BY MARGE LIERMAN
Times-News Correspondent

FILER — Fairtime, I d a h o style, swung into its second day as the gates opened for Twin Falls Day Thursday, which drew ten sets the largest crowd of the four-day fair.

Wednesday's attendance of 12,021 registered at the gate showed an increase of almost 2,000 over 1968's first day at the fair, officials said. General admission and attendance showed a 49 per cent increase over last year's first night. Thursday morning began with a quarter horse working event at 9 a.m., in the rodeo arena, followed by 411 beef and dairy cattle quality judging. A grand prize demonstration at noon, in the center of the race track, was followed by free afternoon programs in the rodeo arena and Merchants Building No. 3, the grand champion rosette for the fair, the Appaloosa stallion, quality and breeding and beef and dairy fitting and showing.

The initial performance of the grand champion quarter horse, Keesler, rodeo Wednesday, was a speed with which the show and the vigor of the winners. Larry Stevens, Filer, received the grand champion rosette for the Appaloosa stallion, quality and breeding and beef and dairy fitting and showing.

War Glory Junior, owned by Jim Allen, Nampa, was named grand champion stallion in the quarter horse class with a blue ribbon and won a blue ribbon quarter horse. One of the most enthusiastic bidders at the fair each year is Mrs. John Moore, Kimberly, who has won a blue ribbon winner.

Mrs. Moore, 54, this year entered 15 entries in the kitchen and pantry department and won blue ribbons on most, including a novelty shaped one. She also entered several articles of needlework and won a blue ribbon for her quilt. Needlework entries are especially fine this year with many heavily-figured on display. ## Burley Council OK's 18 Hole Golf Course

BURLEY — The Burley City Council accepted a proposal for an 18-hole golf course project over a negative vote during their meeting at city hall.

The council, in Tuesday's session, voted in favor of the project despite Councilman John Croft's negative vote. He disagreed with Mayor Joe Peters on the cost of the course.

The course plan will be spread over several years, according to the mayor. Mr. Croft contended at the present time the city can't afford to undertake such a project.

In addition to the golf course, the project includes additions to the bent docks along the Snake River and Mayor Peters told the council the city has 60 floating docks ordered, which will be stored at the city sheds on arrival and the city will place another order for 60 more in the near future.

The docks come free from the state and the city plans to build another retaining wall along the Snake River and install the bent docks, build additional rest rooms with the $10,700, which is the state money due Burley.

The mayor added that improvements to docks at Tom's Marina could also be financed through the state funds.

Mr. Croft complained to the council that the work of city crews was costing the city the same as paying someone else to do the work. He criticized the

North Viets Mourn Death Of Ho Chi Minh

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnam's leaders called today for a week of national mourning for Ho Chi Minh and urged citizens of the country to turn their grief into new revolutionary activities that would defeat the United States and liberate South Vietnam.

Hanoi radio announced the 79-year-old Ho died Wednesday of a heart attack that followed a long illness, ending a career that made him one of the greatest revolutionaries of modern times—at a cost of nearly 3 million lives in two "years of national liberation."

The consensus in the capitals of the world was that the death of the mystical leader who was "Uncle Ho" to his followers would mean no change in the conduct of the war in Vietnam and no retreat from Hanoi's "hardening" position at the Paris peace talks.

The Viet Cong delegation to the Paris talks vowed that "the cruel loss of Ho would inspire them to intensify the war against the United States. The talks themselves were postponed a week so Minn Thuy, the chief Hanoi negotiator, could attend the state funeral.

Most Western political experts predicted a long period of collective government for North Vietnam under the nation's top Communists before any power struggle is resolved. There are strong pro-Peking hard liners and strong pro-Moscow softeners.

Moscow and Peking lost no time in starting an all-out race for predominant influence with the new regime.

China announced it was sending a delegation led by Premier Chou En-Lai to the funeral; Moscow indicated Premier Alexei N. Kosygin would attend.

