Four Women Married To Downed U.S. Airmen Seek Meeting With Vietnamese

PARIS (UPI)—Four women married to U.S. airmen shot down over Vietnam today sought a meeting with North Vietnamese officials to find out "if we are wives or widows." The four arrived Sunday night from Dallas, Tex. They said they had applied for a private meeting with officials of the Hanoi delegation to the Vietnam talks.

"Each of us hopes that our husband is still alive and we hope and pray that the North Vietnamese delegates will tell us where they can be found and if they are in good health," said Mrs. Bonnie Singleton, wife of Capt. Jerry Singleton.

The other three were Mrs. Joy Jeffrey, wife of Capt. Robert Jeffrey; Mrs. Sandy McElhanon, wife of Maj. Michael McElhanon; and Mrs. Pauline Hartness, wife of Capt. Gregg Hartness, all from Dallas.

"My husbands have been missing from eight months to four years and we are hopeful North Vietnamese representatives will tell us if we are wives or widows," the four said in a statement.

"If we are wives—and each of us believes our husband is still alive—we hope and pray they will tell us where our husbands are, and if they are in good health," they said. "We are also hopeful the North Vietnamese spokesman will explain why we have not received any replies to the many letters we have written to our husbands."

The four women said they planned to stay in Paris for up to a week to see a member of the North Vietnamese delegation, but the spokesman was not available for comment.

40,500 More American Troops To Be Withdrawn

SAIGON (UPI)—Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky said today that the United States would withdraw 40,500 more American troops from Vietnam by the end of November.

Plans for the withdrawal were reported worked out at a weekend Vietnamese strategy meeting in Washington by President Nixon and his closest advisers, including Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, U.S. military commander in Vietnam.

It would be the second American troop withdrawal announced at Midway Island after a meeting of Nixon and Thieu—the allies agreed that South Vietnamese troops would take over American combat duties. The decision to withdraw 40,500 U.S. troops if there is no peace.

North Vietnamese Unit In Delta

SAIGON (UPI)—The U.S. Military Command announced today that for the first time it has confirmed the presence of a regular North Vietnamese Army unit in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon.

Behind a mortar and rocket attack, the Hanoi troops reportedly over-ran a South Vietnamese army training center near Tri Ton, 110 miles southwest of Saigon and within 10 miles of Cambodia.

The announcement said the government defenders, mostly recruits, drove off the attackers, killing 83, but lost four killed and 19 wounded themselves. The fight was Thursday, but the reason given for the delay in reporting it.

"An element of the North Vietnamese Army 133 Regiment was identified as participating in the attack," the U.S. Command said. "This conflict is the first confirmation in the history of the war of a regular North Vietnamese Army unit operating in the IV Corps—Tactical Zone (the Mekong Delta)."

South Vietnamese helicopter gunships and artillery helped break up the ground attack in the seven-hour battle, military spokesmen said.

The 133 Regiment was identified either from prisoners or from documents found on the scene, they said. The unit was reported to be in Binh Long Province northwest of Saigon.

It portended a possible new Communist drive in the Mekong Delta, where U.S. and South Vietnamese officials have reported major progress in the effort to put vast areas under control of the Saigon government.

Ever since 1968, North Vietnamese troops had been reported infiltrating into the delta as replacements for Viet Cong units who had lost too many soldiers to replace with local recruits.

In another development, the command announced the beginning of a 3,500-man offensive by U.S. and South Korean marines on an island along the northern coast of South Vietnam. Since it began last week, the operation has killed 190 Communist troops.

Military spokesmen said the number of U.S. troops in Vietnam dropped by 1,600 last week to an 18-month low of 508,000.

Shirley Temple Black Will Be On Hand When U.N. Convenes

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—When the United Nations General Assembly convenes Tuesday, Shirley Temple Black, the curvy haired movie-to-teleplay diplomat, will be on hand.

"I hope I'm assigned to a position with one of the committees working in the health field," the former actress said.

Her interests lie in the economic and social council under the World Health Organization, I hope I will be able to make some worthwhile contributions."

The Shirley Temple who goes as a delegate to the United Nations is no longer the dimpled moppet of "Little Miss Marker." She is a dedicated, intently resident of the San Francisco Bay area who has long been associated with community activities.

Her credentials are, in fact, impressive.

Shirley Temple Black has been working with the Bay Area Health Facilities Planning Association. She was appointed chair of the California State Advisory Hospital Council. She is a co-founder and member of the Executive Committee of the International Federation of Multiple Sclerosis Societies.

"We live in countries in the society," Shirley said before packing off to New York. "We like to do our little bit."

With a son and daughter in college and her youngest daughter in high school, Shirley hopes to join the United States Coast every few weeks to visit her family.

"If I just too lonely, I'll try to have them fly back and let me live to spend a weekend with me."

Shirley expects to see her husband, Charles Black, frequently.

An president of Marine Development Associates, his work in oceanography takes him East frequently.

"I'm looking forward to my new work," Shirley said. "It is altogether different from acting. But I'm not saying it is any less worthwhile. The world needs people like her to make it forget its troubles."

"I hope I've continued to grow as a person since my acting days. I had such a rewarding time in the entertainment business that I have only fond memories of it."

"It so happens my individual interests have changed. Since 1952 I've become more and more involved with public service."

