapons against the armed forces China could throw against them.

The actual situation along the Sino-Soviet border is not entirely clear to authorities here, although one widely held belief is that the border incidents have resulted from "more aggressive" Soviet patrol operations, which spark Chinese reactions.

Students Dislike Appalachia

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government recruited 120 medical students from throughout the country to spend the summer in Appalachia with the National Administration there. Today the government had the students' reaction to their experiences.

Only 18 want to go back. "None of the married med students said they would return," Michael A. Nelson, a University medical student reported to the Appalachia Regional Commission.

"They hated the inconvenience there and there is no money in it," one student considered returning. And that's what the program is up against.

The commission spent $242,000 this summer to provide a pilot program for improved health care in Appalachia, one of the nation's most depressed areas. The 120 students were recruited through the Student American Medical Association, and they fanned out through Pennsylvania, Southern Ohio, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Alabama and Georgia.

Four of the students appeared before the commission Wednesday.

Edward D. Martin, president of the Student AMA, said one of the recruiting problems was lack of publicity about the program.

Shirley Black Admits Post With Nixon

WOODSIDE, Calif. (UPI)—Shirley Temple Black said today she had offered a job to the Nixon Administration but could not discuss it until the official announcement is made.

Black had it that the job was U.S. ambassador to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) but the Western White House branded this "totally inaccurate" today.

"I know what the job is, but it has not yet been announced officially. I just can't discuss it," the former child movie star said from her home in the wealthy San Francisco suburb of Woodside.

Mrs. Black, 40, campaigned actively for the Republican party in the 1958 elections and was an unsuccessful candidate for Congress.

In the 1930s she was adored by millions of movie fans in films as "Curtis," "Miss Marker" and "Curly Top."

Scribe Describes 'Noncert' As Quiet Type Of Concert

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It has become clear since the beginning of the Woodstock and Art Fair that many of the 300,000 young people who attended this "three-day" celebration would be within earshot of the bandstand.

If I were given to snide comments, I might call that "concert planning." But there is more to it than that.

It is, I'm convinced, the beginning of a new form of mass entertainment. In this country the "noncert."

A "noncert" is a concert at which no music is heard. Putting it another way, it is a noncert.

The potential popularity of noncerts became apparent to me as I was reading some interviews with rock fans who were part of the throng that ascended into the Catskills for the Woodstock Festival.

Although the music was over-performance, the group unanimously praised the festival as a smashing success. One of them predicted that if the festival is repeated next year, the crowd will be three times bigger.

It was, you see, the crowd that turned them on. The program, even had they heard it, would have been of secondary pleasure.

The next logical step, as I saw it, is to do away with the program altogether and simply draw a crowd. Billboards for such an event might read something like this:

"Mammoth Rock Music Festival—Crowd—Bethel, N.Y.—August 28-30, 1969—$2.50."

It is necessary, of course, to spell out in advance the type of crowd you are drawing. Otherwise you might get a bad mixture and nobody would have a good time.

Crowd enjoyment is by no means limited to rock fans.

Thais Link Pullout Rate With Vietnam

BANGKOK (UPI)—Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman said Wednesday the rate of withdrawal of U.S. forces in Thailand would depend on how fast Vietnam are pulled out of Vietnam.

The official made the statement in an interview with a local journalist and his remarks were later confirmed by a foreign office spokesman who said the rate of pullout of U.S. troops here would be the same as in South Vietnam.

Thanat also said that U.S. troops in Thailand would be retained here for the time being. The ants are the only ground forces directly involved in helping Thailand deal with local insurgency.

The United States and Thailand announced Tuesday that they would open talks Monday on a "graduated reduction" of the 48,000-man American force in Thailand. No specific date was given.

Sen. Charles H. Percy, D-Ill., who is on a visit to Thailand, told a news conference Wednesday the first American troops to be withdrawn from this country would be very small. He indicated the number would be somewhere between 1,500 and 2,500 men.

Percy said news reports that spoke of withdrawals of between 14,000 and 18,000 men "that were vastly overblown."

Chicagoans Still Remember Savage Rioting Of 1968

By BARNEY SEIBERT

CHICAGO (UPI)—The weeds are back on the vacant lots of Canaryville. Obscenities scrawled on the concrete in Lincoln and Grant parks have been erased by time.

The grass flourishes once more on the sward across Michigan Avenue from the Conrad Hilton Hotel, recovered from the scuffing and crushing of sandals and police brooms.

The barbed wire still tops the chain-link fence around the International Amphitheater as a reminder to Chicagoans of the bitter clashes between police and demonstrators at the Democratic National Convention a year ago today.

Some who confronted police in those bloody clashes in the parks and on loop area streets plan to attend a five-hour rally tonight at the Grant Park Band Shell, where they rallied Aug. 28, 1968.

The more than 500 persons hauled into court for convention week offenses since last August will remember. So will the 47 policemen disciplined for their actions during the confrontations. And so will the 600 or more persons injured in five nights of clashes.

As for Chicago, there have been a few changes. During a "peace" parade this month last year, marking the anniversary of the atom bombing of Hiroshima, police were almost fatherly toward the demonstrators.

And a split has developed within the Illinois Democratic party between those who approved and those who disapproved of the handling of the convention week protesters.

Although a number of scholarly groups, including the American Psychological Association, either canceled or deleted their participation in the conventions as a result of the clashes, the Chicago Convention Bureau says business has up to two weeks' warning of increased bursts of solar radiation heading toward the earth and moon.

Two Orbiters Are Lost In Space Blast

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—A Delta rocket carrying two space agency satellites veered off course early in flight Wednesday and was destroyed high over the Atlantic.

