

Six Green Berets Ordered To Face Trial On Charges

SAIGON (UPI) — Six of the eight U.S. Special Forces men involved in the alleged murder of a Vietnamese national will be court-martialed, the Army announced today.

The decision was announced at a news conference in Saigon and followed a two-month investigation which attracted worldwide headlines.

Among those charged in the case was Col. Robert Rheault, 43, of Vinyard Haven, Mass., former commander of all U.S. Special Forces (Green Beret) troops in Vietnam.

Rheault was ordered held on charges of murder and conspiracy to commit murder. He was held on the same charges.

Maj. David E. Crew, 33, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Maj. Thomas C. Middleton Jr., 29, Jefferson, S.C.

Capt. Leland J. Brumley, 26, Dugan, Okla.

Capt. Robert F. Marasco, 29, Bloomfield, N.J.

Capt. Budge E. Williams, 27, Athens, Ga.

Officials said the charges against the men are not capital meaning that if they are convicted they could receive life sentences but not the death penalty.

The Army said the charges against two other Green Berets involved "were being held in abeyance" pending the trial. These two were Sgt. Alvin L. Smith, 41, Naples, Fla., and CWO Edward M. Boyle, 26, New York City.

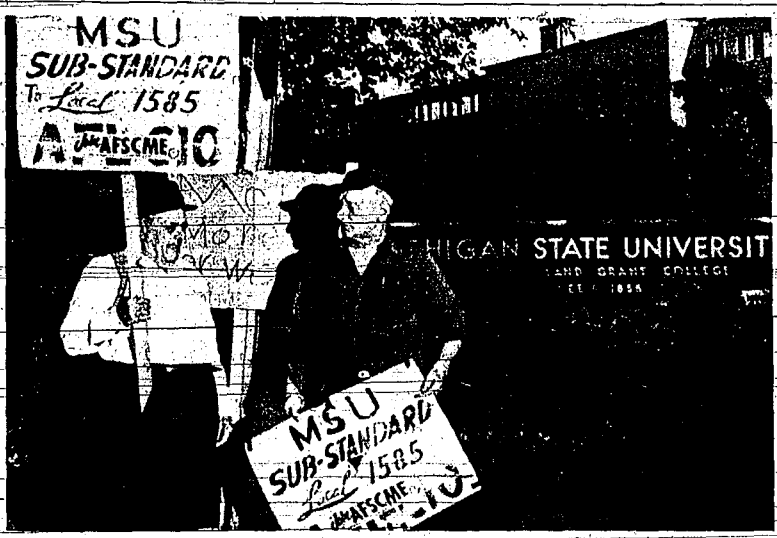

The investigation involved the alleged murder of a Vietnamese national in the Vinh Triang Area, 100 miles northwest of Saigon and near the Cambodian border, last June 20, allegedly for refusing an assignment.

Defense attorneys for the Green Berets have described the alleged victim as a North Vietnamese double agent employed by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

Congressmen who have investigated the incident on their own charged the Green Berets were being made scapegoats for others in the mysterious case which has been shrouded in secrecy since it broke early last summer.

Even the identity of the alleged victim was a matter of mystery for months and investigators noted that his name has never been found. A large-scale search for the missing body was undertaken in the South China Sea below Saigon but nothing was found.

President Issues Appeal To U.N.

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — President Nixon today urged 126 United Nations member countries to put diplomatic pressure on Hanoi for productive peace negotiations in Paris.

"In the name of peace," Nixon said in his first presidential address to the U.N. General Assembly, "I urge all of you—representing 125 nations—to use your best diplomatic skills to persuade Hanoi to move seriously into the negotiations which could end this war."

The chief executive in his prepared address said American responses to views expressed in earlier sessions of the international body.

President told the delegates it was "urgent that the U.N. members who have long taken an active interest in peace in Vietnam now take an active hand in achieving it."

"We hope that views from this organization may now also be influential in Hanoi," he said. "If these efforts are successful, the war can end."

While Nixon concentrated on the Vietnam War, he also addressed himself to a series of other volatile international matters.

Middle East—He thought Russia could be doing more to bring peace to this troubled area. He was convinced "peace cannot be achieved on the basis of substantial alterations in the map of the Middle East."

U.S.-Soviet Relations — He said this country was prepared to deal with Russia seriously, "generally and purposefully" in a determined effort not only to limit the buildup of strategic arms, but to reduce it. He expressed disappointment that the Soviet Union had yet to respond to this country's efforts to get the arms limitation talks underway to a specific date. In this connection, Nixon added: "We should be under no illusion that the Soviet Union control will in itself bring peace. Wars are fought by soldiers, but declared by politicians. Peace also requires progress on those stubbornly persistent political questions that still divide the world."

"We intend to continue our negotiations with the Soviet Union soberly and seriously, neither encumbered by prejudice nor ill-will, seeking to reach agreements rather than to make propaganda."

Communist China — "Whenever the leaders of Communist China choose to abandon their self-imposed isolation, we are ready to deal with them in the same way as we deal with other nations."

Interest Conflict Faces New Judge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. faces a new conflict of interest question today—whether he is a stockholder of a firm which has bought one of his court decisions last year.

Sea, Birch Bayh, D-Ind., leader of Senate Judiciary Committee liberals who kept Haynsworth on the bench, understood for most of the two days, raised the question late Wednesday after Haynsworth left his office. Bayh said he would demand answers today.

Haynsworth owns about $18,000 worth of Brunswick Corp. stock. The question was

South Viets Given Saigon Defense

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. headquarters said today it was turning over the defense of Saigon to the South Vietnamese. The Saigon soldiers last week took their heaviest losses in a year in virtually going it alone for three days on the battlefield.

The 32nd Airborne Division's 3rd Brigade, now guarding Saigon, would be pulled out in President Nixon's withdrawal plan meant the removal of the only U.S. unit still involved in the defense of the capital.

The announcement was made by the South Vietnamese, who lost 528 men killed last week. The period included three days in which they fought while their troops tacitly were honoring a Communist-declared truce in honor of Ho Chi Minh.

American spokesmen said the 528 deaths were the highest since 642 Saigon soldiers died in the week ending Aug. 24, 1968.

American losses last week were put at 143 killed and 1,343 wounded—an increase of six dead and 16 wounded over the previous week.

The government losses reflected their increasing combat role as American troops are being pulled out, and served as an indicator of their ability against the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese. A total of 2,364 Americans died fighting last week, spokesmen said.

The 4,500-man 3rd Brigade of the 32nd Airborne Division, less the remaining 18,000 Leathernecks of the 3rd Marine Division and portions of the 1st Marine Air Wing as units designated for withdrawal under President Nixon's 35,000-man second cutback.

Removal of the 3rd Division would leave the South Vietnamese northern tier leaves that volatile Demilitarized Zone area almost wholly in the hands of South Vietnamese troops, too.

UAL Seeks Increase In Air Fares

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Using a formula approved by the Civil Aeronautics Board, United Airlines Wednesday filed for its second fare increase this year.

The board rejected earlier fare proposals from the major airlines which ranged as high as 10 per cent. But the board agreed last week that the airlines were entitled to an increase averaging 6 per cent using a formula based on mileage.

Following the board's recommendation, United asked for a 6 1/2 per cent increase on coach flights, plus a charge of six cents on flights up to 500 miles. The formula also called for a mileage charge on longer flights ranging down to four cents. First class fares would be 25 per cent more than the new coach fare.

United said the present first class fare between Washington and Chicago would go from $50 to $56.50. The formula for the coach fare for the same trip would rise from $30 to $44.

Cassia Hospital Considers $925,000 Building Plan

BURLEY — An 11 point priority improvement program costing $925,000 on Cassia County Memorial Hospital was presented Wednesday as a means to provide quality service at the hospital.

The study was prepared by Keith Wilcox, architect of Wilcox and Associates of Ogden, at the request of Cassia County commissioners and hospital officials. It was requested earlier this year.

Mr. Wilcox said the most important need now is the addition of more single bed facilities. He said the hospital was built with only two single bed units.

Various conditions of patients have developed needs in modern hospitals for more single rooms. It was reported. The proposed unit would be the largest single improvement, costing $448,750.

This would include a wing extending east from the south center and the recreation center and would cost $2 million. It would include a new nurses station to serve two sections of the hospital.

A day room and dining recreation area along with remodeling of the nursing station for the geriatric division, located in the north wing, was listed as second in priority.

The cost of this would be about $250,000.

This would include three, eight bed complexes and add a section to the building to treat specific types of patients.

It would include acute, extended care and nursing patients for a total of $53,270 for the unit.

The expansion of parking facilities was mentioned. This would cost about $2,200.

The other priorities include landscape, $27,000; kitchen remodeling, $41,000; delivery truck, $24,000, and air conditioning, $100,000.

The commissioners said the first six priorities should be finished "full speed ahead." They said the other five would be done later when funds are available.

John Clark, chairman of the hospital board, said he was financing the improvements without a bond election.

He suggested a three mill levy, which would raise about $335,000, and coupled with the

Saigon Says Reds Increase Activity

PARIS (UPI) — South Vietnam said today that new North Vietnamese troops had moved into the Mekong Delta despite U.S. troop withdrawals in Vietnam.

North Vietnam denounced the United States for bringing the prisoner war issue into the peace talks.

Pham Dang Lam, chief South Vietnamese negotiator, told the 24th session of the Joint Military Commission that the United States and South Vietnam had agreed on reducing the number of U.S. troops to 50,000.

U.S. chief negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge presented President Nixon's announcement of the withdrawal of 35,000 U.S. troops and what he called "a remarkably successful example of efforts we have made for peace."

Lodge, returning to the embassy at the end of the 42-hour session, said that spokesmen for the two Communist delegations had called his speech "a far-reaching and important, to me, far-reaching statement" of President Nixon's policy.

Minidoka School Fee Case Heard

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

The Supreme Court's third day in Twin Falls proved to be an interesting one with the controversial Minidoka County school fee issue being heard during the morning session.

After hearing arguments in the matter for an hour, the Court took the case under advisement. A decision, along with a decision on the other cases heard during this historic first appearance of the court in Twin Falls, will be reached at a later date.

Jack Paulson, on behalf of his two sons, Dan and Kirk Paulson, was plaintiff respondent and the Minidoka County School District, No. 331, its superintendent and its board of trustees were defendants-appellants. This case had been brought by Paulson, appealing a District Court ruling.

Fifth District Judge Sherman Bouslog had ruled the school district had no legal authority to collect or levy compulsory fees for books or activities.

The ruling was made after Mr. Paulson brought a suit against the district, alleging the district failed to provide transcripts of records for his boys because they did not pay a $25 fee.

Judge Bouslog, in that suit, also ruled a student can be re-

'Sleeping' Youth Found Inside Bank

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — A 17-year-old youth with a history of sleepwalking was found inside a Citizens Savings Bank branch early Wednesday, spinning the dial on the vault door.

The young Providence resident had been in the bank, according to police, and he did not remember being in the bank. He said he did not remember anything until he was in the police cruiser.

The youth's father said he had gone to bed at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday.

But two policemen, responding to a call just before 1 a.m., found two glass doors at the bank broken. They called for police cars, but the young man turned the dial.

"When the vault did not open, the youth walked out of the bank through the broken glass doors. Once outside, he was arrested."

The bank manager, Robert Blewett, said there was apparently no damage other than to the two large panes of glass, and apparently nothing was taken.

But he said the youth was referred to his parents' attorney, Don Paulson, said youths were charged for caps, gowns, news-

Interest Rates May Start Drop

BOISE (UPI) — Interest rates appear to have hit their peak and may begin dropping in six months, according to Frank L. King, board chairman of the Western Bancorporation.

King made the comment in Boise Wednesday on route to a Sun Valley meeting today of the affiliate Bank of Idaho's board of directors.

He predicted interest rates on housing eventually could drop from the current 9 to 10 per cent to about 7 per cent.

But he said "we'll never see five per cent again, though."

'Punk' Meets His Match In Idaho's Sen. Jordan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Len Jordan, 35-year-old Republican from Idaho, described Wednesday how he floored a heckling "young punk" who neglected him in the elevator.

