

Graduates Get Draft Consideration

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon has announced that graduate students will now be allowed to complete the academic year in which they were enrolled before being drafted.

The new ruling, which appeared in the form of a memorandum of advice from the National Security Council to Defense Secretary James F. Schlesinger, is expected to affect about 10,000 students.

Garis Robertson Files For Mayor In Burley Election

BURLEY — Garis Robertson has filed his petition as a candidate for mayor of the city of Burley. Mr. Robertson is the first to file for any office in the Nov. 4 election when as a mayor and three councilmen are to be elected.

Mr. Robertson is former city councilman, having served for 10 years on the council, from 1952 to 1968 when he moved out of the precinct he was elected from.

"I don't feel it is necessary to promise anything other than a sound administration, financially responsible," said Mr. Robertson.

During his 10 years as a councilman he was a member of the Library Board of Trustees and during this time the new library was built.

He was finance chairman of the council when he resigned because at that time a councilman had to live within the precinct he was elected from.

Mr. Robertson was born in Elwood, Ind., in 1908 and came to Idaho in 1913, living at Farmer where he attended school.

He was graduated from the former Albion Normal School

Navy Plane Crash Claims 26 Lives

ATSUGI, Japan (UPI)—A U.S. Navy supply plane crashed today in the Tokin Gulf off Vietnam, killing all 26 persons aboard, a Navy spokesman said.

The Navy spokesman said the C-2A Greyhound supply plane crashed into the sea on a flight from Cubi Point in the Philippines to an aircraft carrier on station in the Tokin Gulf.

Radiomen on the carrier, which was not identified, reported they lost contact with the Greyhound this morning. Search planes from the carrier

Moisture

The moisture that parts of Magic Valley received Thursday morning will not affect most farming operations.

Farmers who still have beans to thresh and hay to bale will be hampered by the moisture, but otherwise, most farming operations will continue.

Glenn Nelson, who farms south of Twin Falls, said some of the farmers in his area still have beans to be harvested as well as some hay. He said this moisture will delay that part of the farming operation.

Hansen Says Poll Favors ABM System

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Orval Hansen (R-Idaho) said a poll conducted in his district shows that opinion favors the anti-ballistic missile system proposed by President Nixon by a margin of two to one.

Rep. Hansen said in a questionnaire mailed to all residents of Idaho's Second Congressional District he asked the question: "Do you favor or oppose the safeguard limited anti-ballistic missile (ABM) defense system proposed by President Nixon?"

"Of the thousands who responded about 57 per cent said they favored the ABM," Rep. Hansen said. "About 28 per cent were opposed and 15 per cent expressed no opinion."

"The need for strong national defense was the reason most often cited by ABM supporters. 'You can't trust the Communists' was a typical comment. 'Some responses emphasized the need to work for effective arms control agreements,' he said.

"Opponents frequently mentioned the high cost and said the money could be better used to meet higher priority needs such as education," Rep. Hansen said. "Many who expressed no opinion said they did not

Latest Red Calls Rejected

By GEORGE SIBERA PARIS (UPI)—The United States today rejected latest Soviet and Viet Cong calls on President Nixon to drop the Saigon government. It warned the Communists that no political settlement can be achieved without South Vietnam's approval.

U.S. chief negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge served notice Washington will remain inflexible in its opposition to any settlement that would be imposed on the South Vietnamese people other than through controlled, free elections.

Lodge said the Communists hoped to take over from a military standpoint following the withdrawal of U.S. troops and then take over from a political standpoint through Washington, east the Saigon regime.

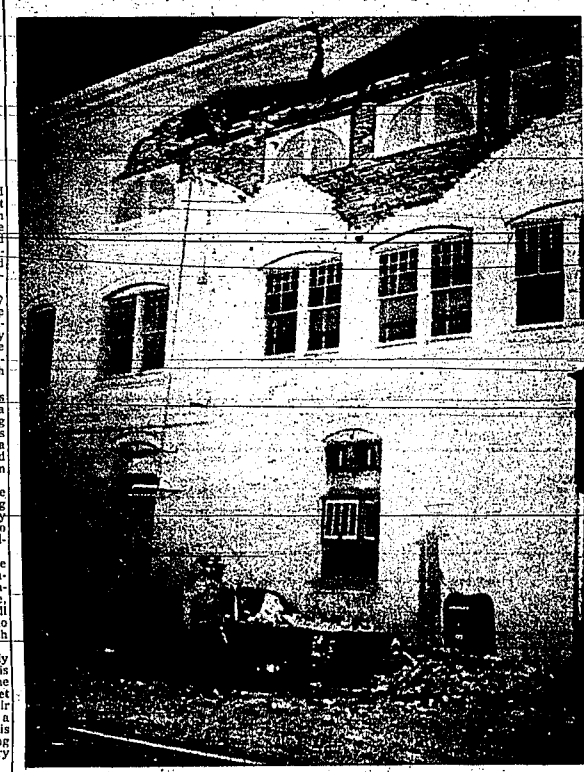

"Seldom in history has there been in any diplomatic notice extreme and so calculated to make any progress impossible," Lodge said.

Lodge rechecked his broadside at a reaffirmed North Vietnamese and Viet Cong determination to achieve the complete, unconditional withdrawal of all U.S. troops and their refusal to hold direct political talks with Saigon.

Addressing the 36th weekly session of the deadlocked Paris peace talks Lodge said the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong sought, through their inflexible attitude, to achieve a total victory at the Paris negotiating table after being unable to score a total victory on the battlefield.

Lodge urged North Vietnamese deputy chief negotiator Col. Ha Van Lau and the Viet Cong's Foreign Minister Mme. Nguyen Thi Binh to consider Nixon's peace proposals calling for free, internationally controlled elections with the participation of all parties and groups.

Series Of Quakes Rock North California Area

A POLICE OFFICER patrols an area by the Miramar Tavern in Santa Rosa, Calif., where a section of wall collapsed after a series of rolling earthquakes. The brick tumbled down onto the street and on a parked car below. The area is cordoned off because of fear the rest of the wall will collapse. (UPI telephoto)

Temblors Are Sharpest In Eight Years

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (UPI)—The sharpest earthquakes to hit northern California in eight years injured 15 persons and caused damage Wednesday night estimated in thousands of dollars.

The major temblors were recorded at 8:52 p.m. and 11:30 p.m.—and were centered near Santa Rosa, about 50 miles north of San Francisco. Although the University of California seismology station said they registered 5.8 and 5.3 on the Richter Scale, only the first one caused damage. One man was badly hurt in Santa Rosa by broken glass and another had a broken leg. The others were treated here for minor cuts and shock. Hospitals quickly mobilized to handle a heavy load of injured, but relaxed when only a few persons showed up. Broken glass and power lines accounted for most of the damage.

In San Francisco, Dorothy Kirsten and Luciano Tavarotti were singing "La Boheme" when the San Francisco Opera House began to shake.

The two stars stopped singing and the audience gasped as the building began to tremble. A few persons headed for the exits, but most of the opera fans remained seated.

Then, after a silence of about 20 seconds, the audience began to applaud and the singers resumed.

The quakes were unusually long-lasting and rattled buildings for as long as 30 seconds in some areas. But scene of the worst damage was Santa Rosa, where almost all phone lines were out for hours.

A 20-block area of downtown Santa Rosa was quickly blocked off by police because of the danger of broken glass from hundreds of store windows. Rosenberg's Department Store and Sears, Roebuck & Co. reported some looting, but most of the California Highway Patrol quickly stepped in.

Police, sheriff's deputies, highway patrol officers, armed with shotguns, patrolled downtown and outlying shopping areas. Downtown was expected to be closed until late today.

Perhaps two dozen persons were being housed in emergency quarters. One house collapsed and others were severely damaged.

Police called in several areas, including the police station, but was restored within a hour. Traffic was snarled by blacked out streets. Santa Rosa, most damaged area, had a total of an occasional broken window and items crashing off shelves. The shocks were felt as far away as Sacramento, 200 miles from Santa Rosa.