"I've kept busy working in the health field and, fortunately, it is closely associated with food from the sea. We are both interested in solving hunger problems around the world and now we have the opportunity to help as much as we can."

20 Persons Die In Brazil Plane Crash

LONDINA, Brazil (UPI)—Twenty of the 21 persons aboard were killed Sunday night when a DC-3 transport plane of Viação Aerea Sao Paulo (VASP) crashed while trying to land at the local airport.

The survivor was identified as one of the crew members. He was thrown clear when the plane crashed into a garden and was reported in serious condition.

The plane left Campo Grande in Mato Grosso State, en route to Sao Paulo, with an intermediate stop at this coffee center of the state of Parana in southern Brazil.

Two state deputies were among the dead.

Sailor Makes Blarney Of Myth

MIAMI (UPI)—Bill Verity took the blarney out of an ancient Celtic myth Saturday when he strode ashore on Iona, San Salvador, all but completing a voyage he says the Irish monk St. Brendan made 14 centuries before him.

And he did the saint one better.

Verity's crossing began at Fenit, Ireland, May 22 in a homemade wooden boat only 20 feet long. The stocky blue-eyed Verity made the journey alone.

If St. Brendan's side-steering, squint-eyed boat encountered rough weather during its transoceanic venture to the Florida coast, Verity's replica, "Brendan the Navigator," survived the gales kicked up by hurricane Debbie.

The 43-year-old anthropologist and boat-builder sailed into Cockburn Harbor last Saturday and was reported in good physical condition.

Verity said he planned to sail for Nassau Tuesday after receiving clearance from Bahamian authorities.

Belfast Roman Catholics Vote To Keep Up Barriers

Not Eligible

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Astronaut Frank Borman, commander of the Apollo 8 moon mission, is not eligible to run for the Senate from his home state of Indiana.

Hoosier Republicans, who recently had been mentioning Borman as a possible opponent of Democratic Sen. Vance Hartke in 1970 checked out Borman's eligibility for the post and discovered that he had given up his Indiana residency.

Borman, who was born in Gary, moved from the state several years ago.

Arab Guerrillas Attack Settlement

By United Press International

Arab guerrillas today attacked an Israeli military settlement in the occupied Golan Heights of Syria with a mortar barrage, a spokesman in Tel Aviv reported.

The spokesman said the guerrillas attacked behind a "humanitarian" pretext, claiming that the settlement was a military target along the shore of the Gulf south of Suez City for 50 minutes.

The air raid Sunday, the sixth attack of Israeli aerial attacks against Egypt, was concentrated on Ras Bara and Ras Zafarana, south of Suez City, a spokesman said. He reported 15 Israeli planes returned safely to base.

Seven Perish In House Blaze

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (UPI)—A woman and six children—members of two families—died Monday in a fire which wrecked a two-story frame house in Middletown.

The dead were identified by police as Mrs. Bertha Hillard, 77, and her children, Ellis Jr., 17, and Dan, 15, and their 11-year-old sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Hillard, 15, and her children, David, 9, and Michael, 15, and Joseph, 13.

The fire broke out in the living room of the two-story house in Middletown, Ohio, Monday night.

Governor Renews Plea To Youths

BOISE (UPI)—Gov. Don Samuelson is renewing his "back to school" efforts to encourage youths to continue their education.

"Although employment in professional and managerial fields usually require as a minimum four years of college, it is not especially necessary that all youth take college preparatory courses in high school," Samuelson said this past week.

"There are equally urgent needs developing for trained technicians to build, operate and maintain the highly sophisticated equipment that continually is coming off the designers' drawing boards."

The governor cited the training needs for heavy equipment operators provided at Weiser under a federal grant in which Idaho is conducting a two-year study.

He said that the Department of Vocational Education is also sponsoring vocational training programs in cooperation with local school districts.

Men Descend Into Mine To Get Bodies

MANNINGTON, W.Va. (UPI)—Two six-man recovery teams were used for three days to descend into a mine today, beginning months of potentially dangerous groundwork to recover the bodies of 78 entombed coal miners.

Officials called in the trained recovery crews after learning the elevator at Altha's Run Pit, which saw sporadic men and supplies into the mine, and inspection crews rode a steel track down the elevator shaft Sunday to examine the elevator equipment and pump out 13 feet of water which had collected in a sump under the shaft.

Everything was sealed off from the bottom of the shaft, said Maurice Childers of the U.S. Bureau of Mines. The elevator hook and cable were good, but the shaft was not good.

Two massive exhaust fans were used for three days to draw highly volatile methane gas from the mine's interior.

No search team has entered the opening mine since the explosion and fires Nov. 15, which trapped the 78 men and forced the mine's sealing Nov. 30.

Court Ruling Returns Man To Army Life

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An Army captain who has spent five years in prison will return to duty and draw approximately $50,000 in back pay under the Supreme Court's ban on court martial prosecution for civilian offenses, the Pentagon reported Saturday.

He is Stephen J. Borys, 31, of Woonsocket, R.I., serving time at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., since he was convicted by court martial in 1964 on charges of rape and robbery.

Many more servicemen in similar circumstances are expected to win their freedom under the high court ruling.

Borys' conviction was set aside Sept. 5 by the U.S. Court of Military Appeals. The Army had 12 days to petition the court for reconsideration, but decided to let the decision stand.

"The dismissal of the charges against Capt. Borys restores all rights, privileges and property of which he had been deprived by virtue of the conviction and sentence," the Army said in a statement.