"I just hauled off and popped him on," Jordan said.

But Jordan declined to claim any heroism on his own part, saying he would have been glad to part with anything of value if he said he fought back because he was frightened for his life.

Jordan said the youth, whose right hand was in his pocket as if he had a gun, punched the fourth floor button after slipping into the elevator on the fifth floor.

"This is where we get slapped away and ran down the stairs. It was then that Jordan knocked him down with one surprise punch."

Jordan said "when he got up again."

"Jordan the young man got up, Jordan said, he drew out a black and blue eye. A black and blue eye on the head."

The struggling man spilled out of the elevator into the fourth floor corridor just in front of the apartment of Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., who looked out to see what the commotion was.

Jordan said Tydings, who is 41 years old, came to his assistance but that his assailant

Ex-Officials Cite Failure Of Agencies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two former Johnson Administration officials criticized Tuesday that the government was doing a sorry job in protecting the consumer. But they said the solution did not lie in creation of a department of consumer affairs.

Instead, Dr. James L. Goddard and Esther Peterson argued that Congress should establish a well-financed White House office of consumer affairs that would aggressively pursue the buyer's interest throughout the federal government, coordinate federal protection activities and develop new legislative proposals.

Goddard, former commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and Mrs. Peterson, the first presidential assistant for consumer affairs, testified before a House government operations subcommittee.

The panel opened hearings on legislation to create a full fledged, Cabinet-level department of consumer affairs.

Reds Pour Abuse On American Troop Decrease

PARIS (UPI) — The Vietnam communists poured scorn on the new American troop withdrawal plan Tuesday but couched it with a phrase which qualified diplomatic officials said Tuesday could be significant.

The Viet Cong's "Provisional Revolutionary Government" (PRG) scoffed at the plan to pull 35,000 more troops out an "drop by drop" withdrawal.

The possible significance of the "drop by drop" phrase, according to the qualified diplomatic officials who declined to be identified, was that it appeared to be the first communist admission that earlier U.S. troops withdrawal had, in fact, taken place.

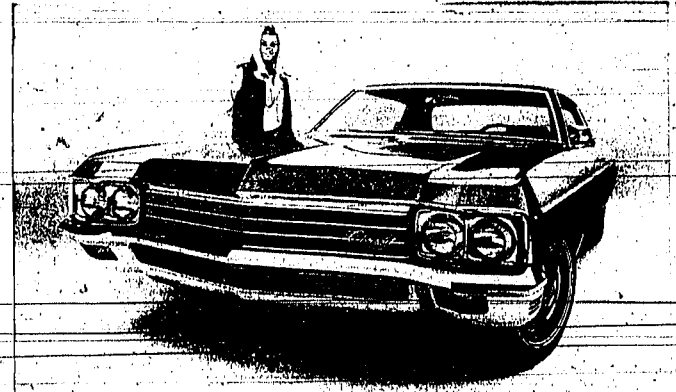

The spokesman for the Hanoi delegation immediately endorsed the Viet Cong state demand for immediate, complete and unconditional withdrawal of all U.S. troops in South Vietnam.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — It has become altogether too easy in this country these days to foretell about the white poor. In fact, one is likely to hear more about these 17 million poor white Americans from some of the responsible black leaders than from most of the gutter-literate white liberals who talk as if poverty were exclusively a problem of the non-white.

That, of course, is the irony of the racial struggle underscores black poverty. There are two poor whites for every nonwhite in America, but only a tenth of all white persons were in 1968 as against a third of all the nonwhite people. That, crushing ratio explains much, and hence are easy to find. There is much more to it than that of the entire population of Yugoslavia or Romania. One of the big questions is where they are.

Ah, The Gals!

Even professional associations look forward to their annual conventions with temerity these days, lest a full-blown revolt of some nature disrupt the tranquility of otherwise dull proceedings. It happened there, other way, to the sociologists. There they were, 3,000 strong, at a convention in San Francisco, listening to speaker after speaker when all of a sudden someone must have hit a responsive chord. Five hundreds ladies present, almost to a man — er, woman — left the meeting, regrouped their forces in a nearby ballroom and declared war against the men who run the American Sociological Assn.

Those Talking Airline Pilots

WASHINGTON — There's a new breed of pilot now flying our commercial airways, and he's becoming a menace to the peace and tranquility of the traveler. The taciturn James Sledgewise-type of pilot is being replaced by the extroverted David Susskind-type who not only never stops talking, but tells you a lot more about flying than you want to know.

Avoid Hepatitis

(Third in a series of three articles) Avoiding hepatitis is, like treatment of this disease, lacking in any dramatic effect. But that's no excuse for not making use of the undramatic means we possess. Since the disease is caused by a virus that infects the liver, the virus is mainly transmitted by food and liquids, we have the first clue to preventing it.

Smoking And Hearts

For the edification of the column readers, Mr. Spectator thinks that the following from the American Medical News will be of general interest. So we pass it on — as it is! Cigarette consumption declines in the U. S. for the second consecutive fiscal year, but exports produced an overall increase in cigarettes made in the U. S., Internal Revenue Service reports. According to IRS figures, cigarettes removed from warehouses and taxed for domestic use declined by 2.3 billion or 0.4 per cent — a like decline to the previous fiscal year. The drop was to 520.3 billion cigarettes. The gain in exports increased the number of total cigarettes manufactured by 2.3 billion to 573 billion.

Not A Chicken

WASHINGTON — Oliver Wendell Holmes was on the money when he admitted “I am not a chicken; I have seen full many a chick September.” For most males who will never be 40 again, September Song is life-sweet, as Sinclair Lewis and the creaking voice of Walter Huston reminded us.

Warnings in cigarette ads that smoking may be hazardous to health will be required by the New York Times effective Jan. 1, 1970. In an editorial, the Times says, “We favor a legal requirement that every package of cigarettes and every cigarette advertisement carry a strong, explicit and clearly visible warning of the health hazards — a much stronger warning than the inadequate one now required on packs.”

Heart transplants are encouraged by the Vatican. Stating that such operations are morally permissible, a story in the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano says, “If this moral holiness is denied to doctors, one denies them the possibility of opening new frontiers of acquiring new techniques and new drugs.” Gallup Poll reports more than half of all Britons — 53 per cent — say they would allow their hearts to be used in a transplant operation, and 40 per cent would be willing to receive a transplanted heart, if recommended by their doctor.

Thanks for putting in the offer for my kittens. However, my writing must have been very bad or someone wasn't very oriented and the offer of “banties” came out “banties” in the paper. We still would like to get rid of them — so could you put it in again? They are bantam chickens. Ask for Mrs. Arndt Svancara at 643-5803. We have three pups, two months old, needing a new home. They are small dogs and are used to being around children. They would make excellent family pets. All are girls and are cute. Please call 423-4473. We have kittens to give away. IDA MERLE NIELSEN strums the Balinka, a stringed instrument she acquired during her recent trip to Russia. It is made in different sizes, played in concerts and complete orchestras in addition to solo use. And, although Miss Nielsen looks right at home with the distinctive instrument, she admits that one of her projects will be to learn to play it.

INTRICATE AND UNIQUE souvenirs were among those brought back from an extensive tour of Russia, Denmark and the Holy Land countries. Two of them are displayed by Ida Merle Nielsen, chief technologist at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital, who just returned from a three-weeks study-pleasure jaunt. She shows a hand-painted box featuring fairy tale scenes and a hand-painted bowl of unusual designs. Both are from Russia.

Ida Nielsen, Hospital Technician, Finds Out A Lot Of Things On Trip To Russia

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER
Times-News Editor

Ida Merle Nielsen, chief technologist at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital with a certification in blood banking, wanted to attend the International Transfusion Congress three years ago.

She didn't make it because she didn't have the money. This year she did make it and has just returned from a four-weeks trip that saw her not only attend the Congress in Moscow, Russia, but also visit such interesting and historic places as Constantinople, Jerusalem and the Holy Land nations. And she accomplished it not by resorting to use of an interest-bearing credit card but by adopting the seldom used method of a cut and dried saving program for three long years.

Miss Nielsen, who resides at Lynwood Manor in Twin Falls, is the only person from Idaho to attend the Congress. There were 10 professionals in the group of which she was a member and in an interview with this Times-News writer a few days after returning home this month, she admitted she had learned many things. For instance:

(1) The Russian airlines are no match for the sophisticated airlines of the United States.

(2) In tourist, the Russian travel agency never tells you what hotel you will have in Moscow until you arrive.

(3) The hotel in Moscow headquarters for the Congress attracting experts from over the world was termed elite. It was new, housed 1,000 people but had no stoppers in the tub or wash-bowl and the hot water was barely warm.

(4) Food was better than she had expected. In Moscow there was a choice on the menu. Beef or fish soup, two vegetables — squash and carrots — fried potatoes with all meals, salted pickles, sliced cucumbers and tomatoes; white or black bread but no butter, salt or pepper. No tea. Milk was heated by boiling, not pasteurized.

(5) Drinking friends said the champagne was excellent.

During her trip to Russia she participated in, among other things, a tour of a surgical hospital and the general transfusion service headquarters. She also toured the emergency hospital — called the Skifskovsky Institute — meaning "quick help."

She found that all "sudden death" patients — those having strokes, heart attacks or the like — were taken in this particular hospital no matter what part of Moscow they came from. The reason was interesting.

Russians do not own their own bodies. Their bodies belong to the state in emergency deaths — even traffic accidents although there are not too many because there are few vehicles — or in emergency labors doctors at the "sudden death" institution remove the blood from the body and do an autopsy. In the autopsy if, say, a malignancy is discovered then the blood is disposed of. If not then it is kept for the blood bank.

In this instance their method was better than the blood bank method in the United States. Instead of a pint from this person and a pint from that person, a Russian needing a transfusion can have several pints of blood which match exactly because they are from the same individual.

Russia is the first nation to develop this cadaver blood bank.

After getting back to the body, she — having removed the blood and any organs they might wish to have — then members of the family can receive it for burial. If there is no one to claim it then it is kept for further study.

In one case she was shown a frozen bone marrow bank provided both by living and dead here, as in several other places, she ran into a typical Russian situation. A bone expert told her he did not know whether the bank bones were used or not. It was his job to prepare them. He didn't know anything other than that.

This was true even of the stewards on the plane coming into Russia. When the plane was over, she simply asked people to sit down where they could and she sat down too and cried.

She found out a lot of other things, too, and among them were:

(1) There was an absence of consumer goods in stores. What goods were available saw Russians standing in line for two or three hours to buy. And then they told the clerk the size they wanted and perhaps the color. They never got to try on a clothing purchase, for instance. It was handed to them wrapped.

(2) Prices are high and the average Russian makes about 120 rubles or $35 American dollars a month. The state pays all medical and dental costs and an apartment can be had for (American) a month including water and electricity. But there might be 10 or more people in a very small apartment.

(3) Because the Russians have nothing left to spend due to the high price of goods — this even though the state subsidizes necessities — they do a lot of visiting such places as Lenin's tomb. One English-speaking Russian told Miss Nielsen that it let them get out in the sun.

(4) In Russia there were no toothpicks, rubber bands, safety pins, paper clips, or Kleenex. The toilet tissue is just about like crepe paper.

(5) Most like American dollars instead of rubles.

(6) The Metro system — the underground subway — is outstanding. Each station is different. One is done in bronze, one in marble, one stained glass, for instance. There is no advertising in any of the stations, Murals, rather than advertising like in America, cover the walls. And there is no conductor or the trains. You pay on the honor system. No attendant watches you put your money in the collection post. You are on your honor to put in the right amount.

(7) Moscow is filled with beautiful churches, as is Leningrad. But the people do not believe in God with the result most of the churches have been changed into anti-religious museums and some are stores.

(8) There are two main newspapers in Moscow. Neither of them carry any advertising.

After leaving Russia she returned to Twin Falls by way of Vienna, Istanbul, Cyprus, Tel Aviv, Haifa, Jerusalem, Athens and Rome, to name a few.