The second stage of a rocket carrying a $14 million Pioneer 10 satellite and an earth orbiting satellite malfunctioned, the space agency said, and destruct action was taken.

"It swerved past the destruct line, out of control," a spokesman said. No further details were immediately available.

The rocket was about eight minutes into its flight—about 1,000 miles out over the Atlantic—when the range-safety officer pushed the destruct button.

The Pioneer satellite was the major package lost. It was headed for a 368-day voyage around the sun to reinforce a network of interplanetary "weather" stations providing radiation forecasts for moon flights. It would have provided data on solar activity that has up to two weeks' warning of increased bursts of solar radiation heading toward the earth and moon.

Army Man Jailed For Selling Secrets

HEIDELBERG, Germany—American leftist magazine (UPI)—A U.S. Army sergeant Rampratt and other western publications.

The document in Attardi's soldier "top secret" files was reportedly doled with three years in prison, U.S. NATO contingency plans for Army European headquarters were revealed by a court martial July 23 of two charges—reproducing a classified document without authorization and "wittingly delivering it" to an unauthorized person. He could have been sentenced up to 12 years in prison.

Any Army spokesman said there is no connection between Attardi's case and this week's revelation that another top secret U.S. military plan had been mailed to the West German magazine Stern, the Attardi, who was a librarian in the U.S. Army European Headquarters, Classified Documents Center, also was sentenced to reduction in rank to private and a dishonorable discharge.

He is being held at the Mannheim Military Jail pending an automatic review of the verdict by the U.S. European Troop Command.

If the verdict is upheld, he will be sent back to the United States to serve his term, although the verdict would be subject to another automatic review by the U.S. military court of appeals.

Pinkston, 34, of Kingsfield, Ohio, court martial earlier and received a three-month prison sentence. He was convicted of "having unauthorized possession of a document relating to national defense."

He could have been sentenced up to 12 years in prison.

Any Army spokesman said there is no connection between Attardi's case and this week's revelation that another top secret U.S. military plan had been mailed to the West German magazine Stern, the

Large Suit Is Dismissed By Judge

A lawsuit filed three years ago and asking $1,765,215 in damages has been ordered dismissed by Judge Theron Ward in a ruling that the plaintiff is dead, records in Fifth District Court showed Wednesday.

Clay Doggett filed the suit against a number of fraternal organizations, and asked the damages because of a steam generator that exploded in the Buhl Art building, on Oct. 13, 1966.

He alleged he was injured seriously when the generator exploded, and said he was held in a wheelchair at the time of the mishap.

Judge Theron Ward ordered the suit dismissed because the plaintiff is now dead. He died last Aug. 12, records show.

His widow asked to be named plaintiff in the action but Judge Doggett is now dead. He died last Aug. 12, records show.

Railroad Shuns Gas Shipment

TOPEKA, Kan. (UPI) - The St. Louis-San Francisco (Frisco) Railroad refused Wednesday to carry a shipment of deadly phosgene gas through the Wichita, Kan., area because the planned route was a secondary line that might be dangerous.

Frisco representatives told Cio, Robert E. Deking, in a meeting their railway refused to take the shipment over the Wichita route even before the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) barred the movement as a safety measure.

Railway officials said they did not want to carry the World War II gas because of the chemical warfare over secondary tracks. Deking was concerned not only because of the danger to the gas, but also because of the large number of derailments in Kansas this year.

In the first six months of 1969, 76 trains derailed in the state.

Truck Driver Killed When Brakes Fail

ALBION - Richard Newbold, 44, Pocatello mechanic, was killed at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday when he was driving a 1956 Ford truck in the Howell canyon south of here when the brakes on his truck failed.

The truck went nearly half a mile while indications showed the driver was attempting to stop the vehicle. State Patrolman Charles Peugh said.

The truck slid sideways and went into the side of the mountain, then overturned onto its top, throwing the driver out.

Mr. Newbold was killed instantly. The truck was loaded with welding equipment and mechanic tools.

Mr. Newbold's body is at McCulloch Funeral Home, Burley.

Envoys Squabble Over U.S. Intent To Gain Viet Peace

PARIS (UPI) - Ambassadors to bring peace. He declined to speak at today's 32nd session of the peace talks, Lodge said the Communist delegates. "Contrary to your charges, the United States is in no way actively seeking ways to reduce hostilities in Vietnam."

Both North Vietnam and the Viet Cong have in past weeks charged the United States was intensifying hostilities.

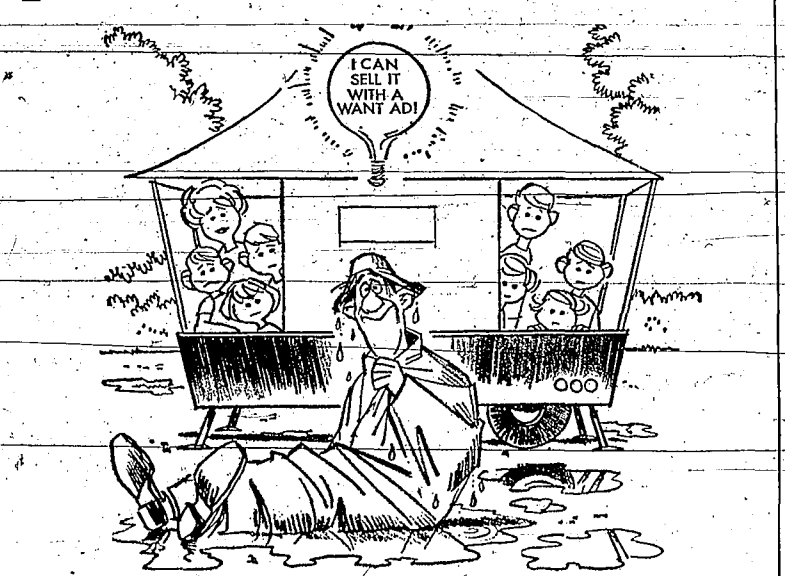

"Moreover," said Lodge, "for over a month now, B52 missions have been flown at a rate which is lower than that which obtained before."