"Captain Borys will be released from confinement and will be restored to duty."

In a 5-3 ruling June 2, the U.S. Supreme Court held that military courts martial have no jurisdiction over civilian offenses that are not "service connected."

A New Relationship Era Is Dawning

WASHINGTON — Now, with Congress back in town, a new era is dawning in the relationship between Capitol Hill and the Pentagon.

past some exercises in timid, tentative nit-picking. But these days Congress seems to be re-examining of military spending.

announcement of a $3 billion spending cutback. The situation perhaps has been put best by Sen. Clifford Case, R-N. J.

er willing to accept as infallible the Pentagon's or even the President's judgment that a particular weapons system is essential to our national defense.

in the Defense Establishment for many, many years. The time is ripe for an unsparring examination of every aspect of defense spending.

Everett Dirksen

About the only things that Everett McKinley Dirksen and Ho Chi Minh had in common were that both were outstanding figures in their respective governments and both died within a week of each other.

It is not their similarities but their differences that we ought to think about. Because of his role in freeing his country of French colonial rule, Ho was called the George Washington of Vietnam and was lavishly praised by most of the American press at his death.

Actually, it was Dirksen who more resembled Washington. To say this is by no means outrageous eulogizing of Dirksen. All the men who have held seats of power in the U.S. government since its beginning have been, almost without exception, closer in character to Washington than was Ho Chi Minh.

A man like Dirksen — outspoken, individualistic, flamboyant — could not have survived under a Communist regime. Indeed, one can only speculate as to how many Vietnamese Dirksens were liquidated over the years by Ho, who could not tolerate dissent.

Dirksen, like Ho, served his country over a span of time measured in decades — three and a half decades altogether; 16 years in the House and 19 in the Senate. The crucial distinction is that at all times Dirksen was accountable to the people of his state of Illinois for his performance and at regular intervals was subject to removal from office by them.

The comparison need not be elaborated. Suffice it to say that when we honor a man like Everett Dirksen, we also honor the political system, the ideology, which produced him — and which will produce other men worthy to follow in his footsteps.

That is the American system, and it works because men like Dirksen make it work. Dirksen once told a reporter that his early ambition had been to be an actor — "a cheapian treading the boards" — how he put it in his characteristically flowery fashion.

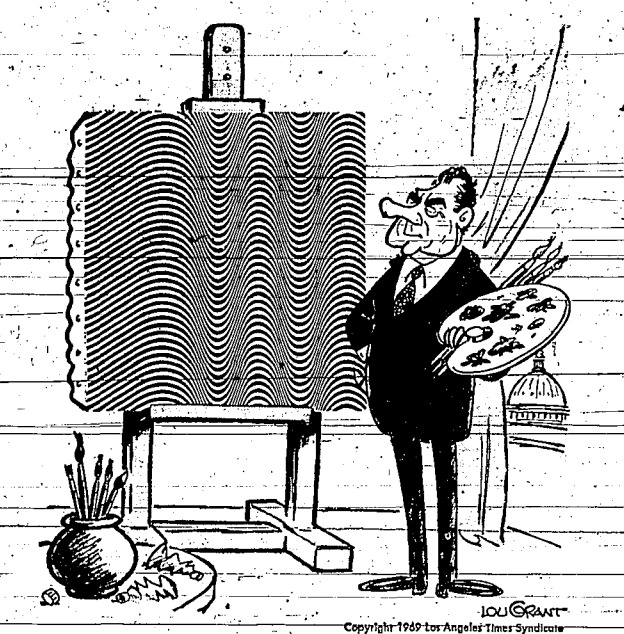

He certainly had the voice for it, and the stage presence and sense of the dramatic. But his mother, he explained, persuaded him against such a "sinful" profession. So, he said, he chose the next best thing — politics.

What seriousness, however, if we allow the composite facets of Dirksen's personality to obscure the real man. He, too, was a tough opponent, as several presidents came to learn quite well.

Often he appeared bullheaded, jealous of his prerogatives, more concerned with political expediency than with progressive legislation. But he played by the rules, and when it came down to a question of fundamental principles — the Civil Rights Act of 1964, for example, he was truly a leader of stature.

Everett Dirksen has now taken a place in the pantheon of other great senators — Webster, Clay, Laif (the list is a long one). This is no sentimental twaddle. It is a fact, about which all Americans can be proud.

Justice For Haynsworth

President Nixon's choice for Supreme Court justice is Clement Haynsworth Jr. of South Carolina. The little foxes are seeking to rally the opposition hopeful of preventing Senate confirmation because they protest Haynsworth is "not liberal enough."

The Telephone

A New York City firm recently had to turn to a newspaper advertisement to get its message across. There should be nothing unusual in that, except that in this case it was not pushing a product but explaining — and complaining — why it had been virtually out of contact with the outside world for some days.

COMMENT

No Guns? Portland, Oregonian At San Clemente the other day President Nixon said he never had owned or fired a gun. This is a startling statement to come from the Commander in Chief of the U.S. Armed Forces and an ex-officer in the U.S. Navy.

les formed and more new houses, particularly in suburban areas surrounding the large cities, has become geometrical.

Business also has become increasingly dependent upon the telephone, multiplying the number of lines in offices and converting to push-button phones with several lines. They have been converted to computers, which often requires heavy use of telephone lines, and of copying equipment which utilize the lines for instantaneous transmission of documents from one office to another.