Agreement Inked

BOON (UPI)—Foreign Minister Willy Brandt and the Free Democrats signed an agreement today on policy issues and cabinet assignments that dominated Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger's desperate bid to remain in power.

Helmut Kuhn, a key member of Brandt's Social Democratic party negotiating team, predicted "the new government will be ready by Friday."

The committee delayed a vote on the nomination for the Supreme Court with an empty seat Monday at his fall session. Monday, the committee agreed the judge should supply them to clear the air.

There was an unconfirmed, though unreported, when the fight against the justice nomination of former Justice Abe Fortas, also had asked Nixon to pull back the nomination.

Another Senate Republican, a member of the committee, said he sensed "a growing resentment" against Nixon's nomination of another GOP lawmaker, from the Midwest, said his mail

The sharp drop in deaths—135 GIs were killed during the previous week—reflected the decreasing level of ground fighting, now at its lowest point since a Communist mass fire in "one flareup today," U.S. Army troops bent off a North Vietnamese attack against their camp last below the Demilitarized Zone, killing 12 Hanoi soldiers. One American was reported killed and 71 wounded. A total of 1,315 American troops wounded last week, 77 of whom required hospitalization, military spokesman said. This was an increase of 201 wounded over the previous week.

Haynsworth Asked To Supply Records

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Judiciary Committee has asked Clement F. Haynsworth, Jr., to supply a record of his stock market dealings, amid fresh Republican opposition, including a demand from one GOP senator President Nixon withdraw the Supreme Court nomination.

The committee delayed a vote on the nomination for the Supreme Court with an empty seat Monday at his fall session. Monday, the committee agreed the judge should supply them to clear the air.

The proof Bayh wants is that Haynsworth never sat on any financial links with the litigation. The judge has already conceded he bought stock in one company—the Brunswick Corp.—while a case involving the company was before him. He contended it was an accident.

Haynsworth also ruled in favor of the Dorrington-Milken textile chain in a labor case while a pending machine company in which he was a one-seventh owner about $100,000 worth of business a year with mills owned by the chain.

Legislative Unit Suggests Plan For Constitution Vote

BOISE (UPI)—A Legislative interim committee today recommended a proposed new state constitution be put before the voters in a single poll, with ratification at next year's general election.

With only Rep. Wayne Tibbitts, D-Lazono, voting against the motion, the interim committee today recommended the action be taken. Tibbitts said the action was a "legislative" procedure. He said the committee had a five vice president of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce, said his directors had doubts about legality of the procedure under the present constitution. On behalf of the chamber, he recommended the document be revised piecemeal year by year. He said his directors felt plac-

Murder Case Goes To Jury

RUPERT—The defense has rested its case in the first degree murder trial of James E. Murphy, 40, and it is anticipated the case might go to the jury sometime today.

The trial started last week before Judge Sherman Bellwood in Rupert's Fifth District Court. Wednesday Mr. Murphy testified that a 30.06 rifle accidentally discharged, causing a fatal wound to his stepson—Darryl Hunter, 24. The shooting happened last Oct. 18 at the Murphy home.

The defense called 31 witnesses, most of them character witnesses. On Wednesday afternoon two men testified about a month of practice required to pull the trigger of the weapon.

Mr. Murphy said earlier he had not shot the 20.06 before. Summons to the jury will be read.

Cardiovascular Program Held Here

Voluntary efforts to keep their own professional standing as high as possible provided Magic Valley doctors, nurses, dentists, and electronics equipment technicians with latest information and techniques during a two-day review in Twin Falls Tuesday and Wednesday.

The cardiovascular review program, sponsored by the Intermountain Regional Medical Program, was conducted at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital for some 35 doctors and about the same number of nurses and specialists.

This is one of several such programs held in the Intermountain region each year to keep doctors abreast of latest techniques, diagnosis and treatment.

Dr. Joseph Thorne, cardiologist, University of Utah Medical Center; Dr. Hyrum Marshall, Holy Cross Hospital, Salt Lake City; Don Lindsay, D.D.S.; Lynn Ford and Jean Osborn, registered nurses, and Sister E.Rae, registered nurse, all Salt Lake City, were members of the faculty for the two-day session.

The purpose, Dr. Thorne said, is to review coronary and cardiac disease, diagnosis and treatment with area doctors. Through the workshop type staff, were schooled in care of heart patients, especially in cardiac arrhythmias or abnormal heart movement. Through such programs, she said, nurses receive valuable information and training that helps them recognize a heart disease and complications and thus reduce the number of deaths.

"Monitoring equipment" was demonstrated and discussed during sessions of the electronic equipment technicians. Faculty members for this session included Robert P. Carleton, and William C. Walker, both Salt Lake City.

Dean Simon Resigns College Of Business Post At ISU

POCATELLO (ISU)—Dr. Alex J. Simon, dean of the Idaho State University College of Business and director of the Bureau of Business Research, has announced his decision to resign effective not later than June 30, 1970.

Dr. Simon, who was hospitalized for treatment of an ulcer in February, said he finds less satisfaction in the pressures of administrative work than in teaching. He said he has not completely recovered from the health problem caused by the ulcer.

"After countless hours of deliberation and many sleepless nights, my wife and I have decided I should return to full-time teaching," Dr. Simon said. He emphasized he will work with a new dean if one is hired to start the second semester in February. He also said he will teach at ISU the second semester if a new dean is hired in time. Dean Simon said he has not yet decided where he will teach after the end of the school year.

Dr. Simon taught at the University of Southern California, University of Oklahoma, University of Southwestern Louisiana and the University of Colorado before coming to ISU as dean of the College of Business in July, 1958. He has an extensive experience in industry.

Water Board Views Plan Formation

BOISE (UPI)—G. E. Van Santen told the Idaho Water Resource Board Wednesday the "framework plan formulation for water and related resource development" should consider development, preservation, and well-being of people.

Dr. Robert Lee, director of the Idaho Water Resource Board, said the plan was a framework for federal investment in the Northwest. He said the water board is sharing the plan formulation for Idaho.

Van Santen, interior representative for the Columbia-North Pacific technical staff in "Fancy" Wash., said the plan would look toward providing "the best use, or combination of uses of water and related land resources to meet all foreseeable short and long-term needs."

Van Santen said the studies would be joint federal-state efforts covering all geographic areas in the region and all purposes that can be served by water, including development and use of water and related land resources.

He said as his objectives, the plan would be based on: Economic efficiency, or maximization of social and economic return to the land-water and related resources.

Regional development, or attainment of a desired pattern of regional income of development.

And environmental quality, or maintenance or improvement of the region's environment.

Van Santen said overall direction and guidance of the plan formulation effort will be provided by the Pacific Northwest River Basins Commission.

Task forces for the plan are located in Montana, Washington, Idaho and Oregon and each task force is expected to develop framework plans for their assigned areas. This, he said, "will include summarizing subregional needs, analyzing available resources, formulating plans and identifying unmet needs."

Van Santen said the plans require calls for an inventory of existing water and related land resources; projected needs by 1980, 2000, and an inventory of existing and potential resources; a determination of needs for the target dates; formulation of alternative plans for meeting the needs; and evaluation of alternatives to arrive at the framework plan.

Brigham Young's Auditorium Became Reality In 15 Years

BY GLEN LEONARD SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—Brigham Young once envisioned an oval auditorium big enough to seat all who met for general conferences of the Mormon Church.

That was in 1862. Five years later, in October members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints met in the new Tabernacle for the first time.

The sandstone-pillared building, now 102 years old, again will be the scene of conference activities this weekend. The opening message of President David O. McKay will be read at the first session of the 139th Semi-Annual gathering of the church Friday at 10 a.m. Morning and afternoon sessions are scheduled daily through Sunday.

As all know who make conference attendance a regular habit, public seating in the Tabernacle is available only in the early corners. Brigham Young had hoped to seat all who wanted to attend.

When he directed planning for the new oval building more than a century ago, conferences in Temple Square had already outgrown three boweries, one several decades ago adopted the use of radio and more recently have used television to carry the proceedings into the homes of members.