She had time to swim in both the Dead Sea and the Sea of Galilee.

She walked where Christ walked and the arrival and departure times — were sometimes hectic.

The tour was for members of the Association for International Medical Studies and there were scores of doctors and technicians from the United States.

The Congress meets every three years. Is Miss Nielsen starting to save for the next one? You'll have to ask her that.

But she did enjoy this one!

Students Ask For Harder Glasses, More Supervision

GLENN'S FERRY — In a unique shift of opinion, Glenn's Perry teen-agers have asked for harder and more comprehensive classes in their schools in order to prepare themselves better for the workaday world.

The students, through spokesmen in the eighth grade through the high school senior class, asked specifically for classes in comparative government in a political science course, civics, preparation, and, at home, more parental supervision.

The opinions were brought out at a recent meeting of the Glenn's Perry Area PTA. Students comprising a discussion panel were Karl Koch, representing the senior class; Mike Jones, Juniors; Robby Messervy, Sophomores; Rex Chafin, Freshmen; and Mary Sims and Sheila eighth-graders.

The students cited the need of college preparation particularly in the field of government. "We should be treated as individuals. More parental supervision and control is needed by today's young people, particularly in controversial areas such as length of boys' hair and girls' skirts, the youths said. If parents took a firm stand and made the requisite decisions, the schools would not have to rule."

The students were invited back to the next PTA meeting, in outlining their feelings specifically in the areas of the school, the community and the home.

Banks Told To Control 'Card' Rates

BOISE (UPI) — The banks of the State of Idaho today were pondering an opinion from Atty. Gen. Robert Robson and the big question was "where do we go?"

Robson handed down an opinion Wednesday that gave the banks "notice" their credit card status could be subject to the state's usury laws.

The opinion had been expected and it seemed certain that there would be court testing involved.

State Finance Commissioner Jim Silva, who was not caught unaware, said, "I have to appreciate Robson's position. It is a very courageous opinion rather than good politics. It is supported by the governor."

The attorney general's opinion stated that interest on credit cards for loans, for the banks, was limited to 11.25 per cent interest per year. Some of the card handlers have been charging up to 18 per cent and several others have been approaching the 12 per cent mark or surpassing it.

The attorney general said he would "take action" if courts later break down to his opinion. But he pointed out there are many such cases involved.

"This case has never been decided," the attorney general said, "and Idaho could set some kind of a precedent."

"When it is all said and done," Robson said, "it could be two to three years until the courts have been through it."

The attorney general added that he did not contemplate asking for an injunction at this time.

He said that state banks in Idaho were not themselves at fault. He said they "quickly complied" with the attorney general's opinion.

Theme for the evening program was Hawaiian Luau, featuring an Hawaiian meal followed by slides of the islands taken by Bill Hanco when he attended the Rotary International Convention there last year.

When asked what consequences would transpire if the banks went ahead with charging above the 11.25 per cent interest rate Robson replied, "they will be taking their chances."

GRANT CATMULL, fellowship chairman, and Dan Ballantyne, Rupert Rotary club president, receive pins during the club's Hawaiian luau from Sally Smith and her student, Ken Bell, Rupert businessman, was honored for his near perfect attendance record. The program included showing of slides taken in Hawaii and reports on the international convention there last year.

Southern Governors Conclave Ends On Note Of 'Good-Humored' Disharmony

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (UPI) — Good humored disharmony that was the 35th annual Southern Governors Conference: But it may have repercussions.

Maryland is reported ready to secede from the 17-state organization; Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox suggests, perhaps tongue-in-cheek, that a conference of southeastern states be formed.

The conference spent a good deal of its time in squabbling over the controversial busing of children to integrated schools to achieve racial balance. Shown into the background were such matters as economic development, marine research and nuclear power.

Governors from three border states—Arch Moore of West Virginia, Marvin Mandel of Maryland and Russell Peterson of Delaware—brought about the defeat of a strong-worried resolution condemning busing. With Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas abstaining, the resolution failed to get the three-fourth majority necessary for passage despite an 8-3 favorable vote.

The conference then adopted, by a 9-3 vote, a compromise resolution urging "restraint and good judgement" in busing. Gov. Albert Brewer of Alabama led the opposition, stating the resolution may be interpreted as implying "some sort of approval of some sort of restraining busing, whatever that might be."

Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams said the conference should get on one side of the fence or the other. This is fact approval of us of busing in some instances."

"Amen," shouted Maddox.

who wondered "how all these Yankees got in here."

Noting the stand of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia on the issue, Maddox said, "maybe what we need is a Southeastern Governors Conference."

The Washington Star reported later Wednesday that Mandel is planning to take Maryland out of the conference. It said Mandel feels his state would best be served by meeting with states that have a "mutuality of interests"—such as mass transit, air pollution and urban problems.

Rockefeller was elected the new chairman of the conference, the first Republican ever to hold the post, and the group voted to hold next year's meeting on the "new and rebuilt Mississippi Gulf Coast."

Williams said the meeting would challenge his state to recover from the damage wrought by hurricane Camille.

Students Picket Arkansas School

FORREST CITY, Ark. (UPI) — More than 100 white students at Forrest City Junior and Senior High picketed their school building complex Wednesday asking to "get the blacks out of our schools."

The students — five times more than walked out of junior high classes and started picketing Tuesday — were still primarily from the junior high and were again joined by some of their mothers.

The signs said, in addition to asking for removal of the Negroes, such things as "Do without federal aid now, we can do it ourselves."

Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams said the conference should get on one side of the fence or the other. This is fact approval of us of busing in some instances."

"Amen," shouted Maddox.

Schools Scolded

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — A three-judge panel ruled Wednesday Alabama education officials still have not come up with an adequate desegregation plan for junior colleges and trade schools and handed the job to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW).

Samuelson Ends North Idaho Trip

WALLACE, Idaho (UPI) — Gov. Don Samuelson left here for Boise Wednesday night having "brought the government to the people" in a three-day tour which saw him cover four north Idaho counties.

At a luncheon at the Elks Temple here which climaxed the tour, Samuelson urged the people to "work with us" to build a better state "county by county, block by block."

Samuelson said he was constantly amazed by the opportunities offered in the state, adding, "I wish I was 20 years younger so I could take advantage of them."

In his visits to the various counties, the governor said he found the biggest concern was the effects of President Nixon's announced cutbacks of federal construction on the progress of highway construction in the state.

He said the cutback probably would not affect the federal highway construction program but would jeopardize the forest highway program which brings $3 million to Idaho annually.

However, Samuelson said he would learn more about the problem after flying to Washington today to join the executive committee of the National Conference of Governors in a meeting with President Nixon to discuss the federal cutbacks.

'Bottomless' Dancer Performs Before Judge

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — A "bottomless" Go-Go dancer clad only in golden sandals and a ring rocked to "Kansas City" in a "bunk" bar Wednesday while Municipal Judge Earl Warren Jr., held court, sipping water from a beer glass.

Warren, son of the recently retired U. S. Chief Justice moved the trial of two Go-Go dancers accused of indecent exposure from his own municipal court to the Pink Pussy Kat.

About 80 regular bar customers applauded each performance.

Warren presided at the bar, 10 feet from the six-foot stage bathed in red light. He "sat expressionless" with his chin cupped in his hands.

Senate Bill Halts Growth Of Military

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate has decided total U.S. troop strength should be no bigger than it is today, and has voted to restrict future U.S. involvement in Laos and Thailand to supplies and machinery, not men.

Both measures were passed Wednesday as amendments to the beleaguered $20-billion defense procurement bill, the measure which contains authorization for the safeguard antimissile system and dozens of other new weapons.

A vote on the whole bill was tentatively set for late this afternoon.

Both the troop-ceiling and the Laos-Thailand involvement measures were passed with Pentagon approval.

By a vote of 71-10, the Senate okayed a limit of 3,611,000 for total U.S. troop strength until next July 1. That figure is the present troop level. The ceiling would not apply in a national emergency, but it would grow smaller each time the Nixon administration subtracts from the current level by withdrawing more troops from Vietnam.

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., attacked the ceiling, calling it a "meat ax cut" and adding, "we don't know what we'll be facing tomorrow."

Tiny Tim Of TV Plans To Marry Young Fan He Met While Signing Autographs

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI)—Tiny Tim, who tiptoes through the tulips on television, announced Wednesday he will marry a teenage fan he met while signing autographs in a Philadelphia department store.

The singer, in his mid-40s, said his bride-to-be is tall, blonde, 17-year-old Vicki Budinger of Haddonfield, a recent high-school graduate.

Tiny Tim, who refused to divulge his exact age, said he does not think the difference in their ages matters.

The singer, noted for his shoulder-length hair and a voice which ranges from shaking falsetto to baritone, said: "I'm 16 years old at heart."

He made the announcement at the New Jersey State Fair, at which he is appearing.

He said he met Miss Budinger while signing autographs at Wanamaker's department store in Philadelphia last spring.

"I reached out my hand for a piece of paper, and instead she put her hand in mine. One touch and I knew it was true love," he said.

Mrs. Allan Budinger, mother of the bride-to-be, said in a telephone interview that she and her husband are "elated" over the match.

"We're very fond of him," she said. She said no date had been set for the wedding. The mother said she was with her daughter children because he "doesn't believe in birth control." Mrs. Budinger, who has four other daughters, said Vicki graduated in June from Lehigh High School in Medford, N.J., where the family lived before a recent move to Haddonfield. Her husband is an artist who also sells art supplies.

Nixon Asks Increase In Aged Benefit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon, in a surprise announcement, said Wednesday he would ask Congress to increase social security benefits by 10 per cent effective next April.

Nixon, who had earlier said he would propose a 7 per cent increase, made the announcement with little elaboration as he signed a law extending for three years a federal assistance program for training elderly persons. He said he would send out his program in a message to Congress next week.

Nixon said that social security beneficiaries have been hard hit by the steady price rises of the last five years.

"Those who suffered the most are the older citizens living on fixed incomes," the President said.

Nixon made no mention of how he proposed to finance the increased benefits, but in the past they have been paid for by increased social security taxes deducted from paychecks.

Present benefits, which went into effect in March, 1968, with a 15 per cent increase, range from a minimum of $55 a month to a maximum of $160.50. The average is $99.69.

The program is financed by payroll taxes paid by employees and employers. Each now pays 4.8 per cent on the first $7,800 of a worker's salary, or $374.40. Under present law, the 4.8 per cent rate will go to 5.2 per cent on Jan. 1, 1971.

The legislation signed by Nixon Wednesday extends for three years the program assisting job-training for the elderly, authorizing appropriations of up to $252 million to carry the act through June 30, 1972. It also transfers the so-called foster grandparents program from the Office of Economic Opportunity to the department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Alert Owner Foils Theft At Richfield

RICHFIELD — An alert Richfield garage owner foiled a California motorist's attempt to get away without detection after buying gasoline and leaving without paying for it.

Carl Paulson was walking to work early one morning when he saw a car parked at his garage gasoline pump and automatically took notice of the license number in this case a short one. About that time the driver gunned his motor taking off just as the garage attendant ran out after him. The car driver had asked for a light bulb after getting his gasoline and the attendant had gone into the garage after.

Paulson telephoned the county sheriff giving him the license number. The car was apprehended at Arco and the driver, Phillip Hetherington, is now serving 10 days in jail. He served a jail sentence in Portland recently for the same offense. Hetherington stated the man did not have any money.

T. F. Man Hurt In Truck Crash

GODDING Charles R. Thomas, 41, Twin Falls, was reported in fair condition Thursday at the Gooding Memorial Hospital after the potato truck he was driving went down a 20-foot embankment early Wednesday.

Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Hess said apparently Mr. Thomas was unconscious for several hours after the 1967 Chevrolet truck went out of control on State Highway 25 five miles east of Bliss about 12:10 a.m. Since the truck was not visible from the highway, he was not found until 6:30 a.m. when he regained consciousness and crawled up to the road. Floyd Marsh, an area farmer, reported the accident.