Southeast Asia experts in London said rival pressures are likely to tilt the power struggle in Hanoi in favor of a middle of the road leadership to ensure continued neutrality between Moscow and Peking. Moscow asked for loyalty to Russia; Peking urged allegiance to Mao.

Pay For Officials Doubled

BY FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

The Twin Falls City Council in a "last-chance" meeting Wednesday evening, doubled the salary of members of the council and approved a $788,330 tax levy.

The actions took two ordinances, but both were read and passed in 10 minutes.

First, the council accepted a decision of the State Tax Commission, which approved the city's request to levy beyond the 104 per cent limitation imposed by the last Legislature.

The decision by the commission allows the city to levy an additional 3.51 per cent to bring the levy to the exact amount budgeted by the city last January.

Mayor Egon Kroll said, "because of the time limitation we should suspend the rules and read and pass this ordinance now." The ordinance establishes the tax levy, setting the figure at $788,330. Under ordinary circumstances, an ordinance must be read three times at three different meetings. If there is an emergency, the council can suspend the rules and act on an ordinance immediately.

Because taxing units must certify their levies by fall there was not enough time to hold the ordinance up for three meetings, or a month and a half, according to Mayor Kroll.

Hue Shelled

SAIGON (UPI)—A Communist rocket attack early today on the former imperial capital of Hue killed one Vietnamese civilian, wounded six others and destroyed a house, military spokesmen said.

It was the first shelling of the northern coastal city, Vietnam's third largest, with a population of 150,000, in three weeks.

Spokesmen said two men and a woman were killed and 12 others were injured shortly after 2 a.m. The attack was one of nine mortar or rocket attacks carried out by Communists Wednesday night and early today.

Gooding Man Dies In Blaze

GOODING — A night watchman identified as John E. Walker, died in a trailer house fire on the car lot at Leo-Rice Motor Co., garage 7735 35th St., Gooding, shortly after midnight, Wednesday.

City and county officers were investigating the death Thursday and said it had not been determined if he died of burn or suffocation.

The fire was reported at about midnight and when fire trucks arrived the "small trailer" in which Mr. Walker resided was engulfed in flames.

Mr. Walker had been employed as a night watchman for the automobile agency this summer and lived in the trailer on the automobile lot. He has no known relatives in this area but officers said next of kin in Kansas were being notified Thursday.

Dr. Pike's Wife Voices Hope, Joins Arabs Seeking Husband

By PETER D. LYNCH

BETHLEHEM, Israel (UPI)—The wife of Dr. James A. Pike, former Episcopal bishop of California, said today she is coming here to help police searching for her husband.

She joined scores of Israeli policemen aided by Bedouin women setting out for the third day in 100 degree heat to look for the 56-year-old Pike, missing since Monday.

"I am still confident that he has returned to the area and that he is still alive and waiting to be found," said Diane Pike, an attractive 41-year-old blonde who is Pike's third wife.

"The police have told me that people have been known to survive for up to seven days. They have got to go on hoping that I will happen again."

Mrs. Pike, her arms and legs covered with bruises from a one-hour walk for help, said she had asked a soothsayer in Haifa to help police searching for her husband.

Mrs. Pike described how her husband was lost in the desert west of the Dead Sea. They were exploring "as part of a month-long trip to Israel."

Monday evening the couple heard voices and stumbled and fell down the side of a steep hill into the camp of an Arab construction gang. They took her to the Bethlehem police station where the search for her husband began.

Their Ford Corina then stuck on a pile of boulders and they were unable to move it.

"We got out of the car and started heading in what we thought was the right direction but we only became more lost," she said.

Her husband collapsed two hours later, near sunset, and she left him under cover on top of a hill then wandered on alone into the night shouting for help in Hebrew and Arabic.

Resource Board To Ponder Dam

BOISE (UPI)—The State Water Resource Board will hear a review and analysis of the Swan Falls-Guffey Dam proposal and a number of other reports at a meeting in Boise September 12.