A spokesman says color television coverage will be provided for the third year. A church-owned short-wave radio station will relay sermons to Europe, Africa and Latin America in four languages and additional service to Europe will be provided with cable hook-ups.

The Peace Effort

It is a strange and frustrating war we are fighting halfway around the world — and here at home. We all want American troops home. We all want peace. The real question is: Can we improve our hopes for peace by just pulling out and leaving the communists to pick up the pieces?

President Johnson didn't think so and President Nixon doesn't think so. Now Nixon confronted by a spate of calls to bring the boys home, has announced another and larger reduction of our forces in Vietnam.

Only two days earlier, Senator Mike Mansfield, Democratic majority leader, said the President by ordering resumption of bomber attacks on the enemy forces in south Vietnam had damaged peace prospects.

Hubert H. Humphrey, defeated Democratic nominee for President, says the only way out is for the South Vietnamese to face the "political realities" — that is, either strengthen their government or make a deal with the communists. This sounds a lot like what Senators McGovern and Fulbright have been saying all along — just get out of Vietnam and we'll have peace.

Any more concessions, says General Ky, South Vietnamese chief of state, would bring an immediate military takeover of the government, Ky said he had told President Johnson.

MR. SPECTATOR

That Big Border Jam

In one of the few times in the history of the two countries, the border separating Mexico and the United States has been effectively blocked off. Travel is still permitted from one country to the other, but many wish they hadn't bothered.

Delays of as long as 10 hours have been reported as a result of the U.S. government's crackdown on illegal aliens crossing the border. Mexico is one of the prime sources for marijuana and other drugs which show up in American cities; and if there is to be any gain in the fight against growing drug addiction and usage, the supplies must be cut off.

There is little chance of catching many of the smugglers in the current close scrutiny of every person and vehicle crossing the Rio Grande.

Customs officials was quoted as saying drug peddlers would have to be exceptionally stupid to venture across now.

What, then, is the purpose of harassing thousands of legitimate travelers, disrupting the tourist trade and annoying legitimate persons in the bargain? The tactic seems to be to make drugs on the underground market so expensive users will voluntarily quit because they can't afford the habit.

The executive branch's desperation to meet its need to cut the tide of increasingly available supplies of marijuana and other drugs being fed to the young people of the U.S., "Pot" and all the rest of the sordid mind distorcers can be found in every American city and on most campuses. In recent years it has found its way increasingly into high schools as well.

Perhaps a more cooperative attitude on the part of the Mexican government could have prevented the miles-long lines now formed at border points. One of the problems with drug importation into the United States has been the reluctance of the country or countries of origin to do much about it. Some — Mexico is not the only supplier — seem to have the attitude that reaping dollars for the home economy is more important than the destruction which follows in the wake of illicit drugs.

That being the case, the situation which now exists on the Mexican border is not unwarranted, however lamentable it may be.

WILSON APPROACH

The attitude of high school administrators who met recently in New Jersey under sponsorship of the State Department of Education was to long for the days when Volcan were heard calling for more freedom for students. Other thought grading and marking systems should be abolished. And more of the same.

If there were any calls for a return to discipline and self-restraint, they went unheeded. Certainly such views of frustration and futility should not be permitted to carry over into the nuts and bolts of day to day administration, in New Jersey or elsewhere.

WASHINGTON — There will soon be another Gen. George S. Patton in the U.S. Army. He is George IV, son of the illustrious World War II battle commander who led victorious armies in Africa, Sicily and in history-making blitz sweeps through France and Germany. George IV is 30th on a list of 64 outstanding regular army colonels selected for promotion to brigadier general. He will get his star by the end of the year. Like his father, Patton, his elevation by exceptional valor and combat leadership. He has three distinguished service crosses — the second highest decoration for extraordinary courage and competence under fire.

The first DSC was won by Patton in Korea as a young captain, commanding a tank company. Ordered to hold a key hill, he dug his tanks into the gun turrets and for days fought off waves of screaming Communist Chinese and North Korean attackers. The other two DSC were awarded in Vietnam for equally striking feats as commander of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

This was Patton's second tour of duty in Vietnam. The first was as a major on the staff of Gen. Paul Harkins, then U.S. commander there.

Patton carried his latest Vietnam service in characteristic manner.

Upon returning to the U.S. last spring, he asked for training as a helicopter pilot — although 47 years old and a colonel. His request was granted and he was sent to Fort Worth, Texas, where he completed the regular three-month course, soloed and was given his wings as a "chopper" pilot. To friends he explained, "The helicopter is now an essential component of the Vietnam war. I had more than 50 of them in my command about half a year ago. As a combat commander, I consider it a very important part of the war, including operating it, the same as I do about running and fighting tanks and doing whatever else I can do. That is why I asked for this flying training. I didn't consider my age an obstacle in any way."

A 1945 West Point graduate, Patton's military career is in keeping with a family tradition going back generations. Four of his Virginia ancestors were Revolutionary War officers. A great grandfather and a great granduncle were killed in action. The latter, Tazewell Patton, a captain in an American battalion of Pickett's division and was slain in the ill-fated frontal charge at Gettysburg. Two other great granduncles were wounded in other battles.

Patton is married to a retired general's daughter and they have several children.

Preliminary intelligence evaluations indicate the Marxist oriented Students for a Democratic Society didn't get far the past summer with their so-called "work-in" program to create a base for a workers' student revolutionary alliance in this factory-infiltration scheme was a bust.

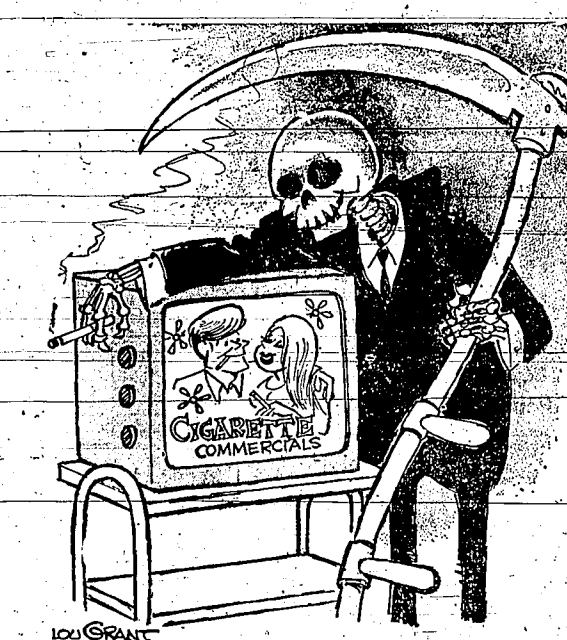

Fewer SDS seats were recorded than hoped for. The goal was 1,000, but not more than several hundred actually took part.

Factory and other workers were more interested in sports and similar topics than in talking about politics and issues, particularly of a radical ideological nature.

The SDS would be preservers were so exhausted by the strenuous work in the factories and mills that they were too tired to engage in agitation at night meetings and on weekends.

SDS officials are tight-mouthed about the results of their radical project. This in-

ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT NOVAK

OEO's Holdover Revolutionaries

WASHINGTON — Without the knowledge and against the wishes of their Nixon-appointed successors — poverty program bureaucrats — a manual listing demonstrations, economic boycotts and, ultimately, violence as legitimate weapons of the poor.

The manual, which despite lack of official sanction is now circulating through the network of local Community Action groups, merely puts in writing what is reality in the field. Regional officials of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) have been prodding local Community Action leaders — many of them public-spirited, middle-class professional men — to stir up the poor in revolt against the establishment. The fact that this violates the clear orders of Donald Rumsfeld, OEO's new director, has proved no inhibition.

Thus, the 37-year-old Rumsfeld, who surrendered a safe Congressional seat from Illinois to the government in most battles, has found some managers have the uncanny knack of consistently making "wrong" decisions which prove to be right, while others make all the "right" moves, which later turn out to be wrong.

Now all budding managers need do is discover how one acquires this asset called ESP. Mihalansky was vague on this point, but presumably one could deliberately make illogical decisions. Some of them are bound to turn out right.