When Secretary of State Rogers speaks about our willingness to take sensible steps for peace, he is talking about concrete actions, past, present and future," Lodge said.

"Regarding the future, President Nixon has made it clear that decisions regarding additional reductions (in U.S. troops) depend on the level of enemy activity, the progress in the training and equipment of South Vietnamese forces, and the progress of (South) Vietnam, and progress at these meetings."

Nixon Challenges Reds To Indicate Peaceful Intent

PARIS (UPI)—President Nixon will hold off announcing more U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam until the Communists demonstrate they are willing to end the war, Allied sources said Wednesday.

Nixon's chief peace negotiator, Henry Cabot Lodge, brought back that message Tuesday for the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese after consultations with the President in the United States.

Exactly what sign would be acceptable—a decline in battlefield attacks or a new move at the peace table—was not clear.

Nixon's initial 25,000-man pull-out was to be completed Thursday.

The message is clear—it is time for the other side to respond, to do something in return, one source within the Allied delegation said.

Nixon delayed indefinitely plans to announce another pull-out last week after Viet Cong and North Vietnamese attacks on the battlefield and no progress at the Paris peace table.

On his return, Lodge would not disclose what his advice had been on the matter but said Nixon "wants to leave no stone unturned for peace." Lodge spent 10 days in the United States.

A South Vietnamese official said "we are pressing for a response, and will continue to press them because our course is well-set and all we have to do now is continue in the same direction."

The 2nd session of the four-party peace talks is set for Thursday.

South Vietnam for weeks has been seeking a positive Viet Cong response to its offer to include the guerrillas in national

Infiltration Lag Believed 'Significant'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department said Wednesday it was significant that infiltration of South Vietnam by North Vietnamese forces has lessened in recent weeks.

A department spokesman, Robert J. McCloskey, cited this U.S. evaluation in urging Hanoi to negotiate withdrawal of all non-South Vietnamese troops from the country.

McCloskey told newsmen that indications reaching Washington were that in recent weeks there has been "a considerable reduction" of North Vietnamese forces moving into South Vietnam.

While he did not cite specific figures of troop and supply movements, he said reports indicated that North Vietnam was not replacing all its casualties in South Vietnam. As a result, there is a process of attrition in Communist strength, he said.

"We consider these facts significant," McCloskey commented.

However U.S. experts were mindful that the Communists are able to step up their activities sharply from time to time.

Kin Of T.F. Woman Tells Of 'Camille'

A helpful Mississippi newsmen brought good news to a Twin Falls woman, Mrs. Faye Hoffman, recently that her daughter-in-law and grandson had escaped Hurricane Camille in good shape.

Mrs. Hoffman, executive secretary of the Twin Falls Draft Board, said she had been concerned several days after Camille's approach to Gulf Coast, and particularly Biloxi, Miss., where her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Patsy Hiltner, lived. Mrs. Hiltner had not called, Mrs. Hoffman said, and she just knew if she were safe she would let her know.

An inquiry to United Press International apparently was successful; Mrs. Hiltner said a newsmen picked his way over the rubble of Biloxi and told her where she could find a working telephone. "There was nothing left in Biloxi—no passable streets, no phones, and few houses," Mrs. Hiltner said.

She and her 11-year-old son rode out the hurricane in their Biloxi home, though part of it was completely destroyed by the high winds, measured at 100 miles per hour, that accompanied the hurricane.

The survivors in Biloxi had little to eat and less to drink for several days, until relief supplies could be flown in, Mrs. Hoffman said. She was told "they had to drink the liquid from canned goods such as vegetables and canned potatoes, and then eat the food and drink," Mrs. Hoffman said. "But they managed somehow." At least, his folks are safe; now they can begin to rebuild.

$100,000 Lawsuit Filed In Court

A lawsuit asking $100,000 in damages in connection with an alleged farm mishap has been filed in Fifth District Court, records showed Wednesday.

Ernest Dittmore filed the suit against Charlotte Link, Lee McNitt, and the Link Land and Cattle Co.

Mr. Dittmore alleges he is a farm laborer and was working on the Link ranch June 25 when he was hurt while stacking hay.

He alleges defendant neglect in connection with the alleged mishap.

Turn Factory Over To Birds

MOSCOW (UPI)—A group of Moscow scientists proposed Tuesday that pigeons go to work in factories as assembly line sorters, freeing thousands of workers for more productive jobs.

"Like all honest laborers in the socialist society, they would be suitably recompensed."

The popular scientific journal Znanije i Sila (Knowledge is Strength) said pigeons have been tested in a large Moscow factory and proved they could successfully take a place alongside people in detecting flaws in machine parts. "In fact, they are better than people."

"Pigeons are cheap and they make very few demands," the magazine said. "The preliminary education of a new pigeon can take not longer than three or four days, and in two or three weeks the pigeons basic qualification increases."

Besides, Znanije-Sila said, "A pigeon has better eyesight than man and can detect smaller flaws than can be detected by man's eyes."

The scientists also maintained that the birds can read. Though they do not read books, the magazine said, they can differentiate among all 33 letters in the Russian alphabet and thus can be put to work sorting mail.