Tax Assessment Discrepancy Creates Problem For Schools, Senator Says

BOISE (UPI) — Lack of uniformity in assessment of real property for tax purposes is creating additional problems in allocating state funds to the schools, State Sen. Fred R. Bagley, R-Boise, said today.

Bagley, chairman of an interim committee assigned to study the formula for distributing state school aid, called attention to the drop in ratios of assessment in 28 counties this year.

He noted that, at a time when all counties are supposed to be moving toward assessment of property at 20 per cent of cash value, ratios of assessment in those counties dropped from last year.

Bagley said that since the formula for distributing state aid to the schools is based on the assessed value of the districts "it will never be truly workable until assessment ratios are uniform throughout the state."

"The fact that some assessors are permitting ratios to decrease while others are moving upward toward the prescribed 20 per cent level makes the consideration of mill levy limitations by the legislature a wasted effort," Bagley said.

"Assessed valuation times the mill levy produces tax dollars," he said. "The idea of the levy limitation is to limit the taxes that can be raised from local property."

"As costs of operating local government increase, requiring more tax dollars, and assessed valuation decreases in relation raised to produce the money to full cash value, then mill needed to support local government levy limits will have to be ment."

Romney To Cut 'Red Tape' In Speeding Flood-Control Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Housing Secretary George Romney Tuesday announced changes aimed at cutting through the red tape which has kept all but three communities in the nation from qualifying for new federal flood control insurance.

In a letter to all House and Senate members, Romney said the new procedures would eliminate the time-consuming house-by-house inspections which have been required so far in the three-month-old program.

The federal program, authorized by Congress last year, provides the only flood insurance in the nation. Private insurance companies do not write policies to protect homes against flooding.

Only three communities—Metairie, La.; Fairbanks, Alaska; and part of Alexandria, Va.—have qualified for coverage. Some 40 more communities have applied.

HUD rules require a community to adopt local flood-control plans and land-use requirements. In addition, a house-by-house rate-setting inspection has been necessary. The new regulations will permit rates to be set on the basis of a 10 percent sample of the structures in geographic zones.

George K. Bernstein, HUD's federal insurance administrator, said the new regulations should permit rapid expansion of the program.

Agency Seeks Federal Help To Buy Land

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department complained to Congress Tuesday that the demand for land is so great it is having trouble buying space for future needs and even holding on to what it already owns. It said it needed legislative relief.

Assistant Defense Secretary Barry J. Shilito told the House Armed Services Committee that communities are covetously eyeing tracts of land at military installations and noted the Army's recent difficulty in finding sites for antiballistic missile sites.

Shilito also said the Defense Department would ask for authority to require that a recipient of surplus military property provide land in exchange.

Sen. Young, Condemns Draft System

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Stephen A. Young, D-Ohio, said Tuesday the Selective Service system had become "a repugnant mess" under Director Lewis B. Hershey and "I hope President Nixon will request his resignation."

Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, rose quickly to the 76-year-old Hershey's defense, calling him the "outstanding administrator" in Washington "and a fine, patriotic man."

The exchange came amid reports, denied by the White House, that Hershey might be eased out. "There are absolutely no plans whatsoever to replace Gen. Hershey," a spokesman said.

Young used the "repugnant mess" reference in a Senate speech in which he said Hershey had "an inflated view of his power and authority."

Earlier, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the acting Republican floor leader, told newsmen after a visit to the White House that President Nixon hopes Congress will act soon to overhaul the draft law.

Debbie Reynolds Cancels Series As Cigarette Protest

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Debbie Reynolds canceled production today of her new television series because a cigarette commercial was broadcast during the debut of the show.

Miss Reynolds, who often played the girl-next-door roles in motion pictures, reportedly is the highest paid female performer on television at $25,000 weekly. In addition to losing her salary, she has a 50 percent interest in the show.

Miss Reynolds, who does not smoke, sent a telegram to NBC notifying them she was terminating the series, which she produced in partnership with Filmways, Inc.

She said the cigarette commercial aired during the season premier Tuesday night was in direct violation of her agreement with NBC and she was ceasing production effective today.

Lewiston Faces Lack Of Funds

LEWISTON, Idaho (UPI) — This city must come up with a new levy proposal or face next year without operating funds, officials said Thursday.

The county commission Tuesday afternoon turned down the city's proposed levy because it exceeded the four per cent increase limit placed on levies by the state legislature.

The proposed budget called for a levy of 59.5 mills to raise $72,144, an increase of $31,240 in the budget and five mills in the levy.

Officials argued the increase for next year was necessary to pay for wage increases for employees. The commissioners disagreed and turned the proposed levy over to the city attorney for study.

Senate Sets Sept. 24 Vote On Successor Of Dirksen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The question of who fills the Republican leadership void left by the death of Everett M. Dirksen will be decided by GOP senators Sept. 24.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine set next Wednesday as the date to vote on replacement of Dirksen as Senate Minority Leader and ratification of the appointments to fill Dirksen's choice committee seats.

A possible fight between conservatives and liberals over who will fill Dirksen's seat on the Judiciary Committee was avoided Tuesday when Sen. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan was recommended for the post. Sen. Clifford P. Hansen of Wyoming was chosen for the Finance Committee.

But the switch of Griffin and Hansen leave openings on other committees.

The Republican Committee on Committees then assigned Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr., of Maryland to Griffin's seat on the Committee on Government Operations; Sen. Marlow Cook of Kentucky to Hansen's position on the Commerce Committee; and Sen. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma to Cook's seat on the Agriculture Committee.

That leaves open Bellmon's seat on the Labor Committee and Mathias' position on the Space Committee, to be filled with the new senator from Illinois.

The Senate Minority Leader apparently will be chosen from among Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. of Tennessee and Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, who, as Dirksen's assistant, has been filling the spot temporarily.

Con' Man Hits Boise Woman For $2,200 Loss

BOISE (UPI) — Boise City Police today were looking for a confidence man and his accomplice who have been working in the Treasure Valley area.

City police in Boise said that a man, posing as a bank examiner, allegedly bilked a 68-year-old woman of $2,200 Wednesday afternoon.

Police said the man talked the woman into withdrawing her savings so that alleged "illegal procedures" in the bank could be investigated. She then met the man and turned her money over to him — to be returned to the bank.

The man fled with the money.

Leash Law Is Considered At Jerome

JEROME — What to do about dogs in the city of Jerome is still undecided.

After what was described as an "endless discussion" at the city council meeting Tuesday night, councilmen still reached no decision as to whether or not a proposed leash law should be put on the city election ballot this fall.

Earlier in the summer, petitions signed by the required number of citizens were presented to the council requesting that a leash law be established for the city. It was pointed out at the time there are many technicalities involved in obtaining such an ordinance.

In other business, councilmen heard the first reading of two ordinances, one to establish a zoning commission and the other authorizing sale of a block of city owner property in the west part of town.

Councilmen discussed the proposed increase in rates for garbage collection in the business area.

Councilmen called for bids for a new pickup truck for the city.

Councilmen accepted the annual auditor's report made by Thomas Mahan, CPA.

Debbie Reynolds' Comedy Series Is Bread And Butter Show For NBC-TV

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI)—NBC-TV's Debbie Reynolds series, a not a newspaper comedy, is a domestic comedy above-all, and Glen Campbell, a ratings booster, works nicely enough with Miss Warwick, although one would have preferred to hear more of her and less of him. "It is, after all, her show. But in any case, she is a h-o-w-e-a-s-e-d, rather nicely throughout and she is a radiant talent and lady.

It is a straight situation comedy, with plenty of slapstick, that is obviously trying to follow in the tradition of the Lucille Ball series. It is, in fact, the kind of series one would normally expect to find on Miss Ball's network, CBS-TV, rather than on NBC-TV.

But NBC-TV knows it has a pretty surefire thing in Miss Reynolds, who is cut to form for just such a show, being "cute" in the popular sense, and in the old girl-next-door way, and pre-sold as a film star.

So it was hardly likely that NBC-TV was going to mess around with anything experimental or unique involving Miss Reynolds, or, for that matter, that the comedienne would have wanted to try anything unique or experimental.

There is, therefore, really nothing much to say about Miss Reynolds' show, in which she repeatedly tries to prove her ability to become a newspaper feature writer. It should be made clear that this

Miss Reynolds, however, is a deceptively strong performer in my opinion one of the truly natural and superior talents in popular show business. And if given the material there is little reason why she cannot be a long-term ratings success. It is, in fact, a good bet for she definitely has the same kind of appeal as Miss Ball.

Tonight, on CBS-TV, Miss Dionne Warwick, an exceptionally fine singer, with a glowing inner beauty, has an hour variety special of her own. The only moment that mars it is a fastless plug for an album. Other than that, however, it is often buoyant and listenable, particularly when composer Burt Bacharach joins Miss Warwick, who has recorded his songs.

George Kirby is of help also, with comedy. The "Greater Clearwater Revival is good too;

'Sick'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nicholas Johnson, a member of the Federal Communications Commission, told a congressional committee Tuesday that television is "a sick influence in our society."

Johnson testified before a House-Senate economic subcommittee that the medium "leaves half of the American people dead in the water each evening."

"It force feeds external additives like hair, color, deodorant, mouthwash, headache and sleeping pills, coffee, cigarettes and beer to a bewildered people in search of more—instead of the stimulation to live the kind of life that can only bring the satisfactions they seek."

Agnew Urges Mars Landing By 1986

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has recommended the United States attempt to land men on Mars by 1986. It was one of three possible post-Apollo programs suggested to President Nixon by the task force.

Nixon so far is committed only to a manned Mars flight before the year 2000, according to White House Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler.

The task force report was made public Wednesday by the White House.

Although it did not favor any one of the three programs it suggested to the President, the report did propose that the United States accept the long-range option or goal of manned planetary exploration before the end of this century.

Nixon is expected to arrive at a tentative decision "within a few weeks," said Dr. Lee A. DuBridge, his science adviser.

Nixon has already said he was thankful the task force rejected the extremes of a crash program or termination of all manned space flight activities.

The three options outlined by the task force are:

- A program that would reach a maximum cost of $9 billion annually in 1980 with a Mars landing by the early 1990s.
- A program costing about $6 billion annually by the early 1980s with a manned landing by 1990.
- Deferential of a decision on a Mars landing until after 1990.

Agnew, chairman of the task force, threw his support behind the intermediate plan in a letter to the president that accompanied the report.

Jordan said the total contract cost of the project is $30,000.

Pompidou Says French Will Continue As German Allies

By GEORGE SIBERA

PARIS (UPI) - France's leadership in the West German parliamentary elections Sept. 28 will produce a government which will continue the policy of Franco-German reconciliation and cooperation.

But the days of France acting as senior partner are over.

President Georges Pompidou who conferred with the Bonn leadership Monday and Tuesday told his cabinet upon his return to Paris that Franco-German friendship was henceforth "irreversible."

Cooperation with Bonn, informants said, was accepted as a basic fact of political life by all French parties except the Communists, who echo a long-standing criticism of the Bonn regime as being "revanchist."

Paradoxically, the dramatic fall from power of Charles de Gaulle following his referendum defeat in April, and his replacement by Pompidou June 15, have improved rather than weakened cooperation between the two countries.

De Gaulle inaugurated the era of close cooperation between the two enemies by drafting with the late Chancellor Konrad Adenauer the Jan. 22, 1963, Treaty of Alliance and Friendship.

But soon after the embrace between De Gaulle and Adenauer, France and West Germany fell apart over many issues. The Germans bitterly complained the haughty French soldier-politician was trying to force the treaty to impose his will on Bonn.

Shortly before his resignation, De Gaulle resigned himself to failure to hitch West Germany onto his bandwagon.

"Treaties are like roses—they last one day," he said.

A reappraisal of France's economic and financial potential has helped to mould the new Gaullist regime's sober approach to world problems, informants said.

Gas Testé

HONOLULU (UPI) - The Army conducted tests of lethal nerve gas on the island of Hawaii in 1968 and 1969. The Honolulu Star-Bulletin said Tuesday.

The newspaper said Rep. Patsy T. Mink, D-Hawaii, was told by the Army that three tests were run, involving a chemical incapacitating agent, BZ and a nerve gas, GB.