WONDERS THAT WERE

Funny thing, but ever since the Army's Corps of Engineers cut the American side of Niagara Falls down to a trickle in order to study its crumbling rock structure, slight changes have been more numerous than ever.

This may be the answer to conservatism which warns of what will happen when the population reaches its three hundred million (as it will in a short 30 years) — the overtaxed park and recreation facilities, the crowds, crowds, crowds at every natural wonder.

Asthma Cure

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My son, 19, has been greatly troubled with watery eye, sneezing nose, and a terrible cough. Now he has developed asthma. He has been to three doctors, the last an allergy specialist.

Test for ordinary household substances showed up negative. He has taken a lot of medication which has helped him greatly, and he does not feel that the solution, and would like to cure his condition or at least find out what he has. Can you help us with a suggestion? — H. H. Sticks

I don't know how much I can help, but I can give what I believe to be solid advice. Allergy, as you have gathered, is the basis of most asthma in young people. "Curing" allergy, and thus stopping the asthma, is not an easy matter. The fact that the tests for the usual allergic substances cause his allergic responses doesn't mean that you should give up trying to find the answer.

A Look-Alike

WASHINGTON — I have been looking at the new men's fashions with interest; but no matter what they tell me, I'm not having thought on that. You see, I happen to be out of those unfortunate souls who have persuaded a few years back that the hair suit was the wave of the future.

Little did I realize that the Nehru would become a man's tailoring what the Edsel became to automobiles.

Nehru — knows how many Nehru suits were actually sold during that period, mainly because very few men will admit now to having bought one. That's what I mean by a "look-alike" — one who is attracted to the Nehru suit, but who is not a Nehru suit owner.

Most of the Nehru suits sold were worn only once. The laughter, wisecracks and sneaking that greeted the wearer when he appeared in public drove him back to the dark depths of his closet where he hid until the ridicule had subsided.

The record recent for wearing a Nehru suit is held by Robert Younkman of Lakewood, Conn. Younkman wore his suit three times — once to a college reunion, once to dinner with his in-laws and once to a job football game.

He was cited for bravery by the men's clothing industry and his suit was given to the Smithsonian Institution where it now hangs next to Lincoln's "Spirit of St. Louis."

Pamphlets On Shelters Being Mailed

Residents of six counties in Magic Valley will be receiving folders in the mail containing information about where to go and what to do in event of nuclear emergency.
 Charles M. Rountree, director of the Idaho State office of Disaster Relief and Civil Defense, said the Civil Defense Individual Household Community Shelter Plan pamphlets are aimed to provide information which will assure the survival of virtually all citizens from the threat of lethal gamma ray radiation from fallout produced by nuclear explosions.
 Civil defense officials believe that we do have the ability to survive nuclear war as communities and a nation, contrast to the hopeless attitude expressed by some people.
 The Community Shelter Plan folders provide each family with basic knowledge and suggestions indicating proper response to this emergency.
 Everyone is urged to read carefully and keep it handy. The pamphlets are the result of several months' work by local officials, civil defense committees and the state civil defense staff. Funds for the project are supplied by the Federal Office of Civil Defense.
 Counties and their civil defense chairmen include: Cassia, Paul Cox; Cassia, Lyman Martindale; Gooding, Bill Bunn; Jerome, Donald M. Jacobson; Lincoln, Reid E. Newby; and Minidoka, George Faulkner.
 Anyone not receiving a folder should contact his local Civil Defense office.

Buhl Farmer Terms Parity Program As "Pie In Sky" Operation; Sees Danger

(Editor's Note: The following article was written by Cecil Calhoun, Buhl area farmer and publisher of the "Times-News" a public service.)

By CECIL CALHOUN

Parity, defined by Mr. Webster as "the state of being equal in value or importance," is the equivalence between farmers' current purchasing power and their purchasing power at any given period. First brought into political usage following the collapse of farm prices after World War I, and today defined as the most politically proscribed word in the English language. Used flippily by politicians in election years to share the sucker's vote. The million-dollar word has been "had" would make Julia Bulette, the famous crib girl of Virginia City, or the white rat of the Yukon turn green with envy.

Lyndon B. Johnson, campaigning in 1964 declared before a group of farmers that "the farmers of this country will be guaranteed 100 per cent of parity. I do not mean 75 or 85 or 95 per cent. I mean 100 per cent or more." After Mr. Johnson's election the parity index of farm commodities dropped to the low point. Zealan, D. Roosevelt's third year in office, the index is still 74 per cent of that mirage spellbinders seeking political office have dangled before us since that fateful day in 1929 when this country awakened to the dull thud of bodies striking the pavement. Speculators and stock brokers paid their debts to society and their bankers.

The question here is, how long will the local yokels stand with mouth agape and listen to the siren song of miraculous programs that will make every farmer a king? Let us assume that every farmer awakened tomorrow and found the product of his land worth exactly 100 per cent of today's domestic parity.

No need to scrounge around for a favorable crop. No need to hold for better prices. No worry about repair bills on the tractor or on the wife. No need to delay buying as next year's crop would be guaranteed as to market. Just how long do you think this Utopia would last?

With wheat selling at $1.17 and bread at .25 to .31 cents a pound; beans at $6.50 per hundredweight; and corn at $1.00 (depending on the town) to the consumer; prime beef grossing the feeder $28.75 to $30.75, dressed carcasses selling at 58 cents per pound (Chicago) and retailing at from 89 cents to $1.79 and served at restaurants in that city at $7.50 per eight-ounce serving for good cuts and more for watered and filled hamburger.

Parity on wheat today is $3.06 and on beans $12.87. This miracle of parity would last only until the farmers and industrialists would quell the food riots and the government restore stability at the market place. Then the taxpayer would rebel at subsidizing the tables of rich and poor alike and all hell would break loose again.

"For much too long the farmers of America have subsidized the tables of the world. In order to maintain 74 per cent of parity based on 1910 to 1912 base figures, we must export the production of one out of four acres and for eight major crops we export one third to two thirds of total production. This excess production is subsidized into foreign markets by low prices to farmers and tax dollars taken from the public. This intricate system is known as trade balances and would collapse overnight if the American farmer received 100 per cent of modern parity.

A good illustration of the forces that have attacked the government and invested interests alike against any segment of agriculture that achieved a semblance of that miracle of agriculture known as "parity" was aptly illustrated when livestock prices peaked at 100 per cent of parity in the first half of 1969. Market operators organized consumer protests. Housewives called in television for publicizing their marching and picketing. The Department of Agriculture issued annual statistics to discourage speculation in the futures market. Millions of pounds of foreign meats imports rose 88 per cent over a like period in 1968. The 1967 quota of 98 million pounds cannot be invoked until one billion, eighty million pounds have been admitted.

In 1967, 19 foreign nations shipped meat into the United States. Today 40 nations are shipping their products with only 14 inspectors checking them. They do not certify that the meat is wholesome, only that the plant is capable of meeting U.S. standards. There is no inspection at unloading points. In 1968, 1,188 foreign plants; a billion pounds of meat and 71 inspectors. Processed meats are entered without any certification and are not counted in import quotas.

Even the contents of dog and cat foods are inspected in many of our states; and in 2,000 Federally approved plants we have nearly 500 inspectors. I suggest you trade places with your dog at the meat counter. That is if you like imported meat.

According to the Wall Street Journal a special block will be opened on the Board of Trade for speculation. In bonded New Zealand and Australian meats should every farm program be dropped tomorrow there would be no cut on federal expenditures. Room would be made on the thousands of "study" committees, planning, feasibility, coordination nutritional surveys, etc. etc. ad-infinitum, that are today a more dignified form of welfare. The open field today is the study of poverty and nutritional problems of the poor. But did you ever see a member of these committees who bleed so profusely in the press and on television, who were not slow only fat and dressed to the teeth? These groups number thousands and to all constructive purposes are themselves on welfare.