An aerial tour of the Swan Falls-Guffey Dam site area on the Snake River will be conducted prior to the start of the meeting.

Chairman Charles Marshall, Jerome, said that Robert Hagg and Robert O'Connor of the Idaho Power Co. would present the review and analysis of the Swan Falls-Guffey proposal to the board.

Record Rain Halts Traffic In New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—A record rainfall snarled highway traffic, disrupted electrical service and knocked out some rail service in the New York metropolitan area today.

The rainstorm began at 4 a.m. Wednesday and thus far had dumped 5.6 inches in parts of the New York City area.

The rainstorm began at 4 a.m. Wednesday and thus far had dumped 5.6 inches in parts of the New York City area.

The weather bureau called this a "major" but "fairly unusual" because it remained over the city "dropping the heaviest rainfall in the metropolitan area."

The Long Island Rail Road, plagued by equipment shortages and failures for an extended period—was forced to suspend all service to and from Brooklyn because of flooding in a tunnel.

Many main arteries leading into Manhattan were reported impassable because of flooding in low-lying areas.

The Holland Tunnel linking New York City with New Jersey under the Hudson River was reported flooded and motorists were advised to use either the George Washington Bridge or the Lincoln Tunnel as alternatives.

Diana Competes In Evening Gown

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (Special to the Times-News)—Twin Falls' Diana Galt Hopperstad swam through her first night of competition at the Miss America Pageant here Wednesday by the results of her efforts won't be known—at least until Saturday.

It was the preliminary competition in evening gown in which Miss Hopperstad appeared with 14 other girls. Results of this competition are not known until the swimsuit and talent competition.

Miss Hopperstad, Miss Idaho this year, stirred her day early Wednesday. There were two interviews by judges, followed by general and dress rehearsals for the pageant Saturday.

"I'll do the whole day through in a sleep and rehearse," Miss Hopperstad laughed. "No wonder I have blisters on my feet. I'll be going to bed with a sore and a drink solo with the orchestra."

She said she won't get too nervous when she appears in the talent competition, her specialty.

Miss Hopperstad keeps getting fruit baskets from Idaho and commented, "I love and I hope to lose weight with this kind of treatment!" She thinks she is six pounds too heavy, at 110 pounds, but another Twin Falls woman attending the pageant to watch, Helen Henderson, said, "It's not true. She's just right."

In other activities Wednesday, Miss Ohio, who measures up at 30-23-36, won the first section of swimsuit competition, wearing a "pink" suit which elicited wild applause from the audience.

Patricia Jo Brunnett, Miss Idaho, won the first round of talent competition with a flowing rendition of Verdi's "Caro Nome," an operatic ballad.

SWIPT UP in the whirl of activity surrounding the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, N.J., Diana Hopperstad, Miss Idaho, takes time to pose for a photograph and give an interview for her hometown newspaper, the Times-News. Diana took part in preliminary evening gown competition Wednesday night. Results of this competition are not announced, but count towards selection of the 10 finalists in the pageant.

Allies, Reds Struggle Across Cambodian Border

SAIGON (UPI)—The U.S. Command reported today for the first time that Allied troops had battled Communist troops inside Cambodia. The incident occurred after a U.S. helicopter was downed by ground fire in Cambodian territory.

Spokesmen said the pilot of the chopper was forced to land one mile inside Cambodia Monday, after it was hit while carrying troops on an assault on the South Vietnamese side of the frontier.

The U.S. Command also announced 10 Americans were killed during the fighting Wednesday in South Vietnam in the crashes of an AC47 "Spooky" fixed wing gunship and a helicopter.

The helicopter forced down in Cambodia was one of three choppers carrying South Vietnamese mercenaries hired by the Green Berets in an action in Kien Tuong Province, communist territory.