"BZ and GB are believed to be the second and third most toxic nerve gases in the Army's chemical and biological warfare arsenal," the Star-Bulletin said.

Scientists To Find Why Wine Changes Color

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Agriculture Department Tuesday announced award of a $72,123 contract to scientists at a Yugoslavian university to find out why white wine turns brown and what can be done about it.

The grant of 901,646 Yugoslavian dinars for the three-year study at the University of Zagreb was made from surplus stocks of Yugoslavian currency acquired by the United States in return for aid shipments under the food for peace program.

Officials said the question of how to keep white wine from turning brown is important to the U.S. wine industry and added that the studies will complement research already underway at an Agriculture Department laboratory in Albany, Calif.

Evangelist Pleads Guilty To False Radio Advertising

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (UPI) - Radio evangelist Curtis Springer, Wednesday pleaded guilty to eight counts of false advertising stemming from the promotion of certain health drugs and foods on his radio program.

The portly Springer quietly pleaded guilty eight times in municipal court as the counts were read.

Six of the counts involved false advertising of a hemorrhoid kit and the products "B Plus" for the treatment of bad nerves and heart diseases and "Neptunes" for the treatment of nerve and thyroid conditions.

Springer, who claims to be heard by some 14 million persons weekly on his syndicated radio program, requested a probation hearing and it was set for Oct. 14.

Springer and his wife said they would continue to produce their program as they have the last 25 years.

Wood River Tests Jerome, Filer Invades Valley In Magic Valley Features

Some of the first indications of conference strength came to the fore this weekend with undefeated Filer hosting Jerome, Gooding going down the hill to play Glens Ferry and Wood River moving into Jerome in the features of a 13-game Magic Valley High School football weekend.

Cubs Claim 9-7 Victory Over Phils

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs led their most in a game since Aug. 5 with a 9-7 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies since July 10 with five and needed every advantage to beat the Philadelphia Phillies 9-7, only their second victory in the last 13 games.

Winning pitcher Ferguson Jenkins, who got his 20th triumph with relief from Ken Johnson, Ed Regan and Rich Nye, delivered a bases-loaded triple to drive in three runs and cap a five-run sixth inning for the Cubs, their first five-run inning since July 10 against the New York Mets.

In addition, Ron Santo hit his 28th homer after a single by Phil Williams in the third inning, and Williams hit his 19th homer in the seventh to wind up the Cubs' scoring in the win since they attained 16 against Houston Aug. 5.

The Phillies never came back to tie in the eighth when doubles by Rick Joseph and Tom Kelly, and a triple by Glenn Beckert, a walk to Tony Taylor, a walk to Johnny Callison forcing in a run and Deron Johnson's error for two runs produced a four-run inning. The rally fell short of tying the score when Nye got Johnny Briggs to foul out and end the game.

Cowan Leads Angels Past Minnesota 6-4

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL (UPI)—Billy Cowan hit two run-scoring singles Wednesday night to pace the California Angels to a 6-4 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Cowan climaxed a two-run sixth inning by striking out Voss and then singled in Jim Fregoso with an insurance run in the eighth inning.

The victory went to starter Tom Murphy, now 10-14, although he was knocked out in the seventh inning when Minnesota rallied for three runs. Murphy walked the only batter he faced before Ken Tutum came on to preserve the triumph. He stopped the Twins on his hit over the final three innings.

Rookie Bats A's Past Royals 3-2

KANSAS CITY (UPI)—Rookie Bob Brooks, who homered earlier in the game, delivered a run-scoring single with one out in the 10th inning to send Bert Campaneris Wednesday night and give the Oakland Athletics a 3-2 victory over the Kansas City Royals.

Each looking for their first Southern Idaho Conference wins, Twin Falls enters Pocatello while the Spartans play host to Meridian.

Coach Bob Brulotte's Vikings have been quite impressive in racking up three straight victories — despite some anxious moments against a kindly blitz last week. The Vikings have shown a good balance between offense and defense.

In Filer they face a 1-1 team which Coach Noel Fuhrer doesn't believe has put it together yet. The Wildcats had some good offensive and defensive moments against Soda Springs in the opener but were shut out by Wendell. However, a lot of teams aren't going to beat Wendell this year.

Wood River, which has been a three-year power but shows indications of a manpower lack in the conference, Wood River will be tough only if the injured starters are back simply having been hurt. Wood River has many people in uniform. Jerome Coach Jerry Diehl is having trouble getting points in the game. Soda Springs in the eighth inning Wednesday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2.

Oliver's homer, his 17th of the season, came off lesser Chuck Taylor with Roberto Clemente on base and boosted the Pirates lead 4-1. Ellis, who allowed only three runs over the first seven innings, needed Oliver's support in the eighth inning as the Cardinals scored in the eighth on a run-scoring single by Lou Brock.

Tigers And Kilkenny Top Indians 5-0

DETROIT (UPI)—Rookie southpaw Mike Kilkenny pitched a five-hitter and struck out 13 Wednesday night in leading the Detroit Tigers to a 5-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

Kilkenny did not allow a hit until Vera Faller doubled with two out in the fifth. The young lefty then spaced four singles over the final 1-3 innings to seal his sixth victory against five losses.

Jim Northrup doubled home the Tigers' first run in the first inning when he scored two others as Detroit pined for a comeback by second straight loss, Cleveland.

Rain Helps Yanks Beat Solons 2-1

NEW YORK (UPI)—Roy White's run-scoring single with two out in the fifth inning Wednesday night gave the New York Yankees a 2-1 victory over the Washington Senators in a game called by rain at the end of five innings.

While slugged home winning pitcher Fritz Peterson, who had singled and gone to third on Jerry Keeney's single just as the rain started to fall, Bobby Murcer floated out to end the inning, and after 64 minutes the game was called.

Pirates Rally In Eighth To Drop Cards

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Al Oliver backed the five-hit pitching of Dick Ellis with a two-run homer in the eighth inning Wednesday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2.

Oliver's homer, his 17th of the season, came off lesser Chuck Taylor with Roberto Clemente on base and boosted the Pirates lead 4-1.

Ellis, who allowed only three runs over the first seven innings, needed Oliver's support in the eighth inning as the Cardinals scored in the eighth on a run-scoring single by Lou Brock.

Astros Knock Giants Out Of Division Lead

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Larry Dierker, with help from Jim Bouton over the last two innings, stopped San Francisco on five hits Wednesday to gain his 20th victory as the Houston Astros knocked the Giants out of first place with a 2-1 decision.

Dierker, who pitched 12 innings in his last start without a decision, got all the help he needed — three home runs, empty homers by Jim Wynn and Doug Radar.

Aaron, Braves Edge Dodgers In 12 Innings

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Henry Aaron's leadoff homer in the top of the 12th inning prolonged the Wednesday night to pull out a 6-5 Atlanta Braves victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Aaron hit his 42nd homer of the season off rookie reliever Ray Lamb, who had come into the game to get the Braves' first loss of the season against no victories. Veteran reliever Cecil Upshaw says the victory to Montreal.

The win boosted Atlanta back into first place and the defeat dropped the Dodgers to third after they had taken first place earlier in the day when San Francisco lost.

Both teams scored two runs in the eighth to tie the game for the second time. In the top of the inning, with two out, Bob Didier singled and was doubled home by Gil Garrido, who scored on starting pitcher George Stone's single.

Stone walked Manny Mota in the bottom of the eighth and was replaced by Hoyt Wilhelm, who gave up a single to Andy Kosco. Jim Lefebvre then tried to drive in both runs.

ALL-IDAHO WEEK was introduced in Twin Falls by Joe Williams, left, University of Idaho student body president; and Phil Guilfoyle, right, president of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce. Paul Ostyn, center, chairman of the Idaho committee of the national football centennial anniversary, greeted them with some birthday cake. The week honors football, all Idaho schools of higher learning and winds up with the Idaho-Idaho State game Sept. 27.

Dallas To Start Staubach At Quarterback

DALLAS (UPI)—The Dallas Cowboys quarterback situation was roiling "up in the air," coach Tom Landry said Wednesday. The Cowboys coach said he didn't know that "we are the favorites, but I guess we are." He said he felt the Cowboys had a good chance to win their opener against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Craig Morton, who dislocated his throwing hand index finger against the New York Jets 11 days ago, will start throwing again for the first time Thursday, Landry said, and a lot would depend upon how he is.

"But, I don't think it would be worth the risk until he is ready to go," the coach said. Besides, Morton has been off 11 days and his timing is bound to be off.

Landry said that if Morton "can do anything" he will be No. 2 behind Staubach Sunday but if not then rookie Notre Dame Bob Beiden would be the backup man.

Landry said he felt sure Staubach would use some of the club's 10 allowed moves (for the season) to get some of his injured players onto the roster before the Cardinals game.

"We will definitely move Bob Hayes (shoulder separation) to the taxi squad," Landry said, adding that Bobby Joe Conrad probably would be activated in his place.

"I'm sure Conrad would like to play against his old buddies and he probably will," Landry said, referring to the trade which brought the wide receiver to Dallas from St. Louis in the offseason.

Landry said he was not sure what other moves he would make, but said he felt strong about Mike Gachter "ready to come back."

The Cowboys coach said he didn't know that "we are the favorites, but I guess we are." He said he felt the Cowboys had a good chance to win their opener against the St. Louis Cardinals.

"I think we have a good solid defense, and I feel the offense will play a good game," he said. "Offensively we will have to control the ball with a minimum of errors. It can't be like the Baltimore game. Baltimore defeated Dallas 23-7 last Sunday in the final preseason game."

Barnes Listed As Hold Out

BOSTON (UPI)—Officials of the Boston Celtics admitted Wednesday that their alleged impossible task of replacing retired center Bill Russell is being complicated by the holdout of one of three candidates listed to succeed the veteran star.

Some of the first indications of conference strength came to the fore this weekend with undefeated Filer hosting Jerome, Gooding going down the hill to play Glens Ferry and Wood River moving into Jerome in the features of a 13-game Magic Valley High School football weekend.

Nicklaus Is On Sidelines As U.S. Begins Defense Of Ryder Cup Golf Title

Duck, Upland Bird Data Is Now Available

BOISE, (UPI)—The Idaho Fish and Game Department today said that licensed vendors throughout the state are receiving details for the 1969-70 migratory waterfowl and upland bird game hunting seasons.

Columbia Basin mallard ducks in northern and southwestern Idaho some 23 counties during the hunting season for ducks, mergansers and coots running from Oct. 11 through Jan. 4, 1970. But, the shotgun for geese in this area runs from Oct. 11 through Jan. 4.

In the 21 counties outside the Columbia Basin mallard areas of Idaho, the season for ducks, mergansers and coots will be from Oct. 4 through Dec. 28 and Oct. 4 through Jan. 4, 1970 for geese. The exception is Fremont County where the season will run from Oct. 4 through Nov. 30.

There will be no mallard restrictions this year but the bag and possession limit for canvasbacks is two ducks, the same as last year, because this species is in short supply.

There is a reduced daily bag and possession limit on Canada geese, the same as last year.

In eastern Idaho, the daily bag and possession limit on canvasbacks is two ducks, the same as last year.

In eastern Idaho, the daily bag and possession limit is three geese of any kind, straight or mixed bag, except that the daily bag is limited to one Ross goose.

There is a possession limit of six geese, straight or mixed bag, provided that in all of Benewah, Blaine, Blaine, Bonneville, Caribou, Clark, Madison, Oneida, Power and Teton counties the daily bag and possession limit may include more than two Canada geese.

Bag limits for ducks are as follows:

Columbia Basin mallard area—6 daily, 12 possession. Remaining counties outside Columbia Basin mallard area—6 daily, 6 possession in aggregate of ducks, coots and mergansers.

today as the U.S. began defense of the Ryder Cup.

Nicklaus was not among the twelve members of the twelve-man team selected by non-playing captain Sam Snead to meet the 13th renewal of the biennial match under way.