In short, more calls being made, more people making calls, more phones per person and more uses for phones. The companies haven't been able to install new phones, lines and exchanges fast enough.

American have so long regarded the telephone as a dependable fact of our national design for living — unlike other parts of the world where eccentric service is part of the local color — that present difficulties in getting a dial tone come as a surprise. Trouble is, we may have taken the telephone too much for granted. The rush to make ever greater use of it is taking a toll in service reliability.

He has been involved in a number of research studies over the past 10 years. Dr. Pearl has done community studies, narcotic rehabilitation and educational work.

Mrs. Nielson said the last audit cost $250 and under present conditions the library cannot afford to pay for an audit. However, a final decision has not been made on the matter. ### Finch Backs Nixon On Integration

WASHINGTON (UPI) — HEW Secretary Robert H. Finch defended the Nixon administration's school desegregation policies in glowing terms Saturday, the day after they were attacked by the U.S. Civil Rights Commission.

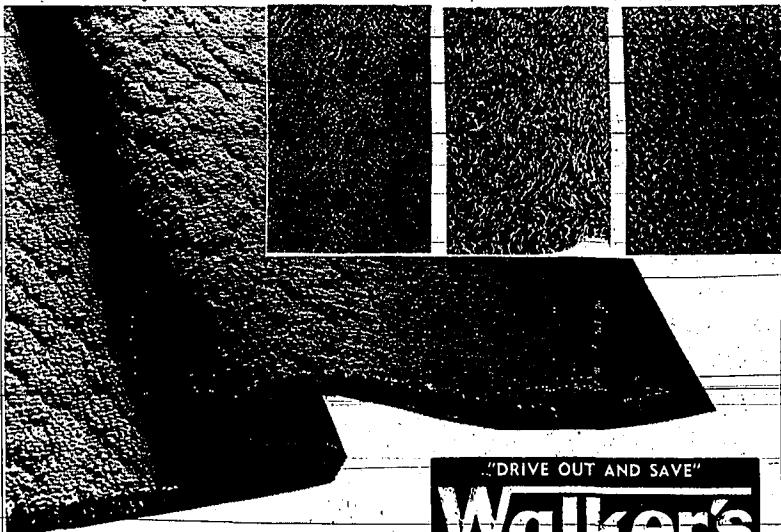

The Health, Education and Welfare department issued a newsman's progress report on desegregation which Finch had said "will show that remarkable progress has been made during the past eight months."

And in a speech before the Institute of Black Electors Officials, he predicted the administration would make more gains in the next two years than all the progress achieved in the 15 years since the Supreme Court outlawed dual school systems.

HEW said its progress report was made because of the public interest in HEW civil rights activities, and a spokesman denied its release was timed to make it a reply to the Civil Rights Commission's criticism.

The Commission, headed by the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of Notre Dame University, charged Friday that the administration's recent major retreat in the struggle to actions and new enforcement active meaningful school desegregation procedures "appear to be a regression."

Judges Take Hard Line With Draft Violators

By DONALD MAY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Draft evasion, once a relatively minor problem for the Selective Service, has increased so rapidly in the past few years that previously soft-hearted judges have taken a hard line with violators.

Although the draft call has tapered in the four years since the number of young Americans charged with criminal violation of the draft has increased 10 times, judges have been very lenient on draft evaders, but began cracking down when the number of cases increased.

George J. Reed, chairman of the U.S. Board of Pardon and Parole, says the character of the draft violator has changed somewhat from the traditional religious sectarians and plainclothes to young men caught up in the protests of the times.

In 1965 the average sentence meted-out to draft violators was 21 months, although maximum sentence of five years is allowed. Last year the average sentence was 37.3 months.

One Justice Department attorney attributed the increase in sentence length to "some judges who previously had been very lenient on draft evaders, but began cracking down when the number of cases increased."

In 1965, when inductions were their dramatic peak, there were 341 draft defendants. In 1966 the draft shot up to above 300,000 and the defendants increased to 516. In 1967 there were 996 defendants and 1,182 in 1968.

Mansfield Discusses Bombing Ban

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, admitting some confusion over President Nixon's anti-aircraft bombing ban in Vietnam, believes the short ban on B52 flights should have continued.

"I thought we should have continued the cessation of B22 bombing and continued the stand-down if at all possible," he said.

"I don't know how to size it up," Mansfield told UPI in an interview Sunday.

"They may know what they are doing in the administration, but it appears to me to indicate there may well be divided counsel."

Rep. Rogers C. B. Morton, R-Mont., Republican national chairman, defended the administration from Mansfield's statements and criticized the senator for making them.

"I don't think this kind of public criticism would help bring this war to an end," Morton said in Annapolis, Md.

The Montana Democrat said the net result of the 36-hour bombing ban was "to harden the other side and make it more difficult in the negotiations in Paris and perhaps to step up the fighting in Vietnam."

"I don't see how he can have a viable possibility for a cease-fire," he said.

"I think any such possibility has now been negated."

Mansfield, who showed irritation with the administration's policy, said he saw in the action "similarities to actions taken by the previous administration."

Mansfield said he was certain Nixon wanted to get out of the war, but added, "The longer it drags on the more difficult it becomes."

Employees Still Under Merit Plan

BOISE (UPI) — Employees of the Gem state highway department are still under the merit system, despite some rumors to the contrary.