"If letters are used as a sort of code for zones, a line of 33 pigeons—each trained to spot one letter—could thus sort the mail according to its zone," it said.

The birds, of course, will have the rights of workers in Soviet society.

"All honest labor must be paid so from time to time a grain full from a feeder and lands at the pigeons feet," the magazine said.

They also will have time off from work, although they will need less than their human counterparts.

"As experiments show, pigeons can work several hours running, will not show any signs of tiredness or lessening of quality control," Znanije-Sila said.

The biggest problem it concluded, will be in overcoming the suspicions of factory managers who dislike the birds of having irresponsible jobs on their assembly line.

Man Is Found Dead At Home

Paul Pufahl, 39, was found dead in his trailer house home three miles south of Five Points last Wednesday.

Twin Falls County Coroner Cloyce Edwards has ruled the cause of death as a heart attack.

Mr. Pufahl's daughter found him, records at the sheriff's office show. He was discovered at 4:23 a.m.

Mr. Edwards said an autopsy or inquest is not planned.

Army Rejects 50,000 Rifles Failing To Pass Inspection

WORCESTER, Mass. (UPI)—The Army has rejected about 50,000 M16 rifles because they failed to pass inspection, the Worcester Telegram said.

The rifles, produced by the Harrington and Richardson Corp. since July 25 were reported turned down by Defense Department inspectors for defective barrels and bolt carriers, improper lubrication and discolored upper and lower receivers.

The M16, the main weapon supplied to American troops in Vietnam, has come under criticism for jamming during heavy use.

The army had previously accepted 22,000 weapons from Harrington and Richardson under a contract for a total of 240,000 rifles. Another lot of 8,000 is due to be offered by the firm next month.

Colt Arms of Hartford, Conn., which holds the patents on the weapon, is the Army's principal supplier and provides 50,000 guns per month.

C. Edward Rowe Jr., president of Harrington and Richardson, told the Telegram the difficulties were "minor problems with our quality assurance program, not problems with the rifle itself."

He said some or all of the rejected weapons could be corrected to pass the government inspection.

Rare Views Given On U.S. Economy

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Once upon a time an old man with a red beard was sitting in a rocking chair by the roadside eating a big bowl of rennet dessert.

People began stopping on the road to watch the old man eat his rennet dessert and pretty soon all the people in the world were gathered around the old man's rocking chair, so the old man put down his spoon and said:

"People, I am going to ask you a question—and if you answer correctly I will do something nice for you. When I have finished my rennet dessert, I will let you lick the bowl. Here is the question: 'The war in Vietnam currently is costing an estimated $11 billion a year. What would happen if the war ended?'

"The government would have an extra $30 billion to spend on new domestic programs," the people said.

"Wrong!" said the old man. "A recent report by the Urban Affairs Council shows that any money saved by ending the war would be consumed by military and civilian programs already on the books."

"The people were very angry and stamped their feet, so the old man said:

"All right, people, I am going to give you another chance—I will ask you another question and if you answer correctly you may lick the bowl when I have finished. Here is the question: 'It recently was disclosed that the government ended the 1968 fiscal year with a surplus of almost $3.1 billion. What effect did the surplus have on the national debt?'

"The debt was reduced by $3.1 billion," the people said.

"Wrong!" said the old man. "Treasury figures show that during fiscal 1969—the national debt increased by $6.2 billion."

The people stormed forward and threatened to turn over the old man's rocking chair, so the old man said:

"You people are poor losers and do not deserve to lick the bowl of my rennet dessert, but I am going to give you one more chance."

Here is the question: "The United States had 532,500 troops in Vietnam before President Nixon ordered 25,000 withdrawn. How many did it have after the withdrawal?"

"We've got you now," the people said. "The answer is 507,500."

"Wrong!" said the old man. "As of Aug. 2, the troop figure was 537,000."

All the people in the world smote themselves on the foreheads except one small boy on a tricycle. Asked why he did not smite himself, the boy explained that he had been studying "new math" in school.

WASHINGTON'S GENERAL By United Press International One of George Washington's generals was an American-born nobleman—William Alexander, earl of Stirling. He preferred to be known as "Lord Stirling" even while he was fighting the system his title represented.

Burley Hosts Boise, Bees Invade Minico As Valley Football Season Begins

Burley hosts Boise and Minico enters Bonneville in a pair of interdistrict features, while Jerome and Buhl and Valley and Murtaugh renew long-standing rivalries Friday night when the wraps come off the 1969 high school football season. Area teams will participate in seven games Friday and two more Saturday night but about three-fourths of the schools aren't slated to take the field until the following week.

Astros Beat Cards 5-1 In 10th Inning

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Doug Rader's tie-breaking double highlighted a four-run outburst in the 10th inning of the Houston Astros and Tom Griffin to a 5-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Norm Miller opened the 10th with a single and Leon McFadden ran for him. Curt Blefary walked and one out later Rader doubled home McFadden with the go-ahead run. Jimmy Edwards was intentionally walked to load the bases and Sandy Vidospino followed with a sacrifice fly, scoring Blefary.

An error by Dal Maxwell on Joe Morgan's grounder enabled Rader to score and Jesus Alou singled home Edwards with the final run of the inning.

Jim Wynn's sacrifice fly scored Morgan in the first inning to give the Astros a 1-0 lead. Morgan had singled and McFadden had scored.

Reichardt, Angels Drop Indians 4-1

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Rick Reichardt drove in three runs with a bases-loaded triple in the 10th inning Wednesday night to snap a 1-1 tie and lead the California Angels to a 4-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Joe Accio opened the 10th inning with a single off starter Sam McDowell. He moved to second on a sacrifice and then to third as Sandy Alomar bent out an infield hit. Jim Fregosi walked to load the bases.