Spokesmen said the pilot was forced to direct his crippled craft to the "most desirable emergency landing site" and be set down on Cambodian soil, about 35 miles west of Saigon. After the landing the helicopter burst into flames.

Five of those aboard were able to scramble out into the bushes, spokesman said, but one man died in the crash. The five — two U.S. servicemen and three mercenaries — were injured.

When the injured men came under automatic and small weapons fire, the other two helicopters in the flight landed at the crash site and their passengers were discharged to provide security. They killed two Communist soldiers in an exchange of fire, spokesman reported.

The injured man from the downed helicopter was evacuated by a medical helicopter and the remainder of the Allied force crossed back into Kien Tuong Province, carrying with them the bodies of the two Communist soldiers and a captured Chinese Communist AK47 rifle, spokesman said.

Communists reported eight Americans died Tuesday when their AC47 gunship, a modified version of the old C47 cargo plane which is equipped with machine guns and used to support ground troops, crashed 35 miles west of Saigon. Spokesmen said cause of the crash was unknown.

Seven Americans, including four servicemen and three passengers were killed Wednesday, spokesman said, when Communist ground fire downed a U.S. Army "Huey" helicopter near an air base about 90 miles north of Saigon.

The U.S. Command today announced 10 Americans were killed on Vietnam battlefields during the week ending Wednesday. Another 1,057 were wounded. The figures for the previous week were 100 killed and 1,357 wounded.

At least one bichemist is alarmed, anyway. According to Dr. Henry Sobel, chief of aging research at Sepulveda Veterans Hospital in Los Angeles, the longevity gap between the sexes will soon be 10 years unless something is done...

How ingenious! I shouted.

Information On Income Tax Is Released

Income tax liens and levies on unpaid 1968 returns now being issued can result in seizure and sale of wages and property, Internal Revenue Service information office, John Andruzzi, said Wednesday. He advised taxpayers who receive delinquent notices to make immediate arrangements to pay full, otherwise collection enforcement actions are required, Mr. Andruzzi said the same cannot properly allow some taxpayers extended time when most people pay their taxes when due, often making sacrifices to do so.

He explained the Internal Revenue Service is held responsible for fast selling results.

Ho's Death Is Expected To Have Little Effect On Hanoi War Policy

UPI Diplomatic Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials believe the death of North Vietnamese Premier Ho Chi Minh will have only a "substantially" effect on Hanoi's war policy for the foreseeable future.

Some of the leading candidates are labeled as pro-Moscow and others are described as leaning toward Peking. But all are fundamentally strong Vietnamese nationalists dedicated to Ho's objectives of unifying the country under the Lao Dao (Communist) party. Among those who might eventually take Ho's place, four are most prominently mentioned.

South Vietnam under Communist rule in any settlement. But he has usually sided with moderate elements in Hanoi whenever it has been a question of choosing between Moscow and Peking.

Cabinet To Meet Nixon Summons His At California Site

By MERRIMAN SMITH

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (UPI) — President Nixon announced his full cabinet session today as the western White House remained silent on the death of North Vietnam President Ho Chi Minh.

There was no indication the seven-day mourning period for Ho was being observed today, but a temporary reprieve on the battlefield. If it does, the United States would be expected to go along as it has in the past.

FIREMEN MADE A last-second midair catch of a falling construction worker in Wheeling, W. Va., Wednesday after a steel-erecting crane was damaged during the firemen's ladder, clinging to the side of a wheeling business building for more than 20 minutes, then fell just as firemen reached for him — and caught him. The catch was made over 80 feet above the ground. A second worker, John Marklewicz, fell to the ground and was seriously injured. (UPI-telephoto)

Weather has done what the U.S. Supreme Court did not — forced a temporary halt to today's Project Rulison nuclear test blast in Western Colorado.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced late Wednesday it was postponing for at least 24 hours its plans to detonate a 40-kiloton nuclear device underground in the Colorado Rockies. The detonation had been scheduled for 3 p.m. today.