Helen Cunningham, administrative assistant of the Idaho Personnel Commission, told the board of directors of the Idaho State Employees Association in Boise Saturday that there had been some misunderstanding about their status.

Mrs. Cunningham said a statement had been made to the press which said highway employees who received a 10 percent raise were in exempt positions and did not come under the authority of the commission.

The ISEA noted that many inquiries about state employees had been received and the feeling was that the highway department was exempt from the merit system.

Mrs. Cunningham explained that these positions were merely unique to highways, but people were still under the present law.

"Under present law no state employee in the so-called 'general classes' can receive a raise unless all employees in the same class receive the same raise. The highway department was able to show that approximately 1,000 of their employees statewide receive the same raise. The highway department was able to show that approximately 1,000 of their employees in the so-called 'general classes' can receive a raise, she concluded.

Southern Governors To Join Forces

By ED ROGERS

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (UPI) — Southern governors will consider a proposal at their 35th annual conference here to combine forces to "tell the nation and the whole world about the greatness of the South," it was disclosed today.

Gov. Robert E. McNair of South Carolina, chairman of the Southern Governors' Conference, announced the proposal will come in a "special report" Wednesday morning from Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia.

Maddox gave reporters an advance inkling of his report, saying all the southern states will be consulted about joining forces to spread the word about the region's recent gains in economy, population and education.

"Governor Maddox has assured me the report he will present is vital to the conference and to your understanding of the economic conditions in the southern states," McNair said in his prepared opening conference address.

The governors have declared their foremost topic to be higher education at this year's conference, but they will discuss the issue Wednesday on a resolution denouncing federal school desegregation guidelines.

Five of the chief executives—Mike B. Gandy of Virginia, Robert Scott of North Carolina, Oresto Smith of Texas, Albert Brewer of Alabama and Maddox said they would support the idea "in principle" of formal stand opposing federal school busing requirements.

Tropical Storm Brews In Atlantic

MIAMI (UPI) — Tropical storm "Holly" brewed in the eastern Atlantic Sunday, breathing its first life in the cauldron of tropical twisters that spawned Ann and Debbie earlier this season.

At midnight EDT, the year's eighth tropical storm was centered near latitude 12° north, longitude 50.5° west, or about 1,115 miles east southeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Holly's top winds of 45 m.p.h. were expected to intensify slightly today. The storm was moving on a course between west and west northwest at 10 m.p.h.

2 Killed As Troops Clash In Haiti

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — Two men were killed in an armed clash between Haitian troops and 20 rebels, Haitian exile sources reported here Sunday.

The sources said that the clash occurred last week some 20 miles from the Dominican frontier. Two Haitian soldiers were wounded, they said.

The rebels were headed for interior mountains to establish a guerrilla base for a revolt against President Francois Duvalier when the troops "sighted them," the source said.

They said some of the insurgents crossed the Dominican border to contact the National Liberation Front to gain its support.

Dominican authorities said they had no knowledge of the clash, but admitted some Haitians may have crossed the border. But they doubted that a sizable armed band could have crossed into Haiti due to the large number of Dominican troops patrolling the 225-mile frontier.

Two Budapest Entertainers Have Defected To England

BUDAPEST (UPI) — Two prominent members of the Budapest entertainment world, a his greatest successes with comedian and a theater director, have defected to England, friends said Sunday.

The defectors — by actor Miklos Szakacs and director Giza Partos — stirred a minor uproar in Hungary.

The Communist party newspaper Nepszabadsag said "The defectors are the top of discussion throughout the country."

"The newspaper said the defectors raised 'disgust' and were 'infuriating'."

Szakacs, believed to be about 50, was a well-known theater actor, best remembered for the title role in "Cyrano de Bergerac."

Friends said Szakacs and his wife went to London on tour visits, as they had done for several summers. But this summer the actor wrote his director that he did not want to return.

Partos' departure was a surprise to theatrical circles, sources in the entertainment world said. As a director of the Madaach Theater he achieved his greatest successes with "Romeo and Juliet" and plays by Ibsen and Turgenyev.

Partos' friends said he left with his wife and second child, and not even their closest relatives knew about their plans not to return. They said his older child, a girl, had been refused entry to a Budapest acting school so she had been sent to a school in the United States.

Partos, said to be in his mid-30's, had been given the title of "Merited Artist" by the Hungarian government, indicating his high standing.

Episcopal Rites Honor Dr. Pike

NEW YORK (UPI)—In a ceremony that departed from Episcopal tradition, Dr. James A. Pike was mourned Saturday in the cathedral he served for six years as dean.

The memorial service at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine was marked by a eulogy delivered by the Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Episcopal bishop of New York and Pike's superior during his term as dean from 1952 to 1958.

Donegan said that although Episcopal tradition made no provision for a eulogy, "since death levels all men, he believed tribute and gratitude was due Pike for his diverse and brilliant accomplishments."

Pike died Sept. 5 at the age of 58 in the Judean Desert after the car in which he and his wife were driving broke down.

Four Girls Engage In Dirt Spree

Four young girls, ages 10 to 12, did a bit of house cleaning Sunday afternoon.

The four had been staying at the home of a friend next door to a small house at 402 Park Drive. During the night, they told officers they used a mixture they had made and smeared it all about on the house occupied until earlier in the day by Jim Montgomery.