Reichardt tripled down the right field line scoring three runs and placing McDowell with his 11th loss against 15 decisions.

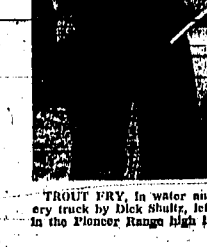

Hoyt Wilhelm, who hurled two innings of relief for the Angels, picked up his fourth victory against seven losses.

McDowell was coasting with a four-hitter when Fregosi honored to lead off the ninth inning to tie the game 1-1. The Indians scored their only run in the fifth inning when Eddie Leon singled with one out and scored on a double by Ken Surres.

The only thing that can be expected from Valley and Murtaugh is a close game. Last year the Red Devils had perhaps their best half-game of the year in running up a big score on the Vikings and weathering through calamity.

In another Friday night battle, the Twin Falls sophomores will be at Castleford for what is billed as a scrimmage by the Wolves and a game by the young Braves.

Helicopters Make Planting High Lakes A Breeze

At 9,000 feet and over there is no litter, no "no-trespassing" signs, no smog, not even what therefore was considered the ubiquitous-beer-can. In fact, there isn't much air. But there are fish in lakes, and because of that there are fishermen. Where there are fishermen, there also is the Idaho Fish and Game Department, putting thereabout for the angler to take.

Regional Fish Biologist Robert Bell, Jerome, assisted by other department men and the U.S. Forest Service, headed up several days of planting by helicopter in Idaho's tremendous high and beautiful 10,000-foot lakes. Bell planted 22 lakes in tributary areas, including Tully Mountain areas, including Tully Mountain areas, including Tully Mountain areas, including Tully Mountain areas.

MAKING A PASS over Betty Lake, 9,975 feet high and on the south side of 11,700-foot Standhope Peak, at left, a helicopter drops a load of 3,000 trout fry into a new home. The helicopter has made high mountain lake planting more or less routine at a time when lake fishing is receiving more pressure.

KANE LAKE, one of the most spectacular in the Pioneer Range and on the west edge of the Devil's Head area, is caught at early morning from a helicopter. The lake, 9,300 feet up, is fed from the snows on the northside of the mountain and empties over the waterfall at the lower part of the plateau to become Kane Creek. The Idaho Fish and Game Department bolstered the lake trout supply by 3,000. It is accessible through six miles of hiking.

Redlegs Dump Slumping Chicago 6-3

CHICAGO (UPI) — Alex Johnson barked in three runs with a homer and a double and Lee May smacked his 35th home run Wednesday as the Cincinnati Reds beat slumping Chicago 6-3, the Cubs' fourth straight loss and the seventh setback in the last 10 games in the National League's Eastern Division ladder.

Niekro Hurts Atlanta Past Pirates 1-0

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Phil Niekro hurled a six-hitter for his 18th victory of the season and scored the game's only run on a single by Tony Gonzalez in the sixth inning Wednesday night as the Atlanta Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 1-0.

Niekro, who joined the Mets' Tom Seaver as the only 18-game winners in the National League, doubled to open the sixth inning off starter Dock Ellis, now 9-14.

He took third on an infield single by Felix Millan and scored on Gonzalez's sacrifice.

Clemente hit a two-out triple in the bottom of the ninth but Al Oliver struck out Niekro's eighth at-bat victim. Atlanta 000 000 — 1-0. Pittsburgh 000 000 — 0. Niekro (18-11) and Oliver (9-10) pitched 9 and 8 1/3 innings, respectively.

Imagination? There Is No Room For That

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—When great-grandma went swimming, she wore more coverage than today's female on the ski slope. She wore drawers and corset, yet, under a wool dress with sleeves, long skirt and black stockings. How she kept afloat, let alone enjoyed the swim, is some sort of miracle. But granny was modest—as the mores of her day interpreted modesty.

She'd turn over in her chemise, for sure, if she were to see today's crop of swim suits hiding practically nothing. She'd probably have been as lewds with as much freedom as if they were "skinny dipping."

For swimwear has gone through a tremendous revolution with less noise about it than some other feminine fashion innovations, like the miniskirt or the Dior "new look." About the only real ripples came with the bikini and Rudi Gernreich's topless. Despite the fact that Rudi's topless caused a few years ago (and the wave of nude fashions it set off in other clothing), Gernreich is the most heralded in the latest documentation on "women's bathing and swimming costume in the United States." Its author is Claudia B. Kidwell, assistant curator of American costume at the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

But the bikini goes into the record—without mention—of Brigitte Bardot. Miss Kidwell says the bikini, although introduced in the United States in the 1940's, was slow in being accepted. Women were wearing the two-piece bare-midriff suits in those days.

Actually, the curator's work traces bathing customs and costumes from the ancient Greek and Romans. She tells of the growth of swimwear in the United States and Britain, finds one of the earliest references to women's bathing costumes in a book written in 1538 when mixed bathing was practiced in Zurich—"the women wearing only drawers, bathing with men." The first topless swimming for women began to be acceptable toward the end of the 19th century and in 1889 the College of St. Ann's school for girls, built its own indoor pool.

Annette Kellerman, Gertrude Ederle and Adeline Trapp, of course, helped to break down the barriers of swimming as a feminine sport and to get rid of some of the trappings on bathing suits. Miss Trapp in 1909 became the first woman to swim the East River in New York through the treacherous Hell Gate. Miss Kellerman gave swimming and diving exhibi-

Marilyn Koke is Bride Of Martin Sanders

Marilyn E. Koke, former Twin Falls resident, became the bride of Martin P. Sanders, West Co. vintner, Calif., in nuptials celebrated at Boniface Catholic Church, Anahiem, Calif., Aug. 16.