All this may seem to have little to do with parity in agriculture. The fact is that this horde of free loaders are belaboring a horse that is near death. Parity, or shall we say a decent return on investment, today and tomorrow rests, not on politics or the politically oriented Dept. of Agriculture, but on sound management and a banker who will work closely with the capable men to develop the full potential of their holdings. A good farmer has been forced out by deficit financing and farm programs that promised much and paid little.

The "day of reckoning" is only postponed; yet the politicians promote the fantasy of parity, and farmers cling to a dream of saving something called the family farm.

Few young farm people are bucking the game that paid their parents so small a wage, and as age takes its toll and family holdings become an estate, the large operator or the corporation seeking a tax haven takes over. But as farmers become fewer the Department of Agriculture stands and a few methods of controlling a market are developed. We now have an employee in that department for every seven farmers. Three housand publicists devote their time to issuing press releases. "Washington" is filled with comparative few large operators or corporate farms depend on this information. They have their own accountants, statisticians and computer services. They command financial backing on interest rates and repayment plans beyond the dreams of small operators. And so they reap the lions' share of a very large program.

An old and truthful saying is "No matter how high the throne he still sits on his bottom." This is true of too many of our older farmers—our organizations and our bankers.

Washington (UPI) — The general counsel of the Treasury Department has urged the House Banking and Currency Committee to approve legislation authorizing the minting of silver dollars bearing the likeness of late President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Paul W. Edgars also urged approval of the bill's other provisions authorizing a silver dollar and permitting the Treasury to sell to the public at more than their face value the fatal shooting of a Las Vegas gunman following a traffic dispute last Aug. 15.

Report Given On Magic Reservoir

SHOSHONE — Magic Reservoir this week contained 90,000 acre feet of water, reports Leon Griev, manager of the Big Wood Canal Co. Last year at this time it contained only 38,200 acre feet.

Water will be turned off at Magic Sunday morning. American Falls water will be turned off at Milner for the Milner-Gooding project. Oct. 9, water will run another day from Shoshone down. Stock water will be left in the Milner Gooding area.

Edgars said the administration wants to make dollar and half-dollar coins of the same copper-nickel combination now used for dimes and quarters.

Armed Forces Members Can Join In Political Activities

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Defense Department ruled Wednesday that members of the armed forces can display political stickers and join political clubs but can't serve as club officers or march in political parades.

The regulations were in a lengthy directive signed by Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard spelling out in detail the extent members of the Army, Navy and Air Force can take part in politics.

The Army banned political stickers on the private automobiles of members of the service early this year and then withdrew the ban when it was asked as "picky" by service publications.

Packard said the new rules would not allow display of "a large political sign, banner or poster."

He ruled that members of the armed forces can "express a personal opinion on political candidates and issues, but not as a representative of the armed forces."

Service members can attend meetings of political clubs not in uniform and can write letters to the editor expressing views on public issues, "provided those views do not attempt to promote a partisan political position."

Chinatown Rally Erupts Into Violence

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An anti-Communist rally in Chinatown nearly erupted into violence Wednesday when a young man identified as Alex Fung, 20, waved a red Chinese flag.

"Get him, kill him, kill him," voices in the crowd of 400 shouted when Fung arrived with some friends and waved the banner.

Police intervened quickly to separate the small group of militants and persuaded them to stop the flag-waving.

The rally continued on the theme "memorial service for patriots killed by Chinese Communists in mainland China."

A large poster of Mao Tse-tung was burned as Dr. Dennis Wong, president of the Chinese Six Companies, shouted "Burn Mao to death, Burn Mao to death."

The incident with Fung symbolized the growing tension between the older generation as represented by the Chinese Six Companies and the young militants of the Chinatown "Red Guard" group, which has proclaimed opposition to the establishment, support for the thoughts of Mao, and backing for the Black Panthers and militant student groups.

Candidates Seeking Posts In Shoshone

SHOSHONE — A petition has been filed for Fery C. Hadlock on the ballot for the Nov. 4 municipal election here.

According to City Clerk Ruth Chess, a petition is also being circulated for signatures to nominate E. R. Werry to the post. Mr. Hadlock is the manager of First Security Bank here and Mr. Werry is a retired postmaster.

Victor Bozzuto, retiring mayor, states he has enjoyed his tenure in office but business obligations will not permit him to devote the necessary time to the office. He is owner of Shoshone Furniture Store.

Petitions are also circulated for Dr. Paul Jacobson, an incumbent, for a four year term of office; for Wilson Churchman, for a two year term; and for Frank Carothers, for a four year term, all as city councilmen. Mr. Carothers is a service station operator while Mr. Churchman is manager of Idaho Grange Co-op here.

Jordan Valley Farm Products May Perish

AMMAN, Jordan (UPI)—Millions of dollars worth of farm products on the east bank of the Jordan River Valley will perish within a month unless vital repair work can be completed on the bomb-smashed East Ghor Canal.

This is the opinion of Israeli experts who have watched acres of banana trees wither for lack of water following Israeli attacks on the $23 million U.S.-aided irrigation network.

With repair work only just started and the Jordanian season still a month away, Jordanian farmers are praying that engineers will win a race against time to save citrus groves, vegetables and seed beds.

"It could be disaster," a Jordanian official said. "We've already lost the west bank in war, now there is no war we could well lose the east bank for any use it can be to us."

Experts agree that paralyzation of the canal is the biggest south Jordanian economic problem since the June, 1967, war. An area of prolific production, it provided more than $6 million worth of fresh produce exports alone in 1967. The Yarmouk River Project, of which the canal is part, was expected eventually to increase agricultural production by about $72 million over the $100 million total production figure of 1966.

But continuous fighting in the river valley which was the legacy of the six-day war has rendered most of the project impotent.

Angered by frequent Arab guerrilla attacks against the forces in the area, the Israelis launched their first strike against the Ghor Canal last June 23, when a commando unit crossed the river and wreaked widespread damage.

Jordanian announcements at the time played down the raid; but there was no doubt the Israeli forces chose a sensitive spot.

Diplomatic reports in Amman said recently that the Jordanian government asked U.S. Ambassador Harrison Symmes to intervene with the Israelis to permit repair work to be carried out.

Last month, Israel had relented and Jordanian sources reported repair work on the canal had begun. It is a race against time.

VFW Plans To Organize Youth Group

Members of the Twin Falls Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 2136 are forming a new youth organization which will be known as the Sons of the VFW.

Commander of the local post, Ray Crandal, and John Price, Idaho public relations officer, will be at the Rogers Hotel Sunday at 1 p.m. to talk to any boys between the ages of 8 and 18 interested in joining.

To be eligible, the boys must have a father who served overseas and received an overseas campaign ribbon. The father does not have to be a member of the VFW.

Mr. Crandal said this is a national organization, supported by the VFW. "Boys are not under any obligation to join. They can come and listen Sunday and see what the organization has to offer," he said.

History Of Twin Falls Housing Authority Is Outlined By Director; Aim Is To Aid The Poor With Low-Rent Units

By FRED DODDS
Times-News Staff Writer

What is the Twin Falls Housing Authority?

Simply, it's a project to give housing to low-income individuals and families.

Larry B. Harper has been director of the project in Twin Falls since 1958 and in talking about the housing authority, Mr. Harper went back to Sept. 1, 1937 when the Housing Act became law.

Following passage of the act, construction, ownership and operation of public housing projects were undertaken by local authorities.

O. P. Duvall, a Twin Falls attorney, was instrumental in passage of Idaho legislation which opened the door for housing authorities in the Gem State.

The first meeting of the Twin Falls Housing Authority was held Jan. 11, 1940 and at that time Mr. Duvall was named chairman.

Commissioners of the project named to serve with him at that time were G. H. Thomas, H. H. Hedstrom, Eugene B. Scott and Vernis Richards.

Mr. Duvall was chairman until June of 1940 and at that time he resigned to act as attorney for the housing authority. He served in that capacity until 1958.

When Mr. Duvall resigned, U. N. Terry took his place on appointment by the then Mayor of Twin Falls, Joe Koehler. Mr. Terry will resign his post on the authority next January, after serving a term of 29 and a half years.

In the 30 years of its operation the local authority has had only three executive directors, Dale Watson, Mr. Hedstrom and Mr. Harper.