Owner of the home, identified on police reports as Mrs. Montgomery, 451 S. Washington St., notified officers who met with the parents and girls to arrange to have the girls go to the building Sunday afternoon and clean it. The matter was turned over to the juvenile officer, Robert Stralberg, for further consideration.

Recreating a portion of the century old Promontory scene will be the star attractions of the Expo train, a pair of shiny red and black antique locomotives. These iron horses are almost identical to the two locomotives UP's engine No. 119 and the Central Pacific's Jupiter — that faced each other when the last spike was driven in 1909. The two exhibit steamers ride pilot-boat. Promontory style on a modern, high-speed articulated flat car.

The property of Paramount Pictures, the two old steamers were loaned to Union Pacific for the exhibit. Both engines starred in the 1939 motion picture, "Union Pacific," a 40-minute time-slice feature film and television. They have been painstakingly restored by UP crews for the centennial celebration.

Guns Valued At $200 Are Stolen Here

Two guns, valued at $200 were reported stolen from a pickup truck parked late Saturday on the parking lot of the Beacon Club.

Barry Bragg told city police someone broke into his locked vehicle and took a 12-gauge shotgun from a gun rack to the pickup cab and also removed a Browning automatic from the vehicle.

A house break-in was also reported to city police. Fred Thine, 206 Blako St., told officers someone entered his home Sunday and while nothing was missing, considerable damage was done to the inside of the home.

Also on loan from Paramount and a part of the show are an 1869 coach and three 90-year-old cars — a derrick car, blacksmith car and boxcar. The four old cars are also getting a soft ride on three modern roller-bearing shock protected container flatcars. The old equipment sits on 60-pound rail and ties, similar to the track that was laid on the original Union Pacific.

An orange and tan colored mobile display car with a circus flavor on the outside completes the Expo show, inside the display car, 10 exhibits executed for Union Pacific by the Nebraska State Historical Society, graphically spell out the history of the progress of the railroad and the West from the very first surveys to the modern diversified, transportation-based Union Pacific.

Tool Theft Is Reported To T.F. Officers

Ray McInister, Jr., 829 Main St. N., Kimberly, told sheriff's officers Sunday an estimated $500 in tools disappeared from the back of his pickup truck while he was bowling Saturday afternoon.

Mr. McInister said the tools were in two tool boxes and included mostly hand tools. The pickup truck, he said, was parked beside the Kim-Lanes bowling alley in Kimberly and he was bowling when the theft occurred.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: That letter from "LIKES COPS" in Wayne, N. J., made police officers sound like playboys who have nothing better to do while on duty than make time with flirting females. I, wife of a patrolman, I doubt very much if many policemen are willing to strike up "friendships" with cheap pick-ups who holdy announce that cops "turn them on."

Suburban police duties may vary but in the big city of CLEVELAND there isn't much time for those officers to fool around. They are too busy doing their jobs.

MRS. PATROLMAN, CLEVELAND, O.

DEAR ABBY: for all the girls who like cops: Most cops have wives who are fed up to the ears with girls who "like cops."

Also, don't get the idea that all you have to do is ride around any "famide" at policemen in a squad car, and he is going to follow you home. Most policemen in squad cars are looking for trouble, but not the kind you're offering them.

COP'S WIFE: BOSTON

DEAR Abby: Please tell "LIKES-COPS" that if she wants to get anywhere with a policeman, she shouldn't call him a "cop." He likes to be called "police officer," or "sir."

I ought to know. I married one, and my children don't know what the word "fuzz" or "cop" means. They are proud that their daddy is a policeman.

WIFE OF AN "L.A.P.O."

DEAR ABBY: TO "LIKE COPS": Get a job at City Hall. I did and I married a policeman.

He has since changed jobs and now he works in a funeral home. I don't mind the as long as he doesn't bring his work home with him.

"HAPPY" IN KEYSER, W. VA.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe some day "LIKES COPS" will be married to a cop who is turning her on and they will live happily ever after. If he is strong enough to turn down all the propositions he gets from other females who are also "turned on" by cops.

If is for that reason that I am the former wife of a police officer, and my children no longer have a full-time father.

ALONE IN ANNADALE, VA.

DEAR ABBY: This is in reference to the letter from the girl who "LIKES COPS." Here in Washington, D.C., such girls are called "ROAD RUNNERS."

Miss Bergadine, Herzinger Exchange Nuptial Promise

A candlelight ceremony Aug. 23 in the First-United Methodist Church, Twin Falls, united in marriage Sonia Bergadine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bergadine, Twin Falls, and Ranse Herzinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Herzinger, Buhl.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Harold Nye before an altar decorated with two large beaded baskets holding yellow gladioli, feathered chrysanthemums and carnations, and centered with a low basket of yellow and white daisies. The altar candelabra held white lighted tapers.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a Bridal Original gown of cascading ruffles of scalloped Chantilly lace that swept in to a cathedral train. The bodice featured peaked Chantilly lace scallops on the sabrina neckline and long lily point sleeves.

A spray of orchardy and lace petals held her bouquets, accented with butterfly lace veil of English silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a heart-shaped diamond necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried cascade bouquet of yellow and white Marguerite daisies dotted with satin bows tied in a love knot.

Cindy Herzinger, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Dona Herzinger, sister of the bridegroom, Sarah Stobough, Vicki Halnes and Anita Baker. Flower girl was Kimette Warberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Warberg, Boise.