Snead said the omission was part of his technical plan. The U.S. captain wanted to hold back Nicklaus for a five-day four-ball foursomes-in which both players on each-side play their own ball rather than alternate shots at the same ball—and Saturday's singles.

The other players left out of the opening matches on Royal Birkdale's 7140 yards par-74 links were Dan Sikes, Jacksonville, Fla., Dale Douglas, Denver, Colo., and Gene Littler, La Jolla, Calif.

Littler and Billy Casper of Los Angeles are the only two players on Ryder matches. He piled up 19 tournament victories worth more than one million dollars, to have played in previous Ryder Cup matches.

Although Nicklaus is a Ryder Cup "new boy" he is one of the few members of the visiting side with experience of match play, and has rarely failed to shine on visits to this country.

In the British-Open his record since 1963 reads: 3rd, 2nd, 13th, 1st, 2nd, 2nd and 5th.

Miller-Barber, 58, a m-a-n, Tex., and Ray Floyd, Lake Havasu City, Ariz., were first off the tee against Neil Coles and Welshman Brian Huggett, two of seven Ryder veterans on the British squad.

Next pair away were Lee Trevino, Dallas, Tex., and Ken Stoll, Tacoma, Wash., against young Britons Maurice Beesley, 24, and 20-year-old Scot Bernard Gallacher—younest player ever to represent Britain.

Leading money winner Dave Hill, Jackson, Mich., and Tommy Aaron, Gallaway Gardens, Fla., went next against British Open winner Tony Jacklin and 22-year-old Peter Townsend, a pair hardened by two of seven Ryder veterans on the U.S. PGA tour.

Rounding off the morning foursomes were Casper and Frank Beard—Louisville, Ky.—against the senior Irishman Christy O'Connor and Peter Alliss, both old hands in this event.

Although Snead said he hoped to be able to give all members of his squad a chance to play during the three day match he was not expected to make many. If any changes in his lineup for the afternoon's repeat session of foursomes.

The U.S. went into the match favored at odds between 1-4 to 1-5 to continue domination of a series they have lost only once since 1933.

White Sox Sweep Pair From Seattle

CHICAGO (UPI)—Billy Wynne hurled a four-hitter in the second game Wednesday night as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Seattle Pilots 2-1 after winning the opener 4-0.

The combined eight pitching of Gerry Nyman and Wilbur Wood.

Wynne got enough runs for his sixth triumph in 12 decisions in the first two innings. In the first, Wil Williams singled and scored on Bill Melton's double while in the second, Bob Christian doubled, advanced on Rich Morales sacrifice and scored what proved to be the winning run on Bobby Knopp's sacrifice fly.

Seattle's only run came on Tom Donaldson's third inning homer, his first of the season. Then he held the Pilots scoreless until the ninth when a walk, Danny Walton's single and an error scored one run and brought in Wood. Wood yielded a single to Fred Stanley for another run while the final Seattle score came on Donaldson's sacrifice fly.

The White Sox jumped on Seattle starter Marty Pattin, for three runs in the third on a single by Morales, a walk to Knopp, Williams' single, a two-run homer by Nyman (2-0, 1-1) and a sacrifice fly by Wood (2nd Game) 6:01 000—3:41 Seattle 2:00 000—2:00 Lockwood, Segal (7) and Rainer Wynne (4) and Adams (2)—Lockwood (6-1), Hill-Donaldson (1-0).

Twin Falls To Host State Track Meet

Twin Falls will host the 1970 state track and field championship, announces Athletic Director Bob Donnelly.

Donnelly said the Idaho Interscholastic Activities Association had accepted the Bruin invitation, extended when it became known Bronco Stadium in Boise would be razed and rebuilt immediately after the current football season and the new facility would not be completed in time.

The Bruin Stadium track, abuzz of only seven lanes around the curve and backstrait, left away caused considerable discussion before the site was accepted.

It will mark the first time the state meet was run in Magic Valley since Rupert hosted the event in 1950. It has been in Boise since then.

Bruins Seek First Loop Win In Hosting Pocatello Friday Night

"The boys are tired of losing. We're going to win," says Twin Falls Coach Norm Thomas as he views Friday night's home Southern Idaho Conference battle with Pocatello over the wreckage of two near-misses.

"The boys took that last-minute loss to Boise very hard," Coach Thomas said. "After the game there were seven or eight boys not just crying but hawling. I know we're getting ready to play a heckuva game and I think it will come Friday night."

The Bruins, losing 7-0 to Roy, Utah, and 22-15 to Boise, opened the game 8 p.m. Friday at Bruin Stadium. They will be their last appearance on the local field for a month.

Injuries still are plaguing the shallow team with fullback Jack Robertson nursing a hip pointer. However, quarterback Ken Blake is back along with end Vic Wells and tailback John Turner. Their performances could be hampered by the ailments, however.

Pocatello is good-sized and fast, according to the Bruin scouting report. It features Butch Griggs at halfback and Griggs is one of the fastest in the league, having placed in the conference 100-yard dash last spring. The line is anchored by Paul Ken Monroe, twice state shutout champ, a former fullback and now blocking tight end.

"Basically, Pocatello is pretty sound," says Coach Dennis Ahlquist, who scouted them and toured the Bruin offensive line. "They don't like to throw the ball much and when they do it is pretty much short patterns. I think (Cary) Toone, their quarterback, is a good runner and he can put a lot of pressure on your corners when he rolls out either to run or throw that short sprint-out pass."

Defensive Coach Steve Buratto has his ideas of what to tell his boys to watch for. "The option," he states flatly, "they have a guy at quarterback who can run well and a real fast trailing back (in Griggs). And after seeing the success Dolse had with the option against us last week—well, I just know what I'd be thinking if I'd been

O'Leary Frosh Overpower Stuart 34-8

The O'Leary Cubs used a combination of Mike Sturgill and Gary Scott and alert defense Wednesday night to smother the Robert Stuart Bears 34-8 in the first edition of the intra-city frosh series.

With over 1,000 people watching, O'Leary scored twice in the first quarter. Scott went off tackle from close in to cap a drive and then dived in for the two-point. Minutes later Sturgill and Mike Beck hooked up on a 59-yard touchdown pass.

O'Leary moved to the Stuart three-yard line in the second period, was stopped but then picked up a fumble at the 20. Sturgill sneaked in from the three and got the two points.

Late in the third quarter, Sturgill hit Beck for 11 yards and another touchdown and with 6:52 left, Myke Wilson got Stuart on the board with a hard running, fourth and goal quick opener from the six. But O'Leary's Gary Sleivers erased that just two minutes later with a 15-yard end sweep.

Redlegs Bury Padres Under 20-Hit Attack

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—The Cincinnati Reds, with four players each, slamming out three hits, Wednesday night clubbed the San Diego Padres 10-5 to remain in hot pursuit of the lead in the National League West.

Alan Johnson, Tony Perez, Tommy Helms and Woody Woodward led a 20-hit attack on four San Diego pitchers to give Jack Fisher his fourth win, trying for losses.

The 40-year-old Fisher was against his first complete game in 14 starts but was knocked out in the seventh after the Padres had crested twice and had two runners on base. George Culver rescued Fisher and finished up without further damage.

The Reds pounded starter Joe Niekro and two other pitchers for a dozen hits in the first five innings to build up a 7-0 lead for Fisher. Four doubles were socked during the early cannoning with Woodward clubbing two of them and Perez and Johnson one each.

Look Out, NBA! Lew Still Grows

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—MEMO to other National Basketball Association teams: Lew Alcindor is still growing.

At 7-foot-2, the Milwaukee Bucks' $1.4 million rookie from UCLA measures in at 7-foot-5-8 inches Wednesday—two-eighths of an inch taller than his previously listed height.

Alcindor, who reported for his pre-season physical exam with the rest of the Bucks, was measured with a makeshift yardstick on a wall of the club office.

Governors Seek 'Restraint' In Racial Integration

By RICHARD W. HATCH

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (UPI) — Despite prevailing opposition from Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, the Southern Governors' Conference Wednesday adopted a compromise resolution urging "restraint and good judgment" in busing to achieve racial balance in schools.

Gov. Albert Brewer of Alabama, one of the three governors on the losing side of the 9-3 vote, said he feared the resolution would be interpreted as implying "some sort of approval of some sort of restrained busing, whatever that might be."

Gov. John Bell Williams of Mississippi, who led the fight for a strong resolution condemning what he called social experiments such as busing, said he believes he should get on one side of the fence or the other. This is tacit approval by busing in some instances.

"America's school children," said Madox of Georgia, who cast the third-opposing vote. "The resolution battle in the final session of the Southern Governors' Conference was conducted mostly in good humor, and led to parliamentary snarl of motions, substitutes and reconsidered votes.

The busing issue drew much of the time and attention of the conference away from other business, such as economic development, marine research and nuclear power.

Despite the extended resolution debate, the conference did manage to elect Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas as chairman, the first time a Republican ever held the position. Brewer was elected vice chairman.

The conference also accepted an invitation from Williams to hold its 1970 meeting on the "new and rebuilt Mississippi Gulf Coast." Williams said the conference would be a challenge to the people of his state to recover from the damage of Hurricane Camille.

A strongly worded condemnation of busing reported favorably by the resolutions committee got eight favorable votes but fell short of the required three-quarters majority. Govs. Arch Moore of West Virginia, Marvin Mandel of Maryland and Russell W. Peterson of Delaware voted "no," with Rockefeller abstaining.

TRYING ON THE BENGAL suit in preparation for Idaho State University's first football game this season is Jim Casad, Rupert, who is the new "Bengal." At left is Sandi Marsh, and at right is Debbie Collins, Twin Falls, a song leader and cheerleader, respectively. The Bengals play at ISU Saturday, facing Parsons of Fairfield, Iowa.

'Sky Cabs' Envisioned To Unify Air Commuter Lines

By PAUL ROBBINS

BOSTON (UPI) — Edward C. Labrecque is the energetic president of International Sky Cab Inc., a Boston-based outfit which hopes to put all major third-level carriers under one hangar.

It's off to a good start, says Labrecque. "We've become International Sky Cab even before we had a chance to formally announce we were National Sky Cab," he explained.

The firm is spreading its wings over the East Coast from the Caribbean and plans to spread across the country within a few years, spiderwebbing its way from region-to-region.

Today, America: tomorrow, the rest of the Western Hemisphere. That's Labrecque's battle plan. It calls for establishing a coast-to-coast organization within three years, followed by expansion to Canada, Mexico and South America.

Labrecque, who resembles actor Rod Taylor, said there were some 3,700 air taxis or commuter lines in the United States, including about 200 which operate on a fixed schedule. "We'll make them No. 1," he said.

Nonetheless, the 31-year-old executive isn't buckling under the pressures. He started by signing American Air Taxi, which is based in Florida, and San Juan Air, which blankets Puerto Rico. St. Thomas, St. Croix and Vieques.

"Within 60 days, we'll add a new company in the Bahamas, plus units in Atlanta and Savannah, Ga., and Washington, D.C.," he said. The firm is quartered out of Boston, he said, "because it's a good flight city. With today's planes it won't take any time to fly to a distant city, so why not Boston as a base?"

His next target areas are Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. He then will point at Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago and New Orleans.

Labrecque, who resembles actor Rod Taylor, said there were some 3,700 air taxis or commuter lines in the United States, including about 200 which operate on a fixed schedule. "We'll make them No. 1," he said.

"These lines also will be able to lease planes from us at cheaper rates; they'll use our uniforms for their clerks and other personnel; benefit from our advertising and any other benefit which a bigger operation can provide."

However, as Labrecque pointed out, "they'll retain their independence. They've still got the right to say yes or no on any given project affecting them."

"These lines exist — maybe just survive — now," he said, "but we'll make it profitable for them. We'll make them No. 1."

Samuelson Says Endowment Funds May Help Students

COEUR D'ALENE (UPI) — Gov. Don Samuelson said that he had been advised by the Idaho Endowment Investment Board of an arrangement to use endowment funds for government guaranteed student educational loans.

Under the arrangement, $5 million in school endowment funds would be used by Idaho students to obtain the guaranteed educational loans through Idaho banks.