A buffet luncheon reception at the Anahiem Elks Club was held, with 150 friends and relatives attending.

The bridegroom, a CPA in accounting, is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Sanders, El Monte, Calif., and the bride, an interior decorator, is the daughter of Mrs. Marie E. Koke, Anaheim, and Dr. Ernest S. Koke, Twin Falls.

Couple Weds In Nuptial Mass

GOODING — St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, Gooding, was the setting Aug. 2 for the Nuptial Mass uniting in marriage Deborah Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Duane Johnson, and John Anacabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anacabe, Boise.

Father Spradue, Boise, solemnized the nuptial ceremony before an altar flanked by pedestal beauty baskets of pink gladioli and greenery. Pink satin bows and fresh roses marked the aisles.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride wore a white floor-length gown of organza tulle, sole over satin featuring empire styling and a portrait neckline. The sheer embroidered crystalline skirt was complemented by bell sleeves, and a white-satin-ribbon with a back bow accenting the empire waist.

Her bouquet of white gladioli and lilies ended in a floor-length train and was held in place by a bow. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's solid gold wedding band, a maternal keepsake, has been passed down to her through four generations. She carried a nosegay bouquet of pink roses and baby breath.

Karen Johnson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her four bridesmaids were Patty Wright, Gooding; Tina Shockey, Weiser, sorority sister of the bride; Linda Anacabe, sister of the bridegroom, and Jana Johnson, sister of the bride.

Janice Zollinger, Wendell, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink roses.

David Johnson, brother of the bride, Clint Benson, cousin of the bride, carried the rings and the white satin heart-shaped pillows. Paul Kennedy served as best man and groomsmen were Michael Kirk, Fred Mick, Ron Wassler and Robert Crawley.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Doris Simis. Linda Mathis was soloist. The cross-bearer was John Akoshinski and altar boys were Jim Wagner and Mike Sloman.

The reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church hall. The bride's table was covered with a flounce of white net over pink.

The four-tiered cake on a pink base was decorated with pink rosebuds, white bells and miniature swans. It was topped with fresh rosebuds, baby breath and a gold cross with wedding rings. While Mrs. Joyce Kirk, Boise, poured coffee and Mrs. Hazel Hargis, Boise, served the Delta sorority girls serenaded the bride and bridegroom.

The cake was cut by Mrs. Lucille Gulick and Mrs. Grant Zollinger, aunts of the bride. The bride was escorted by Dorothy Gulick and Cheryl Zollinger, cousins of the bride. Gift bearers were Kent and Kurt Benson and Larry Gulick, cousins of the bride. Terri Cone, Lewiston, a sorority sister, registered the guests.

Out-of-town guests attended from Boise, Jerome, Wendell, Lewiston, Spokane, Caldwell, Moscow, Sun Valley, Twin Falls, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Shoshone, Rupert and Hammet. After a honeymoon in McCall and Payette Lakes the couple will reside at 1604 Irene St., Boise.

SALT BEAUTIFIES SKIN

Ordinary salt from the kitchen shelf is another beauty aid for the frugal. A salt rub, which increases the circulation, will give the skin a glow and beauty. Simply relax in a tub of warm water for five minutes until your pores open, then massage with dry salt, and rinse in cool water.

DEAR ABBY: I am a waitress in a very nice restaurant which is located on an interstate highway. It's one of a well-known chain. I get very busy with a smile and try to give good service. Sometimes I exchange chat with my customers, but I never get overly familiar. I am happily married and have four children.

About three months ago a man came in alone and I served him. I don't know who he is or where he's from. He was well-dressed and well-mannered. He didn't talk much but he did tell me about his grandchildren. I also told him about my family and he never made a pass at me.

About three weeks later this man came in again and sat in my section. I remembered him, greeted him cheerfully and served him. When he left he gave me a hundred-dollar bill for a tip. I was flabbergasted! I really tried to give it back but he wouldn't take it.

About three weeks later he came in again, and the same thing happened. After it happened a third time I took the one hundred dollar bills down to the bank to find out if they were counterfeit. They were real and legitimate.

I haven't spent any of it. I'm afraid if I do, he might turn out to be some kind of eccentric and his family might demand the money back. He seems perfectly sane and nice to me, but I wonder now just what I should do?

PERPLEXED WAITRESS

DEAR ABBY: Please let a secretary answer GEMINI from a secretary's point of view. No marriage is threatened by a married man buying his secretary dinner when she works late to express appreciation for extra work or a job well done.

You told the wife if the boss wants to show "appreciation," he should try to give her the most part, I agree, but let me assure you that no amount of money paid by a corporation—not the boss—makes up for the inconvenience of an interrupted weekend, a 100-mile drive, working in a cold office because over the weekend the heat is turned off, typing for several hours, and missing dinner because the boss's insecure wife feels her marriage would be threatened if her husband took his secretary to dinner, I can assure all wives that after such a grueling work session, no secretary would possibly entertain any "ideas" about her boss. All the secretary would like is a nice warm meal and a kind "hello" when she is to ask in return for her inconvenience.

Powell To Pay $25,000

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House refused today to rescind its $25,000 fine against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. in exchange for dropping his claim for $55,000 in back pay.

Attorneys for the House of Representatives rejected the Powell proposal in a statement filed in U.S. District Court.

The Harlem Democrat had offered through his lawyers last week to drop his back pay claim if the House would nullify the $25,000 fine. It listed the condition of his seating in the current Congress last January.