At the moment, those who expect more violence and those who expect less violence are evenly divided. More or less, 50-50. The prediction to break the tie.

Dear Abby
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose a 29-year-old girl should know better than to get herself in a fix like this, but it's too late now. Billy got me in a family way. (He is 42.) He said he would marry me right after harvest time. He didn't have any cash on hand so I bought myself a set of rings and started right off wearing the wedding band because I was starting to show. I paid 30 dollars down on the rings and 2 dollars a week. Then I had a miscarriage. Billy says there is no sense in marrying me now. So now I am stuck with no husband, no baby, and a set of rings. What should I do?

DEAR LULU: I think you are well rid of a man who might not have gotten around to marrying you at all. I don't know how you would find the rings, but perhaps the jeweler will take them back if you agree to stand some loss. Under the circumstances I think you came out ahead. And by the way, next time, use yours.

DEAR ABBY: I know a man who insists that there is no such thing between a man and a woman as a "platonic" friendship. He says that given the time and opportunity they will form a physical relationship. What do you think?

DEAR ABBY: Near where I live is a creek, which naturally is a big attraction to the adventurous little neighborhood boys. One day I was surprised to hear the father of one of the boys tell the whole bunch that there were monsters in the creek—and if they played near it, the monsters would catch them. I disapproved of this "scare technique" from the start, but I just kept my mouth shut. It's true that the boys don't play near the creek any more, but I think more harm than good was done by that monster story. Today I had a washing machine in my back yard room. They were afraid to leave because "the monsters are out there." (This was in broad daylight. I wonder what they dream about?)

I also wonder what will happen when Junior finds out that Daddy lied to him.

Personally I think it is wrong to lie to children to make them behave. Good-old fashioned (and mean) discipline builds better characters in the long run.

As it says in Proverbs 22:6: "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

TRUTHFUL RANGER

DEAR RANGER: I'm with Proverbs.

DEAR ABBY: ASK THE MAN who is the monster parent if he knows whether he has a male or female bird, if he has a female, he had better forget about trying to get it to talk because only the males talk.

And by the way, Abby, do YOU know how to tell the difference between a male and female bird? I know only to another parent.

PARAKEET OWNER

DEAR OWNER: The male parakeet has a white, unmarked stripe across his breast. The female has a clear, blue stripe.

Book Reveals Memoirs Of Jacqueline Kennedy

By HELEN THOMAS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mary Barrell Gallagher insists her book "My Life with Jacqueline Kennedy" is not a "hatchet job" but a "balanced, fair" picture of the former First Lady which "future historians should have."

In an exclusive interview with United Press International, the gentle author explained why she wrote her revealing memoirs of the years as personal secretary to Mrs. Kennedy, now Mrs. Aristotle Onassis.

"I didn't do it for sensationalism or to make a million dollars," Mrs. Gallagher said. "I insisted to my editors that good judgment, good taste and discretion be the guidelines."

"People kept asking, what is Jackie really like? I felt I should tell it like it was," she said.

Mrs. Gallagher's book, edited by Frances Spatz Leighton and published by Dutton, "Mystery Company, Inc.," will hit the stands next Monday, Sept. 8. Excerpts published in the Ladies Home Journal caused a sensation.

"Devout," "Jackie" fans were livid. Some wrote irate letters to Mrs. Gallagher. Others applauded her for setting the record straight after years of the idealized and "authorized" versions of Mrs. Onassis' life and times.

"People can criticize all they like," says Mrs. Gallagher. "No one has called me a liar."

"If President Kennedy were coming to my house," Mrs. Kennedy herself said, "remained as a widow of the President, no one on this earth could have gotten me to say one word about my experiences with them, she said.

"But now they are both a part of history," she said. Mrs. Kennedy has abdicated her position and moved to another country. The same "battling of the budget" she spent more money in one year for family expenses—$121,461.61—than her husband's annual presidential salary "If I was not saying she was a bad wife, I was trying to show the average woman how the beautiful people live."