"This is one of the most gratifying actions I can think of," Samuelson said.

"Using Idaho school funds for direct benefit of Idaho students through cooperation of Idaho banks makes it a total all-Idaho beneficial arrangement."

"School endowment funds receive a guaranteed high rate of return, with government guaranteed safety. Such a return is more than double what the funds are earning at present, so the school endowment fund will gain substantially in income."

The investment board, meeting in Boise Tuesday, voted unanimously to make the funds available for the guarantee of loans to Idaho college and university students.

John D. Silva, commissioner of finance and chairman of the board, said the investment board is preparing contracts to handle the servicing phase of the loan program through Idaho banking institutions, and details would be finalized in about two weeks.

Samuelson said the Endowment Investment Board, appointed last spring, "deserves public commendation for its quick and constructive action."

Services For Crash Victims Held In Rain

SHELBYVILLE, Ind. (UPI) — Graveside services for 33 victims of the Sept. 9 crash of an Allegheny Airlines DC-9 jet were held in a steady downpour of rain in Forest Hill Cemetery Wednesday.

About 300 friends and relatives attended the private services for the victims, among the 83-killed — whose remains could not be identified.

The caskets were placed in separate vaults which lined two long grassy mounds, priests and rabbis of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths participated in the services.

Indiana State Police, Shelby County sheriff's deputies and Shelbyville police were on hand to insure the privacy of the service. Carloads of curious onlookers lined the streets outside the cemetery.

Allegheny officials also attended the services.

The collision of the jetliner and a small plane eight days ago sent the airliner plunging into a soybean field 12 miles southeast of Indianapolis.

The remains of 49 passengers, the crew of the jet, and the body of the pilot of the small plane were released to the families for burial earlier this week.

Anti-Inflation Effects May Be Gaining Ground

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Government economists Tuesday put two reports indicating the first decline in industrial production in a year — but their anti-inflation efforts may be paying off.

The Federal Reserve Board disclosed that industrial production dipped by 0.2 per cent in August was coupled with a report from the Commerce Department that construction of new housing declined for the seventh straight month — but the drop was the smallest since February.

The two reports provided a boost to confidence in the government economists. They were cheered by the slight drop in production, hoping it indicates a decline in inflationary pressures.

And they were relieved that the drop in housing starts has slowed housing — which is dependent upon the availability of mortgage money — hasn't been hit hard by the government anti-inflationary tight money policy.

The industrial production index was 174.3 per cent of the 1957-59 average, down from the 174.6 level in July. The last time the index declined was August, 1968, when it dropped from 166.0 to 164.0.

Thief Takes 17 Historic U.S. Flags

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Seventeen Historic American flags have apparently been stolen from San Francisco's Civic Center Plaza, city officials said.

Carl Peck, assistant superintendent of small parks, said all but one of the collection of 18 flags that have flown over the United States during its history were missing.

"I suppose there is a remote possibility that someone took them down for the night, but no one around here knows anything about it," he said.

Mary Dietrich, Garner Wed

HAILEY — Mary Karen Dietrich and Frank A. Garner exchanged their marriage vows in a double ring ceremony performed Aug. 30 by Rev. W. Douglas Ellway in Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emma M. Dietrich, Hailey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Garner, Jerome.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a Bridal Original gown of nylon organza. A pearled and scalloped Chantilly lace oval neckline accented the yoke. The design front revealed the A-line of the gown. The lace cage effect swept into a wateau chapel train.

Lace flowers, and pearl do sole leaves formed a cap with a pearl crown atop, that held her elbow-length veil, with a butterfly face-veil of English silk filigree.

She carried a cascading bouquet of a white orchid, Verona roses, stephanotis and ivy.

She wore a diamond necklace which had been worn by her grandmother and mother on their wedding days.

Beth Ann Suyehira, Emmett, called as maid of honor. Marybelle Garner, sister of the bridegroom, Jerome, and Mary A. Broyles, Shoshone, were bridesmaids. Cleo and Virginia Garner, sisters of the bridegroom, were junior attendants.

Keith Cameron, Fallon, Nev., college roommate of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Larry Thayer, Hansen, and Patrick Garner, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Honorary guests were Mrs. Stella Koch, Kimberly, maternal grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Emma Bradshaw, Jerome, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Masonic Temple immediately after the ceremony and the pink, white and silver theme was carried out in the decorations. Tall baskets of pink and white gladioli flanked the receiving line.

The bride's table was covered with white linen and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with white wedding bells, tulle and pearls. The cake was decorated with pink and pale green accents, white roses and silver banding. Verona roses and white carnations and fern formed a circle around it. The cake was baked by William Malory, a lifetime friend of the bride.

Silver candelabra held white tapers and silver compotes of Verona roses and white carnations graced the serving tables, along with white tapers set in pink net, flowers and ribbon in crystal holders.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK A. GARNER

The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Thelma Nichols, Boise, and Mrs. Irma Fisk, Parma, aunts of the bride. Mrs. John Ensign, presided at the coffee service and Kathy Miller and Joyce Cameron at the punch tray.

Caroly Oller was in charge of the guest book and Cleo and Virginia Garner, sisters of the bridegroom, presided at the table for the bridegroom's cake.

Guests attended from Hailey, Ketchum, Jerome, Kimberly, Emmett, Boise, Parma, Caldwell, Burley, Twin Falls, Wendell and Shoshone, as well as out of state friends and relatives from Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Uta h, California and Pennsylvania.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Boise, McCall and Redfish Lake. Upon their return they will reside in Caldwell, where both will be seniors at the College of Idaho. Both were members of a College of Idaho Field Biology class that spent the entire summer traveling in Mexico.

Showers were held for the bride in Caldwell and at the Grand Canyon in Arizona. The bridegroom's parents

DEAR ABBY: My husband who now is in Viet Nam brought me and our little boy to his parents' home to live for a year while he is away. I am from the Philippines and my friends or relatives in this country. My in-laws have been very kind to me and seem to like me very much.

Now my problem: My husband has a 19-year-old brother who made me feel at once like a sister. On his days off he has taken me and my little boy to the beach, and to the park and for drives. We were so happy. But last night a terrible thing happened. Around midnight I didn't scream because I didn't want to wake my little boy who sleeps with me, but I angrily motioned for Brother to get out and I opened the door. At that moment I saw my mother-in-law going from her bedroom to Brother's room. Seeing he was not there she went in and waited for him. Brother and I were frightened and just sat on my bed waiting for her to go back to her room. She didn't insist she came into my room and when she saw us sitting there she started to yell terrible things at me. God knows nothing happened, but she blamed me saying Brother was only 19, and I must have encouraged him. That is a lie. Abby. Then she said she wanted me out of the house by morning. My father-in-law got up and he said was staying, and nobody was to write my husband anything about it while Brother didn't say that it was all his fault, he just cried like a baby.

Abby, I am so upset. How can I live here now? Yet how can I go home without upsetting my husband? He is sure to find out if I leave. What shall I do? Please tell me what to do. I am so lost and confused.

INNOCENT

DEAR INNOCENT: Stay. The hostess of a rehearsal dinner at the Hotel Hlawatha for members of the wedding party.

DEAR ABBY: I understand that when they take the 1970 census, one of the questions will be: HAVE YOU EVER HAD ANY ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN?

Well, it just so happens, I haven't, but if I am asked that question I intend to tell the census taker that it's none of his business, and furthermore I regard such personal questions as an invasion of privacy. Am I compelled by law to disclose such personal information?

PRIVATE CITIZEN

DEAR CITIZEN: No. Statistics on "illegitimacy" can be obtained from other sources.

DEAR ABBY: At work yesterday we discussed the man who wrote to admit that he had been "aroused" by the sight of his own shapely teen-aged daughters running around the house naked.

We all agreed that no normal father who had watched his daughters grow from babyhood would be "aroused" in this manner, but then we are all women, so perhaps we're wrong.

What about doctors? Ely, the doctor's wife whose husband is "aroused" by the sight of his women patients. Also pity the poor doctor.

Of course, we disregard the man who faints at the sight of a bare knee. He probably lies unconscious somewhere, as there are a lot of bare knees around these days.

Christian Causeways Date Announced By Local CWU

Plans were made for the Christian Causeways event to take place in Twin Falls Oct. 14 when the board of managers of the Twin Falls Church Women's United met recently at the home of Mrs. W. R. Hatcher, president.

Mrs. Anna Hayes, chairman, told of the plans for that day. A luncheon will be held at the Rogerson Hotel Roundup Room in honor of the two Latin American women who compose the Christian Causeways team. Mrs. Hayes is anxious to invite Spanish speaking women to the luncheon. The purpose of the visit is to enable women of different nations to walk together toward understanding the modern world and the Christian witness they should bear together in our times.

Mrs. Pearl Bracken presented the worship lesson on friendship. Mrs. Elsie Sharkey, who recently attended a national meeting of United Church Women in New York City, gave a resume of the responsibilities of the local Church Women United unit in making these October guests welcome. She told about Victoria Loya, a Mexican woman who had walked a Causeway in March and who addressed the women at the New York meeting in a delightful way. Among other things, she stated that there are 10,000,000 Spanish speaking people in the United States who do not go to church.

Mrs. Hayes further announced there would be an open meeting, "Why don't you invite my brothers and sisters to your church?"

Mrs. Crossman Is Best-Loser

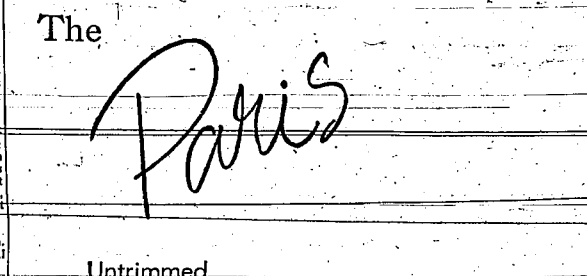

MURTAUGH — The Pounds Chasers Club named Mrs. Ronald Crossman the best loser for August and presented her with a hair styling award at the meeting held at the LDS Church.

Weekly winners are Mrs. Crossman, first week; Mrs. Donald Coon and Mrs. Crossman, second; Linda Morrison, third; and Mrs. Earl Watts, fourth.

The Murtaugh Club, winner in a recent weight losing contest, the migrant work and stated that he had been in Idaho for 12 years. In his early life he was a migrant, but he didn't travel far. The main difficulties the migrants have are in the social and economic areas, stemming from lack of education. The mechanization of agriculture is cutting down on the number of migrants needed each year, he noted. Some of the local migrants have become workers and have moved to Portland where work can be secured.

There are 110 Mexican-American families in Twin Falls, with a total population of over 600. There are six young people back from the service, who are in college. Three have been placed in the business world. They are hopeful that many families will settle here permanently, so their children can secure an education. Mr. Berain spends as much time as he can at the Neighborhood and Migrant Centers, both of which are supported through government funds. The Neighborhood Center is not confined to migrants. At the end of his talk, Mr. Berain answered questions from the group.

Miss Patterson, Pridmore Exchange Nuptial Promise

RICHFIELD—An evening candlelight ceremony united in marriage two Richfield young people, Sally Ann Patterson and Rodney Michael Pridmore. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Patterson, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pridmore, all Richfield.

The Richfield Methodist Church was the setting for the Aug. 18 double ring service performed by Rev. Hardy Thompson, church pastor. The aisle was marked with rows of yellow satin ribbon. Joanne Riley was candlelighter with the tall white tapers displayed in floor standards. Maria Hilt was pianist for the wedding music and vocalist with her sisters, Brenda Hiatt, as her accompanist.

As a part of the ceremony the bride and bridegroom participated in lighting the unity candle.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore an original floor-length straight wedding gown of pink tulle. The bodice and full-length sleeves were designed in Venice lace.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride, a necklace enhanced the cloister neckline. The chapel train was hand-dyed with a roan-brodered lace. Her veil of French silk, three feet long, was borrowed from the matron of honor. It was shoulder-length and attached to a pearlized fabric flowerly good fortune, the bride wore a ring belonging to her mother, and a blue parter, a gift from her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Leitha Tester, Gooding.