But a House attorney, Bruce Bromley, told Judge George L. Hart that Powell's offer of no back pay coming to him because the House was entitled to "recover" $45,000 and "maybe more" that Powell allegedly misappropriated in House funds.

"He surely comes before this court with unclean hands," Bromley said, citing the finding of House investigators that Powell misused travel funds and other money.

Powell contends the back pay is due him as salary for the period he was illegally excluded from the 90th Congress.

Arthur Kinoy and Herbert O. Reid, lawyers for Powell, argued however that a Supreme Court decision that Powell was illegally excluded from Congress in 1967 required Hart to rule that the New York Democrat was owed the back salary and should not have been fined.

Hart, declaring that the fine was an act of the current Congress and not an issue in the previous seating dispute, gave Powell's lawyers until October 10 to file an amended complaint if they wanted to raise the fine issue.

Hart repeatedly noted that the case represented a confrontation between coordinate branches of government—the judiciary and legislative—and observed that the Supreme Court had given him little guidance.

In ruling that Powell was unconstitutionally denied his seat, the Supreme Court merely referred the case federal district court for "further proceedings consistent with this decision."

Nazi Victim Repays Debt With Gift

LONDON (UPI) — Arthur Nussbaum spent three months in a Nazi concentration camp in Dachau, and when they finally let him out he looked for a new home. London offered him one.

Now, Nussbaum, 81, is trying to find a way to repay England and gave the country's British Museum 30 drawings which experts said could be worth $240,000.

"This country gave us refuge," Nussbaum said. "We cannot repay that."

The drawings, he said, were all his family had left of the possessions they brought from Vienna when the Nazis released him from Dachau on condition he leave Austria within six weeks in 1939.

"It was always my desire to give the drawings to the British Museum," he said. "You have no idea how wonderful it was to be welcomed to England in 1932."

The drawings date from the 15th to the 17th centuries and include works by Van Dyke, Currigin, Van Hemskerck and Bruegel, all of which have been stolen from public view for more than a half century.

Idaho Youth, 19, Dies Of Injuries From Car Wreck

CAIDWELL, Idaho (UPI) — Rene Codillo, 19, Route 2, Caldwell, has died in a Salt Lake City hospital from injuries sustained in an Aug. 18 traffic accident in Canyon County.

Codillo received chest and leg injuries when the car he was driving collided with a truck on Highway 19 west of Caldwell near the Marsling Boulevard intersection. He was transferred to Salt Lake hospital for further treatment after initial medical treatment in Caldwell.

ODD EATER

CHICAGO (UPI) — The motorist was quite candid when he sent a check to pay for two parking meter offenses. He wrote "Wall Clerk of the Mineola, Mont. Police Court."

"This check covers payment of two tickets, one of Nov. 10 and one for Nov. 12, which my son ate. Thank you."

Missiles Mark Protest

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Workers on the superstructure of a new 64-story steel company building rained down peach pits, chicken bones, fruit and other lunchbox items Wednesday on a crowd of persons demonstrating in the street below for more construction jobs for blacks.

Two persons were struck on the head by missiles, but police said it was not known who did the throwing. A woman was hit with a plastic container filled with a liquid and a man was hit with a rock. Both were taken to Allegheny General Hospital.

Police moved into the building, being erected for the U.S. Steel Corp. as its new headquarters, and cleared the upper stories of workers who lined the beams to drop the debris on the jeering demonstrators.

When police also moved the demonstrators to places across the street from the building, they were pelted by rocks and soft drink bottles thrown by the demonstrators. However, leaders of the protesting groups halted the missile throwing quickly and police did not move against them.

The demonstrators, who at times numbered about 1,000 and included both blacks and whites, sought to halt the construction work until more blacks were hired on the project.

They acted after their leaders met for one hour with executives of U.S. Steel in the company's current headquarters, the U.S. Steel-Mellon Bldg. The leaders were unsuccessful in efforts to have the firm voluntarily halt construction work until the issue of black hiring was resolved.

The new U.S. Steel building, across the street from the William Penn Hotel, will be the tallest office building between New York and Chicago. It will cost more than $100 million to build.

It was the third consecutive day of mass demonstrations protesting alleged discrimination against the hiring of blacks on major building projects in the city. Tuesday, more were injured, none seriously, and nearly 200 arrested in clashes between police and demonstrators.

Protest leaders said the demonstrations would continue until their demands were met.

Nixon Welcomes Johnson

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI)—President Nixon gave his onetime political foe, former President Lyndon B. Johnson, a colorful birthday welcome to the Western White House Wednesday.

The President and his wife, Pat, were beside the helicopter landing pad to greet the former chief executive as he arrived from El Toro Marine Air Station with his wife, Lady Bird, and their two daughters and their husbands, Maj. and Mrs. Charles S. Robb and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Nugent.

David and Julie Nixon Eisenhower were also on hand at San Clemente to greet their young guests.

The President and Johnson got in a golf cart and drove to Nixon's office for a chat of about one hour.

The ladies and the three young married couples proceeded also by golf carts to the Nixon residence where they planned to visit with each other prior to lunch.

This was Johnson's first birthday and the highlight of the day was to be an early afternoon trip to the Redwood National Park in Northern California for the dedication of a grove of trees named after the former first lady in tribute to her work in beautification and conservation of natural resources.

Nixon had a sizable number of staff members and friends on hand for the arrival. Also present was a Mexican band in costume, obviously in recognition of Johnson's taste for Mexican music.