The book is rich in little insights into Jackie that were unknown to the American people, including:

"Jackie wanted to make sure someone would stand up for her to Miss at St. Peter's who would know when to stand up and when to kneel down."

"I never saw Jackie reprimand or spank the children. If they became noisy or irritated in any way, she would call out, 'Miss Shaw, please come in and take them away.'"

"She wanted fresh sheets for every nap and her stockings pressed."

On the airplane going to Dallas, Kennedy checked at the door of his wife's cabin to see if she was "all right." "Yes, Jack, I'm just fine. Now will you just go away," she said.

Mrs. Gallagher said she did not expect or want the book to "change my life." She "loves working on Capitol Hill" and plans to return to the office of Mrs. James McKee B-W-V.

SAVE MONEY EVERY DAY AT SAFEWAY DISCOUNT

Diana Hopes For Career On Stage Despite Flurry

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (Special to the Times-News) — Diana Hopper, Miss Idaho, said she would like to become a professional entertainer. She will be in Atlantic City for the next week, competing in the Miss America pageant.

Diana Hopper, 19-year-old Twin Falls beauty, said she was surprised her group was chosen to appear in the evening gown contest.

"It doesn't take much rehearsing to appear in an evening gown," Diana said during a rehearsal break.

Wearing a Grecian-styled gown of white chiffon, Diana said she enjoyed the parade of the 40 contestants on the Atlantic City Boardwalk Tuesday afternoon — "although I did get a little warm and humid, and it was three hours long," she said.

In front of Miss Idaho in the parade was the Chinese girl, high school senior and in the convertible behind her was Miss Hawaii.

Of the thousands lining the boardwalk for their first public look at the lovely contestants, many shouted "Good luck, Miss Idaho."

"Maybe they wished everybody good luck," Diana said. "But it made me feel good just the same."

Diana will sing "Both Sides Now," a folk song, will use a tambourine and play a drum solo as part of the musical arrangement.

"I'm not a wonderful person on this trip to Atlantic City," Diana said. "Really different people. One sang in the Metropolitan Opera and another had a Siamese cat. Maybe somehow the two will bring me good luck — opera and cat."

On Wednesday, Diana and her group of 17 girls were interviewed by the judges. Three contestants at a time were interviewed for ten minutes.

"I'm not nervous," Diana said before the interview. "But I would like to have a peek at the questions the judges are going to ask us."

Diana said Wednesday that the week promises to be strenuous with all the rehearsing. "But I still want to be a professional entertainer."

Wallace Seeks 10 Per Cent Tax Boost For Snow Control

By RICHARD CHARNOCK

BOISE (UPI) — Mayor Arnold Keller said the State Tax Commission today the city of Wallace needed at least a 10 per cent increase in revenue this year — because of snow removal problems this past winter.

Keller said a steady, six-week snowfall cost the city $18,000 and literally "snowed under" the city's budget for 1969.

Although the city was reimbursed $10,000 by the state, he said, it still needs more money to make ends meet for the year.

Under a law passed by the 40th legislature earlier this year, local governmental subdivisions must gain Tax Commission approval if they wish to increase revenues by more than four per cent from one year to the next.

Keller and Henry Deaton, a certified public accountant, put Wallace's case before the members of the commission Tuesday morning.

Commissioner Clyde Koonce, who presided in the absence of Chairman Luther Passmore, said the commission would reach a decision by Friday and notify Keller by mail. He said the decision should reach Wallace by Monday.

For the 1969 year, the city of Wallace had a total budget for all funds of $191,928. By June 30, the administration had spent $101,488 — more than half of what had been budgeted.

Keller said the unexpectedly heavy snowfall was a principal reason. He also cited a drop in utility property values as a problem. This arose from the legislative directed phase together of all property valuations to 20 per cent of cash value and is not considered under the four-per-cent-law-a valid reason for seeking an increase in revenue.