Kim Herzinger was best man for his brother, and Wayne Stahlecker, Dennis Conrad, Marvin Keicher and Ted Clark served as groomsmen and also ushered guests. Tod Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Nye was organist and accompanied Becki Sullivan, soloist.

A reception for 200 guests was held immediately after the ceremony. The bride's table was skirted in nylon tulle with ribbon streamers caught in loops by bouquets of flowers and centered with a large yellow bow and cascading streamers in front. Silver candelabra holding yellow candles were on each end of the table.

The three-tiered square wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses, green leaves and heart-shaped filigree. It was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom with the tiny bride dressed like the real one.

Mrs. Del Harper and Mrs. Curt Brechtel new served coffee and punch. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Vernon Herzinger and Mrs. Betty Kyles, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mrs. L. A. Widrig, Kimberly, was in charge of the reception, assisted by members of the Women's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Reuben Lerman presented and decorated the cake. Clauda Harper was in charge of the guest book at a table skirted in white, and decorated with streamers, a large yellow bow and a large yellow feather plume.

Expos Jump On Phil Errors 7-2

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Montreal Expos took advantage of some poor defensive play by the Phillies to score six runs in the sixth inning Sunday and defeat Philadelphia 7-2.

The Phillies committed two errors and added a wild pitch and a passed ball as Montreal broke open the scoring battle between winner Steve Renko and loser Grant Jackson with five hits in the inning.

Philadelphia's defense opened the rally with one out when he beat out a single to the left of the mound and took second when he reached the base on the right field. When Tony Taylor bobbed Rusty Staub's grounder, the Expos had runners on first and third.

Royals Rally And Dump Twins 4-3

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—A pinch double by Bob Taylor and a single by Jerry Howfield kicked all five extra points, but much in late period field goal. The Patriots scored only once.

Jackson Signs New 3-Year 76er Pact

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia 76ers Sunday signed Luke Jackson to a three-year contract, just three days after he had signed with the Carolina Cougars of the American Basketball Association.

General manager-coach Jack Ramsay said Jackson, sidelined with an Achilles tendon injury most of the 1968-69 season, was expected to report to the club's training camp in Margate, N.J., on Tuesday.

The terms of the agreement were not announced, but Ramsay said the contract offered Jackson a job on the 76ers organization at the completion of his playing career.

Last Thursday, James Gardner, Cougars' owner and President of the American Basketball Association, announced in New York that he had signed Jackson to a Carolina contract.

Ramsay declined to comment on the legal aspects of the move.

The terms of the agreement were reached in a one-hour meeting at the suburban Merion home of 76ers owner, Irv Kosloff.

Since this gave Luke the security he wanted, we agreed to join him in this agreement," Kosloff said.

He said if Jackson desired to be a part of the 76ers staff beyond his playing days, it means my wholehearted approval. We have a great need for someone of Luke's personality and ability and to assist us in scouting duties; general-public relations and promotion and ticket sales."

Jackson expressed delight and said he "never really wanted to leave" Philadelphia (Cougars) provided the security I wanted in my deal with Mr. Kosloff and Jack Ramsay, I found the 76ers willing to give me the security I was seeking."

"I have a good contract for three years as a player," he said. "And I have the opportunity to be employed by the 76ers after my playing days are over."

He described the 76ers as "a great team, I'm glad I'll still be able to play with them."

Jackson, who played college ball at Pan American College at Edinburg, Texas, has an 11.9 field-average with the 76ers. He posted a 14.4 game average last season.

Messersmith Fires Angin Over Seattle

SEATTLE (UPI)—Andy Messersmith limited the Seattle Pilots to only three hits Sunday night in a 4-2 win over the Seattle Pilots.

Notching his 15th win of the campaign against nine losses, the right-hander fanned 11 and walked three. He gave up two of the walks in the fourth inning to Wayne Comer and Ron Mincher before Gerry McNerney singled for the first hit of Messersmith that sent home Comer.

Then Messersmith held the Pilots hitless until the ninth when they bunched their other two hits to score their second run. Steve Howley singled to left and stole second with two outs. Mincher then singled him home.

Sandy Alomar singled in the third and also in the seventh and scored both times. Aurelio Rodriguez tagged before seventh homer of the season off starter and loser Steve Barber, now 3-5, in the sixth.

Colts Dump Dallas 23-7 To End NFL Exhibition

DALLAS (UPI)—Key interceptions by Lenny Lyles and Jerry Logan nullified a spectacular 118-yard scrambling performance by Dallas Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach Sunday night and the Baltimore Colts finished the exhibition season undefeated with a 23-7 victory.

Atlanta Cops 3-2 Victory Over Astros

ATLANTA (UPI)—Rico Carly hit two home runs Sunday, the second a two-run smash in the eighth inning, to power the Atlanta Braves to a 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

Staubach, the jolly dodger of Navy fame, twice drove the Cowboys into catchup situations in the second half but Lyles and Logan snuffed-out-both-of-them and the Colts sailed away the game in the final period on a six-yard scoring sortie by Perry Lee Dunn.

The Colts, who will now carry a 6-0 record into the season opener next week against Los Angeles, built up a 13-0 lead on a 42-yard punt return by Logan and a one-yard drive by Tom Mater, then got a 41-yard field goal out of Lou Michaels in the tied period.