Prior to 1956, 500 families were eligible to live in low-rent projects. In the 1956 Housing Act an amendment was approved making it possible to admit as tenants in public housing single persons who were 65 or older and who were classified as low-income persons.

Mr. Harper said, "We were recognizing the need for housing for the growing elderly population and the local authority developed Sunny View Courts and Duvall Courts, 2-Sunny View. There are 30 units for the elderly with completion reached in 1953. Duvall Courts has 50 units and was finished in June of 1957. Thirty-two additional units at Duvall Courts should be finished next year, he said.

"The authority hopes the second and third awards of the Air Medal at Fairchild Air Force Base, Wash.

low-income rent housing. Of this, 207 units will house the elderly.

"This figure includes the 50-unit project in Jerome, Mr. Harper said.

The Twin Falls authority developed the Jerome project earlier this year.

The local authority has also developed a 40-unit low-rent elderly project at Buhl and this project has been open since last October.

Income limits for the elderly are $3,000 annual income with an asset limitation of $10,000. The average income of the elderly living in the projects is only $107 a month, Mr. Harper said.

The minimum rent is set at $40 a month and this includes utilities.

He said this leaves only $67 a month for groceries and other items.

"For many years Nampa and Twin Falls were the only housing authorities in Idaho, but during the past several years authorities have been formed in

WILD RIVER STATUS HAS been assigned to the major portion of the Middle Fork of the Salmon River. The portion is about 102 miles long. This is a view of the river here with advancing boatmen ready to cast off for the trip of a life time. The Middle Fork, from its origin to its mouth, has been designated as one of eight initial components of the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System. The river, except for two miles in the vicinity of Dagger Falls, is classified a wild river and will remain as such. The Dagger Falls area is part of the Scenic Rivers System. The main objective will be to maintain the natural free-flowing condition of the river, protect the water quality and maintain other scenic sights surrounding the river. The river plan will not become effective until 90 days after it has been forwarded to Congress.

Middle Fork Of Salmon River Cleared By Forest Service As A 'Wild River'

Classification for the Middle Fork of the Salmon River under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act has been cleared by the Chief of the Forest Service.

Wild River status has been assigned to the major portion—approximately 102 miles—of the Middle Fork, Scenic River status is given to about two miles in the vicinity of Dagger Falls. The Forest Service River Plan has been submitted to the Congress for review and will become effective in 90 days.

This announcement was made today by Regional Forester Floyd Iverson in Ogden, Utah.

The Middle Fork of the Salmon River, from its origin to its mouth, was designated as one of eight initial components of the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System. This designation was made by the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act. The Middle Fork is one of America's outstanding free-flowing streams and is famous among recreationists and others for its wild and scenic environment.

The Intermountain Region of the Forest Service was charged with the responsibility of determining river area boundaries, to classify the Middle Fork, or segments of the river as wild, scenic, or recreational and to program a plan of development and management.

Regional Forester Iverson outlined the manner in which the study was conducted. He said, "Earlier this year the Forest Service held three public discussion meetings in Idaho to provide people interested in the Middle Fork an opportunity to discuss and present views on the future management of this important area.

After careful consideration of all discussions and written comments received, and after an on-the-ground study of the Middle Fork area, the Forest Service has completed the River Plan. This includes the river classification, boundaries, a management objectives. The 104-mile Middle Fork has been classified as a wild river area, except for a short segment (two miles) in the vicinity of Dagger Falls, which has been classified as a scenic river area. The Dagger Falls area was classified improved campgrounds and the public road there.

Within the boundaries of the Middle Fork Salmon Wild and Scenic River area are some 32,000 acres. The main objectives in managing the river area will be to maintain the natural free-flowing condition of the river; protect water quality; protect scenic, recreational, geologic, historic, scientific, and other similar resource values; to maintain the essentially primitive conditions of the area; and to provide recreation opportunities in harmony with the wild and scenic les of the Plan are available at the offices of the Forest Supervisors of the Boise, Challis, Payette and Salmon National Forests and at the Intermountain Regional Office in Ogden.

Canning Kitchen Facilities In T. F. To Close On Oct. 10

Doors of the Twin Falls Canning Kitchen will close on Oct. 10 after a record-breaking season because of the unusually productive fruit year and increased interest in kitchen use.

Mrs. Faye Sharp, kitchen manager, said some 100,000 cans have been used by kitchen canners this year. She said there were 500 persons who paid the registration fee and used the community facilities this summer.

In announcing the annual closure, she said all persons who still have canned goods at the kitchen must pick it up by Oct. 11 at 11 a.m. or it will be sold and money will go into a fund that has been started to purchase an automatic commercial sealer.

Mrs. Sharp is serious about the order as she is anxious to adhere to the fund.

Plans were started about three weeks ago to build up a fund for purchase of the much needed but costly equipment. Although she does not have a price on the sealer it will run several thousand dollars, probably well above the $10,000 mark.

In the three weeks time, users of the kitchen contributed some $250 and three banking firms contacted have each donated $100.

These include the Twin Falls Bank and Trust, Fidelity National Bank and the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Pepsi Cola Bottling Co., has donated $40.

Mrs. Sharp said the campaign will continue until enough money is raised and she urged individuals and organizations interested in helping to contact her (Mrs. J. H. Sharp 733-3497). It is hoped the equipment can be purchased for next season's use.

les of the Plan are available at the offices of the Forest Supervisors of the Boise, Challis, Payette and Salmon National Forests and at the Intermountain Regional Office in Ogden.

International Coach of the Week for Kentucky's 20-0 victory last Saturday over Ole Miss, the team picked to win the Southeastern Conference championship.

Knocking off Mississippi was a major accomplishment in itself, but it was even more unbelievable coming on the back of Kentucky's 28-20 thrashing by Indiana Sept. 20. "We just had to redeem ourselves after that Indiana game," said Kentucky's gravel-voiced coach. "I knew we were better than we looked against Indiana."

For Ray, too, there was personal pride at stake. In five seasons as chief assistant on Ara Parseghian's coaching staff at Notre Dame, the 43-year-old onetime paratrooper built a reputation as a defensive genius. "Then along came Indiana this fall to put fresh tarnish on that reputation by running up 58 points against Ray's Kentucky forces."

"Ara called me after that Indiana game and—kiddingly asked, 'I needed my old job back.' I just replied, 'I know you sound like you're sure a new-spirit in the air at Kentucky since Ray arrived,' Rice added. "Bear Bryant era" in the early 1950's, have Kentucky fans seemed so enthusiastic, according to Rice. "The players have that enthusiasm, too."

"Before Coach Ray came, I really didn't care too much," confessed senior halfback Roger Gann, who gained 93 yards rushing against Ole Miss and ran a kickoff back 65 yards for a touchdown against Indiana. "Now that Ray is here," Gann said, "football is all I can think about. The whole scene has changed and I know the other players feel pretty much the same way."

Sizemore received a total of 500 votes from players, managers and coaches who participated in the balloting conducted by Topps Chewing Gum. Sizemore's nearest competitor, Jose Martinez of the Pittsburgh Pirates, received 43 votes.

In addition to Sizemore, the 11th annual Topps team includes first baseman Al Oliver of Pittsburgh, third baseman Coo Laboy of Montreal, shortstop Don Mosey of Philadelphia, outfielders Larry Hilde of Philadelphia, Carlos May of the Chicago White Sox, Lou Pinella of Kansas City, catcher Bob Didier of the National League Western Division champion Atlanta Braves and pitchers Bill Butler of Kansas City and Mike Nagy of the Boston Red Sox.

Headache May Be An Outlet For Anger

The person who suffers from migraine headaches may really be the victim of intense rage, and tension headache is often the result of anticipating a "stab in the back."

This is not to say that one's own headache may not have a real, physical cause. But there is psychiatric evidence and opinion to support the supposition that anger, envy, resentment are frequently if not always involved in headache.

Why, then, do headaches so often strike the mild and unaggressive person? The answer, psychiatrists and neurologists suggest, is just because they are mild and unaggressive. It isn't that they do not harbor the emotions that lead others to attack their enemies. They repress them, bottle them up, and then express them as a pain in the head or the back of the neck.