The bride carried a bouquet of white daisies tied with yellow ribbons.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. Fred Tester, a cousin, Longview, Wash. Bridesmaids were Sharon Patterson, sister of the bride, Kelly Brindore and Lori Pridmore, sisters of the bridegroom. Tiny Amy Patterson, a cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Patterson Gooding, was flower girl. Their gowns of yellow satin carried out the bride's theme of white and yellow.

Mrs. Dean Patterson chose beige linen with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow and white costume with white accessories. Their corsages were pink rosebuds for Mrs. Patterson and two rosebuds for Mrs. Brindore and Lori Pridmore. Rodney Riley served as best man and Elaine Soronen as groomsmen. Bill Patterson, brother of the bride, and Brian Ward were ushers.

Special guests included three grandmothers, Mrs. Fred Rutherford, Twin Falls, and Mrs. C. M. Pridmore, Richfield, grandmothers of the bridegroom; Mrs. Leitha Tester, grandmother of the bride; and two great-grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. Roy Holloway, both Gooding.

A reception at the Richfield High School Dining Hall was held after the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a yellow cloth overlaid with a white lace tablecloth belonging to Mrs. Tester. An ornate milk glass candelabra holding eight yellow tapers formed the setting for the three-tiered white and yellow wedding cake topped with miniature bridal figurines.

Miniature vases of white and yellow daisies decorated the table and serving centers for the guests.

The cake was served by Mrs. Alan Patterson and Mrs. Roy Christensen, Twin Falls. Mrs. Roy Christensen poured at the silver coffee service and Lynda Kins served punch.

In charge of the gift tables were Teresa King and Anne King, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Riley Jr. and Mrs. Udell Robinson.

Mrs. Anna Hayes, international relations chairman, gave a report on a luncheon and forum planned for Oct. 14 presented by the World Fellowship Causeway with two women from a Latin American country in attendance. The luncheon will be held at the Rogerson Hotel Roundup Room at 12:30 p.m. with the program at 2 p.m. An evening meeting the same night will be held at the College of Southern Idaho at 8 p.m. She also noted two important days coming up Sept. 17, Citizenship Day, and Oct. 24, United Nations Day.

A report on the recent hearings regarding the extension service was given by Mrs. Alfred Theodor, Filer. The 1970-71 slate of officers for nomination at the next meeting was presented by the committee with Mrs. J. H. Sharp, Filer, as chairman.

Mrs. Alice Reed, extension agent, discussed the coming state convention to be held in Idaho Falls Oct. 21 and 22. A bus will be chartered again this year and reservations must be made by Sept. 15. Registration forms are available at her office and are to be sent to Idaho Falls by Oct. 8. The seminars this year are Family Life, International Relations, and Publications and Cultural Arts.

Mrs. C. J. Bass, council president, appointed Mrs. Sharr as hospitality chairman for the council for the remainder of the year.

The program for the meeting was presented by Mrs. Don Lierman, Filer, Civil Defense chairman. Slides were shown and a narration given on basic shelter food and water storage. Any act of nature such as a blizzard, wind, rain or earthquake where the need of emergency shelter is required for several days should have a food and water supply for survival. The care of these supplies was discussed along with the types of food to store and the best possible containers to use.

The next council meeting is the annual Holiday Ideas potluck luncheon to be held Nov. 10. Each club will be responsible for its table to display gifts, decorations and food ideas for the holidays.

Haus Frau Club will arrange the meeting place and the Filer Civic Club will be in charge of registration. Other committees appointed include kitchen service, Homebuilders, Sewing and Modern Mrs. Clean-up, Merry Marties, Syringa and Lucerne, table decorations, Kim - Sen and Country, Pails, Baby sitting services will be arranged by Haus Frau Club. Each one attending is asked to bring her own table service. A program of demonstrations is being arranged.

Plans Made For Dinner Menu

SHOSHONE — Plans for the fellowship dinner menu were made by the Women's Missionary Council at a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. C. D. Low.

A letter was read from a missionary in the Congo and it was announced the fellowship meeting will be held in October. Songs were sung by the group and note made that meetings will be the first Thursday evening of the month unless members are otherwise notified.

Smith To Succeed Dirksen

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — Illinois House Speaker Ralph I. Smith, a veteran legislator and middle-of-the-road Republican, was named Wednesday to the U.S. Senate seat left vacant by the death of Everett M. Dirksen.

Smith, who promptly resigned from his legislative post, will be sworn in as senator in Washington Thursday in time to help choose Dirksen's successor as Senate minority chief.

Smith, a 53-year-old attorney who was in his eighth term as a state representative but an unknown in national politics, was named Illinois' junior senator by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, a Republican. He will serve until at least January, 1971.

He is expected to be the choice of the state GOP organization as the Republican nominee in the November, 1970, general election to complete the remaining four years of Dirksen's term.

The Democratic candidate in the 1970 senatorial election appears likely to be state treasurer Adlai E. Stevenson III, son of the late U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Stevenson, something of a maverick in Illinois Democratic Party circles, recently had a kiss-and-make-up meeting with Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, kingpin of the powerful Democratic organization. Political observers predict Stevenson will receive Daley's blessing to seek Dirksen's old seat.

Ogilvie announced Smith's appointment at a news conference attended by Smith, Smith's wife, Marge, and daughter, Susan, and Sen. Charles H. Percy, R., now the state's senior senator.

Eight Fires Battled In Forest Areas

By United Press International

A total of eight new fires, half of them man-caused, were being fought in the 16 national forests of the Northern Region today, according to Forest Service reports.

All but one of the fires were located in the eastern Washington, northern Idaho and western Montana portions of the region known as Zones A and B.

Foresters continued to look skyward with anxious eyes hoping to see raindrops falling on the extremely dry forests. Weather reports for the past few days have been calling for rain but little or no precipitation has been reported on the forests.

However, the Weather Bureau at Spokane predicted today heavier chances of rainfall for tonight and Thursday than have been expected recently.

A total of 62 men, four of them smokejumpers were battling fires around the region today as fires started by last weekend's heavy lightning attack continued to die out.

T. F. Woman Wins Car In Sears Contest

Janice Hutchings, 1325 Evergreen Drive, has been chosen to win a 1969 Ford Mustang Mach I in a drawing conducted by Sears Roebuck department stores of Utah and Idaho.

The drawing was performed by Mrs. Clyde L. Miller, wife of the Utah Secretary of State. The announcement was made by S. C. Johnson, division manager for Sears Utah and Idaho stores.

On hand for the delivery of keys to the car was Robert Parr, zone manager for Utah and Idaho, Ford Motor Co. whose Utah and Idaho Ford dealers provided the automobiles.

The Ford Mach I is first prize in a "back to school" promotion conducted in the two states by Sears during the month of August. More than a 100,000 contest entries were received in the eight Utah and Idaho Sears stores, according to Mr. Johnson. The drawing was accomplished by placing all the thousands of entries in a Utah Sand and Gravel ready-mix truck which was thoroughly rotated before the drawing was made by Mrs. Miller. "This has been one of the most successful promotions Sears has ever conducted," Mr. Johnson said.

RECEIVING THE KEYS to her new 1969 Ford Mustang Mach I is Janice Hutchings, left, 1325 Evergreen Drive. The keys are being presented by S. C. Johnson, division manager for Sears Roebuck Utah and Idaho stores. At right is Robert Parr, zone manager, Utah and Idaho zone, Ford Motor Co. Miss Hutchings won the car in a drawing from over 100,000 contest entries received in August, 1969, in a "back to school" contest held jointly by eight Utah and Idaho Sears stores.

ETNA LIT CATANIA, Sicily (UPI)—Mt. Etna lit up the early morning sky over eastern Sicily Tuesday with a spectacular series of eruptions that sent flames erupting 200 to 450 feet into the air and lava pouring down the eastern side of the volcano. The volcano has been persistently active in recent years, and volcanologists said the explosions Tuesday were not serious.

Civic Reception To Mollify Wounded French Feelings

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (UPI) — The affair of the French poodles and the Penn Central railroad is headed for a happy ending with a civic reception for the dogs and their master here Friday.

It all started last Sunday when Paul-Marc Henry, a French diplomat serving as an assistant administrator in the U.N. Development Program (UNDP), took his two poodles—Bete Noire and Thisbe—on a Penn Central train from suburban Iarchmont to New York.

A conductor said that dogs must be either muzzled or travel in a carrier to ride the train. Henry, a poodle expert who has written "Poodlistan: A Poodle's Eye-View of History," objected that he had taken his pets on trains before.

Police were called at the next station—New Rochelle—and Henry, his dogs, his wife, his son and a friend were escorted off. There was no arrest, Henry said, and the police suggested he take the next train to New York.

But there had been a diplomatic affront and French honor, not to mention the righteously ruffled feelings of a dog owner, demanded satisfaction.

Henry protested to the U.S.

Mission to the United Nations, to the Penn Central and to the mayor of New Rochelle.

A U.S. official offered a personal apology and the mission asked for details in a formal note.

A railroad spokesman said the incident was "under investigation."

Mayor Alvin R. Ruskin of New Rochelle was moved to action. New Rochelle was settled by French Huguenots and takes its name from La Rochelle, France. The mayor of Rochelle visited New Rochelle in 1963 and New Rochelle officials returned the visit in 1967.

"We wouldn't want anything to happen to disturb our relations with France," Ruskin said.

He planned a reception for Henry and his dogs at the city hall at 2:30 p.m. Friday. The city council, the chief of police, religious and civic leaders and officials of U.N. embassy residences located in New Rochelle were invited.

The mayor is sending his own car to New York to pick up the Henry and the poodles.

"I wouldn't ask a dog to ride the Penn Central," he said.

Yearling Black Bear Caught In Butte Residential Area

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (UPI) — A black bear yearling was caught this week in a Butte, Mont., residential area. Two weeks ago a bear mother and cub were shooed away from a public highway by a Fish and Game Department employee.

The Department said there have been several sightings of bears near communities and in the north-central lowlands this year, an unusual circumstance.

Now a Fish and Game department employee has the reason why.

It has been a bad year for berries, according to Neils Thorsen of Great Falls.

And a bad berry year is a bad bear year for people, he said.

When the animals can't find their favorite food in the wooded highlands they migrate to lower elevations to forage for food before they hibernate, he said.

Thorsen said the bears are usually harmless if not molested, but can be dangerous if approached too closely, or started.

Mayor Gains Election In Spokane Area

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — Incumbent Mayor David H. Rodgers will face Reginald K. Cullinan in the Nov. 4 general elections for Spokane's highest office.

Rodgers will be seeking his first full term in office, having succeeded Neel Fossesen who resigned two years ago.

The mayor polled more votes Tuesday — 1,748 — than any one else on the ballot, and four times as many as Cullinan.

Voter turnout was light for the primary election with around 20,000 of some 80,000 registered voters casting ballots.

Margaret Jean Leonard, chairman of the Grassroots Committee here, and former NAACP area President James Chase will battle it out for council position No. 1 in the upcoming election.

Both are seeking to replace R. H. (Bob) Lewis, who decided to withdraw from the council and not run for reelection.

This is the way it's going to be. Pontiac's 70's

Surprised that Pontiac's setting the style for the umpteenth straight year? Of course not. But you may be a bit dazzled to find out that Pontiac finally outdid Pontiac. Take Bonneville. From the strong, new bumper grille to the standard 455 under the hood, it's a rouser. Inside: instant limousine. So luxurious, some of the traditional big boys are already screaming. One of the nicest things we could have done for Grand Prix's luxury was to leave it alone. We did. But we popped in a 455 V-8 for you to order. Enter LeMans Sport. A brand-new series in the Pontiac stable. Wait! It's competition sees it pull the new 400-cubes-under-the-hood trick. We'll show you that one if you check the right box on the order form. By now, you've spotted our '70 GTO. But maybe you haven't heard it. A sound so tough, we've dubbed GTO "The Humbler." This is Pontiac '70. And this is the way driving's going to be. It's at your Pontiac dealer's rior.