Staubach gained 18 yards with his scrambling tactics and threw 20 yards to Lance Rentzel in a 43-yard drive that gave the Cowboys only one touchdown—a one-yard smash by Walt Garrison.

Staubach electrified a crowd of 38,975 fans and stunned the Colts with his wild running, especially on one 14-yard hit in which he must have traveled about 100 yards, criss-crossing and reversing his field.

But, that was about all the home folks had to cheer about as the National Football League champion Colts methodically piled up yardage on the running of Mattie and the passing of Johnny Unitas and Earl Morrill.

Unitas, who started and finished more than 100 plays, hit 12 of 21 passes for 117 yards, while Morrill got 3 of 9 for 42 yards.

Staubach, in addition to his 11 scrambles, had a rough time in the passing statistics as he started his first game for the Cowboys as a sub for the injured Craig Morton.

He tried 21 passes and hit on only six of them for 103 yards. He had four intercepted in all and was trapped five times for 37 yards in losses.

Three Games

COMPLICATED PLAY RESCUES CONTRACT

Jim: "Here is an interesting hand from a New Orleans reader. West opened the ace of diamonds against his four-spade contract and shifted to the deuce of clubs in spite of receiving the king of diamonds from his partner. Our correspondent decided that the shift indicated a singleton club and promptly led out ace and another trump. West got in with the king and led a second diamond, whereupon his partner gave him a club ruff and defeated the contract. He wants to know what we think of his play."

king of hearts and then play a second diamond. East could now play a club which West could ruff, but West would have to lead away from the king of spades or play a red card which declarer could trump in his hand, enabling him to take the spade finesse and make his contract."

Jim: "That play will work because West holds the spade king but it would fail miserably if East held it. The play taken by our reader would work, except against the actual distribution of cards in the hand. It would give an opinion as to which play should be made."

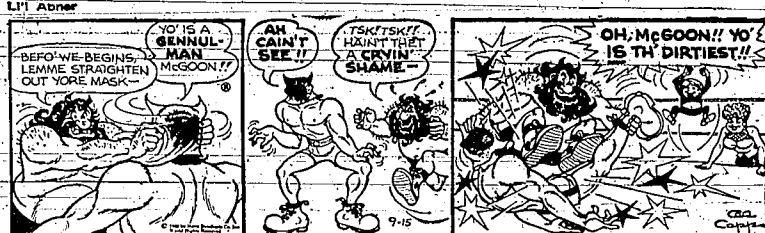

Oswald: "No, I don't, but I will. I would have made the winning play if I were declarer on the theory that West would have continued diamonds if he didn't have the king of spades. I wouldn't guarantee my decision as being correct. But I would have made it."

Water Skiers Seek Single Girls As Water Lookouts

LOVE AND WAR — It takes three people to water ski. One to run the boat, one to ski and one to watch the skier. That's why resort lakes are among the best of places for single girls to meet eligible bachelors. When a pair of young men go out to water ski, they usually look around to recruit a watcher to accompany them on the water. Just a tip from our Love and War man, young Lady. Hope you appreciate it.

IN-VIET NAM, the diligent lady of the night carries three times as much as a cabinet price of pet parrots was $300. HONOLULU has an optometrist or two named Dr. Look.

AT LAST REPORT the retail price of pet parrots was $300. NEGROES — Much has been written of late about the black man and his heritage. Along that vein, did you know the first of the famous wooden cigar store Indians were not Indian at all? At least not red men. They were cut to resemble West Indies Negroes. It was not until about 18 years before the Civil War that the carvers started putting was bonnets on them to make them look like Indians.

CUSTOMER SERVICE. Q — "My gentleman-friend is a Pisces. Ask your Love and War man what kind of husband he'll make." A. Our L. and W. man is an unbeliever. He wants no wherever possible in "Checking Up" with astrology. Therefore have found it necessary to hire a Planet man to handle your inquiry. He says a Pisces, once married, tends to be exceedingly generous, but does not believe a husband should do household chores. This is the sort of fellow you'll get if you dish up what you want, providing you don't ask him to wash them.

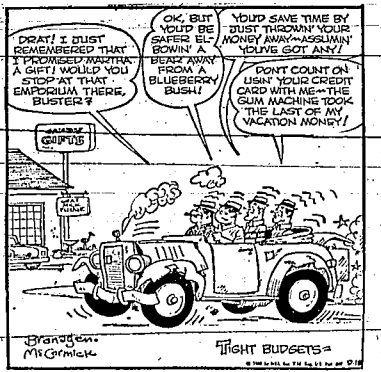

VACATION "Come to San Clemente, Cal.," wrote a friendly reader two years ago, "to compile your dross by our beautiful seas." Upon receipt of this pleasant message, the lady-friend and I started saving up. Too late. We'll never make it.

San Clemente houses have been renting for $1,000 a month. Statistically, odds you'll get divorced gradually increase from East to West and from North to South. Certainly doesn't say much for your matrimonial chances in San Diego, does it?

DIVORCE — What led to his divorce was the manner in which his former wife used her nail polish. That's what a San Francisco man reports. One morning she dabbed said polish about 18 years before the Civil War then left the house for the day. When she came home that night, he noticed the stocking with the nail polish was on her left leg. He promptly called his lawyer.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in "Checking Up" with the mail. Write to: L. M. Boyd, in care of P. O. Box 10157, Seattle, Wash. 98109.