For this year, the city of Wallace seeks a revenue increase of $13,028 — or "at least 10 per cent." In its petition, the city said it felt the increase was granted for this year only it could live within the four-per-cent limitation next year.

Commissioner Ewing Little, a former Shoshone County official, asked Keller if the city still felt that way. Keller said that after he had considered it did not.

Keller said he felt the city may need such an increase next year as well in order to purchase snow-removal equipment and other goods.

Little asked whether Wallace would rather ask for the revenue increase for both years at this time or just for this year.

Rites Inter War Victims Sans Protest

MANGHESTER, N.H. (UPI) — Forty soldiers were buried Tuesday with full military honors in striking contrast to the anti-war funeral of a fifth comrade the previous day.

The five were killed when a truck in which they were riding hit a land mine in Vietnam only nine days before their National Guard unit was to return to the United States.

A brother-in-law of Spec. 4 Gaetan J. Beaudoin, 20, of the four, said his sister did not resent her husband's death.

"He died in his uniform and I want to honor and respect it. I owe it to him to have a military funeral," Paul Rattigan quoted his sister, Virginia, as saying.

On Monday, Spec. 5 Richard Genest, 24, was buried after a Mass marked by folk songs of protest against war and no military pomp whatever.

Tuesday's funeral, which was held separately in three Roman Catholic churches, included flag-draped caskets, honor guards and the mournful notes of "Taps."

British 'Gas' Used In Riot Listed Safe

LONDON (UPI) — Northern Ireland. A team of British medical experts said today the tear gas used by police against Roman Catholic rioters in Londonderry, a hostile district last month, would have no long term effects.

The official report could be expected to quiet some protests against the use of tear gas in the British Isles, but a new act of defiance by Protestant demonstrators Tuesday night in Belfast threatened other efforts to ease Catholic Protestant tension.

In that incident, Protestants left a prayer meeting led by militant Protestant leader Rev. Ian Paisley and barricaded an entrance to a Belfast main street, forcing British troops to divert traffic to other roads. Some of the barricades had been erected to protect Catholics.

Giants Use Two Hits To Edge Expos

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Davenport's seeing-eye single with none out and the bases loaded in the seventh inning provided Juan Marchand and the San Diego Giants with the runs they needed for a 2-1 victory Wednesday over the Montreal Expos.

The victory, San Francisco's 13th in a row and 12th in the last 14 games, kept the Giants in first place in the National League West.

The Giants managed only two hits off Montreal starter Loser Mike Wegerer (4-12) but they made the one by Davenport pay off after the Expos' first-inning bases in the seventh on walks to Jim Hart, Willie McCovey and Bobby Bonds.

Davenport, then, rolled a single and past the glove of first baseman Coco Arroyo to score Dave Marshall, running for Hart and McCovey.

The other San Francisco hit was a fourth-inning single by Ron Hunt.

The Expos reached Marichal for nine hits, by contrast, but scored only one and that was in the fifth inning. Ron Brand led off with a single but was forced at second by Bobby Wegerer. He singled and Tracy Clime followed with another single to score Wince.

The Giants got out of the inning though when Ken Henderson made the glove of Gary Sutherland's line drive second when McCovey threw to first on a double-up-climb but Clime beat the throw.

However, Wegerer went to third and was easily doubled off second when McCovey drilled off the shortstop Hal Lanier during Montreal's final inning.

Wegerer, McLain (7-0) and Brandon Brander (4-3).

Huarte and Duncán Sent To Vikings

MANHATTAN, Minn. (UPI)—For a Vetsman Trophy winner John Huarte and Rick Duncan were acquired by the Minnesota Vikings today for draft choices.

Huarte is 6-0, 185 pounds. Other quarterbacks currently on the draft list are Art Kapp, Gary Ciozza, King Hill and Bobb Lee, plus Brian Dawkins, who now is working out as a running back.