Through psychotherapy, such persons have been enabled to understand themselves and the emotions they reject, and have been helped to taper off on the drugs, on which they formerly relied.

Dr. H. H. Garner, who heads the department of psychiatry and neurology at Chicago Medical School, employs a wide variety of drugs to relieve the pain—from Gynergen and Cafegot to codeine and others—at the beginning of treating a headache patient.

But he concentrates on finding, with the patient's help the sources of the "frustration, anger, resentment, a g e r r a g e , and envy," which cause it.

In a recent medical article describing his manner of treating headaches and referring to similar experience by others, he suggests:

"Better psychotherapy" principles can be utilized with unusual results in many patients."

Vows Recited At LDS Temple

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Gaye Carlson and Keith Mill on Teuscher in double ring rites performed Aug. 28 by President Montgomery of the Idaho Falls LDS Temple.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Carlson, Twin Falls, and Bishop and Mrs. Milton Teuscher, Geneva.

The bride wore a gown fashioned with an empire-waistline, a bodice of white-bonnet lace and long chiffon sleeves accented with a skirt of silk organza over white satin. Her multi-tiered veil of illusion was held by a feathered rose and seed pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of baby orange roses and gold-colored chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor was Cindy Carlson, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Karol Teuscher, Bonnie Peterson, Susan Hunsaker, Valerie Wojcik and Ann McEwan.

Daryl Teuscher served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Nathan Adams, Mike Bindinger and Doug Bugoe, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

After the ceremony, a garden reception was held at the home of the bride where guests were greeted before a white backdrop of Roman pillars flanked by lighted chandelier arrangement of gold and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles. Large round quartet tables were covered with white chiffon and centered with lighted candles and gold and gold chrysanthemums floral arrangements.

Teresa Teuscher, sister of the bride, acted as ring bearer. Mrs. Tim Spangauer, and DEAR ABBY: My husband and I fight all the time. I have begged him to see a marriage counselor with me, but he refuses saying he doesn't need anybody to tell him how to run his life. We have three kiddies and I would have left him long ago.

I have spoken to my pastor, a marriage counselor, a lawyer, my family doctor, and I even went to a psychiatrist, thinking maybe it was my fault. They all told me they couldn't help unless my husband came in. And if he refuses to come in, I should leave.

I would like your opinion, and the opinion of some of your readers who may have had the same experience. Is it better to raise children in a home where there is no love, or in a home where there is no father? NEEDS TO KNOW

DEAR NEEDS: Some misguided wives who cling to an impossible marriage "for the sake of the children" should leave for that reason. If you have really tried, and I believe you have, I can't give you any better advice than the others.

DEAR ABBY: I am a transplanted Texan, having lived most of my life in Colorado. I like Texas, and wouldn't mind spending the rest of my life here, but I work for a company with offices spread all over the country and I have no guarantee that I won't be transferred.

I met a very nice girl here and the subject of marriage came up. She said she would marry me tomorrow if (and here is where the problem comes in) I promised her we would never move out of TEXAS.

Abby, I told her I couldn't make her that kind of promise on account of my job, and she said, yes, I could. I could refuse to leave Texas, or take a job with another company if they tried to transfer me. I've got a lot of seniority built up with this company, and I sure wouldn't want to lose it, but I really do like this little girl and don't know what to do. What do you say? JIMMY

DEAR JIMMY: I say keep looking. And don't stop until you find a girl who will gladly go through that goast.

DEAR ABBY: Is it proper for a man to show off an engagement ring to his family, friends and co-workers before presenting it to his fiancée? I thought an engagement ring was a private, almost sacred gift to be placed on a girl's finger before others viewed it.

My fiancé lives about 100 miles from here and he's coming in this weekend and bringing me the engagement ring, but I have heard (from my girl friend—who lives in his town) that his whole family and nearly half the town have already seen it.

How should I handle this situation? Should I refuse the ring? I am 24. He is 30, which is old enough to know better, wouldn't you say? ANNYOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: Your childish reaction shows you to be more in need of growing up than your fiancé. And if you would even consider refusing the ring for this petty reason, I wonder if YOU are old enough to be married.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LOUISE: Place a piece of raw beefsteak over your eyes, then place a three-inch strip of adhesive tape over your mouth.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 4000, Los Angeles, Cal. 90009, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

'RUFFING-IT' IS COSTLY LUXURY

Today's hand might well be titled, "Look before you ruff!" West opens the king of clubs against South's contract of four hearts doubled and continues with the ace. If South ruffs this trick, he is not going to make his contract but if South is alert he will simply discard his losing spade and leave West on lead.

There is no reason to make this play. That spade is a sure loser at some stage of the game. Why not lose it right away and leave West on lead?

West is left on lead; he can lead any one of three suits. His choice is unimportant since any one of the leads is a loser. If he leads a club, South wins in dummy and discards a diamond. Then he takes the diamond finesse, cashes the ace of diamonds, ruffs his last low diamond with the queen of 10 of trumps. East overruffs with the king for the third and last defensive trick.

If West shifts to a diamond or a trump at trick three, the results are the same. Just for the record, see what happens to South if he makes a mistake and ruffs the ace of clubs. He has to lead a spade, heart or diamond. Again, it doesn't really matter. He will have no way to avoid the loss of three more tricks and you can't lose four tricks and make a heart game.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠
Pass 2 ♠ Pass 4 ♠
Pass 5 ♠ Pass 7 ♠

You, South, hold:
♠ K 7 6 ♠ A 2 ♣ K Q ♣ J 8 5 3
What do you do now?
A—Bid five hearts. This tells your partner that you hold the ace. At the same time, he will know that you have a minimum opening, since you did not show this card earlier.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner continues to six diamonds. What do you do now?

Despite Contrary Opinions; Drafts Do Not Cause 'Colds'

A GOOD MAN in the 100-yard dash only touches the ground during the last 50 yards of the race. DENTISTS rate higher than bullfighters in social prestige. Or so say the pollsters. And Army captains rate higher than bullfighters. And auto repairmen rate higher than plumbers. . . . QUIETEST CITY of its size in the country is said to be Memphis, Tenn. . . . HAS LONG BEEN our Name Game man's contention that a fellow called Clarence tends to have a lively sense of humor. Take Jackie Gleason, for instance. His middle name is Clarence.

NEEDY RESEARCHERS at Baylor endorse the claim that nobody catches cold from sitting in a draft. "It's far easier for a woman than for a man to get lost. By get lost, I mean walk out on home, friends and creditors never to be heard from again. This is because women kept their names when they marry, and so many marry more than once. Nobody, not even the computer boys, can keep track of them. Nonetheless, the runaway men out-number the runaway women by 250 to 1. That is, what's good for the goose is good for the gander for a doctoral thesis maybe. The psychologists never have adequately explained why women are so much less inclined than men to turn up missing.

OVER A PERIOD of 20 years after her wedding day, a bride can be expected to "hedge" approximately 45,000 kisses on somebody or other. That "somebody or other" refers to her children, parents, brothers and sisters as well as her gentleman friend. THE CHARACTER-Up. Address mail to L. M. BOYD, in care of P.O. Battle Continues

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — A general assembly earlier this year gave women the privilege of sitting at bars in Connecticut beginning Wednesday.

But some tavernkeepers have not given up the battle to keep the fair sex away from this previously male domain. A number of them are removing bar stools since the new law makes no provision for ladies to stand at the bar.

News Of Record

Floyd Drown, Twin Falls, reported to Sheriff James Burns that a 5000 guitar was stolen from his car Sunday about 7:30 p.m. in the parking lot of the Club 88.

Mr. Drown said he was gone about 20 minutes. He left the door unlocked on the driver's side.

A motor bike was also taken from the Club 88 parking lot Sunday night. The bike belonged to Melvin Jackson. When Mr. Jackson left the Club about midnight the Sheriff Burns the bike was gone.

A warranty deed was filed by Edna F. Osmond to the state of Idaho Highway Department.