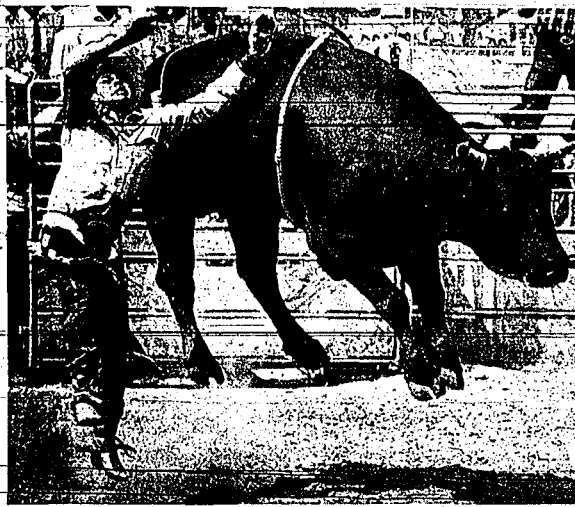

Highway Agency Launches Drive To Spur Safety

BOISE (UPI) — The State Highway Department has launched what it terms "operation safety," whereby it hopes to alert motorists to driving hazards including roadwork machinery.

The department took special note of the approaching Labor day weekend and urged drivers to start their holiday trips as early as possible and to be alert to direction signs in construction and maintenance areas along the highways.

Construction and maintenance crews also will be taking advantage of the holiday weekend, the department said, so no major work is anticipated throughout the state.

"Motorists, however, should be doubly alert to watch for signs that indicate areas of rough roadway or short detours," the department said.

"APOLLO 11" re-enters the arena with a bang, though seemingly calm about it all, while cowpoke Red Morgan of Crawfordville, Ind., seems grimly determined not to let the affair get him down. The not-so-quiet "re-entry" took place recently at the Indiana State Fair at Indianapolis. The bull named after the recent moon voyage apparently decided to "eject" his rider early in the trip. Kennedy May Face Court Subpoena

EDGARTOWN, Mass. (UPI)—District Judge James A. Boyle said Wednesday that if Sen. Edward M. Kennedy did not voluntarily appear at a scheduled Sept. 3 inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne, he would issue a subpoena to force him to appear.

"It is essential that Mr. Kennedy be present as a witness at this inquest," Boyle said. "If he does not appear voluntarily, I will see that a subpoena is issued for his appearance."

Robert G. Clark Jr., one of Kennedy's four attorneys, assured the judge that Kennedy would be present when the inquest opens next Wednesday.

Boyle made his comment at a pre-inquest hearing into the case filed in which Miss Kopechne died when Kennedy's car hurtled off a bridge into a pond on Chappaquiddick Island last month.

Dist. Atty. Edmund S. Dins revealed that he had asked Judge Boyle in a letter to postpone the inquest. However, Dins told the judge today, "I want to withdraw that request for postponement. The Commonwealth is ready to go forward on Sept. 3."

The attorneys representing Kennedy and others who attended a party on Chappaquiddick Island prior to the accident the night of July 18 pleaded with the court "to establish ground rules for the inquest."

"It strikes us there should be certain ground rules," Clark said, "such as cross-examination of witnesses—all those elemental rights guaranteed by the constitution."

"We ask you in the name of justice" Clark continued, "to give us the basis and the grounds on which this inquest is going to proceed."

Attorney Paul J. Redmond, representing the five girls who attended the party along with Miss Kopechne and also three friends of the senator, told Judge Boyle:

"We don't want to stall this inquest. We want it to go ahead. But without ground rules we are operating in a vacuum. It would put us in an untenable position to advise our clients."

700 Motorists Will Die On Monday

By MURRAY J. BROWN UPI Travel Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Something like 700 Americans who could read this today won't be around reading anything come Tuesday. They'll be dead.

This is the projection of the National Safety Council—in Chicago which notes: 597 men, women and children died on the nation's highways during this year's Memorial Day holiday, and 690 died during the July 4th weekend.

Most of the "accidents" are attributed by the experts to driver errors and carelessness. If you are not a nut yourself—and look out for the nuts who never learn—you'll have a good chance of coming home from your weekend alive and in one piece.

First, of course, you will have made sure your car is in top shape before setting out. You'll have checked, or had a mechanic check, your car's brakes and the tires, including the spare, the windshield washers and wipers, headlights, stop lights and tail lights, and the battery.

You won't block your view through the rear window, particularly with golf clubs, fishing rods, skis or similar objects which can become deadly projectiles if you have to brake suddenly.

You won't ride without the seat or chest belts fastened. If you have a baby riding in one of those detachable seats, you'll make sure it is firmly fixed and won't tear loose on sudden stops.

Here are some other lifesaving tips:

- Never stop suddenly on a highway unless in an emergency. If you miss your turnoff, it is safer to continue to the next exit than to back up or cut across traffic. If you must stop, get off the highway if possible. If you can't, open the hood and trunk and set up lines a safe distance away. Never stand in the road behind your car and try to wave off oncoming drivers.
- Don't tailgate, particularly at high speed. Leave plenty of space between you and the car ahead—but without disrupting the stream of traffic. Be doubly cautious during the early morning and late evening hours when mist or dew can make the roads slick.
- Allow cars pulling out of the highway in front of you ample time and space to move into the flow of traffic. Don't cut across the white lines on approach or exit lanes unless they are free of cars.
- If you are driving long distances, take a break every two hours.
- Shift your position behind the wheel from time to time so you won't get too comfortable and become drowsy.
- Keep the windshield and other windows clean. Lower your headlight beams when approaching oncoming cars, or when catching up with one in front.
- Don't exceed speed limits. See you on Tuesday?