Kennedy Tragedy Brings Both Fame And Aggravation To Sleepy Martha's Vineyard

By TOM TIEDE
NEA Staff Correspondent
EDGARTOWN, Mass. (NEA) — A couple of middle-aged tourists from Boston stopped the chief of police on the street here the other morning.

"Are you Dominick Arena?" they wondered.

"We recognized you from TV."

"Can we take a picture?"

"Another nod."

"But you get a lot of this huh?"

Another smile — and a long, hopeless shrug. Indeed, Edgartown's top cop does get a lot of this. Lately, anyway. It used to be that Dominick Arena was mistaken for a local skating rink. But since July 18, when Edward Kennedy's late-night drive on nearby Chappaquiddick Island ended in disaster and explosion, the town lawyer has become a celebrity here.

Even now, months after the accident, Chief Arena is being questioned, studied, measured, followed and beseeched like a coma star.

"His mailbox is stuffed with more than 1,000 letters. His phone often rings in the middle of the morning. England wants an interview. France needs a statement. And two German writers shadow him night and day."

The officer's life has been altered. So much so, he thinks, "I doubt it'll ever be the same as before."

At least, he adds, he hopes not.

Sitting in his boxy, untidy office at city hall, Chief Arena — 39 years old, 6-foot-3, 225 pounds, former Marine, father of four — confesses he has not only learned to cope with fame, he has learned to like it.

"At the beginning of summer, who was I? Just another small-town police chief, way out here on Martha's Vineyard. Now people I don't know stop me. Old friends I'd forgotten write me. And famous people ask me for autographs. It's really exciting. I'd be a liar if I said I wasn't impressed. And, to tell the truth, I've enjoyed it a great deal."

Not that it has all been a piece of cake, he adds. The pressures have led to some "bad times." For one thing, early in the case, he got so nervous he "began having some squabbles with the wife."

For another, all through the case, he has never been able to swallow personal criticism — "especially from the crackpots, or the would-be detectives, or all those editors who have never, even so here-to-see what happened for themselves."

"But in the main, Arena feels the good of the national glare has outweighed the bad. The spotlights are hot, but they are also intoxicating. And he's not particularly anxious for the case to dim.

"Like most people, I wish the Kennedy thing hadn't happened. But since it did happen, I can't say I'm not pleased to be involved. Anybody likes to see his name in the papers. I'm no different. And after this, really, the old way of life around here is going to seem pretty dull."

Dull is an understatement. The old way of life on Martha's Vineyard is cozy. It's designed that way. And for an ambitious lawyer, days are dreary. Arena says there hasn't been a "murder or rape for decades." There was a manslaughter 45 years ago, but other than police enforcement usually consists of simple DDT — drunks, drivers and temper tantrums.

Publicly, Arena says he doesn't mind slipping back into the old rut. He says he can use the spare time. He's the center on Edgartown's amateur basketball team. And he has been neglecting his woodworking hobby.

Yet, privately, the old rut is not really for him.

"I know all this national exposure won't last forever," he says, candidly, "so I suppose I've been trying to come off as best I can while it's going on. I like the police work and I want to go as far as I can in it. So I guess if something comes out of all this — like a bigger and better position — I'll be satisfied that everything was worth it."

Pope Attacks Epidemic Of Sex Freedom

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI Wednesday deplored what he called an epidemic of sexual license in the world. He said of unbridled criticism was presenting a grave threat to human dignity.

The Pope told his weekly audience that the "animal, barbarian, and subhuman degradation" and is not worthy of being called on Christians to react against "immoral fashions in clothing, passionate sexuality, widespread pornography, promiscuity" and drug-taking.

"Eroticism, by means of promiscuity, by promiscuous pictures and drugs, assault even — the most sound and reserved circles, such as the family, the school and recreation," the Pope said.

Brooke Asks Nomination Withdrawal

By STEVE GERSTEL
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., Wednesday asked President Nixon to withdraw the nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth to the Supreme Court. He warned there might not be enough votes in the Senate to confirm the appointment.

In a letter to Nixon, Brooke said, "If there is a consensus in the Senate at the moment, I think it is the view that Judge Haynsworth is not the distinguished jurist whom the country expected to be nominated."

The Senate Judiciary Committee met Wednesday and expressed "strong concern" over a vote on the Haynsworth nomination. The 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals chief judge is believed to have, as of now, enough support to win committee approval.

But Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., said after the meeting he is being given the run-around. His efforts to get all the information he wants on Haynsworth's financial involvement and added he believed the majority of the committee sided in his efforts to get full disclosure of Haynsworth's activities.

Expressing his deep personal distress, Brooke told the President that "a sizable and growing number of Republican senators, together with a large number of Democrats, have indicated to me their inclination to oppose the nomination."

"This nomination is put to the Senate it will be extremely embarrassing to those of us who face a great conflict between our principles and our sense of obligation to you," Brooke said. "It may well be that there will be sufficient votes to deny Judge Haynsworth confirmation."

Brooke added: "Rather than to see the Senate enter another long and embittered debate on such a vital matter, with many of us obliged to voice strong criticism and others prepared to offer only the most grudging acceptance, I honestly believe that the interests of justice would best be served by withdrawal" of the nomination.

Brooke said that Haynsworth's record on civil rights issues and his business activities "raises grave questions about the wisdom of confirmation."

Wendell Sets Punt, Pass Competition

WENDELL — Bill Bunn, of Ambrose Distributing Co., will be at the Wendell Elementary Football Field at 10 a.m. Saturday to supervise practice of the Punt, Pass and Kick Competition for grade and junior high school boys 8 through 13 years of age.

The Gooding Ford Co. is furnishing footballs, tees, and tapes for Gooding County contest.

Wendell boys who wish to enter the competition should pick up an application at the Ambrose Dist. Co. Rules are listed on the application.

Mr. Bunn stated that local officials are scheduled for Oct. 11 at Gooding and that Ambrose firm will furnish transportation of Gooding for all who wish to take part.

"This contest is sponsored by Ford Dealers and the national football leagues."

Big Find

MARION, Iowa (UPI) — There is quite a bone to pick on a farm near here.

Geologists from the University of Iowa said Tuesday they are digging up the fossil remains of an ice age bison, an animal bigger than the modern American bison.

"Finding an entire skeleton is rare," said Prof. Holmes Senken, who estimates the big beast walked the Midwest 25,000 to 50,000 years ago.

Spiro Agnew Opposes Diverting Space Allocations

PASADENA (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said Wednesday he opposed diverting space funds to solve the problems of the cities because the United States must put part of its effort into the future and not all into the present.

"We will never reach the point where we have enough money to solve the problems of our cities and the people," Agnew said during a tour of Cal Tech's jet propulsion laboratory, which landed in the Rose Bowl near mariner flights past Mars. "We could forego all (space) research and still not have the needed funds. And you have to put some of your effort into the future and not all of it in the present."

Agnew, chairman of the National Space Council, said that he definitely was sticking to the goal of putting a man on Mars by the end of this century and that President Nixon had been given three alternative plans for that achievement.

Agnew, who flew here Tuesday night from Washington, landed in the Rose Bowl near the JPL Complex and was escorted on the tour by Dr. Harold Brown, president of Cal Tech, and Dr. William H. Pickering, director of JPL.

The Vice President said one of the most interesting parts of his tour was a briefing from the National Space Council, which he said was definitely was sticking to the goal of putting a man on Mars by the end of this century and that President Nixon had been given three alternative plans for that achievement.

Spain Cuts Gibraltar's Phones Off

GIBRALTAR (UPI) — Spain cut telephone service between Gibraltar and the Spanish mainland Wednesday in another move to force Britain to withdraw from the colony. The move came on the date of a United Nations deadline for British withdrawal.

The day passed without any other incident although some Spanish newspapers urged action and Spanish government sources said there were still a number of ways Spain could increase pressure to force British evacuation.

The U.N. gave Britain until today to turn Gibraltar over to Spain. Spain moved a flotilla of six-11y-ships into Gibraltar Bay for a symbolic showdown.
